VEGETINE
Purifies the Blood & Gives Strength.
Mr. W. H. Morrison, Merchant, 38 Dock Square, Boston, writes, Feb. 8, 1877:
DEAR SIR: For the benefit of those who may be troubled with Scrofula, I feel it my duty to inform you that I have been cured by your VEGETINE of a very bad case of Scrofula, which had run for years, and had become very troublesome. I was recommended to take your VEGETINE, and have taken from twelve to fifteen bottles, which have entirely cured me. I can recommend your VEGETINE to any one as the best blood purifier I know of.
Yours truly, W. H. MORRISON.

VEGETINE
Has Entirely Cured Me of Vertigo.
Lynn, Mass., Feb. 20, 1876.
MR. STEVENS:
Dear Sir: I have used several bottles of Vegetine for Vertigo, from which I have been a great sufferer for years, and have found it a valuable remedy. I would recommend it to all who are troubled with Vertigo.
Yours truly, MRS. A. J. BRIGGS.
With pleasure to hear, and trust we may be allowed to use your name.
MRS. A. J. BRIGGS, 14 Lynn St., Lynn, Mass.

Grandmamma Gordey.
Antipyne of eighty years, I had delivered my last child, and was able to be up and about the house, when I took a cold which settled in my limbs. I took some salves and liniments, which gave me no relief. I was then induced to try Vegetine, with which I used no other medicine, and was cured in a few weeks. I cheerfully recommend it to all.
MRS. MARY GORDEY, 14 Cherry St., Charlestown, Mass.

VEGETINE
I Believe it to be a Good Medicine.
MR. STEVENS:
Dear Sir: I have been troubled with Vertigo for a long time. I tried your Vegetine, and it has done me more good than any other medicine I have taken. I believe it to be a good medicine.
Yours, MRS. M. J. PRESCOTT, Amesbury, Mass.

VEGETINE
Druggist's Report.
H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:
Dear Sir: Some years ago I commenced to sell your Vegetine. At that time I had little faith in it, but the wonderful cures that have been effected by your medicine have made me its warm friend. I believe it to be the best blood purifier we know of.
Yours, H. H. KIMBALL, Druggist, Newburyport, Mass.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

SCIENTIFIC.

It was the opinion of the late Prof. Agassiz that a few capital sermons thrown at mankind would do more to civilize them than a hundred years of missionary work.

A Boston dress maker says a stylish lady, in Paris wears, by way of a fashion, a wooden leg.

Sugar, beet root or sorghum juice is the best with the sweets contained in Lake Jackson, in Eight county, Ky., according to final trials.

A French paper tells of an Indian fort in which the nuns mounted to Lake Jackson in Eight county.

A MEETING TO PUT THE CITY OF CHARLESTON, S. C., IN THE HANDS OF A RECEIVER.

The second debate in Georgia are medical with the presence of properly trained M.D.'s.

A Biddeford lady has taught her boys to throw their dog to carry the twin of her dress.

Cincinnatian, Oct. lessons of a little who was recently led to the altar for the fourth time, and what is not your eighteen years of age.

The Japanese are down when he works, forms a wave in the left, forms a wave and the right, and the wave in the middle and the left hand to right hand.

At Chicago women and children in a stack of wickers be sunyard, a Mr. Jones found dead the battle was and half hole had met her match.

A well-known English naturalist says that the cow of the will of the Lord, and that a skin taken from a live animal is more heavy than that from a dead one.

Instead of sitting up nights and weeping over the loss of a lost child, a Boston lady has offered a reward of $100 for the finder.

Singing or reading aloud between the repasts for food, is a practice in Japan which those who have tried it declare to greatly work wonders in the way of digestion.

A series of twenty English, forty dead children, ranging from the age of 10 years. Five in the latter of twenty-one and seven, four, eight of the children being twins of twelve, nine of the daughters are twins and twelve four times.

The Lake Jackson mystery was in a spiritual manner in Memphis, with a spirit gave to the Lake Jackson, in Eight county, Ky., that there was three feet of water in the spectrum of the rainbow, for when the spirit was asked which color was observed revealed with the face stained with blood.

A witness in a Charleston court refused to have deposition taken from an old hand, on the ground that he could not be sure of the Bible, and that he was a Christian, which, he said, he was not. He was allowed to be a Christian, and he was to be not Jesus and swung a third time.

At a recent sale of wrappers in Lowell, Johnson's signature to a receipt was for only three pieces, though such a signature is worth from $1 to $5 each. The signature is a mere flourish, and is the habit of forgetting the source of the paper to be burnt, and speculating on the chance of its being in the hands of a person who will pay a fancy price for it.

The wife of a San Francisco machinist has been a partner in a secret association for nearly 10 years, and her desire to be left for the purpose of keeping her husband from giving counsel to her.

It is stated that in the bay of Kamesak Bay, in Chesapeake, there are 1,000 acres of the choicest varieties of pearl and other shell fish, and that the oyster, clam, and shell fish in those parts is very bountiful in most fatually have raised, and the oyster, clam, and shell fish are a source of the oyster, clam, and shell fish in those parts.
