VOL. LXVI—NO. 44 ENGLEWOOD, NEW JERSEY, NOVEMBER 2, 1950 PRICE FIVE CENTS

Along the AVENUE

Another Hallowe'en has come and gone, and so has another opportunity for some real promotion for the Englewood Chamber of Commerce. Just next door to us, in Leonia, that town's tiny Chamber once again sponsored an annual window painting competition for the small fry. The project completely eliminates costly Hallowe'en pranks, and gains immeasurable good will for Leonia merchants. This good will pays off for the shops, both from the youngsters and their parents. For goodness sake, let's look alive here in Englewood next year!

Miss Terry of Terry-Jeffrey, Ltd. had time for just a quick chat when we called her yesterday, she was so up to her ears in carpenters, painters, floormen, etc. "We'll be open Monday, even if we have to do it with an empty store", she promised. It's a lovely store, ladies, and we're sure you will agree it was worth waiting for.

Warren Prest, well known in Englewood for many years, has joined the staff of Englewood Motors, Inc. The new Englewood Motors building on Rockwood Place is rapidly nearing completion, and it is one of the finest jobs ever done by our versatile pal architect Lawrence Moon.

William DeWitt, Jr., who some time ago joined in partnership with Bill Meisner at Englewood Sunoco Station on Grand avenue, is doing a splendid job satisfying, and holding, service customers.

Take it from Snuffy, our office pet, "One man with courage makes a majority."

Joe and Stanley Baron have finally started on that dream of theirs, a building of their own. The new Baron Brothers building will stand at the corner of Englewood Ave. and Brookway Place. Good luck to two fine lads who deserve all of the best.

We were among the lucky invitees to the Young Republican Club's G.O.Peep Show last Friday evening at the Woman's Club clubhouse. All the kids were good, but especially lovely Anne Needham was the hit of the show.

The hot potato on the local Chamber of Commerce agenda currently is the question of parking meters. Just to keep the record straight—the Chamber has never gone on record as approving meters. We would judge that sentiment on the matter is just about evenly divided among the members. But they will probably be polled before the group commits itself.

The old Englewood News Co. on North Dean street this week has a new owner, Abe Zweiback of the Bronx. Mr. Zweiback purchased the business from Carmen Trimboli.

We are indebted to Fordyce Boggs for the following bit of wisdom: "Some minds are like concrete; all mixed up and permanently set.

The new Argo Shoe Store at 63 Palisade Avenue makes its debut tomorrow, and Saturday promises a grand treat for the kiddies, the appearance of Clarabelle, famous TV clown.

Next Wednesday night is the night for the Englewood Chamber of Commerce. The group holds its annual dinner, this year it's at the Swiss Chalet again and it will be a grand affair, we're sure, because Ray Hogan is the chairman.

Hadassah Bazaar To Be Held At Armory

ENGLEWOOD — The Hadassah Bazaar will be held at the Englewood Armory, Engle street, on Tuesday and Thursday, Nov. 15 and 16, it was announced this week, not at the Jewish Community Center as was erroneously reported last week.

The bazaar is being sponsored by the Englewood Chapter of Hadassah to benefit its educational and welfare projects in the State of Israel.

Preliminary Plans For Hospital Wing Nearly Completed

ROBERT R. HERTZLER

ENGLEWOOD — The many persons who contributed to the Englewood Hospital Building Fund this week received a Progress Report containing results of the building fund audit, just completed, and the tentative timetable of procedure in the construction of the wing.

Robert R. Hertzler, president of the Englewood Hospital Association, in making the report, points out that total funds available are less than originally anticipated, making necessary a revision of plans.

But he also emphasizes the important fact that contributions are still being made, that additional contributions are necessary to help provide vital facilities, and that every dollar contributed before the building plans are finally completed will bring 66 cents in Federal assistance.

Tennant Chairman

Mr. Hertzler announces that George G. Tennant has been named chairman of a committee to receive any additional contributions that may be made; to handle the many details connected with the Hospital Building Fund; and to advise the Board of Governors and the Building Commitee on any problems that may arise. Mr. Tennant's committee will operate from the Hospital Building Fund office in Pierce Hall.

The Progress Report is made to contributors "to inform you of the status of your investment in future additional voluntary hospital facilities for yourself, your family, and your community." The tentative timetable as outlined by Mr. Hertzler in the report is:

1-Approval of preliminary plans to be completed by Dec. 31. 2-Working drawings to be completed by May 1951. 3-Bids to be received by Mayor, June, 1951. 4-Ground to be broken by June or July, 1951. Additional space to be ready for occupancy sometime during summer or early fall of 1952.

Audit Completed

The audit of the Building Fund shows a total of $1,156,284 subscribed in contributions and pledges and $163,716 available from reserve funds for building purposes, making a total of $1,320,000 in hospital building funds. On the basis of this amount, a Federal grant of $880,000 is expected under the Hill-Burton Act. But this could be larger if additional contributions are made before the building plans are finally approved. And, according to Mr. Hertzler, contributions are being made by individuals, by business and by industrial firms, some of whom either made no original contribution or have since decided that so worthy a cause deserves added support.

In outlining the tentative timetable. Mr. Hertzler points out that

Women's Auxiliary Of Hospital Meets Thursday, Nov. 16

ENGLEWOOD — Englewood Hospital's Auxiliary, which since the hospital's beginning has been its mainstay for volunteer help in many fields, will hold its annual meeting Thursday afternoon, Nov. 16, in the auditorium of the School of Nursing.

Mrs. Gardiner Hawkins of Tenafly, who has served as president for two years, anticipates a large attendance from the more than 800 members of the 23 auxiliary units that comprise the Women's Auxiliary.

The main speaker is to be Mrs. Donald R. Baldwin, first vice-president of the Association of Hospital Auxiliaries of New Jersey, will speak on "The part the Hospitality Shop can play in the life of a hospital." Mrs. Baldwin, who is associated with the Orange Memorial Hospital, is widely experienced in this field, which is a field that interests the Englewood Auxiliary because of its popular Hospitality Shop.

the problem of how to increase the membership and scope of the Women's Auxiliary, a vital subject in view of the fact that the hospital is to be enlarged and the functions of the Auxiliary undoutedly widened. A broader program of projects to interest the women of the 23 communities will be discussed, along with the possibility of adding more auxiliary units.

Officers of the Auxiliary in addition to Mrs. Hawkins are: Mrs. Frank G. Muzzy, Englewood, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert Greene, Leonia, second vice-president; Mrs. Lewis M. Schwab, Englewood, treasurer (with a record of 25 years continuous service;) Mrs. George R. Meadows, Demarest, secretary.

Jewish Community Center Becomes Part Of The City

ENGLEWOOD — The Jewish Community Center became a part of Englewood auspicously this week.

At impressive ceremonies Saturday night, in the presence of 300 persons who heard Mayor M. Leslie Denning praise the Jewish leaders for their wisdom, foresight, and generosity in erecting a building that will help Jews to become better Jews and Christians to become better Christians, the center was dedicated to the public use.

Keys to the imposing new building were presented to Benjamin Casser, president of the Center, by Joseph Skaller,

And on Sunday, the first day of operation of the edifice, over 1,000 persons visited it, expressing delight in the beautiful design and facility of the building which contains a large hall, a gymnasium, and many other rooms adaptable for educational, cultural, recreational, and civic betterment of the community.

Louis Kriegel, chairman of the Building Fund Committee, made it plain that additional contributions are needed. Including furnishings, the building's closing $300.000. and financial support is essentil.

In turning over the building to

3 Youths Beaten In Street Fight With Masked Man

ENGLEWOOD — Three Englewood youths were in Englewood Hospital yesterday morning following a Hallowe'en night beating administered by an unknown youth.

The thrashing took place at Cedar and Lydecker streets shortly after 9 p.m.

One of the beaten youths was identified by police as Arthur Schultz, 17, of 244 White street, Englewood. His head cracked against the pavement in the street fight, and he was being X-rayed at the hospital.

The two other boys who were beaten were not identified. Schultz was taken to his home in a police car following the brawl.

According to Schultz's mother, Mrs. Frank Schultz, the boy was walking along Lydecker street with two companions when a masked youth about his own age leaped at them asking who they were.

Mrs. Schultz said Arthur was

Chest Failure Or Success Hinges On Report Tonight

ENGLEWOOD—Tonight, Thursday, will tell the tale of Community Chest success or failure. The campaigners meet at Dwight Morrow High School cafeteria at 7 p.m.

Success is still possible; that is, if every campaigner were to get out and make all his calls.

In fact, Campaign Chairman Ernest M. Gilmour this week sent a bulletin message to all campaigners warning them that coverage is the only hope.

The goal is $127,350. Chests throughout the country are reporting success, and the Englewood Chest, which has seldom failed and which has the reputation of being outstanding in this respect, still has hopes of going over the top.

At the close of the second report meeting Friday, a total of $73,916.30 had been reported. This was characterized as "poor" by Mr. Gilmour.

Makes Appeal

Mr. Gilmour's appeal to the campaigners this week said:

"We can make the $127,350 goal. We can make it in time for the final report on Thursday. We can make it if every campaigner gives every citizen of Englewood the privilege of making a pledge to support their eight health and welfare agencies for the entire year of 1951. The minutes are ticking away. Let's keep going."

The total reported on Friday represented only 58 percent of the Chest's 1950 quota.

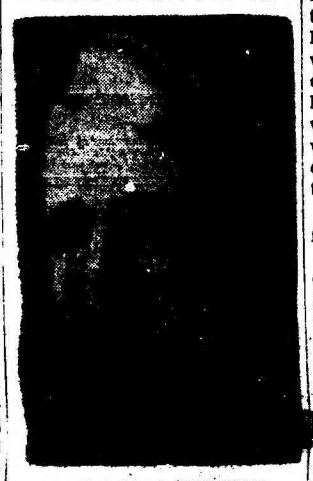
Cartwright Hearing Now Set For 10 A.M. Monday

DINNER SPEAKER



F. RAYMOND PETERSON

Chamber To Hear U. S. Bank Head, Honor Lebson

ENGLEWOOD — F. Raymond Peterson, Englewood, president of the American Bankers Association, will be the guest speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Englewood Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night Nov. 8 at the Swiss Chalet, Rochell Park.

The dinner meeting will also be highlighted by installation of officers of the chamber for the coming year.

Due to be honored at the affair is David Lebson, who has served two terms as president of the trade group.

Mr. Peterson was born in Fairlington, Kans. and was educated in Girard, Kans.; Gem City Business College, Quincy, Ill., and New York University He is now chairman of the board of directors of the First National Bank and Trust Company, Paterson.

The State Bank of Girard was Mr. Peterson's first employer in the banking field, when he joined that bank's staff in 1914 while in high school. From 1917 to 1919, as a lieutenant, he served in the U. S. Army Department of Finance. In 1919, he became a Kansas State Bank examiner and also in that year assumed the post of cashier of the First State Bank at Cherokee, Kans.

Bank Examiner

From 1922 to 1935, except in 1927 and 1928, he was a national bank examiner in the second, eighth, tenth and eleventh federal reserve districts. In the intervening two years, he was vice president and cashier of the citizens National Bank, Okmulgee, Okla.

In 1936, Mr. Peterson was elected executive vice president of the First National Bank of Paterson, and the following year was advanced to the presidency of that institution. In 1942, he became chairman as well as president. When that bank consolidated its interests with those of the Paterson National Bank on June 1, 1946, he became chairman and chief executive officer of the First Paterson National Bank and Trust Company. On Nov. 1, 1948, the Second National Bank of Paterson was merged with Mr. Peterson's institution, and Mr. Peterson was ENGLEWOOD — Developments in the Oct. 17 United Nations Chapter meeting "incident" in which Frederick G. Cartwright of Englewood was arrested on charges of disorderly conduct growing out of his attempt to disrupt the meeting with anti-communisic charges this week are centered about the series of postponements in the date for the Cartwright hearing.

This hearing now has been set for 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Judge Henry J. Bendheim granted the first postponement to Dr. Hugh Wolfe, who preferred the charges against Mr. Cartwright when police arrived at Roosevelt School that night in response to a call about the disturbance. He has engaged Dominick Pachella of [illegible] to represent Dr. Wolfe, who is vice-chairman of the American Association of Atomic Scientists and professor at Cooper Union, has been charged in turn by Mr. Cartwright with disorderly conduct, and with assault and battery in connection with the complaint of one of Mr. Cartwright's followers.

Preparing Statement

(The United Nations Chapter, of which Dr. T. H. P. Sailer is chairman, has refrained from issuing any statement prior to the hearing. A vigorious statement is being prepared, however, in which the chapter will state its positive aims, its unalterable opposition to Communism, and its reply to Mr. Cart-

Yule Gifts For Overseas Sought By Red Cross

ENGLEWOOD — The Englewood Chapter of the Red Cross wishes to interest groups in preparing gift packages for servicemen who will be on the high seas at Christmas time. This was done during World War 2, and the Red Cross has recently been advised that there is a need for such a program this Christmas for troops embarking for the Far East.

Items for the packages which have been approved are greeting card, writing portfolio, pencils with clip, gum or lifesavers or hard candy in cellophane bags, photo folder, crossword puzzle books, jokes or cartoon books, small flat clothes brush, wallet, toothbrush, razor blades and pipe and pipe tobacco.

Stationery, cigarettes, soap, pocket-size books, decks of cards, small games, as dominoes, miniature chess or checkers, oilskin pouch, handkerchiefs, washcloth, camphor ice, nail file and manicure scissors, and comb.

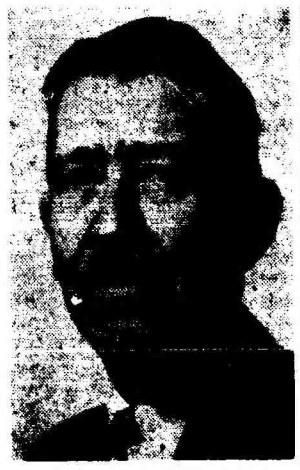
Each gift package should contain six items from the above list, not counting the greeting card. No written message other than the name and address of the donor on the greeting card should be included.

The packages should be attractively wrapped, and packed in strong, firmly tied cartons of medium size. If possible they should be brought to the Chapter House before Nov. 15. Further information may be had at the Englewood Chapter House, Grand avenue.

General Election Nov. 7; 3-Way Congress Contest Constitutes Towe Threat

They Seek Reelection

HARRY L. TOWE
Representative



ALLAN T. TRUMBULL
Councilman

Republicans are calling for a strong vote Tuesday, particularly because of the 3-way Congressional contest in which Independent Carl Ring may cut into Mr. Towe's pluralities.

Election Ballot

REPUBLICAN	DEMOCRATIC For Congress
Towe	Van Wagner
For Assembly
Job	Eichler
For Freeholders
Ferber	DeMarrais
Nelson	Pitts
For Council (Second Ward Only)
Trumbull	Craft

*For Congress there is a third candidate, Ring, running as Independent.

Tuesday, Nov. 7, is General Election Day, with the polls open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Although there is a short ballot, with a few contests, the election is highlighted by an important situation in the Ninth Congressional District (which comprises most of Bergen County and a portion of Hudson County.) Rep. Harry L. Towe of Tenafly, who has been in Congress since 1942 and who is the Republican standard bearer in this election, is seeking reelection. But he faces two opponents—not only a Democrat in Karl D. Van Wagner of Teaneck, but an Independent, in Carl Ring of Rutherford. (Biographies of the three Congressional candidates appear on Page 15.)

Observers are confident that Mr. Towe will be reelected, but they say the interjection of Mr. Ring who stands as a Republican Independent, may take votes away form Mr. Towe and thereby give Mr. VanWagner a better chance.

Mayor Comments

Mayor M. Leslie Denning of Englewood today commented on this situation and in rather strong language denounced Mr. Ring, who claims to be a Republican, for jeopardizing the reelection of Mr. Towe. "The 2-party system has made America great," Mayor Denning states. "Our people have demonstrated time and again that they believe in the 2-party system, that they resent 'splinter' party attempts to wreck one or the other, and that they look upon the Primary Election as the proper battleground for any intra-party fights. If Mr. Ring regards himself as a

Teachers Cite H. C. Of L., Ask For Wage Increase

ENGLEWOOD—The Englewood Teachers' Association, following a recent executive session of its Economic Welfare Committee with the Englewood Board of Education, today announced that mutual problems arising from difficulties caused by the increased cost of living were the topic for discussion at the meeting, held in the Board of Education office at Dwight Morrow High School.

Members of the Economic Welfare Committee declared that the meeting was "pleasant" and that the teachers' problems were courteously received by the school trustees.

Dr. Harry L. Stearns, superintendent of schools, introduced Kenneth Mahood, chairman of the teacher's committee, who with the assistance of Mrs. Alicia S. Smith and Peter Henderson, members of the committee, presented a report showing "why an adjustment of salaries is imperative at the present time." The presentation was followed by a period of discussion, led by Arthur H. Springer, president of the Board of Education.

Mr. Mahood stated today that the report emphasized concern by the Englewood Teachers' Association over the small number of gifted men and women who enter the teaching profession. He stated that Englewood's teachers have long been proud of the city's continued leadership in educational matters, including the high standards maintained by the various schools, the high record of college acceptance of its students, and their success

MISSING IN KOREA

SGT. 1/c ROBERT T. VAUGHAN

Sgt. R. Vaughan Of Englewood Is Reported Missing

ENGLEWOOD — The Department of Defense this week announced that Sgt. 1 c Robert T. Vaughan, husband of Mrs. Ethel Vaughan, 59 Forest avenue, Englewood, has been missing in action in Korea since Sept. 1.

An Englewood resident since March, 1942, Sgt. Vaughan was born in Cleveland, Ohio, where he was drafted in the first call for young men in 1941. After preliminary training with the 372nd Infantry, Sgt. Vaughan joined the 92nd Division for service in Italy. He was decorated with the Purple Heart and Silver Star for service in that zone.

After his discharge in 1946, Sgt. Vaughan re-enlisted and was sent to Japan, where he remained until 1948. When he returned to the United States, he was stationed at Fort Dix, N. J., until July, 1950.

Sgt. Vaughan is a member of the First Baptist Church of Englewood. His mother is living in Cleveland, and he also has four sisters and nine brothers.

Commerce Chamber Ask Purchase Of Park Lots

ENGLEWOOD—The Englewood Chamber of Commerce at a Parking Committee meeting this week decided to send a resolution to the Mayor and Council asking for creation of a Parking Authority with power to purchase off-street parking lots and take whatever other steps may be needed to solve the growing parking problem in Englewood.

The Chamber appointed a committee headed by Samuel Dworkin to consult with the Mayor and Council and primarily with Councilman Richard A. Robertson, who has made a thorough study of the parking problem On the committee are David Lebson Harold Veith, Jr., and Joseph H. Daniels.

Roth, Wehmann Back Craft For Common Council

ENGLEWOOD—Councilman Edwin J. Roth of the Third Ward and Herbert E. Wehmann, president of the Englewood Democratic Club, today issued endorsements of Keith Craft, candidate for Councilman in the Second Ward.

Mr. Roth in his statement says: "In offering Keith Craft as a candidate for the Common Council, the Democratic Party is giving the voters of the Second Ward a young man who is deeply interested in the affairs of our community. Mr. Craft is honest, capable, and energetic.

He has personally called on a goodly number of people in the ward and has thereby gained valuable experience and knowledge to guide him in handling the many problems that will be confronted in the future. Accordingly, I urge the voters of the Second Ward to support Mr. Craft with their suffrage on Election Day."

Mr. Wehmann's statement says: "On behalf of the Englewood

Trumbull, Glidden Have Good Record For Civic Service

ENGLEWOOD — A. T. Trumbull seeks reelection with the full endorsement of his GOP colleagues who in a recent statement cited him "for his untiring efforts on behalf of the Second Ward and the City as a whole."

An engineer, he is vice-president of Matthiessen and Hegeler Zinc Company. He has been a resident of the Second Ward for many years, has served in many civic capacities, and three years ago became Councilman from his ward.

Mr. Trumbull helped outline the constructive program put into effect by the Mayor and Council in the post war period, including preparation of the revised zoning ordinance, improvement of the streets, reorganization of city departments, replacement of equipment, restoration of tax foreclosed properties to the tax lists, an installation of improvements such as parking lots, bus stop benches and play areas. He has conducted a successful one-man safety campaign; obtaining the closing of the safety island openings on Route 4, wider patrol by state and county police, and elimination of traffic hazard at the Walton street approach. He also aided materially in winning state approval for installation of a traffic light at South Dean street and Englewood avenue.

Born in Litchfield, Conn., Mr Trumbull was educated at the Taft School and in 1916 was graduated from Sheffield Scientific School at Yale. He served on the Mexican Border and was a Lieutenant in the Air Service in World War 1.

Mr and Mrs. Trumbull have four children, three of them graduates of Dwight Morrow High School they belong to St. Paul's Church.

JOHN C. GLIDDEN

John C. Glidden is the unopposed Republican candidate for the position of Councilman in the Firt Ward, the post now held by Richard A. Robertson.

Mr. Glidden is a general partner in the investment securities form of Glidden, Morris and Company in New York, and will bring to the Council a wide experience in financial matters. He was born in Englewood, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Glidden, and attended school in this city.

Mr. Glidden served in the Marine Corps during World War II and was discharged with the rank of Captain. Prior to his entry into military service, he was graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy and from Harvard University.

He was one of the organizers and for a number of years served as president of the Englewood Young Republican Club. He has been instrumental in the organization of the Marine Corps League in Bergen County since his return to civilian status.

In Englewood, Mr. Glidden has been active in the Norther Valley Chapter, American Red Cross. This year he served as chairman of the Red Cross drive in the Northern Valley Chapter area, raising nearly $90,000

1,000 At "Open House" For Jewish Center

ENGLEWOOD — The new Jewish Community Center of Englewood was viewed by more than 1,000 visitors Sunday morning and afternoon during an open house program at the building on Tenafly road. Included among the visitors were many from out of town.

Refreshments were served, and guided tours of the building were conducted by a committee of hostesses headed by Mrs. Nat J. Dembrow.

Mrs. Dembrow's committee included the following: Mrs. Edward Schreiber, Mrs. Seymour Lustig, Mrs. Seymour Pass, Mrs. Lloyd Goodman, Mrs. Abe Wise, Mrs. Harold Abrams, Mrs. Irving Etish, Mrs. William Silverstein, Mrs. Abner Nashel, Mrs. Harold Hopp, Mrs. William Kaufmann, Mrs. Morris Magaziner, Miss Rose Schneider and Mrs. Anna Opper.

Enthusiasm Built Up By Young GO Peep Show

ENGLEWOOD—"That's my Pop!" Thus did Mrs. Mary Trumbull Van Buren (Mrs. Albert Van Buren), in full Gay Nineties garb, greet her father, Councilman Allan T. Trumbull, and escort him to the stage at the First Annual GO Peep Show presented Friday night by the Englewood Young Republican Club.

The affair was a unique and highly entertaining pre-election event that drew nearly 250 persons to the Englewood Woman's Club.

All the candidates were featured in one way or another but the greeting accorded to Councilman Trumbull, who is seeking re-election Tuesday in the Second Ward, was the warmest and most unique.

John C. Glidden, First Ward candidate, who is also president of the Young Republican Club, was feted, and was presented with a toy elephant, symbolic of Republicanism, to honor the recent arrival of his third child, James Glidden.

All Candidates Honored

This honoring of the candidates, who included Rep. Harry L. Towe, Assembly Candidate Gill C. Job, and Freeholder Candidates Martin P. Nelson and Martin J. Ferber, was the highlight of the show, although all that preceded it was interesting too. There was a half hour of skits, a quartet, a series of can-can dances and Flora-Dora girls. These Flora-Doras, singing parodies of well known radio commercials, brought on the candidates. The Towe introduction, for instance, was based on "Harry Towe Hits The Spot." The local highlight was the introduction of Councilman Trumbull with "For City Council, Here's The Top-Tony Trumbull," at which point his daughter, Mrs. Van Buren, who was entertainment chairman, cried, "He's My Pop."

The show was written by Mrs. Donald Gordon and Miss Constance Havrilla, who doubled as director. Miss Anne Needham, another Flora-Dora girl, sang several politically flavored parodies.

Special solos were rendered by two of the City's youngest Republicans, 12-year-old Melvin Henderson and 14-year-old Arthur Taylor Jean Boone, Dwight Morrow High School student was featured as soloist. The cast included:

Waiters — Alexander Warrick, Glidden, Sheldon M. Liebowitz, Walter Hartmeyer, Peter Clough, John Adams, William Stanhope, David Ressler, Richard Barnes, Hugh Escher, John Adams, Calvin Sykes, Timothy Overton, Theodore Redfield, and Newton Schenck.

Committee—Albert Van Buren, chairman, Mrs. M. Howard Merritt, Mrs. O. Blake Wilcox, Glidden, Liebowitz, Trumbull, Miss Bonnie Beauduy, Humphrey Stanard, Gordon Schenck, Miss Ann Bridgeman, Miss Shirley Petigrue, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Richards, Richard Overton, and Anne Coulter.

The show, which had the enthusiastic support of the senior Republican organizations of Englewood, demonstrated the strength of this young group and undoubtedly will be responsible for additional growth and strength.

World Federalist Group To Meet At Englewood Home

ENGLEWOOD — A meeting of the United World Federalists will be held on Monday evening, Nov. 6, at the home of Mrs. Malcolm S. Mackay, 135 Winthrop place, Englewood, at 8 p.m. Members of the local chapter are urged to be present, and various means of political action will be discussed.

Members heard Superior Court Judge Frederic R. Colie, on Monday evening declare that "The United States mmust continue the positive aggressive leadership which it demonstrated in supporting UN action in Korea until such a time as the United Nations has sufficier authority and power to guarantee all nations freedom from tion."

Addressing the State Council meeting of the United World Federalists at Newark, Judge Colie said that "today we are witnessing a world-wide revival of hope stemming from the whole-hearted support of the American people to the UN action in Korea".

Democratic Club all persons registered to vote are urged to do so on Tuesday, Nov. 7. Polls are open 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

"We heartily endorse our candidate, Keith Craft, who is running for Councilman in the second Ward. As president of the Englewood Democratic Club, I can personally say that Keith Craft would make a good Councilman because he is interested in local affairs, honest, capable and would serve the interests of all the people.

"I have known him for a period of several years and base this endorsement on that experience."

St. Joseph's Guild To Have Dance Saturday

The St. Joseph's Orphanage Guild, holding its annual charity dance this Saturday night at the Hackensack Golf Club as a benefit for the Christmas fund of the orphanage, announced that almost 200 reservations have been made so far for the dance.

Mrs. Louis F. Jacod, dance chairman, reported that the committee expects the largest turnout for any affair of its kind ever sponsored by the Guild, and that a program of dancing, buffet supper, and several surprise features assures entertainment for all.

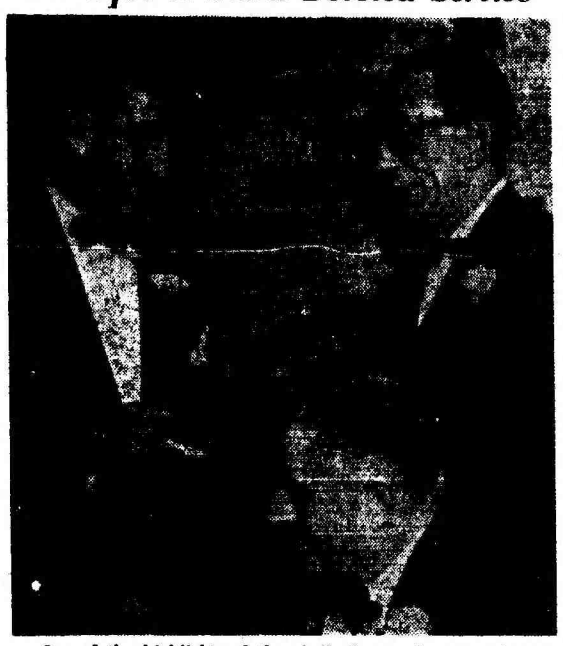
Beautiful New Jewish Community Center Dedicated

Dedication ceremonies were held Saturday for the new Jewish Community Center building on Tenafly road opposite John street, designed by Kelly & Gruzen, Architects & Engineers. A series of dedicatory meetings, highlighted by Open House Sunday, brought hundreds of visitors to the new buildi

A Plaque to Mark Devoted Service



One of the highlights of the dedication week ceremonies at the Englewood Jewish Community Center was presentation of a plaque to Benjamin Casser, president of the Center, by Milton H. Mandel, chairman of the Dedication Journal committee and member of the Board of Governors. The plaque cited Mr. Casser for "his devoted services as president, generosity and leadership . . . an inspiration to all."

Seated in the foreground is Charles Fishberg, chairman of the Dedication Week committee, and chairman of the legal and contract committee of the Center.

Community Center

the public, Benjamin Casser, presi- Center, noted the dedication's symbolizing "the completeness of a building that our community has been long awaiting." Mr. Casser had been presented by Milton Mandel on behalf of the Board of Governors.

Comparing the building project to the life stages of a child, Mr. Casser noted the various points during the building's history, starting with its original plan and proceeding through the dedication to its public use.

Enumerating five main purposes for the center, Mr. Casser declared that it will "provide for Jewish communities of the Northern Valley, a center for their cultural and social activities;. . .a home for our Jewish community, where Jewish life can be enriched and made more fruitful."

Pattern of Unity

Also, the center will "serve as a meeting place for organizations and make possible the development of a pattern of unity in Jewish group life," as well as "to prepare our youth for more useful lives in the American scene." The fifth purpose will be the contribution to the "useful, civic goal of the entire community."

The center also "hopes to provide the cement which will bind together the elements within our community." It will serve as a common meeting ground, Mr. Casser added, for persons "prepared to submerge narrow group interests in behalf of the larger group welfare."

A declaration of faith was offered when Mr. Casser declared that "where there is a synagogue, a temple and a center, it is of the utmost importance that these institutions and their staffs work together harmoniously and cooperatively. We must proceed on the basic assumption that we are all engaged in working for the betterment of the community in sincerity and faithfulness.

Unlimited Scope

"The community center does not limit the scope of its interests and activities to any particular segment of Jewry, but will try to reach all elements in the community."

"The temple, synagogue and center should be partners in a common enterprise: the building of a Jewish community on the highest levels of religious and cultural life. If partners are suspicious and lack faith in one another, and do not work together, their enterprise will surely fail."

The building's cost was placed by Mr. Casser at $250,900, with an additional $50,000 required before its parking facilities and interior furnishing are completed. An appeal for increased pledges was voiced by Mr. Casser, who also expressed his appreciation for the work of those persons in charge of the center's erection.

Notes Aides

Persons noted by Mr. Casser included Louis Kriegel, Joseph Skaller, Charles Fishberg, Dr. Louis Greenwald, Nat Fish, Sol Tamases, Moe Rabin, Milton Mandel, Joseph H. Daniels Harold Rosenberg, Mrs. Fred Thomases, Mrs. William Kaufmann and Mrs. Herman Kahn.

Also Mr. and Mrs. George Feinberg, Fred Thomases, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mandel, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Casser, Mr. and Mrs. Max Grobow, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yager, the late Stanley Lawson, the late Ferdinand Vorsanger, the late Louis Rappaport, the late Sadie Jacobs, Barney Gruzen, Joseph and Frank Weny, and Fred Summers.

In an invocation delivered by Rabbi Israel Margolies, the Jewish center was classified as "not a mere building of mortar and metal, but a living organism, a way of life."

Said Rabbi Margolies, "This structure . . .is not merely a large edifice, an imposing pile of masonry, but a home. . . the common ground, we pray, of all groups in Englewood." Following are those who attended the dinner:

Red Cross Branch To Have Home Nurse Class

TENAFLY—The Tenafly Branch, American Red Cross is in the process of arranging morning and evening courses in Home Nursing to be held at their headquarters in the Smith Building on the corner of Highwood avenue and Jay street. Each course will run for a period of six weeks, having one-two hour session per week.

A class is scheduled for Tuesday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30, with Mrs. Vincent P. Kane, R. N., as instructor. Evening classes will be held on Tuesday from 8 to 10 with Mrs. Charles Dietz, R. N., as instructor.

Anyone desiring to register for the course should telephone promptly to either of the following:

Mrs. R. C. Bromelmeier—Eng. 3-5046 or Mrs. E. C. Masson—Eng. 3-7849.

Classes will start within the next few weeks.

Rotary Hospital Auction Goods Hit New Peak

ENGLEWOOD — The supply of items, large and small, to be sold at the Englewood Rotary Club auction benefit Nov. 14 at the Englewood Field Club swelled today as hundreds of articles of merchandise poured into the club.

Proceeds from the auction will go toward the Englewood Hospital Building Fun. Chairman of the event is Joseph Sel.

According to announcements made today, the newest offerings include a selection of kitchen cabinets, ladies' underwear, wallets, ladies' sweaters and much more unused merchandise.

In charge of useable antique gifts is Mrs. Howard Richmond. She has reported items from pots and pans to pianos and fur coats as ready for the auctioneer's hammer.

The services of William Oliver, Englewood professional auctioneer, have been volunteered for the occasion. Original plans called for the auction to be held in the hospital auditorium, but so great has been the intake of merchandise that the Englewood Field Club was chosen last week as a site for the event. The field club is also donating its facilities.

Six special prizes, each a $25 U. S. Savings Bond, will be awarded during the day. The auction will start at 10 a. m. and continue until supplies are exhausted. Refreshments will be available at nominal cost to auction patrons.

Jay McWhorter of Law, Inc., Palisade avenue, is in charge of the new gifts committee. Other committee heads include Mrs. Joseph Sel and Mrs. Nell Smalbein.

Additional donations of merchandise may be made by calling any Rotary committee member, Mr. Sel said. The transportation of gift items will be handled by the club, with no inconvenience to the donor, he added.

At this week's meeting of the club, the Rev. James A. Martin, new assistant minister at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, addressed club members. A former fighter pilot in the Royal Air Force during World War II. Rev. Martin told of his experiences while stationed at Malta, Alexandria and in England.

Asked why he enlisted in the air force after his religious training, Rev. Martin declared that, since he was too young to enlist as a chaplain, he fulfilled his desire to help the allied cause by enlisting in that group.

Sylvia Zaremba, Prodigy Pianist, In Concert Here

ENGLEWOOD — Sylvia Zaremba, 17 year old pianist, will be heard in Englewood on Wednesday evening, Nov. 8, in the second of four concerts presented for the membership of the Northern Valley Civic Music Association. Miss Zaremba, a native of Chicopee, Mass., and a child prodigy since her concert debut at the age of seven, will appear at the St. Cecilia Auditorium.

The young pianist, whose fourth recital at New York's Town Hall last year was praised by Olin Downes of the New York Times for "extraordinary virtuosity and musical understanding," has appeared with orchestras since 1940 when she played the Mozart "Concerto in A Major" with the Women's Symphony Orchestra of Boston in Symphony Hall. At nine, she made her New York bow with the Philharmonic Symphony, and the next year made her formal debut in a Town Hall concert.

At 11 she "awed" a Cleveland audience of 5,000 by playing the Mozart "D Minor Concerto" "in a manner that re-kindled faith in miracles," declared the Cleveland Plain Dealer. At 12, she played with the Philadelphia Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic. Chicago, Montreal, Toronto and other cities have also heard her as orchestral soloist. Two years ago, she appeared at the White House where she performed for the President and his guests at the first diplomatic dinner given in seven years.

Her program will include: "Organ Fantasia and Fugue in G Minor," Bach-Liszt; "Thirty-Two Variations, in C minor," Beethoven; "Sonata in B flat minor, Opus 35," Chopin; "Sonata NoN. 3, Opus 46," Kabalevsky; "Suite pour le piano," Debussy; "Sonetto del Petrarca, No. 104," Liszt; and "Mephisto Waltz," Lizst.

IN GUILD COMEDY

CLAIRE BOSWORTH

Claire Bosworth, shown above, is a featured player in "Accidentally Yours," comedy presented by Englewood Kiwanis in a benefit performance last night. The Guild Theatre offering at Roosevelt school, Englewood, will be repeated this evening.

Four Bergen Men Arrested As Big County Gamblers

HACKENSACK—The State's investigation of gambling in Bergen County pulled in four Bergen County gamblers whose operations are known to be extensive:

Joe Adonis of Fort Lee, Salvatore Moretti of Demarest, Arthur Longano of Englewood, and James Lynch of Palisades Park.

The four men, alleged associates in the operation of a big gambling casino in Lodi, surrendered to Superior Court Judge J. Wallace Leyden in Hackensack Tuesday and Wednesday and were released in bail of $15,000 each. Their arrests had been wantedby Deputy Attorney General Nelson F. Stamler, who is in charge of the State's investigation, and who says the spotlight will be turned fully on Bergen now. He will question the four and is expected to bring them before a special grand Jury next week.

Adonis, the biggest name among the four, is also wanted for questioning by the Kefauver Senate Crime Investigating Committee. He has been dodging subpoenas on all sides.

A Firsthand Report On British Socialism

ENGLEWOOD—In a first-hand account published this month, Maxwell M. Upson, chairman of the board at Raymond Concrete Pile Company, showed socialism as it exists today in Great Britain.

Mr. Upson resides on Mountain road, Englewood. The article, published in the Raymond Record, follows:

When I landed at the Health Row Airport, London, last November, I motored to the North Airport to catch an Air France plane to Paris. It was a beautiful, mild, sunny Sunday morning. My first thought was that now I would see London in its holiday mood. To my surprise, I found the magnificent highways almost deserted — so much so that I counted the motor cars that I passed in the ten miles separating the two airports. There were six in all. When I compared his with the state of the highways at 10 o'clock on a Sunday morning in the United States, my heart was filled with concern and sympathy. I knew that there was a severe control on gasoline but I also knew that most of the cars in England are designed to run 25 to 35 miles on a gallon. Naturally, I began to wonder how many people really had cars.

In looking up these statistics, I found that the number of cars in Great Britain would provide only one for every six families while in this country we average a car for almost every family. The first question that comes to mind is whether this was one of the dividends of a socialized government. In consequence, I assembled other figures. Only 3.5 per cent of the households of Great Britain have mechanical refrigerators and 3.6 per cent have electric washing machines. In the United States, 79.2 per cent of the homes are equipped with mechanical refrigerators and 68.6 per ment with electric washing machines.

Wages Low

It was natural that an inquiring mind should immediately try to ascertain the reasons for these differences of standards. I thereupon looked into the wages in Great Britain as compared to our own. I found that the average hourly wage in 1949 in this country was approximately $1.40 as against 37½ cents in Great Britain. This in itself was startling enough. But when I began to try to find out the relative taxes, I learned that a 48-hour week at 37½ cents provided a wage of approximately $18, on which a tax of $1.60 or nine per cent was paid. As against this, our men making $1.40 an hour for a 40-hour week, or $56 a week, pay a tax of $3.62 or 6.7 per cent of their wages—while no tax is paid on an $18-a-week income.

If an employe does earn as much as $56 a week in Great Britain, his tax jumps to $10.40 a week or 19 per cent. All of which indicates that their wage rate is about one-third of ours and their tax about three times as great. We, in turn, think our taxes are severe and our income seemingly insufficient. The patience and endurance of the British people stimulate my sympathy and cause me to marvel that they continue to support the principles of socialism which have led them so far down the road to pauperism.

In trying to ascertain why British industry does not pay its workers a higher wage, I consulted statistics on the relative output per worker in the United Kingdom as against the United States. These statistics were prepared by a British economist, named Rosta, and have been generally accepted in both countries. They indicate that workmen in this country produce 50 per cent to more than 300 per cent more per man than do workmen in the United Kingdom. This is due to several factors. The first is that capital in this country has invested very heavily in modern machinery which increases the productivity of every worker. The second factor is that the American worker is much better fed and on that account is more efficient in his efforts. It is obvious that British industry cannot hope to compee in the world markets unless its unit cost of production is kept on a competitive basis. It is for this reason that Britain at the present time is suffering for the want of foreign exchange. They cannot make goods at a price low enough to meet competitors in other countries.

I am impelled to give you these facts for the reason that, until one travels and studies the conditions prevailing in countries other than our own, it is almost impossible to appreciate the blessings we enjoy. These are times, due to threat of war, when taxes and inflation test our endurance to the utmost; but in meeting these rrying and sometimes discouraging conditions, we must ever be mindful that our free enterprise system has provided us with necessities, comforts and luxuries to a degree not approached by any other country in the world.

Public Apathy Is Scored By Walsh At CWV Breakfast

ENGLEWOOD — Public apathy and the tendency to relax vigilance were scored by Maurice A. Walsh, Jr., professor of law at Fordham University's St. Peter's College School of Business, when he addressed members of St. Cecilia's Catholic War Veterans Post 267 Sunday morning.

Speaking at a Holy Communion breakfast, Mr. Walsh noted his own personal awareness of Communism in the United States. A member of the law firm of Fahy, Walsh and Evers, New York and Jersey City, Mr. Walsh formerly served as a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Naval Intelligence Corps.

Mr. Walsh, east state commander of the Catholic War Veterans, warned against the "apathy of the general public regarding the infiltration of Communism into our every day lives. The idea that 'it can't happen here' must be laid aside."

He cited how a small, strong-arm minority wields all the power in Russia and pointed out that the Communistic satellites were taken over by similar methods used by the agents of the Soviets. "The fine peoples of Czechoslovakia, Yougoslavia, Poland and Hungary have all been enslaved because they had been weakened and lulled into complacency by soft sounding words," he said.

Mr. Walsh praised the members of St. Cecilia Post, of which he is a member, on its continued efforts to thwart the influence of Communism. He congratulated them on their "looking to God for their guidance by their receiving Holy Communion with the Ladies Auxiliary and for joining in the breakfast".

Commander Louis Fernekees praised Mrs. Julia Raivre and the Ladies Auxiliary for the work accomplished by them in preparing the breakfast and decorating the club room in a Hallowe'en motif

Blaze In Trailer Tires Results In Damage To Cargo

ENGLEWOOD — Considerable damage was done Monday in a truck fire that was traced to two right rear tires burning on the truck's trailer.

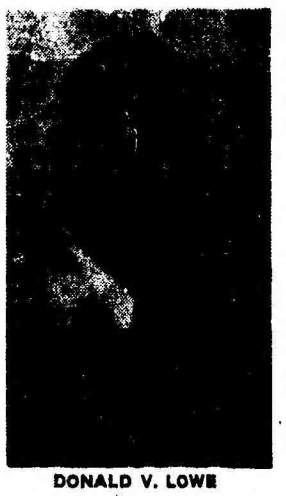
A load of bricks carried on the trailer was blackened by smoke and flames which came from straw on top of and between the bricks. The straw was ignited by flames from the two tires.

According to Englewood Fire Department records, the truck was found on fire on the east side of Grand avenue south of Chester place. An alarm at 1:20 p.m. from box 323 at Grand avenue opposite Garrett place brought firemen to the scene.

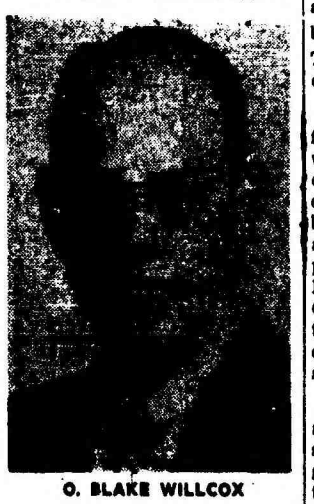
Firemen were able to extinguish the flames before damage became extensive.

Driver of the truck was Rene Tellier, Blanch avenue, West Norwood. The vehicle is owned by Pete Fonseto, 15 Foster street, Bergenfield.

Dwight's Chairman and President



DONALD V. LOWE



O. BLAKE WILLCOX

ENGLEWOOD — After 17 years of service on the Board of Trustees of the Dwight School for Girls and eight years as president of the board, Donald V. Lowe was appointed to the chairmanship of the Board at the recent annual meeting of the Dwight trustees.

The board placed on record a tribute to Mr. Lowe's able leadership, interest, enthusiasm, and inspiration which carried the school successfully through the difficult years of World War 2, the resignation and retirement of its co-principals, Mrs. Charles Hulst and Miss Frances Leggett in 1948, as well as the establishment of Miss Marjorie French as headmistress in 1948.

The board praised him also for his active part in the completion of the Dwight Development Campaign Fund, resulting in the new Hulst House, the academic offices, the cafeteria, and many other improvements. The board also expressed its gratitude that Mr. Lowe would still continue to advise them in his capacity as chairman.

O. Blake Willcox, well-known Englewood lawyer, becomes the new president, or executive head, of the board. Mr. Willcox has been a member of the board for four years and has for the past three years served as vice-president. His keen interest in the school and efforts in its behalf promise well for the school's future development under his leadership, the board said.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Malcolm S. Mackay and Stuart A. Lyman, vice presidents; David Escher, treasurer; Mrs. William S. Palmer, secretary; all of Englewood.

The board accepted with regret the resignations of Allen W. Fincke, of Tenafly, and Richard J. Eckart of Englewood. Newly elected to the board was Mrs. Robert K. Dunn, of Englewood, an alumna of the class of 1934 and the mother of three daughters in the school.

'No Reason To Hide,' Says MD On Atom Bomb

ENGLEWOOD — "There is no reason to hide," said Dr. Bernard Eisenstein, 276 Engle street, Englewood, last week, in an address which served to calm the fears of atomic attack in this area.

While qualifying the statement with the warning that adequate civilian defense measures must be taken, Dr. Eisenstein declared firmly that "it would be fantastic to evacuate the bulk of our city populations and to require them to dwell in sparsely settled areas." His remarks are based on exhaustive studies of Nagasaki. Hiroshima, and experiment.

Invited to discuss atomic medicine at a meeting of the Northern Valley Post, Jewish War Veterans, Dr. Eisenstein based his lecture on a survey of all published material on the subject.

A prefatory statement of the A-bomb construction and method of operation led the speaker to a discussion of blast casualties. Direct blast injuries were few, he said. "Indirect blast effects, however, told a different story. These were very serious," the doctor continued, "and were manifested by flying debris, masonry, timber and broken glass. Thousands of such casualties resulted."

Might Have Lived

However, many such injured persons might have survived had sufficient defense measures against the bomb been set up prior to its explosion, he added. "Because of chaos and hysteria evoked by this unsuspected cataclysm," he declared, "no attempt was made to carry out rescue operations, and these helpless individuals perished in the raging fires," Inadequate clothing and flimsy construction added to the Japanese devastation

As to burn casualties, Dr. Eisenstein said that a much more difficult problem existed. In an American city of 250,000, results would be as follows (based on what happened at Hiroshima):

1. The area immediately beneath the burst, out to approximately 1200 yards, would be submitted to millions of degrees of sudden heat. All persons in this area would probably be killed, if above the surface.

2. In the zone from 1500 to 4000 yards away from the blast, atomic radiation would be a minor problem compared to that of burns. Most of the surviving seriously burned people would be in that area. Though the situation would not offer easy solution, said Dr. Eisenstein, "there is a good reason to believe that the dire predictions of early American observers may well be much too high because they were based on an estimate which assumes A-bomb attack made on an unwarned population, with all persons outside of shelter and lightly clothed."

4,000-Yard Range

Clothing would offer protection against flash burns, resulting from sudden exposure to light and infrared and ultra-violet rays, but only beyond a 1200-yard zone. Flash burns would probably occur in some degree to every unprotected person in the path of the flash, out in the open, within a range of 4,000 yards.

"The spreading secondary fires" said the doctor, "caused by ignited gas mains, overturned stoves and damaged electrical circuits created a flaming hell from which the severely injured could not escape."

3. The radiation problem is not as great as might be imagined, he declared. While not de-emphasizing or minimizing radiation damage, the speaker pointed out that 9,000 deaths from this cause reported in Hiroshima represented only 15 percent of the total death count. "Fears of the danger of exposure to residual radiation should be dispelled," he said, because persons are too frightened to enter a bombed area for rescue operations. This, he declared, occurred in Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

That the United States is woefully unprepared for atomic attack was evident when Dr. Eisenstein declared that an estimated 50,000 casualties might require 40 pints of blood, almost three miles of gauze and possibly 42 tanks of oxygen per patient. The example of the Boston holocaust at the Coconut Grove night club served to prove that where 400 casualties occurred, enough medical equipment was simply not available.

"A stunned, badly shaken and apathetic populace," said Dr. Eisenstein, regarding Hiroshima and Nagasaki casualty counts, "failed utterly to answer the call of great disaster and allowed thousands of their helpless compatriots to perish miserably in that inferno."

Every school child should be taught "basic considerations of the problem of civil defense," he said. Training should begin in the home. Major defense problems would be treatment and evacuation of wounded, fire fighting and control, feeding of survivors and establishment of emergency transportation.

While working for peace, he concluded, "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Firemen's Aides Hold 2nd Reunion With 100 Present

ENGLEWOOD — Over 100 persons attended the second reunion of the Fire Department Auxiliary, a wartime civilian defense unit, at a stag party staged at the Englewood Fire House last Wednesday evening.

According to Fire Capt. John W. uinn, a 100 percent response was received to invitations sent out. Those who were unable to attend the reunion wrote letters of greeting.

The reunion was sparked by community singing, piano selections of old song favorites, and a discussion by Sgt. Audley Walsh of the Ridgefield Park Police Department, on "Rackets Are My Racket."

Sgt. Walsh discussed various methods of cheating in gambling games, demonstrating his lecture with marked cards, mirrors, carnival wheels, loaded dice and other illegal gambling paraphernalia.

The group held its first reunion in 1946. Never officially disbanded, the corps is being kept in touch with firefighters through reunions and other methods.

Among those attending the reunion were Public Safety Councilman Albert Moskin, Councilman-at-large W. Gerould Clark, former Councilman David Mackie, Paul Huckin, Bernard Lenrow, and Robert C. Hertzler, president of Englewood Hospital.

The committee in charge of the affair was headed by Lt. Frederick J. Kuhnert. Assisting him were Firemen Samuel R. Folliard, Joseph Marshall and George Westervelt.

Refreshments were served during the evening.

MRS. BURTON RICHARD POORE

Page Bridgman Weds Mr. Poore In Chapel Ceremony October 27

Because of sudden illness of the bride-to-be plans which had been completed by Miss Page Bridgman for her marriage to Burton Richard Poore of Weston, Conn. to take place in St. Paul's Episcopal Chapel at 4 on Oct. 28 were changed. Instead she was quietly married with only relatives attending in the Chapel at the time scheduled orginally for the rehearsal, which was at 6:30 on Oct. 27 Friday night. Only relatives attended the ceremony and home reception which followed.

It was a candlelight ceremony with white chrysanthemums decorating the altar of the chapel just as at first planned.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bridgman, her father, gave her in marriage with the Rev. James A. Mitchell, rector of St. Paul's officiating. She wore a trained white satin gown which had an off-the-shoulder effect. The neckline was finished with a satin fold edged with a ruffle of lace. Matching long white satin mitts were worn and a Juliet cap held her fingertip veil in place. Camellias, roses and lilies-of-the-valley were carried.

Mrs. Harley L. Moore of Harrington Park, serving as matron of honor, and Miss Ann Bridgman, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, were dressed similarly in dusty-rose satin. Each gown was fashioned with a tight-fitting V-neck bodice finished with a wide pleated collar. The sleeves were short and the skirt gathered fully at the waistline. Juliet caps of rose satin relieved with veiling to match were worn. Each carried a spray bouquet of blue lace flowers, violets and Pinocchio roses.

The flower girl, Paula Brittan, a second cousin of the bride, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Truxtan Brittan of 150 Brayton street, Englewood, wore dusty-rose taffeta styled in similar design to gowns worn by the honor attendants. It was trimmed with pink ribbon velvet. She carried a bouquet of violets and Pinocchio roses.

James A. Poore, Jr., of Butte, eldest brother of the bridegroom was best man. Others in the wedding party were Robert A. Poore of Butte, another brother, and James H. Dickson of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Poore will leave later for a two months' motor trip through parts of the United States. They will live on Godfrey road in Weston.

Mrs. Poore attended Dwight School for Girls in Englewood and was graduated in 1942 from the Shipley School in Bryn Mawr, Penn.

Mr. Poore is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Albert Poore of Butte. He was graduated in 1942 from the University of California in Los Angeles and served in the United States Navy during World War II.

Dr. Krug Elected At Clinic To Fellowship

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Krug of 147 Everett place, Englewood, have returned from Boston, Mass., where Dr. Krug was elected to a Fellowship in the American College of Surgeons at the annual Clinical Congress of the American College of Surgeons held there.

Dr. Krug is an ophthamologist with offices in New York.

THEIR MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

MR. AND MRS. CLEMENT W. SHEFFERT

Clement Wilkinson Sheffert Weds Miss Calcanes In Brooklyn Church

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Calcanes of 725 43rd street, Brooklyn, have announced the marriage on Saturday, Oct. 7, of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Calcanes, to Clement Wilkinson Sheffert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement George Sheffert of 174 Lake street, Englewood. The Rev. Britton Hall officiated at the 4:30 ceremony at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Brooklyn. A reception followed at Fort Hamilton Veterans Hall.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long-trained white satin gown with built-up net yoke. The gown was embellished with seed pearl trimming. Her veil was of fingertip length and she carried white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Irna Gustafson of Brooklyn, serving as the only attendant wore a gold-colored taffeta gown. Her floral coronet matched the gold and bronze chrysanthemums she carried. John Skinnider of Brooklyn served as best man. Paul Sheffert, brother of the bride was usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheffert, who spent their honeymoon in the White Mountains, are living for the present at 725-43rd street, Brooklyn.

The former Miss Calcanes is a graduate of Manual High School in Brooklyn and is now employed in the engineering department of the Atlantic Telephone and Telegraph Co.

Mr. Sheffert, after attending Dwight Morrow High School, spent three years in the armed forces, most of which time was in the Philippines. He is now attending Stewart Technical School in New York.

TO DANCE AT BENEFIT

MISS JOAN McCARTHY — GEORGE YOUNG

McCarthy And Young In Exhibition Dancing To Feature Benefit Dance

Mrs. John H. Barton, chairman of the Englewood Woman's Club dance for the benefit of the Englewood Hospital Building Fund on Saturday evening Nov. 11, has arranged for the appearance on that occasion of the celebrated dancers, Miss Joan MacCarthy and George Young. This well-known dance team will give a brief talk on the modern social dance, illustrate their remarks with exhibitions and demonstrate the MacCarthy-Young method of dance instruction.

Contribute Services

MacCarthy and Young, who are contributing their services for this Englewood benefit dance, are the instructors for a third season of the popular Tuesday evening adult modern social dance class, a feature of the Adult School of Englewood currently being held at Dwight Morrow High School. They recently conducted the Open House Dance Program at the new Englewood Jewish Community Center. Mr. Young has also been director of the Junior Modern Social Dance Club at the Englewood Junior High School.

Sutton Music

The formal dance on Nov. 11 promises to be another gala event at the Woman's Clubhouse, with music by Sutton, a very popular orchestra locally. Table reservations, with preferred locations being given in order of checks received, can be made with Mrs. Thomas B. Atkin, Jr., vice chairman in charge of tickets, who may be reached at 182 East Linden avenue, or EN. 3-7445.

Mrs. Howard S. Weaver of Englewood is in charge of clubhouse arrangements and decorations, with Mrs. Robert P. Coffin of Tenafly handling hospitality and Mrs. George G. Tennant, Jr., of Englewood, miscellaneous details. Mrs. Konrad W. Valentin of Tenafly, is newspaper publicity chairman. The entire dance committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Barton, is working toward the dual goal of representing a truly enjoyable social event at the Woman's Club for a worthy local cause, the Englewood Hospital Building Fund.

State Department To Give Hospital Visas

The United States Department of State has approved the Englewood Hospital as a participating institution in its exchange visitor program for foreign medical graduate students, it was announced this week by Nelson R. Henson, hospital administrator.

Under the State Department's regulations, the Department will issue visas to a limited number of medical doctors who wish to study in this country. At the present time, there are three Chinese doctors at Hongkong waiting transportation in order to start their studies at Englewood Hospial. The Englewood quota provides for a maximum of eight foreign students from certain countries.

Mrs. Burdett is the former Miss Jean Elizabeth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brown of Englewood.

Mrs. Elmore Gives Afternoon Of Poetry To Woman's Club Members

Mrs. Carl H. Elmore, known as Amelia Josephine Burr Elmore, of Englewood, writer of poetry and author of seven novels, never fails to draw a large and interested audience on her program appearances. Since 1902 she has been one of Englewood's most popular women and is a life member of the Englewood Woman's Club where on Monday she gave a program of unpublished poems with one or two short stories tucked in, all of equal value. Besides being an author, Mrs. Elmore has the gift for reading and dramatics, thus establishing for herself always an audience of silent attention as she brings out the deep thought and inspiration of her own creations. She became an Englewood resident 48 years ago.

Mrs. Elmore's latest book of poems is "Highway and Byways". Her books are on the shelves of our own library.

Some Listed

Among the unpublished poems read by Mrs. Elmore were "Cadiz", a story of Spain before Franco came into power; "East Indies Road" which told of a sailor returning to his native land; "A Hundred Years Ago", which ended with the lines —

"And a hundred years from now perhaps,
Someone will come this way
And find a hillside noisy with bees,
With busy butterflies gay.
Gaze at the color and breathe the scent.
And wonder how it me so.
Then will look at each other and smile — somewhere —
Because we know."

Among her other readings were "Seedlings", "Survival", "The Turn of the Year", "Autumn Twilight", "Prayers at Night", "Frost", "Iceland Lambs", etc.

Two poems of particular thoughtfulness were:

WHAT I HAVE

I have neither strength nor skill
Earth's heavy rudder by a hair
To move toward truth and brotherhood —
But I have a prayer.

Mine is not the sight to pierce
The bitter cloud in which we grope —
But I know it is a cloud
And I have hope.

I shall not see warfare end
On earth nor fear's dark mountain move —
But I can plant by lowly paths
The seed of love.

Another poem:

"PRAYER AT NIGHT"

Heaven shares with earth the sacrament of silence
Under the white and waning harvest moon.
The still chill mountain air is like deep water.
Stay hour of beauty! Do not pass too soon!
Wake not too soon to sound and stir and color,
Tranced spires of pine, fields wrapt in slumber white!
A foolish prayer? And yet it has been granted.
Thank God for memory! I can keep this night.

The "An Afternoon with Amelia Josephine Burr Elmore" on Monday was under the auspices of the Literature and Drama Department of which Mrs. Floyd Keir is chairman and Mrs. Alvin C. Drummond is co-chairman. Others in the department are Mrs. Henry Clay Foster, Mrs. Roderick MacLean, Mrs. Benjamin P. Phyfe, Mrs. Alfred W. Oakley, Miss Olive Ewin Place and Mrs. Howard S. Weaver.

Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Phyfe presided at the tea table which had a center of small yellow and pink chrysanthemums.

Notices Given

Mrs. James F. Colthup, chairman of the Christmas Flower Show at the club house on Dec. 13 from 2 until 9 p.m. notified the club of its coming importance. All entries should be made with Mrs. Craig L. Wright 157 Winthrop place, Englewood.

Mrs. Colthup also notified the club of the meeting on Monday, under the auspices of the Garden Department.

Others on Mrs. Colthup's Christmas Show committee are Mrs. Dwight S. Beebe and Mrs. James I. Coddington, as advisors; Mrs. Ray Palmer Foote, Miss Margaret Foote and Mrs. Randolph Doherty, staging and construction; Mrs. Wright, entries, and Mrs. Halsted Little, tickets.

Mrs. Benjamin Phyfe of the Literature and Drama Group and head of the "Creative Writng Group" extended an invitation to any member of the club to join her division. The very "pleasurable goal" for the department will be in April 18 when members will each have the opportunity to read something of which she has been the author.

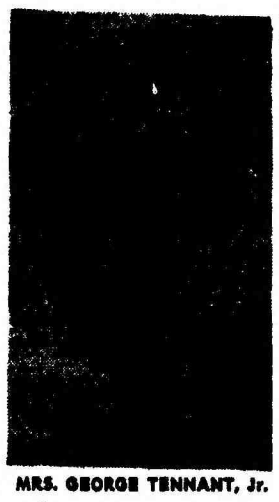
Second Youth Concert Season Opens Nov. 30

ENGLEWOOD—The second season of Bergen County Youth Concerts has been announced by Mrs. George G. Tennant Jr., of 194 Sherwood place, Englewood, the new chairman of the Friends of the Children's Concerts in Bergen County.

The first of the two concerts scheduled will be given at the Plaza Theatre, Englewood, on Thursday, Nov. 30 at 2:45 p.m., by 35 members of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra and two soloists under the direction of Wheeler Beckett, 287 Walnut street, Englewood. The two pianos, an important part in Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals," will be played by the guest artists, Denise Dubs and Alan Mandel.

Through the cooperation of Miss Florence, it has been arranged that members of her dancing class may go to the concert and still attend her afternoon class at the Englewood Field Club slightly after 4 o'clock, the closing hour of the concert.



MRS. GEORGE TENNANT, Jr.

Grades 3 to 6

The educational symphony concert, like the two given in Bergen County last season, is for the younger children, this time for grades 3 to 6. According to Mrs. Tennant, the program contains some entertaining and valuable educational features. The first half will be built around "The Orchestra of the Time of Mozart." How this orchestra differs from today's larger group will be explained by Mr. Beckett and illustrated by the entrance of the players by two's, beginning with the flutes, oboes, clarinets and bassoons, followed by pairs of horns and trumpets, and a single timpani player.

After these players are seated they will perform a short number written by Mr. Beckett expressly for this occasion. The strings will then enter by sections, headed by John Corigliano, concertmaster, and his eight first violins, followed by the second violins, violas, cellos and basses.

The opening number on the program, written for this combination of instruments, Mozart's "Overture to the Marriage of Figaro," will then be played. After a demonstration of the flute by John Wummer, famous soloist of the Philharmonic, the orchestra will play Gluck's "Dance of the Happy Spirits," in which he will be the soloist, followed by the "Flight of the Bumble Bee," by Rimsky-Korsakow; "To a Water Lily," by MacDowell, and excerpts from Bizet's "Carmen" suite. In this number, the audience will join in the singing of the Toreodor Song.

Second Section

The second half of the program, entitled "Fun in Music," will consist of Saint-Saens' amusing and entertaining "Carnival of the Animals," written for two pianos and orchestra. The soloists for this occasion are the unusually gifted pianists, Denise Dubs, 13; and Alan Mandel, 14, pupils of Miss Hedy Spielter of New York. Both children made their debuts in Town Hall recitals and have received excellent reviews in the New York Times and Herald-Tribune.

One of the well known numbers of this suite is "The Swan". Carl Stern, of the first desk of the Philharmonic, will play the solo cello in this number. Other parts of the "Carnival of the Animals" are entitled, "Royal March of the Lion," "Hens and Roosters," "Wild Horses," "Turtles," "The Elephant," "Kangaroos," "Aquarium," "Persons with Long Ears," "The Cuckoo in the Deep Wood," "Aviary," "Pianists," and "Fossils." Numerous instruments of the orchestra will be demonstrated in these numbers, including the violin, double-bass, glockenspiel, xylophone, clarinet and cello.

Mrs. Tennant praised the concerts for their educational and cultural value. Speaking from experience she said, "Each time my daughter and I have attended Mr. Beckett's Youth Concerts we have been impressed by the attentiveness of the children in following his clearly thought out remarks and their rapt absorbtion in the beautifully performed music."

Tickets may be secured through the reservations chairman, Miss Jane Berkeley, Box 445, Englewood, EN. 3-2776.

thru the SHOP WINDOW with ALICE

"My dear," said the Queen to Alice one morning, "I wish you would stop at—

AUDREY'S, 5 ENGLE STREET

today and find out about the Charles of the Ritz preparations which are being featured there. I understand the special blending service is being offered; if so, I shall not have to go to New York for another box of powder."

Dutifully Alice set out and presently arrived at the shop where a bar at one end was filled with jars of various shades of powder, even lavendar and green, and containers of cosmetics of all kinds.

Audrey herself responded to Alice's inquiry and explained that it was quite true about the blending of Charles of the Ritz powder. She and her assistant had taken courses in blending and were prepared to offer this special service.

"Charles of the Ritz powder is blended to suit the individual," Audrey said. "There are three or four colors to every blend and no two blends are alike because no two complexions ar exactly alike. It takes ten or fifteen minutes to make up the formula the first time but after that the order can be filled quickly. We have an introductory offer of $1 for a box of Charles of the Ritz powder specially blended. Would you like to try it?"

"I would indeed," Alice replied, "but tell me about your other items."

"This is the pride of the Charles of the Ritz line," Audrey said as she held up a jar marked Reveneescence, "and it is a very special item—a cream to bring out the moisture in the skin and give it a dewey, young look."

Audrey then told Alice about the Charles of the Ritz gift items which she has ordered for the Christmas trade.

Christmas Rocket is a lipstick that sells for $1.50. Alabaster hand lotion, a practical but beautifully boxed gift is $2. And then there is a compact to hold loose powder. Charles of the Ritz has not made compact for years. This one is priced at $5.

The new Directore line includes sachet at $3.50; bath salts; soap (4 cakes) for $3.50; dusting powder, toilet water, and perfume by the dram.

There is also a special gift package containing a lovely powder box which sells for $1. This may be filled at any Charles of the Ritz salon.

All Charles of the Ritz gifts are attractively wrapped so that no other Christmas wrapping is necessary. In fact, he has won awards for packaging.

While Audrey was talking, her assistant had been blending powder for Alice, first weighing some of one kind, some of another, a little bit of a darker shade, and finally adding a dash of green. This was all put into a box, the formula noted, and Alice was told that if she liked it she could reorder at any time and any place where Charles of the Ritz powder is blended.

"And now," said Alice, "I think I shall take some Alabaster hand lotion to the Queen and—oh, yes—perhaps I'd better have a jar of Revenescence. I know someone who wants to keep that 'dewey, young look."

GUESTS FOR WEEK-END

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Powers of Westport, Conn., will be house guests this week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Jacod of 16 Park street, Tenafly. Mr. and Mrs. Jacod are entertaining at a cocktail party on Saturday night prior to the annual charity dance of St. Joseph's Orphanage Guild, to be held at the Hackensack Golf Club.

Women Voters Get Answers, Sketches From Candidates

ENGLEWOOD—Definite answers to definite questions of Englewood community policy were received by the League of Women Voters of Englewood this week from the three candidates for Councilman in this city.

The League thereupon issued a pamphlet showing the questions, answers and short biographical sketches of the three candidates.

Also included in the pamphlet were the answers to three questions and biographical sketches of all candidates in the Nov. 7 election race.

The portion of the pamphlet having to do with Englewood candidates for Common Council are reprinted below:

The League asked the candidates for the Common Council the following questions:

1. It has been over a year since the Planning Board released the new zoning laws. In compliance with the stated intentions of the Council, would you vote to budget enough money to enable the Planning Board to complete the Master Plan in 1951? A Master Plan is the working tool and guide for a planning board. It is founded on basic facts and exhaustive studies to guide the future orderly development of a municipality.

2. Englewood is fortunate in having four parks, comprising approximately 62 acres. In order to develop these parks to their full recreational usage and still keep their natural beauty, do you think that an over all long-term plan by a recreational architect should be worked out? Would you vote to include in the 1951 budget the amount necessary to carry out such a plan?

3. There are no parks in the Second Ward. The City has indicated its intention of using property which it owns on Broad avenue below Route 4 and extending to Jones road as a park. Do you favor publicly designating this area as a park so that long range plans (see Question 2) could be drawn for its development?

REPUBLICAN

John C. Glidden,
For First Ward Councilman

Attended Englewood Public Schools through first year of high school, graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy 1937. Harvard College 1941. Graduated from U. S. Marine Officers Candidate School, Quantico, Virginia, attended New York Institute of Finance. Served four and one-half years in the Marine Corps, overseas in the Solomon Island campaign.

Partner of the investment firm of Glidden, Morris and Co., 72 Wall street, New York City.

Past president, Englewood Art Center, Inc., 1946-48; chairman Englewood and Northern Valley Red Cross Drive, member of executive committee Northern Valley Red Cross Chapter; trustee of Social Service Federation. President, Englewood Young Republican Club, Inc., and Republican County Committeeman.

1. Zoning and the Master Plan are of vital importance to our city. The costs of war, however, are going to place great strains on the taxpayer. Among the first duties of a city councilman in these times should be to keep down the costs of local government. It is impossible therefore, for me definitely to state now whether I would vote in 1951 to budget money for the Master Plan in view of the present chaotic, international situation. I shall vote it if I can conscionably do so, and meanwhile I shall press for continued rigid enforcement of the present zoning laws.

2. While not as pressing as the Master Plan, this matter has its importance. It too would have to wait until it can be compared with other items on the budget and properly evaluated.

3. The immediate need in the Second Ward is for a play field. I concur with Councilman Trumbull in his present program for the development of one.

Allan T. Trumbull,
For Second Ward Councilman

Yale B. S. (Mechanical Engineering). Vice president, Matthiessen and Hegeler Zinc Company. Worker and district captain of Community Chest and Red Cross. Associate Vestryman, St. Paul's Church. President, Yale Bergen County Alumni. President of the Englewood Republican Club. Second Ward Councilman, Englewood. Member of the Planning Board and Board of Local Assistance. Chairman of the City Property Committee, Member of Finance and other committees. "Married to a wonderful wife and we have four fine children, Mary, Priscilla, Bill and Anne. I only hope you know some, if not all, of them."

1. Until one has looked at and studied the over-all picture of the 1951 budget, it would be unwise to vote to budget any amount for any one of the contemplated 1951 projects. The Master Plan under the able leadership of Alec Claugher is taking form and the Planning Board hopes to present the first phase of the Master Plan in the near fture. The Planning Board after careful consideration will, at budget time, request the Council for such monies as it deems necessary for the needs of the Master Plan during 1951.

2. The manner of park development and planning should await reports from the Planning Board and the Recreational Advisory Committee, to whom the matter has been referred.

3. I could write a great deal on this question as a playfield in the Second Ward has been uppermost in my mind since before I was elected to the Council. Whether any of the city-owned property east of Broad avenue and south of Route 4 should be dedicated as a park at this time is a matter which the city attorney is studying. In the meantime, as chairman of the property committee, I have turned down all offers to purchase any city-owned property that might in the future be used for park or playground purposes.

DEMOCRAT

Keith R. Craft,
For Second Ward Councilman

High school graduate. Now taking a correspondence course, Industrial Management, from La-Salle Extension University. Superintendent of typesetting, plant of J. Lobel, New York City. Formerly instructor for Sperry Gyroscope Co. in traffic management and internal transportation.

1. Yes, providing the services of a person who has been proved capable of such a planning job can be obtained.

2. Yes.

3. If there is no other area available, I would say yes, but that particular property does not seem especially desirable as a park or playground.

Party Shop Due To Make Debut At 11 North Dean St.

ENGLEWOOD — Featuring an original selection of party materials, decorative and unusual, the Party Shop will open this Saturday at its 11 North Dean street, Englewood, headquarters.

Operated by Miss Edith M. Salerno, who was formerly located at 163 Rockwood place for five years, the store will also carry greeting cards, Dennison paper products and a full assortment of gifts.

Ready-made table decorations and centerpieces, with Miss Salerno's personal touch of idea and effect, will also be available at the new North Dean street store.

The shop's color scheme is green and chartreuse and will be carried outdoors through a chartreuse awning. An unusual window treatment featuring a lattice work display will highlight the store's exterior.

Original oil paintings decorate the shop's cabinets, lending a festive touch to the store dedicated to festivities.

In the assortment of new merchandise available at the store will be specialized candles, musical greeting cards, original glasses and ash trays and a wide variety of paper plates, napkins and other party needs.

Miss Salerno will personally operate the shop, offering advice and hints for successful party giving.

Dr. Biber, Child Psychologist, to Be At Local Meeting

Dr. Barbara Biber, well known child psychologist, will speak at a meeting of the Bergen County Association for Nursery Education to be held at the Elisabeth Morrow School in Englewood on Saturday, Nov. 18. The meeting will be conducted as a workshop, to which members of the association will bring problems for analysis and discussion. The workshop is an open meeting at which the general public is welcome, and interested teachers who are not members of the Association have been urged to attend.

The topic will be "The Roots of Aggression". After a talk covering the main points of the subject, the speaker will answer questions put to her by members of the audience. Dr. Biber is well known in the field of child psychology, in which she has been active for many years as a teacher, lecturer, consultant and research psychologist. Her work has been centered around the Bank Street School, which has pioneered in the "new" education and is now recognized all over the country as a leading force in education. She is chairman of Bank Street's publications division, and is also a member of the staff of the cooperative school for teachers.

Dr. Biber is at present at work on the subject of teacher-child relationships in public schools. She has given many lectures to parents' groups on needs and problems of children, the role of the modern parent, the relations of home and school, and the responsibilities of each.

For further detailed information concerning the lecture, it will be advisable to contact Mrs. Ruth Morison, 180 Webb avenue, River Edge or Mrs. David Freedmna, 285 Grand avenue, Englewood.

IN N. Y. DEBUT

ELIZABETH BROWN

ENGLEWOOD — Featured recently in her New York recital debut at Town Hall, Miss Elizabeth Brown, instructor at the Grand Music Academy, 81 Grand avenue, was well received in her piano presentations. Miss Smith's courses include elementary and advanced piano instruction.

Helen Jepson To Sing At Foundation Tea

Friends of the Griffith Music Foundation will give its first membership tea at the Griffith auditorium, 605 Broad street, Newark, on Mondady, Nov. 6, at 2:30 p.m. The Friends, organized as an auxiliary of the Foundation, has arranged the tea to enable its members to meet Helen Jepson, well known opera star and resident of Closter, who is chairman of its women's committee. At the tea, Miss Jepson will give excerpts from her "Opera Nights" program of operatic portraits and will appear in costume in scenes from her famous Metropolitan Opera success "Manon."

Miss Jepson was installed as chairman of the women's committee of Friends of the Griffith Music Foundation on Friday, Oct. 20, at a committee luncheon at which arrangements for the tea were made. Members of the committee attended the luncheon, among them being Mrs. Alois Havrilla, Englewood.

Lutheran Worship To Feature Film On 23 Colleges

ENGLEWOOD—A special morning service will be held at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church on Sunday, Nov. 5, at 10:45 a.m. The congregation will be informed about the Christian Higher Education Appeal of the United Lutheran Church in America. The newly reorganized Junior Choir under the direction of Miss Doris Fasnacht will make its first appearance and lead the congregation in worship.

At the close of the service, Harold Skelton, promotional director of the National Lutheran Council, will show the educational motion picture of The United Lutheran Church—"The Difference". The picture tells the story of the 23 Lutheran colleges and seminaries in the United States and Canada.

Hallowe'en Decor Contest An Outstanding Event

TENAFLY — Tenafly scored another hit for its community spirit, this week, as several hundred high school students turned out to compete for prizes in the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Hallowe'en Window Decorating Contest.

All streets of the community's business center assumed an air of Greenwich Village, Monday afternoon, when art students in the school who had submitted sketches for windows were released early in order that their paintings might be finished by daylight.

"The Ghostess With the Mostest on the Ball", a scene with a mapot while little ghosts wait in anticipation around the fire or peer out from behind trees won the first place in the senior division for Adele Thompson, Jackie Thompson and Virginia Petty. In the Junior division, Georgene Winnell and Susan Maines won first prize for a stylized Hallowe'en portrait of scarecrows cavorting on a harvest landscape.

Second prize in the senior division went to Marcia LaMarca, Marcia Kovara and Effie Heller, for the moonlight autumn scene in Bower's Pharmacy window. "By the Light of Our Silvery Bones'," a scene of dancing skeletons won secnd prize, Junior Division, for George Nelson, Gary Peterson, Harold Mitsakos and Fred McCullum.

Third prizes went to Lois Church and Sharon Kempton for their painting of Ichabod Crane being chased by the headless horseman—east window of Harris Gift Shop. A sports graveyard scene in the Little Print Show window won third place for Carolyn Riblett and Clare Russell.

Honorable mentions went to Robert Geh and Malcolm Campbell; Richard Linfield, Kerry Lavac and Robert Grieb; June Shaw and Rosemarie Zerpel; Carolyn Russell and Edith Jarvis; Rita Campana and Anne DeNoe, Mary Ann Kuehne Phyllis Carey; John Verbeyst, Roger Dierman and Alan Dieffenbach; and Phyllis Callahan; Ann Lufkin, Elizabeth Lufkin, Rosalyn Lingner and Emily Morgan.

To the official list, we would like to add our own plaudits for the five practical ghosts in the west window of the Harris Gift Shop; and the humorous "take-off" on the current Community Chest Drive in the A & P window depicting a turkey facing a horn of plenty, his tail feathers snatched off for "Red Feather symbols", a squawking 'I gave, did you?'.

MANY JOIN IN

More than 65 windows were provided by cooperating Tenafly merchants to provide the juvenile artists with scope for their work. The result was conversion of the business center into an informal art gallery, earnest youngsters mounting ladders, sitting on the pavement, and discussing their projects (they worked in groups of two, three and four) among themselves.

Dr. Burt Johnson, principal of Tenafly High School; George A. Kipp, supervising principal of the Tenafly Schools, and members of the Board of Education cooperated with merchants of Tenafly and the Tenafly Woman's Club to make the venture a town-wide affair.

Mrs. William S. Callaghan was chairman of the judging committee of the Woman's Club, announced that the decisions were hard to arrive at because of the general excellence of the work.

Harry I. Etelman, chairman of the special projects committee of the Tenafly Chamber of Commerce, declared that the interest and work were far above all expectations in both quantity and quality, and expressed appreciation to the merchants who offered their windows, as well as to the school officials and the students who entered into the project wholeheartedly.

2 Crashes Occur In Brief Span On Clinton Ave. Hill

TENAFLY—Three persons were injured, late Thursday night, in two accidents which occurred on East Clinton avenue, Tenafly, a short distance apart and within a two hour period.

Captain John Rothacker, investigated both accidens, with the assistance of Sergeant Mario Buniva and Patrolman Gerald Conboy.

The first accident occurred at approximately 11 p.m., Thursday, when Derrick P. Rusden of 66 Norman place, Tenafly, driving north on Route 9-W, pulled to the center of the highway at East Clinton avenue in preparation for a left hand turn into Clinton avenue. He stopped to allow a southbound car operated by Harold M. Phillips of New York City to pass the intersection and was struck on the rear.

Santiago Lugo of Haverstraw, N. Y., driving north on the highway, struck Mr. Rusden's vehicle on the right rear tail light, glanced off, jumped the embankment on the east side of the road, and turned over three times before lodging against a telephone pole. The car was a total wreck.

Unconscious, Mr. Lugo was taken to the Englewood Hospital for treatment. A passenger in his car, Louis Arocho of New York City, was treated for bruises of the face, neck and right knee, and then released. Mr. Lugo is charged with driving without a license.

The second accident occured while police were still cleaning up the Lugo accident. Harry F. Heucker of 268 Lexington avenue, Dumont driving westerly on Clinton avenue in a closed Jeep, struck a telephone pole, shearing it off about half way above the ground. The jeep was heavily damaged. Mr. Heucker, sustained smashed teeth, bruises of the right leg and was given treatment at Englewood Hospital. He was issued a summons for reckless driving.

'Highest Income Didn't Balance Budget', Says Towe

TENAFLY—"In spite of the fact that the national income was the highest in its history, taxes soared to about 30 percent of all incomes during the year 1949-50," Congressman Harry L. Towe told the Tenafly, Republican Club, last Thursday evening, at the Borough Hall. In spite of these expenditures, the New Dealers still failed to balance the budget.

"If we can't keep expenditures within the national income when that income is at its peak", Mr. Towe stated, "how could we ever get the financial house in order if income were to go down considerably?"

"Everyone is interested in securing and maintaining peace", Mr. Towe continued, "but look at the record of this administration, in our foreign affairs. The first world war was under a Democratic regime and so was the second, and now we are in what could be the beginning of another. I wouldn't suggest they did it deliberately, but the fact is that all this has happened while they have been in charge of our government."

Gill C. Job, candidate for the Assembly, declared "We get out of our Government just about what we put into it. You know what kind of mal-administration you have been getting on a national level—it's appalling, and I think it's time we did something about it".

Martin P. Nelson, candidate for re-election to the Board of Freeholders, spoke on the work of the Board and what it has succeeded in doing for Bergen County, adding that next year Bergen County will have the lowest per capita tax of any county of similar size in the United States.

Harry G. Robinson and Gustave Thorkilsen, candidates for reelection to the Tenafly Borough Council, also spoke.

William R. Smith, who introduced the State and County candidates, also introduced Miss Louella Wolfert and Louis Turi, committee members from the recently created fifth district. He reported that there hadbeen almost 400 new registrations.

J. William Bierhals, president, called upon several officials present, including Magistrate Ezra G. Benedict Fox, Councilman Stanley D. Cattelle and Councilman Lawrence W. Davee.

Methodist Young Adults To Hear Chester Koontz

TENAFLY — The Young Adult Group of the Tenafly Methodist Church will meet in the church, this Sunday evening, at 8 p.m. with Chester B. Koontz of Tenafly as guest speaker on the subject of "Christianity in the Business World". Following the devotional period, there will be a business meeting and social hour in the church social rooms. Young adults between the ages of 18 and 35 are welcome to attend this group.

Harry Levine Named Workman Circle Head

PAR. MUS — Harry Levine of Englewood was installed as chairman of Bergen County branch 1025 of the Workman Circle Saturday at a banquet at Salnick's Restaurant. The branch was recently organized as a part of a national organization with 80,000 members.

Other officers installed included Seymour Friedman of Ridgefield Park, vice-chairman; Abe Kramer of Hackensack, financial secretary; Herman Kramer of Ridgefield Park, treasurer; Mrs. Eleanor Freedman of Ridgefield Park, secretary; Milton Greenspan of Hackensack, program chairman; and Mrs. Celia Levine of Englewood, membership chairman.

Herbert Bush of Bogota was toastmaster. The group, composed of young adults, meets the first and third Tuesday of every month at Englewood Congregational Ahavath Torah.

Construction Worker Sues For Leg Damages

TENAFLY — A Ridgewood man employed by an Englewood firm which held contracts for construction of the Walter Stillman School, Tenafly and Windsor roads, Tenafly, has filed a claim for $25,000 damages for injuries he received while on the job.

Action in the County Courts has been filed against the United Hoisting Company, Inc., of Englewood, by James Chiapelone, of Ridgewood, who claimed that he was struck by a hoisting crane which was being used at the building, on Oct. 17, 1949. John C. Guyet is attorney for Mr. Chiapelone.

SONNET:

ON THE RECONSTRUCTION OF THE CHURCH OF ATONEMENT

Thy walls, thine arches, Stain-glass windows thine
In rich ensemble blent, do meet the eye
Like soundless melopoiea fain, whereby
Each distinct unit deftly falls in line.
A mute procession passes: a combine
Of symbols viewed as from the nave, where high
Enthroned, there does the Altar gleam. Draw nigh
Lo, hereon rests the Holy Bread and Wine.
O World, without God's Church what wouldst thou be!
Throughout the ages, folding to Her Heart
Her little ones endangered in Life's sea
Full of allures, set out with cunning art,
And nets forth-stretched, arranged so skillfully
To trap their souls, whence hope might then depart.

FOR YOU and About You

BY MARGARET BAKER

PEOPLE AND PLACES: Mr. and Mrs. William Hessmer of Woodhill road returned last Sunday from a 10 day vacation at The Homestead, Hot Springs, Virginia. . . Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Storms of Lawrence parkway drove down to Atlantic City last weekend for four days of business for Ed and pleasure for Delle. . . Also in Atlantic City over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Swift of Hillside avenue. . . Miss Beatrice DeMott of Burlington road, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Deacon of Engle street, sailed for Bermuda on the "Queen" last Saturday afternoon. After a visit there, they will fly to Nassau and Cuba, thence to Sarasota, Florida, to be with friends awhile before coming back to Tenafly.

* * * *

BUSINESS MEN of Tenafly continue "up in the air" for their various firms. . . However, Lyman Tondel, Jr. of 304 Engle street, returned by boat and train last Saturday morning from Cuba where he had gone by plane 10 days before. . . Paul Brooks of Highwood avenue flew home from Knoxville, Tennessee, on Saturday but due to plane trouble and having to change to a smaller plane was so late arriving, he and Lilly had to miss the dinner dance at Knickerbocker Club. . . Paul Canday, of DePeyster avenue flying back from a business trip to help celebrate his wife Mary's birthday on Sunday, made it possible for them to join a group of friends for the dance. . . Councilman Lawrence Davee of Westervelt avenue, left Sunday afternoon by plane for Houston, Texas, where he will address a gathering of 500 men in the movie projector industry. . .

* * * *

GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS. . . On October 20th, a daughter, Camille, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Christie at the Englewood Hospital. Her mother is the former Suzanne Noyes of Engle street, Tenafly. On October 21st, a daughter, Kimberleigh Gay, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy McKellop—also at the Englewood Hospital. Her mother is the former Jewel Blackwell, and she will be called "Kim" for short. "Kim" has an older sister, Heather Jane, age 2 months . . On October 28th, a daughter, Marylene, was born to Naval Lt. and Mrs. William Ryan McGinty at Jacksonville, Florida. Her mother is the former Shirley Swenson of Tenafly. Shirley's mother, Mrs. James Swenson of Joyce road, leaves this Friday by train to be with Shirley and her new daughter, and is taking Katrina, their dashshund dog since she plans to stay with the McGintys until after Christmas. Mr. Swenson will drive down to Jacksonville in time to spend Christmas with his new granddaughter and drive his wife home. . . Lt. Sign and Mrs. Philip Bolger—she is the former Gloria Hart of Tenafly—became the parents of a daughter, Mary Frances, about October 16th, a somewhere in Rhode Island. Their first child, a boy, Michael, is almost two years old. . . Congratulations to the four young parents of these baby girls, those births, according to an old adage, presages PEACE for the world, rather than war.

MISCELLANEOUS INTELLIGENCE: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hager, formerly of Tenafly, who now live in a charming early American farmhouse near Middlebury, Vermont, were visitors over last weekend with friends in Leonia and attended services at the Tenafly Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning. . . Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Westervelt of Englewood, and Tommy Jr. are preparing to move to Washington where Dan reports for military service on November 1 with the rank of Lt. Colonel as a "specialist" attached to the office of the Chief of Staff, Department of the U. S. Army in Washington. He is the son of the late Elmer Westervelt and Mrs. Westervelt, and his wife is the former Phyllis Bauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bauer. . . Sal DeMaisa of Leonard avenue, one of our police officers, scheduled to return to the U.S. Marines—where he served for three years during World War II—has received a six months deferrment. It is possible that he may not have to go at all since he is the father of two small children with another expected soon. . . Mr. and Mrs. H. A. C. Hellyer, who have made their home in Tenafly for many years, have moved to 115 Grand avenue, Englewood. The Tenafly house they formerly occupied is on the property of the Tenafly Presbyterian Church and will be demolished to make room for a necessary parking lot for church goers.

INTERESTING FAMILY: There are so many new families in Tenafly it would be impossible to list them all, but one of the most interesting is that of Mr. and Mrs. William Awad and their sons Bill and Philip who recently purchased and moved into one of the attractive homes built on the old Downey property. Mr. Awad is the brother of Mrs. F. M. Saydah of Joyce road, and prior to coming here, they lived in China where he was in business. At the end of our war with the Japanese their sons, Bill and Philip who had been imprisoned in Jap concentration camps, came to the United States five years ago on the Gripsholm—exchanged for Jap prisoners held by us—and were joined later by their parents. Since then, Bill has graduated from Manhattan College and entered the Long Island Medical College to become a doctor. His younger brother, Philip, a student at Manhattan College, has been called into military service as of next Tuesday. Their father, Mr. Awad has been in the far east as a representative of the United Nations ever since last July and may not get to see his new home and family for several more weeks. From this thumb-nail sketch of the Awads, you can see there is enough material for several fascinating books on what is going on in this complicated old world!

MORE ABOUT PEOPLE AND PLACES: Alfred A. Strauss of Henry street, in Korea as engineer with the E.C.A., to build power plants, was evacuated under fire to Tokyo when the war broke out in June. Three weeks later he was sent back with the 8th Army by General MacArthur to rebuild the power plant, and was in the thick of the worst part of the war. Later he was returned to Tokyo for a necessary rest, and is now with three other engineers of the E. C. A.—still under General MacArthur's orders—commuting between Seoul and other Korean cities in the effort to keep necessary power plants in condition to maintain this important phase of war as well as life in this devastated country. He writes in letters to his wife, Lorraine, that it is almost criminal the way some Americans in the civilian employ of our Government are there only for the purpose of "riding the gravy train" and getting all they personally can out of monies being spent in Korea. He further states that a few men of vision who realize the importance of the work being done there toward rebuilding this country into a bulwark of strength and eventual peace are all that keep the tremendous task and cost of war from ending in futility. In his opinion, there would have been no purpose in fighting at all if the United Nations military forces had not continued above the 38th parallel.

Speaking of Al Strauss and his splendid work in Korea reminds me that his family have not been idle in his absence. His attractive wife, Lorraine, returned last Friday from four weeks in Alabama, visiting her mother in Dothan where she was born, and will begin a brand new business career at Macy's in NYC next Wednesday with marvellous commuting hours from 10 to 4! Their nineteen year-old-daughter, Ann, visited Lorraine's sister in Chicago this summer and accepted a position as assistant buyer at the swank Bramsons in Evanston; and their eighteen year old son, Alfred Jr., is a freshman at the University of North Carolina. Lorraine visited him enroute to Alabama, going that far with her neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gruver of Henry street and their daughter Jane. . . The Gruvers were driving to Miami, Florida, where they enjoyed a long vacation, arriving home last Friday. . . Also returning last weekend from Florida after a six weeks sojourn at Gulf Port, were Mr. and Mrs. William Sefton of Henry street. Bill and Joe were visiting Bill's parents and were there during the hurricane.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey N. Wadham of Engle street will have as their guests during the weekend of Nov. 12th, Sir John Alexander Clarke and Lady Clarke late of Africa who are in this country after 52 years of mission work in the Belgian Congo. The Clarkes are natives of Australia and will return there after this visit to the United States. He was knighted by the Belgian government for his scientific findings in the cause and cure of sleeping sickness, and has been given three decorations by the Belgian government for scientific contributions affecting the health of the natives in the Belgian Congo. Sir John has also translated the entire Bible into the language of the Molongo Tribes of Africa and is in America after supervising the publication of the first 25,000 copies. While in Tenafly he will speak at Grace Chapel, Sunday evening, Nov. 12th at 8 o'clock.

* * * *

Miss Elizabeth Patricia Ames of Closter, bridesmaid for Shirley Swenson at her marriage to Lt. William Bryan McGinty, in October of 1949 will be godmother by proxy to Shirley and Bill's new daughter when she is christened. . . It looks mighty like Gloria Geer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Geer of Forest road, may be following in the footsteps of Tenafly's famous Priscilla Gillette, having chosen Priscilla's Alma Mater—Sycrause University—as a good place to major in music and dramatics. Gloria not only has a lovely voice but also plays piano and accordion. . . The former Mary Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seymour of Old Smith road, who is now Mrs. Sidney Paige of Pittsburgh, writes that she has accepted a position with the Red Cross in their department of Dietetics, and thinks she and Sidney are going to like keeping house in Pittsburg very much.

A QUICK RESUME OF "my week" from deadline to deadline: After leaving last week's column at the PRESS-JOURNAL, continued on to N. Y. where Bill and I attended the opening session of the Herald-Tribune Forum at the Waldorf-Astoria, which meant missing the Atlantic Union meeting in Englewood. . . Wednesday evening we attended the annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce at Clinton Inn—this year honoring the Tenafly School Board. . . and was I proud of the two women members, Mrs. F. Emerson Andrews and Mrs. Paul Haase! Also gracing this gala occasion as honored guests were Edythe Adams—the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Enke who is Miss TV for 1950—and Martha Pierce who sang "The Star Spangled Banner" Red roses were presented to these young ladies by the president, Harold Schoonmaker, who presided at the speakers table. Further details are given elsewhere in this issue. . . Dinner in New York with friends on Friday evening; to the Knickerbocker dinner dance on Saturday; and to church on Sunday morning for one of the outstanding sermons of my experience. I hope that all of you heard one of equal value.

MackaySchoolHSA Opportunity Sale Ends In Success

TENAFLY — In expressing its appreciation to persons who aided in the recent opportunity sale held at the Mackay School, Tenafly, the committee in charge noted the sale's successful completion.

Especially noted by the comm ittee were contributions to the sale's bake table.

The sale was conducted by the Mackay Home-School Association under the co-chairmanship of Mrs. William Lucas and Mrs. Edward Gromke. Equipment committee chairman was Mrs. William Schafer, with Mrs. E. Gasper and Mrs. H. Neumann assisting.

Chairman of the worker's committee was Mrs. William Hayes. Others on the committee were Mrs. George Williams, Mrs. Paul Merikle, Mrs. William Dugan, Mrs. Otto Kimmick, Mrs. E. T. Springer, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Read, Mrs. Shull, Mrs. E. D. Lynde, Mrs. Charles D. Grimm, Mrs. Zavrina, Mrs. Charles Rappolt and Miss Ida Smith.

The chairman of the bake table was Mrs. Albert A. Strobel, assisted by Mrs. William How, Mrs. Conrad Kalkiewicz, Mrs. Alex Texel, Mrs. Floyd Stafford, Mrs. William Heron and Mrs. W. Stenz assisting.

The toy and game table was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Brink, who was assisted by Mrs. H. MacDonald, Mrs. G. E. Condon and Mrs. W. Mackay.

The chairman of the white elephant table was Mrs. A. J. Stukart, with Mrs. A. L. McKay and Mrs. F. Shultz, as aides. Mrs. J. Dunn was bookkeeper, aided by Mrs. J. Wright, Mrs. A. V. Dully, Mrs. Hartburg and Mrs. A. N. Swenson.

Cashiers were Mrs. LeRoy Osborn, Jr., and Mrs. H. K. Graves. Mrs. Leslie W. Engler was in charge of the lunch committee. Publicity chairman was Mrs. Willard Stenz, assisted by Mrs. John V. Baker and Mrs. G. Paul Jones.

Dec. 6 Is Date For Neighborhood Club Winter Fete

TENAFLY — The Neighborhood Glee Club of Tenafly will present its annual Winter Concert on Wednesday evening, Dec. 6.

This year the assisting artist will be Mrs. Marshall F. Driggs, violinist. Mrs. Driggs, a resident of Englewood, has played with the Durieux Ensemble in New York and has appeared as soloist with the Westchester Philharmonic Orchestra. She is well-known in the Northern Valley, since she has played before many local women's organizations, both as a soloist and in ensemble work.

Methodist School Has Doubled, Report Says

TENAFLY—At the Sunday morning service last Sunday, the Rev. Albert L. Beemer, pastor of the Tenafly Methodist Church, reported that the attendance in the Sunday School was more than double the attendance reported for the same Sunday last year.

In order to meet the increasing demand for new facilities and better leadership, the church is having Dr. Earl Starkey and Miss Catherine Lantz of the Newark Conference Board of Education of the Methodist Church come to observe the school and make suggestions on how to make the best use of the present facilities and improved methods in religious education.

The Community Chest covers all major welfare and character building agencies. Give enough for all when you give in this campaign.

Famed Australian Missionary Will Speak at Chapel

TENAFLY — Sir John Alexander Clarke — distinguished native of Australia who was both knighted and decorated for his work in the Bergian Congo during 52 years of missionary work there — will be the speaker at the Sunday evening Bible Hour at Grace Chapel, Tenafly road and West Clinton avenue, Tenafly, on Sunday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m.

Sir John was knighted by King Leopold I of the Belgians for his work on the cause and cure of encephalitis — sleeping sickness — and on three other occasions was decorated by the Belgian government for his service to humanity and scientific discoveries during his missionary endeavors.

During his missionary service, Sir John reduced the unwritten Mulongo tribal language to a written form, and completely translated the Holy Bible into the Mulongo language. As the crowning feature of his missionary service he recently supervised the printing of the first edition of 25,000 copies of the Scriptures into the language. Not planning to return to Africa, Sir John has consented to a limited speaking engagement series in this country before returning to Australia. The public is invited to attend this service at Grace Chapel.

Mother-Daughter Party Held At Tenafly Home

A joint Mother and Daughter birthday celebration was held, last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Block, of 32 Somerset road, Tenafly in honor of Mrs. Block and her little daughter, Carla Marie.

A family party, including grandparents and other relatives, was held that evening. On Sunday afternoon, there was a children's party celebration for Carla's playmates. Both Mrs. Block and her daughter have Oct. 26 as their natal anniversary.

Presbyterian Youth Choir In City Rites

TENAFLY—The Youth Choir of the Presbyterian Church of Tenafly will join in a united choral worship in observance of the 300th anniversary of the publication of the Scottish Psalter, at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City, on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 12 at 4:30 o'clock. The choir is under the leadership of Douglas Petersen.

Members and friends of the Youth Fellowship plan to go with the choir. After the vesper worship the Youth Fellowship will be the guests of the Fifth Avenue Youth Group for supper and the Youth Meeting to follow.

A chartered bus and such additional cars as may be needed will leave the church about 3 p.m. and return about 8:30 p.m. Already 44 youths have indicated their desire to go on this trip. Others who are interestede will have an opportunity to sign up at Youth Fellowship this Sunday evening, Nov. 5 at 7 p.m.

UN RALLY

Betty Gorrell and Wendy Ribblett in native costumes at the United Nations Rally in Englewood. Highlighting the program was a "Report from Korea" by Constantin Stavropoulos.

The League of Women Voters presented a fashion show at the Walter Stillma. School at which THS students modeled foreign costumes. Gay Ward, Jackie Burton, Bif Fletcher, Nancy Then, Jane Houk, Jean Holt, Janice Mathews, Gail Osterburg, Milly Kenny, Joy Vernet, Pat Niero, Betty Smith, Ruth Westcott, and Adair Dettmar were the models.

Commemorating UN Week, the Senior History classes presented a play, "The UN on Trial," in assembly.

PEOPLE AND PLACES

Sally Delaney spent a day visiting the NJC campus and also saw the Rutgers vs. Temple football game. . . Alumni who were home for the weekend were: Jane Payton from Colby, Jr., George Haynor from Gettysburg, John Keck from Alfred, and Jane Mathews, Jackie Stanford, Ann McPherson, Jeanne Schrimpton, and Bruce Claxton from Glassboro State Teachers . . . Jane Burdette had a PJ party for 20 of her senior friends . . . Ruth Alber and Dave McCleod spent an evening at the Chicken Barn on Route 6 . . Betsy Wolfe had a dinner party for some of her junior friends. . . . .

Tenafly Graduate Is Queen For Homecoming

ONEONTA — Miss Alice Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Riley of 167 Eighth street, Cresskill, and a junior student at the Hartwick Lutheran College here, was crowned queen of the Homecoming Week festivities at the College on Saturday.

Miss Riley, a graduate of Tenafly High School in June, 1948, entered Hartwick the following September. She is majoring in psychology, is a member of Gamma Phi Sorority, an officer of the Student Senate, member of the concert choir, and an editor of the College yearbook "Oyaron".

The first issue of the New York Weekly Journal, Nov. 15, 1733, contained an article on liberty of the press.

Tenafly Woman's Club Scholarship Aides Are Named For Its Play

Plans are being made for the presentation of "Here Today", a comedy to be given for the annual scholarship benefit play of the Woman's Club of Tenafly, Nov. 30, Dec. 1 and Dec. 2.

chairman of the production, has named the following members of her committee: Mrs. Kenneth Keck, stage design; Mrs. C. Emerson Van Dusen and Mrs. Edward Schoet, properties; Mrs. M. G. Wallington, publicity; Mrs. Roy H. Valentine, tickets; Mrs. Edward Schoet, advertising; Mrs. Lyman Tondel Jr., ushers; Mrs. Robert R. Heiges, wardrobe; Mrs. William V. Sealy, sponsors; mrs. Milton Altenberger, music. Since coming to Tenafly several years ago, Mrs. Madru has been active in civic projects but her first love is the drama. Her enthusiasm for this work is boundless and we are looking forward to another successful play. Rehearsals have begun under the direction of P. Barney Goodman of Englewood.

Anyone interested in being a sponsor to this worthy benefit, which means a great deal toward the education of the boys and girls who receive scholarships, is asked to call Mrs. William Sealy Eng. 3-4963.

Memorial House Club Enrollment At Peak As Activities Increase

ENGLEWOOD — A record enrollment in activities at Memorial House is expected by the staff of the local community center according to the heavy registration of boys and girls for groups announced this week.

A large group of men and women of Englewood and neighboring communities have volunteered to serve the many groups which have been organized recently. There is a special need of volunteers to work with 40 boys who have registered for cubbing, the group said. Many volunteers of the Englewood Junior League and the American Association of University Women will assist the staff in the supervision of groups and the children's library

Among Junior Leaguers leading groups are Mrs. Catherine Goodbody and Mrs. Haydock Miller, Jr., play groups; Miss Josephine Griffith, dramatic class; Miss Jeanne Minor, social club; Miss Barbara Lyman, art class, and Miss Sydmor M. Almy who studied at Arthur Murray's School will have a social dancing class. Mrs. Sue Overton will be in charge of public relations.

Members of the American Association of University Women serving the children's library are Mrs. J. M. Kendall, chairman of the library committee, on Mondays; Mrs. J. W. Calvert and Mrs. Halsted Little, Tuesdays; Mrs. O. P. Gellert, Wednesdays; Miss Antoinette Gaglione, Thursdays, and Mrs. Isaiah Bell, Fridays. Miss Carol Ann Spivey will serve as assistant librarian and Miss Gaglione will conduct a story hour period on Thursday afternoons.

Library hours are from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Children in the fifth grade and up may come on Mondays and Fridays and may secure help on their school homework from the librarians. Children from the first to the fourth grades inclusive may come to the library on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

Other leaders in charge of groups are Mrs. I. Goodman, Miss Cepha Pasek and Miss Antoinette Gaglione, girl scouts; Mrs. Charles Ware, brownies; Mrs. Martha Repin, knitting class; Miss Edith Stephens, modern dancing class; Miss Florence M. Wren, cooking, courtesy of the Public Service; Howard Allen, boxing; Raymond Jacocks and Roosevelt James, woodwork groups; Anthony Messina, harmonies class; Edward Smith, Raymond Jacocks, Kenneth Emont, Edward Cosgrove and Vincent Tibbs, play groups and social clubs.

Mrs. R. B. Googins and Miss Lavinia Harman will be the piano instructors and Mrs. Edna Floyd will have a class in piano theory.

Preliminaries

planning the layout of a hospital is conceded to be more complicated and difficult than for any other type of structure. "The problems at Englewood Hospital are complicated because of the necessity of determining new and more efficient locations for many of the major service and administrative facilities. Consideration is also being given to relocation of certain bed areas to secure greater use of existing space for different types of patients in accordance with circulations in demand."

"It is most important," his report continues, "that this first phase of planning be done with utmost care, and with the future in mind."

Mr. Hertzler also explains that while revisions have to be made in the light of reduced funds available, it is believed that no revision will have to be made with respect to memorials in the new wing. In fact, additional memorials are invited.

Dr. John B. Pastore, chairman of the Greater New York Hospital Council, and an outstanding expert, is the hospital's consultant in the preparation of the new plans. He is being assisted by Dr. Madison Brown, executive vice-president of Roosevelt Hospital in New York, and Otis N. Auer, of Glen Ridge, as his assistants.

General Election

Republican, why did he not face up to the issues and run in the Primary against Mr. Towe? We would have had a clean-cut election now and the chances of a good Republican, Mr. Towe, who has demonstrated time and again his sterling qualities, would not be threatened this way. As Mayor I urge all Republicans in the Ninth District to vote in strength for Mr. Towe. The national situation is too critical, the Democratic bureaucracy too dangerous to our welfare. We must not lose any opportunity to strengthen the Republican cause in Congress."

In Englewood, Councilman Allan T. Trumbull is seeking reelection in the Second Ward on a long record of civic and governmental service to his ward and community. A member of the postwar Common Council, he is regarded as having been one of the leaders in the highly constructive postwar program that has given the city many improvements, better-functioning departments, wider recreational ficilities, better roads, modernized and well-maintained equipment, a new zoning ordinance, a plan for low-cost housing financed privately, and a safety program which, thanks in large part to Mr. Trumbull, has brought concrete results.

Mr. Trumbull is opposed for reelection by a Democrat, Keith Craft of Sheffield avenue, who is running because of an interest in local affairs. He has the backing of the Democratic Club and of Councilman Edwin J. Roth of the Third Ward.

The only other indication of a contest is in the Freeholder race. Here Freeholders Martin Ferber and Martin Nelson are seeking reelection after long service to the county. They point to the recent statement by the New Jersey Taxpayers League that Bergen County has the best tax situation in the state and a reputation for sound finance as their primary reason for asking reelection. They are opposed by two Democrats, Joseph DeMarrais and Howard Pitts, who have not waged a heavy campaign.

There is one interim-Assembly office to be filled to replace William B. Widnall who last February was elected to Congress in the Seventh District. In this case Gill C. Job of Ridgewood is the Republican candidate and is being opposed by Robert Eichler.

in institutions of higher learning.

Speaking for the committee, Mr. Mahood further stated that the high minimum and maximum salaries first attracted the best teachers to Englewood, who have stayed because of a justifiable pride in their share of the success of the educational system.

"Now these teachers," he declared, "view with growing alarm the fact that Englewood has allowed itself to be surpassed by neighboring towns."

3 Youths Beaten

knocked down immediately and rendered unconscious as his head struck the curbing. When he regained consciousness, the assailant had fled, and the other two youths were also prostrate on the pavement.

Official police versions of the affair differed from the youth's account. They declared that a masked youth was walking in company with a girl when the three boys tried to unmask him. In the melee which followed, the three boys were beaten and masked boy and his companion left the scene.

Police Arrive

Police travelling in a prowl car happened upon the boys as they were regaining consciousness and took charge of the case.

Another Hallowe'en prankster, this time with a touch of imagination, sent a black arrow through a window in the police department desk room last night after 10 p.m., with a crudely lettered note attached to its shaft.

Said the note, "In the name of the Black Arrows, down with Communisticism (sic)." Police were at a loss to explain the event, and could not say whether the arrow was shot or tossed from the alleyway adjoining the room.

The arrow was a regulation target piece with feathers, shaft and point painted with black enamel. Police are investigating further.

Special Cops

A special detail of police, including almost all members of the force, patrolled Englewood streets in view of the Hallowe'en damage anticipated. Four brush fires were reported between the hours of 7:30 and 8 p.m.

Four brush fires were reported to Englewood Fire Department during the evening. Three of the blazes were reported between 7:30 and 8 p.m, with the fourth report coming in shortly before midnight. All four fires were quickly extinguished.

Store windows and cars in this area came in for a generous soaping, as pranksters roamed the streets armed with bars of soap and wax candles. Police did not list any further vandalism common to Hallowe'en events.

Chest Failure

Highest ward percentage return came from the Third Ward' southern district, which had 62 percent of its quota filled on 489 pledges. The neighboring Fourth Ward showed the lowest percentage return, 35 percent, with 1,070 pledges.

The advance gifts committee's 79 percent total return was closest to quota.

Low Return

Of the more than 8,000 prospect cards issued to campaigners, only 2,999 pledges were received by Friday evening.

Other ward figures showed First Ward Campaigners at 45 percent; Secod Ward at 41 percent; Third Ward, North, at 44 percent. Commerce and industry pledges totalled 52 percent of the quota.

Total dollar volume reported at the Friday evening meeting was $73,916.30, and, though each pledge appeared greater than last year, the frequency of pledge returns was lower.

Mr. Gilmour expressed confidence that the additional 42 percent of the goal will be reported at tonight's dinner, the final meeting of this year's campaign.

St. Paul's Fair Group Announces Detailed Plans

ENGLEWOOD—Additional plans for St. Paul's Harvest Fair to be held in the Parish House Nov. 16 and 17 were announced this week.

The secondhand sports equipment booth, of which Mrs. William Cullimore is chairman, will have several bicycles, footballs and football equipment, skis, baseballs and bats, and both roller and ice skates for sale. There will also be offered several pairs of girls figure skates which are in excellent condition. The committee plans to make prices on these articles most attractive.

Mrs. Cullimore will be assisted by Mrs. Gidding Howe, Mrs. D. M. Liddle, Jr., Mrs. Thomas K. Mount, Hugh Mitchell, Dexter Dawes, Bill Cullimore, Walter Larsen, Joe Saliba, Robert, Case, and Fritzy Niese. The boys on the committee are doing most of the work in reconditioning the used equipment.

Mrs. Carlos Hepp, chairman of the post office booth, has requested the donation of small articles to be sold at her booth during the fair.

The household table will have for sale many useful articles, such as aprons, dishtowels, dishcloths, dusting cloths, pot holders, house cleaning fluids and miscellaneous plastic items always useable in the home.

Ministerial Head Will Join Staff Of Radio Program

ENGLEWOOD — The resignation of the Rev. Harold Dekker, minister of the Englewood Christian Reformed Church, in order to accept appointment on the staff of the "Back to God" radio hour of the denomination, was announced on Monday evening during the annual congregational meeting of the church.

Mr. Dekker, who has been serving the Englewood congregation for the past three years, is the current president of the Englewood Ministerial Association. In his new capacity, he will be stationed in Chicago, and will carry out "follow-up" work for the radio broadcast. Prior to coming to Englewood, he served as a Navy Chaplain during the war, and then as a teacher at Calvin Seminary in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Dekker presided at the business meeting, at which reports were presented on the celebration of the church's 75th anniversary, and the construction of the new parish house.

It was unaminously voted to appoint Arthur De Kruyter, graduate of Calvin Seminary in Grand Rapids and student at Princeton Seminary, working for his Master's degree, as stated supply for the church until such time as he has completed his studies at Princeton in June and had been declared a candidate for the ministry by the Synod of the church. Mr. De Kruyter has done home mission work in several places, taught catechism in Grand Rapids while attending Calvin, was president of the Student Council in his senior year. He was also business manager of the a capella choir and won two oratorical contests while there. He is intensely interested in working with unchurched people. He is to conduct the services at this church on Thanksgiving Day and also on the following Sunday.

Mr. Dekker has already assumed some of his new duties and has been relieved of several of his duties to this church.

The meeting continued with the financial report presentation and the new budget was adopted for the year.

Elections were held for a new elder and a new deacon to fill vacancies left by retiring officers whose terms have run out. George C. Brinkerhoff, Jr., was elected to the office for a term of three years to fill the place of Harold B. Bogert. Mr. Bogert has been vice-president of the consistory during his term. Walter Lagerwey was elected for a three years term as deacon to replace Stanley Westervelt.

At the close of the meeting Stanley Davison serving as congregational spokesman, remarked on the pleasure and spiritual gain that has been the lot of the congregation under Mr. Dekker's ministration.

Englewood Zionists To Install Officers At Nov. 12 Reception

ENGLEWOOD—Mayor M. Leslie Denning and C. Conrad Schneider, state commander of the American Legion, will be among the local and state dignitaries on hand Sunday, Nov. 12 when the Englewood Zionist District installs David Davidson as president at an installation dance at the new Jewish Community Center, Tenafly road.

Mr. Schneider, who recently returned from the American Legion national convention in Los Angeles, will formally install the new officers. The Englewood attorney, who is also president of the Bergen County Y.M.C.A. in Hackensack, has been active in Jewish affairs in the community for many years.

Benjamin E. Gordon of Teaneck, newly elected president of the New Jersey State Zionist Region, also will be present to pay tribute to the local district's new officers along with Uriah Tchack, executive director of the New Jersey Region, and several national officers.

According to Arnold Foster, chairman of the installation committee, the installation dance will be a gala affair. The program will include a short formal ceremony to install Mr. Davidson and the other officers for 1950-51 with the greater part of the evening devoted to dancing to the tunes of an outstanding orchestra. Refreshments and cocktails will be served and admission is free. The entire community has been invited to attend the affair which will open the new season for the Englewood Zionist District.

In addition to Mr. Davidson, the following officers will be installed by Mr. Schneider: Sol Becker, Harry Gitlin, Clyde Lindenbaum and Charles Fishberg, vice presidents; Isaac Hyman, treasurer; Nathan Lerner, financial secretary; Milton Heir, recording secretary, and Harold Guss, corresponding secretary.

The following members of the board of trustees also will be installed: Sol Feiner, Harry B. Cohen, Samuel Gilbert, Aaron LeVine, Arnold Foster, Mervin D. Hyman, Herman Kalman, Samuel Gitlin, Meyer Osoff, Sidney Isen, Sidney Sobol, Irving Kuttler, Julius Wenig, Max Lifton, Nathaniel L. Fish and Murray Sacks.

The installation committee is composed of Mr. Foster chairman; Milton Heir, Harry B. Cohen, Aaron LeVine, Malcolm Hyman, Mervin D. Hyman, and Harry Gitlin.

elected chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the new First National Bank and Trust Company.

Active in the affairs of the New Jersey Bankers Association, and the American Bankers Association, Mr. Peterson has served as chairman of the federal legislation committee and as treasurer, vice president and president of the state group. Since 1941, he has been a member of the group's executive committee. He was a member of the executive committee of the Paterson Clearing House Association from 1936 to 1948 and served as its president in the 1942-43 term.

Many ABA Offices

In the national bankers group, Mr. Peterson has served as chairman of the executiv committee of the national bank division, president of the same division, member of the economic policy commission, chairman of the finance committee, vice president and his present presidency.

A member of the Paterson Industrial Commission, Mr. Peterson was formerly president of the Money Marketeers an association connected with the Graduate School of Business of New York University. He has an honorary doctorate from that university. He also is a member of the Union League Club, Ridgewood Country Club, Englewood Men's Club and Arcola Country Club.

Chairman of the dinner committee for the chamber is Raymond J. Nelligan. Seating arrangements are being made, and reservations in advance were recommended by the chamber. Organization tables, with identifying names displayed, will seat groups of six, eight or ten.

Firms which have already reserved full tables include Palisades Trust Co., Citizens National Bank, Kahn Motors, Englewood Press-Journal, Art Flower Shop, Buckley's Drug Store, Michael Caputo, Inc., Wee Moderns, Ferber Corp., and Theodore Farinella.

Alpine Police Academy Awards Diplomas To 20

TENAFLY — The Alpine Police Academy — organized during the war by Chief William Cacace of the Alpine Police and Dr. John C. Burnett, scientist-inventor, with the cooperation and blessing of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, held its sixth annual graduation program on Monday evening, giving diplomas to 20 members of Bergen County and municipal police departments.

Chief Chester B. Campbell of the Tenafly Police Department, president of the Bergen County Police Chiefs Association presided as master of ceremonies, and introduced the guests of honor, Police Chiefs, Municipal leaders and County government heads who were in the audience at Club Gabby in Tenafly.

A beefsteak dinner was served to approximately 100 men, who represented half the governing bodies and law enforcement agencies in the county.

Sergeant Mario Buniva of Tenafly took charge of the seating of guests, and Patrolman Silvestro DeLuisio, of Tenafly, entertained during the evening on his piano accordion.

Lost Their Sleep

In his opening remarks Chief Campbell paid tribute to the men who "lost their sleep to sharpen their abilities so that the people of Bergen might sleep safely". He advised those who might not know that the men had spent three hours a night, three nights a week for a total of 150 hours of instruction on their own time at the Academy.

Howard Devaney, state president of the Patrolman's Benevolent Association, told the Assembly that Bergen police are the lowest paid in the state, and that it is not necessary for a municipal government to make salary increases a referendum matter.

Samuel McKee, officer in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in New Jersey presented the department with a vivid analysis of the growth and intricacy of the Federal detection system in Washington, and its branches. He stressed the fact that fingerprinting has become a definite science, and is recognized as such in the courts and law of the land.

Dr. Burnett, after paying tribute to J. Edgar Hoover for his work in the preservation of America's safety, traced the history of the academy, and gave his opinion that Bergen County has awakened to its responsibility to support the FBI. The Police Department is no longer a "flatfoot outfit", Dr. Burnett stated—"the officer's brains are not in his feet, but squarely in his head, on his shoulders.

Equipment Appeal

Chief Cacace appealed for municipal cooperation to see that graduates of the school in finger-printing (this year's subject) have the essential equipment for carrying on their work. "These 20 men are now well qualified as special agents in finger-printing", he stated, "but their knowledge is of no value if they lack the needed equipment to carry on".

Diplomas were presented to: Sergeant Mario Buniva and Patrolman Silvestro DeLuisio, of Tenafly; Detective Merwyn Hawkins of Englewood; George Scott, Hillsdale, Frank Maher, East Paterson; Robbert L. Bender, Haworth; Henry Sengelmann, Leonia; Norman Stalter, Park Ridge; Daniel Ryan, Ridgefield Park; Royal S. Weber, Ho-Ho-Kus; William Lloyd, Ridgefield; Lawrence Geiss, Bogota; Edward Schmalz, Bergen County Police; William Rehain, Upper Saddle River; Andrew Troy, Fair-Lawn, John C. Parodi, Maywood; Robert Facella, Lodi; Roy Johnson, Washington Township; and Alois Wittner, Closter.

Dr. W. Van Riper Leaves Hospital For J&J Position

ENGLEWOOD—Dr. William D. Van Riper, of West Englewood, has taken a leave of absence from his practice and appointments at Englewood Hospital to become director of industria medicine for Johnson and Johnson, makers of surgical supplie..

Dr. Van Riper attended Colgate University and Temple University School of Medicine, after which he interned and was House Surgeon at Englewood. Following this he entered private practice and was associated with Piccatinny Arsenal, before entering the U. S. Army early in 1942.

While in the army, he was assigned to the Raritan Arsenal and the Surgical Service of the 90th General Hospital in England and France. He was later transferred to the 2nd Auxiliary Surgical Group, serving in France, Germany, Austria and northern Italy.

After his discharge in October, 1945, Dr. Van Riper did postgraduate work at Post Graduate Hospital, New York City, and entered private practice, continuing this work until his appointment at Johnson and Johnson.

Bergen Choral In N. Y. Recital: To Offer 'Messiah'

ENGLEWOOD — The Bergen Choral Society, with John Harms conducting, again presented the stirring "Stabat Mater" by Rossini, in New York City last night, November 1.

Joining the John Harms Chorus of New York, these well-trained groups gave a special presentation in the auditorium of the American Academy of Arts and Letters to an audience consisting of members of the academy and others especially invited from musical circles in New York City.

The group previously performed the selection in a concert at the Plaza Theatre, Englewood, last week.

Rehearsals of the chorus are held each Monday evening at 8 p.m. at St. Paul's Parish House. At next Monday's rehearsal, work will start on Handel's "Messiah" in preparation for the large-scale performance of this work on Sunday evening, Dec. 17, in which the choral society will be joined by groups from the various church choirs.

Work will also begin on the music for the Bergen Choral Society's benefit concert for the Englewood Hospital Fund scheduled for Jan. 16 at the Plaza Theatre, Englewood.

The first was correspondent was George W. Kendall of the New Orleans Picayune who covered the Mexican War.

Focus On Mental Hospitals

Focusing the attention of Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll (r., front) mental institutions in New Jersey, C. Conrad Schneider, (l., front) Englewood, department commander of the American Legion's New Jersey department shows the chief executive a resolution passed by the Legio nseeking an investigation into th allegedly overcrowded conditions at those places. Standing in the rear are (l.) C. Harold Saidt, Trenton, state director of public relations, and (r.) Roland F. Cowan, Trenton, state adjutant. Meeting took place in Trenton last week.

The Auxiliary: Mrs Thomas Davis, vice-president; Mrs. Bessie Fleming, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith, secretary; Mrs. Martha Bohannon, treasurer; Mrs. Eula Keglar, historian; Mrs. George Gayle, chaplain; and Mrs. Hattie James, sergeant-at arms

Carl Muntze, County vice-commander, installed the pos officers, assisted by George F. Axt of Englewood, also County vice-commander. Mrs. Kurt Hartman, County president installed the auxiliary leaders

Roslyn Green was presented the award for the drum majorette contests held at the recent County Convention, by W. J. Slominske. James Williford and Alexander Johnson, who attended the New Jersey Boys State under sponsorship of Douglas Post and the Orchid Club also spoke briefly. The third boy sponsored for Boys State —Edward Cartwright, is now serving with the U. S. Marines.

Our grand business undoubtedly is, not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand.

Grand Union's Courtesy Award To W. Englewood

ENGLEWOOD — G and Union's West Englewood market was named "Courtesy Store of the Month" in the suburban division today by R. D. Lytle, division general manager.

A courtesy award is made each month to the outstanding store among the 60 Grand Union markets located in New Jersey and and nearby New York State. Each store is judged for friendliness, cleanliness and courtesy to customers.

At ceremonies last night, Mr. Lytle presented a banner to Angelo Ghiorse, grocery manager, and Herbert Kneisler, meat manager, on behalf of all the store personnel. In addition, each individual employe received a suitable memento.

"This award is a proper recognition of the effort put forth by the whole Grand Union organization to make our markets a pleasant place in which to shop," said Mr. Lytle. "It is not enough to sell top quality food products at the lowest possible price. All of us must be alert to uphold Grand Union's reputation for being friendly stores."

Rev. John Ludlum Named Minister At Englewood Church

ENGLEWOOD — The Rev. John Ludlum, the new minister of the Community Church on Hudson avenue, assumed charge of the congregation over the past week-end, and preached his first sermon on the Reformation at the 11 a.m. Reformed Sunday service.

Mr. Ludlum is a native of Albany N. Y., and was graduated from Rutgers University and New Brunswick Theological Seminar. During the past year he did residence work on his Doctorate in Philosophy at Yale University, as well as 20 hours of graduate study at Columbia University.

He is married to the former Miss Noelle Atwood. They have a son, Victor John, who is 5, and a daughter, Mary Noelle, three years of age.

Freeholders Cite Low Tax Cost In Re-Election Bid

ENGLEWOOD — Freeholders Martin J. Ferber and Martin P. Nelson said today that the results of an impartial survey by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association which showed that Bergen has the lowest per capita cost of government of any county in the State should be a major factor in producing an overwhelming Republican vote on Nov. 7.

"The people today are more interested in their pocketbooks than in the welfare of political parties," said Ferber and Nelson, Republican candidates for re-election. "Each year the New Jersey Taxpayers Association makes an impartial and non-political survey of the costs of county government in New Jersey. Using the preliminary 1950 census figures this survey showed that Bergen has the lowest per capita cost of government of any of the 21 counties of New Jersey. Bergen's per capita cost is only $11.30 as compared with Ocean County, which tops the list with a per capita cost of $35.90. Neighboring Hudson's per capita cost is $30.56; Essex, $19.06; Passaic, $15.68, and Camden, $18.37, to mention a few.

"No amount of political propaganda can erase these facts. Now written into the records is confirmation of what we constantly have maintained—that Bergen is the best managed county in New Jersey. Naturally, we are proud to be members of the Bergen County Board of Freeholders which has established this outstanding record for good government. We are confident that the people of Bergen County will want this kind of government continued and will, therefore, vote Republican on Nov. 7."

Car Rolls From Drive; Strikes Florida Man

Russell Holmes of DeLand, Florida, driving easterly on Ivy lane, Englewood, was struck on the side by the car of Omar A. Burgess of 172 Ivy lane, which rolled, unattended from the driveway at the Burgess residence. It was believed that children had released the hand brake, causing the vehicle to roll down the slope. Both cars were damaged.

CARL E. RING

A Real Republican Against the Machine

This is Carl E. Ring. A lot of you know him, most of you have heard or read about him. He is the fellow who alone dared to fight the Bergen County G.O.P. machine. He is the man who, on his own and with no financial contributions at all, entered this Congressional race because he believes in the elementary principles of American government. He believes that the Congressional representative of a district should not be the willing puppet of selfish politicians and political machines. He thinks that peace and prosperity are things that can come only from sound thinking, sound leadership and above all, a sound workable economic system. He feels that continued domination of the people ultimately leads to despotic rule and opens the door to government by fear. He promises a good day's work. You have your chance to vote for him November 7th. Think carefully before making your decision.

A VOTE FOR RING, A REAL REPUBLICAN, IS A VOTE FOR REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

A VOTE FOR EITHER PARTY CANDIDATE IS A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN THE CORRUPT POLITICAL MACHINE.

You will find Mr. Ring at the head of the Nomination by Petition Column t is peace?" Mr. Rring "If it's just the quiet spell n two wars, then we'll prob- ve peace for a short while.

Sound Thinking

ce is something that can nly from sound thinking, leadership and above all a workable economic system. Peace must come from a spiritual state of mind which most of us in this nation can enjoy. Most Russian individuals could because it's one of the easiest human instincts to recognize and cultivate but Russia is controlled and dominated by a group of men led by Josef Stalin who have ice water in their veins and who have chosen not to recognize any spiritual guidance but to be materialistic, despite rulers of men.

"I do not now and I never did and I never will trust that government nor anyone in it because trust implies, of necessity, a moral foundation which is non-existent in the Russian leaders. At no time have I ever believed that any agreement with Russia would be fulfilled. We opened the door and they took advantage We gave them billions in lend lease, half of Germany and half of Korea and much more. If they asked for half of the Pentagon Building in Washington, there are those who would want to give it to them and I'm not sure Acheson isn't one of them' Mr. Ring continued.

"The New Deal administration began with the warning that 'all we have to fear is fear itself' and then proceeded to fill us with fears while the robbed us of our children and our wealth. Faithless incompetent leaders! Their fears will lead us only to wars and their peace will be only the rest period until the war mongers get going again. If Truman is not their leader, he certainly is their victim," Mr. Ring stated.

"Let those who think otherwise take their bazookas and march to the next eruption and we'll pay their fare. The heroes are not those who stay home and send the other fellow or the other fellow's son out to die uselessly."

Mr. Ring concluded, "I am the candidate for election to Congress of those people who have faith in America and who can put aside their fears. Faith is that power which will bring about peace and happiness if we first think it out with truth and apply the necessary hard work."

Vinson, Martin Laud Record Of Rep. Harry Towe

ENGLEWOOD — Rep. Harry L. Towe's work and voting record in the House of Representatives has drawn praise from two top ranking Congressmen, Democratic Rep. Carl Vinson, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, and Republican Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin.

Rep. Towe, Republican candidate for re-election on Nov. 7, made public today a copy of a letter he has received from Congressman Vinson lauding Rep. Towe's work on the Armed Services Committee. The letter, in part, follows:

"I have the feeling that I would be badly remiss if I failed to let you know how much I have appreciated your fine work, your consistent attendance at the meetings of the committee, and your able advice and helpful cooperation throughout the past two years.

"It seems to me that you should have a feeling of great accomplishment from your work in these four years on the Armed Services Committee. I think of your leadership in and sponsorship of legislation providing inactive duty training pay for members of the armed forces' reserve components, which legislation has had a great impact on their training and readiness. I think of your sponsorship of universal military training legislation in the last Congress, when you moved this legislation farther along in the House than it has ever gone before, and your reintroduction of UMT legislation in this Congress.

"I reiterate my statement to you that we will take up your bill in January, and I hope we will be able to pass it through the House. I also cannot overlook the outstanding service you rendered in helping us in our highly important unification hearings of last October."

Rep. Martin's Letter

Rep. Martin wrote:

"I want to express my deep appreciation of your constant attendance on the floor (of the House of Representatives). It is Representatives like your own good self that make it possible for us to stop this steady drift toward Communism and bankruptcy. It is gratifying to have men of your sincerity and courage in Congress. If ever the country needed men of those virtues it is today. . . .As a member of the Policy Committee your advice has been invaluable and has helped us tremendously. I am sure your re-election is to the advantage of your people."

Rep. Towe also is in receipt of a letter from E. A. Evans, executive director of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States.

"The Korean situation has very forceably shown," wrote Evans, "that the things for which we have been fighting and which you in turn have always voted for, were sorely needed. Reserve officers throughout this nation have every reason to appreciate the help you have given them."

SAFETY TEACHER

HAROLD E. BASSETT JR.

Red Cross Safety Expert To Teach Refresher Course

ENGLEWOOD—Harold R. Bassett Jr., Safety Services Field Representative for the Eastern Area of the American Red Cross, who has been engaged in this service field for 20 years, will conduct the Instructors' First Aid Refresher Course at Englewood Junior High School, beginning on Monday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m. and continuing on five consecutive nights of that week.

Mr. Bassett gave continuous service as a volunteer life-saving examiner from 1927 to 1942; and as avolunteer first aid instructor from 1932 to 1941. For four years he was a member of the Westchester County Chapter's Safety Service committee, and for three years was assistant director there of safety services.

In 1947, Mr. Bassett joined the North Atlantic Area staff, serving for two years as assistant director of Safety Services. He is a member of Hendrik Hudson Boy Scout Council, Westchester County Recreation Commission, and a founder of the Westchester County Swimming Association. He resides in Tarrytown, where he served as avolunteer fireman, and is a member of the Westchester Volunteer Fire Chiefs' Emergency Plan.

Miss Chetwood In Tribute To Nurse Cited by State

Miss Virginia M. Chetwood, who was signally honored by the New Jersey State Nurses Association during its annual convention at Asbury Park, the past week, was one of five district representatives to be cited for their outstanding work for nursing in their districts.

Miss Chetwood was selected by District 2. The founder of the Bergen County Tuberculosis and Health Association, Miss Chetwood was an actively practising private duty nurse from 1893 until 1910.

"The star of the evening" according to Miss Chetwood", was Miss Mary E. Rockhill, a graduate of Cooper Hospital, Camden, in the Class of 1899, who displayed her membership card in the State Association from 1901-1903. She was a charter member of the State Board of Nurse Examiners which is now called the Board of Nursing.

"Miss Rockhill's few words over the microphone "brought down the house" with laughter and applause. There were no scrolls awarded, but the State president, Miss Elizabeth Brown, presented each candidate with a beautiful gold brooch as a feature of the banquet."

AJC To Hear Speaker Nov. 8 At Meeting

ENGLEWOOD — Samuel Deutsch will speak on the topic, "Survival through Knowledge," at the next meeting of the Northern Valley Chapter of the American Jewish Congress on Wednesday evening, Nov. 8, at the Jewish Community Center of Englewood, Tenafly road, Englewood.

A short discussion of business will precede Mr. Deutsch's talk. His topic is in keeping with the proclamation of November as Jewish Book Month. General discussion and refreshments will follow. All interested are invited to attend.

A delegation of members of the Northern Valley Chapter will attend the conference on Jewish living in America on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 5, at Temple B'nai Jeshurun, Newark. The conference, sponsored by the New Jersey Region of the American Jewish Congress, will consist of concurrent panels on the following topics: "What Shal' Be the Form and Content of Jewish Living in America?" "Home and School — Dynamic Elements Jewish Survival;" "Relationship of Jews in America to Jews Elsewhere;" "Relationship of Jews to Non-Jews;" and "Democratizing the Jewish Community."

Moe Sternlieb, member of the New Jersey Regional Executive Committee, may be contacted for further information.

Life Sketches Of Candidates To Aid Voters

ENGLEWOOD — As the three-way fight for the ninth district's Congressional seat came to a climax this week, the following biographies of Rep. Harry L. Towe, Karl D. Van Wagner and Carl Ring are published as a guide to voters in this area.

Concluding his eighth year of service as Congressman from the district which includes portions of Bergen and Hudson counties, Rep. Towe, Republican of Tenafly, is opposed by Mr. Van Wagner, Democrat of West Englewood, and Mr. Ring, Independent of Rutherford.

Rep. Towe has been a vigorous critic of New Deal and Fair Deal trends, the handling of the Korean problem, the Far Eastern policy, the immense spending and the multiple bureaus of national government.

A lawyer, his first introduction to public office was a borough attorney for Rutherford in 1929. He has been a U. S. commissioner, special assistant Bergen County prosecutor, special assistant attorney general, Bergen assemblyman for two years and Bergen County Republican chairman.

Rep. Towe left a naval career, resigning from U. S. Naval Academy in 1920, to study law. He specializes in public utility cases. Born in Jersey City in 1898, he has resided in Bergen County the major part of his life, recently moving from Rutherford to a new home in Tenafly.

Van Wagner

Mr. Van Wagner, who has campaigned for legalization of a national lottery through a bureau of voluntary revenue to eliminate the gambling racket, has long urged reduction of tolls on Hudson River projects of Port of New York Authority, was founder and first president of Teaneck Taxpayers' League. He was the first mayor of the township under the manager form of government.

He served Teaneck as councilman and mayor for 16 years and during his tenure new wings were added to the high school and library and Lowell School was erected. The feat he is proudest of is that during that time Teaneck taxes were reduced four times and during the depression municipal finances were handled on a cash basis.

The Democratic candidate, who favors lowering the voting age to 18, was born in Nyack, N. Y., and lives in West Englewood with his wife and two daughters. He is a worsted textile designer by profession.

Ring

Mr. Ring, who has a law office in New York, an electrical engineering firm, Electrical Engineers, Inc., in Union City, and an affiliate, Somerset Laboratories, Inc., stresses that he is an independent Republican who remained out of the primary because "it is not free and open" in New Jersey.

Running on an anti-machine politics and anti-machine bosses platform, Mr. Ring has no political background and he and a business associate, Edward Schaub, are conducting his campaign. Much of their campaigning is done by mail and already more than 300,000 pieces of literature have been sent to voters by that means.

Mr. Ring, whose home is in Rutherford, was a member of the American high hurdles team that took part in the 1928 Olympic games in Amsterdam. Father of two sons, Carl, 12, and John, 8, he was born in Bangor, Me., and was graduated from University of Maine in 1825 with a degree in engineering. He studied law at Harvard.

FOR ASSEMBLY

ENGLEWOOD—Gill C. Job, of Allendale the Republican candidate for State Assembly, began his political career as campaign manager in his home town before the war. He was elected to the board of education in 1941 and was re-elected for a three year term in 1942, but later resigned to enlist in the U. S. Army.

Honorably discharged in 1946, he was elected county committeeman from Allendale and re-elected through 1949 when he was appointed chairman of the first executive district of the county committee. Mr. Job was instrumental in the reactivation of the Bergen County Young Republican Club after the war and presently serves as a member of the executive committee.

C. C. Schneider Heads Legion Probe Appeal

ENGLEWOOD — C. Conrad Schneider, Englewood, commander of New Jersey department, American Legion, spearheaded an appeal this week to Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll for state improvement in the care of patients in mental hospitals in New Jersey.

Appearing at Trenton with Mr. Schneider were Roland F. Cowan, Trenton, state adjutant, and C. Harold Saidt, Trenton, director of public relations.

The men presented to Gov. Driscoll a resolution adopted at the Asbury Park convention of the state Legion. The resolution cited allegedly inadequate facilities in New Jersey's three state and four county mental institutions.

An overload of 43 percent in the instituti is was also charged in the resolution. Definite action to be taken was not made public. The resolution called on Gov. Driscoll to appoint a commission which will investigate conditions in mental hospitals, both veteran and non-veteran.

Tuesday's Election Is Important

There is a lack-lustre about this election campaign so serious that many persons are scarcely aware that General Election is Tuesday, Nov. 7.

And yet this is an important election year. In our own Ninth Congressional District, our Republican Representative Harry L. Towe is up for reelection. He is threatened by an Independent whose primary danger to Mr. Towe is that he may cut into the Republican vote and thereby add to the chances of the Democratic candidate.

This is strong Republican territory, and its people are concerned over the length of time the New Deal-Fair Deal has been in power. They are concerned over the indifference of this Deal party to the ever more staggering national debt, over its soft attitudes and its creeping socialism.

In Rep. Harry L. Towe we have a man of sound philosophy and honest actions. Mr. Towe leaves no doubt at any time as to where he stands. He is unalterably opposed to the Fair Deal's road-to-ruin tactics, Mr. Towe has seldom missed voting on an important bill, and he has been in Congress since 1942. He has been honest and straightforward. He has refused to dodge and evade. He has cried aloud for a return of common sense, for a gradual tightening of the purse strings, for a realistic attitude towards debt and deficit spending and towards a stiffening towards those sly and softening influences that have been permitted to permeate this bureaucracy.

Mr. Towe's two opponents, Karl Van Wagner, the Democrat, and Carl Ring, the Independent, have been sniping at him as much as at each other, and there can be only one result of such tactics: a cutting into Mr. Towe's plurality. To offset this, strong Republican areas like Englewood and Tenafly (Tenafly is Mr. Towe's home town) must vote in strength.

The complete lack of any vigorous election campaigns outside the Congressional certainly doesn't help this problem of bringing the voters out on Tuesday.

In Englewood we elect Councilmen in the First and Second Wards. In the First Ward, John C. Glidden is running without opposition, to succeed Councilman Richard A. Robertson, who is retiring after three years of service. Mr. Glidden was born in Englewood, is thoroughly familiar with its character and its problems, and with a long record for civic service, deserves confidential support.

In the Second Ward Councilman Allan T. Trumbull is seeking reelection. His record of service as a Councilman is outstanding. He has insured greater safety on Route 4, carrying on a successful one-man campaign for more frequent county and state police patrols, closing of the dangerous safety island openings, and redesigning of the Walton street approach to eliminate the serious traffic hazard there. He has helped win the state's approval for installation of a traffic light at the dangerous South Dean street-Englewood avenue intersection. He was a prime advocate of rezoning, served on the Planning Board that developed the new ordinance, helped obtain a new playground for the Second Ward, succeeded in restoring many properties to the city tax lists, and has been constantly on the job, attending all meetings and helping to solve the serious postwar problems. We advocate his reelection by a large plurality as a measure of confidence and appreciation by the people he has so faithfully served in his ward. He is opposed by a personable young man, Keith Craft who, however, has no background in civic or governmental service and who could not possibly have sufficient grasp of city affairs to fulfill the exigencies of the position.

In the county, the same lack of stirring contests holds true. Freeholders Martin J. Ferber and Martin P. Nelson are seeking reelection on their records of long service to the county which, incidentally, is commended by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association for the soundness of its finances and the reasonableness of its taxes. They are opposed by Joseph A. DeMarrais and Howard T. Pitts, who, however, have made practically no appearances and have waged only a feeble campaign.

For the Assembly, Gill C. Job is seeking the post vacated by William B. Widnall, who this year became the Representative of the Seventh District. Here again, opposition has been practically in name only, Robert Eichler having remained completely in the shadows.

And while we as a newspaper recommend the election—it's reelection in most instances—of Republicans, we lay stress on the importance of voting. For it was in this very column last week that we showed that in America government is really by the minority because of the fact that voters stay away from the polls in droves!

Is There Any Evidence?

If the Catholic War Veterans, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars who are backing them up, have any evidence to show that one or more of the teachers in the Englewood public schools is Communistic or pro-Communistic, or that there are any pro-Communiststic activities going on in the schools, such evidence should be presented to the authorities at once. Certainly neither the parents, nor the school authorities want subversives teaching their children.

But if there is no evidence, that fact should be made known also, particularly in view of the fact that the CWV has made a public request for an investigation. There should be no witch hunt on generalities.

There has always been a certain amount of "talk" about this teacher or that, as there is in every town, but we have never had any evidence of pro-Communistic leanings or teachings in Englewood.

In fact, we feel the Board of Education should force the issue by demanding whatever evidence these groups feel they possess and, if there is none, say so.

As to another recommendation of the CWV that the city set up a board of citizens to pass upon applications for use of the public buildings for speakers on social and economic subjects, we would like to say that while we agree with the principle that our public buildings should not be provided as platforms for subversive propaganda, it is difficult to see how a municipality could create a board capable of fair judgement in all cases. There are certain known Communists and known sympathizers and these should be denied the use of our public buildings. But on the other hand there are certain liberals who cannot be called Communists on that score. Who is competent to judge?

That We May Better Sleep

There were many fine tributes paid at the graduation exercises of the Alpine Police Academy, held at the Club Gabby in Tenafly, recently—and fitting tributes they were too: to the FBI—to its chief, J. Edgar Hoover—and especially to the organizers and students of this F.B.I. recognized school.

Dr. J. C. Burnett and Chief William Cacace, under whose direction the Academy has weathered six years, and graduated five previous classes came in for generous applause from the 100-odd law enforcement officials, municipal heads and leaders of the county.

Chief Chester D. Campbell—whose Tenafly Police Department had two members in the graduating class of 20: Sergeant Mario Buniva and Patrolman Silvestro DeLuisio—paid what was probably the most apt comment, when he stated that "these have given of their own time, and lost their sleep, in order to sharpen their faculties so that the people of Bergen might rest more easily in their sleep".

The extent of the course—as indicated by Chief Cacace—included 150 hours of instruction this year in latent fingerprinting—one of the most scientific methods of crime detection—with three hours of study, three nights a week. The fact that a group of men in the county (Detective Merwyn E. Hawkins of the Englewood Police Department was also among the graduates) were willing to devote this time to their advancement and professional enrichment speaks much for them. At a time when police in other quarters are meeting with much criticism, it is a welcome evidence to the people of this area of the calibre of many of their own officials.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

"The Will of the People is the only legitimate Foundation of any Government and to protect its Free Expression should be our First Object."

IN THOSE WORDS, THOMAS JEFFERSON HAPPILY SUMMARIZED THE INHERENT STRENGTH OF THE DEMOCRATIC STRUCTURE.

THE RIGHT OF THE INDIVIDUAL, IN AMERICA, TO VOICE HIS OPINIONS AND VOTE FOR HIS CONVICTIONS, GIVES OUR DEMOCRACY THE ESSENTIAL VITALITY FOR GROWTH AND PROGRESS THROUGH THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE.

Behind the Scenes
IN AMERICAN BUSINESS
By Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK — Many a business man has asked the question: "What if the Atom Bomb should fall on us?" His concern is less about personal safety and more about the prosaic business of preserving business records.

Without records, nine-tenths of the business of the country would be demoralized. Most concerns whose records were destroyed by fire, earthquake or sudden calamity never re-opened their doors, experts say. Contracts, confirmations, lists of customers, endless recorded details and specifications are the warp and woof of commercial business, and not until they are suddenly gone are we aware of their importance.

And so, the microfilm makers are reaping a harvest. Industrial corporations are microfilming bookkeeping entries, research data, stock transfer records; public utilities are mircrofilming maps of pipe and conduit locations, department stores the records of their charge accounts. These are being shipped to branch offices for safekeeping.

Nor is all this activity confined to "big" business. A small New Jersey druggist uses microfilm to record his old prescription memos, universities are using it because they have run out of storage space. Thus, the process that carried millions of V-mail to service men in World War II is finding new and wider applications daily. The fear of war has done much to spur its use, but like many another wartime phenomonon, it has taken root in many unexpected places.

NAME YOUR BRAND — What's in a name? Millions of dollars, when the name is right! Bright-witted executives know the selling points of labeling their product with apt brand names that spell glamor to women. Quality, of course, remains the prime requisite but the female eye has always been attracted by a catchy title.

So it is with one of the country's most spectacular new products—a home hair coloring. When Tintair opened this field to the retail trade, it went to market with a list of the most colorful names ever invented, previously tested with 15,000 women over the past seven years. The average woman, seeking the languorous warmth of a brunette, now asks the drug or department store clerk for Mona Lisa Brown. Redheads request Carrot Top as nonchantly as they do their favorite brand of face powder.

Tintair, though selling for only $2, offers these $25 names for its various shades: Canary Diamond (palest blonde); Bamboo Blonde (light blonde); Starlight Blonde (neutral blonde); Grecian Blonde (ash blonde); Golden Topaz (reddish blonde); American Brown (light brown); Gleaming Bronze (auburn); Glossy Chestnut (warm brown); Brown Onyx (warm dark brown); and Jet Brown (darkest brown).

It's evidence of a new selling trend—color name merchandising. Even Shakespeare would be satisfied.

FUEL FOR THE MILLIONS — By the end of 1950 an estimated 300,000 miles of natural gas pipe will have been laid in the U.S., bringing this low-cost fuel into a record number of communities. This will be an increase of some 20,000 miles over the total mileage at the end of 1949. When W. Paul Jones, president of Servel Inc., spoke recently of the tremendous growth in public demand for natural gas and gas appliances, he touched a subject that has begun to affect the lives of nearly every community in the U.S. The share of the nation's total energy output contributed by natural gas has risen from 3 percent in 1903 to 19 percent last year. In only seven out of the past 51 years has there been a decrease from the preceding year in the marketed production of natural gas.

BITS OF BUSINESS — Everything that can be sold in a vending machine is being given the go-ahead sign in business today. Latest to be successfully tested are papercovered books... The age limit for badly needed machinists and tool, die and guage makers at the Frankfort, Pa. arsenal has been upped to 70 years, from 62 previously... A speed-up in government controls is looked for right after elections to put the economy on a stronger mobilization footing... General wage-price freeze is being strongly resisted, but more selective controls can be expected... The Federal Reserve Board is steadily bearing down on credit, latest informed rumors being that business loans will be cut in unessential industries if the total volume of business credit does not sag of its own accord soon... Total business loans have been edging up to new peaks... The need for a world food stockpile is now being discussed in Washington... Growing shortages in papers are spuring increased search for paper waste for conversion back to finished papers....

Letter Carriers Hold Meeting

ENGLEWOOD — The Englewood Branch No. 596, National Association of Letter Carriers, met at the Park View Cafe, Dean street, Englewood, last Wednesday night. Election of officers took place, and John Young was named president; Vincent Gragnano, vice-president; Charles Daily, secretary; and Ralph Diedati, treasurer.

The Branch voted to contribute $25 to the Englewood Community Chest campaign. A social hour followed the business meeting, with refreshments.

Public Health Week

"Public Health Week" will be celebrated throughout New Jersey from Nov. 13 to 17. This article is one of a series on health and medical subjects of current interest, contributed by the Bergen County Medical Society and The Medical Society of New Jersey.

On Monday, Nov. 13, New Jersey's state-wide "Public Health Week" will be launched under the joint sponsorship of the Medical Society of New Jersey, its 21 component medical societies, the New Jersey State Health Department and local departments of health throughout the state. This announcement was contained in a statement issued this week by Dr. Samuel Blaugrund of Trenton, chairman of the general committee on "Public Health Week" of the sponsoring agencies.

During the five days from Nov. 13 to 17 inclusive, the physicians and allied workers in the realm of public health will present their program through health exhibits, public speakers, forum programs, radio talks, newspaper features and moving picture shows in many parts of the state. Public meetings with exhibits and forums will be held in many central communities.

"For many months, the medical societies and cooperating lay groups have been planning a public health program," Dr. Blaugrund said. "The plans vary from place to place, but the purpose is the same—to help people learn about the medical and health resources of their own communities, and the things that everyone can do to safeguard his own health and the well-being of his family," he added.

"While we doctors initiated the idea of 'Public Health Week', many other community agencies interested in health and welfare are taking part. We have designed the program to appeal to the public, to provide useful and reliable information on health and medical subjects. We hope every citizen of New Jersey will be reached through our exhibits, our radio programs, our speakers and our newspaper articles—not to mention the moving picture shows that will be offered in various communities for the benefit of school children as well as their parents and older friends," Dr. Blaugrund said.

Working Together

The State Department of Health is working in full partnership with the medical groups in this educational enterprise, according to Dr. Daniel Bergsma, State Commissioner of Health.

"'Public Health Week'," Dr. Bergsma pointed out, "is planned to give every citizen an opportunity of seeing what has been accomplished by the medical and public health groups and at the same time show how the people of New Jersey can, through individual and community efforts, continue to improve the level of health in our state. In the fight against disease and premature death in New Jersey, the practicing physicians have been the shock troops of our forces and New Jersey is distinguished for a working partnership between the private physician and the public health officer which can only accomplish its full purpose when every citizen becomes an active participant in the fight against sickness and death," Dr. Bergsma concluded.

Dr. Blaugrund explained that while the State Medical Society and State Health Department are coordinating efforts over the entire state, the actual program in each community is in the hands of the local county medical society and local health department. Details of the program in any community are to be found in announcements in the daily and weekly newspapers, as well as over local broadcasting stations, he said.

Miriam Daughters Plan Anniversary At Jewish Center

ENGLEWOOD—The tenth anniversary of the founding of the Englewood Branch of Daughters of Miriam Home for Aged and Infirm, will be celebrated with a special program this Sunday evening at 8:30, at the new Jewish Community Center, Tenafly road, Englewood.

This event will be an open house function, and the public is cordially invited to attend by the group's president and chairman of the evening, Mrs. Annie Levinsohn.

Included in the program of entertainment has been planned by co-chairmen Barney Goodman and Mrs. David Drosnes of the entertainment committee. Miss Pearl Berg of Teaneck will give tap dancing numbers in costume; the Famous Octette of the Tenafly Glee Club will be heard in a group of songs; Miss Rita Gorsky, accordinist, will entertain, and Ruth Wolpert Arnold, dramatic soprano, will offer a program of songs. Mrs. Arnold has given many recitals, notably with the Syracuse Symphony, and at Town Hall, accompanied by instrumentalists from the Philharmonic-Symphony under the direction of Siegfried Landau.

Refreshments will be served by the following committee, with Mrs. Max Joselson serving as chairman: Mesdames Levinsohn, Hoffman, Horowitz, Dincin, Frankel, Brown, Shalansky and Opper.

Give to the Community Chest. Instead of making one contribution, give more by pledging it in four easy payments, billed quarterly.

Cafeteria Lunch At St. Paul's Attended By 250

ENGLEWOOD — The cafeteria luncheon held in St. Paul's Parish House last Thursday met with great success and many requests were received to make this a regular affair, a committee spokesman reported this week.

The luncheon was given by the women of St. Paul's for the business people of the community and about 250 attended. The money realized in this way will be used by the executive committee of the Guild and the Lunch Club for decoration of part of the Parish House.

The co-chairmen of the luncheon were Mrs. F. H. Warrick and Mrs. Edward S. Brockie. Mrs. Harold Kinmouth acted as treasurer. Those who helped serve were Miss Mary E. Davidson, Mrs. William Sortor, Mrs. William Crozier, Mrs. Charles Van Buren, Mrs. Archibald Thompson, Mrs. Walter Hudson, Mrs. Daniel Bogert, Mrs. R. A. O'Neill, Mrs. A. Edward Major, Mrs. J. W. Viner, Mrs. George J. Saliba, Mrs. W. B. Fergerson, Mrs. A. L. Holden, Mrs. Nancy Coe, Mrs. Allan Trumbull.

Also Dr. Romola Lyons, Mrs. J. Clark Onderdonk, Mrs. E. T. Cramer, Mrs. G. A. Rhodes, Mrs. Gifford Horton, Mrs. C. R. Eltinge, Jr., Mrs. Thomas K. Mount, Mrs. H. P. Phyfe, Mrs. William K Doggett, Mrs. D. W. Richards, Jr., Mrs. Herbert Lorentzen, Mrs. John Thatcher, Mrs. James A. Mitchell, Mrs. Joseph Vostal, Mrs. John Vanderbilt, Mrs. W. H. Eddy, Mrs. J. L. Ford, Mrs. Carl Kellner, Mrs. M. E. Nevins, Mrs. J. P. Sullivan, Mrs. Albert Blocklinger and Miss Edna Roberts. Those who donated food were too numerous to mention as practically everyone made something for the luncheon, the spokesman added.

Junior Cinfirmation Class At St. Paul's

ENGLEWOOD—The Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the Rev. James A. Mitchell, will start a junior class in preparation for Confirmation this Saturday, Nov. 4, at 11 a.m. The Bishop of the Diocese comes to St. Paul's each year on the second Sunday in Lent to bestow the Rite of Confirmation Two groups are always presented by the Rector,—one a junior class of 13 to 16 year olds, and one of adults not previously confirmed in their youth or coming into the Episcopal Church from some other denomination.

The Junior Class is held each Saturday from 11 to 12 from November through Lent. The boys or girls must be at least 13 by the time they are confirmed in February. The Adult Class will be held in January, 1951, on Tuesday evenings in the rector.

The two Bishops of the Diocese of Newark alternate in coming to St. Paul's. This year the official visitation will be made by the Bishop Suffragan, the Rt. Rev. Theodore R. Ludlow on Sunday, Feb. 18.

Money Problem Election Item

To the Editor:

The statement released Oct. 22, by Carl Van Wagner, Democratic candidate for Congress in the district of New Jersey, quoting statistics from Dun & Bradstreet's circular dated about Oct. 1, does not show in the facts set forth that the United States legal tender irredeemable unsecured paper dollar has been cut in half approximately in its purchasing power due to the general rise in prices since 1939.

An attempt to use these statistics in favor of the Democratic candidate's election shows a woeful lack of his understanding of the national problem of inflation (rise in prices generally) in the U.S. for the conduct of our war caused by the over-issue of a fiat currency money depending only for its value on its use as a legal tender among the people for payment of debt as a final discharge when redeemed by paying in another debt paper dollar, in exchange of debt: a new one for an old one, both legal tender by fiat of the Government. The necessary general rise in prices has reduced the value of the dollar used in the quotations to the real effect in the gains that has been cut in half to those who hold money or promises to pay money.

The laborer loses each day a few pennies that are taken from his wages. He, too, it should be considered, is a capitalist, small as he may be, but in bulk the more so advanced bulks large in the nation. In fact, the most of all. He advances to his employer the value of his labor, when he is paid his wages is the payment of the debt.

Now, the value of savings expressed in paper money is daily losing purchasing power as it is legal tender for debt payment secured. When a Government pays money it is only paying debt and now under our irredeemable money system it does not do that, just exchanges a debt for an old one.

For when it credits the account of its depositor with the money deposited by him, it makes a firm contract to pay its depositor in legal tender circulating money. A depositor's check drawn on his bank is not a tender, and it is not money nor legal tender even if certified by the bank. If the bank cannot pay its depositor in legal tender money it fails and defaults on its contract, and is forced to use clearing house certificates as legal and circulating medium.

Now 98 percent of our business is done on credit, there is not enough gold in the world to conduct all business with gold payments, either in gold coin or gold bullion. It is an impossibility, and it must be realized now, before we attempt to do the impossible. There is a limit to the confidence of people in accepting legal tender paper money and in of the legal tender power of the government, and hence a limit to the volume of such paper money that can be kept in circulation or in hand throughout the nation. If forced to accept such money by law, the person accepting it will raise the price of the goods or services he is to exchange for such money.

The costs of our present war does not need to be paid for out of taxes alone, as the Government is urged to do.

Is the Government to continue forcing the increase of debt throughout the country in order to increase the volume of debt throughout the nation so the increase in the debt will absorb the constantly increasing amount of legal tender irredeemable unsecured paper money issued? It will not work. A general rise in prices will go on until there is a collapse of business.

The circulation of such money can be secured and collapse prevented. But Mr. Van Wagner does not offer a method.

Vote for Carl E. Ring, the Independent Candidate for Congress in the Ninth Congressional District of New Jersey. He is a sound thinker.

ADA County Chapter Decries 'Hysteria'

To the Editor:

Anti-Communist hysteria is a menace as dangerous to American institutions as is Communism itself.

"It is of course true, as alleged, that Communists make it a practice of calling everyone with whom they disagree 'Fascists.' But it is just as true that fascists have a habit of calling everyone with whom they disagree 'Communists.' While there is nothing wrong with calling local apologists for totalitarian principles and tactics by their right names, we vigorously oppose the indiscriminate name-calling engaged in by both sets of extremists. And we are appalled by the growing tendency in some quarters to characterize all American liberals as 'Reds.'"

The gentlemen who on Oct. 7 raised the Communist hue and cry in Bergen County seem to forget some basic concepts of the Americanism which they claim to espouse. Denial of free speech, advocacy of guilt by association, wilful disturbance of the right to peaceably assemble—these are not American methods or principles. They are rather the weapons of dictatorship, Communist and Fascist alike. Our American history and tradition does not give sanction to un-American hysteria and suspicion.

Metzger Sees Need For Positive Program

To the Editor:

Mr. Grein's statement as quoted in your issue of October 26, 1950 that "What we need more than anything else right now is a positive program by which the fundamental principles of American ideals as set forth in the Declaration of Independence can be kept in the minds of our people" has my unqualified approval. I am, however, somewhat confused by his reference to the Declaration as a justification for his apparent willingness to deny certain fundamental liberties which are implicit in Jefferson's great defense of freedom.

I had always believed, until reading Mr. Grein's letter, that the Declaration of Independence was written to justify the action of the Thirteen Colonies in rebelling against the government of Great Britain,—in short, to defend the use of force to overthrow the government existing at that time. Now that is very strong doctrine, one to which I cannot subscribe so long as we Americans permit orderly change by means of the ballot and so long as we allow freedom of discussion of controversial issues.

As a matter of fact that was Jefferson's point: freedom of expression and the absence of suppression. It is well to remember that he took the lead in opposing the Alien and Sedition Acts of 1798, laws designed to silence American francophiles, who sympathized with the Jacobins of the French Revolution. Such Americans, I suppose, might be considered the leftists of Jefferson's day.

From my reading of American History, it seems to me unlikely that Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence, would approve of Mr. Grein's reasoning.

Very truly yours,
Albert L. Metzger

Defends Right To Speak In Public

To the Editor:

The current melee in Englewood between two leading organizations over the right to free speech is indeed a sad case. It is even sadder in that this sort of occurrence is a perfect preface to a situation where anyone capable of unrestrained thinking finds his tongue harnessed by public bias or the fear of being labelled either one thing or another. Washington, and Jefferson must be 'turning over in their graves.'

The quarrel here is really between two individuals, or their two organizations, or their two separate brands of ideals. Both want to be heard and then fight because each feels that his right to free speech has been insulted. They have only this in common they both demand their right to be heard.

Who was it who said "I may not agree with what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it?" This is the kind of pure unsullied thinking that constructed the fabric of this country and its government. It is stong and righteous enough to resist the acceptance of any inferior ideologies, provided we keep it close to our minds and hearts. Then, no amount of propaganda, or other pressures will ever harm us and occurences like these would not occur.

Let us remember it: I may not agree with what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it."

Investigation Of Teachers Noted

To the Editor:

The distant thud of an Iron Curtain; the angry slam of a schoolhouse door against an alien speaker. The sound effects may vary but it all shapes up to the same theme; hate, fear, suspicion, with a heavy accent on the half-truths.

We understand that there has been a demand for an investigation of Englewood teachers. There will be an initial protest from more discerning citizens but in time our fair city will be molded to the 1950 pattern for patriots the world over — pure, spotless and uninformed.

More Impressions On UN 'Fracas'

To the Editor:

Here are a few impressions concerning the United Nations meeting fracas as taken from the report of your newspaper.

First and foremost is that, while certain citizens of our town may have a laudable spirit of patriotism and a sound instinct as regards subversives, their method of upholding the one and combatting the other would lead one to believe that they themselves need a grounding in the meaning of true Americanism. As regards that, I shall look forward to one of your constructive editorials indicating that nowhere in this country and particularly in this community will "Storm Trooper" tactics be tolerated in breaking up peaceable assemblages no matter how sponsored.

It seems to me that the essence of true Americanism is the reliance on the basic sanity of our population to consider and get the right answer from the diverse viewpoints offered them. None of us has the right to the temerity to play "God," that this, the assumption that the "rightness" of his viewpoint justifies him in forcing his opinion upon others.

Secondly, it is my opinion that every opinion should not only be allowed but encouraged to make itself heard. Fear that a false doctrine may take hold of our people shows a lack of confidence in the rightness of one's own convictions and an insult to the judgment of our fellow countrymen.

Finally, there is no call on anyone to insist that this nation choose wisely. Whether we rise or fall will be decided by the collective judgment of our people. It is the mark of a man that he gains through wisdom and falls through error. In either case, the responsibility is ours and not some individual or elite group who can lead us to a Heaven or a Hell, neither of which we deserve.

Let us in the future never again have such a disgraceful spectacle, but in preserving the rights of others preserve them for ourselves.

wright and the Catholic War Veterans.)

Meanwhile, there have been no further statements relative to the Catholic War Veterans' request that he Board of Educaion conduet an investigation of the schools for possible red activities and red ties. The Board of Education has made no comment, and as far as can be learned the CWV has presented no evidence in connection with its request.

There has been a statement, however, by Phillip Pavone, commander of Brown O'Brien Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, indicating that the VFW backed the stand of the Catholic War Veterans 100 percent in the request for an investigation of the schools. The VFW Post itself is meeting tonight when the matter will be more thoroughly discussed. Mr. Pavone stated today that the post had not taken action on his stand, but undoubtedly will.

Stolen Car Parts Recovered As Two Boys Are Taken

ENGLEWOOD — The apprehension of two 17-year-old Leonia boys who admittedly have stolen spare automobile parts for use on their own cars, was announced this week by Detective Merwyn Hawkins of the Englewood Police Department. The boys are now at the Children's Home in Hackensack.

Detective Hawkins reported that at 11 a.m. Sunday he received a call from Jerry Volpe, owner of the Englewood Golf Club, who reported that a car had pulled into and out of his parking lot several times, and that it had returned again.

Hawkins immediately apprehended one of the boys in the act of siphoning gas from another car parked there. At headquarters, he said, the boy admitted that with another 17-year-old, he had entered the car of Mrs. E. Holtz of Teaneck Oct. 6 and stolen a bag val-

The youth confessed further, Hawkins said, that he and the second boy had stolen a carburetor from a car parked in the Arcola Golf Club, Oct. 8, and that the same night they took three wheels and tires from a car owned by L. DeBranco of Bergenfield which was parked in the Food Fair lot. He further admitted, police said, taking a tire and wheel and two headlights from an unknown car parked there.

Three of the wheels and tires were recovered from the car of the second boy who was picked up in Leonia. The second boy, Hawkins said, also admitted stealing a wheel and tire from another car parked in the city.

Englewood Lions Announce Drive For Visual Aid

ENGLEWOOD—The Englewood Lions Club announced this week the launching of a local campaign to aid in visual education and rehabilitation.

The campaign will take the form of an appeak to purchase sheets of seals provided for the work. Funds from the appeal will be used to aid in visual education for children and adults, as well as aid to the visuslly imperfect.

Special emphasis on helping Englewood schools obtain full visual inspection equipment was placed by the local club. All funds raised in the drive, new to the local organization, will be used in Englewood only. The program has been adapted from the national club's over-all visual aid program.

The committee in charge of the appeal is headed by Dr. Fred W. Hanle, chairman of the sight conservation committee. Serving on the committee are Herman Lange, Harold Greenberg, Norman Loder, Berge Aslanian, Dr. Herman Zendell and Dr. William Waldner. Richard Siccardi is the local club president.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scouts are blossoming in the windows along Palisade avenue as posters call attention to the fact that this is National Girl Scout Week. The week is timed to include Oct. 31, the birthday of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Gordon Low, and seven service days serve to highlight the basic interests and activities of the Scouts. Sunday, October 29, was Girl Scout Sunday; Monday was Homemaking Day; Tuesday, Citizenship Day; Wednesday, Health and Safety Day; Thursday, International Friendship Day; Friday, Arts and Crafts Day; and Saturday will be Out-of-Doors Day. Troop activities throughout the week will emphasize these various activities.

Hallowe'en has its place in the Girl Scout calendar too, and on Monday afternoon the members of Troop 3 entertained their parents at a party in the club rooms of St. Cecilia's School. The guests enjoyed Hallowe'en entertainment and refreshments which had been planned and prepared entirely by the Scouts. The party was also the occasion for the presentation of prizes to the winners in the recent poster contest. Mrs. Sol Tamases, chairman of the public relations committee of the Girl Scout Council presented a Girl Scout camera to Carol Ann Freund, a knapsack to Anne Palmer, and a water canteen to Marie Caulfield.

Residents Laud Trumbull's Work As Councilman

ENGLEWOOD — Two Englewood citizens this week commended Councilman Allan T. Trumbull for good work in the Second Ward, citing his successful efforts at having Route 4 safety island openings closed and for help in recovering lost property.

Copies of their letters follow:

Dear My Trumbull:

You did excellent work to close up those death traps in the Englewood area of the Route 4 highway.

I hope you will also succeed in your plans for providing a park for Ward 2 section by utilizing the vacant lot near the golf course.

I will gladly vote for you and I hope that you will be reelected for the new term with the highest possible majority vote of the Englewoodians.

Sincerely yours,
Harry K. Norian
176 Meadowbrook road
Englewood, N. J.

Dear Mr. Trumbull:

I had the misfortune last week to lose certain property, presumably by theft, from my residence at 89 Dwight place, Englewood.

I thought you, as City Councilman from the Second Ward, should know that certain of the property was recovered by three city employees, Messrs. Cristiano, Rippoli and McGarry, in the regular course of their duty with the Street Department, and returned very promptly to us.

Mr. Kelly and I just want to express our appreciation for the service rendered.

Very truly yours,
J. M. Kelly,, Jr.; 90 John street,

Cub Pack 30 Has Award Ceremony, Inspection Meet

ENGLEWOOD — Awards ceremonies and a graduation from Cub to Boy Scout featured the Friday evening meeting of Cub Scout Pack 30 in St. Cecilia's Scout Room last week.

Also on the program was a blue star inspection and roll call by Neighborhood Commission Dan Hulin, assisted by Assistant Cubmaster Walter Brereton. A full report of the inspection and roll call will be given at the Nov. 24 Pack meeting.

Awards were made by Cubmaster Roland R. Rhodes. Bobcat awards and registration certificates were presented to William Burns, Charles Carney, Larry Seigel and Dennis Natale.

Lion Books were presented to Jack Brereton, Waide Cooper and Charles Rhodes.

One year service stars were awarded to John Tierney, Jack Brereton, Charles Rhodes, and Thomas Tranberg.

One gold and three silver arrows for Wolf rank and a gold and a silver arrow for Bear rank were awarded to Waide Cooper; Bear badges were awarded to Charles Rhodes and Thomas Cooke; and Lion and Webelos were badges presented to Michael Duffy.

Den Mother pins were presented to Mrs. J. Markham, Den 3; and Mrs. J. Doyle, Den 2, by Pack Chairman John J. Tierney.

A graduation ceremony was conducted for Michael Duffy by Cubmaster Rhodes. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy were introduced to Scoutmaster Edward Hasse of Troop 24 who welcomed Michael into Troop 24.

New Den Chiefs were introduced to the Cubs and parents by Cubmaster Rhodes. Richard Werner is Den Chief of Den 3 and James Twist is Den Chief of Den 2. Thomas Tate, who was unable to attend, was announced as Den Chief of Den 1. All three Den Chiefs are members of Boy Scout Troop 24, Englewood.

During the separate parents' meeting, Cubmaster Rhodes spoke to the parents on Cub Scout activities, emphasizing the part the parents are expected to take in helping their sons grow through their companionship with their boys and their cooperation with the Den Mothers.

Scoutmaster Hasse spoke to the Cubs and their parents on Boy Scouting and his joy in having Cub Scouts join his troop. He emphasized the fact that a Cub Scout always makes a good Boy Scout.

Announcements were made as follows:

Nov. 10, next Pack Committee meeting.

Nov. 11, Cub Leaders Pow Wow, Bergen Junior College, Teaneck.

Nov. 12, Communion at 9 a.m. Mass, in uniform accompanied by Troop 30 Boy Scouts.

Nov. 24, next Pack meeting. November theme: radio, collection of toys for needy children for Christmas.

Cub Leaders Pow Wow registration for Nov. 11 was completed as follows: planetarium chairman, John J. Tierney; Cub-ub, Den Mother, Mrs. J. Markham; Dram-a-ree, Den Mother, Mrs. J. Tierney; and Tinkership, Den Mothr, Mrs. J. Doyle.

The meeting closed with a candle ceremony on "the Cub" by Cubmaster Rhodes and was followed by games and refreshments.

Catholic Vets In Appeal For Aid On Holiday Plan

TENAFLY—William Boyle Jr., commander of St. Anthony's Mission Post, Catholic War Veterans, reports that the response to the request for toys which the post members could repair and present to children for Christmas, and old clothing and paper to help finance a Christmas celebration for the veterans at Lyons Hospital, has been generous.

There is still need for more of these donations, however, and any person willing to contribute to this project is requested to telephone Englewood 3-3065. Donations will be picked up at any time. The Post has not yet received enough contributions to enable it to fulfill the obligation assumed to care for these Christmas plans. All contributions are requested by or before Dec. 1, to allow time for repairs or renovations.

In addition to the recently elected Commander Boyle, the newly organized Post will function this year under the following officers: Harold Brady, first vice commander; Albert Mattner, second vice commander; Albert Hepscher, third vice commander; William Ryan, officer of the day; Frank DeFlaun, historian; and Dr. Fred S. Leonard, medical officer.

Fellowship Church To Continue With New Fall Series

The first fall meeting of all the Senior High Protestant Young People of Englewood (Fellowship Church) will be held next Sunday, Nov. 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Church, Hudson avenue, corner of Stockton place.

At the fall planning meeting of Fellowship Church, four groups volunteered for service at the November meeting. Community Church will serve as hosts and be in charge of the worship service at 7:30 p.m. St. Paul's Episcopal Church is in charge of the program at 8 p.m., and at 9 there will be a social hour with refreshments and group singing. In charge of this part of the evening will be the Shiloh AME Zion Church and the First Presbyterian Church.

The program will consist of a wonderful old masterpiece from the days of the silent movies, from the film library of John Griggs of Englewood who found it disused and passing to oblivion. Mr. Griggs revised the old film and set it to appropriate music, and has shown it to many enthusiastic audiences. It's first Englewood showing was before 600 students of St. Cecilia's High School. The film is called "The Confession" and stars the immortal Henry B. Walthal

Dwight Morrow HS Service Clubs Show Peak Activity At Mid-Term

ENGLEWOOD—Service clubs at Dwight Morrow High school showed mid-semester activity at a peak this week, with plans and events cropping up in the club foreground.

Included in the list were preparations for the annual Snowball, the presentation of a junior-senior tea, a discussion at A.L.A., and the acceptance of a dozen girls as probationary members of Pickwick.

Tri-Y

Tri-Y held its junior-senior tea Oct. 24 in the Oral English Room. Frances Lonzisero, president, welcomed the guests and introduced the officers.

Vice president is June Char; secretary, Carol Jaeschke; treasurer, Jennette Kamish; chaplain, Mary Longo; and historian, Julie LaFranz.

The girls were told the aims, plans, and purposes of the club by Anita Bellamy. Entertainment consisted of several descriptive songs composed by and sunb by club members.

Mrs. Howard Tillotson, club advisor, talked for a few minutes about her years connected with Tri-Y.

The girls who attended were Barbara Larson, Clare Wilkens, Marsha Dunn, Rita O'Connell, Shirley Jon, Janet Grande, Marlene Kuhn and Arlene Dingman.

Diversity

DMHS's cafteria is to be changed into a dreamland according to Betty Smith, head of Snowball decorations.

The annoucement was made at Diversity Club's fourth meeting of the year. Other members on the committee are Camille Cacavalle, June Gelderman, and Josephine Gerbino. A vote was taken to hold the alumnae dinner at a Chinese restaurant. Girls in the club are selling football pencils as another activity.

Those present at the last meeting were Joan Adams, Paulette Bobcik, Jean Evanson, Barbara Buday, Camille Cacavalle, Claire Pauciano, June Gelderman, Josephine Gerbino, Carolyn Goldberg, Doris Hansen, Barbara Haughey, Jane Kusnic, Jean Lincoln, Kathleen MacNally, Carol Oterson, Marjorie Schroeder, Betty Smith, Eleanor Spitzer and Elaine Watson.

Pickwick

Pickwick, Dwight Morrow social club, has announced the following probationary members: Rachel Armour, Barbara Fisch, Helen Sandy, Nadia Hermos, Irene Godfrey, Anne McLaughlin, Poppy Saigh, Mary Spellman, Helen Duncan, Judy Jacox, Barbara Freeland, and Rosamond Mueller.

These girls will be on probation until the second school term.

"What's in Your Pocket:" was discussed by Miss Evelyn Brehm, girls' advisor, at the A.L.A. tea, Octo. 25.

Mrs. Anita Dincin, club advisor, also spoke briefly.

Those present were Marjorie Sturndof, Phyllis Kopp, Dorothy Gates, Charlotte Baccione, Dolores Collagee, Lorraine Larson, Louise Oliver, Jessica Turnes, Doris Huggett, Eileen Culb, Carol Nutter, Laura Alice Benson Marjorie McCoy, Joyce Martin, Betty Lee Pugh and Gertrude Higgins.

Sixth Grades At Liberty Travel To NYC Museum

ENGLEWOOD — The sixth grade classes under Mrs. E. Perryman and Miss M. Schmid at Liberty school visited the Museum of Natural History in New York City recently in preparation for an assembly program on Mexico.

Special attention was given to the Mexican Hall, with the South American Mammal Hall also being surveyed carefully. Students were given an opportunity to try musical instruments made in Mexico, and saw Mexican games and dances.

The program was under the joint direction of the social studies and science units of the sixth grade classes.

First Evening Dance At Engle St. Jr. HS

ENGLEWOOD — The Basketball Club and Cheerleaders Club of the Engle Street Junior High school held the first evening dance of the school year last Friday at the school.

The dance, in honor of the school's approaching basketball season, followed meetings of the two clubs earlier in the evening.

Persia Is Topic Of Student Talk At Dwight Morrow

ENGLEWOOD — Language and literature of Persia was the subject of Peter Avakian's lecture to Miss Sally Winfrey's senior English class, Tuesday, Oct. 24.

"Persian is quite a flowery language," the senior began. "The Persian way of living is aptly conveyed in their poetry. Magazine ads for Kodak film, O-do-ro-no, and such show strong American influence."

Peter, who is a native of Persia, added that reeds are used in place of pencils. The Persian alphabet, adopted from the Arabs and containing 32 symbols, is written from right to left.

Turkish, Armenian and Persian are the prevailing languages in Persia, Avakian added.

Liberty Grade 4 Forms New Club

ENGLEWOOD — Liberty school's grade 4 under Miss Cheritree's direction recently formed a new club with Florence Perren as president.

Other officers are Sylvia Cerasani, vice president; James Birtwhistle, secretary, and James Vogel, treasurer.

Schools Show Annual Hallowe'en Regalia As Frost Hits Pumpkins

ENGLEWOOD—The frost is on the pumkin, and witches mixed with goblins as Englewood school children returned this year to the misty land of Hallowe'en.

With all schools and individual classes providing atmosphere-a-plenty, students heard ghost stories and paraded in costumes representing everything from pirates to fairy queens.

The older school element took its Hallowe'en with a grain of reality, but traditional Hallowe'en parties were held by school groups in in students' homes, with festivities ranging from apple-bobbing to masked dances.

An unusual Hallowe'en freize was displayed on the bulletin board at Liberty school, where papier mache masks in the Hallowe'en mood were exhibited by students of C. S. Rauscher's fifth grade class. The freize attracted considerable attention.

At the same school, the first grade students composed poems and decorated the classroom. Participating were Robert Brown, Ronald Joyce, Paul Bellingham, Sam Conti, Linda Harris, Betty Kuhnert, Patty Teller.

Also, Richard Hyman, Robert Gilleo, Emmett Hannibal, Lester Hemenway, Ruth Anne Harrington, Gloria Oprany, James Wilkerson.

Also, Sammy Jones, Stephen Levinsohn, Arthur Rosenstein, Frank Sisco, Rita Haynes, Karen Schecker, Barry Weinstock, Thomas Jackson, John Handy, Jeanne Burke, Carol Kornbrekke and Lynn Taylor.

Original Play Is Presented By 19 Roosevelt Kids

ENGLEWOOD — Nineteen sixth grade students at Roosevelt school presented an original play, "How Boots Befooled the King," at an assembly program last week. The students, members of Mrs. Sanford's class, wrote the play based on a story by Howard Pyle, "The Wonder Clock."

Also featured at the assembly program was John Dupret, who spent several months in France recently. The young bilinguist sang a song in French.

Taking part in the play were Michael Vernimb, Marion Burritt, Virginia Kiss, Stephen Hockhauser, Dorothy McCracken, James Singleton, Jack Cross, Arthur Jones, Jock Williams, Walter Haemmerle, Rudy Kummel, Richard Shearer, Pat Cotton, Grace Lomupo, Corliss Weygant, Eddie Knight, Keith Craft, Debby Goodman and Jacqueline LeClercq.

Cleveland, Engle St. Jr. H. S. Get Programs On U.N.

ENGLEWOOD — Students at Cleveland school and Engle Street Junior High school heard the purposes and aims of the United Nations revealed graphically in a selection of films and interpretations by speakers during United Nations week last week.

Mrs. L. A. Kreielsheimer and Mrs. Hugh Wolfe, both of Tenafly, appeared as speakers at the Cleveland and Engle Street schools respectively. Besides interpreting the UN in terms of it immediate relationship with the students, they showed films on the UN's work in Mexico and other countries.

Especially aimed at the student age group was film called "Clearing the Way," which depicted the building of UN headquarters in New York City on the site of a former playground.

Engle St. JHS Service Club At Jr. Red Cross

ENGLEWOOD — Five members of the Engle Street Junior High School Service Club received a first-hand view of Junior Red Cross activities last week when they visited the headquarters of that organization during a club period.

Club members on the trip were Margaret Urspruch, Chris Izatt, Madeline Unger, Gladys Joyce and Sandra Savold. Mrs. Dorothy B. Rhodes, club advisor, accompanied the group.

Mrs. Doughtry, Junior Red Cross chairman, and Mrs. Neely, secretary, led a discussion of the needs of Junior Red Cross and of its activities.

LIBERTY KINDERGARTEN HAS NEW EQUIPMENT

ENGLEWOOD — The kindergarten at Liberty school received a new rocking see-saw recently and its reception has been enthusiastic, reports received recently said. The see-saw has been named Tom and Jerry.

The curved stereotype plate so essential to modern speed printing appeared in 1861.

2 Engle St. JHS Boys Are Named To County Posts

ENGLEWOOD — Two Engle Street Junior High school pupils were named to executive capacities in the Bergen County Association of Junior High School Student Organizations at a meeting last week in Rutherford.

Dexter Dawes, grade 9, is the new treasurer of the county group, while Richard Content, grade 8, serves as its program chairman.

The meeting last week was a county assembly, at which problems of county administration were discussed. A meeting of the county program committee has been planned for Nov. 2 at the local junior high school, with Content in charge of plans. The committee will formulate plans for the junior high school group's program in the Nov. 17 meeting of the New Jersey Association of High School Councils, planned for New Brunswick.

Both boys are members of the Engle Street Junior High school Service Organization, advisor of which is Miss Eleanor Harvey. Eleven schools out of 16 in the county were represented at the Rutherford meeting, which also resulted in a plan for continuing inter-school visits by members of service groups. The program will start soon, with exchange of school newspapers as an important beginning step.

High Honor List At Dwight Morrow Shows 25 Pupils

ENGLEWOOD — Thirteen girls and 12 boys were on the high honor list for the first marking period at Dwight Morrow High School.

The girls were Leonore Allen, Mildred C. Bigelow, Edith W. Coleman, Barbara E. Flinker, Jane E. Fullerton, Joyce E. Hartman, Janice M. Hobart, Claire E. Hall, Margaret A. Kennedy, Carole Sue Kindwall ,Carol A. Krohn, Arlene A. Liss, Barbara L. Ludwig, Ruth-Ann Messina, Carolyn Otersen, Frances Pollack, Barbara M. Starkey, and Juliet F. Valois.

The boys included Peter Avakian, Robert Ewald, Leonard J. Hassler, Ramon B. Hoff, Ernest Hostettler, Peter B. Lenrow, Ronald McConnell, William R. Mullan, Kenneth Norlen, Arthur F. Stahl, Ulrich X. Stick and William R. Stratton.

DMHS Women's Faculty Club Plans UN Visit

ENGLEWOOD — Twelve members of the DMHS Women's Faculty Club will attend the United Nations Forum, Nov. 7.

Teachers to be present are Miss Joan Stone, Mrs. Anita Dincin ,Miss Jesse Boerger, Miss Anne Pokorny, Miss Marie Pordon, Miss Mabel Loeven, Mrs. Aaron MacCoon, Miss Sallie Shute, Miss Elizabeth Patteg, Mrs. Grace Mayr, and Mrs. Ione Eckersen.

ENGLE ST. JHS CAKE SALE FILLS OVERSEAS BOXES

ENGLEWOOD — A cake and fruit sale at the Engle Street Junior High School was held Monday, with the school's Service Organization in charge. Proceeds went for a fund to fill overseas boxes.

they're fighting for it

will YOU mark an "X" for it?

THESE MARKS ARE LEGAL

In each case a cross has been used, and the intersection of the lines of the cross is inside the circle or square.

THESE SPOIL YOUR BALLOT

Top 3 ballots are invalid because crosses were not used.
Bottom 3 ballots are void because the lines of the cross do not intersect within the square.

Note—If a voting machine is used in your polling place, remember, it is completely reliable and enables you to split your ticket in any manner desired.

"X" on an air man's map shows where to bomb.

"X" in algebra stands for the unknown quantity.

"X" on a certain piece of paper marks a spot where Freedom rings, for that's the "X" we mark on an Election Day ballot.

Let this burn in: So long as every one of us has the right to vote, to vote exactly the way he wants to vote and to have that vote count, so long shall we have Freedom. If we ever lose that right we might just as well knuckle under to the first dictatorship that comes along. (45 million qualified voters didn't show up at the polls at the last Presidential election.)

Voting costs nothing. Not voting can cost your liberty.

There are men—and women—fighting now—for Freedom.

News Notes Of Dwight School

LITERARY CLUB

The Scribblers Club, honorary literary Club of the Dwight School for Girls, held its first meeting Oct. 27 at the home of Miss Louise Smith, head of the Dwight English Department. Supper was served before the meeting.

The seven members of the Scribblers Club, all seniors, are: Joan Kestan of Saddle River, Elinor Lockwood, Englewood, co-Presidents; Barbara Cartwright, Englewood; Anne Gay Chaffee, Hackensack; Susan Ettinger, Palisades, N. Y.; Alice Keir, Englewood, Helene Yager, Englewood Cliffs.

At the meeting, each member was given a project for the year. Susan Ettinger was appointed to engage a writer to speak to the school on a literary subject, and Elinor Lockwood was asked to organize regular club meetings. At later meetings each member is to read a piece of her own writing for criticism by other club members.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, a graduate of Connecticut College and the head of the Dramatic Club there in 1950, spoke to the Scribblers of her work in summer theaters.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

Dwight School for Girls held its annual Sophomore Dance on the evening of Oct. 28 in the gymnasium. The theme of the dance was "The Roaring Twenties".

During intermission a Charleston contest was held, which was won by Carvel Glidden a sophomore and her escort, Donald Cruse of the Lawrenceville School. Carol Beaumont, a junior, and her escort, Daniel Cunningham from the Englewood Boys School, won the elimination dance contest. During this dance a list was read out of various qualifications which would eliminate certain dancers, such as: red hair, pearls, lace dresses, black velvet heels, etc.

Other prizes were won by Janet Cooper and her escort, Carter Corriston, of the Boys School.

Members of the dance committee were: Joan Aragona, Tenafly, Carvel Glidden, Englewood, Louise Rivers, West Englewood, Susan Connett, Englewood.

VISIT MUSEUMS

On Friday, Oct. 26, students in the General European History course at the Dwight School given by Mrs. T. H. Byrd were taken to the Metropolitan and Frick museums to see the development of art during the Renaissance. The girls had been studying Renaissance artists and making special reports on individual artists. They went to the Frick not only to see the paintings but the furniture of Renaissance Italy and 17th Century France.

FREEDOM BELL

At the beginning of a United Nations assembly program given in tableau form by the Dwight School Dramatics Club, a radio was turned on so that the students could hear the Freedom Bell rung in Berlin, followed by General Clay's speech. The occasion was United Nations Day, Oct. 24.

Following the broadcast from Berlin, students put on a series of tableaus representing the work done by various organizations of the United Nations. The narrative was written by Carol Beaumont and Carolyn Byrd of Englewood. Readers were Sue Ettinger of Palisades, N. Y., and Carol Beaumont. Mrs. T. H. Byrd Head of the History Department, and Miss LaSala of the Dramatics Dept., directed the program.

To illustrate the work done by the World Health Organibation, a narrative was read and a tableau was presented showing a nurse innoculating a sick Greek child. The director of this tableau was Janet Gershman of Dumont. Props were arranged by Hester Young of Sparkill, N. Y. Members of the cast were: Gay Chaffee of Hackensack, Ward Goldthwaite of Englewood, and Vera Nazarro of Montclair.

The International Refugee Organization was portrayed in a tableau showing three destitute people looking with hope towards a new free land. Helen Chase of Nyack directed this tableau, and the cast consisted of Jean Van Wyk and Charlotte Benner of Englewood, and Patience Jarvis of Fort Lee.

The Food and Agricultural Organization was represented by a golden cornucopia spilling its wealth out to starving people. Other U.N. Organizations portrayed were UNESCO, U.N. International Children's Emergency Fund, International Trade Organization, and the International Labor Organization.

At the conclusion of the program the Choir sang "Building Going Up."

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A moving service in memory of one of Dwight School's fathers, Dr. John S. Lockwood of Englewood, was held at a chapel service in the Dwight School for Girls on Friday, Oct. 27.

Michaela McLane, a senior, and Ellis Gellhorn, a junior, presented a gift to the school in honor of Dr. Lockwood from the Junior and Senior Classes in which are two of Dr. Lockwood's daughters.

The two classes had purchased the 22 volumes of the Dictionary of American Biography for the school library, and maps and a globe for the history department.

Miss Marjorie French, Headmistress, accepted the gift on behalf of the school.

SCHOOL VARIETY IN VERSE

Get Away

Little boy with the sombrero.
On the little burro,
Where are you going?
Where are you going?
Where are you going?
That's all I hear all day;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the sombrero,
On the litle burro,
Where are you going;
I am going to the market to buy eggs;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the sombrero,
On the little burro,
Where are you going?
I am going to the fair;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the somorero,
On the little burro,
Will you show me around?
Why,y es, I would be glad to—
At least someone has said something new.
So, when you go to Mexico, don't ask
The questions here;
Just say politely, if you please,
"Will you show me around here?"

Hallowe'en Moods

Ferocious cats
Eat the bats
And when the do
They shiver and scratch.

Children dress in funny hats
Oh, how you laugh at that.

Hallowe'en, Hallowe'en,
Witches ride on broomsticks green,
Gobblins are the horrible scene,
Make the people shiver and scream.

Boo, Boo, Boo,
Who are you?
I'm a witch
And I'll scare you.

Chest School Campaign Draws Focus Of Pupils

ENGLEWOOD — The lessons learned by Englewood school pupils who participated in a tour of social agencies covered in the Community Chest drive showed results this week as students heard reports of their fellow pupils on the tour.

At all schools, the Red Feather program, under the general chairmanship of Miss Eleanor Harvey, Engle Street Junior High school, is an educational program, with the student being introduced to the duties and responsibilities of good citizenship.

At Franklin school last Friday, a white elephant sale brought an enthusiastic response after the student body heard talks by their school representatives on the tour. The talks preceded the sale by some days, but their effect was evidently not lost.

Students brought items from home for the sale, displaying them on tables in the school corridors. Shopping period was from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., with teachers guiding the children in their commercial transactions.

At Roosevelt school, Miss Allen's "Lucky Seventeen" club presented a special Community Chest assembly program with a play, "The Little Red Feathers Learn," an original work by Miss Allen.

Sixth graders, the cast included John Hermos, Mary Margaret Auburn, Andy Aslanian, Michael Capozzi, Bobby Cooke, Paul Earle, Mary Fleming, Arthur Gaer, Carol Ann Green, Peter Green, Donald Myles, Patty O'Hara, Ruth Shahbazian, Allan Silverstein, Barbara Whaley and Lucille Yates.

Following the play, Pat O'Hara and Corliss Weygant, from Mrs. Saylor's sixth grade class, reported on their trip to Englewood Hospital and Memorial House.

Paul Earle played a march for the assembly, and Ruth Shahbazian accompanied the singing and dancing at the piano.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades at Lincoln school assembled last week to hear reports about the Community Chest. Celathia Lea and Joyce Townsend described the trip made the week before to different organizations benefitted by the Chest. A film roll, "Let's Be Well and Happy", was narrated by Mary Ann Williams. "The Earth's Rocky Crust," a motion picture, completed the assembly program.

Lincoln Junior High school opened its Chest campaign in assembly with Aaron White, ninth grade urging 100 percent participation on the part of students.

Jean Ballard and Evelyn Wyche reported on their city-wide tour with the Community Chest. An educational discussion followed.

Cleveland PTA Opening Meeting Attended By 300

ENGLEWOOD — A combined back-to-school and United Nations program attracted 300 persons to the opening meeting last week of the Cleveland School Parent-Teacher Association held in the combined gymnasium-auditorium at the school.

Following classroom visitsm a short business meeting was conducted by Robert Phillips, president of the group. He introduced Miss Elizabeth Dunn, librarian, who announced the purchase of 65 books for use by children through P.-T.A. funds allotted for that purpose.

Members appointed to serve on the Englewood P.-T.A. Council included Mr. Phillips, president; John Wiggin, vice president, and Miss Martha Emmet, school principal.

The United Nations was the subject of the second half of the evening program, which was highlighted by a series of motion, picture films and an address by Mrs. Lester Kreielscheimer, Tenafly, a volpnteer worker with the mobile UN unit which was organized last April.

The films showed UN functions in assisting needy countries by providing food, clothing, medical supplies, farm equipment and education.

Mrs. Joseph Hug, hospitality chairman, assisted by the second grade mothers, served refreshments during the social hour following the program. The next meeting will be held Nov. 30.

New Instrumental Roosevelt Music Group Is Formed

ENGLEWOOD — As the instrumental music class conducted in various schools in Englewood opened for the school year, names of pupils in that course at Roosevelt school were announced this week. The students are under the supervision of Mrs. Case.

Richard Shearer and Phillip Epsaro are saxophonists; Rudolph Kummel is studying trombone, and John Isakson, the bugle. Violinists include Constance Whaley, Barbara Whaley, Carol McGhee, Donald Myles, Louise O'Neill, Jules Lerner, Patricia O'Hara and Thomas O'Hara.

On the trumpet are Peter Green, Kenneth Collins, Jock Williams; drums, Arthur Gaer, William Higgins, Wade Kennedy, Timothy Griggs and Michael Capozzi. Clarinet players are Peter Neulsen, James Culbertson, Claude Koprowski and James Sajowsky.

Staff Is Named To 'Lincolnette' At Lincoln JHS

ENGLEWOOD — Jean Ballard has been named editor for the school year of the Lincolnette, official school newspaper of the Lincoln Junior High school.

In an announcement by Theodore S. Davis, school principal, the full staff of the newspaper included Aaron White, assistant editor; Janice Smith, proofreader, and Lillian Taylor, manager.

Reporters, including the remainder of the ninth grade student body, are Walter Bertaro, Junious Daniels, Harold Goodwin, Burrell Edwards, Joan Harley, Robert James, Clarence Martin, George Rogers, Robert White, Charlotte Douglas.

Also, Sally Gary, Barbara Harley, Barbara McFerguson, Carolyn McNair, Elizabeth Pegeese, Estelle Stubbs, Joan Stubbs and Evelyn Wyche.

2 Accidents Mar Safety Record On Englewood Streets

ENGLEWOOD — Two accidents marred Englewood's safety record, on Thursday, as a result of which three persons were hospitalized, and three cars heavily damaged.

Shortly after midnight, Wednesday, Mrs. Anna Bruntz of 84 Westervelt place, Cresskill, driving north on Engle street, near the south entrance to the Englewood Field Club, struck a bump on the road, lost control of her car, and crashed into a hospital sign and a tree about 75 feet north of the entrance.

Mrs. Bruntz and her passenger, Mrs. Fred Ahles of 367 Knickerbocker road, Tenafly, were taken to the nearby Englewood Hospital in the institution's ambulance, where they were admitted: Mrs. Bruntz for a fracture of the left knee; Mrs. Ahles fo a fractured right leg. The car heavily smashed, was towed to Duncan's Garage.

In the second accident of the day, Vincent A. Gulardo of 91 Rockhill road, Clifton, driving southerly on Grand avenue, Englewood, stopped for the red light at Grand and Forest avenues. He was struck on the rear by Miss Plotnick of 1390 Somerset Gate, West Englewood, also going north. Miss Plotnick claimed that she was blinded by the sun, and did not see Mr. Gulardo stop. Both cars were badly damaged. Mr. Gulardo was taken to the Englewood Hospital in the Englewood Police ambulance for treatment of his injuries.

Pep Rally At DMHS Features Parody

ENGLEWOOD — Dwight Morrow girls recently attended a combination pep rally and football singing assembly.

A parody on "Good Night" Irene," written by Ted Davis and Dave Wides, was sung by J. Kropazynaki, DMHS music director. The parody dealt with school life.

The assembly was under the care of the S. O. President, Ken Norian.

TEEN TALK

by BETTY SMITH

Hi! So glad to see ya We had lots of news from various sources . . . only we lost the little slip of paper. . . .so bear with us while we try to remember, huh? Oh, yes. . . .the blonde sailor. Have you ever heard that old Andrews sister's platter entitled "My Blonde Sailor"? Well, just ask Coopie what it's all about. Seems there's a nautical lad named Freddie who has Coop all in a dither. . . .and he's blonde, or did you gather that?

Saturday nite in Nyack reminded us of old home week. Alumni and all, the troops were out! The Venice and Scottie's were bursting at the seams with such prominent figures as, Mike'n'Reno (Nevada?), Dot'n'Murph, Bettie Cook n'Artie Rose, Bob Hall, Bob Kirschman, Joe Schotts, Janet Borg'n'Wako, Helen and Bill and Muriel McDermott and Dot Dilger with two fellows we didn't meet.

Party nite at the Plaza, (Friday eve to you), our owly-eyed spies saw Bill Buttino, Larry Sobol, Barry Druskin, Bob Bender, Jim Taylor and Paul Bentley. In the femme row were the old standbys. . . .an even dozen of the fifteen colleagues were there in the person of: Bette Smith, Janet Borg, Jean (Coopie) Cooper, Joan Barrett, Bettie Cook, Dot Del Vecchio, Muriel McDermott, Dot Dilger, Rose Allowatt, Mike Foley, Mary Doyle 'n' Ellen Claes. Here and there were scattered peoples like Fred Wendel, Elaine Watson and Harold Turner, Bert Holtje and Eddie Gunther, who were both on leave from the Navy, and Jack Deegan with Terry Asher.

Selma Margolies had quite a party last weekend or so Eileen Freid was telling us! Couldn't get a list of those attending in that such secretive peoples

Pat Flynn, Gerry Kubet, Joan Abbott, Ro Herowitz with Ernie Petersen, Joan Sherwood headed the Alumni list that we spotted at the game Saturday afternoon.

Fran Skinner's home on leave, too. Gee, this town's getting very military with all the lads joining up, voluntarily or otherwise. Saw Kenny DeWitt at the Wheel. . . . he's one of those nautical boys in the bell-bottoms! The gals are heard to say he looks quite great, snazzy to quite a few!

Sunday was eventful to say the least. . . .what with the crowd at the Saint's game 'n' all. Rose Allowa and George Hummel, Eddie Gunther, Lou Cavada, Murph, were only a few we saw. Sunday nite found George Rix 'n' Terry Wanta in the movies

Just want to tell ya that we're thrilled to death at being picked as the editor of the '51 year-book . . . .love all so muchly . . . .be good til next week, huh? P. S. We'll have lots to tell you all about this weekend 'cause we're goin' Connecticut crazy again! This time we're travelin' up to Wesleyan with Carole Kane 'n Pat Flynn for the weekend. See ya!

Dr. G. J. Steck Buys Tenafly Home, Office

TENAFLY—Dr. Gilbert J. Steck, D. D. S., has purchased a new home and office on the southeast corner of Jefferson avenue and River Edge road in Tenafly. Dr. Steck, a Columbia University alumnus, formerly lived at 76 Hazelton terrace, Tenafly, and has practiced for the past 17 years in Edgewater. He will continue the Edgewater office where patients will be treated by appointment.

W. P. Eierman of the Alexander Summer Co., Teaneck and Newark realtors handled the transaction.

Dwight Morrow HS Service Clubs Show Peak Activity At Mid-Term

ENGLEWOOD—Service clubs at Dwight Morrow High school showed mid-semester activity at a peak this week, with plans and events cropping up in the club foreground.

Included in the list were preparations for the annual Snowball, the presentation of a junior-senior tea, a discussion at A.L.A., and the acceptance of a dozen girls as probationary members of Pickwick.

Tri-Y

Tri-Y held its junior-senior tea Oct. 24 in the Oral English Room. Frances Lonzisero, president, welcomed the guests and introduced the officers.

Vice president is June Char; secretary, Carol Jaeschke; treasurer, Jennette Kamish; chaplain, Mary Longo; and historian, Julie LaFranz.

The girls were told the aims, plans, and purposes of the club by Anita Bellamy. Entertainment consisted of several descriptive songs composed by and sunb by club members.

Mrs. Howard Tillotson, club advisor, talked for a few minutes about her years connected with Tri Y.

The girls who attended were Barbara Larson, Clare Wilkens, Marsha Dunn, Rita O'Connell, Shirley Jon, Janet Grande, Marlene Kuhn and Arlene Dingman.

Diversity

DMHS's cafteria is to be changed into a dreamland according to Betty Smith, head of Snowball decorations.

The annoucement was made at Diversity Club's fourth meeting of the year. Other members on the committee are Camille Cacavalle, June Gelderman, and Josephine Gerbino. A vote was taken to hold the alumnae dinner at a Chinese restaurant. Girls in the club are selling football pencils as another activity.

Those present at the last meeting were Joan Adams, Paulette Bobcik, Jean Evanson, Barbara Buday, Camille Cacavalle, Claire Pauciano, June Gelderman, Josephine Gerbino, Carolyn Goldberg, Doris Hansen, Barbara Haughey, Jane Kusnic, Jean Lincoln, Kathleen MacNally, Carol Oterson, Marjorie Schroeder, Betty Smith, Eleanor Spitzer and Elaine Watson.

Pickwick

Pickwick, Dwight Morrow social club, has announced the following probationary members: Rachel Armour, Barbara Fisch, Helen Sandy, Nadia Hermos, Irene Godfrey, Anne McLaughlin, Poppy Saigh, Mary Spellman, Helen Duncan, Judy Jacox, Barbara Freeland, and Rosamond Mueller.

These girls will be on probation until the second school term.

"What's in Your Pocket;" was discussed by Miss Evelyn Brehm, girls' advisor, at the A.L.A. tea, Octo. 25.

Mrs. Anita Dincin, club advisor, also spoke briefly.

Those present were Marjorie Sturndof, Phyllis Kopp, Dorothy Gates, Charlotte Baccione, Dolores Collagee, Lorraine Larson, Louise Oliver, Jessica Turnes, Doris Huggett, Eileen Culb, Carol Nutter, Laura Alice Benson Marjorie McCoy, Joyce Martin, Betty Lee Pugh and Gertrude Higgins.

Sixth Grades At Liberty Travel To NYC Museum

ENGLEWOOD — The sixth grade classes under Mrs. E. Perryman and Miss M. Schmid at Liberty school visited the Museum of Natural History in New York City recently in preparation for an assembly program on Mexico.

Special attention was given to the Mexican Hall, with the South American Mammal Hall also being surveyed carefully. Students were given an opportunity to try musical instruments made in Mexico, and saw Mexican games and dances.

The program was under the joint direction of the social studies and science units of the sixth grade classes.

First Evening Dance At Engle St. Jr. HS

ENGLEWOOD — The Basketball Club and Cheerleaders Club of the Engle Street Junior High school held the first evening dance of the school year last Friday at the school.

The dance, in honor of the school's approaching basketball season, followed meetings of the two clubs earlier in the evening.

continued from 8:30 to 11 p.m.

Give to the Community Chest. Instead of making one contribution, give more by pledging it in four easy payments, billed quarterly.

Persia Is Topic Of Student Talk At Dwight Morrow

ENGLEWOOD — Language and literature of Persia was the subject of Peter Avakian's lecture to Miss Sally Winfrey's senior English class, Tuesday, Oct. 24.

"Persian is quite a flowery language," the senior began. "The Persian way of living is aptly conveyed in their poetry. Magazine ads for Kodak film, O-do-ro-no, and such show strong American influence."

Peter, who is a native of Persia, added that reeds are used in place of pencils. The Persian alphabet, adopted from the Arabs and containing 32 symbols, is written from right to left.

Turkish, Armenian and Persian are the prevailing languages in Persia, Avakian added.

Liberty Grade 4 Forms New Club

ENGLEWOOD — Liberty school's grade 4 under Miss Cheritree's direction recently formed a new club with Florence Perren as president.

Other officers are Sylvia Cerasani, vice president; James Birtwhistle, secretary, and James Vogel, treasurer.

Schools Show Annual Hallowe'en Regalia As Frost Hits Pumpkins

ENGLEWOOD—The frost is on the pumkin, and witches mixed with goblins as Englewood school children returned this year to the misty land of Hallowe'en.

With all schools and individual classes providing atmosphere-a-plenty, students heard ghost stories and paraded in costumes representing everything from pirates to fairy queens.

The older school element took its Hallowe'en with a grain of reality, but traditional Hallowe'en parties were held by school groups in in students' homes, with festivities ranging from apple-bobbing to masked dances.

An unusual Hallowe'en freize was displayed on the bulletin board at Liberty school, where papier mache masks in the Hallowe'en mood were exhibited by students of C. S. Rauscher's fifth grade class. The freize attracted considerable attention.

At the same school, the first grade students composed poems and decorated the classroom. Participating were Robert Brown, Ronald Joyce, Paul Bellingham, Sam Conti, Linda Harris, Betty Kuhnert, Patty Teller.

Also, Richard Hyman, Robert Gilleo, Emmett Hannibal, Lester Hemenway, Ruth Anne Harrington, Gloria Oprany, James Wilkerson.

Also, Sammy Jones, Stephen Levinsohn, Arthur Rosenstein, Frank Sisco, Rita Haynes, Karen Schecker, Barry Weinstock, Thomas Jackson, John Handy, Jeanne Burke, Carol Kornbrekke and Lynn Taylor.

Original Play Is Presented By 19 Roosevelt Kids

ENGLEWOOD — Nineteen sixth grade students at Roosevelt school presented an original play, "How Boots Befooled the King," at an assembly program last week. The students, members of Mrs. Sanford's class, wrote the play based on a story by Howard Pyle, "The Wonder Clock."

Also featured at the assembly program was John Dupret, who spent several months in France recently. The young bilinguist sang a song in French.

Taking part in the play were Michael Vernimb, Marion Burritt, Virginia Kiss, Stephen Hockhauser, Dorothy McCracken, James Singleton, Jack Cross, Arthur Jones, Jock Williams, Walter Haemmerle, Rudy Kummel, Richard Shearer, Pat Cotton, Grace Lomupo, Corliss Weygant, Eddie Knight, Keith Craft, Debby Goodman and Jacquelin- LeClercq.

Cleveland, Engle St. Jr. H. S. Get Programs On U.N.

ENGLEWOOD — Students at Cleveland school and Engle Street Junior High school heard the purposes and aims of the United Nations revealed graphically in a selection of films and interpretations by speakers during United Nations week last week.

Mrs. L. A. Krolelsheimer and Mrs. Hugh Wolfe, both of Tenafly, appeared as speakers at the Cleveland and Engle Street schools respectively. Besides interpreting the UN in terms of it immediate relationship with the students, they showed films on the UN's work in Mexico and other countries.

Especially aimed at the student age group was film called "Clearing the Way," which depicted the building of UN headquarters in New York City on the site of a former playground.

Engle St. JHS Service Club At Jr. Red Cross

ENGLEWOOD — Five members of the Engle Street Junior High School Service Club received a first-hand view of Junior Red Cross activities last week when they visited the headquarters of that organization during a club period.

Club members on the trip were Margaret Urspruch, Chris Izatt, Madeline Unger, Gladys Joyce and Sandra Savold. Mrs. Dorothy B. Rhodes, club advisor, accompanied the group.

Mrs. Doughtry, Junior Red Cross chairman, and Mrs. Neely, secretary, led a discussion of the needs of Junior Red Cross and of its activities.

LIBERTY KINDERGARTEN HAS NEW EQUIPMENT

ENGLEWOOD — The kindergarten at Liberty school received a new rocking see-saw recently and its reception has been enthusiastic, reports received recently said. The see-saw has been named Tom and Jerry.

The curved stereotype plate so essential to modern speed printing appeared in 1861.

2 Engle St. JHS Boys Are Named To County Posts

ENGLEWOOD — Two Engle Street Junior High school pupils were named to executive capacities in the Bergen County Association of Junior High School Student Organizations at a meeting last week in Rutherford.

Dexter Dawes, grade 9, is the new treasurer of the county group, while Richard Content, grade 8, serves as its program chairman.

The meeting last week was a county assembly, at which problems of county administration were discussed. A meeting of the county program committee has been planned for Nov. 2 at the local junior high school, with Content in charge o plans. The committee will formulate plans for the junior high school group's program in the Nov. 17 meeting of the New Jersey Association of High School Councils, planned for New Brunswick.

Both boys are members of the Engle Street Junior High school Service Organization, advisor of which is Miss Eleanor Harvey. Eleven schools out of 16 in the county were represented at the Rutherford meeting, which also resulted in a plan for continuing inter-school visits by members of service groups. The program will start soon, with exchange of school newspapers as an important beginning step.

High Honor List At Dwight Morrow Shows 25 Pupils

ENGLEWOOD — Thirteen girls and 12 boys were on the high honor list for the first marking period at Dwight Morrow High School.

The girls were Leonore Allen, Mildred C. Bigelow, Edith W. Coleman, Barbara E. Flinker, Jane E. Fullerton, Joyce E. Hartman, Janice M. Hobart, Claire E. Hall, Margaret A. Kennedy, Carole Sue Kindwall ,Carol A. Krohn, Arlene A. Liss, Barbara L. Ludwig, Ruth-Ann Messina, Carolyn Otersen, Frances Pollack, Barbara M. Starkey, and Juliet F. Valois.

The boys included Peter Avakian, Robert Ewald, Leonard J. Hassler, Ramon B. Hoff, Ernest Hostettler, Peter B. Lenrow, Ronald McConnell, William R. Mullan, Kenneth Norian, Arthur F. Stahl, Ulrich K. Stick and William R. Stratton.

ENGLE ST. JHS CAKE SALE FILLS OVERSEAS BOXES

ENGLEWOOD — A cake and fruit sale at the Engle Street Junior High School was held Monday, with the school's Service Organization in charge. Proceeds went for a fund to fill overseas boxes.

they're fighting for it

will YOU mark an "X" for it?

THESE MARKS ARE LEGAL

In each case a cross has been used, and the intersection of the lines of the cross is inside the circle or square.

THESE SPOIL YOUR BALLOT

Top 3 ballots are invalid because crosses were not used.

Bottom 3 ballots are void because the lines of the cross do not intersect within the square.

Note—If a voting machine is used in your polling place, remember, it is completely reliable and enables you to split your ticket in any manner desired.

"X" on an air man's map shows where to bomb.

"X" in algebra stands for the unknown quantity.

"X" on a certain piece of paper marks a spot where Freedom rings, for that's the "X" we mark on an Election Day ballot.

Let this burn in: So long as every one of us has the right to vote, to vote exactly the way he wants to vote and to have that vote count, so long shall we have Freedom. If we ever lose that right we might just as well knuckle under to the first dictatorship that comes along. (45 million qualified voters didn't show up at the polls at the last Presidential election.)

Voting costs nothing. Not voting can cost your liberty.

There are men—and women—fighting now—for Freedom.

Can we do less than keep the Big Muscle of Freedom strong by exercising it at the polls Election Day?

News Notes Of Dwight School

LITERARY CLUB

The Scribblers Club, honorary literary Club of the Dwight School for Girls, held its first meeting Oct. 27 at the home of Miss Louise Smith, head of the Dwight English Department. Supper was served before the meeting.

The seven members of the Scribblers Club, all seniors, are: Joan Kestan of Saddle River, Elinor Lockwood, Englewood, co-Presidents; Barbara Cartwright, Englewood; Anne Gay Chaffee, Hackensack; Susan Ettinger, Palisades, N. Y.; Alice Keir, Englewood, Helene Yager, Englewood Cliffs.

At the meeting, each member was given a project for the year. Susan Ettinger was appointed to engage a writer to speak to the school on a literary subject, and Elinor Lockwood was asked to organize regular club meetings. At later meetings each member is to read a piece of her own writing for criticism by other club members.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, a graduate of Connecticut College and the head of the Dramatic Club there in 1950, spoke to the Scribblers of her work in summer theaters.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

Dwight School for Girls held its annual Sophomore Dance on the evening of Oct. 28 in the gymnasium. The theme of the dance was "The Roaring Twenties".

During intermission a Charleston contest was held, which was won by Carvel Glidden a sophomore and her escort, Donald Cruse of the Lawrenceville School. Carol Beaumont, a junior, and her escort, Daniel Cunningham from the Englewood Boys School, won the elimination dance contest. During this dance a list was read out of various qualifications which would eliminate certain dancers, such as: red hair, pearls, lace dresses, black velvet heels, etc.

Other prizes were won by Janet Cooper and her escort, Carter Corriston, of the Boys School.

Members of the dance committee were: Joan Aragona, Tenafly, Carvel Glidden, Englewood, Louise Rivers, West Englewood, Susan Connett, Englewood.

VISIT MUSEUMS

On Friday, Oct. 26, students in the General European History course at the Dwight School given bby Mrs. T. H. Byrd were taken to the Metropolitan and Frick museums to see the development of art during the Renaissance. The girls had been studying Renaissance artists and making special reports on individual artists. They went to the Frick not only to see the paintings but the furniture of Renaissance Italy and 17th Century France.

FREEDOM BELL

At the beginning of a United Nations assembly program given in tableau form by the Dwight School Dramatics Club, a radio was turned on so that the students could hear the Freedom Bell rung in Berlin, followed by General Clay's speech. The occasion was United Nations Day, Oct. 24.

Following the broadcast from Berlin, students put on a series of tableaus representing the work done by various organizations of the United Nations. The narrative was written by Carol Beaumont and Carolyn Byrd of Englewood. Readers were Sue Ettinger of Palisades, N. Y., and Carol Beaumont. Mrs. T. H. Byrd Head of the History Department, and Miss LaSala of the Dramatics Dept., directed the program.

To illustrate the work done by the World Health Organibation, a narrative was read and a tableau was presented showing a nurse innoculating a sick Greek child. The director of this tableau was Janet Gershman of Dumont. Props were arranged by Hester Young of Sparkill, N. Y. Members of the cast were: Gay Chaffee of Hackensack, Ward Goldthwaite of Englewood, and Vera Nazarro of Montclair.

The International Refugee Organization was portrayed in a tableau showing three destitute people looking with hope towards a new free land. Helen Chase of Nyack directed this tableau, and the cast consisted of Jean Van Wyk and Charlotte Benner of Englewood, and Patience Jarvis of Fort Lee.

The Food and Agricultural Organization was represented by a golden cornucopia spilling its wealth out to starving people. Other U.N. Organizations portrayed were UNESCO, U.N. International Children's Emergency Fund, International Trade Organization, and the International Labor Organization.

At the conclusion of the program the Choir sang "Building Going Up."

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A moving service in memory of one of Dwight School's fathers, Dr. John S. Lockwood of Englewood, was held at a chapel service in the Dwight School for Girls on Friday, Oct. 27.

Michaela McLane, a senior, and Ellis Gellhorn, a junior, presented a gift to the school in honor of Dr. Lockwood from the Junior and Senior Classes in which are two of Dr. Lockwood's daughters.

The two classes had purchased the 22 volumes of the Dictionary of American Biography for the school library, and maps and a globe for the history department.

Miss Marjorie French, Headmistress, accepted the gift on behalf of the school.

Chest School Campaign Draws Focus Of Pupils

ENGLEWOOD — The lessons learned by Englewood school pupils who participated in a tour of social agencies covered in the Community Chest drive showed results this week as students heard reports of their fellow pupils on the tour.

At all schools, the Red Feather program, under the general chairmanship of Miss Eleanor Harvey, Engle Street Junior High school, is an educational program, with the student being introduced to the duties and responsibilities of good citizenship.

At Franklin school last Friday, a white elephant sale brought an enthusiastic response after the student body heard talks by their school representatives on the tour. The talks preceded the sale by some days, but their effect was evidently not lost.

Students brought items from home for the sale, displaying them on tables in the school corridors. Shopping period was from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., with teachers guiding the children in their commercial transactions.

At Roosevelt school, Miss Allen's "Lucky Seventeen" club presented a special Community Chest assembly program with a play, "The Little Red Feathers Learn," an original work by Miss Allen.

Sixth graders, the cast included John Hermos, Mary Margaret Auburn, Andy Aslanian, Michael Capozzi, Bobby Cooke, Paul Earle, Mary Fleming, Arthur Gaer, Carol Ann Green, Peter Green, Donald Myles, Patty O'Hara, Ruth Shahbazian, Allan Silverstein, Barbara Whaley and Lucille Yates.

Following the play, Pat O'Hara and Corliss Weygant, from Mrs. Saylor's sixth grade class, reported on their trip to Englewood Hospital and Memorial House.

Paul Earle played a march for the assembly, and Ruth Shahbazian accompanied the singing and dancing at the piano.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades at Lincoln school assembled last week to hear reports about the Community Chest. Celathia Lea and Joyce Townsend described the trip made the week before to different organizations benefitted by the Chest. A film roll, "Let's Be Well and Happy", was narrated by Mary Ann Williams. "The Earth's Rocky Crust," a motion picture, completed the assembly program.

Lincoln Junior High school opened its Chest campaign in assembly with Aaron White, ninth grade urging 100 percent participation on the part of students.

Jean Ballard and Evelyn Wyche reported on their city-wide tour with the Community Chest. An educational discussion followed.

Cleveland PTA Opening Meeting Attended By 300

ENGLEWOOD — A combined back-to-school and United Nations program attracted 300 persons to the opening meeting last week of the Cleveland School Parent-Teacher Association held in the combined gymnasium-auditorium at the school.

Following classroom visitam a short business meeting was conducted by Robert Phillips, president of the group. He introduced Miss Elizabeth Dunn, librarian, who announced the purchase of 65 books for use by children through P.-T.A. funds allotted for that purpose.

Members appointed to serve on the Englewood P.-T.A. Council included Mr. Phillips, president; John Wiggin, vice president, and Miss Martha Emmet, school principal.

The United Nations was the subject of the second half of the evening program, which was highlighted by a series of motion, picture films and an address by Mrs. Lester Kreielscheimer, Tenafly, a volpnteer worker with the mobile UN unit which was organized last April.

The films showed UN functions in assisting needy countries by providing food, clothing, medical supplies, farm equipment and education.

Mrs. Joseph Hug, hospitality chairman, assisted by the second grade mothers, served refreshments during the social hour following the program. The next meeting will be held Nov. 30.

New Instrumental Roosevelt Music Group Is Formed

ENGLEWOOD — As the instrumental music class conducted in various schools in Englewood opened for the school year, names of pupils in that course at Roosevelt school were announced this week. The students are under the supervision of Mrs. Case.

Richard Shearer and Phillip Epsaro are saxophonists; Rudolph Kummel is studying trombone, and John Isakson, the bugle. Violinists include Constance Whaley, Barbara Whaley, Carol McGhee, Donald Myles, Louise O'Neill, Jules Lerner, Patricia O'Hara and Thomas O'Hara.

On the trumpet are Peter Green, Kenneth Collins, Jock Williams; drums, Arthur Gaer, William Higgins, Wade Kennedy, Timothy Griggs and Michael Capozzi. Clarinet players are Peter Neulsen, James Culbertson, Claude Koprowski and James Sajowsky.

Staff Is Named To 'Lincolnette' At Lincoln JHS

ENGLEWOOD — Jean Ballard has been named editor for the school year of the Lincolnette, official school newspaper of the Lincoln Junior High school.

In an announcement by Theodore S. Davis, school principal, the full staff of the newspaper included Aaron White, assistant editor; Janice Smith, proofreader, and Lillian Taylor, manager.

Also, Sally Gary, Barbara Harley, Barbara McFerguson, Carolyn McNair, Elizabeth Pegeese, Estelle Stubbs, Joan Stubbs and Evelyn Wyche.

Presbyterian Women Hear Of Iran Mission

TENAFLY—The regular meeting of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church of Tenafly will be held on Thursday, Nov. 9, at 1 p.m. in the church house.

The pantry shelf fill be under the care of the Senior Circle. There will be aprons and articles for Christmas, as well as the usual foods for sale. Luncheon will be served by the Loyalty Circle with Mrs. L. B. Wilson and Mrs. W. M. Stuart, as co-chairmen.

The Rev. Dr. J Christy Wilson, will be the speaker Dr. Wilson spent 20 years in Iran helping to lay the founation for the establishment of the Christian Church in this Moslem country. He is now on the faculty at Princeton Theological Seminary, where he teaches missionaries-an is director of 200-300 students doing field work.

2 Accidents Mar Safety Record On Englewood Streets

ENGLEWOOD — Two accidents marred Englewood's safety record, on Thursday, as a result of which three persons were hospitalized, and three cars heavily damaged.

Shortly after midnight, Wednesday, Mrs. Anna Bruntz of 84 Westervelt place, Cresskill, driving north on Engle street, near the south entrance to the Englewood Field Club, struck a bump on the road, lost control of her car, and crashed into a hospital sign and a tree about 75 feet north of the entrance.

Mrs. Bruntz and her passenger, Mrs. Fred Ahles of 367 Knickerbocker road, Tenafly, were taken to the nearby Englewood Hospital in the institution's ambulance, where they were admitted: Mrs. Bruntz for a fracture of the left knee; Mrs. Ahles fo a fractured right leg. The car ,heavily smashed, was towed to Duncan's Garage.

In the second accident of the day, Vincent A. Gulardo of 91 Rockhill road, Clifton, driving southerly on Grand avenue, Englewood, stopped for the red light at Grand and Forest avenues. He was struck on the rear by Miss Plotnick of 1390 Sonneset Gate, West Englewood, also going north. Miss Plotnick claimed that she was blinded by the sun, and did not see Mr. Gulardo stop. Both cars were badly damaged. Mr. Gulardo was taken to the Englewood Hospital in the Englewood Police ambulance for treatment of his injuries.

Pep Rally At DMHS Features Parody

ENGLEWOOD — Dwight Morrow girls recently attended a combination pep rally and football singing assembly.

A parody on "Good Night" Irene," written by Ted Davis and Dave Wides, was sung by J. Kropazynaki, DMHS music director. The parody dealt with school life.

The assembly was under the care of the S. O. President, Ken Norian.

TEEN TALK

by BETTY SMITH

Hi! So glad to see ya. We had lots of news from various sources . . . only we lost the little slip of paper. . . so bear with us while we try to remember, huh? Oh, yes. . . the blonde sailor. Have you ever heard that old Andrews sister's platter entitled "My Blonde Sailor"? Well, just ask Coopie what it's all about. Seems there's a nautical lad named Freddie who has Coop all in a dither. . . and he's blonde, or did you gather that?

Saturday nite in Nyack reminded us of old home week. Alumni and all, the troops were out! The Venice and Scottie's were bursting at the seams with such prominent figures as, Mike'n'Reno (Nevada?), Dot'n'Murph, Bettie Cook n'Artie Rose, Bob Hall, Bob Kirschman, Joe Schotts, Janet Borg'n'Wako, Helen and Bill and Muriel McDermott and Dot Dilger with two fellows we didn't meet.

Party nite at the Plaza, (Friday eve to you), our owly-eyed spies saw Bill Buttino, Larry Sobol, Barry Druskin, Bob Bender, Jim Taylor and Paul Bentley. In the femme row were the old standbys . . . an even dozen of the fifteen colleagues were there in the person of: Bette Smith, Janet Borg, Jean (Coopie) Cooper, Joan Barrett, Bettie Cook, Dot Del Vecchio, Muriel McDermott, Dot Dilger, Rose Allowatt, Mike Foley, Mary Doyle 'n' Ellen Clack. Here and there were scattered peoples like Fred Wendel, Elaine Watson and Harold Turner, Bert Holtje and Eddie Gunther, who were both on leave from the Navy, and Jack Deegan with Terry Asher.

Selma Margolies had quite a party last weekend or so Eileen Freid was telling us! Couldn't get a list of those attending tho! . . . such secretive peoples.

Pat Flynn, Gerry Kubat, Joan Abbott, Ro Herowitz with Ernie Petersen, Jorn Sherwood headed the Alumni list that we spotted at the game Saturday afternoon.

Fran Skinner's home on leave, too. Gee, this town's getting very military with all the lads joining up, voluntarily or otherwise. Saw Kenny DeWitt at the Wheel. . . . he's one of those nautical boys in the bell-bottoms! The gals are heard to say he looks quite great, snazzy to quite a few!

Sunday was eventful to say the least. . . .what with the crowd at the Saint's game 'n' all. Rose Allowa and George Hummel, Eddie Gunther, Lou Cavada, Murph, were only a few we saw. Sunday nite found George Stix 'n' Terry Wanta in the movies.

Just want to tel' ya that we're thrilled to death at being picked as the editor of the '51 year-book . . . love all so muchly . . . be good til next week, huh? P. S. We'll have lots to tell you all about this weekend 'cause we're goin' Connecticut crazy again! This time we're travelin' up 'o Wesleyan with Carole Kane 'n Pat Flynn for the weekend. See ya!

Dr. G. J. Steck Buys Tenafly Home, Office

TENAFLY—Dr. Gilbert J. Steck, D. D. S., has purchased a new home and office on the southeast corner of Jefferson avenue and River Edge road in Tenafly. Dr. Steck, a Columbia University alumnus, formerly lived at 76 Hazelton terrace, Tenafly, and has practiced for the past 17 years in Edgewater. He will continue the Edgewater office where patients will be treated by appointment.

W. P. Eiegman of the Alexander Summer Co., Teaneck and Newark realtors handled the transaction.

Get Away

Little boy with the sombrero,
On the little burro,
Where are you going?
Where are you going?
Where are you going?
That's all I hear all day;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the sombrero,
On the litle burro,
Where are you going;
I am going to the market to buy eggs;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the sombrero,
On the little burro,
Where are you going?
I am going to the fair;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the somprero,
On the little burro,
Will you show me around?
Why,y es, I would be glad to—
At least someone has said something new.
So, when you go to Mexico, don't ask
The questions here;
Just say politely, if you please,
"Will you show me around here?"

Hallowe'en Moods

Ferocious cats
Eat the bats
And when the do
They shiver and scratch.

Children dress in funny hats
Oh, how you laugh at that.

Hallowe'en, Hallowe'en,
Witches ride on broomsticks green,
Gobblins are the horrible scene,
Make the people shiver and scream.

Boo, Boo, Boo,
Who are you?
I'm a witch
And I'll scare you.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By MERVIN D. HYMAN

IS TOM MORGAN GOING TO RESIGN?

There's been a lot of small talk making the rounds recently concerning Tom Morgan and the Englewood football coaching job. As a matter of fact, a Hudson County daily last week took the bull by the horns and announced that it had learned from an "unimpeachable source" that Tom was going to resign at the conclusion of the current campaign. That may be news to Hudson County fans but it is hardly news to readers of this column who were informed on Aug. 24, 1950, "Rumors of a coaching change at Englewood have been floating around the city for some time but Tom Morgan will be at the helm this year. George Baldwin is his natural successor with Johnny Winkin moving into the baseball post. It may happen in 1951."

Following the original announcement last Thursday, Morgan denied the report for a Bergen County daily, stating, "If I ever plan to resign my post as head football coach I will certainly make a formal announcement. Rumors have had me quitting this job for the past two seasons."

Tom's statement does not deny that he will call it quits but merely emphasizes the fact that he has made no "formal announcement." Perhaps that "formal announcement" will be forthcoming at a later date since it is fairly certain that Morgan has been anxious to give up at least one of his coaching jobs to devote more time to his successful activities in the real estate field. Tom has been associated with Charlie Knapp, former Teaneck High grid mentor, for more than a year and he is perfectly justified in giving up football, or basketball, coaching in order to earn a living for his family.

The fact that Englewood is in the midst of one of its poorest campaigns is not the reason for Morgan's desire to want out. The Maroon Raiders may yet repeat their November performance of last year when they won four straight games after an equally dismal start. As a matter of record, Englewood fans are not such rabid rooters that they would ever bother to demand Morgan's scalp when his team is losing. They don't show that much interest in athletics.

This writer has no desire to stir up a controversy concerning Tom Morgan and Englewood football. Tom has given the Maroon Raiders several outstanding elevens and he rates high as a coach. Sure, he has his faults but a guy by the name of Frank Leahy isn't doing too well this year, either.

But the prediction made in this column Aug. 24 still stands. And remember, that was made before Englewood lost four of its first five games.

PICKING THE WINNERS

Last week's high school football card was replete with upsets and this prognosticator got caught with his predictions down along with all the other so-called experts. However, I did pick Wood-Ridge to upset Dumont and that's partial balm for the wrong calls in the St. Cecilia-Brooklyn Prep, Fort Lee-Closter, Lodi-Pope Pius, Hasbrouck Heights-Westwood and Bloomfield-Garfield games.

The 13 right, six wrong and one tie last weekend brought the season's record to 70 wins, 17 defeats and five deadlocks for a mark of .805.

Here are this week's winners:

FRIDAY

ENGLEWOOD SCHOOL AT MONTCLAIR ACADEMY. Another loss for the poor Hilltoppers. Montclair Academy is too strong for Coach Luke Ward's little fellows. Montclair 19, Englewood School 6.

SATURDAY

ENGLEWOOD AT RIDGEFIELD PARK. Ridgefield Park has come mighty close to defeat two weeks in a row and is ripe to be taken. But Englewood hasn't the big guns to bring down the Scarlets. A little more protection for Bobby Williams when he throws those accurate passes might help but this just isn't Englewood's year. The nod goes to Ridgefield Park, 13-6.

TEANECK AT TENAFLY. Tenafly gets a chance to win one this week. Teaneck has lost five in a row and may go winless. The Tigers were battered by Leonia but Walt Vallari ought to get an opportunity to run against the Highwaymen. Tenafly 18, Teaneck 0.

HACKENSACK AT CLIFFSIDE PARK. Cliffside Park spoiled things for Ridgefield Park and will be gunning for Tommy Della Torre's undefeated Comets. Hackensack is not a world beater but is well-coached and has a strong line plus two good backs in Charlie Storrs and Bob Carroll. Give it to Hackensack, 20-7.

RUTHERFORD AT LEONIA. Rutherford has been coming along by leaps and bounds in recent weeks and can come through with an upset if it can curb the passing of Leonia's George Tansey. Just on a hunch, Rutherford 13, Leonia 7.

FORT LEE AT WOOD-RIDGE. Wood-Ridge is hot after beating Dumont and will take weak Fort Lee in stride. Wood-Ridge 20, Fort Lee 0.

DUMONT AT PARK RIDGE. Look for Dumont to bounce back after getting knocked out of the unbeaten division. Dumont 13, Park Ridge 6.

BERGENFIELD AT HASBROUCK HEIGHTS. The Mighty Mites haven't even been slowed down let alone stopped. If the rumored reports of dissension in the ranks are true, Bergenfield certainly thrives on it. Make it Bergenfield 26, Hasbrouck Heights 12.

WESTWOOD AT CLOSTER. Both teams won their first games last week and this one is a toss up. I'll take Westwood, 18-12.

PATERSON EASTSIDE AT EAST RUTHERFORD. The East Rutherfords are tough this year and will win, 13-0.

RIDGEWOOD AT LODI. Ridgewood will protect its unbeaten record with a 26-0 victory over the Lodi Rams.

LYNDHURST AT GARFIELD. Who would have thought we would see the day that Group 2 Lyndhurst would be favored to trample Group 4 Garfield? That's the situation this week as the high-scoring Lyndhurst team goes after its sixteenth straight win. They'll get it, too, by a 20-6 score.

BOGOTA AT NORTH ARLINGTON. A battle between two winless teams. North Arlington gets the edge, 13-6.

SUNDAY

SETON HALL AT ST. CECILIA. The Englewood Saints finally hit the victory column last week but Seton Hall will present sterner opposition. It looks like a Seton Hall victory in a 12-7 game.

ST MARY'S AT QUEEN OF PEACE. A romp for once-beaten Queen of Peace. The score: Queen of Peace 19, St. Mary's 0.

Saints Play Seton Hall Sunday At Stadium

Raiders Face Park; Boys' School Plays Friday Afternoon

ENGLEWOOD — There's another busy weekend in store for local high school football teams but again the outlook is dreary so far as victories are concerned. The Englewood School for Boys gets the ball rolling tomorrow afternoon when it travels to Montclair Academy while Englewood hits the road Saturday for a Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League tussle with strong Ridgefield Park. St. Cecilia winds up the weekend festivities Sunday at White Stadium, taking on Seton Hall in the final North Jersey Catholic Conference game.

All three schools will again be the underdogs, a condition which has prevailed during most of the season, and it will take upsets of major proportions to bring about a victory for Englewood, St. Cecilia or the Boys' School.

RIDGEFIELD PARK SEEKS TO KEEP RECORD CLEAN

Battered by Leonia and Hackensack in successive weeks, Englewood's Maroon Raiders tackle another N.N.J.I.L. leader Saturday when they make the short haul to Ridgefield Park. The Scarlet is still unbeaten although two unexpected 13-13 tie games with Cliffside Park and Rutherford have just about ruined whatever chance the Park had for winning the league crown.

In the basis of comparative scores, Englewood would normally rate a slight chance in this one. The Maroon Raiders belted Cliffside Park, 26-0, while the Firemen, in turn, held the Park to a 13-13 deadlock. However, to offset this, Ridgefield Park nosed out Leonia, 7-6, while the Lions trimmed Englewood, 31-6. To add to the Maroon's underdog rating, Coach Tom Morgan's Raiders looked sad while bowing to Hackensack, 40-6, last week.

This Englewood team has become a mystery to Morgan and his aides, George Baldwin and Johnny Winkin. In Bobby Williams, the Raiders have one of the county's outstanding backs. The forward wall is big enough to cause damage but it hasn't yet displayed the aggressiveness necessary for a winning performance.

BECKER, DOLAN AT ENDS

Morgan has attempted to strengthen the ends in recent weeks, making numerous shifts after Tom Best, one of the few returning veterans of the '49 club, left the squad. The latest has Fleet Dolan, formerly a tackle, and Art Becker, a defensive fullback, holding forth at the wings with Henry Peguese, David and Gaglione acting as relief men. However, not even this maneuver has kept enemy backs from pouring through the sieve-like Maroon line.

Leonia went for 400 yards, Hackensack for better than 500 last Saturday.

The porousness of the Raider line has caused Williams to be throttled time and again. He receives very little protection when he gets back to pass, practically ruining the potential of the Englewood aerial attack. Another contributing factor is Englewood's lack of a crashing fullback who can pick up yardage on inside plays while setting up the opposition for outside thrusts by Williams and Henry Robinson. John Pratico is not a threat and he is seldom used as a ball carrier.

Against the Park, Englewood will have to show vast improvement. The Scarlet has several good running backs in Ritchie Rholfs, Bill Connolly and Haines and a better-than-average quarterback in Hal Schoenfelder, brother of John and Freddy, onetime St. Cecilia stars. Schoeny is an excellent passer and he runs the team well.

There is a chance that the Scarlet is running out of gas after its fast start but Englewood doesn't seem to have the potential necessary for a victory. That is, unless the linemen start to block for Wil-

REVITALIZED SAINTS SEEK ANOTHER UPSET VICTORY

Fresh from its first victory of the season, a revitalized St. Cecilia team will tackle Seton Hall Sunday afternoon at White Stadium. However, the South Orange team will be favored to halt the short St. Cecilia winning streak.

Seton Hall, known as the Pony Pirates to Essex County fans, was upset by Montclair Immaculate Conception last week but played without Harold Moran, their No. 1 quarterback and ace passer. Moran is expected to be back in action for Sunday's game, a fact which will minimize St. Cecilia's chances for its first North Jersey Catholic Conference victory.

The Saints are buried in the Conference cellar after two defeats and one tie in league action and will finish the season there unless they defeat Seton Hall. St. Mary's of Rutherford has yet to win but the South Bergen team has played two tie games.

CORBAE READY TO PASS

Coach Tom Potter will have George Corbae, his starting quarterback, ready to do plenty of pitching against the South Orange visitors, who, incidentally, are coached by Larry Sartori, a former Fordham star lineman. Corbae has passed for three of St. Cecilia's five touchdowns this year and his 19-yard heave to End Frank Deegan gave the Saints their first win last Sunday. A transfer from Englewood, the husky Corbae has developed into a good quarterback.

Potter is also hoping for Pete Calabrese, Terry Holly and the other backs to maintain the pace they set against Brooklyn Prep. The Saints figure to be outweighed again but if those quick-opening T-formation plays click, the Blue and Gold scat backs can cause some trouble.

Sunday's game may very well be the turning point in the St. Cecilia season. The Saints still have to face St. Michael's and Englewood and victories over their three remaining rivals could give the Pottermen a respectable season's record.

BOYS' SCHOOL TRAVELS TO MONTCLAIR ACADEMY

Beaten eight times in succession, the Englewood School for Boys will strive to snap the school's longest losing streak tomorrow afternoon at Montclair Academy.

Coach Luke Ward's youngsters have been showing improvement despite their losses and last week's game with Irving School of Tarrytown was heartening to the Hilltop mentor even though his charges lost. He was considerably impressed with the manner in which his kids got their only touchdown.

Montclair Academy is considered stronger than Irving but Ward will have Johnny Wilson, Blackie Macauley and the other Englewood School starters in tip-top shape for tomorrow's tussle with the Essex County eleven.

St. Cecilia Wins First Over Brooklyn Prep, 7-0

ENGLEWOOD — A 19-yard touchdown pass from George Corbae to Frank Deegan gave St. Cecilia a hard-earned 7-0 victory over Brooklyn Prep Sunday afternoon at White Stadium as a slim crowd watched the Blue and Gold gridders win their first game of the season.

Beaten four times and tied once, the underdog Saints showed vast improvement as they outmaneuvered and outplayed the heavier prep school lads from Brooklyn. For the first time this season, the Cecilians were able to flash a running attack and, combined with Corbae's accurate passes, it was enough to defeat the visitors for the seventh time in eight games between the two schools.

St. Cecilia, in the midst of its worst season in almost two decades, needed this victory to restore its confidence and should be more difficult to beat from here on in. Coach Tom Potter's youngsters seemed to run harder and tackle more sharply even though they had to go into the fourth quarter before racking up the game winning score.

The Englewood parochials had a touchdown taken away from them in the first quarter after Pete Calabrese broke away on a spectacular 69-yard dash. The play was called back when the officials detected illegal use of the hands on the part of an unidentified Cecilian.

For the remainder of the first half, the Saints managed to hold the upper hand, keeping Brooklyn Prep on the defensive.

Both Teams Threaten

Both teams threatened in the third quarter, the Englewood boys marching all the way down to the Brooklyn Prep 10-yard stripe before being halted while the visitors got as far as the St. Cecilia 25 just as the period ended.

The Saints started their touchdown drive at the start of the final session after taking over on their own 25. Terry Holly and Joe Locilento started to knife through the tackles and around the ends and Quarterback George Corbae slipped in with a couple of successful aerials to place the ball on the Brooklyn 19.

The Prep line held at this point, throwing back three St. Cecilia plunges. Corbae then located Deegan in the end zone with a perfect pass and the Saints had a touchdown and a 6-0 lead. Corbae's plunge made it 7-0.

Brooklyn threatened to tie the score following the next kickoff and got as far as the St. Cecilia 36-yard line before Ott fumbled, Calabrese recovering for the Saints to lock up the game for the Pottermen.

Tansey's Pitching Gives Leonia Win Over Tigers

LEONIA — George Tansey, a peerless passer and field general, had a field day Saturday afternoon as he led his Leonia High School grid forces to a 41-0 shellacking of a game but outmanned Tenafly team.

Tansey was terrific as he operated the Lion winged T formation with all the skill of an artist, hiding the ball almost as effectively as another former Leonia T-master, Jack Jaeckel, and passing with unerring accuracy for three touchdowns. The Leonia quarterback completed 10 of 16 tosses for 310 yards, the best performance in the county this year, and handled his team's offense in flawless fashion.

Against this array of explosive power, Tenafly was almost helpless. The Tigers tried valiantly to stay in the ball game in the first half, holding the heavier home team to a 13-0 margin, but the roof caved in on Coach George Clark's crew in the third session when Leonia crossed the goal line three times in rapid succession.

Leonia not only showed an effective aerial circus but its backs ran through and around the Tenafly line for an additional 204 yards to bring their ground-gaining total to 514 for the day. The week before the powerful Lions had racked up over 400 yards against Englewood.

Tansey got his pitching arm in motion in the first quarter, passing to Al Politi for 57 yards and the game's first touchdown and this same combination produced another score in the second session, eating up 91 yards in one play to provide the Lions with a 13-0 half-time margin.

The Lions stayed on the ground for their third period avalanche, Bruce Stark racing 63 yards for one marker while Ron Fleming pounded over from the four and Politi zoomed around end from the seven. In the finale, Tansey passed 12 yards to Ed Kincade for Leonia's final score.

NOW, FOR THE FIRST TIME IN MOTORING HISTORY—a revolutionary new fall-grade gasoline that resists stalling ... annoying conk-outs at traffic lights or parking, and that sputter-and-stall trouble during the first few minutes of driving on damp, chilly days.

It's especially good in cars with AUTOMATIC TRANSMISSIONS—where restarting after stalling is more troublesome.

IT'S ANOTHER BIG EXTRA FOR YOUR MONEY IN ESSO EXTRA—the high-test gasoline long famous for quick starting, fast warm-up, high anti-knock power and long mileage! And Esso Extra is the ONLY premium gasoline with patented Esso Solvent Oil that fights harmful engine deposits.

Don't stall another day... try a tankful right away!

And when you're in, there's no better time to let your Esso Dealer give your car a complete check-up for the winter driving you'll be doing!

*Don't let this happen to you!

Stalling that occurs on cool, humid days (30° to 55° temperatures, humidity above 65%) is generally caused by carburetor "icing." Evaporation of the highly volatile gasolines required for modern cars has a refrigerating effect which freezes moisture out of the air, accumulating icy frost in the carburetor. New Fall-Grade Anti-Stalling Esso Extra Gasoline helps eliminate this cause of stalling, which is experienced with most cars on the road today. It will not, of course, prevent stalling caused by faulty carburetor adjustment or electrical failure.

Tenafly Hopes To Snap Losing Streak In Game With Lowly Teaneck Saturday

TENAFLY — Tenafly will be favored to win a football game for the first time this season when the Tigers tackle a weak Teaneck High School team Saturday afternoon at Roosevelt Common.

The visiting Highwaymen have yet to win and bring a five-game losing streak to the Common. However, Teaneck has showed signs of awakening and Coach George Clark is hoping that his charges won't be overconfident when they take the field Saturday.

As a matter of fact, Tenafly should be anything but overconfident. The Tigers have been held scoreless in three straight losing games, dropping decisions to Rutherford, Hackensack and Leonia in successive weeks. Tenafly hasn't hit the scoring column since the 26-12 victory over Englewood the first Saturday in October.

Walt Vallari, Buddy Boffinger, Merril Sproul and Bob Jensen, Tenafly's best running backs, just haven't been able to get going. Admittedly, the opposition they have been facing is the toughest in the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League but other teams have been scoring against Rutherford and Leonia.

Another problem has been bothering Coach Clark. His Tigers have been doing well in the first half of their games but start to fold in the third period. This was evident in all three losing games when Tenafly battled favored opponents almost to a standstill until the halftime whistle. Then, their strength seemed to disappear. Clark hasn't got the answer to this one yet but he's hoping that his youngsters snap out of their slump against Teaneck Saturday.

The Highwaymen haven't even come close to a triumph in their five games, losing to Ridgewood, Ridgefield Park, Lodi, Rutherford and Cliffside Park, in that order. However, against Cliffside last week, Teaneck showed vast improvement and held a 13-7 halftime lead against the Red Raiders.

Al Santanello is the big man in the Teaneck attack. He runs and passes and will have to be smothered if Tenafly is to come through with its second win.

Clark doesn't plan any change in his starting lineup but he's banking on a sharp reversal of form to bring his Tigers through.

Comets Thrash Maroon To Remain Unbeaten

ENGLEWOOD — A complete fourth-period collapse by Englewood helped unbeaten and untied Hackensack romp to its fourteenth straight victory before 2,700 fans at White Stadium last Saturday as the Golden Comets belted the Maroon Raiders to the tune of 40 to 6.

Englewood's hapless team, beaten and battered in three previous games, folded completely in the final session to absorb its worst defeat in the series which started way back in 1903. Hackensack never had it so good against Englewood as it did in this fifty-second renewal of the county's oldest classic!

However, Coach Tom Morgan's Maroon Raiders had the distinction of being the first team to score on the Comet powerhouse this season. Hackensack was unscored upon until Englewood crossed the Comet goal line in the third quarter on Bobby Williams' 10-yard pass to Henry Robinson. The touchdown broke the spell that had existed in Hackensack's first four games but it only served to anger the visitors, who more than gained revenge for that six-pointer before the game ended.

Oddly enough, it was a fluke that enabled Englewood to get close enough to score on Hackensack. The play was set up when Williams' bounding punt grazed Giardino on the Comet 22-yard line as an unidentified Maroon lineman dove on the ball to give Englewood possession. Williams then moved the ball down to the 10-yard line before hitting Robinson with a pass on the goal line for the touchdown.

COMET LINE SUPERB

That was Englewood's only real offensive gesture of the long afternoon as the Hackensack forwards outcharged the Maroon line, rushing Williams every time he tried to get off a pass and completely shackling the home team's running attack. Williams had just about as much protection as a Russian spy in the marines!

Hackensack got two quick touchdowns in the first quarter. The Comets moved 68 yards after the opening kickoff for one score, Charlie Storrs passing to Bob Hrbek for 35 yards. A few minutes later, Bob Carroll and Palmer paced a 64-yard drive, the hefty Carroll hammering over from the two-yard line. Carroll also provided Hackensack with its first extra point of the season, passing to Palmer to give the Comets a 13-0 lead.

Englewood managed to stand off the visitors in the second quarter, stopping one drive on the 24-yard line with the help of a clipping penalty but Hackensack was back for another touchdown in the third quarter to raise the margin to 19-6.

Immediately following Englewood's score, the aroused Hackensack youngsters moved 59 yards in eight plays, Storrs racing wide around his own right end from the 14-yard line to get back the six-pointer.

LAST PERIOD A NIGHTMARE

The last quarter was a nightmare for the Morganmen. Storrs and Hrbek teamed up on a 31-yard pass play for one touchdown, Giardino plunged over from the four for another and Tony Ierardi went seven yards for the third after an intercepted pass and subsequent 32-yard runback by Behrmann had set it up. And, as the game ended, Giardini was downed on the six inch line after a 13-yard dash following another interception.

Just to make things worse for Englewood, Carroll drop-kicked for all three extra points in the last quarter, the only time this year Hackensack has been able to record an extra point in this fashion.

Unbeaten Teams Cut To Four In Bergen County

Bergen County's list of unbeaten teams was cut to four over the weekend, leaving Lyndhurst, Ridgewood, Bergenfield and Hackensack as the only undefeated and untied elevens in this neck of the woods.

Dumont was knocked out of the won-all class by Wood-Ridge while Ridgefield Park, tied by Cliffside Park a week ago, managed to remain without a loss as it suffered its second straight deadlock.

Lyndhurst and Ridgewood have each won six games with Bergenfield and Hackensack close behind with five each. Hackensack also had its goalie line crossed for the first time this season but is still Bergen's top defensive club with only six points notched against it. Lyndhurst is the leading scorer with 197.

St. Cecilia, Westwood and Closter broke into the win column for the first time, leaving North Arlington. St. Mary's, Englewood School for Boys, St. Luke's, Teaneck and Bogota as the only winless teams.

Hilltoppers Beaten Again For Eighth Loss

ENGLEWOOD — For a few joyful moments last Friday afternoon, the Englewood School for Boys seemed to be on the way to its first football victory of the 1950 season. But that feeling was short-lived as Irving School of Tarrytown staged a second-half uprising to record a 19-7 triumph.

The loss was the fourth of the season for the winless Hilltoppers and the eighth straight over a two-year period. Englewood School's last victory was in the opening game of the 1949 campaign.

Englewood got away to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, Johnny Wilson supplying the spark and the points. However, Irving came storming back to tie the score later in the same session.

The two teams battled it out on even terms in the second quarter but Irving's strength and greater weight started to tell in the third and fourth periods as the New York visitors pushed across the two winning touchdowns.

Improved Tigers Face Loop Leaders In Soccer Games

TENAFLY — Coach Jack Yockers' Tenafly High School soccer team, faced with an opportunity to move up in the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League standings, will play host to a strong Teaneck eleven tomorrow afternoon at Roosevelt Common.

The Tigers also get a shot at the league-leading Hackensack combine next Wednesday at Hackensack.

Tenafly has dropped decisions to both teams but Coach Yockers' improved booters are hoping for an upset of either Teaneck or Hackensack. The Comets have clinched the N.N.J.I.L. crown with only a tie with Teaneck to mar their record while the Highwaymen are currently engaged in a battle with Englewood for second place in the standings.

With the season rapidly approaching the end, Tenafly has two additional contests remaining on its schedule. The Tigers face last-place Rutherford Friday, Nov. 10 and then wind up the campaign against Ridgewood Nov. 13.

Englewood Closes Soccer Season Tomorrow Against Rutherford Team

ENGLEWOOD — Coach Burt Smith's Englewood soccer team will wind up the 1950 season tomorrow afternoon at Dwight Morrow Field, playing host to the cellar-dwelling Rutherford club in a N.N.J.I.L. game.

All but eliminated from championship consideration, the Maroon Raiders will be fighting to keep second place in the final standings. Victorious over Teaneck by a 1-0 score last Friday, Englewood moved ahead of the Highwaymen into the runner-up spot and, before yesterday's schedule clash with Tenafly, held second place by one point.

Rutherford lost its first five league games and doesn't figure to extend the Maroon booters, who have won eight, lost two and tied one.

Last Friday, an 18-yard kick by Evan Lewis supplied Englewood with its slender 1-0 margin over previously unbeaten Teaneck. Earlier in the season, the two rivals played to a 1-1 tie.

Lewis' goal came in the third quarter and broke up a thrilling duel between Bud Ingoldsby of Englewood and George Sipp of Teaneck, the rival goalies.

Hackensack Nips Maroon Booters In Loop Tussle

ENGLEWOOD — Englewood's hopes of overtaking Hackensack in the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League soccer race were given a rude setback last Wednesday when the Maroon Raiders bowed to the Comets, 2-1, at Dwight Morrow Field to fall four points behind the leaders.

The loss was Englewood's second of the season and was almost a repetition of an earlier defeat by the same team. On the other hand, unbeaten Hackensack notched its fourth straight and has only a scoreless tie with Teaneck to mar its record.

However, Coach Burt Smith's Raiders became the first team to score on Comet Goalie Bruce Ramer, who had collected 22 scoreless periods before Evan Lewis booted the ball past him in the third session of last Wednesday's encounter.

Lewis' goal came after Hackensack had piled up a 2-0 lead on tallies by Dave Allen and Vaughan Parseghian in the first and third quarters and only served to cut down the Comet's final margin of victory.

National Gridiron Shrine Planned At Rutgers U.

NEW BRUNSWICK — A statewide appeal for funds for the National Football Hall of Fame and Shrine was sent out from Rutgers University, the state university of New Jersey, proposed site of the monument, this week.

A monument to the great game of football, the Shrine and Hall of Fame will be a mecca for gridiron fans in all parts of the nation. It will be to football what the Cooperstown, N. Y. shrine is to baseball, according to statements received.

As a major step toward bringing the shrine to realization, Rutgers and Brown universities will play the first intercollegiate Hall of Fame Football Game in the Rutgers stadium Saturday, Nov. 4. Part of the proceeds will go to the national Hall of Fame organization.

This week has also been designated as "Football Hall of Fame Week" by the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association and high school football fans will be given their opportunity to contribute to the Hall of Fame as they watch their favorites in action.

Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll and scores of leading New Jersey citizens have pledged their support to this project as a source of State pride and prestige. Every citizen can do his part by attending the Hall of Fame Game at New Brunswick Saturday or through a contribution at this week's local high school contest, a spokesman said this week.

The force of an ideal is greater than the ideal of force.

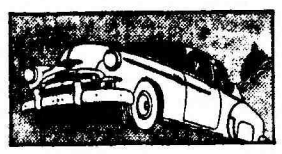
CHEVROLET

Judge it on DURABILITY . . . DEPENDABILITY

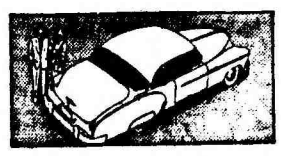
It rides more smoothly

Take one ride and you'll agree that Chevrolet is the smoothest riding car in the entire low-price field. It's the only low-priced car combining the famous Unitized Knee-Action Ride and airplane-type shock absorbers all around.



It operates more economically

Owners will tell you Chevrolet's famous Valve-in-Head Engine, exclusive to Chevrolet in its price range gives an outstanding combination of thrills and thrift, plus proved dependability, year after year.



It's better looking all around

Outstanding good looks accompany the outstanding performance of Chevrolet cars—only low-priced car with Body by Fisher—and most beautiful in its field, according to a recent public survey.

*Combination of Powerglide Automatic Transmission and 105-h.p. Engine optional on De Luxe models at extra cost.

It drives more easily

Enjoy finest no-shift driving with Powerglide Automatic Transmission* and 105-h.p. Valve-in-Head Engine—or finest standard driving with standard Valve-in-Head Engine and Synchro-Mesh Transmission—at lowest cost.

It lasts longer, too

Many Chevrolets are giving full satisfaction after having served ten, fifteen, twenty years or longer. That's one reason why there are over a million more Chevrolets on the road than any other make.

It gives more for less throughout

More for less! More steering-ease, thanks to Center-Point Steering. More all-round vision, thanks to a Curved Windshield with Panoramic Visibility. More safety, thanks to Fisher Unisteel Body-Construction and hydraulic brakes. Come in—today!

Bumper to Bumper Driver Scored By County Cops

HACKENSACK — Bergen County Police this week began an intensive campaign against bumper-to-bumper car drivers who in recent months have been responsible for over 60 percent of the accidents handled by that department.

Freeholder William T. Ludlum, chairman of the public safety committee, said today that close driving at fast rates of speed must stop. Pointing out that 20 of the 35 accidents handled by the Bergen County Police during September were caused by bumper-to-bumper driving, Freeholder Ludlum instructed patrolmen to crack down on all violators.

"Motorists must allow 75 feet between cars, especially when proceeding at fast speeds," he stated. "Drivers who insist on trailing the front car by a mere two or three feet naturally can't stop in time to prevent a rear end collision. Thus last month we had 20 such rack-ups reported by our department. In my opinion it is one of the worst forms of careless driving and extremely dangerous. It can and must stop at once."

Enforcement of the State Motor Vehicle and Traffic Act resulted in the issuance of 234 summonses by County Police during September. Of the tickets handed out, 78 were for speeding, 21 for careless driving, 11 for passing red lights and 10 each for riding on the shoulder of the road and failing to have a driver's license or registration. Towns in which the majority of summonses were issued include: Paramus, 59; Teaneck, 25; Rutherford, 20; Saddle River Borough, 14, and Englewood, 13.

County patrol cars covered a total of 50,64. miles in September. The radio division handled and logged 4,494 calls during the month of which 131 were general alarms.

"Second Chance", Hollywood Film, At Tenafly Church

"Second Chance," a dramatic film, Hollywood-made, based on an original Faith Baldwin story will be shown this Sunday evening, Nov. 5, at 8 p. m. in the Presbyterian Church House, Magnolia avenue. The public is invited.

"Second Chance" is among the first feature motion pictures made by the church. Combining the technical skill of Hollywood and high calibre acting the religious film has an original story by Faith Baldwin. It tells of the ways and men and women miss the best things of life by firing their aim on what is second best.

At the double morning worship services at 9:30 and 11 a. m. the minister of the Church, the Rev. Melvin R. Campbell will preach on "What the Church Owes You."

There are double sessions of Sunday Church School at 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. with classes for all children and youth three years of age and up. Children under three may be left in the nursery at 11 a. m. while parents attend church. Last June the church school reached an enrollment of 452. Three weeks ago when the last tabulation was made the registrations had climbed to 513.

Parents are cordially invited to visit the school and speak with one of the superintendents about enrolling their children.

North Woodland Street Residence Sold

Mrs. Ann C. Macleod has sold her residence at 62 North Woodland street, Englewood to Mr. and Mrs. Caley T. Brown. John L. Vanderbilt of W. Gerould Clark, Inc., real estate and insurance firm located at 67 N. Dean street was the broker in the transaction.

YOUNG ADULTS TO BEGIN NEW DISCUSSION SERIES

LEONIA — The Young Adult Group of the Leonia Presbyterian Church will hold its monthly covered-dish supper meeting on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. The group is beginning a series of discussions to discover the significance of Protestantism, Presbyterianism, Catholicism and contemporary religious faiths. The theme for Sunday evening will be: Why Are We Protestants? The leaders are Emily Voorhis and Alfred Comstock. All post-high school young people are invited. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Willis are adult co-workers with the group.

Dr. J. Lawrence Evans will be guest speaker and discussion leader at 7:30 o'clock at the Westminster Fellowship Group for high school students.

'Model Town' Aim Starts With Show At Plaa Nov. 11

ENGLEWOOD—The first step in the designation of Englewood as a "model town" in the cultural sense will be the presentation of a marionette show at the Plaza Theatre, Nov. 11, under the program of the Chamber of Culture Exchange.

The chamber, a new group centered in New York City, has chosen Englewood for its first "model town" project. The chamber aims at integrating cultural activities with business enterprises. It is headed by a group including Miss Laura King, Mrs. Bess Halvorsen, Robert Hart and Daniel Willsaps, all of New York City, and Gordon Witt, area dancing instructor.

The show will feature Sue Hastings' Marionettes, a troupe of puppeteers, in a program entitled "Circus Capers." It is the first of four projects which are aimed at youth, mature persons, elderly residents and servicemen.

According to Miss King, the group will eventually stretch to a national organization. It is placing its first project in Englewood because, after lengthy searching, the group found Englewood to offer the best opportunity for such activities.

Poets Corner

SOME AUTUMN COLORS

When Autumn comes to meet us,
The Great Artist from on high,
Adorns his mighty canvasses of
sea and land and sky,
With lesser bits of artistry to please the mind and eye.
The morn awakes, a mist before
her eyes;
The sun warms through, and brings
the world surprise;
Vines, trees, clumps, forests, near
and far,
Tinted and dyed with transitory
glory are.
The ivy clinging to the fence, and
wall and tree,
Reveals a red that's rich as red
can be;
The sassafras that lifts its head
above,
Discloses red and yellow, orange,
mauve.
The velvet sumacs, wheresoe'er
they stand,
Too have substantial colors, nobly
grand:
Shades of red, orange, crimson,
and maroon,
Gorgeous by day, e'en bright by
light of moon.
Then too the gum, in the deep
wood or field,
Or near some barn, 'gainst lightning stroke a shield,
Displays a foliage bright, a-shimmer with the dew,
Its oval berries black, with bloom
of blue.
The dogwood which in middle spring displays
Its white or pink, with everybody's praise,
Now rivals all the rest with its bright show
Of berries crimson rich, and foliage aglow.
The jealous maples, not to be outdone,
Seem to have caught the rainbow,
dawn, and sun;
For of all colors Nature can array,
They have a near monopoly today.
The oak in disappointment wears a
frown:
The best of all his efforts ends with
brown;
But he perhaps may nurse a secret
pride,
For his one color oft remains to Eastertide.
(There be some oaks which for a time are red:
They flame up for a while from
foot to head;
But soon a wood-sprite wails an
eerie sound,
The leaves turn pale and tumble
to the ground.)
Spruce, pine, and hemlock all retain their green;
In contrast with the rest they vivify the scene,
Just as in Spring their dark and
light and blue.
Add light to Nature's color scheme,
for me, for you.

Over 400 Attend Fashion Show At St. Cecilia's, Englewood

ENGLEWOOD — More than 400 persons attended the fashion show and card party sponsored by the Mothers' Guild of St. Cecilia's High School last Friday evening in the auditorium of the school.

Mrs. Herbert J. Hickey, West Englewood, chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Charles Groux, West Englewood, president of the guild welcomed the players.

The fashion show by Barbara Lee of the Plaza, West Englewood, featured more than 20 costumes for late fall and winter wear. These costumes were complete with accessories from top to toe. The hats were perfect complements to the garments selected, and were by Charlotte of Bergenfield.

Mrs. T. Greenhalgh was commentator, and Miss Ellen Bryant, a freshman student, was pianist.

In addition to Mrs. Hickey, general chairman other committee chairmen were Mrs. John McQuillen, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. Andrew Durkin, Mrs. Tricetta, Mrs. Gonzales, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Osterman, and Mrs. Samuel Asher, who was co-chairman of the fashion show.

The models, students of St. Cecilia High School, were Shelia Carey, Marilyn Connor, Mary Eaton, Loretta Frei, Marion Fitzsimmons, Carol Gerish, Marie Jugovitch Jacqueline Jensen, Lenela Kennedy, Peggy McQuillen, Josephine Lamo and Marie Werching.

Members of the guild who were models, were Mrs. Charles Groux, West Englewood, Mrs. Samuel Asher. Englewood and Mrs. Lewis Sposa, Fairlawn.

After the fashion show, refreshments were served by senior girls of the high school. The remainder of the evening was spent playing cards.

A special award of a $100 savings bond was given to Mrs. Henning.

Teaneck Hadassah Has Rummage Sale

ENGLEWOOD — The Teaneck Chapter of Hadassah is sponsoring a rummage sale at 12 South Dean street, Englewood, it was announced this week. The sale is currently underway.

According to Mrs. J. L. Kramer, Teaneck, a large assortment of clothing, from shoes to hats, for men, women and children, has been placed on display at the sale.

Williams Holds Lead In Area Scoring Race

ENGLEWOOD — Although held scoreless while his Englewood team was being routed by Hackensack, little Bobby Williams maintained his eadl in the area scoring race. The Maroon scatback has 36 points and is still far ahead of the field.

Johnny Wilson of the Englewood School for Boys moved into second place when he scored seven points against Irving School to raise his total to 13. Henry Robinson of Englewood and Frank Deegan of St. Cecilia also moved up a notch to tie Walt Vallari and Buddy Boffinger of Tenafly for the third spot.

In the N.N.J.I.L. ranks, Leonia's Al Politi stretched his lead by rolling up 19 points against Tenafly. The Lion halfback now has 56 points and leads Williams by 20.

Clarabella, TV Clown, At Argo Shoes Saturday

ENGLEWOOD — Television will come to life Saturday when Clarabelle, the Clown, television personality on the Howdy Doody show, will make a personal appearance at the Argo Shoe Store, 61 West Palisade avenue, Englewood. Clarabelle will be on hand from 10 a.m. to noon for autograph signing.

A featured player on the WNBT puppet show, Clarabelle has endeared himself to youngsters who watch his antics on TV screens. The Argo Shoe Store will hold its grand opening ceremonies tomorrow, Friday, all day, and is planning Clarabelle's appearance as an additional feature of the introduction of its children's shoe department to Englewood.

Tenafly Scouts Present Gift

ENGLEWOOD—Girl Scouts of Troop 19, of Tenafly, recently presented a double-purpose high chair to the Englewood Hospital for use in the Children's Ward.

Eugenia Robbiano made the presentation on behalf of the troop, and Nelson R. Henson, administrator of the hospital, accepted the gift on behalf of the Board of Governors. A copper plaque memorializing the gift, prepared by Sally Worth, a member of the troop, was placed on the chair.

Leonia Girl Scouts Plan Vesper Service

LEONIA — The Leonia Girl Scouts will hold a vesper service in observance of National Girl Scout Week, Sunday, Oct. 29, at 4 p. m. It will take place at the Presbyterian Church and the message will be delivered by the Rev. John W. Voorhis.

The Junior Girls Choir will sing accompanied by Luther Gloss at the organ, and all Girl Scout parents and their friends are welcome to attend.

Leonia HS Students Visit Hospital PHNS

LEONIA — Thirty-four girls, students at the Leonia High School, under the direction of Mrs. Helck, the Leonia school nurse, inspected the Englewood Hospital Public Health Nursing Services on two days, Oct. 23 and 30. The girls are members of the Home Nursing Class in the school, and wanted information on how public health nurses care for patients in the home.

Miss Mary Shea, educational director of the Public Health Nursing Services, gave a demonstration of the contents of the black bag which accompanies every nurse on duty, and explained the use of all its contents. The techniqques of giving a patient a bath in bed were also demonstrated as well as methods of utilizing improvised equipment in the home.

Ever see switchboards in the street?

• No . . . and we hope you never will! But it has been a big problem to provide housing for all the switchboards and other equipment needed during the past 5 years in supplying more telephone service—and making everyone's service faster, better, and greater in value.

• In all, we have completed 21 entirely new buildings and made major enlargements to 25 others during our $232,000,000 construction program. As a result we're not only able to give you more and better service—we're also better able to meet the growing needs of defense.

• But, even now, the job isn't finished. For the current 1950-1951 period, we have underway an $85,000,000 program of expansion and improvement. Completion of these plans depends on two things: the needs of the national security program, and earnings sufficient to attract investors.

Alumnae Gather At Holy Name Anniversary Day

TEANECK — The Alumnae Day program, one of the features of the 25th anniversary of the Holy Name Hospital, Teaneck, was held Sunday starting at 9 a.m. at the hospital.

The day-long celebration opened at a Mass in the hospital chapel, with the Rev. Alphonsus Barthlen of Tenafly as celebrant.

Breakfast followed with 75 nurses attending the reunion held in the nurses' residence. Dr. Leo Fitzpatrick, chief anesthetist of the hospital, was toastmaster, and Dr. Maurice Lynch of the medical staff was special guest.

The Rev. John Cassels of the Immaculate Conception Seminary at Darlington was guest speaker. His topics were Catholic nursing and Catholic hospital work.

The Rev. Leo Martin reminisced about his 14 years as chaplain of the hospital. He praised the Sisters, nurses and the medical staff for their cooperation and service to the community.

Open house was held from 2 to 5 p.m. in the nurses' residence. Tea was served to 150 persons. Mrs. Mary Fensvermacher, R. N., and Miss Jennie Jerman, R. N., of the first class of the training school at the hospital, were hostesses.

Dr. Lynch, also honored at the tea, was the hospital's first intrene. Also noted were Mrs. Mae Wescott, R. N. and Miss Rose Coyle, R. N., of the second district of the New Jersey State Nurses Association.

Co-chairman for the day were Mrs. Thomas McGuiness and Betty Croonquist.

Cub Pack 27 Bazaar, Carnival Nov. 5

ENGLEWOOD — Cub Pack 27, sponsored jointly by the Englewood Synagogue and Temple Emanuel Men's Clubs, will stage a large bazaar and carnival Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Englewood Synagogue gym.

Booths will be set up and valuable prizes awarded. The pack committee has been aided by the committee in charge and expects a large turnout to support the program.

ST. CECILIA HIGH NEWS

By PAT DOUGHERTY

This has been a busy and exciting week at Saints. The proofs of their pictures were mailed to the seniors. Everyone was pleased with his and her pictures. If the prints turn out as good as the proofs, the senior section of the "Chimes" will be very attractive.

Although the final outcome of the votes for the candidates of the Senior Poll is not known, I can truthfully say that all the kids fit the bill. It's so hard to choose. Some of the titles are: Best Looking, Best Dressed, Typical Seniors, Most Shy, Best Dancers, Most Popular, Most Courteous, Most Athletic, Class Cut-ups, Best Student, and Class Romance. Each title is held by both a boy and a girl.

Here are some more details about Brigadoon, our musical: There will be a double cast, the tickets are $1.20 each, and the dates of the performances are the 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th of November. The 15th of November is the day for the matinee performance. The casts and chorus are practising very hard, so the play can't be anything but excellent.

The big event of the week was the Fashion Show and Card Party given by the Cecilian Mothers' Guild last Friday night. The girls looked very stunning in their outfits from the Betty Lee Shops. The Card Party was held after the Fashion Show. Many prizes were won by lucky women. From all the talk, I gather that everyone had a wonderful time.

Next on the agenda for the completion of the Chimes is the group pictures of the Underclassmen. If these pictures come out half as well as the senior pictures, they'll be very good.

I'd like to say a word about the spirit at Saints. Here it is, "Wow!" It is terrific. The cheering is so loud that we even drown out a small band. Mr. Potter tells us that it really peps up the fellows on the team.

I'm sure you'll all agree with me if I say that the team really played a good game Sunday. They certainly clicked. Keep it up and maybe we'll go home happy on Turkey Day. I hope so.

That's all for now. So long 'til next week.

Catholic Girls Of Local Scout Troops At Rally

HACKENSACK—Over 700 Girl Scouts, leaders and guests—among them members of the St. Cecilia and Mount Carmel Girl Scout troops—attended the Holy Hour service on Sunday at Holy Trinity R. C. Church, in Hackensack, marking the beginning of Girl Scout week. All the Catholic Girl Scout groups in the county were represented.

The solemn Holy Hour opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, and recitation of the Girl Scout Promise and Laws. The sermon was by the Rev. R. James Turo, from Seton Hall Seminary. The Rev. T. F. Burke was celebrant at the benediction services, with the Rev. Edward Kielty of Ridgewood as deacon, and the Rev. R. Augustus Geilla of Hackensack as sub-deacon. Assisting in the sanctuary were the Rev. A. Brice, Dumont; Rev. Ferdinand B. Miller, Wallington; and the Rev. Nobl of Hasbrouck Heights. Taps by Joseph Schneider, captain of the Columbus Cadets of St. Joseph's Church, Bogota, concluded the program which was largest Catholic Girl Scout turnout in the county's history.

Preliminary Plans For Hospital Wing Nearly Completed

ENGLEWOOD — The many persons who contributed to the Englewood Hospital Building Fund this week received a Progress Report containing results of the building fund audit, just completed, and the tentative timetable of procedure in the construction of the wing.

Robert R. Hertzler, president of the Englewood Hospital Association, in making the report, points out that total funds available are less than originally anticipated, making necessary a revision of plans.

But he also emphasizes the important fact that contributions are still being made, that additional contributions are necessary to help provide vital facilities, and that every dollar contributed before the building plans are finally completed will bring 66 cents in Federal assistance.

Tennant Chairman

Mr. Hertzler announces that George G. Tennant has been named chairman of a committee to receive any additional contributions that may be made; to handle the many details connected with the Hospital Building Fund; and to advise the Board of Governors and the Building Commitee on any problems that may arise. Mr. Tennant's committee will operate from the Hospital Building Fund office in Pierce Hall.

The Progress Report is made to contributors "to inform you of the status of your investment in future additional voluntary hospital facilities for yourself, your family, and your community." The tentative timetable outlined by Mr. Hertzler in the report is:

1-Approval of preliminary plans to be completed by Dec. 31. 2-Working drawings to be completed by May 1951. 3-Bids to be received by Mayor, June, 1951. 4-Ground to be broken by June or July, 1951. Additional space to be ready for occupancy sometime during summer or early fall of 1952.

Audit Completed

The audit of the Building Fund shows a total of $1,156,284 subscribed in contributions and pledges and $163,716 available from reserve funds for building purposes, making a total of $1,320,000 in hospital building funds. On the basis of this amount, a Federal grant of $880,000 is expected under the Hill-Burton Act. But this could be larger if additional contributions are made before the building plans are finally approved. And, according to Mr. Hertzler, contributions are being made by individuals, by business and by industrial firms, some of whom either made no original contribution or have since decided that so worthy a cause deserves added support.

In outlining the tentative timetable, Mr. Hertzler points out that

Cartwright Hearing Not Set Monday In Englewood

ENGLEWOOD — Developments in the Oct. 17 United Nations Chapter meeting "incident" in which Frederick G. Cartwright of Englewood was arrested on charges of disorderly conduct growing out of his attempt to disrupt the meeting with anti-communisic charges this week are centered about the series of postponements in the date for the Cartwright hearing.

This hearing now has been set for 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Judge Henry J. Bendheim granted the first postponement to Dr. Hugh Wolfe, who preferred the charges against Mr. Cartwright when police arrived at Roosevelt School that night in response to a call about the disturbance. He has engaged Dominick Pachella of Hackensack to represent Dr. Wolfe, who is vice-chairman of the American Association of Atomic Scientists and professor at Cooper Union, has been charged in turn by Mr. Cartwright with disorderly conduct, and with assault and battery in connection with the complaint of one of Mr. Cartwright's followers.

Mt. Carmel Bazaar Rated Success By Chairman Leary

TENAFLY — The annual bazaar of Mount Carmel R.C. Church, held during the past week in the Mt. Carmel school house, was one of the most successful in the history of the parish, George Leary Jr., general chairman, reported this week.

The three day bazaar opened last Thursday night and reached its climax on Saturday when a 1950 Ford sedan was awarded to oJseph Stiles of Knickerbocker road, Tenafly. The set of silver was awarded to Mrs. Cyril A. Ryan of Tenafly; the Electrolux vacuum cleaner to Mickey Dotson, of Tenafly; the Television set and the doll's bridal party, were both awarded to Mrs. Irene Ryan of Englewood. Edward Muller of Tenafly was presented with an electric lamp, and Anthony O'Halloran won the basket of cheer.

Cooperating to rthe success of the bazaar — which raised funds to add toward the growing new church building fund — were the Holy Name Society: Howard Alberque and William Gauff, chairmen; Children of Mary, Miss Ann Kirchgessner and Miss Anne Carey, chairmen; Scapular Confraternity, Mrs. Ray Bross and Mrs. Michael Doody; Knights of Columbus, Joseph Foley and Benjamin Adams. Miss Genevieve Dean was secretary for the Bazaar committee, which was under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Ando.

The bazaar this year was dedication in honor of the 25th year in the priesthood of the pastor, the Rev. Gregory Bergin, who was cited by Mr. Leary on the closing night of the bazaar for his work in the parish.

Women's Auxiliary Of Hospital Meets Thursday, Nov. 16

ENGLEWOOD — Englewood Hospital's Auxiliary, which since the hospital's beginning has been its mainstay for volunteer help in many fields, will hold its annual meeting Thursday afternoon, Nov. 16, in the auditorium of the School of Nursing.

Mrs. Gardiner Hawkins of Tenafly, who has served as president for two years, anticipates a large attendance from the more than 800 members of the 23 auxiliary units that comprise the Women's Auxiliary.

The main speaker is to be Mrs. Donald R. Baldwin, first vice-president of the Association of Hospital Auxiliaries of New Jersey, will speak on "The part the Hospitality Shop can play in the life of a hospital." Mrs. Baldwin, who is associated with the Orange Memorial Hospital, is widely experienced in this field, which is a field that interests the Englewood Auxiliary because of its popular Hospitality Shop.

the problem of how to increase the membership and scope of the Women's Auxiliary, a vital subject in view of the fact that the hospital is to be enlarged and the functions of the Auxiliary undoutedly widened. A broader program of projects to interest the women of the 23 communities will be discussed, along with the possibility of adding more auxiliary units.

Officers of the Auxiliary in addition to Mrs. Hawkins are: Mrs. Frank G. Muzzy, Englewood, first vice-president; Mrs. Robert Greene, Leonia, second vice-president; Mrs. Lewis M. Schwab, Englewood, treasurer (with a record of 25 years continuous service;) Mrs. George R. Meadows, Demarest, secretary.

Taxes Bring Loss Of Liberty, Says C. Of C. Speaker

TENAFLY — The loss of individual liberty throught increased taxation of his income, and the importance of the entire Metropolitan area to the Port of New York were the themes for speakers, last Wednesday evening at the annual dinner meeting of the Tenafly Chamber of Commerce, held at the Clinton Inn.

Leonard E. Read, president of the Foundation for Economic Education told nearly 200 Chamber members and their guests that 'government programs can only be finanops by a depreciation of the dollar, and in 35 years from now, at the rate we are going, the wage of the average person will amount to nothing.'

Dr. Donald H. Davenport, deputy commissioner of the Department of Commerce of the State or New York, as the speaker on the subject of "The Port of New York and the Metropolitan Area" told the assembly of the importance of planning in the development of the whole metropolitan area. He stated that study and planning for one side of the Hudson River would produce a one-sided metropolis, and that New Jersey has a major and increasing role in the scope of metropolitan studies.

School Program

A brief outline of Tenafly's school building program was given by Charles F. Nelson, president of the Tenafly Board of Education, who stated that "from January to September of this year, 106 new pupils were enrolled — 3 and one half times the normal increase for the period. To meet this growth", he added, "it is absolutely necessary that four rooms be added to the Mackay School and that seven rooms be added to the Stillman School to make it into a full 14 room school unit." M.. Nelson in each of the four quadrants of the Borough, but that the possibility of a school in the southeast quadrant is still in the preliminary study stage.

E. Harold Schoonmaker, president of the Chamber of Commerce introduced as special guests, Miss Edythe Adams Enke, who won the nation-wide "Miss Television of 1950" contest; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon A. Enke of Sunset lane, Tenafly; and Miss Martha Pierce. Miss Enke and Miss Pierce both contributed to the program of entertainment for the evening.

In the business session, J. William Bierhals, Garrett H. Felter, Dr. Edward Kaplow, Maurice H. Thompson, and Mrs. Rose Marie Winter were elected for three year terms on the Board of Directors. The directors whose terms expired on the day of the dinner were: Lawrence A. Bower, Mrs. Eileen V. Canning, Edwin E. Cattelle Jr., Harry I. Etelman, and Col. Karl B. Lamb.

Mr. Schoonmaker presented his annual report to the membership in the form of excerpts from the Press-Journal: Christmas decorations, Motor Directional signs, new Post Office plans the Chamber's role in seeking for a new Post Office location; the Chamber's pledge to the Englewood Hospital; Harry Towe's address in May; growth of the Chamber; concern of road reparations; and Hallowe'en portraiture contest.

Time For Decisions

During the next two weeks, the voters of Tenafly will be called upon to render decisions at the polls on two occasions—the General Election on next Tuesday, and the Special School Election on November 14.

There has been no opposition to any candidate or proposition on the balloting for the General Election, in Tenafly. The plan of the Board of Education to spend $15,000—left over from the appropriation for the Walter Stillman School—for plans and specifications for two new school additions, has met with an open mind and a rather [illegible] attitude toward additional school space, as well as some questioning, and criticism.

Whatever the opinions of the voters of Tenafly, we believe they should register them on these two occasions. There should be no doubt in the minds of the entire community concerning the attitude of at least a good percentage representation of the town's people.

Congressman Harry L. Towe of Tenafly deserves more than a token support from the people of his adopted home town. Councilmen Harry G. Robinson and Gustav Thorkilsen have spent far too many hours in service to the community to be given a minuscule vote of confidence. The Tenafly Police Department is too excellent a force—one too widely known throughout the county and state for its fine service and excellent leadership—to gain the grudging consent of a handful of voters to its salary schedule. We should turn out en masse in their support.

In the matter of the special school election, we feel that the needs of the community at the PRESENT TIME, as well as the impact of our decision upon the future of our school system should be the determining factor in the vote. The "might have beens" and alternatives of a period five years gone are of no importance TODAY. The final decisions then—as the final decisions on Tuesday, Nov. 14—are the responsibility of all the people of Tenafly. We feel that the need for the plans and specifications NOW is the important decision for the voters.

The manner of selection of Board of Education members, and even the personnel of the Board are not before the voters at this time, and therefore that matter is entirely irrelevant. The Board members have already been approved by the voters on other occasions. The choice of the school architect does not come before the voters directly. We understand that some people who might otherwise support the school plans are aroused over what they consider his "excessive fees" to the point that they consider his repudiation more important than the crowding of the schools. We believe that any large opposition vote should be taken into consideration by the Board, investigated, and the peoples' ideas in this matter respected —not given a cold shoulder.

We feel that the great majority of Tenafly residents favor the overall plans of the Board for additions to the Mackay and Stillman Schools to meet the "wave of the future" in school population. We believe it is the duty of the people of Tenafly to register their opinions in such definite terms that the question of a small percentage vote governing the community's actions will not again be raised. It might be added that abstinence from voting—by its mere abstinence—constitutes half-approval of the measures to be taken, and may even indicate complete confidence in the plans under consideration. A concrete decision by voting in the polls is a far more satisfactory method to all concerned.

Tenafly Marine With 1st Division: Korea

TENAFLY—Technical Sergeant C. T. Clancy, Jr., who served with the Fourth Marine Division in World War II, is now with the First Marine Division, and has been in Korea since July, it was reported today.

The son of Mrs. C. T. Clancy of 6 Lindley avenue, Tenafly, Sergeant Clancy was in four invasions during World War II—Roi-Namur, Saipan, Tinian and Iwo Jima. He enlisted in the Marines on Dec. 8, 1941, the day after Pearl Harbor, his mother states, and hopes to be home for Christmas.

Tenafly Chest Pledges Total $14,000; Clark Thanks Campaigners

TENAFLY — The Tenafly Community Chest drive, now nearing its official close, has resulted so far in pledges and contributions amounting to $14,000, it was announced this week by Nelson R. Clark, chairman of the Tenafly Community Chest campaign.

Along the sidelines of the drive, the executive board of the Chest, together with the eleven community, civic and charitable agencies which receive support from the drive, joined in expressing their appreciation for the work of the 315 Tenafly residents who have volunteered as house-to-house solicitors during the drive.

The goal for the 1950 Chest drive is $20,000, and it is anticipated that returns during the closing days of the drive will put the campaign over the top. All workers are urged to get their final returns in as soon as possible, in order to wind up the drive promptly.

Tenafly Election Decision Sought On Police Wages

TENAFLY — The fact that a legal technicality might make it appear that the Tenafly Police Department is seeking a raise through public referendum, next Tuesday, was pointed out by the Borough Department this week, which sent out cards explaining the fact that no actual increase is being requested over present income.

Borough Attorney Walter R. Huck had ruled that the ballot must show the figures — not only for the salary schedule to be approved, but also the figures from the last referendum vote on Tenafly police salary schedules — that of November, 1946.

The fact that the high cost of living has brought several increases to Tenafly policemen by action of the Mayor an Council since the 1946 referendum is not mentioned on the ballot. In reality, no actual increase over present salaries is being sought. The request is simply to establish the salaries now being received by borough ordinance and will in no way increase or affect local taxes.

Salary Established

As set forth in the enabling ordinance approved last month by the Tenafly Mayor and Council, the salary schedule is established as follows, subject to the approval of the voters: Chief, [illegible] $4,000; Sergeant, $3,750; Detective Sergeant, $3,950; Patrolmen, beginning at $3,700, and rising to a maximum of $3,800 for fifth and subsequent years of servic.

Th election in Tenafly, next Tuesday, will provide little excitement, the police salary referendum being the chief issue. Tenafly voters are expected to turn out to support Harry L. Towe of Birchwood place, candidate for re-election to Congress; and Harry G. Robinson and Gustav Thorkilson, candidates for re-election to the Borough Council.

The increased population of the Borough of Tenafly has resulted in the establishment of a new election district—the fifth in the community. The new district, including all the area in the southwest section of the borough centering on the Walter Stillman School, will use that school as its balloting center.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. until 8 p.m., to give all legal, registered voters of the community the opportunity to vote. The regular polling places will be—in addition to the new fifth distrct: the first district, Mackay School; second district, Tenafly High School; third district, Mugham School; fourth district, the high school.

School Expansion Long Range Plan, Says Board Head

TENNAFLY—Plans for the expansion of the elementary schools are but a part of the long-range building program of the Board of Education, said C. F. Nelson, president of the Board, in addressing the parents of tenth-grade pupils in the high school on Monday evening. The high school locker rooms, cafeteria, and gymnasium all need attention, he said, but such improvements cannot be made until the space in the Browning School is released.

Three elementary school grades are now housed in Browning. The proposed additions to the Mackay and Stillman schools are expected to take care of these children and to prevent the necessity of part-tim sessions in all the elementary schools should the present overcrowding continue.

The special poll scheduled by the Board of Education for Tuesday, Nov. 14, at the high school from 2 to 9 p.m., requests authorization to use $15,000 from an unexpended balance of Stillman School funds with which to secure plans and specifications for a four-room addition to the Mackay School and a seven-room addition, with associated facilities, to the Stillman School.

Englewood Teachers Ask For Raise

ENGLEWOOD—The Englewood Teachers' Association, following a recent executive session of its Economic Welfare Committee with the Englewood Board of Education, today announced that mutual problems arising from difficulties caused by the increased cost of living were the topic for discussion at the meeting, held in the Board of Education office at Dwight Morrow High School.

Lions Award Night Features Carl Hubbell

TENAFLY — Over 250 Little Leaguers, attended the League Award Night program sponsored by the Tenafly Lions Club, organizers of the project in Tenafly, together with parents and friends. The meeting was held at the American Legion Hall on Franklin street last Friday night with Carl Hubbell of the Giants as the speaker of the evening.

Kenneth Toombs, president of the Lions Club, welcomed the group and Garrett Felter, as chairman of the awards committee, introduced Carl Hubbell. Hubbell told the boys, "You don't have to be a natural ball-player, if you love the game, and you have real sportsmanship and determination, you have a good chance to make the Big League".

Movies of Little League players in action were shown by Fordyce Beggs, after which the awards were made by Guy Ham, president of the Tenafly Little League.

Belt Buckles

Lions' Little League belt buckles were presented to the Bowers' Drug team, champions of the season, who won both first and second half play by scores of six wins and three losses. Their manager, William Liebeknecht, now being in military service, John Faletti took over the management of the team and was with them when he awards were made.

Penetone team — Ray Abbott, Donald Davies, Roger Doody, Roger Dierman, A. Barulich, Mark Kessler, Jay Hebrank, Dennis Hoffman, Dick Hunton, Robert MacKinnin Ray Capozzi, Bruce Repetto, Daniel Provenzano Kenneth Rappolt, William Seigel, Ray McLaughlin, Victor Grohmann and John Diefenbach, Manager Orrie Marx.

The award which climaxed the evening was that of Lions Little League sweatshirts to the members of the All Star team, picked by the managers of the other teams.

Frankfurters, soda, and ice cream were served the boys at the conclusion of the program.

Vincent Kane Jr. Wins Towe Appointment

TENAFLY—Congressman Harry L. Towe announced this week the appointment of Vincent P Kane Jr., of 20 Esmond place, Tenafly as principal appointee to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland.

Mr. Kane is the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Kane. He was graduated in June from Tenafly High School where he was a member of the Student Council, the Gold "T" committee, the Tenakin and Echo staffs. He is now at the Columbian Preparatory School at Washington, D. C., which prepares students for either West Point or Annapolis. Born at the Englewood Hospital, he has lived his entire life in Tenafly.

Alternates announced by Congressman Towe are: first alternate, Wentworth Huntington Barnes Jr., who lives with his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hubbell, at 166 Grand avenue, Englewood. The second alternate is Judson Todd Murray, now in the Navy, the son of Royal C. Murray of 275 Engle street Englewood.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Henry Tate Came Here On Her Honeymoon

ENGLEWOOD—Mrs. Mary Tate, who came to Englewood on her honeymoon, 60 years ago, and remained here to raise her family and see two other generations of her descendents, died on Sunday at her home, 21 Reade street. She was 83 years of age, and had suffered from a heart condition for the past ten years.

Mrs. Tate was born in County Antrim, in Ireland. She came to Canada as a young girl and was married there, visiting Englewood for the first time during her wedding trip. Her husband, Henry, survives, as do four daughters: Mrs. Lester Meade; Mrs. Matthew Callahan; the Misses Mary Tate and Elizabeth Tate, all of Englewood. There are also seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services were held this morning, with a requiem mass at St. Cecilia's R. C. Church at 10 a.m. Interment was in the Tate family plot in Brookside Cemetery.

Mrs. John W. Pierce, Mother Of Mrs. Yuille

TENAFLY — Mrs. Lillian M. Pierce, wife of the late John W. Pierce, and resident of Tenafly at 371 Knickerbocker road, died on Sunday, Oct. 29, at her home. Mrs. Pierce was the mother of Mrs. Lillian P. Yuille of Tenafly.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the William Pell Funeral Home, Tenafly, with the Rev. Albert Beemer of the Tenafly Methodist Church officiating.

Mrs. Alfred Bertrand, Formerly Of Englewood

FAIR LAWN—Mrs. Fanny B. Bertrand, a native and for many years a resident of Englewood, died at her home, 440-02 Van Duren street, in Fair Lawn, on Monday after a long illness.

Mrs. Bertrand, the wife of Alfred Bertrand, is also survived by a sister, Miss Emma Caldwell, also of Fair Lawn. A brother, Leonard Baker, was for many years active in the Englewood area as a member of the heating engineering firm of Hickey and Baker. He died six years ago.

Funeral services will be held today, Thursday, at 1:30 p.m. at the residence, with the minister of the Ridgewood Methodist Church officiating. Interment will be in Brookside Cemetery.

Mrs. Albert Conklin, Noted Artist, Teacher

ENGLEWOOD — Mrs. Margaret Todd Conklin, member of a family which has been in this country since before the American Revolution, died suddenly at her home, 93 Ivy lane, Englewood, on Friday. She was 84 years of age.

Mrs. Conklin was born in Dobbs Ferry, N. Y. She received her education at private schools, art schools and at Cooper Union, New York. She was an artist for many years and an instructor in art. Mrs. Conklin was a resident of Englewood for about 57 years, and had been active in civic and church affairs, a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Surviving are her husband, Elbert Conklin; two daughters: Miss Alice Conklin of Englewood and Mrs. Helen C. Stone, of New York City; and one son, George, of Lake Mohawk.

Funeral services were held in St. Paul's Chapel, Englewood, on Monday at 2 p.m., with the Rev. James A. Mitchell, rector of the church, officiating. Interment was in the Palisade Cemetery, Palisade, N. Y.

UNOPPOSED

JOHN C. GLIDDEN
For Council, First Ward

Trumbull, Glidden

four children, three of them graduates of Dwight Morrow High School they belong to St. Paul's Church.

JOHN C. GLIDDEN

John C. Glidden is the unopposed Republican candidate for the position of Councilman in the Firt Ward, the post now held by Richard A. Robertson.

Mr. Glidden is a general partner in the investment securities form of Glidden, Morris and Company in New York, and will bring to the Council a wide experience in financial matters. He was born in Englewood, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Glidden, and attended school in this city.

Mr. Glidden served in the Marine Corps during World War II and was discharged with the rank of Captain. Prior to his entry into military service, he was graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy and from Harvard University.

He was one of the organizers and for a number of years served as president of the Englewood Young Republican Club. He has been instrumental in the organization of the Marine Corps League in Bergen County since his return to civilian status.

In Englewood, Mr. Glidden has been active in the Norther Valley Chapter, American Red Cross. This year he served as chairman of the Red Cross drive in the Northern Valley Chapter area, raising nearly $90,000

1,000 At "Open House" For Jewish Center

ENGLEWOOD — The new Jewish Community Center of Englewood was viewed by more than 1,000 visitors Sunday morning and afternoon during an open house program at the building on Tenafly road. Included among the visitors were many from out of town.

Refreshments were served, and guided tours of the building were conducted by a committee of hostesses headed by Mrs. Nat J. Dembrow.

Mrs. Dembrow's committee included the following: Mrs. Edward Schreiber, Mrs. Seymour Lustig, Mrs. Seymour Pass, Mrs. Lloyd Goodman, Mrs. Abe Wise, Mrs. Harold Abrams, Mrs. Irving Etish, Mrs. William Silverstein, Mrs. Abner Nashel, Mrs. Harold Hopp, Mrs. William Kaufmann, Mrs. Morris Magaziner, Miss Rose Schneider and Mrs. Anna Opper.

Enthusiasm Built Up By Young GO Peep Show

ENGLEWOOD—"That's my Pop!" Thus did Mrs. Mary Trumbull Van Buren (Mrs. Albert Van Buren), in full Gay Nineties garb, greet her father, Councilman Allan T. Trumbull, and escort him to the stage at the First Annual GO Peep Show presented Friday night by the Englewood Young Republican Club.

The affair was a unique and highly entertaining pre-election event that drew nearly 250 persons to the Englewood Woman's Club.

All the candidates were featured in one way or another but the greeting accorded to Councilman Trumbull, who is seeking re-election Tuesday in the Second Ward, was the warmest and most unique.

John C. Glidden, First Ward candidate, who is also president of the Young Republican Club, was feted, and was presented with a toy elephant, symbolic of Republicanism, to honor the recent arrival of his third child, James Glidden.

All Candidates Honored

This honoring of the candidates, who included Rep. Harry L. Towe, Assembly Candidate Gill C. Job, and Freeholder Candidates Martin P. Nelson and Martin J. Ferber, was the highlight of the show, although all that preceded it was interesting too. There was a half hour of skits, a quartet, a series of can-can dances and Flora-Dora girls. These Flora-Doras, singing parodies of well known radio commercials, brought on the candidates. The Towe introduction, for instance, was based on "Harry Towe Hits The Spot." The local highlight was the introduction of Councilman Trumbull with "For City Council, Here's The Top-Tony Trumbull," at which point his daughter, Mrs. Van Buren, who was entertainment chairman, cried, "He's My Pop."

The show was written by Mrs. Donald Gordon and Miss Constance Havrilla, who doubled as director. Miss Anne Needham, another Flora-Dora girl,sang several politically flavored parodies.

Special solos were rendered by two of the City's youngest Republicans, 12-year-old Melvin Henderson and 14-year-old Arthur Taylor. Jean Boone, Dwight Morrow High School student was featured as soloist. The cast included:

Waiters — Alexander Warrick, Glidden, Sheldon M. Liebowitz, Walter Hartmeyer, Peter Clough, John Adams, William Stanhope, David Ressler, Richard Barnes, Hugh Escher, John Adams, Cal in Sykes, Timothy Overton, Theodore Redfield, and Newton Schenck.

Committee—Albert Van Buren, chairman, Mrs. M. Howard Merritt, Mrs. O. Blake Wilcox, Glidden, Liebowitz, Trumbull, Miss Bonnie Beauduy, Humphrey Stanard, Gordon Schenck, Miss Ann Bridgeman, Miss Shirley Petigrue, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Richards, Richard Overton, and Anne Coulter.

The show, which had the enthusiastic support of the senior Republican organizations of Englewood, demonstrated the strength of this young group and undoubtedly will be responsible for additional growth and strength.

World Federalist Group To Meet At Englewood Home

ENGLEWOOD — A meeting of the United World Federalists will be held on Monday evening, Nov. 6, at the home of Mrs. Malcolm S. Mackay, 135 Winthrop place, Englewood, at 8 p.m. Members of the local chapter are urged to be present, and various means of political action will be discussed.

Members heard Superior Court Judge Frederic R. Colie, on Monday evening declare that "The United States mmust continue the positive aggressive leadership which it demonstrated in supporting UN action in Korea until such a time as the United Nations has sufficier authority and power to guarantee all nations freedom from tion."

Addressing the State Council meeting of the United World Federalists at Newark, Judge Colie said that "today we are witnessing a world-wide revival of hope stemming from the whole-hearted support of the American people to the UN action in Korea".

Democratic Club all persons registered to vote are urged to do so on Tuesday, Nov. 7. Polls are open 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

"We heartily endorse our candidate, Keith Craft, who is running for Councilman in the second Ward. As president of the Englewood Democratic Club, I can personally say that Keith Craft would make a good Councilman because he is interested in local affairs, honest, capable and would serve the interests of all the people.

"I have known him for a period of several years and base this endorsement on that experience."

St. Joseph's Guild To Have Dance Saturday

The St. Joseph's Orphanage Guild, holding its annual charity dance this Saturday night at the Hackensack Golf Club as a benefit for the Christmas fund of the orphanage, announced that almost 200 reservations have been made so far for the dance.

Mrs. Louis F. Jacod, dance chairman, reported that the committee expects the largest turnout for any affair of its kind ever sponsored by the Guild, and that a program of dancing, buffet supper, and several surprise features assures entertainment for all.

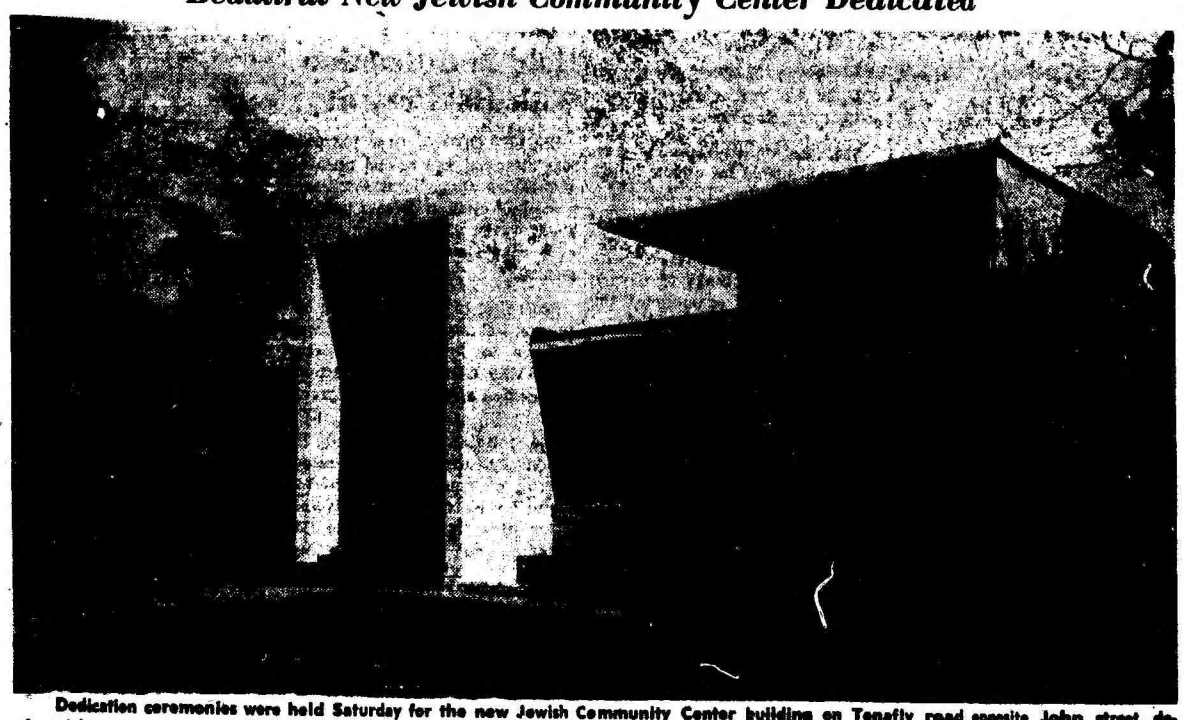
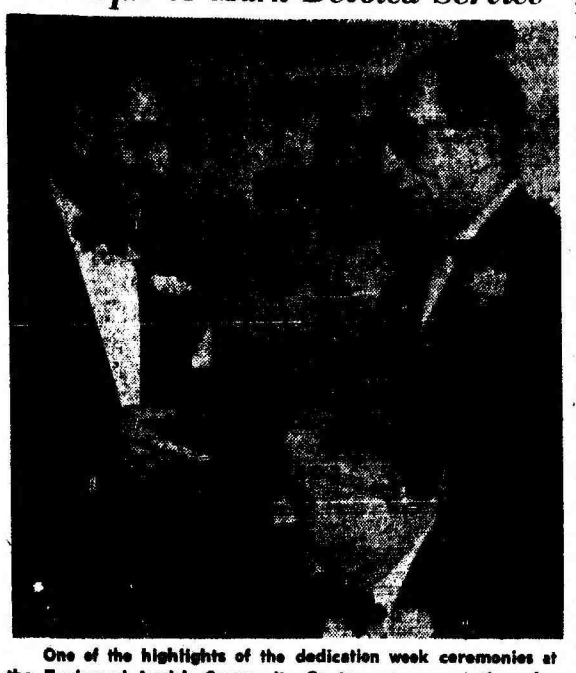
Beautiful New Jewish Community Center Dedicated



Dedication ceremonies were held Saturday for the new Jewish Community Center building on Tenafly road opposite John street, designed by Kelly & Gruzen, Architects & Engineers. A series of dedicatory meetings, highlighted by Open House Sunday, brought hundreds of visitors to the new buildi

A Plaque to Mark Devoted Service



One of the highlights of the dedication week ceremonies at the Englewood Jewish Community Center was presentation of a plaque to Benjamin Casser, president of the Center, by Milton H. Mandel, chairman of the Dedication Journal committee and member of the Board of Governors. The plaque cited Mr. Casser for "his devoted services as president, generosity and leadership . . . an inspiration to all."

Seated in the foreground is Charles Fishberg, chairman of the Dedication Week committee, and chairman of the legal and contract committee of the Center.

the public, Benjamin Casser, president of the Center, noted the dedication's symbolizing "the completeness of a building that our community has been long awaiting." Mr. Casser had been presented by Milton Mandel on behalf of the Board of Governors.

Comparing the building project to the life stages of a child, Mr. Casser noted the various points during the building's history, starting with its original plan and proceeding through the dedication to its public use.

Enumerating five main purposes for the center, Mr. Casser declared that it will "provide for Jewish communities of the Northern Valley, a center for their cultural and social activities; . . . a home for our Jewish community, where Jewish life can be enriched and made more fruitful."

Pattern of Unity

Also, the center will "serve as a meeting place for organizations and make possible the development of a pattern of unity in Jewish group life," as well as "to prepare our youth for more useful lives in the American scene." The fifth purpose will be the contribution to the "useful, civic goal of the entire community."

The center also "hopes to provide the cement which will bind together the elements within our community." It will serve as a common meeting ground, Mr. Casser added, for persons "prepared to submerge narrow group interests in behalf of the larger group welfare."

A declaration of faith was offered when Mr. Casser declared that "where there is a synagogue, a temple and a center, it is of the utmost importance that these institutions and their staffs work together harmoniously and cooperatively. We must proceed on the basic assumption that we are all engaged in working for the betterment of the community in sincerity and faithfulness.

Unlimited Scope

"The community center does not limit the scope of its interests and activities to any particular segment of Jewry, but will try to reach all elements in the community."

"The temple, synagogue and center should be partners in a common enterprise: the building of a Jewish community on the highest levels of religious and cultural life. If partners are suspicious and lack faith in one another, and do not work together, their enterprise will surely fail."

The building's cost was placed by Mr. Casser at $250,900, with an additional $50,000 required before its parking facilities and interior furnishing are completed. An appeal for increased pledges was voiced by Mr. Casser, who also expressed his appreciation for the work of those persons in charge of the center's erection.

Notes Aides

Persons noted by Mr. Casser included Louis Kriegel, Joseph Skaller, Charles Fishberg, Dr. Louis Greenwald, Nat Fish, Sol Tamases, Moe Rabin, Milton Mandel, Joseph H. Daniels Harold Rosenberg, Mrs. Fred Thomases, Mrs. William Kaufmann and Mrs. Herman Kahn.

Also Mr. and Mrs. George Feinberg, Fred Thomases, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mandel, Mr. and Mrs. Jules Casser, Mr. and Mrs. Max Grobow, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yager, the late Stanley Lawson, the late Ferdinand Vorsanger, the late Louis Rappaport, the late Sadie Jacobs, Barney Gruzen, Joseph and Frank Weny, and Fred Summers.

In an invocation delivered by Rabbi Israel Margolies, the Jewish center was classified as "not a mere building of mortar and metal, but a living organism, a way of life."

Said Rabbi Margolies, "This structure . . . is not merely a large edifice, an imposing pile of masonry, but a home. . . the common ground, we pray, of all groups in Englewood." Following are those who attended the dinner:

Each course will run for a period of six weeks, having one-two hour session per week.

A class is scheduled for Tuesday mornings from 9:30 to 11:30, with Mrs. Vincent P. Kane, R. N., as instructor. Evening classes will be held on Tuesday from 8 to 10 with Mrs. Charles Dietz, R. N., as instructor.

Anyone desiring to register for the course should telephone promptly to either of the following:

Mrs. R. C. Bromelmeier—Eng.-3-5046 or Mrs. E. C. Masson—Eng. 3-7849.

Classes will start within the next few weeks.

Rotary Hospital Auction Goods Hit New Peak

ENGLEWOOD — The supply of items, large and small, to be sold at the Englewood Rotary Club auction benefit Nov. 14 at the Englewood Field Club swelled today as hundreds of articles of merchandise poured into the club.

Proceeds from the auction will go toward the Englewood Hospital Building Fun. Chairman of the event is Joseph Sel.

According to announcements made today, the newest offerings include a selection of kitchen cabinets, ladies' underwear, wallets, ladies' sweaters and much more unused merchandise.

In charge of useable antique gifts is Mrs. Howard Richmond. She has reported items from pots and pans to pianos and fur coats as ready for the auctioneer's hammer.

The services of William Oliver, Englewood professional auctioneer, have been volunteered for the occasion. Original plans called for the auction to be held in the hospital auditorium, but so great has been the intake of merchandise that the Englewood Field Club was chosen last week as a site for the event. The field club is also donating its facilities.

Six special prizes, each a $25 U. S. Savings Bond, will be awarded during the day. The auction will start at 10 a. m. and continue until supplies are exhausted. Refreshments will be available at nominal cost to auction patrons.

Jay McWhorter of Law, Inc., Palisade avenue, is in charge of the new gifts committee. Other committee heads include Mrs. Joseph Sel and Mrs. Nell Smalbein.

Additional donations of merchandise may be made by calling any Rotary committee member, Mr. Sel said. The transportation of gift items will be handled by the club, with no inconvenience to the donor, he added.

At this week's meeting of the club, the Rev. James A. Martin, new assistant minister at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, addressed club members. A former fighter pilot in the Royal Air Force during World War II. Rev. Martin told of his experiences while stationed at Malta, Alexandria and in England.

Asked why he enlisted in the air force after his religious training, Rev. Martin declared that, since he was too young to enlist as a chaplain, he fulfilled his desire to help the allied cause by enlisting in that group.

Sylvia Zaremba, Prodigy Pianist, In Concert Here

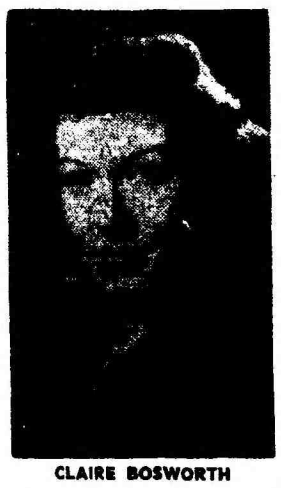
ENGLEWOOD — Sylvia Zaremba, 17 year old pianist, will be heard in Englewood on Wednesday evening, Nov. 8, in the second of four concerts presented for the membership of the Northern Valley Civic Music Association. Miss Zaremba, a native of Chicopee, Mass., and a child prodigy since her concert debut at the age of seven, will appear at the St. Cecilia Auditorium.

The young pianist, whose fourth recital at New York's Town Hall last year was praised by Olin Downes of the New York Times for "extraordinary virtuosity and musical understanding," has appeared with orchestras since 1940 when she played the Mozart "Concerto in A Major" with the Women's Symphony Orchestra of Boston in Symphony Hall. At nine, she made her New York bow with the Philharmonic Symphony, and the next year made her formal debut in a Town Hall concert.

At 11 she "awed" a Cleveland audience of 5,000 by playing the Mozart "D Minor Concerto" "in a manner that re-kindled faith in miracles," declared the Cleveland Plain Dealer. / 12, she played with the Philadelphia Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic. Chicago, Montreal, Toronto and other cities have also heard her as orchestral soloist. Two years ago, she appeared at the White House where she performed for the President and his guests at the first diplomatic dinner given in seven years.

Her program will include: "Organ Fantasia and Fugue in G Minor," Bach-Liszt; "Thirty-Two Variations, in C minor," Beethoven; "Sonata in B flat minor, Opus 35," Chopin; "Sonata NoN. 3, Opus 46," Kabalevsky; "Suite pour le piano," Debussy; "Sonetto del Petrarca, No. 104," Liszt; and "Mephisto Waltz," Lizst.

IN GUILD COMEDY



CLAIRE BOSWORTH

Claire Bosworth, shown above, is a featured player in "Accidentally Yours," comedy presented by Englewood Kiwanis in a benefit performance last night. The Guild Theatre offering at Roosevelt school, Englewood, will be repeated this evening.

Four Bergen Men Arrested As Big County Gamblers

HACKENSACK—The State's investigation of gambling in Bergen County pulled in four Bergen County gamblers whose operations are known to be extensive:

Joe Adonis of Fort Lee, Salvatore Moretti of Demarest, Arthur Longano of Englewood, and James Lynch of Palisades Park.

The four men, alleged associates in the operation of a big gambling casino in Lodi, surrendered to Superior Court Judge J. Wallace Leyden in Hackensack Tuesday and Wednesday and were released in bail of $15,000 each. Their arrests had been wantedby Deputy Attorney General Nelson F. Stamler, who is in charge of the State's investigation, and who says the spotlight will be turned full, on Bergen now. He will question the four and is expected to bring them before a special grand Jury next week.

Adonis, the biggest name among the four, is also wanted for questioning by the Kefauver Senate Crime Investigating Committee. He has been dodging subpoenas on all sides.

A Firsthand Report On British Socialism

ENGLEWOOD—In a first-hand account published this month, Maxwell M. Upson, chairman of the board at Raymond Concrete Pile Company, showed socialism as it exists today in Great Britain.

Mr. Upson resides on Mountain road, Englewood. The article, published in the Raymond Record, follows:

When I landed at the Health Row Airport, London, last November, I motored to the North Airport to catch an Air France plane to Paris. It was a beautiful, mild, sunny Sunday morning. My first thought was that now I would see London in its holiday mood. To my surprise, I found the magnificent highways almost deserted — so much so that I counted the motor cars that I passed in the ten miles separating the two airports. There were six in all. When I compared his with the state of the highways at 10 o'clock on a Sunday morning in the United States, my heart was filled with concern and sympathy. I knew that there was a severe control on gasoline but I also knew that most of the cars in England are designed to run 25 to 35 miles on a gallon. Naturally I began to wonder how many people really had cars.

In looking up these statistics, I found that the number of cars in Great Britain would provide only one for every six families while in this country we average a car for almost every family. The first question that comes to mind is whether this was one of the dividends of a socialized government. In consequence, I assembled other figures. Only 3.5 per cent of the households of Great Britain have mechanical refrigerators and 3.6 per cent have electric washing machines. In the United States, 79.2 per cent of the homes are equipped with mechanical refrigerators and 68.6 per ment with electric washing machines.

Wages Low

It was natural that an inquiring mind should immediately try to ascertain the reasons for these differences of standards. I thereupon looked into the wages in Great Britain as compared to our own. I found that the average hourly wage in 1949 in this country was approximately $1.40 as against 37½ cents in Great Britain. This in itself was startling enough. But when I began to try to find out the relative taxes, I learned that a 46-hour week at 37½ cents provided a wage of approximately $18, on which a tax of $1.60 or nine per cent was paid. As against this, our men making $1.40 an hour for a 40-hour week, or $56 a week, pay a tax of $3.62 or 6.7 per cent of their wages—while no tax is paid on an $18-a-week income.

If an employe does earn as much as $56 a week in Great Britain, his tax jumps to $10.40 a week or 19 per cent. All of which indicates that their wage rate is about one-third of ours and their tax about three times as great. We, in turn, think our taxes are severe and our income seemingly insufficient. The patience and endurance of the British people stimulate my sympathy and cause me to marvel that they continue to support the principles of socialism which have led them so far down the road to pauperism.

In trying to ascertain why British industry does not pay its workers a higher wage, I consulted statistics on the relative output per worker in the United Kingdom as against the United States. These statistics were prepared by a British economist, named Rosta, and have been generally accepted in both countries. They indicate that workmen in this country produce 50 per cent to more than 300 per cent more per man than do workmen in the United Kingdom. This is due to several factors. The first is that capital in this country has invested very heavily in modern machinery which increases the productivity of every worker. The second factor is that the American worker is much better fed and on that account is more efficient in his efforts. It is obvious that British industry cannot hope to compee in the world markets unless its unit cost of production is kept on a competitive basis. It is for this reason that Britain at the present time is suffering for the want of foreign exchange. They cannot make goods at a price low enough to meet competitors in other countries.

I am impelled to give you these facts for the reason that, until one travels and studies the conditions prevailing in countries other than our own, it is almost impossible to appreciate the blessings we enjoy. These are times, due to threat of war, when taxes and inflation test our endurance to the utmost; but in meeting these rrying and sometimes discouraging conditions, we must ever be mindful that our free enterprise system has provided us with necessities, comforts and luxuries to a degree not approached by any other country in the world.

Public Apathy Is Scored By Walsh At CWV Breakfast

ENGLEWOOD — Public apathy and the tendency to relax vigilance were scored by Maurice A. Walsh, Jr., professor of law at Fordham University's St. Peter's College School of Business, when he addressed members of St. Cecilia's Catholic War Veterans Post 267 Sunday morning.

Speaking at a Holy Communion breakfast, Mr. Walsh noted his own personal awareness of Communism in the United States. A member of the law firm of Fahy, Walsh and Evers, New York and Jersey City, Mr. Walsh formerly served as a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Naval Intelligence Corps.

Mr. Walsh, east state commander of the Catholic War Veterans, warned against the "apathy of the general public regarding the infiltration of Communism into our every day lives. The idea that 'it can't happen here' must be laid aside."

He cited how a small, strong-arm minority wields all the power in Russia and pointed out that the Communistic satellites were taken over by similar methods used by the agents of the Soviets. "The fine peoples of Czechoslovakia, Yougoslavia, Poland and Hungary have all been enslaved because they had been weakened and lulled into complacency by soft sounding words," he said.

Mr. Walsh praised the members of St. Cecilia Post, of which he is a member, on its continued efforts to thwart the influence of Communism. He congratulated them on their "looking to God for their guidance by their receiving Holy Communion with the Ladies Auxiliary and for joining in the breakfast".

Commander Louis Fernekees praised Mrs. Julia Raivre and the Ladies Auxiliary for the work accomplished by them in preparing the breakfast and decorating the club room in a Hallowe'en motif

Blaze In Trailer Tires Results In Damage To Cargo

ENGLEWOOD — Considerable damage was done Monday in a truck fire that was traced to two right rear tires burning on the truck's trailer.

A load of bricks carried on the trailer was blackened by smoke and flames which came from straw on top of and between the bricks. The straw was ignited by flames from the two tires.

According to Englewood Fire Department records, the truck was found on fire on the east side of Grand avenue south of Chester place. An alarm at 1:20 p.m. from box 323 at Grand avenue opposite Garrett place brought firemen to the scene.

Firemen were able to extinguish the flames before damage became extensive.

Driver of the truck was Rene Tellier, Blanch avenue, West Norwood. The vehicle is owned by Pete Fonseto, 15 Foster street, Bergenfield.

Dwight's Chairman and President

DONALD V. LOWE

O. BLAKE WILLCOX

ENGLEWOOD — After 17 years of service on the Board of Trustees of the Dwight School for Girls and eight years as president of the board, Donald V. Lowe was appointed to the chairmanship of the Board at the recent annual meeting of the Dwight trustees.

The board placed on record a tribute to Mr. Lowe's able leadership, interest, enthusiasm, and inspiration which carried the school successfully through the difficult years of World War 2, the resignation and retirement of its co-principals, Mrs. Charles Hulst and Miss Frances Leggett in 1948, as well as the establishment of Miss Marjorie French as headmistress in 1948.

The board praised him also for his active part in the completion of the Dwight Development Campaign Fund, resulting in the new Hulst House, the academic offices, the cafeteria, and many other improvements. The board also expressed its gratitude that Mr. Lowe would still continue to advise them in his capacity as chairman.

O. Blake Willcox, well-known Englewood lawyer, becomes the new president, or executive head, of the board. Mr. Willcox has been a member of the board for four years and has for the past three years served as vice-president. His keen interest in the school and efforts in its behalf promise well for the school's future development under his leadership, the board said.

Other officers elected included Mrs. Malcolm S. Mackay and Stuart A. Lyman, vice presidents; David Escher, treasurer; Mrs. William S. Palmer, secretary; all of Englewood.

The board accepted with regret the resignations of Allen W. Fincke, of Tenafly, and Richard J. Eckart of Englewood. Newly elected to the board was Mrs. Robert K. Dunn, of Englewood, an alumna of the class of 1934 and the mother of three daughters in the school.

'No Reason To Hide,' Says MD On Atom Bomb

ENGLEWOOD — "There is no reason to hide," said Dr. Bernard Eisenstein, 276 Engle street, Englewood, last week, in an address which served to calm the fears of atomic attack in this area.

While qualifying the statement with the warning that adequate civilian defense measures must be taken, Dr. Eisenstein declared firmly that "it would be fantastic to evacuate the bulk of our city populations and to require them to dwell in sparsely settled areas." His remarks are based on exhaus*tive studies of Nagasaki, Hiroshima, and experiment.*

Invited to discuss atomic medicine at a meeting of the Northern Valley Post, Jewish War Veterans, Dr. Eisenstein based his lecture on a survey of all published material on the subject.

A prefatory statement of the A-bomb construction and method of operation led the speaker to a discussion of blast casualties. Direct blast injuries were few, he said. "Indirect blast effects, however, told a different story. These were very serious," the doctor continued, "and were manifested by flying debris, masonry, timber and broken glass. Thousands of such casualties resulted."

Might Have Lived

However, many such injured persons might have survived had sufficient defense measures against the bomb been set up prior to its explosion, he added. "Because of chaos and hysteria evoked by this unsuspected cataclysm," he declared, "no attempt was made to carry out rescue operations, and these helpless individuals perished in the raging fires," Inadequate clothing and flimsy construction added to the Japanese devastation

As to burn casualties, Dr. Eisenstein said that a much more difficult problem existed. In an American city of 250,000, results would be as follows (based on what happened at Hiroshima):

1. The area immediately beneath the burst, out to approximately 1200 yards, would be submitted to millions of degrees of sudden heat. All persons in this area would probably be killed, if above the surface.

2. In the zone from 1500 to 4000 yards away from the blast, atomic radiation would be a minor problem compared to that of burns. Most of the surviving seriously burned people would be in that area. Though the situation would not offer easy solution, said Dr. Eisenstein, "there is a good reason to believe that the dire predictions of early American observers may well be much too high because they were based on an estimate which assumes A-bomb attack made on an unwarned population, with all persons outside of shelter and lightly clothed."

4,000-Yard Range

Clothing would offer protection against flash burns, resulting from sudden exposure to light and infra-oed and ultra-violet rays, but only beyond a 1200-yard zone. Flash burns would probably occur in some degree to every unprotected person in the path of the flash, out in the open, within a range of 4,000 yards.

"The spreading secondary fires" said the doctor, "caused by ignited gas mains, overturned stoves and damaged electrical circuits created a flaming hell from which the severely injured could not escape."

3. The radiation problem is not as great as might be imagined, he declared. While not de-emphasizing or minimizing radiation damage, the speaker pointed out that 9,000 deaths from this cause reported in Hiroshima represented only 15 percent of the total death count. "Fears of the danger of exposure to residual radiation should be dispelled," he said, because persons are too frightened to enter a bombed area for rescue operations. This, he declared, occurred in Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

That the United States is woefully unprepared for atomic attack was evident when Dr. Eisenstein declared that an estimated 50,000 casualties might require 40 pints of blood, almost three miles of gauze and possibly 42 tanks of oxygen per patient. The example of the Boston holocaust at the Coconut Grove night club served to prove that where 400 casualties occurred, enough medical equipment was simply not available.

"A stunned, badly shaken and apathetic populace," said Dr. Eisenstein, regarding Hiroshima and Nagasaki casualty counts, "failed utterly to answer the call of great disaster and allowed thousands of their helpless compatriots to perish miserably in that inferno."

Every school child should be taught "basic considerations of the problem of civil defense," he said. Training should begin in the home. Major defense problems would be treatment and evacuation of wounded, fire fighting and control, feeding of survivors and establishment of emergency transportation.

While working for peace, he concluded, "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty."

Firemen's Aides Hold 2nd Reunion With 100 Present

ENGLEWOOD — Over 100 persons attended the second reunion of the Fire Department Auxiliary, a wartime civilian defense unit, at a stag party staged at the Englewood Fire House last Wednesday evening.

According to Fire Capt. John W. uinn, a 100 percent response was received to invitations sent out. Those who were unable to attend the reunion wrote letters of greeting.

The reunion was sparked by community singing, piano selections of old song favorites, and a discussion by Sgt. Audley Walsh of the Ridgefield Park Police Department, on "Rackets Are My Racket."

Sgt. Walsh discussed various methods of cheating in gambling games, demonstrating his lecture with marked cards, mirrors, carnival wheels, loaded dice and other illegal gambling paraphernalia.

The group held its first reunion in 1946. Never officially disbanded, the corps is being kept in touch with firefighters through reunions and other methods.

Among those attending the reunion were Public Safety Councilman Albert Moskin, Councilman-at-large W. Gerould Clark, former Councilman David Mackie, Paul Huckin, Bernard Lenrow, and Robert C. Hertzler, president of Englewood Hospital.

The committee in charge of the affair was headed by Lt. Frederick J. Kuhnert. Assisting him were Firemen Samuel R. Folliard, Joseph Marshall and George Westervelt.

Refreshments were served during the evening.

Page Bridgman Weds Mr. Poore In Chapel Ceremony October 27

Because of sudden illness of the bride-to-be plans which had been completed by Miss Page Bridgman for her marriage to Burton Richard Poore of Weston, Conn. to take place in St. Paul's Episcopal Chapel at 4 on Oct. 28 were changed. Instead she was quietly married with only relatives attending in the Chapel at the time scheduled orginally for the rehearsal, which was at 6:30 on Oct. 27 Friday night. Only relatives attended the ceremony and home reception which followed.

It was a candlelight ceremony with white chrysanthemums decorating the altar of the chapel just as at first planned.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bridgman, her father, gave her in marriage with the Rev. James A. Mitchell, rector of St. Paul's officiating. She wore a trained white satin gown which had an off-the-shoulder effect. The neckline was finished with a satin fold edged with a ruffle of lace. Matching long white satin mitts were worn and a Juliet cap held her fingertip veil in place. Camellias, roses and lilies-of-the-valley were carried.

Mrs. Harley L. Moore of Harrington Park, serving as matron of honor, and Miss Ann Bridgman, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, were dressed similarly in dusty-rose satin. Each gown was fashioned with a tight-fitting V-neck bodice finished with a wide pleated collar. The sleeves were short and the skirt gathered fully at the waistline. Juliet caps of rose satin relieved with veiling to match were worn. Each carried a spray bouquet of blue lace flowers, violets and Pinocchio roses.

The flower girl, Paula Brittan, a second cousin of the bride, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Truxtan Brittan of 150 Brayton street, Englewood, wore dusty-rose taffeta styled in similar design to gowns worn by the honor attendants. It was trimmed with pink ribbon velvet. She carried a bouquet of violets and Pinocchio roses.

James A. Poore, Jr., of Butte, eldest brother of the bridegroom was best man. Others in the wedding party were Robert A. Poore of Butte, another brother, and James H. Dickson of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Poore will leave later for a two months' motor trip through parts of the United States. They will live on Godfrey road in Weston.

Mrs. Poore attended Dwight School for Girls in Englewood and was graduated in 1942 from the Shipley School in Bryn Mawr, Penn.

Mr. Poore is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Albert Poore of Butte. He was graduated in 1942 from the University of California in Los Angeles and served in the United States Navy during World War II.

THEIR MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

MR. AND MRS. CLEMENT W. SHEFFERT

Clement Wilkinson Sheffert Weds Miss Calcanes In Brooklyn Church

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Calcanes of 725 43rd street, Brooklyn, have announced the marriage on Saturday, Oct. 7, of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Calcanes, to Clement Wilkinson Sheffert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement George Sheffert of 174 Lake street, Englewood. The Rev. Britton Hall officiated at the 4:30 ceremony at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Brooklyn. A reception followed at Fort Hamilton Veterans Hall.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a long-trained white satin gown with built-up net yoke. The gown was embellished with seed pearl trimming. Her veil was of fingertip length and she carried white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Irna Gustafson of Brooklyn, serving as the only attendant wore a gold-colored taffeta gown. Her floral coronet matched the gold and bronze chrysanthemums she carried. John Skinnider of Brooklyn served as best man. Paul Sheffert, brother of the bride was usher.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheffert, who spent their honeymoon in the White Mountains, are living for the present at 725-43rd street, Brooklyn.

The former Miss Calcanes is a graduate of Manual High School in Brooklyn and is now employed in the engineering department of the Atlantic Telephone and Telegraph Co.

LWV Resumes Tript To Lake Success Meetings

ENGLEWOOD—The Englewood League of Women Voters has resumed its monthly rips to the United Nations sessions at Lake Success, and will continue these trips on the second Tuesday of each month, through May.

Mrs. W. F. Fauerbach, hairman, has asked formore volunteers with cars, and will arrange transportation for those needing it if they will call her during the first week of the month at Eng. 3-5950.

"The UN is so vast that it is impossible for anyone to know it all", Mrs. Fauerbach said this week. "Each one should make a specific agency her special interest, and then exchange views to give the entire group a general idea of the workings of the entire UN."

Dr. Wescott Elected To Senior Fellowship

The Academy of Medicine of Northern New Jersey at a recent meeting on Oct. 19, at headquarters at 91 Lincoln Park South, Newark, elected Dr. Melville H. Wescott of 93 Grove street, Englewood to Senior Fellowship.

Dr. Wescott is one of Englewood's surgeon dentists and is a lifelong resident of Englewood.

Harvest Party Is Sponsored By Jr. Synagogue Aides

ENGLEWOOD—The annual children's Harvest Party, sponsored by the Junior Women's Auxiliary, was held at Englewood Synagogue, Englewood avenue, Sunday afternoon. A large group of children and parents were entertained by students at the Sidney Sprague School.

Song and dance novelties were offered by Ted Furst, Sandy DeLeeow, Carol Novak, Janine Evans, Nadine Sprague, Robert Kerr, Penny Ashford, Rose Ann Barthel, Judith Gunther, Arlene Garafalo, Judith Werner, Wanda Werner, Hedy Hairanian, Gloria Hairanian, Lewis Gys, Marie Gys, Elaine Birkholz, Mary Ann Oprandy, Isabel Marks and Robert Beke.

Mrs. Jerome Goldman was chairman of the party arrangements, with Mrs. William Gans as co-chairman. Prizes were awarded during the afternoon, and refreshments were served by a committee aiding the co-chairmen.

TO DANCE AT BENEFIT

MISS JOAN McCARTHY — GEORGE YOUNG

McCarthy And Young In Exhibition Dancing To Feature Benefit Dance

Mrs. John H. Barton, chairman of the Englewood Woman's Club dance for the benefit of the Englewood Hospital Building Fund on Saturday evening Nov. 11, has arranged for the appearance on that occasion of the celebrated dancers, Miss Joan MacCarthy and George Young. This well-known dance team will give a brief talk on the modern social dance, illustrate their remarks with exhibitions and demonstrate the MacCarthy-Young method of dance instruction.

Contribute Services

MacCarthy and Young, who are contributing their services for this Englewood benefit dance, are the instructors for a third season of the popular Tuesday evening adult modern social dance class, a feature of the Adult School of Englewood currently being held at Dwight Morrow High School. They recently conducted the Open House Dance Program at the new Englewood Jewish Community Center. Mr. Young has also been director of the Junior Modern Social Dance Club at the Englewood Junior High School.

Sutton Music

The formal dance on Nov. 11 promises to be another gala event at the Woman's Clubhouse, with music by Sutton, a very popular orchestra locally. Table reservations, with preferred locations being given in order of checks received, can be made with Mrs. Thomas B. Atkin, Jr., vice chairman in charge of tickets, who may be reached at 182 East Linden avenue, or EN. 3-7445.

Mrs. Howard S. Weaver of Englewood is in charge of clubhouse arrangements and decorations, with Mrs. Robert P. Coffin of Tenafly handling hospitality and Mrs. George G. Tennant, Jr., of Englewood, miscellaneous details. Mrs. Konrad W. Valentin of Tenafly, is newspaper publicity chairman. The entire dance committee, under the leadership of Mrs. Barton, is working toward the dual goal of representing a truly enjoyable social event at the Woman's Club for a worthy local cause, the Englewood Hospital Building Fund.

State Department To Give Hospital Visas

The United States Department of State has approved the Englewood Hospital as a participating institution in its exchange visitor program for foreign medical graduate students, it was announced this week by Nelson R. Henson, hospital administrator.

Under the State Department's regulations, the Department will issue visas to a limited number of medical doctors who wish to study in this country. At the present time, there are three Chinese doctors at Hongkong waiting transportation in order to start their studies at Englewood Hospial. The Englewood quota provides for a maximum of eight foreign students from certain countries.

PAUL BURDETTS HAVE SON

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burdett of Fair Lawn have announced the birth on Oct. 25 of son, their second child, Gilbert Underhill Burdett, in the Englewood Hospital.

Mrs. Burdett is the former Miss Jean Elizabeth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brown of Englewood.

Mrs. Elmore Gives Afternoon Of Poetry To Woman's Club Members

Mrs. Carl H. Elmore, known as Amelia Josephine Burr Elmore, of Englewood, writer of poetry and author of seven novels, never fails to draw a large and interested audience on her program appearances. Since 1900 she has been one of Englewood's most popular women and is a life member of the Englewood Woman's Club where on Monday she gave a program of unpublished poems with one or two short stories tucked in, all of equal value. Besides being an author, Mrs. Elmore has the gift for reading and dramatics, thus establishing for herself always an audience of silent attention as she brings out the deep thought and inspiration of her own creations. She became an Englewood resident 48 years ago.

Mrs. Elmore's latest book of poems is "Highway and Byways". Her books are on the shelves of our own library.

Some Listed

Among the unpublished poems read by Mrs. Elmore were "Cadiz", a story of Spain before Franco came into power; "East Indies Road" which told of a sailor returning to his native land; "A Hundred Years Ago", which ended with the lines —

"And a hundred years from now perhaps,
Someone will come this way
And find a hillside noisy with bees,
With busy butterflies gay.
Gaze at the color and breathe the scent
And wonder how it me so.
Then will look at each other and smile — somewhere —
Because we know."

Among her other readings were "Seedlings", "Survival", "The Turn of the Year", "Autumn Twilight", "Prayers at Night", "Frost", "Iceland Lambs", etc.

Two poems of particular thoughtfulness were:

WHAT I HAVE

I have neither strength nor skill
Earth's heavy rudder by a hair
To move toward truth and brotherhood —
But I have a prayer.

Mine is not the sight to pierce
The bitter cloud in which we grope —
But I know it is a cloud
And I have hope.

I shall not see warfare end
On earth nor fear's dark mountain move —
But I can plant by lowly paths
The seed of love.

Another poem:

"PRAYER AT NIGHT"

Heaven shares with earth the sacrament of silence
Under the white and waning harvest moon.
The still chill mountain air is like deep water.
Stay hour of beauty! Do not pass too soon!
Wake not too soon to sound and stir and color,
Tranced spires of pine, fields wrapt in slumber white!
A foolish prayer? And yet it has been granted.
Thank God for memory! I can keep this night.

The "An Afternoon with Amelia Josephine Burr Elmore" on Monday was under the auspices of the Literature and Drama Department of which Mrs. Floyd Keir is chairman and Mrs. Alvin C. Drummond is co-chairman. Others in the department are Mrs. Henry Clay Foster, Mrs. Roderick MacLean, Mrs. Benjamin P. Phyfe, Mrs. Alfred W. Oakley, Miss Olive Ewin Place and Mrs. Howard S. Weaver.

Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Phyfe presided at the tea table which had a center of small yellow and pink chrysanthemums.

Notices Given

Mrs. James F. Colthup, chairman of the Christmas Flower Show at the club house on Dec. 13 from 2 until 9 p.m. notified the club of its coming importance. All entries should be made with Mrs. Craig L. Wright 157 Winthrop place, Englewood.

Mrs. Colthup also notified the club of the meeting on Monday, under the auspices of the Garden Department.

Others on Mrs. Colthup's Christmas Show committee are Mrs. Dwight S. Beebe and Mrs. James L. Coddington, as advisors; Mrs. Ray Palmer Foote, Miss Margaret Foote and Mrs. Randolph Doherty, staging and construction; Mrs. Wright, entries, and Mrs. Halsted Little, tickets.

Mrs. Benjamin Phyfe of the Literature and Drama Group and head of the "Creative Writng Group" extended an invitation to any member of the club to join her division. The very "pleasurable goal" for the department will be in April 18 when members will each have the opportunity to read something of which she has been the author.

College Notes: F-D Students Are Guests at Dinner

Four Fairleigh Dickinson College co-eds were guests of the Egyption delegation to the UN at a dinner and reception given by the delegation for international correspondents at the Plaza Hotel, New York City, on Wednesday night, Oct. 25.

The girls, all sophomores, received the invitation from Mohamed Saleh El Din Bey, Egyption Foreign Minister, whom they met last week while on a student tour in Washington, D. C., with 40 classmates. Among the foreign notables they met were M. Istambouly, Egyptian press attache; M. Fikri, air attache, Isa K. Sabbagh and El Bagam.

One of the delegates, speaking to the co-eds on education in the United States, suggested that Fairleigh Dickinson work out a student exchange arrangement with the Unibersity of Cairo.

Students attending the affair were: Miss Marilyn Blum, Montclair; Miss Reta Mirsky, Passaic; Miss Ruth Gallen, Paterson, and Miss Lea Glasser, Clifton.

Pledged to Delta Upsilon

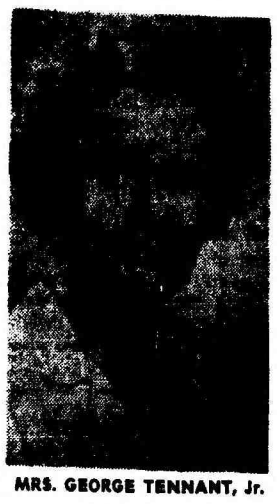
Second Youth Concert Season Opens Nov. 30

ENGLEWOOD—The second season of Bergen County Youth Concerts has been announced by Mrs. George G. Tennant Jr., of 194 Sherwood place, Englewood, the new chairman of the Friends of the Children's Concerts in Bergen County.

The first of the two concerts scheduled will be given at the Plaza Theatre, Englewood, on Thursday, Nov. 30 at 2:45 p.m., by 35 members of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra and two soloists under the direction of Wheeler Beckett, 287 Walnut street, Englewood. The two pianos, an important part in Saint-Saens' "Carnival of the Animals," will be played by the guest artists, Denise Dubs and Alan Mandel.

Through the cooperation of Miss Florence, it has been arranged that members of her dancing class may go to the concert and still attend her afternoon class at the Englewood Field Club slightly after 4 o'clock, the closing hour of the concert.



MRS. GEORGE TENNANT, Jr.

Grades 3 to 6

The educational symphony concert, like the two given in Bergen County last season, is for the younger children, this time for grades 3 to 6. According to Mrs. Tennant, the program contains some entertaining and valuable educational features. The first half will be built around "The Orchestra of the Time of Mozart." How this orchestra differs from today's larger group will be explained by Mr. Beckett and illustrated by the entrance of the players by two's, beginning with the flutes, oboes, clarinets and bassoons, followed by pairs of horns and trumpets, and a single timpani player.

After these players are seated they will perform a short number written by Mr. Beckett expressly for this occasion. The strings will then enter by sections, headed by John Corigliano, concertmaster, and his eight first violins, followed by the second violins, violas, cellos and basses.

The opening number on the program, written for this combination of instruments, Mozart's "Overture to the Marriage of Figaro," will then be played. After a demonstration of the flute by John Wummer, famous soloist of the Philharmonic, the orchestra will play Gluck's "Dance of the Happy Spirits," in which he will be the soloist, followed by the "Flight of the Bumble Bee," by Rimsky-Korsakow; "To a Water Lily," by MacDowell, and excerpts from Bizet's "Carmen" suite. In this number, the audience will join in the singing of the Toreodor Song.

Second Section

The second half of the program, entitled "Fun in Music," will consist of Saint-Saens' amusing and entertaining "Carnival of the Animals," written for two pianos and orchestra. The soloists for this occasion are the unusually gifted pianists, Denise Dubs, 13, and Alan Mandel, 14, pupils of Miss Hedy Spielter of New York. Both children made their debuts in Town Hall recitals and have received excellent reviews in the New York Times and Herald-Tribune.

One of the well known numbers of this suite is "The Swan". Carl Stern, of the first desk of the Philharmonic, will play the solo cello in this number. Other parts of the "Carnival of the Animals" are entitled, "Royal March of the Lion," "Hens and Roosters," "Wild Horses," "Turtles," "The Elephant," "Kangaroos," "Aquarium," "Persons with Long Ears," "The Cuckoo in the Deep Wood," "Aviary," "Pianists," and "Fossils." Numerous instruments of the orchestra will be demonstrated in these numbers, including the violin, double-bass, glockenspiel, xylophone, clarinet and cello.

Mrs. Tennant praised the concerts for their educational and cultural value. Speaking from experience she said, "Each time my daughter and I have attended Mr. Beckett's Youth Concerts we have been impresed by the attentiveness of the children in following his clearly thought out remarks and their rapt absorbtion in the beautifully performed music."

Tickets may be secured through the reservations chairman, Miss Jane Berkeley, Box 445, Englewood, EN. 3-2776.

thru the SHOP WINDOW with ALICE

"My dear," said the Queen to Alice, one morning, "I wish you would stop at—AUDREY'S, 5 ENGLE STREET today and find out about the Charles of the Ritz preparations which are being featured there. I understand the special blending service is being offered; if so, I shall not have to go to New York for another box of powder."

Dutifully Alice set out and presently arrived at the shop where a bar at one end was filled with jars of various shades of powder, even lavendar and green, and containers of cosmetics of all kinds.

Audrey herself responded to Alice's inquiry and explained that it was quite true about the blending of Charles of the Ritz powder. She and her assistant had taken courses in blending and were prepared to offer this special service.

"Charles of the Ritz powder is blended to suit the individual," Audrey said. "There are three or four colors to every blend and no two blends are alike because no two complexions ar exactly alike. It takes ten or fifteen minutes to make up the formula the first time but after that the order can be filled quickly. We have an introductory offer of $1 for a box of Charles of the Ritz powder specially blended. Would you like to try it?"

"I would indeed," Alice replied, "but tell me about your other items."

"This is the pride of the Charles of the Ritz line," Audrey said as she held up a jar marked Revenescence, "and it is a very special item—a cream to bring out the moisture in the skin and give it a dewey, young look."

Audrey then told Alice about the Charles of the Ritz gift items which she has ordered for the Christmas trade.

Christmas Rocket is a lipstick that sells for $1.50. Alabaster hand lotion, a practical but beautifully boxed gift is $2. And then there is a compact to hold loose powder. Charles of the Ritz has not made compact for years. This one is priced at $5.

The new Directore line includes sachet at $3.50; bath salts; soap (4 cakes) for $3.50; dusting powder, toilet water, and perfume by the dram.

There is also a special gift package containing a lovely powder box which sells for $1. This may be filled at any Charles of the Ritz salon.

All Charles of the Ritz gifts are attractively wrapped so that no other Christmas wrapping is necessary. In fact, he has won awards for packaging.

While Audrey was talking, her assistant had been blending powder for Alice, first weighing some of one kind, some of another, a little bit of a darker shade, and finally adding a dash of green. This was all put into a box, the formula noted, and Alice was told that if she liked it she could reorder at any time and any place where Charles of the Ritz powder is blended.

"And now," said Alice, "I think I shall take some Alabaster hand lotion to the Queen and—oh, yes—perhaps I'd better have a jar of Revenescence. I know someone who wants to keep that 'dewey, young look."

GUESTS FOR WEEK-END

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Powers of Westport, Conn., will be house guests this week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Jacod of 16 Park street, Tenafly. Mr. and Mrs. Jacod are entertaining at a cocktail party on Saturday night prior to the annual charity dance of St. Joseph's Orphanage Guild, to be held at the Hackensack Golf Club.

Women Voters Get Answers, Sketches From Candidates

ENGLEWOOD—Definite answers to definite questions of Englewood community policy were received by the League of Women Voters of Englewood this week from the three candidates for Councilman in this city.

The League thereupon issued a pamphlet showing the questions, answers and short biographical sketches of the three candidates.

Also included in the pamphlet were the answers to three questions and biographical sketches of all candidates in the Nov. 7 election race.

The portion of the pamphlet having to do with Engle.ood candidates for Common Council are reprinted below:

The League asked the candidates for the Common Council the following questions:

1. It has been over a year since the Planning Board released the new zoning laws. In compliance with the stated intentions of the Council, would you vote to budget enough money to enable the Planning Board to complete the Master Plan in 1951? A Master Plan is the working tool and guide for a planning board. It is founded on basic facts and exhaustive studies to guide the future orderly development of a municipality.

2. Englewood is fortunate in having four parks, comprising approximately 62 acres. In order to develop these parks to their full recreational usage and still keep their natural beauty, do you think that an over all long-term plan by a recreational architect should be worked out? Would you vote to include in the 1951 budget the amount necessary to carry out such a plan?

3. There are no parks in the Second Ward. The City has indicated its intention of using property which it owns on Broad avenue below Route 4 and extending to Jones road as a park. Do you favor publicly designating this area as a park so that long range plans (see Question 2) could be drawn for its development?

REPUBLICAN

John C. Glidden,
For First Ward Councilman

Attended Englewood Public Schools through first year of high school, graduated from Phillips Exeter Academy 1937, Harvard College 1941. Graduated from U. S. Marine Officers Candidate School, Quantico, Virginia, attended New York Institute of Finance. Served four and one-half years in the Marine Corps, overseas in the Solomon Island campaign.

Partner of the investment firm of Glidden, Morris and Co., 72 Wall street, New York City.

Past president, Englewood Art Center, Inc., 1946-48; chairman Englewood and Northern Valley Red Cross Drive, member of executive committee Northern Valley Red Cross Chapter; trustee of Social Service Federation. President, Englewood Young Republican Club, Inc., and Republican County Committeeman.

1. Zoning and the Master Plan are of vital importance to our city. The costs of war, however, are going to place great strains on the taxpayer. Among the first duties of a city councilman in these times should be to keep down the costs of local government. It is impossible therefore, for me definitely to state now whether I would vote in 1951 to budget money for the Master Plan in view of the present chaotic, international situation. I shall vote it if I can conscionably do so, and meanwhile I shall press for continued rigid enforcement of the present zoning laws.

2. While not as pressing as the Master Plan, this matter has its importance. It too would have to wait until it can be compared with other items on the budget and properly evaluated.

3. The immediate need in the Second Ward is for a play field. I concur with Councilman Trumbull in his present program for the development of one.

Allan T. Trumbull,
For Second Ward Councilman

Yale B. S. (Mechanical Engineering). Vice president, Matthiessen and Hegeler Zinc Company. Worker and district captain of Community Chest and Red Cross. Associate Vestryman, St. Paul's Church. President, Yale Bergen County Alumni. President of the Englewood Republican Club. Second Ward Councilman, Englewood. Member of the Planning Board and Board of Local Assistance. Chairman of the City Property Committee, Member of Finance and other committees. "Married to a wonderful wife and we have four fine children, Mary, Priscilla, Bill and Anne. I only hope you know some, if not all, of them."

1. Until one has looked at and studied the over-all picture of the 1951 budget, it would be unwise to vote to budget any amount for any one of the contemplated 1951 projects. The Master Plan under the able leadership of Alec Claugher is taking form and the Planning Board hopes to present the first phase of the Master Plan in the near fture. The Planning Board after careful consideration will, at budget time, request the Council for such monies as it deems necessary for the needs of the Master Plan during 1951.

2. The manner of park development and planning should await reports from the Planning Board and the Recreational Advisory Committee, to whom the matter has been referred.

3. I could write a great deal on this question as a playfield in the Second Ward has been uppermost in my mind since before I was elected to the Council. Whether any of the city-owned property east of Broad avenue and south of Route 4 should be dedicated as a park at this time is a matter which the city attorney is studying. In the meantime, as chairman of the property committee, I have turned down all offers to purchase any city-owned property that might in the future be used for park or playground purposes.

DEMOCRAT

Keith R. Craft,
For Second Ward Councilman

High school graduate. Now taking a correspondence course, Industrial Management, from La-Salle Extension University. Superintendent of typesetting, plant of J. Lobel, New York City. Formerly instructor for Sperry Gyroscope Co. in traffic management and internal transportation.

1. Yes, providing the services of a person who has been proved capable of such a planning job can be obtained.

2. Yes.

3. If there is no other area available, I would say yes, but that particular property does not seem especially desirable as a park or playground.

Party Shop Due To Make Debut At 11 North Dean St.

ENGLEWOOD — Featuring an original selection of party materials, decorative and unusual, the Party Shop will open this Saturday at its 11 North Dean street, Englewood, headquarters.

Operated by Miss Edith M. Salerno, who was formerly located at 163 Rockwood place for five years, the store will also carry greeting cards, Dennison paper products and a full assortment of gifts.

Ready-made table decorations and centerpieces, with Miss Salerno's personal touch of idea and effect, will also be available at the new North Dean street store.

The shop's color scheme is green and chartreuse and will be carried outdoors through a chartreuse awning. An unusual window treatment featuring a lattice work display will highlight the store's exterior.

Original oil paintings decorate the shop's cabinets, lending a festive touch to the store dedicated to festivities.

In the assortment of new merchandise available at the store will be specialized candles, musical greeting cards, original glasses and ash trays and a wide variety of paper plates, napkins and other party needs.

Miss Salerno will personally operate the shop, offering advice and hints for successful party giving.

Dr. Biber, Child Psychologist, to Be At Local Meeting

Dr. Barbara Biber, well known child psychologist, will speak at a meeting of the Bergen County Association for Nursery Education to be held at the Elisabeth Morrow School in Englewood on Saturday, Nov. 18. The meeting will be conducted as a workshop, to which members of the association will bring problems for analysis and discussion. The workshop is an open meeting at which the general public is welcome, and interested teachers who are not members of the Association have been urged to attend.

The topic will be "The Roots of Aggression". After a talk covering the main points of the subject, the speaker will answer questions put to her by members of the audience. Dr. Biber is well known in the field of child psychology, in which she has been active for many years as a teacher, lecturer, consultant and research psychologist. Her work has been centered around the Bank Street School, which has pioneered in the "new" education and is now recognized all over the country as a leading force in education. She is chairman of Bank Street's publications division, and is also a member of the staff of the cooperative school for teachers.

Dr. Biber is at present at work on the subject of teacher-child relationships in public schools. She has given many lectures to parents' groups on needs and problems of children, the role of the modern parent, the relations of home and school, and the responsibilities of each.

For further detailed information concerning the lecture, it will be advisable to contact Mrs. Ruth Morison, 180 Webb avenue, River Edge or Mrs. David Freedmna, 285 Grand avenue, Englewood.

IN N. Y. DEBUT

ELIZABETH BROWN

ENGLEWOOD — Featured recently in her New York recital debut at Town Hall, Miss Elizabeth Brown, instructor at the Grand Music Academy, 81 Grand avenue, was well received in her piano presentations. Miss Smith's courses include elementary and advanced piano instruction.

Helen Jepson To Sing At Foundation Tea

Friends of the Griffith Music Foundation will give its first membership tea at the Griffith auditorium, 605 Broad street, Newark, on Mondady, Nov. 6, at 2:30 p.m. The Friends, organized as an auxiliary of the Foundation, has arranged the tea to enable its members to meet Helen Jepson, well known opera star and resident of Closter, who is chairman of its women's committee. At the tea, Miss Jepson will give excerpts from her "Opera Nights" program of operatic portraits and will appear in costume in scenes from her famous Metropolitan Opera success "Manon."

Miss Jepson was installed as chairman of the women's committee of Friends of the Griffith Music Foundation on Friday, Oct. 20, at a committee luncheon at which arrangements for the tea were made. Members of the committee attended the luncheon, among them being Mrs. Alois Havrilla, Englewood.

Lutheran Worship To Feature Film On 23 Colleges

ENGLEWOOD—A special morning service will be held at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church on Sunday, Nov. 5, at 10:45 a.m. The congregation will be informed about the Christian Higher Education Appeal of the United Lutheran Church in America. The newly reorganized Junior Choir under the direction of Miss Doris Fasnacht will make its first appearance and lead the congregation in worship.

At the close of the service, Harold Skelton, promotional director of the National Lutheran Council, will show the educational motion picture of The United Lutheran Church—"The Difference". The picture tells the story of the 23 Lutheran colleges and seminaries in the United States and Canada.

Hallowe'en Decor Contest An Outstanding Event

TENAFLY — Tenafly scored another hit for its community spirit, this week, as several hundred high school students turned out to compete for prizes in the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Hallowe'en Window Decorating Contest.

All streets of the community's business center assumed an air of Greenwich Village, Monday afternoon, when art students in the school who had submitted sketches for windows were released early in order that their paintings might be finished by daylight.

"The Ghostess With the Mostest on the Ball", a scene with a mapot while little ghosts wait in anticipation around the fire or peer out from behind trees won the first place in the senior division for Adele Thompson, Jackie Thompson and Virginia Petty. In the Junior division, Georgene Winnell and Susan Maines won first prize for a stylized Hallowe'en portrait of scarecrows cavorting on a harvest landscape.

Second prize in the senior division went to Marcia LaMarca, Marcia Kovara and Effie Heller, for the moonlight autumn scene in Bower's Pharmacy window. "By the Light of Our Silvery Bones'," a scene of dancing skeletons won secnd prize, Junior Division, for George Nelson, Gary Peterson, Harold Mitsakos and Fred McCullum.

Third prizes went to Lois Church and Sharon Kempton for their painting of Ichabod Crane being chased by the headless horseman—east window of Harris Gift Shop. A sports graveyard scene in the Little Print Show window won third place for Carolyn Riblett and Clare Russell.

Honorable mentions went to Robert Geh and Malcolm Campbell; Richard Linfield, Kerry Lavac and Robert Grieb; June Shaw and Rosemarie Zerpel; Carolyn Russell and Edith Jarvis; Rita Campana and Anne DeNoe, Mary Ann Kuehne Phyllis Carey; John Verbeyst, Roger Dierman and Alan Dieffenbach; and Phyllis Callahan; Ann Lufkin, Elizabeth Lufkin, Rosalyn Lingner and Emily Morgan.

To the official list, we would like to add our own plaudits for the five practical ghosts in the west window of the Harris Gift Shop; and the humorous "take-off" on the current Community Chest Drive in the A & P window depicting a turkey facing a horn of plenty, his tail feathers snatched off for "Red Feather symbols", a squawking 'I gave, did you?'.

MANY JOIN IN

More than 65 windows were provided by cooperating Tenafly merchants to provide the juvenile artists with scope for their work. The result was conversion of the business center into an informal art gallery, earnest youngsters mounting ladders, sitting on the pavement, and discussing their projects (they worked in groups of two, three and four) among themselves.

Dr. Burt Johnson, principal of Tenafly High School; George A. Kipp, supervising principal of the Tenafly Schools, and members of the Board of Education cooperated with merchants of Tenafly and the Tenafly Woman's Club to make the venture a town-wide affair.

Mrs. William S. Callaghan was chairman of the judging committee of the Woman's Club, announced that the decisions were hard to arrive at because of the general excellence of the work.

Harry I. Etelman, chairman of the special projects committee of the Tenafly Chamber of Commerce, declared that the interest and work were far above all expectations in both quantity and quality, and expressed appreciation to the merchants who offered their windows, as well as to the school officials and the students who entered into the project wholeheartedly.

2 Crashes Occur In Brief Span On Clinton Ave. Hill

TENAFLY—Three persons were injured, late Thursday night, in two accidents which occurred on East Clinton avenue, Tenafly, a short distance apart and within a two hour period.

Captain John Rothacker, investigated both accidens, with the assistance of Sergeant Mario Buniva and Patrolman Gerald Conboy.

The first accident occurred at approximately 11 p.m., Thursday, when Derrick P. Rusden of 66 Norman place, Tenafly, driving north on Route 9-W, pulled to the center of the highway at East Clinton avenue in preparation for a left hand turn into Clinton avenue. He stopped to allow a southbound car operated by Harold M. Phillips of New York City to pass the intersection and was struck on the rear.

Santiago Lugo of Haverstraw, N. Y., driving north on the highway, struck Mr. Rusden's vehicle on the right rear tail light, glanced off, jumped the embankment on the east side of the road, and turned over three times before lodging against a telephone pole. The car was a total wreck.

Unconscious, Mr. Lugo was taken to the Englewood Hospital for treatment. A passenger in his car, Louis Arocho of New York City, was treated for bruises of the face, neck and right knee, and then released. Mr. Lugo is charged with driving without a license.

The second accident occured while police were still cleaning up the Lugo accident. Harry F. Heucker of 268 Lexington avenue, Dumont driving westerly on Clinton avenue in a closed Jeep, struck a telephone pole, shearing it off about half way above the ground. The jeep was heavily damaged. Mr. Heucker, sustained smashed teeth, bruises of the right leg and was given treatment at Englewood Hospital. He was issued a summons for reckless driving.

'Highest Income Didn't Balance Budget', Says Towe

TENAFLY—"In spite of the fact that the national income was the highest in its history, taxes soared to about 30 percent of all incomes during the year 1949-50," Congressman Harry L. Towe told the Tenafly Republican Club, last Thursday evening, at the Borough Hall. In spite of these expenditures, the New Dealers still failed to balance the budget.

"If we can't keep expenditures within the national income when that income is at its peak", Mr. Towe stated, "how could we ever get the financial house in order if income were to go down considerably?"

"Everyone is interested in securing and maintaining peace", Mr. Towe continued, "but look at the record of this administration, in our foreign affairs. The first world war was under a Democratic regime and so was the second, and now we are in what could be the beginning of another. I wouldn't suggest they did it deliberately, but the fact is that all this has happened while they have been in charge of our government."

Gill C. Job, candidate for the Assembly, declared "We get out of our Government just about what we put into it. You know what kind of mal-administration you have been getting on a national level—it's appalling, and I think it's time we did something about it".

Martin P. Nelson, candidate for re-election to the Board of Freeholders, spoke on the work of the Board and what it has succeeded in doing for Bergen County, adding that next year Bergen County will have the lowest per capita tax of any county of similar size in the United States.

Harry G. Robinson and Gustave Thorkilsen, candidates for reelection to the Tenafly Borough Council, also spoke.

William R. Smith, who introduced the State and County candidates, also introduced Miss Louella Wolfert and Louis Turi, committee members from the recently created fifth district. He reported that there hadbeen almost 400 new registrations.

J. William Bierhals, president, called upon several officials present, including Magistrate Ezra G. Benedict Fox, Councilman Stanley D. Cattelle and Councilman Lawrence W. Davee.

Methodist Young Adults To Hear Chester Koontz

TENAFLY — The Young Adult Group of the Tenafly Methodist Church will meet in the church, this Sunday evening, at 8 p.m. with Chester B. Koontz of Tenafly as guest speaker on the subject of "Christianity in the Business World". Following the devotional period, there will be a business meeting and social hour in the church social rooms. Young adults between the ages of 18 and 35 are welcome to attend this group.

Harry Levine Named Workman Circle Head

PARAMUS — Harry Levine of Englewood was installed as chairman of Bergen County branch 1025 of the Workman Circle Saturday at a banquet at Salnick's Restaurant. The branch was recently organized as a part of a national organization with 80,000 members.

Other officers installed included Seymour Friedman of Ridgefield Park, vice-chairman; Abe Kramer of Hackensack, financial secretary; Herman Kramer of Ridgefield Park, treasurer; Mrs. Eleanor Freedman of Ridgefield Park, secretary; Milton Greenspan of Hackensack, program chairman; and Mrs. Celia Levine of Englewood, membership chairman.

Herbert Bush of Bogota was toastmaster. The group, composed of young adults, meets the first and third Tuesday of every month at Englewood Congregational Ahavath Torah.

Construction Worker Sues For Leg Damages

TENAFLY — A Ridgewood man employed by an Englewood firm which held contracts for construction of the Walter Stillman School, Tenafly and Windsor roads, Tenafly, has filed a claim for $25,000 damages for injuries he received while on the job.

Action in the County Courts has been filed against the United Hoisting Company, Inc., of Englewood, by James Chiapelone, of Ridgewood, who claimed that he was struck by a hoisting crane which was being used at the building, on Oct. 17, 1949. John C. Guyet is attorney for Mr. Chiapelone.

SONNET:

ON THE RECONSTRUCTION OF THE CHURCH OF ATONEMENT

Thy walls, thine arches, Stain-glass windows thine
In rich ensemble blent, do meet the eye
Like soundless melopoiea fain, whereby
Each distinct unit deftly falls in line.
A mute procession passes: a combine
Of symbols viewed as from the nave, where high
Enthroned, there does the Altar gleam. Draw nigh
Lo, hereon rests the Holy Bread and Wine.
O World, without God's Church what wouldst thou be!
Throughout the ages, folding to Her Heart
Her little ones endangered in Life's sea
Full of allures, set out with cunning art,
And nets forth-stretched, arranged so skillfully
To trap their souls, whence hope might then depart.

Moritz E. Schwarz.

Soviet System Of Mind Control Is Lecture Subject

Tenafly—Dr. George S. Counts, a student of the Russian revolution since 1917, will be the speaker at a public meeting on Friday, Nov. 17 in the Tenafly High School auditorium. "The Soviet System of Mind Control" will be the topic of his talk, and the Tenafly Teachers Association, which is sponsoring the meeting, is inviting the public to attend. Admssion will be free.

Dr. Counts, born of old American stock, on a Kansas farm, has been a professor of education at Columbia University since 1927, and has sia. As a result of his observations made three extended visits to Rusand study he has writen "A Ford Russia and the Communist Party Crosses Soviet Russia", "America, in the Post-War World", "The Country of the Blind" and other articles, in addition to delivering hundreds of lectures.

Dr. Counts has been associate director of the International Institute, at Teachers' College; a special investigator on Secondary Education for the Philippine Commonpine Educational Survey Commiswealth; a member of the Philipsion, and—in 1946—a member of the Special Educational Commission to Japan".

FOR YOU and About You

BY MARGARET BAKER

PEOPLE AND PLACES: Mr. and Mrs. William Hessmer of Woodhill road returned last Sundsy from a 10 day vacation at The Homestead, Hot Springs, Virginia. . . Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Storms of Lawrence parkway drove down to Atlantic City last weekend for four days of business for Ed and pleasure for Delle. . . Also in Atlantic City over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Warren Swift of Hillside avenue. . . Miss Beatrice DeMott of Burlington road, accompanied by Mrs. Helen Deacon of Engle street, sailed for Bermuda on the "Queen" last Saturday afternoon. After a visit there, they will fly to Nassau and Cuba, thence to Sarasota, Florida, to be with friends awhile before coming back to Tenafly.

* * * *

BUSINESS MEN of Tenafly continue "up in the air" for their various firms. . . However, Lyman Tondel, Jr. of 304 Engle street, returned by boat and train last Saturday morning from Cuba where he had gone by plane 10 days before. . . Paul Brooks of Highwood avenue flew home from Knoxville, Tennessee, on Saturday but due to plane trouble and having to change to a smaller plane was so late arriving, he and Lilly had to miss the dinner dance at Knickerbocker Club. . . Paul Canaday, of DePeyster avenue flying back from a business trip to help celebrate his wife Mary's birthday on Sunday, made it possible for them to join a group of friends for the dance. . . Councilman Lawrence Davee of Westervelt avenue, left Sunday afternoon by plane for Houston, Texas, where he will address a gathering of 500 men in the movie projector industry. . .

* * * *

GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS. . . On October 20th, a daughter, Camille, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Christie at the Englewood Hospital. Her mother is the former Suzanne Noyes of Engle street, Tenafly. On October 21st, a daughter, Kimberleigh Gay, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy McKellop—also at the Englewood Hospital. Her mother is the former Jewel Blackwell, and she will be called "Kim" for short. "Kim" has an older sister, Heather Jane, age 22 months . . On October 28th, a daughter, Margot Ilene, was born to Naval Lt. and Mrs. William Bryan McGinty at Jacksonville, Florida. Her mother is the former Shirley Swenson of Tenafly. Shirley's mother, Mrs. James Swenson of Joyce road, leaves this Friday by train to be with Shirley and her new daughter, and is taking Katrina, their dashshund along since she plans to stay with the McGintys until after Christmas. Mr. Swenson will drive down to Jacksonville in time to spend Christmas with his new granddaughter and drive his wife home. . . Ensign and Mrs. Philip Bolger—she is the former Gloria Hart of Tenafly—became the parents of a daughter, Mary Frances, about October 16th, a somewhere in Rhode Island. Their first child, a boy, Michael, is almost two years old. . . Congratulations to the four young parents of these baby girls, whose births, according to an old adage, presages PEACE for the world, rather than war.

* * * *

MISCELLANEOUS INTELLIGENCE: Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hager, formerly of Tenafly, who now live in a charming early American farmhouse near Middlebury, Vermont, were visitors over last weekend with friends in Leonia and attended services at the Tenafly Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning. . . Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Westervelt of Englewood, and Danny Jr. are preparing to move to Washington where Dan reports for military service on November 9th with the rank of Lt. Colonel as a "specialist" attached to the office of the Chief of Staff, Department of the U. S. Army in Washington. He is the son of the late Elmer Westervelt and Mrs. Westervelt, and his wife is the former Phyllis Bauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bauer. . . Sal DeLuisa of Leonard avenue, one of our police officers, scheduled to return to the U.S. Marines—where he served for three years during World War II—has received a six months deferrment. It is possible that he may not have to go at all since he is, the father of two small children with another expected soon. . . Mr. and Mrs. H. A. C. Hellyer, who have made their home in Tenafly for many years, have moved to 115 Grand avenue, Englewood. The Tenafly house they formerly occupied is on the property of the Tenafly Presbyterian Church and will be demolished to make room for a necessary parking lot for church goers.

* * * *

INTERESTING FAMILY: There are so many new families in Tenafly it would be impossible to list them all, but one of the most interesting is that of Mr. and Mrs. William Awad and their sons Bill and Philip who recently purchased and moved into one of the attractive homes built on the old Downey property. Mr. Awad is the brother of Mrs. F. M. Saydah of Joyce road, and prior to coming here, they lived in China where he was in business. At the end of our war with the Japanese their sons, Bill and Philip who had been imprisoned in Jap concentration camps, came to the United States five years ago on the Gripsholm—exchanged for Jap prisoners held by us—and were joined later by their parents. Since then, Bill has graduated from Manhattan College and entered the Long Island Medical College to become a doctor. His younger brother, Philip, a student at Manhattan College, has been called into military service as of next Tuesday. Their father, Mr. Awad has been in the far east as a representative of the United Nations ever since last July and may not get to see his new home and family for several more weeks. From this thumb-nail sketch of the Awads, you can see there is enough material for several fascinating books on what is going on in this complicated old world!

MORE ABOUT PEOPLE AND PLACES: Alfred A. Strauss of Henry street, in Korea as engineer with the E.C.A., to build power plants, was evacuated under fire to Tokyo when the war broke out in June. Three weeks later he was sent back with the 8th Army by General MacArthur to rebuild the power plant, and was in the thick of the worst part of the war. Later he was returned to Tokyo for a necessary rest, and is now with three other engineers of the E. C. A.—still under General MacArthur's orders—commuting between Seoul and other Korean cities in the effort to keep necessary power plants in condition to maintain this important phase of war as well as life in this devastated country. He writes in letters to his wife, Lorraine, that it is almost criminal the way some Americans in the civilian employ of our Government are there only for the purpose of "riding the gravy train" and getting all they personally can out of monies being spent in Korea. He further states that a few men of vision who realize the importance of the work being done there toward rebuilding this country into a bulwark of strength and eventual peace are all that keep the tremendous task and cost of war from ending in futility. In his opinion, there would have been no purpose in fighting at all if the United Nations military forces had not continued above the 38th parallel.

Speaking of Al Strauss and his splendid work in Korea reminds me that his family have not been idle in his absence. His attractive wife, Lorraine, returned last Friday from four weeks in Alabama, visiting her mother in Dothan where she was born, and will begin a brand new business career at Macy's in NYC next Wednesday with marvellous commuting hours from 10 to 4! Their nineteen year-old-daughter, Ann, visited Lorraine's sister in Chicago this summer and accepted a position as assistant buyer at the swank Bramsons in Evanston; and their eighteen year old son, Alfred Jr., is a freshman at the University of North Carolina. Lorraine visited him enroute to Alabama, going that far with her neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gruver of Henry street and their daughter Jane. . . The Gruvers were driving to Miami, Florida, where they enjoyed a long vacation, arriving home last Friday. . . Also returning last weekend from Florida after a six weeks sojourn at Gulf Port, were Mr. and Mrs. William Sefton of Henry street. Bill and Joe were visiting Bill's parents and were there during the hurricane.

* * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey N. Wadham of Engle street will have as their guests during the weekend of Nov. 12th, Sir John Alexander Clarke and Lady Clarke late of Africa who are in this country after 52 years of mission work in the Belgian Congo. The Clarkes are natives of Australia and will return there after this visit to the United States. He was knighted by the Belgian government for his scientific findings in the cause and cure of sleeping sickness, and has been given three decorations by the Belgian government for scientific contributions affecting the health of the natives in the Belgian Congo. Sir John has also translated the entire Bible into the language of the Molongo Tribes of Africa and is in America after supervising the publication of the first 25,000 copies. While in Tenafly he will speak at Grace Chapel, Sunday evening, Nov. 12th at 8 o'clock.

* * * *

Miss Elizabeth Patricia Ames of Closter, bridesmaid for Shirley Swenson at her marriage to Lt. William Bryan McGinty, in October of 1949 will be godmother by proxy to Shirley and Bill's new daughter when she is christened. . . It looks mighty like Gloria Geer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Geer of Forest road, may be following in the footsteps of Tenafly's famous Priscilla Gillette, having chosen Priscilla's Alma Mater—Sycrause University—as a good place to major in music and dramatics. Gloria not only has a lovely voice but also plays piano and accordion. . . The former Mary Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seymour of Old Smith road, who is now Mrs. Sidney Paige of Pittsburgh, writes that she has accepted a position with the Red Cross in their department of Dietetics, and thinks she and Sidney are going to like keeping house in Pittsburg very much.

A QUICK RESUME OF "my week" from deadline to deadline: After leaving last week's column at the PRESS-JOURNAL, continued on to N. Y. where Bill and I attended the opening session of the Herald-Tribune Forum at the Waldorf-Astoria, which meant missing the Atlantic Union meeting in Englewood. . . Wednesday evening we attended the annual dinner of the Chamber of Commerce at Clinton Inn—this year honoring the Tenafly School Board. . . and was I proud of the two women members, Mrs. F. Emerson Andrews and Mrs. Paul Haase! Also gracing this gala occasion as honored guests were Edythe Adams—the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Enke who is Miss TV for 1950—and Martha Pierce who sang "The Star Spangled Banner" Red roses were presented to these young ladies by the president, Harold Schoonmaker, who presided at the speakers table. Further details are given elsewhere in this issue. . . Dinner in New York with friends on Friday evening; to the Knickerbocker dinner dance on Saturday; and to church on Sunday morning for one of the outstanding sermons of my experience. I hope that all of you heard one of equal value.

MackaySchoolHSA Opportunity Sale Ends In Success

TENAFLY — In expressing its appreciation to persons who aided in the recent opportunity sale held at the Mackay School, Tenafly, the committee in charge noted the sale's successful completion.

Springer, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Read, Mrs. Shull, Mrs. E. D. Lynde, Mrs. Charles D. Grimm, Mrs. Zavrina, Mrs. Charles Rappolt and Miss Ida Smith.

The chairman of the bake table was Mrs. Albert A. Strobel, assisted by Mrs. William How, Mrs. Conrad Kalkiewicz, Mrs. Alex Texel, Mrs. Floyd Stafford, Mrs. William Heron and Mrs. W. Stenz assisting.

The toy and game table was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Donald Brink, who was assisted by Mrs. H. MacDonald, Mrs. G. E. Condon and Mrs. W. Mackay.

The chairman of the white elephant table was Mrs. A. J. Stukart, with Mrs. A. L. McKay and Mrs. F. Shultz as aides. Mrs. J. Dunn was bookkeeper, aided by Mrs. J. Wright, Mrs. A. V. Dully, Mrs. Hartburg and Mrs. A. N. Swenson.

Cashiers were Mrs. LeRoy Osborn, Jr., and Mrs. H. K. Graves. Mrs. Leslie W. Engler was in charge of the lunch committee. Publicity chairman was Mrs. Willard Stenz, assisted by Mrs. John V. Baker and Mrs. G. Paul Jones.

Dec. 6 Is Date For Neighborhood Club Winter Fete

TENAFLY — The Neighborhood Glee Club of Tenafly will present its annual Winter Concert on Wednesday evening, Dec. 6.

This year the assisting artist will be Mrs. Marshall F. Driggs, violinist. Mrs. Driggs, a resident of Englewood, has played with the Durieux Ensemble in New York and has appeared as soloist with the Westchester Philharmonic Orchestra. She is well-known in the Northern Valley, since she has played before many local women's organizations, both as a soloist and in ensemble work.

Methodist School Has Doubled, Report Says

TENAFLY—At the Sunday morning service last Sunday, the Rev. Albert L. Beemer, pastor of the Tenafly Methodist Church, reported that the attendance in the Sunday School was more than double the attendance reported for the same Sunday last year.

In order to meet the increasing demand for new facilities and better leadership, the church is having Dr. Earl Starkey and Miss Catherine Lantz of the Newark Conference Board of Education of the Methodist Church come to observe the school and make suggestions on how to make the best use of the present facilities and improved methods in religious education.

The Community Chest covers all major welfare and character building agencies. Give enough for all when you give in this campaign.

Famed Australian Missionary Will Speak at Chapel

TENAFLY — Sir John Alexander Clarke — distinguished native of Australia who was both knighted and decorated for his work in the Bergian Congo during 52 years of missionary work there — will be the speaker at the Sunday evening Bible Hour at Grace Chapel, Tenafly road and West Clinton avenue, Tenafly, on Sunday, Nov. 12, at 8 p.m.

Sir John was knighted by King Leopold I of the Belgians for his work on the cause and cure of encephalitis — sleeping sickness — and on three other occasions was decorated by the Belgian government for his service to humanity and scientific discoveries during his missionary endeavors.

During his missionary service, Sir John reduced the unwritten Mulongo tribal language to a written form, and completely translated the Holy Bible into the Mulongo language. As the crowning feature of his missionary service he recently supervised the printing of the first edition of 25,000 copies of the Scriptures into the language. Not planning to return to Africa, Sir John has consented to a limited speaking engagement series in this country before returning to Australia. The public is invited to attend this service at Grace Chapel.

Mother-Daughter Party Held At Tenafly Home

A joint Mother and Daughter birthday celebration was held, last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Block, of 32 Somerset road, Tenafly in honor of Mrs. Block and her little daughter, Carla Marie.

A family party, including grandparents and other relatives, was held that evening. On Sunday afternoon, there was a children's party celebration for Carla's playmates. Both Mrs. Block and her daughter have Oct. 26 as their natal anniversary.

Presbyterian Youth Choir In City Rites

TENAFLY—The Youth Choir of the Presbyterian Church of Tenafly will join in a united choral worship in observance of the 300th anniversary of the publication of the Scottish Psalter, at the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, New York City, on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 12 at 4:30 o'clock. The choir is under the leadership of Douglas Petersen.

Members and friends of the Youth Fellowship plan to go with the choir. After the vesper worship the Youth Fellowship will be the guests of the Fifth Avenue Youth Group for supper and the Youth Meeting to follow.

A chartered bus and such additional cars as may be needed will leave the church about 3 p.m. and return about 8:30 p.m. Already 44 youths have indicated their desire to go on this trip. Others who are interestede will have an opportunity to sign up at Youth Fellowship this Sunday evening, Nov. 5 at 7 p.m.

Tenafly Graduate Is Queen For Homecoming

ONEONTA — Miss Alice Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Riley of 167 Eighth street, Cresskill, and a junior student at the Hartwick Lutheran College here, was crowned queen of the Homecoming Week festivities at the College on Saturday.

Miss Riley a graduate of Tenafly High School in June, 1948, entered Hartwick the following September. She is majoring in psychology, is a member of Gamma Phi Sorority, an officer of the Student Senate, member of the concert choir, and an editor of the College yearbook "Oyaron".

The first issue of the New York Weekly Journal, Nov. 15, 1733, contained an article on liberty of the press.

Memorial House Club Enrollment At Peak As Activities Increase

ENGLEWOOD — A record enrollment in activities at Memorial House is expected by the staff of the local community center according to the heavy registration of boys and girls for groups announced this week.

A large group of men and women of Englewood and neighboring communities have volunteered to serve the many groups which have been organized recently. There is a special need of volunteers to work with 40 boys who have registered for cubbing, the group said. Many volunteers of the Englewood Junior League and the American Association of University Women will assist the staff in the supervision of groups and the children's library.

Among Junior Leaguers leading groups are Mrs. Catherine Goodbody and Mrs. Haydock Miller, Jr., play groups; Miss Josephine Griffith, dramatic class; Miss Jeanne Minor, social club; Miss Barbara Lyman, art class, and Miss Sydmor M. Almy who studied at Arthur Murray's School will have a social dancing class. Mrs. Sue Overton will be in charge of public relations.

Members of the American Association of University Women serving the children's library are Mrs. J. M. Kendall, chairman of the library committee, or Mondays; Mrs. J. W. Calvert and Mrs. Halsted Little, Tuesdays; Mrs. O. P. Gellert, Wednesdays; Miss Antoinette Gaglione, Thursdays, and Mrs. Isaiah Bell, Fridays. Miss Carol Ann Spivey will serve as assistant librarian and Miss Gaglione will conduct a story hour period on Thursday afternoons.

Library hours are from 3:30 to 5 p.m. Children in the fifth grade and up may come on Mondays and Fridays and may secure help on their school homework from the librarians. Children from the first to the fourth grades inclusive may come to the library on Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday afternoons.

Other leaders in charge of groups are Mrs. I. Goodman, Miss Cepha Pasek and Miss Antoinette Gaglione, girl scouts; Mrs. Charles Ware, brownies; Mrs. Martha Repin, knitting class; Miss Edith Stephens, modern dancing class; Miss Florence M. Wren, cooking, courtesy of the Public Service; Howard Allen, boxing; Raymond Jacocks and Roosevelt James, woodwork groups; Anthony Messina, harmonies class; Edward Smith, Raymond Jacocks, Kenneth Emont, Edward Cosgrove and Vincent Tibbs, play groups and social clubs.

Mrs. R. B. Googins and Miss Lavinia Harman will be the piano instructors and Mrs. Edna Floyd will have a class in piano theory.

planning the layout of a hospital is conceded to be more complicated and difficult than for any other type of structure. "The problems at Englewood Hospital are complicated because of the necessity of determining new and more efficient locations for many of the major service and administrative facilities. Consideration is also being given to relocation of certain bed areas to secure greater use of existing space for different types of patients in accordance with circulations in demand."

"It is most important," his report continues, "that this first phase of planning be done with utmost care, and with the future in mind."

Mr. Hertzler also explains that while revisions have to be made in the light of reduced funds available, it is believed that no revision will have to be made with respect to memorials in the new wing. In fact, additional memorials are invited.

Dr. John B. Pastore, chairman of the Greater New York Hospital Council, and an outstanding expert, is the hospital's consultant in the preparation of the new plans. He is being assisted by Dr. Madison Brown, executive vice-president of Roosevelt Hospital in New York, and Otis N. Auer, of Glen Ridge, as his assistants.

Republican, why did he not face up to the issues and run in the Primary against Mr. Towe? We would have had a clean-cut election now and the chances of a good Republican, Mr. Towe, who has demonstrated time and again his sterling qualities, would not be threatened this way. As Mayor I urge all Republicans in the Ninth District to vote in strength for Mr. Towe. The national situation is too critical, the Democratic bureaucracy too dangerous to our welfare. We must not lose any opportunity to strengthen the Republican cause in Congress."

In Englewood, Councilman Allan T. Trumbull is seeking reelection in the Second Ward on a long record of civic and governmental service to his ward and community. A member of the postwar Common Council, he is regarded as having been one of the leaders in the highly constructive postwar program that has given the city many improvements, better-functioning departments, wider recreational ficilities, better roads, modernized and well-maintained equipment, a new zoning ordinance, a plan for low-cost housing financed privately, and a safety program which, thanks in large part to Mr. Trumbull, has brought concrete results.

Mr. Trumbull is opposed for reelection by a Democrat, Keith Craft of Sheffield avenue, who is running because of an interest in local affairs. He has the backing of the Democratic Club and of Councilman Edwin J. Roth of the Third Ward.

The only other indication of a contest is in the Freeholder race. Here Freeholders Martin Ferber and Martin Nelson are seeking reelection after long service to the county. They point to the recent statement by the New Jersey Taxpayers League that Bergen County has the best tax situation in the state and a reputation for sound finance as their primary reason for asking reelection. They are opposed by two Democrats, Joseph DeMarrais and Howard Pitts, who have not waged a heavy campaign.

There is one interim-Assembly office to be filled to replace William B. Widnall who last February was elected to Congress in the Seventh District. In this case Gill C. Job of Ridgewood is the Republican candidate and is being opposed by Robert Eichler.

in institutions of higher learning.

Speaking for the committee, Mr. Mahood further stated that the high minimum and maximum salaries first attracted the best teachers to Englewood, who have stayed because of a justifiable pride in their share of the success of the educational system.

"Now these teachers," he declared, "view with growing alarm the fact that Englewood has allowed itself to be surpassed by neighboring towns."

3 Youths Beaten

knocked down immediately and rendered unconscious as his head struck the curbing. When he regained consciousness, the assailant had fled, and the other two youths were also prostrate on the pavement.

Official police versions of the affair differed from the youth's account. They declared that a masked youth was walking in company with a girl when the three boys tried to unmask him. In the melee which followed, the three boys were beaten and masked boy and his companion left the scene.

Police Arrive

Police travelling in a prowl car happened upon the boys as they were regaining consciousness and took charge of the case.

Another Hallowe'en prankster, this time with a touch of imagination, sent a black arrow through a window in the police department desk room last night after 10 p.m., with a crudely lettered note attached to its shaft.

Said the note, "In the name of the Black Arrows, down with Communisticism (sic)." Police were at a loss to explain the event, and could not say whether the arrow was shot or tossed from the alleyway adjoining the room.

The arrow was a regulation target piece with feathers, shaft and point painted with black enamel. Police are investigating further.

Special Cops

A special detail of police, including almost all members of the force, patrolled Englewood streets in view of the Hallowe'en damage anticipated. Four brush fires were reported between the hours of 7:30 and 8 p.m.

Four brush fires were reported to Englewood Fire Department during the evening. Three of the blazes were reported between 7:30 and 8 p.m, with the fourth report coming in shortly before midnight. All four fires were quickly extinguished.

Store windows and cars in this area came in for a generous soaping, as pranksters roamed the streets armed with bars of soap and wax candles. Police did not list any further vandalism common to Hallowe'en events.

Chest Failure

Highest ward percentage return came from the Third Ward' southern district, which had 62 percent of its quota filled on 489 pledges. The neighboring Fourth Ward showed the lowest percentage return, 35 percent, with 1,070 pledges.

The advance gifts committee's 79 percent total return was closest to quota.

Low Return

Of the more than 8,000 prospect cards issued to campaigners, only 2,999 pledges were received by Friday evening.

Other ward figures showed First Ward Campaigners at 45 percent; Secod Ward at 41 percent; Third Ward, North, at 44 percent. Commerce and industry pledges totalled 52 percent of the quota.

Total dollar volume reported at the Friday evening meeting was $73,916.30, and, though each pledge appeared greater than last year, the frequency of pledge returns was lower.

Mr. Gilmour expressed confidence that the additional 42 percent of the goal will be reported at tonight's dinner, the final meeting of this year's campaign.

St. Paul's Fair Group Announces Detailed Plans

ENGLEWOOD—Additional plans for St. Paul's Harvest Fair to be held in the Parish House Nov. 16 and 17 were announced this week.

The secondhand sports equipment booth, of which Mrs. William Cullimore is chairman, will have several bicycles, footballs and football equipment, skis, baseballs and bats, and both roller and ice skates for sale. There will also be offered several pairs of girls figure skates which are in excellent condition. The committee plans to make prices on these articles most attractive.

Mrs. Cullimore will be assisted by Mrs. Gidding Howe, Mrs. D. M. Liddle, Jr., Mrs. Thomas K. Mount, Hugh Mitchell, Dexter Dawes, Bill Cullimore, Walter Larsen, Joe Salibia, Robert, Case, and Fritzy Niese. The boys on the committee are doing most of the work in reconditioning the used equipment.

Mrs. Carlos Hepp, chairman of the post office booth, has requested the donation of small articles to be sold at her booth during the fair.

The household table will have for sale many useful articles, such as aprons, dishtowels, dishcloths, dusting cloths, pot holders, house cleaning fluids and miscellaneous plastic items always useable in the home.

Ministerial Head Will Join Staff Of Radio Program

ENGLEWOOD — The resignation of the Rev. Harold Dekker, minister of the Englewood Christian Reformed Church, in order to accept appointment on the staff of the "Back to God" radio hour of the denomination, was announced on Monday evening during the annual congregational meeting of the church.

Mr. Dekker, who has been serving the Englewood congregation for the past three years, is the current president of the Englewood Ministerial Association. In his new capacity, he will be stationed in Chicago, and will carry out "follow-up" work for the radio broadcast. Prior to coming to Englewood, he served as a Navy Chaplain during the war, and then as a teacher at Calvin Seminary in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Dekker presided at the business meeting, at which reports were presented on the celebration of the church's 75th anniversary, and the construction of the new parish house.

It was unaminously voted to appoint Arthur De Kruyter, graduate of Calvin Seminary in Grand Rapids and student at Princeton Seminary, working for his Master's degree, as stated supply for the church until such time as he has completed his studies at Princeton in June and had been declared a candidate for the ministry by the Synod of the church. Mr. De Kruyter has done home mission work in several places, taught catechism in Grand Rapids while attending Calvin, was president of the Student Council in his senior year. He was also business manager of the a capella choir and won two oratorical contests while there. He is intensely interested in working with unchurched people. He is to conduct the services at this church on Thanksgiving Day and also on the following Sunday.

Mr. Dekker has already assumed some of his new duties and has been relieved of several of his duties to this church.

The meeting continued with the financial report presentation and the new budget was adopted for the year.

Elections were held for a new elder and a new deacon to fill vacancies left by retiring officers whose terms have run out. George C. Brinkerhoff, Jr., was elected to the office for a term of three years to fill the place of Harold B. Bogert. Mr. Bogert has been vice-president of the consistory during his term. Walter Lagerwey was elected for a three years term as deacon to replace Stanley Westervelt.

At the close of the meeting Stanley Davison serving as congregational spokesman, remarked on the pleasure and spiritual gain that has been the lot of the congregation under Mr. Dekker's ministration.

Englewood Zionists To Install Officers At Nov. 12 Reception

ENGLEWOOD—Mayor M. Leslie Denning and C. Conrad Schneider, state commander of the American Legion, will be among the local and state dignitaries on hand Sunday, Nov. 12 when the Englewood Zionist District installs David Davidson as president at an installation dance at the new Jewish Community Center, Tenafly road.

Mr. Schneider, who recently returned from the American Legion national convention in Los Angeles, will formally install the new officers. The Englewood attorney, who is also president of the Bergen County Y.M.C.A. in Hackensack, has been active in Jewish affairs in the community for many years.

Benjamin E. Gordon of Teaneck, newly elected president of the New Jersey State Zionist Region, also will be present to pay tribute to the local district's new officers along with Uriah Tchack, executive director of the New Jersey Region, and several national officers.

According to Arnold Foster, chairman of the installation committee, the installation dance will be a gala affair. The program will include a short formal ceremony to install Mr. Davidson and the other officers for 1950-51 with the greater part of the evening devoted to dancing to the tunes of an outstanding orchestra. Refreshments and cocktails will be served and admission is free. The entire community has been invited to attend the affair which will open the new season for the Englewood Zionist District.

In addition to Mr. Davidson, the following officers will be installed by Mr. Schneider: Sol Becker, Harry Gitlin, Clyde Lindenbaum and Charles Fishberg, vice presidents; Isaac Hyman, treasurer; Nathan Lerner, financial secretary; Milton Heir, recording secretary, and Harold Guss, corresponding secretary.

The following members of the board of trustees also will be installed: Sol Feiner, Harry B. Cohen, Samuel Gilbert, Aaron LeVine, Arnold Foster, Mervin D. Hyman, Herman Kalman, Samuel Gitlin, Meyer Osoff, Sidney Isen, Sidney Sobol, Irving Kuttler, Jules Wenig, Max Lifton, Nathaniel L. Fish and Murray Sacks.

The installation committee is composed of Mr. Foster chairman; Milton Heir, Harry B. Cohen, Aaron LeVine, Malcolm Hyman, Mervin D. Hyman, and Harry Gitlin.

F. R. Peterson

elected chairman of the board and chief executive officer of the new First National Bank and Trust Company.

Active in the affairs of the New Jersey Bankers Association, and the American Bankers Association, Mr. Peterson has served as chairman of the federal legislation committee and as treasurer, vice president and president of the state group. Since 1941, he has been a member of the group's executive committee. He was a member of the executive committee of the Paterson Clearing House Association from 1936 to 1948 and served as its president in the 1942-43 term.

Many ABA Offices

In the national bankers group, Mr. Peterson has served as chairman of the executiv committee of the national bank division, president of the same division, member of the economic policy commission, chairman of the finance committee, vice president and his present presidency.

A member of the Paterson Industrial Commission, Mr. Peterson was formerly president of the Money Marketeers an association connected with the Graduate School of Business of New York University. He has an honorary doctorate from that university. He also is a member of the Union League Club, Ridgewood Country Club, Englewood Men's Club and Arcola Country Club.

Chairman of the dinner committee for the chamber is Raymond J. Nelligan. Seating arrangements are being made, and reservations in advance were recommended by the chamber. Organization tables, with identifying names displayed, will seat groups of six, eight or ten.

Firms which have already reserved full tables include Palisades Trust Co., Citizens National Bank, Kahn Motors, Englewood Press-Journal, Art Flower Shop, Buckley's Drug Store, Michael Caputo, Inc., Wee Moderns, Ferber Corp., and Theodore Farinella.

Distinctive Uniforms For New Hospital Aides

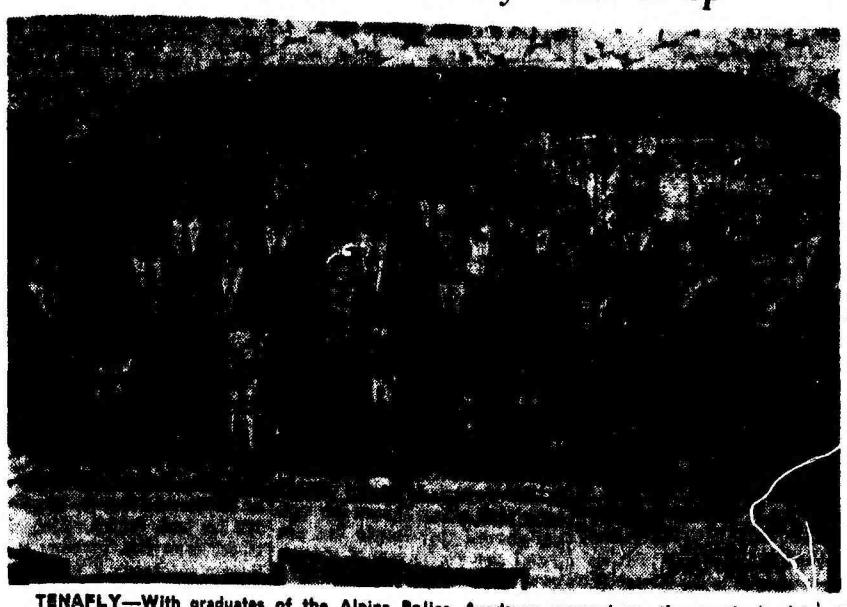
"They Study That We May Better Sleep"



TENAFLY—With graduates of the Alpine Police Academy grouped on the speaker's dais at Club Gabby, Tenafly, Chief William Cacace of Alpine, director of the school; Chief Chester B. Campbell, president of the Bergen County Police Chiefs Association; Dr. J. C. Burnett, founder of the school; and Samuel McKee, officer in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in New Jersey are shown at the speakers' table.

More than fifteen million people in the United States suffer from some kind of a hearing defect.

Alpine Police Academy Awards Diplomas To 20

TENAFLY — The Alpine Police Academy — organized during the war by Chief William Cacace of the Alpine Police and Dr. John C. Burnett, scientist-inventor, with the cooperation and blessing of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, held its sixth annual graduation program on Monday evening, giving diplomas to 20 members of Bergen County and municipal police departments.

Chief Chester B. Campbell of the Tenafly Police Department, president of the Bergen County Police Chiefs Association presided as master of ceremonies, and introduced the guests of honor, Police Chiefs, Municipal leaders and County government heads who were in the audience at Club Gabby in Tenafly.

A beefsteak dinner was served to approximately 100 men, who represented half the governing bodies and law enforcement agencies in the county.

Sergeant Mario Buniva of Tenafly took charge of the seating of guests, and Patrolman Silvestro DeLuisio, of Tenafly, entertained during the evening on his piano accordion.

Lost Their Sleep

In his opening remarks Chief Campbell paid tribute to the men who "lost their sleep to sharpen their abilities so that the people of Bergen might sleep safely". He advised those who might not know that the men had spent three hours a night, three nights a week for a total of 150 hours of intruction on their own time at the Academy.

Howard Devaney, state president of the Patrolman's Benevolent Association, told the Assembly that Bergen police are the lowest paid in the state, and that it is not necessary for a municipal government to make salary increases a referendum matter.

Samuel McKee, officer in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in New Jersey presented the department with a vivid analysis of the growth and intricacy of the Federal detection system in Washington, and its branches. He stressed the fact that fingerprinting has become a definite science, and is recognized as such in the courts and law of the land.

Dr. Burnett, after paying tribute to J. Edgar Hoover for his work in the preservation of America's safety, traced the history of the academy, and gave his opinion that Bergen County has awakened to its responsibility to support the FBI. The Police Department is no longer a "flatfoot outfit", Dr. Burnett stated—"the officer's brains are not in his feet, but squarely in his head, on his shoulders.

Equipment Appeal

Chief Cacace appealed for municipal cooperation to see that graduates of the school in finger-printing (this year's subject) have the essential equipment for carrying on their work. "These 20 men are now well qualified as special agents in finger-printing", he stated, "but their knowledge is of no value if they lack the needed equipment to carry on".

Diplomas were presented to: Sergeant Mario Buniva and Patrolman Silvestro DeLuisio, of Tenafly; Detective Merwyn Hawkins of Englewood; George Scott, Hillsdale, Frank Maher, East Paterson; Robert L. Bender, Haworth; Henry Sengelmann, Leonia; Norman Stalter, Park Ridge; Daniel Ryan, Ridgefield Park; Royal S. Weber, Ho-Ho-Kus; William Lloyd, Ridgefield; Lawrence Geiss, Bogota; Edward Schmalz, Bergen County Police; William Rehain, Upper Saddle River; Andrew Troy, Fair-Lawn, John C. Parodi, Maywood; Robert Facella, Lodi; Roy Johnson, Washington Township; and Alois Wittner, Closter.

Dr. W. Van Riper Leaves Hospital For J&J Position

ENGLEWOOD—Dr. William D. Van Riper, of West Englewood, has taken a leave of absence from his practice and appointments at Englewood Hospital to become director of industria medicine for Johnson and Johnson, makers of surgical supplie..

Dr. Van Riper attended Colgate University and Temple University School of Medicine, after which he interned and was House Surgeon at Englewood. Following this he entered private practice and was associated with Piccatinny Arsenal, before entering the U. S. Army early in 1942.

While in the . rmy, he was assigned to the Raritan Arsenal and the Surgical Service of the 90th General Hospital in England and France. He was later transferred to the 2nd Auxiliary Surgical Group, serving in France, Germany, Austria and northern Italy.

After his discharge in October, 1945, Dr. Van Riper did postgraduate work at Post Graduate Hospital, New York City, and entered private practice, continuing this work until his appointment at Johnson and Johnson.

Bergen Choral In N. Y. Recital: To Offer 'Messiah'

ENGLEWOOD — The Bergen Choral Society, with John Harms conducting, again presented the stirring "Stabat Mater" by Rossini, in New York City last night, November 1.

Joining the John Harms Chorus of New York, these well-trained groups gave a special presentation in the auditorium of the American Academy of Arts and Letters to an audience consisting of members of the academy and others especially invited from musical circles in New York City.

The group previously performed the selection in a concert at the Plaza Theatre, Englewood, last week.

Rehearsals of the chorus are held each Monday evening at 8 p.m. at St. Paul's Parish House. At next Monday's rehearsal, work will start on Handel's "Messiah" in preparation for the large-scale performance of this work on Sunday evening, Dec. 17, in which the choral society will be joined by groups from the various church choirs.

Work will also begin on the music for the Bergen Choral Society's benefit concert for the Englewood Hospital Fund scheduled for Jan. 16 at the Plaza Theatre, Englewood.

Our grand business undoubtedly is, not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand.

Grand Union's Courtesy Award To W. Englewood

ENGLEWOOD — G. and Union's West Englewood market was named "Courtesy Store of the Month" in the suburban division today by R. D. Lytle, division general manager.

A courtesy award is made each month to the outstanding store among the 60 Grand Union markets located in New Jersey and and nearby New York State. Each store is judged for friendliness, cleanliness and courtesy to customers.

At ceremonies last night, Mr. Lytle presented a banner to Angelo Ghiorse, grocery manager, and Herbert Kneisler, meat manager on behalf of all the store personnel. In addition, each individual employe received a suitable memento.

"This award is a proper recognition of the effort put forth by the whole Grand Union organization to make our markets a pleasant place in which to shop," said Mr. Lytle. "It is not enough to sell top quality food products at the lowest possible price. All of us must be alert to uphold Grand Union's reputation for being friendly stores."

Rev. John Ludlum Named Minister At Englewood Church

ENGLEWOOD — The Rev. John Ludlum, the new minister of the Community Church on Hudson avenue, assumed charge of the congregation over the past week-end, and preached his first sermon on the Reformation at the 11 a.m. Reformed Sunday service.

Mr. Ludlum is a native of Albany N. Y., and was graduated from Rutgers University and New Brunswick Theological Seminar. During the past year he did residence work on his Doctorate in Philosophy at Yale University, as well as 20 hours of graduate study at Columbia University.

He is married to the former Miss Noelle Atwood. They have a son, Victor John, who is 5, and a daughter, Mary Noelle, three years of age.

Freeholders Cite Low Tax Cost In Re-Election Bid

ENGLEWOOD — Freeholders Martin J. Ferber and Martin P. Nelson said today that the results of an impartial survey by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association which showed that Bergen has the lowest per capita cost of government of any county in the State should be a major factor in producing an overwhelming Republican vote on Nov. 7.

"The people today are more interested in their pocketbooks than in the welfare of political parties," said Ferber and Nelson, Republican candidates for re-election. "Each year the New Jersey Taxpayers Association makes an impartial and non-political survey of the costs of county government in New Jersey. Using the preliminary 1950 census figures this survey showed that Bergen has the lowest per capita cost of government of any of the 21 counties of New Jersey. Bergen's per capita cost is only $11.30 as compared with Ocean County, which tops the list with a per capita cost of $35.90. Neighboring Hudson's per capita cost is $30.56; Essex, $19.06; Passaic, $15.68, and Camden, $18.37, to mention a few.

"No amount of political propaganda can erase these facts. Now written into the records is confirmation of what we constantly have maintained—that Bergen is the best managed county in New Jersey. Naturally, we are proud to be members of the Bergen County Board of Freeholders which has established this outstanding record for good government. We are confident that the people of Bergen County will want this kind of government continued and will, therefore, vote Republican on Nov. 7."

Car Rolls From Drive; Strikes Florida Man

Russell Holmes of DeLand, Florida, driving easterly on Ivy lane, Englewood, was struck on the side by the car of Omar A. Burgess of 172 Ivy lane, which rolled, unattended from the driveway at the Burgess residence. It was believed that children had released the hand brake, causing the vehicle to roll down the slope. Both cars were damaged.

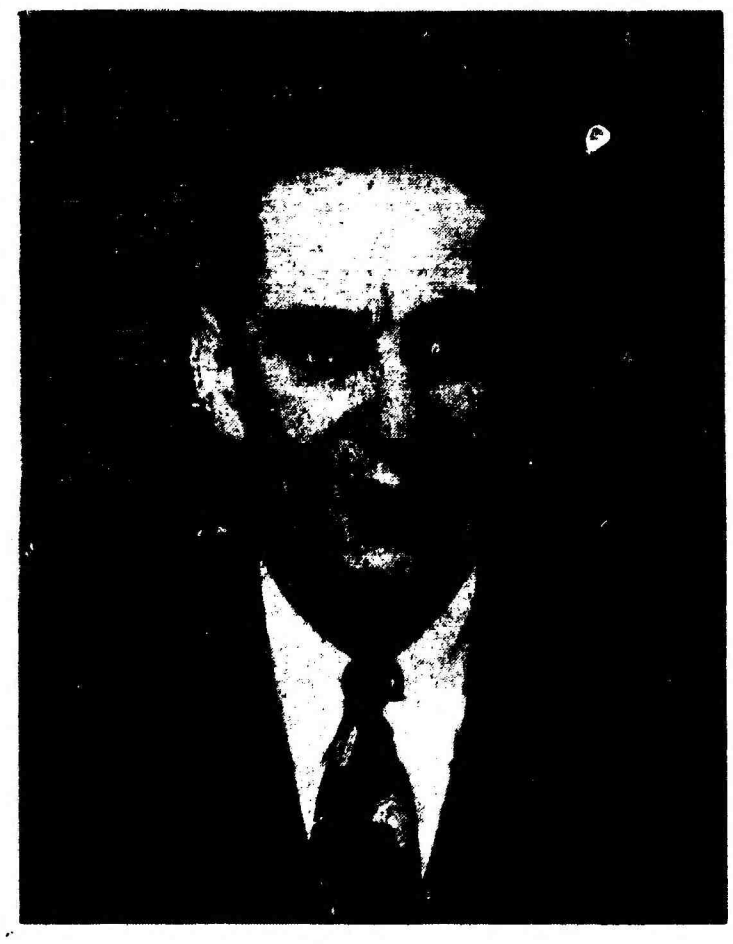
CARL E. RING



A Real Republican Against the Machine

This is Carl E. Ring. A lot of you know him, most of you have heard or read about him. He is the fellow who alone dared to fight the Bergen County G.O.P. machine. He is the man who, on his own and with no financial contributions at all, entered this Congressional race because he believes in the elementary principles of American government. He believes that the Congressional representative of a district should not be the willing puppet of selfish politicians and political machines. He thinks that peace and prosperity are things that can come only from sound thinking, sound leadership and above all, a sound workable economic system. He feels that continued domination of the people ultimately leads to despotic rule and opens the door to government by fear. He promises a good day's work. You have your chance to vote for him November 7th. Think carefully before making your decision.

A VOTE FOR RING, A REAL REPUBLICAN, IS A VOTE FOR REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

A VOTE FOR EITHER PARTY CANDIDATE IS A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN THE CORRUPT POLITICAL MACHINE.

You will find Mr. Ring at the head of the Nomination by Petition Column

Ring Seeks End Of Waste, Cites New Deal 'Fear'

ENGLEWOOD — Carl E. Ring, Independent Republican candidate for Congress in the ninth district, said yesterday, "Now that the Korean war which has been fought and paid for almost solely by the United States, or the United Nations police power action, for those who wish to believe in that Presidential hoax, is over or nearly over, let us take account of stock. There are 32,000 dead and injured, beautiful American lives wasted, 250,000 Korean casualties according to the Defense Department, billions of American money gone and billions of destruction in Korea and no loss of money or lives to Russia

"All this 'God-given opportunity' as Senator Smith of New Jersey says, so that we can state our position and have a free election in Korea. We have listened to the internationalists and given them a full tryout sparing no expense in lives or money. If we don't put on some brakes, its pied pipers will pipe all of our children into the rat holes of Europe and Asia simply because we don't know any better, and will bleed us dry of every cent. All this in the name of peace."

"What is peace?" Mr. Rring asked. "If it's just the quiet spell between two wars, then we'll probably have peace for a short while.

Sound Thinking

"Peace is something that can come only from sound thinking, sound leadership and above all a workable economic system. Peace must come from a spiritual state of mind which most of us in this nation can enjoy. Most Russian individuals could because it's one of the easiest human instincts to recognize and cultivate but Russia is controlled and dominated by a group of men led by Josef Stalin who have ice water in their veins and who have chosen not to recognize any spiritual guidance but to be materialistic, despite rulers of men.

"I do not now and I never did and I never will trust that government nor anyone in it because trust implies, of necessity, a moral foundation which is non-existent in the Russian leaders. At no time have I ever believed that any agreement with Russia would be fulfilled. We opened the door and they took advantage We gave them billions in lend lease, half of Germany and half of Korea and much more. If they asked for half of the Pentagon Building in Washington, there are those who would want to give it to them and I'm not ure Acheson isn't one of them' Mr. Ring continued.

"The New Deal administration began with the warning that 'all we have to fear is fear itself' and then proceeded to fill us with fears while the robbed us of our children and our wealth. Faithless incompetent leaders! Their fears will lead us only to wars and their peace will be only the rest period until the war mongers get going again. If Truman is not their leader, he certainly is their victim,' Mr. Ring stated.

"Let those who think otherwise take their bazookas and march to the next eruption and we'll pay their fare. The heroes are not those who stay home and send the other fellow or the other fellow's son out to die uselessly."

Mr. Ring concluded, "I am the candidate for election to Congress of those people who have faith in America and who can put aside their fears. Faith is that power which will bring about peace and happiness if we first think it out with truth and apply the necessary hard work."

Vinson, Martin Laud Record Of Rep. Harry Towe

ENGLEWOOD — Rep. Harry L. Towe's work and voting record in the House of Representatives has drawn praise from two top ranking Congressmen, Democratic Rep. Carl Vinson, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, and Republican Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin.

Rep. Towe, Republican candidate for re-election on Nov. 7, made public today a copy of a letter he has received from Congressman Vinson lauding Rep. Towe's work on the Armed Services Committee. The letter, in part, follows:

"I have the feeling that I would be badly remiss if I failed to let you know how much I have appreciated your fine work, your consistent attendance at the meetings of the committee, and your able advice and helpful cooperation throughout the past two years.

"It seems to me that you should have a feeling of great accomplishment from your work in these four years on the Armed Services Committee. I think of your leadership in and sponsorship of legislation providing inactive duty training pay for members of the armed forces' reserve components, which legislation has had a great impact on their training and readiness. I think of your sponsorship of universal military training legislation in the last Congress, when you moved this legislation farther along in the House than it has ever gone before, and your reintroduction of UMT legislation in this Congress.

"I reiterate my statement to you that we will take up your bill in January, and I hope we will be able to pass it through the House. I also cannot overlook the outstanding service you rendered in helping us in our highly important unification hearings of last October."

Rep. Martin's Letter

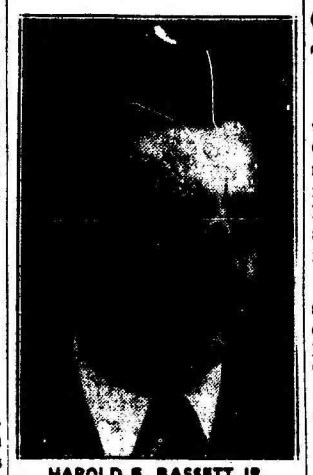
Rep. Martin wrote:

"I want to express my deep appreciation of your constant attendance on the floor (of the House of Representatives). It is Representatives like your own good self that make it possible for us to stop this steady drift toward Communism and bankruptcy. It is gratifying to have men of your sincerity and courage in Congress. If ever the country needed men of those virtues it is today. . . .As a member of the Policy Committee your advice has been invaluable and has helped us tremendously. I am sure your re-election is to the advantage of your people."

Rep. Towe also is in receipt of a letter from E. A. Evans, executive director of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States.

"The Korean situation has very forceably shown," wrote Evans, "that the things for which we have been fighting and which you in turn have always voted for, were sorely needed. Reserve officers throughout this nation have every reason to appreciate the help you have given them."

SAFETY TEACHER



HAROLD E. BASSETT JR.

Red Cross Safety Expert To Teach Refresher Course

ENGLEWOOD—Harold R. Bassett Jr., Safety Services Field Representative for the Eastern Area of the American Red Cross, who has been engaged in this service field for 20 years, will conduct the Instructors' First Aid Refresher Course at Englewood Junior High School, beginning on Monday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m. and continuing on five consecutive nights of that week.

Mr. Bassett gave continuous service as a volunteer life-saving examiner from 1927 to 1942; and as avolunteer first aid instructor from 1932 to 1941. For four years he was a member of the Westchester County Chapter's Safety Service committee, and for three years was assistant director there of safety services.

In 1947, Mr. Bassett joined the North Atlantic Area staff, serving for two years as assistant director of Safety Services. He is a member of Hendrik Hudson Boy Scout Council, Westchester County Recreation Commission, and a founder of the Westchester County Swimming Association. He resides in Tarrytown, where he served as avolunteer fireman, and is a member of the Westchester Volunteer Fire Chiefs' Emergency Plan.

Miss Chetwood In Tribute To Nurse Cited by State

Miss Virginia M. Chetwood, who was signally honored by the New Jersey State Nurses Association during its annual convention at Asbury Park, the past week, was one of five district representatives to be cited for their outstanding work for nursing in their districts.

Miss Chetwood was selected by District 2. The founder of the Bergen County Tuberculosis and Health Association, Miss Chetwood was an actively practising private duty nurse from 1893 until 1910.

"The star of the evening" according to Miss Chetwood", was Miss Mary E. Rockhill, a graduate of Cooper Hospital, Camden, in the Class of 1899, who displayed her membership card in the State Association from 1901-1903. She was a charter member of the State Board of Nurse Examiners which is now called the Board of Nursing.

"Miss Rockhill's few words over the microphone "brought down the house" with laughter and applause. There were no scrolls awarded, but the State president, Miss Elizabeth Brown, presented each candidate with a beautiful gold brooch as a feature of the banquet."

Life Sketches Of Candidates To Aid Voters

ENGLEWOOD — As the three-way fight for the ninth district's Congressional seat came to a climax this week, the following biographies of Rep. Harry L. Towe, Karl D. Van Wagner and Carl Ring are published as a guide to voters in this area.

Concluding his eighth year of service as Congressman from the district which includes portions of Bergen and Hudson counties, Rep. Towe, Republican of Tenafly, is opposed by Mr. Van Wagner, Democrat of West Englewood, and Mr. Ring, Independent of Rutherford.

Rep. Towe has been a vigorous critic of New Deal and Fair Deal trends, the handling of the Korean problem, the Far Eastern policy, the immense spending and the multiple bureaus of national government.

A lawyer, his first introduction to public office was a borough attorney for Rutherford in 1929. He has been a U. S. commissioner, special assistant Bergen County prosecutor, special assistant attorney general, Bergen assemblyman for two years and Bergen County Republican chairman.

Rep. Towe left a naval career, resigning from U. S. Naval Academy in 1920, to study law. He specializes in public utility cases. Born in Jersey City in 1898, he has resided in Bergen County the major part of his life, recently moving from Rutherford to a new home in Tenafly.

Van Wagner

Mr. Van Wagner, who has campaigned for legalization of a national lottery through a bureau of voluntary revenue to eliminate the gambling racket, has long urged reduction of tolls on Hudson River projects of Port of New York Authority, was founder and first president of Teaneck Taxpayers' League. He was the first mayor of the township under the manager form of government.

He served Teaneck as councilman and mayor for 16 years and during his tenure new wings were added to the high school and library and Lowell School was erected. The feat he is proudest of is that during that time Teaneck taxes were reduced four times and during the depression municipal finances were handled on a cash basis.

The Democratic candidate, who favors lowering the voting age to 18, was born in Nyack, N. Y., and lives in West Englewood with his wife and two daughters. He is a worsted textile designer by profession.

Ring

Mr. Ring, who has a law office in New York, an electrical engineering firm, Electrical Engineers, Inc., in Union City, and an affiliate, Somerset Laboratories, Inc., stresses that he is an independent Republican who remained out of the primary because "it is not free and open" in New Jersey.

Running on an anti-machine politics and anti-machine bosses platform, Mr. Ring has no political background and he and a business associate, Edward Schaub, are conducting his campaign. Much of their campaigning is done by mail and already more than 300,000 pieces of literature have been sent to voters by that means.

Mr. Ring, whose home is in Rutherford, was a member of the American high hurdles team that took part in the 1928 Olympic games in Amsterdam. Father of two sons, Carl, 12, and John, 8, he was born in Bangor, Me., and was graduated from University of Maine in 1825 with a degree in engineering. He studied law at Harvard.

C. C. Schneider Heads Legion Probe Appeal

ENGLEWOOD — C. Conrad Schneider, Englewood, commander of New Jersey department, American Legion, spearheaded an appeal this week to Gov Alfred E. Driscoll for state improvement in the care of patients in mental hospitals in New Jersey.

Appearing at Trenton with Mr. Schneider were Roland F. Cowan, Trenton, state adjutant, and C. Harold Saidt, Trenton, director of public relations.

The men presented to Gov. Driscoll a resolution adopted at the Asbury Park convention of the state Legion. The resolution cited allegedly inadequate facilities in New Jersey's three state and four county mental institutions.

An overload of 43 percent in the institutions was also charged in the resolution. Definite action to be taken was not made public. The resolution called on Gov. Driscoll to appoint a commission which will investigate conditions in mental hospitals, both veteran and non-veteran.

FOR ASSEMBLY

ENGLEWOOD—Gill C. Job, of Allendale the Republican candidate for State Assembly, began his political career as campaign manager in his home town before the war. He was elected to the board of education in 1941 and was re-elected for a three year term in 1942, but later resigned to enlist in the U. S. Army.

Honorably discharged in 1946, he was elected county committeeman from Allendale and re-elected through 1949 when he was appointed chairman of the first executive district of the county committee. Mr. Job was instrumental in the reactivation of the Bergen County Young Republican Club after the war and presently serves as a member of the executive committee.

AJC To Hear Speaker Nov. 8 At Meeting

ENGLEWOOD — Samuel Deutsch will speak on the topic, "Survival through Knowledge," at the next meeting of the Northern Valley Chapter of the American Jewish Congress on Wednesday evening, Nov. 8, at the Jewish Community Center of Englewood, Tenafly road, Englewood.

A short discussion of business will precede Mr. Deutsch's talk. His topic is in keeping with the proclamation of November as Jewish Book Month. General discussion and refreshments will follow. All interested are invited to attend.

Dr. W. Van Riper Leaves Hospital For J&J Position

ENGLEWOOD—Dr. William D. Van Riper, of West Englewood, has taken a leave of absence from his practice and appointments at Englewood Hospital to become director of industrial medicine for Johnson and Johnson, makers of surgical supplies.

Dr. Van Riper attended Colgate University and Temple University School of Medicine, after which he interned and was House Surgeon at Englewood. Following this he entered private practice and was associated with Piccatinny Arsenal, before entering the U. S. Army early in 1942.

While in the Army, he was assigned to the Raritan Arsenal and the Surgical Service of the 90th General Hospital in England and France. He was later transferred to the 2nd Auxiliary Surgical Group, serving in France, Germany, Austria and northern Italy.

After his discharge in October, 1945, Dr. Van Riper did postgraduate work at Post Graduate Hospital, New York City, and entered private practice, continuing this work until his appointment at Johnson and Johnson.

Bergen Choral In N. Y. Recital: To Offer 'Messiah'

ENGLEWOOD — The Bergen Choral Society, with John Harms conducting, again presented the stirring "Stabat Mater" by Rossini, in New York City last night, November 1.

Joining the John Harms Chorus of New York, these well-trained groups gave a special presentation in the auditorium of the American Academy of Arts and Letters to an audience consisting of members of the academy and others especially invited from musical circles in New York City.

The group previously performed the selection in a concert at the Plaza Theatre, Englewood, last week.

Rehearsals of the chorus are held each Monday evening at 8 p.m. at St. Paul's Parish House. At next Monday's rehearsal, work will start on Handel's "Messiah" in preparation for the large-scale performance of this work on Sunday evening, Dec. 17, in which the choral society will be joined by groups from the various church choirs.

Work will also begin on the music for the Bergen Choral Society's benefit concert for the Englewood Hospital Fund scheduled for Jan. 16 at the Plaza Theatre, Englewood.

The first was correspondent was George W. Kendall of the New Orleans Picayune who covered the Mexican War.

Focus On Mental Hospitals

Focusing the attention of Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll (r., front) mental institutions in New Jersey, C. Conrad Schneider, (l., front) Englewood, department commander of the American Legion's New Jersey department shows the chief executive a resolution passed by the Legion seeking an investigation into the allegedly overcrowded conditions at those places. Standing in the rear are (l.) C. Harold Saidt, Trenton, state director of public relations, and (r.) Roland F. Cowan, Trenton, state adjutant. Meeting took place in Trenton last week.

Douglas Post 58 Installations At 78 Headquarters

ENGLEWOOD — Joint installation ceremonies were held at the American Legion Post 78 Headquarters, in Englewood, last Thursday night for John W. Brown, commander of Henry Douglas Post No. 58, also of Englewood, and for Mrs. Margaret Stanard, president of the Douglas Post Auxiliary.

Installed with the leaders were the following slates of officers: Douglas Post: Hanson Johnson, senior vice-commander; James Ledbetter, junior vice commander; Mrs. Louise W. Pearson, adjutant; Cyrus B. Hardy, finance officer; Raymond Edgar, judge advocate; William Sandford, service officer; Humphrey Stanard, histroian; Andrew Thomas, chaplain; and William Sanders sergeant-at-arms.

The Auxiliary: Mrs Thomas Davis, vice-president; Mrs. Bessie Fleming, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Elizabeth Smith secretary; Mrs. Martha Bohannon, treasurer; Mrs. Eula Keglar, historian; Mrs. George Gayle, chaplain; and Mrs. Hattie James, sergeant-at arms

Carl Muntze, County vice-commander, installed the pos officers, assisted by George F. Axt of Englewood, also County vice-commander. Mrs. Kurt Hartman, County president installed the auxiliary leaders

Roslyn Green was presented the award for the drum majorette contests held at the recent County Convention, by W. J. Slominske. James Williford and Alexander Johnson, who attended the New Jersey Boys State under sponsorship of Douglas Post and the Orchid Club also spoke briefly. The third boy sponsored for Boys State —Edward Cartwright, is now serving with the U. S. Marines.

Our grand business undoubtedly is, not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand.

Grand Union's Courtesy Award To W. Englewood

ENGLEWOOD — Grand Union's West Englewood market was named "Courtesy Store of the Month" in the suburban division today by R. D. Lytle, division general manager.

A courtesy award is made each month to the outstanding store among the 60 Grand Union markets located in New Jersey and and nearby New York State. Each store is judged for friendliness, cleanliness and courtesy to customers.

At ceremonies last night, Mr. Lytle presented a banner to Angelo Ghiorse, grocery manager, and Herbert Kneisler, meat manager on behalf of all the store personnel. In addition, each individual employe received a suitable memento.

"This award is a proper recognition of the effort put forth by the whole Grand Union organization to make our markets a pleasant place in which to shop," said Mr. Lytle. "It is not enough to sell top quality food products at the lowest possible price. All of us must be alert to uphold Grand Union's reputation for being friendly stores."

Rev. John Ludlum Named Minister At Englewood Church

ENGLEWOOD — The Rev. John Ludlum, the new minister of the Community Church on Hudson avenue, assumed charge of the congregation over the past week-end, and preached his first sermon on the Reformation at the 11 a.m. Reformed Sunday service.

Mr. Ludlum is a native of Albany N. Y., and was graduated from Rutgers University and New Brunswick Theological Seminar. During the past year he did residence work on his Doctorate in Philosophy at Yale University, as well as 20 hours of graduate study at Columbia University.

He is married to the former Miss Noelle Atwood. They have a son, Victor John, who is 5, and a daughter, Mary Noelle, three years of age.

Freeholders Cite Low Tax Cost In Re-Election Bid

ENGLEWOOD — Freeholders Martin J. Ferber and Martin P. Nelson said today that the results of an impartial survey by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association which showed that Bergen has the lowest per capita cost of government of any county in the State should be a major factor in producing an overwhelming Republican vote on Nov. 7.

"The people today are more interested in their pocketbooks than in the welfare of political parties," said Ferber and Nelson, Republican candidates for re-election. "Each year the New Jersey Taxpayers Association makes an impartial and non-political survey of the costs of county government in New Jersey. Using the preliminary 1950 census figures this survey showed that Bergen has the lowest per capita cost of government of any of the 21 counties of New Jersey. Bergen's per capita cost is only $11.30 as compared with Ocean County, which tops the list with a per capita cost of $35.90. Neighboring Hudson's per capita cost is $30.56; Essex, $19.06; Passaic, $15.68, and Camden, $18.37, to mention a few.

"No amount of political propaganda can erase these facts. Now written into the records is confirmation of what we constantly have maintained—that Bergen is the best managed county in New Jersey. Naturally, we are proud to be members of the Bergen County Board of Freeholders which has established this outstanding record for good government. We are confident that the people of Bergen County will want this kind of government continued and will, therefore, vote Republican on Nov. 7."

Car Rolls From Drive; Strikes Florida Man

Russell Holmes of DeLand, Florida, driving easterly on Ivy lane, Englewood, was struck on the side by the car of Omar A. Burgess of 172 Ivy lane, which rolled, unattended from the driveway at the Burgess residence. It was believed that children had released the hand brake, causing the vehicle to roll down the slope. Both cars were damaged.

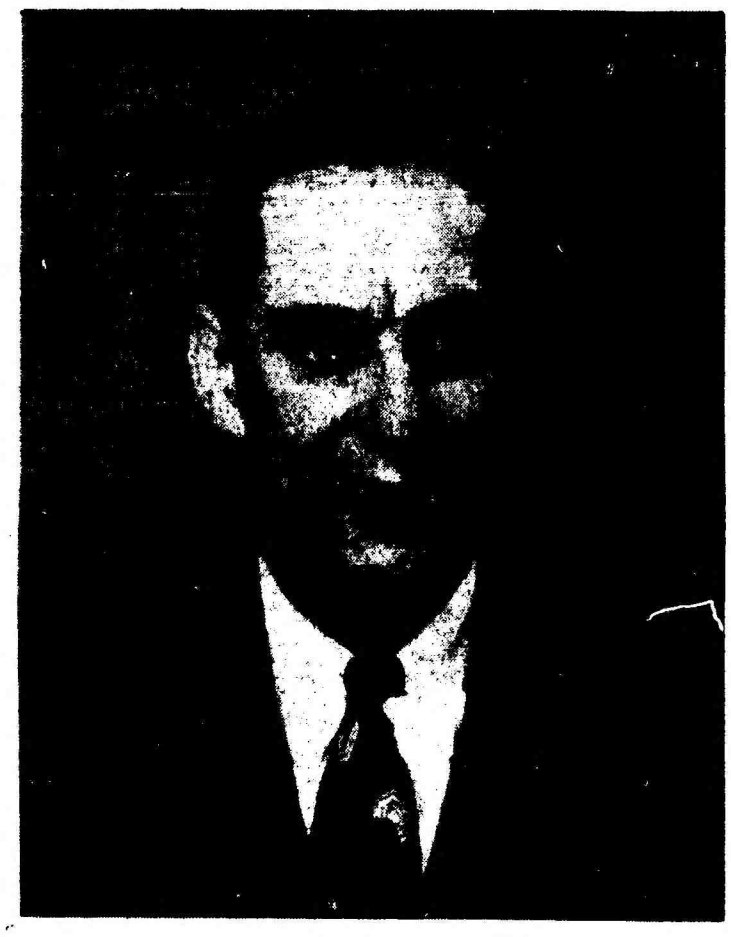
CARL E. RING



A Real Republican Against the Machine

This is Carl E. Ring. A lot of you know him, most of you have heard or read about him. He is the fellow who alone dared to fight the Bergen County G.O.P. machine. He is the man who, on his own and with no financial contributions at all, entered this Congressional race because he believes in the elementary principles of American government. He believes that the Congressional representative of a district should not be the willing puppet of selfish politicians and political machines.

He thinks that peace and prosperity are things that can come only from sound thinking, sound leadership and above all, a sound workable economic system. He feels that continued domination of the people ultimately leads to despotic rule and opens the door to government by fear. He promises a good day's work. You have your chance to vote for him November 7th. Think carefully before making your decision.

A VOTE FOR RING, A REAL REPUBLICAN, IS A VOTE FOR REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

A VOTE FOR EITHER PARTY CANDIDATE IS A VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN THE CORRUPT POLITICAL MACHINE.

You will find Mr. Ring at the head of the Nomination by Petition Column

Ring Seeks End Of Waste, Cites New Deal 'Fear'

ENGLEWOOD — Carl E. Ring, Independent Republican candidate for Congress in the ninth district, said yesterday, "Now that the Korean war which has been fought and paid for almost solely by the United States, or the United Nations police power action, for those who wish to believe in that Presidential hoax, is over or nearly over, let us take account of stock. There are 32,000 dead and injured, beautiful American lives wasted, 250,000 Korean casualties according to the Defense Department, billions of American money gone and billions of destruction in Korea and no loss of money or lives to Russia

"All this 'God-given opportunity' as Senator Smith of New Jersey says, so that we can state our position and have a free election in Korea. We have listened to the internationalists and given them a full tryout sparing no expense in lives or money. If we don't put on some brakes, its pied pipers will pipe all of our children into the rat holes of Europe and Asia simply because we don't know any better, and will bleed us dry of every cent. All this in the name of peace."

"What is peace?" Mr. Rring asked. "If it's just the quiet spell between two wars, then we'll probably have peace for a short while.

Sound Thinking

"Peace is something that can come only from sound thinking, sound leadership and above all a workable economic system. Peace must come from a spiritual state of mind which most of us in this nation can enjoy. Most Russian individuals could because it's one of the easiest human instincts to recognize and cultivate but Russia is controlled and dominated by a group of men led by Josef Stalin who have ice water in their veins and who have chosen not to recognize any spiritual guidance but to be materialistic, despite rulers of men.

"I do not now and I never did and I never will trust that government nor anyone in it because trust implies, of necessity, a moral foundation which is non-existent in the Russian leaders. At no time have I ever believed that any agreement with Russia would be fulfilled. We opened the door and they took advantage We gave them billions in lend lease, half of Germany and half of Korea and much more. If they asked for half of the Pentagon Building in Washington, there are those who would want to give it to them and I'm not ure Acheson isn't one of them' Mr. Ring continued.

"The New Deal administration began with the warning that 'all we have to fear is fear itself' and then proceeded to fill us with fears while the robbed us of our children and our wealth. Faithless incompetent leaders! Their fears will lead us only to wars and their peace will be only the rest period until the war mongers get going again. If Truman is not their leader, he certainly is their victim,' Mr. Ring stated.

"Let those who think otherwise take their bazookas and march to the next eruption and we'll pay their fare. The heroes are not those who stay home and send the other fellow or the other fellow's son out to die uselessly."

Mr. Ring concluded, "I am the candidate for election to Congress of those people who have faith in America and who can put aside their fears. Faith is that power which will bring about peace and happiness if we first think it out with truth and apply the necessary hard work."

Vinson, Martin Laud Record Of Rep. Harry Towe

ENGLEWOOD — Rep. Harry L. Towe's work and voting record in the House of Representatives has drawn praise from two top ranking Congressmen, Democratic Rep. Carl Vinson, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, and Republican Minority Leader Joseph W. Martin.

Rep. Towe, Republican candidate for re-election on Nov. 7, made public today a copy of a letter he has received from Congressman Vinson lauding Rep. Towe's work on the Armed Services Committee. The letter, in part, follows:

"I have the feeling that I would be badly remiss if I failed to let you know how much I have appreciated your fine work, your consistent attendance at the meetings of the committee, and your able advice and helpful cooperation throughout the past two years.

"It seems to me that you should have a feeling of great accomplishment from your work in these four years on the Armed Services Committee. I think of your leadership in and sponsorship of legislation providing inactive duty training pay for members of the armed forces' reserve components, which legislation has had a great impact on their training and readiness. I think of your sponsorship of universal military training legislation in the last Congress, when you moved this legislation farther along in the House than it has ever gone before, and your reintroduction of UMT legislation in this Congress.

"I reiterate my statement to you that we will take up your bill in January, and I hope we will be able to pass it through the House. I also cannot overlook the outstanding service you rendered in helping us in our highly important unification hearings of last October."

Rep. Martin's Letter

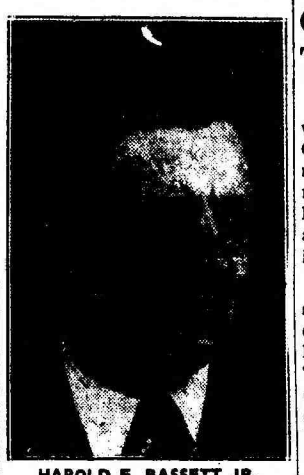
Rep. Martin wrote:

"I want to express my deep appreciation of your constant attendance on the floor (of the House of Representatives). It is Representatives like your own good self that make it possible for us to stop this steady drift toward Communism and bankruptcy. It is gratifying to have men of your sincerity and courage in Congress. If ever the country needed men of those virtues it is today. . . .As a member of the Policy Committee your advice has been invaluable and has helped us tremendously. I am sure your re-election is to the advantage of your people."

Rep. Towe also is in receipt of a letter from E. A. Evans, executive director of the Reserve Officers Association of the United States.

"The Korean situation has very forceably shown," wrote Evans, "that the things for which we have been fighting and which you in turn have always voted for, were sorely needed. Reserve officers throughout this nation have every reason to appreciate the help you have given them."

SAFETY TEACHER



HAROLD E. BASSETT JR.

Red Cross Safety Expert To Teach Refresher Course

ENGLEWOOD—Harold R. Bassett Jr., Safety Services Field Representative for the Eastern Area of the American Red Cross, who has been engaged in this service field for 20 years, will conduct the Instructors' First Aid Refresher Course at Englewood Junior High School, beginning on Monday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m. and continuing on five consecutive nights of that week.

Mr. Bassett gave continuous service as a volunteer life-saving examiner from 1927 to 1942; and as avolunteer first aid instructor from 1932 to 1941. For four years he was a member of the Westchester County Chapter's Safety Service committee, and for three years was assistant director there of safety services.

In 1947, Mr. Bassett joined the North Atlantic Area staff, serving for two years as assistant director of Safety Services. He is a member of Hendrik Hudson Boy Scout Council, Westchester County Recreation Commission, and a founder of the Westchester County Swimming Association, He resides in Tarrytown, where he served as avolunteer fireman, and is a member of the Westchester Volunteer Fire Chiefs' Emergency Plan.

Miss Chetwood In Tribute To Nurse Cited by State

Miss Virginia M. Chetwood, who was signally honored by the New Jersey State Nurses Association during its annual convention at Asbury Park, the past week, was one of five district representatives to be cited for their outstanding work for nursing in their districts.

Miss Chetwood was selected by District 2. The founder of the Bergen County Tuberculosis and Health Association, Miss Chetwood was an actively practising private duty nurse from 1893 until 1910.

"The star of the evening" according to Miss Chetwood", was Miss Mary E. Rockhill, a graduate of Cooper Hospital, Camden, in the Class of 1899, who displayed her membership card in the State Association from 1901-1903. She was a charter member of the State Board of Nurse Examiners which is now called the Board of Nursing.

"Miss Rockhill's few words over the microphone "brought down the house" with laughter and applause. There were no scrolls awarded, but the State president, Miss Elizabeth Brown, presented each candidate with a beautiful gold brooch as a feature of the banquet."

Life Sketches Of Candidates To Aid Voters

ENGLEWOOD — As the three-way fight for the ninth district's Congressional seat came to a climax this week, the following biographies of Rep. Harry L. Towe, Karl D. Van Wagner and Carl Ring are published as a guide to voters in this area.

Concluding his eighth year of service as Congressman from the district which includes portions of Bergen and Hudson counties, Rep. Towe, Republican of Tenafly, is opposed by Mr. Van Wagner, Democrat of West Englewood, and Mr. Ring, Independent of Rutherford.

Rep. Towe has been a vigorous critic of New Deal and Fair Deal trends, the handling of the Korean problem, the Far Eastern policy, the immense spending and the multiple bureaus of national government.

A lawyer, his first introduction to public office was a borough attorney for Rutherford in 1929. He has been a U. S. commissioner, special assistant Bergen County prosecutor, special assistant attorney general, Bergen assemblyman for two years and Bergen County Republican chairman.

Rep. Towe left a naval career, resigning from U. S. Naval Academy in 1920, to study law. He specializes in public utility cases. Born in Jersey City in 1898, he has resided in Bergen County the major part of his life, recently moving from Rutherford to a new home in Tenafly.

Van Wagner

Mr. Van Wagner, who has campaigned for legalization of a national lottery through a bureau of voluntary revenue to eliminate the gambling racket, has long urged reduction of tolls on Hudson River projects of Port of New York Authority, was founder and first president of Teaneck Taxpayers' League. He was the first mayor of the township under the manager form of government.

He served Teaneck as councilman and mayor for 16 years and during his tenure new wings were added to the high school and library and Lowell School was erected. The feat he is proudest of is that during that time Teaneck taxes were reduced four times and during the depression municipal finances were handled on a cash basis.

The Democratic candidate, who favors lowering the voting age to 18, was born in Nyack, N. Y., and lives in West Englewood with his wife and two daughters. He is a worsted textile designer by profession.

Ring

Mr. Ring, who has a law office in New York, an electrical engineering firm, Electrical Engineers, Inc., in Union City, and an affiliate, Somerset Laboratories, Inc., stresses that he is an independent Republican who remained out of the primary because "it is not free and open" in New Jersey.

Running on an anti-machine politics and anti-machine bosses platform, Mr. Ring has no political background and he and a business associate, Edward Schaub, are conducting his campaign. Much of their campaigning is done by mail and already more than 300,000 pieces of literature have been sent to voters by that means.

Mr. Ring, whose home is in Rutherford, was a member of the American high hurdles team that took part in the 1928 Olympic games in Amsterdam. Father of two sons, Carl, 12, and John, 8, he was born in Bangor, Me., and was graduated from University of Maine in 1825 with a degree in engineering. He studied law at Harvard.

FOR ASSEMBLY

ENGLEWOOD—Gill C. Job, of Allendale the Republican candidate for State Assembly, began his political career as campaign manager in his home town before the war. He was elected to the board of education in 1941 and was re-elected for a three year term in 1942, but later resigned to enlist in the U. S. Army.

Honorably discharged in 1946, he was elected county committeeman from Allendale and re-elected through 1949 when he was appointed chairman of the first executive district of the county committee. Mr. Job was instrumental in the reactivation of the Bergen County Young Republican Club after the war and presently serves as a member of the executive committee.

C. C. Schneider Heads Legion Probe Appeal

ENGLEWOOD — C. Conrad Schneider, Englewood, commander of New Jersey department, American Legion, spearheaded an appeal this week to Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll for state improvement in the care of patients in mental hospitals in New Jersey.

Appearing at Trenton with Mr. Schneider were Roland F. Cowan, Trenton, state adjutant, and C. Harold Saidt, Trenton, director of public relations.

The men presented to Gov. Driscoll a resolution adopted at the Asbury Park convention of the state Legion. The resolution cited allegedly inadequate facilities in New Jersey's three state and four county mental institutions.

An overload of 43 percent in the institutions was also charged in the resolution. Definite action to be taken was not made public. The resolution called on Gov. Driscoll to appoint a commission which will investigate conditions in mental hospitals, both veteran and non-veteran.

Tuesday's Election Is Important

There is a lack-lustre about this election campaign so serious that many persons are scarcely aware that General Election is Tuesday, Nov. 7.

And yet this is an important election year. In our own Ninth Congressional District, our Republican Representative Harry L. Towe is up for reelection. He is threatened by an Independent whose primary danger to Mr. Towe is that he may cut into the Republican vote and thereby add to the chances of the Democratic candidate.

This is strong Republican territory, and its people are concerned over the length of time the New Deal-Fair Deal has been in power. They are concerned over the indifference of this Deal party to the ever more staggering national debt, over its soft attitudes and its creeping socialism.

In Rep. Harry L. Towe we have a man of sound philosophy and honest actions. Mr. Towe leaves no doubt at any time as to where he stands. He is unalterably opposed to the Fair Deal's road-to-ruin tactics, Mr. Towe has seldom missed voting on an important bill, and he has been in Congress since 1942. He has been honest and straightforward. He has refused to dodge and evade. He has cried aloud for a return of common sense, for a gradual tightening of the purse strings, for a realistic attitude towards debt and deficit spending and towards a stiffening towards those sly and softening influences that have been permitted to permeate this bureaucracy.

Mr. Towe's two opponents, Karl Van Wagner, the Democrat, and Carl Ring, the Independent, have been sniping at him as much as at each other, and there can be only one result of such tactics: a cutting into Mr. Towe's plurality. To offset this, strong Republican areas like Englewood and Tenafly (Tenafly is Mr. Towe's home town) must vote in strength.

The complete lack of any vigorous election campaigns outside the Congressional certainly doesn't help this problem of bringing the voters out on Tuesday.

In Englewood we elect Councilmen in the First and Second Wards. In the First Ward, John C. Glidden is running without opposition, to succeed Councilman Richard A. Robertson, who is retiring after three years of service. Mr. Glidden was born in Englewood, is thoroughly familiar with its character and its problems, and with a long record for civic service, deserves confidential support.

In the Second Ward Councilman Allan T. Trumbull is seeking reelection. His record of service as a Councilman is outstanding. He has insured greater safety on Route 4, carrying on a successful one-man campaign for more frequent county and state police patrols, closing of the dangerous safety island openings, and redesigning of the Walton street approach to eliminate the serious traffic hazard there. He has helped win the state's approval for installation of a traffic light at the dangerous South Dean street-Englewood avenue intersection. He was a prime advocate of rezoning, served on the Planning Board that developed the new ordinance, helped obtain a new playground for the Second Ward, succeeded in restoring many properties to the city tax lists, and has been constantly on the job, attending all meetings and helping to solve the serious postwar problems. We advocate his reelection by a large plurality as a measure of confidence and appreciation by the people he has so faithfully served in his ward. He is opposed by a personable young man, Keith Craft who, however, has no background in civic or governmental service and who could not possibly have sufficient grasp of city affairs to fulfill the exigencies of the position.

In the county, the same lack of stirring contests holds true. Freeholders Martin J. Ferber and Martin P. Nelson are seeking reelection on their records of long service to the county which, incidentally, is commended by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association for the soundness of its finances and the reasonableness of *its taxes. They are opposed by Joseph A. De*Marrais and Howard T. Pitts, who, however, have made practically no appearances and have waged only a feeble campaign.

For the Assembly, Gill C. Job is seeking the post vacated by William B. Widnall, who this year became the Representative of the Seventh District. Here again, opposition has been practically in name only, Robert Eichler having remained completely in the shadows.

And while we as a newspaper recommend the election—it's reelection in most instances—of Republicans, we lay stress on the importance of voting. For it was in this very column last week that we showed that in America government is really by the minority because of the fact that voters stay away from the polls in droves!

Is There Any Evidence?

If the Catholic War Veterans, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars who are backing them up, have any evidence to show that one or more of the teachers in the Englewood public schools is Communistic or pro-Communistic, or that there are any pro-Communiststic activities going on in the schools, such evidence should be presented to the authorities at once. Certainly neither the parents, nor the school authorities want subversives teaching their children.

But if there is no evidence, that fact should be made known also, particularly in view of the fact that the CWV has made a public request for an investigation. There should be no witch hunt on generalities.

There has always been a certain amount of "talk" about this teacher or that, as there is in every town, but we have never had any evidence of pro-Communistic leanings or teachings in Englewood.

In fact we feel the Board of Education should force the issue by demanding whatever evidence these groups feel they possess and, if there is none, say so.

As to another recommendation of the CWV that the city set up a board of citizens to pass upon applications for use of the public buildings for speakers on social and economic subjects, we would like to say that while we agree with the principle that our public buildings should not be provided as platforms for subversive propaganda, it is difficult to see how a municipality could create a board capable of fair judgement in all cases. There are certain known Communists and known sympathizers and these should be denied the use of our public buildings. But on the other hand there are certain liberals who cannot be called Communists on that score. Who is competent to judge?

That We May Better Sleep

There were many fine tributes paid at the graduation exercises of the Alpine Police Academy, held at the Club Gabby in Tenafly, recently—and fitting tributes they were too: to the FBI—to its chief, J. Edgar Hoover—and especially to the organizers and students of this F.B.I. recognized school.

Dr. J. C. Burnett and Chief William Cacace, under whose direction the Academy has weathered six years, and graduated five previous classes came in for generous applause from the 100-odd law enforcement officials, municipal heads and leaders of the county.

Chief Chester B. Campbell—whose Tenafly Police Department had two members in the graduating class of 20: Sergeant Mario Bunfva and Patrolman Silvestro DeLuisio—paid what w.. probably the most apt comment, when he stated that "these have given of their own time, and lost their sleep, in order to sharpen their faculties so that the people of Bergen might rest more easily in their sleep".

The extent of the course—as indicated by Chief Cacace—included 150 hours of instruction this year in latent fingerprinting—one of the most scientific methods of crime detection—with three hours of study, three nights a week. The fact that a group of men in the county (Detective Merwyn E. Hawkins of the Englewood Police Department was also among the graduates) were willing to devote this time to their advancement and professional enrichment speaks much for them. At a time when police in other quarters are meeting with much criticism, it is a welcome evidence to the people of this area of the calibre of many of their own officials.

OUR DEMOCRACY—by Mat

"The Will of the People is the only legitimate Foundation of any Government and to protect its Free Expression should be our First Object."

IN THOSE WORDS, THOMAS JEFFERSON HAPPILY SUMMARIZED THE INHERENT STRENGTH OF THE DEMOCRATIC STRUCTURE.

THE RIGHT OF THE INDIVIDUAL, IN AMERICA, TO VOICE HIS OPINIONS AND VOTE FOR HIS CONVICTIONS, GIVES OUR DEMOCRACY THE ESSENTIAL VITALITY FOR GROWTH AND PROGRESS THROUGH THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE.

Behind the Scenes
IN AMERICAN BUSINESS
By Reynolds Knight

NEW YORK — Many a business man has asked the question: "What if the Atom Bomb should fall on us?" His concern is less about personal safety and more about the prosaic business of preserving business records.

Without records, nine-tenths of the business of the country would be demoralized. Most concerns whose records were destroyed by fire, earthquake or sudden calamity never re-opened their doors, experts say. Contracts, confirmations, lists of customers, endless recorded details and specifications are the warp and woof of commercial business, and not until they are suddenly gone are we aware of their importance.

And so, the microfilm makers are reaping a harvest. Industrial corporations are microfilming bookkeeping entries, research data, stock transfer records; public utilities are mircrofilming maps of pipe and conduit locations, department stores the records of their charge accounts. These are being shipped to branch offices for safekeeping.

Nor is all this activity confined to "big" business. A small New Jersey druggist uses microfilm to record his old prescription memos, universities are using it because they have run out of storage space. Thus, the process that carried millions of V-mail to service men in World War II is finding new and wider applications daily. The fear of war has done much to spur its use, but like many another wartime phenomonon, it has taken root in many unexpected places.

NAME YOUR BRAND — What's in a name? Millions of dollars, when the name is right! Bright-witted executives know the selling points of labeling their product with apt brand names that spell glamor to women. Quality, of course, remains the prime requisite but the female eye has always been attracted by a catchy title.

So it is with one of the country's most spectacular new products—a home hair coloring. When Tintair opened this field to the retail trade, it went to market with a list of the most colorful names ever invented, previously tested with 15,000 women over the past seven years. The average woman, seeking the languorous warmth of a brunette, now asks the drug or department store clerk for Mona Lisa Brown. Redheads request Carrot Top as nonchantly as they do their favorite brand of face powder.

Tintair, though selling for only $2, offers these $25 names for its various shades: Canary Diamond (palest blonde); Bamboo Blonde (light blonde); Starlight Blonde (neutral blonde); Grecian Blonde (ash blonde); Golden Topaz (reddish blonde); American Brown (light brown); Gleaming Bronze (auburn); Glossy Chestnut (warm brown); Brown Onyx (warm dark brown); and Jet Brown (darkest brown).

It's evidence of a new selling trend—color name merchandising. Even Shakespeare would be satisfied.

FUEL FOR THE MILLIONS — By the end of 1950 an estimated 300,000 miles of natural gas pipe will have been laid in the U.S., bringing this low-cost fuel into a record number of communities. This will be an increase of some 20,000 miles over the total mileage at the end of 1949. When W. Paul Jones, president of Servel Inc., spoke recently of the tremendous growth in public demand for natural gas and gas appliances, he touched a subject that has begun to affect the lives of nearly every community in the U.S. The share of the nation's total energy output contributed by natural gas has risen from 3 percent in 1903 to 19 percent last year. In only seven out of the past 51 years has there been a decrease from the preceding year in the marketed production of natural gas.

BITS OF BUSINESS — Everything that can be sold in a vending machine is being given the go-ahead sign in business today. Latest to be successfully tested are papercovered books... The age limit for badly needed machinists and tool, die and guage makers at the Frankfort, Pa. arsenal has been upped to 70 years, from 62 previously... A speed-up in government controls is looked for right after elections to put the economy on a stronger mobilization footing... General wage-price freeze is being strongly resisted, but more selective controls can be expected... The Federal Reserve Board is steadily bearing down on credit, latest informed rumors being that business loans will be cut in unessential industries if the total volume of business credit does not sag of its own accord soon... Total business loans have been edging up to new peaks... The need for a world food stockpile is now being discussed in Washington... Growing shortages in papers are spuring increased search for paper waste for conversion back to finished papers....

Letter Carriers Hold Meeting

ENGLEWOOD — The Englewood Branch No. 596, National Association of Letter Carriers, met at the Park View Cafe, Dean street, Englewood, last Wednesday night. Election of officers took place, and John Young was named president; Vincent Gragnano, vice-president; Charles Daily, secretary; and Ralph Diedati, treasurer.

The Branch voted to contribute $25 to the Englewood Community Chest campaign. A social hour followed the business meeting, with refreshments.

ENGLEWOOD
20 YEARS AGO

The Englewood Teachers club sponsored a Hallowe'en party at Roosevelt School. It was an old clothes party. This committee included Theodore Davis and Spurgeon Leber of the Intermediate Department; Miss Opal Seeley of Cleveland School; Miss Alice Burleson, Liberty; and Miss Helene Van Zandt. Mrs. Aaron MacCoon was president of the Englewood Teachers Club. Miss Louise Kable and Miss Mabel Bradley, one of the school secretaries assisted on the committee.

Two pounds of Tipping's best Maillard's chocolate cream peppermints brought 44c; two jars C. I. tomato juice cocktail was 70c; two cans Iris peeled apricots 85c; two cans pitted Bing Black cherries, $1.10.

"Amos" and "Ruby" of radio fame were married in Bethany Church as a feature of an entertainment. Proceeds were for the coal fund.

Vartan Garapedian opened his oriental rug establishment, corner Palisade and Grand avenue, Englewood.

The Rev. George Goris, pastor of the Christian Reformed Church in Englewood received a call to the Fuller Avenue Christian Reformed Church in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Edward Rittenhouse Barton, one of Englewood's oldest residents, died suddenly when on his way to Englewood from his summer home in Maine.

Mrs. Walter Harvey, Liberty road, and her auxiliary sponsored a bridge for the West Side Auxiliary of the Englewood Hospital. Assisting her were Mrs. Kenneth Adams, Mrs. Joseph Brarman, Mrs. Robert McQuillin, Mrs. Thomas McQuillin, Mrs. Milton Whyard, Mrs. Mrs. A. C. Gismond, Mrs. E. L. Packer, Mrs. Auguste Dumkin and Mrs. Edward Brarman.

Mrs. Alma N. Bergendahl, wife of Frederick W. Bergendahl, died at her residence, 104 Grand avenue, Englewood.

Public Health Week

"Public Health Week" will be celebrated throughout New Jersey from Nov. 13 to 17. This article is one of a series on health and medical subjects of current interest, contributed by the Bergen County Medical Society and The Medical Society of New Jersey.

On Monday, Nov. 13, New Jersey's state-wide "Public Health Week" will be launched under the joint sponsorship of the Medical Society of New Jersey, its 21 component medical societies, the New Jersey State Health Department and local departments of health throughout the state. This announcement was contained in a statement issued this week by Dr. Samuel Blaugrund of Trenton, chairman of the general committee on "Public Health Week" of the sponsoring agencies.

During the five days from Nov. 13 to 17 inclusive, the physicians and allied workers in the realm of public health will present their program through health exhibits, public speakers, forum programs, radio talks, newspaper features and moving picture shows in many parts of the state. Public meetings with exhibits and forums will be held in many central communities.

"For many months, the medical societies and cooperating lay groups have been planning a public health program," Dr. Blaugrund said. "The plans vary from place to place, but the purpose is the same—to help people learn about the medical and health resources of their own communities, and the things that everyone can do to safeguard his own health and the well-being of his family," he added.

"While we doctors initiated the idea of 'Public Health Week', many other community agencies interested in health and welfare are taking part. We have designed the program to appeal to the public, to provide useful and reliable information on health and medical subjects. We hope every citizen of New Jersey will be reached through our exhibits, our radio programs, our speakers and our newspaper articles—not to mention the moving picture shows that will be offered in various communities for the benefit of school children as well as their parents and older friends," Dr. Blaugrund said.

Working Together

The State Department of Health is working in full partnership with the medical groups in this educational enterprise, according to Dr. Daniel Bergsma, State Commissioner of Health.

"'Public Health Week'," Dr. Bergsma pointed out, "is planned to give every citizen an opportunity of seeing what has been accomplished by the medical and public health groups and at the same time show how the people of New Jersey can, through individual and community efforts, continue to improve the level of health in our state. In the fight against disease and premature death in New Jersey, the practicing physicians have been the shock troops of our forces and New Jersey is distinguished for a working partnership between the private physician and the public health officer which can only accomplish its full purpose when every citizen becomes an active participant in the fight against sickness and death," Dr. Bergsma concluded.

Dr. Blaugrund explained that while the State Medical Society and State Health Department are coordinating efforts over the entire state, the actual program in each community is in the hands of the local county medical society and local health department. Details of the program in any community are to be found in announcements in the daily and weekly newspapers, as well as over local broadcasting stations, he said.

Miriam Daughters Plan Anniversary At Jewish Center

ENGLEWOOD—The tenth anniversary of the founding of the Englewood Branch of Daughters of Miriam Home for Aged and Infirm, will be celebrated with a special program this Sunday evening at 8:30, at the new Jewish Community Center, Tenafly road, Englewood.

This event will be an open house function, and the public is cordially invited to attend by the group's president and chairman of the evening, Mrs. Annie Levinsohn.

Included in the program of entertainment has been planned by co-chairmen Barney Goodman and Mrs. David Drosnes of the entertainment committee. Miss Pearl Berg of Teaneck will give tap dancing numbers in costume; the Famous Octette of the Tenafly Glee Club will be heard in a group of songs;; Miss Rita Gorsky, accordinist, will entertain, and Ruth Wolpert Arnold, dramatic soprano, will offer a program of songs. Mrs. Arnold has given many recitals, notably with the Syracuse Symphony, and at Town Hall, accompanied by instrumentalists from the Philharmonic-Symphony under the direction of Siegfried Landau.

Refreshments will be served by the following committee, with Mrs. Max Joselson serving as chairman: Mesdames Levinsohn, Hoffman, Horowitz, Dincin, Frankel, Brown, Shalansky and Opper.

Give to the Community Chest. Instead of making one contribution, give more by pledging it in four easy payments, billed quarterly.

Cafeteria Lunch At St. Paul's Attended By 250

ENGLEWOOD — The cafeteria luncheon held in St. Paul's Parish House last Thursday met with great success and many requests were received to make this a regular affair, a committee spokesman reported this week.

The luncheon was given by the women of St. Paul's for the business people of the community and about 250 attended. The money realized in this way will be used by the executive committee of the Guild and the Lunch Club for dedecoration of part of the Parish House.

The co-chairmen of the luncheon were Mrs. F. H. Warrick and Mrs. Edward S. Brockie. Mrs. Harold Kinmouth acted as treasurer. Those who helped serve were Miss Mary E. Davidson, Mrs. William Sortor, Mrs. William Crozier, Mrs. Charles Van Buren, Mrs. Archibald Thompson, Mrs. Walter Hudson, Mrs. Daniel Bogert, Mrs. R. A. O'Neill, Mrs. A. Edward Major, Mrs. J. W. Viner, Mrs. George J. Saliba, Mrs. W. B. Fergerson, Mrs. A. L. Holden, Mrs. Nancy Coe, Mrs. Allan Trumbull.

Also Dr. Romola Lyons, Mrs. J. Clark Onderdonk, Mrs. E. T. Cramer, Mrs. G. A. Rhodes, Mrs. Gifford Horton, Mrs. C. R. Eltinge, Jr., Mrs. Thomas K. Mount, Mrs. H. P. Phyfe, Mrs. William K Doggett, Mrs. D. W. Richards, Jr., Mrs. Herbert Lorentzen, Mrs. John Thatcher, Mrs. James A. Mitchell, Mrs. Joseph Vostal, Mrs. John Vanderbilt, Mrs. W. H. Eddy, Mrs. J. L. Ford, Mrs. Carl Kellner, Mrs. M. E. Nevins, Mrs. J. P. Sullivan, Mrs. Albert Blocklinger and Miss Edna Roberts. Those who donated food were too numerous to mention as practically everyone made something for the luncheon, the spokesman added.

Junior Confirmation Class At St. Paul's

ENGLEWOOD—The Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the Rev. James A. Mitchell, will start a junior class in preparation for Confirmation this Saturday, Nov. 4 at 11 a.m. The Bishop of the Diocese comes to St. Paul's each year on the second Sunday in Lent to bestow the Rite of Confirmation. Two groups are always presented by the Rector,—one a junior class of 13 to 16 year olds, and one of adults not previously confirmed in their youth or coming into the Episcopal Church from some other denomination.

The Junior Class is held each Saturday from 11 to 12 from November through Lent. The boys or girls must be at least 13 by the time they are confirmed in February. The Adult Class will be held in January, 1951, on Tuesday evenings in the rector.

The two Bishops of the Diocese of Newark alternate in coming to St. Paul's. This year the official visitation will be made by the Bishop Suffragan, the Rt. Rev. Theodore R. Ludlow on Sunday, Feb. 18.

Money Problem Election Item

To the Editor:

The statement released Oct. 22, by Karl Van Wagner, Democratic candidate for Congress in the ninth district of New Jersey, quoting statistics from Dun & Bradstreet's circular dated about Oct. 18, does not show in the facts set forth that the United States legal tender irredeemable unsecured paper dollar has been cut in half approximately in its purchasing power due to the general rise in prices since 1939.

Such attempt to use these statistics in favor of the Democratic candidate's election shows a woeful lack of his understanding of our national problem of inflation (rising prices generally) in the payment for the conduct of our war caused by the over-issue of a paper currency money depending solely for its value on its use as legal tender among the people in payment of debt as a final liquidator when redeemed by payment in another debt paper dollar, just an exchange of debt a new one for an old one, both legal tenders by fiat of the Government.

The necessary general rise in prices has reduced the value of our dollar used in the quotations and the real effect in the gains stated has been cut in half to those who hold money or promises to pay money.

The laborer loses each day a few pennies that are taken from his wages. He, too, it should be remembered, is a capitalist, small though he may be, but in bulk the capital so advanced bulks large throughout the nation. In fact, the largest of all. He advances to his employer the value of his labor, and when he is paid his wages is receiving the payment of the debt due him.

So too, the value of savings expressed in paper money is daily losing in purchasing power as it is legal tender for debt payment and unsecured. When a Government says out money it is only paying a debt, and now under our irredeemable money system it does not even do that, just exchanges a new debt for an old one.

A bank when it credits the account of its depositor with the checks or money deposited by him, has made a firm contract to pay that depositor in legal tender circulating money. A depositor's check drawn on his bank is not legal tender, and it is not money but is legal tender even if certified by the bank. If the bank cannot pay its depositor in legal tender money it fails and defaults on its contract, and is forced to use clearing house certificates as money and circulating medium.

As 98 percent of our business is done on credit, there is not enough gold in the world to conduct all business with gold payments, either in gold coin or gold bullion. It is an impossibility, and that must be realized now, before any attempt to do the impossible task. There is a limit to the confidence of people in accepting legal tender paper money and even of the legal tender power of the government, and hence a limit to the volume of such paper money that can be kept in circulation or in hand throughout the nation. If forced to accept such money by law, the person accepting it will raise the price of the goods or services he is to exchange for such money.

The costs of our present war does not need to be paid for out of taxes alone, as the Government is urged to do.

Is the Government to continue urging the increase of debt throughout the country in order to increase the volume of debt throughout the nation so the increase in the debt will absorb the constantly increasing amount of legal tender irredeemable unsecured paper money issued? It will not work. A general rise in prices will go on until there is a collapse of business.

The circulation of such money can be secured and collapse prevented. But Mr. Van Wagner does not offer a method.

Vote for Carl E. Ring, the Independent Candidate for Congress in the Ninth Congressional District of New Jersey. He is a sound thinker.

ADA County Chapter Decries 'Hysteria'

To the Editor:

Anti-Communist hysteria is a menace as dangerous to American institutions as is Communism itself.

"It is of course true, as alleged, that Communists make it a practice of calling everyone with whom they disagree 'Fascists.' But it is just as true that fascists have a habit of calling everyone with whom they disagree 'Communists.' While three is nothing wrong with calling local apologists for totalitarian principles and tactics by their right names, we vigorously oppose the indiscriminate name-calling engaged in by both sets of extremists. And we are appalled by the growing tendency in some quarters to characterize all American liberals as 'Reds.'"

The gentlemen who on Oct. 7 raised the Communist hue and cry in Bergen County seem to forget some basic concepts of the Americanism which they claim to espouse. Denial of free speech, advocacy of guilt by association, wilful disturbance of the right to peaceably assemble—these are not American methods or principles. They are rather the weapons of dictatorship, Communist and Fascist alike. Our American history and tradition does not give sanction to un-American hysteria and suspicion.

Metzger Sees Need For Positive Program

To the Editor:

Mr. Grein's statement as quoted in your issue of October 26, 1950 that "What we need more than anything else right now is a positive program by which the fundamental principles of American ideals as set forth in the Declaration of Independence can be kept in the minds of our people" has my unqualified approval. I am, however, somewhat confused by his reference to the Declaration as a justification for his apparent willingness to deny certain fundamental liberties which are implicit in Jefferson's great defense of freedom.

I had always believed, until reading Mr. Grein's letter, that the Declaration of Independence was written to justify the action of the Thirteen Colonies in rebelling against the government of Great Britain,—in short, to defend the use of force to overthrow the government existing at that time. Now that is very strong doctrine, one to which I cannot subscribe so long as we Americans permit orderly change by means of the ballot and so long as we allow freedom of discussion of controversial issues.

As a matter of fact that was Jefferson's point: freedom of expression and the absence of suppression. It is well to remember that he took the lead in opposing the Alien and Sedition Acts of 1798, laws designed to silence American francophiles, who sympathized with the Jacobins of the French Revolution. Such Americans, I suppose, might be considered the leftists of Jefferson's day.

From my reading of American History, it seems to me unlikely that Jefferson, the author of the Declaration of Independence, would approve of Mr. Grein's reasoning.

Very truly yours,
Albert L. Metzger

Defends Right To Speak In Public

To the Editor:

The current melee in Englewood between two leading organizations over the right to free speech is indeed a sad case. It is even sadder in that this sort of occurrence is a perfect preface to a situation where anyone capable of unrestrained thinking finds his tongue harnessed by public bias or the fear of being labelled either one thing or another. Washington, and Jefferson must be 'turning over in their graves.'

The quarrel here is really between two individuals, or their two organizations, or their two separate brands of ideals. Both want to be heard and then fight because each feels that his right to free speech has been insulted. They have only this in common they both demand their right to be heard.

Who was it who said "I may not agree with what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it?" This is the kind of pure unsullied thinking that constructed the fabric of this country and its government. It is stong and righteous enough to resist the acceptance of any inferior ideologies, provided we keep it close to our minds and hearts. Then, no amount of propaganda, or other pressures will ever harm us and occurences like these would not occur.

Let us remember it: I may not agree with what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it."

Investigation Of Teachers Noted

To the Editor:

The distant thud of an Iron Curtain; the angry slam of a schoolhouse door against an alien speaker. The sound effects may vary but it all shapes up to the same theme; hate, fear, suspicion, with a heavy accent on the half-truths.

We understand that there has been a demand for an investigation of Englewood teachers. There will be an initial protest from more discerning citizens but in time our fair city will be molded to the 1950 pattern for patriots the world over — pure, spotless and uninformed.

More Impressions On UN 'Fracas'

To the Editor:

Here are a few impressions concerning the United Nations meeting-fracas as taken from the report of your newspaper.

First and foremost is that, while certain citizens of our town may have a laudable spirit of patriotism and a sound instinct as regards subversives, their method of upholding the one and combatting the other would lead one to believe that they themselves need a grounding in the meaning of true Americanism. As regards that, I shall look forward to one of your constructive editorials indicating that nowhere in this country and particularly in this community will "Storm Trooper" tactics be tolerated in breaking up peaceable assemblages no matter how sponsored.

It seems to me that the essence of true Americanism is the reliance on the basic sanity of our population to consider and get the right answer from the diverse viewpoints offered them. None of us has the right to the temerity to play "God," that this, the assumption that the "rightness" of his viewpoint justifies him in forcing his opinion upon others.

Secondly, it is my opinion that every opinion should not only be allowed but encouraged to make itself heard. Fear that a false doctrine may take hold of our people shows a lack of confidence in the rightness of one's own convictions and an insult to the judgment of our fellow countrymen.

Finally, there is no call on anyone to insist that this nation choose wisely. Whether we rise or fall will be decided by the collective judgment of our people. It is the mark of a man that he gains through wisdom and fails through error. In either case, the responsibility is ours and not some individual or elite group who can lead us to a Heaven or a Hell, neither of which we deserve.

Let us in the future never again have such a disgraceful spectacle, but in preserving the rights of others preserve them for ourselves.

wright and the Catholic War Veterans.)

Meanwhile, there have been no further statements relative to the Catholic War Veterans' request that he Board of Educaion conduct an investigation of the schools for possible red activities and red ties. The Board of Education has made no comment, and as far as can be learned the CWV has presented no evidence in connection with its request.

There has been a statement, however, by Phillip Pavone, commander of Brown O'Brien Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, indicating that the VFW backed the stand of the Catholic War Veterans 100 percent in the request for an investigation of the schools. The VFW Post itself is meeting tonight when the matter will be more thoroughly discussed. Mr. Pavone stated today that the post had not taken action on his stand, but undoubtedly will.

Stolen Car Parts Recovered As Two Boys Are Taken

ENGLEWOOD — The apprehension of two 17-year-old Leonia boys who admittedly have stolen spare automobile parts for use on their own cars, was announced this week by Detective Merwyn Hawkins of the Englewood Police Department. The boys are now at the Children's Home in Hackensack.

Detective Hawkins reported that at 11 a.m. Sunday he received a call from Jerry Volpe, owner of the Englewood Golf Club, who reported that a car had pulled into and out of his parking lot several times, and that it had returned again.

Hawkins immediately apprehended one of the boys in the act of siphoning gas from another car parked there. At headquarters, he said, the boy admitted that with another 17-year-old, he had entered the car of Mrs. E. Holtz of Teaneck Oct. 6 and stolen a bag val-

The youth confessed further, Hawkins said, that he and the second boy had stolen a carbureator from a car parked in the Arcola Golf Club, Oct. 8, and that the same night they took three wheels and tires from a car owned by L. DeBranco of Bergenfield which was parked in the Food Fair lot. He further admitted, police said, taking a tire and wheel and two headlights from an unknown car parked there.

Three of the wheels and tires were recovered from the car of the second boy who was picked up in Leonia. The second boy, Hawkins said, also admitted stealing a wheel and tire from another car parked in the city.

Englewood Lions Announce Drive For Visual Aid

ENGLEWOOD—The Englewood Lions Club announced this week the launching of a local campaign to aid in visual education and rehabilitation.

The campaign will take the form of an appeak to purchase sheets of seals provided for the work. Funds from the appeal will be used to aid in visual education for children and adults, as well as aid to the visually imperfect.

Special emphasis on helping Englewood schools obtain full visual inspection equipment was placed by the local club. All funds raised in the drive, new to the local organization, will be used in Englewood only. The program has been adapted from the national club's over-all visual aid program.

The committee in charge of the appeal is headed by Dr. Fred W. Hanle, chairman of the sight conservation committee. Serving on the committee are Herman Lange, Harold Greenberg, Norman Loder, Berge Aslanian, Dr. Herman Zendell and Dr. William Waldner. Richard Sicardi is the local club president.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scouts are blossoming in the windows along Palisade avenue as posters call attention to the fact that this is National Girl Scout Week. The week is timed to include Oct. 31, the birthday of the founder of Girl Scouting, Juliette Gordon Low, and seven service days serve to highlight the basic interests and activities of the Scouts. Sunday, October 29, was Girl Scout Sunday; Monday was Homemaking Day; Tuesday, Citizenship Day; Wednesday, Health and Safety Day; Thursday, International Friendship Day; Friday, Arts and Crafts Day; and Saturday will be Out-of-Doors Day. Troop activities throughout the week will emphasize these various activities.

Hallowe'en has its place in the Girl Scout calendar too, and on Monday afternoon the members of Troop 3 entertained their parents at a party in the club rooms of St. Cecilia's School. The guests enjoyed Hallowe'en entertainment and refreshments which had been planned and prepared entirely by the Scouts. The party was also the occasion for the presentation of prizes to the winners in the recent poster contest. Mrs. Sol Tamases, chairman of the public relations committee of the Girl Scout Council presented a Girl Scout camera to Carol Ann Freund, a knapsack to Anne Palmer, and a water canteen to Marie Caulfield.

Residents Laud Trumbull's Work As Councilman

ENGLEWOOD — Two Englecitizens this week commended Councilman Allan T. Trumbull for good work in the Second Ward, citing his successful efforts at having Route 4 safety island openings closed and for help in recovering lost property.

Copies of their letters follow:

Dear My Trumbull:

You did excellent work to close up those death traps in the Englewood area of the Route 4 highway.

I hope you will also succeed in your plans for providing a park for Ward 2 section by utilizing the vacant lot near the golf course.

I will gladly vote for you and I hope that you will be reelected for the new term with the highest possible majority vote of the Englewoodians.

Sincerely yours,
Harry K. Norian

Dear Mr. Trumbull:

I had the misfortune last week to lose certain property, presumably by theft, from my residence at 89 Dwight place, Englewood.

I thought you, as City Councilman from the Second Ward, should know that certain of the property was recovered by three city employees, Messrs. Cristiano, Rippoli and McGarry, in the regular course of their duty with the Street Department, and returned very promptly to us.

Mr. Kelly and I just want to express our appreciation for the service rendered.

Very truly yours,

Cub Pack 30 Has Award Ceremony, Inspection Meet

ENGLEWOOD — Awards ceremonies and a graduation from Cub to Boy Scout featured the Friday evening meeting of Cub Scout Pack 30 in St. Cecilia's Scout Room last week.

Also on the program was a blue star inspection and roll call by Neighborhood Commission Dan Hulin, assisted by Assistant Cubmaster Walter Brereton. A full report of the inspection and roll call will be given at the Nov. 24 Pack meeting.

Awards were made by Cubmaster Roland R. Rhodes. Bobcat awards and registration certificates were presented to William Burns, Charles Carney, Larry Seigel and Dennis Natale.

Lion Books were presented to Jack Brereton, Waide Cooper and Charles Rhodes.

One year service stars were awarded to John Tierney, Jack Brereton, Charles Rhodes, and Thomas Tranberg.

One gold and three silver arrows for Wolf rank and a gold and a silver arrow for Bear rank were awarded to Waide Cooper; Bear badges were awarded to Charles Rhodes and Thomas Cooke; and Lion and Webelos were badges presented to Michael Duffy.

Den Mother pins were presented to Mrs. J. Markham, Den 3; and Mrs. J. Doyle, Den 2, by Pack Chairman John J. Tierney.

A graduation ceremony was conducted for Michael Duffy by Cubmaster Rhodes. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy were introduced to Scoutmaster Edward Hasse of Troop 24 who welcomed Michael into Troop 24.

New Den Chiefs were introduced to the Cubs and parents by Cubmaster Rhodes. Richard Werner is Den Chief of Den 3 and James Twist is Den Chief of Den 2. Thomas Tate, who was unable to attend, was announced as Den Chief of Den 1. All three Den Chiefs are members of Boy Scout Troop 24, Englewood.

During the separate parents' meeting, Cubmaster Rhodes spoke to the parents on Cub Scout activities, emphasizing the part the parents are expected to take in helping their sons grow through their companionship with their boys and their cooperation with the Den Mothers.

Scoutmaster Hasse spoke to the Cubs and their parents on Boy Scouting and his joy in having Cub Scouts join his troop. He emphasized the fact that a Cub Scout always makes a good Boy Scout.

Announcements were made as follows:

Nov. 10, next Pack Committee meeting.

Nov. 11, Cub Leaders Pow Wow, Bergen Junior College, Teaneck.

Nov. 12, Communion at 9 a.m. Mass in uniform accompanied by Troop 30 Boy Scouts.

Nov. 24, next Pack meeting. November theme: radio, collection of toys for needy children for Christmas.

Cub Leaders Pow Wow registration for Nov. 11 was completed as follows: planetarium chairman, John J. Tierney; Cub-ub, Den Mother, Mrs. J. Markham; Dram-a-ree, Den Mother, Mrs. J. Tierney; and Tinkership, Den Mothr, Mrs. J. Doyle.

The meeting closed with a candle ceremony on "the Cub" by Cubmaster Rhodes and was followed by games and refreshments.

Catholic Vets In Appeal For Aid On Holiday Plan

TENAFLY—William Boyle Jr., commander of St. Anthony's Mission Post, Catholic War Veterans, reports that the response to the request for toys which the post members could repair and present to children for Christmas, and old clothing and paper to help finance a Christmas celebration for the veterans at Lyons Hospital, has been generous.

There is still need for more of these donations, however, and any person willing to contribute to this project is requested to telephone Englewood 3-3085. Donations will be picked up at any time. The Post has not yet received enough contributions to enable it to fulfill the obligation assumed to care for these Christmas plans. All contributions are requested by or before Dec. 1, to allow time for repairs or renovations.

In addition to the recently elected Commander Boyle, the newly organized Post will function this year under the following officers: Harold Brady, first vice commander; Albert Mattner, second vice commander; Albert Hepscher, third vice commander; William Ryan, officer of the day; Frank DeFlaun, historian; and Dr. Fred S. Leonard, medical officer.

Fellowship Church To Continue With New Fall Series

The first fall meeting of all the Senior High Protestant Young People of Englewood (Fellowship Church) will be held next Sunday, Nov. 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the Community Church, Hudson avenue, corner of Stockton place.

At the fall planning meeting of Fellowship Church, four groups volunteered for service at the November meeting. Community Church will serve as hosts and be in charge of the worship service at 7:30 p.m. St. Paul's Episcopal Church is in charge of the program at 8 p.m., and at 9 there will be a social hour with refreshments and group singing. In charge of this part of the evening will be the Shiloh AME Zion Church and the First Presbyterian Church.

The program will consist of a wonderful old masterpiece from the days of the silent movies, from the film library of John Griggs of Englewood who found it disused and passing to oblivion. Mr. Griggs revised the old film and set it to appropriate music, and has shown it to many enthusiastic audiences. It's first Englewood showing was before 600 students of St. Cecilia's High School. The film is called "The Confession" and stars the immortal Henry B. Walthal.

Dwight Morrow HS Service Clubs Show Peak Activity At Mid-Term

ENGLEWOOD—Service clubs at Dwight Morrow High school showed mid-semester activity at a peak this week, with plans and events cropping up in the club foreground.

Included in the list were preparations for the annual Snowball, the presentation of a junior-senior tea, a discussion at A.L.A., and the acceptance of a dozen girls as probationary members of Pickwick.

Tri-Y

Tri-Y held its junior-senior tea Oct. 24 in the Oral English Room. Frances Lonzisero, president, welcomed the guests and introduced the officers.

Vice president is June Char; secretary, Carol Jaeschke; treasurer, Jennette Kamish; chaplain, Mary Longo; and historian, Julie LaFranz.

The girls were told the aims, plans, and purposes of the club by Anita Bellamy. Entertainment consisted of several descriptive songs composed by and sunb by club members.

Mrs. Howard Tillotson, club advisor, talked for a few minutes about her years connected with Tri-Y.

The girls who attended were Barbara Larson, Clare Wilkens, Marsha Dunn, Rita O'Connell, Shirley Jon, Janet Grande, Marlene Kuhn and Arlene Dingman.

Diversity

DMHS's cafteria is to be changed into a dreamland according to Betty Smith, head of Snowball decorations.

The annoucement was made at Diversity Club's fourth meeting of the year. Other members on the committee are Camille Cacavalle, June Gelderman, and Josephine Gerbino. A vote was taken to hold the alumnae dinner at a Chinese restaurant. Girls in the club are selling football pencils as another activity.

Those present at the last meeting were Joan Adams, Paulette Bobcik, Jean Evanson, Barbara Buday, Camille Cacavalle, Claire Pauciano, June Gelderman, Josephine Gerbino, Carolyn Goldberg, Doris Hansen, Barbara Haughey, Jane Kusnic, Jean Lincoln, Kathleen MacNally, Carol Oterson, Marjorie Schroeder, Betty Smith, Eleanor Spitzer and Elaine Watson.

Pickwick

Pickwick, Dwight Morrow social club, has announced the following probationary members: Rachel Armour, Barbara Fisch, Helen Sandy, Nadia Hermos, Irene Godfrey, Anne McLaughlin, Poppy Saigh, Mary Spellman, Helen Duncan, Judy Jacox, Barbara Freeland, and Rosamond Mueller.

These girls will be on probation until the second school term.

"What's in Your Pocket;" was discussed by Miss Evelyn Brehm, girls' advisor, at the A.L.A. tea, Octo. 25.

Mrs. Anita Dincin, club advisor, also spoke briefly.

Those present were Marjorie Sturndof, Phyllis Kopp, Dorothy Gates, Charlotte Baccione, Dolores Collagee, Lorraine Larson, Louise Oliver, Jessica Turnes, Doris Huggett, Eileen Culb, Carol Nutter, Laura Alice Benson Marjorie McCoy, Joyce Martin, Betty Lee Pugh and Gertrude Higgins.

Sixth Grades At Liberty Travel To NYC Museum

ENGLEWOOD — The sixth grade classes under Mrs. E. Perryman and Miss M. Schmid at Liberty school visited the Museum of Natural History in New York City recently in preparation for an assembly program on Mexico.

Special attention was given to the Mexican Hall, with the South American Mammal Hall also being surveyed carefully. Students were given an opportunity to try musical instruments made in Mexico, and saw Mexican games and dances.

The program was under the joint direction of the social studies and science units of the sixth grade classes.

First Evening Dance At Engle St. Jr. HS

ENGLEWOOD — The Basketball Club and Cheerleaders Club of the Engle Street Junior High school held the first evening dance of the school year last Friday at the school.

The dance, in honor of the school's approaching basketball season, followed meetings of the two clubs earlier in the evening. ? continued from 8:30 to 11 p.m.

Give to the Community Chest. Instead of making one contribution, give more by pledging it in four easy payments, billed quarterly.

Persia Is Topic Of Student Talk At Dwight Morrow

ENGLEWOOD — Language and literature of Persia was the subject of Peter Avakian's lecture to Miss Sally Winfrey's senior English class, Tuesday, Oct. 24.

"Persian is quite a flowery language," the senior began. "The Persian way of living is aptly conveyed in their poetry. Magazine ads for Kodak film, O-do-ro-no, and such show strong American influence."

Peter, who is a native of Persia, added that reeds are used in place of pencils. The Persian alphabet, adopted from the Arabs and containing 32 symbols, is written from right to left.

Turkish, Armenian and Persian are the prevailing languages in Persia, Avakian added.

Liberty Grade 4 Forms New Club

ENGLEWOOD — Liberty school's grade 4 under Miss Cheritree's direction recently formed a new club with Florence Perren as president.

Other officers are Sylvia Cerasani, vice president; James Birtwhistle, secretary, and James Vogel, treasurer.

Schools Show Annual Hallowe'en Regalia As Frost Hits Pumpkins

ENGLEWOOD—The frost is on the pumkin, and witches mixed with goblins as Englewood school children returned this year to the misty land of Hallowe'en.

With all schools and individual classes providing atmosphere-aplenty, students heard ghost stories and paraded in costumes representing everything from pirates to fairy queens.

The older school element took its Hallowe'en with a grain of reality, but traditional Hallowe'en parties were held by school groups in in students' homes, with festivities ranging from apple-bobbing to masked dances.

An unusual Hallowe'en freize was displayed on the bulletin board at Liberty school, where papier mache masks in the Hallowe'en mood were exhibited by students of C. S. Rauscher's fifth grade class. The freize attracted considerable attention.

At the same school, the first grade students composed poems and decorated the classroom. Participating were Robert Brown, Ronald Joyce, Paul Bellingham, Sam Conti, Linda Harris, Betty Kuhnert, Patty Teller.

Also, Richard Hyman, Robert Gilleo, Emmett Hannibal, Lester Hemenway, Ruth Anne Harrington, Gloria Oprany, James Wilkerson.

Also, Sammy Jones, Stephen Levinsohn, Arthur Rosenstein, Frank Sisco, Rita Haynes, Karen Schecker, Barry Weinstock, Thomas Jackson, John Handy, Jeanne Burke, Carol Kornbrekke and Lynn Taylor.

Original Play Is Presented By 19 Roosevelt Kids

ENGLEWOOD — Nineteen sixth grade students at Roosevelt school presented an original play, "How Boots Befooled the King," at an assembly program last week. The students, members of Mrs. Sanford's class, wrote the play based on a story by Howard Pyle, "The Wonder Clock."

Also featured at the assembly program was John Dupret, who spent several months in France recently. The young bilinguist sang a song in French.

Taking part in the play were Michael Vernimb, Marion Burritt, Virginia Kiss, Stephen Hockhauser, Dorothy McCracken, James Singleton, Jack Cross, Arthur Jones, Jock Williams, Walter Haemmerle, Rudy Kummel, Richard Shearer, Pat Cotton, Grace Lomupo, Corliss Weygant, Eddie Knight, Keith Craft, Debby Goodman and Jacqueline LeClercq.

Cleveland, Engle St. Jr. H. S. Get Programs On U.N.

ENGLEWOOD — Students at Cleveland school and Engle Street Junior High school heard the purposes and aims of the United Nations revealed graphically in a selection of films and interpretations by speakers during United Nations week last week.

Mrs. L. A. Kreielsheimer and Mrs. Hugh Wolfe, both of Tenafly, appeared as speakers at the Cleveland and Engle Street schools respectively. Besides interpreting the UN in terms of it immediate relationship with the students, they showed films on the UN's work in Mexico and other countries.

Especially aimed at the student age group was film called "Clearing the Way," which depicted the building of UN headquarters in New York City on the site of a former playground.

Engle St. JHS Service Club At Jr. Red Cross

ENGLEWOOD — Five members of the Engle Street Junior High School Service Club received a first-hand view of Junior Red Cross activities last week when they visited the headquarters of that organization during a club period.

Club members on the trip were Margaret Urspruch, Chris Izatt, Madeline Unger, Gladys Joyce and Sandra Savold. Mrs. Dorothy B. Rhodes, club advisor, accompanied the group.

Mrs. Doughtry, Junior Red Cross chairman, and Mrs. Neely, secretary, led a discussion of the needs of Junior Red Cross and of its activities.

LIBERTY KINDERGARTEN HAS NEW EQUIPMENT

ENGLEWOOD — The kindergarten at Liberty school received a new rocking see-saw recently and its reception has been enthusiastic, reports received recently said. The see-saw has been named Tom and Jerry.

The curved stereotype plate so essential to modern speed printing appeared in 1861.

2 Engle St. JHS Boys Are Named To County Posts

ENGLEWOOD — Two Engle Street Junior High school pupils were named to executive capacities in the Bergen County Association of Junior High School Student Organizations at a meeting last week in Rutherford.

Dexter Dawes, grade 9, is the new treasurer of the county group, while Richard Contant, grade 8, serves as its program chairman.

The meeting last week was a county assembly, at which problems of county administration were discussed. A meeting of the county program committee has been planned for Nov. 2 at the local junior high school, with Contant in charge o plans. The committee will formulate plans for the junior high school group's program in the Nov. 17 meeting of the New Jersey Association of High School Councils, planned for New Brunswick.

Both boys are members of the Engle Street Junior High school Service Organization, advisor of which is Miss Eleanor Harvey. Eleven schools out of 16 in the county were represented at the Rutherford meeting, which also resulted in a plan for continuing inter-school visits by members of service groups. The program will start soon, with exchange of school newspapers as an important beginning step.

High Honor List At Dwight Morrow Shows 25 Pupils

ENGLE ST. JHS CAKE SALE FILLS OVERSEAS BOXES

ENGLEWOOD — A cake and fruit sale at the Engle Street Junior High School was held Monday, with the school's Service Organization in charge. Proceeds went for a fund to fill overseas boxes.

they're fighting for it

will YOU mark an "X" for it?

THESE MARKS ARE LEGAL

In each case a cross has been used, and the intersection of the lines of the cross is inside the circle or square.

THESE SPOIL YOUR BALLOT

Top 3 ballots are invalid because crosses were not used.
Bottom 3 ballots are void because the lines of the cross do not intersect within the square.

Note—If a voting machine is used in your polling place, remember, it is completely reliable and enables you to split your ticket in any manner desired.

"X" on an air man's map shows where to bomb.

"X" in algebra stands for the unknown quantity.

"X" on a certain piece of paper marks a spot where Freedom rings, for that's the "X" we mark on an Election Day ballot.

Let this burn in: So long as every one of us has the right to vote, to vote exactly the way he wants to vote and to have that vote count, so long shall we have Freedom. If we ever lose that right we might just as well knuckle under to the first dictatorship that comes along. (45 million qualified voters didn't show up at the polls at the last Presidential election.)

Voting costs nothing. Not voting can cost your liberty.

There are men—and women—fighting now—for Freedom.

Can we do less than keep the Big Muscle of Freedom strong by exercising it at the polls Election Day?

mark your "X" for freedom...Vote Nov. 7

News Notes Of Dwight School

LITERARY CLUB

The Scribblers Club, honorary literary Club of the Dwight School for Girls, held its first meeting Oct. 27 at the home of Miss Louise Smith, head of the Dwight English Department. Supper was served before the meeting.

The seven members of the Scribblers Club, all seniors, are: Joan Kestan of Saddle River, Elinor Lockwood, Englewood, co-Presidents; Barbara Cartwright, Englewood; Anne Gay Chaffee, Hackensack; Susan Ettinger, Palisades, N. Y.; Alice Keir, Englewood, Helene Yager, Englewood Cliffs.

At the meeting, each member was given a project for the year. Susan Ettinger was appointed to engage a writer to speak to the school on a literary subject, and Elinor Lockwood was asked to organize regular club meetings. At later meetings each member is to read a piece of her own writing for criticism by other club members.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, a graduate of Connecticut College and the head of the Dramatic Club there in 1950, spoke to the Scribblers of her work in summer theaters.

SOPHOMORE DANCE

Dwight School for Girls held its annual Sophomore Dance on the evening of Oct. 28 in the gymnasium. The theme of the dance was "The Roaring Twenties".

During intermission a Charleston contest was held, which was won by Carvel Glidden a sophomore and her escort, Donald Cruse of the Lawrenceville School. Carol Beaumont, a junior, and her escort, Daniel Cunningham from the Englewood Boys School, won the elimination dance contest. During this dance a list was read out of various qualifications which would eliminate certain dancers, such as: red hair, pearls, lace dresses, black velvet heels, etc.

Other prizes were won by Janet Cooper and her escort, Carter Corriston, of the Boys School.

Members of the dance committee were: Joan Aragona, Tenafly, Carvel Glidden, Englewood, Louise Rivers, West Englewood, Susan Connett, Englewood.

VISIT MUSEUMS

On Friday, Oct. 26, students in the General European History course at the Dwight School given bby Mrs. T. H. Byrd were taken to the Metropolitan and Frick museums to see the development of art during the Renaissance. The girls had been studying Renaissance artists and making special reports on individual artists. They went to the Frick not only to see the paintings but the furniture of Renaissance Italy and 17th Century France.

FREEDOM BELL

At the beginning of a United Nations assembly program given in tableau form by the Dwight School Dramatics Club, a radio was turned on so that the students could hear the Freedom Bell rung in Berlin, followed by General Clay's speech. The occasion was United Nations Day, Oct. 24.

Following the broadcast from Berlin, students put on a series of tableaus representing the work done by various organizations of the United Nations. The narrative was written by Carol Beaumont and Carolyn Byrd of Englewood. Readers were Sue Ettinger of Palisades, N. Y., and Carol Beaumont. Mrs. T. H. Byrd Head of the History Department, and Miss LaSala of the Dramatics Dept., directed the program.

To illustrate the work done by the World Health Organibation, a narrative was read and a tableau was presented showing a nurse innoculating a sick Greek child. The director of this tableau was Janet Gershman of Dumont. Props were arranged by Hester Young of Sparkill, N. Y. Members of the cast were: Gay Chaffee of Hackensack, Ward Goldthwaite of Englewood, and Vera Nazarro of Montclair.

The International Refugee Organization was portrayed in a tableau showing three destitute people looking with hope towards a new free land. Helen Chase of Nyack directed this tableau, and the cast consisted of Jean Van Wyk and Charlotte Benner of Englewood, and Patience Jarvis of Fort Lee.

The Food and Agricultural Organization was represented by a golden cornucopia spilling its wealth out to starving people. Other U.N. Organizations portrayed were UNESCO, U.N. International Children's Emergency Fund. International Trade Organization, and the International Labor Organization.

At the conclusion of the program the Choir sang "Building Going Up."

MEMORIAL SERVICE

A moving service in memory of one of Dwight School's fathers, Dr. John T. Lockwood of Englewood, was held at a chapel service in the Dwight School for Girls on Friday, Oct. 27.

Michaela McLane, a senior and Ellis Gellhorn, a junior, presented a gift to the school in honor of Dr. Lockwood from the Junior and Senior Classes in which are two of Dr. Lockwood's daughters.

The two classes had purchased the 22 volumes of the Dictionary of American Biography for the school library, and maps and a globe for the history department.

Miss Marjorie French, Headmistress, accepted the gift on behalf of the school.

SCHOOL VARIETY IN VERSE

Get Away

Little boy with the sombrero.
On the little burro,
Where are you going?
Where are you going?
Where are you going?
That's all I hear all day;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the sombrero,
On the litle burro,
Where are you going;
I am going to the market to buy eggs;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the sombrero,
On the little burro,
Where are you going?
I am going to the fair;
Oh, I wish I could say, "Get away."
Little boy with the somprero,
On the little burro,
Will you show me around?
Why,y es, I would be glad to—
At least someone has said something new.
So, when you go to Mexico, don't ask
The questions here;
Just say politely, if you please,
"Will you show me around here?"

Hallowe'en Moods

Ferocious cats
Eat the bats
And when the do
They shiver and scratch.

Children dress in funny hats
Oh, how you laugh at that.

Hallowe'en, Hallowe'en,
Witches ride on broomsticks green,
Gobblins are the horrible scene,
Make the people shiver and scream.

Boo, Boo, Boo,
Who are you?
I'm a witch
And I'll scare you.

Chest School Campaign Draws Focus Of Pupils

ENGLEWOOD — The lessons learned by Englewood school pupils who participated in a tour of social agencies covered in the Community Chest drive showed results this week as students heard reports of their fellow pupils on the tour.

At all schools, the Red Feather program, under the general chairmanship of Miss Eleanor Harvey, Engle Street Junior High school, is an educational program, with the student being introduced to the duties and responsibilities of good citizenship.

At Franklin school last Friday, a white elephant sale brought an enthusiastic response after the student body heard talks by their school representatives on the tour. The talks preceded the sale by some days, but their effect was evidently not lost.

Students brought items from home for the sale, displaying them on tables in the school corridors. Shopping period was from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., with teachers guiding the children in their commercial transactions.

At Roosevelt school, Miss Allen's "Lucky Seventeen" club presented a special Community Chest assembly program with a play, "The Little Red Feathers Learn," an original work by Miss Allen.

Sixth graders, the cast included John Hermos, Mary Margaret Auburn, Andy Aslanian, Michael Capozzi, Bobby Cooke, Paul Earle, Mary Fleming, Arthur Gaer, Carol Ann Green, Peter Green, Donald Myles, Patty O'Hara, Ruth Shahbazian, Allan Silverstein, Barbara Whaley and Lucille Yates.

Following the play, Pat O'Hara and Corliss Waygant, from Mrs. Saylor's sixth grade class, reported on their trip to Englewood Hospital and Memorial House.

Paul Earle played a march for the assembly, and Ruth Shahbazian accompanied the singing and dancing at the piano.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades at Lincoln school assembled last week to hear reports about the Community Chest. Celathia Lea and Joyce Townsend described the trip made the week before to different organizations benefitted by the Chest. A film roll, "Let's Be Well and Happy", was narrated by Mary Ann Williams. "The Earth's Rocky Crust," a motion picture, completed the assembly program.

Lincoln Junior High school opened its Chest campaign in assembly with Aaron White, ninth grade urging 100 percent participation on the part of students.

Jean Ballard and Evelyn Wyche reported on their city-wide tour with the Community Chest. An educational discussion followed.

New Instrumental Roosevelt Music Group Is Formed

ENGLEWOOD — As the instrumental music class conducted in various schools in Englewood opened for the school year, names of pupils in that course at Roosevelt school were announced this week. The students are under the supervision of Mrs. Case.

Richard Shearer and Phillip Epsaro are saxophonists; Rudolph Kummel is studying trombone, and John Isakson, the bugle. Violinists include Constance Whaley, Barbara Whaley, Carol McGhee, Donald Myles, Louise O'Neill, Jules Lerner, Patricia O'Hara and Thomas O'Hara.

On the trumpet are Peter Green, Kenneth Collins, Jock Williams; drums, Arthur Gaer, William Higgins, Wade Kennedy, Timothy Griggs and Michael Capozzi. Clarinet players are Peter Neulsen, James Culbertson, Claude Koprowski and James Sajowsky.

Staff Is Named To 'Lincolnette' At Lincoln JHS

ENGLEWOOD — Jean Ballard has been named editor for the school year of the Lincolnette, official school newspaper of the Lincoln Junior High school.

In an announcement by Theodore S. Davis, school principal, the full staff of the newspaper included Aaron White, assistant editor; Janice Smith, proofreader, and Lillian Taylor, manager.

Reporters, including the remainder of the ninth grade student body, are Walter Bertero, Junious Daniels, Harold Goodwin, Burrell Edwards, Joan Harley, Robert James, Clarence Martin, George Rogers, Robert White, Charlotte Douglas.

Also, Sally Gary, Barbara Harley, Barbara McFerguson, Carolyn McNair, Elizabeth Pegeese, Estelle Stubbs, Joan Stubbs and Evelyn Wyche.

Cleveland PTA Opening Meeting Attended By 300

ENGLEWOOD — A combined back-to-school and United Nations program attracted 300 persons to the opening meeting last week of the Cleveland School Parent-Teacher Association held in the combined gymnasium-auditorium at the school.

Following classroom visitsm a short business meeting was conducted by Robert Phillips, president of the group. He introduced Miss Elizabeth Dunn, librarian, who announced the purchase of 65 books for use by children through P.-T.A. funds allotted for that purpose.

Members appointed to serve on the Englewood P.-T.A. Council included Mr. Phillips, president; John Wiggin, vice president, and Miss Martha Emmet, school principal.

The United Nations was the subject of the second half of the evening program, which was highlighted by a series of motion picture films and an address by Mrs. Lester Kreielscheimer, Tenafly, a volpnteer worker with the mobile UN unit which was organized last April.

The films showed UN functions in assisting needy countries by providing food, clothing, medical supplies, farm equipment and education.

Mrs. Joseph Hug, hospitality chairman, assisted by the second grade mothers, served refreshments during the social hour following the program. The next meeting will be held Nov. 30.

Presbyterian Women Hear Of Iran Mission

TENAFLY—The regular meeting of the Women's Association of the Presbyterian Church of Tenafly will be held on Thursday, Nov. 9, at 1 p.m. in the church house.

The pantry shelf fill be under the care of the Senior Circle. There will be aprons and articles for Christmas, as well as the usual foods for sale. Luncheon will be served by the Loyalty Circle with Mrs. L. B. Wilson and Mrs. W. M. Stuart, as co-chairmen.

The Rev. Dr. J Christy Wilson, will be the speaker Dr. Wilson spent 20 years in Iran helping to lay the founation for the establishment of the Christian Church in this Moslem country. He is now on the faculty at Princeton Theological Seminary, where he teaches missionaries an is director of 200-300 students doing field work.

2 Accidents Mar Safety Record On Englewood Streets

ENGLEWOOD — Two accidents marred Englewood's safety record, on Thursday, as a result of which three persons were hospitalized, and three cars heavily damaged.

Shortly after midnight, Wednesday, Mrs. Anna Bruntz of 84 Westervelt place, Cresskill, driving north on Engle street, near the south entrance to the Englewood Field Club, struck a bump on the road, lost control of her car, and crashed into a hospital sign and a tree about 75 feet north of the entrance.

Mrs. Bruntz and her passenger, Mrs. Fred Ahles of 367 Knickerbocker road, Tenafly, were taken to the nearby Englewood Hospital in the institution's ambulance, where they were admitted: Mrs. Bruntz for a fracture of the left knee; Mrs. Ahles fo a fractured right leg. The car heavily smashed, was towed to Duncan's Garage.

In the second accident of the day, Vincent A. Gulardo of 91 Rockhill road, Clifton, driving southerly on Grand avenue, Englewood, stopped for the red light at Grand and Forest avenues. He was struck on the rear by Miss Plotnick of 1390 Somerset Gate, West Englewood, also going north. Miss Plotnick claimed that she was blinded by the sun, and did not see Mr. Gulardo stop. Both cars were badly damaged. Mr. Gulardo was taken to the Englewood Hospital in the Englewood Police ambulance for treatment of his injuries.

Pep Rally At DMHS Features Parody

ENGLEWOOD — Dwight Morrow girls recently attended a combination pep rally and football singing assembly.

A parody on "Good Night" Irene," written by Ted Davis and Dave Wides, was sung by J. Kropazynaki, DMHS music director. The parody dealt with school life.

The assembly was under the care of the S. O. President, Ken Norian.

TEEN TALK

by BETTY SMITH

Hi! So glad to see ya We had lots of news from various sources . . . .only we lost the little slip of paper. . . .so bear with us while we try to remember, huh? Oh, yes. . . .the blonde sailor. Have you ever heard that old Andrews sister's platter entitled "My Blonde Sailor"? Well, just ask Coopie what it's all about. Seems there's a nautical lad named Freddie who has Coop all in a dither. . . .and he's blonde, or did you gather that?

Saturday nite in Nyack reminded us of old home week. Alumni and all, the troops were out! The Venice and Scottie's were bursting at the seams with such prominent figures as, Mike'n'Reno (Nevada?), Dot'n'Murph, Bettie Cook n'Artie Rose, Bob Hall, Bob Kirschman, Joe Schotts, Janet Borg'n'Wako, Helen and Bill and Muriel McDermott and Dot Dilger with two fellows we didn't meet.

Party nite at the Plaza, (Friday eve to you), our owly-eyed spies saw Bill Buttino, Larry Sobol, Barry Druskin, Bob Bender, Jim Taylor and Paul Bentley. In the femme row were the old standbys. . . .an even dozen of the fifteen colleagues were there in the person of: Bette Smith, Janet Borg, Jean (Coopie) Cooper, Joan Barrett, Bettie Cook, Dot Del Vecchio, Muriel McDermott, Dot Dilger, Rose Allowatt, Mike Foley, Mary Doyle 'n' Ellen Claes. Here and there were scattered peoples like Fred Wendel, Elaine Watson and Harold Turner, Bert Holtje and Eddie Gunther, who were both on leave from the Navy, and Jack Deegan with Terry Asher.

Selma Margolies had quite a party last weekend or so Eileen Freid was telling us! Couldn't get a list of those attending it tho!. . . such secretive peoples

Pat Flynn, Gerry Kubat, Joan Abbott, Ro Horowitz with Ernie Petersen, Joan Sherwood headed the Alumni list that we spotted at the game Saturday afternoon.

Fran Skinner's home on leave, too. Gee, this town's getting very military with all the lads joining up, voluntarily or otherwise. Saw Kenny DeWitt at the Wheel. . . . he's one of those nautical boys in the bell-bottoms! The gals are heard to say he looks quite great, snazzy to quite a few!

Sunday was eventful to say the least. . . .what with the crowd at the Saint's game 'n' all. Rose Allowa. and George Hummel, Eddie Gunther, Lou Cavada, Murph, were only a few we saw. Sunday nite found George Stix 'n' Terry Wanta in the movies

Just want to tell ya that we're thrilled to death at being picked as the editor of the '51 year-book . . . .love all so muchly . . . .be good til next week, huh? P. S. We'll have lots to tell you all about this weekend 'cause we're goin' Connecticut crazy again! This time we're travelin' up to Wesleyan with Carole Kane 'n Pat Flynn for the weekend. See ya!

Dr. G. J. Steck Buys Tenafly Home, Office

TENAFLY—Dr. Gilbert J. Steck, D. D. S., has purchased a new home and office on the southeast corner of Jefferson avenue and River Edge road in Tenafly. Dr. Steck, a Columbia University alumnus, formerly lived at 76 Hazelton terrace, Tenafly, and has practiced for the past 17 years in Edgewater. He will continue the Edgewater office where patients will be treated by appointment.

W. P. Eierman of the Alexander Summer Co., Teaneck and Newark realtors handled the transaction.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

By MERVIN D. HYMAN

IS TOM MORGAN GOING TO RESIGN?

There's been a lot of small talk making the rounds recently concerning Tom Morgan and the Englewood football coaching job. As a matter of fact, a Hudson County daily last week took the bull by the horns and announced that it had learned from an "unimpeachable source" that Tom was going to resign at the conclusion of the current campaign. That may be news to Hudson County fans but it is hardly news to readers of this column who were informed on Aug. 24, 1950. "Rumors of a coaching change at Englewood have been floating around the city for some time but Tom Morgan will be at the helm this year. George Baldwin is his natural successor with Johnny Winkin moving into the baseball post. It may happen in 1951."

Following the original announcement last Thursday, Morgan denied the report for a Bergen County daily, stating, "If I ever plan to resign my post as head football coach I will certainly make a formal announcement. Rumors have had me quitting this job for the past two seasons."

Tom's statement does not deny that he will call it quits but merely emphasizes the fact that he has made no "formal announcement." Perhaps that "formal announcement" will be forthcoming at a later date since it is fairly certain that Morgan has been anxious to give up at least one of his coaching jobs to devote more time to his successful activities in the real estate field. Tom has been associated with Charlie Knapp, former Teaneck High grid mentor, for more than a year and he is perfectly justified in giving up football, or basketball, coaching in order to earn a living for his family.

The fact that Englewood is in the midst of one of its poorest campaigns is not the reason for Morgan's desire to want out. The Maroon Raiders may yet repeat their November performance of last year when they won four straight games after an equally dismal start. As a matter of record, Englewood fans are not such rabid rooters that they would ever bother to demand Morgan's scalp when his team is losing. They don't show that much interest in athletics.

This writer has no desire to stir up a controversy concerning Tom Morgan and Englewood football. Tom has given the Maroon Raiders several outstanding elevens and he rates high as a coach. Sure, he has his faults but a guy by the name of Frank Leahy isn't doing too well this year, either.

But the prediction made in this column Aug. 24 still stands. And remember, that was made before Englewood lost four of its first five games.

PICKING THE WINNERS

Last week's high school football card was replete with upsets and this prognosticator got caught with his predictions down along with all the other so-called experts. However, I did pick Wood-Ridge to upset Dumont and that's partial balm for the wrong calls in the St. Cecilia-Brooklyn Prep, Fort Lee-Closter, Lodi-Pope Pius, Hasbrouck Heights-Westwood and Bloomfield-Garfield games.

The 13 right, six wrong and one tie last weekend brought the season's record to 70 wins, 17 defeats and five deadlocks for a mark of .805.

Here are this week's winners:

FRIDAY

ENGLEWOOD SCHOOL AT MONTCLAIR ACADEMY. Another loss for the poor Hilltoppers. Montclair Academy is too strong for Coach Luke Ward's little fellows. Montclair 19, Englewood School 6.

SATURDAY

ENGLEWOOD AT RIDGEFIELD PARK. Ridgefield Park has come mighty close to defeat two weeks in a row and is ripe to be taken. But Englewood hasn't the big guns to bring down the Scarlets. A little more protection for Bobby Williams when he throws those accurate passes might help but this just isn't Englewood's year. The nod goes to Ridgefield Park, 13-6.

TEANECK AT TENAFLY. Tenafly gets a chance to win one this week. Teaneck has lost five in a row and may go winless. The Tigers were battered by Leonia but Walt Vallari ought to get an opportunity to run against the Highwaymen. Tenafly 13, Teaneck 0.

HACKENSACK AT CLIFFSIDE PARK. Cliffside Park spoiled things for Ridgefield Park and will be gunning for Tommy Della Torre's undefeated Comets. Hackensack is not a world beater but is well-coached and has a strong line plus two good backs in Charlie Storrs and Bob Carroll. Give it to Hackensack, 20-7.

RUTHERFORD AT LEONIA. Rutherford has been coming along by leaps and bounds in recent weeks and can come through with an upset if it can curb the passing of Leonia's George Tansey. Just on a hunch, Rutherford 13, Leonia 7.

FORT LEE AT WOOD-RIDGE. Wood-Ridge is hot after beating Dumont and will take weak Fort Lee in stride. Wood-Ridge 20, Fort Lee 0.

DUMONT AT PARK RIDGE. Look for Dumont to bounce back after getting knocked out of the unbeaten division. Dumont 13, Park Ridge 6.

BERGENFIELD AT HASBROUCK HEIGHTS. The Mighty Mites haven't even been slowed down let alone stopped. If the rumored reports of dissension in the ranks are true, Bergenfield certainly thrives on it. Make it Bergenfield 26, Hasbrouck Heights 12.

WESTWOOD AT CLOSTER. Both teams won their first games last week and this one is a toss up. I'll take Westwood, 18-12.

PATERSON EASTSIDE AT EAST RUTHERFORD. The East Rutherfords are tough this year and will win, 13-0.

RIDGEWOOD AT LODI. Ridgewood will protect its unbeaten record with a 26-0 victory over the Lodi Rams.

LYNDHURST AT GARFIELD. Who would have thought we would see the day that Group 2 Lyndhurst would be favored to trample Group 4 Garfield? That's the situation this week as the high-scoring Lyndhurst team goes after its sixteenth straight win. They'll get it, too, by a 20-6 score.

BOGOTA AT NORTH ARLINGTON. A battle between two winless teams. North Arlington gets the edge, 13-6.

SUNDAY

SETON HALL AT ST. CECILIA. The Englewood Saints finally hit the victory column last week but Seton Hall will present sterner opposition. It looks like a Seton Hall victory in a 12-7 game.

ST MARY'S AT QUEEN OF PEACE. A romp for once-beaten Queen of Peace. The score: Queen of Peace 19, St. Mary's 0.

Saints Play Seton Hall Sunday At Stadium

Raiders Face Park; Boys' School Plays Friday Afternoon

ENGLEWOOD — There's another busy weekend in store for local high school football teams but again the outlook is dreary so far as victories are concerned. The Englewood School for Boys gets the ball rolling tomorrow afternoon when it travels to Montclair Academy while Englewood hits the road Saturday for a Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League tussle with strong Ridgefield Park. St. Cecilia winds up the weekend festivities Sunday at White Stadium, taking on Seton Hall in the final North Jersey Catholic Conference game.

All three schools will again be the underdogs, a condition which has prevailed during most of the season, and it will take upsets of major proportions to bring about a victory for Englewood, St. Cecilia or the Boys' School.

RIDGEFIELD PARK SEEKS TO KEEP RECORD CLEAN

Battered by Leonia and Hackensack in successive weeks, Englewood's Maroon Raiders tackle another N.N.J.I.L. leader Saturday when they make the short haul to Ridgefield Park. The Scarlet is still unbeaten although two unexpected 13-13 tie games with Cliffside Park and Rutherford have just about ruined whatever chance the Park had for winning the league crown.

In the basis of comparative scores, Englewood would normally rate a slight chance in this one. The Maroon Raiders belted Cliffside Park, 26-0, while the Firemen, in turn, held the Park to a 13-13 deadlock. However, to offset this, Ridgefield Park nosed out Leonia, 7-6, while the Lions trimmed Englewood, 31-6. To add to the Maroon's underdog rating, Coach Tom Morgan's Raiders looked sad while bowing to Hackensack, 40-6, last week.

This Englewood team has become a mystery to Morgan and his aides, George Baldwin and Johnny Winkin. In Bobby Williams, the Raiders have one of the county's outstanding backs. The forward wall is big enough to cause damage but it hasn't yet displayed the aggressiveness necessary for a winning performance.

BECKER, DOLAN AT ENDS

Morgan has attempted to strengthen the ends in recent weeks, making numerous shifts after Tom Best, one of the few returning veterans of the '49 club, left the squad. The latest has Fleet Dolan, formerly a tackle, and Art Becker, a defensive fullback; holding forth at the wings with Henry Peguese, David and Gaglione acting as relief men. However, not even this maneuver has kept enemy backs from pouring through the sieve-like Maroon line.

Leonia went for 400 yards, Hackensack for better than 500 last Saturday.

The porousness of the Raider line has caused Williams to be throttled time and again. He receives very little protection when he gets back to pass, practically ruining the potential of the Englewood aerial attack. Another contributing factor is Englewood's lack of a crashing fullback who can pick up yardage on inside plays while setting up the opposition for outside thrusts by Williams and Henry Robinson. John Pratico is not a threat and he is seldom used as a ball carrier.

Against the Park, Englewood will have to show vast improvement. The Scarlet has several good running backs in Ritchie Rholfs, Bill Connolly and Haines and a better-than-average quarterback in Hal Schoenfelder, brother of John and Freddy, onetime St. Cecilia stars. Schoeny is an excellent passer and he runs the team well.

There is a chance that the Scarlet is running out of gas after its fast start but Englewood doesn't seem to have the potential necessary for a victory. That is, unless the linemen start to block for Wil-

REVITALIZED SAINTS SEEK ANOTHER UPSET VICTORY

Fresh from its first victory of the season, a revitalized St. Cecilia team will tackle Seton Hall Sunday afternoon at White Stadium. However, the South Orange team will be favored to halt the short St. Cecilia winning streak.

Seton Hall, known as the Pony Pirates to Essex County fans, was upset by Montclair Immaculate Conception last week but played without Harold Moran, their No. 1 quarterback and ace passer. Moran is expected to be back in action for Sunday's game, a fact which will minimize St. Cecilia's chances for its first North Jersey Catholic Conference victory.

The Saints are buried in the Conference cellar after two defeats and one tie in league action and will finish the season there unless they defeat Seton Hall. St. Mary's of Rutherford has yet to win but the South Bergen team has played two tie games.

CORBAE READY TO PASS

Coach Tom Potter will have George Corbae, his starting quarterback, ready to do plenty of pitching against the South Orange visitors, who, incidentally, are coached by Larry Sartori, a former Fordham star lineman. Corbae has passed for three of St. Cecilia's five touchdowns this year and his 19-yard heave to End Frank Deegan gave the Saints their first win last Sunday. A transfer from Englewood, the husky Corbae has developed into a good quarterback.

Potter is also hoping for Pete Calabrese, Terry Holly and the other backs to maintain the pace they set against Brooklyn Prep. The Saints figure to be outweighed again but if those quick-opening T-formation plays click, the Blue and Gold scat backs can cause some trouble.

Sunday's game may very well be the turning point in the St. Cecilia season. The Saints still have to face St. Michael's and Englewood and victories over their three remaining rivals could give the Pottermen a respectable season's record.

BOYS' SCHOOL TRAVELS TO MONTCLAIR ACADEMY

Beaten eight times in succession, the Englewood School for Boys will strive to snap the school's longest losing streak tomorrow afternoon at Montclair Academy.

Coach Luke Ward's youngsters have been showing improvement despite their losses and last week's game with Irving School of Tarrytown was heartening to the Hilltop mentor even though his charges lost. He was considerably impressed with the manner in which his kids got their only touchdown.

Montclair Academy is considered stronger than Irving but Ward will have Johnny Wilson, Blackie Macauley and the other Englewood School starters in tip-top shape for tomorrow's tussle with the Essex County eleven.

St. Cecilia Wins First Over Brooklyn Prep, 7-0

ENGLEWOOD — A 19-yard touchdown pass from George Corbae to Frank Deegan gave St. Cecilia a hard-earned 7-0 victory over Brooklyn Prep Sunday afternoon at White Stadium as a slim crowd watched the Blue and Gold gridders win their first game of the season.

Beaten four times and tied once, the underdog Saints showed vast improvement as they outmaneuvered and outplayed the heavier prep school lads from Brooklyn. For the first time this season, the Cecilians were able to flash a running attack and, combined with Corbae's accurate passes, it was enough to defeat the visitors for the seventh time in eight games between the two schools.

St. Cecilia, in the midst of its worst season in almost two decades, needed this victory to restore its confidence and should be more difficult to beat from here on in. Coach Tom Potter's youngsters seemed to run harder and tackle more sharply even though they had to go into the fourth quarter before racking up the game winning score.

The Englewood parochials had a touchdown taken away from them in the first quarter after Pete Calabrese broke away on a spectacular 69-yard dash. The play was called back when the officials detected illegal use of the hands on the part of an unidentified Cecilian.

For the remainder of the first half, the Saints managed to hold the upper hand, keeping Brooklyn Prep on the defensive.

Both Teams Threaten

Both teams threatened in the third quarter, the Englewood boys marching all the way down to the Brooklyn Prep 10-yard stripe before being halted while the visitors got as far as the St. Cecilia 25 just as the period ended.

The Saints started their touchdown drive at the start of the final session after taking over on their own 25. Terry Holly and Joe Locilento started to knife through the tackles and around the ends and Quarterback George Corbae slipped in with a couple of successful aerials to place the ball on the Brooklyn 19.

The Prep line held at this point, throwing back three St. Cecilia plunges. Corbae then located Deegan in the end zone with a perfect pass and the Saints had a touchdown and a 6-0 lead. Corbae's plunge made it 7-0.

Brooklyn threatened to tie the score following the next kickoff and got as far as the St. Cecilia 36-yard line before Ott fumbled, Calabrese recovering for the Saints to lock up the game for the Pottermen.

Tansey's Pitching Gives Leonia Win Over Tigers

LEONIA — George Tansey, a peerless passer and field general, had a field day Saturday afternoon as he led his Leonia High School grid forces to a 41-0 shellacking of a game but outmanned Tenafly team.

Tansey was terrific as he operated the Lion winged T formation with all the skill of an artist, hiding the ball almost as effectively as another former Leonia T-master, Jack Jaeckel, and passing with unerring accuracy for three touchdowns. The Leonia quarterback completed 10 of 16 tosses for 310 yards, the best performance in the county this year, and handled his team's offense in flawless fashion.

Against this array of explosive power, Tenafly was almost helpless. The Tigers tried valiantly to stay in the ball game in the first half, holding the heavier home team to a 13-0 margin, but the roof caved in on Coach George Clark's crew in the third session when Leonia crossed the goal line three times in rapid succession.

Leonia not only showed an effective aerial circus but its backs ran through and around the Tenafly line for an additional 204 yards to bring their ground-gaining total to 514 for the day. The week before the powerful Lions had racked up over 400 yards against Englewood.

Tansey got his pitching arm in motion in the first quarter, passing to Al Politi for 57 yards and the game's first touchdown and this same combination produced another score in the second session, eating up 91 yards in one play to provide the Lions with a 13-0 half-time margin.

The Lions stayed on the ground for their third period avalanche, Bruce Stark racing 63 yards for one marker while Ron Fleming pounded over from the four and Politi zoomed around end from the seven. In the finale, Tansey passed 12 yards to Ed Kincade for Leonia's final score.

*Don't let this happen to you!

Stalling that occurs on cool, humid days (30° to 55° temperatures, humidity above 65%) is generally caused by carburetor "icing." Evaporation of the highly volatile gasolines required for modern cars has a refrigerating effect which freezes moisture out of the air, accumulating icy frost in the carburetor. New Fall-Grade Anti-Stalling Esso Extra Gasoline helps eliminate this cause of stalling, which is experienced with most cars on the road today. It will not, of course, prevent stalling caused by faulty carburetor adjustment or electrical failure.

Tenafly Hopes To Snap Losing Streak In Game With Lowly Teaneck Saturday

TENAFLY — Tenafly will be favored to win a football game for the first time this season when the Tigers tackle a weak Teaneck High School team Saturday afternoon at Roosevelt Common.

The visiting Highwaymen have yet to win and bring a five-game losing streak to the Common. However, Teaneck has showed signs of awakening and Coach George Clark is hoping that his charges won't be overconfident when they take the field Saturday.

As a matter of fact, Tenafly should be anything but overconfident. The Tigers have been held scoreless in three straight losing games, dropping decisions to Rutherford, Hackensack and Leonia in successive weeks. Tenafly hasn't hit the scoring column since the 26-12 victory over Englewood the first Saturday in October.

Walt Vallari, Buddy Boffinger, Merril Sproul and Bob Jensen, Tenafly's best running backs, just haven't been able to get going. Admittedly, the opposition they have been facing is the toughest in the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League but other teams have been scoring against Rutherford and Leonia.

Another problem has been bothering Coach Clark. His Tigers have been doing well in the first half of their games but start to fold in the third period. This was evident in all three losing games when Tenafly battled favored opponents almost to a standstill until the halftime whistle. Then, their strength seemed to disappear. Clark hasn't got the answer to this one yet but he's hoping that his youngsters snap out of their slump against Teaneck Saturday.

The Highwaymen haven't even come close to a triumph in their five games, losing to Ridgewood, Ridgefield Park, Lodi, Rutherford and Cliffside Park, in that order. However, against Cliffside last week, Teaneck showed vast improvement and held a 13-7 halftime lead against the Red Raiders.

Al Santanello is the big man in the Teaneck attack. He runs and passes and will have to be smothered if Tenafly is to come through with its second win.

Clark doesn't plan any change in his starting lineup but he's banking on a sharp reversal of form to bring his Tigers through.

Comets Thrash Maroon To Remain Unbeaten

ENGLEWOOD — A complete fourth-period collapse by Englewood helped unbeaten and untied Hackensack romp to its fourteenth straight victory before 2,700 fans at White Stadium last Saturday as the Golden Comets belted the Maroon Raiders to the tune of 40 to 6.

Englewood's hapless team, beaten and battered in three previous games, folded completely in the final session to absorb its worst defeat in the series which started way back in 1903. Hackensack never had it so good against Englewood as it did in this fifty-second renewal of the county's oldest classic!

However, Coach Tom Morgan's Maroon Raiders had the distinction of being the first team to score on the Comet powerhouse this season. Hackensack was unscored upon until Englewood crossed the Comet goal line in the third quarter on Bobby Williams' 10-yard pass to Henry Robinson. The touchdown broke the spell that had existed in Hackensack's first four games but it only served to anger the visitors, who more than gained revenge for that six-pointer before the game ended.

Oddly enough, it was a fluke that enabled Englewood to get close enough to score on Hackensack. The play was set up when Williams' bounding punt grazed Giardino on the Comet 22-yard line as an unidentified Maroon lineman dove on the ball to give Englewood possession. Williams then moved the ball down to the 10-yard line before hitting Robinson with a pass on the goal line for the touchdown.

COMET LINE SUPERB

That was Englewood's only real offensive gesture of the long afternoon as the Hackensack forwards outcharged the Maroon line, rushing Williams every time he tried to get off a pass and completely shackling the home team's running attack. Williams had just about as much protection as a Russian spy in the marines!

Hackensack got two quick touchdowns in the first quarter. The Comets moved 68 yards after the opening kickoff for one score, Charlie Storrs passing to Bob Hrbek for 35 yards. A few minutes later, Bob Carroll and Palmer paced a 64-yard drive, the hefty Carroll hammering over from the two-yard line. Carroll also provided Hackensack with its first extra point of the season, passing to Palmer to give the Comets a 13-0 lead.

Englewood managed to stand off the visitors in the second quarter, stopping one drive on the 24-yard line with the help of a clipping penalty but Hackensack was back for another touchdown in the third quarter to raise the margin to 19-6.

Immediately following Englewood's score, the aroused Hackensack youngsters moved 59 yards in eight plays, Storrs racing wide around his own right end from the 14-yard line to get back the six-pointer.

LAST PERIOD A NIGHTMARE

The last quarter was a nightmare for the Morganmen. Storrs and Hrbek teamed up on a 31-yard pass play for one touchdown, Giardino plunged over from the four for another and Tony Ierardi went seven yards for the third after an intercepted pass and subsequent 32-yard runback by Behrmann had set it up. And, as the game ended, Giardini was downed on the six inch line after a 13-yard dash following another interception.

Just to make things worse for Englewood, Carroll drop-kicked for all three extra points in the last quarter, the only time this year Hackensack has been able to record an extra point in this fashion.

Unbeaten Teams Cut To Four In Bergen County

Bergen County's list of unbeaten teams was cut to four over the weekend, leaving Lyndhurst, Ridgewood, Bergenfield and Hackensack as the only undefeated and untied elevens in this neck of the woods.

Dumont was knocked out of the won-all class by Wood-Ridge while Ridgefield Park, tied by Cliffside Park a week ago, managed to remain without a loss as it suffered its second straight deadlock.

Lyndhurst and Ridgewood have each won six games with Bergenfield and Hackensack close behind with five each. Hackensack also had its goalie line crossed for the first time this season but is still Bergen's top defensive club with only six points notched against it. Lyndhurst is the leading scorer with 197.

St. Cecilia, Westwood and Closter broke into the win column for the first time, leaving North Arlington. St. Mary's, Englewood School for Boys, St. Luke's, Teaneck and Bogota as the only winless teams.

Hilltoppers Beaten Again For Eighth Loss

ENGLEWOOD — For a few joyful moments last Friday afternoon, the Englewood School for Boys seemed to be on the way to its first football victory of the 1950 season. But that feeling was short-lived as Irving School of Tarrytown staged a second-half uprising to record a 19-7 triumph.

The loss was the fourth of the season for the winless Hilltoppers and the eighth straight over a two-year period. Englewood School's last victory was in the opening game of the 1949 campaign.

Englewood got away to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter, Johnny Wilson supplying the spark and the points. However, Irving came storming back to tie the score later in the same session.

The two teams battled it out on even terms in the second quarter but Irving's strength and greater weight started to tell in the third and fourth periods as the New York visitors pushed across the two winning touchdowns.

Improved Tigers Face Loop Leaders In Soccer Games

TENAFLY — Coach Jack Yockers' Tenafly High School soccer team, faced with an opportunity to move up in the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League standings, will play host to a strong Teaneck eleven tomorrow afternoon at Roosevelt Common.

The Tigers also get a shot at the league-leading Hackensack combine next Wednesday at Hackensack.

Tenafly has dropped decisions to both teams but Coach Yockers' improved booters are hoping for an upset of either Teaneck or Hackensack. The Comets have clinched the N.N.J.I.L. crown with only a tie with Teaneck to mar their record while the Highwaymen are currently engaged in a battle with Englewood for second place in the standings.

With the season rapidly approaching the end, Tenafly has two additional contests remaining on its schedule. The Tigers face last-place Rutherford Friday, Nov. 10 and then wind up the campaign against Ridgewood Nov. 13.

Englewood Closes Soccer Season Tomorrow Against Rutherford Team

ENGLEWOOD — Coach Burt Smith's Englewood soccer team will wind up the 1950 season tomorrow afternoon at Dwight Morrow Field, playing host to the cellar-dwelling Rutherford club in a N.N.J.I.L. game.

All but eliminated from championship consideration, the Maroon Raiders will be fighting to keep second place in the final standings. Victorious over Teaneck by a 1-0 score last Friday, Englewood moved ahead of the Highwaymen into the runner-up spot and, before yesterday's schedule clash with Tenafly, held second place by one point.

Rutherford lost its first five league games and doesn't figure to extend the Maroon booters, who have won eight, lost two and tied one.

Last Friday, an 18-yard kick by Evan Lewis supplied Englewood with its slender 1-0 margin over previously unbeaten Teaneck. Earlier in the season, the two rivals played to a 1-1 tie.

Lewis' goal came in the third quarter and broke up a thrilling duel between Bud Ingoldsby of Englewood and George Sipp of Teaneck, the rival goalies.

Hackensack Nips Maroon Booters In Loop Tussle

ENGLEWOOD — Englewood's hopes of overtaking Hackensack in the Northern New Jersey Interscholastic League soccer race were given a rude setback last Wednesday when the Maroon Raiders bowed to the Comets, 2-1, at Dwight Morrow Field to fall four points behind the leaders.

The loss was Englewood's second of the season and was almost a repetition of an earlier defeat by the same team. On the other hand, unbeaten Hackensack notched its fourth straight and has only a scoreless tie with Teaneck to mar its record.

However, Coach Burt Smith's Raiders became the first team to score on Comet Goalie Bruce Ramer, who had collected 22 scoreless periods before Evan Lewis booted the ball past him in the third session of last Wednesday's encounter.

Lewis' goal came after Hackensack had piled up a 2-0 lead on tallies by Dave Allen and Vaughan Parseghian in the first and third quarters and only served to cut down the Comet's final margin of victory.

The lineups:

National Gridiron Shrine Planned At Rutgers U.

NEW BRUNSWICK — A statewide appeal for funds for the National Football Hall of Fame and Shrine was sent out from Rutgers University, the state university of New Jersey, proposed site of the monument, this week.

A monument to the great game of football, the Shrine and Hall of Fame will be a mecca for gridiron fans in all parts of the nation. It will be to football what the Cooperstown, N. Y. shrine is to baseball, according to statements received.

As a major step toward bringing the shrine to realization, Rutgers and Brown universities will play the first intercollegiate Hall of Fame Football Game in the Rutgers stadium Saturday, Nov. 4. Part of the proceeds will go to the national Hall of Fame organization.

This week has also been designated as "Football Hall of Fame Week" by the New Jersey Interscholastic Athletic Association and high school football fans will be given their opportunity to contribute to the Hall of Fame as they watch their favorites in action.

Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll and scores of leading New Jersey citizens have pledged their support to this project as a source of State pride and prestige. Every citizen can do his part by attending the Hall of Fame Game at New Brunswick Saturday or through a contribution at this week's local high school contest, a spokesman said this week.

The force of an ideal is greater than the ideal of force.

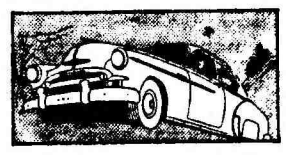
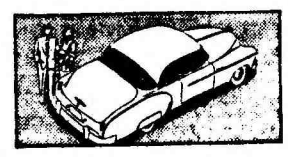
CHEVROLET
Judge it on DURABILITY . . . DEPENDABILITY

It rides more smoothly
Take one ride and you'll agree that Chevrolet is the smoothest riding car in the entire low-price field. It's the only low-priced car combining the famous Unitized Knee-Action Ride and airplane-type shock absorbers all around.



It operates more economically
Owners will tell you Chevrolet's famous Valve-in-Head Engine, exclusive to Chevrolet in its price range gives an outstanding combination of thrills and thrift, plus proved dependability, year after year.



It's better looking all around
Outstanding good looks accompany the outstanding performance of Chevrolet cars—only low-priced car with Body by Fisher—and most beautiful in its field, according to a recent public survey.
*Combination of Powerglide Automatic Transmission and 105-h.p. Engine optional on De Luxe models at extra cost.

It drives more easily
Enjoy finest no-shift driving with Powerglide Automatic Transmission* and 105-h.p. Valve-in-Head Engine—or finest standard driving with standard Valve-in-Head Engine and Synchro-Mesh Transmission—at lowest cost.

It lasts longer, too
Many Chevrolets are giving full satisfaction after having served ten, fifteen, twenty years or longer. That's one reason why there are over a million more Chevrolets on the road than any other make.

It gives more for less throughout
More for less! More steering-ease, thanks to Center-Point Steering. More all-round vision, thanks to a Curved Windshield with Panoramic Visibility. More safety, thanks to Fisher Unisteel Body-Construction and hydraulic brakes. Come in—today!

Bumper to Bumper Driver Scored By County Cops

HACKENSACK — Bergen County Police this week began an intensive campaign against bumper-to-bumper car drivers who in recent months have been responsible for over 60 percent of the accidents handled by that department.

Freeholder William T. Ludlum, chairman of the public safety committee, said today that close driving at fast rates of speed must stop. Pointing out that 20 of the 35 accidents handled by the Bergen County Police during September were caused by bumper-to-bumper driving, Freeholder Ludlum instructed patrolmen to crack down on all violators.

"Motorists must allow 75 feet between cars, especially when proceeding at fast speeds," he stated. "Drivers who insist on trailing the front car by a mere two or three feet naturally can't stop in time to prevent a rear end collision. Thus last month we had 20 such crack-ups reported by our department. In my opinion it is one of the worst forms of careless driving and extremely dangerous It can and must stop at once."

Enforcement of the State Motor Vehicle and Traffic Act resulted in the issuance of 234 summonses by County Police during September. Of the tickets handed out, 141 were for speeding, 21 for careless driving, 11 for passing red lights and 10 each for riding on the shoulder of the road and failing to have a driver's license or registration. Towns in which the majority of summonses were issued include: Paramus, 59; Teaneck, 25; Rutherford, 20; Saddle River Borough, 14, and Englewood, 13.

County patrol cars covered a total of 50,64. miles in September. The radio division handled and logged 4,494 calls during the month of which 181 were general alarms.

"Second Chance", Hollywood Film, At Tenafly Church

"Second Chance," a dramatic film, Hollywood-made, based on an original Faith Baldwin story will be shown this Sunday evening, Nov. 5, at 8 p. m. in the Presbyterian Church House, Magnolia avenue. The public is invited.

"Second Chance" is among the first feature motion pictures made by the church. Combining the technical skill of Hollywood and high calibre acting the religious film has an original story by Faith Baldwin. It tells of the ways and men and women miss the best things of life by firing their aim on what is second best.

At the double morning worship services at 9:30 and 11 a. m. the minister of the Church, the Rev. Melvin R. Campbell will preach on "What the Church Owes You."

There are double sessions of Sunday Church School at 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. with classes for all children and youth three years of age and up. Children under three may be left in the nursery at 11 a. m. while parents attend church. Last June the church school reached an enrollment of 452. Three weeks ago when the last tabulation was made the registrations had climbed to 513.

Parents are cordially invited to visit the school and speak with one of the superintendents about enrolling their children.

Mrs. Ann C. Macleod has sold her residence at 62 North Woodland street, Englewood to Mr. and Mrs. Coley T. Brown. John L. Vanderbilt of W. Gerould Clark, Inc., real estate and insurance firm located at 67 N. Dean street was the broker in the transaction.

YOUNG ADULTS TO BEGIN NEW DISCUSSION SERIES

LEONIA — The Young Adult Group of the Leonia Presbyterian Church will hold its monthly covered-dish supper meeting on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. The group is beginning a series of discussions to discover the significance of Protestantism, Presbyterianism, Catholicism and contemporary religious faiths. The theme for Sunday evening will be: Why Are We Protestants? The leaders are Emily Voorhis and Alfred Comstock. All post-high school young people are invited. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Willis are adult co-workers with the group.

Dr. J. Lawrence Evans will be guest speaker and discussion leader at 7:30 o'clock at the Westminster Fellowship Group for high school students.

'Model Town' Aim Starts With Show At Plaa Nov. 11

ENGLEWOOD—The first step in the designation of Englewood as a "model town" in the cultural sense will be the presentation of a marionette show at the Plaza Theatre, Nov. 11, under the program of the Chamber of Culture Exchange.

The chamber, a new group centered in New York City, has chosen Englewood for its first "model town" project. The chamber aims at integrating cultural activities with business enterprises. It is headed by a group including Miss Laura King, Mrs. Bess Halvorsen, Robert Hart and Daniel Willsaps, all of New York City, and Gordon Witt, area dancing instructor.

The show will feature Sue Hastings' Marionettes, a troupe of puppeteers, in a program entitled "Circus Capers." It is the first of four projects which are aimed at youth, mature persons, elderly residents and servicemen.

According to Miss King, the group will eventually stretch to a national organization. It is placing its first project in Englewood because, after lengthy searching, the group found Englewood to offer the best opportunity for such activities.

Poets Corner

SOME AUTUMN COLORS

When Autumn comes to meet us,
The Great Artist from on high,
Adorns his mighty canvasses of
sea and land and sky,
With lesser bits of artistry to please the mind and eye.
The morn awakes, a mist before
her eyes;
The sun warms through, and brings
the world surprise;
Vines, trees, clumps, forests, near
and far,
Tinted and dyed with transitory
glory are.
The ivy clinging to the fence, and
wall and tree,
Reveals a red that's rich as red
can be;
The sassafras that lifts its head
above,
Discloses red and yellow, orange,
mauve.
The velvet sumacs, wheresoe'er
they stand,
Too have substantial colors, nobly
grand:
Shades of red, orange, crimson,
and maroon,
Gorgeous by day, e'en bright by
light of moon.
Then too the gum, in the deep
wood or field,
Or near some barn, 'gainst lightning stroke a shield,
Displays a foliage bright, a-shimmer with the dew,
Its oval berries black, with bloom
of blue.
The dogwood which in middle spring displays
Its white or pink, with everybody's
praise,
Now rivals all the rest with its bright show
Of berries crimson rich, and foliage aglow.
The jealous maples, not to be outdone,
Seem to have caught the rainbow,
dawn, and sun;
For of all colors Nature can array,
They have a near monopoly today.
The oak in disappointment wears a
frown;
The best of all his efforts ends with
brown;
But he perhaps may nurse a secret
pride,
For his one color oft remains to Eastertide.
(There be some oaks whith for a
time are red;
They flame up for a while from
foot to head;
But soon a wood-sprite wails an
eerie sound,
The leaves turn pale and tumble
to the ground.)
Spruce, pine, and hemlock all retain their green;
In contrast with the rest they vivify the scene,
Just as in Spring their dark and
light and blue,
Add light to Nature's color scheme,
for me, for you.

Over 400 Attend Fashion Show At St. Cecilia's, Englewood

ENGLEWOOD — More than 4 persons attended the fashion show and card party sponsored by the Mothers' Guild of St. Cecilia's High School last Friday evening in the auditorium of the school.

Mrs. Herbert J. Hickey, West Englewood, chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Charles Groux, West Englewood, president of the guild welcomed the players.

The fashion show by Barbara Lee of the Plaza, West Englewood, featured more than 20 costumes for late fall and winter wear. These costumes were complete with accessories from top to toe. The hats were perfect complements to the garments selected, and were by Charlotte of Bergenfield.

Mrs. T. Greenhalgh was commentator, and Miss Ellen Bryant, a freshman student, was pianist.

In addition to Mrs. Hickey, general chairman other committee chairmen were Mrs. John McQuillen, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. Andrew Durkin, Mrs. Tocetta, Mrs. Gonzales, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Osterman, and Mrs. Samuel Asher, who was co-chairman of the fashion show.

The models, students of St. Cecilia High School, were Shelia Carey, Marilyn Connor, Mary Eaton, Loretta Frei, Marion Fitzsimmons, Carol Gerish, Marie Jugovitch Jacquelina Jensen, Lenora Kennedy, Peggy McQuillen, Josephine Lamo and Marie Wersching.

Members of the guild who were models, were Mrs. Charles Groux, West Englewood, Mrs. Samuel Asher, Englewood and Mrs. Lewis Sposa, Fairlawn.

After the fashion show, refreshments were served by senior girls of the high school. The remainder of the evening was spent playing cards.

A special award of a $100 savings bond was given to Mrs. Henning.

Bumper to Bumper Driver Scored By County Cops

HACKENSACK — Bergen County Police this week began an intensive campaign against bumper-to-bumper car drivers who in recent months have been responsible for over 60 percent of the accidents handled by that department.

Freeholder William T. Ludlum, chairman of the public safety committee, said today that close driving at fast rates of speed must stop. Pointing out that 20 of the 35 accidents handled by the Bergen County Police during September were caused by bumper-to-bumper driving, Freeholder Ludlum instructed patrolmen to crack down on all violators.

"Motorists must allow 75 feet between cars, especially when proceeding at fast speeds," he stated. "Drivers who insist on trailing the front car by a mere two or three feet naturally can't stop in time to prevent a rear end collision. Thus last month we had 20 such crack-ups reported by our department. In my opinion it is one of the worst forms of careless driving and extremely dangerous. It can and must stop at once."

Enforcement of the State Motor Vehicle and Traffic Act resulted in the issuance of 234 summonses by County Police during September. Of the tickets handed out, 141 were for speeding, 21 for careless driving, 11 for passing red lights and 10 each for riding on the shoulder of the road and failing to have a driver's license or registration. Towns in which the majority of summonses were issued include: Paramus, 59; Teaneck, 25; Rutherford, 20; Saddle River Borough, 14, and Englewood, 13.

County patrol cars covered a total of 50,64. miles in September. The radio division handled and logged 4,494 calls during the month of which 181 were general alarms.

"Second Chance", Hollywood Film, At Tenafly Church

"Second Chance," a dramatic film, Hollywood-made, based on an original Faith Baldwin story will be shown this Sunday evening, Nov. 5, at 8 p. m. in the Presbyterian Church House, Magnolia avenue. The public is invited.

"Second Chance" is among the first feature motion pictures made by the church. Combining the technical skill of Hollywood and high calibre acting the religious film has an original story by Faith Baldwin. It tells of the ways and men and women miss the best things of life by firing their aim on what is second best.

At the double morning worship services at 9:30 and 11 a. m. the minister of the Church, the Rev. Melvin R. Campbell will preach on "What the Church Owes You."

There are double sessions of Sunday Church School at 9:30 a. m. and 11 a. m. with classes for all children and youth three years of age and up. Children under three may be left in the nursery at 11 a. m. while parents attend church. Last June the church school reached an enrollment of 452. Three weeks ago when the last tabulation was made the registrations had climbed to 513.

Parents are cordially invited to visit the school and speak with one of the superintendents about enrolling their children.

North Woodland Street Residence Sold

Mrs. Ann C. Macleod has sold her residence at 62 North Woodland street, Englewood to Mr. and Mrs. Coley T. Brown. John L. Vanderbilt of W. Gerould Clark, Inc., real estate and insurance firm located at 67 N. Dean street was the broker in the transaction.

YOUNG ADULTS TO BEGIN NEW DISCUSSION SERIES

LEONIA — The Young Adult Group of the Leonia Presbyterian Church will hold its monthly covered-dish supper meeting on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. The group is beginning a series of discussions to discover the significance of Protestantism, Presbyterianism, Catholicism and contemporary religious faiths. The theme for Sunday evening will be: Why Are We Protestants? The leaders are Emily Voorhis and Alfred Comstock. All post-high school young people are invited. Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Willis are adult co-workers with the group.

Dr. J. Lawrence Evans will be guest speaker and discussion leader at 7:30 o'clock at the Westminster Fellowship Group for high school students.

'Model Town' Aim Starts With Show At Plaa Nov. 11

ENGLEWOOD—The first step in the designation of Englewood as a "model town" in the cultural sense will be the presentation of a marionette show at the Plaza Theatre, Nov. 11, under the program of the Chamber of Culture Exchange.

The chamber, a new group centered in New York City, has chosen Englewood for its first "model town" project. The chamber aims at integrating cultural activities with business enterprises. It is headed by a group including Miss Laura King, Mrs. Bess Halvorsen, Robert Hart and Daniel Willsaps, all of New York City, and Gordon Witt, area dancing instructor.

The show will feature Sue Hastings' Marionettes, a troupe of puppeteers, in a program entitled "Circus Capers." It is the first of four projects which are aimed at youth, mature persons, elderly residents and servicemen.

According to Miss King, the group will eventually stretch to a national organization. It is placing its first project in Englewood because, after lengthy searching, the group found Englewood to offer the best opportunity for such activities.

Poets Corner

SOME AUTUMN COLORS

When Autumn comes to meet us,
The Great Artist from on high,
Adorns his mighty canvasses of
sea and land and sky,
With lesser bits of artistry to please the mind and eye.
The morn awakes, a mist before
her eyes;
The sun warms through, and brings
the world surprise;
Vines, trees, clumps, forests, near
and far,
Tinted and dyed with transitory
glory are.
The ivy clinging to the fence, and
wall and tree,
Reveals a red that's rich as red
can be;
The sassafras that lifts its head
above,
Discloses red and yellow, orange,
mauve.
The velvet sumacs, wheresoe'er
they stand,
Too have substantial colors, nobly
grand:
Shades of red, orange, crimson,
and maroon,
Gorgeous by day, e'en bright by
light of moon.
Then too the gum, in the deep
wood or field,
Or near some barn, 'gainst lightning stroke a shield,
Displays a foliage bright, a-shimmer with the dew,
Its oval berries black, with bloom
of blue.
The dogwood which in middle spring displays
Its white or pink, with everybody's
praise,
Now rivals all the rest with its bright show
Of berries crimson rich, and foliage aglow.
The jealous maples, not to be outdone,
Seem to have caught the rainbow,
dawn, and sun;
For of all colors Nature can array,
They have a near monopoly today.
The oak in disappointment wears a
frown;
The best of all his efforts ends with
brown:
But he perhaps may nurse a secret
pride,
For his one color oft remains to Eastertide.
(There be some oaks whith for a
time are red;
They flame up for a while from
foot to head;
But soon a wood-sprite wails an
eerie sound,
The leaves turn pale and tumble
to the ground.)
Spruce, pine, and hemlock all retain their green;
In contrast with the rest they vivify the scene,
Just as in Spring their dark and
light and blue.
Add light to Nature's color scheme,
for me, for you.

Over 400 Attend Fashion Show At St. Cecilia's, Englewood

ENGLEWOOD—More than 4 persons attended the fashion show and card party sponsored by the Mothers' Guild of St. Cecilia's High School last Friday evening in the auditorium of the school.

Mrs. Herbert J. Hickey, West Englewood, chairman of the affair, and Mrs. Charles Groux, West Englewood, president of the guild welcomed the players.

The fashion show by Barbara Lee of the Plaza, West Englewood, featured more than 20 costumes for late fall and winter wear. These costumes were complete with accessories from top to toe. The hats were perfect complements to the garments selected, and were by Charlotte of Bergenfield.

Mrs. T. Greenhalgh was commentator, and Miss Ellen Bryant, a freshman student, was pianist.

In addition to Mrs. Hickey, general chairman other committee chairmen were Mrs. John McQuillen, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. Andrew Durkin, Mrs. Tocetta, Mrs. Gonzales, Mrs. Bryant, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Osterman, and Mrs. Samuel Asher, who was co-chairman of the fashion show.

The models, students of St. Cecilia High School, were Shelia Carey, Marilyn Connor, Mary Eaton, Loretta Frei, Marion Fitzsimmons, Carol Gerish, Marie Jugovitch Jacqueline Jensen, Lenora Kennedy, Peggy McQuillen, Josephine Lamo and Marie Wersching.

Members of the guild who were models, were Mrs. Charles Groux, West Englewood, Mrs. Samuel Asher, Englewood and Mrs. Lewis Sposa, Fairlawn.

After the fashion show, refreshments were served by senior girls of the high school. The remainder of the evening was spent playing cards.

A special award of a $100 savings bond was given to Mrs. Henning.

Ever see switchboards in the street?

● No . . . and we hope you never will! But it has been a big problem to provide housing for all the switchboards and other equipment needed during the past 5 years in supplying more telephone service—and making everyone's service faster, better, and greater in value.

● In all, we have completed 21 entirely new buildings and made major enlargements to 25 others during our $232,000,000 construction program. As a result we're not only able to give you more and better service—we're also better able to meet the growing needs of defense.

● But, even now, the job isn't finished. For the current 1950-1951 period, we have underway an $85,000,000 program of expansion and improvement. Completion of these plans depends on two things: the needs of the national security program, and earnings sufficient to attract investors.

Williams Holds Lead In Area Scoring Race

ENGLEWOOD — Although held scoreless while his Englewood team was being routed by Hackensack, little Bobby Williams maintained his eadl in the area scoring race. The Maroon scatback has 36 points and is still far ahead of the field.

Johnny Wilson of the Englewood School for Boys moved into second place when he scored seven points against Irving School to raise his total to 13. Henry Robinson of Englewood and Frank Deegan of St. Cecilia also moved up a notch to tie Walt Vallari and Buddy Boffinger of Tenafly for the third spot.

In the N.N.J.I.L. ranks, Leonia's Al Politi stretched his lead by rolling up 19 points against Tenafly. The Lion halfback now has 56 points and leads Williams by 20.

Clarabella, TV Clown, At Argo Shoes Saturday

ENGLEWOOD — Television will come to life Saturday when Clarabelle, the Clown, television personality on the Howdy Doody show, will make a personal appearance at the Argo Shoe Store, 61 West Palisade avenue, Englewood. Clarabelle will be on hand from 10 a.m. to noon for autograph signing.

A featured player on the WNBT puppet show, Clarabelle has endeared himself to youngsters who watch his antics on TV screens. The Argo Shoe Store will hold its grand opening ceremonies tomorrow, Friday, all day, and is planning Clarabelle's appearance as an additional feature of the introduction of its children's shoe department to Englewood.

Tenafly Scouts Present Gift

ENGLEWOOD—Girl Scouts of Troop 19, of Tenafly, recently presented a double-purpose high chair to the Englewood Hospital for use in the Children's Ward.

Eugenia Robbiano made the presentation on behalf of the troop, and Nelson R. Henson, administrator of the hospital, accepted the gift on behalf of the Board of Governors. A copper plaque memoralizing the gift, prepared by Sally Worth, a member of the troop, was placed on the chair.

Leonia HS Students Visit Hospital PHNS

LEONIA — Thirty-four girls, students at the Leonia High School, under the direction of Mrs. Helck, the Leonia school nurse, inspected the Englewood Hospital Public Health Nursing Services on two days, Oct. 23 and 30. The girls are members of the Home Nursing Class in the school, and wanted information on how public health nurses care for patients in the home.

Miss Mary Shea, educational director of the Public Health Nursing Services, gave a demonstration of the contents of the black bag which accompanies every nurse on duty, and explained the use of all its contents. The techniqques of giving a patient a bath in bed were also demonstrated as well as methods of utilizing improvised equipment in the home.

A HOME for Them

When a home is broken, by death or by divorce, some temporary arrangement for the children must be made. A foster home may be the answer and a welfare organization will handle the matter with competence and understanding.

Family welfare—clinics—help for the handicapped, the aged, the Community Chest supports a well rounded group of services which are of inestimable value to the community. Everybody gives. Everybody benefits.

Alumnae Gather At Holy Name Anniversary Day

TEANECK — The Alumnae Day program, one of the features of the 25th anniversary of the Holy Name Hospital, Teaneck, was held Sunday starting at 9 a.m. at the hospital.

The day-long celebration opened at a Mass in the hospital chapel, with the Rev. Alphonsus Barthlen of Tenafly as celebrant.

Breakfast followed with 75 nurses attending the reunion held in the nurses' residence. Dr. Leo Fitzpatrick chief anesthetist of the hospital, was toastmaster, and Dr. Maurice Lynch of the medical staff was special guest.

The Rev. John Cassels of the Immaculate Conception Seminary at Darlington was guest speaker. His topics were Catholic nursing and Catholic hospital work.

The Rev. Leo Martin reminisced about his 14 years as chaplain of the hospital. He praised the Sisters, nurses and the medical staff for their cooperation and service to the community.

Open house was held from 2 to 5 p.m. in the nurses' residence. Tea was served to 150 persons. Mrs. Mary Fenstermacher, R. N., and Miss Jennie Jerman, R. N., of the first class of the training school at the hospital, were hostesses.

Dr. Lynch, also honored at the tea, was the hospital's first intrene. Also noted were Mrs. Mae Wescott, R. N. and Miss Rose Coyle, R. N., of the second district of the New Jersey State Nurses Association.

Co-chairman for the day were Mrs. Thomas McGuiness and Betty Croonquist.

Cub Pack 27 Bazaar, Carnival Nov. 5

ENGLEWOOD — Cub Pack 27, sponsored jointly by the Englewood Synagogue and Temple Emanuel Men's Clubs, will stage a large bazaar and carnival Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Englewood Synagogue gym.

Booths will be set up and valuable prizes awarded. The pack committee has been [illegible] by the committee in charge and expects a large turnout to support the program.

ST. CECILIA HIGH NEWS

By PAT DOUGHERTY

This has been a busy and exciting week at Saints. The proofs of their pictures were mailed to the seniors. Everyone was pleased with his and her pictures. If the prints turn out as good as the proofs, the senior section of the "Chimes" will be very attractive.

Although the final outcome of the votes for the candidates of the Senior Poll is not known, I can truthfully say that all the kids fit the bill. It's so hard to choose. Some of the titles are: Best Looking, Best Dressed, Typical Seniors, Most Shy, Best Dancers, Most Popular, Most Courteous, Most Athletic, Class Cut-ups, Best Student, and Class Romance. Each title is held by both a boy and a girl.

Here are some more details about Brigadoon, our musical. There will be a double cast, the tickets are $1.20 each, and the dates of the performances are the 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th of November. The 15th of November is the day for the matinee performance. The casts and chorus are practising very hard, so the play can't be anything but excellent.

The big event of the week was the Fashion Show and Card Party given by the Cecilian Mothers' Guild last Friday night. The girls looked very stunning in their outfits from the Betty Lee Shops. The Card Party was held after the Fashion Show. Many prizes were won by lucky women. From all the talk, I gather that everyone had a wonderful time.

Next on the agenda for the completion of the Chimes is the group pictures of the Underclassmen. If these pictures come out half as well as the senior pictures, they'll be very good.

I'd like to say a word about the spirit at Saints. Here it is, "Wow!" It is terrific. The cheering is so loud that we even drown out a small band. Mr. Potter tells us that it really peps up the fellows on the team.

I'm sure you'll all agree with me if I say that the team really played a good game Sunday. They certainly clicked. Keep it up and maybe we'll go home happy on Turkey Day. I hope so.

That's all for now. So long 'till next week.

Catholic Girls Of Local Scout Troops At Rally

HACKENSACK—Over 700 Girl Scouts, leaders and guests—among them members of the St. Cecilia and Mount Carmel Girl Scout troops—attended the Holy Hour service on Sunday at Holy Trinity R. C. Church, in Hackensack, marking the beginning of Girl Scout week. All the Catholic Girl Scout groups in the county were represented.

The solemn Holy Hour opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag, the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, and recitation of the Girl Scout Promise and Laws. The sermon was by the Rev. R. James Turo, from Seton Hall Seminary. The Rev. T. F. Burke was celebrant at the benediction services, with the Rev. Edward Kielty of Ridgewood as deacon, and the Rev. R. Augustus Geilla of Hackensack as sub-deacon. Assisting in the sanctuary were the Rev. A. Brice, Dumont; Rev. Ferdinand B. Miller, Wallington; and the Rev. Nobl of Hasbrouck Heights. Taps by Joseph Schneider, captain of the Columbus Cadets of St. Joseph's Church, Bogota, concluded the program which was largest Catholic Girl Scout turnout in the county's history.

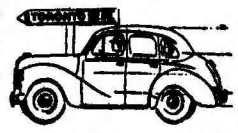
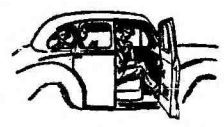
Austin owners get REAL Economy-and More!

"SMOOTHEST RUNNING, MOST EASILY HANDLED AUTOMOBILE I EVER DROVE."

EASY DOES IT! Women love the Austin. There's always room to park. It almost steers itself. And right at your foot is safe power—for driving through snow and mud and for 60-65 miles an hour cruising.

HOW FAR CAN YOU GO ON A GALLON? Last May, under AAA supervision, a stock Austin Devon averaged 33.34 mi. per gal. on the 514-mile New York-Toronto run. 112 miles for a dollar!





BUILT-IN QUALITY! Even more expensive cars don't have all these features . . . luxurious leather upholstery, adjustable front seats, heavier gauge steel body, electric windshield wipers, heater, defrosters—all included in the price.

SETTING A NEW FASHION IN MOTORING! Austin is the "longest" buy in the shorter-wheelbase field. From its carefully engineered chassis to its luxurious leather upholstery, Austin is proof of the skilled craftsmanship of England's famous builder of fine motor cars. No other quality car can equal it for economical, safe, dependable, comfortable transportation—at the modest price!
