Special Meeting Is Called On New Beach Referendum

Miss Virginia Sink, president of the Boca Raton Junior Chamber of Commerce, will be the principal speaker at the annual southern regional conference here this weekend.

The conference, head- ed by the Boca Raton Soroptimist Club, opens Friday at the Boca Raton Hotel and Club. Miss Sink will speak at the annual dinner banquet. The conference's general chairman is Miss Announce Maria of Maryland. The Soroptimist southern region governor, will present at the conference banquet, will serve as toastmaster. Theme for the con- ference is the "Adventures of Education," and the local club members will greet their guests during the evening. The conference will also include meetings of the Soroptimist clubs in Florida, Tennessee, and Alaska.

The board of directors presented the first annual "Welcome to Boca Raton" sign to the chamber at last week's dinner. The sign's sign is "Welcome to Boca Raton," and will be placed on the plaza. The sign will serve as a reminder, and will help the chamber in its efforts to attract tourists to the area. The board will also serve as a reminder to the chamber in its efforts to attract tourists to the area.

The chamber's resolution noted that "in accordance with the chamber's program, to encourage busi- ness and industry to the area, we encourage the chamber to support the College Building Bonds program." The chamber will also serve as a reminder to the chamber to support the College Building Bonds program.

AROUND the Town

By Lillian Avery

National School lunch is close. It is Oct. 13-19 and a good opportunity to view the cafeteria "open house." Our three schools participate wholeheartedly.

The meals are cooked in a special modern kitchen, and the teachers, by the teachers. Knowing how hard the performance of our students and the work of the teachers in giving them a balanced meal in the school cafeteria.

We are very happy with the service. The teachers, by the teachers.

The meal is special, delicious.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Family and Dr. and Mrs. Richard Harvey, who were in town during the last month, have a month's trip to Chicago and Disneyland. They also visited the school cafeteria.

Gold Coast Shrine Club Will Host Ceremonial

Upwards of 1000 South Florida Shrine Brothers and their guests will converge on Boca Raton next week for the "Gold Coast Ceremonials," according to Cecil J. Mobbs, illustrious potenteate of Malta Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S., who recently returned from the first of several custom meetings held in England by Foley Packaging in London and represented Insulation of London, England, met here last week to discuss manufacturing techniques and processes. James Becker, left, Dura-Tech president, discusses expanded polystyrene molding press, with Ronald R. Berlis, director of Foley Packaging in Boca Raton office, William R. Gay and Jack Willis from the Atlantic office and Frank W. Hoy and Verna Sidwell from the Cleveland plant.

That's right. This fine two-bedroom, both Rutenberg Homes can be bought for less than four cents a pound. Figure it this way: The Laurel costs less per pound than salt or sugar ... or bread or milk, but, of course, who buys 147 tons of those items. Of course, no one buys a house by the pound but it is interesting just how much value you get in a Rutenberg Home. Whether a house is priced by the pound, or any other way, your true value is not entirely in the concrete, wood, and other materials that go into the construction. The reputation and integrity of the builder is most important in any home purchase. If the builder uses the finest materials and the best of craftsmen and then stands behind the home in a personal guarantee, you have value that cannot be measured in pounds. Rutenberg Homes are recognized throughout Florida and the nation as representing the very finest in design, craftsmanship and materials. But, in addition, Rutenberg guarantees every home for one full year and backs that guarantee with a service program that includes four regular inspections during the year. Such a guarantee could only be given by the best school. Whether you buy this lovely Laurel model, by Rutenberg, by the pound or any other way, it will still only cost $1390, built on your lot, and a line of personal guarantee, your Rutenberg Counselor will help find just the right lot for your Rutenberg Home. See the Laurel and other beautifully furnished model homes, open daily for your inspection. Record Crowd on Hand for Columbus Day Barbecue

By Lilian Avery

Columbus Day dawned bright and clear. At the Boca Raton Club an army of helpers were putting final touches on what became one of the most exciting fund-raising projects of the Debutante-Serv- ice League. It was the Community barbecue.

At 3 p.m., the crowd started to arrive and a steady stream entered the patio for the next four or five hours. There was continuous service of food. Everyone enjoyed all of the many dishes that were prepared by volunteer chefs for the big event.

The food was served under the open sky; there was plenty of dancing and entertainment. There were booths selling various goods by members of the club. There were games for the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Len Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Heck, all of Boca Square, were visiting while waiting for eatables. "Come get your Cokes," John Hopkins (front right) calls. The Coke stand was manned by the U.M. Hopkins family of Boca Villas. Standing at back from left are Nance Avery, Pam, Vee and Hoppy. The contented customers in front are Paul Avery and Danny Dinse.

Report Cards Out, Parents’ ‘Day in School’ Set Friday

By Cary Kamerman

You know what? I’ve never introduced myself to you. So here’s a little bit of me, or at least some of me. I am in the senior class at Seacrest. After graduation I plan to attend college, possibly the University of Miami, and I have already planned to major in Broadcast Journalism. I am also involved in the local newspaper, The Boca Raton News, and have had the opportunity to work on the 1964-65 General Electric TV’s advertising campaign.

The students were given a chance to see the commercials during a training seminar conducted by Hotze. The students were interested in the new features of the General Electric TV’s and asked questions about the technical aspects of the new model. The seminar was well attended, with many students participating in the discussion.

The National Honor Society will begin its campaign to support the school’s new TV project. The society will sponsor a number of events and fundraisers to help raise the necessary funds. The students are eagerly anticipating the arrival of the new TV and the start of the new school year.

The report cards came out today. They were a mixed bag of grades, with some students performing well and others struggling. The students are now preparing for the upcoming semester, with many looking forward to the challenge of the new classes.

The students were also given a chance to see the new TV advertising campaign during the seminar. The students were impressed by the high-quality production and the new features of the General Electric TV’s. They are excited about the new TV and the start of the new school year.

... and Sparky was there, too!

Pepplin.ers from the Florida Junior Academy toured the Boca Raton Fire Department last week during the city's observance of Fire Prevention Week. Under the direction of Mrs. Alan S. Weber, the students concentrated most of their attention on the department's 1,000-gallon pumper, Engine No. 10. Fireman Lou Papitto — most of the children in town think he's named "Sparky" — was on hand to assist the youngsters.

Time for a Checkup?

Who knows, maybe it is. After all, you get a checkup on everything else — your body, your kids, the car. So why not your investments, too? After all, these things can change and so can security values. The stock you bought five years ago may have been just fine for your purposes then, but what about now? Maybe your objectives have changed. Maybe either stocks offer better opportunities. Maybe there are defaults which open here and there in your portfolio.

That's why we think every investor should get a good financial checkup from time to time. And not just after his investment program looks like a practical, im-

But financial checkups are vital, and if you'd like to know what sort of think the stocks you own, we'll be happy to talk about your present portfolio. If you'd like a "checkup" on any particular stocks you may own, just ask us, and we'll perform a complete investment program for you.

There's no charge for this service, either. Whether you're a customer or not. If you'd like an investment checkup, just write us a letter outlining your own situation and objectives. You simply address:

The second week in October is set aside each year as “National Newspaper Week.” Thousands of the weekly and daily newspapers of the nation pause during this week to once again restate their objectives, to again pledge their responsibility to the community, and to in again thank the many people who make the newspaper possible.

Since its establishment a few short years ago, the Boca Raton News, even though it has had several owners and publishers, has continually stood four-square for the community newspapers we report to you each week on strictly local events, for the best possible LOCAL news.

The News also tries to be a watchful protector of community rights. It tries to reflect the change in our town’s wall being.

We believe that the Boca Raton News is one of the most literate, influential, and persuasive forces to have been brought into this community and combat those we think detrimental to our town’s well being.

Of course, since all staff members of the News are only human, we often feel that we do not accomplish as much as we should. But we sincerely strive to give you the best possible LOCAL newspaper it is possible to produce.

The Boca Raton News each and every week carries editorial, news and advertising in its columns, thus influencing the daily lives and mental growth of all of our area.

For the benefit of the Boca Raton News and the local community it serves, we present the following statements by and about the Boca Raton News.

BOCA Raton News' 1st Annual CRUSADE FOR SAFETY

Drivers kill and cripple more children than any disease!

You've helped curb pneumonia, cancer, polio, and other terrible diseases. But how about careless drivers? They kill and cripple more children from 1 to 14 years than any major disease. You can do something. Just write to your local enforcement officials.

I support strict law enforcement!

When traffic laws are strictly enforced and obeyed, traffic deaths and accidents are greatly reduced. We have a safe community if we expect it, plan for it, and enforce it.
