Ladies, take Particular Notice.
THE REAL VELPAU FEMALE PILL.
[WARRANTED FRENCH.]
THESE PILLS are the celebrated many years used in Paris for the relief of female troubles, and put invented and established for their criminal employment in the practice of medicine, and are recommended by the first men in medicine, they have been kept in private practice for the fact that the originator, Dr. Velpau, is a physician in Paris of great celebrity, and the medical profession generally, and has withheld them from general sale, but has been prevailed upon for unlawful purposes. In overcoming female obstructions, no matter from what cause, whether Green Sickness, Suppression, Retention, or Immoderate Flows, at any period of pregnancy, they are even to be truly astonishing, bringing open, the blood, pure as from whatever cause may have stopped them; but they are offered to the public only for legitimate purposes, and all persons are forbidden to sell them when it is understood that the object sought is unlawful. Married ladies should never take them when there is any chance to believe themselves pregnant, for they will be sure to produce a miscarriage.
These pills are entirely now under all circumstances, being compounded entirely of substances perfectly vegetable in nature.
Each box has the seal of arms for the City of Paris stamped on the box, with the world of Velpau, and a French signature on each box, without which none are genuine. Price Dollars each pill and full directions accompany every box.
Ladies can obtain a box sealed from the eyes of the curious, by inclosing the Dollar bill and stating their age, or any respectable druggist, or sent by the Agents, Gaylord Brothers, Sole Agents for the United States, Watertown, N. Y.

NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

RAHWAY, THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1865.

NOTICES.

The President by proclamation has appointed THURSDAY, the FIRST day of JUNE next, to be observed wherever in the United States, as a day of humiliation and mourning on account of the death of the late Chief Magistrate of the Nation.

The Governor, Joel Parker, Governor of the State of New Jersey, hereby recommend that the people of the State, [illegible] in their usual places of public worship [illegible] to observe the day as a special day of humiliation and prayer.

Given under my hand and privy seal at Trenton, this twenty-[illegible] day of May, A.D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

JOEL PARKER.

[illegible], Private Sec'y.

The examination of the witnesses in the conspiracy trial is not yet concluded.

Gold has been higher [illegible] the past week, closing at 137 1-2 on Tuesday evening.

The Republican State Convention for the nomination of a candidate for Governor has been called for Thursday, the 20th of July.

The Belvidere [illegible] mentions the name of Hon. John [illegible] [illegible] as a nominee for Governor.

[illegible] Republicans [illegible] [illegible] Legislature have [illegible] amendment to the State Constitution, by which it is proposed to allow negroes to vote. [illegible] pie for decision.

The President in reply to a delegation [illegible] that the question of negro suffrage should be left to the decision of the white voters of the respective States. [illegible] additional proof that the President intends to uphold the doctrines held by him in the past.

Mr. [illegible] announces that although slavery is as good as finished, yet his mission is not ended. He proposes now to take the field as a lecturer against the religious faith of the [illegible] churches, and in [illegible] of [illegible] doctrines.

In his reply to the [illegible] delegation, President Johnson said: "Now permit me to remark that while I have opposed dissolution and disintegration on the one hand, on the other I am equally opposed to consolidation or the centralization of power in the hands of a few."

The New York [illegible] some days since suggested a plan for paying off the national debt immediately and without taxation. The plan was to divide the debt, which [illegible] at three thousand millions of dollars, into one hundred and fifty [illegible] shares of twenty thousand dollars each. This plan has been responded to by the subscription of many of our millionaires to the fund, which, up to Tuesday night, had reached to about $2,000,000.

"The army will be reduced to 150,000 men, and this corps will be composed of the most deserving officers and privates."

So says a Republican paper; and as one-half of this army is to be negro troops of course the negro is the most deserving in the eyes of the Republicans.

Separate bills of indictment have been found by the Grand Jury against Jefferson Davis and John C. Breckinridge for high treason. District Attorney Carlisle [illegible] the fact in court, and a bench warrant was issued in the case of Breckinridge, who is still at large. Davis will be brought before the court and arraigned within a few days.

The New York [illegible] gives the full account of a horrible murder committed in Kentucky by a negro soldier.

A United States Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue named Thomas C. McGrath, was killed at Shelbyville, Shelby county, Ky., on Friday, May 19, by a negro [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and returning shot McGrath dead.

The correspondent [illegible] writes: "In Thomas C. McGrath we have lost one of our most useful citizens." He has always been a Union man, who is the same [illegible] with the other man alone [illegible] [illegible]. So his murderer has not even the miserable pretext that his victim was disloyal.

This is one of the results of negro freedom.

The number of bales of cotton burned by the rebels at Montgomery, Alabama, was 95,000.

OUR NEXT STATE ELECTION.—The abolition-republicans of the State have taken time by the forelock, and have already issued their call for a State Convention for the nomination of a candidate for Governor, to be voted for in November next. This early action is probably in response to the necessity felt by the Republican press for organization [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] will be remainder [illegible] we do not believe [illegible] with any expectation of the [illegible] knowing politicians of the election. To be sure they will make a desperate effort, but their failure to carry the State last fall, when they combined so many influences to that end [illegible] at the time, that they are in a hopeless minority in New Jersey. [illegible] the Democracy [illegible] the people as a party [illegible] most prominent and influential leaders [illegible] [illegible] the popular sentiment of the State. The Convention may deem it expedient to ignore the question, but silence will indicate nothing, for experience has proved that the Republican party [illegible] and [illegible] its schemes and purposes. The Democracy will go into the contest as heretofore, as the upholders and defenders of the Constitution and the system of government it created, and opposed to the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the State have only to be true to themselves to give the people a good, [illegible] and to continue an economical government, in order to preserve their ascendancy in the State.

After weeks and months of confinement in the bastiles of the Government, the prisoners sentenced to imprisonment by court martial have been released. President Johnson has exercised his authority [illegible] [illegible]. Every lover of justice through the people, without distinction of party, will heartily thank the Executive. The following is the order of the President:

WASHINGTON, May 27, 1865.

The following order has just been issued from the War Department:

That in all cases of sentence by military tribunals of imprisonment during the war, the sentence be remitted, and that the prisoners be discharged.

The Adjutant General will issue immediately the necessary instructions to carry this order into effect.

By order of the President:

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

AN ABOLITIONIST ON THE ASSASSINATION.—In the report of a speech delivered at Lima, Ohio, by one Rev. Mr. Mercer, the day after the assassination, we find the following passage:

"I had noticed by the papers for a week or ten days prior to the assassination, that Mr. Lincoln was adopting and pursuing a policy that would eventually bring those scoundrels down South back, and give them again the right of suffrage, and when I heard of the assassination, I just thought to myself that God, in His inscrutable Providence, had taken him (Lincoln) off just about the right time."

Here is another proof that there are among the abolition fanatics men who preferred that Mr. Lincoln should be assassinated.

THE INCOME RETURNS.—It is a mistake to imagine that because a person's income does not actually exceed the amount authorized by law, he need make no returns. A knowledge of this fact will prove a benefit to those so who have received blanks, but who have not supposed it necessary to return them with the requisite statement. Every one has received a blank, no matter what may be the amount of his income, or even if, in fact, he have no income at all, must make a return with this blank before the time has expired, or he will be assessed by the District Assessor to the amount he may deem proper, the law allowing no appeal from his [illegible].

Surrender of Kirby Smith.

Secretary Stanton telegraphed the following dispatch to Gen. Dix on the 27th: To Maj. Gen. Dix:

A dispatch from Gen. Canby, dated at New Orleans, yesterday, the 26th inst., states that arrangements for the surrender of the Confederate forces in the Trans-Mississippi Department have been agreed upon. They include the men and material of the army and navy.

EDWIN M. STANTON,
Secretary of War.

From this it would seem that Kirby Smith and all the forces west of the Mississippi have laid down their arms and surrendered to the United States forces on the conditions granted Gen. Lee by Gen. Grant, thus ending the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] war that has ever occurred. The attention of all should now be turned towards restoring the relations which existed previous to the rebellion.

The Richmond Whig says the Southern fashionables are already packing their trunks for Cape May and Saratoga.

THE PRESS ON GENERAL SHERMAN.—The Washington Intelligencer, in the course of its editorial comment on the [illegible] in that city, has the following, which must be like gall and wormwood to Mr. Secretary Stanton:

"General Sherman may well be proud of the [illegible] [illegible] yesterday. We do not pretend to be the interpreters of political events, nor do we attempt to explain the causes which produced such [illegible] demonstration of popular regard. Our business is to record the simple fact that, throughout the entire line of march, from the start down to the moment he dismounted his horse to take his place among the distinguished personages who clustered around the President of the United States, in the main pavilion, he was greeted with acclamations so loud and so emphatic, that we, who have been somewhat accustomed to exhibitions of this kind, have seldom witnessed a parallel instance of popular enthusiasm. The appearance of General Sherman by the side he reached the principal stand [illegible] the people, who seemed at a loss how adequately to express the heartfelt admiration they entertained for him. Not only were his hands encumbered with bouquets of [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] of choice flowers encircled the beautifully arched neck of the horse he bestrode."

Where are the Negro Generals?

It is a fact gratifying to Conservatives [illegible] everywhere, and these generals in the Federal army, who have planned and executed the movements which have resulted in the capture of Savannah, Charleston, and Richmond, and which produced peace, [illegible] are not one of the [illegible]. Not one of the negro Generals [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and Hunter, the especial champions of the negro policy, and who deserved [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] unknown in the great victory that [illegible] [illegible] to make [illegible] the negroes, and possibly admire for the [illegible] ability, but as far as treating [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Even Ben Butler is not really to [illegible] appreciate the fact that he was not one [illegible] [illegible] and were one the [illegible] of his exclusion, the reception of which, as it was one of the last, must have been one of the most gratifying events in Mr. Lincoln's life.

The men who have at last conquered a peace are all conservatives, Grant, in his negotiations with Lee, has proved his word that his only desire was for peace, and Sherman, we know, has been a target of abuse because he refused to gulp down the negro whole. It is in this fact that hope for the country arises. Conservative principles are bound sooner or later to win, because they are the only correct principles. Radicalism may run riot for a while, as it did in England—under Cromwell, and as it did in France in the revolution, but it was but a few short years before it had expended its fury, conservative principles prevailed, and the vice regimes that were overthrown were reinstated stronger than ever. So it will be with us, and the time even now, we hope, draws nigh when good sense and democratic counsels will again prevail.—Dubuque Herald.

OUR JERSEY TROOPS.—The "loyal" press will not get in a good humor even although the "cruel war" is over, and they have a fair chance of hanging somebody on a "sour apple tree." They got mad because we took part in "their funeral," and now they denounce us because we want to be jubilant "when Johnny comes marching home." They accuse us of being hypocrites, first because we mourned over the murder of a President, after having opposed the unconstitutional acts of his administration,—and second, because we wish to give a befitting welcome to our returned volunteers, after having refused to place their votes under the control of military officers on the battle field.

What contemptible demagogueism! [illegible] the Democratic party held control of the State during the whole war? Have not our soldiers been better clothed, better equipped in every way and better paid than those of any other State? Have not their ranks been [illegible] filled by Democrats—and do we not all know, that they have rendered the 2nd and 6th Corps immortal? Then why should not Democrats be [illegible] to welcome home those scarred heroes, who, despite bungling processions, incompetent commanders, departmental machination, have at last triumphed, and reflected so much glory on the State that sent them forth to maintain the Constitutional authority of the Government, without regard to the political complexion of the Administration?

Let not the State authorities be deterred, by the snarling of the "loyal" press, from exerting themselves to give a fitting reception to our heroic volunteers, on their return. Let proper notice be given, and let every hamlet pour out its greetings to those who are spared, to hang up their laurels in the peaceful homes of their fathers.—Camden Democrat.

Terrible Disaster at Mobile.

CHICAGO, May 29.

The Tribune has a special despatch from New Orleans, dated the 26th inst., which [illegible]. The ordnance depot and magazine at Mobile exploded at two o'clock yesterday. The shock was terrible, and the whole city was shaken to its foundations. Eight squares of buildings were destroyed. Five hundred persons were killed in the ruins. The loss is estimated at $8,000,000. The origin of the explosion has not yet been ascertained.

THE FENIAN MOVEMENT IN NEW JERSEY.—The Irish inhabitants of New Jersey seem to be taking up the cause of liberty for Ireland with a firm and fixed purpose. Mrs. Mary Conner, of Franklin township, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, died recently at the advanced age of one hundred and four years and twenty-five days, leaving three hundred and nineteen descendants—children, grandchildren, and great grand-children.

A chap in Saint Joseph knows how to prosper. He keeps a lot of pretty girls in his house, and lets his men go outside in love, and then he says "they don't eat anything."

What we can't understand is how a minister of the gospel can preach one sinner into Heaven, from a box in the theatre, and another into Hell, from a bench in a [illegible].

"My dear," said Mrs. Bumble to her daughter, "You must have something warm round you in the carriage."—Miss B. mentioned the request of her mother to her beau, and he immediately complied with it.

A Boston storekeeper the other day took up on his door the income advertisement, "A boy wanted." The next morning, on opening the store he found a [illegible] in a basket, labelled, "Here he is."

"A bachelor of thirty years" writes to a [illegible] Gentlemen for a receipt for making bean soup. A lady correspondent replies, "Get a wife that knows how to make it."

Thirty-three young men and boys were arrested on Sunday, at Allegheny City, Pennsylvania, for loafing around church doors to the annoyance of worshippers. Each was fined two dollars.

The Glasgow (Scotland) Mail reports a new religious sect, the "Perfectionists." They profess to be incapable of committing sin of any kind, being pure and perfect; and yet they are Scotchmen and know it.

The latest idea is the introduction on railroad trains of soda fountains. They have just been put on the trains of the Little Miami Railroad by an enterprising hotel keeper.

The Government detectives have succeeded in tracing John H. Surratt to the [illegible] [illegible] in Canada. Since [illegible] there no trace of him has been discovered.

John G. Jones, who died recently at Doylestown, Pennsylvania, has left all his property valued at fifty thousand dollars to the Sunday School Union, with the exception of a small bequest to a woman who nursed him while [illegible].

It is related that two paupers recently escaped from a country poor-house, in the [illegible] [illegible] and before the overseer had finally started in pursuit, caught them again, they had made $10,000 in oil.

A Dutch writer speaks of a hut so miserable that it did not know which way to fall, and so kept standing. This is like the man that had such a complication of diseases that he did not know what to die of, and so he lived on.

One boy the other day, borrowed a stick of candy from a comrade, to show him that he could pull it out of his ear. He swallowed it, and then twisted himself about in various ways to extract it; but at length informed his companion that he had forgotten that part of the trick.

JUSTICE.—An editor having read in another paper that there is a tobacco, which, if a man smokes or chews will make him forget that he owes a shilling in the world, innocently concludes that many of his subscribers have been furnished with the same article.

An old bachelor being asked by a pert young miss if he could account for the application of the term "belle" to handsome young females, promptly replied that it was owing to the goodly proportion of brass in their composition.

Hannibal, the famous elephant, died lately in Pennsylvania. He weighed seven and a half tons and consumed 300 pounds of hay, a bushel of oats and 40 gallons of water per day. His age was 66 years; he had been exhibited for 36. What a grave he must have required.

Orders with the name and address desired to be placed on the envelopes must be left at the Post Office.

The Irish Times of a recent date says: "We believe that when peace ensues between the belligerents (in America) the emigration which has hitherto taken place, compared with what will certainly ensue, will be as the leakage of a weir to the opening of a sluice. There is not a city, town or hamlet in Ireland in which a large proportion of the able-bodied population is not determined to emigrate the moment peace is made."

The foreign papers tell of a panic created among the women in a church in London, by the descent of a spider nearly five feet long and weighing six pounds! It requires considerable of a stretch of imagination to believe that story. If that spider isn't big enough to travel, the story is. As corroborative of the spider story, the Worcester Spy says that a spider was killed in the Cathedral Church of Milan, in 1751, that weighed four pounds, and was in the habit of drinking the oil out of one of the lamps. We believe that story, because we remember the old patriarchal bedbug, who used to get into our room, when we were in college, steal and use our razor while we were at morning prayers. He excused himself by [illegible] the length of his mustache [illegible] with his feeding.

J. Long, Jr.

Absence from the office during a part of the past week must be our excuse for any deficiency in this issue.

The St. Clairsville Gazette is out in a pithy article in favor of Gen. W. T. Sherman as the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio.

A very strong feeling, strong among Republicans, is becoming prevalent against the Income Tax. It is denounced as unfair, unconstitutional, and despotic, and that it should be repealed.

The process of disbanding the army has been begun. The troops whose term of service does not expire full or three-fourths of October will not be mustered-out at this time, but will receive a short furlough.

Every German and Irish laboring laborer has been turned out of the public works by the Republican authorities, in the city of Chicago, to make room for some of 500 each the Abolitionists have imported into Cairo to which no Catholic is allowed a day's work. Such is to be the rule in every city that falls under the entire control of the Republican party.

The proclamation of President Johnson for the reorganization of North Carolina, is regarded as definitely excluding negroes from suffrage in the Southern States, and as delegating the matter to the people. Some are already signs of active opposition to the President by the Radicals—in this question.

The New York Tribune, which is so strongly against negro slavery, has the following argument in favor of white slavery. It says in its issue of the 28th ult.:

"There are fifty thousand whites in this city to-day who would live more comfortably, behave more decidedly, and be more valuable members of the community if they belonged to good masters."

An order from the War Department announces that soldiers who were mustered into the service under the act of July 4, 1864, if honorably discharged before the expiration of one-half the term for which they enlisted, will not be entitled to the second installment of one third of the government bounty. If they have completed their term of service they will receive the second installment. Two regiments of 1862, however, when honorably discharged before the expiration of their term of service, will be entitled to the full bounties promised them by the laws and orders under which they enlisted.

Wendell Phillips has made clear for the Republican party. They have followed his dictation with faithful submission, and what he says generally foreshadows their policy. At the anniversary of the Anti-Slavery Society, held in New York last week, he laid down a tax for them. He wanted women to vote, but said, "one question at a time—this hour belongs to the negro." He added:

"Why, the negro is half a century ahead of the poor white man of the Southern State. The negro inherited a brain which some had cultivated for four generations, and he added it to the skill of a practical hand. The consequence is that, whether the soldier goes to him for advice or the merchant for counsel among the masses of the South, the negro is the only man who can give him either. The white man inherited a brain added to by the labors of four generations. Therefore, today the only class ready for the suffrage in the South is the negro."

—One would think that this an argument in favor of slavery, as it is seldom that we find a free negro in the north who is competent to give advice on any important subject.

A party of negroes have been committing horrible outrages in the upper part of Chesterfield County, Virginia, in the belief that this was the privilege of freedom. A respectable lady living here deliberately forced the white citizens of the neighborhood organized and killed three of the negroes, when a party of Federal soldiers were led by the report of a single woman to look into the matter. The result of the investigation was that the negro fiends in human shape were arrested by the military and immediately hung.

Hon. Henry Stevenson, of Cincinnati, a leading Republican and Union stands at the head of the legal profession in Ohio, addressed the people in that city on the occasion of Lee's surrender, and we take the following extract from his remarks:

"The South has written and with many the mighty struggle through which we have passed. It has witnessed the energy of the Republican party, the skill, the heroic courage of the loyal soldier, the loyal statesman, and at last the treason. The world has said that the North could not conquer, but the north has conquered. Now let the world write it that the South has. Yes, fellow citizens, that is the second reconciliation. If this is not to be the come of triumph, then indeed our success is a farce, then the precious blood shed in the struggle has been shed in vain. It was hard enough only to conquer and subjugate; it is hard enough only to acquire territory and human chattels; to hold unwilling vassals by the power of arms; to degrade and to dishonor; we have conquered the Mexicans, the Moors, the Spaniards, and the Turks conquered Greece, then, indeed, the Union has not been saved."

Hon. Henry Stevenson, of Cincinnati, a leading Republican and Union stands at the head of the legal profession in Ohio, addressed the people in that city on the occasion of Lee's surrender, and we take the following extract from his remarks:

—Mr. Stevenson's ideas which made it lodge and just and necessary—Fellow citizens of these are for the re-union, then, for one, I am for no day of reckoning for me. If any one should say to me, "You teach no sympathy for the rich and powerful, but all for the poor and hunger," If any one should say to me, "You have not suffered at some of it have suffered," my answer is, There is my oldest son, maimed for life by a rebel shell. Now fellow citizens, the sense of the people is over; the dead cannot be called; the slain cannot be wakened; vengeance will not bring back the lost, or heal the afflicted. Peace returns, let the reign of good-will return, also. No more war, no more enemies, peace, friends, and be friends?

—A correspondent of the N. Y. Herald who is with one army in Virginia, recently stopped at the old place of John Randolph. In speaking of the present proprietor, he says:

With Mr. Boulding as with every man and woman I met, the question, "What is to be done with the negroes?" absorbs every other, and is often the cause of painful anxiety. The great majority of the able bodied men, the productive ones, are called, have run off, leaving the women and children behind—dependent upon their masters for support, or, in case they are deprived of the labor necessary to raise the requisite food. Again, the universal testimony is, that those who remain behind will not work, unless compelled to, and that all the authority of the master is gone.

"These lazy, indolent niggers," say they, "will not work for themselves, much less their children, and the result will be they will turn to and steal everything, the white people raise." Moderate-minded folk at the course the negroes will pursue, should our army be entirely withdrawn, and many profess to fear that murder, arson and pillage will be inaugurated by them."

If the negroes work without being compelled by some compulsory law of an apprenticeship character, it will be the first instance of their history They would never work in Africa, or in Hayti, or in the British West Indies after their emancipation. In the latter island, the planters had to employ laborers from Africa, while in their immediate vicinity were tens of thousands of idle, loafing negroes, who would not work.—

The New York Express thus describes a new set of modern fanatics, who style themselves "christians":

The new god that many such Christians" have fallen down to "worship of late, is a dwarfish heathen god—not our God—but even the respectable gods of Egypt, Greece and Rome have fallen down and worshiped. He is a fighting god—and the Devil, doubtless, not the Christian God. The ancient Egyptians, however, never became Christians, but did not hold them and they fled to Holland. Holland was to lose for them, and, they fled to England. There they created a Theocracy, and burned witches, and hung Quakers, and let nobody yet—out of their school and creed. The Baptists were exiled, and "the Orthodox" was the only Church and State. They must have a fight on hand, they would "spoil without a fight. The saving of souls is a sorry trade for them; the hanging of heads is their delight. Peace to Hell; war is Heaven.

In response to an invitation from several of the prominent citizens of New York without distinction of party, among whom are Mayor Gunther, Horace Greeley, Richard O'Gorman and Henry Ward Beecher, Gerrit Smith has consented to address the citizens at Cooper Institute, and has selected as his subject:

"Neither Legal nor Moral Right to try the Rebels for Treason The Way to Secure Lasting and Enduring Peace Lies not through Perfidy and Vengeance, but through Justice and Love."

Upon which the New York News remarks:

"We have hoved, too, that Charles O'Conor has consented to take the chair, and introduce Gerrit Smith to a New York audience? All this is, in itself, a phenomenon. It means that the wisest and best men of the land feel the need of coming together, and join in hands and voices to save the Republic from anarchy and despotism. Such a requisition to such a man, to speak on such a theme, will surely fill the Cooper Institute, as it has never been filled before; and there will come a voice loud and earnest enough to make the insane and sanguinary passion pause in their career."

The man who imagined himself wise because he detected some typographical error in a newspaper, has gone out to get a perpendicular view of a rainbow.

Petition for sewer in Cherry street, referred [illegible] which we call Scrofula lurks in the constitutions of [illegible] the produce or is [illegible] of the blood, which in [illegible] that fluid becomes in[illegible] the vital forces in their [illegible] action, and leaves the system to fall into disorder and decay. The scrofulous contamination is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered digestion from unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." The diseases it originates take various names, according to the organs it attacks. In the lungs, Scrofula produces tubercles, and finally Consumption; in the glands, swellings which suppurate and become ulcerous sores; in the stomach and bowels, derangements which produce indigestion, dyspepsia, and liver complaints; on the skin, eruptive and cutaneous affections. These all having the same origin, require the same remedy, viz. purification and invigoration of the blood. Purify the blood, and these dangerous distempers leave you. With feeble, foul, or corrupted blood, you cannot have health; with that "life of the flesh" healthy, you cannot have scrofulous disease.

is compounded from the most effectual antidotes that medical science has discovered for this afflicting distemper, and for the cure of the disorders it entails. That it is far superior to any other remedy yet devised, is known by all who have given it a trial. That it does combine virtues truly extraordinary in their effect upon this class of complaints, is indisputably proven by the great multitude of publicly known and remarkable cures it has made of the following diseases: King's Evil, or Glandular Swellings, Tumors, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches and Sores, Erysipelas, Rose or St Anthony's Fire, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Coughs from tuberculous deposits in the lungs, White Swellings, Debility, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Syphilis and Syphilitic Infections, Mercurial Diseases, Female Weaknesses, and, indeed, the whole series of complaints that arise from impurity of the blood. Minute reports of individual cases may be found in AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC, which is furnished to the druggists for gratuitous distribution, wherein may be learned the directions for its use, and some of the remarkable cures which it has made when all other remedies had failed to afford relief. Those cases are purposely taken from all sections of the country, in order that every reader may have access to some one who can speak to him of its benefits from personal experience. Scrofula depresses the vital energies, and thus leaves its victims far more subject to disease and its fatal results than are healthy constitutions. Hence it tends to shorten, and does greatly shorten, the average duration of human life. The vast importance of these considerations has led us to spend years in perfecting a remedy which is adequate to its cure. This we now offer to the public under the name of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, although it is composed of ingredients, some of which exceed the best of Sarsaparilla in alterative power. By its aid you may protect yourself from the suffering and danger of these disorders. Purge out the foul corruptions that rot and fester in the blood, purge out the causes of disease, and vigorous health will follow. By its peculiar virtues this remedy stimulates the vital functions, and thus expels the distempers which lurk within the system or burst out on any part of it.

We know the public have been deceived by many compounds of Sarsaparilla, that promised much and did nothing; but they will neither be deceived nor disappointed in this. Its virtues have been proven by abundant trial, and there remains no question of its surpassing excellence for the cure of the afflicting diseases it is intended to reach. Although under the same name, it is a very different medicine from any other which has been before the people, and is far more effectual than any other which has ever been available to them.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

The World's Great Remedy for Coughs, Colds, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

This has been so long used and so universally known, that we need do no more than assure the public that its quality is kept up to the best it ever has been, and that it may be relied on to do all it has ever done.

Sold by all druggists everywhere.

THE REAL VELPAU FEMALE PILL.

[WARRANTED FRENCH.]

THESE PILLS, so celebrated many years ago in Paris for the relief of female irregularities, and afterward so notorious for their criminal employment in the practice of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity from the fact that the originator, Dr. Velpau, is a physician in Paris of great wealth and strict conscientious principles, and has withheld them from general use, lest they should be employed for unlawful purposes. In overcoming Female Obstructions, Falling of the Womb, Whites, Green Sickness, Suppression, Retention, or Immoderate Flow of the Monthly Discharges, they seem to be truly omnipotent, bursting open the flood-gates from whatever cause may have stopped them; but they are offered to the public only for legitimate uses, and all agents are forbidden to sell them when it is understood that the object is unlawful. Married ladies should never take them when there is any reason to believe themselves pregnant, for they will be sure to produce a miscarriage.

These pills are entirely safe under all circumstances, being composed entirely of substances from the vegetable kingdom.

Each box has the coat of arms for the City of Paris stamped on the box, with the words "Trade Mark" in French, to counterfeit which [illegible] will be dealt [illegible].

IMPORTANT TO ALL INVALIDS.

IRON IN THE BLOOD.

It is well known to the medical profession that IRON is the vital principle or life element of the blood. This is derived chiefly from the food we eat; but if the food is not properly digested, or if, from any cause whatever, the necessary quantity of iron is not taken into the circulation, or becomes reduced, the whole system suffers. The bad blood will irritate the heart, will clog up the lungs, will stupefy the brain, will obstruct the liver, and will send its disease-producing elements to all parts of the system, and every one will suffer in whatever organ may be predisposed to disease.

The great value of

is well known and acknowledged by all medical men. The difficulty has been to obtain such a preparation of it as will enter the circulation and assimilate at once with the blood. This point, says Dr. Hayes, Massachusetts State Chemist, has been attained in the Peruvian Syrup, by combination in a way before unknown.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

is a protected solution of the Protoxide of Iron. A NEW DISCOVERY IN MEDICINE, that strikes at the root of disease by supplying the blood with its vital principle or life element—iron.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Fever and Ague, Loss of Energy, and Low Spirits.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Infuses strength, vigor, and new life into the system, and builds up an "Iron Constitution."

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Cures Chronic Diarrhoea, Scrofula, Boils, Scurvy, and Loss of Constitutional Vigor.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Cures Nervous Affections, Female Complaints, and all diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

Is a specific for all diseases originating in A BAD STATE OF THE BLOOD, or accompanied by Debility or a Low State of the System.

From well known citizens of New York.

The experience which we have had of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and the evidence which has been exhibited to us of its great success in the cure of many diseases, satisfies us that it is a medicinal agent of remarkable power, and deserving the attention of invalids.

the flavor and twice the strength of Old Government Java, while it is less than half the price.

Since the importation and introduction of

in 1861, it has made its way steadily into our first class Hotels and Boarding Houses, Steamboats and Private Families. The eminent Bishop Ames, Bishop Baker, Dr. Upham, President of Bowdoin College, Maine, Bishop Clark, of the M. E. Church, Cincinnati, Dr. Prime, Editor of the New York Observer, and many others, speak of

as the best and most healthful beverage known, and can be used by the weak and infirm with impunity—producing no nervousness nor headache, as in the case with most Pure Coffee.
