ASSEMBLY CONVENTION—SECOND DISTRICT.

The Democratic voters of the Second Assembly District of Union County are requested to meet delegates to meet in Convention, at MARSH'S HALL, Westfield, on MONDAY, October [illegible] 1869, at [illegible] P. M. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for the House of Assembly to be supported at the ensuing election.

The representation in said Convention shall be [illegible] as follows, viz:

[illegible]

[illegible] Chairman.
[illegible] Secretary.

COUNTY CONVENTION

The Democratic Convention [illegible] Union county met in Lyt Elizabeth yesterday, and we have only time to give a short synopsis of the proceedings this week. The Convention was called to order by Lewis S. Hyer, Chairman of the County Executive Committee, and David H. Nye was elected President, as J. J. M. C. Marshall, D. R. Lindsay, Jr., were secretaries.

E. N. Fuller, E. S. Warren and Henry M. Freeman were appointed a committee on credentials.

Daniel J. Marshall, Jas. S. Green, W. R. Miller, John Eagan and Noah Woodruff were appointed a committee on resolutions.

Nominations for Senator were made as follows: D. W. C. Hetch, James T. Wiley and Robert A. Russell.

Theodore Florance and James M. Stokes were appointed tellers, and the first ballot result as follows:

Hetch	[illegible]
Wiley	[illegible]
Russell	[illegible]

The whole number of delegates being [illegible], and Mr. Wiley receiving a majority, he was declared the nominee, and the nomination was made unanimous by acclamation.

J. [illegible] Eagan, E. S. Warren and E. N. Fuller were appointed a committee to wait upon Mr. Wiley and inform him of his nomination.

David M. Wright, David J. Mooney and Michael Doyle were nominated as candidates for Sheriff, the first ballot being as follows:

Wright	[illegible]
Mooney	[illegible]
Doyle	[illegible]

Mr. Doyle receiving a majority of all the votes cast, was declared the nominee, and the nomination was made unanimous amid much enthusiasm.

Lewis Braun, Stephen Jackson and Ayres Leeson were nominated for coroners by acclamation.

A committee having been appointed to wait upon Mr. Doyle, appeared with him and introduced him to the convention, which he returned his thanks for the honor, and promised to perform the duties faithfully, if elected.

The committee to wait on Mr. Wiley reported that he had been called away from the city, to New York, but was expected to return before the convention adjourned.

Two communications from the County Executive committee were read—one being a report that it was inexpedient to make any change in the mode of selection of delegates at primary meetings, as suggested at the last convention, and the other asking for a better organization of the committee by means of [illegible], but were not acted upon as a large number of the delegates had with them, or the enthusiasm and choosing over the nominations were made.

Perfect harmony prevails, and the ticket will no doubt be elected by a handsome majority.

We have not time to speak further of the candidates.

THE ELECTIONS.—The elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa and Nebraska, came off on Tuesday. In Pennsylvania the vote is so close that it will require the official canvass to decide whether Packer or Geary is elected. Three Legislatures have a majority in the Legislature. It is claimed that Packer has a majority of 2,257. In Ohio it is also close, though it appears that Hayes has a small majority over Pendleton and the Senate has one Republican majority and the House one Democratic majority. From Iowa and Nebraska but few returns have been received, but of course the former is largely Republican.

The charter election took place in Newark on Tuesday. E. W. Ricord, Republican, was elected Mayor by the small majority of [illegible]. The Council stands 14 Democrats to 12 Republicans—again for the Democrats in the Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth wards.

Not a single Radical paper ventures to advocate the proposed amendment on the ground that it is right to take from the States the control of their suffrage laws. And yet it is what the amendment is intended to do, and would do if adopted. They dare not meet the issue raised by their pet measure squarely before the people.

DEATH OF EX-PRESIDENT PIERCE.

Franklin Pierce, fourteenth President of the United States, died at his residence in Concord, New Hampshire, on Friday last. The deceased was born in Hillsborough, N. H. November 23, 1804, and was, therefore, nearly sixty five years of age. His early education was received at the academies of Norwich and Francestown, and, in 1820, he entered Bowdoin College, graduating from there in 1824, to enter the law office of Judge Levi Woodbury, at Portsmouth. He was admitted to the bar in 1827, and in 1829 was elected, by his townsmen of Hillsborough, its representative in the State Legislature. There he remained [illegible] years, and was re-elected to Congress in 1833, where he remained until 1837, when he was elected to the U. S. Senate, in which he took his seat as the youngest member, having barely reached the legal age for the position. In the Senate, at that time were Clay, Webster, Calhoun, Benton and Buchanan. In 1846 President Polk offered him the position of U. S. Attorney General, which he declined, as also the nomination to the Secretaryship. In 1847, when New Hampshire was called upon to furnish troops for Mexico, Mr. Pierce at once entered in the service, received the commission of Colonel, and marched to the attack of Colonel Bennett's forces. He fought through the entire war, and was conducted with [illegible] to Congress. Soon after the war he resigned his commission and returned to his home in 1850 he was President of the Convention and chairman of the committee to revise the Constitution.

On June 1, 1852, the Democratic National Convention assembled at Baltimore, and after [illegible] ballots [illegible] candidate for President, [illegible] States during which Mr. Pierce's name was given for Governor. Pierce his name was brought forward by [illegible] and, on the 49th ballot, he was nominated by 282 votes [illegible]. His principal competitors were James Buchanan, Lewis Cass, William L. Marcy and Stephen A. Douglas. At the ensuing Presidential election in November he received the votes of all the States except Massachusetts, Vermont, Kentucky and Tennessee, where suffrages were given to Winfield Scott. Of the votes of the Electoral College, Pierce received 254 and Scott 42. [illegible] of his administration [illegible] appointed Jefferson Davis, Secretary of War; James C. Dobbin, Secretary of the Navy; Robert McClelland, Secretary of the Interior; James Campbell, Postmaster General, and Caleb Cushing, Attorney General. The principal events of Mr. Pierce's administration were the introduction of slavery into the Territories of Kansas and Nebraska, the famous Ostend Circular, Commodore Perry's dealings with Japan and Walker's filibustering expeditions into Nicaragua. At the close of his Administration Mr. Pierce travelled extensively in Europe, from which he returned in 1860.

Mr. Pierce was [illegible] the manner [illegible] at the said. He [illegible] he had [illegible] the [illegible] party and the [illegible] there was [illegible] great [illegible] to the country [illegible] he had been a very [illegible] man, tempted [illegible] to the rostrum [illegible] within [illegible] than being [illegible] as he was in [illegible] of the Democratic party [illegible] by Mr. Jefferson. But few of the [illegible] more [illegible] than a few [illegible] Lamphier [illegible]

STATE POLITICS

H. H. K. Smalley, of Westfield, [illegible] in connection with the Democratic nomination for Assembly [illegible]

A large number of names have been mentioned in the newspapers, and Assemblymen in the East have [illegible] that Hon. John [illegible] Whitehead, [illegible] nomination, which will make the fact [illegible]

The Morris County Democratic Convention on Saturday last, [illegible] John H. Schlatter, present incumbent, for Surrogate, and Henry L. Carter, Sheriff. David B. Blackwell, David W. Robbins and James W. Dickerson were nominated for Coroners.

H. L. Brown, Republican, has been re-elected Assemblyman in the first district of Camden county. [illegible] the Second nominee in the [illegible] district, [illegible] and republicans [illegible] affair.

John C. Smock has received the Republican nomination for Senator from Monmouth county. David M. Roe, Republican, has been nominated for Assemblyman from the first district, and that is just as near as either party will get to the honor of office.

Capt. J. E. Roberts, of South Amboy, is the Republican nominee in the Third Assembly district of Middlesex county.

Samuel Woolsey, Republican, has been renominated for Assembly in the first district of Gloucester county.

The Paterson Germans have resolved to support the "best men, regardless of party."

The Second Assembly District Convention of Middlesex county is held to-day at Bonhamtown.

The expenses of the army are estimated for this year, in the time of profound peace, to be $[illegible],000,000. During the last Democratic Administration the whole expenses of the Government [illegible] $[illegible],000,000.

The New York Radicals have at last succeeded in making up a ticket, General Sigel having been forced into consenting to allow the use of his name for Secretary of State, and Horace Greeley being the candidate for Comptroller.

The Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments were ratified on Friday by both branches of the Virginia Legislature. The Legislature, by joint resolution, then adjourned until October 18th, thus leaving the election of United State Senators in abeyance.
