LOCAL AND STATE AFFAIRS.

☞ Gen. Kuykendall, of this State, U. S. Minister to Chili, was married in Washington on the 5th inst. to Miss Valdeana.

☞ Orion Underwood, editor of the Plainfield Courier, died last week.

☞ Mayor Brady, of the City of New York, has appointed Thanksgiving Day to be observed by the people of that city.

☞ The original entertainment at Academy of Music on Thursday evening was very well attended, though the hall was not filled as it should be. Tuesday evening promises the greatest admission (25 cents) for a good entertainment, and consequently realizes much than our ordinary one. We will take them a little time to become appreciative first class entertainment, and to conduct their good entertainment, which is one of many things, should command a better patronage than an inferior.

☞ Thanksgiving Day passed off very quietly. We saw no special demonstration of any kind, and the business of the city was not suspended. The Stores generally were closed, and a good deal of business was done in the evening. The Theatre opening for the season, the project of admission 25 cents, and Spaving. It
