JOSEPH H. SHAW.

Feb. 14, 1868.

AMERICAN TRUST AT STATE RIGHTS.—An extraordinary bill has been presented to Congress by Hon. Mr. Hunter of New York, entitled "An act to facilitate the establishment of a Naval and Marine Coal Depot on the Eastern Shore of New Jersey, and for other purposes."

The bill provides for building a railroad across the State of New Jersey, without the consent of the Legislature, and with the privilege of building branches to connect with the coal mines of different sections, and with any other railroads which are or may be built. In fact, it comprises a roving commission over the State, without regard to the rights and interests of the State, its chartered corporations, or of the people's democracy. We hope our representatives will properly resist this infringement upon our rights.

JOHN H. SURRATT ARRAIGNED.—John H. Surratt was on Saturday arraigned before the bar of the Criminal Court of the District. His Zouave uniform had been removed, and he was attired in a suit of black. When brought into the court his handcuffs were handcuffed, by the request of his counsel the Court ordered them released, and the indictment read to him by the Clerk of the Court.

Surratt entered the plea of "Not guilty." The Clerk then asked: "How will you be tried?" To which the response was made: "By my countrymen;" when the officer added: "Then may God send you a safe deliverance!"

The handcuffs were then replaced, and the prisoner remanded to jail. No excitement whatever was manifested during the time of Surratt's presence in the court room.

Sanford Conover, who was recently convicted in this court of perjury before the Military Committee of the House of Representatives, was also present, awaiting sentence, the two prisoners being side by side at the bar. No day has yet been fixed for Surratt's trial.

MILITARY RULE FOR THE SOUTH.—It will scarcely be news to our readers that both Houses of Congress have passed what is known as Sherman's bill to establish military government over the States lately in rebellion. The substance of the bill is thus stated by the Tribune:

I. The rebel states will retain their present governments, but merely as provisional governments, under which no person who, as the third section of the constitutional amendment enacts, having taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States, shall have aided the rebellion, is eligible to office. And also under such governments no discrimination in regard to color shall be made in the elective franchise.

II. While these provisional governments exist, the rebel States are to be divided into military districts, governed by officers of the army, with power to recognize military courts superior to State authority.

III. The people of the Rebel States, whenever they are tired of this government, may, by a vote of all their citizens, without respect to color, except those disqualified from holding office by the Constitution Amendment, elect delegates to a Convention to form State Constitutions. When these Constitutions are established upon the basis of impartial suffrage, and ratified by the people, and the States thus organized have adopted the Constitutional Amendment, they shall be admitted to representation in Congress, when military rule will cease, and South Carolina and Texas will hold the same place in the Union as New York and Massachusetts.

THE EVILS OF WAR.—The Journal of Commerce is dwelling upon the paralyzing influences of the scheme of reconstruction now agitated in Congress, as already felt throughout the South, and which, eventually, must reach upon Northern industry. A single fact shows how powerful is the influence thus exerted in discouraging the investment of capital in that part of the country.

We are reliably informed that, several English gentlemen who visited this country with the full expectation of purchasing cotton lands, in the extent of 22,000,000 have abandoned their purpose, in view of the uncertainties of the future since the designs of certain Radical politicians have become more fully disclosed. Planters are ready to make favorable terms for the sale of real estate, but, at present, find a few who are willing to buy. They are apparently doomed to a still more hopeless poverty, and there is a general gloom and discouragement, in that section, among all classes of people.

To relieve a choked horse in New Haven, the other day, a surgeon from New York was called in. Water turned on, the desired effect being immediately secured. Who says there is no virtue in hydropathy?

LOCAL AND STATE AFFAIRS.

☞ Three persons were murdered at the Hospital Concession on Sunday evening.

COAL.—The quantity of coal received at Rahway by steamers during 1866 was 1,115,[illegible] tons.

☞ A fair at Elizabeth last week realized quite clear money to the total of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument Association. An interesting incident was the "raffling" a sword, which realized twenty-five dollars, and receiving forty votes at all others.

☞ The protuberances worn by the ladies on the back of their head, which have received the appellation and we think that "waterspout" would be more appropriate, as they certainly have no resemblance to hair.

☞ We understand that Messrs. Wilcox & Van Fleet, of this city contemplate erecting new buildings at Elizabeth and removing their very well conducted business to that city. They have been doing a large business the past year. We also learn that Mr. Wm. H. Hall, and Adam Crooks, will be to succeed them at the old stand in the city.

☞ Don't fail to hear Prof. Philip Philips, the great singer, at the first M. E. Church, on Tuesday evening. Those desiring to procure good seats will do well to go early, as is generally the case where Mr. Phillips sings. Only all central gift seats. Doors open at 7 o'clock, when the exercises commence at 8 o'clock. Admission 50 cents. Children 25 cents.

SERIOUS THREE HOURS' ROUTE.—Three young men, from Rahway, who are among the daily worker ing passengers from that place to New York, and who used to be on the habit of smoking and amusing persons on the ferry boat, caught a Tartar Wednesday. A gentleman in passing them on the cars was made the target for their ridicule, remarks, and some of them put their feet and tipped their wives. Having a correct idea of proper treatment for such behavior, the gentleman walked into them in the little of a while, knocked right and left, hard and fast, and it is to be hoped instilled into them a little of a gentleman's manner. The chagrined blade began to muster threats as they were leaving the boat, and were only saved from further castigation by the earnest solicitations of the friends of the gentleman.—Advertiser.

☞ Godey's Lady's Book for March opens with a fine steel engraving, "Watching Baby," followed by a Colored Fashion Plate containing a beautiful figure; Chess Table in Black Walnut, and a Swallow in Berlin Wool Work; The Rubbie, another beautiful wood cut; the latest wood cut Fashions and Novelties, etc. The Work department contains a variety of choice things. Four designs for drawing Insects. An engraving of a handsome village or suburban residence, with plan. The literary department is filled with interesting reading matter. Marion Harland contributes an excellent story. L. A. Godey Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.—The March number of this greatly esteemed monthly is out, and presents rich and varied contents. The first article is entitled "The Dodge Club," with illustrations. It begins readable and highly amusing. The author gives a graphic description of what he saw in 1859. Strother's "Personal Recollections of the War" is continued. Then comes a chapter on insect life, entitled "Two Hundred Thousand Spiders." The insect is given into this department of natural history is truly wonderful. There are eight other articles for the reader to come to the interesting Monthly Record of Current Events, and the "Editor's Drawer." The latter has matter enough to afford laughter for a whole week.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY.—This valuable monthly seems constantly to increase in interest and reputation. The March number comes to us enlarged by the addition of two pages of reading matter; the literary matter is unequaled; the illustrations are beautiful and proper; the music is of the first quality; the fashions are complete and reliable; and it is in every way adapted to the parlor, every department being judiciously filled with valuable reading and instruction.

"Demorest's Young America" is also filled with rich things for the children, and each for older persons; all parents who can should obtain it for their children, as it is full of valuable instruction as well as amusing reading. Address W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, New York.

THE LADY'S FRIEND, FOR MARCH, 1867.—"The Tenant's Nature," a beautiful Steel Engraving, leads off this number of the "Queen of the Monthlies." Then we have the most elegant and refined Steel Fashion Plate, and a number of Patterns for Spring Dresses, Promenade Toilettes, Caps, &c. An engraving of a noted French Aquarium in Paris, shows the large style in which they do some things in the Old World. The Music this month is "Billie's Passed Away." The Lilofar Matter is made up of the continue loss of the novelettes of "Orville College," by Mrs. Henry Wood and "How a Woman Had Her Way," by Elizabeth Prescott—both of which increase steadily in interest and attractiveness—with shorter articles, such as "Travelling with Half a Million," "Dr. Dalbusie," "A Bull Fight at Madrid" (illustrated), "Aunt Julia's Visit," and Editorials, Receipts, Fashions, &c. Specimen numbers of the magazine, containing the particulars of the premium offers and the reduced prices to clubs, will be sent on the receipt of twenty cents. Price (with engraving) $2.50 a year; Four copies (with one engraving) $6.00; Eight copies (with extra magazine and an engraving) $12.00. One copy of Lady's Friend and one of Saturday Evening Post (and one engraving) $4.00. Address Deacon & Peterson, 319 Walnut Street, Philadelphia.

NEW JERSEY NEWSPAPERS.—There are in this state sixty-nine newspaper establishments, publishing in all eighty papers. Of these sixty five are issued Weekly, twelve Daily, six semi-monthly, and two monthly. Twenty eight of the Weeklies are Republican in politics, twenty four Democrat, twelve Independent, the semi monthly and monthlies devoted to agricultural matters. Seven of the Dailies are Republican and five Democratic. Twenty two Daily and three Weekly papers published in the German language, the balance in English. Nine now Weekly, one new Daily, one now Semi-Weekly, and four new Weekly papers have been started, and two Weekly and two Monthly papers have been discontinued during the past year.

OBSEQUIES OF DR. CALHOUN.

The last funeral ceremonies over the late Dr. J. T. Calhoun, were performed on Friday last. The house was put road-ready, probably one hundred and twenty-five persons were accommodated with the history of Dr. Calhoun's life, which was read by Mr. Cornell, which contained with the following facts: Dr. Calhoun was born in Ireland, and taken to New Brunswick to jail. The deceased was born with a butcher knife, and twenty years of his life was spent in the army during the late war and received marked honors whenever he was engaged, and at the time of his death was the Brevet Major and Assistant Surgeon of the U. S. A. It will be remembered that the Dr. died suddenly of cholera, while performing his duties at Island Heights, and it was thought then he died in consequence of his exertions. The funeral was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Hedges, and the usual burial rites were performed. The pall bearers were all regulars. The pose-bugs were the most imposing ever witnessed in this city, and, we understand (not being acquainted with the deceased) that the honors were not unpaidly bestowed. We understand it is the intention of some of our citizens to raise a monument over his remains.

EAST RAHWAY MISSIONS SUNDAY SCHOOL.—An interesting entertainment was given at Washington Hall, on Friday evening last (Washington's birthday) by the above school. The Hall was crowded to overflowing, there being scarcely standing room. The exercises of the evening were all interesting, and were all well performed, the objects comprising perfectly motionless, not even a wink or move of a muscle being perceptible. The Tableaux were some new the "paint" as the tableaux consisted of a barrel and a single label, "Flour," which certainly is an important article in a family.

By special request the exhibition was repeated on Saturday night, with a change of programme, introducing a number of different tableaux, &c.

Mr. Andrew Jackson, the Superintendent of the school, was the prime mover in this exhibition, and he has devoted a large portion of his time for some months past to the good and noble matter of interest to that school. The school is now very largely attended, having about 140 names on the roll, and from appearances is in a very prosperous condition.

MR. HARRIOTS READING.—Owing to the severe storm which raged on last Thursday evening, the entertainment by Mr. J. C. Harriot was postponed until Monday evening, at which time the Athenaeum was well filled by an intelligent and appreciative audience, anxious to hear this accomplished elocutionist. He read and recited the following selections, all of which were rendered in his usual expressive and impressive manner: "Dead Letters," "A Hunting Scene," "The Vagabond," "Sheridan's Ride," "Gerhard Hall;" "The Station and the Thermometer" "An interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of a testimonial to Mr. Harriot, by the ladies of Rahway, under whose direction the entertainment was given. John H. Chapin, Esq., had been chosen to make the presentation speech, which he did in good style, alluding to the many gratuitous services rendered by Mr. Harriot, in assisting the ladies when engaged in benevolent enterprises; the ladies by the testimonial wished to express to him their appreciation of his services, and to show that they were not unmindful of his kindly acts. Mr. Harriot replied in a very affecting manner, returning his thanks for this mark of esteem. The testimonial consisted of a large and handsomely framed engraving representing Washington living and his friends.

HORRIBLE MURDER AT NEWMARKET.—A most atrocious murder was perpetrated at New Market, Middlesex County, on Monday night last, the victim being the wife of Dr. Luther Walker Cornell, who formerly resided in this city. The alarm was first given by the servant girl, who went to some of the neighbors and aroused them, who, upon repairing to the house found the bedroom on fire, and Mrs. Cornell lying upon the floor dead, with her head almost beaten to a pulp, and her face in shreds, and on every side evidences of a fearful struggle. The Dr. was absent attending to a patient, and the servant girl had left the house but Mrs. Cornell, her child and the servant girl. An examination was held on the day, and the servant girl, whose name was Bridget Dur[illegible] gave contradictory stories in her evidence which caused suspicion to fasten upon her. Strong evidence fastening the murder of Mrs. Cornell upon Mrs. Cornell, which corresponded with the facts of the case, was also elicited, and she was committed to New Brunswick to jail. The deceased was done with a butcher knife, and twenty several wounds were found upon the body of the unfortunate woman, across the neck and face.

PATENT-RIGHT ROBBERY ON THE PHILADELPHIA TRAIN.—A gentleman who was a passenger on the train from Philadelphia on Saturday afternoon found himself benumbed in a seat alongside of a stranger. Presently the latter was seized with a fit of cramp, and the gentleman hastily arranged as it to find room. He had no sooner [illegible] than he found himself robbed of a pocket book, which was found in the possession of the stranger. Detectives were in waiting and followed the fellow to the lower end of the Philadelphia morning, are empty pocket books were found in the possession of the [illegible] Jersey City depot, where their contents were doubtless had to a very cost. A little from Tuesday, New York, all of the pocket books of the passengers to the train that was a small bag the carried containing [illegible] and some private letters was taken. On the train the fellow had [illegible] the pocket book and [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] the
