Dear Amy,

Well we've made it. Can you believe it? We're Seniors! I can remember my first day here like yesterday. Our friendship has really grown over the years. We've both experienced many people (as we well know!), & many different situations. Take for instance our good 'ole Geometry class. & Mr. "Arch" himself. The list would be so long, I couldn't write down all the events. The end of the years we've cherished most. Next year is the end of the years we've got to cherish every minute & learn a lot! I hope you find much happiness in your life, & life is rewarding to you.

Love always,
Donna

To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose
under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to reap;

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to get, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace . . .

Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works;
for that is his portion:

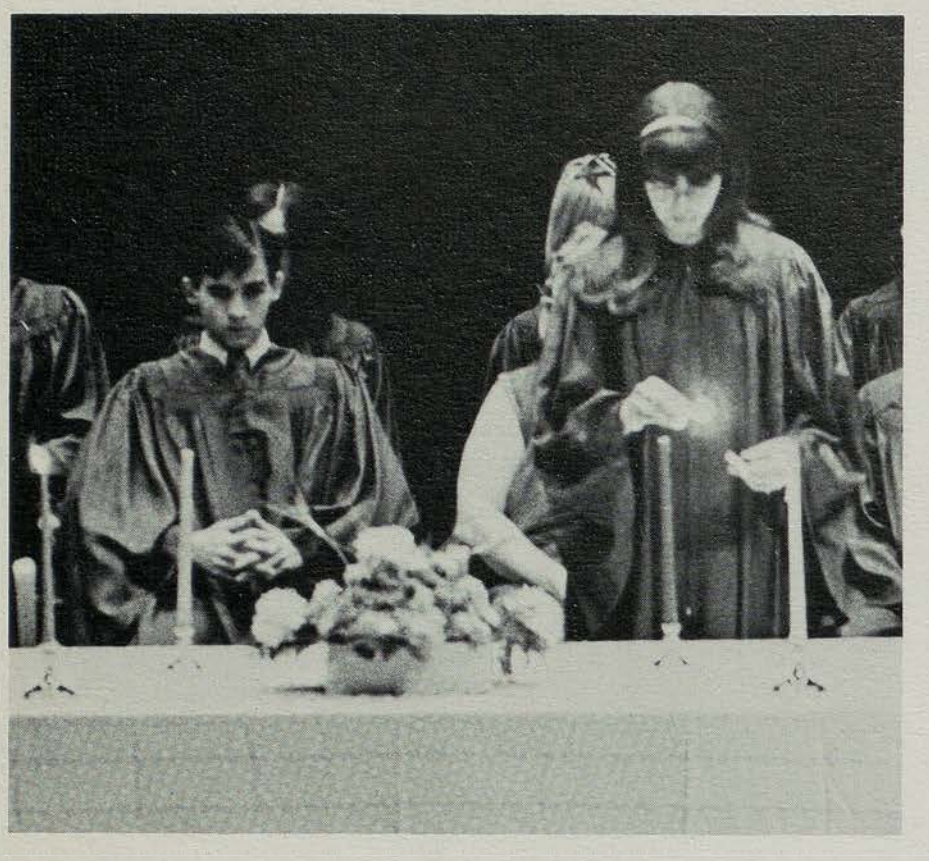

For who shall bring him to see
what shall be after him?

Ecclesiastes 3

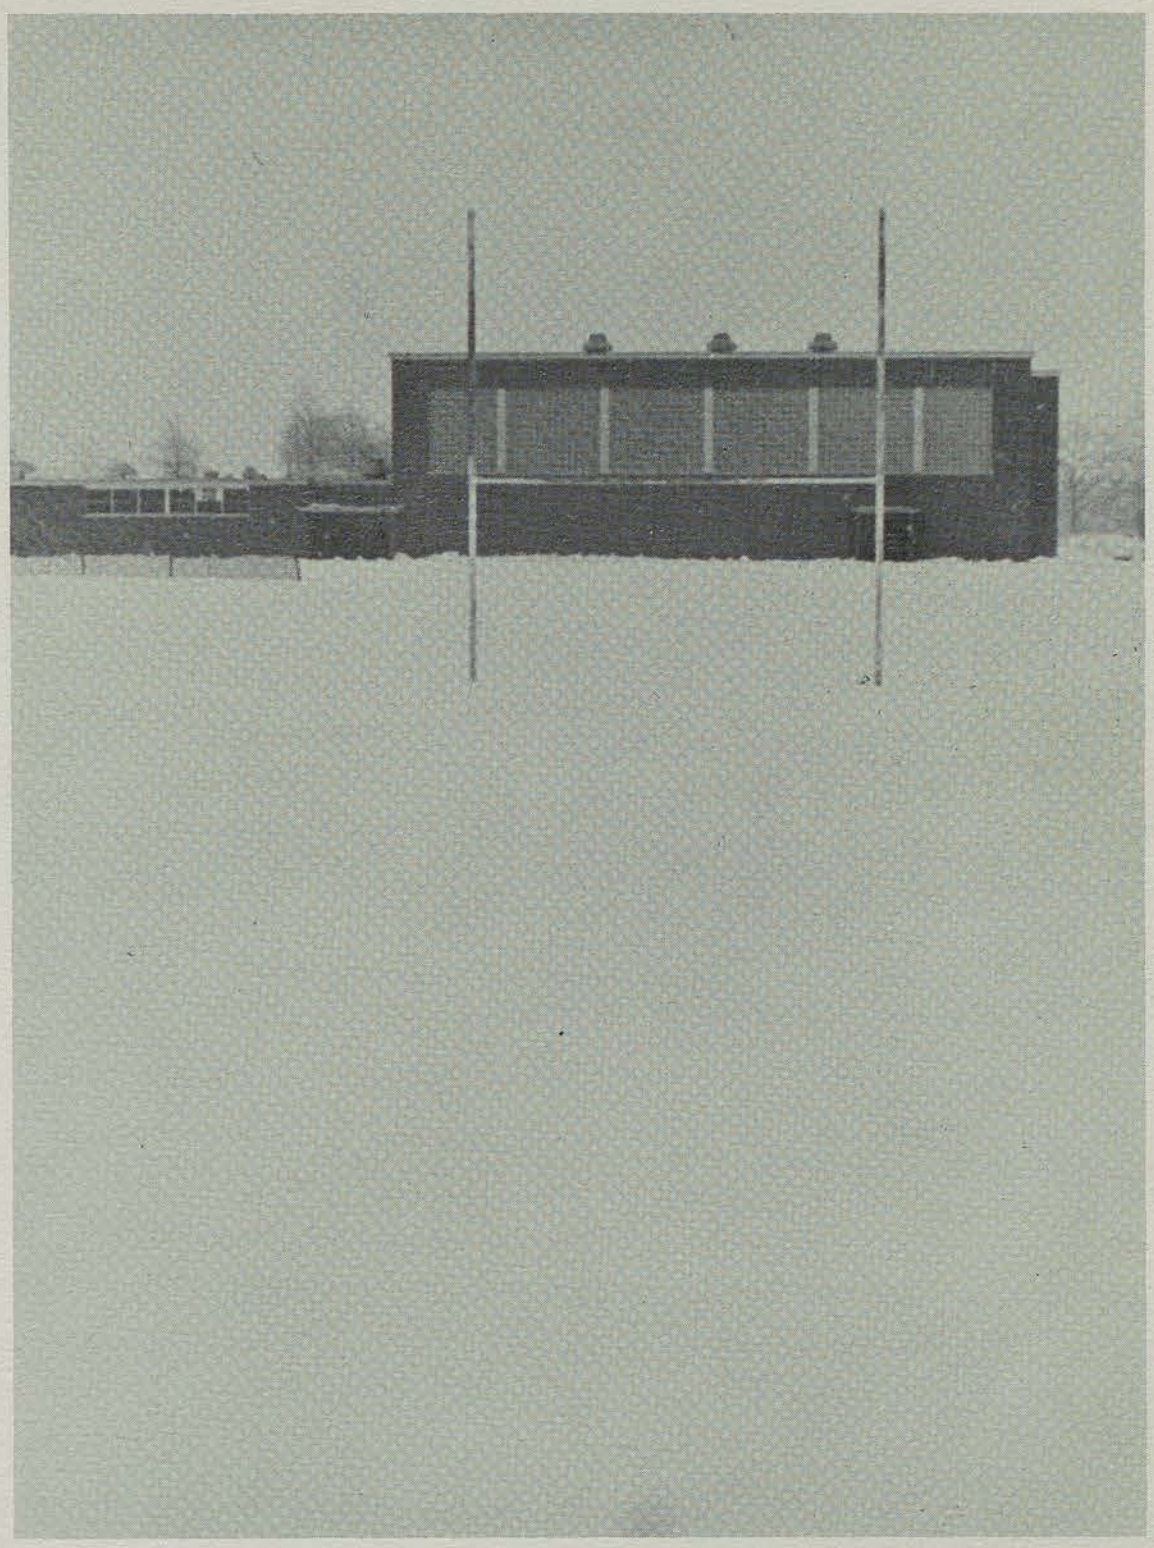

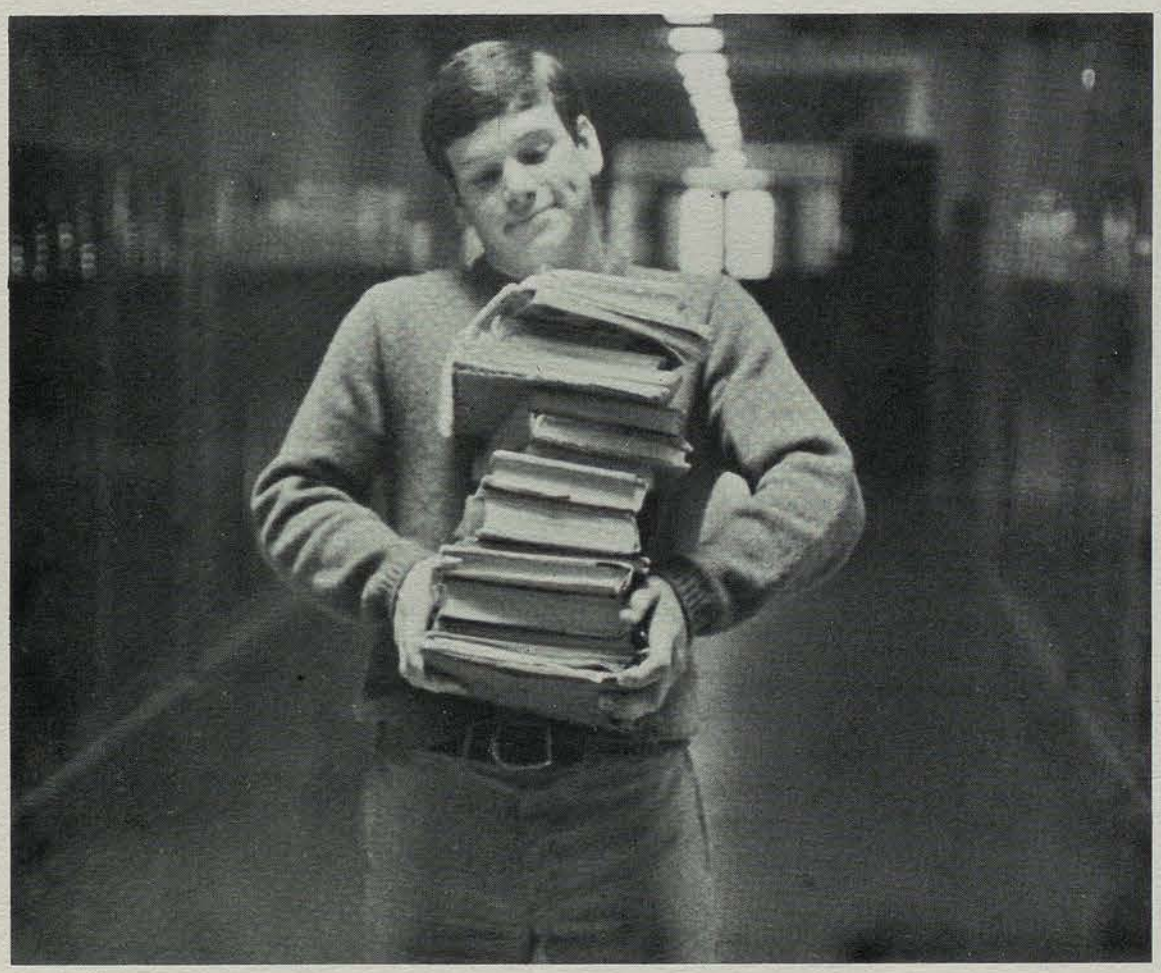

To every thing there is a season,
and a time to every purpose
under the heaven:

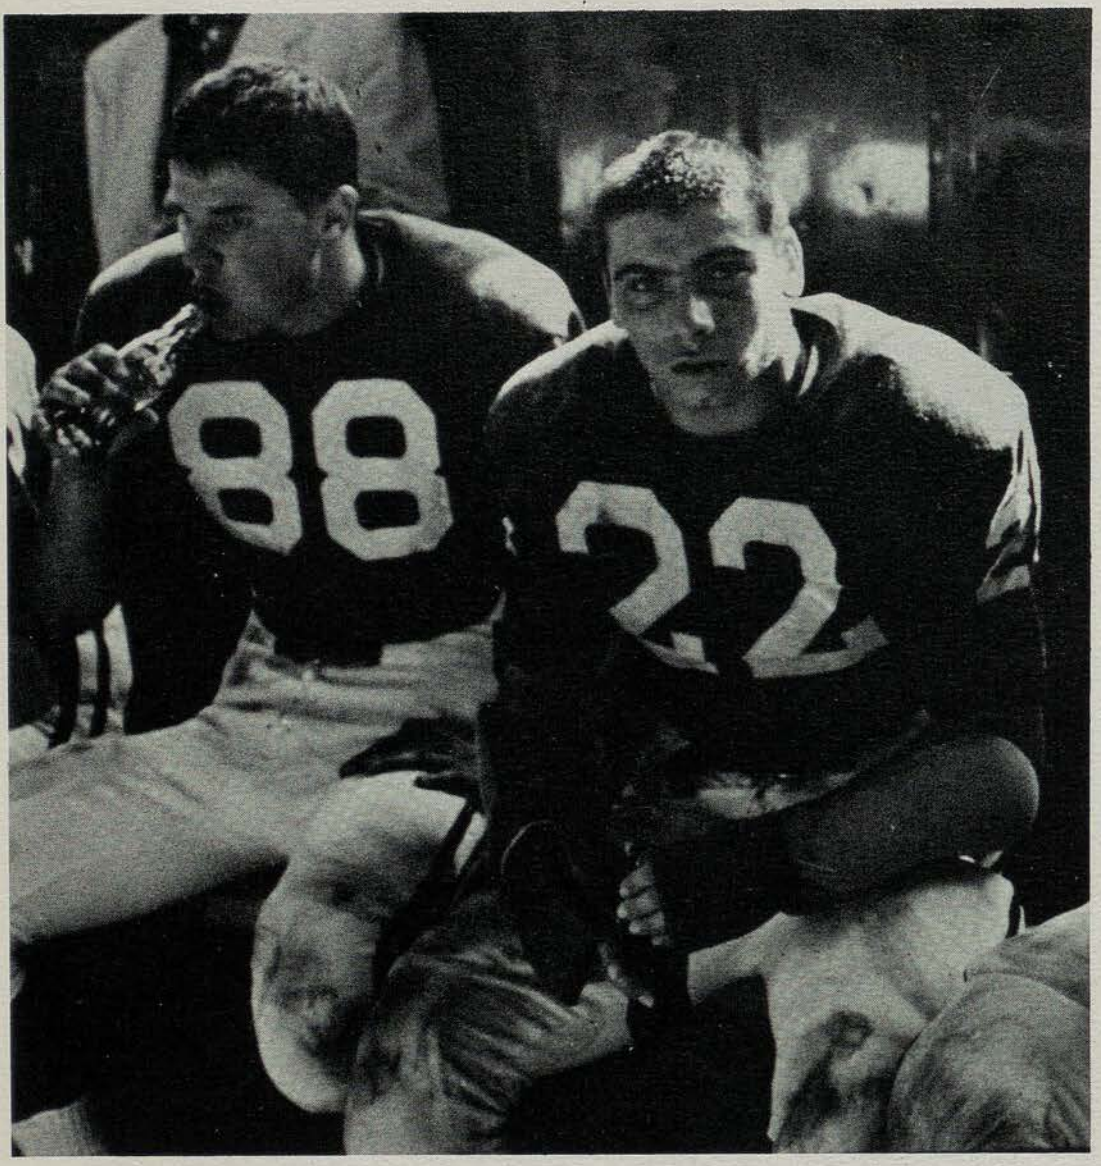

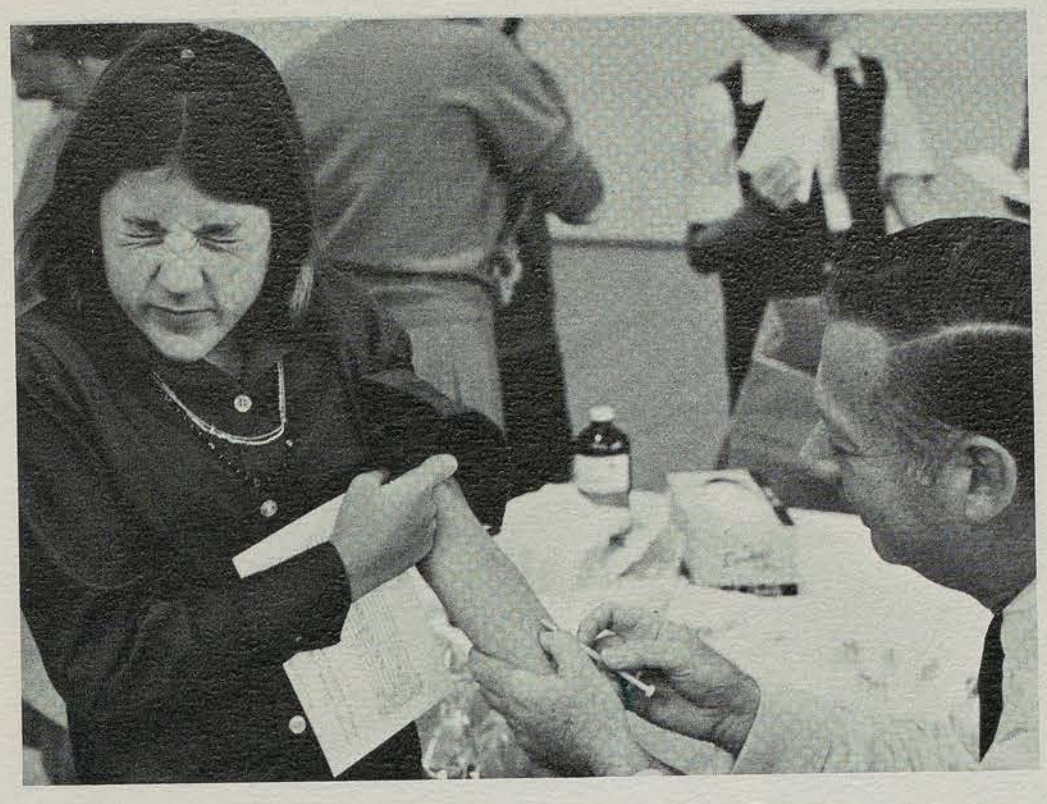

A time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to reap;

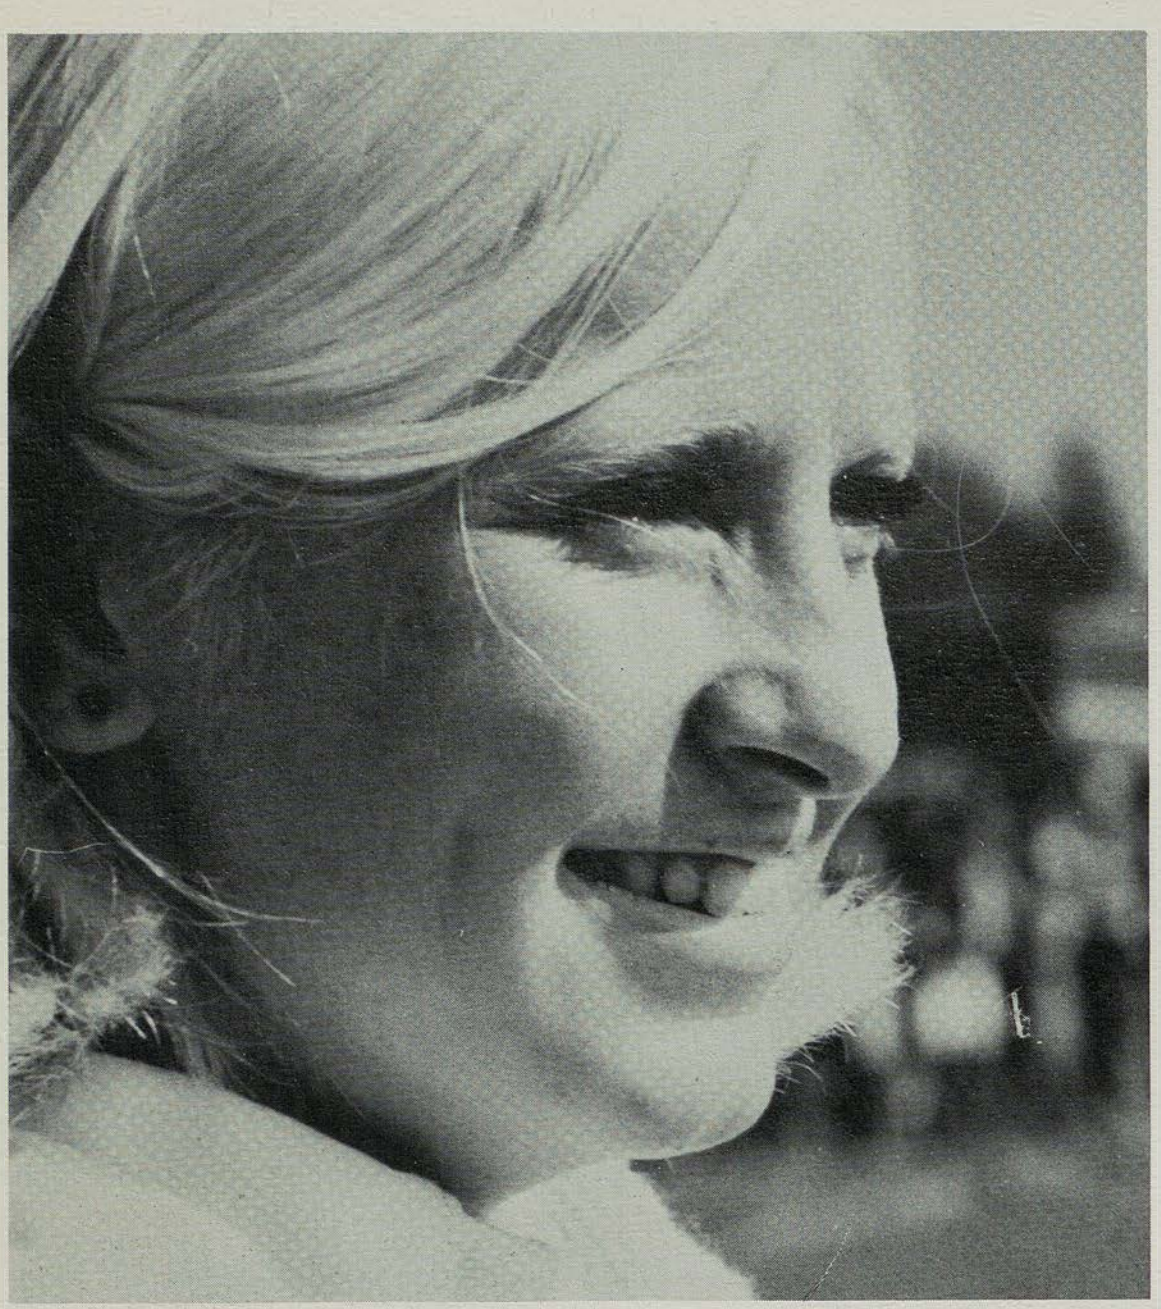

A time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;

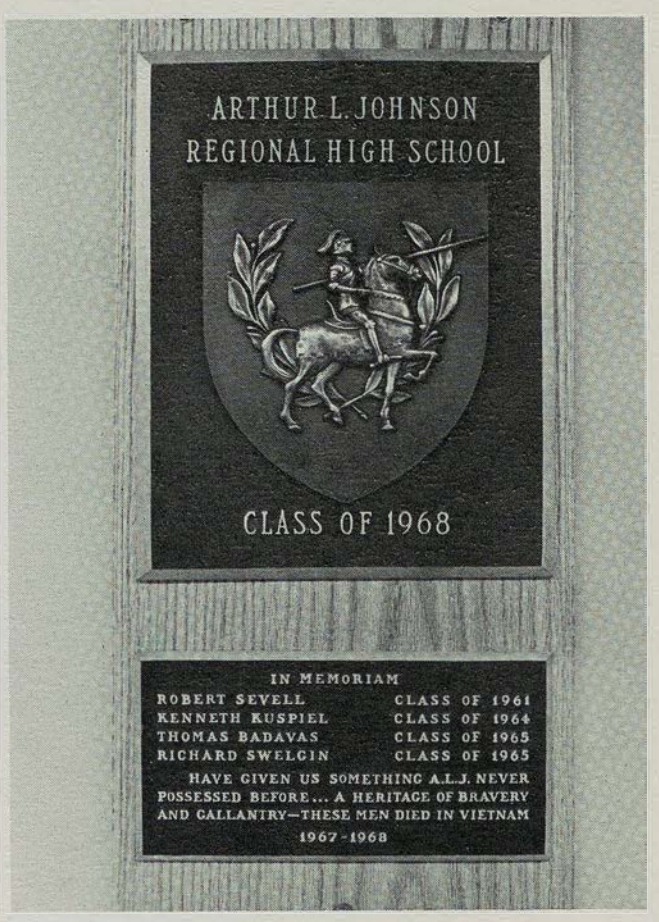

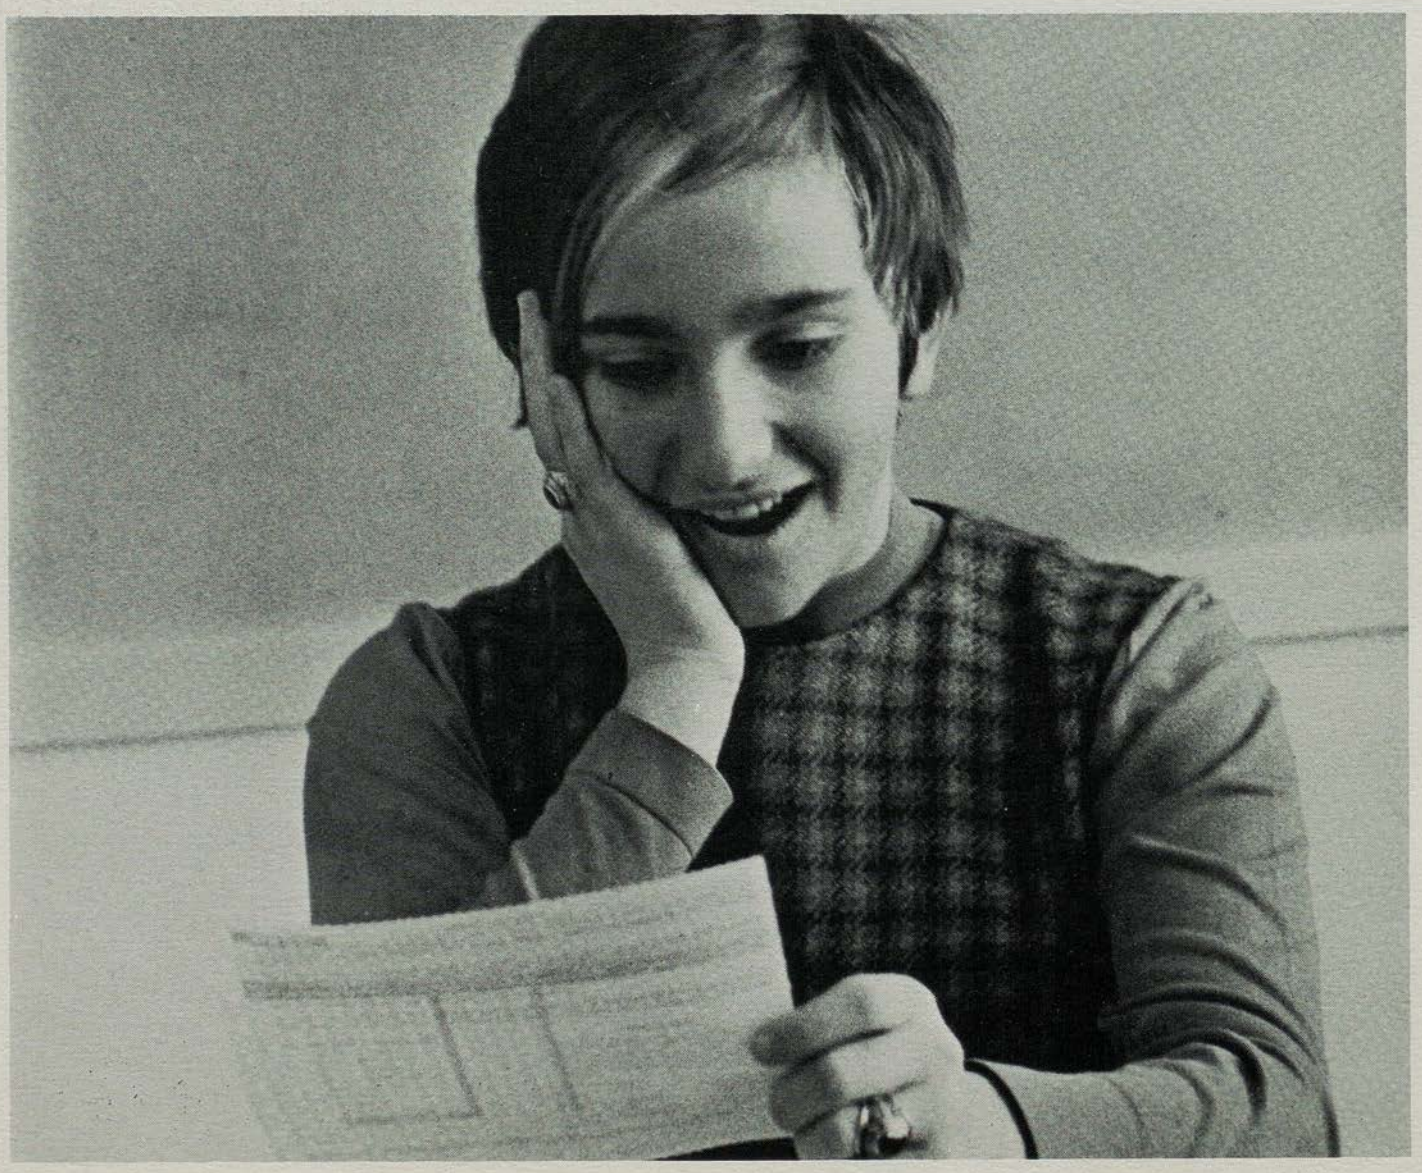

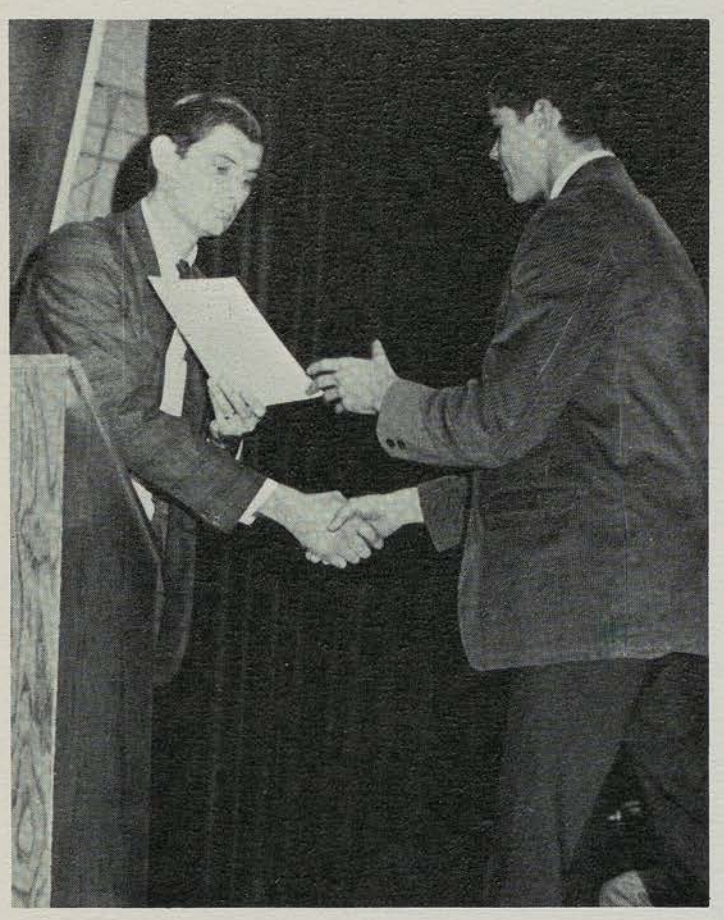

A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

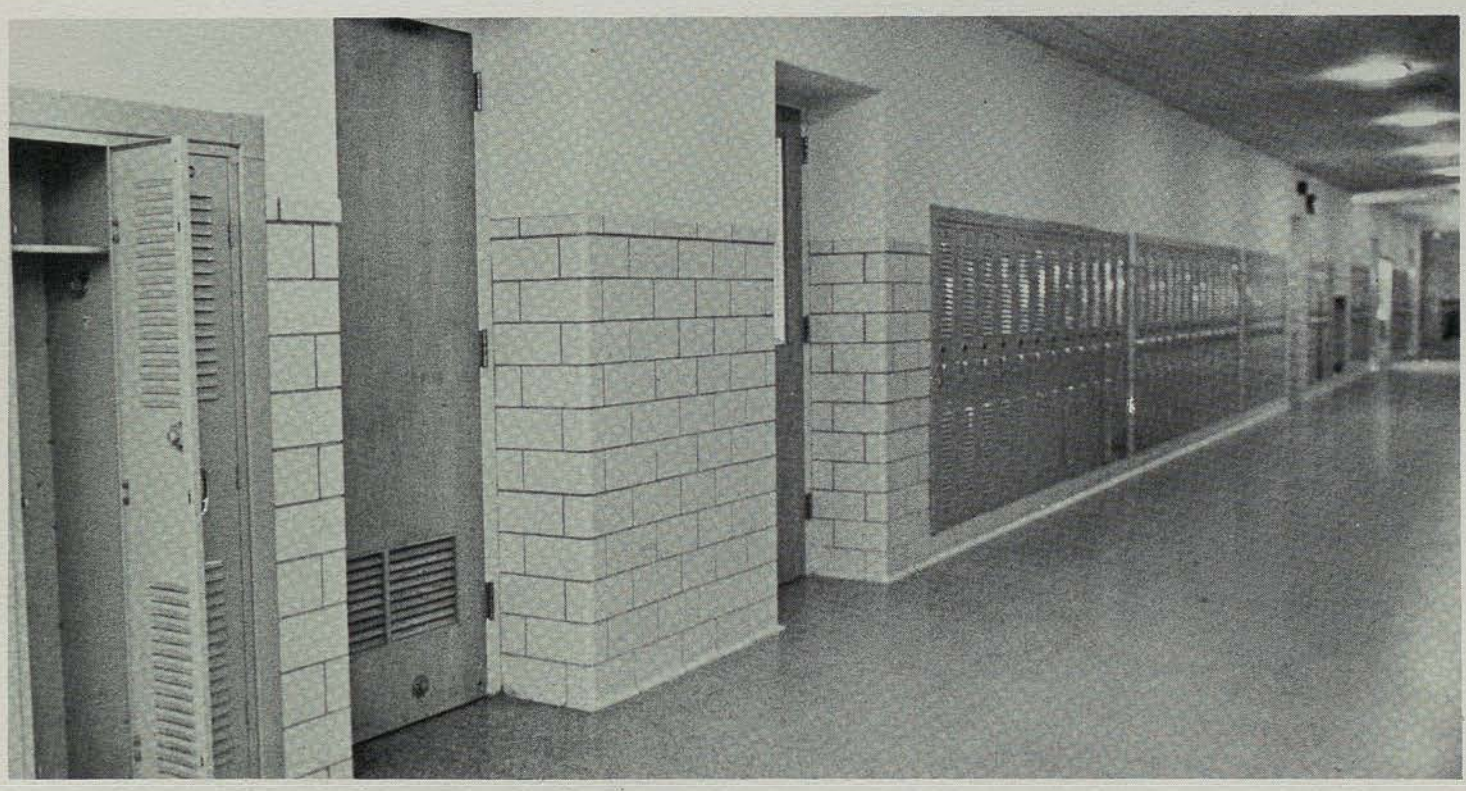

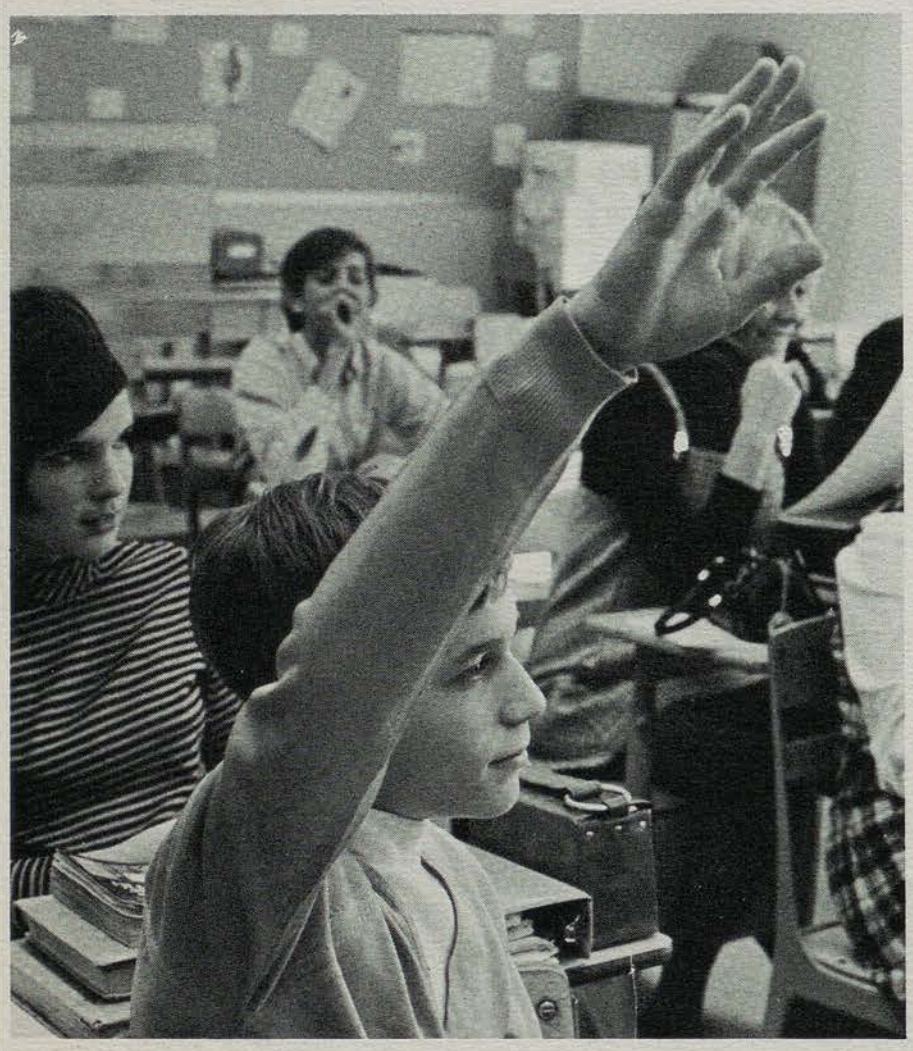

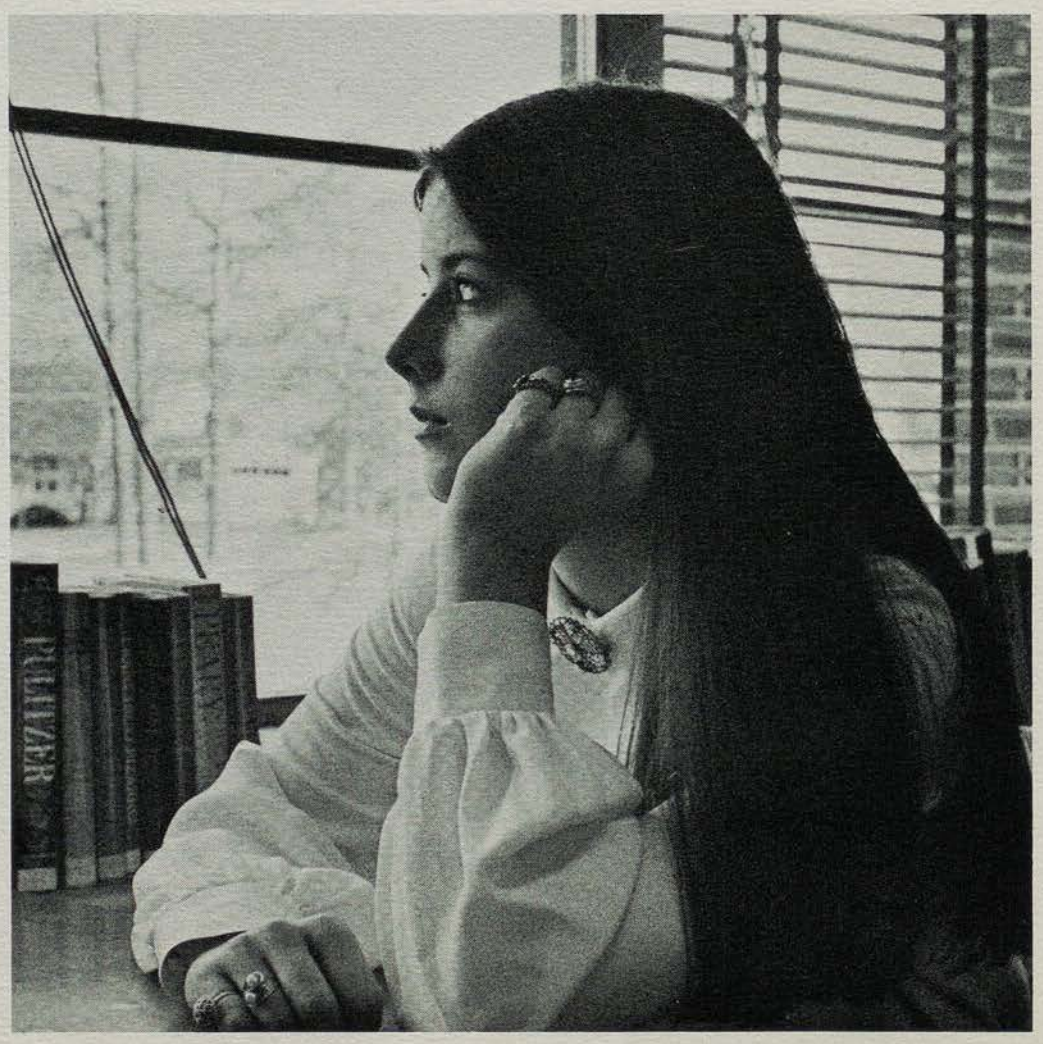

A time to get, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

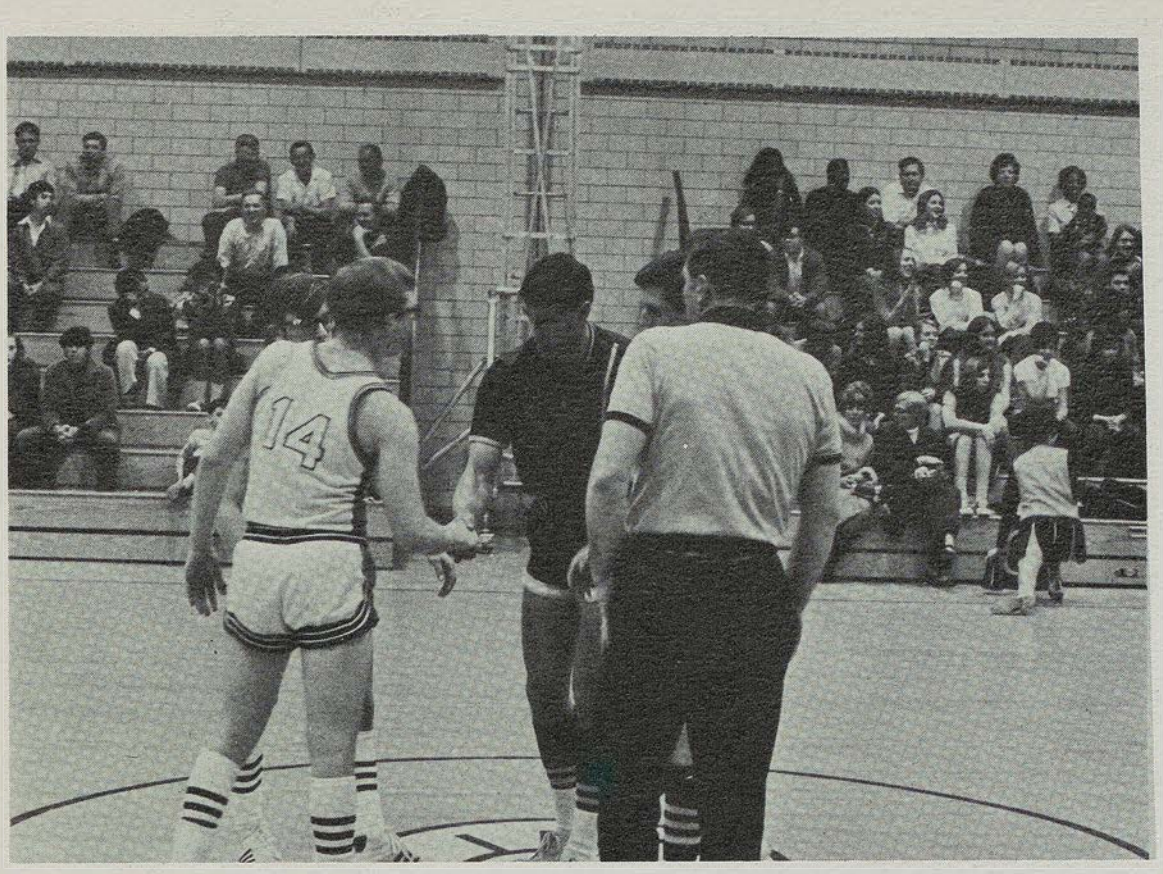

A time to rend, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

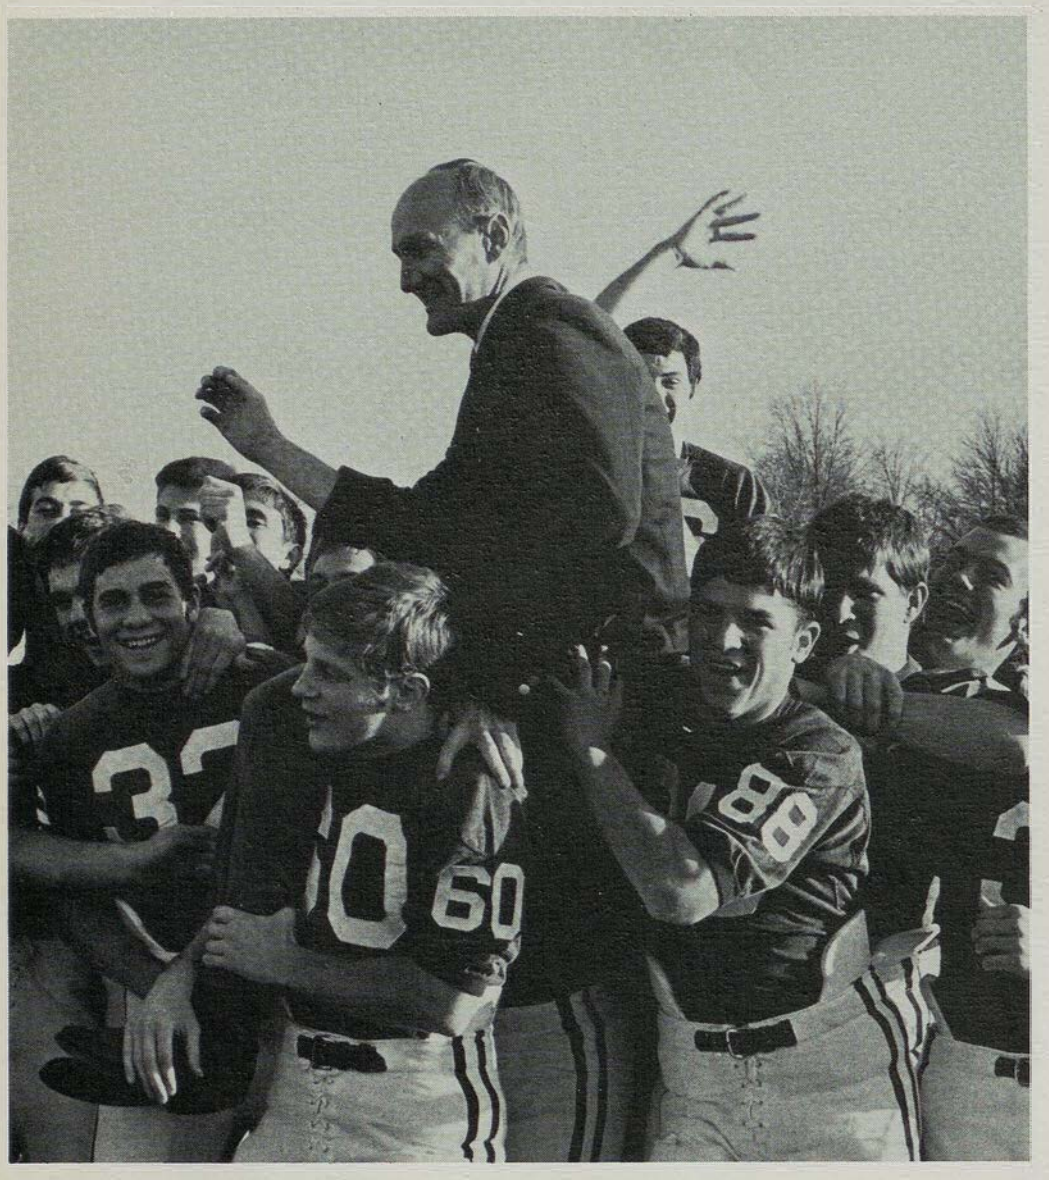

A time to love, and a time to hate;
a time of war, and a time of peace . . .

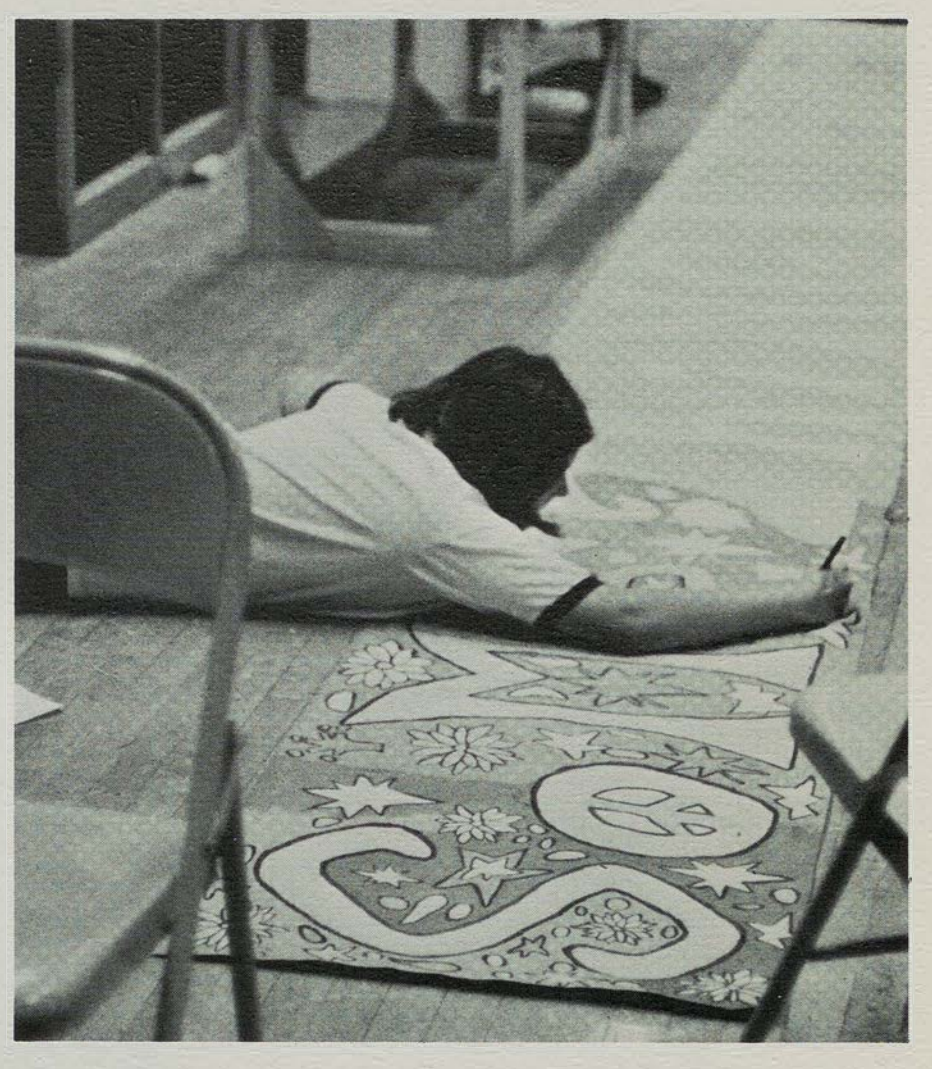

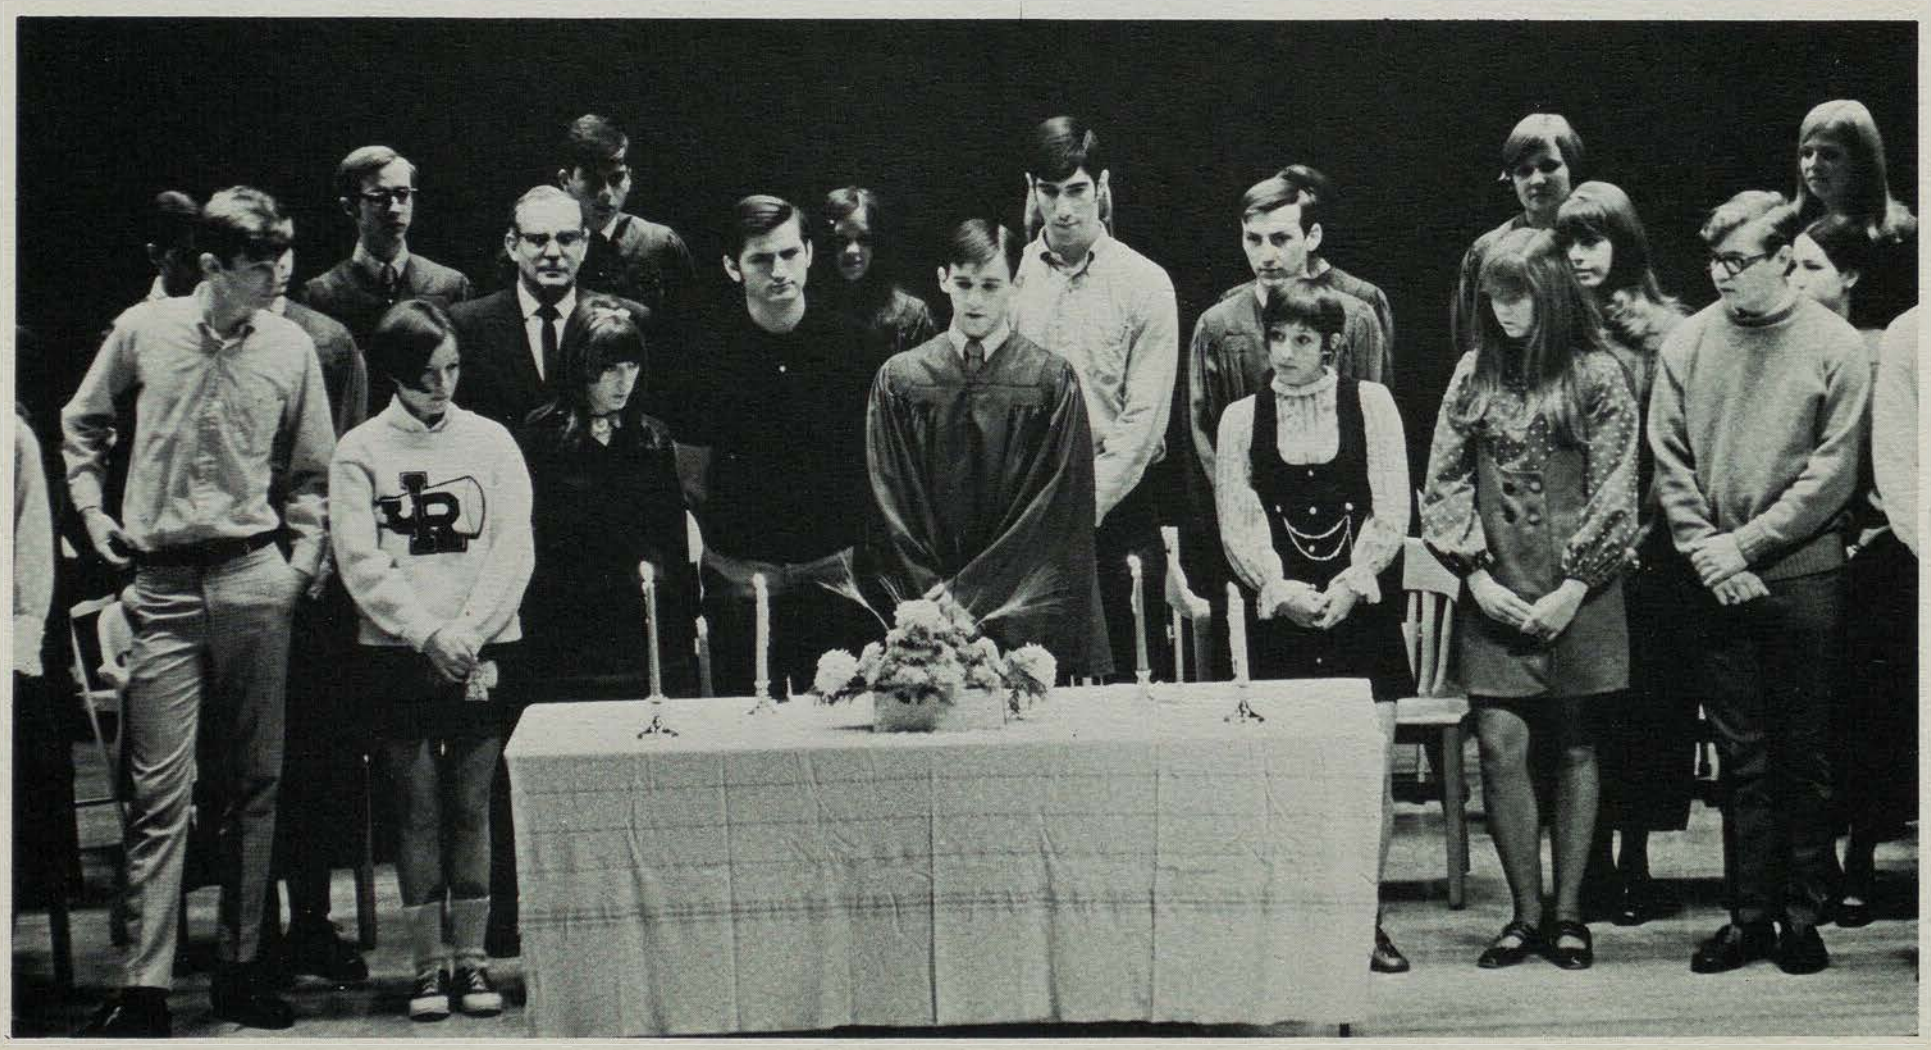

Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better than that a man should rejoice in his own works;

for that is his portion:

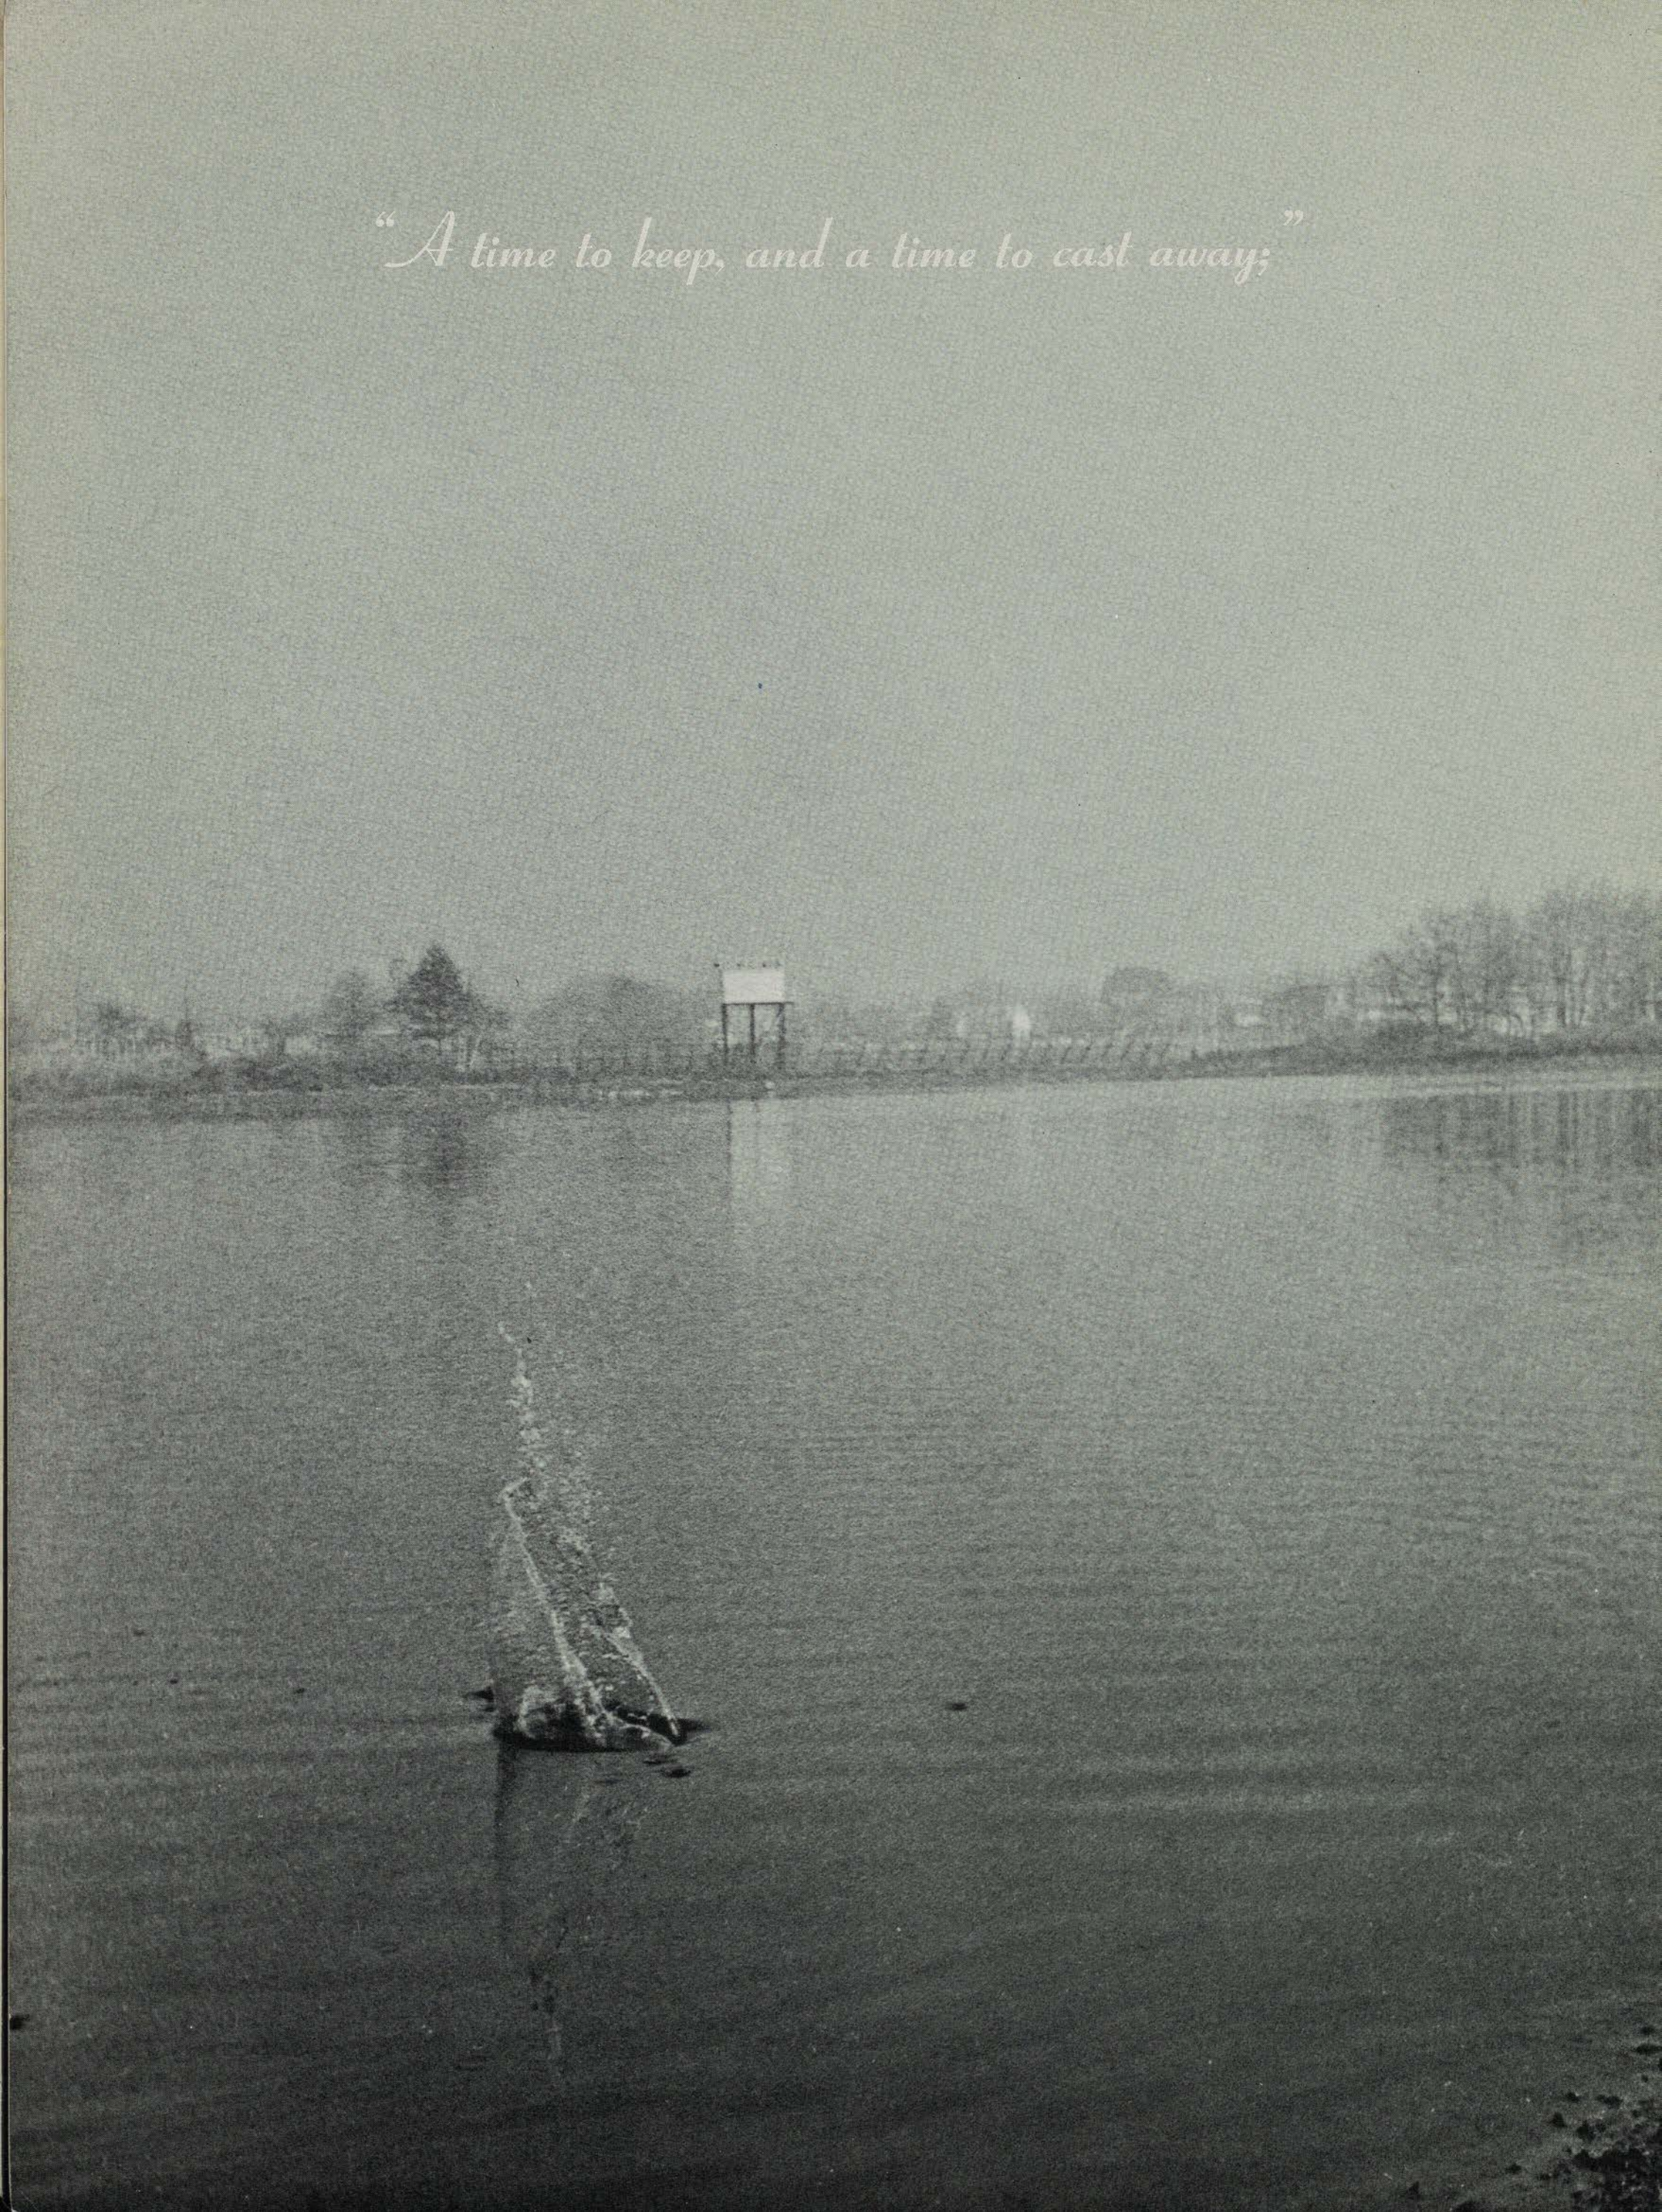

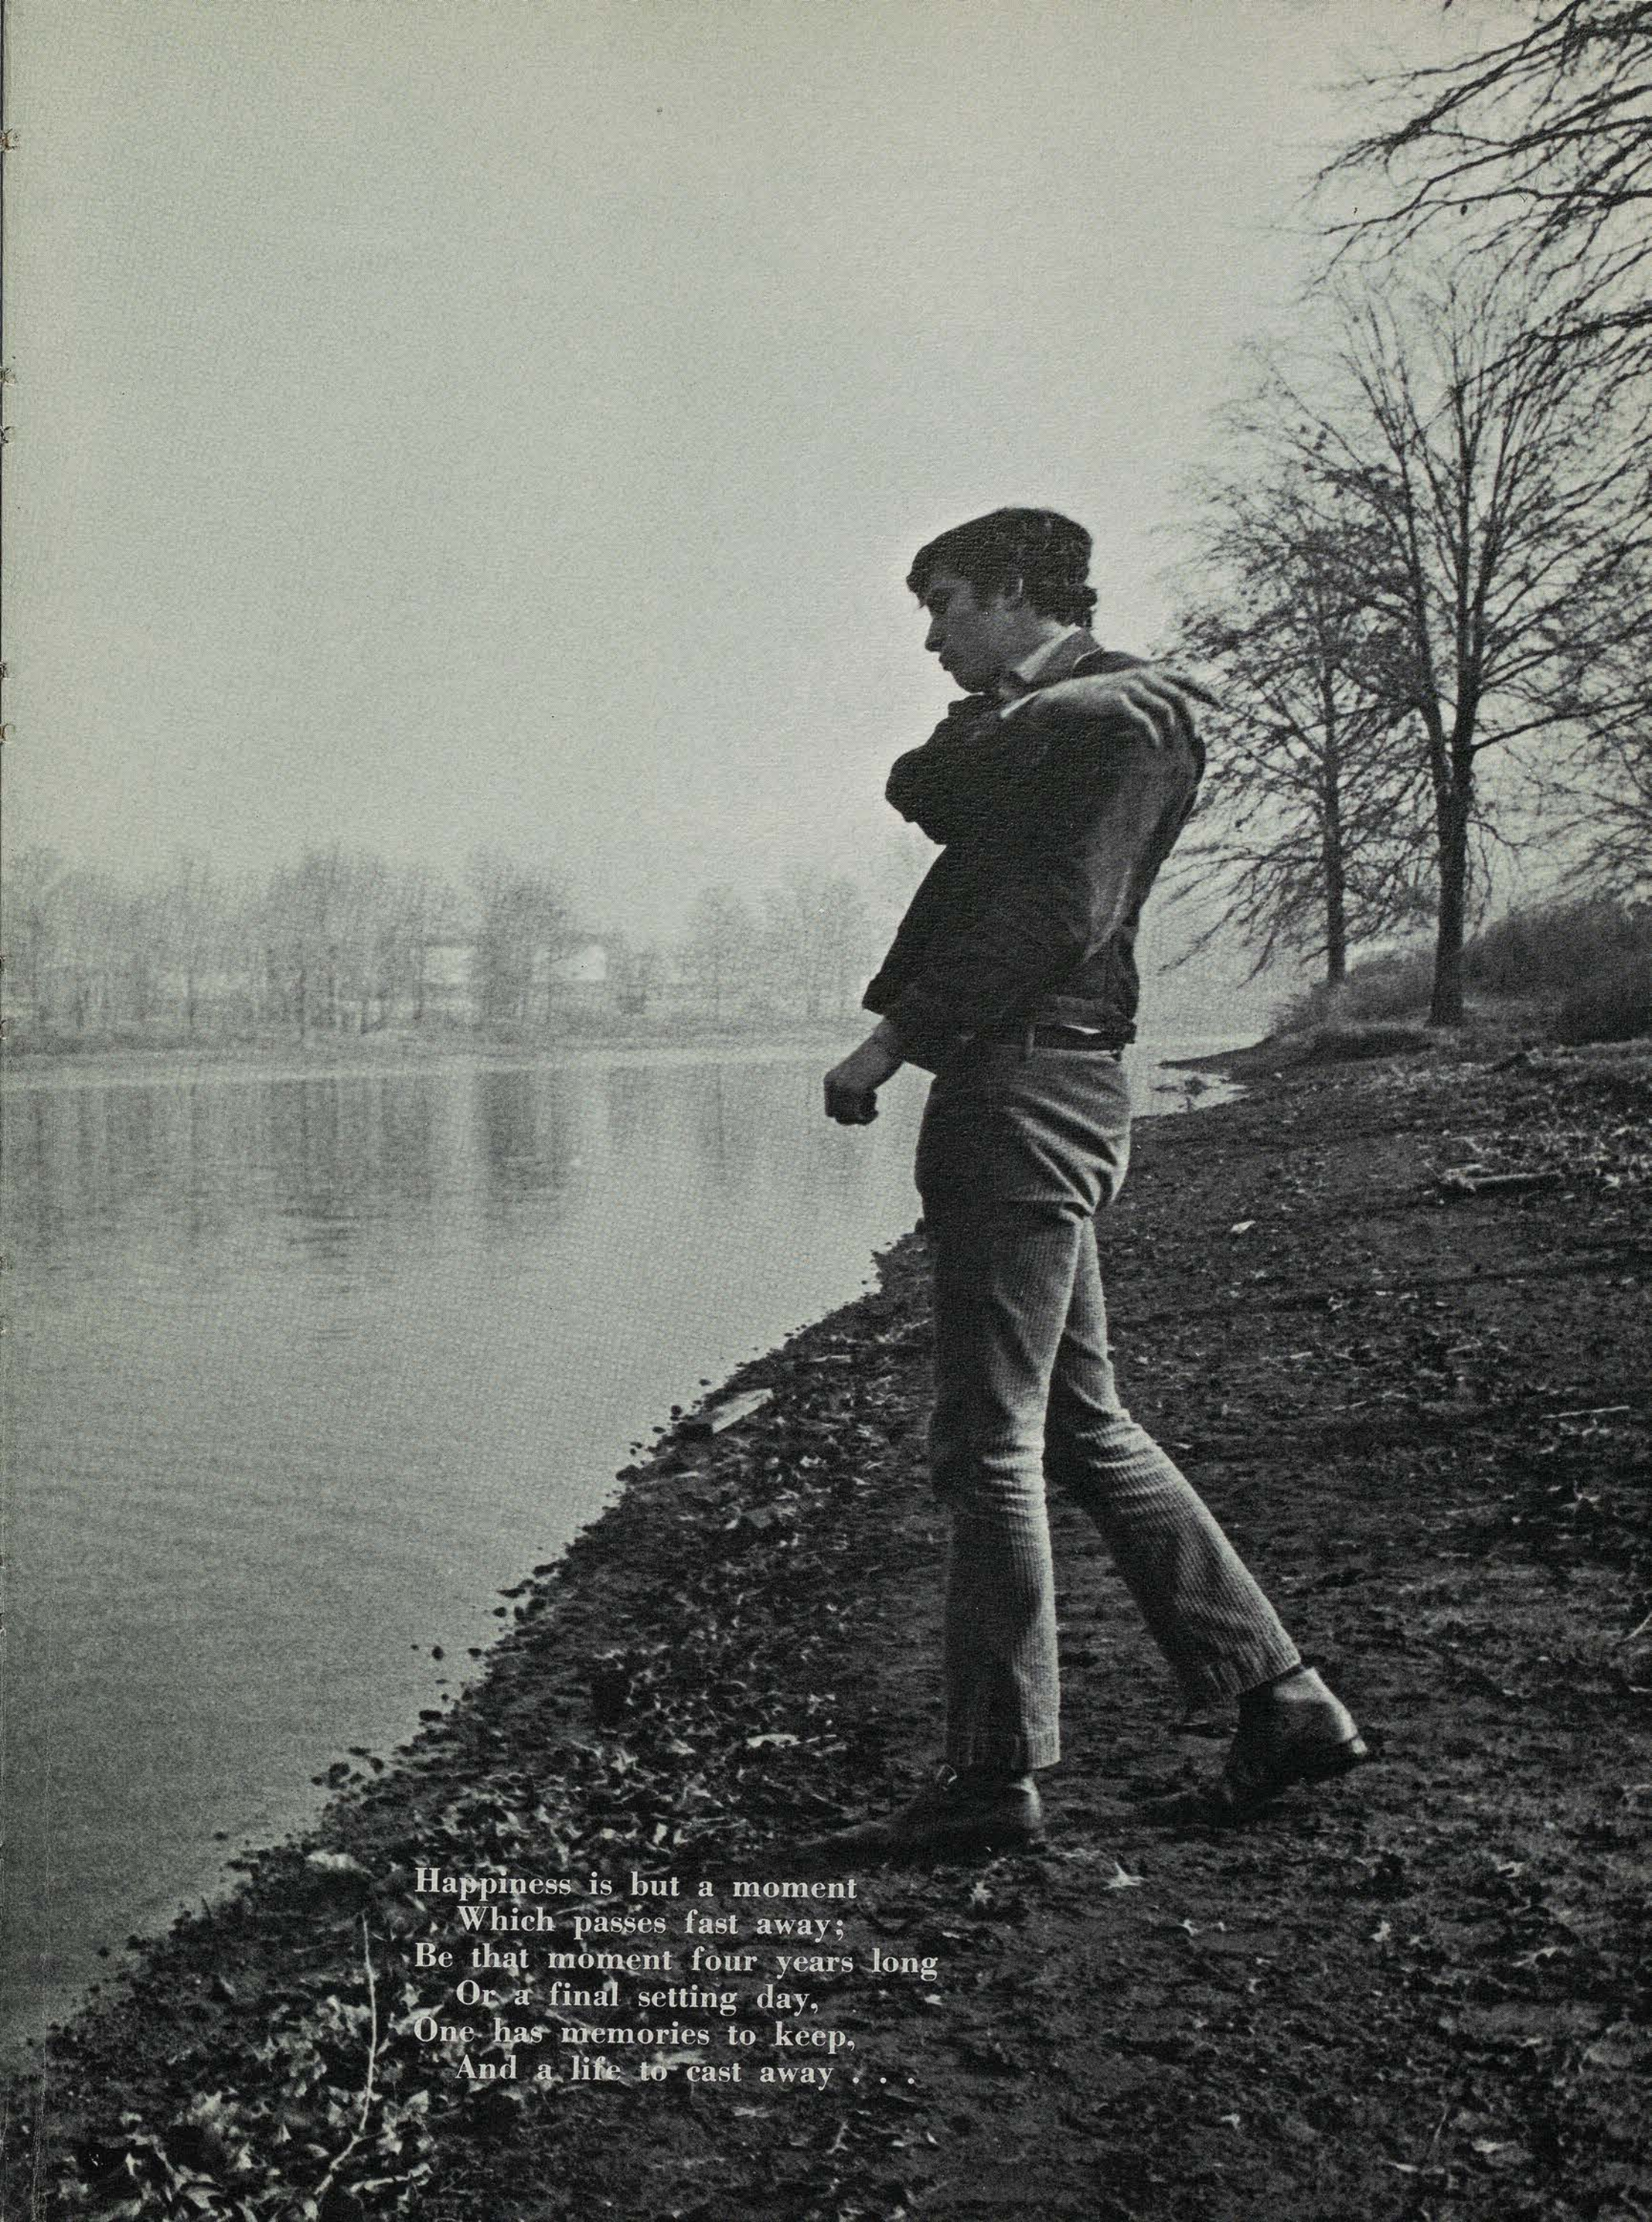

for who shall bring him to see
what shall be after him?

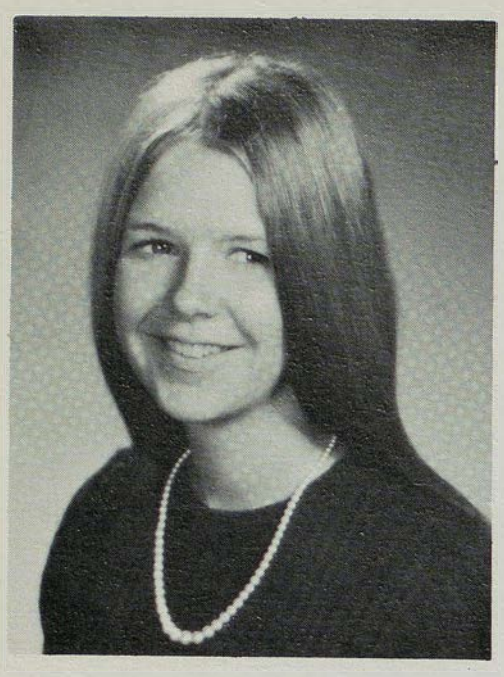

"A time to keep, and a time to cast away;"

Happiness is but a moment
Which passes fast away;
Be that moment four years long
Or a final setting day,
One has memories to keep,
And a life to cast away . . .

With purpose ingrained deep;

DEDICATION

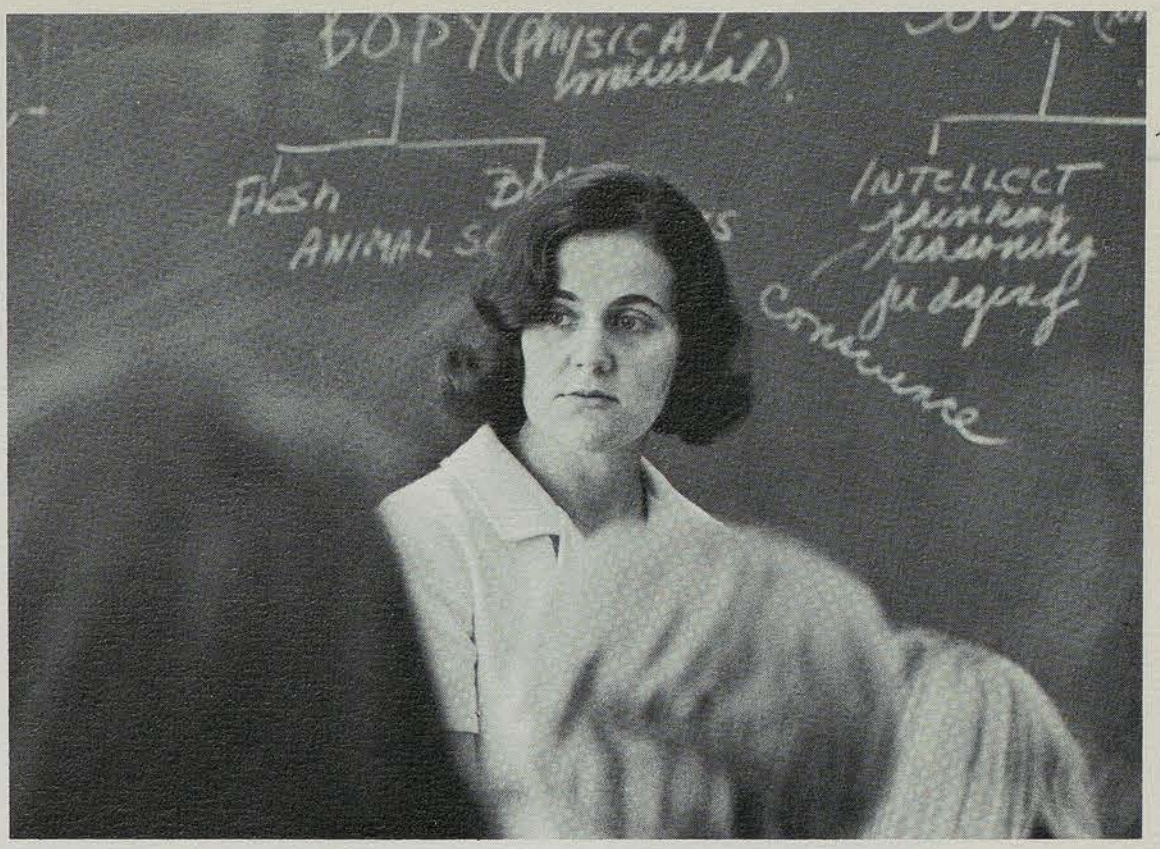

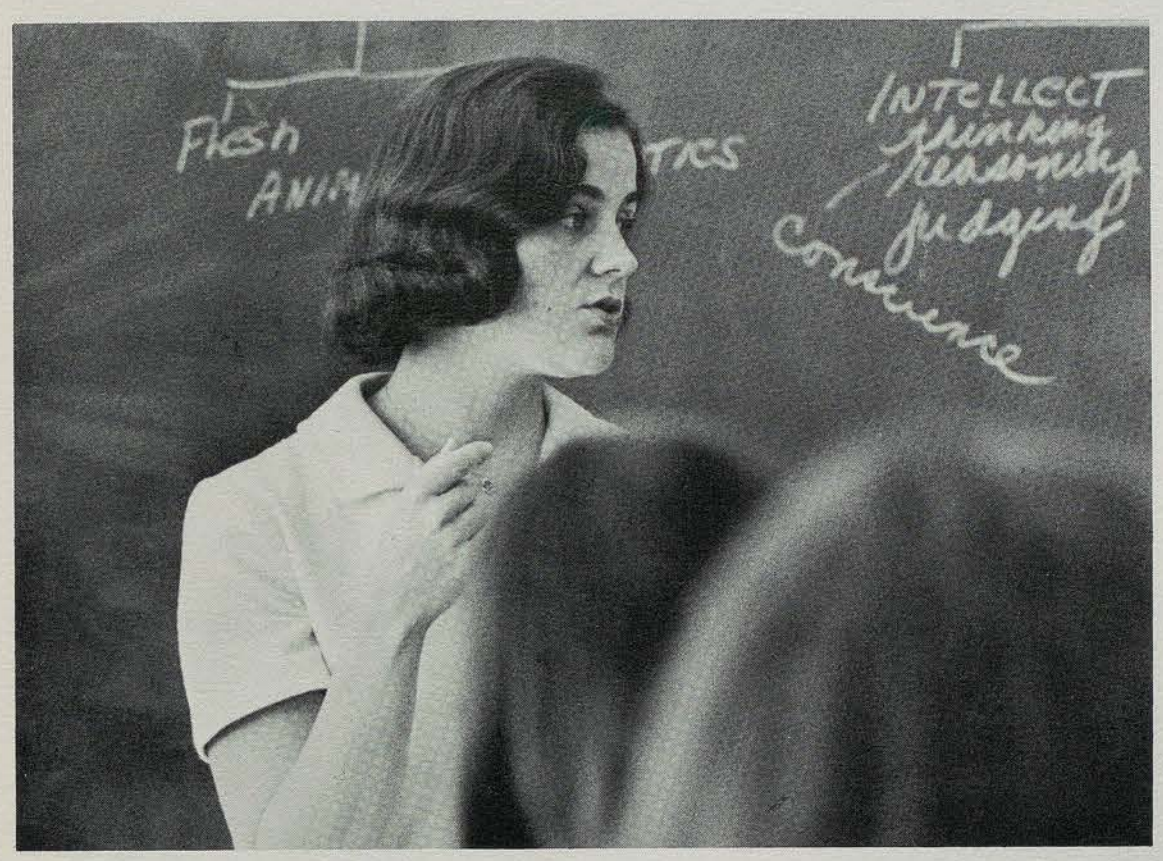

Remember me!
Love,
Ruth.

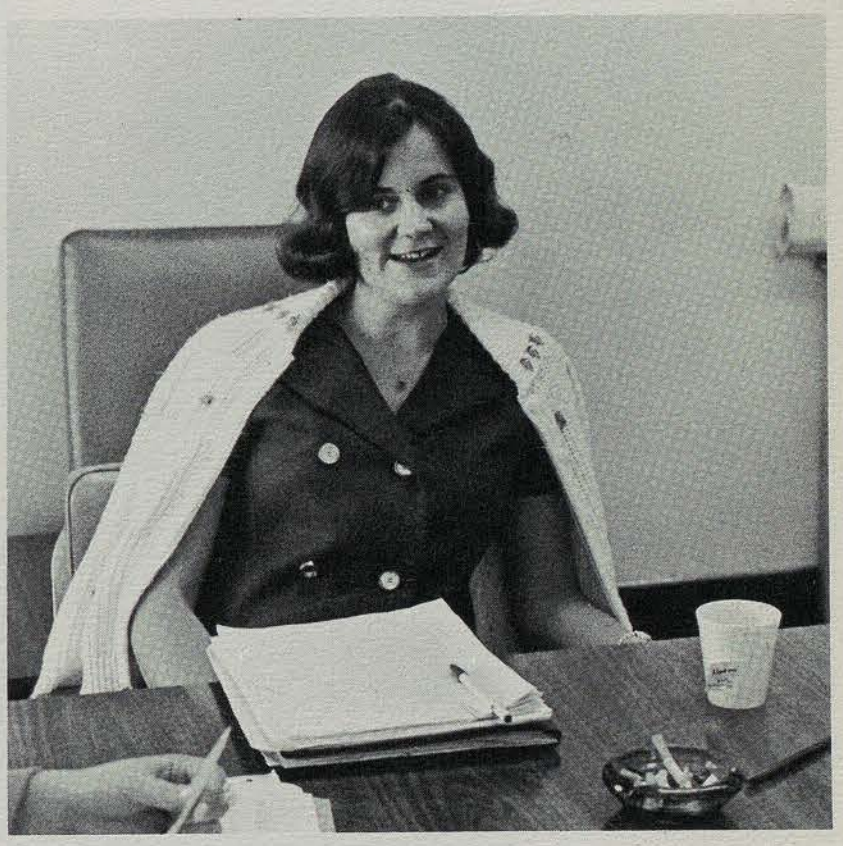

To live in treasured memories
We never shall forget —
The nights we worked 'til nearly dawn;
The plays, the tests, the fun;
"You have ten minutes to write a poem,"
"You will have this work done."
To care much more than anyone
Could ever deem required —
The days she stayed 'til five o'clock;
The Lance and Quest each year;
"I'll stay until we finish it,"
"If you need help, I'm here . . ."
To give us so much of herself:
To get but this in return—

Sincerest thanks and deepest respect —

Is sorrow buried deep;
For what we do and feel today
Only memory can keep:
The time in which we learn to laugh
Transcends the time to weep . . .

A Time for Us

Someday there be
When chains are torn
by courage borne of a love that's free.
A time when dreams so long denied
can flourish,
As we unveil the love we now must hide.

And with our love
through tears and thorns
We will endure
As we pass surely through every storm.

EDDIE VILLA

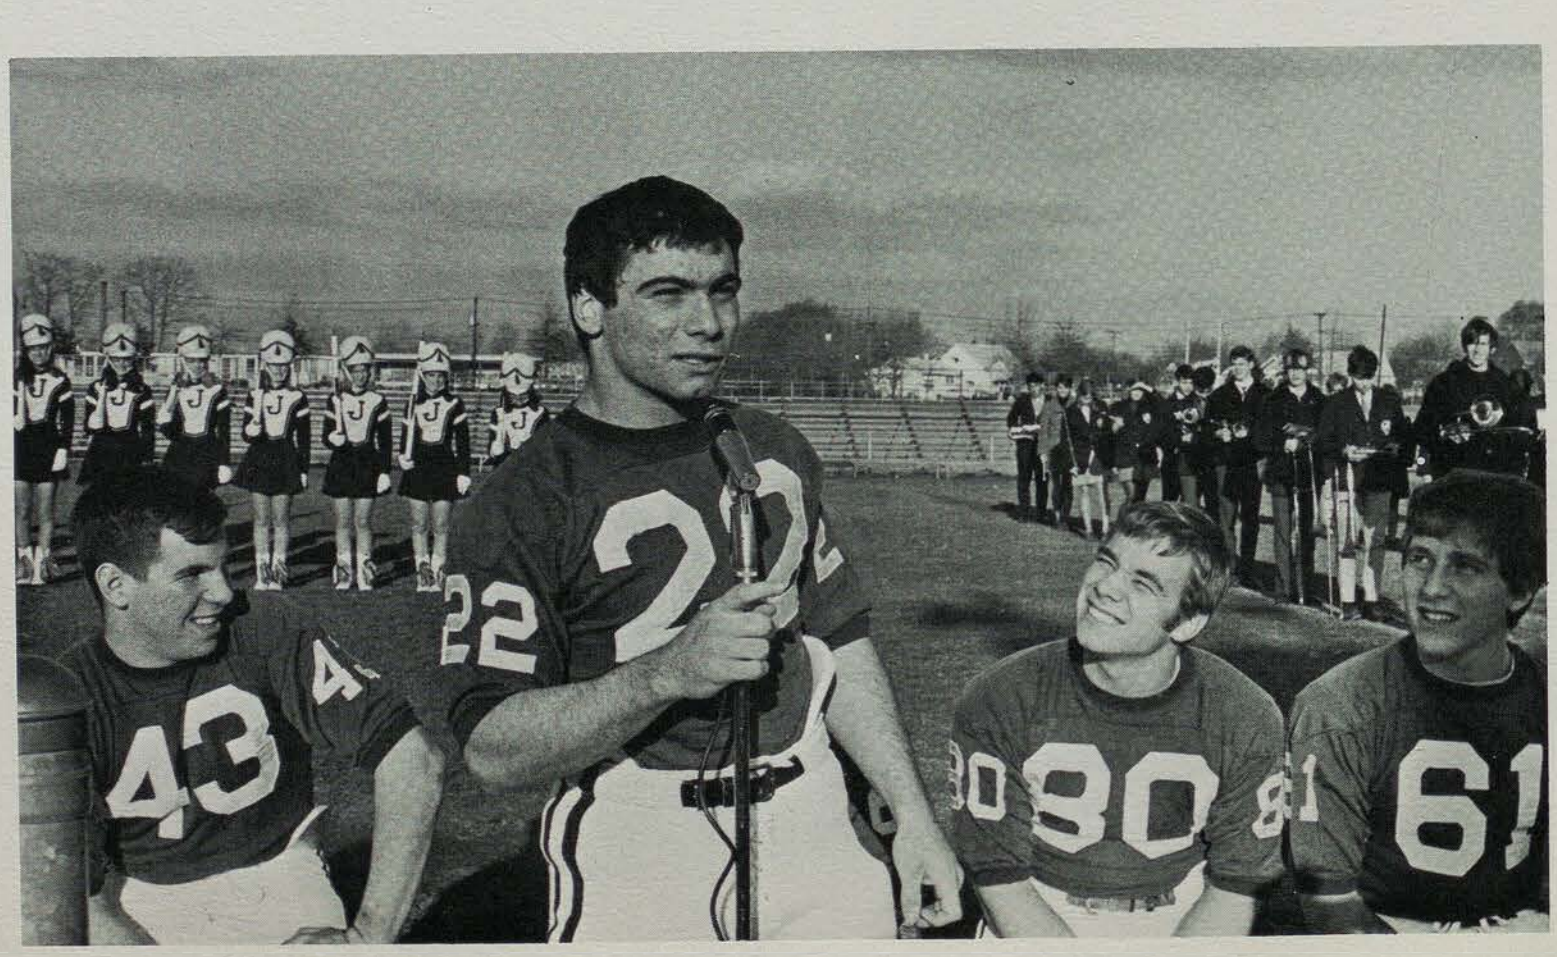

Amy,
This is our last year of school. It's Unbelievable! Only yesterday we were
in 3rd grade.
We have to make
the most of this year together.
Good luck
always,
Love,
Pat.

Time it was . . .

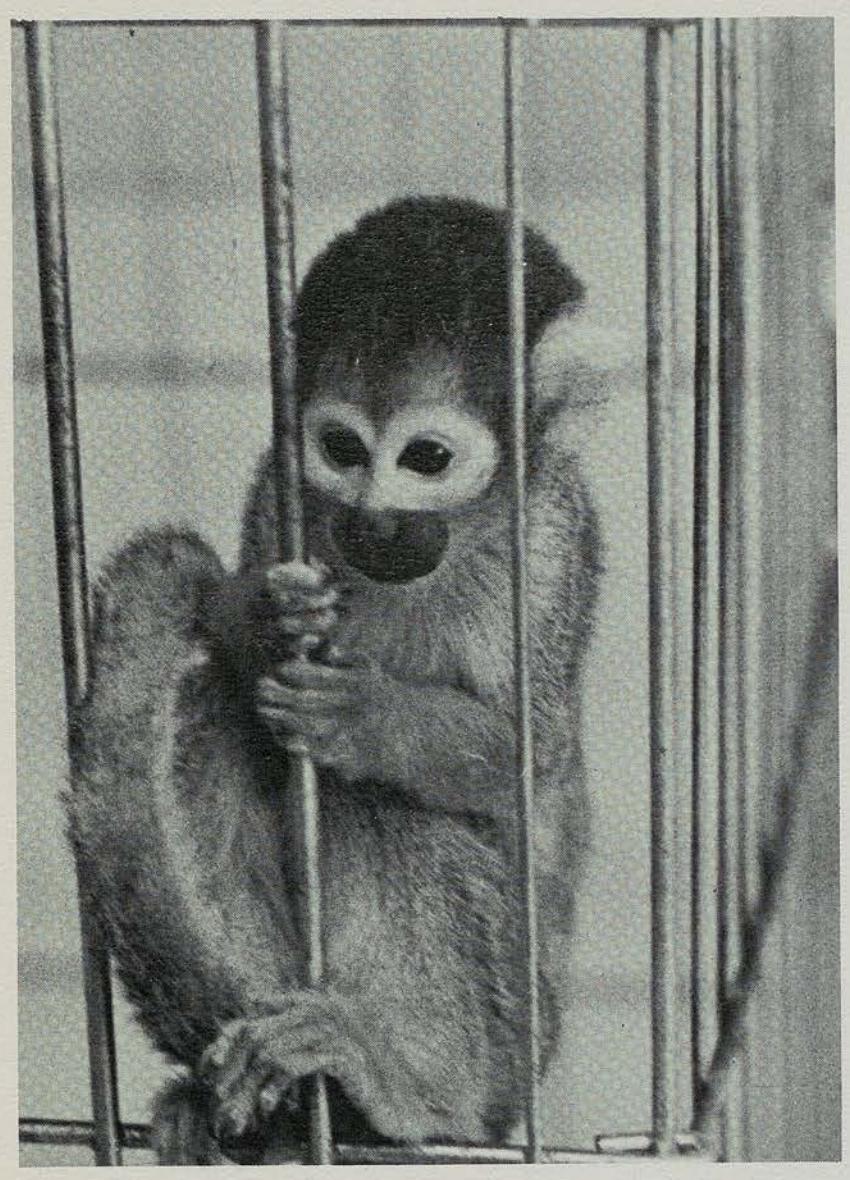

A time of innocence,

A time of confidences.

Long ago . . . It must be . . .

I have a photograph.

Preserve your memories;

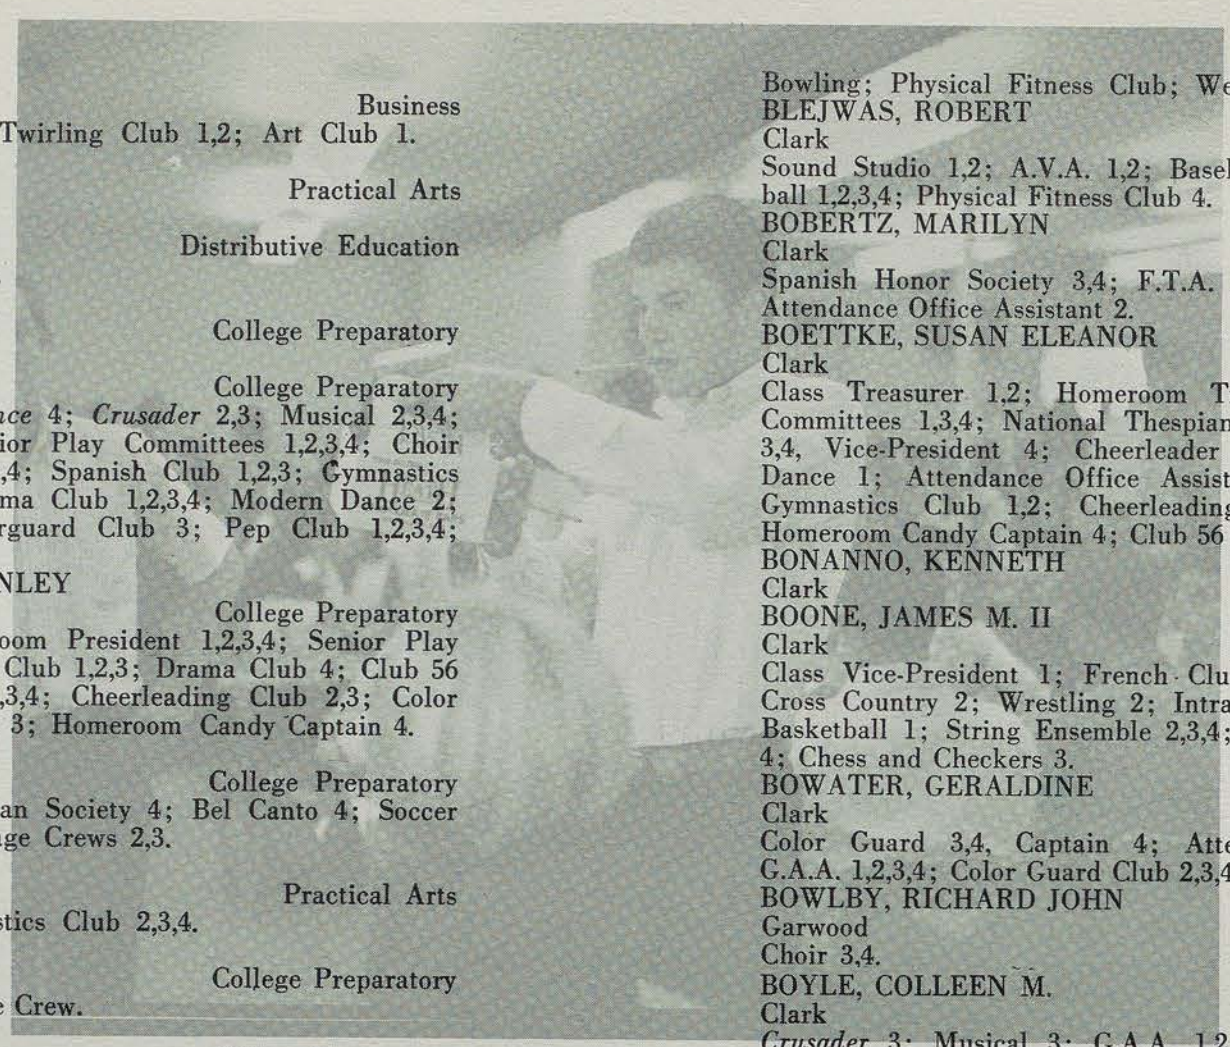

They're all that's left you.
