INSTALLATION OF LEGION, AUXILIARY OFFICERS HELD

A joint installation of officers of Laurence Harbor Post 332, American Legion, and its Ladies' Auxiliary was held recently at the Beach Casino.

Rollin Rathbun was installed as commander. He received his charge from William Carter, Middlesex County commander. Mrs. Margaret Geores was installed as president of the auxiliary by Mrs. Agnes Bahlman, Middlesex County president, who presented Mrs. Geores with a unit president's ribbon, and a corsage from the unit.

Other officers who were installed were Vice Commanders Robert Geiger, William Carroll and S. Gardner Schack; finance officer, Willard Malcheski; adjutant, Bernard Hanlon; chaplain, Alfred Souza; historian, Ernest Bultjer; service officer, Andrew Carver; sergeant-at-arms, Gerald Gallagher.

Installing officers from Middlesex County were Charles Holstein, James Bunner, Bernard Ostovitz, Bernard Hanlon, Frank Trent, Mrs. Martha Heilman, John Seaman and Harry Newman. Junior Past County Commander Walter Colgan presented a past commander's pin to Past Commander Raymond Crane.

Other auxiliary officers installed were first vice president, Mrs. Sophie Vachitis, and vice president, Mrs. Ethel Keegan; secretary, Mrs. Nora Rathbun; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Beckner; historian, Mrs. Katherine Hollis; chaplain, Mrs. Anna Mullen; sergeant-at-arms, Mrs. Nora Fiala. County installing officers and past officers for the unit were Mrs. Georgiana Jacobs, Mrs. Rose Sunshine, Mrs. Nora Rathbun, Mrs. Catherine Crimmins and Mrs. Martha Colgan.

DUAL CAREER MAN

Major Paul F. Sanders, new head of the Signal Corps branch in the Rutgers University ROTC program, enlisted in the regular Army as a private in 1939. In addition to a handful of promotions, the Bronze Star and three Korean campaign ribbons, he has packed three and a half years of formal education into his service career. He plans to study nights at Rutgers this year and work on the final semester of credits that will give him a bachelor's degree in military science and tactics.

FIRE COMPANY AUXILIARY PLANS FOR PARADE

Plans to take part in a parade at Portchester, N. Y., on Oct. 2 were made at a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Laurence Harbor Fire Company No. 1, held in the firehouse with Mrs. Harry Merwin presiding.

Mrs. William Weeks gave a report on the convention of the Ladies' Auxiliaries of the New Jersey Firemen's Association which was held in Atlantic City, at which Gov. Meyner was the guest speaker.

Attending the convention from the local auxiliary were Mrs. Harry Merwin, Mrs. Charles Wines, Mrs. Charles Corby and Mrs. Weeks.

The dark horse prizes were won by Mrs. Joseph Sandritter and Mrs. Weeks.

MADISON POLICE ARREST FOUR IN RECENT BURGLARIES

Madison Township police have charged four Laurence Harbor juveniles ages 12-14 with two separate burglaries which netted them an estimated $235 in loot. Most of the loot was recovered with the arrest of the quartet Tuesday night, who were turned over to county juvenile authorities Wednesday.

The burglaries occurred at the summer home of Mrs. Mary Hooyman of 231 Britten avenue and at the home of William Hayes of 130 Ely avenue, both Laurence Harbor.

The thieves netted about $160 in bulky household appliances and canned goods at the Hooyman home. Mrs. Hooyman, who resides in Clifton, also reported some damage to the fixtures in the house. Entry was gained through a basement window.

About $75 worth of fishing gear and canned food was taken from the Hayes home.

Rummage Sale

A rummage sale will be held Friday and Saturday, October 1 and 2 at 22 Broad street, Keyport. The sale, which opens at 9 a.m. is sponsored by the Laurence Harbor Community Church, Laurence Harbor.

ISSUE NEW ORDERS FOR MADISON TOWNSHIP POLICE

A list of 43 directives, aimed at revamping the creaking organizational framework under which the police department here is said to have been operating for the past 30 years, has been issued by Madison Township Committeeman James Robbins.

Most of the rules allude to normal police routine, accident dispositions, duty tours and general police procedures.

Several however, touch on the more troublesome areas in the recent wrangles between officials and patrolmen such as handling traffic wrecks.

It pays to advertise in this newspaper.

FUND-RAISING SHOW PLANNED

The Needlecraft Club of the Laurence Harbor Community Church will meet Monday evening in the church basement. The club in conjunction with the Brotherhood of the church is sponsoring a Hobo Dinner the following Wednesday, September 29th.

The dinner, which will be old fashioned beef stew served in tin cans begins a 5:30 p.m. Tickets for adults and children may be obtained from members of the Needlecraft Club of the Brotherhood of the church.

OVER 6,000 AT MATAWAN SQUAD CELEBRATION

The Matawan First Aid Squad marked its 20th anniversary Saturday with a parade, fireworks display and a block dance.

A crowd of 6,000 lined Main St., to see the parade, which consisted of 90 units in five divisions.

The line of march was down Main St., from the Freneau section to Railroad Plaza, where the

HARBOR LIONS CLUB HOLD FIRST SESSION

The first dinner meeting of the season was held by the Laurence Harbor Lions Club at Burlews Restaurant with President William Holden presiding.

The guest speaker on this occasion was Mr. P. T. Long, Supervisor of the Matawan Post of the Ground Observer Corps who spoke on "Plane Spotting and National Defense."

It was announced the October 25th meeting will be a combined zone meeting of the Lions Clubs of Perth Amboy, Fords, South Amboy and Laurence Harbor and will be held at Burlews Restaurant, Laurence Harbor.

District Governor Claud Harkins of Milltown, will attend the meeting of October 11th.

No date has definitely been set for the Ladies Night meeting which was earlier planned for October.

Dr. Edward G. Sheehan was welcomed as a new member.

TENTS WILL BE USED FOR STATE PARKWAY OPENING

Tents will be set up on Telegraph Hill in Holmdel October 23 for ceremonies marking the opening of the Garden State Parkway.

The tents will be large enough to afford shelter in case of rain for Gov. Meyner, former Gov. Driscoll and prominent Jerseyans who will be invited to the outdoor luncheon.

Mayor Katharine Elkus White of Red Bank, one of the three State Highway Authority commissioners, said she had studied the almanac and found there will be strong winds on the celebration date. This, she said, would make the tents quite a sensible forethought.

On the once-favorite locale of Indians in the early 1700's, the highway authority will build its headquarters. The location is between parkway interchanges 109 and 117.

The luncheon, because of limited accommodations, will be confined to officials and organization leaders who have roles in the development of the parkway, Mrs. White said.

All but 22 miles of the parkway will have been opened to traffic by the celebration date, from Irvington to Cape May.

marchers disbanded and were served refreshments. There were musical units at the front and rear of each division. Other units included floats, visiting fire departments, and first aid squads, and their equipment.

The Keyport Fire Department was awarded honorable mention among participating fire units for having the most equipment and most men in full uniform in the line of march.

The evening program began at 8:30 with fireworks at the high school athletic field. Prizes in the parade judging were awarded and a block dance was staged on Main St., at the postoffice.

Chief Flood said the program went off without trouble. He commended the Monmouth County Fire Police Association, whose members helped in controlling the parade crowd and handling traffic, which had to be diverted around Main St. He said the Manzo Construction Company furnished all barriers and other equipment used in traffic control.

FRUIT, VEGETABLE FARMING TOPIC OF RUTGERS COURSE

How to run a fruit farm and a vegetable farm and make them pay will be the subject of two 10-week courses which open at Rutgers University's College of Agriculture Oct. 11.

"Both fruit growing and vegetable production are highly specialized fields in New Jersey, Assistant Dean Westervelt Griffin of the College points out. "To be successful, one needs not only practical training but also a great deal of technical knowledge about soils, cultivation, pruning, disease and insect control and marketing. Both courses are designed to provide that technical information through lectures, discussions, laboratory work, demonstrations and actual practice in orchards, greenhouse and gardens."

The course is free to residents of New Jersey and is given during daytime hours. Although open to anyone interested in the subjects, the courses are designed primarily for persons who either earn their livings from these enterprises or would like to as farm owners or managers. Further information about the courses, as well as six others in various farm subjects, can be obtained from the office of the Dean, College of Agriculture, New Brunswick, N.J.

HEAD OF AIR DEFENSE IN AREA IN CEREMONIES

Major General Morris R. Nelson, commanding general of the Eastern Air Defense Force and responsible for the air defense of the most highly industrialized area in the United States will participate in the dedication ceremonies at the new Air Defense Filter Center in Trenton on Wednesday, September 22, it was announced by Leonard Dreyfuss, State Director of Civil Defense and Disaster Control.

At the same time Director Dreyfuss also announced that Brigadier General James W. McCauley, commanding the 26th Air Division with headquarters at Roslyn, L.I. would attend the dedication. General McCauley is responsible for the air defense plans for a portion of the New England states, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Delaware.

In addition to the concentration of industrial plants in the 19 states and the District of Columbia covered by General Nelson's command, the area contains more than 80,000,000 people, approximately 52 per cent of the nation's population. Among the metropolitan centers of population which come under the EADF Command are included: Detroit, the nation's No. 1 target city, New York City, Chicago, Philadelphia, Newark, Boston, Buffalo, Akron and Trenton.

YOUR GARDEN THIS WEEK

Lawn making and renovation is one of the jobs that should be done now, rather than in the spring. How you will go about it depends upon your individual circumstances. There is plenty of advice available, both in publications of the College of Agriculture and Experiment Station of Rutgers University and in the publicity matter of some of the lawn seed specialists.

If the lawn is poor, one of the first things the home owner thinks of is the need for topsoil. Good topsoil is expensive and hard to obtain.

If you are building a new lawn or if your lawn is in such poor shape that it needs complete renovation, examine your own soil well. Perhaps the incorporation of suitable amounts of organic matter, lime, and fertilizer will and fertilizer are added in the put the soil in shape for grass seed sowing. Many lawns fail because not enough organic matter beginning to encourage a good growth of grass.

If you have to buy topsoil, it should come from fields that have been under cultivation within the past few years. It should be friable, that is reasonably loose. It should be dark in color, showing the presence of organic matter. Even then, it might be advisable to add more of the latter in the form of old stable manure, humus or peat moss.

In spreading topsoil for the renovation of a poor lawn, people often make the mistake of putting it on too thick. The grass should be cut first and the clippings raked. Then a thin layer of the enriched top-dressing should be spread and worked down with the back of a rake or with a metal door mat dragged over it. Then another thin layer should be worked down.

PLAN CONFERENCE ON TRUNK SEWER WASTE HARM

A conference of all agencies concerned with the Middlesex County Trunk sewer will be held shortly, it was announced by Dr. Natale Colosi, a member of the Interstate Sanitation Commission.

Colosi, who is chairman of the Staten Island Borough President's Committee for the Abatement of Water Pollution, said he had been promised by Chester A. Lydecker, chairman of the Middlesex County Sewerage Authority, that authority officials were ready for such a meeting.

The authority members, Colosi explained, would confer with representatives of the New York City Health and Public Works Department, the State Conservation Department and the Interstate Sanitation Commissiin.

No date for the conference has been set but Colosi advised the meeting would be devoted to a full discussion of the sewer authority's plans.

Lydecker and Marsh B. Tipton, authority vice chairman, have promised full cooperation in seeing that sewage from the trunk line will not damage shellfish beds in the lower bay, Colosi said.

"We must make certain that this sewer does not damage our natural resources. We wish to make certain that the treatment that the authority plans to provide will be adequate and will eliminate all sources of contamination," Colosi concluded.

DRIVES UPON LAWN IN BORO, IT'S THE JUDGE'S

William Armour, 23 Second street, Matawan, drove his car up on the wrong lawn in Keyport the other day.

A car identified as belonging to him jumped a curb, tore up a lawn and skinned several trees in front of 135 Maple place. The car then turned back onto the street and motored away.

Keyport police found the car parked a short distance away at the corner of Maple place and Main street and through its license plates traced it to Armour. Matawan police were notified to inform Armour he was wanted in Keyport.

Arriving here, Armour told police here he was trying to avoid a collision with another car when he climbed the curb. He was not aware he had caused any damage, he said.

TWO HURT AS AUTOS COLLIDE

Matawan Township police reported that two men were injured in a two-car collision Wednesday on Route 35 near the Cliffwood avenue intersection.

Treated by the Cliffwood first aid squad and Dr. George Cowling Keyport, were William Dotysh, no address, for severe cuts of the face and legs; and Sam Hage, South River, for face cuts and leg bruises.

JURY CONTINUES PROBE OF AREA PHOTOGRAPHER

The holdover May session grand jury has resumed its probe of a Bayshore photographer accused of ambulance chasing and then making his accident pictures available through one lawyer.

The jury was in session for more than three hours.

Most of the witnesses called were the same ones who appeared at the jury's Aug. 24 session. These included a number of lawyers, who the prosecutor has said are "not implicated," police officers, and private citizens who reportedly have figured in accidents involved in the investigation.

New witnesses were two lawyers, John C. Stockel, Perth Amboy, and John J. Pagano, Bayonne, and William G. Low, Keansburg photographer. Mr. Low was the only witness at the afternoon session and was in the jury room about an hour.

Again called was Edward W. Wise, Jr., Red Bank attorney, who has identified himself as a complaining witness. He has said he filed an objection about the practice with Edward B. McConnell, administrative director of the courts, about a year ago.

Some of the witnesses waiting to be called said they testified about the same matter almost a year ago at a hearing before the ethics and grievance committee of the Monmouth Bar Association.

FURTHER PLANS FOR NEW BAZAAR

Plans for the turkey supper and booths sponsored by the Afternoon Group of the Guild scheduled for Oct. 13 were furthered at a meeting of the bazaar committee of St. Mary's Episcopal Church held in the rector's office. Harold Mitzenius is chairman.

It was announced the choir will sponsor a square dance in the parish hall and the Evening Guild will hold a card party in the parish house Oct. 14. Joseph Shumock was named chairman of the advertising committee.

WEEKLY TEST ON CHILD SAFETY

What's Your Answer?
The New Jersey Weekly Child Safety Quiz

The question below was asked of 30,000 New Jersey parents recently in a study of parental attitudes toward situations which may prove hazardous to children.

The study was the joint effort of the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers, the New Jersey State Safety Council, the New Jersey State Department of Health, and the National Safety Council.

It is endorsed by the Medical Society of New Jersey and the New Jersey Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics.

There is frequently more than one solution to a given situation. In the situations used in this series, however, there is one answer which would be the best of the four choices.

Check the answer which you think would be most likely to assure the safety of the child without being an unreasonable imposition on the parent. Then compare your answer with the one given below.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard realize that children must not only be protected but should also begin to learn about possible dangers as soon as they can understand. They believe that they can best begin teaching their 18-months-old Johnny the meaning of the word "hot" by

1. Saying "hot" while allowing him to touch something just warm enough to startle him so that he will understand the word "hot" when used as a warning.

2. Saying "no, no, hot!" to him and pulling him away each time he approaches any hot object such as a heater, a stove, or a heated iron.

3. Repeating the word "hot" and spanking him whenever he gets dangerously near a hot object which may injure him.

4. Demonstrating the meaning themselves by pretending to touch a hot object quickly and then exclaiming "ouch, ouch, hot!"

Dr. Renee Zindwer, Chief of the Bureau of Maternal and Child Health of the New Jersey State Department of Health, who prepared the questions in consultation with the Professional Examination Service of the American Public Health Association, advises as follows with reference to the situation:

Number 1 is the most adequate answer in this situation because it brings in the element of experience so important in the learning process. Choice number 2 may be necessary in some situations but depended upon solely will not accomplish the purpose which the Howards have in mind; namely, teaching the child. We definitely reject answer number 3, spanking may be a relief of tension for parents but never accomplishes anything constructive. As far as answer number 4 is concerned, isn't it a rather inefficient teaching method?

TEST YOURSELF FOR SAFE DRIVING

What Do You Know About The New Jersey Point System For Motorists?
Test 16

Which one of the choices given below best completes the statement? Underline your choice. Correct answers are given under the test.

1. Under the law, New Jersey magistrates must make a report to the Division of Motor Vehicles of all cases involving violations of the Traffic and Motor Vehicle statutes. All violations are charged against the motorist's driving record on a point basis. A motorist will be required to show cause why his driving privilege should not be revoked if he accumulates 12 points within: (A) 1 year, (B) 3 years, (C) 5 years.

2. Anyone driving or permitting another to drive, while under the influence of alcohol or drugs will be charged with: (A) 4 points, (B) 8 points, (C) 12 points.

3. For exceeding the speed limit a motorist will be charged with: (A) 4 points, (B) 3 points, (C) 5 points.

4. For leaving the scene of an accident a motorist will be charged with: (A) 4 points, (B) 6 points, (C) 8 points.

5. A motorist involved in a fatal accident (if held responsible) will be charged with: (A) 8 points, (B) 10 points, (C) 12 points.

Prepared for the "Slow Down And Live" Campaign by the New Jersey Bureau of Traffic Safety.

Answers

1. (B); 2. (C); 3. (A); 4. (C); 5. (C). Scores of 4-5 are superior; 3 good, under 3 poor.

MASONIC LEADERS SPEAK HERE

Among those present were Sir Knight William R. Wheelan, right eminent grand commander of the Commandery for New Jersey, Charles F. Andrews, illustrious potentate of Crescent Temple, Trenton, and James H. Haas, illustrious potentate of Salaam Temple, Newark.

Mr. Haas outlined the work of Masons in supporting 17 hospitals for crippled children. A check was presented to the potentates for the crippled children's fund.

Pearl Marie Bogh Is Bride of Area Man

The wedding of Miss Pearl Marie Bogh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bogh of 143 Shoreland Circle, Laurence Harbor, to Walter T. Toth, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Toth of 396 Mechanic street, Perth Amboy, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in St. Mary's R. C. Church, Perth Amboy. The Rev. Edward Mowis officiated.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Raymond Bogh of New Brunswick. She wore a waltz length gown of Chantilly lace, designed with an accordion pleated skirt. A headpiece of seed pearls held the fingertip length veil of illusion in place and she carried a colonial bouquet of roses, centered with an orchid.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Hutka of Nixon. On return from a wedding tour of New England, Saturday, they will reside at the Perth Amboy address. For traveling, the bride wore a teal blue dress with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Toth attended Sayreville High School and is employed by Birnn's Home Made Chocolates, Perth Amboy. Her husband attended Middlesex County Boys Vocational and Technical High School and is an employee of the General Cable Corp., Perth Amboy.

Mae Cavagnaro Is Recent Church Bride

Before an altar decorated with gladioluses and palms, Miss Mae Cavagnaro, daughter of Mrs. Mary Cavagnaro, Prospect avenue, River Gardens, Cliffwood and the late John Cavagnaro, became the bride of Vincent Pizzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Pizzi, Cliffwood avenue, Cliffwood Beach, Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in St. Joseph's Church, Keyport.

The Rev. Cornelius Kane, pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Michael Cox was soloist and Miss Loretta Durante was accompanist.

Given in marriage by her brother, Charles Cavagnaro, Cliffwood, the bride wore a full-length gown of Chantilly lace made with a standing Queen Anne collar, long pointed sleeves, and ruffled tulle on a skirt ending in a chapel train. Her fingertip-length veil of French illusion fell from a queen's crown of seed pearls and rhinestones and she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses with a lavender orchid in the center.

Mrs. Carl Stabile, Matawan, was matron of honor. Her waltz-length gown of shrimp-colored tulle and satin was made with a sweetheart neckline, three-quarter sleeves, and a ruffled skirt. She wore a Juliet cap of shrimp-colored tulle studded with rhinestones and carried a basket of Talisman roses.

Miss Ruth Anne Pizzi, Cliffwood Beach, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Her gown was nile green, styled like that of the matron of honor, and she also carried a basket of Talisman roses.

Linda Tinore, Cliffwood, the flower girl, was dressed like the matron of honor. She carried a miniature basket of the same roses.

The best man was Joseph Cavagnaro, Cliffwood, brother of the bride. Ushers were Alfred Pizzi, Cliffwood Beach, brother of the bridegroom; Michael Benesta, Cliffwood, cousin of the bride; and Robert Baccichi, Cliffwood.

Carmen Pizzi, Cliffwood Beach, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore an aqua taffeta cocktail-length dress with an aqua hat and black accessories. The mother of the bridegroom selected a navy blue dress of lace and satin with navy hat and accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

For their wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains, the bride wore a navy blue gabardine suit with a red hat and red accessories and an orchid corsage.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Matawan High School. Mr. Pizzi served with the U.S. Army in Japan during the Korean War and is now employed at the American Smelting

MATAWAN PTA HEARS CURRIE OUTLINE PLANS

Edward E. Currie, president of the Matawan Township Board of Education, speaking at the first meeting of the season of the Matawan Parent-Teacher Association for the school year 1954-55 held in Matawan High School, said the board expects to hold the election for the approval of a bond issue for the erection of a new elementary school building on the Church street, school property as soon as possible.

Currie intimated the bond for the building would be ready within the next 60 days. Bids for the building were received by the board and referred for tabulation at a special meeting held on Aug. 27.

Robert Hardie, principal of the elementary school, introduced the members of the faculty to association members. Each teacher was presented with a corsage.

The theme of the association for 1954-55 is to bring the parents and teachers into a better understanding of each other.

The meeting was followed by a social in the high school cafeteria.

Newly elected officers in charge of the association this year are: Mrs. Daniel Rinear, Jr., president; Mrs. John Skehan, vice president; Mrs. Fred G. Hammond, recording secretary; Mrs. Stanley F. Bartram, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Harry Aube, treasurer.

MCOSS FAIR AND PET SHOW BUGS, GONE TO DOGS

Bugs will come in for special attention at the Pet Show and Fair, September 25 at the Holmdel Grape Farm when a special prize will be awarded the child who enters the most unusual insect. The insect class, a new feature in the Monmouth County Organization for Social Service traditional family outing is one of the many divisions of the pet show which is set up to include almost every member of the animal kingdom.

The show which will start at 10 a.m. will have a turtle race, prizes for largest and smallest pets, and groups for birds, poultry, rodents, fish, goats, reptiles and ponies under 12 hands in addition to the more accepted pets.

Costume classes will include an annual family in appropriate setting and child and animal enacting a familiar story theme. Dogs will be judged for condition, longest tail, greatest mixture, most interesting cross breed, largest dog with smallest handler and smallest dog with largest handler, children's handling, obedience novice and open. Puppies will have a special class.

The most comical and the most exotic cats will be chosen along with the best condition, largest, longest whiskers and prettiest kitten. The pet show is open to all children 18 years old and under. Entries may be made with Miss Jeanne Du Bois, Freehold. The miscellaneous animals will be judged first.

Judges named to date will include Mrs. Garrison King and Mrs. Anita Lissner, Rumson; Mrs. Theron McCampbell, Holmdel; Mrs. Laura B. Donovan, Freehold; and Albert Smith, Middletown Township.

There will also be sales of trash and treasure, home canned goods, cakes and pies, fruits and vegetables and shrubbery; a freckle faced contest and a search for a needle in a haystack. There will be games and lunch will be served on the grounds.

All Heating Oils Are Not Alike

15 Years of Shell Research Overcomes A Major Cause of Oil Burner Service Calls

Clogged filter screens have been recognized for years as a major cause of oil burner service calls.

Shell Research spent 15 years developing a way to combat screen clogging. The result was FOA-5X, an additive that is now in every gallon of Shell Furnace Oil.

During three years of exhaustive testing of FOA-5X in thousands of homes not a single case of burner failure due to a clogged filter screen was reported.

For carefree heat all season, switch to Shell Furnace Oil with FOA-5X. It costs no more than ordinary heating oils. Call us today. We'll make all the arrangements.

How understanding of the spiritual nature of reality brings enduring health, harmony, and progress—will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Reality" includes the following selection from the King James Version of the Bible (I Peter 1:24, 25): "For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you."

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians (1:31): "As it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord."
