NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.
RAHWAY, N. J., JULY 31st, 1873.

There are signs of a revolt in the radical camp in Ohio, against the attempt to pack the next Legislature of the State so as to secure the U. S. Senatorship for Secretary Delano.

The ring and anti-ring republicans of Minnesota are quarreling over the gubernatorial nomination like dogs over a bone, and as is usual in quarrels among rogues, interesting developments are being made.

The fight between the Butler and anti-Butler men in Massachusetts. A meeting of the radical leaders opposed to the nomination of Butler for Governor of that State has been held and a committee appointed to "maintain the integrity and perpetuate the prosperity of the State." This committee is to draw up an address to the people, in which they are to set forth how the integrity and prosperity [illegible] and would be injured by the nomination of Butler.

Advices received confirm the substance of statements previously published regarding the health of the Vice-President. The paralytic stroke has left Mr. Wilson's features in a somewhat distorted condition and impaired his speech. At present he is under treatment for the restoration of his general health, preparatory to a more severe mode of treatment which must be adopted for the cure of the paralysis. [illegible]

[illegible]

The Third Collection District, comprising the counties of Middlesex, Union, Somerset, Hunterdon and Warren, [illegible] have returned the following internal revenue taken from the sources named during the fiscal year ending June 30th.

[illegible]

It will be seen that a large proportion of the aggregate amount is from [illegible] there is a falling off from the source since the first of February. This is owing to the fact that the large distillery at Millstone was closed in February and has not since been running. There are numerous apple distilleries in the district.

The new farmers' order in the West is growing rapidly. Since the 1st inst. about [illegible] subordinate granges have been organized, making the total number of granges in operation to date, 4,700, with an aggregate membership of about 330,000. The order seems to be growing most rapidly in the States of Iowa (which now has 1,350 granges), Missouri, Indiana, Illinois, Minnesota, Nebraska and Wisconsin. In response to requests from different States, several additional general deputies have recently been sent out by the National Grange to organize subordinate granges. There are at present State Granges in Arkansas, California, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, North Carolina, Ohio, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont, and Wisconsin.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune writing of parties in Illinois, says:

Thinking men all over the west, and the Radicals who voted for Gen. Grant, and who believed last year that the salvation of the country depended on his reelection, have had their eyes open during the past few months. Credit Mobilier scandals, back pay steals, corruption and dishonesty in almost every department of the government, have caused many staunch Republicans to doubt whether the present administration is the wisest and best of our history, and it is a rare thing in that county to find a thinking Republican, not a place-hunter or a place-holder, who will stand up in public or in private and defend his party.

PLAIN FARMERS' TALK.

Nobody can complain that the farmers who have entered the field in the west to do battle for Reform don't say what they mean in language that everybody can understand. They don't deal in glittering generalities, but come squarely up to the point. The resolutions adopted at a meeting of farmers of Cass co., Missouri, are good samples of the plain and homely speech. One of them says:

We bitterly condemn those members of the XLIId Congress who voted for the increase of salary bill and the retroactive pay clause, and that we unqualifiedly condemn the Chief Executive for signing a bill fraught with so much injustice to the toiling people of the United States.

No half-way, rosewater condemnation, you see. They don't, like republican conventions, exhaust all their denunciation in censuring a guilty Congress, and spare an equally guilty President, but both are condemned alike as sharing in the iniquity. They then go on to say:

In our future elections we will ignore party politics, and support only men and measures, and the standard of men shall be honesty, integrity and ability; the standard of measures shall be economy, retrenchment and reform. We view, with alarm and indignation the prevalence of bribery and consequent corruption, and request our public servants to [illegible] reject any improper offers that may be made to them, whether in the shape of a well filled purse or a railroad pass, but to report to their constituents the would-be bribers that we may know who our enemies are.

This is cold comfort for the administration. Measured by the standard of these plain talking farmers, the men in power, from President downward, must stand aside as out of place. Their outrageous extravagance and profligate practices have long since demonstrated that neither retrenchment, economy or reform can be looked for from them. In fact, this declaration of the farmers is a protest, in a few pithy sentences, against the abuses and misrule of the so-called republican party. It is only through its dethronement that the farmers and other honest men of the country who desire and demand purer and better government can obtain it.

We saw the "government" at Long Branch, on Saturday afternoon; he was riding along in a no-top buggy, with a fast horse and cigar before him, crowned with a rough looking Greeley hat, and accompanied by a red whiskered individual, both personages presenting the appearance of sporting jockeys. The royal family equipage also appeared drawn by four horses, with harness heavily mounted with silver, glittering and rattling as they passed. Mrs. G. (which stands for government) occupied a place in the carriage.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Regular meeting Tuesday evening, July 29. Present: Blake, Bodwell, Fuhr, Haliday, Meeshon, Stelle and Springer.

Communication from warden of county jail giving notice that Watson Marsh and John Cornwell, committed from Rahway, were unable to pay fines and costs. Referred to police committee, who recommended a resolution that Cornwell be discharged, which was adopted.

Petition from Willard and others that work of opening [illegible] part of Thorn st., an ordinance for which was passed some time since, be proceeded with; referred to street committee.

Remonstrance against construction of sewer in Church street, between Grand and Seminary, referred to committee on drainage.

MUSICAL FESTIVAL.—The subject of the state musical festival is creating quite an interest in musical quarters. We last week briefly alluded to a meeting held at Newark on the Tuesday previous, stating that the time for the festival was fixed to commence on the 5th of May 1874, and that the chorus would consist of 800 singers, the orchestra of 100 performers, with celebrated soloists. Committees were appointed for the various departments, as follows:

On Programme.—C. P. Hartranft, of New Brunswick, W. F. Sherwin and J. L. Gray of Newark.

Finance.—D. S. Gregory, Jr., Jersey City; W. H. Fisher, New Brunswick, Charles E. Hall, Orange; Daniel Dodd and C. L. Parker, of Newark.

Organization of Chorus and Orchestra.—W. F. Sherwin, C. P. Hartranft, J. A. Johnson, Orange, and J. L. Gray.

Committee on Press.—Col. R. S. Swords, Newark, E. H. Clement, Elizabeth, Haly Peck, Jr., New Brunswick, W. F. Sherwin and Wm. E. Marvin, Jersey City.

Executive Committee.—This Committee consists of the heads of above committees, with the addition of W. H. McClave, Newark, Rev. E. S. Wheeler, Rahway, Thos. Bennett, Paterson, Abram Voorhees, New Brunswick, and C. L. Parker, of Newark, who has been made Secretary and member ex-officio. Upon this committee will devolve the brunt of the whole festival, and will hold its first meeting in Newark this week.

Persons concerned in life insurance policies are somewhat interested in the result of a suit of Mr. Schuyler, of the firm of Schuyler, Hartley and Graham, of New York, against the Ætna Insurance Company, of Hartford, to recover the amount due on a ten year endowment policy of $20,000. The Courant of that city states that "After paying into the company some $18,000 in premiums, he [illegible] at the expiration of his policy the sum of about $12,000, and the claim being that the balance is covered by uncanceled notes. This is only one of a multitude of similar cases, where the holders of short endowment policies find themselves offered sums greatly less than that paid to the company, although at the time the insurance was made, the agents of the company represented that the premium notes were [illegible] to be paid."

The Western Union Telegraph Company is perfecting arrangements for supplying the country with accurate uniform time. Their method will be to transmit from the National Observatory, at Washington, each day, at twelve o'clock, noon, the correct time to all their stations throughout the country. It is designed to have clocks in the depots of the leading railway lines in the principal cities to be regulated in this way. From these connections will be made with all the smaller towns along the line.

Rev. R. Thorn, pastor of the First Methodist Church at Millville, narrowly escaped the loss of an eye, a few days ago, by a scrap of iron striking in the immediate vicinity of the organ with great force. So says an exchange. What was the dominie doing with his eye so near the organ. In the general construction of churches the organ is at the opposite end from the preacher, and would an organ with great force be more likely to harm his eye under the circumstances than an organ of less force.

Albans L. Wood, a blacksmith, formerly of Readington, but for the last ten years of New Germantown, where he carried on business, who has an estimable wife and six children, the eldest of whom is about 18, has eloped with the wife of Richard Tunison, also a blacksmith working in Plainfield and coming home only once a week.

KABALLAH.—We had the pleasure of being present on Friday evening last at the residence of G. R. Lindsay, Esq., on which occasion a few of our citizens were invited to witness a demonstration of a wonderful scientific problem recently worked out by George H. Felt, Esq., of New York, which is that of the Kaballah, or Cabala of the Egyptians and Canon of Proportions of the Greeks. All present were very much interested in his demonstrations, especially those who were of the mystic order, as Mr. Felt's discovery has a peculiar bearing on the subject of Masonry. According to tradition this Cabala, or Kaballah, of the Egyptians was a geometrical and mystically arranged figure, which was a perfect system of proportion and a complete key to all the works of early art and science, and it was supposed that it would elucidate the origin of language, [illegible]

[illegible]

Mr. Felt is about to issue from the publishing house of Osgood & Co., Boston, an elaborate work on this subject, denominated the "Kaballah." [illegible]

[illegible]

Peters' Musical Monthly, No. [illegible], is at hand, and contains the following selections of new music: [illegible]

You can secure the above pieces of New Music by sending $30 for the August number of Peters' Musical Monthly; or the last eight numbers will be sent you, [illegible] Address J. L. Peters, [illegible] Broadway, New York.

Rev. John Atkinson, in the last number of The Methodist, attacks the "Special Transfer" system of locating ministers, in which special favors have been shown to certain wealthy churches in Newark and Jersey City, which have been refused to other churches. Mr. Atkinson thinks the "special transfer" system has done much to damage the cause of Methodism.

The house of George W. Lawrence was entered one afternoon last week, and an amount of money stolen. Money seemed to be the object, as other articles of value were left undisturbed, and it was evident that a pretty thorough search had been made in drawers, etc. There is a large number of instances of depredations by sneak thieves in this vicinity, and householders should be on the alert for them.

Atlantic City just now has a pearl diver on exhibition, who dives for [illegible] in the surf.

A CONGRESSIONAL POINTS OUT DANGEROUS PLACES.—A World correspondent thus reports the result of an interview with a Pennsylvania Railroad conductor. [illegible]

[illegible]

From Columbus, O., comes one of those singular episodes which seem to justify a belief in the supernatural. A lady in that place [illegible] night by a mysterious voice exclaiming, "Your brother William is dead." At this spectral warning, of course, she screamed and swooned, and would not be comforted, and passed the rest of the night in tears and hartshorn, despite the consolatory skepticism of her attendants. And the curious part of the story is, that the very next day she received a letter from this identical brother in a neighboring city, announcing that he was quite well and in possession of a profitable contract with the town authorities.

GROWTH OF NEW JERSEY.—[illegible]

New York city is to have an armed police. In accordance with a resolution of the police Commissioners, Mayor Havemeyer on Friday forwarded to Governor Dix a requisition for rifles, revolvers, swords, etc., for the arming of a brigade of five hundred policemen, who may be called to aid the civil authorities in case of emergency.

The Conductors now collect all the New York tickets after passing Newark, and give in return ferry checks, [illegible]

The Newark Journal says that while a sewer was being dug in that city a vein of water was struck mixed with oil was struck about twelve feet under ground. A large hole was dug underneath the stratum of earth containing the oil, and it slowly streamed out of the rocks and rapidly filled the excavation. Several barrels have been collected, and will be sent to a refinery for test purposes. It now turns out that a gentleman named Hartwick some four years ago engaged men to dig a well on his premises, during the excavation of which so much oil was struck that the project had to be abandoned. Mr. Hartwick, whose place, minus the oil, might have been worth about $5,000, was at that time offered $30,000 for it. [illegible]

The annual camp meeting at Denville will commence on Tuesday, August 12th, and continue ten days, for which excursion tickets will be issued at reduced rates, good for the entire month of August. Preachers, by writing Rev. J. M. Tuttle, Bloomfield, N. J., will receive free railroad tickets to and from the grounds. [illegible]

GREAT FIRE IN BALTIMORE.—A very disastrous fire visited Baltimore last Friday. The extent of the territory burned over will aggregate at least ten acres, and fully one hundred houses are in the ruins. The district burned over is bounded on the North and South by Saratoga and Lexington streets, and on the East and west by Liberty and Howard streets. It was a portion of the city principally inhabited by poor people, and the dwellings were not very valuable. The total loss will amount to about $1,000,000, which is not at all in proportion to the extent of the conflagration, but the suffering and privation of the unfortunate people who have been rendered homeless by the fire fiend will be very great. [illegible]

Kate Stoddard, who is now visited by many women bearing flowers and other testimonials of sympathy, as a sort of ticket of admission, probably, to gratify morbid curiosity, Tuesday had a visit from her father, Isaac King, of Plymouth, Mass. The reporters say on hearing his voice, with a glad cry of joy she ran up to him, and throwing her arms about his neck, kissed him repeatedly, and both shed tears. Mr. King had a long and earnest conversation with his unhappy daughter, and while talking they walked up and down the corridor, she hanging on his arm and talking freely of her past life. Immediately after the interview Mr. King left the jail and returned to New York city. He declined to make any statement regarding his daughter.

Captain William C. DeHart, of Elizabeth, went to Long Branch last week to enjoy a tumble in the blue waters of the Atlantic. He transferred his valuables to the keeping of the bathing-house master, then uniformed himself in a bathing suit, and dashed through the breakers, where he enjoyed himself to his heart's content. While thus engaged, an enterprising thief entered the dressing house, and abstracting the check from the Captain's coat pocket immediately proceeded to the bathing-master, where he presented the aforesaid check. Receiving therefore the Captain's gold watch and chain, diamond studs, thirty dollars in money, besides other valuables, with which he coolly walked away.

The largest abattoir in the country is now being erected for the New Jersey Abattoir Company on the left of the railroad, a short distance west of the Hackensack river. The same company that owns the Communipaw abattoir is erecting the new slaughter house. The structure will be one thousand feet in length and about one hundred and fifty in width. In the centre of the building will be a space about one hundred feet front, built of brick, which will be used as a slaughter house. Numerous other buildings are being erected, and the appearance of the meadows is being rapidly changed.

From the Newport (Ky.) Leader we learn that Aunt Hager, a colored woman, died in the country near Alexandria. She was probably the oldest person in the United States, being 122 years old, having been born on the 21st of March, 1751. She was a native of Virginia, and was brought to Kentucky at an early day of its settlement by Lewis Wilcoxen, whose wife was a sister of Ben. Beall the elder, grandfather of Ben. Beall, the present Circuit Clerk of Campbell county. She died of old age. For the last twenty years she has been blind, but in other respects possessed all her faculties to the last.

Right Rev. Christopher Rush, Bishop of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, who died in New York city July 16th, was born a slave in Cravens county, N. C., 1777. He came to New York in 1798, and joined the African Methodist Episcopal Church in 1803. He was licensed to preach in 1815, and, passing through the different grades of the ministry, was ordained Bishop in 1843. He was prominent in bringing about the separation of the colored branch of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and this body now numbers 160,000 members, against 100 at the time of the separation.

The venerable Dr. Hering, of Philadelphia, years ago suggested the following as the surest preventive of cholera, and asserts that "not one of the many thousand who have followed this, my advice, have been attacked. Put half a teaspoonful of fine precipitated sulphur (milk of sulphur) into each stocking and go about your business. Repeat this about twice a week. Never go out with an empty stomach, eat no fresh bread nor sour food.

A pardon is already asked for Frank Walworth, and the petition numerously signed.

J. Stanley Ferguson has sold a fruit farm in Vineland, N. J., of 40 acres for $12,000—exchange. The property joins North Vineland depot. Also two houses and lots in Brooklyn, on Melbourne street, for $20,000. He has property of all sorts for sale and exchange, and can suit most any one.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

For Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Depression of Spirits and General Debility in their various forms, Ferro-Phosphated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all druggists, is the best tonic. As a stimulant tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness, it has no equal. If taken during the season it prevents fever and ague and other intermittent fevers. [jul 10 4w

NO POSTPONEMENT.—The recurrence of the malarial season is as certain as fate. It is better to be provided in advance than to wait until shivering and burning with Fever and Ague. Doehler's Pills are the only absolute and unfailing preventive and cure for Periodic Fevers, and have been relied on for that purpose by thousands for almost a quarter of a century. They do not reduce, but build up the system. No calomel, arsenic, or quinine.

A FACT WORTH KNOWING.—No medicine ever gave such satisfaction to the people of Rahway as GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER. Thousands of bottles have been given away in every State and Town, for those suffering with Dyspepsia and its terrible effects, such as Costiveness, Sour Stomach, [illegible] virtues before buying it. This is a convincing proof of its merits.

Go to your Druggist in Rahway and get a 75 cent bottle, and ask about others who have used it. Try it. Sample bottles free of charge. [mar 27

Mr. Volkman, the new barber, has fitted up his rooms, in Exchange building, in very fine style, has an excellent assistant, and is having a large run of custom already. He invites a call from those wishing anything in his line.

The Denville correspondent, of the Newark Courier says that Mr. Taylor, of Rahway, has built a cottage at Camp Tabor, whose interior adornments, by the aid of skillful workmen, are a little ahead of anything else on the ground.

In the case of ex-chief of Police McWilliams and Detective Doyle, on trial for complicity in the attempt to rob the First National Bank of Jersey City, the jury came in on Sunday afternoon with a verdict of not guilty. They were out thirty hours.

Pleasure lovers are looking forward to the day for the grand excursion of Independence Council O. U. A. M., on Wednesday, August 13th, up the Hudson to Iona Island. Secure your tickets early for this, the only excursion from this city contemplated this season.

A new train of cars, locomotive and all, was placed on the Pennsylvania road last week. The train has the new air brake attached, arranged so that any accident by running off the track, or otherwise, sets the brakes and stops the train at once.

John Schwartz, aged 76, a Baltimorean, recently married, after three days courtship, his third wife, a woman of 26. Foolish friends ridiculed them, which had so much effect upon the husband, that he hanged himself on Saturday.

Logan, the man who was stabbed by Kearney or Duran, with a pitchfork, in Linden, is improving rapidly, and it is said will be able to be out this week. His recovery is certainly remarkable, taking into consideration the nature and position of the wounds.

Subscriptions for the new clock in the tower of the 2d Presbyterian church are now due, and can be paid to the Treasurer, Mr. Samuel Ayres or to Messrs. Mansfield and Wilson, the committee who have the matter in charge.

By order, EDWARD CROWELL,
Rahway, July 25, 1873. Pres. of Trus.

A number of suspicious looking strangers were in the city on Tuesday evening, most of them presenting a rough appearance. Several of them were arrested and lodged in the station house, as they were unable to give any satisfactory explanation of their business here.

C. T. Warren, of Linden, had his house robbed to the amount of about $100 worth, over a month ago. He kept it quiet hoping to find the thief in that way, but did not succeed. In these days of newspapers, experience proves it best to make such cases known at once.

Another heavy rain occurred in this section on Tuesday afternoon. In Newark, along Railroad avenue, in the vicinity of Market street there was a regular flood, the sewers being insufficient to carry the water off. In places it almost reached the fires in the locomotives, and boys could be seen wading around neck deep across the streets.

The time table of the railroad is changed now about every week, and it is hard keeping the track of some of the trains; but very few changes are made in the local trains, however. We have been trying for some time to get a perfect list for the regular advertisement, but it has not yet been furnished, and we understand another change is to be made soon, which may be permanent for a season.

The First Presbyterian Sunday School held their annual picnic in Haviland's Grove on Tuesday. The procession of wagons containing the children and teachers passed through Main street about half past nine o'clock in the morning, headed by the Rahway Brass Band, and made a very fine display, turning out in large numbers, notwithstanding the dampness of the weather.

It is supposed by some that most of the country residences of the rich men of New York, in New Jersey, are on or near the lines of some of the railroads coming out from Jersey City. A ride through the northern part of Monmouth county along the Shrewsbury and Navesink rivers, however, will show a large number of palatial residences, mostly of them belonging to New York millionaires, and we do not wonder at their selecting that section, for we do not think that for pleasant drives and scenery it is surpassed anywhere in this part of the United States. With beautiful sloping hills, fine groves, fishing, bathing, gunning, &c., nothing is lacking to make it an abundance of recreation. We are led to these conclusions by a ride through Red Bank, Rumson, Port Washington, Fair Haven and other little villages on Monday morning last, and then by steamboat down the Shrewsbury to the highlands [illegible] popular Pavilion Hotel and numerous cottages and cottages on the sloping [illegible] Many of these wealthy men own [illegible]

The taxes in this city will be somewhat lower than last year, we understand, the percentage being only a little more than 2.20, while the real estate valuation has been increased. We learn that there was considerable discussion upon the amount of valuation in different sections of the county, the Rahway commissioners, some of them, advocating high valuations, though unsuccessfully. The great trouble is to get the valuations uniform, and then it makes but little difference, as far as we can judge, whether they are high or low, as there is a certain amount of taxes to raise, and the higher the valuation the lower will be the percentage; but where, in the townships, they have always been used to low valuations, it will be a very hard matter to increase them; therefore, the others may as well be satisfied with a low valuation.

If any of our readers desire to get a "good cooling off" some of these hot days let them take a trip to the sea coast. Saturday last would pass very well for a winter day, from our experience, [illegible] that we would not [illegible] at the [illegible] on the splendid avenue on the beach at Long Branch" in front of the hotels and not being provided with an overcoat we were compelled to draw our thick dress coat about us and button it up, while the ladies had to put on their thick shawls to keep comfortable. This breeze, however, was a little stronger than usual, as it was the forerunner of the heavy showers which occurred next day.

Send Buckwheat and Lester's Bone Dust, at Geo. W. Hall's.

Col. Drake, Major Rose and Paymaster Wilson went to Trenton on Tuesday morning, there to join Governor Parker and staff, to proceed thence to Cape May, where the celebrated Fifth Maryland are having a ten days' encampment. Their visit has reference also to the encampment in anticipation by the Third Regiment, N. J. S. N. G., on the 18th of August. They will complete arrangements for putting this crack regiment through a thorough course of discipline, and propose to make the whole undertaking as comfortable as possible to the command.

A fire occurred in the old Collet Hall, near the depot, on Broad street, Elizabeth, on Saturday last, by which the building was damaged to the amount of $1,000. The damage to the stock, etc., of business men occupying places in the building was considerable. It is not known how the fire originated, as it broke out in the upper story, formerly occupied for lodge rooms, but for some time vacant, only being used about a month ago for a colored folks' festival.

A meeting of the Common Council appeared among the doubtful things on Tuesday evening until about the hour for calling to order, when barely a quorum showed at roll call. By the chairman of some of the important committees were absent, but little business was done; several licenses were unacted upon, the chairman of the license committee not being present with the reports. By mutual understanding it was agreed to have no meeting for four weeks.

Ladies, if you have any tears to shed, prepare to shed them now, while we tell you we this week conclude that interesting story, in chapters, entitled "Laws of New Jersey, by Authority." Old Authority has come to the end of his yarn and it is wound up, but we hope it will not wound the feelings of any of our readers, as we will be able to give more miscellaneous reading, the only detriment done will be to the publishers pockets, for the more laws the more pay.

Silas P. Leonard, one of our oldest citizens, long engaged in the pottery business, died on Friday last, aged about 75 years. He has always been a very hard working man and so continued up to very near the time of his death. He was attacked by dysentery, which reduced him that he was unable to overcome the prostration. He was buried on Sunday.

John M. Tufts, Sr., has just completed a very handsome house on Main street, adjoining his own residence, for his son John. It is two stories, with French roof, containing twelve rooms with all the modern improvements. Mr. Robert C. Voorhees did the carpenter work in his usual neat and workmanlike manner.

That one word will make a vast difference in a sentence was fully demonstrated in our last issue, in the letter from Mrs. Lawrence to the New Jersey Mutual Insurance Company, where the amount of insurance is made to read "fifteen thousand dollars" instead, of fifteen hundred dollars, the latter being the sum for which Mr. Lawrence's life was insured.

Last Thursday afternoon a base ball club from New Brunswick visited this city to engage in a game with the Franklins, of this city. After the game had been in progress a short time a dispute arose between the umpire and the pitcher of the Franklins; after a few words the umpire struck the pitcher, the same leading to a general row. After the row had been quieted the club played the game through. All the blame is attached to the umpire, by both the clubs.

John R. Morse, who is acting inspector of the Seminary street sewer, in place of Frank Lawrence, the inspector, who is sick, met with an accident on Thursday. He was in the trench and disturbing some of the props, a large quantity of dirt caved in, by which he was considerably bruised, but not seriously, being able to attend to his duties on the following day.

They seem determined to abolish the railroad pass system in the West. On Thursday the officials of more than twenty roads met in convention at St. Louis, and unanimously adopted resolutions prohibiting the issue of free passes after the first of next month, except to officers and employees of the road.
