Prologue

The theme for the 1964 LANCE has been inspired by the immortal lines of Thomas Heywood:

"The world is a theatre, the earth a stage which God and nature do with actors fill."

To this LANCE staff, our school seemed to be the perfect small-scale representation of this thought. Portraying the teachers as directors, the seniors as stars, and the underclassmen as understudies, we proceed to correlate the world of the stage with the work of the classroom.

It is our sincere hope that this 1964 LANCE will present the reader with a pictorial and verbal review of the events, students, and faculty endeavors which comprised the spirit of the 1963-64 academic year at Arthur L. Johnson.

Dedication

November 22, 1963, is a date few of us will ever forget. On this day a nation lost its leader; a youth lost its idol and inspiration; a whole world lost a crusader for peace.

Here at Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School, the ideals of John Fitzgerald Kennedy had been a daily influence in our lives. A more rigorous physical education program, a twenty-five mile hike, a debate in history, or a heated discussion of political policies at the lunch table were but a few of the manifestations of the President's influence.

More than this, we were captured by his spirit of warmth and enthusiasm, of liberty and justice, of understanding and peace.

On November 22, as the first news announcement that the President had been shot came over the public address system during sixth period, an atmosphere of confusion, disbelief, and anxiety replaced the usual academic mood. Minutes later, as official word came that President Kennedy had passed into immortality, our school fell into a shocked, uncanny silence. A few of us wept, a few prayed, but all of us felt in our hearts the terrible and irreplaceable loss of a great man.

It is in his fond memory that we dedicate this 1964 LANCE to John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 35th President of the United States.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

President, Andy Clearie; Vice-President, Al Lundgren; Secretary, Liz Gardiner; Treasurer, Jay Klitsch.

In the modern theatrical world, performers, such as ballerinas, gain invaluable knowledge and experience by working with those who are more advanced in their profession. Our performers at A. L. J. seek the aid of the Seniors and gain the knowledge which they have obtained during their four years at A. L. J.

PUBLICATIONS

THE LANCE

Each year the LANCE Staff attempts to chronicle the events which will bring reminiscence to active students of an active school. To accommodate the increased enrollment and, consequently, increased responsibilities, this year's staff became the largest ever. The annual week-end convention at Columbia University, culminating with a dinner at the famed Waldorf Astoria, provided a respite from the routine of duties and deadlines.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America Club is a group that energetically works in developing an effective student-teacher relationship. The club introduces members to the teaching profession while serving a two-fold purpose. First the organization endeavors to help many of its Freshman and Sophomore members to decide whether they want to become teachers. Secondly, it aids the upperclassmen who definitely decide to pursue the career by acquainting them with varied opportunities within the profession itself.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The members of the Future Business Leaders of America Club are made aware of the many fields open to them in the business world. Speakers, field trips and various school and community projects keep the club active and growing.

Senior Play

The evenings of March 20 and 21 were two of those times that are somehow dreaded, and yet, anxiously awaited. They were the nights on which twenty seven of our seniors performed "Take Her, She's Mine." The lights were hot, the auditorium was filled and the actors were tense. At approximately 10:30 it was all over. The audience broke into rounds of applause for both the actors and our director, Miss Dorothy Kreglow. "Take Her, She's Mine" was definitely one of the finest productions Johnson Regional has ever seen.

"Now that the initial shock of seeing me is over —may I have a martini, please? Very Dry?"

The Band played a tune . . .

And the couples were very willing to begin the evening with a dance . . .

Remember When

On February 28, 1964, as daytime faded into twilight, a soft snow began to fall setting the mood for the annual Senior Ball. "Remember When," the theme of the Ball, was held at the Shackamaxon Country Club and marked the closing event of the seniors' four years at A.L.J.

The music was entertaining and enjoyable, the lights were dimmed, and the joyful spirit of all who attended set the atmosphere for a wonderful evening of dining and dancing. The highlight of the dance came when Barbara Bennett was crowned Senior Ball Queen and Lynn Greene and Grace Emery were honored as her attendants.

However, all too quickly, the clock struck the hour of two and the seniors left a dance floor that is now a memory which will be cherished forever.

The chairmen of the various committees were honored for their hard work in preparation for the Ball . . .

At midnight the appetite of the couples got the best of their desire to dance and they were delighted to relax and enjoy a delicious dinner . . .

Joyce Hennessey led the promenade and the group of lovely senior girls made the judges' job a difficult one indeed . . .

Twilight at Tara

Theme of Junior Prom

On April 24 Twilight At Tara provided the Junior Class and its guests with a memorable evening. Raymond's Caterers satisfied the appetites of the couples after dancing to the strains of Link Blakely's band. The highlight of the evening came when Ellen Kessler was selected as Junior Prom Queen. She was attended by Georgiann Torbich and Kathy Kelleher.

The plaintive notes of the tenor saxophone enticed the swaying dancers.

A cha-cha-cha provides a change of pace.

There is an air of challenge, happiness, security, and confidence within the halls and classrooms of A.L.J. The students and faculty are, for seven or eight hours each day, involved only with the life that goes on within these halls.

On November 22 all this was shattered. One moment everyone was absorbed in their secure routine, and the next, all were shocked, confused, and terribly sad at the news of John F. Kennedy's death.

Within the walls of A. L. J. a variety of events occur which add interest to the school year. This year the faculty said good-bye and good luck to Mr. Kolodinsky, seated at left at a tea given in his honor . . .

A tea was also given for Mrs. Gants, a Guidance Counselor, when she retired from A. L. Johnson . . .

For two weeks, Atsuko attended classes at A.L.J.

Under the direction of Miss Linda Hedden, A. L. Johnson Regional was once again privileged to honor a foreign exchange student. Atsuko Sakurauchi, a sixteen year old Japanese girl, enjoyed a three week stay at the home of Jill Robinson. During this time she became acquainted with the faculty and students of our school and visited New York City.

The Student Faculty Basketball Game was played to a enthusiastic crowd on Friday, March 6. In the midst of the student cheers the teachers tried their best to win, but the youthful students were victorious in both games. However the games were all in good spirit and the main object of the event, the improvement of student-teacher relationship, was achieved . . .

The G.A.A. gives every girl an opportunity to participate in the sports she enjoys at A.L.J. There is a wide variety of them, including swimming, which is held at the Westfield Y.W.C.A. in the autumn, and golf in the spring and autumn.

The officers are responsible for orientating the freshmen at the beginning of the year. The annual G.A.A. Round-Up, held in June, is under their direction also. At this last gathering the awards are given to the girls.

One of the most popular sports for the girls is Class Basketball. The teams are chosen on the basis of skill. These teams represent A.L.J. when they play against other schools.

crowd with their intricate routines. During half-time, these girls performed faithfully in all kinds of weather their own original formations. First Year Mentor Kelin Enjoys Winning Season

Mr. Red Kelin, in his first year on the gridiron as head coach, compiled the best record in the school's history. Headed offensively by Jim Burg's brilliant running attack and defensively by Ron Anderson, the team had one of the best offensive and defensive records in the state. Though suffering an early defeat to Westfield, the team turned right around to upset

Springfield. As the season progressed, the squad showed the stamina and ability of a winning team as displayed by the crushing blow handed to Piscataway. Though we ended the season by suffering our Thanksgiving Day loss to Scotch Plains, we can look forward next year to an even better record headed by the aerial attack of Frank Spaziani.

This year the Soccer team finished the season with a 4-8-1 record, no comparison to last year's Watchung Conference Championship. The head Soccer coach, Mr. Severage, says this was due to the loss of so many letterman to graduation.

Luca DiFabio and John Esposito did the major scoring, and John finished with the team high of six goals. The team fought hard all season long. This was evidenced by the fact that there was only one game lost by more than two points.

Next year looks very promising with the long line of returning lettermen.

Coach Robert Fulton, in his first year as basketball coach, transformed a green team into a truly fine team which, despite a poor record, upset teams such as Springfield and Pingry.

The record which the boys are most proud of is holding both Irvington Tech and Pingry scoreless in the first periods of both games. For the first three periods of our Hillside game our boys also paced them basket for basket, before they went on to beat us and enter the state semi-finals.

Though we'll miss our captain Henry Buoni, the fine defense of Bert Maier, and the rebounding of Ken Kuspiel, we can look forward to seeing Billy Wilson, who did an outstanding job both on offense and defense; as well as a strong bench returning next year.

With this far from disappointing record, the coach can point out individual records which he and the boys that accomplished them may be proud of. Rich Krov, voted the team's most valuable player, completed the season with a fine record of 10-1. He was 148 pound, Sixth District Champ. Other individual stand-outs were Roger Fuchs, with a 9-1-2 record, and Mike Glodic, who was 136 pound Sixth District Champ.

Highlights were lopsided victories over Perth Amboy, 43-9, and Cranford 30-12. Also under the heading of interesting matches was the Hillside contest where we were defeated by one point, 22-21.

Track

En route to an opening win over Roselle by a lopsided 72-45 score, Johnson Regional trackmen set four individual records. Jim Smith put the shot 48' 10 $\frac{3}{4}$ " to eclipse Ed Anderson's standard, then discovered his own record in the discus throw had been erased by Jim "Moose" Mossuto in the same meet. Bob Habesevich starred in two events: he tied the previous records for low and high hurdles in his double sweep.

With such stalwart performances to keynote the new season, Coach Frank Severage and Coach Seymour "Red" Kelin look optimistically toward a successful year.

To the envy of every public links golfer, Clark Regional's Golf team has played many of the lush layouts in Union County in a series of match play events. Echo Lake, Colonia, and Baltusrol (proposed site of the 1965 National Open Tournament) Country Clubs have played host to Regional and served as severe tests of golf. The 1964 season marked an increase in the number of scheduled matches as golf continues to gain in scholastic popularity. Coach Hooper could rely upon a veteran team this year, consisting of John Glowacki, Doug and Bert Maier, Dave Scull, Don Smolyn, and Bob Russell.

Crusader Nine Rated First in Union County

Despite many early postponments due to bad weather, Coach Peragallo led the Crusaders to five consecutive victories against strong Union County competition. Frank Spazianni, strong-armed Junior, blanked Westfield 3-0 with a masterful no-hitter. The Crusader nine showed their muscles to Roselle Park in an overwhelming 16-2 victory. Regional is counting upon a combination of the right arm of Spazianni and the hitting of Jack Falzone, Jim Scott, Bo Buoni, and Jim Clos, as they prepare to sweep through the Union County Tournament.

Frank Spazianni throws an overhand hard one en route to his no-hitter against West-field.

Bill Gorski takes the throw in time for the third out.

Jim Scott squares off for a sacrifice bunt.

Jim Clos helps in the 14 hit attack against Roselle Park.

It's Harkness to Buoni to start a double play.

Patronage from an appreciative audience is one of the most necessary parts of any theatrical production.

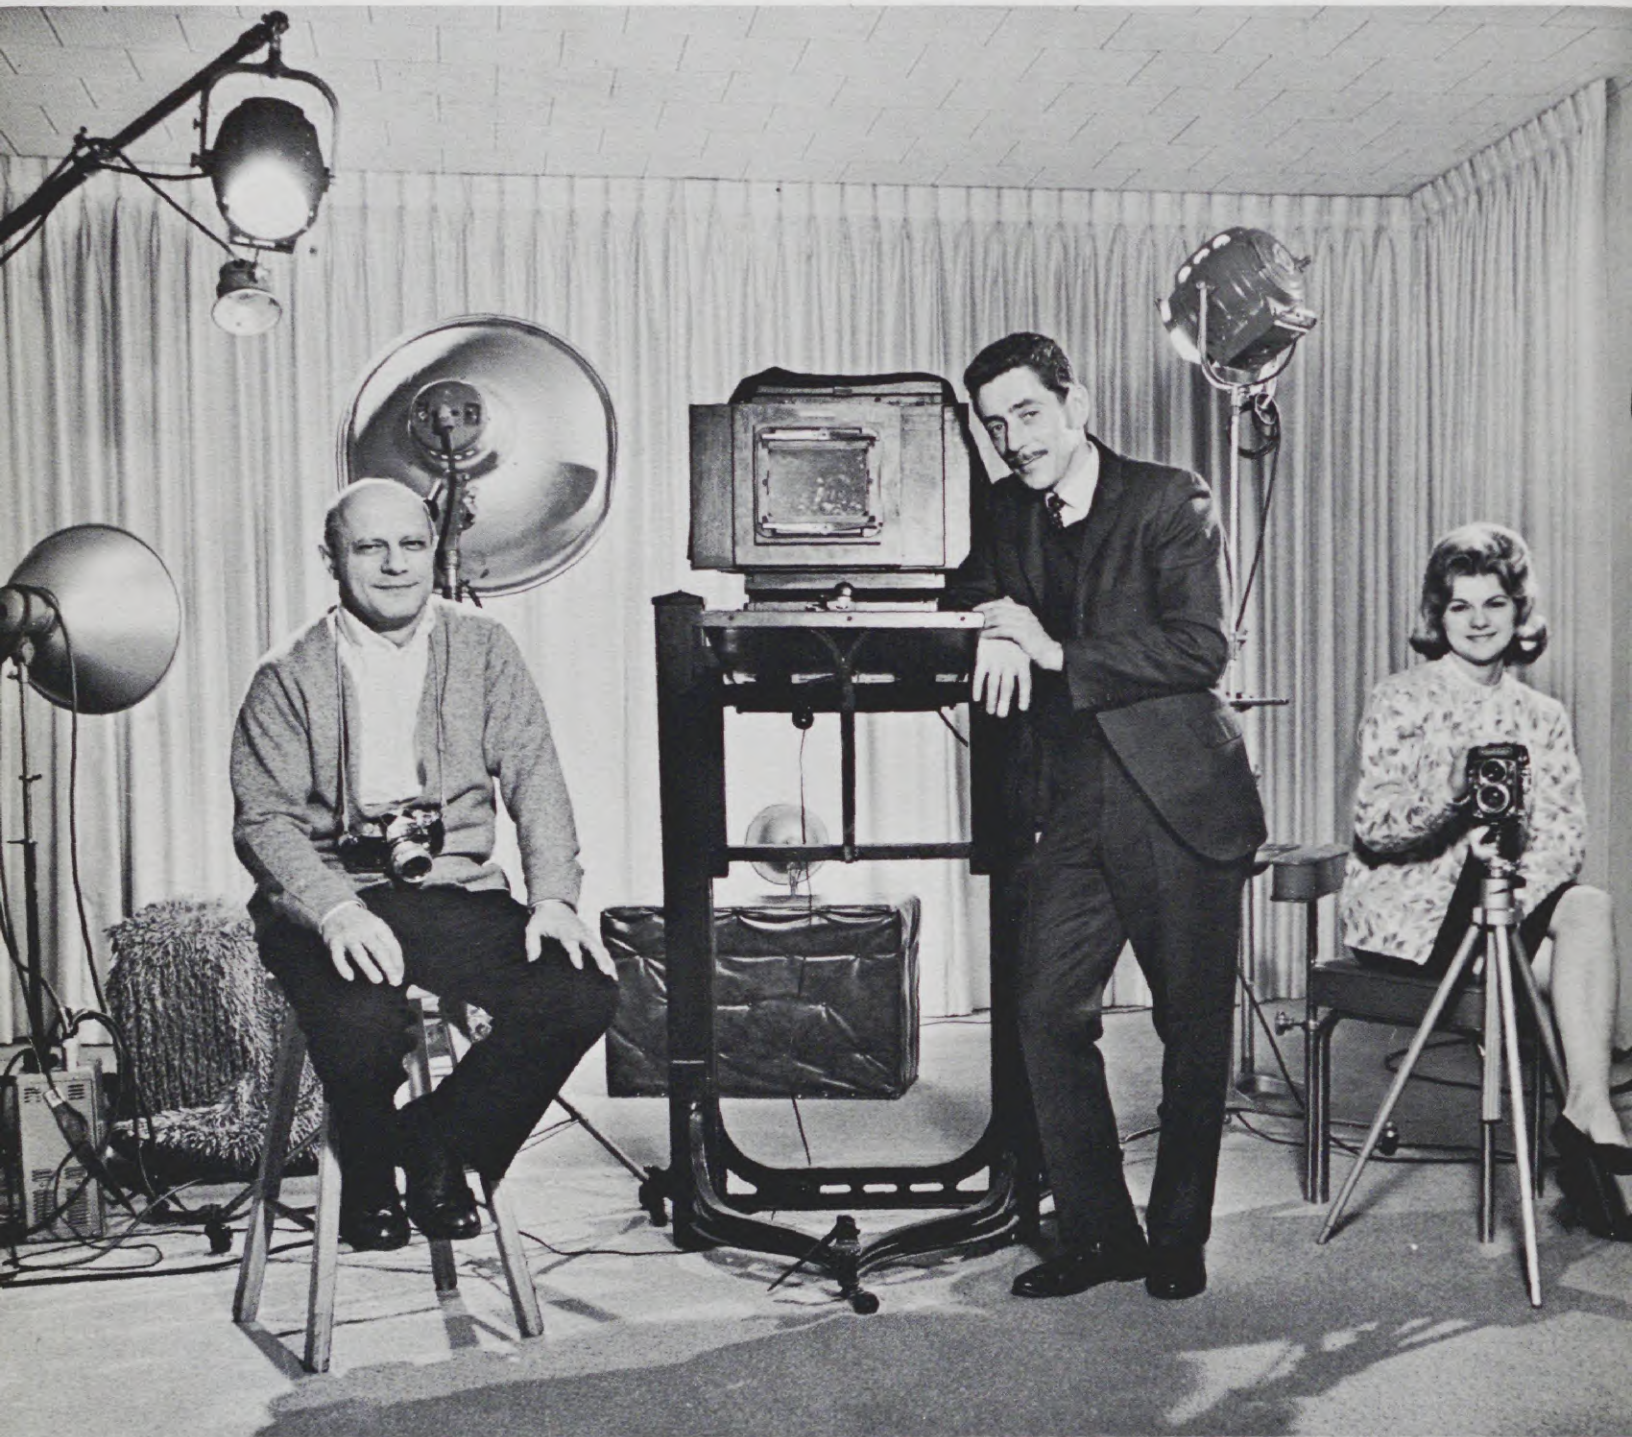

Financial backing, through advertisements from many well known business establishments nearby, and our own yearbook sales are equally important in the publishing of a yearbook.

Epilogue

Some day, in far future years, the Class of '64 will be only a name of some forgotten body of students who passed through the halls of Johnson Regional. Yet, whether we are remembered or forgotten is of little consequence. It is what we ourselves remember or forget that is most important. This being our prime motivating force, the 1964 Lance staff has tried to compile all the beautiful and sometimes sad memories of our last and most remembered year at Regional.

We hope you, the reader, have enjoyed them as much as we, the class of '64, have enjoyed and will forever treasure the memories of our four years at Johnson Regional.
