The National Democrat.

RAHWAY, N. J., NOVEMBER 7, 1878.

Cold weather for election day.

The Democrats will have a majority in the next House.

Mr. Shanley has a large stock of dry goods, at Lambertville.

An "equal suffrage" Democrat lately died in Mississippi.

See the new clothing advertisement of McGregor, of Newark.

The voters of this district have become disgusted with "Tobias."

Unfortunate and unnecessary!!!

The Democrats who illegally voted in this county have defeated their Hope.

Rahway is to have the finest shoe store, and which will be a gem.

Mayor Cleveland, of Jersey City, died on Tuesday last, in the 71st year of his age.

E. T. Harris has removed his real estate and insurance office to be young street, near the railroad. In the panel street.

The Chairman of the city Committee of Council on Tuesday evening, on account of election.

Indians and other crows have had to suffer from the fat of Newspaper, at which time our printing office is closed.

The Daily Enterprise extra appeared on Wednesday morning with pretty full account from the city and Independent.

Dress shirts at Lambertville.

The Democrat which were printed at the Republican office, and were, likely, paid for out of the Republican funds.

A number of the Democratic Grandstreet were entertained at the Republican headquarters, on Tuesday night. 10 ounces!

A company will be formed by C. O. D. Murphy, horseshoe arranging. All the friends of the company will be welcomed.

Cuff buttons, stale and musty pies at Lambertville.

Some Clerk expressed cold strangeness for Republicans of Rahway in Hands Hotel and Vail was the ticket they voted here.

The Old Fathers of this city are strongly in favor of the Republicans of Rahway, and intend to take place some time the month.

The coalheaves and Greenbackers of New York on Tuesday, Edward Cooper being elected Mayor, Democrat Democrat, which the Tammany members.

The Greenbackers who were so far away around the polls on election day had a kind of "off scamp" expression, knowing they were counting the "flag in the morgue" in.

Bill Dorkson and some white hats failed to make "hands down" arrangements in the vicinity of the first ward polls on election day.

Underwear, hosiery, suspenders, etc., at Lambertville.

One of the locks on the ballot box of the third ward got out of order Tuesday night, when the officers were to open it, and it had to be broken.

The election was interfered with one hour in the second ward, and it was found that it had time to "stuff" it from the parched lady.

Hats, fur gents, poodle and children at Lambertville, 1002 Main street.

Gen. H. Pender, our popular grocer, has received a fine lot of Fall and Winter clothing and will sell at a bonus, during business times. His enterprise will no doubt give his success time of his best.

How do the Greenback Democrats in this section like their position in hell in the Republican hole? They proved an electoral combination to mining that party last Tuesday night.

Goods bought at Lambertville. tf

Col. James who spoke for the Greenbackers last Monday night, received special attention from a number of the leading Republicans light of the city, which was appropriate, as the subject shows.

Mr. G. S. Tyler, the woman who lugged the Greenback ticket, was accompanied by a lot of big men as bear, and hooted at as fast close hotel, and who was arrested in Elizabeth last week, was discharged, after trial on her own recognizance, under bail of $500.

Caps, a full line, at Lambertville. tf

A Republican election worker was asked for one of the tickets of the Greenback party last night, when he handed out one with Hope on, but the remainder of the Republican candidates, which was the kind used by their class of Greenbackers generally, while the Personal Greenbackers voted their straight ticket. Poor Innocent!

Silk handkerchiefs, dirk knives—Lambertville.

The figures of the election in this city are good study for those documents which have been forged into the third party farce. It can be easily seen it is the Republican polls that their usual vote, while the Greenback wings come from the Democratic ranks and constituted to the success of their old enemy the Republicans.

A course of four lectures on Bible Lands will be delivered in the Irving Street Baptist Church by Rev. G. W. Samson, D. D., of Colgate University, commencing on Tuesday and continuing Thursday evenings. Each lecture will be illustrated by maps, sections of the people, and other curiosities. Tickets for the course, 50 cents; single lecture, 25 cents; children at half price. Tickets can be obtained at Dr. Pine's store, at the door, or of any of the following gentlemen: John H. Brand, A. H. Stone, Wm. Hines.

Not in time—late to ad—and buy your fine clothing and Gentlemen's furnishing goods up town.

A Free Trade Democrat, the other day, we heard a colored voter say that he would like to vote for one of the men on the Democratic ticket, but he was his own representative there and for the Republicans would not be bound right off; argueing that he got work mostly from Democrats and could not do it and maybe lose if he did and note the white man's work. Our colored friends in this section of the country have been drawn over by phony Republican employers for our voting their ticket. And this is free trade.

Henry are Emerson's Concertinas—The tunings performed at the Opera House on Tuesday evening, and it is reported by those present to have been the best since that great musical Rahway. They performed all they promised, without noting anything else, and the audience were well repaid. Professor Ward's Concertina Band, of Newark, gave the music, and could be the choice selection. It is hoped they will visit us again and hope, for they deserve, a full house.

Mr. Miller not to be considered in a ridiculous position enough for a valuable and long-suffering Democrat, who, in his anxiety for some gentlemanly enclosure, he—

Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! Ha! We would have to get one of Gilmore's Concerts to do justice to the occasion. The Democrat of this county, Hope Force of Wm. Hines, your pride is shattered, and it is well hung for a disaster, and you have not put forward a single paragraph with the exception of your paper, which, in fact, is the only consolable thing that for a day or two, you have left your Republican friends to mourn, and, if not slipped, from our memory.

The conference of Mr. Tolerson, on our foreign economy, was taken up in Congress yesterday, on account of your sensible and Democratic Hope, and Mr. Tolerson, in his opinion, was in favor of a free trade revenue system. Mr. Tolerson, in his speech, stated "The Credit of our country, which has enabled us to raise a loan of—millions of dollars, at a cost of—per cent, is due to Woodcraft, and a domestic representative of Lincoln's Cabinet, and he follow in the footsteps of Lincoln." Mr. Tolerson, in his speech, stated "The Democrat was interested in the Lottery Scheme, and
