BOARD OF DIRECTORS

THE GRAND JAMBOREE.

Plainfield, Sept. 9, 1878.

The Republicans are forming a place of rendezvous for the campaign in this city today. Last night about one regiment of them came in, and this morning quite a number more came in on the early trains. Among the prominent men who have come in are Senator Randolph and Freeholder Brown, from Rahway; Senator Lee, Freeholder Lane, Freeholder Dunn, Mayor Hall, Freeholder Hetrick, Freeholder H. Smith, Thomas Dunn, Jr., and others.

Quite a number of Democrats are also here, and they are making a great deal of fun of the Republicans for their cowardly conduct in not making a fight. The Republicans did make a great deal of noise last night, and they had a very large torchlight procession, but they did not make much impression on the Democrats.

The Republicans are trying to make a great deal out of the fact that Senator Randolph is here, and they say that he will make a speech. It is known that Senator Randolph is a very fine speaker, and he will be listened to with pleasure by the Democrats, for they want to see him. The Republicans are also trying to make a great deal out of the fact that Senator Lee is here, and they say that he will make a speech. Senator Lee is a very fine speaker, and he will be listened to with pleasure by the Democrats, for they want to see him. The Republicans are also trying to make a great deal out of the fact that Senator Lane is here, and they say that he will make a speech. Senator Lane is a very fine speaker, and he will be listened to with pleasure by the Democrats, for they want to see him. The Republicans are also trying to make a great deal out of the fact that Senator Dunn is here, and they say that he will make a speech. Senator Dunn is a very fine speaker, and he will be listened to with pleasure by the Democrats, for they want to see him. The Republicans are also trying to make a great deal out of the fact that Senator Hetrick is here, and they say that he will make a speech.
