NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

Devoted to Local and General News, Politics, Literature, Humor, &c

VOL. XXX.—NO. 37. RAHWAY, N. J., MAY 15, 1880 WHOLE NUMBER 1545

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRAT,

L. S. HYER, Editor and Proprietor.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY

TERMS—

TERMS TO ADVERTISERS.

BODWELL & REED,
LICENSED AUCTIONEERS,
AUCTION AND COMMISSION SALES ROOM
No. 55 Irving Street,
Near R. R. Depot. my22'79 RAHWAY, N. J.

GEORGE LAUTERER,
DEALER IN
CIGARS, SNUFF & CHOICE TOBACCO,
STREET, ONE DOOR FROM IRVING
RAHWAY,

GARRET BERRY,

T. N. BLOOMFIELD,
PHYSICIAN

JOHN KISSING,

PATRICK CARR & SON,

R. H. ADAMSON,

D. MEAD,

F. W. WORTH,

THE CLIPPER SHAVER,

S. [illegible]

THOMAS [illegible]

H. [illegible]

J. [illegible]

L. [illegible]

DR. [illegible]

E. [illegible] & MUSIC,

SANDERS & TREAT,
GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS

E. BANKS,
DENTIST

[illegible] MEN'S, RAHWAY.

E. A. BROWN,
MANUFACTURER OF WAGONS,

MOSES' HOTEL,
WESTFIELD, N. J.
MOSES MOSES, Proprietor.

SCHWARTZ'S HOTEL,
CORNER OF WATER AND CHESTNUT STS.,
ELIZABETH, N. J.

THE CELEBRATED
DEAL RANGE
THE BEST RANGE IN MARKET

TO RENT—A House and garden
WALTER BREWSTER

ADMINISTRATRIX SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

[illegible]

UNION COUNTY, SS.

[illegible]

UNION COUNTY, SS.

[illegible]

CARRIAGE MAKER

[illegible]

RESTAURANT

[illegible]

Boots and Shoes.
NEW BOOT & SHOES ORE

CHARLES DRAKE,

RESTAURANT

KINDLING WOOD CHARCOAL

ROBERT McCLOD

WINES AND LIQUORS

POETRY.

THAT TROUBLESOME BOTTLE.

[illegible]

CHILDREN AND MONEY

[illegible]

LAWS OF NEW JERSEY.

[illegible] necessary to publish [illegible] the issue of bonds to wind [illegible] proceedings.

[illegible] enacted, that whenever by [illegible] any court wherein any certain [illegible] or by the [illegible] the act [illegible] in such [illegible] the [illegible] a new assessment [illegible] much of the amount [illegible] shall be made by [illegible] the [illegible] shall be [illegible] the [illegible] and [illegible] the [illegible] the [illegible] the

RAHWAY, N. J. MAY 2, 1868.

BOARD OF FREEHOLDERS

[illegible]

An application from L. G. Bir[illegible] for a license to keep a tavern or [illegible]

A communication from [illegible] was read, [illegible]

Mr. Morris the applicant [illegible] received.

On motion of Mr. Sayre, [illegible] Board adjourned sine die.

B. M. Perry,
Recorder.

Wheat was bought

On the 1st of Mr. Sayre [illegible]

Thirty cents [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[

NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

RAHWAY, N. J., MAY 19, 1870

A LITTLE FOLK'S SONG.

Buggets go rippity-rip
Down a spl milk in a chine
Bread and milk from a silver spoon
Made of a unicorn! [illegible]
Rippity-rip, rippity-rip

Puppets dash, dipperity-dash
Wash to light within [illegible]
Puppets wake when [illegible]
To show his face and [illegible]
Dipperity-dash, dipperity-dash

Rippity-rip, rippity-rip
Little boy stirring with a shell and a chip
Down on his pettitoats on the floor
And away he dances around and around
Rippity-rip, rippity-rip

Trittery-trot, trittery-trot
Off he goes to his pretty cot
Where he falls asleep with a little sigh
Where the angels watch over him all night long
Trittery-trot, trittery-trot.

Riverside Magazine.

WHO WOULD BE A BOY AGAIN?—In company one evening, when the song "Oh could I Were a Boy again" was called for, a gray-haired "old boy" discoursed thus:

"A boy again! Who would be a boy again if he could! to have measles, itch and mumps; to get licked by bigger boys and scolded by older brothers; to stub your toes; to have the belly-ache from swallowing cherry-stones; have chapped hands and frozen toes; to fall upon the ice; to get your ears boxed; to get whaled by a thick-headed school master; to be made to stand up as the "dunce" for the amusement of the whole school; to have visitors come to school and tell you how miserably weak and stupid you were when you were born, and to ask you what would have become of you if that interesting time in life if your parents had not been so patient and kind to you; to eat at the second table when company comes; to get out cabbage, onions and thin corn because you are delicate, and [illegible] to your [illegible] so much; to be made to go to school when you don't want to; to carry [illegible]; to have your [illegible] to get in the eye with frozen apples instead of snow-balls; to borrow your father's knife and have your finger [illegible]; to have a hole in the seat of your only pants sewed up by pretty cousin from the city; [illegible] to be called a cow at the school if you don't fight; and then he wished it was the fight at school; to be struck across a little girl and dare a [illegible] to have a boy [illegible] for you to ask [illegible] that sweetheart out [illegible] and [illegible] the boys down [illegible] particularly [illegible] most [illegible] the week before [illegible] made [illegible] you know you can't [illegible] skates at christmas [illegible] the pieces when [illegible] when all other boys [illegible] for sculping [illegible] to get [illegible] hoop, to go [illegible] to keep [illegible] mother [illegible] Harry Loode [illegible] to be fond of a [illegible] Bible boys will have [illegible] and are not like George Washington [illegible] to catch [illegible] by shoo [illegible] to wish [illegible] boy—why, who would be a boy again?"

A lively little tiff took place in the California Assembly recently, between Mr. George R. B. Hayes and Mr. Martin, of Butte, when the Mercantile Liberty law came up on its final passage. This bill took the ground that the foul was unconstitutional. Mr. Hayes was its opponent, but opposing his legal knowledge in a retreating style, by comparing him to Mr. Hager of the Judiciary Committee of the Senate, who voted a dead lick for, and then down the House. Mr. Martin, in closing from the effects of the cracked the nut of the noses, and the following Mr. Hayes's [illegible] himself:

[illegible]

[illegible] the effect to close the debate [illegible] passed.

[illegible] heels, bearing a remarkable resemblance to each other, recently came same day, to be shaved. The one in the morning, the other at night. When the barber, who had shaved the last one appeared, he exclaimed: "Well, darn my buttons! I never saw such a beard! I never saw one in the morning, and he comes back in the evening with as long a beard as ever! Is he a German, or what? Is he a Dutchman, and does he smoke Dutch tobacco? Does he drink Dutch beer? Does he dance Dutch dances? Does he eat Dutch dinners? Does he sleep Dutch dinners? Does he sleep Dutch dinners? Does he sleep