Volume XI

... to dream the impossible dream

Every dream, every quest, every goal can be attained only through dedication and effort. United in their search for truth and knowledge, the students of Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School have worked towards one common goal. The Lance of 1967 presents the glorious quest which has converted the impossible dream into reality.

to fight the unbeatable foe...

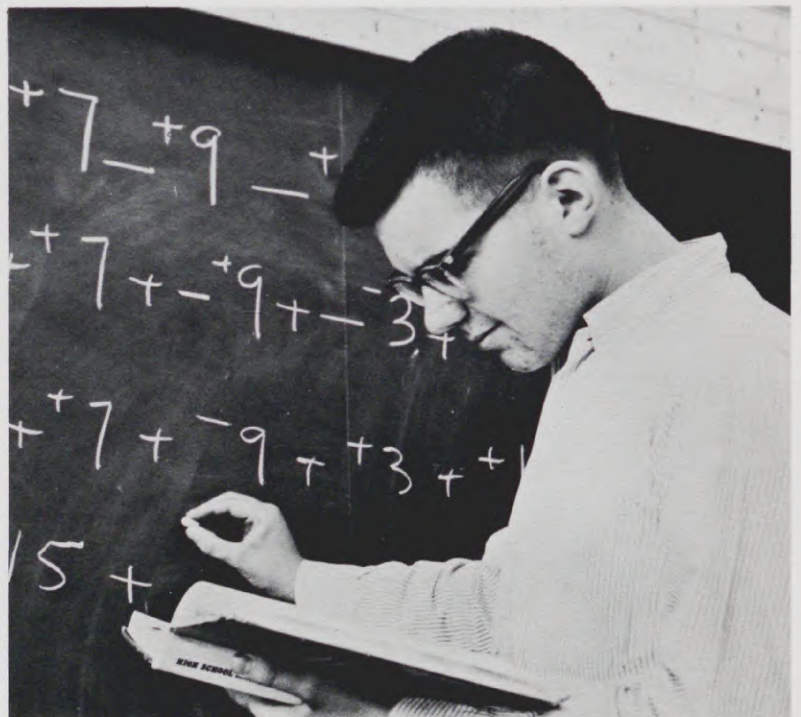

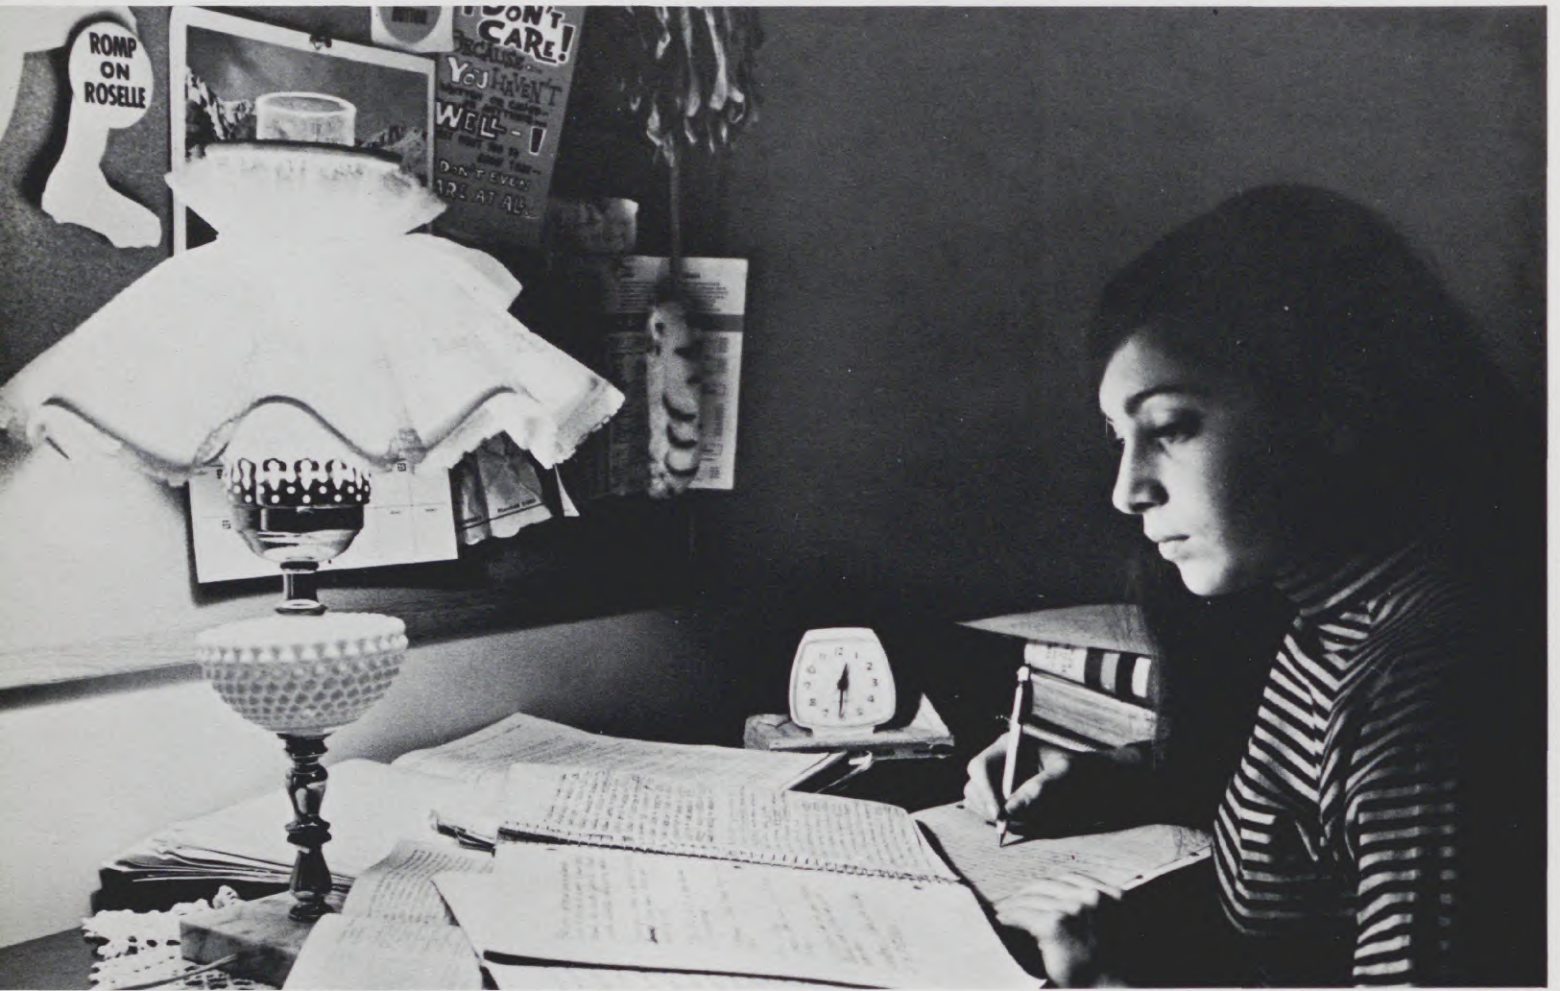

to bear with unbearable sorrow,

to run where the brave dare not go . . .

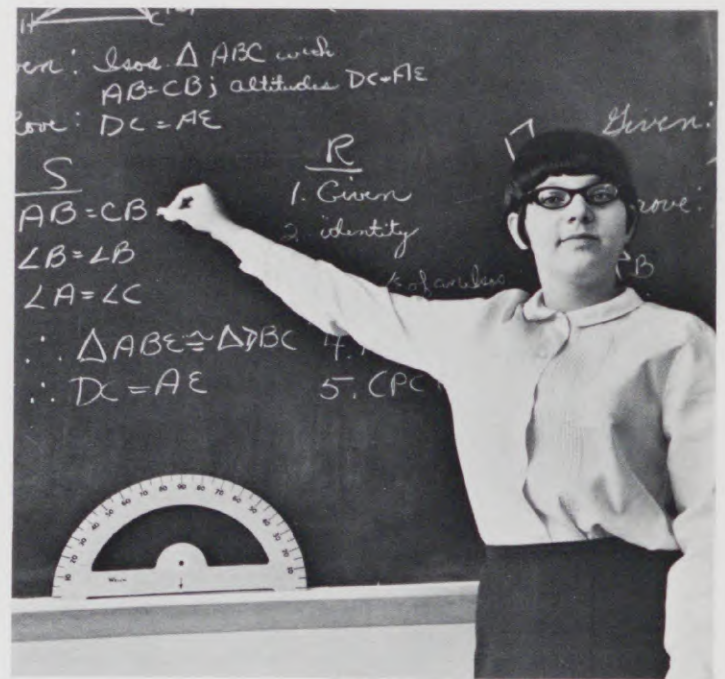

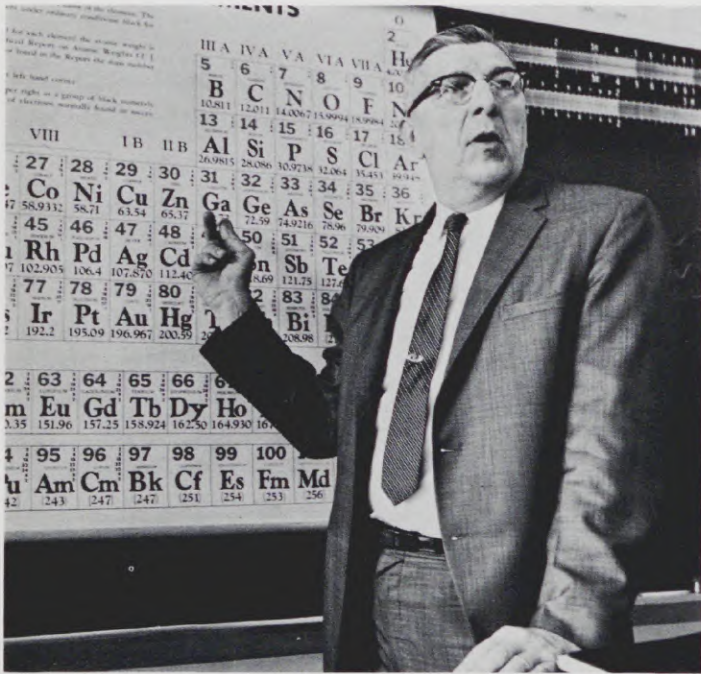

*to try when your arms
are too weary,*

to reach the unreachable star!

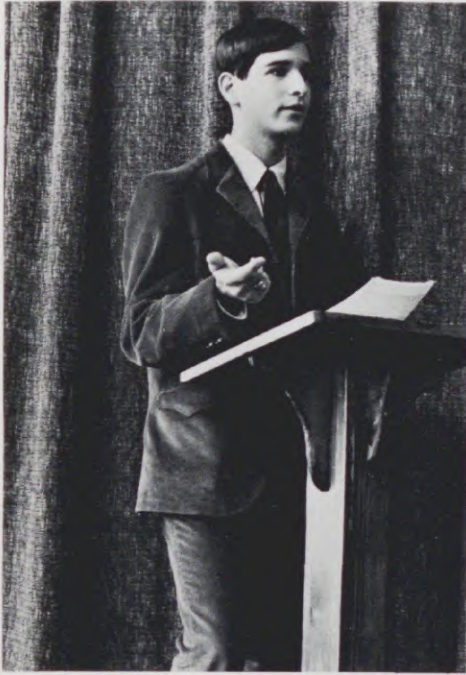

*to fight for the right
without question or pause,*

to be willing to march into hell for a heavenly cause!

*and the world will be better for this;
that one man, scorned and covered with scars*

still strove with his last ounce of courage to reach the unreachable stars

Dedication

The Lance staff dedicates The Lance of 1967 to a teacher who has shown not only an outstanding devotion to the students of Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School but has appeared as a vibrant and necessary part of the school. He instructs mechanical drawing classes, heads the stage crew, and advises the photography club. His ability and effort in building the sets for the Senior Play and Musical reflect a deep interest in the students. In deep appreciation the Lance staff presents The Lance of 1967 to Robert Vitkowsky.

The highlight of the evening came with the naming of the queen and her court. Lovely Lynn Rice was attended by Gail Krebs, Linda Sywec, Joanne Kairis, and Darlene Drummond.

In the Still of the Night

"In the Still of the Night" was held by the Juniors and Seniors on April 21 at the Redwood Inn in Somerville. The upperclassmen enjoyed the evening of dancing and dining and will always recall it with fond memories.

Looking radiant our charming queen, Lynn Rice, sits at her throne.

The Student Council is an organization whose primary design is to function as a coordinating unit between the school administration and the student body. Each homeroom at the beginning of the school year elects a homeroom president to be its representative.

Claire Van Pelt straightens the showcase which displays all the merchandise available to the students in the student store.

Key Club

The Key Club is a select group of boys dedicated to serving the school and the community. The Club undertook such projects as selling toothbrushes and painting the equipment shack. This year at the annual Key Club Dance, Sandy Babich was named Miss Key Club.

Sandy Babich poses for a picture after being named Miss Key Club.

Future Teachers of America

The decoration committee work diligently to complete the decorations for the annual F.T.A. smorgasbord.

The F.T.A. serves as an introduction to teaching for students interested in this profession. The students acquire information from guest speakers and by visiting other schools and colleges. The proceeds from the annual smorgasbord go to a scholarship for a deserving senior member.

Lance

Dianne Graham, Sue Mumford, Jean Richer, Claire VanPelt and Shaaron Warne ponder the big question . . . which pictures to be used in The Lance.

Mr. McCusker oversees typists Jean Mueller and Gerrie Weinstein as they prepare the final copy.

Miss Allgoever and Glenn Roth review completed layouts before the yearbook is sent to press.

Staff

The Lance staff has the unique responsibility of producing a record of the school year at Johnson Regional. Much effort and dedication is put forth by the staff members as they strive to present all aspects of high school life.

Color Guard

No football games, assembly, pep rally, or parade would be complete without the performance of the color guard. At all of these events, this squad of hardworking girls has impressed many by their original and precise drilling.

THE 1967 SQUAD

Left to right: B. Skopiec, L. Heinze, C. Adaczik, C. Nelson, K. Fernandez, K. Kane, B. Flachek, H. Pearl, P. DiBiagio.

Twirlers

The twirlers add extra life to our pep rallies, football games, dances, and band concerts. Judging from their performance during the past year, their long hours of after-school practice have brought fine results.

THE 1966-67 SQUAD

Cheerleaders

School spirit is the key to athletic success and at A.L.J. ten cheerleaders certainly have proven this fact. Displaying unlimited enthusiasm at all sport functions, our ten spirited cheerleaders have brightened many cold and cloudy days.

B. Hauswald, S. Miskovich, K. Himple, B. Rambo, B. Clark, capt., S. E. Gunther, co-capt., L. Merkel, S. Mantz, C. Coniglio, S. Maguire.

Vocal Music Groups at Christmas Concert

Reflecting a desire and ability to sing, each member of the Concert Choir exercises his talent to the fullest extent.

The highest honor a vocal student can receive is to be chosen for the Bel Canto, a select group composed of especially talented students.

All girls in each choral group, in addition to the following, combine their talents to form the Belle-Tones.

Oklahoma!

"Everything's up to date in Kansas City!"

"I cain't say no!"

After months of practice and preparation, A.L.J. presented Rodgers and Hammerstein's Oklahoma! On March 16th, 17th and 18th both young and old enjoyed the extremely successful presentation. The acting was ably directed by Miss Isabelle Walsh and her student assistant Sherry Lawrence. Mr. Andrew Jupina, who directed the orchestra, collaborated with Miss Mildred Midkiff and her vocal arrangements. Mrs. Annamay Walcoff and Mrs. Pat McCusker were the choreographers of the exuberant dance routines. Mr. Robert Vitkowsky, who also played in the orchestra, designed the set which was constructed by Mr. Leon Kvedar. The combination of these talents with those of the students involved, proved to be one of the highlights of the school year.

G.A.A. Activities

The Girls' Athletic Association provides every girl with a wonderful opportunity to take advantage of all her favorite sports. There is a wide variety of athletic activities held after school that the girls can choose from, including basketball, horse-back riding, field hockey, modern dance, and golf.

The G.A.A. officers are responsible for orienting the new freshmen and providing the girls with a Spring Sports Roundup held in June. During this time the girls are presented with awards for participation in three or more different sports during the school year.

Football

Bill Osmanski finds a hole after key blocks by the line.

Quarterback Greg Gorski gets sideline help from Coach Kelin.

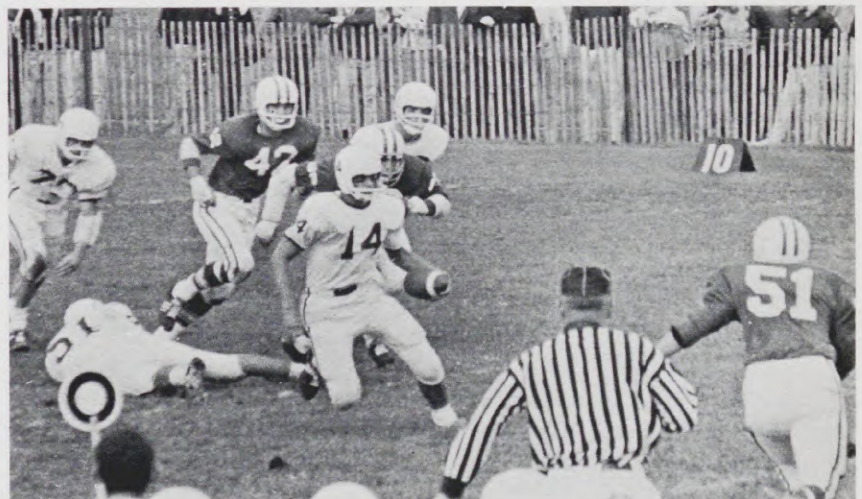

Crusaders are stopped for no gain.

1966

Under the efforts of Coach Kelin and his able assistants, the Crusaders achieved a most successful season. By beating Rahway and Scotch Plains, we captured the V.F.W. trophy and the Thanksgiving Day Trophy.

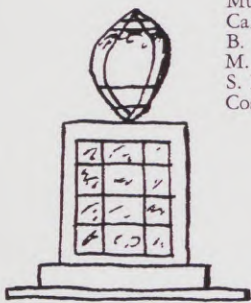

This year's team was aided by the passing of Greg Gorski, the pass-catching of Dennis Beaver and Jay Bertelson, and the power packed backfield of Larry Buoni and Doug Proe. The offensive line of Tom Nicholas, Bill Wheeler, and Steve Ciccotelli proved a significant factor in our 5-4 winning record.

Greg Gorski eludes defenders for a long gain.

Cross Country

In their second year the cross-country team worked hard and steady. The team is still young, but with the help of their able coach, Mr. Giebelhaus, the team is certain to surpass many opponents in the seasons to come.

Bob Harris and Wayne Carrick set the pace and the spirit.

Bill Kraynak goes for the pin.

Although their record is not a symbol of their effort, the wrestling team had many fine wrestlers. The basis of wrestling is the ability to aid and advise teammates. The wrestlers definitely lived up to these ideals. A sport such as wrestling carries many injuries but the Crusaders had the depth to fill the gap.

A.L.J. regrets the illness of Coach Fulton, but did well under the leadership of their new coach, Mr. Amo. The basketball team tied the school record for the number of wins in one season with eleven. Their 11-11 record reflected an effort of team play. Among the teams they beat during regular competition were Springfield, Westfield, Cranford and Hillside. The team had numerous close wins as they earned a place in State Tournament competition.

In Memoriam

Charles William Severs

Here we wish to pay tribute to one who, had he lived, would be graduating with us this year. Billy, as most people called him, is remembered for his cheerful laughter and carefree ways. Very seldom was Billy seen without a smile on his face or a twinkle in his eye. Through the years we knew him we found him to be dependable and sincere, and we were proud to call him our friend. We shall always want to remember him.

Dear Reader,

The Impossible Dream has been attained only through the efforts of individuals who have given unselfishly of their time and energy. Without this help, many of the goals the staff hoped to achieve would never have been fulfilled; many of the memories which will now be yours would not have been as vivid and beautiful. I would like to express my deepest thanks to Mr. DeCaro, Mr. DeRosa, Mr. Vitkowsky, Normandy Studios, Mr. Pruett of Progress Associates, the Administration, the Faculty, and our benefactors. Enough could not be said to thank Miss Allgoever and Mrs. Schragger for their patience, advice and complete understanding. Mr. McCusker deserves special credit for the many long hours and personal help which he put forth to finance the yearbook.

A special thanks to my staff for their dedication, effort and understanding. I hope that we all look back upon editing the Lance with fond memories realizing that some of our hopes, which on days looked bleak and dismal, were finally fulfilled. Without people as devoted as you, the Lance of 1967 would never have existed.

A year which at times seemed long has passed rather quickly. I hope you all enjoy the Lance as much as we have enjoyed editing it.

My best wishes go to next year's staff. As long as you remain true to your quest a yearbook of fond memories will be yours.

Sincerely,

Glenno Roth

Editor-in-Chief
