NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

Rahway, N. J., May 29th, 1873.

The signs for the prosperity of Rahway are very favorable at present, and now is the time for those who have money to invest in real estate, to improve the opportunity. Property will advance rapidly, we think, in all parts of [illegible]

[illegible]

Governor Parker's attention having been called to an article in the Mount Holly Mirror complaining that some persons in Burlington county do not pay taxes upon property, thought by others to be liable to assessment, and intimating that it is the duty of the Governor to procure the opinion of the Attorney General on the question, he replied that he does not usually ask an opinion from that officer, unless a case requiring it is officially presented to his Notice. He says: [illegible]

Yours, &c.,
JOEL PARKER.

POSTAGE.—When subscribers to local newspapers, who have received them through the mails free, for the past thirty years in the county where they are published, are called upon to pay postage, as they will be next July, we hope they will not blame the noble Congress which passed the bill, nor the immaculate President who signed it, but, calmly reflect that it accelerated the "Salary Steal" that the members of Congress and the President got rich out of it. That will, or ought to be, abundant consolation.—Ex.

Another "job" is being put up at Washington. Ben Butler, Tom Scott, President Grant and others are instituting a plan for the annexation to the United States, Northern Mexico; thus adding to our dominion about 343,000 square miles of territory and 300,000 of population, mostly Indians. No doubt this is another adventure similar to the San Domingo job.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company are just now engaged in furnishing all their conductors with new time pieces. They are of silver, quite large, weighing about five ounces each, and are furnished with all the modern improvements.

There are now about three thousand laborers at work on the Easton and Amboy Railroad. At the Musconetcong tunnel no intermission is allowed except Sundays, the hands being divided into three gangs. At Bound Brook, also, work goes on night and day.

The Council of Proprietors of East New Jersey held their annual meeting in Perth Amboy last week. The officers were all re-elected, as follows: President, John R. Watson; Vice President, [illegible]; Surveyor General, Monroe Howell; Registrar, [illegible]

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF CHOSEN FREEHOLDERS.

Pursuant to adjournment the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the county of Union, convened at the Court House in the city of Elizabeth on Wednesday, May 21, 1873, at 11 o'clock, a. m.

Present, John C. Rose, esq., Director in the chair, and Freeholders Ayers, Cloyd, Flynn, Hubbard, Macklin, Martin, Morse, Osborn, Randolph, Thompson, Vail, Wilcox and Woodruff.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

[illegible]

Freeholders Cloyd, Woodruff and Macklin were appointed committee.

By Freeholder Morse: Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to examine and to report to this board the propriety of building a bridge over the Noe's avenue, near the coal yard of Messrs. Irving [illegible]

Freeholder Hubbard moved to insert after the word "propriety" the words "and expense." Which was carried, and the resolution as amended was adopted.

Freeholders Morse, Ayers and Cloyd were appointed committee.

The Director then announced the following as the Standing Committees:

Committee to settle with the Sheriff—Freeholders Ayers, Smith and Randolph.

Committee to take Collector's bond—Freeholders Ayers, Eller, Cloyd.

Committee on Publication—Freeholders Vail, Osborn, Ayers.

Committee to Discharge Prisoners—Freeholders Morse, Theband, Macklin.

Committee to settle with Collector—Freeholders Woodruff, Flynn, Wilcox.

Committee to Audit Accounts—Freeholders Smith, Woodruff, Macklin.

Committee on Lunacy—Freeholders Theband, Osborne, Morse.

Committee on Finance—Freeholders Flynn, Thompson, Vail.

Committee on Public Buildings—Freeholders Hubbard, Martin, Thompson.

Committee on Jail Inspection—Freeholders Osborn, Hubbard, Eller.

Committee on Statuary—Freeholders Randolph, Cloyd, Morse.

By Freeholder Martin: Resolved, That when this Board adjourns it adjourn to meet four weeks from this day at 11 o'clock a. m. Which was adopted.

Freeholders Rose, Martin and Thompson were appointed committee on bridge, near G. W. Bell, Linden township.

Freeholders Rose, Smith and Woodruff were appointed Committee on bridge, near school house, Linden township.

Freeholders Smith, Woodruff, Theband, Morse and Ayres were appointed committee on bridge, near Wm. Richards, Springfield.

Freeholders Flynn, Osborn, Vail, Ayers and Rose were appointed committee on bridge, St. George's avenue, Rahway.

Freeholders Theband, Woodruff and Wilcox were appointed committee on bridge near [illegible]

Freeholders Cloyd, Morse, Woodruff, Macklin and Vail were appointed committee on bridge, near E. W. Vreeland's, Cranford.

Freeholders Ayers, Hubbard and Randolph were appointed committee on bridge, between Union and Somerset, across Green Brook, washed away by freshet.

Freeholders Wilcox, Theband and Smith were appointed Committee on Claims against New Jersey West Line Railroad Company.

Freeholder Hubbard moved that this Board do now adjourn. Which was carried.

Whereupon the director declared the Board, adjourned to meet in four weeks from to-day, at 11 o'clock a. m.

OLIVER PIERCE, Clerk.

In reply to a question, the first assistant post-master general decides that no person should forward through the mails two postal cards joined together—one containing an inquiry and the other blank to be used for reply. It should be the duty of the Postmaster at the mailing office to separate both cards, and in doing this the card intended for reply would be worthless.

THE OLD HOUSE AT MORRISTOWN.

The Elizabeth Herald contains the following article, which, it is hoped, will at once receive the attention of the patriotic citizens of New Jersey who still have some of the enthusiastic blood of the days of "76" coursing in their veins.

Washington Irving, and other historians, have written largely and with patriotic enthusiasm, of the winter of 1779-80, when the American army, dispirited and defeated, took refuge among the hills of Morristown, and there not only bid defiance to the British but natural subsequent campaigns of the war which led finally to victory and the birth of the Republic. There are other places which are or should be Meccas for American pilgrims, other houses occupied by Washington which should be temples in which patriotism may worship, but we doubt whether in all the land there is another house or another locality which in so many ways remind us of the trials of our forefathers, or which should be cherished so dearly by their descendants. [illegible] that we preserve our institutions sacred, and to transmit them to our children unimpaired, so we should keep alive both an outward and inward respect for the scenes of National events as well as for the actors therein. [illegible] the old house in Morristown, occupied during a very eventful period of our history by Washington and his family, and the preservation of the relics which still remain of that warlike season. Years ago the ladies of the United States took up with a spirit worthy of all praise and emulation, the purchase of Mount Vernon, and in this movement they were ably seconded by that prince of orators and statesmen, Edward Everett. Is it not possible for us as a State, and in view of the approaching Centennial, to rescue one of our own most cherished landmarks and make it useful to ourselves and those who come after us? Philadelphia has her Independence Hall, Boston her Cradle of Liberty, where in the whole broad land can we find any place which age has dealt with more gently, a situation more beautiful, and whose patriotic reminiscences cluster around it more thickly than that at Morristown? Seven generations of one family have had it in their keeping, but it is now advertised to be sold at public auction. Is there no one who will step in and prevent what we must consider as a desecration?

MEETING OF THE FARMER'S CLUB.

The Union County Farmer's Club met last Thursday afternoon, May 22, in the grand jury room. There was a tolerable good attendance. President John Crane, thought the cattle disease was disappearing. [illegible] Mr. Noah W. Parcel asked for a remedy for cabbage flies. He related the several methods which he had tried without success. [illegible]

The Secretary, Mr. Dennis C. Crane, read an essay on road making. It elicited considerable discussion, the members coinciding mostly with its views.

Moses Fatoute, of Cranford, thought the old system of letting each man work out his road tax did not result in having good roads; enough money, he said, had been spent in the county in his life time, if honestly and wisely expended to macadamize all its roads.

Moses O. Winans, of Linden, said he had had patience with men who acted as though there was nothing wrong in defrauding the township of its road tax. [illegible]

Ogden Woodruff spoke of the fine gravel with which they make roads around Madison. It stands wear much better than ours.

John Seaton thought it well to encourage broader tires on our wagons; they do not cut up the roads and meadows as those do which are at present used.

Some miscellaneous matters were attended to pertaining to the series of socials to be held the coming Summer. The June meeting will be held at the President's residence in Union, June 19th, should the day prove stormy it will take place the next fair day. Preparations are being made to make it a pleasant and profitable meeting.

Quite an excitement was created on Saturday evening in front of Platner's sewing machine rooms, Mr. J. W. Vansant having his newly patented steam engine attached to one of the machines and running constantly. The engine is a very neat article adapted especially for such light work as running sewing machines, etc., being perfectly safe and easily managed. Mr. Vansant is anxious to organize a company for the manufacture of the engines, not having the capital himself, and he is impressed that the enterprise will pay.

Both printing establishments of this city have been affected with the spirit of enlargement at the same time. [illegible] and we are also erecting an extension to our [illegible] working rooms back; when we will have a neat little store, in the choicest part of the city, to let to the right kind of a tenant, for an agreeable business.

Rev. Dr. Sheddan, by request of Good Will Lodge, No. 88, I. O. G. T., will preach a temperance sermon, at the First Presbyterian church, on Sunday evening next, commencing at 7½ o'clock. All the temperance orders and friends of the cause are earnestly requested to be present.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the United Railroad Companies, was held on Tuesday, at the Pennsylvania Railroad office in Trenton. The following Directors were elected: John J. Astor, Wm. G. Cook, A. L. Dennis, Benjamin Fish, Hamilton Fish, Cambridge Livingston, Robert Patterson, Isaac W. Scudder, John G. Stevens, Robert F. Stockton, Ashbel Welch, [illegible]

The conductors on all the divisions of the Pennsylvania railroad will be required to wear uniforms after the first of next month.

St. Mark's R. C. (German) Church, on Hamilton street, was dedicated on Sunday last, according to announcement. The ceremony, which was very interesting, was performed by Rev. Father Lemke, assisted by Rev. Albert Von Schilgen. An interesting part of the proceedings was the marching around the church of a large number of young ladies and little girls, handsomely dressed in white with blue sashes and wreathes of white flowers on their heads. The attendance was large, many being present from Elizabeth and other neighboring cities, and a considerable amount of money was raised toward paying off the cost of the church, which deficiency is not large. The church has no stated pastor as yet, but Rev. Father Von Schilgen will officiate every Sunday evening for a time. The German Catholics feel quite proud of their success in establishing St. Mark's church in this city, and will no doubt take a deep interest in sustaining it.

FIRE.—The house of R. C. Potter, in Linden, near this city, was completely consumed by fire one forenoon recently. The fire was first discovered in the kitchen and burned so rapidly [illegible] The property was insured. The barn was also in danger of destruction, it being on fire at one time, but three persons succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

Cannon's Bible Panorama will be exhibited at the Irving street Baptist Church, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, June 17th, 18th and 19th, commencing at 8 o'clock, the proceeds to be applied to the benefit of the church. The panorama will show the earth in its chaotic state, the creation of man, garden of Eden, and various other scenes spoken of in the Bible, including the beast with seven heads, the resurrection, etc. To be interspersed with vocal and instrumental music. Tickets for the course, 50 cents; single tickets 20 cents.

The Rev. Ezekiel P. Cox died at Zanesville, Ohio, on Saturday, May 17, in the seventy eighth year of his age. Mr. Cox was born in Monmouth county, N. J. He mastered the art of printing at an early age, and in 1818 established the first paper in Eastern Ohio. He composed his editorials from the case, and he was the pioneer editor of the wilderness. He served his State as Senator, and held other important offices. [illegible]

At the meeting of the New Brunswick Classical Society, held last week, Dr. Harrison and Messrs. Holland and Reeden were appointed a committee to correspond with all other classical societies in the state, with a view to securing their concurrence and participation in a classical concert which it is designed to hold in that city about the latter part of May, 1874.

The review of the Second Brigade, N. J. S. N. G., will take place at Camden, instead of Waverly, on Monday, June 9th. The Third Regiment will, after the inspection and review, repair to Philadelphia, where they will be the guests of the State Invincibles, and be reviewed by Mayor Stokeley.

Let us have more "light" sweet bread! And those in want of such, or anything else in the bakery line, such as pies, cakes, &c., should call on J. E. Force & Bro., at the old stand, 188 Main street. Good flour and butter and fresh eggs, specialties.

S. of T.—Rahway Division No. 56, S. of T., will hold a public meeting at the Lodge Room, Cole's Building, on Monday evening next, commencing at 8 o'clock. Addresses will be made, a number of appropriate pieces sung, etc. The public are invited to attend.

HEADQUARTERS BRAMHALL POST
No. 16, Dep. of N. J., G. A. R.

The members of Bramhall Post, No. 16, G. A. R., Department of New Jersey, are hereby ordered to attend a special encampment of said Post, to be held on Friday 30th inst., at Headquarters, over Watson's Drug store, at 8 o'clock P. M. ELMER D. MANDEVILLA, Post Commander.

Mr. Chamberlin gives notice this week that he is prepared to take horses to board, in connection with his hotel business. He also has some fine rooms to let on the first floor of his hotel, suitable for business purposes.

A newspaper train commenced to run between New York and Philadelphia on Monday. The train will leave New York at 3 o'clock A. M. It appears that a company of individuals have made arrangements with the Pennsylvania Railroad Company and the publishers of the New York papers to run this train every morning in the year, for the purpose of delivering the papers at all the stations, towns and cities on the route to Philadelphia.

An American named Louis Brahe was killed on a railroad in England a few days ago. Mr. Brahe was a young man, cousin of Mr. Ferdinand Blancke, of Linden. He had just returned from a trip to Japan previous to leaving Linden on his last trip. Mr. Brahe was much respected in his own circle of friends.

A despatch from Troy on Saturday announced the failure of many extensive lumber dealers in New York city and in the interior, with liabilities amounting to many millions. The dealers say that they have not failed, but that having been compelled to carry large stocks through the winter, they have been unable to meet their engagements, and have merely requested an extension of time, which has been granted. Among the firms mentioned is that of Barton & Spencer, of Elizabeth.

A tornado in Iowa, on Thursday last, was the most terrible visitation ever known in this country and more nearly resembled the cyclones of the China seas than any ordinary whirlwind to which the land is subject. Houses were like card board in its fierce grasp, and even huge stones were moved as though propelled from artillery. The loss of life was fearful and cattle were taken up like feathers and dashed lifeless to the earth. The money loss is estimated at $100,000.

A son of a widow named Cogill, living in Elizabeth, on Sunday evening while his mother was at church, amused himself by cutting off several of his little brother's fingers with a hatchet.

Newark publishes her Mayor's message and official documents in a handsomely bound form, with gilt edges.

The East Newark Baptist Association will hold its anniversaries next week in the Baptist Church in Bergen. The North New Jersey Association will hold its fortieth anniversary with the Morristown Baptist Church, June 11th.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Suppose it costs you five cents and takes fifteen minutes to reach the clothing emporium of Mr. Joseph H. White, at 12 Fourth Avenue; if you really want anything in his line you will be amply repaid for your trouble, as he has a full and varied stock. He makes boys' clothing a speciality, and sells the same quality and finish on better terms than any other first class house, and deducts five per cent. from all bills made with him if you will take with you this notice. See his card.

TIM FINNIGAN.

Ladies, you can save 20 per cent. in buying your straw hats, bonnets, ribbons, flowers, sun umbrellas, parasols, suits, gloves, hosiery and notions, at Bird's. Look at the prices! Ladies, suits $5; parasols 75 cts, kid gloves 50 cts, 2 button kid gloves $1.12, Thompson's glove-fitting corsets $1.50, children's dresses 75 cts, ladies shirt waists 50 cts, chemises, 75 cts, night dresses, $1, ladies wrappers $1.75 to $3, hoop skirts 50 cts, spring fronts, $1, at F. A. Bird's, No. 153 Broad street, Elizabeth N. J.

For Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Depression of Spirits and General Debility in their various forms, Ferro-Phosphated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all druggists, is the best tonic. As a stimulant tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal. If taken during the season it prevents fever and ague and other intermittent fevers.

Our lady readers who are fond of the beautiful in flowers should not fail to visit, at an early day, the stand of Mr. T. W. Thorley, 112 West street, New York, who has on exhibition and for sale, the finest collection ever offered in that market—among which will be found eighteen new varieties of Fuchsias, the flowers much expanded, from a show white to a deep crimson. [illegible] Mr. Thorley enjoys the reputation among florists and dealers, of producing the finest variety that comes to market.

THE GEORGE WOODS ORGANS!

Are acknowledged by all acquainted with their merits to be very far in advance of any other manufactured.

THEIR COMBINATION SOLO STOPS,
(Patented September 19, 1870, &c. Jan. 23, 1871-1873,) which give to them their wonderful capacity for BEAUTIFUL MUSICAL EFFECTS
and capability for the most brilliant variations and combinations.
THEIR EXTRAORDINARY POWER,
BEAUTY OF DESIGN,
THOROUGHNESS OF CONSTRUCTION AND FINISH,

are surprising to all who are acquainted with the degree of perfection to which the manufacture of the PARLOR ORGAN has been carried.

Having submitted THE GEORGE WOODS ORGAN to the best Organists in the city for inspection and trial, and they having, by general acquiescence conceded their superiority, I confidently recommend them to the public.

NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

RAHWAY, N. J., MAY 29th, 1873.

Mrs. E. B. Cory, of this city, started for Europe on a visit, yesterday.

The Post Office at Linden was robbed yesterday morning.

Ladies attend the meetings of Common Council in Perth Amboy.

The National Bank of Plainfield is erecting a fine banking house on Front street.

Dr. Vail, of New Market, fell on Friday last, and broke his leg and otherwise injured himself.

Rev. Dr. Abercrombie is mentioned for Bishop of the new Newark Episcopal Diocese, in case a division should be made.

The Elizabethport and Perth Amboy Railroad is expected to be in good running order by July.

The second grand concert of Miss Clara Louise Kellogg will be given at the First Congregational church, of Plainfield, on Tuesday evening, June 10th. It will [illegible] to go and hear her.

J. R. Muddell, real estate agent, reports the sale of two lots on Scott avenue, to Rev. H. D. Opdyke, for $800.

Also, property corner of Church and Irving streets to Wm. H. Harris, for $2,000.

The 10th of September has been fixed upon as the opening day for the New Jersey State Agricultural Society's annual fair at Waverly.

Magrain & Cloke, plumbers, gasfitters, etc., set out this week with a new advertisement, which will be found in another column.

The publishers of the Newark Echo have been found guilty of issuing an indecent paper. Other indictments are pending.

R. F. & H. D. Crowell lost another of the best horses in their livery stable on Saturday. The horse was found with his leg broken and had to be killed.

There has not yet been any arrangement for the observance of Decoration Day, in this city, so far as we have heard. The G. A. R., which has heretofore took a lead in this matter, we understand, have not been very active recently, and have lacked the usual interest.

Decoration Day.—Rev. Edwin D. Wheeler, pastor of the 1st Baptist church, will deliver a sermon next Sabbath evening commemorative of our country's struggle for the maintainance of its life and in memory of its fallen defenders. Members of the G. A. R. and all other soldiers are invited to be present.

"One of the most important laws ever enacted in New Jersey appears in our outside pages this week." It being what is generally termed "the free railroad law," about which there was [illegible] winter. Those who have not read it, should do so and carefully note this important provision.

Mrs. Lucy Eddy, one of our wealthy residents is about to erect one of the handsomest residences in the city, on a plot purchased from J. R. Shotwell, adjacent to her residence. The bids for the carpenter and mason work were opened on Tuesday evening, there being three proposals for each kind of work. The architect, Mr. Bunnay, says [illegible] bidding, for such a large job, that he ever [illegible] Ira C. Halbert was the successful bidder for the carpenter work $10,000, and Thomas Ayers for the mason work, $3,150. The building, trimmings, hardware, &c., will be of the best, and most expensive throughout.

NEW TIME TABLE.—A new time table went into effect on the P. R. R., on Monday morning last. There has been no very important changes in the local trains, except the stopping at Scott avenue depot. The following are the trains between this city and New York:

For New York—[illegible]

From New York—[illegible]

Those marked "†" stop when there are passengers for Rahway, to get off. Those marked with a * stop at Scott avenue depot.

The warm air on Sunday, or some other circumstance, caused a great many men in the streets to show symptoms of fatigue and weakness of the propelling apparatus. We do not suppose that any one will suppose it was "over indulgence," for we have a strict law against selling any intoxicants on Sunday, and of course those whose duty it is to see the laws enforced would not allow such laws to be violated.

The enterprising managers of the Rahway Savings Institution are determined to have the public know that such a bank is in existence, as will be seen by the large advertisement which appears in our columns this week. We have [illegible] one of our strict rules in admitting that style of advertisement, but, considering that the plates were prepared especially for advertising in the local papers, without consulting with the publishers previously, we have consented to suspend our rule for this occasion only, as the design of the advertisement is quite neat and well proportioned, and less objectionable on that account than most of the cuts that advertisers seek to have inserted in newspapers.

A SCAVENGER NEEDED.—We need a scavenger very much to collect daily the garbage, ashes, etc., from the dwellings of the thickly settled portions of our city, especially where there is but little ground room. In the summer time, the collections of garbage lying for any length of time is very detrimental to good health, and likely to generate disease. It is hoped that Common Council will adopt some measure for relief in this direction. It is a matter that we have frequently heard spoken of, and will be a great accommodation to many citizens, to say nothing of it in a sanitary way.

POLICE COURT.—Before Police Justice David J. Bunn:

May 21st—Mary E. Johnson, entering and larceny, arrested by Chief Wright, committed to county jail to answer to the complaint.

22d—Thomas Bliny, drunkenness, arrested by officer Hickey, fined $2 and costs, committed to the county jail in default.

26th—John Helms, selling on Sunday, arrested by special Wright, fined $20 and costs.

26th—Albert Houseman, selling on Sunday, arrested by officer Manning, fined $20 and costs.

26th—Ferdinand Greve, selling on Sunday, arrested by officer Geary, trial Monday, June 2d.

26th—Conrad Christ, selling to habitual drunkard, arrested by special Wright, trial Monday, June 2d.

26th—Mary Lanterer, selling on Sunday, arrested by officer Manning, trial Monday, June 2d.

26th—Charles Diebold, selling on Sunday, arrested by officer Marshall, fined $50 and costs, committed to county jail in default.

26—George Danner, selling on Sunday, arrested by officer Marshall, fined $50 and costs.

26th—Matilda Fitzsimmons, drunkenness, arrested by officers Hickey and Geary, discharged with a reprimand.

SHERIFF'S SALE.—Union County Circuit Court.—Ira O. Halbert vs Teckla Diebold and Charles A. Diebold, her husband. Fi. fa. de bo. et ter. In case on Mechanics lien. The above sale stands adjourned to THURSDAY, the 6th day of NOVEMBER, A. D., 1873, at the same hour and place.
