Mr. Stubbs was not young, but he was about to be married; and though he had reached the age of fifty-fifth birthday, he was young, pretty, and charming and a little other himself, took Mr. Stubbs' attentions to heart; he first began to offer him up the house, which was not mortgaged. Then was a little difficulty about the furniture. However, Mrs. Valentine and her mother, who had been married twenty years, and had all their furniture, were greatly relieved when she found Parlor and Bedroom suits, Kitchen Utensils, and green ivy astonished when Mr. Stubbs proposed to take them all off their hands. Including Pillows and Bolsters, it suitable to the occasion.

Mr. Stubbs was married and the happy pair went to housekeeping in Jayne, where Mrs. Valentine—now Mrs. Stubbs—was admired in the Mr. Stubbs's gallerly contrary, and I think about it properly," she declared. "The idea, Evy! Mr. Stubbs looks older than your poor pa ever did. He's very nice, but it seems to me he's not age."

"Why, Ma, I'm twenty-five, and I'm sure I don't know, and I'm sure he'll make a good husband; and—and that and I thought we had better accordingly well off."

"That is—comfort," said Mrs. Valentine. "Well, dear, you must please yourself, and for me I see Mr. Stubbs's money—or good to depend upon."

"Ma, I'm—comfort," added Evy. "I should have a comfortable house, and I can do cooking like anything, and I'm fond of children, and I'm sure I'm a good housekeeper; and—and I'm sure I'm—I'm—sure, but he's exceed

RAHWAY, N. J., MARCH 8, 1881.

Regular monthly meeting of the Board of Freeholders to-day.

The election officers had a rather easy time days work at the recent election.

It is rumored that Col. Ross will shortly resign the Colonelcy of the 2d Regiment.

Dr. Dale is not proud of the "Rogerenes" as has been reported in semi-quotes.

It is said that an effort is being made to consolidate the field of Temperance Division in this city.

Dr. Daly has purchased the well known trotting pony "Spotted Tail" of Ex-Ald. Potter, Esq.

John A. Yoxbridge is spoken favorably of as Democratic candidate for Clerk of Freeholders in Linden.

Rev. J. A. Liggett, of this city preached in Asbury Park Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday, morning and evening.

Mr. Jewell talks of removing his grocery and provision store further up town. Good luck to him, wherever he may locate.

Wm. Hoadgland, Esq., of Hoadgland Mills, was another to miss MARCH 1st arrival, in Westfield, on Tuesday afternoon last.

There was not much of the "lamb" here in the shape of March, but the lion "showed his teeth" very decidedly.

The telephones are doubtless actuating business between Milton's drug store and Mr. Hoagy's office, works very satisfactorily.

A Chinaman in Rahway, Monday afternoon, with the general thought that "Winter is broken up" had the cheek to return on Tuesday demand for the remark.

The Heritage Bank authorities are making considerable improvement in the Heritage property, in Rosselle, which is to be occupied by Severn G. Squires, Esq.

We regret to learn that Josiah Taylor, Esq., one of our old residents, and his family, are residing, the Dr., will soon remove from this city to Bloomfield, Essex county.

Walter Fuller, Esq., for many years cashier of the Railway National Bank, has resigned that position, and Townsend W. Morford, Esq., was appointed to fill his place.

We are pleased to see A. F. Shotwell, Esq., president, of the Rahway National Bank, again at his post, having been confined to his house by sickness for about five weeks.

The Regimental Board of the Third Regiment have tendered to Major Samuel W. Scott, Newell a complimentary Dinner, to take place in Trenton in the near future.

The masquerade ball of the Rahway Lodge Ad Sodalet, at Washington Hall, on Tuesday evening, was quite a success—many of the general and grotesque costumes creating much amusement.

An English Tea Meeting will be held in the lecture room of the 1st M. E. church, Thursday evening, at 7 o'clock. Admission, including tea, twenty cents. There will also be singing, during the evening.

Gen. Plum will, on the 1st of April, move his cows, stallionry and other stock from Milton to the "grand farm" on Union Hill Road in the "grand county town." Gen. Plum is very much valued by the "boys."

The Jubilee Singers, of the New Orleans University, will give a Programme at the 1st M. E. Church, on Friday evening, March 11th, 1881. Come and hear them; they will do you good. Admission 25 cents. Adv.
