Ice Skating Queen

Lorraine Jean Sawicki

Belleville Junior Selected County Ice Skating Queen

Miss Lorraine Jean Sawicki, a South Mountain Ice Carnival and junior at Belleville High School, Sunday was crowned Essex County Ice Skating Queen by Miss New Jersey at the sixth annual

The 16-year-old skater is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Sawicki of 105 Dow Street. The crowning of the queen was the highlight of a program that featured many professional skaters as well as amateurs, who competed in the queen contest.

Miss Sawicki has been skating five years. She is active in many activities at the school including the Twirlers, the Junior Senate and the French Club.

Her mother is a teacher at St. Peter's Grammar School.

DEBATE ASKED ON RECALL

Await Word On Appeal of Recall Vote

Councilman G. George Addonizio said yesterday that all papers have been filed with the State Supreme Court, asking a reversal of the Superior Court order for a recall election March 3, which was upheld by the Appellate Court.

"I filed the briefs yesterday afternoon (Tuesday) myself," Addonizio said. "I also served Attorney Emil M. Wuster with the papers." Wuster is the attorney representing Robert Westry and the For Recall Committee in the move for a recall.

Addonizio said Mayor Robert M. Laterza and Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo, both also facing recall, have joined him in the court action.

"I am waiting for word on when the matter will be heard," Addonizio said. "I expect to hear sometime between now and Monday."

The For Recall Committee had sought a court order for the recall election after Town Clerk John B. Burnett had ruled that the positions submitted by the committee asking for a recall of three incumbents were ruled insufficient.

The Superior Court ruled against Burnett and ordered that a recall election be held March 3. Addonizio and Mayor Laterza and Strumolo appealed the decision to the Appellate Court, but their argument on lack of cause for a recall was rejected. The appeal was then carried to the Supreme Court.

Policemen Sworn to Posts

John B. DiRienzo was announced the official winner of the seat on the Board of Education after the completion of a recount yesterday afternoon. Carmine G. Petti who was defeated by DiRienzo by two votes. Petti had asked County Superintendent of Schools Dr. William S. Twitchell for the recount on February 11 shortly after he had placed third in the five-man race for the two seats up for election. Incumbent Richard Drake was reelected easily, however DiRienzo who won the second seat held only a two-vote edge over Petti, 1,301 to 1,299. Other successful candidates were Michael Albertine and William A. Peila.

Council Faces Longevity, Land Leasing Ordinances

The question of longevity for all Town employees and the leasing of land on Valley Street are expected to spark lengthy debates at the meeting of the Town Council Monday night.

Both issues passed first reading at the February 10 meeting but both encountered heavy opposition from Councilman James R. Golden.

The issue of longevity was passed only after all Town employees were included in the ordinance. Originally only the police and firemen were under consideration for the longevity pay increases. However, all employees were added to the plan, which was approved by a 4-1 vote with Golden opposed.

When the ordinance was first offered the Lloyd Engineering Company was interested in leasing the site.

Recall Unit Challenges Addonizio

Councilman G. George Addonizio was challenged to a public debate on the "For and Against Recall" issues by the For Recall Committee.

The challenge was issued in the form of a letter from Marty Resnick, chairman of publicity for the For Recall Committee. The letter said:

"Mr. Addonizio, Your court-rejected efforts to prevent the recall election have proved futile and the courts have placed the responsibility of the decision 'For or Against Recall' where it rightfully belongs, in the hands of the electorate. This has been the sole aim of the 'For Recall Committee' for the last nine months. This committee believes that the public should be made fully aware of all the issues so that they can make an honest decision.

"What better way can this be accomplished than by public debate. This debate can be jointly sponsored by the 'For Recall Committee' and yourself or persons you may designate. May we have your early reply to this letter in order that the necessary arrangements can be made."

Contacted yesterday afternoon, Councilman Addonizio said he had received the letter and turned it over to Howard L. Hendricksen, chairman of the "Against Recall Committee."

"I'll debate anybody, anywhere on any subject," said Addonizio. "However I turned over the letter, which was unsigned, to Hendricksen as he sets the policy on all matters in this campaign."

Hendricksen was unavailable for comment.

Boy Scouts Meet Tuesday

A meeting of the Belleville District of the Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held Tuesday night at School 5. Arthur Jackson, district committee chairman, said yesterday. Jackson said all members of the district have been invited to the meeting and they have been urged to bring a friend to listen in.

Nicholas Juliano was reelected president of the Board of Education on the fifth ballot, Monday night at the reorganizational meeting of the board. Dr. Frank DiRuggiero was elected vice-president, succeeding Ernest S. Arvidson.

After the election, members discussed the adoption of rules for the new year. George H. Brown gave notice that he would move for the return of unit control of the school system at the regular meeting, scheduled Monday.

NICHOLAS JULIANO

Richard Drake asked if this could be done at the meeting and school attorney Max Schwartz advised the board that the change could be made.

Juliano was nominated by Dr. DiRuggiero for the presidency. He was opposed by Brown, who was nominated by Drake. Four votes were required to win the post. On the first ballot Juliano received three votes, Brown received two with one member abstaining and one turning in a blank ballot.

On the second ballot Juliano and Brown each received three votes with one ballot being returned blank.

Renominations were called for and Juliano and Drake were nominated. On the vote, Drake received three votes, Juliano received two and two members turned in blank ballots.

On the fourth vote, Drake received three votes, Juliano, three, and one ballot was blank.

Nominations were accepted for the third time and Juliano and Brown were nominated again. On the fifth vote of the evening, Juliano received the necessary four votes to three for Brown.

Arvidson was nominated for the vice-president's post, but declined the nomination. Dr. DiRuggiero was nominated for the post by Arvidson. Drake was nominated by Mrs. Norma McCool. On the first vote, Dr. DiRuggiero received four votes to three for Drake.

Belleville High School Band Schedules Concert March 6

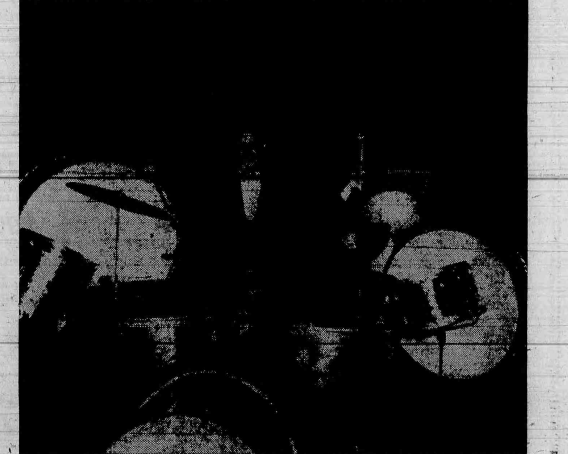

The Belleville High School band will present its first concert of the season March 6 at 8 p.m. at the High School under the direction of Robert A. Wing. Wing, who joined the Belleville school system this year, is a graduate of Manhattan School of Music and taught at Long Island, N. Y., schools prior to accepting his present post.

Wing said about 50 students are active in the band. In addition the High School Senior Twirlers will exhibit their talents.

One of the numbers will feature the dancing of Gwen Gaudio and Zina Moiseenko. Soloists include Joseph Brogna, David Wolk and Robert Santin.

A color guard composed of Carol Brechtbill, Joan Di Fazio, Judy Dei Guercio and Rose Marie Sorrentino will take part in several numbers.

Tickets are available by contacting any member of the band or by calling the high school.

FEATURE ATTRACTION — While it will appear to the audience at the Belleville High School concert March 6 that drummer Joe DeLuca has four arms, it isn't so. The extra arms, above, belong to the cymbal player, Sam Alvino.

OUR NEW LOOK

The Nutley Sun and The Belleville Times-News appear today in a sparkling new type dress, more attractive in appearance than the type formerly used and easier on the eyes.

It is 9-point Star News and is the latest achievement in the art of type designing. It is crisp, clear, and definitive, and smartly styled. Set on a 9½-point slug (metal base) it allows for ample white space between the lines. The Sun and Times-News formerly used 8-point type.

The new type is just one of many things being done to improve your favorite weekly newspaper—the only newspaper in the world interested in this community.

Recall Called Catastrophe For Belleville by Addonizio

Councilman G. George Addonizio today termed the efforts of the Recall Committee "an attempt to bring catastrophe to Belleville's government."

He stated: "This group of individuals claim the movement is the result of the opinion of 4,300 signers of petitions. Nothing has been said of the circulators of these very petitions — most of them being former associates of the defeated members of the last governing body under the commission form of government. And, nothing has been said of the many lies that were told to the citizens of our town in an all-out effort to have the petitions signed."

G. GEORGE ADDONIZIO

"No one has explained to the citizens of our town why this group, comprised of many who secured petition signers for the reappointment of the former town clerk, omitted the name of the minority member of the Council. Wasn't it because this man who has obstructed every move of the Municipal Council, sought to take advantage of the people who signed for his reappointment and jumped to his defense, even after he and his fellow minority councilman initiated the move for combining the positions of Town Clerk and Town Manager?"

"Isn't it true that these same people led by the former town clerk and his 'cousin,' now cabinate the days long past in a final effort to return to the days of both positions by our first Town Manager and now come waste at the expense of the taxpayers, this is evident, especially when no one of that group even hints that many of our efforts proved beneficial to the taxpayer."

"Our critics decay the length of time it took to move on the fire equipment. They say nothing of the fact that I and my colleagues were cognizant of the complete need of this equipment early in 1963 when the matter was presented by the Fire Chief and after he proved to all citizens' satisfaction that the former Director of Public Safety purchased one piece of equipment in his 12 years in office so that the equipment — 25 and 30 years of age — had to be replaced. These people can't agree on that point — it would prove again the inefficiencies of the past."

"The people of Belleville have again reached the 'day of decision' and must decide whether they desire continued efforts in the direction of strong fiscal policies to the benefit of all taxpayers, or whether they desire to return to the days of waste and inefficiency. In other words, should Belleville move forward or return to a discredited past, which our citizens completely discarded in 1962?"

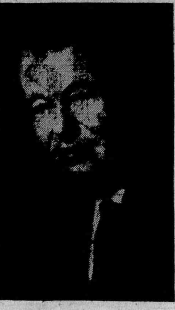

"Through fraudulent claims the radical element in our community is attempting to use the Recall election device to seize Town Hall for their selfish interests."

"I urge Belleville voters to reject this power grab and vote against Recall."

Cullen Lists Program To Meet The People

William H. Cullen, a candidate for councilman at large, this week announced his intention of going out "to meet the people" and criticized the present incumbents for their disregard of the public will.

The announced campaign to meet the people will be initiated by an open house to be held on Sunday afternoon, February 22, at the Knights of Columbus Hall from 3 P.M. to 6 P.M. on Bridge Street. Cullen has invited all the voters to stop in and meet him and take advantage of the opportunity "to make suggestions on how to improve our local government and better our community image."

WILLIAM H. CULLEN

Cullen who expressed his complete confidence in the council manager from government stated his concern at the fact "that there has been a complete disregard for the basic principles on which the council manager form is based." Cullen went on to say that The Belleville Times described the legislative branch of the government to the voters as "being completely responsible to the people." When was the last time any of the councilmen made themselves available for discussion with their constituents? How many of the voters can remember having the chance to make complaints or suggestions to the present incumbents?"

Roundtables to Test Opinions Pledged Second Ward by Bass

John Bass, second ward candidate for Belleville Town Council, pledged today that he would establish "people to people" round tables throughout his ward in order to promote Council Manager rule as a truly responsible and representative municipal government.

He said: "I think discussions and interviews of the present problems and of ideas is the life blood of responsive leadership. Cross communication is vital to the health of any community. I hope to establish in my ward machinery for regular old fashion meetings, with 'open end' discussions to solve the present problems and recommend solutions of our community."

"It isn't enough to wait for residents to get angry and storm town hall with the frustrating problems that neglect and indifference promote. This manner of governing by our present officials reflects unconcern for the needs and the problems of the people. With the continuing and objective talks I propose, we will have, at least in my ward, an effective way of determining immediately what our needs are and, perhaps, the most effective method of coping with them."

"This type of civic approach to government, I think, is unquestionably necessary for the welfare of our people. The present councilmen now exhibit no concern for any of the problems presented by our municipality."

"Mayor Laterza, it seems to me, has not demonstrated in his almost two years in office that he cares much for what the people think. He has been a willing party to a municipal government that has fired or demoted capable personnel, that has hulled through idiosyncratic legislation, that has dangerously damaged the moral of employees, that has authorized — with our money dictatorial and threatening investigations of municipal departments that have accomplished absolutely nothing except to pour out money down the drain and frighten loyal workers."

"Now has Laterza shown any ability as a 'university teacher' of our community. He has had two years to learn. I see no evidence of this education. He remains unable to properly conduct public meetings, he knows little or nothing about parliamentary procedure, and he seems frequently to make decisions outstanding for their apparent lack of study and deliberation. The tone of government to me should be established on a legal, absolute non-partisan basis for the good of all of our people free of political abuses."

"I cannot believe, either, that Ralph Casale has shown much interest in municipal government. To my knowledge, he has rarely, if ever, demonstrated any overriding concern for governmental operation of our community. My advisory has been schooled the type of politics which will only lead to confusion."

A councilman is a representative of the people and I intend to know the desires of the people I represent," he said.

Mayor Eyes Recall, Town's Future

Mayor Robert M. Laterza today called upon all registered voters of the Town of Belleville to cast their ballots for or against the present recall movement on March 3rd — the day of decision in our community.

The Mayor stated, "Belleville is faced with a very serious question, one which will determine the future of our town. The Council-Manager government in our community has been met with a large obstacle and this has been evident to all citizens since shortly after July 1, 1962, when the Council was in receipt of petitions for the reappointment of the former town clerk. These petitions, instituted by the forces of defeated candidates at the May 1962 election, were secured in an effort to pressurize the members of the Town Council. By a 3-2 vote the Council failed to comply with that pressure. As a result, Council-Manager government in our town has been constantly hampered by this same group of individuals who never once spoke in favor of the many accomplishments of the present administration. Despite the fact that many failings of former administrations under the commission form of government were uncovered by the Council — and corrected to the benefit of all our citizens — the pressure by this group of individuals has continued. We were not dismayed but, to the contrary, we continued to devote our energies to bringing good government back to our town — and we have succeeded. We are now faced with the "day of decision" when all of our citizens must determine whether Belleville should continue to move forward or take a backward step and return to the days of waste and ineffectiveness in government. Should we increase the salary of a clerk who was originally a water meter reader and for political reasons advanced to the important position of town clerk and then failed a civil service examination for a lower position in that office? This is the real question for our citizens.

Surely all of our citizens agree that this form of government under the administration of our present town manager has accomplished much. There is no comparison between the success of Council-Manager government with a competent manager to carry out the policies of the Council and the wasteful administration under the commission form. It is quite clear that our present form of government can and must succeed — we have proved that by our correction of so many failures of the past.

Who ever heard of a corporation allowing overdue bills remaining uncollected? How long would a Board of Directors remain who performed the duties of their office in such haphazard manner? True, we removed that Board of Directors here in Belleville. Our task now is to state once and for all time that Belleville will never return to the days of waste and careless administration.

Citizens of Belleville should be ever mindful that the group of individuals seeking the present recall are being led by those very people who administered town government so carelessly in the past. The candidates themselves are members of this group and their reason for seeking our recall is quite evident. We cannot return the reins of government to those who have neglected the Fire Fighting forces of our town, to those who were so careless in spending money — tax money — and who failed to properly assess for local improvements or collect unpaid taxes over so many years — from 1939 to 1963 — who never once showed a surplus in the current budget of any sizeable amount, who never showed a town budget boost of government lower than the previous years, who constantly purchased equipment whether vitally necessary or not, and, who paid excessive overtime wages to a favored few.

Our government is a large operation and costly, indeed. But the aim of our present government is to give every possible service to all citizens at the lowest possible cost to the taxpayer. We have advanced in that direction and it is our intention to continue in this direction. We are confident that the vast majority of our citizens desire economy in government — desire to have our employees carry out the duties of their office during a 40-hour week to the best of their ability. We feel that our citizens are sick and tired of a government hampered by the obstructionism of a minority determined to bring back the wasteful years of the past. We are certain that the citizens of Belleville want the best in recreation for their children, want to once and for all time eliminate the flood conditions which prevailed so long under the former commission government, and want all citizens to share equally in footing the bills of their government — not to continue to lay dormant those bills which remain unpaid and unassessed by complete carelessness on the part of the Directors of our government.

The accomplishments of your Council-Manager government are well known to all of our citizens. However, an attempt is being made to have three members of the Council recalled from office for a period of 60 days at an estimated cost of $10,000 for the sole reason that the three of us have failed to agree on a political appointment to the office of Town Clerk. This is a group of citizens operating at a low ebb. The group know this is one of the appointments of the Council — to select a clerk who operates his office in the interest of the Council and not for his own benefit. The former town clerk attained a salary of $8,900. The Council saved a large portion of that salary in its conviction that unnecessary jobs should be eliminated or consolidated. While we could have easily appointed a person of our own choosing to this post we were in agreement with the minority members of the Council in August 1962, that a saving could be made by having the Manager serve in the capacity of town clerk — a post which has been handled efficiently by our present manager. For this saving, we have been scandalized by a group of defeated politicians who have pressured our citizens regardless of the damage being made to Belleville's name.

Casale Hits Incumbents On County Tax Action

The Mayor and the two Councilmen formed a majority that blocked the will of the Council minority which violates the spirit of the Belleville Form of Government. Mr. Laterza and his legislative body of two have given us causes for re-call which are clear enough for the voters to make an intelligent decision on March 3rd," Ralph Casale said yesterday.

He said: "To illustrate how the majority bloc operates, at the last public meeting Councilman Pico and Councilman Golden presented a resolution protesting the high county tax rate. As you know, many towns have already objected and have received recognition for their stand. This would not incur any expense to the town, it would indicate to the taxpayers of this town the sincerity of the Council. Mr. Laterza, Mr. Addonizio and Mr. Strumolo voted against the resolution, again as the "Majority Bloc" and defeated it. We can only speculate that they were under orders not to further expose their party. I consider this a most incredible performance. This is the Majority Bloc in action. "Mr. Laterza I call on you to (Continued On Page 4)

School Board Politics

The Board of Education reorganized itself Monday night. After four ballots Nicholas Juliano was returned as President. Throughout most of the balloting the fight for the Presidency was stalemated, three for George Brown — three for Juliano — and the seventh vote withheld.

Students of Board of Education politics surmise Richard Drake, Mrs. Norma McCool, and George Brown were on one side of the balloting and Dr. Frank DiRuggiero, John DiRienzo, and Nicholas Juliano on the other. The withheld vote was assumed to be that of Ernest Arvidson. On the fifth ballot it is presumed Arvidson cast his ballot for Juliano thus defeating Brown.

Regardless of who voted for whom we believe Brown's election to the Presidency would have been better for our school system.

Board member Ernest Arvidson rejected an invitation to continue as Board Vice President. Dr. Frank DiRuggiero was elected to the post by a 4-3 vote, defeating Board member Richard Drake.

At the organization meeting George Brown promised to introduce at the next session a resolution returning our school system to Unit Control. A couple of months ago Board President Juliano led a strip-Durkee effort which resulted in adoption of an administration system an Essex County Grand Jury opposed.

Brown, Drake and Mrs. McCool opposed Dual Control. Newly elected Board member John DiRienzo is on record as also in opposition to Dual Control. If DiRienzo keeps his campaign pledge next Monday evening Belleville should be rid of a system of administration condemned in the past by a Grand Jury and strongly opposed by the Essex County School Superintendent.

Legal But Immoral

The year-long effort to throw out of office Mayor Robert M. Laterza, Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio, and First Ward Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo via the Recall rout is of course legal. But — we think it is immoral.

There has been no charge of moral turpitude brought against any one of these public officials who have spent a life time building up good reputations and carrying on good family reputations hard won over the years. In June of 1962 it was a majority of Belleville voters who placed them in office. Laterza and Strumolo for a two year term, and Addonizio for a four year term.

The terms of both Laterza and Strumolo expire in TEN WEEKS! Why a special election at an estimated $15,000 cost to throw them out of office ten weeks earlier? (The estimated cost is a forecast of Town Manager John R. Burnett.)

The Recall incubated when a majority of the Town Council members refused to submit to the pressures brought to bear upon them to name Eugene Barnett Town Clerk.

Barnett's cousin (through marriage) Robert Westpy, present candidate for Strumolo's seat led the Barnett petition signers. He later led the Recall Committee.

Many times in this space we have said that Eugene Barnett is a fine citizen and a good public employee. We have constantly supported him for appointment to the Town Clerk's post when and if the duties of that office overburdened our hard working Town Manager. We even supported a suggestion that Barnett's present post of Principal Clerk be made permanent and carry a salary equal to that which Barnett was previously earning.

Now this has all changed. Barnett took a Civil Service examination for the Principal Clerk's job last November. He was the only candidate who sat for the exam. Barnett failed the examination. In view of this result one wonders how a Councilman (James R. Golden) can today insist upon the appointment of Barnett to the superior post of Town Clerk?

More to the point perhaps is the question do we need a Town Clerk and a Town Manager? Since last April John R. Burnett has been performing both jobs admirably well and what is important to the taxpayers and voters is that Barnett is performing both jobs for the price of one salary.

Laterza, Strumolo and Addonizio were independently elected on pledges to effect economies in town hall. One of the means to gain economies is to merge or eliminate unnecessary jobs. The people for Recall would have us believe this practice is against the public interest. Apparently this is the silly season.

Laterza, Strumolo and Addonizio supported the proposed consolidation of the jobs of Building and Plumbing Inspectors. Again they incurred the wrath of the politically ambitious radical fringe of our community. And again Strumolo, Laterza, and Addonizio became marked for extinction. And again we believe they acted in the best interests of our taxpayers and voters.

Almost single-handedly Strumolo led the fight to give Silver Lake residents same day mail delivery service. He succeeded where others have failed. Formerly a letter mailed by a Belleville resident to a person living in the Silver Lake section went to the Roseville branch of the Newark Post Office and was delivered to Silver Lake residents from that office. The Post Office treated Silver Lake, Belleville as part of Newark. Strumolo bitterly objected to this procedure and as a result ALL Belleville mail is now handled through our Belleville Post Office. This upgrading of mail service for Belleville citizens could hardly be caused by Recalling Strumolo. But yet there are radicals among us who want to throw Strumolo out of office.

Voters have every right, nay — an obligation, to evaluate a public official's performance in office, make a judgment, and then cast a vote to continue the official in office or replace him with another candidate. There is a time and place for this action. But March 3rd is not the time and a Recall booth is not the place.

In the present circumstances we believe the March 3rd special $15,000 election is immoral and a fraud upon the people. We believe our citizens should crowd the polls election day, March 3rd and vote AGAINST RECALL.

There are good candidates aspiring to replace Laterza, Strumolo and Addonizio. Ralph Casale is a fine citizen. He is most worthy of consideration for elective office in Belleville. But he is in the wrong election. Responsible citizens should be opposing Recall not seeking election on the same ballot.

John Bass has been an indefatigable worker. Like Casale he too is seeking the Second Ward seat of Laterza's. Here again we think he is running for the wrong office and the wrong time.

In passing we would like to observe that neither Casale or Bass could improve upon the performance of Laterza as a Councilman and as a Mayor.

For the At-Large post held by Deputy Mayor G. George Addonizio we have two eminently qualified citizens seeking the job. Salvatore Calabro, a prominent engineer in his field, is campaigning hard with the active support of the Citizens' Tax Council, a group he formerly headed. William Cullen, another prominent and able Belleville citizen is vying to replace Addonizio. Cullen, like Calabro, is a superior citizen, extremely well qualified to represent our citizens on the Town Council. But this is the wrong election for both Calabro and Cullen to seek office.

As responsible citizens they should have joined hands to fight off this shame of Belleville — the Recall election.

On our streets in the month of December there occurred a total of 28 accidents resulting in 2 fatalities and 10 injured persons. However due to intensified traffic law enforcement only one accident occurred during the holiday season. Enforcement of traffic laws is the greatest aid in the prevention of accidents. It must be remembered that the smallest traffic violation can result in a major accident.

defend the "Majority Bloc" decision on the Handbill Law. This law as most people know was apparently the weapon that was going to dissolve a local independent newspaper. You failed to enforce the law when it was put to a test by a local attorney. Our manager, Mr. Burnett, has indicated that it could not be enforced. Is this the type of government the people of Belleville deserve? I understand now that your group is on the brink of reverting. Is this with the expectations that you would be treated with kindness and sympathy or is this similar to other decisions of late in order to buy back the respect of some people. "You have proven to us that you lack the ability to use good judgement in governing the town."

BECK'S COLUMN

by MAX BECK

One customer came to our store a few weeks ago. He wanted to look at a color set which he saw advertised for $349.50 in the newspaper by a store in a neighboring town. We had to tell him that we didn't have such a set and that we doubted that anybody else had.

So we sent a shopper to the store, and although it was only a little over an hour after the newspaper with the ad in question was out, the advertised set was not there. They claimed that they were all sold already.

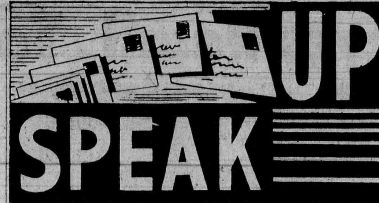

They tried to sell our man a set from a different manufacturer for $449.50.

We followed up a few ads offering these very low prices. You can be sure that something is wrong. In one case the set was a beaten and scratched up floor model. In another case the set was 5 years old. Invariably there is a "gimmick". The purpose of these deceptive ads, of course, is exactly what the salesman tried in the case above, switch you to a different brand or different set, as long as the ad brings you into the store.

You still can not buy a color set for $350., at least not a current model. There is still that large volume of mail-order chain soon will offer a 16" color set made in Japan for around $300.. We have not seen the set yet. The announcement appeared in the trade paper only.

It is a pity that stores resort to deceptive methods of advertising. The Federal Trade Commission is very active in an effort to stamp out these practices, but they can't do anything in local matters like these. You are on your own. Before you buy, inquire about the reputation of the store. Particularly find out if service is given directly from the store. If service is farmed out to somebody else or you are promised "factory" service, you are better off looking for a different store.

NOTES LANDLORD SUPPORTING BARNETT

To the Editor, Times-News:

Having read the letter appearing in the February 13th issue of your paper over the signature of Mrs. A. C. Izzo, of 33 Van Houten Place, and having recalled that the former town clerk also claims that address for his residence, I think the citizens of our town should join with me in the knowledge I have gathered.

Mrs. Izzo is the landlord — and has been for some period of time — of our former town clerk, Eugene "Cappy" Barnett, and is also active in the recall movement to oust Councilman Strumolo and two other councilmen from the elected office for no other reason than that they have refused to appoint her tenant as Belleville's town clerk.

What can the gimmick be, Mrs. Izzo? We have lost our highways, here in New Jersey this year's death rate was one of the highest we had in the last 21 years. We hope this article will help to show you why at times it is necessary to issue a summons.

Izzo? Are you anxious to raise your tenant's rent by trying to increase his income at the expense of the taxpayer so that you can do so?

I am convinced and so are many, many of our citizens that your tenant is the initiator of the recall movement and has banded together the forces of the defeated politicians, as well as his landlord in an attempt to ruin Belleville for the sole purpose of having himself appointed to a position for which he has failed in qualifications.

Your tenant, Mrs. Izzo, was the political appointment of former Mayor Padula, now one of our heroes who formerly appointed his son and other relations to responsible positions in our local government, and then forgot to have them sworn into office, as a result of which, one of his relations lost his position in the courts of our state.

I don't believe the former Mayor's appointments have to be appointed and reappointed. Belleville changed its form of government to rid itself of those tactics.

PO Schedules Carrier Exams

Acting Postmaster Joseph J. Benucci, of the Newark Postal District, announced today the new Civil Service Examination for appointment to Substitute Clerk and Substitute Carrier Positions for Newark, New Jersey (including Belleville, Irvington and Nutley). The starting salary for these positions is $2.33 per hour.

Certification will be made of the eligibles who reside within the delivery area of the Newark, N. J. Post Office or who are bona fide patrons of that office.

There is no specific education or experience requirement, but applicants will be required to take a written examination designed to test aptitude for learning and performing the duties of these positions. The test subjects will be of the following types: (1) general abilities, (2) following instructions, and (3) address checking.

Further information on the examination and the necessary card form for applying may be obtained at the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, United States Post Office, Newark, N. J. 07102.

Please don't insult your fellow citizens by telling us a landlord demands the reappointment of a tenant because he was originally appointed by a former politician.

Yours truly,
MICHAEL DEL RUSSO

Phyllis Petrelli Is Chosen For United Nations Study

Miss Phyllis Petrelli, together with two other Caldwell College students, is currently taking part in the Drew University Semester on the United Nations. Miss Petrelli is one of 36 students chosen from all over the United States and four from European countries to participate in the Semester.

The program was initiated by Drew's College of Liberal Arts in order to provide an opportunity to study international organization through direct contact with the United Nations and its various agencies.

The course involves on-the-scene observation of United Nations meetings. Visits to various missions such as those of the United States and Soviet Russia, are also part of the curriculum. Individual research projects on the function and operations of international organization are included in the program.

Miss Petrelli, an honor student

Local Students Are Presented At Cotillion

Three Belleville young ladies, students at Montclair State College, were presented at the annual Inter-Sorority Council Cotillion Saturday evening, February 15, at the Military Park Hotel, Newark.

They were Miss Gloria Borowski, a junior at Montclair State, and Miss Barbara Kraly and Miss Terry Goglia, sophomores. Miss Borowski, a member of Alpha Chi Beta sorority, is majoring in Mathematics.

Miss Kraly, a member of Delta Sigma Chi, majors in Mathematics, and Miss Goglia, Theta Chi Rho, is a social studies major.

Slimnastic Classes At Montclair YMCA

The lung cancer and smoking controversy has caused many women to give up smoking and start exercising during the past few weeks, according to Mrs. John Holm, leader of slimnastic classes for women at the Montclair Y.M.C.A. "Quite a number of women have come to our classes for women at the Montclair Y.M.C.A. They are starting to gain weight after giving up smoking," said Mrs. Holm.

She went on to say, "We have two classes each Tuesday and Friday morning. They last for a half hour, with a half hour between classes. Many of our members come to both the first and second class. Mrs. Holm has a formula for figuring a person's proper weight. She gives her classes many helpful hints about losing weight, eating properly, posture and relaxation.

Each Tuesday and Friday morning the Y.M.C.A. provides a nursery for pre-schoolers who have passed their second birthday. Slimnastics classes are scheduled each Monday and Thursday evening for women who are not free during the day. Mrs. Ellen Lawrence leads the evening classes, which will continue throughout the winter. New members may join at any time.

Columbus Junior Auxiliary Plans Spring Fashion Show

"Better Times" Pink will be the colorful wrapping around an evening of prizes, fun and fashion sponsored by the Junior Women's Auxiliary of Columbus Hospital, Newark, at the Annual Spring Dessert Fashion Show to be held at Mayfair Farms, West Orange, Monday evening, March 8, at 8 p. m.

An array of spring and summer fashions will be presented by a Livingston fashion salon, and members of the Auxiliary will act as models.

Grand prize of the evening will be a $400 merchandise order given by a Newark department store, and many other valuable prizes will also be awarded. Each table will be decorated with a philodendron plant wrapped in Better Times pink paper and ribbon, and the plants will also serve as table prizes.

June Jaucula of Belleville is general chairman and her committee chairmen are Marie Rondino, tickets, and Louise Stefanelli, reservations, both of Newark; Mary Tortorello, East Orange; awards; Olga Tedesco, Newark, special prizes; Joy Italia, South Orange, door prizes; Gena Scavuzzo, Newark, fashion show; Maria Travisanu, Newark, publicity; and Louise Zappulla, Bloomfield, program.

Hat Show Planned By Rosary Society

St. Mary's Rosary Society of Nutley will sponsor an Easter Hat Show Friday, February 29, from 7 to 11 o'clock and Saturday, February 29, from one to 10 p. m. in the meeting room, Lafayette Street entrance.

In addition to hats, a selection of ladies' purses and lace mantillas, supplied by Betty Claire's Millinery of Belleville, will be shown.

Blind Center Director Will Speak At Rosary Breakfast

The Rev. Richard M. McGuinness, S. T. L., will be the guest speaker at St. Peter's Rosary Confraternity Communion Breakfast to be held at the Robert Treat Hotel, Newark on Sunday, March 1.

Father McGuinness is director for the Blind, Newark. He is in residence at St. Bridget's Church, Newark, and is no stranger to the parishioners of St. Peter's, usually celebrating the 7:30 a. m. Mass there each morning.

Father McGuinness was ordained in 1951, and received his S. T. L. and M. A. degrees at Catholic University in Washington, D. C. His first assignment was at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church, North Arlington and from there he was assigned to St. Bridget's and to the Mt. Carmel Center for the Blind. He is currently studying for his Doctorate at Columbia University, New York.

M.S. Organization Honors McDowells

A testimonial dinner was given by the Multiple Sclerosis Service Organization of New Jersey at the Bow and Arrow Manor, West Orange, on Saturday, February 8, to honor L. A. McDowell and his wife, Helen, of Ridgewood.

During the past 12 years, Mr. and Mrs. McDowell have given much of their spare time to the organization, building it from a small club to its present status of free clinic, Mobile Unit, and during the past year the opening of the first nursing home in the nation built exclusively for Multiple Sclerosis patients.

Co-chairmen of the affair are Mrs. Robert Conway and Mrs. Bart Donachie. The toastmistress will be Mrs. Jane Barnett. Mrs. Donachie and Mrs. William Doull are in charge of entertainments.

The Rosary Confraternity will hold its Lenten meeting, Monday, March 2, in the school cafeteria. Members are invited to see an inspirational film to be shown by the hostess of the evening, Mrs. James McConnon and her committee.

Nine BPW Clubs To Unite For World Affairs Dinner

Members of Tri-Town Business and Professional Women's Club, Inc., of Belleville, Bloomfield and Nutley will attend a joint World Affairs dinner meeting with eight other Business and Professional Women's Clubs of this area, Tuesday, February 25, at 7 p. m., at the Hotel Suburban, East Orange.

Each club was asked to prepare some portion of the evening, and Miss Helen Hunt, first vice president of Tri-Town, has arranged for the printing of the programs.

The Club of the Oranges, in charge of the program, has arranged for a prominent speaker from the United Nations, John M. Cates, to be present that evening. Mr. Cates joined the United States Mission to the United Nations on July 21, 1963, as Adviser, Latin American Affairs. Born in Denver, Colo., he received his L.L.B. degree from Yale Law School and is a member of the Bar in California and the District of Columbia.

During World War II he was with the War Shipping Administration, later joining the State Department as a Foreign Affairs Specialist, and then becoming officer in charge of United Nations, Cultural and Human Rights Affairs.

Mr. Cates has been on United States Delegations to many conferences. These include the UN Economic and Social Council and its special committees to draw rules of procedure and to consider the implementation of resolutions, the United Nations Commission on Human Rights, Rights of Women, the World Meteorological Organization and the International Telecommunications Union. Presently he is a member of the United States Delegation to the 18th General Assembly of the United Nations.

Several of the clubs have invited foreign students as their guests for the evening. Many of these young women will appear in their native costumes. Mrs. Marion Hennessy, Tri-Town's World Affairs chairman, has invited as guests of the club Miss Lynn Lau of Viet Nam and Miss Nydia Maciques from Cuba. Both of these young ladies are currently studying at Bloomfield College.

Good Shopper Is Careful One

Have you ever considered what effect your shopping habits have on the whole merchandising system? Careless buying can be expensive not only for you but also for the store.

Mrs. Florence G. Minifie, extension clothing specialist at Rutgers University, thinks it would be helpful to stop and check your buying habits periodically and in this way cooperate with the merchants from whom you deal. All could benefit in the long run.

Besides satisfying family members with your selections, it is also your responsibility to report to merchants when merchandise fails to measure up to expectations or to the claims made for it. The fact that we are permitted to return merchandise is one of the privileges of our system of distribution. Do you use this privilege to the best advantage for all concerned? Which type of consumer are you? Are you one who buys carelessly with the idea of returning the whole purchase or one who keeps everything regardless of how it functions?

A really good shopper is one who is halfway between these two extremes. She makes her selection carefully and to the best of her judgment. Then, if a part of her doesn't measure up, she takes it back to the store with a full explanation of its failure. Consider whether your return is justifiable. The Extension specialist says that with legitimate complaints, you can keep your retailer or the manufacturer aware that his product isn't proving satisfactory.

TIMES-NEWS IS SEEKING WOMEN CORRESPONDENTS

The Belleville Times-News is looking for local women to augment its Neighborhood News reportorial staff. Previous writing experience is desirable, but not necessary. What is important is an ear for news. The work is pleasant, especially for a housewife who has some time on her hands and enjoys talking with her friends, neighbors and acquaintances on the telephone.

Rita Dacey, The Times-News Social Editor, will be happy to interview prospective correspondents who might be interested. She will give any budding columnists all the instructions they need. Just give her a ring at Plymouth 9-3200 and make an appointment to see her.

We are especially interested in covering social activities of residents of the Valley, Lake district, Soho and Big Tree.

Miss Joy Ann Silver Weds In Christ Church Ceremony

Miss Joy Ann Silver and Richard John Bengel were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, February 15, in Christ Episcopal Church, Belleville. The pastor, the Rev. Dr. Frederick Long, performed the ceremony in a setting of white gladioli and carnations. The reception followed at The Fountain, Belleville.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Peter Silver of 74 Yale Street, Nutley, and the late Thomas Silver; the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. George Calhoun of 233 Lenox Avenue, Paterson, and the late John Bengel.

Given in marriage by Mr. Silver, the bride was gowned in silk peau de soie fashioned with sabrina necktie, three quarter length sleeves and bell-shaped skirt. Swiss applique enhanced the bodice and skirt which terminated in a chapel train.

A crown of imported orchids and lilies of the valley held her bouffant veil of French illusion, and she carried a cascade of white stephanotis with an orchid center.

Sapphire Motif
Miss Paula Bacchi of Nutley was maid of honor. Acting as bridesmaids were the bride's sister, Miss Carol Silver, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Edith Bengel. They wore sapphire brocade gowns featuring sabrina neckties, three quarter length sleeves and bell-shaped skirts. They had imported rose headpieces to match and carried white and blue carnations.

The flower girl, Deborah Joerg of Maplewood, a cousin of the bride, wore a light blue gown and carried a basket of blue and white flowers.

Douglas Clark of Marlboro N. Y., served as Mr. Bengel's best man. Ushers were Richard Stewart of Tolowa and John Sorrentino of Nutley.

The mother of the bride was attired in a beige crepe sheath with jeweled bodice, matching accessories and a corsage of beige roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a pink lace suit with accessories to match and a corsage of pink roses.

The wedding of Miss Janet C. Pristas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pristas of 384 River Drive, Garfield, to James T. Dattoli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dattoli of 13 Harvard Place, Belleville, took place Sunday afternoon, February 9, in Holy Name R. C. Church, Garfield. The Rev. Peter F. Lennon of Seton Hall University, South Orange, performed the ceremony which was followed by a reception at Suburban Restaurant, Paramus.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a lace trimmed gown of silk bombazine fashioned with square scalloped neckline, long sleeves and bell-shaped skirt with chapel train. A finger-clip veil fell from a crystal crown and she carried a Bible with white orchids.

Miss Evelyn Purfurst of Garfield was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Mrs. Edward Spengeman, also of Garfield; Mrs. Robert Ravera, Wyckoff, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Joyce Dattoli of Belleville, sister of the bridegroom.

The bride attendants wore floor length gowns of royal blue broad styled with round necklines and three quarter length sleeves. They had matching bow headpieces and carried white fur muffets with yellow cymidium orchids.

Joseph Dattoli served as Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jacobson of 104 Division Avenue, Belleville, January 27 at Mountaineer Hospital, Montclair. Birth weight was eight pounds, seven ounces. He joins a sister, Laura Patricia, Mrs. Jacobson is the former Patricia K. Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Brown of North Arlington. Mrs. Jacobson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Jacobson of North Haledon, is with the claim department, Prudential Insurance Co., Newark.

Deborah Will Pay Tribute To Hard Working Members

Meritorious Award Medals will be given to those who have raised the largest amount of money for the Belleville Chapter of Deborah at its monthly meeting, Monday, February 24 at 8 o'clock at the Belleville Recreation House. Two members will be honored this year.

Discussion for the evening will center around the forthcoming Chinese Auction, money raising project, with Mrs. Don Tuchman of Belleville, chairman, and Mrs. John Kelly, also of Belleville, co-chairman. Mrs. John Kelly will be in charge of refreshments for the evening.

An all-day workshop for Deborah members was held Monday, February 19. Local members who attended were Mrs. Milton Chason, president; Mrs. James Farfara, treasurer; Mrs. Steve Kelenen, vice president of ways and means; and Mrs. Kelly.

Mrs. Anthony Simone, Mrs. Kelenen and Mrs. Charen attended a recent meeting at Deborah Hospital for Chapter members. The topic of discussion was the new building which is presently being constructed for research and a heart center. The local Chapter held a board meeting on February 7. Mrs. Tuchman is making plans for a skit in keeping with tag week.

Neighborhood News

Mrs. Patricia Murray PL 1-1068
Mrs. Chris Ren NO 7-3290
Mrs. Dolores Porcaro NO 7-0770

Donna Di Gangi of Mary Street, eight years old, was an overnight guest on Friday, February 14, at the home of her schoolmate, Lorraine Porcaro of Nutley. Sleeping over 48 so much fun...

Little Kim Ryan, of Emmet Street, had her fourth birthday cake and all the trimmings at the Janice Gould Nursery School in Kearny. A great time was had by all the youngsters.

A bridal shower was given for Miss Lucille Restaino of Brighton Avenue on Wednesday evening, February 5 at the home of Mrs. Giordano of Stone Street, Bloomfield. Co-hostesses were: Mrs. Lenny Dandoune of Forest Street and Mrs. Giordano of the Bloomfield address. Miss Restaino was married Saturday, February 15 to Gary Garmello with reception following at Thom's, Newark.

Mrs. Paul Del Polito of Newark Place tells of hearing from her neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Pappas, who have been visiting relatives in South America. The Pappas are learning Spanish, and by the time they return in March, will probably be speaking the language fluently.

ATTEND FESTIVITIES
Familiar faces were recognized at the Carnevale dinner party held at Holy Family School on Tuesday, February 11. Guests included: Mrs. Frank Rovell, Mrs. Philip Forgione, Mrs. A. Esposito, all of De Witt Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Greco of Gregory Terrace, Mrs. M. Berend of Baldwin Place, Mrs. Cuzzi of Mary Street, Mrs. Paul Del Polito of Newark Place and Mrs. Anthony Mauriello of Emmet Street.

Eight-year-old Marie Galop of Greylock Parkway entertained her classmate, Donna Porcaro of Nutley, at her home for dinner last week. Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Galop are especially jubilant these days. Mr. Galop is now in the metal office partitions business and receiving many "Good Luck" messages.

Another four-year-old celebration was held for Michael Dambra of 27 Federal Street. Members of the family and little friends joined in the birthday fun.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rovell of De Witt Avenue and their two sons attended a buffet supper, Sunday, February 9 at the home of Mr. Rovell's mother, Mrs. Rovell, of Ralph Street, who was celebrating her 74th birthday. Happily, five of her seven children, and seven grandchildren were present.—D.P.

New Jersey is among the nation's leaders in urban renewal activity. At this very moment, sixty-eight communities are engaged in progressive, vigorous urban renewal programs—all geared to making our state a better place to live and work. Urban renewal activity has progressed at an accelerated rate, with over fifty percent more communities now in the planning stage than at this time last year.

Total cost to complete these fresh, healthy new skylines will be nearly $300 million. New housing, modern industrial developments, community and cultural centers are springing up everywhere, thanks to New Jersey's keen planning for the future through far-reaching urban renewal projects.

UP SPEAK

CANDIDATES DETEST ARGUMENT AGAINST RECALL
To the Editor, Times-News:
That stupidity, incompetence and duplicity of men elected to office are qualities which are worthy of being protected and concealed under the cloak of respectability and should not be exposed except by a general election, is the thought that is conveyed to me by one member of an organization on record as opposing the Recall election.
The opinion that "recalls would in time tend to lower the caliber of men seeking office etc., and etc." is a fallacy and a distortion of the truth.
On this very ballot men of great capacity, position, convictions and conscience have voluntarily placed themselves as candidates.

Those who advocate removing the majority bloc in a general election overlook the fact that only Laterza and Strumulo could be removed in this general election. Addonizio, whom it is conceded, has been the greatest disappointment of all, would be preserved for two more years.
Confident in their cause, the Recall committee demonstrated the courage of their convictions and initiated the action of circulating petitions. The peoples response was evidence enough for the courts to decide in their favor.
It is my opinion that this campaign has aroused a great many from the state of mind which is commonly referred to as "voter apathy." The long imbedded acceptance "that you can't fight city hall" is about to be abandoned. The voter who arouses himself to support this Recall election will return to themselves and to future generations the power which it is stated is inherent in the people.

The Recall committee, the 5,000 signers of the petition and the Courts of the State of New Jersey are indications that strong resolution "can fight city hall and win."
Government has suffered too long from the disgraceful opinion that, "politics is a dirty business." Politics is the profession of men whose interest is government. Its failures are the result of selfish, immoral and incompetent thinking men.
It is time for a reeducation to the principles of "establish JUSTICE, insure domestic TRANQUILITY, provide for the COMMON defense and promote the GENERAL welfare."
Within the Recall election lies the strength of the Faulkner Act, and the strength of the people.
The Recall of Laterza, Strumulo and Addonizio will accomplish what they are steadfastly refusing to admit, that the people believe they have failed.
VOTE FOR RECALL MARCH 3.
Respectfully submitted,
MRS. A. C. IZZO

READER URGES VOTE AGAINST RECALL
To the Editor, Times-News:
Painfully-remembrance of the witch burnings at Salem, or the more recent Mc Carthyism, is the rabble-roused recall movement now underway in Belleville.
I urge everyone to carefully consider the power of his vote and decide whether anything can be voted out in May without the disgrace of a recall.
If you disagree with their actions, these men are, after all, not infallible! Strumulo and Laterza can be voted out in May within the Recall election lies the strength of the Faulkner Act, and the strength of the people.
The Recall of Laterza, Strumulo and Addonizio will accomplish what they are steadfastly refusing to admit, that the people believe they have failed.
VOTE FOR RECALL MARCH 3.
Respectfully submitted,
MRS. A. C. IZZO

DRAKE THANKS VOTERS FOR SUPPORT
To the Editor, Times-News:
I would like to take the opportunity, through the medium of your newspaper, to thank the many individuals in Belleville who contributed to my recent re-election to the Board of Education, not only by their votes but also, in the case of many, by their voluntary and earnest efforts.
I have made no promises, so I have no promises to keep, but I pledge myself to continue to fight for what I believe to be right, whatever the cost may be to me. I believe the recent election shows that this is what the people want. I am confident that those who supported my candidacy, knowing my attitude, have maintained the highest standards of honor in their efforts on my behalf, notwithstanding the determined onslaught of political groups whose very presence in this election lent a disheartening note to an undertaking which, by its very nature, should be completely divorced from the influence of political moguls.
In light of this external influence, my success, and that of John Di Rienzo, was particularly gratifying to me, a gratification which was heightened by the adoption of the budget and the bond issue, both of which will measurably improve the ability of the Board of Education to continue its efforts for quality education in Belleville.

STAND ON SOMMERS DENIED BY CHAMBER
To the Editor, The Times-News:
In a summary of the complaints of the Recall Committee against the three men they intend to recall, it was stated in another newspaper that the Belleville Chamber of Commerce was opposed to the firing of Town Manager Sommers.
The facts are that the Chamber of Commerce did not take a stand for or against the firing of Mr. Sommers.

FIRE DEPARTMENT LAUD ON EFFICIENCY
To the Editor, The Times-News:
On Saturday, February 8, we experienced a fire in our home which could have caused a lot of more damage, if it wasn't for the promptness of the Belleville Fire Department.

We were amazed at the efficient way they went about getting the fire under control with out any unnecessary damage to furniture of home.
We are sure many people never realize how important it is to have a well trained fire department. This is something we learned from our experience.
At this time we would like to express our appreciation and gratitude to the Belleville Fire Department.
Sincerely,
WILLIAM & PAULA DUNN

Reasons for Recall Explained by Committee

The For Recall Committee detailed its reason for campaigning for the recall of Mayor Robert M. Laterza, and Councilmen G. George Addonizio and Vincent T. Strumolo in a statement last week.

The committee explained its stand saying: "The people of Belleville will be faced with an important decision on Tuesday, March 3rd, 1964. The issue is whether to Recall from office Councilmen G. George Addonizio, Vincent Strumolo and Mayor Laterza, commonly referred to as the Majority Bloc."

"The Recall election, an inherent feature of the Council-Manager form of Government, grants the electorate the opportunity to Recall elected officials from office. This is not a simple procedure. It requires the obtaining of the signatures of at least 25 percent of the registered voters on a petition collected to return Mr. (Cappy) Barnett as town clerk, constant wrangling between the 'Majority Bloc' and the other councilmen, and finally the resignation of Councilman Greco in disgust over the actions of this 'Bloc' have brought the reputation of Belleville to the lowest point in its history."

"After months of frustration by the actions of three of the councilmen, the 'Majority Bloc', a Recall Committee was formed and the necessary steps were taken for their recall. "The petitions have at this time been obtained, certified and after many legal obstacles a date for the Recall election was set by the Superior Court of Essex County, which was affirmed, on appeal, by the Appellate Division. This statement is therefore prepared to show some of the reasons and particulars for which this bloc should be removed from office."

"Mr. Addonizio, Mr. Strumolo and Mr. Laterza were elected as councilmen. Their initial actions as councilmen proved that they were not interested in the form of Government that was legally adopted by the citizens of Belleville, but much more interested in political commitments by indiscriminately hiring and firing

Town employees. They began usurping the duties of the Manager even before they selected him. They acted as if they had been elected Commissioners under the old form of Government, in fact, they acted with less discretion than any previous Commissioner. They assumed the duties of Administrators rather than Policy Makers.

"They continued the pretense by formulating an Administrative Code for Belleville. This code originally was fairly well formulated, but the 'Majority Bloc' soon modified, deleted and added enough to change this code into a document to particularly suit the political appointments already made. The law under Council-Manager form of Government particularly states that all appointments must be made by the Manager, except for the Town Attorney and Town Clerk or Town Manager. This 'Majority Bloc' fired an experienced Tax Assessor. The Department of Health and Welfare was turned over to the Registrar, who in most towns is usually a clerk under a certified Health Officer in the Department of Welfare and not head of the Department. The position of town clerk was made an additional duty of the town manager, a means to downgrade a worthy town employee.

"Some positions were eliminated, others created all under the guise of economy but in the real sense were political. They were barely prevented from firing a very competent Town Treasurer and then tried to curry his favor by appointing him temporary Town Manager. But not for long, he was soon replaced by another temporary Town Manager. Finally a competent and professional manager, Mr. William Sommers, was appointed and presented with an Administrative Code with which he was in complete agreement or in which he was not allowed to make any constructive changes. They not only stripped him with an obviously poor code but also barred him from conferences. An action unwarranted under the Council-Manager form of Government. Mr. Sommers applied himself to the job of Manager under these handicaps with diligence and patience but his attempt to eliminate policies from Town Hall produced immediate reaction from this 'Majority Bloc'. His dismissal came only after six weeks in office. The law, however gives the Manager a chance to answer the charges leveled at him at a Public Hearing. A hearing at which the public can weigh the charges but has no direct bearing on the decision of the Council.

"Over 500 citizens braved a two-foot snowstorm to be present at this hearing. A hearing at which Mayor Laterza attempted to make Councilman Addonizio chairman in order to relieve himself of the onus. Senator Ozzard, counsel for Mr. Sommers immediately stopped this move. Even with the help of a special counselor, the hearing proved to the town's citizens that there was no cause for dismissal of Mr. Sommers. The standing of a conscientious and competent Town Manager was sacrificed. This hearing was the fuse that ignited the citizens of Belleville into action. The Clergy, Civic Groups, businessmen and the Chamber of Commerce attempted to forestall the final official act to fire Mr. Sommers. Meetings with individual councilmen, talks of Recall, protest meetings of Civic Groups did not deter the 'Majority Bloc' from their decision, and Mr. Sommers was fired at the next Town Meeting. He was replaced temporarily by a Town employee in the good grace of this 'Bloc.' "With utter disregard for the sentiments of Civic Groups, Business Groups and the Chamber of Commerce this 'Majority Bloc' passed a Handbill law apparently aimed at a local independent newspaper. The fact that they were lax in its enforcement in no way relieves them of their responsibility for attempting to suppress the Freedom of the Press.

"In a little over a year they adopted, abolished and then re-adopted a Town Planning Board. Each time civic-minded citizens named and removed from this Board were held up to public ridicule by this action. Many fine individuals faced with a future decision to serve on this or any other Town Board will be very careful before accepting. "The purchase of eight police cars with only one bid is "NOT GOOD BUSINESS." Disdain for public opinion expressed at Town Meetings, the complete disregard for the approximately 4,000 signatures collected to return Mr. (Cappy) Barnett as town clerk, constant wrangling between the 'Majority Bloc' and the other councilmen, and finally the resignation of Councilman Greco in disgust over the actions of this 'Bloc' have brought the reputation of Belleville to the lowest point in its history."

"After weeks of diligent effort by the 'For Recall Committee' to obtain necessary signatures the nature of this 'Majority Bloc' has become even more evident. They brought to court citizens who may have signed the petitions. They even challenged the petitions in court. This is not a case for litigation, it is a case that should be settled once and for all at the polls. Is the 'Bloc' afraid to face the decision of the electorate? The 'For Recall Committee' believes they have a strong case.

Commission Government Deficits Noted by Councilman Strumolo

Councilman Vincent T. Strumolo to this week stated candidate Robert Westpy completely ignores the accomplishments of the Council and fails to truly state his part in the recall effort and his 'cousin' launched many months ago.

"The citizens of Belleville are cognizant of the efforts of the Municipal Council during the past 20 months. They are aware of the uncovered shortcomings of commission government as practiced by the last administration of that form of government. They are fully aware that taxes, long overdue, remained uncollected, causing the taxpayers who paid their bills on time to suffer by these delinquencies. They are aware of the lack of local assessments being laid in the 'hopper' due to the fact that the former assessor was faced with an excessive workload and this by his own admission. They are aware that the failure to properly assess for local improvements went back a period of many years and never brought up to date until early in the year 1961 upon the Municipal Council's investigation of the situation. Citizens are aware also that the present Council saved $78,000 by careful administration of the town's government during the year 1963.

"They are aware that Mayor Laterza, Councilman Addorizio and myself were completely aware of the urgent need of equipment — mainly fire equipment — which had been allowed to deteriorate by the former Director of Public Safety who purchased one piece of fire equipment in 12 years despite the continuous warnings of the Chief of the Fire Department. They are aware, too, of the many tree stumps and sewer leakage throughout the town which will now be corrected by this administration. Citizens are aware of the many accomplishments of the present Council which was formed shortly after July 1, 1962, hampered by the continuous efforts of the followers of the 'stumbling bloc' to have the former town clerk reappointed to the political position of town clerk, which we were confident he could not properly fill.

"As for candidate Westpy, let us once again call to mind the fact that early in 1962 he was the titular leader of the movement to secure signatures to petitions to pressure the Council to reappoint his 'cousin' as town clerk. Falling in this pressure movement, he joined forces with the followers of the 'defeated politicians' and became the titular head of the group seeking the recall of the three councilmen. He and his group desperate in their desire to have the 'cousin' reappointed spread lies and innuendo throughout the town in their effort to dup the citizens into signing their petitions. Once signed, candidate Westpy came to the fore — for, the sole purpose of insuring his 'cousin's' appointment to a position for which he is so little qualified.

"It might be said that the situation even graver, this group of which Westpy is the titular head, endorsed candidate Calabro but not being too sure of the latter's success, they induced candidate Cullen to place his hat into the ring for double insurance.

"I might truthfully state that the members of our present Council performed nobly despite the constant pressure of the Westpy recall group — yes, despite their intense efforts to discredit every action of the council simply because they saw fit not to reappoint the former holders of political appointive offices.

"To seek the recall of officeholders for the reason that we have failed to agree to the reappointment of those who were the political followers of the 'administrators of past waste' is a fraud upon the citizens of our community. I don't believe the citizens of our community are so naive as to fall for such nonsense. I am of the conviction that the majority of our citizens will by their expression on March 3rd move to keep Belleville moving forward."

Barnett - Center of Disputes

The flame that keeps the Town political pot boiling over is quiet, 44-year-old veteran Eugene "Cappy" Barnett.

The recall issue, political deals and the election of other town officials all seem to center around "Cappy" — and the fact that he once served as town clerk and many people believe he should be serving as town clerk at the present time.

Actually Barnett is working in the Town Clerk's office as principal clerk. He is doing much of the work that is normally performed by the town clerk, but Town Manager John R. Burnett has the title. Many people in Town believe that he is doing all of the work except the signing of the papers and feel that he should be given the title and the additional $5,000 that goes with it.

Barnett was born on November 24, 1919 in Belleville and has been a life-time resident. He is married and resides at 33 Van Houten Place. He is a graduate of St. Peter's Grammar School and Belleville High School.

For eight years after graduation he was employed by the Eastern Food and Manufacturing Company, sandwiched around three years service with the United States Army from October 1942 to October 1945. Two of his three years in service was spent in the European Theatre of Operations.

He went to work for the Town of Belleville in February of 1950 and has been employed by the Town at one post or another to the present time. He first was a laborer and then was a water meter reader, license clerk, town

Winners were Charles Robert Zisa of Hackensack and Carol Ann Glaser of Fair Haven.

Six Alarms Busy Firemen

Town firemen responded to six alarms during the past week and made 16 runs with the ambulances.

The first fire alarm came at 3:54 p.m. on February 7 when they were summoned to the home of Ronald Gillis at 324 Branch Brook Drive to extinguish a blaze in a closet.

On February 8 they answered an alarm at the home of James Salter, 216 Mill Street, where an oil burner flue, loaded with soot, fell over and set a wooden partition on fire. The blaze spread to the ceiling over the flue before it was doused with the use of a booster line.

At 1:05 P.M. on the same day the department was called to St. Anthony's School on a false alarm.

At 7:32 P.M. on the same day the department was called to the home of William Dunn at 428 Union Avenue where heat from a fire place was conducted to a wooden mantel which became ignited. A booster line was used to extinguish the fire.

On February 12 the firemen were called to the home of N. Scarola at 21 Myrtle Avenue where a washing machine motor was afire. The fire was out when the department arrived.

On February 13 the firemen responded to an alarm at the front of 48 Oak Street where a short in an overhead street wiring was reported. The short was corrected by Public Service.

Boy Scout Council Sets Date Feb. 26

The Robert Treat Council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold a "Together-Organization-Dinner" at the Robert Treat Hotel in Newark, February 26 at 6:45 p. m.

The affair will kick off the Council's "Together-Organization" campaign, which aims at simultaneously establishing 50 new Scout units in the Newark-Belleville-Irvington area by April. More than 200 representatives from churches, civic groups, and other institutions interested in forming new units will attend the dinner.

Volunteer organizers have been trained in the latest techniques of organizing Cub Packs, Scout Troops, and Explorer Posts by Emerson B. James, a national Scout official, and Chester R. Seymour, regional representative.

Currently, there are 214 Boy Scout units in the area with over 7,000 boys involved. The new units will make Scouting available to about 1,000 additional boys between the ages of eight and 17.

Alan L. Reed, a vice president of Prudential Insurance Company, is chairman of Robert Treat Council's Organization and Extension Committee which is conducting the organizing drive.

Seaman Druther Visits Kobe, Japan

USS HORNET — Joseph T. Druther, Jr., airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Druther of 382 Lake Street, Belleville, left the Japanese port of Kobe on January 14 aboard the carrier USS Hornet.

The anti-submarine warfare support ship is in the Far East with the Seventh Fleet. The four-day visit to Kobe was made for rest and recreation after the ship completed operations with the fleet.

Kobe, one of Japan's largest seaports is a modern and industrious city on the island of Honshu. During the carrier's stay there, the crew hosted several thousand Japanese civilians during an open house aboard the carrier.

The Hornet is the nucleus of a hunter-killer group that has the duty of seeking out and tracking submarines in the Pacific. The group has the capability of destroying submarines at nearly any depth they are capable of reaching.

Bell Course Completed By McEligot

KEITH T. MCELIGOT

Keith T. McEligot of Belleville, an engineer for the New Jersey Bell Telephone Co., has completed an 18-month training program conducted for Bell System companies by the Bell Laboratories at Murray Hill, the company said recently.

McEligot, of 272 Hornblower Avenue, was one of 45 engineers selected to take part in the Operating Engineers Training Program.

He was graduated from Yale University, New Haven, Conn. He is studying for his master's degree in Business Administration at Temple University, Philadelphia.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice McEligot of Belleville.

Parents Eye School Merger

A newly organized group called "Save Our Schools" held its organizational meeting last week, with about 80 concerned parents attending to air their ideas and questions on the proposed closing of School 9.

A committee was selected including: Mrs. Robert Current, chairman; Mrs. Irene Kay, secretary; Richard Ravell, treasurer; Mrs. Lillian DeAngelis, publicity.

Questions discussed included: Is Belleville regressing instead of progressing education wise? and, What is really being served economically by the proposed closing?

Another meeting will be announced in the near future.

Lions to Hear SA Officer

"Modern Trends in Youth Programming" will be the title of a talk presented to the Belleville Lions Club by Captain Paul Kelly of The Salvation Army at Christian's Lounge, 751 Washington Avenue, today.

The program for the meeting was arranged by Lion Alfred C. Golden of 146 Jerusalem Street.

Captain Kelly is a native of Cincinnati, Ohio and is attending Wilmington College, Findlay College, and Ohio Northern University. He and his wife received their commissions from The Salvation Army School for Officers' Training in New York City in 1953.

Captain Kelly is the 1954 Secretary for the New Jersey Division of The Salvation Army.

Taxpayer Group Analyzes State Budget

The New Jersey Taxpayers Association today announced publication of its annual analysis of the Governor's proposed record-high $589,826,020 budget for state government in the next fiscal year.

With the aid of charts, the four-page printed document contains editorial comment, significant fiscal trends reflected in the 800-page official budget message. This currently is undergoing review by the Joint Legislative Appropriations Committee prior to introduction of the annual appropriations bill in the State Legislature.

The digest shows the anticipated state income and proposed outgo for the year beginning July 1 next and ending June 30, 1965. This indicates the State's overall income from major tax sources next year is expected to increase nearly 2 1/2 per cent while proposed overall expenditures reflect a climb of 7 per cent.

"Major factors in the balance," the report says, "are: (1) an anticipated beginning 1964-65 surplus of nearly $20 million, largely caused by overruns in inheritance taxes, increased in 1962; and (2) expected continued revenue growth resulting from further economic upswing."

The report also states: "A $14 million increase in state operations includes nearly $10 million for new positions, annual and so-called salary increases (including those for the State University). Proposed capital appropriations are $5.6 million over those for 1964, but do not provide for any major institutional, higher education or expanded highway construction. The latter were included among the 'unfilled needs of the State' which the Governor proposes to provide through a broad-based tax. His choice is, in these days, Jr. Galop is now in personal income tax."

Local Students Enjoy N. H. Winter Carnival

Joseph Grinnell and Ralph Sacomano of Belleville, freshmen at Franklin Pierce College, Rindge, N. H. participated in the recent Winter Carnival at the college.

Students and their friends enjoyed Winter sports as well as improvised games including jumping from atop the Dow Dormitory in Rindge Center.

Baby and hospital expenses. Diplomas will be awarded to those completing the course.

Mr. Fellers stated that the classes are free and have been arranged as an educational program for the enlightenment and guidance of expectant mothers and fathers and other interested persons. They will be conducted by Public Health Nurses of the Department of Health.

Registration for the course may be made at the Health Department, Town Hall, Nutley, in person or by telephoning NO 7-2800.

Expectant Parents' Course Offered By Health Dept.

Expectant Parents' Classes sponsored by the Department of Health will open on Wednesday, March 11, according to Health Officer Richard V. Fellers. They will be held at the department of Health, Town Hall, Nutley.

The entire series will consist of six classes to be held weekly on Wednesdays. The first four classes are for mothers and fathers and will run from 8 to 10 p.m.

Instruction will be given in how life begins and how the baby grows; hygiene of pregnancy; nutrition; feeding, bathing and caring for baby; supplies needed for

Take Stand on Longevity, Golden Urges Candidates

Belleville Councilman James R. Golden today expressed grave concern over the apparent indifference of all the contestants in the upcoming recall election, scheduled for March to assert their stand in regards to the high increases in taxes which will result from the raises, inorements and longevity payments scheduled in the proposed 1964 town budget which he voted against.

Golden protested that overall, $106,000 will have been added to the upcoming 1965 budget over the 1963 budget because of these increases, all of which must be met by increased taxation upon the homeowners and manufacturers of Belleville.

This crucial moment in our community's history demands that leadership be offered by the candidates to either justify their stand in regards to the high increases in taxes which will result from the raises, inorements and longevity payments scheduled in the proposed 1964 town budget which he voted against.

Golden protested that overall, $106,000 will have been added to the upcoming 1965 budget over the 1963 budget because of these increases, all of which must be met by increased taxation upon the homeowners and manufacturers of Belleville.

Army Offers Commissions

To develop a continuing supply of highly qualified leaders, the U. S. Army offers two programs which provide an opportunity for graduates of accredited colleges and universities to obtain direct commissions in the United States Regular Army.

If an individual is educationally outstanding and was unable to participate in his school's Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) program for valid reasons or his school did not have the ROTC program, he may apply for a direct commission. Under the provisions of Section IV, AR 601-100, if he is between the ages of 21 and 28 and expects to graduate this year, he may apply immediately following registration for the final academic year, but not later than the date of graduation.

Under the second program there is a wide range of technical specialties offered college graduates. If an individual has a master's, a doctor's or bachelor's degree with practical experience, he may apply under the provisions of Section VI, AR 601-100 for the Technical Specialist program. Critical specialties exist in the field of engineering, medicine, transportation, chemistry, physics, business administration and institutional management.

If appointed to the Regular Army he will receive a special course of training in military fundamentals and then advanced training in his field of specialization. He will then be assigned in his specialty.

Pfc. Pietrykoski Completes Course

CAMP LEJEUNE, N.C. (PH-TNCC) — Marine Private First Class David P. Pietrykoski, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Pietrykoski of 402 Belleville Ave., Belleville recently completed a course for radio and telegraph operators at the Atlantic Fleet Marine Force Communication School at Camp Lejeune, N.C.

The course covers the basic knowledge required of Marine Corps radio and telegraph operators. Students must learn to send 14 words per minute and receive 15 words per minute in International Morse Code. In addition, they learn to type 30 words per minute, proper communications procedure, and equipment maintenance in the field.

Upon completing the course, Marines are ordered to units where their newly acquired knowledge can be used effectively.

Barnett

voted out and the Manager-Council form of government was established. Town Manager William Sommers also took the title of Town Clerk and Barnett was named principal clerk in the Town Clerk's office, with a reduction of pay. He missed tenure in the job by 14 months.

In 1960, while he was holding the Town Clerk's job the Finance and Revenue and Finance was classified under Civil Service and since most people were sure at this time that Barnett would have tenure as Town Clerk, they allowed him to retain his clerk rating instead of principal clerk.

When Sommers was dismissed by the Council and Barnett was appointed to the job of Town Manager he also accepted the title of Town Clerk. Barnett continued as principal clerk in the office.

Since then Barnett has several times been promised by many politicians that he would be given the title of Town Clerk. His friends signed a petition demanding that the Council give him the title and the additional money. However, the Council refused and laid the groundwork for the present recall movement.

Barnett would like the job of Town Clerk. However now he seems further away than ever. Last November he took the Civil Service examination for Principal Clerk, attempting to skip the senior clerk rating, and failed the examination. This added ammunition to his foes' battle to keep him out of the job. Experts believe he will in the future be appointed to the job as he is doing much of the work at present. Some see his appointment

200 Attend Strumolo Assn. Dinner

More than 200 persons attended the seventh annual Valentine installation of officers dinner-dance of the Vincent T. Strumolo Association last Sunday night at the Fountain Restaurant, Watsegg Avenue, Belleville.

Anthony Suriano, Congressman Peter W. Rodino's local secretary, pinch-hit for the Congressman as installing officer.

Officers installed were: President, Bernard O'Connor; vice-president, Mickey Pizutto; secretary, Miss Norma Napolitano; treasurer, Mrs. Rose Senatore; sergeant-at-arms, Sal Senatore; public relations, Anthony DeBenedictis with Frank Tremarco, Frank Simini and Joseph Risoli on board of trustees, and Jerry DelTulo, legal adviser.

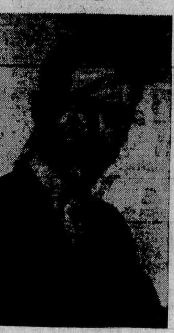

Among the highlights of the evening were: presentation of plaque to outgoing president Joseph Risoli by standard bearer, Councilman Vincent F. Strumolo and the opening of the many Valentine gifts which the ladies presented to sweetheart or husband Belleville Civil Rights Chairman Joseph G. Biancardi had the honor of opening all the gifts. Anthony "Speed" DeBenedictis was dinner chairman and toastmaster.

coming after the March 3 election. Others claim he will never be appointed to the post.

Meanwhile while the controversy rages around him Barnett is busy with fraternal, civic and church work. He is the director of the Belleville Chapter of the American Red Cross, which he has served for 15 years; past president of the Belleville-Nutley Tuberculosis Association for two years, and is a member of the Board of Directors of the County Blood Bank.

In addition he is a member of the Kiwanis, American Legion and St. Peter's Holy Name Society, Knights of Columbus and the state municipal clerk's association. He was serving as president of the County Clerk's association, when he was demoted.

Celebre Feted By Jaycees At Livingston

RALPH P. CELEBRE

Ralph P. Celebre, son of Mr. & Mrs. Louis Celebre of 83 Baldwin Place, Belleville, was chosen "Outstanding Young Man

From Livingston," at this year's 1963 distinguished award program by the Livingston Jaycees.

Celebre, an elementary school teacher in Mt. LET FIDELITY HELP ... with one-stop banking

If you asked us we could write a book. We'd call it What Every Young Bride Should Know - About Money. Some sample chapters:

- "What To Tell The Paycheck Comes" (bank credit - every family should know how to use it)
- "The Decline and Fall of the 50-mile Hike" (how to save steps - write checks!)

Our very first chapter would tell the new bride how to pick a bank. One hint: Bank where more of your neighbors do - at New Jersey's largest full-service bank:

Rec League

In the Silver Lake Recreation Basketball League the Globetrotters have moved into first place. Although Captain, Phil Rinaldi of the Trotters, fouled out with 4 minutes to play, the team hung in there to take out a 13-12 victory.

In the other game of the morning T. Rosamilia, with 9 points, led the Hawks to an 11-8 victory over the Hawks.

Bob Cook, Superintendent of Recreation reports an excellent turnout of boys each Saturday morning for this Elementary Basketball League. He also thanked Pat Gross, who has been officiating games and instructing in rules of the game, Vito Nardiello for his volunteer supervising, and Mr. Peter Rossi, who directs the program.

Wildcats Cop League Plans

The Wildcats have set the pace in the Girls Recreation Basketball League. This team has remained undefeated through seven games and now have the Championship wrapped up.

Only second place remains to be decided with each team playing two more games. The Emanons have only three losses and the Alpha Phi Deltas have four. These two teams meet in the next game which could decide second place.

Final games in this League will be played on February 20 and the Champions will receive their trophies from the Recreation Department.

Next year's Girls Basketball League will probably be bigger and stronger than this year's because of the Girls Basketball Clinic which the Recreation Department conducts on Saturday mornings at School 7. This clinic

The Belleville Little League officers and managers held their first meeting for the 1964 baseball season at the Knights of Columbus Building located at 96 Bridge St., Belleville. The league meets every first and third Thursday of every month at 8:00 P.M.

The officers would like to invite anyone who is interested in Little League to attend these meetings. Meetings are open to the public and everyone is invited.

Topic for the first meeting was in regards to continuing work on which is directed by Aileen LaMura and Paulette Mola. Leaches all of the principles of Girls Basketball, rules of the game and offers the girls a chance to play. Many of the Elementary School girls in the clinic look very promising and should be tough competitors when they enter High School.

the new field which was built last year on Montgomery Place. Plans are now being made to erect permanent bleachers for the coming season, scoreboard and also a refreshment stand. All work as in the past will be done by the managers and officers.

Also discussed at this meeting was the continuation of insurance for all Little League Players; Farm League and Peanut League Players which the Little League will pay for and also a new system of having tryouts for new players coming into league.

Bellboy Grapplers Win 8th in Row

The Belleville grapplers extended their winning streak to eight last Thursday night when they won their ninth match of the year by a 39-3 score.

Belleville's undefeated Dan Bivona (129 lbs) won his ninth match of the year, with a 6-0 decision. Gerald LePre, the team's strongest man also won his eighth match of the year. LePre, who is team high scorer with 34 points for nine matches, has not yet been beaten; however, he did tie against Clifton's Bob Nowicki. The team's only loss was in the 140 lb. class. Bennett Schwartz who won his first nine matches in a row was dealt his first loss of the year by Wayne's John Lucia. Schwartz led by a 2-1 score until the last 4 seconds when Lucia pulled the upper hand and received 3 points for a near pin.

Belleville's 105 pounder, Tony Festa scored 5 points with a 5:30 pin. This was Festa's sixth pin of the season. Frank Morgan, 114 lbs., won his fourth match of the year by a 7-2 decision. Morgan missed a pin by the buzzer.

Both David Ebert and his brother Richard Ebert won their matches. Dave Ebert, 122 lbs., won his seventh match by a 4-0 score. Dave put his man into a "Figure 4" and he almost scored a pin. Richard Ebert, 135 pounds, won his match on a 3-00 min. pin. Richard has won six out of eight matches this season.

Michael Oliveri, a determined sophomore, who has been wrestling in the 177 pound class, wrestled in the 156 class this week and he drew his first win by a 4-3 score.

Wrestling in the 165 pound class was Captain Joe DeGuercio. In the winning of his 1-0 decision, Joe dropped Wayne's Bill Rudithe from the ranks of the undefeated.

Jerry LePre gave away ten points in his 177 lb. duel; however, he put his man into a "Figure 4" in the second period and Wayne's, Joseph Kerd gave up.

In the final match of the evening Belleville's Harold Avalone, the winner of the heavyweight trophy in the Montclair Christmas Tournament, won an easy 9-0 decision.

177 lbs. - LePre (B) over Kerd (W) 4-1 decision

Heavyweight - Avalone (B) over Leonard (W) 9-0 decision

TOP BLOOMFIELD
The Belleville wrestling team sparked by their undefeated men, Bennett Schwartz, Dan Bivona, and Jerry LePre, pinned Bloomfield 30-11. The match was held last Tuesday at Bloomfield.

Bivona stretched his winning streak to 8 with a 7-1 decision over Harry Axt, of Bloomfield. Schwartz easily won his match by a 16-4 score. This was Bennett's ninth match in a row. Schwartz now has the school record for consecutive wins. Jerry LePre won his match by a small but decisive 6-3 margin.

As Belleville went into the 177 lb. class they led by a 17-8 margin; however, Gerald Brunnello (147 lbs) put Belleville into a fairly safe 2-3 lead. Brunnello combined his speed and agility for a quick 1:57 pin.

Captain Joe DeGuercio wrestled in the 177 lb. class in this match and, even though his opponent outweighed him by 18 pounds, Joe won a 2-1 decision. This was the Bellboys eighth win in nine outings.

Box Score
97 lbs. - Polack (B) over Di (B) 7-1 decision

Bellboys Topple Bloomfield, End Season with 8-11 Mark

Nick Pizzuto

Ron Tomaszewski

By RAY FERSCO . . . The Belleville High School basketball team ended an 8-11 season on Tuesday night when they defeated Bloomfield by a 43-27 tally. This was the last game to be played in the Washington Ave. School.

After five-and-a-half minutes of play Bloomfield led by a 5-0 score. Belleville's Nick Pizzuto then hit seven successive points followed by two more by Bill Rush. In the second quarter Belleville stretched their lead out to 21-5, as they shut the Bengals out of the scoring column for 15 minutes and 12 seconds. With only seconds remaining in the half Bloomfield's Richard Gerber sunk the only Bengal basket of the quarter.

Bloomfield, who was fresh from a big win over East Orange in their Monday-night E.C.T. encounter, opened the game with 1:22 zone defense. The Belleville offense quarterbacked by senior Mike Lioia didn't adapt to the zone until midway through the first period. Once Belleville's Nick Pizzuto broke the ice, the Bellboys offense began to function with Len Luongo going baseline, and Nick Pizzuto throwing them in from the outside.

The Belleville man for man defense was superb as they forced Bloomfield to throw up their shots. The Bloomfield offense also ran into possession difficulties with their fundamentals. Throughout the game Bloomfield continually lost the ball on excessive walking, three second rulings, palming, and backcourt movements.

In the last minute of the first half Bloomfield's defense went

E. Orange Raps Bellboys, 49-42

The East Orange Panthers led by Harry James stalked to Belleville last Friday evening and returned home with a 49-42 victory. This was the Panthers 14th victory in 19 starts. East Orange led 30-27 as the fourth period rolled in. Previous to this quarter, East Orange was at a stalemate against an outstanding Belleville defensive effort. Immediately though, East Orange ravelled off 12 points. Bill Lovett stole the tap for a quick two points, seconds later he stole a stray Belleville pass for two more. Harry James then hit two on a fast break, and George Lewis dribbled down the side to throw in a 14-foot jumper. Belleville's offense again took the ball, but they lost it on poor ball control and Harry James threw in a basket which was followed up by two more points tapped in by Bill Lovett. Although the Bellboys were down by a 42-27 score, they vainly tried to close the margin. Led by Bill Rush they came within seven points as the buzzer terminated the contest. The Bellboys played very well for the first three quarters, but in the fourth quarter the mounting pressure became too much. In the first three quarters Belleville was 100 per cent from the line. The Bellboys who don't even average six feet were controlling the boards against an East Orange squad that averaged 6'4". On defense Belleville's man for man containment was excellent because East Orange didn't get within 10 feet of the basket; however, they didn't have to because they continually hit from the outside. Nevertheless, the Blue and Gold offense folded in the fourth period.

Risoli Leads Town Anti-Polio Drive March 1

"As a community project for the benefit of every man, woman and child, the Sabin Oral Sunday anti-polio campaign set for March 1st, is probably the most important single health measure ever adopted here."

This was the unanimous feeling expressed by all local health officers who are serving as community coordinators for the life-saving program sponsored by the Essex County Medical Society.

In Belleville, the community coordinator is Ralph Risoli. Working with him as key members of the health team are Medical Director Dr. James W. Gardam and Pharmacist Chairman Ralph Lembo.

While the community coordinators have been instrumental in the selection of sites at which the vaccine will be fed to the population, as well as working with the Board of Education to recruit site chairmen, the medical directors have had the responsibility of manning each site with local physicians, according to Dr. Joseph P. Klenk, president of the sponsoring Essex County Medical Society. "The pharmacist chairman, of course, will be recruiting and assigning community pharmacists to the important task of accurately preparing every dose of the vaccine," said Dr. Klenk.

And in many cases, the site chairman will be a registered nurse who will be recruiting other nurses to administer the polio vaccine.

He emphasized that "the success or failure of the entire anti-polio program in Essex County depends on the personal recruiting effort of these leaders."

SABIN MONTH DECLARED — Mayor Robert Laterza issued a proclamation to Ralph Risoli, Director of Health and Welfare, today, proclaiming the month of March as "Sabin Oral Sunday Month". He is appealing to all residents of the community to take advantage of this program. Appearing in the picture with the Mayor, left to right are Ralph Lembo, Chairman of the Pharmacists' Committee; Dr. Gerson Ram, Health Officer and Co-Chairman of the Program; Ralph M. Risoli, Director of Health and Welfare, Chairman of the Program, Mayor Robert Laterza, Honorary Chairman and assistant to Mr. Lembo; Dr. William Taffer, Chairman of the Physicians' Committee and Dr. Gerald De Coma, Co-Chairman of the Physicians' Committee. Not present when the picture was taken, was Nicholas Juliano, President of the Board of Education, site Chairman of the Program; Mrs. Daniel McCarthy in charge of participating P.T.A. members and Mrs. Edna Verhagen in charge of the scouts. This program is sponsored by the Essex County Medical Society in all 22 municipalities of Essex County.

depends on the personal recruiting effort of these leaders." "But naturally, all their work will be worthless if the public does not respond by coming out from six weeks to the oldest member of the community are urged to participate. We are on the threshold of completely wiping out the crippling and often fatal disease of polio, but only if every man, woman and child does their share to make Sabin Oral Sunday, March 1st, a glorious success. The vaccine will be administered for only a voluntary donation of 25 cents a dose, to help defray the cost of the program, but no one will be turned away if he cannot contribute, Dr. Klenk added.

A county-wide network of 100 schools and public places was today designated as centers for giving vaccine by mouth to all residents of Essex County in the massive anti-polio drive. Called "feeding" stations because the polio vaccine will be taken by mouth, on tiny cubes of sugar, or in water, the sites will be staffed with volunteer doctors, pharmacists and nurses, together with many other workers who have donated their time and energies.

Patrolmen Briefed on Search, Seizure

The Belleville Police Force is one of the most efficient and well trained groups of law enforcement agents in the state. The secret of its success is the training program that Chief Charles H. McGinnis has instituted.

Under the program, patrolmen and police officers attend a series of classes each year based on the latest judicial opinions and law enforcement techniques developed throughout the country. The classes are a continual part of the local policeman's training.

Typical of the classes is the one conducted by Captain Harry E. Tepe, on the subject of "Search and Seizure." Captain Tepe explained his class as follows:

"The cry for educational classes in the law enforcement field is being taken up by Police authorities throughout the entire country. Chief McGinnis has seen the need for such classes. He has seen the need for a constructive aid that can assist the men in their field of work, their police profession. He has started our own police school in Belleville which has been in progress since the early part of last year."

"My classes in the past two weeks have been constructed from material I have accumulated by attending different classes in police work throughout Essex County. Unfortunately, not all the members of the department can attend these schools due to their hours of work and the schedule of the classes. A great deal of my material has been accumulated from speakers and instructors at the Law Enforcement Seminar conducted by the Essex County Prosecutor's Office."

"Chief McGinnis has devised this way of teaching to convey to all the members of the department, subjects and materials they may have missed by being unable to attend any special schools."

"My classes have been on the subject of Search and Seizure. It seems the greatest controversy in the law enforcement field today is in the area of Search and Seizure; a controversy spread across the entire country arising from a decision handed down by the United States Supreme Court in June, 1961. The decision, concluding from the Mapp vs. Ohio case, deals with the Fourth Amendment of the United States Constitution, protecting the people against unreasonable Searches and Seizures. It is my duty, as instructor of this particular class, to explain the Fourth Amendment to the members of the department and to relate to them how our job as police officers will be affected by the different decisions handed down by the courts and especially by the Appellate Division of the Superior Court where decisions may be reversed against the officer."

"I feel that Chief McGinnis has inserted into the Police Department, by way of our school, an 22-year-old officer entered the Army last November. Members of the department; a refresher course on material already known to the men and also instructive courses on new material so vitally important to all police officers. This school will be continued if only for a few months of the year. 'It is my hope that I may be able to attend any future schools so that I may be able to continue to instruct the members of our Police Department.'"

Park System Detailed for Welfare Unit

With a budget of nearly three million dollars, the Essex County Park Commission operates a program which is among the most outstanding in the entire nation, explained Paul Camitta, recreation supervisor of the commission at the monthly meeting of the Belleville Community Welfare Council.

In a lecture illustrated by beautiful slides Camitta discussed the many varied facilities and activities available to residents of Essex County. One of the most beautiful children's zoos in the country is operated by the Park Commission in South Mountain Reservation. Its varied athletic programs, exhibits and special outdoor facilities are the envy of many communities. Of special interest to the Welfare Council are proposed plans for the improvement of facilities at Belleville Park. John Bass, council member, indicated interest in the Hockey League sponsored by the Commission, noting that this activity was one which might be feasible for the Belleville High School.

Among other business transacted at the meeting on Monday evening was the appointment of a nominating committee by Alan Bernstein, President. Allan Crisp will serve as chairman. T. Russell Sargeant and Mrs. Edward Rochau will also serve on this committee.

Irvin Folk announced that a special recreation survey committee is being organized under his chairmanship.

The Belleville Community Welfare Council will hold its annual meeting and election of officers during the month of March on a date that is yet to be determined. A program of special interest to Belleville residents is being planned.

HONESTY IS THE BEST POLICY

Yes, Pontiac makes 30 cars all together. (We counted twice; it's 30!) No, they're definitely not all alike. A Le Mans is luxurious; a Bonneville, more so. A Catalina Safari wagon totes even bigger loads than a Tempest Safari. A GTO's still sprightlier than our sporty Grand Prix. No, not all Pontiacs are expensive though they certainly do look it. Yes, Pontiac Tempests sell right down there in the low-price field. No, you won't get a good deal just because it's Washington's Birthday. Yes, you'll get a good buy because Pontiac's selling and that's the truth!

Booklet Lists Driving Tips For Teenagers

Students of driver education at Belleville High School will have a new booklet to assist them in their studies this spring. Titled "Tips From Pro Drivers," the pocket-size booklet is published as a public service by American Oil Company in cooperation with the National Safety Council.

American Oil has printed an initial run of 500,000 copies for distribution on request to driver education classes throughout the nation.

Taking a new approach to teenage driver education, "Tips From Pro Drivers" presents its straight-from-the-shoulder message in the teen's own language.

Everyone, the booklet observes, knows teenagers have faster reflexes and better vision than the older folks. Why then, it asks, are teenage drivers involved in twice as many fatal accidents as those over 25? In answer it cites attitude and experience, then offers these six basic steps to better driving.

1. Clowning behind the wheel is the mark of the amateur; pros know better.
2. Have guts enough to chicken out when common sense tells you it's time to give in. Never mind who's right.
3. Highways are for sharing, not competing. If you want to race—enter the 500 at Indianapolis.
4. The squeal of tires and roar of exhaust may sound like hot stuff to a driver who needs to build his ego—but they bag him as strictly amateur to the rest.
5. The pro knows from experience there are some things braggier than he. He gives in to bad weather, poor roads, traffic jams.
6. Your coach wouldn't send in a player who had been drinking. It goes double for driving—a half-loaded driver is more dangerous than a loaded gun.

The teenage driver is reminded, too, that it's not the star athlete or Big Wheel on Campus who shows off on the road; it's the "frustrated character who fails to click anywhere else who tromps down on the gas pedal."

In an aside to the girls, the booklet has this to say: "Write off the character who tries to impress you by driving like a cowboy. Suppose he ends up by throwing you through the windshield? So you end up crippled or disfigured just because Junior Space Cadet had to put on a show. Get yourself a replacement. You'll be surprised how easy it is, you doll!"

to remove vehicles which constitute dangerous obstructions or hazards upon the highways.

The Highway Department believes use of this Statute would go far to remove many of the difficulties which plagued travelers within our State during the recent storm.

SENIOR WINNERS — Two Belleville residents were among the winners in Newark's Fifteenth Annual Exhibit of Senior Citizen's Hobbies now being held at Kresge-Newark. Co-sponsored by the Council of Social Agencies of Newark, Belleville, Irvington and West Hudson and the Soroptimist Club of Newark, the show runs through February 22. Nearly 200 people over 60 years of age from throughout New Jersey participated. First and second prize ribbons were awarded to Mrs. Alexandria K. Bloom of 15 Dow Street, left, for her entries of an intricate hand-crocheted cotton rug and an arrangement of unusual house plants. Mrs. Marie H. Schmidt of 27 Forest Street, right, also won first and second prize ribbons for her entries of an original white nylon dress and a colorful hand-made rug with matching cushion.

Group Fetes Dr. Welkind

Dr. Allen Welkind of Marlwood, medical advisor to the Multiple Sclerosis Service Organization of New Jersey for the past 12 years, was honored Friday night at the 14th anniversary meeting of the group in the Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center building, Belleville. The organization maintains a nursing home in Chester as well as a free clinic at 115 Fourth Avenue, East Orange.

State Plans Action Against Dumping of Snow on Roads

TRENTON — The New Jersey Highway Commissioner Dwight R. G. Palmer said the Department has received several recent complaints regarding mounds of snow on State highways in various parts of New Jersey. Upon investigation, the Commissioner said, it was found that highway crews had worked through the night of February 18 to clear the highways down to the bare pavement. The following day, owners of commercial establishments cleared off their own property and placed the snow back on the highway.

This practice has been observed by many private citizens who have written to the Highway Department complaining about it, the Commissioner added, and has also been noted by Highway Department personnel.

Some local police departments apparently are unaware of the authority they now possess under Chapter 4, Section 136 of Title 39 R. S. (39:4-136) of the Revised Statutes (the Motor Vehicle Code)

Against Recall Committee Eyes Accomplishments of Councilmen

Howard L. Hendricksen, chairman of the Committee "Against the Recall" of Mayor Robert M. Laterza and Councilmen G. Strumolo, today stated that the newly organized Committee is making a complete study of the accomplishments of the Municipal Councilmen as well as the distortions circulated by the members of the Recall Committee.

Hendricksen stated, "Our study proves that the Councilmen whose recall is being sought have attempted to stamp out the ills of the past in our community but have been hindered in their task over a period of many months by the concerted action of a group of people who have banded together in this unwarranted recall movement."

"The ills of our town cannot be cured while three members of the Council have been so constantly engaged in fighting the disease of a minority group comed and with the coming of spring the area will be converted into the leading playground in this section of the state.

"The Municipal Council should receive the plaudits of all citizens for its formation of a Playground Study Committee. This committee has devoted much time as well as effort in studying the recreation program throughout the town and in the near future Belleville will be greatly indebted to them for their effort in bringing about a full program of recreation activity throughout the town."

"The Recall Committee has distorted facts for many months in their all-out effort to discredit three Councilmen who have taken the lead in furnishing so much for citizens in the short period of existence of our new form of government. It will be our aim to set forth the accomplishments of the new form of government in an effort to show our citizens the truth of the futility of the attempt of the recall committee to distort the actions of those who would move Belleville forward."

The longest tug-of-war ever contested lasted two hours, 41 minutes, and took place in India in 1889 between two companies of British infantry.

You and Your Insurance

(A public service column about all forms of insurance.)

HELP KEEP INSURANCE RATES LOW BY PRACTICING SAFETY

"What season is the worst for storms?" a reader inquires.

The 1963 edition of INSURANCE FACTS, a statistical yearbook published by the Insurance Information Institute, tells us that although the hurricane season extends from June through October, other natural meteorological hazards — hailstorms, windstorms, and tornadoes — can occur at any time. That's because storms come upon us anytime of day or season of the year.

When you have advance warning, follow these general precautions:

1. Batten down or remove from open areas all swings, chairs, and picnic tables.
2. Remove or tie down awnings, screens, and shutters.
3. Check the sides and roof of your house for loose boards and bricks.
4. Listen to your local radio and television stations and check newspapers for storm advisory notices.

Now people carry insurance against windstorm damage. When a major storm hits, the insurance industry puts its "operation catastrophe" into full swing. Insurance adjusters, experts at evaluating storm damage, are rushed into a storm area, and your insurance agent gears his operation to serve your needs. As a result, policyholders get prompt payment on insurance claims and are able to rebuild damage quickly.

This column will be glad to answer questions you may have about property and casualty insurance. Send them to:

Basic Rules Given For Bike Safety
The New Jersey Auto Club has announced parents to be sure that children know the basic rules of the children's safety before venturing into traffic.

"Since 350 boys and girls are killed and 20 to 25 thousand injured each year in bicycle accidents," the club said, "it is essential that all new bicycle owners learn the safety rules. Copies are available at your local AAA motor club."

"Three out of every four youngsters between the ages of six and fifteen ride a bicycle," the AAA Club reported. "This means that there are more than 30 million bicycles on U.S. streets and highways. Every 19 minutes, day and night, a cyclist is injured, and every 21 hours, a cyclist is killed. Such statistics clearly point up the need for guidance on the part of parents."

Here are the seven basic rules for bicycle safety:

1. Signal for turns and stops.
2. Obey all traffic signs and signals.
3. Yield the right-of-way to pedestrians.
4. Ride alone — one on a bike.
5. Keep both hands on the handlebars, except when signaling and then one hand.
6. Ride single file close to the right side of the street or roadway.
7. Keep the bicycle in good condition with special emphasis on the brake, bell, and head and tail light.

The Auto Club added the following tips for cyclists:

- "Keep well in back of moving cars. They may stop suddenly. Steer in a straight-ahead path. Avoid going too fast down hill, or on rough, slippery roads, cross street-car and railroad tracks at right angles to avoid skids on the tracks. Show good sportsmanship to other bike riders, motorists and pedestrians."

Magazine Promotes Marianne Brady
NEW YORK — Marianne Brady, former associate accessories editor, has been named young junior editor of Seventeen Magazine, it has just been announced by Rosemary Murthy, the teen publication's fashion director. Miss Brady succeeds Roberta Toscano who has retired to private life.

Simultaneously, Mrs. McMurthy made known the appointment of Joy Christov, former assistant in the accessories department, as assistant accessories editor under the supervision of accessories editor Carol Green. Miss Brady joined Seventeen in 1957 as a "girl Friday" in the fashion department. She became associate accessories editor in 1959. Previously, she had worked as a department store merchandising trainee and as an advertising agency artist. A native of New Jersey, now residing in Belleville, she is a graduate of the Traphagen School of Fashion in New York City.

Miss Christov joined Seventeen in February 1962, following two years on the editorial staff at the Retail Reporting Bureau. Bulgarian-born, she came to the United States as a child and received her schooling here.

Patrolman Sullivan Describes Battle with Gunman

Many people will tell you sincerely that Friday the 13th is an unlucky day. Patrolman Harry J. Sullivan Jr. has mixed emotions concerning the date. He could consider it an unlucky day as it was the date he was wounded by a gunman. On the other hand he can consider it a lucky day . . . as he is lucky to be alive.

Patrolman Sullivan has returned to duty since he was wounded in both arms by a desperate gunman in an early morning gun-battle on Friday, December 13. As a reminder of the encounter he carries a part of a bullet in his left arm. He will be x-rayed in March to see if it is possible to remove it or whether it will remain in the arm. His doctor has advised him that in many cases the piece of lead is allowed to remain in the body unless there is the possibility of it causing more damage.

The 31-year-old cop has been a member of the Town police force since May 3, 1959. He became active in law enforcement in June of 1955 when he joined the Port Authority as a police cadet. On February 27, 1956 he was appointed a Port Authority patrolman where he served until appointed to the Town force.

He is a graduate of the PA police academy and graduated first in his class from the Essex County Police Chief's School. From 1950 to 1954 he served in the United States Navy, winning a battle star in the Korean War.

The 5-9, 160-pound, blue-eyed cop is a graduate of Belleville High School. He recalls the details of his encounter with the gunman in detail, but with no emotions except the quiet purring of a car.

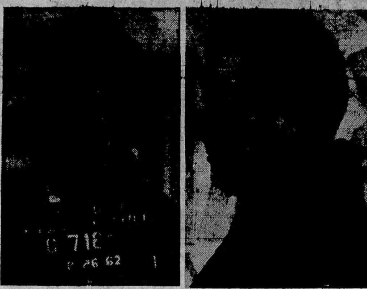

"There was no emotion involved in the incident," he said, while sipping a cup of coffee last week. "It happened too fast."

He related the incident as follows:

"It was at 4:35 a.m. on December 13 when I heard the first call. I was checking the DeWitt Savings and Loan Company office on Washington Avenue when I heard another radio car being sent to 65 Baldwin Place to see a cab driver who was held up and the robber had escaped in the cab.

"I was on one-man radio car patrol. I drove to the intersection of Washington Avenue and Jerome and blocked the street in case the cab would be coming through.

"The next message I heard on the radio was from the other car reporting to headquarters that he had the cabbie in his car. A man was on foot. I immediately headed up Jerome Street.

"I drove west on Jerome and when I got to Garden Avenue I saw two police cars but I passed them and kept heading west. I hoped to pick up the man if he was still walking.

"Soon after I passed Garden Avenue I heard a strange voice on the radio. It was the cab driver and he gave a pretty accurate description of the holdup man.

"When I got by School 7, I saw a man answering the description of the holdup man. He was walking west on the southside of the street. I saw him the same time he saw me. He appeared to duck down behind a parked car.

"I drove my car on the wrong side of the street and headed it into a driveway. As soon as I got out of my car I drew my revolver. I was sure he was the guy. I pointed my gun right at him.

"I told him: 'You look like a guy that held up a cab. Come over here.' I motioned for him and he came over. I told him to put his hands on the roof of the police car and he complied.

"Where's the gun? I asked him. He said: 'I don't have a gun.' I began to search him with my left hand while I had my service revolver in my right hand. I searched him with my free hand. I searched through his pockets. I felt over his chest and along his belt line to see if I could find the bulge of a gun. I asked him why he held up the cab. He said he didn't hold up anybody.

"The thought occurred to me he possibly had gotten rid of the gun. I decided I would call for assistance. I wanted the cabbie to come up and look him over. I ordered him to move to the rear of the car so I could reach him and get the radio and bring it out. He moved back.

"I ducked my head inside the car and reached to get the radio transmitter out of the car. The second I went in, I detected that he moved, changed the positions of his hands on the car. But I couldn't tell exactly what he had done. I brought the radio out so I could speak while covering him with the gun.

"I don't remember my exact words, but I called the other car to bring the cabbie down to look at the suspect. After the message I just passed the radio back to the seat of the car. I then stepped back as when I felt his arms while searching him I could tell he was powerfully built and I didn't want to take a chance of him lunging at me.

"My idea was to get him away from the street as the early morning traffic had started to pick up and I was afraid he would run between a passing car and myself. I ordered him to walk toward the sidewalk.

"He walked slowly with his hands upraised. Suddenly he whirled and fired as he turned. He must have had the gun in the cuff of his jacket and had gotten it out when I ducked inside the car.

"I saw about three flashes right at me before I felt any pain. Then I felt pain in my right arm, stomach and left arm. I returned the fire.

"I fired three shots. I can't remember the sequence. I hit him and he started to go down backwards. He screamed out in pain: 'I'm sorry, I didn't mean to do it.'

"He still had his gun pointed at me. I started to go for the radio. I saw he still had his gun at me and I said if you don't drop the gun I'm going to shoot you again. He put the gun down.

"I picked up the radio and called: Send ambulance. He shot me and I shot him.

"All the officers arrived about the same time. Some said they heard the shots as they were coming. I was hit in both arms. I had no mark on the stomach although there were two bullet holes in my coat. He actually fired 10 times as several bullets had two firing pin marks on them.

"They took us both to the hospital and I was in for four days. I had about 20 days off at home and then I returned to work. While we were in the hospital the guy kept sending regrets.

"When I hit him I thought he was a goner. I called for a priest for the guy. I'm glad he recovered as I wouldn't want to finish any guy."

Officer Sullivan's assailant was identified as Thomas Burns of West Orange. He had been shot in the stomach and right thigh. He has been released from the hospital and is at the Newark Street Jail awaiting Grand Jury action.

2 Belleville Students Win Honors

Two Belleville High School students recently won positions on the Mid-East All Star Orchestra and Band, sponsored by Duquesne University.

The two will travel to Pittsburgh, Pa., to perform with the unit during March 21 to March 23.

Both are members of the Belleville High School Band which will present a concert March 6 at the High School.

Celery Curis

To make celery curis, use the inner stalks of celery, cutting each one three or four inches long. Cut each piece into thin strips, stopping one inch from the end. Chill in ice water to curl.
