The Quill

The people of Clark can take heart in the recent decision of the Board of Adjustment to turn down the application of Alfred Prosperi to erect a car wash on School Street. The traffic problems and safety hazards which would have resulted from such a busy business in such a congested area were obvious. The Board acted well in denying the application, we feel.

But even more important, as far as Clark is concerned, is the fact that "the people" can affect the workings of our government if they care enough to do so. The people of School Street voiced such strong protests that public officials could not help but listen to their plea. We applaud the actions of these residents -- and of the Board which considered the matter. See what can be done if you're willing to work hard enough? Not all problems can be solved to some such satisfaction, but some can.

It's summer time now -- but fall and "back-to-school" are soon to follow. Our big "Back-to-School" issue is planned for August 31. To reserve space now call our advertising department at 388-0600 today!

And thinking of "back-to-school" maybe a suggestion now is in order. With the return of the children to school comes the return of the school crossing guards to our corners.

Many of the crossing guards do an excellent job of protecting our children all year. But many do not. It seems to us that the responsibility of the guards is to get the children safely across the streets -- not to spend a lot of time directing traffic and not to stop all cars the minute a child approaches an intersection.

We realize that our Police Department is very busy but maybe some sort of training course could be established for all crossing guards. Spending a week studying the rules of safety, observing Policemen on the job, and practicing hand signals would certainly be of benefit.

Are you a resident of Clark -- 21 years old or over -- who'd like to serve the people of your community?

The Clark Volunteer Emergency Squad has openings now for new members -- maybe you'd like to be among them. The township is very proud of its dedicated, well-trained emergency squad staff. The members, all volunteers, give much of their time and energy to Clark.

But we're a growing community -- and more members are required to meet our community needs.

Just to give you an example of what the squad does: During June the volunteers answered 68 calls -- 43 emergency cases, 20 transportation cases and 5 miscellaneous calls.

If you're interested in becoming a member why not call the president -- Joseph Good at 381-8437.

There's A Highway of Reading Fun For Youngsters At Clark Library

Clark youngsters are driving out for summer enjoyment and learning on a Highway of Reading Fun at the Clark Public Library. The Summer Reading Program at the Clark Public Library has scored a hit with boys and girls in grades 1-6.

So far, 233 enthusiastic youngsters -- 103 in grades

1-3 and 130 in grades 4-6 -- have signed up for the program. Each one is eager to read twenty books and get a prize.

When children register, they are given a colorful membership card and a reading record - folder. Their names are then written on a paper - racing car and placed on the parking lot of the table - top bulletin - board.

On the bulletin - board is a highway lined with trees. To get out of the parking lot on to the highway, youngsters must read five books.

When 10 books are read, a youngster is given a bookmark with his name on it. When 15 books are read, the youngster is given a certificate of achievement. Those reading 20 books will receive their prize in September. Three young "book drivers" have already merited certificates: the Misses Kathleen Semansky, Anne Marrone, and Carolyn Cifelli.

For the first 10 books, boys and girls must read books in subjects in which they have a special interest. These books must be chosen with the guidance of the children's librarian. Boys and girls reading their second names will have their names written on a leaf, hung on trees along the highway. Their car is then parked in special subject lot beside the tree.

The purpose of the Clark Library's Summer Reading Program is to encourage youngsters to read during the summer months. And, at the same time, the program gives the children's librarian a chance to know these youngsters and to guide their reading into the area of their special interest.

Those students whose hobbies originated and developed as a result of the program will have their hobbies exhibited in the fall. Mrs. Margaret Shipley, the children's librarian is on duty Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Fridays from 9 to 5 p. m. during the summer.

There is still time for boys and girls to sign up. Everyone is welcome. So "drive in" on the summer reading fun.

Clark Students Can Prepare For College

Senior students of the Class of 1968 of Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School are being given the opportunity to make early preparations for college placement by attending summer individual counseling sessions at the high school.

Philip P. Riso, senior counselor, reports that approximately fifty students are taking advantage of attending these sessions and are reporting to the Guidance Office on pre-arranged designated days. The program has proved extremely valuable to those who can qualify for Early Decision Plans and also to those who wish to get a head start in future planning.

Any seniors who still wish an appointment for the weeks of August 14 and 21 may feel free to contact the Guidance Office of the school.

Council Moves To Fingerprint Bartenders, Mobilize Police, Firemen

By unanimous vote, members of the Clark Council voted Monday evening to require that all bartenders working within the township be fingerprinted. The Council passed the ordinance with an amendment introduced by Councilman Kaczmarek. The amendment, which passed by a 5-2 vote along party lines, stipulated that tavern owners who also act as bartenders do not need to be fingerprinted. Fourth Ward Councilman Kaczmarek said when the ordinance was introduced that he was not in favor of having owners fingerprinted. At that time, he voted against the introduction of the ordinance which required that anyone who tends bar in a Clark tavern be fingerprinted. "It's not that I don't want to keep 'undesirables' out of Clark," said the Councilman in explaining his opposition, "but I can't see making people who've owned a tavern here for almost 40 years be fingerprinted now just because they also tend bar in their establishments."

In other ordinances passed on final reading, Council approved the overtime pay for policemen amendment to the Police personnel policy ordinance.

Introduced for action were ordinances which provide for the purchase of additional road department equipment and appropriating $6,500 for that purpose; the construction of paving, curbing and storm sewer on Emerald Place and appropriating $50,600 for that work; the mobilization of the Clark Police and Fire Departments in the case of emergency; and work on Pumpkin Patch Road. Each ordinance was passed for introduction and the public hearing on each is set for Aug. 28.

During the public portion of the meeting, Morris Roth, a former Clark reporter for the "Daily Journal", commented on recent riots and the fact that Clark is Union County's only all-white community and took the township to task for "not opening our doors" to negroes. Mr. Roth cited the educational, residential and business opportunities of Clark in the township and said that he was very proud of them. "I'd feel prouder, though, if Clark was doing its share to improve our country," he said.

In answer to Mr. Roth's comments, Mayor William Maguire said that to his knowledge "no barriers to prevent others than Caucasians from moving into Clark" exist in the township. "Regardless of how we feel here, there are still federal laws," to be observed in preventing discrimination, the Mayor said.

Following the meeting, many residents remained in the Council chambers to air their views on the matter. "Don't you read the papers?" one resident asked. "The negroes don't want to live with us either." "Now you're going to start a riot right here," another said. "Why should I pay the taxes I do in Clark and have to live near negroes?" I asked a third resident.

One resident, Mel Goldstein, who has been a Clark homeowner for two years, said that he'd lived in Newark and could understand the reasons for the riots. But he disagreed heatedly with Mr. Roth's ideas on inviting negroes to live in Clark. His main reason for doing so, he said, was not to deny anyone any civil rights. "I think everyone should have his civil rights respected," Mr. Goldstein said. "and I think everyone has a right to vote, live where he wants and go to school." "But," he emphasized, "I feel very strongly that civic responsibility should be on the same level as civil rights. The people who are rioting don't want any part of civic responsibility."

Davidson Elected Director

Cuddie E. Davidson Jr. has been elected to the board of directors of the Clark State Bank and Trust Company. Davidson, a partner in the Westfield law firm of Davidson and Buttermore, replaces Paul Cory, who resigned from the bank board because of the pressures of other business.

Mr. Davidson, who lives at 227 Jefferson Avenue, Westfield, is a graduate of Union Junior College, Rutgers University and School of Law. A former assistant Union County prosecutor, he is town attorney in Westfield and a member of the American, New Jersey and Union County Bar Associations. He is also a member of the Westfield Rotary Club and the Echo Lake Country Club. He is also a member of the board of trustees of Union Junior College.

Final Tax Bills Mailed Increase - $59

Does it seem as if you're paying a double tax increase this year?

Final 1967 tax bills were mailed in June. Since that time, this office has received numerous calls from taxpayers concerning notification of increased tax payments by their respective mortgage holders.

The present tax rate of $6 per $100 valuation represents a 59 point increase over last year. On a home valued at $20,000 and assessed at 50% of value, or $10,000 this represents a tax increase of $59.00 per year, or approximately $4.92 per month. Mortgage companies, in establishing new monthly payments, usually double the monthly tax increase, in order to accumulate sufficient money in escrow over a six month period, to enable them to pay the quarterly tax bills as they come due. Taxpayers erroneously interpret this double tax payment as purely their tax increase, being unaware that half of this amount is a tax escrow payment established by the mortgage company.

Clark Men On Summer Staff At Union Junior

Richard Squillace of 30 Douglas drive, and Barry P. Surett of 83 Victoria Drive, both of Clark, are among 30 persons serving on the Summer Session faculty at Union Junior College, Cranford.

There 652 students from more than 150 colleges and universities throughout the country enrolled in Union Junior College's annual Summer Session, according to Prof. Farris S. Swackhamer of Cranford, director. Forty freshman and sophomore credit courses in liberal arts, engineering, science, and business administration are being offered in the Day and Evening Session.

Convictions Upheld On Former Officials

A state appeals court upheld the convictions of five former Clark officials for conspiring to extort $5,000 from a zoning board applicant on Friday.

The five, Siggo Hejsekbak, Victor H. Cordone, E. Harry Kifo and Harold Harris, all members of the 1964 Municipal Council, and Joseph Smith, then director of public works, were convicted of conspiracy March 11, 1966, after a three-week trial in Union County Court.

Each was fined $1,000 and sentenced to three months in jail, but County Judge Ervin S. Fulop postponed execution of sentence pending the appeal.

Defense attorney David I. Stepanoff of Perth Amboy based the appeal to the Appellate Division of Superior Court on the arguments that the indictments of his clients were faulty and the trial judge's instructions to the jury were confusing.

The men were convicted of conspiracy in connection with a $5,000 bribe for favorable action on a zoning variance sought by the late Robert E. Lee, a funeral director.

Mr. Lee, who sought to convert his Madison Hill Road residence into a funeral home, was the state's star witness in the conspiracy trial. Four days of the trial were devoted to determining that Lee was mentally competent to testify.

Mr. Lee died reportedly of a cerebral hemorrhage in a Belleville hospital at the age of 38, a month after the trial.

The six-week Summer Session will continue through August 4.

Mr. Squillace is teaching English composition in UJC's Summer Session. He earned his bachelor of science at New York University and his master of science degree at Rutgers University.

Mr. Surett earned his bachelor of science degree at Rutgers University and his master of arts degree at New York University. Mr. Surett is instructing principles of accounting at UJC.

A BAD CORNER -- but very much improved now with the installation of a traffic light. The corner of Clark's Valley Road, Broadway and Walnut Avenue intersection had been a traffic and safety hazard for many years, but this month work was completed on the installation of a traffic light at the busy corner. One added suggestion though, the placement of "Move on Green Only" sign is needed for drivers who come down Walnut Avenue and make a right hand turn toward the parkway circle. Some drivers have been veering off against the light to the right around sand bags placed at the intersection.

Remember the tortoise and the hare? Both would be chumps in today's highway traffic. The Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company says: Don't travel too fast for prevailing road or street conditions. You may lose the race with death. On the other hand, don't be a turtle and obstruct the flow of traffic. Too fast -- too slow -- somebody's sure to get hurt.

Jaycees Tour

Rahway Hospital

Rahway Hospital Director John Yoder and Assistant Director George Argast with the help of Mrs. Brenner, Director of Nursing, guided the Rahway Jaycees on a 57 minute tour.

The Emergency Generators were also a highlight of the tour. Mr. Yoder directed Jaycee attention to 3 huge generators that will keep all hospital services functioning during a public power failure.

Mr. Argast demonstrated the unique video tape machine that will permit the hospital to reach staff members latest techniques via television. Rahway Hospital being the first in the State to offer this facility.

The Jaycees thank Mr. Yoder and his fine staff for an interesting and informative evening.

Vice President Daniel Martin plans meetings and tours of other Rahway facilities. Jaycees seek to understand the goals and needs of the City of Rahway.

Want To Repeal The Sales Tax?

CAST, the New Jersey Committee Against a Sales Tax, now considers it holds the key to a major issue in this year's election of a new legislature.

At its headquarters, 308 Jackson Ave., Jersey City, officers of the organization are pondering the most effective use of petitions containing a half-million signatures of New Jersey citizens urging repeal of the sales tax enacted last year.

Possibilities include presentation of the petitions to the current legislature, appeals to candidates in the June primary and Nov. general election, or presentation to the new legislature.

"We have a unique situation in which every seat in both houses of the legislature must be filled in the coming election, and we want to make sure that all candidates in all parties properly assess the temper of the people on this issue," said Harry F. Salomon, state chairman of CAST.

"Once candidates realize that 500,000 of their fellow citizens are on record as advocating repeal of the sales tax, we expect candidates in June and Nov. to place this plank in their platforms.

"We hope to support actively primary and general election candidates for the legislature who oppose the sales tax, and to oppose those who back the sales tax.

"Our position remains what it has been since this tax was first proposed--that it is the most unfair form of taxation because it penalizes those who can least afford it."

CAST is seeking contributions to support its drive for repeal of the sales tax.

"Ours is a non-partisan approach to the coming elections," Mr. Salomon noted. "We expect candidates in both major parties in the coming primaries to advocate repeal of the sales tax, and we are sure they will find tremendous response from the electorate.

"Our biggest problem is that of obtaining financing for the statewide program necessary to present our side of the issue to the millions of New Jersey voters.

"Ours is a grass-roots organization. We must count on the people for aid. We cannot expect help from the big industrial forces which pressured passage of the sales tax. Unless retailers and consumers back this campaign with their dollars and their votes our lawmakers will never fully realize how widespread is the opposition to the sales tax.

"Silent fury changes no laws."

CAST warned of possible increases in the sales tax and enactment of other broad-based taxes unless opposition to these levies is made known, clearly and emphatically, to all candidates for legislative seats.

Planting Blends Garage, Driveway Into Home Scene

The garage and its driveway can be a very attractive part of the home landscape. A home garage looks box-like when there is no foundation planting to blend the structure into the landscape. The garage requires a foundation planting the same as the home, and an otherwise beautiful property often can be spoiled without it.

This is also true of driveways which could be made much more delightful by planting perennials, shrubs, or ground covers as a border. Visitors get their first impression of a home as they come up the driveway, whether it is a long or short drive.

The homeowner would do well to consider planting the home garage as part of his improvement program. It may require only a few flowering shrubs or evergreens at the front corners where the garage is at the extreme rear of the property.

Usually where the garage is part of the house, the house foundation planting includes the garage, the planting being an extension of the former. Sometimes a couple of climbing roses or other vines on each side of the garage doors will do.

In cases where the sides and rear of the garage are visible from the rest of the property a few evergreens and flowering shrubs, or a low tree whose branches may extend over part of the roof, when combined with lower shrubs will tie the structure into the landscape.

Any plants that will keep the garage from looking like a sore thumb will help.

There are two solutions to planting a driveway.

The first is to make two long narrow beds and plant permanent shrubs, both evergreen and flowering.

Florida roses make a splendid border for a drive as do numerous other flowering shrubs, such as azaleas, spirea, forsythia or any one of probably a hundred or more shrubs that do well in your neighborhood climate.

Another solution to make the drive more attractive is to plant the beds with perennials. Thus you can have the early-flowering perennials followed by those that flower in the summer, such as delphiniums and phlox, followed by fall chrysanthemums.

Drinking Drivers Are No. 1 Menace

The drinking driver is still the nation's number one menace on the road, according to Motor Club of America, the largest organization of motorists in New Jersey. Over 50% of all motor vehicle accidents involve mixing drinking with driving notes MCA Safety Director, Fred Rosenberg, and an article appearing in the MEDICAL TRIBUNE implicates alcohol in from 40 to 75% of all fatal automobile accidents.

What do these figures mean? Simply, they show without much doubt -- for they are representative of a wide range of data and literature that has been reviewed by the editors of TRAFFIC SAFETY magazine -- that alcohol is still the major factor in traffic accidents and fatalities.

One of the major questions asked by safety experts is: Who is this menace and how do we recognize him or her? The studies have shown that, although the "drunk" driver is obviously dangerous, he is not the biggest menace. According to MCA's Safety Director, "the drunk" wearing slowly down the road is easily seen and avoided. The so - called social drinker is far more dangerous.

"The driver who has just enough alcohol in his system to release inhibitions or who has reached the stage of apparent stimulation is the one who relaxes his moral code, which means that he tends to abandon normal precautions . . . it is unfortunate that this 'superman' complex is acquired when physical and mental ability have been impaired by alcohol. All too often the result is measured in terms of death and destruction."

The misconception about alcohol and driving has historically been, "Watch out for the drunk driver." The big problem as noted by MCA is really the drinking driver -- the one who had a few beers or highballs and doesn't recognize that his judgment, reflexes and vision are impaired. For this reason, New Jersey recently passed the so - called Impaired Driver bill lowering to .10% or more by weight of alcohol in the driver's blood, the basis for considering him impaired or legally drunk.

"SECONDS" MERCHANDISE SAVE OR WASTE MONEY

By Carolyn F. Yuknus
Senior County Home Economist

All kind of bargain sales or clearances are featured at this time of year. When you meet so called bargains face-to-face, stop and think before you buy.

Too often, money is thrown away on sale items that aren't even worth the reduced price.

However, bargains do exist, often in the form of "seconds." The overall definition of a "second" is that the merchandise has some imperfection that has occurred during the manufacturing process.

This imperfection could be as insignificant as a pulled thread or a slub in the weave. In a tablecloth or a sheet such a minor flaw might hardly be noticeable. But the same flaw in a dress or coat might be glaringly obvious.

A "second" should be labeled as such. "Seconds" are not to be confused with "irregulars." Irregular items are limited to irregularities in size, proportion, color or weave.

If obvious defects are missing, a clearly marked second can be a good buy. However, check first quality prices to avoid getting "seconds" at top price.

You can do this by taking a few precautions when buying fabric by the yard or a complete garment.

Always examine the weave, color, finish, dimension, and construction of a garment closely. Hold the fabric up to the light to note smooth even yarns, unless uneven yarns are used on purpose for texture. Thin spots may be caused by uneven or broken yarns.

In yardage goods, look for smooth, regular selvages. The grain should run straight from selvage to selvage. This is especially important in wash and wear materials, because the grain cannot be straightened before cutting when crease - resistant finishes have been applied.

The color should be uniform. Streaky or blotchy areas mean poor dye penetration. In printed garments the design should be distinct, regular and properly repeated. A telltale mark of a cheap garment is that the design is not matched at the seams.

When you look for construction, note the seams for proper sewing. Check for perfect symmetry of sleeves, pockets and collars. The garment may look even on the hanger, but a truer test is to fold the garment down the middle.

Parcel Post Deliveries Resume Six Days A Week

Postmaster Warren T. Moulton today announced that Parcel Post deliveries in Rahway, Clark and Colonia will be expanded from five to six days a week as of July 31, 1967.

This is line with a recent directive from Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien following the signing of the Post Office Department appropriation bill by President Johnson. The legislation contains an $8.5 million item for restoration of the six - day week delivery which had been cut back in May 1964 as an economy measure.

Nearly 5000 cities are affected. Postmaster Moulton said. The Rahway Postal Office noted that the improved service will remove an inequity for many business and residential routes.

Postal customers served by "motorized" letter carriers have been receiving six - day deliveries all along. They were not covered by the 1964 cut back inasmuch as carriers on vehicles can deliver parcels of any size. Customers living on routes serviced by foot carriers have received larger parcels from a five-day a week Parcel Post route covered by a truck. Carriers on foot only deliver small packages.

Housekeeping For Newly Weds

Many new brides are returning from their honeymoon and are now busy setting up their home with their new husband.

Whether it is an apartment or a house, most newly married people agree that their home should be "a haven of peace and enjoyment, and an expression of their personality and way of life."

Part of your way of life may be expressed by whether you decide to be a meticulous or casual housekeeper.

Which ever you decide, remember that housekeeping is a means to an end, never the end itself. Housekeeping duties contribute to the way you want to live.

The first-step in the role of a homemaker is the attitude you have toward housekeeping. You need to have a genuine respect for the job and self-respect as you go about it.

Many brides continue to work outside of the home. These employed homemakers must learn to keep house around the edges of a job. In order to combine all the activities of home, job, and recreational activities successfully, time allotments become important.

Everyone has the same number of hours per day, per week, per year to manage. Without some kind of time schedule, an inexperienced homemaker is likely to find herself swamped.

On the other hand, a rigid time schedule makes everyone uncomfortable.

In the housekeeping area, it is wise to make a general overall plan. Think of the things that will have to be done to keep your home the way you want it to be.

These "things" can be divided into daily, weekly and Walker. Mr. Dembling had a 3.55 out of a possible 4.0 average for the semester.

Joseph Witkowski of 40 Joseph St., Clark, compiled a 3.73 average for the spring semester to be placed on the Dean's List at Pennsylvania State University, it was reported this week by President Eric A. Walker.

Choosing Right Wallpaper

Basic to Good Decoration

Picking the right kind of wallpaper can be pretty much like picking your new spring
hat. You can have fun, or you can spend several exhausting and inconclusive hours trying to make up your mind. So pick your paper carefully, reminds one the Wallpaper Council, and you'll live happily with it ever after.

It is best to have some idea of what you're after before you get into the store. The wallpaper people in your local store will be happy to help you solve your decorating problems, but they can't make up your mind for you. So be prepared to give them some idea of the type of furniture you have, the color combinations of your accessories, and a general idea of what you want.

With the correct wallpaper,
there is no doubt but that you can easily alter and improve any room in the house.

Rooms in compact, modern ranch homes can be made to appear more spacious, while larger ambler rooms can take on that comfortable, intimate look, with the right wallpaper
with the proper texture, pattern and tone.

Pre-Test Effect

Many wallpaper stores will let you have a strip of wallpaper, so that you can tape it up on your wall and let your family live with it a while.

The new living-dining room
areas provide lots of family use, so that walls must be subdued, yet provide an ever-pleasing background. Textured wallpapers are usually the answer here. They come in a variety of effects and colors, and will soften and enhance the plain surfaces of modern furnishings.

A room badly cut up with too many windows or doors
calls for ingenious handling.
If this problem room happens to be your dining room, paper
one or even two walls with an interesting bold pattern. Then use plain colored and textured
papers on the cut-up surfaces,
with woodwork and doors painted to match. There are plenty of such matching paper
now available.

To Brighten Room

A dark room, removed from natural sunlight, should be painted in soft yellows or off-white tones to introduce light and spaciousness.

Dormer windows often present another difficult problem.
A small scaled all-over pattern on the ceiling and walls or the dormer, and matching plain papers on the other walls, will give a most pleasant and decorative effect. Sloping walls will easily blend into the ceiling,
if you just use the same small-textured design on both ceilings and dormers.

If you plan to do the job
yourself, select your papers,
keeping this fact in mind.

There are many pre-trimmed and pre-pasted papers on the market which will ease your job considerably. If papers are untrimmed, your dealer can most likely trim them for you free.

Modern Living Calls For More Hot Water Faster

In today's modern home it's a case of water, water needed everywhere — and particularly hot water. But the problem is how to get enough of it for our larger families and needs, how to store it in our smaller-sized houses, and produce it as rapidly as possible and inexpensively.

Today's house may "over appliance" itself with hot water-guzzling contrivances, but fail to be equally modernized in its hot water capacity.

This is the case with water heaters in many American homes today, according to the National Fuel Oil Council. While householders go merrily along buying such time-saving items as automatic dishwashers and washing machines, and adding extra bathrooms, not to mention having lots of babies, the incumbent water heater becomes literally "swamped" by the increase in the demands placed upon it.

From early morning till late evening, the kitchen, laundry, and bathrooms of the modern American house are continually in use for any number of reasons — showering, shaving,
bathing, washing, shampooing, brushing teeth, food preparation — and, of course, washing dishes — frequently in a new,
hot water-guzzling dishwasher.

Add to this, washing the family clothes in the automatic machine, and the other general household uses for hot water, and it is easy to see how this element — and the water heater — play a vital and new role in modern living.

A generation ago a family of four used about 1,000 to 1,200 gallons of hot water a month.

His promotion was based

Today's needs are triple — around 3,000 gallons a month (100 gallons a day). Dishwashing and automatic laundry consume about 45 per cent of this,
larger families and needs, however. The rest goes into washing hands and face, house
cleaning and miscellaneous uses.

Not only do homes need more water, but a lot of it has to be hotter — 140 degrees for average uses up to 160 degrees de-commended for dishwashers.

Among modern developments
for the home aimed at solving this problem is a new oil-fired water heater that needs only one hour a day to produce 120 gallons of hot water in a compact 30 gallons storage tank.

It burns oil combined with air in a gun-like burner head
as do the automatic oil heating plants. The secret of this heater is its "recovery rate" — the speed with which it can heat up water for the storage tank as the supply is used.

Rahway's CYRC Chiefs dropped a 5 - 0 decision to the Betsytown VFW in an Inter-County league games. The winners were led by their star pitcher Evans Pantouros, who allowed only three hits, didn't permit a ball to be hit out of the infield, fanned nine and walked three.

Joe Cichowski of this city won the pool with a seven pound blue on the Lenny out of Belmar.

Ed Johnson of Rahway finished third in the high jump in the senior division of the New Jersey AAU junior olympics at Warinanco Park on Saturday. The Rahway youngster will compete in the Mid - Atlantic regional championship at Philadelphia on August 5th.

Jaycee Grid Classic Will Aid Charities

No matter which team wins the sixth annual Jaycee Football Classic between the Philadelphia Eagles and the New York Giants at Palmer Stadium on September 2, nearly 300 charities will benefit.

Every penny of the proceeds of the Classic will be earmarked for New Jersey Charities and Jaycee youth, sports and community service activities. Using volunteer Jaycees for nearly every aspect of the game the youngmen's organization expects to reap a new profit of nearly $170,000 from this one-day event.

On the day of the Classic over 1,500 Jaycees will be hawking program books, hats, cushions, dolls, Pepsi and hot dogs. Speaking of hot dogs, this year the Classic has its own hot dog... they call it the Classic Frank its made by the Haydu Co. of Newark. The Jaycees will serve as ushers, park thousands of cars on Princeton's grassy parking fields, take tickets at the gate, assist in the press box, and in general perform every function possible to help cut costs. They will even clean the stadium the day after the game.

Over 200 chapters from as many Garden State Communities are already involved in the Classic either through ticket sales or manpower commitments. For their efforts the local chapters will receive a percentage of ticket sales to donate to a charity of their choice. They also earn $25 for each member who works at the game. Some chapters earn additional funds by selling advertisements in the souvenir program book.

To help provide an even larger return for charity Princeton University donates the use of Palmer Stadium each year and Pepsi Cola will again cooperate with the Jaycees in promoting the Classic.

Last year a sellout crowd of 45,142 fans helped raise a net profit of $172,000. Since the Classic began in 1962, nearly $750,000 has been raised in making the New Jersey Jaycees Football the largest event in New Jersey for charity fund-raising.

Tickets prices at $3.50 and $5.50 are on sale in local Jaycee chapters, at Giant, Eagle and Bamberger Ticket Offices, or write New Jersey Jaycee Football Classic, P.O. Box 324, Princeton, New Jersey.
