RAHWAY, THURSDAY, MAY 9th, 1867.

BY AUTHORITY

LAWS OF NEW JERSEY

An act to prevent frauds by persons employed in the manufacture of silk, and to punish the criminal possession of silk and other fabrics

1. Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That if any person or persons who shall be hired or employed to perform work in any silk or other manufacture shall purloin, embezzle, secrete, sell or otherwise wrongfully dispose of any of the materials with which he, she or they shall be respectively entrusted, whether the same or any part thereof be or have been manufactured into merchantable ware or not be finished or unfinished, he, she or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

2. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall buy, receive, acquire or take by way of gift, sale, exchange or in any other manner, from any person or persons employed as aforesaid, any silk or any materials which form a component part of any silk or any materials shall be in a manufactured or in an unfinished state, knowing the person or persons who shall be doing the same to be employed as aforesaid or employed to take the same into his or their possession, or shall be employed as aforesaid, at the time of receiving the first instance of the concealment of any person or persons so acting or employed as aforesaid, or shall offer to sell, pawn, pledge, exchange or otherwise dispose of the said materials, or shall buy, receive, acquire or take, in any manner whatever, of or from any person or persons whomsoever, any silk or material of silk or materials of silk, unfinished, knowing the same to be purloined or embezzled, then and in every such case the person or persons so buying, receiving, acquiring or taking any such silk or silk materials shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

3. And be it enacted, That any justice of the peace, upon complaint made by any credible person, upon oath by any such person or persons, that there is cause to suspect that any person hired or employed as aforesaid, has purloined or embezzled any such silk or silk materials, or mixed or compounded the same with other or inferior silk or materials, or has sold or otherwise disposed of the same, or any part thereof, or has secreted the same, that such person or persons may be searched, and shall be searched, by any constable or other person, under his direction, in the day time, in any house, dwelling house, or other place, or in any building, or in any yard, or in any place or enclosure, belonging to or occupied by such person or persons, or in any place or enclosure, in which such person or persons may be, or be suspected to be, and such silk or silk materials, if found, shall be seized and secured, and the person or persons in whose possession the same shall be found, shall be arrested and brought before such justice of the peace, to be dealt with according to law.

4. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who may be injured by any such offence, or any person or persons who may be suspected of any such offence, may be a witness in such case, and any such person or persons who may be suspected of any such offence, may be compelled to give evidence in any such case, and be protected as other witnesses are by law.
