NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.
RAHWAY, N. J., NOVEMBER 27th, 1873.

QUESTION OF PRIORITY.—Some one claims that the number of bad people without conscience is increasing. A neighbor of ours argued on that, as evidence, our boys must be lost. He has lived upon Cherry Hill, and knows all about it. We, on the contrary, claim that the number of honest people is increasing.

Railway, N. J., November 7th, 1874.

The votes on Governor in this state show a majority for Parker of 17,000 in the Democratic Republican paper in the State, confirmed by official returns as announced today.

Both the Democratic National Convention of 1872, adopting the platform for election candidates, passed a resolution in favor of a gradually of tariffs, and the Democratic Convention of 1872 adopted the platform of the Democratic National Convention of 1872, and unequivocally declared all the principles of the Democratic party
