Good Clothing speaks for itself—to those who listen to reason. There is so much to be said for it, and so little to say for the other kind, except in the way of complaint. Ours is Good Clothing, and among the good things which can truthfully be said about it are: It never fades. Keeps its shape. Buttons stay on. Seams don't rip. Linings don't give out. Costs a trifle more, but you are glad that you bought it. When you are tired of paying about the same prices for poor clothing, that we ask for good clothing, just try one of our Suits. If it does not come up to our representations, don't be afraid to test our guaranty; we will make it good to you. HACKETT, CARHART & CO. Men's and Boys' Clothing B'way & Canal St. New York.

POETRY.

The Woman of Today.

Let others sing the praises of the Woman of the Past,
Or canonize the Woman of the Future coming fast.
I string my lyre for neither. No, I lift my little lay,
And sing my song to celebrate the Woman of Today.

The Woman of the Past was good, and better still may be
The Woman of the Future; but, oh, good enough for me!
The girl who thro' the mazes of the Present works her way,
And stands, in her integrity, the Woman of Today.

Upon the world's great stage she plays roles many and diverse;
But tho' she may in politics her pretty head immerse,
Or seek the pulpit or the bar, still shines her sacred ray
Of love around the hearthstone of the Woman of Today.

No pent up Utica confines her powers. The prejudice
Still prowls about her path, no work that's worthy comes amiss;
She may not vote, but ballots fall obedient to her sway;
The conscience of the country's in the Woman of Today.

She has her faults. Spots big and black the sun's bright face do blur,
But who could live without its light, or with it lacking her
Against her follies and her fads let other folks inveigh,
I celebrate the virtues of the Woman of Today.

A CHARACTER STUDY IN THREE PARTS.

By T. C. DE LEON,

Author of "Four Years in Rebel Capitals," "Juny," "Cross Purposes."

[DEDICATED TO THE HON. HENRY WATTERSON, IN MEMORY OF SCHOOLBOY DAYS, STILL UNFORGOTTEN, AS OUR SHADOWS LENGTHEN TOWARD THE SUNSET.]

Copyright by J. B. Lippincott Company, and published by special arrangement with them.

"Forgive me, please. I was selfish in the memory of my own loss then to call those spectors out of your past, which would help you exorcise! And how I did it I cannot guess, for only last night I twice stopped Lord Martindale's abrupt mention that we had met—him!"

"Dale Everett?" This time there was eager interest in the man's tone.

Noting it the woman turned away her face, an ugly shadow over it, and the lips curled into a strange smile. But she answered simply:

"Yes: he was the guest of our cousin, Hoyne-Cecil, of the guards."

"Did you talk of me?" The flood of recollections sweeping through the man trembled on his voice.

She turned full to him again, gazed at him earnestly one instant, then answered coldly:

"No, why should we? He never mentioned your name. In London I was coolly courteous to Cecil's guest; in Paris I barely recognized him. You have reason to know that I am no prude, but an open scandal like"—

"Pardon me," Latour interrupted. "I had forgotten that in boyish memories of him."

"And of her?" she rejoined quickly.

"I have answered that already," he said quietly. "She has been dead to me ten long years. You are too much a woman of the world to hold the man responsible for the follies of the boy."

"The world does not teach us wisdom always," she answered, with thrilling pathos. "The weakness of our youth pursues us often. A man may crush a woman only suffer for it!"

They were face to face in the broad moonlight. A tenderness unusual to it swept her face and settled in her eyes, gazing into his, deep—dark—passionate! Impulsively he seized her hands, half drawing her to him, as he whispered:

"What do you mean?"

She did not answer her eyes fell before the hot eagerness of his.

"Tell me!" he urged. "Do you mean that in the past I was blind enough"—

Gently she withdrew her hands. Her bosom rose and fell in tumult, as she answered, very low:

"Hush! I was weak then, but then I had the right to weakness. You yourself reminded me that now I am safe with you—that I am—married!"

He drew abruptly off, turning to release the horses. She looked after him. Over her raised face a hot flush rose, and burned there. Her eyes gleamed black as night. In them were some wonderment, much tenderness: but through both gleamed the hot light of triumph.

He stooped to make his hand her step to saddle. With a sweep of his strong arm he raised the lissome, regal figure high as the sent. Somehow the perfect French boot, clinging round the still more perfect ankle, slipped from his hand. The beautiful form slid down between the horse and man, pressing heavily against his breast, as the soft perfume of her breath warmed his cheek.

The cry that would have escaped another woman Latour did not hear. He only heard the throbbing of his own heart, only felt the fluttering of hers, as though struggling to break through the sculptured bosom. In the impulse to break her fall, he had thrown his arm about her. She did not recoil: a wild joy thrilled through him that she nestled closer in its pressure.

For what might have been seconds, might have been ages—for all the man recked—they stood thus.

Suddenly the stately head, resting on his bosom, was lifted; the face, glowing and tender, was raised to his, and as the luminous, liquid midnight of her eyes melted into his own it fell upon his shoulder.

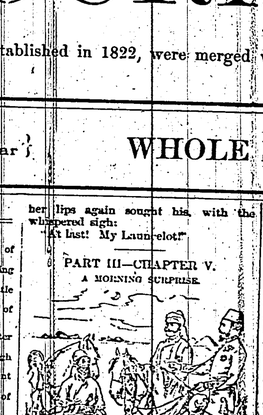
A dizzy whirl mounted to his brain as he felt the warm sigh from the parted scarlet of her lips! His own crushed down upon them in one long, clinging, passionate kiss.

Slowly her long, lissome arms stole up about his neck, the strong, slim fingers interlaced as to unlock nevermore. And again those eyes burned into his soul as the glow of passion hot upon her cheek, her lips again sought his, with the whispered sigh:

"At last! My Launcelot!"

PART III—CHAPTER V.

A MORNING SURPRISE.



"Peace be with you, also," Latour answered.

At the entrance of the Hotel d'Orient Lady Martindale dismounted from her horse with easy grace. The hand she rested on Latour's was steady and cool, and her voice was softly clear as she said:

"I shall not attempt to thank you for—this ride. Lord Martindale will be home soon. Good night!"

Neither she nor the man turning away, as though in a dream, took note of a tall, husky form, wrapped in a long bournous, that slunk in the shadow of the palms opposite. Nor had they noted, as they rode rapidly homeward through the Bab-el-Nassr, that this Arab glided out from the gateway, running swiftly and noiselessly behind in shadow of the houses. Now he stood motionless against a tree, but his black eyes glittered as they caught the flash of the solitaires upon her hand and ears.

Latour shook his head gloomily. Latour still without a word, turned toward the Eskekieh; but, listening only to the voices within him, he did not catch the one word muttered again by the Arab:

"Bukra!"

Hour after hour was called

NATIONAL DEMOCRAT.

RAHWAY, N. J., MAY 29th, 1891.

SIX PAGES.

It is expected that the tax commissioners for this city will be appointed by the Governor this week. There are several candidates.

The time is up May 29th to advertise the property in the third ward for the adjusted taxes and assessments still unpaid. Parties who desire to save the extra expense of advertising and prevent their names from appearing in the papers should pay up at once.

Judge Van Syckle on Tuesday of last week approved the order giving authority to change the name of this paper from the NATIONAL DEMOCRAT to THE UNION DEMOCRAT, for the reasons recently stated. We shall make the change in the course of a few weeks, at the same time enlarging and changing the form of the paper to eight pages.

Some very "smart Alec" writes an item for the New York Sun charging Rahway with non-progressiveness, and facetiously suggesting that its name be changed to "Bellamy, Jr."—Bellamy being the author of "Looking Backward." If Rahway's advancement has been retarded it was by "looking forward" with too great expectations by those who controlled its affairs about fifteen to twenty years ago, and "looking backward," now is not a pleasing retrospect. Our people are now, however, enjoying more confidence, as improvement is visible on all sides, and are "looking forward" to still greater improvement if the plan of conducting the city's affairs for the past ten years or so, are continued.

AN EXPRESSION OF CONFIDENCE.

Geo. P. Rowell & Co., of New York, the publishers of the American Newspaper Directory, undertakes to rate newspaper circulations very much as the mercantile agencies report the capital and credit of the business community. About one publisher in ten tells his exact issue with truthful precision. Some of the other nine decline to tell the facts because they assert that those who do tell are in the habit of lying. Rowell & Co., after an experience of more than twenty years, have come to the conclusion that this view cannot be sustained. In the twenty-third annual issue of their book, issued in April, they designate every paper that rated in accordance with a detailed statement from the publisher; and offer to pay a hundred dollars for every instance which can be pointed out of a misstatement for which a publisher is responsible. The NATIONAL DEMOCRAT is one of the papers that is willing to have it known how many it prints and whose good faith the Directory publishers will guarantee.

THE RECOUNT.

On Friday last, the day fixed by Judge VanSyckle for the recount of the votes cast at the recent election in this city for Mayor and Chosen Freeholder, a large number of the friends of the different candidates assembled in the court room at Elizabeth. Senator Marsh appeared as counsel for L. S. Hyer, contestant, for Mayor, and for Samuel Halsey, incumbent as Freeholder and Hon. A. M. Voorhees, Jas. R. English, B. A. Vail, C. D. Warn and I. L. Hunt, looked after the interests of Wm. Chamberlain incumbent as Mayor, and George Wright contestant for Freeholder. The lawyers had agreed not to enter into the question of ballots being marked by reason of having names written on, but proceed to count the votes as they appeared in the ballot boxes.

Hon. J. J. Mathews and Franklin Marsh, Democrats, and Wm. E. Clark and Chas. E. Reed, Republicans, were appointed to keep tally, and the count was proceeded with.

In the first ward Hyer lost one vote; in the second ward, and the first district of the third there was no change; in the second district of the third ward Hyer gained two and Chamberlain lost one; in the fourth ward Hyer lost one, thus leaving two majority for Chamberlain at the close of the count.

As there was a desire to recount the first ward, and it was getting late in the day, Judge VanSyckle authorized the counsel to make the count and report to him if any change. This recount resulted the same as the original count, giving back to Hyer the one vote, thus leaving Chamberlain one majority in the city.

On the Freeholder count Halsey gained one in the second district of the third ward and nine in the fourth ward, thus increasing his majority from 10 to 20.

As there were charges of five illegal voters on the part of the contestant for Mayor, Judge VanSyckle said he would be in court Tuesday of this week to continue the case. There was also a Chamberlain ticket with a blue spot on, which was rejected by the election board of the first ward as having a designation mark under the new election law.

On the last count of the first ward it was discovered that there was no envelope and ticket on that string numbered 135, and as there were two tickets left in the box by the election board as being in excess of the number voted it was agreed that one of those tickets should be counted.

On Tuesday Judge VanSyckle was on hand and corrected the first ward by allowing the one vote to Hyer as found by the last count, and also deciding to count one of the tickets left in the box, which was drawn out by himself and proved to be a Chamberlain ballot, thus giving him the two majority again—one less than currently the Board of canvassers. He reserved decision on the blue marked ticket, stating that as it was a question under the new law, he would consult with the other supreme court judges before deciding—taking the ticket with him. In regard to taking testimony upon the ground of voting illegal votes, the testimony could be taken before court stenographer Knight, and submitted to him any time before the filing of the statement of contest in June, it was decided not to go ahead with the recount that day, and the time was left to be fixed by the counsel, Messrs. Marsh and Stevens.

The vote as it now stands is as follows:

	Mayor. Hyer	Chamberlain.
1st Ward,	188	184
2d Ward,	199	168
3d Ward, 1st d.	147	183
3d Ward, 2d d.	103	144
4th Ward,	149	153
	781	783
Freeholder,	Halsey.	Wright.
1st Ward,	182	181
2d Ward,	209	178
3d Ward, 1st d.	144	180
3d Ward, 2d d.	160	144
4th Ward,	151	140

A SURPRISE.

The result of the recount in the Fourth Ward has astounded those familiar with the usual election methods. How an error of nine votes on one candidate could have been accidently made is past comprehension. Was it a part of a "deal" which was alluded to by a prominent Republican of that ward at the time of the closing of the polls, when he said that if a certain "deal" had been carried out their ticket was ahead? If it was a mistake it evidently shows a dereliction on the part of some of the election officers. If it was intentional it is worse.

We have seen considerable in some of the outside newspapers in the past week or two about the closing of the saloons on Sunday in Rahway, thus intimating that they had been previously allowed to be open. The writer passes in view of no less than eight drinking places on his way to and from church on Sundays and has never seen or heard of any of them being open on that day—and further, has not heard any reports to the city authorities concerning any others being open. Those who have knowledge of this violation of the law evidently have had better opportunity of ascertaining than we have; and if they have had such knowledge they are guilty of a dereliction in duty for not making complaint before the proper tribunal.

Mayor Chamberlain says the "best elements" of Democratic party of Rahway were opposed to the contest in the Mayoralty election. Of course, "don't you know!" the "best elements" voted for Billy—in his estimation—and hence feared a recount would result in his defeat.

The new members of the water board must have been gratified by the favorable condition of affairs as reported at the meeting Tuesday evening.

Editorial Excursion.

It has been decided to hold the Summer re-union of the New Jersey Editorial Association at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. The party will leave Philadelphia by special train on the morning of Monday June 22d, reaching Washington City at about 1:30 p. m., where they will be quartered for the night at Willard's Hotel. In the morning they will resume their journey over the Chesapeake and Ohio Road and its connections, passing through Alexandria, Manassas, Culpepper, Gordonsville and other places in Old Virginia made memorable by the events of the late war, over the Blue Ridge, and reaching White Sulphur Springs on the west slope of the Alleghanies 2,000 feet above the sea level, about 6 o'clock. Two days (Wednesday and Thursday) will be spent at the Grand Central Hotel in this delightful spot. The Hotel, which is under the admirable management of Major B. F. Eakle, is situated in a park containing one hundred acres, surrounded by hills among which are nestled eighty cottages of uniform architecture, all presenting a very imposing appearance. With the cottages it is capable of accommodating 1,200 guests, the dining room being one of the largest in the country. The entire tract connected with the Grand Central Hotel embraces twelve acres of mountain, valley and woodland, and it is a very picturesque spot. The White Sulphur Springs have been the favorite resort of the best people of the South and Southwest for the last hundred years, and they are more popular to-day than ever and enjoy a more justly deserved and extensive patronage. While at the Springs the party can dispose of themselves as suits their convenience. Early on Friday morning the party will re-embark for Luray which will be reached in time for dinner at the Beaumont Luray Inn, where they will be hospitably entertained by Mine Host Evans during their stay. The afternoon will be devoted to visiting the celebrated Luray Caverns, which have been made easy of access in recent years. Returning the party will leave Luray in time to reach Philadelphia early on Saturday afternoon so as to be enable all to reach home the same evening.

The party is limited to 200, and the price of the tickets has been fixed at $24, which will cover transportation, all hotel expenses, meals on the way, admission to the Cave at Luray and the carriage drive to the Cave from the Luray Inn and return. Applications for tickets from members of the Association in the counties of Union, Middlesex and Somerset must be made to LEWIS S. HYER, at this office, before June 12th. Newspaper representatives will be supplied first and then if any tickets remain the committee will allot them to others in the order of application, if applicant is approved. The sale of tickets will positively close on June 17th.

Water Board.

The first meeting of the Board of Water Commissioners was held on Tuesday evening, there not being a quorum at the time for organization the first Monday in May. All the members were present as follows: Chr. Ehrlich, John M. Tufts and Daniel K. Ryno, elective, and Mayor Wm. Chamberlain and chairman of fire and water committee Anton Lohmiller, ex-officio.

Com. Ryno nominated Com. Chamberlain for president, but he declined in favor of Com. Ehrlich, who also declined, and finally Com. Chamberlain was unanimously elected.

On motion of Com. Tufts the by-laws and rules of last board were adopted. Communication from City Clerk reporting bonds of Coms. Chamberlain, Ryno and Lohmiller approved. Filed.

Bills of H. K. Worthington $4.25, valve links, B. Peck Bro's., 60 stop cocks $38.35, J. B. Edson, gauge, charts and album $9, John Brown, labor, $10.50, referred for approval when committees are appointed.

Com. Ehrlich reported for April, read and filed.

Com. Ehrlich referred to a petition from Mrs. L. J. Morgan which was before the committee of the last board but not disposed of, in relation to a charge to her for water furnished some former tenants of Union Hall building which they left unpaid. Laid over until appointment of committees.

Com. Ryno moved the Union County Bank be designated as the depository of the funds of the board. Adopted.

Clerk Bunn read the usual estimates for the expenses of the year as follows: Interest on water bonds (at 4 per cent.) $7,400; probable cost of running works, $5,500; total, $12,900. Probable receipts for water, $12,200; cash on hand May 1st, $4,100.80; total $16,300.80, still leaving a balance of $3,400.80 on hand upward paying the half year's interest of $3,700 due July 1st. On motion of Com. Lohmiller the report was ordered submitted to the Common Council and a copy filed.

On motion of Com. Ehrlich the board adjourned until the regular meeting, which will be next Wednesday evening.

A request from the Alderan Club for a service pipe to their club house, from Milton avenue, was referred to the appropriate committee when appointed.

One Hundred Notables.

The New York World last week issued its "One Hundred New Jersey Notables," which is a handsomely engraved picture containing the best portraits of one hundred of New Jersey's men who have become prominent politically or otherwise. The picture figure is Gov. Abbett, larger than the others, and very natural looking. Then there are the U. S. Senators, state officials generally, legislators, some county officers, etc. Union county is represented as follows: Ex-Gov. Green, Rev. Dr. Kempshall, Senator Marsh, Ex-Mayor Grier, Mayor Rankin, Ex-Assemblymen Voorhees and Corbin, Gen. Drake, Ex-Congressmen Clark and Kean, of Elizabeth, and the editor of this paper has the distinction of representing the remainder of the county. This picture cannot be purchased at any price, but is presented to every one who furnishes thirty coupons of different dates cut from the New Jersey edition of the World.

MR. EDITOR: We understand that some ladies think they cannot join the Relief Corps, of the G. A. R., unless they have relatives in the late war. BASE BALL.

THE RAHWAYS BACK IN FORM—THEY DEFEAT THE LEES OF BROOKLYN 14-2—MURRAY MAKES A BATTING RECORD AND FRANCIS FOR STRIKE OUTS.

The weather was not inviting to base ball patrons on Saturday, but the four hundred who went down to the base ball grounds saw a fine exhibition of batting and field work. The Lees of Brooklyn were the home team's opponents, and it was evident from the first inning that they were out-classed, but nevertheless they put up a good fielding game and made as many hits off Francis' pitching as the Princetons did. It was not that the Lees were not up to the mark, but that Rahway's team as it was on Saturday is a very hard one to beat, and if they bat and field anywhere near last Saturday's game the record will show many more victories than defeats when the season closes. Francis had his pitching arm with him, and fifteen times did the men from the Gowanus parks walk bravely up to the plate and smite at the ball forty-five times without hitting it and then retire to the field to chase the many hits of the home team. Joe Reilly had his eye on the ball both in his back-stop work, and while at the bat, and scored six of Rahways runs. Murray's batting was the feature of the game. Heitmann who pitched for the Lees is not a bad pitcher but the way Murray pounded the ball around the lot must have made Mr. Heitmann think he knew very little about that department of base ball. In his first time at the bat he knocked out a three-bagger and duplicated this in the fourth. The next time at bat he hit for a single, and in the last two innings batted out two baggers in each. Men were on bases each time he was at the bat, and he brought in one half of the total runs scored by the Rahways.

Daly who played here several games last season played third base for the home team and batted well. His throwing is excellent and his general work good. Keeler, another new man, played right field and showed up in great form, he playing his position nicely and batted making a three-bagger and a single.

Manager Wilson has made two good additions to the team and we should like to see it remain as it is the balance of the season; for the Lees, Heiberger, or as he is better known as "Shorty," carried off the honors. He was always a favorite here and received hearty applause every time he came to the bat. He plays with earnestness and vim and no matter whether the ball is in centre field or at the home plate there were you will see "Shorty." But the toughest thing was when a small boy wanted Shorty to steal home as no one would see him. "Jakey" was also with the Lees; he played third base and tried to catch a foul ball but sat down instead, and then everybody laughed. The game was one-sided but interesting on account of the many good plays.

The Rahways started right in for fair at the first, when at the bat they earned a run on Joe Reilly's single and Murray's three-bagger. They got two more in the third, Keeler knocked the ball to the fence and landed on third; Joe Reilly was given a free by Jakey's wild throw to first, and on which Keeler came home. Joe then stole second and was batted home by Daly. They added three more in the fourth, after the side should have been out. Graves making an awful muff of Joe Reilly's easy fly. Murray was the man who made the runs by sending Keeler and Joe across the plate with a three-bagger. Four more tallies were added in the seventh, Reilly and Murray hitting for singles and Francis for a two bagger. One more went on the score in the eighth and three more in the ninth. The Lees got their first run in the second inning, and they earned it. Graves hit safely over second base, stole second and scored on A. Platz's single to right. In the next five innings but seventeen men faced Francis, he striking out ten of these. They got their second and last man across the plate in the eighth inning. Harrigan got for a base and reached second on Keeler's poor throw in. Sublich sacrificed him to third and he scored on Shorty's base hit. The score:

Earned runs—Rahways 4, Lees 1. Three base hits—Murray 2, Keeler 1. Two base hits—Murray 2, Daly 1, Francis 1. Bases on balls—Rahways 2, Lees 1. Left on bases—Rahways 8, Lees 6. Stolen bases—Rahways 2, Lees 2. Struck out—by Francis 15, by Heitmann 5. Wild pitch—Francis. Passed ball—Reilly. Time of game—2 hours. Umpire—Mr. A. Pausch.

Allertons Saturday. Game called 3:30 sharp. It should be a first-class game. The Allertons stand second in the semi-professional league.

Beebe, who is down to pitch, is the old Bergen Point pitcher.

The nines will be composed as follows:

RAHWAY.		ALLERTONS.
Joe Reilly,	catcher,	Smith.
Francis.	pitcher,	Beebe.
Pausch.	1b,	Demin.
Jim Reilly,	2b,	Kinsie.
Daly,	3b,	Kennedy.
Murray,	s.s.	Sluiter.
Dillon,	l.f.	Green.
Kramer,	c.f.	Pixley.
Keeler,	r.f.	Reynolds.
Brunnemer,	extra,	Melrose.

Smith has a fine reputation as a catcher, and with Beebe in the box, the visitors should have a strong battery. The game should be close and interesting, as both are strong teams and competent to put up as good ball as can be seen anywhere for any price.

The Little Giants will play the Americus club, of Elizabeth, on the Hamilton street grounds, Decoration Day morning.

THE ATLANTAS DO SOME HEAVY BATTING AND DEFEAT THE ELIZABETH FIELD CLUB TO THE TUNE OF 21 TO 11.

The game between the above clubs took place on the grounds of the Elizabeth club on Saturday. The Rahway boys got eighteen hits, including two base hits and a home run. Tom Brown's batting and fielding, and Eddie Sewell's catch of a fine fly in right field and throw-back to first, making a double play, were the main features of the game. Jim Roach, the Atlanta's regular pitcher, could not get away from his business, and H. Jackson had to go into the box and pitched a good game after the first inning, the Elizabeths making only three hits after that. Nearly all the Rahway boys made either two or three safe hits. Robt. Drake was hurt during the practice and could not play his position after the fourth inning, Eddie Crowell coming into short and Drake going to right. Myer, 3d baseman of the Elizabeths, made some very nice stops. The following is the score:

The Atlantas will cross bats with the Advertisers, of New York, next Saturday morning, on the Rahway Athletic Association grounds; game called at 10 a. m. sharp, and in the afternoon they play the Lindens on the latter's grounds.

The admission to the Association grounds will be 10 cents, including grand stand.

If Tom Brown would only bring his Elizabeth girl to watch him play next Saturday, he would knock the ball over the fence, judging from the way he hit last Saturday.

The Lindens will again play the Alerts, of Elizabeth, at the latter place, Decoration Day, at 10 a. m. It is looked forward to for a victory for Linden. The game last Saturday was won by the Alerts with only four of the Linden team, the others having been notified Friday night that there would be no game, made other engagements, and were unable to be with their club. At nine o'clock p. m. Friday, the Alerts telegraphed for the game, having been disappointed by the Unions, of New Brunswick.

Carteret and Vicinity.

Mr. J. B. Osbourn, the district clerk, took the school census of the Blazing Star district, this week. There are seventy-eight children of school age now in this district, which is a great increase over former years.....Blazing Star school has a new flag staff. It was raised last week by the telegraph men. The grounds around the school-house also presents a fine appearance, having flower beds laid out and the lawn neatly trimmed.....Ex-Supt. Ravensway and his wife who resided in this place, left for a Rahway last Saturday, took with them a young girl named Kaile O'Rourke, who had been living with them as a servant. The father of the girl, however, objected to her accompanying them, and endeavored to bring her home, but the girl was determined to stay, and when the father went to Ravensway's house with an officer, she went outside and concealed herself until they gave up the search and left. Mr. O'Rourke is then in his purpose to take the girl home and will use every means in his power to do so.....The residents around Port Reading are greatly interested in the railroad war which is being waged between the Philadelphia & Reading and Central Railroad of N. J. On Wednesday, a week ago, quite a commotion was made by the work which was begun by the Central at the point where the Philadelphia & Reading proposes to cross. Ground was raised to the level of the other tracks and a new building was made on each side of the main tracks. The object is, it is said, to compel the Reading to elevate their tracks in crossing the Central. It is done with the intention to bother the new road in any rate. The work was continued through Wednesday afternoon and night and two or three days and nights following, and noise of the trains loaded with crushed stone, ties, rails, etc., the ringing of the bells, blowing of whistles and shouts of the bosses made the usually quiet neighborhood rather lively. A flag-house has been placed by the Central at the crossing of the Woodbridge road and a flagman stationed there, and this is certainly a good thing and what has been long needed.

Attention Company!

Friday night the annual inspection of Company F took place by Col. D. B. Murphy, of Camden, Brigade Inspector. The company mustered 45 men and made an excellent showing in deportment, uniforms, care of arms, marching and manual; the Colonel specially complimented the commanding officers on their loading and firing. They were under command of Capt. Benjamin King and Lieutenant Morris and Pierson; with Orderly Sergeant Sweitzer to "pivot" them, they did some fine wheeling and steady marching. Among the regimental staff officers present we noted Lt. Col. B. P. Holmes, Paymaster N. V. Compton, Quartermaster C. M. Hawkins, Adjt. L. J. McVicar, and Lt. Shuler of the "gun squad;" also Capt Garrison of Company E, of Elizabeth, Capt. Kay of Company D, of New Brunswick and his Lieutenants, and Color Guide E. A. Peterson. After dismissal the company adjourned to Hermes' hotel for refreshments, and the staff officers were entertained by Capt. King at the Rahway House.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. gave a strawberry festival at the Association rooms on Thursday evening of last week. The bowling alleys were opened to the public at a charge of ten cents per game, and were will patronized. The attendance was fair, and a neat sum accumulated.

Kidnapping.

Mr. Daniel J. C. O'Rourke, of Carteret, called on Justice Wm. R. Frazee, Monday last on complaint that one John Ravensway and wife, had enticed from home and were forcibly detaining Katie, his step-daughter. O'Rourke had a warrant issued at Perth Amboy and endorsed by Justice Isaac Harned authorizing him as a special constable to summon Ravensway to show cause for wilful detention of Katie, but Ravensway was not a resident of Middlesex County, having moved to Rahway from Carteret one day last week. Justice Frazee issued a warrant for Ravensway and his wife to appear before him Wednesday morning, which they did, bringing the girl with them. Mr. O'Rourke stated that he had called at the Ravensway home, on Hazelwood ave., to see his daughter and was told that she was not there, and Ravensway threatened to shoot him. He had watched the house last Saturday night and seen the girl in an upper room, that there were several men in the room at the time, and that one of them had advanced toward the girl whom he had heard scream. He had taken officer Dunlan there Monday night and entered the house, not finding his daughter whom he alleged had been secreted in a woodshed; that his wife had called there also on Sunday and was told her daughter was not there. Mrs. O'Rourke corroborated her husband's story, admitting also that the girl had been in the employ of the Ravenways while they were residing at Carteret for three weeks. The girl who is seventeen years old was quite prepossessing in appearance, was sworn and stated that no insult had ever been offered her nor any liberties taken with her at Ravensway's; that she was not restrained of liberty to come and go and not forcibly detained. She did not want to stay at home and left. The Ravensway's testified that they had not kidnapped her nor deprived her of her liberty. Justice Frazee weighed all the evidence and ordered the girl to secure her clothes and accompany her parents home, stating it was evident that she had of her own volition gone to live with the Ravensways. The case was then dismissed. Ravensway is superintendent at the Fertilizing Works at Carteret, and O'Rourke claims to be a detective.

Daughters of the American Revolution.

The Chapter of this society is to be organized at Plainfield for the ladies entitled and resident in Union county, N. J. The objects are to perpetuate the memory and the spirit of the men and women who achieved American Independence, by the acquisition and protection of historical spots and the erection of monuments, by the encouragement of historical research in relation to the Revolution and the publication of its results, by the preservation of documents and relics of the Revolutionary soldiers, sailors and other patriots, and by the promotion of celebrations of all patriotic anniversaries.

Any woman may be eligible for membership who is of the age of eighteen years and who is descended from an ancestor who with unfailing loyalty rendered material aid to the cause of Independence as a recognized patriot, as soldier or sailor, or as a civil officer in one of the several colonies or States; provided that the applicant shall be acceptable to the society.

Information in detail will be furnished to ladies entitled to and desirous of joining this Chapter.

Regent of Union County, N. J.

The fourth of the series of entertainments by the Young Peoples' Societies of the different churches, for the young men of Rahway, was given on Tuesday evening by the Y. P. S. C. E. of the First Presbyterian Church, at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. A large audience was in attendance and the following well arranged programme was successfully carried out: Piano duet, Misses Harriet Williams and Grace Blore; recitation, "The First Settler's Story," Mr. Edward Golder; vocal solo, "Farewell Marguerite," Miss Lillian Morris; piano solo, "Salut à Festa," Prof. R. A. Herold; trio, Mrs. J. R. Morss, Miss Nellie M. Martin and Mr. J. R. Avery; banjo solo, Mr. C. B. Millar; piano solo, "Valse Styrienne," Prof R. A. Herold; vocal solo, "My Sweetheart When a Boy," Mr. J. R. Avery; banjo solo, Mr. C. B. Millar. Just before the close of the musical and literary part of the programme Secretary Lanning made a short address, thanking the different societies who had given the entertainments, also making some announcements, after which refreshments were served by the ladies and a good time in general enjoyed. Great credit is due to the committee, Misses Lizzie Freeman, Harriet Williams and Fannie B. Martin, and Messrs. Fred S. Smith and Edward Carman.

More testimony in the Gordon will case was taken before Chancellor McGill on Tuesday, expert examined as to the genuineness of the signature, and officials from Brooklyn to show that his residence was not in New Jersey at the time of his death, and hence the will should have been offered for probate in that city.

The employes of the Rahway Opera House gave their first annual ball at Silvers' Hall, Monday night last. About two hundred were present and Prof. Laurie furnished the excellent music consisting of five pieces, and the dancers were kept busy while joy was unconfined. During the intermission Hahnaban's Quartette sang "A Mother's Appeal to Her Boy," and "Steve O'Donnell's Wake," in which Messrs. O'Rourk and Hahnaban danced a rale ould Irish breakdown." Special officer Thos. Robinson had been engaged to preserve order but the services of his strong arm were not called into active play during the hours of the ball, order being remarkably good. The hall was decorated with flags, etc. The floor committee consisted of John Kerr, manager, and Chas. E. Post assistant. The officers are Thos. Moore, president; F. T. Taylor, treasurer; E. J. Mintel secretary.

MR. EDITOR:—I think this Republican administration in referring the Italian Government to the State of Louisana is advocating State Rights with a vengeance. The idea, to merely shirk the responsibility, that this government should saddle off a national difficulty upon a single State, Aye, in the eyes of other nations look as if we were somewhat afraid of those big Italian guns we hear so much about. To carry this motto out the State of Louisiana ought to tell the country officials that they must settle with Italy and the county officials should rail the city of New Orleans should settle and New Orlrans should, saddle it on the ward, and the ward should poke it off on the ward politicans, the ward politicians could shove it off on the poor African, and the matter would be left in the dark. * * AND SYMPS.

How consistent! Chilli is a weak little Republic, a Congressional party is struggling against a semi-constitutional monarchy; we are redhot to get in this mix, as it makes no difference which side we take they haven't got any of them big long guns, and we can lick 'em.

For several years past a gentleman in Nashua, N. H., has been in the habit of taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla to tone up his system preparatory to the heated term. He finds that this medicine relieves the tired feeling so prevalent during spring and early summer.

Great bargains in Table Cutlery. Selling out at Borgmeyers.

Mr. E. Burbeck, has put a soda water fountain in his barber shop in the Exchange Building so that his customers many refresh themselves while waiting for "Next!"

Thos. Kelly is remodeling his house on Milton avenue, by giving it a covering of new weather boards, which will in all probability be touched up with some fancy tinted paint.

The Indian maiden that has so long stood in front of water Commissioner Ehlich's cigar emporium has been given a new dress of gaudy colors by Messrs. Tullberg & Lindblom.

V. N. Bagley, P. H. P. of LaFayette Chapter No. 26, of this city, was elected one of the Grand Chaplains at the annual session of the Grand Chapter R. A. M., recently held in Trenton.

On Thursday evening, June 4th, Rutgers Glee Club, assisted by a humorist, of Jersey City, will give an entertainment at the Methodist church, Milton avenue. Refreshments will be served at the close of the entertainment.

As will be seen by reading our "ads" Messrs. Cladek & Smith, contractors and builders, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Cladek (William) having formed a copartnership with his brother Mr. Frank Cladek.

Charles Lee's Great London Show will be in this city, Friday of this week. A lot has been rented adjacent to the Columbian school, which has created considerable objection from the neighbors and school people.

Remember the Milton Sunday School entertainment next Thursday evening. Rutgers Grammar School Glee Club assisted by a humorist of Jersey City will take a prominent part in the programme. Tickets are being sold at 25 cents.

George, son of Mr. Charles Simpson, while performing some acrobatic feats on a trapeze at the residence of Mr. Richard Hurley, some days ago, fell and sprained his arm. The doctor says it will be some time before he can use the arm.

Mr. C. P. Scott, of the New York and New Jersey Telephone Co., with his twenty linemen who had been quartered in this city several weeks at the Rahway House left Monday for Perth Amboy, having finished the work hereabout.

Parties passing through Cherry street late Monday evening thought there had been a fire in Fuhr's barber shop—but it was only the result of tearing down the mortar ceiling for the purpose of putting on wood, and otherwise improving the room.

Photograph, Autograph and Scrap Albums at half-cost price, at Borgmeyer's.

The county authorities have levied on some valuables, including a watch, jewelry, etc., belonging to E. M. Hubbard, of this city, who was recently discharged, as cured from the Morris Plains asylum, the proceeds to go towards paying his board at the asylum.

The ladies of the 2d Presbyterian church will hold a sociable and musical assembly in the lecture room of the church, on Tuesday evening, June 2nd commencing at 7:30. Refreshments will be served at the usual rates and there will also be a table for the sale of aprons and other useful articles.

Amos P. Barber and wife, of Hope Valley, R. I., arrived in this city Saturday last for a brief visit among friends, especially coming to hear and see "Joe English." Mr. Barber when a resident of this city was a very zealous member of the Rehearm Club from its institution, when Maybee and English were first here.

Mayor Chamberlain goes quite beyond the hospitable custom of letting the latch string hang on the outside as a welcome to all; last week he had taken down all the fence in front of his residence on Milton avenue, making the premises free and clear of all encumbrance, in case of a rush to congratulate him on retaining the office.

Ladies' Skirt Waists in Cambric, Percale and Crepe Cloth. Fine goods, perfect fit, 50 cents to $1.25, at the Corner Store.

Early Tuesday morning a man was found along the railroad track near Scott avenue, who had been struck by a train and was badly injured. He was taken to the office of Dr. Daly, who relieved him as far as possible, and he was sent to St. Michael's hospital, Newark. His name was Martin McDonough; and he had evidently been given to dissipation, as a letter was found in his pocket written to his wife at Hackensack, in which letter he promised to reform and asked her forgiveness. He died soon after reaching the hospital. In his pocket was a book with the inscription, "Martin McDonough, Hackensack, Carpenters' and Joiners' Union."

Purity, strength and medical virtue are combined in Risley's Witch Hazel. Eight ounce bottles 25 cents. For sprains, bruises, cuts, galls, sunburn, etc., it is unequalled—superior to any Witch Hazel sold in bulk. If your druggist has not got it, he will order it of the proprietor Chas. F. J. Edward Marsh and family expect to return from their New York residence and occupy their pleasant summer residence in this city this week.

There is a rumor that Thurbur & Co., the noted wholesale grocers, who own the building now being remodeled at 123 Main street, will open an extensive grocery there when completed—but we don't believe it.

Charles L. Dougherty, of Union Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., of this city, will make an address at Lumberton, this state, on the occasion of the presentation of a handsome flag to the public school there on the 4th of July.

Messrs. J. C. Melick & Co., being the lowest bidders out of a number of competitors, secured the contract to manufacture fifty bicycle suits for the Union County Roadsters. The suits are fine ones of navy blue.

Master Harry Commoss received a handsome white pony and fashionable road cart, harness, etc., for a birthday present from his father. He is now frequently scampering the streets and country roads with his neat rig.

Officer Haley and special Ward had a lively chase Wednesday after a traveling tailor named Jas. Reilly, who was drunk and disorderly in the streets. He was fined $2, and paroled by Judge Trussler, until he could earn the amount.

The competitive examination for free scholarship to the New Jersey State College at New Brunswick will be held in the court house, Elizabeth, Saturday, June 6. Further information may be obtained of Supt. B. Holmes, Elizabeth.

On Sunday morning last our citizens wondered what made the bell of the 2d Presbyterian church have such a dull, muffled sound; upon inquiry it was learned cracked, and will have to be replaced by a new one. This sports the efficiency of the town clock $50.

A young lady in one of our church choirs was singing "Coronation" preparatory Sunday night, and when she came to the words "The wormwood and the gall," she gave the short sound to the "a" in the last word and the gal-lant that sat beside her, seemed to be very much gall-ed.

Franklin Engine Co. No. 2, will have a grand wash at the St. George's avenue brewery, on Decoration Day at 10 a. m., Mr. Scheuer having kindly tendered the use of the large cistern in the rear of the brewery. The officers of the company cordially invited the Mayor and Common Council to be in attendance.

The workmen engaged in excavating the cellar of one of the dwelling houses about to be built by Messrs. Muddell on Campbell street, encountered an immense boulder weighing about two tons. It was successfully blasted by Mr. George Ball Monday, requiring two drills and charges to rend it into portable pieces.

By direction of the State Superintendent the time for holding the next regular teachers' examination has been changed from May 29th and 30th to June 5th and 6th. Examination for second and third grade branches on Friday, June 5; for first grade branches Saturday, June 6. Examination will be held in Westfield.

In response to Miss Frances Willard's appeal a meeting in the interests of the World's W. C. T. U. will be held next Sabbath, May 31st, at Temperance Headquarters, Irving street. There will be singing and reading of Daniel Hands' to this organization by members of the Rahway W. C. T. U. and Loyal Temperance Legion.

The "Thirteen Club" held their monthly sociable at the residence of D. B. Dunham Friday night, of last week. A game of "pomme de terre la cuillet," created much amusement during the evening, and the honors were awarded to Mr. Wm. Chamberlain, Jr., who proved to be very adept. There was also dancing and refreshments.

One of the greatest features of DeWolf Hopper's latest success, "Wang," presented nightly to crowded houses at the Broadway Theatre, New York City, is a huge elephant. The part he plays in Goodwin & Morse's sprightly burletta is a most important one, and his lively antics and life-like movements, have caused considerable comment.

Stories have recently been circulated in this city of the death of Dr. Hodgson and his wife, at Roanoke, Va., but we saw a letter from the Dr. a few days ago, and judging from a description of exercise taken climbing hills, etc., and their good appetites, they are both very lively corpses. It is strange what object the originator of such a story could have had.

It is stated in some quarters that Major Hodgson, formerly of this city, now of Roanoke, Va., who has never obtained the results in the celebrated court martial case, in reference to the charges perferred against him while Surgeon of the 3d regiment, is about to institute proceedings against the state for the promulgation of the findings, which it is understood were in his favor.

Joanna Brokaw made complaint before Judge Trussler Monday night against Spencer Williams for laying violent hands on her repeatedly. At a hearing Wednesday morning he admitted he had not used Joanna altogether right, for which he was sorry, and promised to furnish bonds of $100 to keep the peace for a year. He is in the employ of the Rahway Athletic Association. Both are colored people.

Joe English concluded his temperance revival meetings Sunday, evening with a mass meeting in the 2d Presbyterian church, which was crowded in all parts. Dr. Liggett made some remarks severely reflecting upon some church members who indulge in intoxicants. A large number have signed the pledge, some who have been very intemperate. Many have also joined the Reform Club, which will doubtless take new life.

Darry Post G. A. R. turned out a larger number than usual Sunday night to attend services at St. Paul's church, according to annual custom, on which occasion the rector, Rev. Dr. Norton, preached an excellent and appropriate sermon which was attentively listened to by the veterans and their friends, a large number of whom were in attendance. As we could not do justice to the sermon by a synopsis, and not having room for it in full this week, we will print it in our next.

A new firm under the name of Jos. W. North & Co., has nearly completed a new factory at Elizabethport, to be used as a knitting mill. Mr. North is a resident of this city and as he has long been acting in that line of business no doubt will be successful. They will manufacture various kinds of underwear. The building is quite an extensive one, costing over $25,000. Mr. North desired to locate in Rahway, but as he would need a large number of girls he was advised by those employing that class of labor that they could not be obtained in Rahway.

Edmund B. Price, son of Levi Price, of Milton, became a benedict last Thursday night, by marrying Miss Emily Greenaway, of this city, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. B. O. Parvin. As he was a resident of that part of our city, where the "rangers" reside, and are always accustomed to give their newly married friends a "Calathumpian," he was tendered a full benefit, the noise and din being equalled only by a 4th of July celebration. However, Ed. was not discomfited, promptly showing himself and entertaining the boys in a very satisfactory manner, and they afterwards paid similar compliments to Mr. John Gettings and wife of Commerce street, who were married some time ago, the "rangers" not forgetting that Jack was formerly a Miltonite.

I have used Dr. Deane's Dyspepsia Pills for Dyspepsia and Constipation, and have been cured by them. I cheerfully recommend them to all who suffer from the same. STEPHEN BURHANS.

Section Master Toomey, requests us to correct in some particulars the item which appeared in our last issue in regard to the narrow escape of B. W. Hughes at the Main street crossing. He says he was an eye witness, and that there was plenty of time for the team to cross, as the fast line was at the Junction when Mr. Hughes approached the crossing, and Toomey called to him to "shake 'em up," if he wanted to cross; but continuing to drive slow the gateman lowered the gate as fast as possible, allowing the wagon to pass under and close it before the train passed.

Rev. E. S. Wheeler, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, Rahway, but at present pastor of the Fourth Street Baptist church, Boston, has recently been elected President of the Pastors' Union, of that city, and chairman of the advisory committee of the ministers meeting. The strong Dahlgren Post of Boston attended his church on Memorial Sunday, in company with the Relief Corps and Sons of Veterans. On Memorial Day he addresses G. A. R. Posts at three different points in New England. His church is prosperous, with three hundred members and four hundred in the Sunday School.

The strawberry and ice cream festival given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the 2d M. E. church on Monday evening passed off very successfully—the cream being exhausted and more ordered before the appetites of those present were satisfied. The small attendance by the male portion of the membership and congregation was a subject of comment. The ladies who managed the affair deserve great credit for their success. In announcing the festival on Sunday the new pastor said he expected the people of the church to stand by and encourage the ladies, and if they did not he would tell them what he thought of them.

If Carl Schurz's remarkable article on "Abraham Lincoln" is the first thing to which the reader naturally turns in the June Atlantic, it is not alone because it occupies the first pages of the number. It is fitting to give so interesting a survey of Lincoln's life and work the place of honor, and we think of no magazine article which has appeared for a long time, which will command such attention, not only from its subject, but from the fact of its being written by Mr. Schurz. It is a review of the Life of Abraham Lincoln, by Nicolay and Hay; and the result of their survey, which in their "Life" extends through ten volumes, is reduced by Mr. Schurz to about thirty pages of compact and interesting narrative. Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.

The 150th anniversary of the First Presbyterian Church will be observed as follows:

Sunday, June 7th at 10:30 a. m., historical and practical sermon by the pastor; 7:30 p. m., addresses by Rev. Drs. Liggett and Kempshall.

Monday, June 8th, 8:30 p. m., Young People's Rally, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavour Union.

Tuesday, June 9th, at 3 p. m., addresses by Drs. Janeway, Imbrie, Gay, McNulty and Mott. 5 p. m., supper for invited guests. 7:30 p. m., addresses by Rev. Messrs. Richards, Cadwell and Teal.

Wednesday, June 10th, 8 to 10 p. m., church sociable.

About two weeks ago a rabid dog passed through this city and bit a number of other dogs, among them the valuable shot-well known as "Murphy" for a long time at Brown's livery stables in which neighborhood she was a great favorite, being very intelligent, valuable as a watch-dog, and kind to children. She was a bull terrier, her mother belonging to Shepherd Knapp, of New York, and her father the celebrated fighting dog Pilot, who fought two hours to a draw. Mr. Knapp presented her to Johnny Murphy the great horseman, and the 2d of May, fielded who brought her to Rahway when a puppy. She was killed by poison on Wednesday, though she had not yet shown any signs of rabies, while it is said, some of the other dogs bitten had shown such symptoms, and had also been killed.

Slight derangements of the stomach and bowels may often be corrected by taking only one of Ayer's Pills. Through not having the Pills at hand, your disorder increases, and a regular fit of sickness follows. The next day you want a nail the shoe was lost," etc.

Saturday evening a man was found in an exhausted condition on New Brunswick avenue, near the residence of Andrew Lindsay, and was taken to the police station where he received good care and medical attention by Dr. Rudolph, recovering so as to be able to depart on his way Tuesday evening, when Chief Tooker paid his fare to New Brunswick. The story of the man was that he was born near Hartford, Conn., and went west in Wisconsin nearly twenty years ago. In October last his wife died in Illinois, he was severely injured in a boiler explosion, still suffering from its effects, and his physician advised him to come east. His funds had given out and he was trying to walk from Jersey City to New Brunswick, to seek work, having had but little food for some time. He gave his name as John Heck, was of good address and said he was not addicted to the use of either intoxicants or tobacco.

Two of the naptha launches that plowed the waters last summer made trial trips Tuesday afternoon of last week. The "Amelia Victoria," belonging to Walter Luttgen has undergone a transformation by Messrs. Mundy and Ryno. A cabin has been added that extends nearly her entire length, finished in natural wood, with numerous windows which lower flush with the deck so as to have an open launch when desired. She has also been repainted throughout. Engineer Herbert Stiles ran her up as far as France's Navy Yard" at the foot of Lewis street, giving the Admiral a chance to test himself at the bridge tender. The speed attained was beyond expectations. As soon as Captain Luttgen returns from Europe he will call the crew together.

The "Elsie," Mr. Samuel D. Mershon's beautiful launch, having been repainted neatly and generally overhauled made her trial trip the same afternoon, attaining a speed that was surprising to her master and the crew (a Dispatch reporter,) under a pressure of 60 pounds that last year required 80; all due to an improvement made in the main shaft attachment by Mr. Mershon himself and changes in the "cut off." The Madcap will soon be ready and then Rahway will be well represented.

Some interesting testimony was given on Wednesday. Henry Van Wyck, who married Mr. Gordon's widow, gave some of his testimony—that he married in 1847 and went to California in '49, his wife getting a divorce about '52, which allowed him to marry again. He admitted engaging a room at a hotel in Elizabeth for Mrs. Gordon and Miss May, but denied putting tartar emetic in Mr. Gordon's beer, but Mrs. Gordon did on advice of a physician, as Mr. Gordon was drinking it to excess and they hoped to sicken him; but the excess was not due to jealousy. He also admitted being with Mrs. Gordon three years after Mr. Gordon's death before marrying her. A number of witnesses testified that Henry Van Adams' reputation for truthfulness is not considered good. E. S. Savage, Samuel Sanders and David P. Carpenter testified as to the value of real estate named in the will.

This concluded the testimony for the contestants, and Amos P. Barber was the first witness called for the defense; he produced a number of letters written to him by Mr. Gordon, for comparison of the signature on the will. The case will be resumed at an early date.

By request of some of the friends of Mrs. Rebecca Porter, widow of the late Rev. J. S. Porter, D. D., at one time pastor of the 2d M. E. church of this city, we publish the following poem written by Rev. E. H. Stokes, and read at the celebration of her ninetieth birthday, as recently noticed in these columns:

Ninety Years!

To Mrs. Rev. Dr. John S. Porter, on her Ninetieth Birthday, May 25, 1891.

Sorrow-rest—blue, and sunshine—infant,
Gentle—mother, sweet—pilgrim—saint;
Like a living—and undying—flame,
Filling a—heart—with fragrance—pure.
Childhood—innocence—and glory,
Prattling—like a babbling—flow;
Young manhood—season's—dawning,
In the years—of long ago.

Then the intellect expanding
Woman stand—in taller—stature;
Plight of faith, love interwoven,
Rise the bridegroom and the bride.
Plighted faith for worse, for better;
Plighted hope for weal or woe;
Plighted silk for joy or sorrow,
As the years may come and go.

Long the "honey-moon," that followed,
Long the years—or weed—or bliss—
Longer than—are often granted,
In a change—ing world like this—
Long our lives—in joy—or sorrow—
Mountain—sometimes rough and steep,
The uthrough—the years whose soft winds
Sighing—
Soothe us—holy, restful sleep.

Sometimes—roses we see in your pathways,
Off—the flowers of brightest hue;
Sometimes—weed—which seemed unkindly,
Offener—warm and true.
Sometimes—from clouds cast their shadows,
Offener—shine out and bright;
For as day follows—night—darkness,
Came a hunger—out of light.

In the gates of holy Zion,
We—in doubt, have met long;
Husband clothed with priestly ermine,
Sit in state—among the strong.
He a Priest—among the priests,
Long a leader—in the lead;
Strong to dare—and dread and suffer,
Strong in word and strong in deed.

Thou partaker—of his honors,
In his blessedness—had a share;
Both went forth—with joy together,
Meeting—where—everywhere.
Soaring—with—the eternal,
Be glad—for your life rest;
Giving—God were both serving—
Blessing, your were always blest.

Friends arrayed in love—a bright jewels,
Come—and—a life—long;
Friends alike in joy or sorrow,
Friends, who—unfailing were true.
Friendship—on—you will—in the heaven,
Where you lay your tresses down,
Whom in Love's—eternal—pause
Your—Redeemer—will—crown.

Ninety years! Sweet saintly sister,
Four score years—and ten, All hail!
Journey long—yet—by Redeemer,
Never you—will—down to fall
Nearest, dearest—that may—fain thee,
Husband, children—close—to—at,
Thy Redeemer—by—hand—
His strong arm—long thy—last.

Ninety years! A—little longer,
Ninety years! A—time, almost—hope,
Ninety years! Ah—the—pain—spi-indor,
Soon by—chariots—lift—come.
Ninety years! Angel—horses—ready—ridden,
Angel—horses—will—fly—
Winged with love—thy—redeemer—
Through the jeweled—gates—gate.

Unions—there! Night—and enduring,
Shall thy—four—forever—be—!
Jesus—first, the greatest, Standest
Shan—the widest—vista—hill.
Last of earth—restored—forever;
Ninety years—forever—gone!
Past the dying, on the—gen—blest,
Home and rest—sweet—heaven at last!

Oct. 3 G. W. S. J. May, 1891. E. H. STOKES.

Another Mystery.

About 8 o'clock Friday night the occupants of the north end of the double dwelling situated at the corner of Irving and Lewis streets, were rendered a "surprise." A number of families reside in the building, and Mrs. Burns hearing the cries of an infant, opened the front door and found a bundle on the door mat. Mrs. Burns and other members of the household and a half dozen soon gathered about the package and upon investigation found snugly wrapped upon an old plaid shawl a mulatto child about six weeks old, of the masculine gender. He was a squealer of the first water and kicked like a two year old colt. A messenger was dispatched to the police station to notify the officers. Sergeant Conger and special Ward were soon on hand and the infant was taken to the police station, from which it was subsequently removed to the home of Daniel Randolph, (colored) of Bridge street, pending investigation. When found it was warmly clad with a dress of white cambric with small red dots, a flannel petticoat and a cap of canton flannel, but barefooted. On Saturday morning Officer Tooker and Sergeant Conger learned that a small white woman with sandy hair had arrived in this city the evening previous, from Newark, with an infant in her arms, and they accordingly went there and succeeded in tracing her to an Italian stand on Market street, to a lodging house, to the police station and to a hospital where she was not allowed to stay. Efforts to obtain her name failed. The woman was seen at the hospital Sunday, and stated that evening by a resident of New Brunswick who states that she carried a colored baby and was accompanied by a Newark policeman to whom stated that she wanted to go to Rahway, and the officer purchased her ticket. The woman it is said is not very bright.

Chief Tooker and Sergeant Conger made indefatigable efforts to secure the mother of the foundling and used their own money for expenses. They traced the woman's whereabouts for the past six weeks, going to Jersey City, New York and finally to Woodbridge Sunday afternoon where they located her and by a bit of strategy on the part of officer Conger entered her parents' house, and when told by her mother that she was not in the Sergeant walked out in the rear yard and found her there, arresting her while the Chief was in waiting. She admitted she was the mother of the child and the sable father to be Thos. Martin, of Woodbridge. She stated that when she left the child he was on her way home and did not want to take it with her. Because she feared the wrath of her father. Thrice after placing the child on the porch she said she had retraced her steps, its cries awakening a maternal yearning to retake it, but the crowd collecting she started away, taking the wrong road and wandering to Rahway Port, being afterwards directed to Woodbridge. Her name is Fannie Jaques. The systematic work done by our police officers in working up the case thus saving our city an expense of $8 a month for years is deserving of commendation and all good citizens say so.

The girl, on account of her simple-mindedness will not be prosecuted we understand, but turned over to the Woodbridge authorities.

[We make the following extract from a private letter to the editor, as the many friends of Mr. Hull will doubtless be pleased to thus hear from him.]

TOTTENVILLE, S. I., May 25, '91.

* * * Our welcome was very cordial and we were made to feel at home at once. A number of friends who had known us formerly extended their greetings and gave us their personal attentions. The church gave us a reception the second week after our arrival, and the large and commodious parsonage was packed to repletion. It was the largest gathering that had been within those walls for years.

We have found the people very pleasant and uniformly kind. The warm-heartedness of Staten Islanders is proverbial, as we have found in our two former charges on the island, and our generous welcome has convinced us that the reputation is worthily bestowed.

The work in the church has begun very auspiciously. Our congregations have been large from the first. The evening congregations have increased so that they say there have been more young people out in the four evenings preceding last evening, than during the whole preceding year. That doubtless is an extravagant expression, but it indicates the sentiment of the people. Plans are tentatively made to organize an Epworth League. Last evening I preached to the Grand Army Post and the large church was crowded.

Our Sunday School has just rendered the cantata of "Esther." I have been surprised at the variety of talent they possess. Mr. Campbell has been giving it for seventeen years and he says that our Queen is the best he ever had. It was given two evenings last week and is to be repeated by request to-morrow evening. Myra takes the character of "Zeresh, Haman's wife." I wish you could get it up in Rahway, it would take.

Romarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Cleman, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist sold her Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, she bought a bottle and to her right hand benefited from first dose. She continued its use, and after taking two bottles found herself improved in health. Now does her own housework and is well as she ever was. This certain bottle of this Great Discovery at Brown & Smith's drug store, large bottles 50c and $1.

The Liver

When out of order, involves every organ of the body. Remedies for some other derangement are frequently taken without the least effect, because it is the liver which is the real source of the trouble, and until that is set right there can be no health, strength, or comfort in any part of the system. Mercury, in some form, is a common specific for a sluggish liver; but a far safer and more effective medicine is

Ayer's Pills.

For loss of appetite, bilious troubles, constipation, indigestion, and sick headache, these Pills are unsurpassed.

"For a long time I was a sufferer from stomach, liver, and kidney troubles, experiencing much difficulty in digestion, with severe pains in the lumbar region and other parts of the body. Having tried a variety of remedies, including warm baths, with only temporary relief, about three months ago I began the use of Ayer's Pills, and my health is so much improved that I gladly testify to the superior merits of this medicine."—Manuel Jorge Pereira, Porto, Portugal.

"For the cure of headache, Ayer's Cathartic Pills are the most effective medicine ever used."—E. R. James, Dorchester, Mass.

"When I feel the need of a cathartic, I take Ayer's Pills, and find them to be more effective than any other pill I ever took."—Mrs. H. C. Grubb, Horseville, Va.

"I have found in Ayer's Pills, an invaluable remedy for constipation, biliousness, and kindred disorders, peculiar to miasmatic localities. Taken in small and frequent doses, these Pills on the liver, restoring its natural powers; and aiding it in throwing off malarial poisons."—C. P. Alston, Gallman, Texas.

Act Well

"Whenever I am troubled with constipation, or suffer from loss of appetite, Ayer's Pills set me right again."—A. J. Kiser, Jr., Rock House, Va.

"In 1878, by the advice of a friend, I began the use of Ayer's Pills as a remedy for biliousness, constipation, high fevers, and colds. They served me better than anything I had previously tried, and I have used them in attacks of that sort ever since."—H. W. Hersh, Judsonia, Ark.

CHAPTER CX.

An act concerning cities of the first class in this state, and regulating official searches of municipal records of such cities respecting municipal liens on real estate situate within the same.

Whereas, much litigation, loss, confusion and inconvenience have been caused grantors and grantees of real estate situated in the large cities of the first class of this state, by reason of numerous municipal liens by law attaching to such real estate, for taxes, assessments, water rents and other municipal liens and charges as well as sales thereof being wrongly or partially recorded in the numerous records of the many departments of such large cities; and whereas no municipal officer of such large cities be therefore designated or required by any general act of this state to make and properly certify the requisite official searches of the municipal records of such large cities, could be held legally responsible for the correctness of such official searches respecting municipal liens and charges against real estate situate within the corporate limits of such cities; now, therefore,

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That hereafter the official searches of municipal records respecting municipal liens and charges against land and real estate situated within the corporate limits of cities of the first class in this state, shall be made, and the correctness of the same duly certified to, by the comptroller or corresponding chief financial officer of such city having charge and control of municipal records respecting municipal liens and charges against lands and real estate as aforesaid, and the same shall be made by such officer at his own individual cost and expense in the manner and form herein prescribed, and for such purpose said municipal officers and their assistants and employees, shall have full and free access to all the municipal records of such city or of any board or department thereof.

2. And be it enacted, That said official searches respecting municipal liens on land or real estate situate within the corporate limits of the same, and to be made and certified by the municipal officer thereof as aforesaid, shall show in detail and be in the form following:

1. A correct map or diagram of the tract, parcel, lot or piece of land and real estate on which such official search represented to be made, and shall plainly show the tract, parcel, lot or piece of land and real estate in such city on which such official search is made; the correct dimensions of the same in figures; the name or names of the street, avenue, lane, alley, reserve or highway on or near which the said land and real estate is located; and the name or names of the nearest cross streets, avenues, lanes, alleys, roads or highways in such city to such land and real estate, and such names shall be plainly marked or written on said map or diagram.

II. Such official search shall plainly and correctly state in detail, whether or not at the date thereof there exist any unpaid or unexecuted municipal liens or charges against the land and real estate mentioned and described in such official search, on account of any municipal improvement, water rent or any other municipal lien or charge whatsoever therefore levied, assessed or made by or on behalf of such city or by any department thereof, against the said land and real estate;

III. In case there shall exist any municipal lien or lien, charge or charges against the said land and real estate mentioned in such official search, then and in that case such official search shall show in detail the several sums or amounts due to such city or any department thereof, principal, interest, cost and penalties, and for what such lien or liens, or charge or charges on such land and real estate is or are due and owing, and the date when the same became a lien or charge thereon.

3. And be it enacted, That the comptroller or corresponding chief financial officer of any such city aforesaid shall be and hereby is authorized and empowered to charge, take and receive for his own use and benefit, for the individual services and disbursements of himself and his private assistants and employees, in and about the making of such official search regarding municipal liens on lands and real estate as aforesaid, a sum not exceeding eight dollars for a complete search as hereinbefore directed against any single lot or parcel of land, and only such compensation to the said officer as aforesaid shall be allowed by this act authorized to be made for such searches regarding municipal liens and charges on land and real estate situated in such city as aforesaid, and who shall charge therefor a greater amount than the sum of eight dollars, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished for each offense by fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, and shall forever thereafter be incapable of holding any office under the government of this state, or of any municipality thereof.

4. And be it enacted, That any person desiring to have any official search as aforesaid made by the comptroller or corresponding chief financial officer of such city shall make an application therefor to such officer, and such application shall be addressed to such officer, and be signed by the person making the same, and be to a printed or written, or partly written or partly printed application, and shall describe the land and real estate on which the search desired to be made, together with the name of the reputed owner thereof; and such application shall at the time of the delivery of such application aforesaid to such officer of such city deposit in cash with him, taking a receipt therefor, the amount to be charged for such search; and unless such application be so aforesaid be made as aforesaid, and the said amount to be charged therefor be deposited therewith as aforesaid, then and in that case said officer of such city shall not make such official search and he shall wholly refuse so to do.

5. And be it enacted, That the city comptroller or corresponding chief financial officer of any such city, taking and certifying to the correctness of an official search as provided for in act, shall be and is hereby made legally liable and personally responsible to any person or corporation, for any damage, loss or injury occasioned by reason of any error, mistake or omission in any official search hereinafter provided to be made and certified by such city comptroller or corresponding financial officer of any city as aforesaid.

6. And be it enacted, That the said comptroller or corresponding chief financial officer enter into bond with good and sufficient sureties for the faithful performance of the duties imposed by this act, to the city in the corporate name to the amount of ten thousand dollars, which bond shall be approved by the mayor, and such bond may be prosecuted for the benefit of any person or persons or corporation suffering any loss, damage or injury occasioned by reason of any error, mistake or omission in any official search made and certified to by any such comptroller or corresponding chief financial officer at the request of any such person or persons or corporation.

7. And be it enacted, That all acts and parts of acts, general, special or local, inconsistent with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed, and that this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 19, 1891.

CHAPTER CXI.

An act to authorize the appointment of a board of commissioners to represent the State of New Jersey at the World's Columbian Exposition, to be held at Chicago in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That there shall be appointed by the governor, eight persons, who shall be residents of the State, which shall constitute "the New Jersey commission."

2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the New Jersey commission to cooperate with the World's Columbian commission and with the board of directors of the World's Columbian Exposition, in encouraging and forwarding the objects of the International exposition of 1893, authorized by the Congress of the United States to be held in the city of Chicago, and especially to organize, prepare, superintend and have the general management of the New Jersey department of the said exposition.

3. And be it enacted, That to accomplish the objects stated in the next preceding section, it shall be the duty of the "New Jersey commission" to disseminate throughout this state information regarding said exposition; to take measures to secure the cooperation of scientific, agricultural, mechanical, manufacturing and other associations in the several counties; to appoint cooperative committees (where the people of the locality do not appoint), representing the respective industries of the state; to stimulate local action and encourage the production of articles suitable for exhibition, so as to make the New Jersey department of the exposition worthy the state, and to furnish information to the World's Columbian Commission, to the board of directors of the World's Columbian Exposition, and to the people of the State on all subjects connected with the success thereof.

4. And be it enacted that the said New Jersey commission shall continue until such time after the close of said exposition as will be necessary to complete and settle the business connected therewith, but in no event shall the first day of January, anno domini one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

5. And be it enacted, That the members of said New Jersey commission shall not receive any compensation for their services.

6. And be it enacted, That to pay the necessary expenses attending and consequent upon the discharge of their duties and to enable the governor of the state to have proper representation of the different state departments exhibit of the agricultural and mineral products of the state, as also its educational system, and for such aid and assistance as shall be necessary to carry out the objects of this act, there is hereby appropriated the sum of twenty thousand dollars and that out of the money there shall be paid so much as shall be necessary to defray the expenses as aforesaid, to be paid by the treasurer of the state upon the warrant of the comptroller upon being certified by the president of said New Jersey Commission.

7. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 18, 1891.

CHAPTER CXII.

An act concerning sinking fund commissioners in cities of the first class.

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the commissioners of every sinking fund established by law in and for every city of the first class of this state, shall be three citizens and the mayor of said city who shall also be a commissioner ex-officio, who shall not all be members of the same political party, to be appointed by the mayor thereof for the term of three years; the first appointment shall be one for one year, one for two years, and one for three years from the date of their appointment, and thereafter one each for three years in place of the one whose term then expires; any vacancy to be filled by the mayor for the unexpired term only; the sinking fund commission herein authorized shall be in place of, and be substituted for, and shall be invested with all the powers and duties of any commissioners of any sinking fund now established or authorized by law in and for any city, and the term of service of any such commissioner or commissioners serving in any city at the time this act goes into effect shall cease on the appointment of the sinking fund commission as herein authorized.

2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts, public, private, local, special or otherwise, inconsistent herewith be and the same are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect immediately.

Approved March 18, 1891.
