Prologue

O Mortal man, who livest here by toil Do not complain of this thy hard estate:

James Thomson "The Castle of Indolence"

We are the people of the kingdom, the nobles, the knights, the squires, the pages, the serfs, who have laboured to preserve and create the traditions of our castle — Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School. The Lance of 1966 presents the kingdom, its standards, and its people in this the tenth anniversary edition.

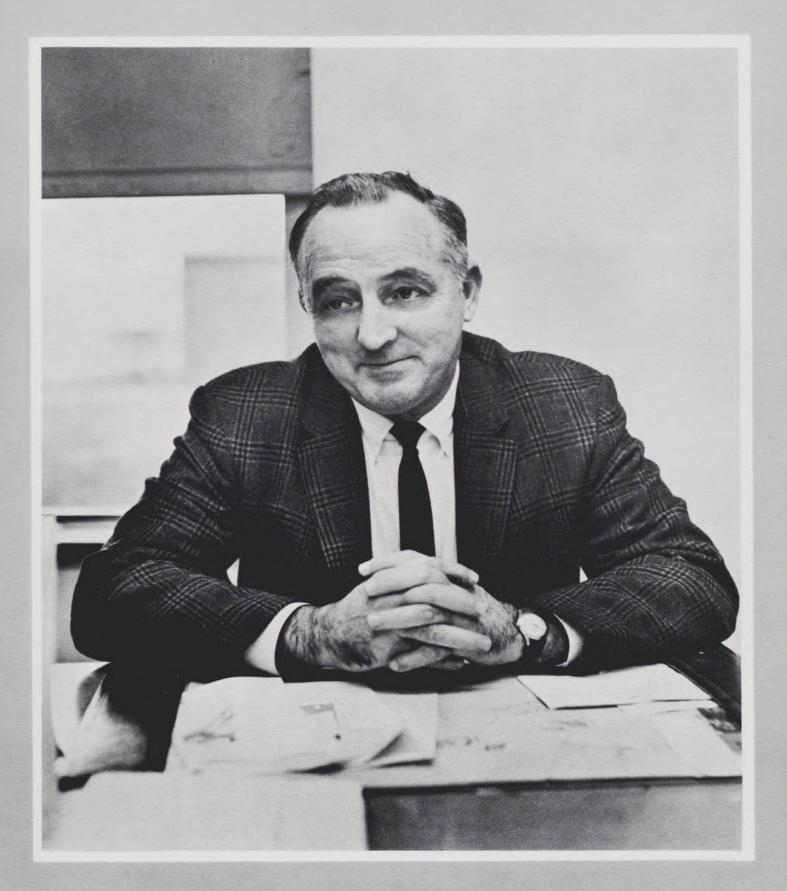

Dedication

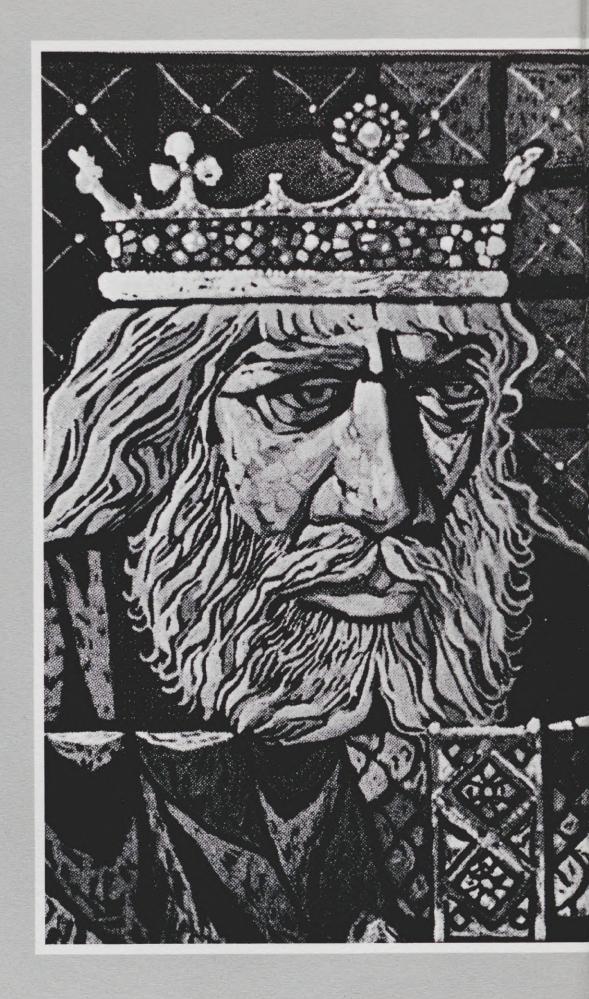

In deep appreciation for his ten years of service to the students of Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School, the Lance staff dedicates The Lance of 1966 to John Muller. He has served both the students and the school as a history teacher, as the attendance director, and as the cafeteria director. He is always willing to listen to the problems of any student and to encourage everyone.

John Muller

Faculty

We, too, are friends to loyalty. We love The king who loves the law, respects his bounds,

And reigns content within them. Him we serve

Freely and with delight, who leaves us free.

William Cowper "The Task"

Dr. Warren M. Davis

Superintendent of Schools

In his capacity as Superintendent of the Union County Regional High School District, Dr. Davis supervises the administration of the three Regional schools.

Dr. Randolf Jacobsen

Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Dr. Jacobsen works closely with all facets of educational administration in our District, from the Board of Education to the individual schools.

Build Thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave the low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut Thee from heaven with a dome more vast
Till Thou art at length free,
Leaving Thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!

Soirée Enchantée

On May 14th, 1965, as juniors, the Class of 1966 presented its Junior Prom, "Soirée Enchantée." We danced to the music of Buddy Morrow and his orchestra. Jacqueline Woienski was crowned queen, attended by Evelyn Pezzulich and Michele Banyasz.

Romantic setting, romantic music, and romantic couples — an unbeatable combination.

The seniors danced from nine 'til two to the music provided for the senior ball by the Buddy Dee Orchestra. Our charming queen, Jacqueline Woienski, wore her crown, the symbol of her honor, regally.

and

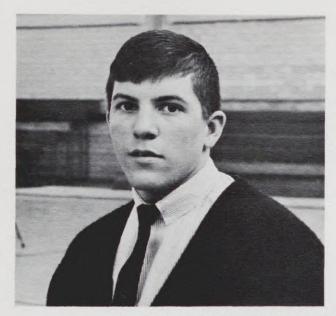

The queen, her attendants, and their escorts posed in their pride, excitement, and amazement. The couples enjoyed the formal, yet informal, serious, yet enjoyable, evening.

Forever

The senior ball was held at the Redwood Inn in Somerville on April 22. Steak dinners were served at midnight by candlelight. The highlights of the evening were the promenade and the selection of a queen. All seniors had a blissful evening, one they will remember "Always and Forever."

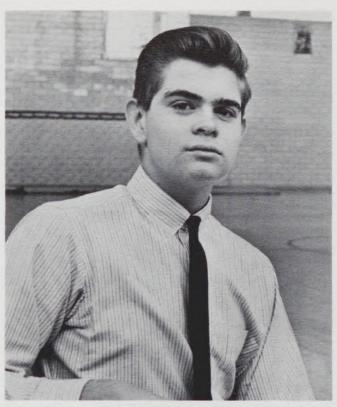

Alan Prish, the Most Valuable Football Player, was also active in gymnastics and baseball. Richard Esposito, our Most Valuable Soccer Player, was instrumental in achieving the Watchung Conference Soccer Championship.

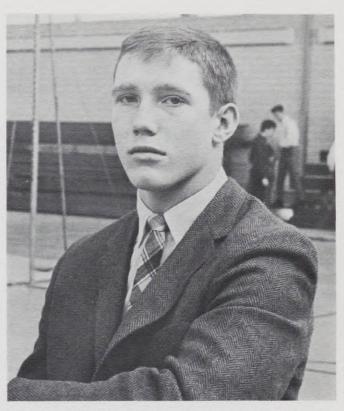

Tony Falzone and Alan Prish, two outstanding athletes, receive the Mr. Regional trophies for their popularity as well as their athletic prowess. For the first time in the history of the school the election by the students resulted in an exact tie. Janis Ozolins and Thomas Gulya, Student Council officers, present the awards.

Lorraine Caswell, elected Miss Key Club, receives a gift from Richard Mattern, Key Club President.

John Martin, our Most Valuable Bowler was one of the few people in the school's history to receive a gold letter.

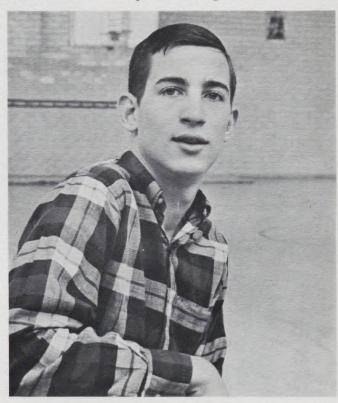

Our Most Valuable Wrestler, Jack Howie, placed high in district competition as well as being an asset to our team.

Senior Titles

Tony Falzone, our Best Defensive Basketball Player, did an outstanding job on the court.

Charlie Mattes, our Most Valuable Basketball Player, performed best when the pressure was greatest.

Senior Play

On Nov. 19 and 20, 1965, the Senior Class presented "Ask Any Girl", Winifred Wolfe's play about a young girl's first encounter with New York City. The Senior Class can be rightly proud of the fine job done by the actors, committees, and director, Miss Dorothy Kreglow.

"You can always tell a martian because they drink their coffee black."

"That painting is good for you, just like spinach."

Dale Jones, our emcee, did not know that sweeping the stage would be a part of his job.

The Monarchs, a rock 'n' roll group, filled the auditorium with music.

The audience laughed to the antics of three of our "clowns", Tom Helfich, Chip Scheckler, and Jack Howie.

Bonnie Rambo, a petite female with a beautiful voice, charmed the crowd with "The Girl from Ipanema."

Talent

The Little People, a folk-singing quartet of the Regional District, is composed of Jamie Caldwell, Marla Lewis, and Bill Ohnsorg.

Show

A highlight of Student Council Week was the Student Talent Show. Both the audience and the performers enjoyed this innovation.

History of Class of 1966

The Class of 1966 is the tenth class that has been graduated from Johnson Regional, and we feel that our four-year journey through the school has been a worthwhile one. Aided by wonderful advisors, Mrs. Kennedy, Mr. Valenia, and Mrs. Monteith, we have turned these years into years of profit both for ourselves as a class and for the school. Elected to be President in the freshman year, Richard Mattern led the class to a good start as we held a dance and clothespin sale. Another dance and a cake sale helped fill the treasury in the sophomore year, under Ruth Samelson's leadership. Giving her services again in the junior year, Ruth encouraged and led a magazine sale. With the aid of many fine committee members, the Class of 1966 presented our prom, "Soirée Enchantee"; on May 14 of the junior year. A wonderful evening was enjoyed by all who danced in this elegant French setting, with music provided by Buddy Dee. Robert Stibler became president as the class entered its final year, and this year has certainly proved to be one of great progress. Inspired by the example of several of our neighboring schools, we were granted certain senior privileges, among which was a minute-early dismissal for lunch. A highly successful candy sale was also held. Our senior ball, "Always and Forever"; was held on April 22 at the Redwood Inn. Buddy Dee again provided the orchestra. We also had a fun-filled senior trip to Vacation Valley, a delightful Pocono mountain resort. No history of the class would be complete without once again expressing our gratitude to our advisors, without whose leadership our success would have been impossible.

Underclassmen

Be studious in your profession and you will be learned.

Be industrious and frugal, and you will be rich.

Be sober and temperate, and you will be healthy.

Be in general virtuous, and you will be happy.

At least, you will, by such conduct,

Stand the best chance for such consequences.

— Ben Franklin Letter to John Alleyn

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Seated: Wayne Carrick, President; Valerie Kastner, Vice President, Standing: Pat Condit, Representative; Cathy Coniglio, Secretary; Diane Graham, Treasurer; Tony Pascal, Representative.

Next years seniors are busily preparing for the experiences ahead. With their noses to the grindstone, they are paving the way for a rich year of joys and achievement. Selling Booster patrons and memberships, shakers, and programs during football season, and their cakes, their treasury was greatly expanded for the expenses of the forthcoming year.

The highlight of their junior year was their beautiful prom, "Crystal Moment". A bright and successful senior year is in the Class of 1967's horoscope.

The Class of '68 has now passed its half-way mark, and can look forward to success in its last two years. The future upperclassmen have done much to show promise that their last years will be great ones. Creatively minded, already they have begun preparing and thinking about themes, titles, and decorations for next year's junior prom. In addition, the class is steadily building up its treasury by the aid of a cake sale, and a financially and socially successful dance entitled "Indian Summer." They are studiously preparing for the work ahead and gaining knowledge worthy of the future leaders of Johnson Regional.

Sophomores, Ruth Haut, Andrea Cordone, Wandita Randall, and Elizabeth Kennedy demonstrate the fundamentals of first aid.

With able officers and very hard-working committees, this class of about 450 freshmen is initiating a good four-year's run to their senior trip. To begin their fund-raising efforts, they successfully sold cakes, had an excellent "Dance Without a Theme" and collected dues, all of which were enthusiastically and efficiently carried out.

The Music Man

A highlight of activities at A.L.J. this year was the presentation of Meredith Willson's The Music Man. The March production was the culmination of weeks of preparation on the parts of students and faculty. The acting was directed by the able Miss Dorothy Kreglow, whose talent and patience made the show the success it was. Miss Kreglow was ably assisted by Sandy Daluesio, a senior. Mr. Andrew Jupina was responsible for the musical end of the show, both choral and instrumental. Mr. Robert Vitkowsky served in a double sense, for he both performed in the orchestra and designed the set. Carolyn Biazzo, a 1965 graduate of our school, was the choreographer, having created the dances and practiced with the group. All in all, the production was an excellent example of the amazing coordination among the various departments in A.L.J. - Dramatics, Music, Art, and Industrial Arts.

Crystal

Couples share an enchanted evening.

Smiling faces reflect enjoyment of the evening.

On January 21, couples stepped from the cold winter night into a winter wonderland. After months of preparation the prom provided the Junior Class with a memorable evening. Couples danced to music supplied by Link Blakely and his orchestra. The highlight of the evening came with the crowning of the queen, Lynn Rice.

January 21 was truly a "Crystal Moment" for reigning queen, Lynn Rice and her attendants, Joanne Kairis and Elizabeth Ryan.

Moment

Link Blakely and his orchestra furnished music for the evening.

Jacqueline Woienski places the crown on her successor, Lynn Rice.

Beautiful decorations set the mood for Crystal Moment.

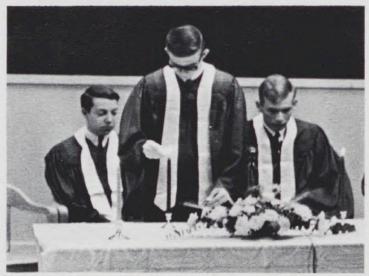

On November 4, the newly inducted members of the National Honor Society took their oath.

President Richard Mattern congratulated the new members.

The student council, a model school government, seeks to enrich the school lives of everyone at A.L.J. The Council was generally responsible for the upsurge in school spirit this year. Under the auspices of the group, dances were held, contests sponsored, and special programs arranged. The Student Store, the Powder-Puff Football Game, and the Computer Dance served and entertained the students of our school.

Key Club

The Key Club is a select group of boys dedicated to serving the school and the community. The club undertook such projects as selling light bulbs, directing P.T.A. traffic, and selling tickets for charitable causes. The highlight of the year was the Key Club Dance at which Lorraine Caswell was named Miss Key Club. The state convention in Atlantic City was an experience the club will never forget.

An innovation of the National Honor Society was the establishment of a tutoring service. Members were able to share their academic talents with those students who could profit from them.

Membership in the National Honor Society is the highest honor our school can bestow upon its students. Members are selected for their consistently high standards of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. The National Honor Society this year was the largest in the history of our school.

Solitude

This is my world for the moment; my own wonderland, and I am Alice. The brook is not a rushing brook, nor wide, nor deep, yet the awesome ocean cannot compare with its security and permanence. The bent and fallen trees, weird playthings for a vivid imagination. The paths my own, and I the explorer. The encircling trees my barrier to a world I did not know, Innocence lives easily with innocence, neither can corrupt. The leaved canopy bids me stay; the troubled world beckons me. I grow, I learn, I sin, and sin has no place in the world of innocence. - Anne Valenti

The staff of the Lance is responsible for planning and producing a record of the school year at A.L.J. This year's staff worked hard and spent long hours scheduling pictures, making layouts, writing copy, typing, and selling boosters, advertising, and yearbooks. The staff gained experience in all these fields, but their greatest satisfaction is in the yearbook they have produced.

Layouts and copy are begun and completed by Nancy Parin, Richard Mattern, Carole Berg, Diane Marino, and Mrs. Schragger.

Lance

Two of our busy typists, Kathy Monahan and Gail Muringer, work hard to meet the deadline.

Miss Allgoever and Andrea Richardson review copy and layouts before the yearbook is sent to press.

Marching Band

The marching band was kept busy during the early part of the year by performing at the football games. In addition to these regular performances, the band marched in special parades and assemblies, such as Memorial Day and Halloween. All who saw our band enjoyed its intricate marching patterns and, of course, its fine music.

Girls' Athletic Association

G.A.A. OFFICERS

Vice President, Carol Wilkinson; Secretary, Bonnie Clark; Treasurer, Darlene Carroll; President, Carol McManamy; Representative, Linda Brodka.

The Girls' Athletic Association provides a great variety of activities and interests for all girls. This has been shown by the great enthusiastic turnout in all sports.

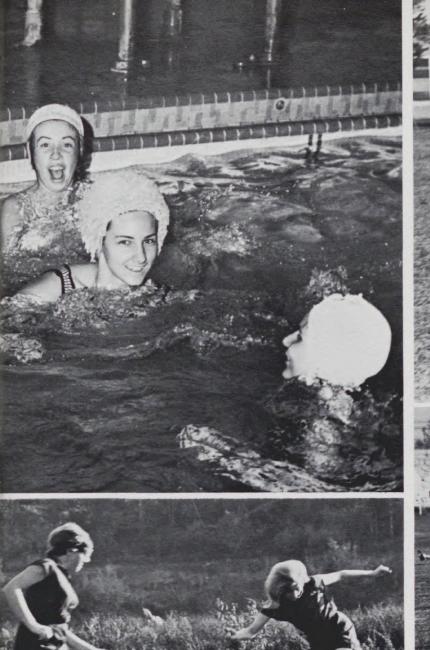

Hockey and soccer highlight the fall G.A.A. season. Of great interest is competition with other schools.

The winter activities offer both intramural and interscholastic competition. During this time many girls participate in volleyball and basketball.

In April spring weather welcome's softball, archery and tennis. These sports are most popular with the girls judging by the great numbers who participate.

G.A.A. Activities

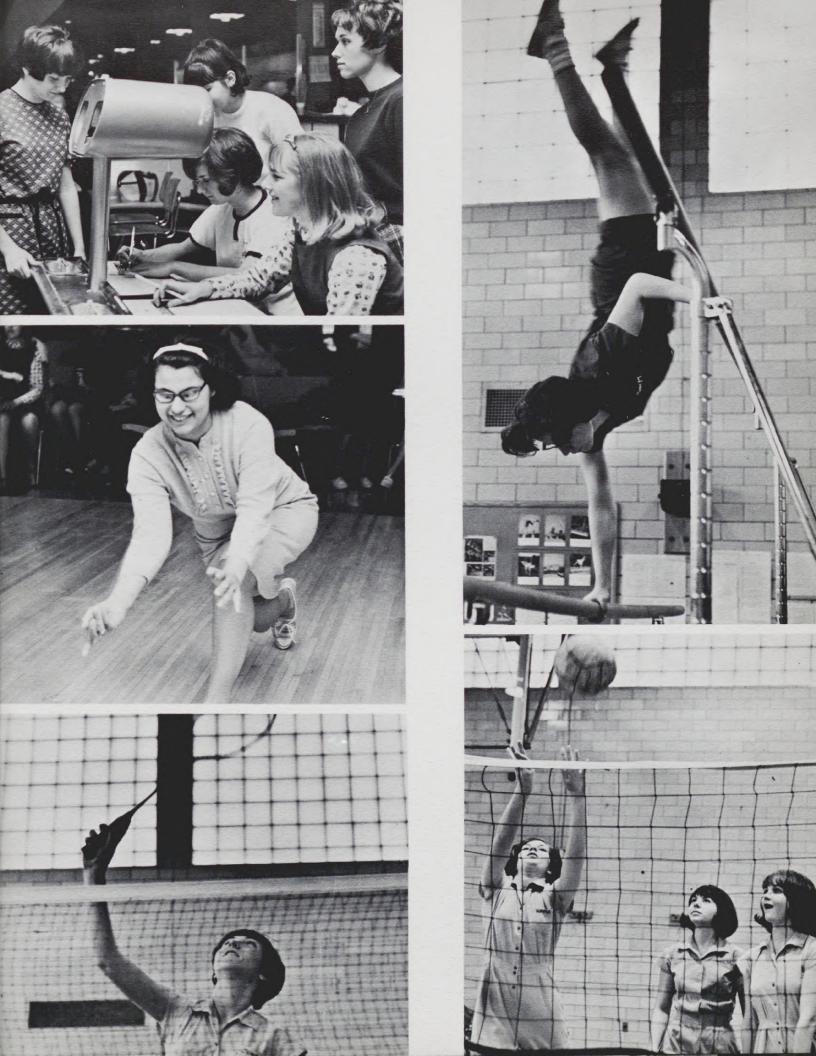

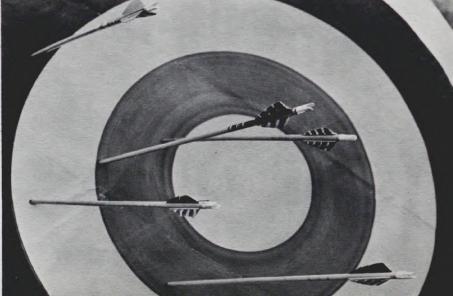

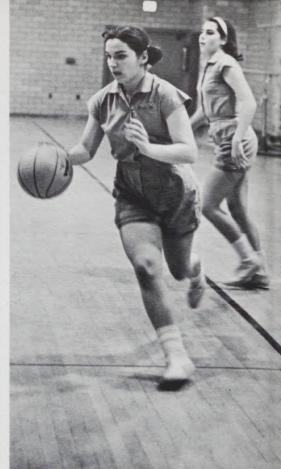

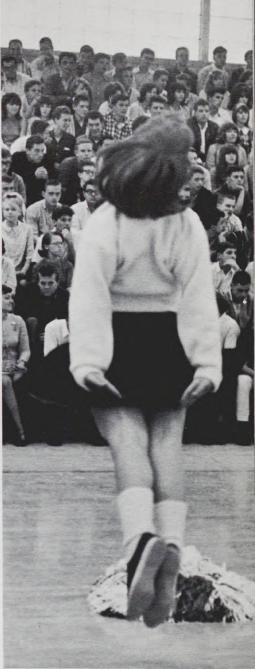

Cheerleaders

Eight good reasons for the crowd's enthusiasm this year are A.L.J.'s cheerleaders. Besides cheering for football and basketball games, our cheerleaders can also be seen giving their spirited support to soccer and wrestling. They combine to make one unique group whose sole purpose is bolstering the team and leading the crowds in spirited cheers. If it weren't for these eight peppy girls, A.L.J. would surely be at a loss.

R. Samelson, B. Clark, B. Hauswald, S. Gunther, Co-Captain L. Blejwas, Captain S. Fisher, S. Hagetter, N. Blejwas, D. Lazeration.

Color Guard

A group of outstanding girls at A.L.J. is our Color Guard. These hardworking girls spend much time originating and practicing their routines. Although most of us are only familiar with them during football season, they also perform at two dances and are responsible for officially starting all of the assemblies.

Captain J. McCarrick, P. Pretti, H. Pearl, B. Flachek, C. Nelson, K. Monahan, K. Kane, L. Heinze, J. Caruso, P. DiBagio.

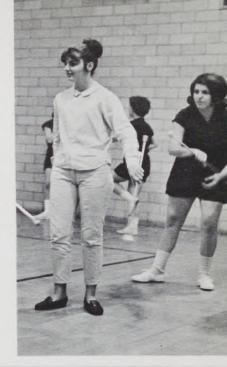

Twirlers

Twirlers—these are the talented girls who always seem to catch everyone's eyes during half-time at all the football games. In the fall these dedicated girls can be found daily after school practicing their routines. Besides performing at football games, they also participate at dances, pep rallies, and the annual band concert.

Crusaders extend winning streak to 11

After an infection that hit the Clark eleven canceled the opening game against Westfield, the Crusaders came back to win four in a row over Springfield, Cranford, Hillside and Roselle. This gave us the school's longest winning streak of eleven.

In spite of discouraging injuries during the season, the team pulled together and, after losing a tough game to a powerful Berkeley Heights team, and another to Orange, they bounced back to beat our rival Rahway.

The pass-catching of Al Prish, the running of junior Larry Buoni, and the great effort of Coach Kelin and his assistants gave Clark a 5-4 winning season. Next year we anticipate continued success and improvement on this year's record.

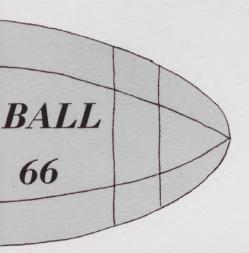

Coach Kelin and QB Gorski confer on the sidelines.

Cross Country

In its first year the cross-country team worked hard for its achievements. Though not numerous the wins were greatly appreciated. The future holds great hopes for this team which stresses discipline and endurance in its long distance running. The team, consisting of many underclassmen, will have many experienced runners for grand success in the future.

Mike starts for another long run . . .

This year's wrestling team, although its record didn't show it, had many fine wrestlers. Such grapplers as Jack Howie, Ron Taylor, and Roger Jackson won the majority of their matches, but unfortunately the team won only one match.

Coached for the first time by Coach Redfern, the boys did their best, despite the lack of participants. Although not winning a match and losing support, credit has to be given to a team that never gave up even when the chips were way down.

However, we are looking for great success next year.
