CRANFORD'S NEWEST CHURCH — Calvary Lutheran Church will dedicate its modern brick church building on Sunday. The flat-ceilinged sanctuary, shown here, will seat 320 persons while an additional 50 will be accommodated in a choir loft where a new Schlicker organ is being installed. A large rough-hewn wooden cross at the rear of the altar is the focal point of the sanctuary. The handsome brick interior is bathed in soft colored light reflected through the tall faceted-glass windows set in epoxy cement. All Building Construction Co. of Elizabeth is general contractor, and Drake, Convery and Cueman of Summit are the architects. Ground for the new church was broken on August 16, 1964.

Lutherans to Dedicate New Church Building on Sunday

After more than three years of planning and construction, Calvary Lutheran Church will dedicate its new church building on Sunday.

There will be three services during the day to mark the celebration of the completion of the modern brick structure at the corner of Eastman and Holly Sts.

1st Aid Squad Seeks More Manpower

The Cranford First Aid Squad, through its president, Peter J. Malaspina, this week issued an appeal for community-minded men over the age of 18 years to join the squad and assist in the service dedicated to helping fellow residents when emergencies arise.

"The squad, now in its 13th year of service to the community, still has many of its original members," Mr. Malaspina said. "However, changes occur from time to time, and employment shifts to other towns take their toll of members.

"Local residents for years have been responding to the many calls for assistance from organizations dedicated to helping others when needed. In joining the First Aid Squad, one will be performing a much-needed public service, and the fact that this service is rendered voluntarily through the squad makes it more commendable."

At present, 36 members man the squad's two ambulances on a 24-hour basis. All calls are channeled through police headquarters and are able to respond to emergency calls.

The need for more men also was stressed by Capt. C. Alexander Wellet at a meeting of the First Aid Squad Monday night. He urged interested men to write to him in care of the squad headquarters at 6 Centennial Ave. He said there is a need for at least 10 additional men who can find some time to donate to squad activities.

Capt. Wellet reported that so far this year the squad has answered 152 calls, which he said indicates that 1966 may see the highest yearly total of calls responded to since the squad was instituted in November, 1953.

The captain's report showed 71 calls in January, of which 39 were emergencies, 30 were transportation and 2 were service calls. The squad handled 11 heart cases and the siren was used on 19 calls. Out-of-county calls totaled 7 and there were 2 out-of-state trips. Members donated a total of 263 hours during the month and the ambulances traveled a total of 1,318 miles.

In February, Capt. Wellet reported, there were 81 calls, including (Continued on Page 8)

Board Names Temporary Secretary as Chief Leaves

The Board of Education appointed Mrs. Ruth Richins of 17 Hamilton Ave. as acting secretary of the board at a meeting on Tuesday night at Lincoln School.

Bernard Litwack, board president, said Mrs. Richins' appointment is "strictly a stopgap measure" until the board has time to appoint a secretary on a permanent basis to fill the vacancy left by the resignation on Tuesday of Paul Chieff, board secretary. In February Mr. Chieff had announced his intention to resign on June 30 or before. He accepted a similar position in the Freehold Regional High School District, and started his new job yesterday.

A special meeting of the board to appoint a permanent secretary will be held at 8 p.m. April 5, Mr. Litwack said. It will be a public meeting.

Mrs. Richins, a resident here for over 25 years, is a legal secretary with the firm of Sauer and Kervick, Cranford lawyers. The firm serves as attorneys for the board.

The board announced appointment of Dr. Charles J. Post as principal of Cranford High School, effective yesterday. Dr. Post, who will continue at the same annual salary, was named acting principal on February 23.

In another action the board confirmed the appointment of G. Frank Zimmerman, principal of Cranford High School, as director of the division of business and plant operations, also effective yesterday, at a salary rate of $16,312 on a 12-month basis. His former salary was $14,766 on a 10-month basis.

The board voted in February to separate the duties of the board secretary from the director of business and plant operation, and the board will seek a new board secretary in accordance with this policy.

Senior Prom Committee Holds Organizing Session

An organization meeting of the 1966 Cranford High School Senior Prom committee was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Charles Frey, 809 West End Pl. Mrs. Frey and Mrs. Charles Silsby are adult general chairmen. Bettie Hubbard is student general chairman.

The Senior Prom will be on Friday, June 3 at Orange Avenue Junior High School. The dance is sponsored by the junior class and the Cranford High School PTA. The functions and duties of each committee member were outlined. A tentative budget was suggested.

Other committee chairmen are: Finance, Mrs. C. W. Seibach and Wayne Cooper, junior class treasurer; food, Mrs. F. P. Anderson, Mrs. James Phelan and Jane Grall; decorations, Mrs. John Olson and Jeffrey Anderson, under the direction of Burton Longbach, art instructor; program, Patricia Bowling, junior class representative to Student Council.

Prizes, Mrs. Hugh Dunlop; entertainment, Sarge Kiser and Mrs. Bernard Gallanter, president of High School PTA; table decoration, Mrs. Paul Martens and Jean Sarnowski, junior class secretary; publicity, Mrs. A. R. Mirante and Marge Taber.

Mrs. Ira Kerkman and Mrs. Harry Lawrence are junior class advisers. Principal Charles Post spoke of the aims and purposes of the Senior Prom (Continued on Page 8)

Business Center Traffic Study Set

Cranford police will begin measuring traffic flow at major business intersections in the central business area next week. This traffic study, announced by Public Safety Commissioner Edward K. Gill, is in cooperation with Mayor Wesley N. Philo's special committee studying revitalization of the business district.

Using automatic traffic counters provided by Richard Anderson, a traffic consultant who is donating his services, the police will measure the volume and directional flow of vehicular traffic at specified intervals.

Commissioner Gill said the study should indicate possible trouble spots and result in recommendations for better traffic control. The study should also point out parking requirements in specific areas, he added.

Garden Club Student Grant Deadline Near

April 1 is the deadline for applications for the horticultural scholarship being offered by the Garden Club of Cranford. All senior students residing in and attending a Union County high school are eligible.

The schools have been advised of the grant and the scope which it would cover. The divisions of landscaping, forestry, florists and propagators break down into numerous sub-divisions, as well as research and conservation.

Applications should be sent to the Garden Club of Cranford, 420 Riverside Dr., Cranford, N. J. Any student who is interested is requested to contact his guidance counselor or any member of the committee. Mrs. Charles Haag, chairman, is assisted by Mrs. Robert M. Crane, president, and Mrs. C. R. Fairchild, Mrs. W. Kraft, Mrs. William Knox and Mrs. N. A. Tomasulo.

The grant, a sum of $250, may be used toward the tuition of a student attending a recognized college or university and majoring in one branch of horticulture. Some of the nearby schools would include Rutgers, Pennsylvania State College, Amherst College of Temple University and Farmingdale of New York State University.

The decision to carry on the grant for another year was prompted by the response to the first grant given in May, 1965.

The Garden Club of Cranford has raised its funds by speakers, and plans to add to the fund with its Open Homes Tour on May 5. Tickets for the tour were distributed by Mrs. Earl P. Neal, Jr., and Mrs. Richard French at the club's meeting on Monday.

C of C 'Man of Year' Award Won by Farris Swackhamer; 'Economic Health' Aim Told

Boris Bergen, president of Cranford Chamber of Commerce, in his address at the chamber's sixth annual banquet at the Shackamaxon Golf and Country Club in Scotch Plains last night, stressed the "obligation on the part of all of us who earn our living in this community to assume a part in the development of a sound program of economic growth."

The text of President Bergen's address follows:

"It is with a great sense of pride that I speak to you now. Pride in the fact that I have been associated with the growth of the Cranford Chamber of Commerce since its inception. And pride in the fact that I was involved in the reorganization of the then founding Cranford Business Association, which was the forerunner of the present chamber."

"The old CBA was narrow in its concept, and the switch to a chamber was made with the full intention of broadening the scope of the organization to make it more truly representative of the business community."

"Who is the business community? The answer to that question might vary considerably, depending upon who gives the reply. The chamber concept is that anyone who earns a livelihood in Cranford in an administrative capacity is properly considered part of the business community."

"We have broken this large and diverse group into three parts for the purpose of being better able to administer to the needs of each group. The business division, this year headed by Director Herbert Maslin of Bell's Pharmacy, includes retailers, suppliers of services and contractors."

"Board Member Richard M. Grade of IBM is chairman of the industrial division, and the professional group is represented by Director Dr. Wilfred Jordan. We also have a substantial group of sustaining members who have no direct connection with an active business or practice, but who for one reason or another are interested particularly in Cranford's economic health."

"Our prime objective for 1966 is to refine the organization of each of these groups. We would like to see meetings within these divisions where pertinent matters of interest can be discussed and resolved, and where each can decide how best it can contribute to the economic development of Cranford."

"Yes, I said contribute. I see an obligation on the part of all of us who earn our living in this community to assume a part in the development of a sound program of economic growth."

"For the retailers, perhaps, the resulting benefits are most obvious. The industrial group, I am sure, recognizes the soundness of this approach, for they always thoroughly investigate a communi-

Board Adopts New Calendar of Holidays

Schools will be closed on Veterans' Day and for two days on Memorial Day according to the new school calendar for 1966-67 adopted by the Board of Education on Tuesday night.

Several years ago schools were open on Veterans' Day, and the board was severely criticized by local veterans' groups. Last year Veterans' Day fell on the same day as the annual Teachers' Convention in Atlantic City.

This year the board set a two-day holiday for Washington's Birthday. In 1967 the two-day holiday will be held May 29 and 30 for Memorial Day. If any additional day for classes is needed (because of extra snow days, etc.), Monday, May 29, will be used.

The calendar is as follows: Thursday, September 8, classes begin; Thursday and Friday, September 15 and 16, schools closed for Rosh Hashanah; Thursday and Friday, November 3 and 4, Teachers' Convention; Friday, November 11, Veterans' Day; Wednesday, November 23, single session; Thursday and Friday, November 24-25, Thanksgiving holiday.

Christmas vacation will be Monday, December 26, through Monday, January 2. Schools will be closed Wednesday, February 22, for Washington's birthday. Easter recess will be Friday, March 24, through Friday, March 31.

May 29 and 30, Memorial Day holidays; Tuesday, June 20, high school commencement; Wednesday, June 21, last day for classes; Friday, June 23, return for report cards; Tuesday, June 27, summer school begins. There will be 183 school days.

The board granted a leave of absence for professional growth to (Continued on Page 8)

Prof. Farris S. Swackhamer, chairman of the chemistry department at Union Junior College, was presented with the Cranford Chamber of Commerce "Man of the Year" award last night at the chamber's sixth annual banquet at Shackamaxon Golf and Country Club, Scotch Plains. More than 130 members, their wives and guests attended.

In making the presentation to Prof. Swackhamer, who returned to his duties at the college Tuesday after being taken ill a week earlier, Dr. Clark W. McDermith, superintendent of schools, reviewed the recipient's many contributions to the community.

Mr. Swackhamer served last year as chairman of the Cranford United Fund which almost attained its goal for the first time in many years. He is serving his 11th year as chairman of the Juvenile Conference Committee, his seventh year as an instructor of the Union County Police Training Academy and his ninth year as chemicals analyst for the police department drunkometer.

A former member of the Township Committee and Board of Health for three years, he currently is a member of the board of trustees of the Cranford Public Library.

An outstanding naturalist, Prof. Swackhamer writes a weekly column on birds for the Citizen and Chronicle and a monthly column which appears in 30 newspapers of the state. He also serves as a volunteer observer for the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife of the U. S. Department of Interior, conducts the annual bird count locally, and lectures on birds and conservation before local and county groups.

In addition to heading the chemistry department at the local college, this year's award recipient is acting director of the college's evening session and an instructor in its college readiness program. He also is a volunteer member of the Cranford Tutoring Service, and a former instructor on several occasions in the Cranford Adult School.

He currently is serving as regional director for the New Jersey Academy of Science.

Prof. Swackhamer has been active for many years in the Cranford Dramatic Club. He is a communicant of St. Michael's Church and has served as an usher for (Continued on Page 8)

Progress Report On Observatory Friday Night

Amateur Astronomers, Inc. will devote its March meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the theatre of Union Junior College's Campus Center to progress reports on the William Miller Sperry Observatory.

Anthony Paone of Westfield, president, said the public is invited.

Construction of the Sperry Observatory is expected to be completed by the end of 1966. It is being built on the Union Junior College campus with a gift from Mrs. Frederick Beinecke of New York City and William S. Beinecke of Summit as a memorial to their father and grandfather, William Miller Sperry, a long-time Cranford civic and business leader.

The observatory will contain two major instruments: A 24-inch reflector telescope, which will be New Jersey's largest, and a 10-inch refractor telescope. Both instruments will be built by Amateur Astronomers and will be contributed to Union Junior College.

Dr. Lewis C. Thomas of North Plainfield will describe the layout and floor plan of the observatory. Dr. Clifford Ashcraft of Franklin Township will outline the various elements of the 24-inch reflector telescope, while Kenneth D. Smith of Westfield will review plans for the 10-inch refractor telescope. Roger Tuthill will outline the work schedule for the two instruments and coordination with construction of the building.

The Sperry Observatory will be operated by a joint committee of AAI and Union Junior College. AAI is represented on the committee by Dr. Thomas, lecturer at the American Museum's Hayden Plan-

Renaissance Period in Italy Portrayed by Foreign Visitor

Students and faculty of Orange Avenue Junior High School received a word and picture portrait of the Renaissance period in Italy during an all-day visit of Siegfried W. DeRachewitz on Friday. Mr. DeRachewitz, a fine arts major at Rutgers University, has studied in Italy, England and California. He is from Merano, Italy and is the grandson of the poet Ezra Pound and the son of a famed architect and archaeologist.

The exchange student was introduced by Mrs. A. R. Mirante, cultural arts chairman for the Orange Avenue PTA. Miss Josephine Corbo, Miss Helen Kochera and Patrick Marrotto were his faculty guides.

Richard G. Wagner, principal, introduced Mr. DeRachewitz at two student assemblies at which the guest gave an outline of the age of the Renaissance in art, literature and music.

"The Renaissance indicates a time of artistic achievement and confidence and realization of the importance of man," the speaker said. He showed slides of Madonnas by Raphael, "La Primavera" and "The Birth of Venus" by Botticelli, portraits by Bellini and Francesco, "Mona Lisa" by da Vinci (Continued on Page 8)

Film on Medicare To Be Shown Here Monday Afternoon

The public is invited to attend a meeting sponsored by the Cranford Senior Citizens' Club in the Municipal Building at 1:30 p.m. Monday at which Kenneth Malkin, a representative of the Social Security office in Elizabeth, will show a film on Medicare.

Mr. Malkin also will answer questions and sign up anyone interested in making application for Medicare.

The Cranford Democratic Club is conducting a telephone campaign to inform the public about the Medicare program, with more (Continued on Page 8)

Week's Weather

UJC Meteorological Station
HAROLD DULOCK, Meteorologist

It was a very pleasant week with temperatures on the mild side. Temperatures ranged from a high of 57 degrees last Thursday to a low of 23 degrees on the same day. During the week, 171 degree days were recorded, bringing the total for the heating season which began September 1 to 4,239.

Rainfall on Sunday totaled .25 inches, bringing the total precipitation for March to 1.55 inches.

A year ago the temperatures ranged from a maximum of 50 degrees to a minimum of 20 degrees, as 196 degree days were recorded, bringing the total for the heating season to 4,289. Precipitation totaled 1.18 inches. A trace of snow was recorded.

Contracts Let for UJC Science Building

Four contracts totaling $709,788 have been awarded by the board of trustees of Union Junior College for the construction of the $1 million science building.

Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, UJC president, said contracts have been awarded to the following low bidders: Sellers Construction Co. of Montclair, general construction, including steel and iron work, $498,540; John R. Rowe, Inc., of Irvington, plumbing, $38,000; Acme Electric Co., Inc., of Elizabeth, electric and air conditioning, $155,551; and Adair Sheet Metal, Inc., of Linden, ventilating, $11,697.

Dr. MacKay said bids will be received on March 31 for equipment for the project.

Union Junior College has received a grant of $307,000 for the science building under the new federal Higher Education Facilities Act. A fund raising campaign is now underway to raise the additional funds required for the project.

Dr. MacKay said all aspects of the project have been approved by the Department of Housing and Urban Development, so that construction can begin in the near future. The building is scheduled for (Continued on Page 8)

CONTRACT SIGNING — Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay (center seated), president of Union Junior College, signs contract for the general construction of a $1 million science building on the college's campus in Cranford. Participating in the ceremonies in the office of the architects, Elasser & Miller of Inc. are: Seated — Walter Sellers of Sellers Construction Co., Inc., Montclair, and Warren H. Halsey of Springfield, secretary of the board of trustees of Union Junior College; standing — Edward Fiedler of Acme Electric Co., Elizabeth, electrical contractor, and John A. Rowe of Irvington, plumbing contractor.

Drowning Victim's Widow Files Suit For Insurance

The widow of a Cranford man who drowned while on an outing at Sandy Hook State Park filed suit in Superior Court in Elizabeth on Monday against the Insurance Co. of North America, charging that the company has refused to pay off on a liability policy in effect on the life of her husband at the time.

Mrs. Eugenia Schweikart of Union, formerly of 9 Middlebury Lane, filed the suit as administratrix of the estate of her husband, William A. Schweikart, 35, who lost his life while swimming at the park on August 3, 1964. In refusing to pay on the policy, issued while the late Mr. Schweikart was employed as a chemist at the CIBA Pharmaceutical Co. plant in Summit, the insurance company disclaims responsibility for the drowning.

Hiking Club Schedule Told

Two hikes are scheduled for the members of the Union County Hiking Club for this weekend.

On Saturday, Richard Hess of West Orange will lead an afternoon ramble in the South Mountain Reservation. The group will meet at the Turtle Back Zoo parking area at 1:30 p.m. and will climb to Turtle Back Rock, then along the ridge of the First Mountain to the Girl Scout camp, down toward the valley and along wooded trails to the starting point.

On Sunday, Leo and Trudy Zape of Orange will lead a circular hike in the Sterling Forest area in New York, along Stealing Ridge and Jennings Trail. For information on the meeting place of this hike contact the recreation department of the Union County Park Commission, Warinanco Park, Elizabeth.

Home Economics Speakers Revealed

"The Dual Role of Woman" will be the topic of the annual dinner meeting of the New Jersey Home Economics Association and the Tri-State Council on Family Relations, Mrs. Carolyn F. Yuknus, county home economist, announced this week.

The meeting will be held on Wednesday, March 30, in Grace Freeman Hall at Montclair State College, Upper Montclair.

Hadassah Unit Donor Luncheon Set for March 30

The Roselle-Cranford chapter of Hadassah will celebrate the climax of the current year at the Short Hills Caterers at noon Wednesday, March 30. Mrs. Sigmund Nathan, donor chairman, has announced that Mrs. M. J. Factor is in charge of table reservations, and Mrs. Morris Schalef, donor treasurer, is in charge of donor credits.

The guest entertainer for the annual donor luncheon is Mrs. Ruth Chertoff, actress, monologist, and humorist. She is noted for her humorous and poignant characterizations from her "Sholom Aleichem Show," and her dramatization of the life of "Henrietta Szold."

Working with Mrs. Nathan on the donor committee are Mrs. Leslie Glick, Mrs. Gus Cohen, Mrs. Lloyd Nimaroff, Mrs. Les Gamza, Mrs. Leonard Glaser, Mrs. Samuel Shapiro, Mrs. George Krieger, Mrs. Morris Shalef and Mrs. M. J. Factor. Approximately 100 Hadassah women and their guests are expected.

ORT Day Celebration Set Today

Cranlin Chapter of ORT will hold an ORT Day luncheon today at 12:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Leonard Limon of 26 Brown Ter.

The luncheon is one of many being given across the country by the 66,000 members of Women's American ORT in more than 500 chapters.

A slide program on "The Story of Women's American ORT" will be narrated by Mrs. Carl Kantor, vice-president of membership. The slides will trace the 36-year history of ORT.

Women's American ORT has pledged an increase in membership "so that a desk and workbench will be created for all those who want and need them."

Music Club Concert to Aid Scholarship Fund

Plans for the scholarship fund concert of the Musical Club of Westfield, to be given on Saturday, May 7, were announced this week. The club will present Verdi's "Requiem" for orchestra, chorus and soloists at Westfield High School.

This is being made possible through the cooperation of the Plainfield Symphony Orchestra, under the direction of Samuel Carmel, and the Choral Arts Society, being trained by Evelyn Bleeke, a Westfield Musical Club member.

All of these groups number Cranford residents among their members. Two members of the Musical Club, Dilys Smith and Ellen May Forsberg, will sing the soprano and mezzo-soprano roles. Dr. Holly Merial, a former Cranford resident, will be the bass soloist, and Walter Blazer, the tenor soloist.

Funds raised by the concert will be used for sponsoring qualified music students in advanced training. Applications for these scholarships are available to any music student in this area who maintains a B average in all major subjects and auditions before the scholarship awards committee as well as a member of the club board.

Two Cranford students, Kathleen Bride of 103 Cranford Ave. and Kathleen Cowperthwaite of 3 Willow St., were recipients of scholarship awards for 1965-66.

The president of the Musical Club is Mrs. Channing Rudd of 209 Central Ave. Mrs. Allen Kittleson, a former Cranford resident, is vice-president, and Mrs. Robert Ferguson of 1 Lenox Ave. is treasurer.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained from Mrs. Joseph Hamer of 449 Orchard St., Cranford publicity chairman.

Local Man Arrested On Morals Charges

Police Chief Lester W. Powell this week reported the arrest of Roger Clarke, 35, of 42 West Holly St., on a number of counts involving debauching the morals of minors contributing to delinquency and possessing pornographic material.

Taken into custody on Sunday by Chief Powell, Detective Lt. A. Frank Burr, Lt. Matthew H. Haney and Patrolman Arthur E. Anderson, he was arraigned before Magistrate Charles J. Stevens and then taken to the Union County Jail to await setting of bail by the county prosecutor.

Chief Powell said papers in the case also were sent to the prosecutor for movement before the Grand Jury.

In connection with the same case, Chief Powell reported, a 15-year-old Elizabeth boy was sent to the Juvenile Detention Center in Elizabeth and two Cranford boys, 13 and 15 years of age, were released in the custody of their parents to await Juvenile Court action.

Chief Powell said the action came as the result of an extensive investigation by Lts. Burr and Haney.

Men In Service

Marine Second Lt. Andrew S. Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alan S. Wells of 306 Central Ave., is attending Naval Pre-Flight School

Child," Physical and Emotional Needs of the Newborn Child," "The Role of the Mother and Father" and "Instruction in Controlled Breathing and Relaxation During Labor."

The classes will be given in the evening so that husbands and wives may attend. Expectant parents are welcome regardless of the hospital they may choose for the delivery of the baby. A professional nurse with special training in parent education will conduct the course.

Three courses are planned each year for spring, fall and winter.

They will be held in the nursing students' residence at 133 Reid St., Elizabeth. A nominal fee will be charged.

For registration and additional information, the nursing service office at Elizabeth General Hospital may be called:

"Gambling earnings must be included as income on federal income tax returns."

Refunds of federal income taxes are not income. The interest, if any, is.

Freeholders Adopt Budget

The 1966 Union County budget, totaling $19,488,205 and representing an increase of $778,545 above the 1965 figure, was adopted by the Board of Freeholders in Elizabeth Monday night by a vote of 6 to 3.

Republican Freeholders Harry V. Osborne, Jr., of Cranford, Edward H. Tiller of Garwood and Walter E. Ulrich of Rahway voted no on the measure.

Affirmative votes were cast by the Democratic freeholders, Director Frank T. Cuchie of Cranford, William J. Ahern, Jr., of Kenilworth, Arthur C. Fried of Westfield, John V. Donahue of Roselle, Edward J. Wilusz of Elizabeth and Hugh Caldwell of Plainfield.

Most of the budget increase is accounted for by a $300 across-the-board wage increase for county employees earning up to $7,000 a year. Finance Chairman Ahern pointed out, however, that in spite of the increase in the budget total, as a result of a considerable increase in county rates during 1965 the county tax rate will be only 36 cents per $100 of assessed valuation, or a decrease of 2 points under the 1965 rate.

Investigative Course for Police Here Next Week

An investigative school for policemen will be held next week at Veterans' Memorial Home, South Ave. and Thomas St., under auspices of the Union County Police Chiefs' Association. Police Chief Lester W. Powell,

CRANFORD (N. J.) CITIZEN AND CHRONICLE—THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1966 Page Three educational chairman for the association, will open the school Monday morning and conduct graduation exercises for those successfully completing the course Friday afternoon.

Classes will be conducted each day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. by instructors from the Newark office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Attending from the Cranford Police Department will be Patrolmen Andrew J. Sharo, Peter Vergalla and James E. Washbourne, and from Kenilworth, Detective

Garland Friezer. Others in the class of more than 20 students will be from the police departments of Hillside, New Providence, Scotch Plains, Westfield, Summit, Linden and Berkeley Heights and the Union County Park Police.

OBITUARIES

ROBERT STEWART MILLER

Cystic Fibrosis Claims Youth, 12

Robert Stewart Miller, 12, of 452 Brookside Pl., died Monday at Elizabeth General Hospital of cystic fibrosis. He had been hospitalized for five days, and had been afflicted with the disease since his childhood.

Rev. Dr. Robert G. Longaker, pastor, officiated at services yesterday at the First Presbyterian Church. In lieu of flowers the family has asked that contributions be made to the Children's Fund of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, Morristown. The funeral was from Gray Memorial, 12 Springfield Ave.

The youth, son of Doss R., Sr., and Dorothy Stewart Miller, was born in Plainfield and had lived here all his life. He was a seventh grade student at Orange Avenue Junior High School, and was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and attended Sunday school there.

Surviving besides his parents are a brother, Doss R., Jr., 15, and a sister, Donna Jean, 10, and his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Stewart of Cranford.

Mrs. H. Baldwin Ackland

Mrs. Mabel Gallagher Ackland, formerly of 505 Orange Ave., died Monday at Cranford Hall Nursing Home after a long illness.

Born in Brooklyn, she lived in Cranford for 47 years.

Surviving are her husband, H. Baldwin Ackland; a son, Robert B. Ackland of Cranford, and three sisters, Miss Inez E. Gallagher, Miss Ethel G. Gallagher and Miss Mildred Gallagher, all of New York City, and two grandchildren.

Private services will be held at Green Wood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y., today. Arrangements are being handled by Gray Memorial, 12 Springfield Ave.

Mrs. George B. Conklin

KENILWORTH — Rev. James Cooper, Jr., pastor of Community Methodist Church, officiated at services Monday afternoon at Gray Memorial, 12 Springfield Ave., Cranford, for Mrs. Anna M. Conklin, 64, of 530 Monroe Ave. She died Friday in St. Barnabas Hospital, New York City.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield.

Born in Millway, N. J., Mrs. Conklin lived in the borough for 45 years. She was the wife of George D. Conklin, former Kenilworth Police Chief and present member of the Board of Education.

She was a member of the Community Methodist Church and a life member of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. She was an honorary member of the Garden Club of Kenilworth and a member of the Breezy Point Society.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a son, William E. of Kenilworth; four grandchildren; five sisters, Mrs. Margaret Franklin of Hollywood, Calif., Mrs. Emily Greenwald of Estelle Manor; Mrs. Harriet Igle of Huntington Park, Calif., Mrs. Ruth Fannin of Tampa, Fla., and Mrs. Jane Good of Thousand Oaks, Calif., and two brothers, Edwin McCormack of Plainfield and Walter E. McCormack of Westfield.

A high mass of requiem will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at St. Michael's Church, and the funeral will be from Dooley Funeral Home, 218 North Ave., at 10:45 a.m. Interment will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Westchester, N. Y.

Mrs. Jennie L. Miller

Mrs. Jennie L. Miller, 82, of 16 Locust Dr., died Tuesday at home following a lingering illness.

Born in Stockholm, Sweden, she lived in Kenilworth and Westfield before coming to Cranford 22 years ago. She was the wife of the late Leonard P. Miller, Sr.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs.

Frederick Mackenzie with whom she made her home; two grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Robert G. Longaker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, at 10 a.m. tomorrow at Gray Memorial, 12 Springfield Ave. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield.

Walter O. Werkmeister

KENILWORTH — Walter O. Werkmeister, 74, of 296 Roosevelt Lane died Sunday night at Elizabeth General Hospital after a brief illness.

Services were held yesterday at the Don McCracken Funeral Home, Elizabeth, and cremation followed at Rosehill Crematory.

Born in Germany, Mr. Werkmeister came to this country 43 years ago and lived in Elizabeth and Linden before moving here 25 years ago. He conducted his own business prior to his retirement 10 years ago.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Elsie Fritz Werkmeister; two sons, Walter of Elizabeth and Kurt, Union; a daughter, Mrs. Elsiebth Nommensen, Mountainside; a brother, Rudolf, Linden, and a grandchild.

Mrs. E. J. McDermott

Mrs. Catherine F. McDermott, 50, of 27 West Holly St., wife of Edward J. McDermott, died yesterday in Cranford Hall Nursing Home after a long illness.

Born in New York City, she had lived here nine years. She was a communicant of St. Michael's Church and a member of its Rosary Society.

Also surviving are three daughters, the Misses Nancy and Mary Patricia, both at home, and Mrs. John Rooney of Rahway; her mother, Mrs. Mary McNulty, and a sister, Mrs. John Young, both of Peekskill, N. Y.

A high mass of requiem will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m. Saturday at St. Michael's Church, and the funeral will be from Dooley Funeral Home, 218 North Ave., at 10:45 a.m. Interment will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Westchester, N. Y.

Leroy Wilson

Leroy Wilson, 69, of 5 Osage Dr., died Monday at Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, after a brief illness. His wife, the late Mrs. Henrietta Lentz Wilson, died March 8 and was buried on Friday.

Mr. Wilson, hospitalized at the time of his wife's death, attended the funeral and re-entered the hospital Sunday night.

Born in Goodes, Va., Mr. Wilson lived here 20 years. He was in the maintenance department of Bristol-Myers Co., Hillside, and retired several years ago. He was a former iron worker for Chicago Bridge Co., Hillside.

Surviving are two brothers, Homer and Harry, and a sister, Mrs. Olive Wilson, all in Virginia.

Services will be held today at Mastapeter Suburban, Roselle Park.

Clarence Z. Sachs

Clarence Z. Sachs of 945 Kenyon Ave., Plainfield, died Monday at Muhlenberg Hospital, Plainfield, after a long illness.

He was the husband of Mrs. Rose Sachs, proprietor of the Towne Beauty Salon, 110 Walnut Ave.

Born in Mt. Bethel, he lived four years in Plainfield. He was a retired machinist with Mack Motors, Plainfield, where he had been employed for 22 years. He was a charter member of the Cranford Elks Lodge and a member of Mt. Bethel Volunteer Fire Co. and the Wesley Methodist Church, South Plainfield.

Services will be held today at Memorial Funeral Home, Plainfield, and burial will be in Mt. Bethel Cemetery.

Mrs. Ida Kurzman

KENILWORTH — Mrs. Ida G. Kurzman, 67, of 41 S. 24th St. died Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital after a long illness.

Rev. Dr. Robert G. Longaker, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Cranford, officiated at services on Tuesday at Gray Memorial, 12 Springfield Ave., Cranford. Burial took place yesterday in Fairview Cemetery, Westfield.

Born in New York City, Mrs. Kurzman was a former resident of Newark and lived in Beachwood for 10 years before coming here eight months ago. She was the widow of William F. Kurzman.

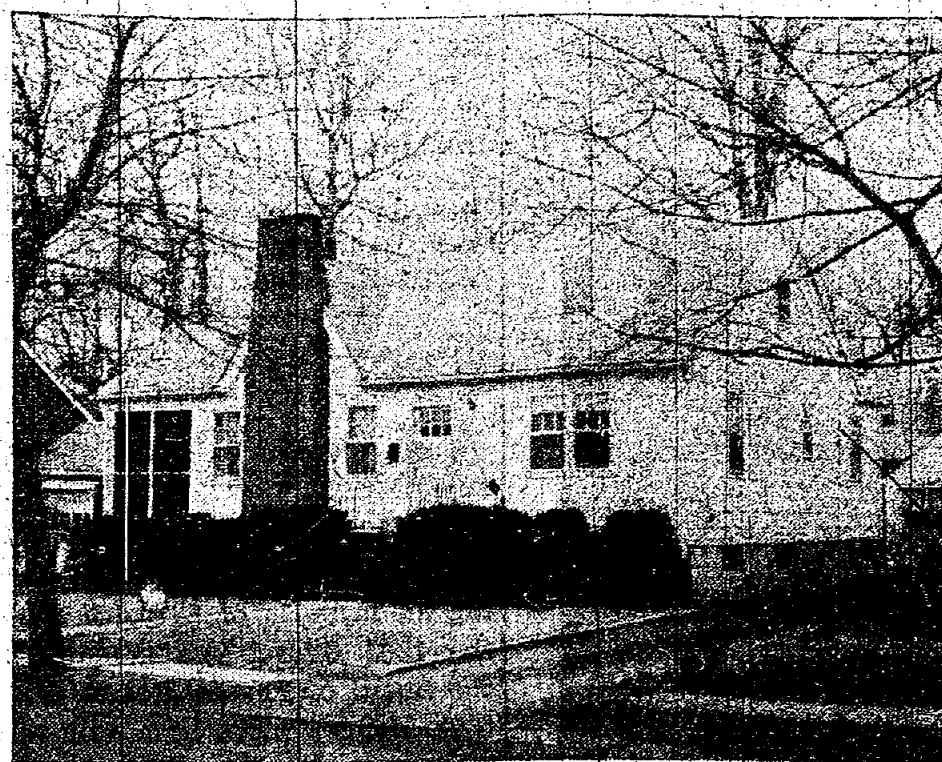

Memorial Service For MacDonald

A memorial service for the late James R. MacDonald, president and chairman of the General Cable Co. of New York, will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. MacDonald died March 6 aboard the SS Ocean Monarch en route to Bermuda for a vacation.

Mr. MacDonald, 62, a resident of Westfield, formerly lived on Orchard St. in Cranford. At the time of his death he was serving as co-chairman of Union Junior College's science building fund drive. A memorial fund has been established at the college in his name.

Mr. MacDonald had been a member of the First Presbyterian Church since April 1952.

LOCUST DRIVE SALE — The above property at 209 Locust Dr. was sold to Mr. and Mrs. John R. Kraszak, formerly of Elizabeth, for Mrs. G. A. Fenderson. The sale was made by Richard Schroth of the B. S. Willoughby Real Estate Co., 13 Walnut Ave., through the cooperation of the Shaheen Agency.

Girl Scout Notes

Junior Troop 23

Mrs. Anthony Katawick has joined Junior Troop 23 as a new co-leader and Elizabeth Bernard and Barbara Wasiewicz are new troop members.

A review of troop activities disclosed that Mrs. H. W. Hastrup and Mrs. George Statue collected Girl Scout cookie money. Troop members also completed the requirements of the world neighbor badge when they demonstrated the Mexican folk dance, LaRaspa, in the Thinking Day program last month.

The troop has been working on the dabbler badge. Patrols 1 and 2 made paper bag puppets and presented a play, "Jolly Green Thumb," with Doris Jean McFarlane as Jolly Green Thumb; Susan Martini, Silver Rain, and Theresa Jones, Sally Sunshine. Vegetable seeds and garden vegetables were portrayed by Karen Underwald, Celia Cordick, Lisa Olsen, Patricia Ciepierski, Maureen Davies, Margaret Fus, Jill Hastrup, Nanci Katawick, Janet Koester and Margaret Kurzwil. Donna Blazewski was narrator. Mrs. Peter McFarlane, leader, directed.

Patrol 3 will present their stick puppet show, "The Little Circus Donkey," in two weeks under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Kurzwil, leader. Cast members are: Elizabeth Green, donkey; Cathy Statue, big clown; Beverly Machrone, bear; Elaine Evancew, squirrel, and Monica Wronski, rabbit. Colette Porter will be the owl and Lynn Pate, jlt-the clown.

Members of patrol 4 have made sock puppets and presented their play, "What is a Penny?" on Tuesday with Mrs. McFarlane assisting. Pamela Jones was Mrs. Thrift; Janice Johnson, Mr. Piggy, and the children were Barbara Wasiewicz, Janette Irving, Angela Martini, Susan Ryerson, Laura Bonomo, Elizabeth Bernard and Joanne Ellis.

The scouts made miniatures from modeling clay recently which were on display in the Girl Scout Exhibit at the Cranford Public Library. They also are making pictures from fabric pieces in boxes under the leadership of Mrs. Katawick.

Nanci Katawick, Margaret Fus, Margaret Kurzwil, Barbara Wasiewicz, Janette Irving, Jill Hastrup, Theresa Jones, Lisa Olsen and Beverly Machrone made a trip to the home of Mrs. D. L. Copeland to see her doll exhibit. They are working on the collectors' badge.

Mrs. Alma Phill, nurse at Lincoln School, will discuss the requirements of the personal health badge at a troop meeting later this month. Other future plans include a bus trip to the Fischer Baking Co., Newark, during Easter vacation. Mrs. John Bilavsky, leader of Brownie Troop 851, sister troop of Junior Troop 23, is in charge of the arrangements.

Junior Troop 23 meets Tuesday evenings in the educational building of the Cranford Methodist Church.

Boating Starting At Warinanco, Echo Lake

Rowboats will be available to the public at the Warinanco Park Lake, Elizabeth and Roselle, and at Upper and Lower Echo Lakes, Westfield and Mountainside, on weekends beginning this Saturday, weather permitting. In early April rowboats will be available on Lake Surprise in the Watchung Reservation, it was recently announced by the Union County Park Commission.

The rate of 50 cents an hour on weekdays and 75 cents an hour on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays will be in effect again this season.

Five canoes again will be placed on Upper Echo Lake for park visitors. The rate for canoes will be 75 cents an hour on weekdays and $1 an hour on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays. Only persons 17 years of age and older will be permitted to rent canoes.

Early in June boating will be available daily in Warinanco Park, Echo Lake and Lake Surprise.

At the February meeting of the Park Commission, the purchase of 15 aluminum rowboats was authorized. Five of the rowboats will be located at Echo Lake, five will be at Lake Surprise and five at Warinanco Park Lake to replace wooden boats that have been in service for many years.

Field Trips Scheduled

Student nurses from Elizabeth and Perth Amboy General Hospital who are enrolled in Union Junior College's pre-clinical nursing program will make field trips on Monday, next Thursday and March 25 to the North Jersey Home for the Mentally Retarded, Totowa. The field trips were arranged by Mrs. Robert Leary of Cranford, coordinator of the nursing program.

No federal tax deduction is allowed for donations made to organizations not recognized to receive tax deductible contributions by the Internal Revenue Service.

Film on Sea This Sunday

"The Restless Sea," a color, sound movie will be shown to visitors to the Union County Park Commission's Trailside Nature and Science Center in the Watchung Reservation at 3 p.m. Sunday.

The film, a brief study of the science of oceanography, depicts the exploration of the "inner space" world, the mysterious sea.

Half-hour nature talks for children will be conducted at Trailside on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, at 4 p.m. each day. The topic to be discussed during the four days is "Crabs, Lobsters and Crayfish."

The talks will be illustrated with color slides and admission is free. The Trailside Nature and Science Center is open to the public each weekday, except Friday, from 3 to 5 p.m. and on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays from 1 to 5 p.m.

CAMPUS TO BE — A model shows the future campus of Livingston College, planned for Rutgers University's Kilmer area. The building in the upper right corner is the main academic building. Adjacent to it are three residence units, each built to house some 500 students. A chemistry building (not pictured) will be located on a neighboring tract.

Cub Pack 103 Members Get Handcraft Awards

The annual handcraft awards were presented Saturday evening at the monthly meeting of Cub Pack 103 in Fellowship Hall of the First Presbyterian Church.

second, Ken Burnett; third, Evan John; and honorable mention, John Drake; 10-year-olds — First, Gary DeLonge; second, Billy Greene; third, Charles Puppert; and honorable mention, Curtis Jester.

Den No. 2 won the handcraft trophy for the fourth consecutive year and retired the award.

The annual track meet will be held May 7 at Rahway River Park and the season will end on May 14 with the annual father and son dinner.

Cub achievement awards were presented to Robert Lynes, David Schultz, Bruce Greenberg, Dallas Jacobs, Mike Cernak, Nick Abbott, Gary DeLonge, Bill Lange, Bill Austin, Jack Cluff, Bruce Playle, Greg Meese, Paul Nichols, Jeff Smith, John Baytala, Thomas Bucher and Ronald Kjeldsen.

Cubmaster Norman Gorringer introduced these new members: Kenneth Sperling, Randy Morrison, Donald Schmidt, David Andrews and Eugene Woehr.

Answers Given To Questions On Cancer

The following questions and answers concerning cancer are presented under the auspices of the Union County Chapter of the American Cancer Society.

Readers are invited to submit questions in writing to the American Cancer Society, 512 Westminster Ave., Elizabeth. All questions should be of a general nature, since specific personal questions require knowledge of an individual's medical history. The name of the individual submitting the questions will be omitted upon request.

What is cancer? Cancer is a group of diseases in which there is uncontrolled and disordered growth of abnormal cells which, if unchecked, will cause death.

Is leukemia a form of cancer? Yes. It is a disease in which there is abnormal growth and development of white blood cells.

Is cancer contagious? No. There is no reported case of anyone having "caught" cancer from a patient, however closely they have been in contact.

Does cancer usually develop in persons with poor general health? General health seems to have no relationship to the onset of cancer. This means that even people with no signs of ill health should get regular periodic medical examinations.

Is cancer a disease of civilization? No. Cancer is found in all cultures and areas of the world. No color or ethnic group is free of cancer. However there are rates and susceptibilities to various forms of cancer throughout the world.

Are all cancers alike? No. There are many different types of cancer, arising in different parts of the body, growing at different rates and differing in their response to treatment. Cancers are alike in that they grow and spread and, if not treated, cause death.

Is Hodgkin's disease a form of cancer? Yes. It is a disease in which there is uncontrolled growth of abnormal cells arising from the lymphatic system.

Do lower classes of animals develop cancer? Yes. Cancer is found in all forms of life.

Yes. Cancer is found in all forms of life.

Suit Against Hospital In Fatal Jump Case

Mrs. Mary Margaret VonDehsen of 4 English Village filed suit in Superior Court, Elizabeth, last Thursday against Elizabeth General Hospital, charging negligence in the case of her late husband, Howard VonDehsen, 63, who fell to his death from a fourth-floor window of the hospital last October 19.

Acting as the administratrix of her husband's estate, Mrs. VonDehsen charges in the suit that he was released from his bed restrained and permitted to go unattended into a bathroom where he jumped out the window.

Mr. VonDehsen was admitted to the hospital October 11 with a provisional diagnosis of hardening of the arteries of the brain and tumor. His wife contends in her suit that he showed mental and physical traits which required rigid surveillance.

Brent Caldwell II on Precision Drill Team

Cadet Brent B. Caldwell II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brent B. Caldwell of Fanwood and grandson of Mrs. A. B. Caldwell of 9 Norman Pl., has been named to the Summer Guard at The Citadel, Charleston, S. C., for the coming year. It is the military college's precision drill team.

Details of the intricate, close order drills are never recorded but handed down from one class to another. The 51 cadets in the guards will be officially inducted at colorful ceremonies Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell will fly to Charleston Saturday to attend the ceremony and also visit another son, Austin, a freshman at the college.

Health Officer Honored
Health Officer Louis Surano of Cranford was named a member of the board of trustees of the Professional Health Officers' Society of New Jersey at a recent meeting. The society's aims are to improve public health activities, to cooperate in preparing legislative changes as required in new and better developments, to advise and inform the membership of the developments in public health, and to create fellowship among the health officers of the state.

Since 1945, the American Cancer Society has spent almost $140,000,000 on research into the cause, diagnosis, treatment and cure of cancer. Half of those who now get cancer could be cured if the disease were diagnosed and treated in time. Help continue the war against cancer by supporting the April Cancer Crusade when your neighbor calls.

Miss Dorothy Ann Fuhrer Engaged to David E. Leland

MISS DOROTHY ANN FUHRER

Judy Dorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Dorn of 7 Cherokee Rd., entertained friends at a party last week in celebration of her sixth birthday anniversary. Present were Terry Townsend, Colleen Urban, Laurie Murphy, Diane Stelzer, Donna Young, Linda Dorn, John Heninger, Clifford Smith, Jeffrey Brendel, Peter Kalksma and William Sodomora.

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Ann Fuhrer to David Edward Leland was announced recently. Miss Fuhrer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Fuhrer of Springfield, is a graduate of Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Meadville, Pa. She is employed by McGraw-Hill, New York.

Mr. Leland, son of Dr. and Mrs. Hollis L. Leland of 7 Spring Garden St., is a graduate of Cranford High School and Rutgers University. He is with St. Regis Paper Co. in New York. A June wedding is planned.

Nine to Attend Club Woman Day

Nine Cranford women will represent the Colony Club of Cranford at the 32nd annual observance of Club Woman Day today at Hahn and Co. in Newark. They are: Mrs. John Silliman, Mrs. Richard Carlson, Mrs. William Mernick, Mrs. Nicholas Mankiw, Mrs. Earl Shea, Mrs. Raymond Van Jaekel, Mrs. Edward Cushman, Mrs. Reynold Devinney and Mrs. Joseph Kuntz.

Mrs. S. Herbert Taylor, president of the New Jersey State Federation, will greet members and guests. Two fashion shows and prizes will be presented. Four cash prizes will be awarded to individual clubs with the greatest percentage of club membership registered. Income received will be used for the support of the New Jersey Federation magazine, "The New Jersey Club Woman."

The event stems from the days of the depression when the magazine found advertising difficult to secure. Hahn and Co. was approached as a possible client, and they offered to share a percentage of one day's profits if the club women would spend a day in the store as assistants and shoppers. April 9, 1935, is the anniversary date of this outstanding event in Federation history.

Surprise Bridal Shower Fetes Cynthia Vroom

DAR Marks Anniversary At Luncheon

The history of Cranford was retold at the annual birthday anniversary luncheon of Crane's Ford Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, last week at Echo Lake Country Club, Westfield.

Mrs. Norman C. Kjeldsen, regent, introduced Mrs. Ralph A. Hall, regent of the Westfield Chapter DAR. A taped history of Cranford produced for Radio Station WERA last fall by Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Martin McHugh, member of the Cranford chapter, was played. Mrs. Hall also played a tape recording on "The DAR Story" in which the historic, educational, and patriotic activities of the DAR are detailed.

Mrs. Hall pointed out that the National DAR maintains its headquarters in Washington, D. C., in a marble and granite building covering an entire city block. Its library there, one of the finest of its kind, has a highly specialized collection of American history, genealogy and biography. It is open to the public.

She traced the DAR's record of service since the Spanish-American War and reported that more than nine million copies of the DAR manual for citizenship have been given to immigrants seeking naturalization.

The DAR owns and operates two schools for underprivileged children in Appalachia and have been engaged in this work for many years, she said. The DAR also helps support other schools including those for American Indians and gives many scholarships and awards.

The DAR, Mrs. Hall noted, has restored, preserved and maintained many historic buildings and sites. Arrangements for the luncheon were made by Mrs. J. J. Muldowney and Mrs. R. M. Sutton.

Art of Antiquing Flowers Shown Garden Club

The fine art of arranging antiqued flowers was demonstrated by Mrs. Raymond P. Wismer at the home of Mrs. Boyd E. Hudson at a meeting of the Garden Club of Cranford on Monday. Mrs. Robert M. Crane presided and Mrs. Kenneth Doremus was a special guest from the New Jersey State Federation of Garden Clubs.

The simplicity of the formula to antique flowers, its application and drying processes were described, followed by the necessary mechanics for a lasting arrangement. Samples of Mrs. Wismer's work reflected careful thought in color, blending of flowers, containers and bases. It was suggested that a silver antique formula be used on flowers such as columbine, sweetheart roses, pansy, sweet peas and ferns for a pastel, light arrangement. Such a combination produces a very delicate and exquisite arrangement.

The gold formula was used on a full arrangement of tiger lilies, yellow roses and pyracantha. A small bouquet of coltsia, delphinium and tiny carnations was placed in a diminutive Victorian vase, carrying out the soft pink tones of the china.

Mrs. Wismer pointed out the value of being able to refurbish artificial or dried flowers, as well as accent pieces which might be used with an arrangement. A statuette of a small boy was pearlized and used in a spring setting of forsythia, daffodils and anemones. Framed pictures or plaques were "painted" with antiqued flowers sewn on an appropriate background and framed. The blending of the background, which could be a desk blotter or a piece of velvet, plus the addition of other materials such as privets, candle sconces, dancing figures or birds, opened up another completely new dimension for wall decoration.

Mrs. G. R. McGrath, tea chairman, was assisted by Mrs. J. D. Bridge, Mrs. D. R. French, Mrs. C. C. Goodfellow, Jr., Mrs. W. J. Hoffmann and Mrs. W. T. Knox. Mrs. Charles Haag and Mrs. Knox poured.

Workshop Conducted On 'Words in Color'

Mrs. Myrna Wasserman, remedial reading instructor at Hillside Avenue Junior High School, recently attended a "Words in Color" workshop at the Brunswick Inn in East Brunswick.

The conference, sponsored by the State Department of Education, was limited to 40 remedial instructors. "Words in Color" is a relatively new approach to the teaching of reading developed by Dr. Caleb Gattegno.

Miss Margaret L. Compton, elementary teacher, from September 1, 1966, to January 31, 1967, at half salary. Miss Compton will take courses in preparation for teaching of remedial reading.

Last year the board adopted a policy allowing teachers with seven or more years of service to take a leave of absence for professional study. Dr. Clark W. McDermith, superintendent of schools, pointed out that there is a serious shortage of remedial reading teachers, and by granting the leave the board will gain a teacher in this field.

The board approved an expenditure of $146 to send 15 senior high students to the Union County Technical Institute this spring to take a short-term course in data processing.

Leaves of absence without salary were granted to Mrs. Patricia Hobbie, effective April 16; Mrs. Julianne French, effective June 1; and Mrs. Rebekah DeMott, because of illness, effective March 1.

Resignations were received from Mrs. Helen Dworzan, English teacher, home responsibilities; Mrs. Mary Peterson, elementary teacher, husband transferred; Donald E. Wyde, custodian.

The board appointed the following teachers:

Mrs. Mary Virginia Schultz of 710 Gallows Hill Rd., elementary school music, effective March 7. Mrs. Schultz is a graduate of Bucknell University.

Mrs. Maureen Savage of Westfield, secondary social studies, a graduate of University College, Rutgers, with three years' experience in Orange.

Miss Gayle McCarthy of Bayonne and Miss Mary Lou Morola of Elizabeth, both elementary teachers, who will be graduated from Jersey City State College in June. Both have been practicing teaching in Lincoln School.

Miss Sally Jane Pearson of Rahway, elementary teacher, who will be graduated in June from Glassboro State College. She has been practicing teaching in a kindergarten class at Brookside Place School.

Mrs. Harriet Strein, a retired Cranford teacher, was hired as an eighth grade science teacher on a long-term substitute basis, effective February 8 to April 7, to fill in for Miss Julia Coppola.

The board approved the contract with the architectural firm of Eppe and Seaman for the rehabilitation program for the four older elementary schools and high school. The firm is working on plans for the renovation project.

The board tabled for further study a request from Dr. McDermith to file an application for a federal grant under Title III of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 to establish a Center for Economic Education. The request to set up a system of regional and area service and material centers for economic education must be sponsored by a local school system, Dr. McDermith explained. He is a member of the New Jersey Council on Economic Education. The centers would be established at Montclair, Glassboro, and Trenton State colleges.

and Princeton University and started his banking career in 1934 with Irving Trust Co., New York. In 1949 he joined Cranford Trust Co., which merged with Westfield Trust Co. in 1952 to become Suburban Trust Co.

Mr. Corbin is a trustee and treasurer of Union Junior College, and a member of the finance committee and of the steering committee for the college's current $1 million fund drive for a new science building. He is a member of the Cranford Chamber of Commerce and a director of the Westfield Chamber.

A Rotarian since 1949, he has served the club as a director, treasurer and secretary and currently is vice-president.

Past District Governor Lewis Unsworth of Trenton, director nominee of Rotary International, outlined the history of Rotary, which was founded 61 years ago last month in Chicago by Paul Harris.

He related that Rotary has grown until today there are 12,270 clubs in 131 countries around the world with a membership of 585,500. He said the growth is more significant because the organization does not have a single paid organizer.

He said the Rotary Foundation, established in 1947 in memory of the Rotary founder, is one of the principal projects of Rotary International. Rotary clubs raise $1 million annually for the foundation, which aids in promoting international understanding through fellowships for exchange students.

He said Bill Moyers, special assistant to President Johnson, is a former Rotary Foundation Fellow. District Governor Arthur S. Williams of Roselle-Roselle Park, who introduced the speaker, reported that the Garwood Rotary Club, which is sponsored jointly by the Westfield and Cranford Rotary Clubs, has received its charter and now is classed as a provisional Rotary Club until charter night ceremonies are held within the next few weeks.

Because of an inter-city meeting next Wednesday at Wally's, Watchung, next Thursday's meeting of the local club will be omitted. The local club will hold a joint meeting with the Ironbound Rotary Club of Newark on April 6 at the Newarker Restaurant.

Announcement was made that the club's bowling team is in a tie for first place in the Rotary District Bowling League.

Vice-President Corbin presided.

completion by the summer of 1967. The two-story science building will be completely air conditioned and electrically heated. It will contain five laboratories, six classrooms, a science resource center, a student research center, 14 faculty offices, and two large lecture halls, seating 75 and 100 persons.

Dr. Mackay said the science building will enable Union Junior College to increase its full-time day session enrollment by about 35 percent or 300 students, to continue its policy of requiring all students to take at least one course in the science-mathematics area, and to continue its science-oriented engineering program as well as the pre-clinical nursing program conducted in cooperation with the Schools of Nursing of Elizabeth and Perth Amboy General Hospitals.

The science building will be the fourth on the UJC campus. The Nomahegan Building, containing 17 classrooms, four science laboratories, the Johnson Memorial Library, administrative offices, lecture hall, dining hall and cafeteria, and faculty offices, was opened in 1959. The Campus Center was added in 1963, containing a 450-seat theater, a gymnasium, student lounge, music room, art gallery and other facilities. The third building, the William Miller Sperry Observatory, will be opened later this year.

ci, and "Moses" by Michelangelo to illustrate the development of art during this period.

Mr. DeRachewitz read several sonnets by Petrarch which showed the beauty of his words despite translation. He spoke of Boccaccio and his revival of classic Roman tales in his short stories. He played selections by the composers Dufay and Monteverdi to illustrate the new style of music that evolved during the Renaissance.

The speaker told of the city-states in Italy and stressed that the unification of Italy did not occur until centuries later. Displaying a picture of a statue of Lorenzo de Medici, the guest spoke of the influence and power of such great families. The audience was told of Niccolò Machiavelli and his handbook for rulers, "The Prince," still used to describe the political atmosphere of the times.

Mr. DeRachewitz visited individual classrooms, conducted informal talks and question periods in the lecture room, had lunch with the teachers and watched a faculty rehearsal for the show, "Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow," to be given at the school on March 19. Mrs. Crosby F. Baker, Jr., PTA president, and Charles Margolin, coordinator of social studies, were present. Mr. DeRachewitz thanked everyone for the opportunity of visiting his first American public school.

ly. Heart cases accounted for 12 of the calls. There were 6 out-of-town trips and 3 out-of-state calls. A total of 255 man-hours were used and the ambulances traveled a total of 1,474 miles.

"Professional people find the connecting thread a more tenuous one, but I submit it is there none the less. A town without economic health, with empty stores, with deserted factories, with unemployment, certainly presents a poor environment for a professional office and a poor climate for a sound local professional practice.

"For tax-paying residents of the community the prime benefit attendant to a thriving business and industrial center is the obvious shifting of the tax load from the resident and to the new rateables which must accompany expansion in both business and industry.

"The Cranford Chamber of Commerce is a voice in the community for these groups, bound by the common interest in a sound economic future.

"Our government tries, but running a community of 28,000 people is a chore not to be taken lightly. It is a big machine. The mayor and his fellow-commissioners, assisted by the department heads, do very well, but the areas of administration requiring their attention are myriad. We must help.

"We are certainly unusual, if not unique, in that our rapport with local government is of the highest order. We are all working toward the same end and the atmosphere of understanding and cooperation that exists is no small factor in keeping the machine in gear and rolling.

"Our Chamber emblem depicts each group as a gear linked together to provide a common source of power to keep Cranford on the move. Our motto tells the story succinctly. Go with Cranford.

"If you are not a member, you are on the outside. Come on in and take your place in the division that serves your interests. Make your voice heard, help mold the policies of our organization, and give a push to keep the gears turning.

"We all benefit and no one loses. It is difficult to turn down a proposition like that."

Norman Roden was toastmaster and the welcome was extended by Charles J. Pfost, chairman of the dinner committee. Invocation was offered by Rev. Robert Bizzaro, rector of Trinity Church. Greetings were extended by Mayor Wesley N. Philo.

Bruce Felkner, executive director of the Fair Campaign Practices Committee, New York, was guest speaker, and Boris Bergen, president of the chamber, outlined accomplishments and aims of the chamber for the current year. Last night's dinner also marked the kickoff of the chamber's annual new member campaign.

* New Church is Expressive of Our Time

Cranford's newest church structure, Calvary Lutheran Church, marks a radical change in church architecture. The lofty structure sits on the corner of Eastman and Holly Sts., commanding the attention of all passersby.

The quiet grace and charm of the sanctuary, flooded with shafts of soft colored light from the tall glass-paned windows, commands even greater admiration. A covered walkway crosses a courtyard to connect the church building to an education-administration building. The unique beauty of the new facilities is enhanced by a large copper beech tree standing in the courtyard, and later three towering crosses will be added to complete the picture.

In a report to the congregation, Pastor Arnold J. Dahlquist said: "We have some wonderful facilities for the ministry Christ wants from this blessed congregation. I mean every word of it when I say that no congregation around us has a church building as beautiful, as expressive, and as exciting as ours for our day. If facilities help, and they do, and if we of Calvary are excited as much over what God expects of us as over what He's given us, we're not finished yet."

Calvary Lutheran Church has expanded its facilities to meet the needs of a growing congregation and church school. Since its founding in 1928 the congregation has expanded from an attendance of 25 to a membership now approaching 1,000, drawn from Cranford and surrounding communities. The church school has an enrollment of 600.

A month of services is marking the completion of the new facilities, highlighted by the dedication of the new church at 9 a.m. Sunday, dedication of gifts and memorials at 10:45 a.m., and a service of thanksgiving at 4 p.m. for the community. On March 27 the new education-administration building and the new, two-manual Schlicker pipe organ will be dedicated. The Wagner College Choir will join in the celebration with a concert on March 30, and the festivities will conclude with two services of holy communion on Palm Sunday.

The dynamic growth of the church under the leadership of Pastors Dahlquist and Gordon L. Huff is an inspiration to the community, and the progress of the new building program has been watched with great interest by the community as the structure has emerged — "theologically expressive of our time and our day."

* Chamber of Commerce Membership: Benefit to All

The Cranford Chamber of Commerce, described by its president, Boris Bergen, as "a voice in the community for its members" and "the means of maintaining liaison for them with both township officials and the public," is conducting a membership drive inaugurated at its sixth annual banquet last night.

As "voice" and "liaison," the chamber performs a wide variety of services for direct benefit of its current membership of 150 and for the economic health of the community as a whole, and during the drive continuing for the next two weeks the opportunity to take advantage of those particular benefits accorded to members will be offered to an expanded field of prospects.

A letter mailed recently to prospective members outlines some of the many services performed by the Cranford Chamber of Commerce as follows:

"Attempts to eliminate frauds and swindles within the community through the operation of our ethics committee.

"Cooperates with the police in publishing information about known swindlers, bad check passers and the like.

"Presents on a continuing basis to township officials comprehensive plans for the development of off-street parking.

"Maintains liaison with township officials on pertinent parts of the master plan and zoning ordinance.

"Runs institutional advertising promoting 'Shop in Cranford'.

* Poison Prevention Week Stresses Dangers to Children

This week is being observed throughout the nation as National Poison Prevention Week, so designated by President Johnson "as a means for local communities to emphasize the dangers of accidental poisonings and take such preventive measures as these dangers warrant."

Each year an estimated half-million children swallow medicines and household products which have the potential to cause serious injury and even death. Ninety percent of these cases involve children under the age of 5 years. Children in this age group are in the learning process. They learn by exploring their environment. What they see they try to reach, and what they reach they put into their mouths. These children are dependent upon adults for protection, and when such accidents happen they usually are the direct result of adult carelessness or lack of awareness of the potential dangers.

Poisoning accidents often result from storing non-edible household products in such containers as cups and soft drink bottles, since a child associates these containers with refreshments. Such accidents also can result if medicines are taken in the dark, if products are not properly labeled or if the label is not read before using. Other factors include the mistake of telling children that medicine is "candy," and the taking of medicine in the presence of children, in view of the tendency of children to imitate adults.

Approximately 50 percent of all accidental ingestions reported to the Public Health Service of the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare involve internal medications. Other substances reported include cleansers, kerosene, lighter fluid, furniture polishes and waxes, bowl and drain cleaners, pesticides, insecticides and disinfectants.

The most important procedure is to keep potentially poisoning products out of the reach of children, and if there is an accidental ingestion, — or even the suspicion of one — a physician should be contacted immediately.

Nature Notes

By FARRIS S. SWACKHAMER

One of the world's most renowned natural scientists, Sir Julian Huxley, begins one of his very readable essays by pointing out that "many people still seem to consider a pre-occupation with birds as having a sentimental rather than a scientific interest."

"In point of fact," he continues, "ornithology is now in the lead in a number of branches of biological research, notably in regard to species formation and related evolutionary problems."

One area that has come in for its evolutionary importance recently is that of nest building. Anyone who has had the opportunity of watching a pair of blue jays build a nest outside his kitchen window has seen the results of millions of years of development in the art. Unfortunately, there were no bird watchers present when the archaepteryx, the Adam of the feathered kingdom, first sailed from his primeval perch. We will probably never know what sort of nest, if any, Archie built, but we can learn much of the history of nest building from a study of species that can be observed around us.

Present day birds almost all hatch their eggs by incubating them with their own body heat. Reptiles, from which birds evolved, laid eggs, but their low and inconstant body temperature was of no help in hatching them. The high constant body heat probably developed about the time the birds learned to fly. The imperfect temperature control of interim creatures suggests another technique for keeping eggs warm.

Perhaps they buried their eggs in the soil and depended on heat from the sun or decaying vegetation to do the job. Many reptiles do this and so does one genus of bird, the megapodes of Australia.

lia. They build a "nest" which varies from a small pit dug in the sand to gigantic mounds of soil and decaying vegetation from 30 to 60 feet long and reaching 15 feet in height. So expert are they that the temperature of the egg never varies more than five degrees. I have seen baby terns born in nests that were simply a hollow in the sand and seldom tended except at night, warmed by the sun during the day.

Few predators frequent the beach, but in the woods and fields such a nest would soon be raided by mammals, snakes or even other birds. So natural selection has chosen those birds to survive to our time from ones that build a safe nest.

In the temperate zone where we live, there is not much rain during the breeding season, nor does the sun ordinarily get too hot. Hence, a cup nest, open to the sky suffices for most birds. Generally it provides a spot to hold the eggs where most predators can't reach them, high sides to keep the eggs and young from falling to the ground and insulation to guard against the night cold. Except for short periods, one parent is always on the nest to warm the eggs and shield the nestling from the elements.

Another group of birds build their home in cavities in trees or bird houses. Others use burrows in a bank as a house.

In the tropics where rain falls almost daily, only those species that build covered or domed nests have survived. The sociable weaver, for example, builds a roofed apartment house.

Space limits our discussion here, but if the subject interests you, read Nicholas E. Collaris' article in the August - September 1965 Natural History magazine.

Complicated Basic Decisions Face Convention Delegates

(This is the third of a series of articles by Dr. Ernest C. Reock, director of the Rutgers Bureau of Government Research, who has done much research into New Jersey's apportionment problems. His publications include "Congressional Districting in New Jersey" and "Population Inequality Among Counties in the New Jersey Legislature.")

By DR. ERNEST C. REOCK
The Constitutional Convention delegates who were elected March 1 will be tempted to set boldly out to consider specific reapportionment plans when they convene next week.

But there are many underlying factors which should be thoroughly discussed before any reapportionment scheme is developed. Five such factors were discussed in the last article in this series, and there are at least six more which deserve attention.

Consideration number six is whether to take future growth trends into consideration when drawing up districts. It has been suggested that districts in which the population is expanding rapidly should be made smaller than those of stable population, as a hedge against future imbalance.

The seventh, and very major, reapportionment consideration is: Just how equal is equal? Is it possible — or even desirable — to have districts with exactly the same population? If one district has 5 percent more population than another is it unbalanced? How about 25 percent?

The American Political Science Association has recommended that Congressional districts should not vary more than 15 percent from the average size in population. Other proposals have suggested that deviations of 10 to 20 percent are acceptable.

An eighth factor for the Constitutional Convention to consider is whether such things as shared community of interest, existing market districts and the residence of incumbent officials are to be considered relevant to the districting plan.

A ninth consideration is how to prevent gerrymandering. A district which is "gerrymandered" is one which is laid out to give unfair advantage to one political party.

To prevent this, the apportionment rules could specify that districts have to be contiguous and compact, or they could require the state constituencies to follow the geographic lines of the minor civil subdivisions such as counties and towns.

A tenth factor to keep in mind is whether the districting plan is to be designed to serve any political purpose. For example, is it to be aimed at keeping the Democrats and Republicans in basically the same balance as at present? Is it designed to keep any particular elected official in power?

The final consideration is how to build in procedures to ensure the plan is kept up-to-date. The legislature can be given the job, or an apportionment formula might be developed and an administrative officer appointed to do the necessary mathematical calculations.

Another alternative is to establish a permanent apportionment commission. Whatever the method, it is necessary to provide the machinery to re-apportion as population shifts.

Because of the complicated series of basic decisions which go into any apportionment plan, there is a question whether the upcoming Constitutional Convention should even try to draw up a specific districting scheme.

It has been suggested that the convention should draw up a set of very detailed guidelines, making its choices from among the many possible alternatives instead of attempting to do the actual districting.

Letters to the Editor

Cranford, N. J.
March 7, 1966

Dear Sir:

Our sincere thanks for the editorial congratulating us on the 70th anniversary of our club, and for the kind references to our civic activities throughout the years.

We are also grateful for the thorough coverage given during our recent survey for low rent housing for senior citizens in Cranford. The completed report, which shows that 5 percent of our population is over 60 years of age and 60 percent of these are eligible for this program, has been submitted to our Township Committee for their study. We hope to have their approval soon.

Thank you again for every kindness extended to the Village Improvement Association.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir:

Your guest editorial THE KILLER (March 10th) included the following statement: "It has been determined by Linus Pauling, a physicist who is the only person to have received the Nobel Prize twice, that each cigarette one smokes shortens his life by 144 minutes."

Did Linus finally flip his blanket?
Having smoked a pack of cigarettes a day for the past 43 years, I started multiplying: 48 (years) x 365 (days) x 20 (cigarettes per pack) x 144 (minutes). And to my great surprise, I found I've already shortened my life by 96 years!

Since I am now 63, Mr. Pauling's figures would seem to indicate that my normal life span, had I not been exposed to nicotine, would be more than 159 years. On the same basis, if the Contracts totaling $352,440 for construction of a new public library building on Walnut Ave. were awarded by the library board of trustees. Estimated total cost of the new building, including land acquisition, was estimated at $469,000. Groundbreaking ceremonies for the new structure were to be held March 18, and speakers were to be Mayor C. Van Chamberlin and John H. McCoy, president of the board.

Dick Prior, student at Cranford High School, won the state 123-pound wrestling championship by winning two matches at Rutgers, ending his season record at 18-0. Prior was Coach Herb Farrell's second champ. Two years before George Craft took the 178-pound title.

A small turnout was expected for a special school election on a bond issue referendum of $1,770,000 for a school expansion plan including an 11-room elementary school on a board-owned site in Bloomingdale Ave., a 15-room elementary school, a site to be acquired in Livingston Ave. and a six-room addition to Brookside Place School. There had been no organized opposition to the plan, and few objections to the plan had been raised at series of talks to all organizations by members of the Board of Education. A brochure also had been sent to all homes. Upon the completions of the building program, the trustees planned to inaugurate a 6-2-4 administrative plan. Cleveland and Sherman Schools were to be converted to two-year junior schools for seventh and eighth graders and Cranford High School was to house ninth through 12th graders only.

More than 50 residents of Roger and Keith Jeffries Ave. renewed a request to Township Committee to have permanent traffic barriers installed in those streets at Westfield line. Kenneth Kaiser of 40 Roger Ave., a spokesman for the group, said through traffic would be a hazard to 139 young children in the two streets.

Present teen-age generation should ever give up cigarettes completely, there would soon be more people on Social Security and Medicare than in the entire work force.

Maybe physicians should stick to physics!

Very truly yours,

Mayor Fred P. Andersen announced that he withdrew from the Republican senatorial contest to support Assemblyman Carlyle Crane of Plainfield.

Moving into Group III for the first time in many years, Cranford High School made its presence felt in the basketball tournament by taking the North Jersey, Section 2 title, on a surprisingly easy, 69-44, win over Jonathan Dayton Regional High School, Springfield.

The Cranford Lions Club adopted a resolution favoring fluoridation of Cranford's water supply as a means of reducing dental cavities, particularly in children's teeth. Action followed a talk by Dr. E. A. Dunfee, who cited the benefits of artificially treated water supplies in other communities. A copy of the resolution was forwarded to the Board of Health.

Theodore A. Chamberlain of 334 North Ave., Ex. a World War II veteran, was appointed a Class C fireman in the Cranford Fire Department by the Township Committee bringing the personnel of the paid department to 12 men and the chief. The new member was the son of Capt. Theodore C. Chamberlain, a member of the department since 1924.

Police Commissioner J. Edward Wolf and Finance Commissioner John V. Nostrand, whose terms were expiring, announced their candidacies for the Republican nomination for Township Committee in the June 4 primary election.

Patrick J. Grall was reelected president of the Cranford Republican Club for his second term. Other officers were: Vice-presidents, T. A. Albans, A. A. Smith and Mrs. Janet Packer; secretary, Dudley J. Croft; assistant, F. J. Dellen; treasurer, E. L. Hedenberg, and auditor, A. C. Henrich.

Forty-five new cases of measles were reported here in one week bringing the total for March to 74.

Clarence L. Fritz was reelected president of the Cranford Boys'

A new record was reached in the March of Dimes receipts with Treasurer James C. Maloney's report showing collections of $2,405.84.

Police Commissioner J. Edward Wolf reported his survey of sentiment on installation of parking meters in the business section showed residents overwhelmingly opposed. Two hundred return postal cards were mailed and of 105 returned, only 15 were in favor of the plan.

Hardly recovered from "the worst snow in a decade," Cranford again felt the fury of winter with a fall that Township Engineer T. H. McLaughlin estimated at 16 inches. The township treasury felt the fury too, to the extent of $1,000 for snow removal, a near record. More than 120 men labored in shifts of 45 on trucks and 12 on the plow to open intersections and clear streets. A number of them worked 37 hours at a stretch, stopping only to eat.

Cranford High School's basketball team, defeated Dunellen, 33-24, to clinch its hold on the championship of Section 2 of North Jersey and, continuing its quest for State Group 2 title honors, was set to meet Pompton Lakes to determine the champion.

30 Years Ago

Heavy rains flooded the Normandy Park section so that canoes had to be used for persons wishing to leave their homes. Children were unable to attend school, and business workers were stranded.

Announcement was made that George E. Osterheldt, chairman of the Township Committee for three years, and Albert B. Caldwell, tax collector, would seek Republican nominations in the May primary for reelection. The chairman's decision brought the number of Township Committee aspirants to four: Road Commissioner Frank McCullough, L. B. Hazzard and Wallace Decker.

Capt. N. R. Fiske, Post 335, VFW, marked its 16th anniversary. Hall, Edward A. Cruikshank, Hall, Edward A. Cruikshank, first commander of the post, was toastmaster.

ELECTRIC HEAT RATES CUT AGAIN!

Yes, on January 3, 1966 rates for electric heat were reduced again so it now costs less than ever before. Despite its new low cost, Electric Heat still provides a long list of luxurious advantages: room-by-room temperature control, silent operation, absolute cleanliness, virtually no maintenance.

If you are building or buying a new home, be sure to specify Electric Heat. Remember, it now costs less than ever before. Or, if you need assistance in planning for Electric Heating, simply call your local Public Service office now. We will be glad to help and there is no obligation at all.

Art Association Announces Judges for Exhibition Here

James Carlin, Kent Day Coes and Edward John Stevens, Jr., will make-up the jury for the fifth annual state-wide exhibition of the Westfield Art Association, it was announced today by Mrs. Richard Schaeffer, show chairman.

The exhibition will be open to the public from April 3 through April 10 from 1 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 9 p.m. daily in the Campus Center of Union Junior College. A reception for exhibitors and members is scheduled for Saturday, April 2, from 7 to 9 p.m.

This year's exhibition has been expanded to include prints and drawings as well as oil, watercolor and pastel paintings by artists now residing or born in New Jersey. Mixed media must be classified as oil or watercolor.

Mr. Carlin, a resident of Nutley, is head of the fine arts department of the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art. A graduate of the Belfast Municipal College, he served a seven-year apprenticeship at the Campbell Stained Glass Studios and attended the London Art Schools and the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art.

A free-lance artist, Mr. Carlin is a member of the American Water Color Society, Philadelphia Water Color Society, New Jersey Water Color Society, Audubon Artists and Associated Artists of New Jersey. He has exhibited at the National Academy of Design, Metropolitan Museum, International Show at Brooklyn Museum and the Pennsylvania Academy.

Mr. Coes attended New York University and received his art education at the Art Students' League and the Grand Central School of Art, both in New York City, and the George Pearce Ennis Summer School of Art at Eastport, Me. He began exhibiting his watercolor landscapes while still in art school, and has been doing so ever since, showing regularly with most of the large national and regional group exhibitions. His watercolors have appeared in galleries and museums throughout the United States, and he was recently represented in an exhibition of work by American water-colorists in the galleries of the Royal Water Colour Society in London.

A founder of the New Jersey Water Color Society, Mr. Coes served as its president in 1947-48. He is an associate member of the National Academy of Design, an active member of the American Water Color Society, the Allied Artists of America and the Salmagundi Club.

Mr. Stevens, who is director of the Newark School of Fine and Industrial Art, is a graduate of Newark State College, and he earned a master of arts degree in art education from Columbia University.

His 20th exhibition was held last year at the Weyhe Gallery in New York City. One-man shows elsewhere include the Philadelphia Art Alliance, Honolulu Academy of Arts, Maryland Museum of Art, Mills College, Summit Art Association, Ohio State University and the Tampa Art Association.

Higher Education Topic for LWV Meeting Monday

The League of Women Voters of Cranford will continue its evaluation of the report prepared by the Governor's Committee on Higher Education at a general discussion meeting at the Public Library on Monday evening at 8:15 p.m.

The women's group will attempt to reach consensus on questions pertinent to the administration and financing of county community colleges and the expansion of Rutgers, the State University.

The evaluation of the so-called "Newsom Report" is a current agenda item on the league's state program. Previous study focused on the present structure of New Jersey's higher education system, the Newsom Committee's proposed changes, and various alternatives to their proposals.

Following Monday's meeting, the local league will forward a detailed report containing both the majority and minority opinions on each question and phase of discussion relative to the agenda item to the State League office. The state board analyzes each of 93 local league reports to arrive at state-wide consensus on the topic.

Mrs. Marvin Greenberg and Mrs. Thomas J. Doherty are co-chairmen of the local league's state program committee.

Legislators Feted By County LWV

A legislators' luncheon sponsored by the Union County Council, League of Women Voters, was held at the Hotel Suburban, Summit, last Wednesday. Several members and guests of the local league attended.

Assemblyman Nicholas St. John LaCorte and Freeholders Frank T. Cuchie and Harry V. Osborne, Jr., of Cranford, and Edward H. Tiller of Garwood were among the invited guests.

Mrs. Nathan Rodstein of Cranford, was a member of the planning committee.

Local members who attended were Mrs. Joseph Blaha, Mrs. Thomas J. Doherty, Mrs. Marvin Greenberg, Mrs. Frederick Holly, Mrs. Harry Hughes, Jr., Mrs. Rodstein, Miss Mary Sullivan and Mrs. Robert N. Summerville. Mrs. Wilson J. Lombardi and Mrs. Gerald Rodman attended as guests of the local group.

The American Cancer Society reported that since 1949 more men than women died of cancer. It is estimated that in 1966 the fatalities will be 55 men to 45 women.

Dinner Features Troop Award Presentations

A father-and-son dinner for Boy Scout Troop 177, which is sponsored by the Lincoln PTA, was held on Monday at the Cranford in Garwood.

William Davidson, Western District commissioner of Union Council, Boy Scouts of America, and a former scoutmaster of Troop 177, presented the troop's charter to Wallace MacFayden, institutional representative.

CRANFORD (N. J.) CITIZEN AND CHRONICLE—THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1966 Page Five

Also presented to the troop were the National Camping Award, a ribbon entitled "Breakthrough for Youth" for increased membership, and a certificate for 100 percent Boys' Life subscription.

A moment of silence was observed in honor of the memory of Dean Elichko, one of the original troop members, who was recently killed in Vietnam.

Scoutmaster Robert Colston announced plans for summer camp, a father-son camping trip and a weekend trip to Valley Forge.

Entertainment was provided by Rick Meola and his assistants from the Elizabeth YMCA Judo Club.

Chairmen of the dinner committee were John Hurligan and Henry Porreca.

Boillod in Telethon For Pingry Fund

Charles V. Boillod of 200 Hampton St. will be among 33 alumni of the Pingry School, Hillside, participating in the school's initial telethon this evening at the Grolier Building in New York.

The numbers of Pingry alumni over the nation have been garnered and many of this year's non-givers to the annual Pingry fund will be solicited by telephone.

After a buffet supper, the telethoners will report to their desks at 6:45 p.m. for final instructions and then will make the wires hum from 7 to 9 p.m.

Ninety-Day Suspension

Driver's license of Thomas R. Ciancia, 18, of 247 Hillside Ave., has been suspended for 90 days, effective as of February 18, under the 60-70 excessive speed program, it was announced this week by Motor Vehicle Director June Strelecki.

WSCS Plans Program By Chalk Artist

An evening meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service to be held on Monday at 8 p.m. in Randolph Hall of the Cranford Methodist Church will feature Rev. Douglas G. Herbert, a chalk artist.

A presentation of original scenes drawn "live" before the audience in full color using soft pastels, then dramatically brought to life through the use of lighting effects, produces a vivid and inspirational program of art. The artist actually draws the picture from beginning to end in combination with selected stereophonic - high fidelity tape recordings. Thus, through the combination of sight and sound the audience becomes involved in the presentation.

Rev. Mr. Herbert has been in the Methodist ministry since 1955 and is presently serving St. Paul's Methodist Church in Nyack, New York. For the past 23 years he has developed and shared his artistic talent as a hobby which has become an integral part of his life. He has drawn before audiences in almost every state in the East and is the first chalk artist to have visited Jamaica, West Indies.

There will be no regular circle meetings in March. All circles will meet together on this occasion. Members of the Wesleyan Service Guild, other women of the church and the women of St. Mark's AME Church are also invited to attend. A brief business meeting conducted by Mrs. Albert Branyan, president, will be held in room 8 preceding the program. Refreshments will be served by Circle 7 under the direction of Mrs. John Theisz.

REV. DOUGLAS HERBERT

Alliance to Show Film on Story of Paul Carlson

A film, "Paul Carlson Story," will be shown at 8:15 p.m. Sunday following the evening service at the Alliance Church.

Rev. Laurence J. Pyne, pastor, said, "This inspiring story of God's love, meeting the spiritual and medical needs of the people of Congo through Dr. Carlson, is one of the great missionary films of our times."

On November 24, 1964, the attention of the entire world was drawn to the name of Paul Carlson, who in the last weeks of his life became a 20th century symbol of courage and dedication. Dr. Carlson, a surgeon, was only minutes away from safety when a bullet ended his life on a Stanleyville street even as Belgian paratroopers, engaged in a giant rescue operation, filled the sky overhead.

The film begins with a dramatic statement of the claims of the mission field upon a Christian doctor, and concludes with a widow's prayer with her children. The public is invited to attend.

Church School Collects Pajamas For Vietnam

The Cranford Methodist Church School, in response to an appeal from Church World Service, the international relief agency of the National Council of Churches, is seeking pajamas to clothe refugees in Vietnam. Each child in the Church School is being asked to bring one or more pairs of new pajamas to class between now and the end of March.

Because of the hot, humid climate in Vietnam, the clothing most frequently worn, especially by children, is a garment almost exactly like our pajamas. Boys and girls wear "Pajamas" daily for school, work, or play - and for everything else, too, from infancy to adulthood!

Hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese children, along with their parents, have fled to refugee centers in South Vietnam because of the ravages of war. Many of them have no clothing, and no means of obtaining clothing.

New garments are being requested so that they will serve the needs of the children as long as possible. They should be made of sturdy, washable cotton in all colors, including bright ones, in plaids, stripes, prints or solids. It is reported that girls like flowered prints, boys like plaids and stripes. Sizes that would fit American children ages 2-10 are needed.

It also has been requested that the shirt or blouse top and the trousers be pinned or catch-stitched together so they will not become separated in shipping, and in the boys' pajamas, the fly should be sewn closed.

Christian Science Observes 100th Anniversary

Plans for a year-long observance of the 100th anniversary of Christian Science have been announced by the Christian Science Board of Directors of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

Major events will include a worldwide public speaking tour by the editor-in-chief of the Christian Science Monitor, publication of a new book titled "A Century of Christian Science Healing," and the start of work on a new church center construction program in Boston.

The centennial stems from events in 1866 which marked the turning point in the life of Mary Baker Eddy and began her pioneering of a world religious movement. A spiritual healing which Mrs. Eddy experienced in 1866 turned her life-long study of the Bible into an intensive searching that produced the earliest manuscripts on Christian Science. She became convinced that Christianity is scientific in the deepest spiritual sense and applies to every aspect of human experience.

Later, she wrote the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," and founded a church which now includes 3,300 branches in more than 50 countries.

Centennial activity within the church will come to a focus at the annual meeting in Boston on June 6. Land clearance will begin that day for construction of an expanded 15-acre church center.

Throughout its century of development, Christian Science has continued to be a lay movement of people dedicated to restoring a strong spiritual healing ministry to Christianity. They believe this can be done on a sound, permanent basis as a necessary first step towards fulfillment of Christianity's larger purpose - spiritual transformation.

One highlight will be the speaking tour of the world's major cities by Erwin D. Canham, Editor in Chief of The Christian Science Monitor. His talk on "The Spiritual Revolution" is intended to further the broadening communication among religions and also between religion and science. The tour will start in Sydney, Australia, on March 1 and will extend through most of the world during the year.

In April will come the publication of "A Century of Christian Science Healing" which is expected to be of wide interest. The book will provide a chronicle of the development of spiritual healing, based on church records. It will include an explanation of the differences between spiritual healing and current methods of psychotherapy and psychosomatic medicine.

400 Attend Dance For St. Mark's Fund

Four hundred persons attended the third annual dinner-dance for the St. Mark's AME Church building fund on Saturday at the Shackamaxon Country Club, Scotch Plains.

Among the guests was Mayor Wesley Philo. James Sims was chairman.

The Union County Chapter of the American Cancer Society will provide a free, educational program to any local club or organization. The program usually consists of a physician-speaker, a film and a discussion of the society's local program by a volunteer representative.

Families To Decorate Easter Eggs

The family life committee of Cranford Methodist Church will conduct a pre-Easter program featuring Ukrainian Easter egg decorating and a covered dish supper on Sunday at the church.

Theme of the program will be "Lieldienas," meaning secret. The workshop will begin at 2:15 with a demonstration of Ukrainian egg decorating by Mrs. Nicholas Alexo. During this time younger children will have a game period. Families will then have an opportunity to decorate their own hard-boiled eggs and make Easter baskets, egg trees, and other projects.

Rev. Richard L. Wilson, associate pastor, will tell a story on the Easter tradition and a film, "The Easter Season," will be shown. A worship period will follow in the sanctuary.

The final phase of the program will be a covered dish supper. All families whose last name begins A-N are asked to bring a meat loaf and those O-Z are asked to provide a salad. The committee will furnish baked potatoes, rolls, beverage and dessert.

Each family will be asked to contribute some part of their handiwork for distribution to a children's hospital or a Methodist Home.

Mrs. Kenneth Kaiser and Mrs. Richard LeDuc are in charge of arrangements.

Dr. Wolfe Observing Teaching in Japan Following Addresses at Tuskegee Institute

Dr. Deborah Partridge Wolfe of 62 South Union Ave., professor of education at Queens College, Flushing, N. Y., left by plane last Thursday to spend a week observing teaching techniques in Japan under auspices of the World Confederation of Organizations of the Teaching Profession.

On the return trip, she will visit Anchorage, Alaska, where she will give a lecture at the University of Alaska for the National Education Association.

Dr. Wolfe, who also is a member of the New Jersey State Board of Education, recently returned to Tuskegee Institute in Alabama to make two addresses at the institute and one at a high school named in her honor.

She gave the banquet address for the replication conference of the Tuskegee Institute Community Education Program. Approximately 200 persons representing colleges and universities throughout the United States had been invited to evaluate the tutorial program being conducted in 10 counties in Alabama under the direction of Tuskegee Institute faculty and students.

Having served as education chief for the House of Representatives during the period when the Economic Opportunity Act was passed, Dr. Wolfe was interested in observing as one of the projects financed by this act was being evaluated. In her talk, she discussed the background, philosophy, sociology and methodology needed by those working with culturally and educationally deprived persons.

For the full students body of Tuskegee, Dr. Wolfe addressed a Sunday vespers service during which Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, of which she served as international president for 11 years, celebrated Finer Womanhood Week. She stressed the need "for total involvement in community life at all levels—local, state and national—by persons who have higher education and can serve in leadership roles in making democracy work."

Dr. Wolfe said she felt the highlight of her trip to Alabama came with the delivering of an address to the student body of Deborah Cannon Wolfe High School in Shorter, Ala., just 20 miles from Tuskegee. This school was named in her honor because of her services to the boys and girls and men and women of Macon County when she built a junior high school there in 1939 and developed community cooperatives, inter-denominational services, recreational facilities and other resources for the people of the western part of that county.

Dr. Wolfe was professor of education for 12 years at Tuskegee Institute and also served as director of the first graduate workshop, in education, as president of the Alabama Congress of Colored Parents and Teachers and as program chairman for the Alabama Federation of Colored Women's Clubs.

THOMAS O. MITCHELL

Mitchell Named To Phi Beta Kappa At Trinity College

Thomas O. Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert I. Mitchell of 728 Willow St., has been selected for membership in Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society, at Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., where he is a senior.

A graduate of Cranford High School, the local student is majoring in chemistry and has been designated as the top student in the chemistry department. He plans to continue his studies in graduate school.

He also is a member of Sigma Pi Sigma, national physics honor society; Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, and the Trinity Glee Club.

Boardman Named Manager Of WE Community Relations

Henry M. Boardman of 508 Springfield Ave. has been promoted to community relations manager for Western Electric's Kearny Works, the company announced today. In the newly-created post, he will be responsible for expansion of the company's community relations activities.

Mr. Boardman formerly served as Kearny's community relations department chief. In that position, he helped to initiate and implement an Essex County Urban League program which used business personnel and employment interviewers to recruit qualified Negroes for jobs in industry and a program to escalate the skills of under-employed and unemployed adults in the Newark area, and he also worked with New Jersey secondary school educators on an employment preparatory program for students going directly from high school to industry.

Following graduation from Oberlin College in 1936, he started his career at WE's Hawthorne plant near Chicago. After a period as shop inspector, he joined Hawthorne's newly-formed personnel counseling staff. This led to an appointment as section chief in personnel counseling at the Kearny Works in 1942. Four years later, he went to Baltimore to assist in developing a new counseling program there.

Before his assignment in community relations, Mr. Boardman headed the Kearny Works employment activities.

For six years, Mr. Boardman was a member of the Cranford Board of Education. He is vice-president of the Essex County Urban League, a member of Jersey City's Civil Rights Commission and the Mayor's Advisory Committee on Human Relations in Cranford.

He is one of several community leaders credited with the founding of Newark's Business and Industrial Coordinating Council. Council members are representatives of businesses pledged to equal employment and promotional opportunity in industry.

He is a member of the executive boards of CAN-DO, Jersey City's anti-poverty effort, and Newark's newly-formed Interracial Council for Business Opportunity.

Plan Ahead Before Buying Resilient Flooring

You can't choose wisely from the numerous displays of attractive flooring materials unless you've done some before-shopping thinking.

So before you shop, decide on the color possibilities. List all of the ones you could use.

Next, ask yourself how you want a floor in this area to perform. Be easy to keep clean? Resist sand tracked in? Withstand stiletto heels and dents? Resist heavy traffic?

Is this to be an interim covering or is it to last about 12-15 years? Become acquainted with the types of resilient flooring that would serve your purposes and find out what performances you can expect from them.

Miss Gena Thames, extension specialist in home furnishing at the College of Agriculture and Environmental Science, Rutgers University, ranks those easiest to maintain in this order: Special linoleum tile (don't confuse with linoleum tile), then vinyl asbestos, sheet vinyl, vinyl tile, linoleum, and rubber tile. Maintenance of asphalt tile can be simplified by proper cleaning, sealing and waxing from the beginning.

Some of the new resilient flooring materials in standard and service gauges provide durability equal to or better than heavy gauge in more traditional materials.

For more information on performances of each type of resilient flooring, contact your county home economist at the Cooperative Extension Service office. Ask for a copy of Rutgers University's "Flooring Materials." Her address is: Mrs. Carolyn F. Yukus, Union County Home Economist, 1106 Elizabeth Ave., Elizabeth, N. J.

Local Growers To Show Orchids

Two orchid growers from Cranford will have entries in the fourth annual orchid show of the North Jersey Orchid Society to be presented at the Mall at Short Hills March 24 through 26.

They are Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Frigola of 7 Summit Rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rhein of 411 Springfield Ave.

Judging will be done by official American Orchid Society judges and by experienced floral arrangement judges.

The show will be open to the public free of charge from noon to 9 p.m. next Thursday and from 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, March 25 and 26.

Be sure to sign your Federal income tax return.

8-11 Club to Make Party Favors at Meeting

Party favors for the Union County Mental Health Association will be made at a workshop meeting of the 8-11 Club tonight at 8:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Herbert Quednow of 7

Franklin Ave. will be hostess and Mrs. Kenneth Powell, co-hostess.

The American Cancer Society supports research projects in New Jersey at Seton Hall, Rutgers and Princeton Universities and the Veterans' Administration Center and South Jersey Medical Research Foundation.

Stolen Car Recovered

Mrs. Robert Ackland of 13 Hampton St. reported to the police at 10:35 p.m. Saturday that the family car had disappeared from its parking place in front of their home. At 1:06 a.m. Sunday, Patrolman Michael A. Deane discovered the car abandoned on Elise St.

LONG DISTANCE TO LOS ANGELES... $20.70

Up, up, up... have gone the costs of just about everything since 1916. But over the years the cost of calling long distance has gone way down. Today, a three-minute night station call to Los Angeles costs only $1.00, plus tax. Continuing research at Bell Laboratories, advanced manufacturing techniques at Western Electric, and the work and skill of the people at New Jersey Bell all helped make the change. It's a record we're proud of—and still trying to improve.

Meeting Set to Make Plans For Girl Scout Camp Stay

GARWOOD — Announcement was made this week by Mrs. Harry Kellerman, camping chairman for the Garwood Girl Scout Community, that registration for Garwood's first community camping weekend, April 22-24, has been closed at 153. This comprises 136 scouts and 22 leaders and adults.

A meeting of the adults has been set for next Tuesday at 9 a.m. in the fellowship hall of St. Paul's United Church of Christ. All are urged to be present, as menu, transportation, assignment of units and other final details will be discussed.

First report on the roundup of items for New Eyes For the Needy showed 403 pairs of glasses, one box of items of gold and silver and one box of costume jewelry. Two girls from each troop will attend an inspection of the New Eyes headquarters in Short Hills on the morning of Thursday, April 14. It will be their duty to report the reclaiming process back to their troopmates.

Mrs. Thomas Geoghegan, general chairman for the mother-daughter dinners, will hold rehearsals at her home, 224 Third Ave., for various acts of the program. Brownies will practice Saturday at 3 p.m., Cadettes of Troop 117 tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. and Cadettes of Troop 551 at 2 p.m. Saturday. The Junior Endeavor Chorus will rehearse immediately after school today and next Thursday in the fellowship hall of Garwood Presbyterian Church under the direction of Mrs. Victor Nemeth, community chairman.

A workshop meeting of all dinner chairmen will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the kindergarten room of St. Anne's School, to complete all programs, corsages, centerpieces and decorations.

County Legion Officer Visits Union Auxiliary

KENILWORTH — Mrs. Calvin Walck of Kenilworth, president of the Union County American Legion Auxiliary, made her official visit to Connecticut Farm Auxiliary, Unit 35, last week at the American Legion Hall, Union. Mrs. Walck also is a member of Unit 35. Party favors for the meeting were made by junior members under the direction of Mrs. Robert Wacker of Kenilworth, chairman of the junior activity program. Mrs. Wacker is co-chairman of the annual card party on April 29.

Hat Fashion

Mrs. John Mayer, chairman of the nominating committee, announced the following slate of officers: President, Mrs. Joseph E. McMahon, unopposed; vice-president, Mrs. Arthur H. Czurlanis and Mrs. George C. Knieper; treasurer, Mrs. Daniel B. Swayze and Mrs. Edward S. Trippa; recording secretary, Mrs. Jules Lusardi and Mrs. John Schwarz; corresponding secretary, Mrs. William J. Cesarz, unopposed. Elections will be held at the April meeting and the installation will be in May.

Mrs. Stephen Pevarnik, bowling committee chairman, reported that the 10th annual award dinner will be held on May 19 in the Cranwood.

Mrs. Herman J. Steffen, Mount Carmel Guild delegate, reported reservations may still be made for the annual Mount Carmel Guild concert to be held on April 16 at Symphony Hall in Newark. Joseph Alford, 16-year old concert pianist, will play and conduct a 110-piece orchestra at the concert. Proceeds of the concert will be used to benefit retarded children.

Mrs. Daniel B. Swayze, membership committee chairman, introduced three new members, Mrs. Marie Holcomb of Cranford, Gertrude Pargiello and Mrs. Michael Sworen. Mrs. Stanley M. Suszko, chairman of parish publications and a member of the spiritual development committee of the society, announced that reservations may still be made for the weekend retreats planned. Those interested in making a retreat are requested to contact Mrs. Suszko at her home at 15 Waverly Pl., Cranford, as soon as possible, since reservations must be made well in advance of the retreat dates.

Refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. Mataga and Mrs. Payne.

Summer School

(Continued from Page 1) expressing deepest and sincerest sympathy to the family of Mrs. Anna Conklin, who died on Friday in St. Barnabas Hospital, New York. She was the wife of George D. Conklin, a member of the Board of Education and former police chief. In its resolution the board cited Mrs. Conklin as an "outstanding public-spirited citizen."

The trustees also adopted a salary scale for teachers as follows: Bachelor's degree with no experience, $5,400 to $9,599; master's degree, $5,738 to $9,930.

Reappointment was made of John J. Kish, superintendent, and Anthony Richel, principal. Henry Minton was renamed attorney and F. J. Stefany and Co., auditors. Reappointment was made of Mrs. Pauline L. Morris, board secretary. The board also renewed the contracts of teachers, office personnel, nurse, medical officer, four dentists, custodians, attendance officer and cafeteria workers.

MISS GENEVIEVE MUNN

Local Girl Joining Rockette Dancers

GARWOOD — Miss Genevieve Munn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Munn of 317 Walnut St., has been accepted as a Rockette at Radio City Music Hall in New York, where she will appear starting next Thursday in the Easter show, "Hello Spring."

A student of the Joyce Academy of Dance and Theatrical Arts, 347 South Ave., Miss Munn has appeared with troupes from the school at Fort Dix and Camp Kilmer.

She was graduated from Arthur L. Johnson Regional High School, Clark, last June.

Democrats Ladies Set Prayer Period For Meetings

GARWOOD — A resolution providing for a moment of silence during which each member say her own prayer at the opening of each meeting was adopted by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Garwood Democratic Club at a meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Angelo Alimonti, 321 Hemlock Ave.

A wig and cosmetic show scheduled for the meeting was postponed until next month because of illness and a demonstration of household projects was presented instead.

Mrs. Thomas Gleason, membership chairman, reported that inquiries were received from several women desiring to join the club and they will be invited to attend the April 11 meeting, to be held at the home of Mrs. Dominick Colaneri of 245 Hickory Ave.

Mrs. Edward Trippa, whose birthday anniversary falls in March, was honored with a gift from her secret pal. A card of thanks was received from Mrs. James McDonald for a gift for her new baby received from the auxiliary.

A scrapbook containing newspaper articles of accomplishments of the auxiliary during the past year was displayed by Mrs. Leonard DiStefano, publicity chairman.

Mrs. Michael Bongiovanni and Miss Florence Castaldi were co-hostesses for a secret pal revealing party following the business session conducted by Mrs. John McCarthy, president.

Meeting Date Change Told

GARWOOD — A change of the regular meeting date of the Garwood Republican Club to the third Wednesday of each month was announced as the first executive committee meeting under the new slate of officers was held Monday night at the home of the president, Jules J. Lusardi of 231 Myrtle Ave.

It was explained that the change was being made because of conflict with meeting dates of other local organizations.

Announcement was made of the appointments of Calvin A. Martin as membership chairman and Republican Municipal Chairman Victor L. Nemeth as publicity chairman.

The club will meet jointly with the Garwood Women's Republican Club at Veterans' Memorial Home tomorrow night to hear an address by Assemblyman Nicholas LaCorte.

Assemblyman Speaking On Reapportionment

GARWOOD — Assemblyman Nicholas S. LaCorte of Cranford will speak on "Reapportionment of the State Legislature" at a meeting of the Garwood Women's Republican Club in Veterans' Memorial Home tomorrow night.

The talk will be presented at 8:30 p.m., following a short business session at 8:15 p.m. during which election of officers will take place.

Members of the Garwood Republican Club will join with the women's group at 8:30 to hear Assemblyman LaCorte's address.

Fleshers Mark 25th Anniversary

GARWOOD — Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Flesher, Jr., of 343 South Ave., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary on Monday. Mrs. Flesher is the former Muriel Becroft.

A party was given in their honor at their home on Sunday by their children, Gail, Barbara and James. Attending were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Flesher, 3rd, and son, Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards and son, Fred. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Flesher, Sr., Henry Becroft, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Quick.

The year 1966 also marks the silver anniversary of their business, Flesher & Co. Both Mr. and Mrs. Flesher are public accountants and tax consultants.

Named Captain in UJC Science Building Drive

GARWOOD — Vincent Powers of Accurate Bussing Co., 448 North Ave., is serving as a captain in Garwood for the advanced gifts phase of Union Junior College's $1 million science building campaign.

Carlotta H. Bunker, president of Diamond Expansion Bolt Co., is serving as Garwood chairman. Union Junior College's science building will contain five laboratories, six classrooms, science resource center, student research center, 14 faculty offices and two large lecture halls.

It will enable Union Junior College to increase its full-time day session enrollment by about 35 percent or 300 students, Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, UJC president, said.

Local Residents Invited To Homeowners Meeting

KENILWORTH — Local residents are invited to attend a meeting of the Homeowners Mutual Benefit and Civic Association at 8:30 p.m. Monday at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Plans will be made for a past presidents' night on April 18. C. Joseph Aragona, president, will conduct the meeting.

Penalized for Points

GARWOOD — A one-month suspension of the driver's license of Dennis McCormick, 24, of 103 Anchor Pl., effective as of February

Garwood Girl Scout News

Brownie Troop 414
Brownies of Troop 414 played hostess last Friday to their Big Sisters in Junior Troop 762 when they made a trip to tour the General Motors plant in Linden. Thirteen Brownies were chauffeured by their leader, Mr. Joseph Thero; co-leader Mrs. John Krankoff, and the troop grandfather, Earl Eriksen. Eleven Juniors were transported by Mrs. Harry Kellerman, leader; Mrs. Edward Mousted, and Mrs. Victor Nemeth, community chairman. They viewed the manufacture of automobiles from the time parts were crated into the factory box car and truck, through the testing of the powered chassis, fitting the inside of the vehicle, the painting process, and seeing the finished cars come off the assembly line under their own power.

Today's program at the Senior Citizens' Club, meeting is under the sponsorship of Brownie Troop 414. Though no scouts will participate, refreshments will be provided by mothers of the troop, Mrs. Karl Eschle, Mrs. Louis Melka and Mrs. Joseph Kosky. Mrs. Thero will assist Mrs. Nemeth in showing the senior citizens a slide program of the activities of Garwood's Girl Scouts.

Brownie Troop 328
Troop 328, last week took an observation walk, noting how many vacant lots they passed, how many dogs properly penned, how many boys playing at the Shrine of St. Anne, and other things to make them aware of small events in the makeup of the larger world. This week, they finished their mother-daughter banquet place cards.

Junior Troop 126
Members of Junior Troop 126 spent their last meeting getting ready for their mother-daughter banquet. An audition was held to choose two scouts to represent them in the "Uncle Sam" number made up of Junior chorists, and Hyacinthe Di Fabio and Anne Vajsa were chosen. They, too, completed their banquet place cards.

Junior Troop 762
Today will see the culmination of plans by members of Junior Troop 762 for a St. Patrick's Day party for their Little Sisters in Brownie Troop 414. Scouts in Junior Troop 762 set up their own committees and planned all phases of the celebration, which will be held in Washington School. Ordinarily this is a step in earning the hospitality badge, but as all these Juniors have already earned it, the party is in reciprocity for the recent hospitality accorded them by their Sister-Brownie troop.

Junior Troop 791
Scouts of Junior Troop 791 have been working on their dip bags and "Around the World" trefoils for Girl Scout Week. Bakers of cookies this month for their sponsor, Garwood Woman's Club, are Jill Greeve, Deborah O'Such and Cindy Lou Searles, under the direction of Gill Greeve's mother. The cookies are for the veterans at Lyons Hospital.

Junior Troop 444
At a Court of Awards held last week, Juniors of Troop 444 were given badges earned since last summer. Karen Wright completed all phases of the Sign of the Arrow. Awarded the toymaker badge were Maria Rose Barca, Eileen Kufka, Lynn McCarthy, Katherine Popadak, Melanie Pyle, Diane Santoro, Margaret Sparito, Luanne Specht, Joanne Petrozelli and Nancy Wilhelm. Noreen Carroll earned housekeeper, Maria Rose Barca, the book badge, and Diane Cesarz and Marilyn Pells, the collector badge.

by October 2 for construction of the county court house annex and other capital improvements. An extension of temporary financing would give the county "time to obtain the most favorable terms for bonding in the fluctuating financial market," he said.

He made his request in a letter to Governor Richard J. Hughes. Freeholder Harry V. Osborne of Cranford, Republican, also favored Ahern's suggestion. Osborne said the county could take advantage of 1.9 to 2.4 percent interest rates on temporary financing compared to 4 to 5 percent interest on long-term financing.

Band Boosters To Sponsor Visit To Lincoln Center

KENILWORTH — Members of the Harding School Band will visit Philharmonic Hall in Lincoln Center on March 28 in a trip sponsored by the Kenilworth Band Boosters Club.

Proceeds from a puppet show sponsored in February by the club will be used to finance the trip for students who have played one year or more in the school band. The puppet show staged by the Nicole Marionettes of New York played to a full house at both performances in the school auditorium. Eighth grade boys who assisted the puppeteers were: Peter Jadelis, Carl Vitale, Steven Levine, Otto Raimondi, Charles Zickerman, and Edmond Lasinski.

The club sponsors the New York trip each year.

There will be no club meeting during April because of school holidays, and the next meeting will be May 5.

Methodists List Week's Program

KENILWORTH—Rev. James R. Cooper, Jr., pastor of the Community Methodist Church, has chosen "You Are the Light of the World" as his sermon topic at the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship services Sunday.

One Great Hour of Sharing will be observed. Church school will be held at 9:30 and 11 a.m., and babysitting will be provided for children under three during both services. The adult membership class will meet at 3 p.m.; JYF will meet at 6 p.m., and the MYF at 7:30 p.m.

Today — 7:30 p.m., choir practice.

Tomorrow — 8 p.m., Question Hour at the parsonage.

Saturday — 1 p.m., JYF roller skating party; 6:30 p.m., Senior MYF, bowling party.

Monday — 8 p.m., trustees meeting.

Wednesday — 8 p.m., circle meetings in homes of members.

Next Thursday — 1 p.m., circle meeting.

Troop 518 Ends Bowling

KENILWORTH — A parent and daughter bowl-off was held at the end of a 10-week bowling session by Cadette Troop 518. Michelle Martin and her father received a trophy for bowling the three highest games.

Karen Toby bowled the highest single game, and Laurel Ford and Chris Small received trophies for the highest general average during the 10 weeks. Joyce Hill won a trophy for "trying the hardest."

Troop 518 was the winner of a bowling tournament with Cadette Troop 407. Ella Sullivan won a trophy for the highest single game.

On Girl-Scout Sunday, members of Troop 518 attended mass and communion at St. Theresa's Church. That afternoon, accompanied by Rev. Richard Weber, Girl Scout chaplain, the troop attended a holy hour at St. Mary's Church, Plainfield. Ella Sullivan and Karen Toby carried the troop flags. The CYO sponsors Troop 518, and leaders are Mrs. John Sabolchick and Mrs. Arthur Sullivan.

Indian Braves Invade Museum

The braves of the Hopi Indian Tribe recently invaded the American Museum of Natural History in New York City.

The tribe, a member of the Y-Indian Guides, was led by Chief Big Flame and the following little braves made the trip: Little Flame (David Levine), Swift Hawk (John Molsen), Little Koda (Thomas Donahue), Little Tomahawk (John Gryce) and Little Red Bird (Stanley Nowakowski).

Papa braves accompanied each little brave. The tribe left its mark on all exhibits, including the cafeteria, which was attacked primarily with knives and forks.

These braves were able to see what the real Indians were like. This gave a good background to the recent visit by Chief Sunrise. This real Indian Chief from the Sioux Tribe showed the Cranford and Westfield Nations the difference between a television Indian and the real Indian. Four Indian braves of the Cranford tribe were asked to join him in demonstrating Indian dancing.

Ahern Asks For Longer Financing

Union County Freeholder William J. Ahern, Jr., has called for state legislation to extend the temporary financing period for counties and municipalities from two to four years.

Ahern, who is Democratic mayor of Kenilworth, wants the short-term financing lengthened in "order not to get locked into an unfavorable bond market and high interest rate." Under present laws, municipal and county governing bodies must bond capital improvements within a two-year period. Boards of Education are permitted three years.

Freeholder Ahern said that Union County must bond $10 million

Local Junior At St. Benedicts Wins State Wrestling Crown

Dennis Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gibson of 311 Casino Ave., won the state Group A Interscholastic State Athletic Association wrestling title at 148 pounds.

A junior at St. Benedict's, Dennis registered the only pin in the finals of the Group A tournament as he stopped Tom Harter of Delbarton in 1:56. In earlier rounds, he blanked Sandy Ferguson of Hun School, 8-0, and Dave Bugen of Blair Academy, 7-0.

Dennis also won the state championship last season at 141 pounds and captured the junior varsity state crown at 130 pounds in his freshman year at St. Benedict's.

Earlier this year he placed first in the annual Union High School Christmas Tournament by blanking Jeff Hawkins of Thomas Jefferson, 7-0, in the semi-finals and taking an overtime 4-0 victory against Jim Monti of Union in the finals.

The local grappler competed in the National Prep Wrestling Tournament at Lehigh University several weeks ago and took third place. Wrestlers from 38 schools participated in this event. Dennis won his first two matches by rolling past Ted Walter of Bryn Athyn School of Quinine, Pa., 8-3, and ending the southern states champion, Dan Chandler, of McCallie School, Chattanooga, Tenn., 7-5. He suffered his lone defeat in the third round as John Pappas of Blair Academy stopped him with riding time, 2-1. Dennis went on to overwhelm Ted Moore of Baylor School, Chattanooga, Tenn., 10-5, and blank Nick King of Hill School, Pottsville, Pa., 4-0.

The local resident completed his wrestling for the season last weekend when he again gained a third place finish in the Catholic University Invitational Matches. After an opening round loss to Dennis Carrol of John Carroll Catholic High School, Washington, D. C., who was voted the outstanding wrestler of the tournament, Dennis blanked his next two foes enabling him to take third. He defeated Steve Harden of South Hill, Pa., 7-0, and nipped Jim Hish of Bishop O'Connell High School in Arlington, Va., 1-0, in overtime.

DENNIS GIBSON

With the wrestling credentials Dennis has earned for himself during the past three seasons at St. Benedict's, he appears headed to take third. He defeated Steve Harden of South Hill, Pa., 7-0, and nipped Jim Hish of Bishop O'Connell High School in Arlington, Va., 1-0, in overtime.

Pop Warner Registration Scheduled for March 26

The 1966 registration and clinic for the Cranford Pop Warner Football Association will be held March 26 at the Walnut Ave. School between 3-5 p.m., President Stanley A. Mintz again announced today.

Any Cranford resident who was born between 1953-1956 and weighs between 65-120 pounds may obtain an application for the Cranford Clippers at The Sportsman's Shop, The Cranford Recreation Department or the Cranford Public Library.

Applicants attending the clinic must be accompanied by a parent and are requested to wear sneakers.

The Cranford Clipper uniform, trophies, safety equipment, etc. will be on display at the registration and there will be introductory talks and informative lectures on basic football during the clinic. Instructional football films also will be shown.

The Cranford Pop Warner Association again will field two teams this fall. The pee wee clippers will be composed of boys between the ages of 10-12 who do not exceed 100 pounds and the midget clippers will consist of boys 11-13 years old who do not exceed 115 pounds.

Both teams will play identical schedules as part of weekly Sunday double-headers beginning in the latter part of September. The opponents will be teams representing other towns in Union County including Elizabeth, Linden, Rahway, Hillside, Iselin, Roselle, Union, Kenilworth and Clark.

Additional information concerning the league may be had by contacting any of the following: Mr. Chic Slisby, 37 Mansion Ter.; Mr. Ed Stobierski, 123 Benjamin St.; or Mr. Mintz, 8 Shetland Dr.

Hotel Defeats Mets to Win Gold Ball Loop Playoff Title

The Hotel edged the Mets, 76-69, Monday evening to win the Gold Ball basketball league playoff tournament.

The same two teams had met last Thursday when the Mets handed the Hotel their first loss of the season, 63-60.

Karl Kaimer paced the Hotel to their victory on Monday with 25 points. Also in double figures for the Hotel were Glenn Allinger with 18 and Norm Wolfrom with 17. Kennedy and Chinchar were high for the Mets with 29 and 26 markers, respectively, while Sosidka added 12.

Last Thursday saw the Mets upset the Hotel as Kennedy connected for 27 tallies and Chinchar added 17 with Sosidka chipping in with 11. Kaimer of the Hotel led all scorers with 31 and Jim King had 17.

The Career Girls fashioned a two-game win over Enz Bros., while Bodart took two games from Chobin's Florist and VFW was on the winning end against the Cranwood.

Hoffacker Sets YMCA Swim Mark

Jay Hoffacker, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hoffacker of 201 Oak Lane, broke the Westfield YMCA House Swimming Meet record in the 13-14 year old 100-yard butterfly recently with a time of 1:00.3.

The old mark was 1:03.0.

Jay also won the 100-yard freestyle for boys 13-14 with a time of 55 seconds flat.

Washbourne Stars For Morristown's Champion Skaters

Terry Washbourne, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Washbourne of 19 Norman Pl., was one of the key reasons why Morristown School won the Gordon Cup championship of the North Jersey Scholastic Hockey League this past weekend.

A Junior at Morristown, he scored the tying goal and assisted on two other markers as his team edged West Essex in the finals of the tournament, 5-4. At one point in the third period, Morristown was losing, 3-1, before they broke loose to score four goals in the next 7 1/2 minutes.

Terry played right wing and defense and completed regular season play as the fifth high scorer in the North Jersey loop with 54 points. He had 25 goals and 29 assists.

Beverages Team Narrows Gap In Pin Race

GARWOOD — Garwood Beverages won two games from Middlesex Stainless Fittings in pin action of the Garwood Women's Bowling League at Garwood Lanes last Thursday night to pull within one-half game of the leading Enz Bros. team.

The Career Girls fashioned a two-game win over Enz Bros., while Bodart took two games from Chobin's Florist and VFW was on the winning end against the Cranwood.

High series were rolled by the following: Evelyn Lawler, 496; Marie Hartung, 493; Bertha Konek, 477; Rose Zampaglione, 467; Gloria Enz, 462; Edith Guerriero, 461; Shirley Cardilla, 460; Ann Colwell, 455, and Jo DiCicco, 450.

*High games were recorded as follows:

Enz Bros. won 4-3, behind the three-goal performance of Frank Flight, Gary DeLonge tallied the other marker. Dyke Ackland, playing his final game as a pee wee, was turned in a strong performance and should give a good account of himself on the Junior Squad next year. Coach Robert Crane stated. Also moving up to the junior ranks next year will be Jim Giordano, Flight, Dave McCormick and Chris Parker.

In the junior tilt, Jim Oagle's three-goal "hat trick" was offset by a four-goal rally by the Wissahickon skaters in the final period to tie the game at 4-4. Dave Cluff, who played an outstanding game according to Coach Crane, scored the other Cranford marker.

Pingry Awards Won

By Five Local Athletes

A pair of Cranford athletes captured their respective teams

AWARD PRESENTATION — Chancellor Commander Melvin Field of Cranford Lodge 175, Knights of Pythias, presents bond to public speaking contest winner, Susan Brown of Cranford. Looking on are Lindsey Earl, third prize winner and Wendy Wiltshire, second prize winner, both of Westfield, and Assemblyman Nicholas S. La-Corte, a member of the judging panel.

Winners Revealed in K of P Public Speaking Competition

Susan Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger E. Brown of 22 Dartmouth Rd., was adjudged first prize winner at the second annual public speaking contest sponsored by Cranford Lodge 175, Knights of Pythias, held last week at the Municipal Building.

Speaking on the topic, "Liberty Regulated by Law," Miss Brown narrowly edged out Lindsey Earl and Wendy Wiltshire, both of Westfield, who won second and third places, respectively. Five other senior high school students from Westfield and Cranford also participated.

As winner, Miss Brown received savings bonds donated by the Suburban Trust Co. of Cranford, the National Bank of Westfield and the Clark State Bank. She is now eligible to compete in regional and Statewide Knights of Pythias contests leading to prizes of a four-year scholarship at St. Peter's College in Jersey City and other scholarships valued at $5,000.

Miss Brown attends Cranford High School, where she is a member of the school debating team. She plans to enter the field of mathematical research after college.

Senior Citizens To Hear Medicare Representative

Kenneth S. Malkin, field representative of health, education and welfare, will speak on Medicare at a meeting of the Cranford Senior Citizens' Club at 1 p.m. Monday.

A film also will be shown at the meeting in the community room of the Municipal Building. The public is invited to attend.

At the meeting on Monday Mrs. Charles Mulcahy and Arthur Scott of Cranford were guests.

A theatre party will be held April 5 to see the Easter show at Radio City Music Hall, New York.

Municipal Court Fines Reported

John B. Schwartz of 429 Washington Ave., Kenilworth, was fined $15 for operating a motor vehicle with fictitious plates by Magistrate Charles J. Stevens in Municipal Court here Monday night.

Other area residents fined were: John Earlsman, 8 Princeton Rd., $12 for passing a stop sign; Anselino DiFabio, 242 Second Ave., Garwood, $5 for obstructing traffic; Edward Forest, 2nd, 28 Grove St., $15 for passing a stop sign; Catherine H. Smith, 52 Johnson Ave., $15 for overtime parking.

The American Heart Association and its affiliates and chapters have channeled more than 110 million Heart Fund dollars into research since 1949, according to the Union County Heart Association.

Garage Sale Plans Made

Plans for a garage sale to be combined with the annual plant sale of the Green Thumb Garden Club, to be held on Saturday, May 14, at the home of Mrs. Robert Battle, 11 Orchard St., were furthered at a meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Hastrup, 159 Denman Rd. Mrs. William Gray was co-hostess.

It was announced that the club will be host for a meeting of the Cranford Council of Garden Clubs to be held at the home of Mrs. Richard Hurley at 8:15 p.m. on April 26.

Mrs. Albert W. Baird, Mrs. Hurley and Mrs. Olaf Olsen were named to the nominating committee. Nominations will take place at the April meeting, program for which will be a workshop in flower arranging in preparation for a closed spring show to be held in May.

After the business meeting a class in making corsages with antique flowers was held.

MOVE HERE FROM IRVINGTON — Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Kankowski have moved from Irvington into the above home at 6 Allan Okell Pl. Mr. Kankowski is employed by Bell Laboratories in Murray Hill. This multiple listed property was sold by Evelyn Wade & Son.

VIA Donates $300 to Drive For Playfield

A donation of $300 has been made by the Village Improvement Association to the newly established Fund for Playground Facilities for Mentally Retarded Children in Cranford.

The proposed summer playground is expected to be held at Cleveland School. The project has been initiated by the Cranford Junior Woman's Club in conjunction with the Cranford Recreation Department which will supervise the playground as part of the regular summer playground program.

A goal of $3,000 has been set for the playground, and donations may be sent to Channing Rudd, trustee, at the Cranford Branch of the Suburban Trust Co. The Junior Woman's Club has pledged $200 toward the project, and donations also have been received from individuals.

The proposed playground for mentally retarded children in Cranford is one way the community can lend its helping hand to these children. Mrs. Dennis Lozon, chairman of the Woman's Club playground committee, said, "The mentally retarded child can gain much from a playground where the program of such a facility will give these children a relaxed social situation, she said. They will experience a sense of usefulness and a feeling of accomplishment as they take part in the daily program of arts and crafts, music and supervised play, the chairman noted.

Club Hears Dr. Bailey
Dr. Anne V. Bailey, coordinator of language arts for the Cranford public schools, was guest speaker recently at a meeting of the Monday Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vogt in Westfield. Dr. Bailey's topic was "The Future of Education."

Watch diligently; never desert the post of spiritual observation and self-examination.

NEW KIWANIS PROJECT — Associate Justice Tom C. Clark of the U. S. Supreme Court, left, accepts booklets outlining the new Kiwanis-sponsored Freedom Leadership Program from Edward C. Keefe of Oklahoma City, president of Kiwanis International. Justice Clark is president of the National Conference on Citizenship, an organization dedicated to "strengthening the efforts of the people in maintaining the blessings of freedom and justice" — aims similar to the new Kiwanis program now being undertaken by 5,400 of its clubs including the Cranford Kiwanis Club. "Basically, the Freedom Leadership Program will be an effort by Kiwanians to bring the freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights and the American jurisprudence system to the attention of their fellow citizens of all ages, explaining and dramatizing them in the process," Millard Williams, president of the local club, said.

No-Surprise Fruit

You've heard that there is only one thing worse than biting into an apple and finding a worm. And that's finding half a worm. Why are the apples you buy almost always free of worms and other imperfections, while the "home - grown" kinds usually have their own little surprises in great variety?

Because the men who make a career of growing fruit can't afford to sell blemished fruit, they follow an exacting spray schedule to control the pests and diseases that plague them. The owner of a backyard tree can do no less if he wants to be proud of the fruit he grows.

Spray Calendar

For this reason, the Rutgers College of Agriculture and Environmental Science has prepared a spray calendar called "Pest Control Recommendations for Home Orchards."

If you faithfully follow its suggestions you can be reasonably sure of growing fruit that the neighbors will admire.

But if you intend to do something about improving the quality of your fruit, don't wait. The first spray is due any time now, before buds begin to swell. Altogether, nine separate sprays are recommended for peaches and nectarines; eight for cherries and plums, apples and pears. Miss one, and there goes your harvest of perfect fruit.

In some cases a general purpose spray mixture will do, but to control certain pests a specific chemical must be used.

Your first step toward perfect fruit is to get a copy of the Rutgers spray calendar. Just ask your county agricultural agent for Spray Calendar 90-B. Or send a card to Garden Reporter, College of Agriculture, Rutgers, New Brunswick 08903.

North Ave. Accident

A car driven by Loretta Glogorski, 18, of 200 North Ave., E., was struck in the rear by another operated by John W. Ellum, Jr., 23, of 209 Satter St., as Miss Glogorski was making a right turn from North Ave. into the driveway of her home at 10:55 p.m. last Thursday. Police Chief Lester W. Powell reported. Patrolman John J. Henzer investigated and gave Mr. Ellum a summons charging careless driving.

EMERALD ISLANDERS:
"Who threw the overalls in Mistress Murphy's closet?"

Frankly, our leprechaun won't share this foolish secret with us. But he is joining in suggesting that you inspect this 57' center-hall split-level for your own Cranford castle.

Set on a substantial lot, averaging 115' x 117', in a park-like neighborhood, its 8 large rooms are highlighted, for example, by an impressive eat-in kitchen (with built-in refrigerator and new dishwasher to boot), 4 bedrooms and 3 baths.

To say that every feature of a dream home exists here is no blarney.

SPRINGTIME FANCY
Of course, with Saint Patrick's Day's vesting of the green today, it's only four short days until the vernal equinox, when the sun crosses the equator to balance day and night. As Spring begins, why don't you turn your fancy to that new home, so long anticipated?

Here's your opportunity for one of our highly popular 47 Colonial. With 3 bedrooms and 1 1/2 baths, its approximate 50' x 116' lot is situated for easy access to the Roosevelt-Grange Avenue Schools.

RICHARD R. GROSS

Gross Elected To Phi Beta Kappa At Duke University

Richard Rutter Gross, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay R. Gross of 116 Orange Ave., has been elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society, at Duke University, Durham, N. C., where he is a junior.

A graduate of Cranford High School, the local student is majoring in mathematics. On the basis of academic grades, outstanding leadership ability and potential as an Air Force officer, he recently was appointed squadron commander of the William A. Sally Squadron, Arnold Air Society, in the Advanced Corps of the Air Force ROTC.

He is president of the Duke Marching Band and the Pep Band and treasurer of the Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship, and has been treasurer of his house for the past two years.

Mr. Gross holds membership in the Honors-Masters Program, Blackhall Church Choir, Student Union Campus Services Committee, Harlequins (jazz singing group) and Duke Men's Glee Club. He also is a member of Delta Mu Tau, honorary music society; Phi Eta Sigma, honorary scholastic society, and Pi Mu Epsilon, honorary mathematics society.

During the last week of this month, Mr. Gross will be touring with the Glee Club in Florida, and from April 3-7 he will be attending the national convention of the Arnold Air Society in Dallas, Tex.

He was the recipient of Air Force and Proctor and Gamble scholarships for high scholastic attainments.

The local student recently wrote the music for the "Miss Durham" pageant.

ON STAGE THIS WEEK — Members of the Junior League of Elizabeth and Cranford are presenting "The Merry Pranks of Tyll" for students in the Cranford elementary schools. Each year the league stages plays for children here and in Elizabeth. Among those in the cast are: Left to right, Mrs. D. M. Mayer, Mrs. W. J. Van De Mark and Mrs. S. R. Prevost, Jr.

Dr. Sabeh at Seminar

Dr. Victor E. Sabah of Cranford attended the annual post-doctorate seminar in professional development held at the Pennsylvania College of Podiatry in Philadelphia, Pa., on Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Play Presented By Roosevelt Third Grade

An original play in five scenes, "Dear Third Grade," was presented at an assembly last Thursday in Roosevelt School by Mrs. Dorothy Gross' third grade class.

The play was developed as the result of correspondence carried on by Mrs. Gross' class and a third grade class in the Picken School, Massapequa, L. I. The scenes were titled: One, reading; two, arithmetic; three, science; four, health; five, social studies.

Participating in the play were: Sara Crane, Anthony Novak, Paul Haviland, Kim Kresge, Terry Walsh, Jeffrey Smith, Barbara Purchase, Kathy Reeves, David Andrews, Thomas Sobon, Heather Appar, Susan Deen, Daniel Thorn, Geoffrey Stone, Mark Eagan, Michael Maiorano, Daniel Regal, Gregory DiGiovine, William Cymbaluk, Rosellen Gordon, John Birk, David Andrews.

Also, Steven Devlin, Paul Schleisman, John Holligan, Paul Bollwark, Kevin Dougherty, Wesley Chase, John Wait, John Lipari, David Scaturro and John Birk.

The program included the recitation of an original poem and original choral reading by the class.

Plant Superintendent Post to Richard Potts

Richard W. Potts of 115 Glenwood Rd. has been promoted by the Peerless Tube Co. of Bloomfield from production manager of the plastic tube department to plant superintendent.

Mr. Potts joined Peerless in 1963 after being graduated from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and receiving his master of science degree from Newark College of Engineering.

Intersection Crash

A car driven by Mrs. Gladys Koester, 45, of 90 Centennial Ave., attempting a left turn into Lincoln Ave. from Hollywood Ave., collided with another operated by Mrs. Virginia Goyer, 52, of 9 Tulip St., travelling west on Lincoln Ave., at 5 p.m. last Thursday. Police Chief Lester W. Powell reported. A summons charging careless driving was given to Mrs. Koester by Patrolman Samuel W. Cymbaluk, who investigated.

ZOOLOGY LABORATORY GIFT — Mrs. William B. Plate of 7 Crest Acres, Summit, chairman of the scholarship committee, presents check for $200 from the Beacon Hill Branch of the Woman's National Fund and Garden Association to Dr. Kenneth C. MacKay, president of Union Junior College, Cranford. The gift will be used to purchase equipment for the zoology laboratory at Union Junior College. Participating in the presentation ceremony were Mrs. William S. Morgan of Summit and Prof. John Siburn of Westfield, chairman of UJC's biology department. The third member of the association's scholarship committee, Mrs. C. Ashmead Biddulph of Summit, could not be present when the picture was taken.

Hospital Services Performed By Colony Club Volunteers

Members of the welfare department of the Colony Club of Cranford who have been giving one day each week as senior in-service volunteers at Rahway Hospital are Mrs. Robert Isinger, Mrs. Earl Shea, Mrs. William Yuill, Mrs. Nicholas Mankiw, Mrs. Reynold Deviney, Mrs. Bruce Bell and Mrs. Robert Johnson. Mrs. Shea is a volunteer captain and is in charge of training and assigning volunteers. All members must complete a period of three to four weeks of training before taking on various duties in the hospital wherever they are needed.

Floor service includes bed-making, assisting in bathing patients and feeding at mealtimes. Duties in the business office such as typing, filing and answering the telephone are performed. Mail and flowers are distributed. Children are fed, changed and told stories by some workers in the pediatrics ward. Others assist the nurse on duty in the special care unit for critically ill patients. Menus and trays are made up in the diet kitchen, and others transport patients to and from the physiotherapy unit and assist the therapist.

There are a variety of duties to be performed by in-service volunteers and the future plans of Colony Club are to include members of all departments.

Pinewood Derby Winners Revealed

Winners in the annual Pinewood Derby competition of Cub Pack 176 were Michael Schuster, Martin Klein and Mark Schulz.

Neal Bronstein, Richard Harvin and John Del Russo were inducted as members of the pack and presented with their bobcat pins at a meeting last week at Brookside Place School.

Webelos awards were presented to Raymond Forte, Scott Kreiger and Walter Williams.

Other advancement awards were received by Charles Unetta, Thomas Gentile and William Peterson.

Submaster Herman Krogerman announced plans for a father-and-son swim to be held at the Westfield YMCA on April 2 and for a trip to the Catskill Game Farm in New York State on May 21.

Men In Service

The Marine Corps Recruiting Office in Elizabeth this week announced the enlistment of John Glowacki, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Glowacki of 1130 Raritan Rd. Pvt. Glowacki is currently undergoing eight weeks of recruit training at Parris Island, S. C., after which he will travel to Camp Lejeune, N. C., where the new "Marine" will receive training in advanced infantry techniques. After completing this phase of training, Private Glowacki will return home on his 20-day "boot" leave. Pvt. Glowacki enlisted in the Marine Corps in the "Aviation Schools Guarantee" program, and at the termination of his leave will return to a Marine Aviation installation for technical schooling in one of the more than 25 specific aviation skills.

'Rhododendrons' Topic of Program For Garden Club

"Rhododendrons" was the topic of Mrs. Eileen Ostrov's program for members of the Crane's Ford Gardeners at their meeting last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. G. Keith Warner, 14 Herning Ave. Mrs. Ostrov, a member of the New Jersey Chapter of the American Rhododendron Society, instructed the group as to soil preparation, fertilization, mulching, pruning and selection of varieties. She illustrated her talk with colored slides showing the different varieties.

She is a member of the Union County Rhododendron Display Garden at the Watchung Reservation and showed slides of the garden's development over the past several years.

Mrs. Benjamin W. Jones, chairman of garden therapy, announced that Crane's Ford Gardeners will make bedside arrangements for Lyons Hospital on April 15. She will be assisted by Mrs. William C. Philpot and Mrs. Charles F. Teese. Mrs. Philpot, club president, appointed the following nominating committee: Mrs. Warren D. Sechrist, Mrs. George C. Spahn, and Mrs. Charles M. Eckhardt, chairman.

At the April meeting a workshop will be held at the home of Mrs. Seymour Marsh of 213 Beech St. in preparation for the club's closed flower show in May. Mrs. R. Alan Low, Mrs. William J. Miller, Jr., Mrs. Nelson M. Lightcap and Mrs. Henry A. Detering will be in charge.

On March 28, Mr. and Mrs. Philpot will entertain members of the club and their husbands.

Co-hostesses for this meeting were Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Paul W. Selby. Flowers were arranged by Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Philpot and Mrs. H. Roland Snyder.

Boyd Serving In Vietnam

First Lt. David N. Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Boyd of Towson, Md., formerly of Cranford, is now in Vietnam in the fight against Communist aggression. He is an intelligence officer in the Pacific Air Forces, the nation's combat-ready air arm guarding the 10,000-mile Bamboo Curtain.

The lieutenant, formerly of 13 La Salle Ave., is a graduate of Cranford High School. He received his B.A. degree in German from Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., where he was commissioned upon completion of the Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps program. He is a member of Sigma Pi.

His wife, Margaret, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent P. Savidge of Hopewell.

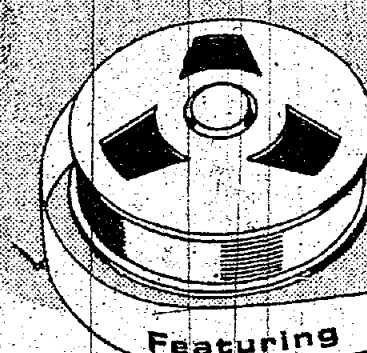

Talk, Slides on Brazil

Mrs. Fred Haefner of Linden spoke about Brazil recently to Mrs. Ross Marie Reutter's and Miss Rhoda Hochberg's third grade classes in Livingston Avenue School. The students displayed special interest in slides of Salvador, Rio De Janeiro and Brasilia.

Scoring in the 11th and 12th grade league were: Heller, 14; Tallman, 12, and Hamilton, 13.

Town Finances 'Excellent,' Mayor Philo Tells Chamber

Cranford today is in excellent financial condition because of land sales and the resultant desirable new ratables which have located in its Industrial Park, Mayor Wesley N. Philo reported in addressing the sixth annual banquet of the Chamber of Commerce last Wednesday night at the Shackamaxon Golf and Country Club in Scotch Plains.

Scholarship Application Blanks Ready

Application blanks for the PTA-CTA Scholarship awards are now available in the Cranford High School guidance office. The deadline for filing these applications is Friday, April 1.

In accordance with the plan adopted several years ago, the PTAs in all the schools, combined with the Cranford Teachers' Association in making their awards. The selection committee is composed of representatives from the CTA, the two junior high schools, the high school, four elementary schools, and the two senior class advisers.

The elementary schools rotate their membership on the selection committee. Representatives from the Roosevelt, Brookside Place, Lincoln and Livingston Avenue Schools will serve on the committee this year.

Last year the PTA-CTA Scholarship committee awarded $1,275 to eight recipients.

Any high school senior who is planning to attend college, is in the upper third of his or her class and needs financial assistance is encouraged to apply.

Anyone desiring additional information may contact Miss Helen Scott in the high school guidance office or Mrs. Jesse Patberg, chairman of the scholarship committee.

Lutherans to Dedicate School, Administration Bldg. Sunday

Dedication of the new church school and administration building of Calvary Lutheran Church will be held this Sunday at 10:15 a.m., between the 9 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. worship services. Rev. W. Kent Gilbert, Ed. D., of Devon, Pa., executive secretary for the Board of Parish Education of the Lutheran Church in America, will be the guest preacher.

The dedication of the new building will be conducted from the open deck outside the library-lounge room, with the congregation gathered in the courtyard and under the walkway.

Dr. Gilbert, a personal friend of Rev. Arnold J. Dahlquist, is a graduate of Gettysburg College, the Lutheran Seminary at Gettysburg, and Columbia University, where he earned his Ed. D. degree in 1955. He has served pastorates at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, New York City, and Redeemer Lutheran Church, Ramsey.

He was editor of the Board of Parish Education, United Lutheran Church in America, from 1950 to 1956, and director of the long-range program of the Lutheran Board of Parish Education which planned and developed the new parish education curriculum introduced in 1955. This is an $8,000,000 project involving a staff of nearly 100 in the production of more than 400 books.

Dr. Gilbert is the author and editor of several weekday and Sunday church school series, a visiting professor at Lutheran seminaries and guest lecturer at various conferences abroad, and he has served on more than 25 boards, commissions, and committees including the Lutheran World Federation, Commission on Education, Department of Educational Development, National Council of Churches and National Study Com-

Cranford Invitation To Stock Exchange

Cranford has sent an invitation to the New York Stock Exchange to locate here, Public Affairs Commissioner H. Raymond Kirwan reported at Tuesday night's meeting of Township Committee.

The former mayor said that if the Exchange moves out of New York City, Cranford has excellent facilities in its office-building zone on Orange Ave. or in the small remaining tract in Industrial Park.

Tract Sold As Electronic Plant Locale

Township Committee Tuesday night sold a 6.2-acre tract of land in Industrial Park to Cyn-Kay Realty Co. for $105,400. A 50,000-square-foot building, costing at least $500,000, will be constructed on the tract for a nationally-known electronics firm, presently located in New Jersey.

While the name of the firm was not divulged, Public Affairs Commissioner H. Raymond Kirwan said the building will be used for display and sales purposes and will be "an excellent addition to the township's Industrial Park."

Martin Radley was the successful bidder for four lots at Centennial Ave. and Wall St., on his offer of $12,000. He plans to construct a one-story office building of 4,800 square feet at a minimum cost of $22,000.

In another public auction, Michaels Builders purchased five lots on Ludlow Ave. and Dermody St. for $15,000. The firm plans to construct a 4,800-square-foot structure costing $30,000 which will be occupied by a machine shop, presently located in Irvington.

Sullivan Chevrolet, Inc., Roselle Park, was awarded the contract to furnish five two-door sedans for the police department for $6,750, including trade-in of five present police cars. The annual service cost for the five cars will be $2,400.

Adopted on final reading was an ordinance appropriating $19,000 from the capital improvement fund to purchase accounting equipment for the treasurer's and tax collector's offices. Also approved was an ordinance providing for construction of a sanitary sewer in parts of Williams St. and Dorchester Ave. at an estimated cost of $2,500. The sewer project will be undertaken as a local improvement and the cost assessed against benefiting property owners.

Somerset Bus Co. advised that it has applied to the Public Utility Commission for an increase in fares. Public Safety Commissioner Edward Gill urged residents to register any opposition either with municipal officials or with the PUC. Philip Morin, 110 Makatom Dr., told the committee the bus left 10 persons stranded at North and Elizabeth Aves. Tuesday morning, causing them great inconvenience.

Painting, Dancing, Puppets Crowd Recreation Calendar

Cranford's versatile recreation program is drawing about 700 participants each week during the present session, Robert Shupin, superintendent of recreation, reported this week.

Activities for youngsters, parents, and grandparents are spread over the week, Mr. Shupin noted. The department now is mapping plans for its spring arts and crafts program. Flyers will be sent to local clubs and organizations, posted on the bulletin board at the Public Library and announced in the Citizen and Chronicle. Registration is on a first come, first served basis, Mr. Shupin reminded residents.

By far the most popular activity is the Cougar's Den, teenage dance, conducted on Saturday nights from 8 to 11 o'clock. Mr. Shupin said, Dances are held this session at Orange Avenue Junior High School each Saturday and live bands, composed of local talent, are featured.

On Wednesday evenings, an adult fitness class for men is held at Hillside Avenue Junior High School.

SOMBRERO SERENADERS — The Tijuana Brass Group will be among entertainers on Saturday at the annual spring band concert at the high school. Players are: Warren Gaughan, piano, seated; second row — John Dolin, drums; Frank Grasso, Mark Vogel, trumpets; Steven Pollock, guitar; back row — William Roth, trombone; Thomas Mokrycki, bass.

Tijuana Brass Group Ready To Enliven Concert at CHS

Sombreros and serapes will add color to the already lively Tijuana Brass Group to be featured at the annual spring concert of the Cranford High School Concert Band.

The public is invited to the concert at 8:15 p.m. Saturday in the high school auditorium. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

The Tijuana group will play the Herb Alpert favorites, "Green Peppers," "Up Cherry St." and "Bittersweet, Samba." The group was formed this year under the direction of Robert Yurochko, band director. Members are: Trumpets, Mark Vogel, Frank Grasso; trombone, William Roth; guitar, Steven Pollock; piano, Warren Gaughan; bass, Thomas Mokrycki, and drums, John Dolin.

The Mexican serapes and sombreros have been provided by the Dolson Travel Agency, 2 Alden St. In addition to instrumental music, the audience will be treated to a rendition of "Wrap Your Troubles in Dreams" sung by the Boys' Double Quartet and Girls' Ensemble under the direction of James Lenney, vocal music instructor.

Among other selections of the 65-member concert band will be music from the film score of "Ben-Hur" featuring an augmented percussion section. Chimes and gong have been borrowed for this performance from Westfield High School and two timpani from Or-

Spring Arrives, Clean-Up to Follow For Next 2 Weeks

A spring vegetation clean-up will be conducted throughout the township, beginning Monday, by the public works department, it was announced at Tuesday night's meeting of Township Committee by Public Works Commissioner Charles G. Siegfried.

The clean-up will require approximately two weeks, depending upon the weather, with two election districts being covered each day.

Commissioner Siegfried stressed the fact that the material to be picked up is restricted to vegetation such as shrubs, branches, twigs, leaves and grass. No other material will be collected in this drive. A general clean-up will be held in the fall when other items will be taken.

Purpose of the spring clean-up, the commissioner explained, is to permit residents to dispose of garden material refuse as they prepare their lawns, shrubs and flower beds.

To facilitate the handling of the material, Commissioner Siegfried urged that where possible material be placed in containers. Branches should be cut to reasonable size.

The schedule follows:

Monday, March 28 — Election Districts 3 and 4.

Tuesday, March 29, Districts 1 and 5.

Wednesday, March 30, Districts 7 and 18.

Thursday, March 31, Districts 11 and 13.

Friday, April 1, Districts 8 and 12.

Saturday, April 2, Districts 2 and 14.

Monday, April 4, Districts 18 and 20.

Tuesday, April 5, Districts 6 and 15.

Wednesday, April 6, Districts 17 and 19.

Thursday, April 7, Districts 9 and 10.

Residents desiring to dispose of garden materials or other small items at times other than during the clean-up weeks may place the materials in a container at the curb on the day of their normal refuse collection. Local scavengers have volunteered to cooperate by picking up such items if they are in containers at the curb and in a reasonable quantity.

Residents who have heavy or bulky items, such as large tree limbs, or construction materials, should call the Cranford Disposal Service, and arrange to have the items picked up at a small fee.

NEW OFFICE BUILDING-MOTEL COMPLEX — Pictured above is architect's sketch of $2 million office building and motel complex to be built by D. O. Evans on eight-acre tract on Jackson Dr., in Industrial Park. It will be located between Winfield Circle and Commerce Dr., across the street from the IBM office building. There will be facilities for professional offices, restaurant, meeting rooms and 250 to 300 motel units. Parking facilities will be provided for 480 cars. Presently before the Board of Adjustment for a front yard variance on Jackson Dr. and a parking provision variance, a decision is expected by April 6. Construction is slated to get underway in May and the complex is scheduled for completion by the end of the year. The eight-acre tract brought $560,000 at public auction last fall, which was the highest price ever paid for municipal property.

Week's Weather

UJC Meteorological Station
HAROLD DUFLOCC, Meteorologist

Temperatures this week ranged from a chilly 21 degrees last Thursday to a balmy 66 degrees on Friday. During the week, 133 degree days were recorded, bringing the total for March to 516 and for the heating season which began September 1 to 4,364.

The week's only precipitation was .02 inches of rain yesterday and a trace of rain on Saturday.

A year ago the temperatures ranged from a maximum of 55 degrees to a minimum of 16 degrees. During the week, 198 degree days were recorded, bringing the total for the heating season to 4,487. Precipitation totaled 90 inches. Snowfall totaled five inches, including

The new building will parallel the student parking lot, and will adjoin the Nimshegan Building. It will contain five science laboratories, six classrooms, two large lecture halls, science resource center, student research center and 14 faculty offices.

With the opening of the science building, Union Junior College expects to increase its enrollment by about 35 percent or 300 students, Dr. MacKay said.
