AUG 3 1971

Then she laid a gentle hand upon my eyes,

and when she withdrew it, behold!

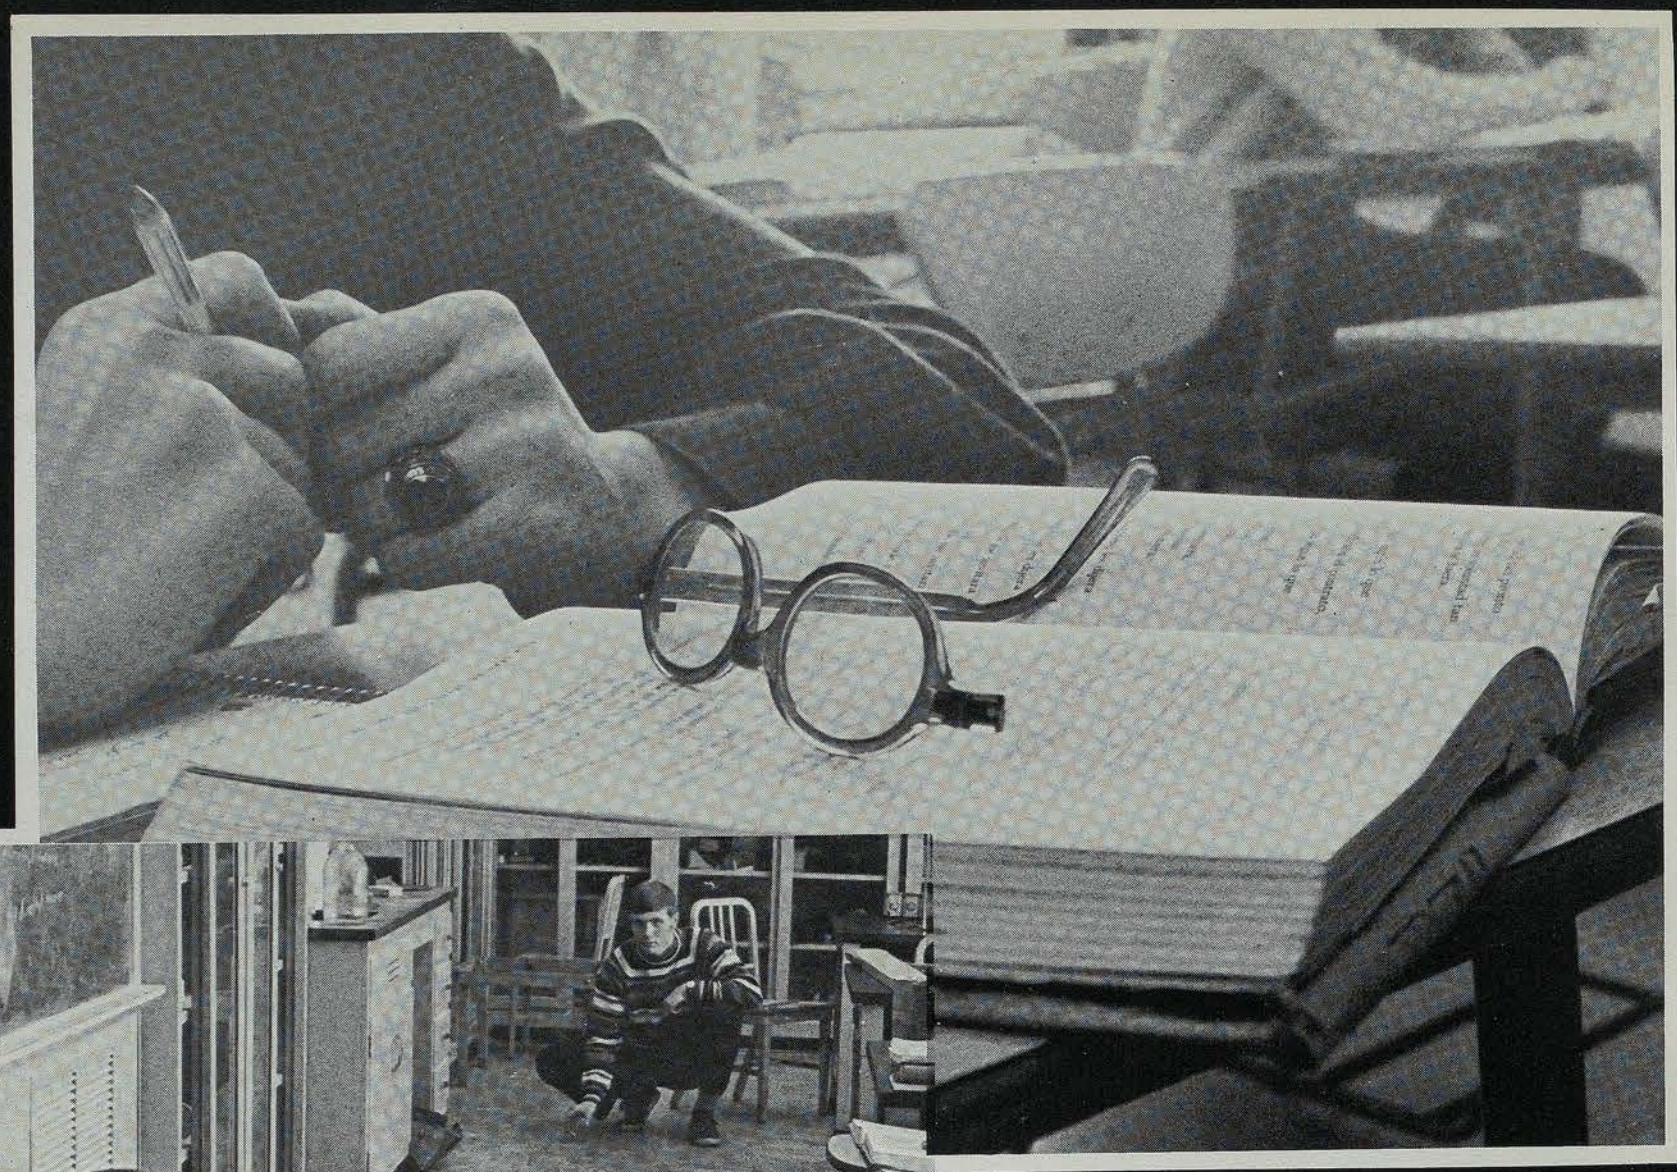

There walked Youth walking slowly by my side,

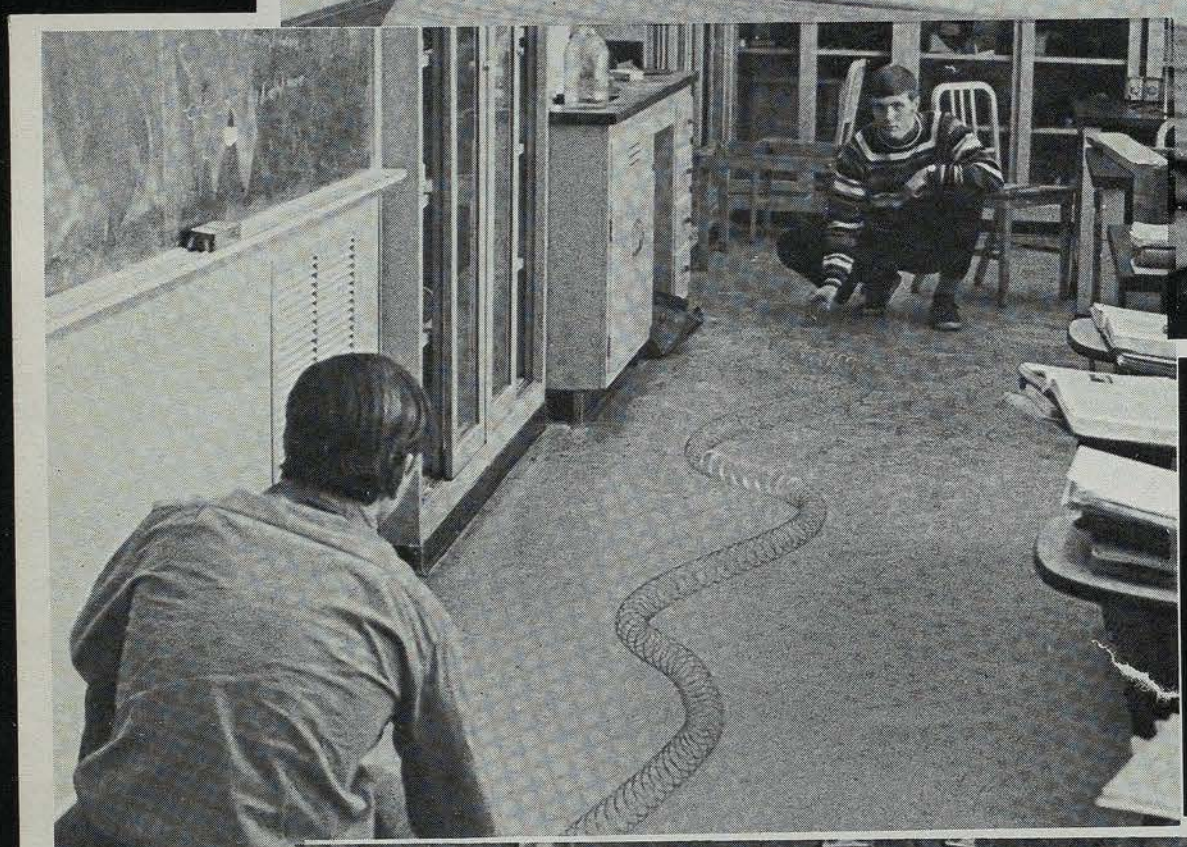

and ahead of us, leading the way,

marched Hope . . .

Gibran

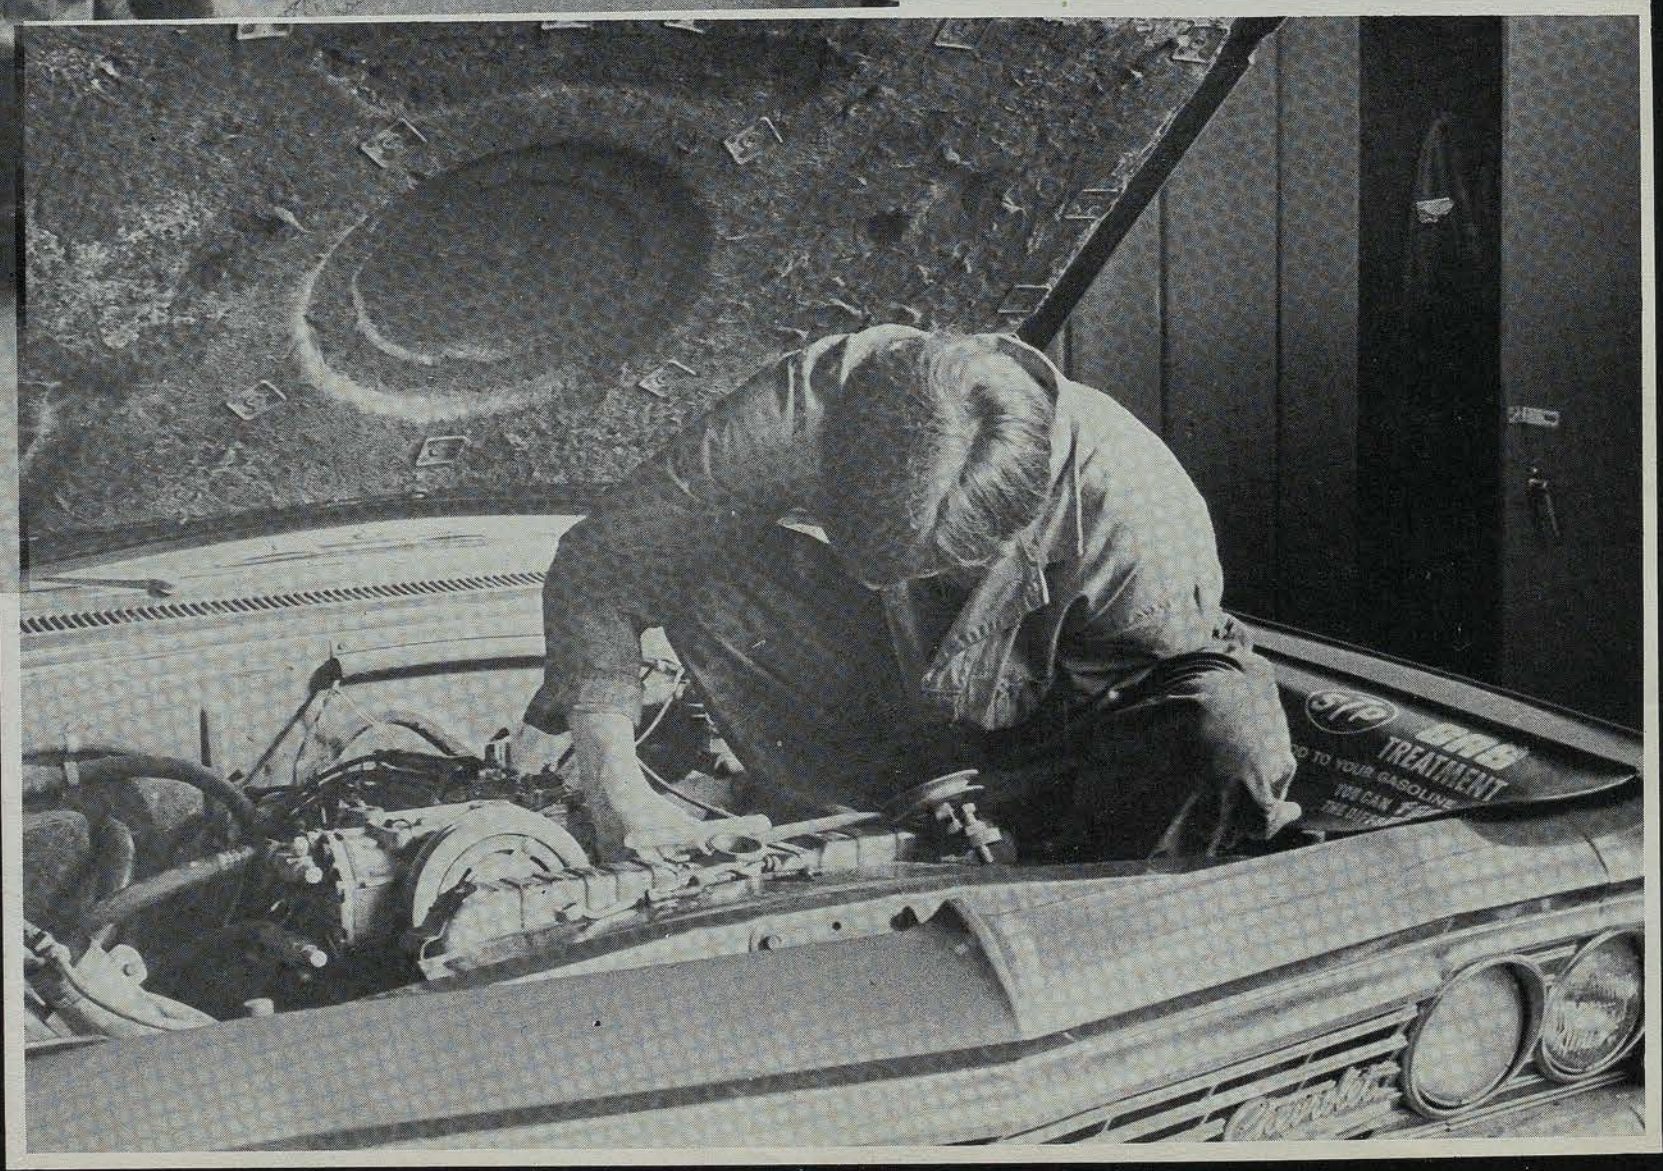

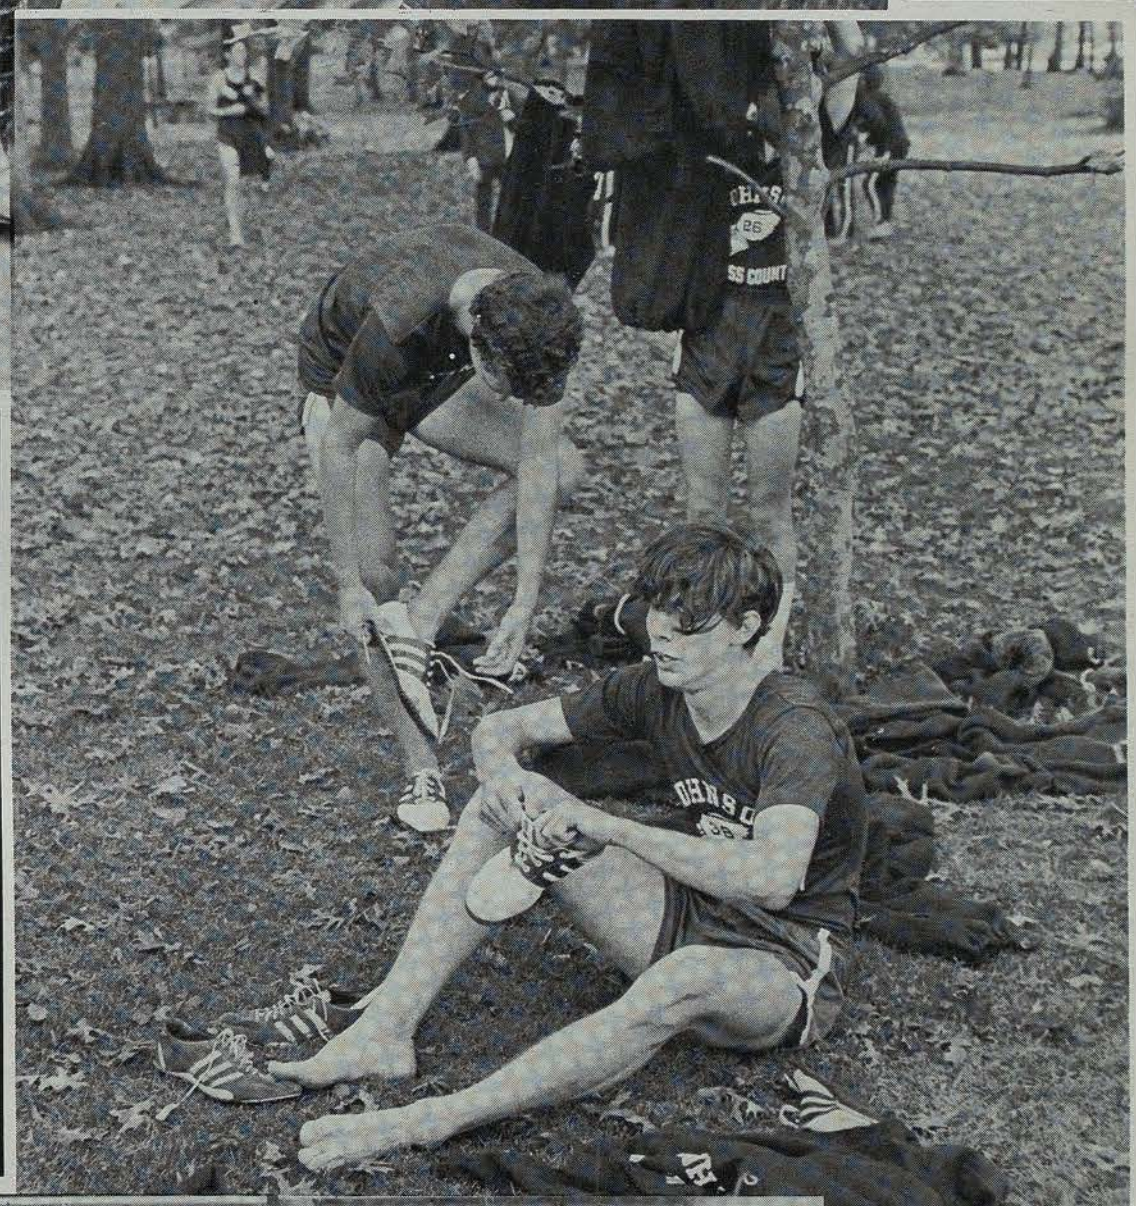

There are things

and there are

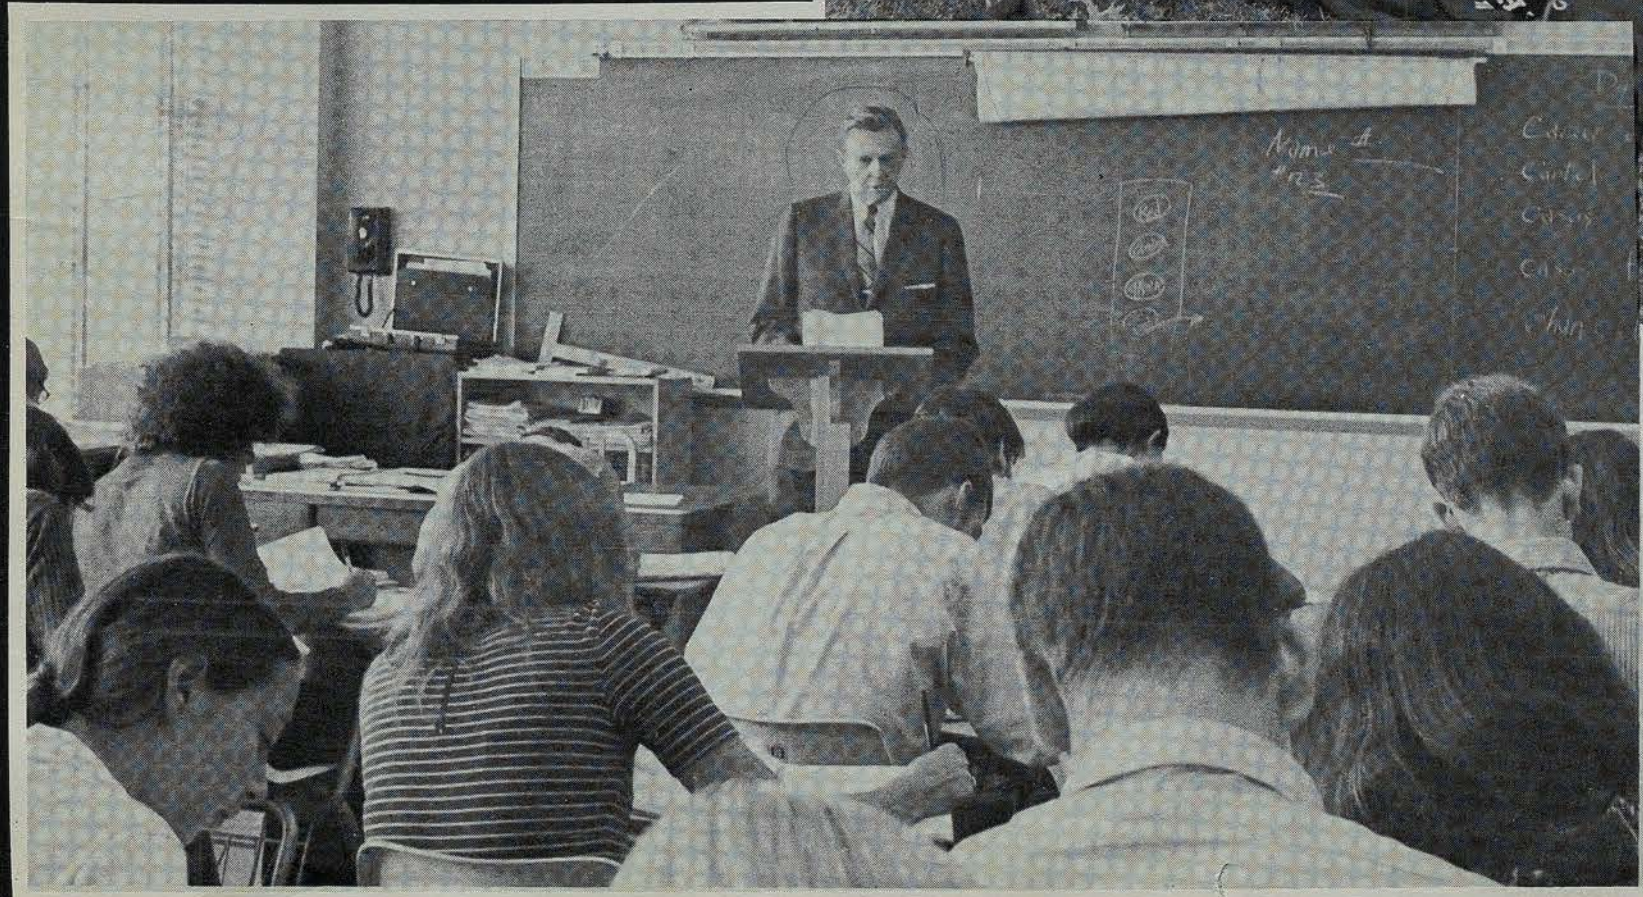

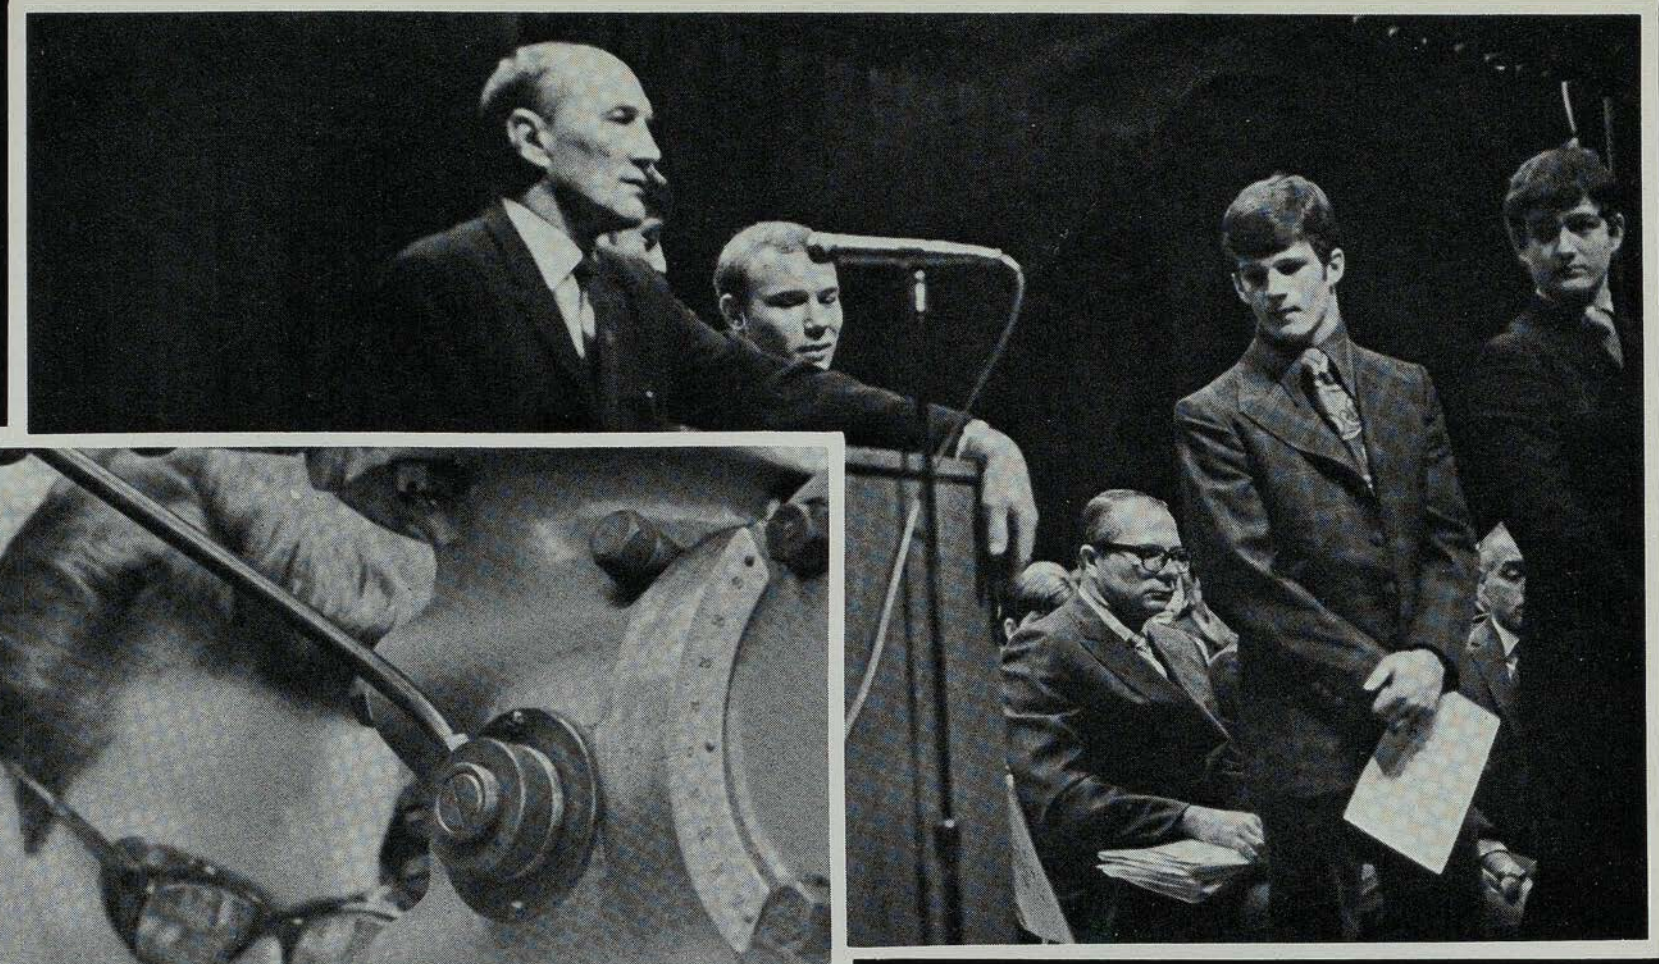

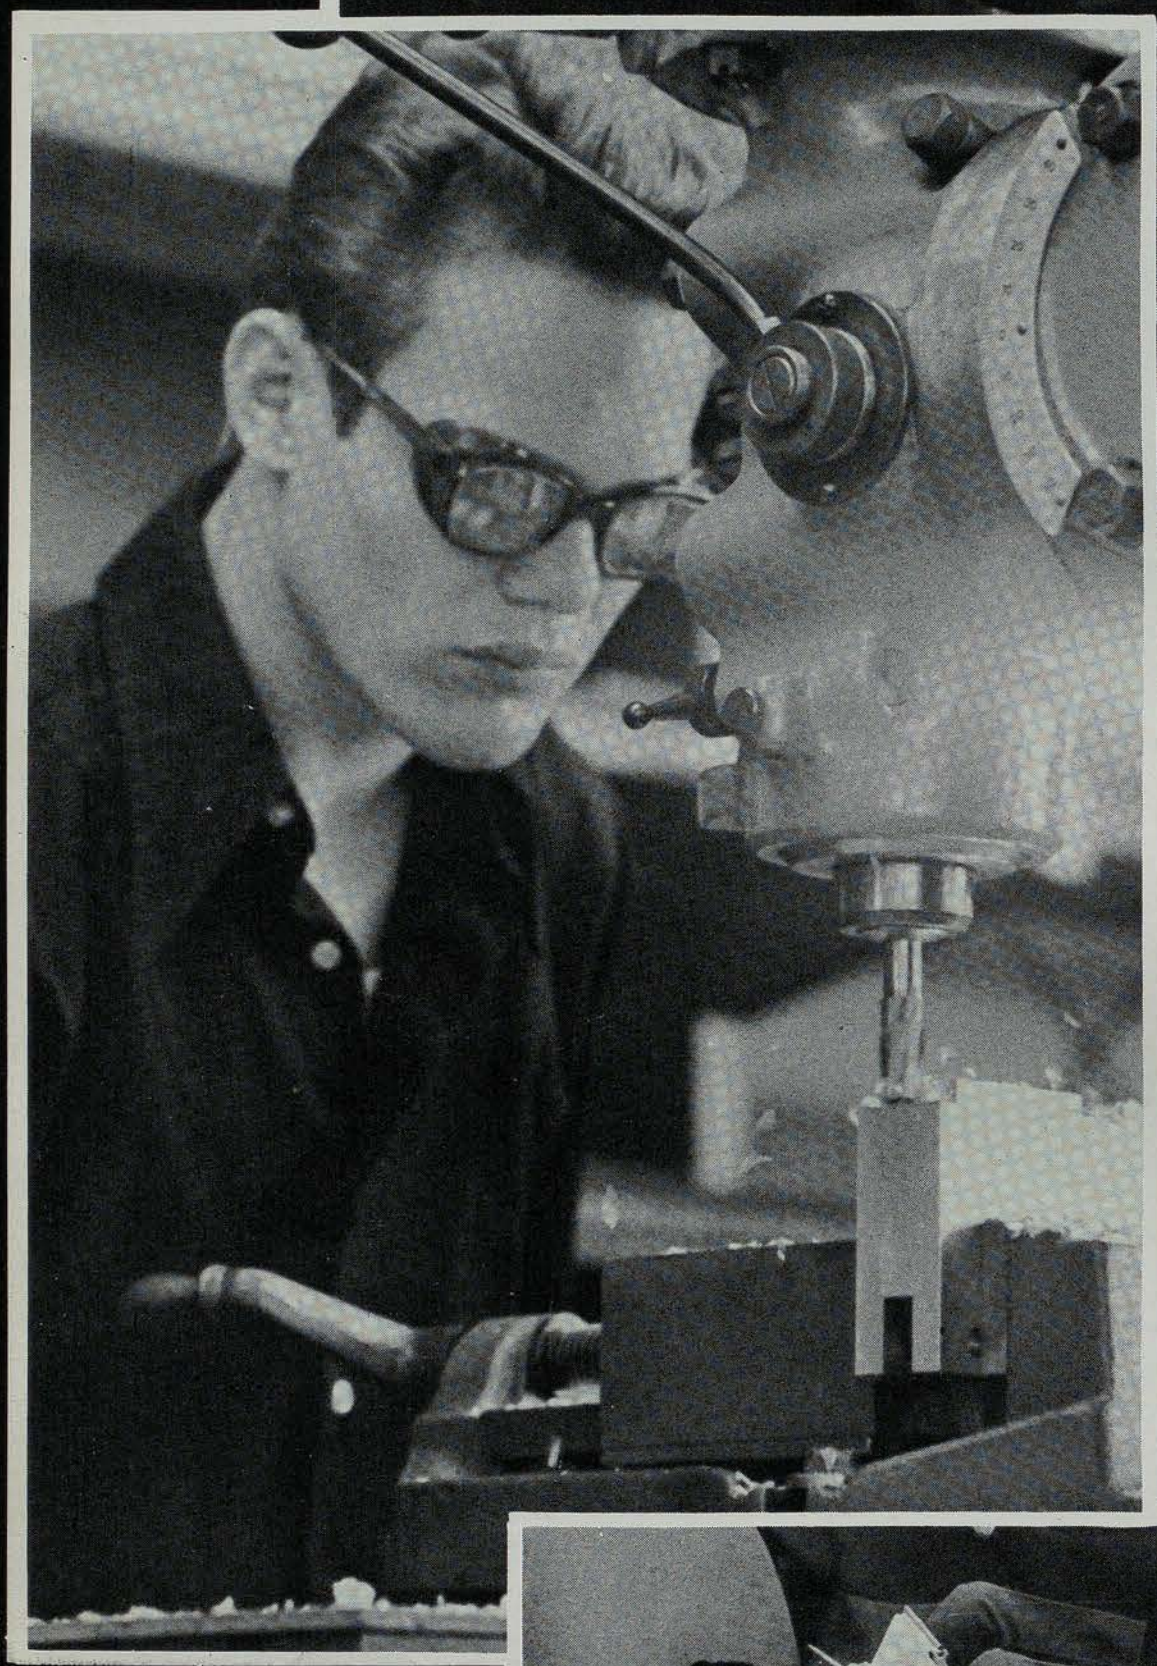

that are known

things that are unknown;

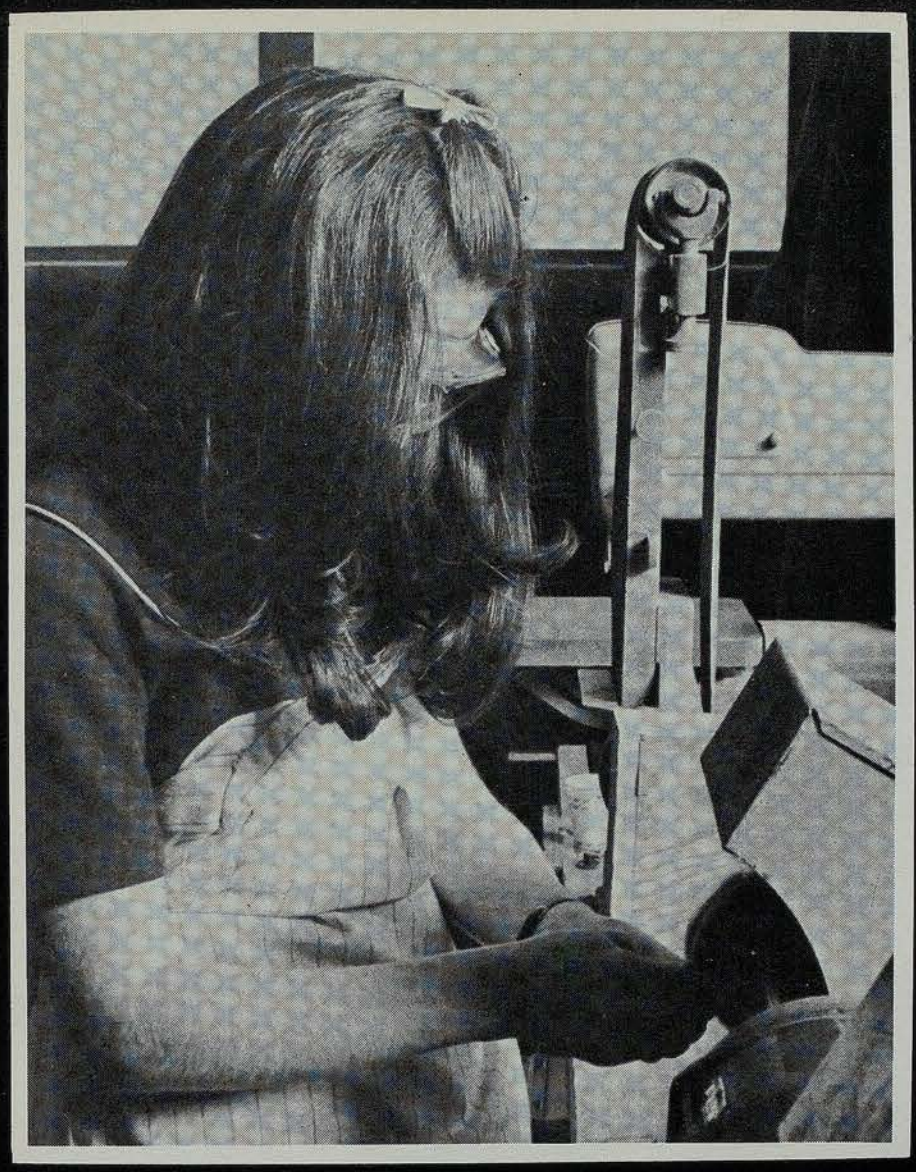

In between

swing open

pulsating

of desire;

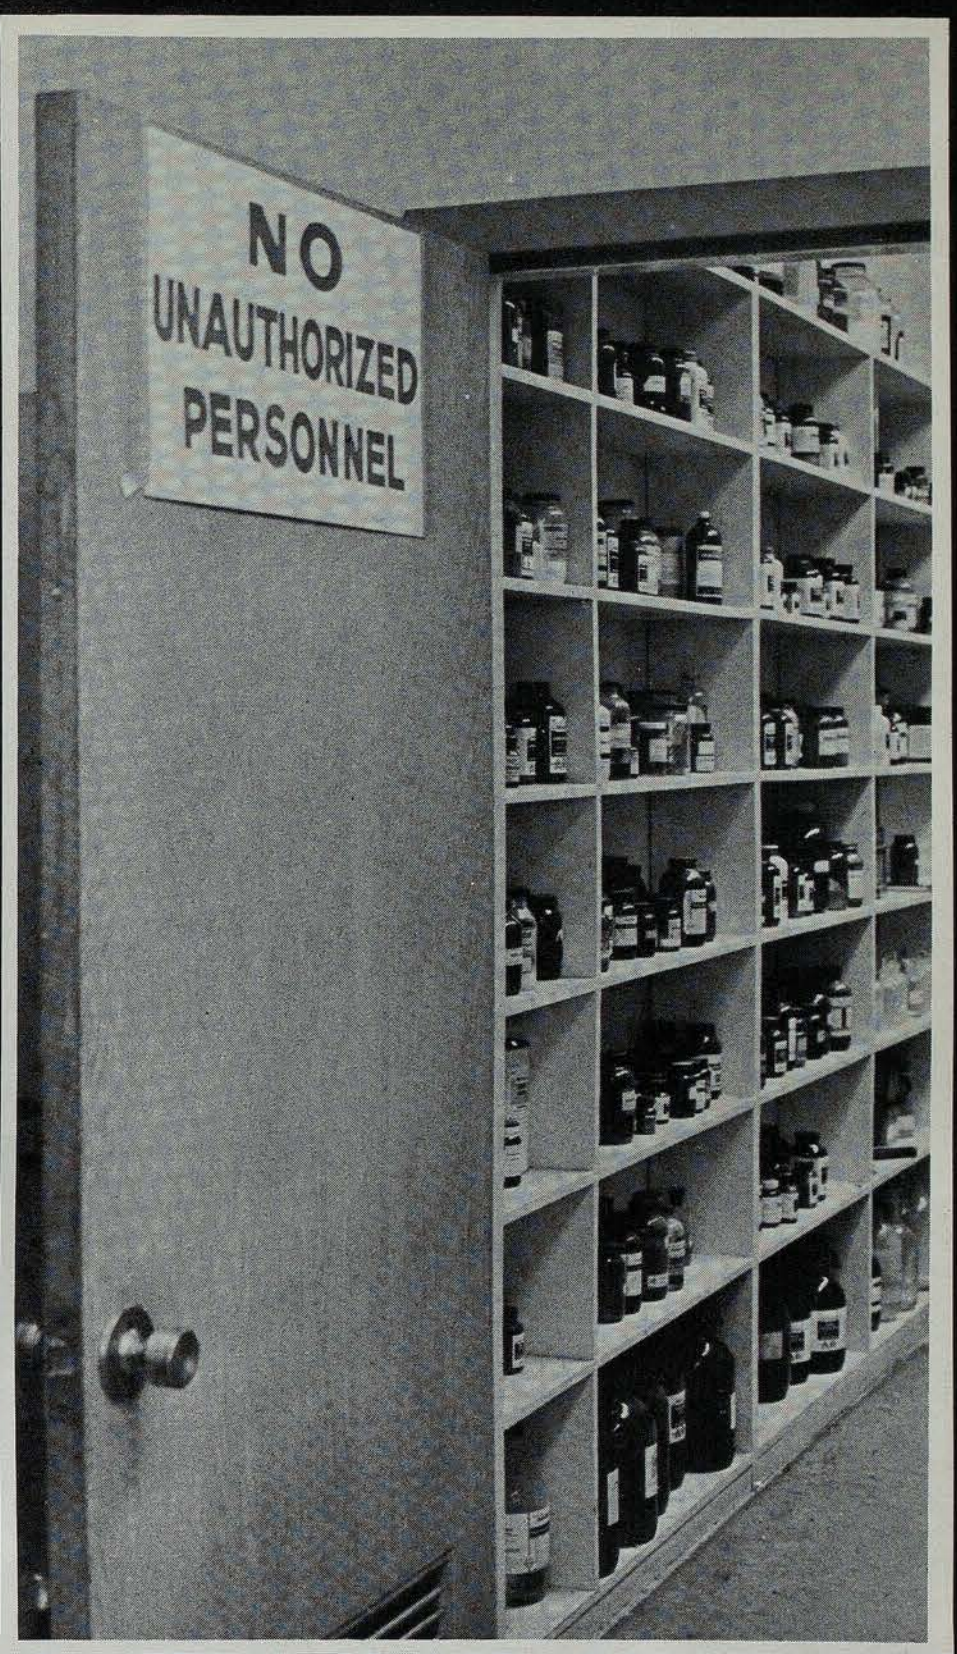

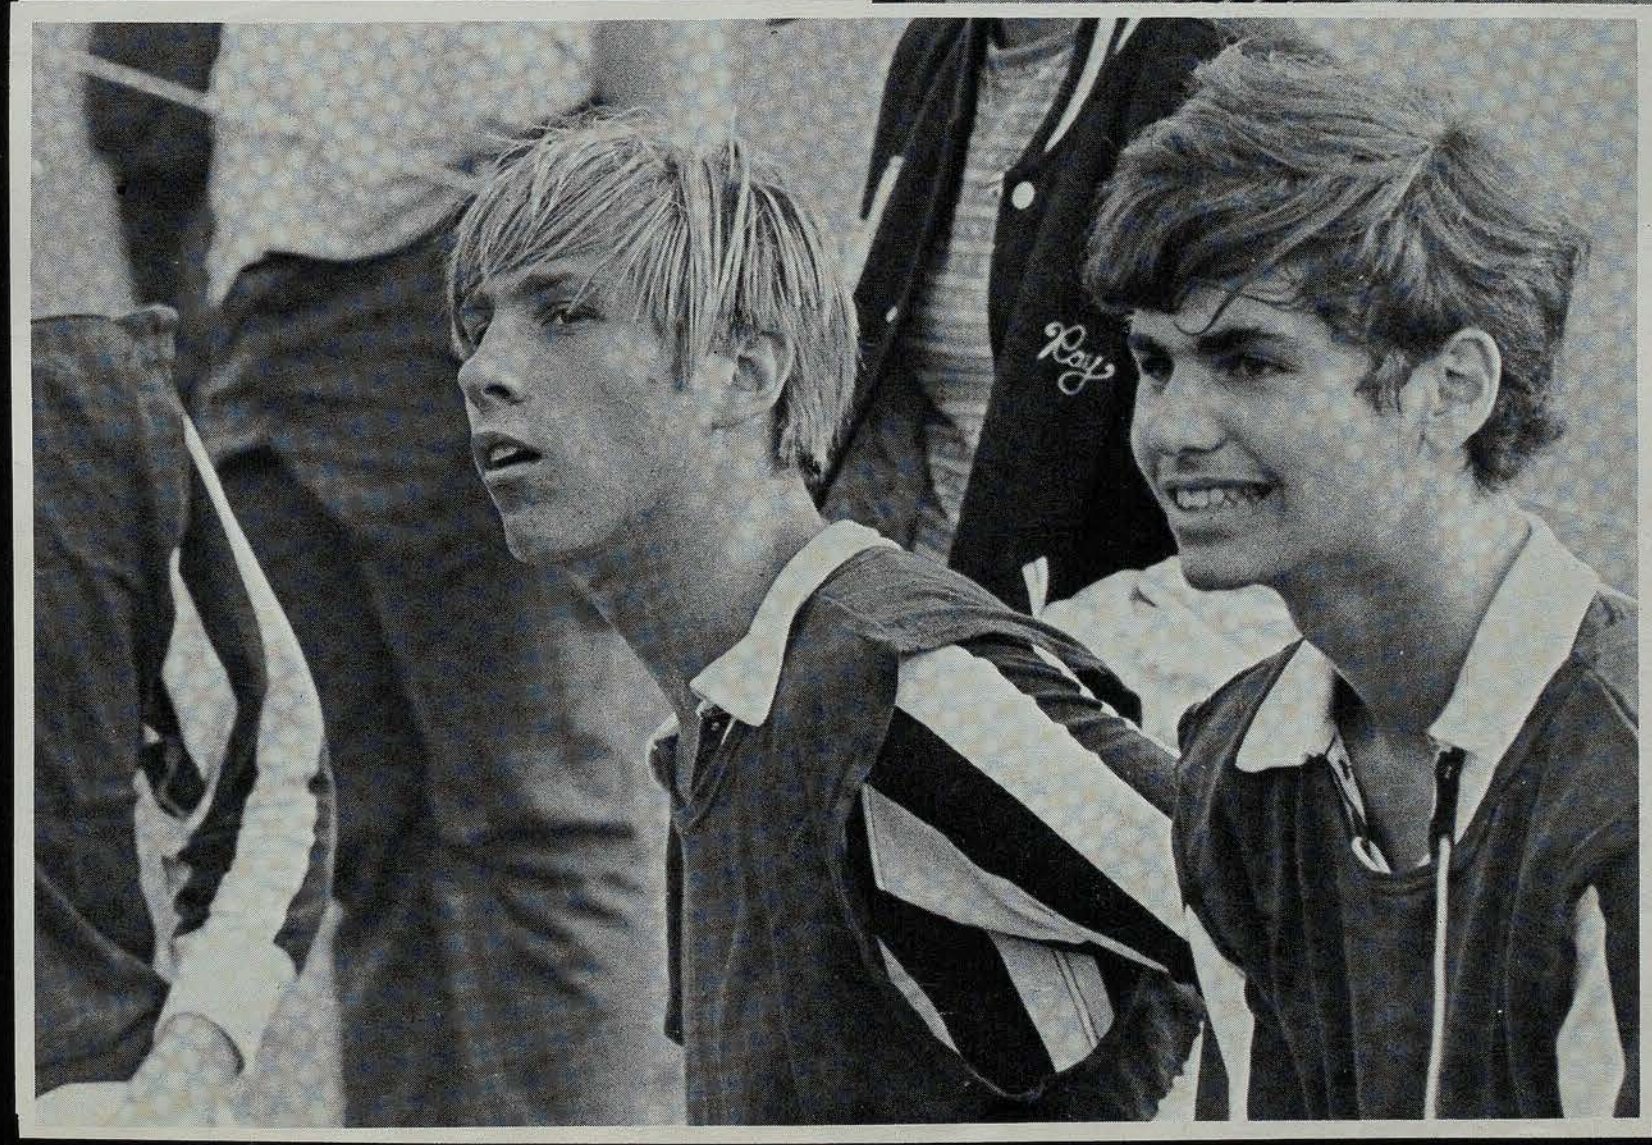

are doors that

and shut to the rhythm

Youth, a growing thirst, a hunger, which ignores that door.

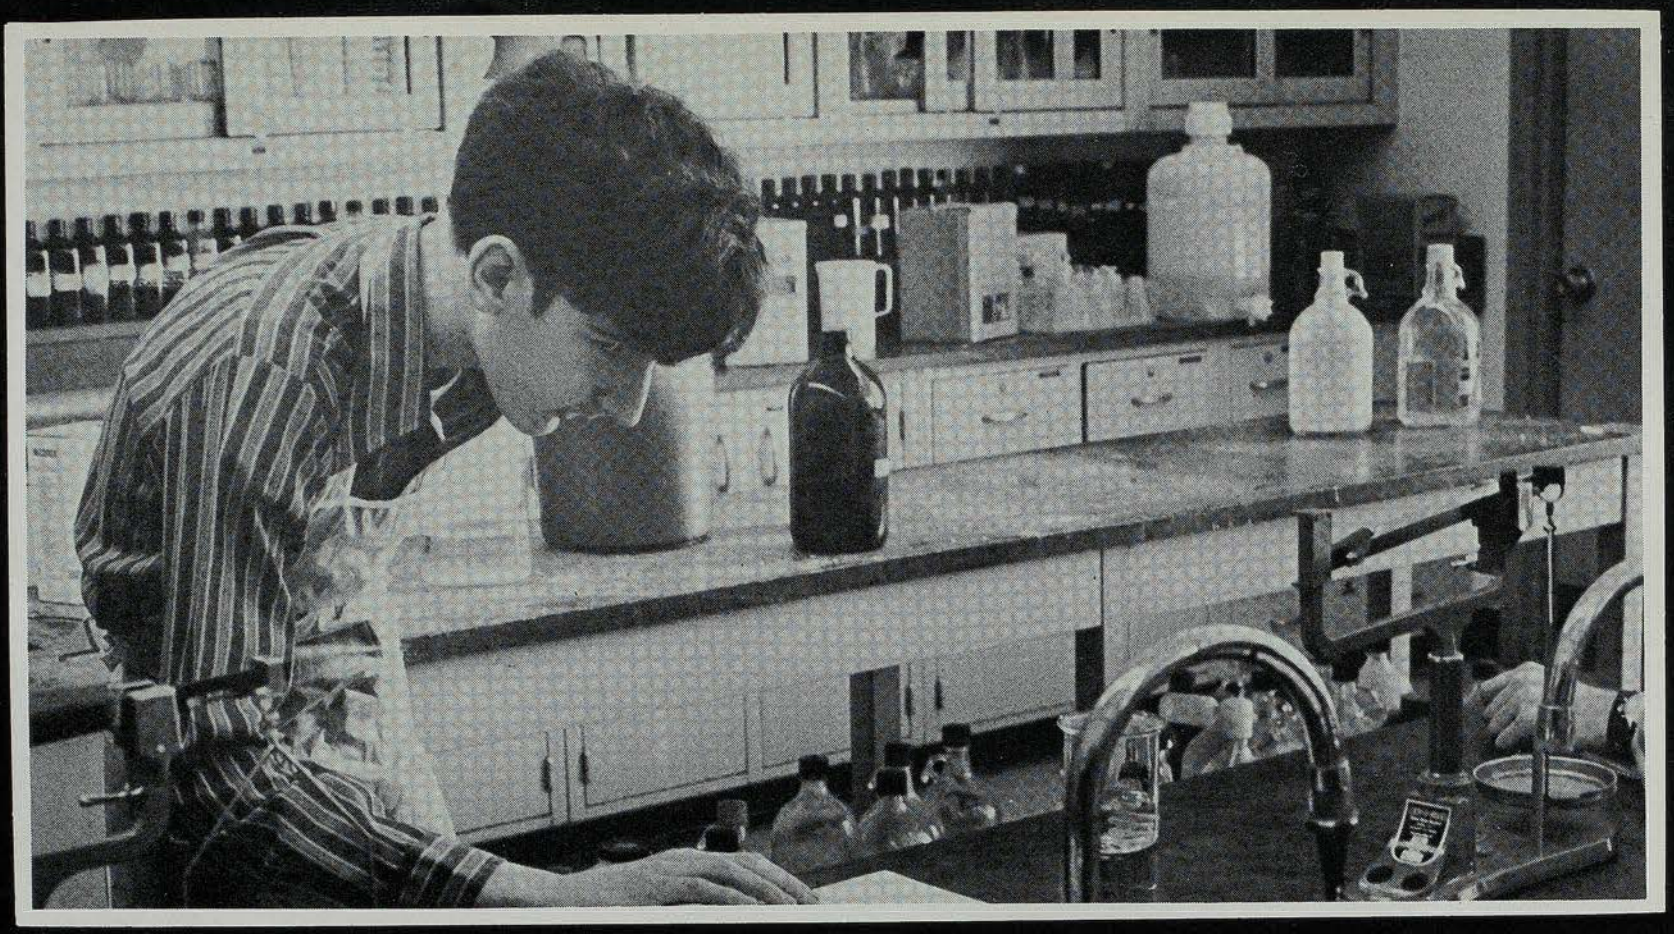

THE PILL
IS A NO-NO

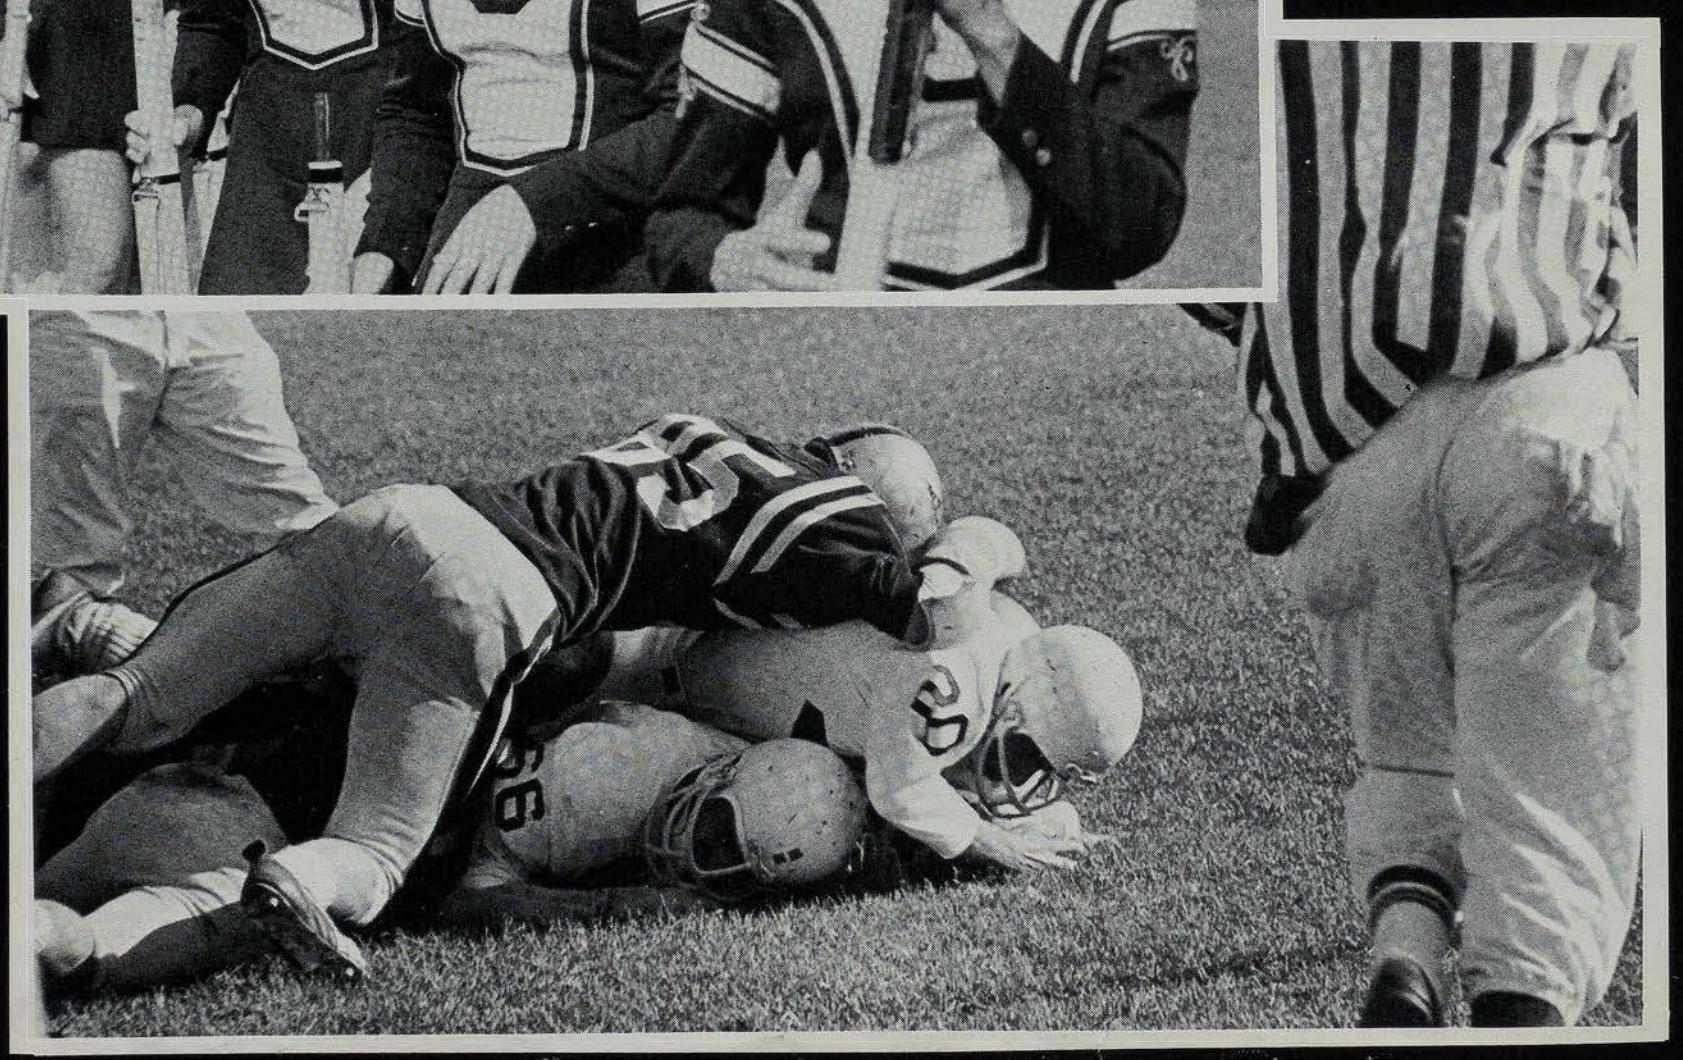

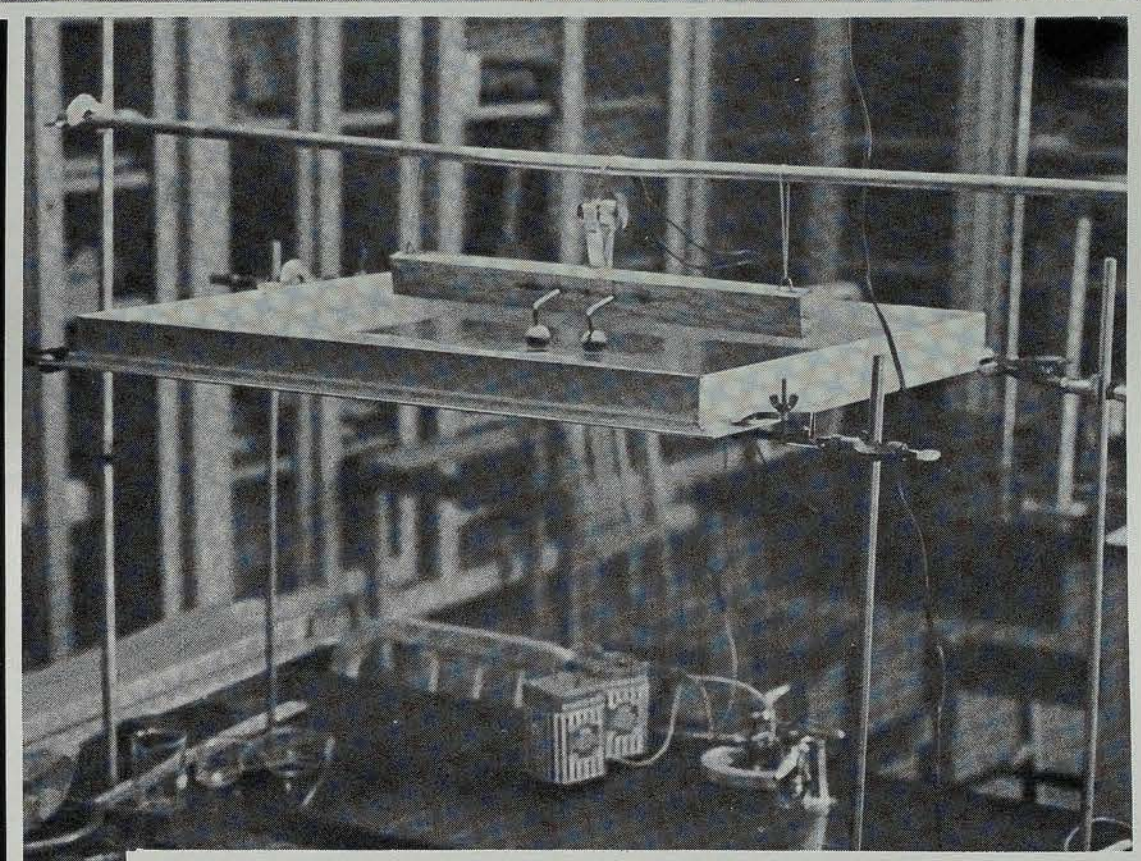

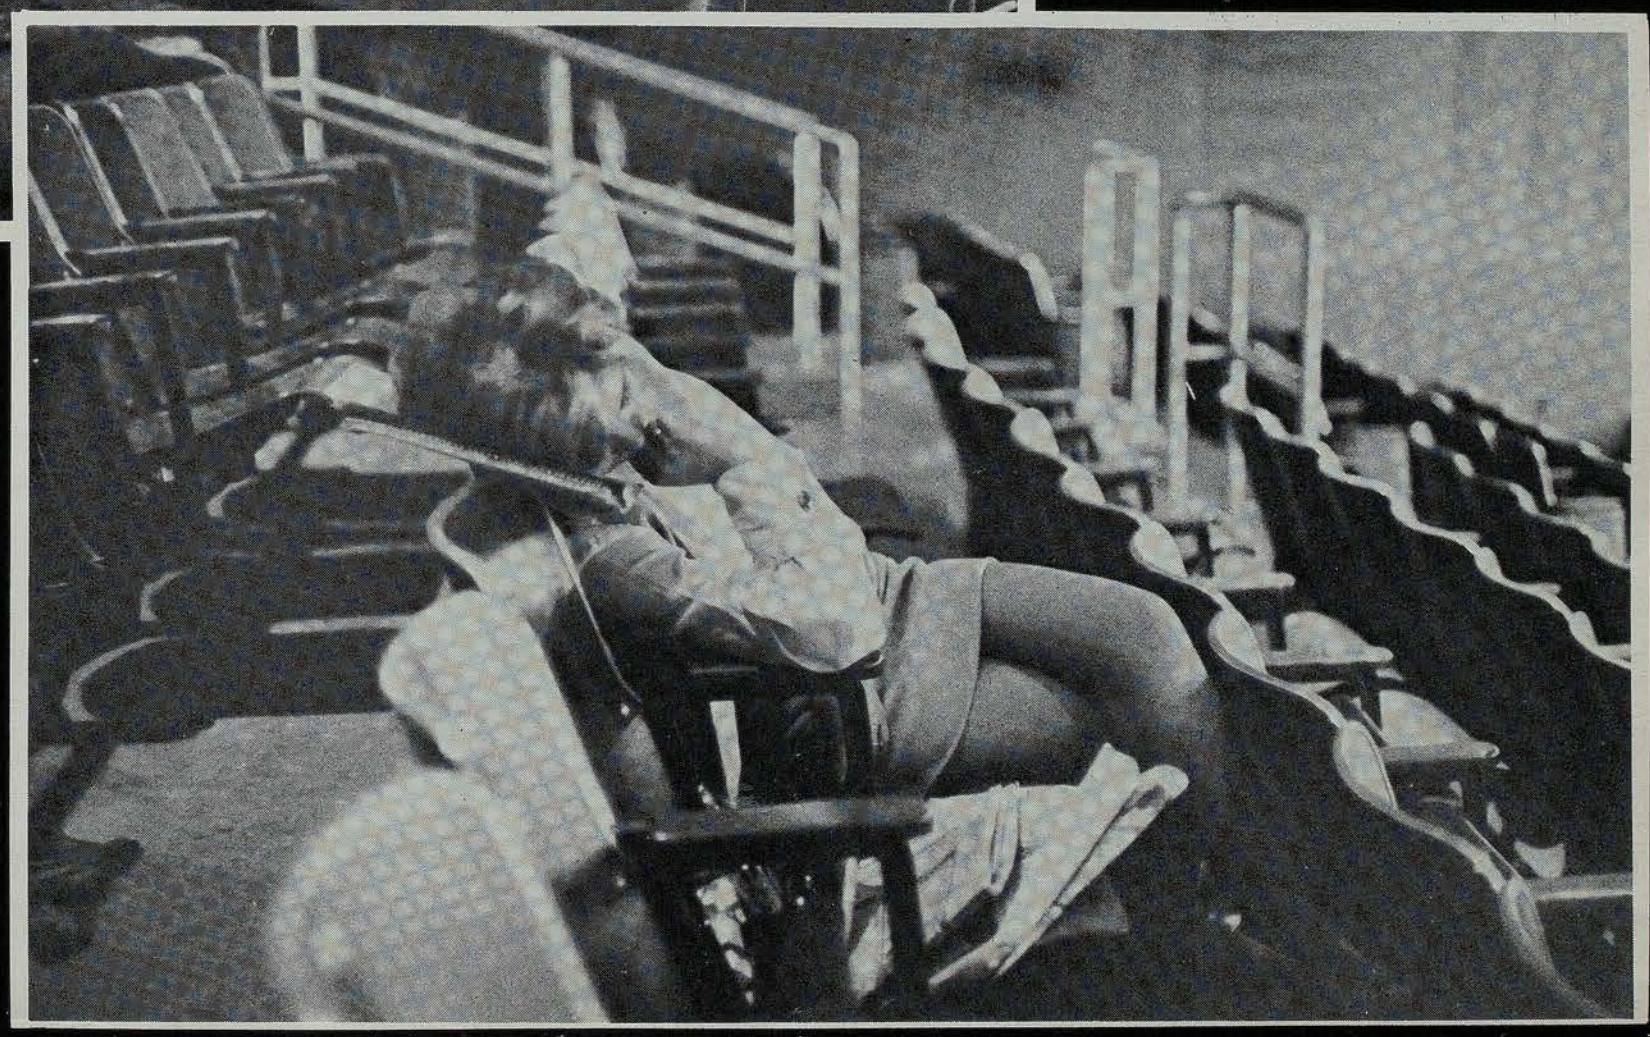

Together we could discover those unknown things about each other.

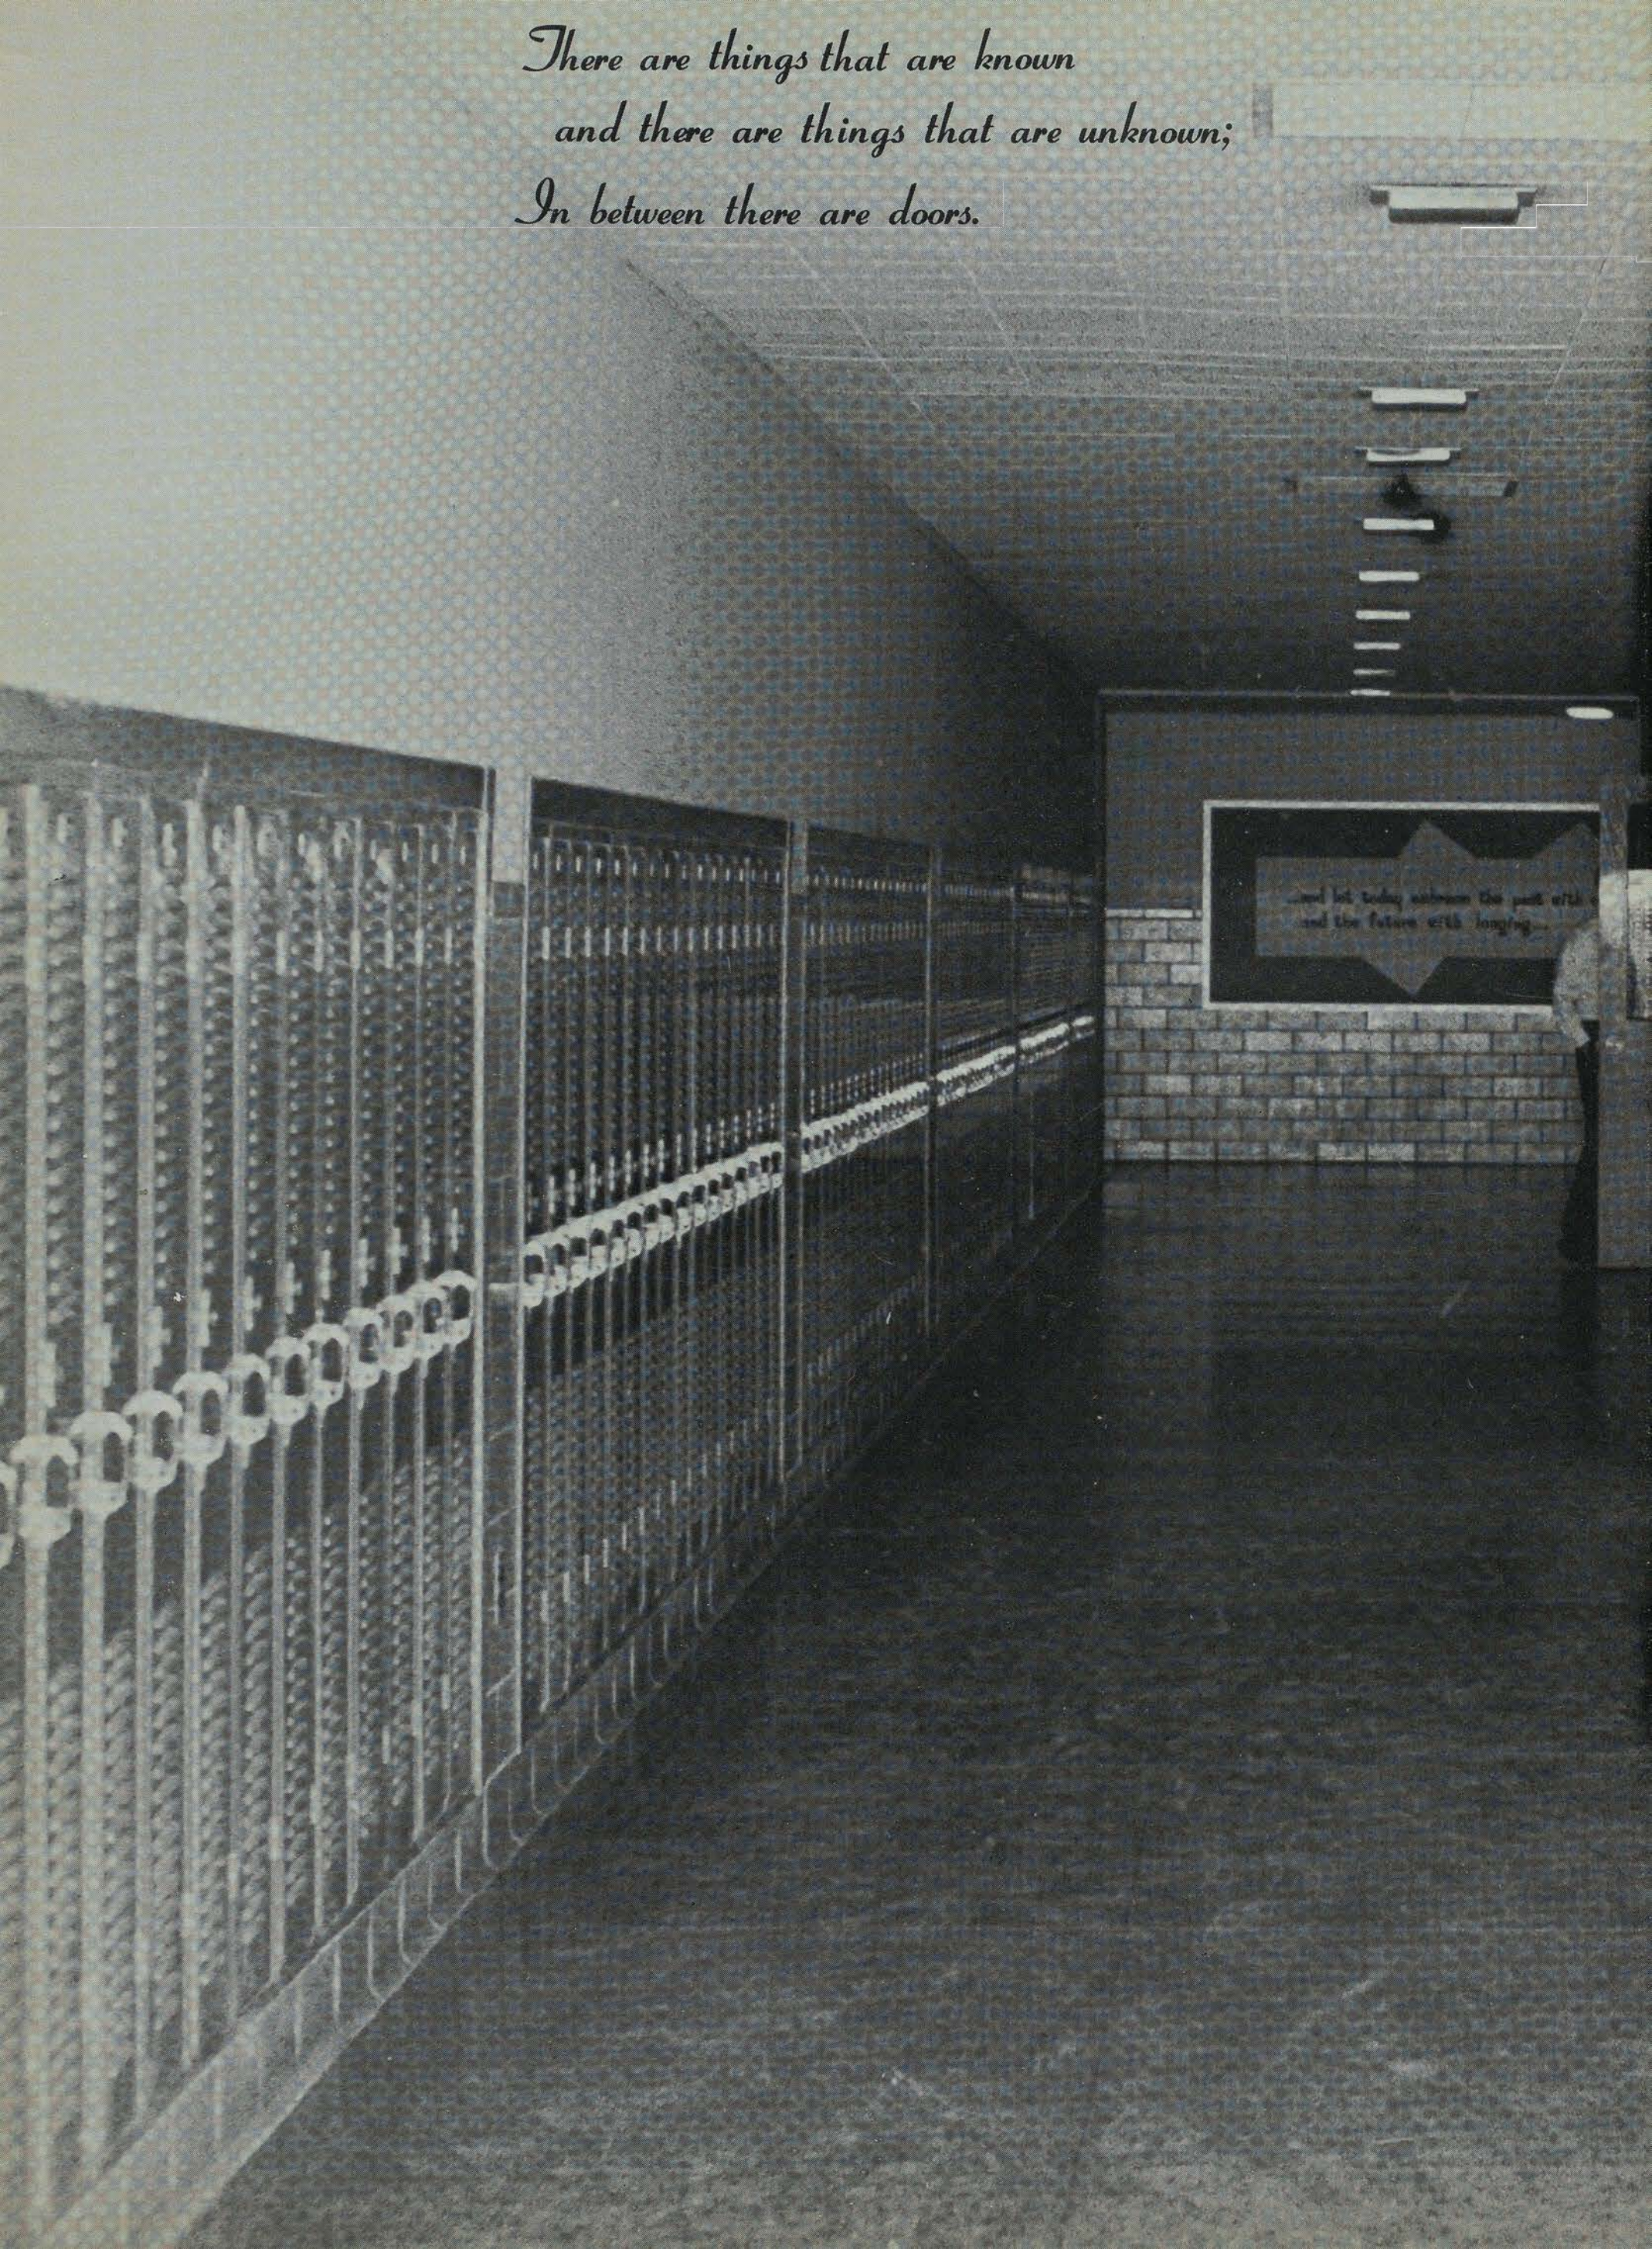

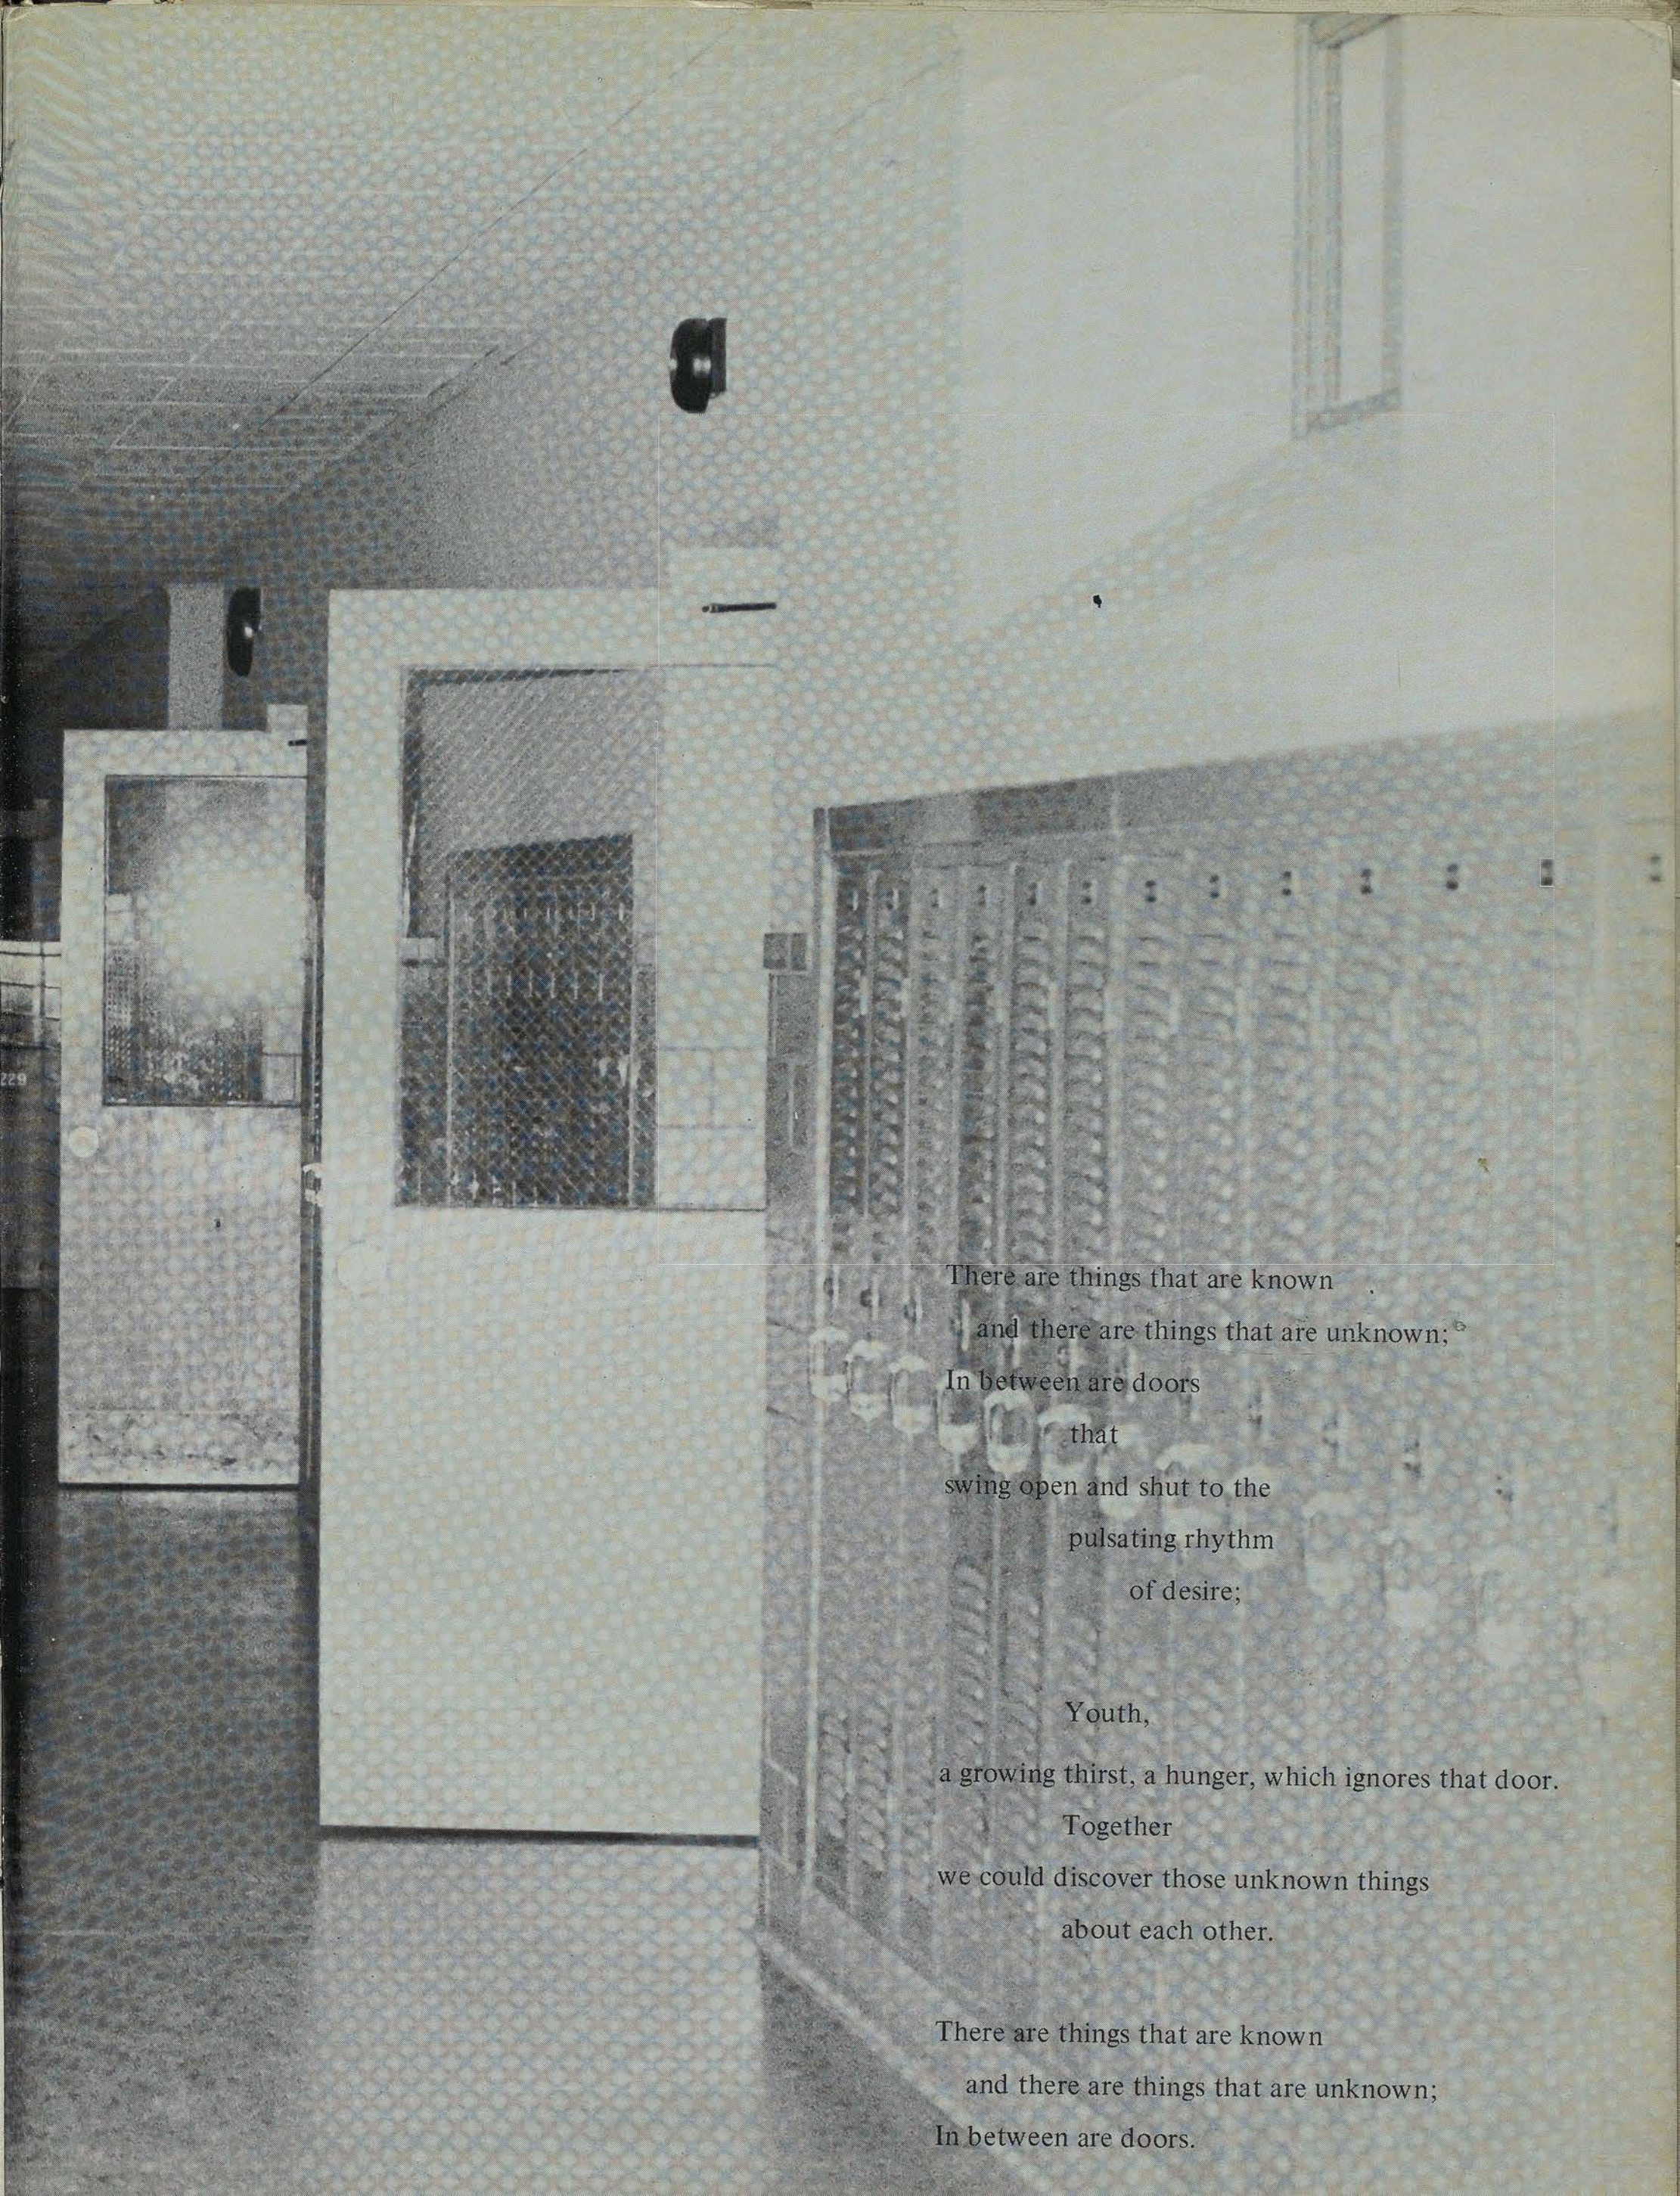

There are things that are known
and there are things that are unknown;
In between there are doors.

There are things that are known
and there are things that are unknown;
In between are doors
that swing open and shut to the pulsating rhythm
of desire;

Youth,
a growing thirst, a hunger, which ignores that door.
Together
we could discover those unknown things about each other.

There are things that are known
and there are things that are unknown;
In between are doors.

Remember

by christina rossetti

Remember me when I am gone away,
Gone far away into the silent land;
When you can no more hold me by the hand,
Nor I half turn to go, yet turning stay.
Remember me when no more, day by day,
You tell me of our future that you planned;
Only remember me; you understand
It will be late to counsel then or pray.
Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterward remember, do not grieve;
For if the darkness and corruption leave
A vestige of the thoughts that once I had,
Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

a door, softly closing at our heels, leaves
fading recollections of things we've left behind, passing to the next
genteel hope unlocks the door
and cordial wisdom beckons us to enter.
