The GOLDEN "C"

Published by the

CLASS OF JUNE, 1934

CRANFORD HIGH SCHOOL
CRANFORD, - NEW JERSEY

Foreword

We, the class of '34, have reached one more milestone on life's highway — graduation. Yet we are left "standing with reluctant feet, where the brook and river meet." Behind, are the memories, the work, the fun in C. H. S.; ahead—who knows? It remains to us to follow, like knights of old, the motto graven on our shields, "Onward and Upward!"

DEDICATION

TO

ADELAIDE M. MIFFLIN

whose foresight and guidance have led us on to greater heights, we, the class of 1934, affectionately dedicate this, the third issue of the "Golden C."

Class Song, 1934

Words and Music by Hobart Parsons

I.

A fond farewell, 'tis thus we sing
Our dear old Alma Mater;
Thy praises we shall always sing,
To thy name greater glory bring.
No single word can ever say our thanks to thee,
And may we show thy best to be
That which the world will see.

II.

High standards have been set for us.
We know them; we uphold them;
Thy name unblemished came to us;
Still it goes on unblemished thus.
Let come what may, it can but swell thy name and fame,
And always will thy name remain
Most loved in our refrain.

III.

Farewell now to the memoried halls;
We must go forth and leave them.
Farewell now, too, the ivied walls.
The thoughts and deeds that they recall
Will ever serve to live again these four short years.
We forward move; our step is slow;
'Tis time for us to go.

Class History

EXACTLY four short years ago, this ancient edifice assumed to the best of its ability a joyous aspect out of all keeping with the appearance common to its kind. There was cause for rejoicing. The class of '34, even then visibly promising, stood timidly upon its threshold. It is the inevitable boast and vain belief of each succeeding class that it has been the best class ever to graduate from C. H. S. Let us rather be satisfied with the modest declaration that we sincerely believe ourselves to be the best class ever to enter C. H. S.

We gave immediate evidence of our intellectual stability by electing as our class officers: President, Chester Lang; Vice-President, Isabelle Franke; Secretary, Taylor Frazer; and Treasurer, Rose McGraham. After elections we energetically proceeded to vanquish the annual question of class dues.

The next year, our Sophomore year, saw the election of Taylor Frazer as President, with Maxwell Van Nuys as Vice-President. Julia Pavelka recorded the minutes that year, while Alma Wysocki handled the finances. Our officers selected, we settled back behind the proverbial Sophomore sales-resistance, the recognized reaction from a gullible Freshman year.

Our Junior year brought with it an awakening to new responsibilities, chief among which were the Junior Subscription Dance and the Junior-Senior debate, in which our Junior team, comprised of Walter Holmquest, Henrietta Miller, and Gilbert Ashwell, won first honors. President John Latane very valiantly endeavored to keep the rising Juniors in their places that year. He was aided by Vice-President Carol Olofson, Secretary Pyllis Stuck, and Treasurer Taylor Frazer. The Junior-Senior dance, our farewell offering to the graduating class, terminated the year and its activities.

Came our busy fourth year and the realization that we were Seniors. With the choosing of our last officers, Taylor Frazer slipped naturally into his fourth consecutive office, and his second presidency. He had as his co-workers: Vice-President, Santiago Porcella; Secretary, Julia Pavelka; and Treasurer, Richard Fullerton.

For our Senior play we presented "The Ivory Door", the deservedly fine success of which we proudly hold as an indication of the mettle and spirit of the class of '34.

As the events of these last four years spread forth on the page before us, we can not help but realize that what success we may have enjoyed as a class was not due wholly to ourselves. There were other and important contributing influences in that period now passed. Therefore, the class of '34 wishes to extend their most appreciative thanks to a thoughtful and co-operative faculty. Particularly from that body do we wish to single out Miss Mifflin, our class sponsor. She assumed voluntarily the task of guiding us successfully through four years of high school, a responsibility which she handled so kindly, so helpfully, and with such understanding that we could not be otherwise than sincerely thankful.

And now, as once again we stand upon that threshold, we secretly realize that we have changed little but our direction. We present, as then, bold backs to those behind us, inexperienced faces to those before.

The Class of '34 Looks Into the Future

A PROPHECY

1950

After having composed the following list of brilliant prophecies at the risk of incurring a severe case of eye strain, the Class of '34 refuses to accept any responsibility whatsoever for their fulfillment. Blame not us if she whom we have seen as a radio star in the far distant future should become a telephone operator, nor blame us if he whom we have designated an African game hunter should become an attendant at the Bronx Zoo. Merely having begun to the best of our ability that problem which only you can finish, we hereby absolve ourselves of any possible connection with the outcome.

NANCY ALLEN is the capable organist at St. John the Divine in New York.

GILBERT ASHWELL has quickly risen to stardom as a "fair and square politician" and is now Mayor of Philadelphia.

KENDERTON BARBER has made his name famous in his recent chemical discoveries for Eastman Kodak.

BETTY BARRINGER is now writing her autobiography called "Settling Down".

FRED BEACH has the "smoothest" orchestra in the United States. You can now see and hear him at the Central Park Casino.

EDELGINA BERARDINELLI has perfected her dramatic actions till she is now an understudy for a great actress.

EVA BERARDINELLI—If you happened along Fifth Avenue, take a look at the windows at Best's. They are dressed under the capable supervision of Eva.

JANE BILLINGSLEY is over in Paris buying dresses for the best houses along Fifth Avenue.

THELMA BRAGAR is managing with great success an ultra smart "Frenchy" dress shop just off Broadway.

BYRON CAMERON has become one of those queer scientists who is always inventing something no one needs.

LAWRENCE CANNING is a prominent surgeon in Johns Hopkins. He is making a great name as a brain specialist.

VIOLET CARTER has astoundingly grown three feet and is now a sensational tap-dancer on Broadway.

ANNE CHAPMAN poses for all those "blond hair wash advertisements" you see in the subways and street cars.

ANNE CHURCH is happily married to ——— ———, a love affair which started while Ann was still in dear old C. H. S.

MOLLIE COMSTOCK is the celebrated feature in Radio City as the "Master Organist".

JOHN CORDNER is a public accountant for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company with offices in New York City.

ROLLAND COX—"Friends, Romans, Countrymen, lend me your ears". Words of great length pour from his lips into the enchanted ears of his audiences.

MARGARET CRANE is now a most proficient piano instructor. She has been the teacher of a number of well known pianists.

GERTRUDE CREMERIUS has just introduced a popular cult into society for all those with no interest in common things.

JEAN CROCKET is a famous welfare worker in the slums of New York City.

ANNA MAE CULLEN has just been elected the first woman senator of New Jersey. She has been doing conspicuous work in Child Welfare.

WILLIAM DE BRIGARD is the flourishing president of a leading broadcasting system, station N-E-R-T-Z.

DOROTHY DELLER is doing fine work as the Music Supervisor of Cranford.

ERNESTINA DI BATTISTA, much to her delight and our surprise, has become a daring aviatrix.

HEELEN DI FABIO has realized her life's desire and is now secretary for the Governor of New Jersey.

ROSE DI TULLIO is in China illustrating in her inimitable manner all Pearl S. Buck books.

GENEVIEVE DOWDELL, with her expert dancing, is Broadway's latest find.

LUCIANNA DOYLE, a member of the C. H. S. faculty, is teaching English to innocent freshmen.

WILLIAM FORD, with his suave voice, has become a traveling salesman for Silver Dust.

FLORENCE FRANK is one of the most proficient telephone operators Western Electric has ever had.

ISABELLE FRANKE has become an expert commercial artist. She now does covers for Harper's Bazaar and the Delineator.

TAYLOR FRAZER is a most reputable state attorney in New York, who draws the Sunday cartoons in his spare moments.

ROBERT FULLER'S design for a model block of apartments on the East Side in New York City was accepted by the City Council.

RICHARD FULLERTON is now the treasurer of the Cheseborough Chemical Company.

ROBERT GAFFNEY has become an extra heavy, heavy weight champion boxer. His renown world wide.

ALLISON GAUL is head psychologist in the "Bonnie" Institute for children.

MOLLIE GOODFELLOW, besides winning a great many Bridge Tournaments, has written a book on contract called "Vulnerable."

CHARLES GRIFFITHS, coach of the Southern California football team, has had a championship team for the past five years—a second Knute Rockne!

ALBERT HADDAD is keeping up the whooping by his profession as a dashing cowboy.

HOWARD HARRIS—He has achieved world wide fame for his remarkable wrestling abilities.

EUGENE HENRICH is in Germany beating the World's Chess King in a match over there.

JOSEPH HENRY—"Veni, vidi, vici"—is now teaching Latin successfully.

JAMES HOLLOWELL has received patent rights for a radically new gasoline engine which he invented.

WALTER HOLMQUEST is the star sports reporter for the Herald Tribune. We rather expected it.

VICTOR HOOKE—Who'd have thought Victor would be Police Commissioner of New York City. Policemen are still flat footed and gangsters still exchange bullets.

BILL HORN is still a bachelor and he's breaking all the "fluffy" debutantes' hearts at Palm Beach.

CORINNE JOHNSON has the leading role in a current drama now being played in London.

FRED KHOURI, who left Cranford High to study law, is now a well known criminal lawyer.

GEORGE KORNER, a leading comedian, is laughing down Easy Street.

ELIETTA LA BATE is still plugging along in a picturesque store off Main Street in a small western town.

CHESTER LANG is a star sports announcer over Columbia network. Listen to him describe the Olympics from over in Germany if you want an accurate picture.

LAWRENCE LARKIN is known in all universities as Columbia's youngest and best lecturer on English literature.

JOHN LATANE is demonstrating "Beautyrest" mattresses. Up to the same old tricks as he was in C. H. S.

DOROTHY LEWIS, because of her English density, is the best stooge on the radio today. Try her with a riddle, sometime!

THADDEUS LISOWSKI, always a lover of the great outdoors, is at present a tourists' guide at Yellowstone Park.

BETTY LOVELAND is certainly keeping Latin in the family—she is teaching it in a well known girls' school.

DORIS MALONE has become an ultra-modern interior decorator with a successful studio in Paris.

GENEVIEVE MAPPS' red hair is now sitting sedately under a head nurse's cap at the Medical Center.

HOWARD MANCHON just came in first in another auto race which now gives him the title of "King of Speed".

MARIAN MARKHAM is a famous photographer in New York. Why not have her take your picture?

FRANK MAY is an impressive first vice-president of the Chase National Bank in New York.

WALTER McGARRY, with his poetic ability, is composing ditties for "Mickey Mouse".

ROSE McGRAHAM, we hear, enjoys keeping house for her husband between bridge dates.

RUTH MERKLE has achieved a prominent position in Arthur Murray's School of Dancing through her charm and ability.

GEORGE MILLER is a noted electrical engineer and has just completed the lighting of a new highway.

HENRIETTA MILLER is now the promising young editor-in-chief of the "Woman's Home Companion".

WILBUR MILLER is on the Board of Education trying to save the school from buying foolish English books.

WALDO MOWEN, a graduate of Annapolis, is now a lieutenant stationed in Hawaii.

BETTY MUNRO is the charming wife of the new "King of Speed". There's a back seat driver that can't say "You're not going fast enough!"

HARRIET NICK is a most excelelnt secretary for a famous historian and archaeologist.

HELEN NORGOOD surprises us by coming a "big sister" to all by writing advice to the love-lorn.

ROBERT NORTHCUTT has written a book: "Let Me Tell You About My Operations".

PADRAIG O'DEA is the star marksman in the East, and can he shoot!

CAROL OLOFSON has become an expert ski jumper and skater away over in beautiful Switzerland.

GEORGE OSTERHELDT is now running as Mayor for the progressive town of Cranford.

HOBART PARSONS, the perennial heartbreaker, is starred in the new picture "Broken Hearts".

JULIA PAVELKA has become a leading fashion designer of smart clothes in New York City.

SANTIAGO PORCELLA is a well known critic. He's one of those critics who never sees more than the first act of a show, and then writes sarcastic things about everyone concerned.

JOHN QUINN owns one of the largest dog kennels in the country. His dogs have won prizes all over the world.

FRANK RATTI has completely mastered the saxophone and is now running a school for professional players.

KATHRYN RAUCHFUSS is just what we expected—a famous impersonator of all stage, screen, and radio celebrities.

RUTH RAY is going to attempt to swim across the English Channel. Let's hope she makes it!

MILDRED REDFIELD has become a second Rubinoff and she is now playing "fiddle for the Czar".

MURIEL REILLY, the perfect stenographer, is seen most often killing the boss with pointless puns.

ROBERT REINERS' American History is still his favorite subject, as he has taken Miss Mifflin's place in C. H. S.

ELSIE RELLE is touring the world, giving her renowned violin solos.

ARTHUR ROBINSON has been sailing the ocean blue as master of a liner from San Francisco to Japan.

ARTHUR ROHRER—He advertises "Don't be a runt all your life; use Mac Intogues' tonic and grow tall like the model".

GEORGE ROSICH still stands by his high school wish—"I want to be a bachelor"—for the last we heard Rosich was going through life blissfully alone.

GEORGE ROZYCKI: George has just blown up his laboratory after trying out a scientific experiment.

ROSEMARIE SANTORO is a highly paid commercial artist in a prominent advertising firm.

HENRY SAUSELEN is "the talk of the town" among all economists since his new book on "Politics and Economics".

WILLIAM SCHIRMER is head of a Spaulding store in New York. He still shows his interest in Athletics.

GERTRUDE SCHOLZ, by excelling in Mathematics, has become an actuary in the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

VICTOR SHAHEEN is sports editor for the New York Times. Victor has at last attained his life-long ambition.

DORIS SHEFFER is the illustrious contender for the bridge crown of the U. S. A.

GRANT STIMPSON is a district manager of the Bell Telephone Company. If your lights go out, you know whom to call!

PHYLLIS STUCK is astounding the world, but not us, by the superb style she has introduced into the art world.

LUCY TALIAFERRO has just published some of the best contemporary literature on southern life.

MARIAN TEMPLIN: Marian is now personnel director at Bamberger's department store in Newark.

GRACE THIEL can now play tennis better than any woman in America, France, or England—a second Helen Wills.

MARY TINNESZ has become a most efficient prviate secretary to the president of Du Pont's.

MAXWELL VAN NUYS—You may hear this second Will Rogers over Station X-Y-Z on Sundays at 8:30 P. M.

GROSVENOR WADMAN, it has just been learned, is on a solo cruise around the world. The last reports were that he was seen in the waters off China.

ANASTAZIA WALCZYSZYN, a virtuoso of the violin, has also composed numerous selections.

CLAIRE WEIR has become a very smart, capable, society reporter for the Boston Blue Bloods.

NECIA WELCH, who always loved children, is keeping a large day school for kiddies.

JAMES WIKANDER is traveling around the world as an official of the American Steamship Line.

ALMA WYSOCKI has just returned from an extended stay in Europe. She is the governess of the Astor children.

Class Will

To Whom It May Concern: We, the class of 1934, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby declare this document to be our last will and testament, and we herewith revoke all former wills made by us.

I, Nancy Allen, bequeath my giggle to that serious Sophomore—Alan O'Kell.

I, Gilbert Ashwell, will my radical ideas on religion to anyone who has nerve enough to state them.

I, Kenderton Barber, leave my quietness to Joe Kovacs.

I, Betty Barringer, bequeath my incessant talking to Jennie Della Sale.

I, Fred Beach, leave my crooning voice to Celestine Jewell.

We, Edelgina and Eva Berardinelli, will our ability to get along together to Ethel and Betty Stimpson.

I, Thelma Bragar, bestow my remarkable attendance record upon Alfred Ehrlicher and hope that he will do it justice.

I, Byron Cameron, leave my highly developed sense of inquisitiveness to Helen Grozan, who never asks questions.

I, Lawrence Canning, will my way with the girls to Kenny Anderson.

I, Violet Carter, bequeath my stature to Annamartha Conley.

I, Ann Chapman, leave my chattering to Agnes Nimmo.

I, Ann Church, will my skill as an athlete to Sadie Mae Percival.

I, Mollie Comstock, bestow my scientific interests upon William Ganschow.

I, John Cordner, bequeath my laziness to Riggs Stewart so that school work will give him some competition.

I, Roland Cox, leave my quietness to Jack Huff, who likes to whistle in Study Hall.

I, Margaret Crane, will my place in the orchestra to Dorothy Reel.

I, Gertrude Cremerius, leave my habit of losing things to Josephine Shaffer.

I, Jean Crocket, bestow my unaffected manner upon Beatrice Marsac.

I, Anna Mae Cullen, will my Studebaker to my sister Aileen so that she may carry on.

I, William de Brigard, leave the difficulties and annoyances attendant to names to Nettie Panasewitz.

I, Dorothy Deller, bequeath my baton to Eleanor Relle.

I, Ernestine De Battista, bestow my skill in driving a car upon Grace Hagerstrom.

I, Helen Di Fabio, will my neatness to Byron Bode.

I, Rose Di Tullio, leave my seriousness to merry Grace Kuhnle.

I, Genevieve Dowdell, bequeath my fame as an actress to Rosemary Jansen.

I, Lucianna Doyle, will my brief-case to Yemma Mokarzel.

I, William Ford, leave my aptitude for bragging about athletics to Archie Cameron, a very modest Junior.

I, Florence Frank, bequeath my short hair to Mary Burton.

I, Isabelle Franke, bestow my dignified ways upon Alice Bartholomew.

I, Taylor Frazer, will my way with the teachers to Kathryn Albert.

I, Robert Fuller, leave my eighteenth century ideals to Helen Cole.

I, Richard Fullerton, bequeath my ability to handle money to anyone with asbestos pockets like mine.

I, Robert Gaffney, will my alarm clock to Arthur Zietler.

I, Allison Gaul, leave my ability to control my temper to Elsie Hoagland.

I, Mollie Goodfellow, bestow my driver's license upon Mike Walczyszyn.

I, Charles Griffiths, will my bluffing ability to Vincent Lusardi.

I, Albert Haddad, leave my laziness to Arthur Brown.

I, Howard Harris, bequeath my leisurely ways to Helen Dey.

I, Eugene Henrich, bestow my serious disposition upon my sister, Barbara.

I, Joseph Henry, will my short stature to Bernard Schirmer so that he can go through doorways without bumping his head.

I, James Hollowell, bequeath my oratorical ability to Florence Bracken.

I, Victor Hooke, will my friendship for George Miller to Mary Crumback.

I, William Horn, bestow my debonair air upon Howard Goodman.

I, Corinne Johnson, bequeath my sophisticated ways to Anne Radlinski.

I, Fred Khouri, leave my indifference to women to Raymond Maxfield.

I, George Korner, will my "Jack Armstrong" physique to Cy Dadd.

I, Elietta La Bate, bequeath my reserved manner to Elsie Meier.

I, Chester Lang, bestow my admiration for blondes to any other gentleman.

I, John Latane, leave my ability to get ads to future business staffs.

I, Lawrence Larkin, do bequeath my abilities as an author to Wade Poston.

I, Dorothy Lewis, will my meek manner to Bertina Hibson.

I, Thaddeus Lisowski, leave my good marks in French to Arnold Jones.

I, Betty Loveland, bestow my good marks in English composition upon Lawrence Foege.

I, Doris Malone, bequeath my amiability and pep to Jean Jansen.

I, Howard Manchon, will my winsome ways to "Hi" Blois.

I, Genevieve Mapps, will my desire for a nursing career to Agnes Nimmo.

I, Marian Markham, bequeath my precise English accent to Eddie Tomczyk.

I, Frank May, will my happy disposition to Janet Cross.

I, Walter McGarry, leave my voice to Clarabelle Frew.

I, Rose McGraham, bequeath my way with the boys to Ruth Davis.

We, Ruth Merkle and Jane Billingsley, will our inseparable friendship to Jessie Crumback and Billie Scholz.

I, George Miller, bestow my powers as a breaker of freshman hearts upon Alfred Burke.

I, Henrietta Miller, leave my responsibilities and a list of proof-reading signs to the next Editor-in-Chief of the Spotlight.

I, Wilbur Miller, bequeath my independent ways to Bob Howes.

I, Waldo Mowen, will my cheer-leading ability to any worthy successor.

I, Betty Munro, leave my dreamy looks to Martha Wikander.

I, Harriet Nick, bequeath my neatly-balanced ledgers and all my worries about getting ads to the next Business Manager of the Spotlight.

I, Helen Norgood, will my neatness to Jack Shoosmith.

I, Robert Northcutt, leave my Model-A Ford to Roger Markham to replace his Model-T.

I, Padriag O'Dea, bequeath my Irish name to anyone who has the temper to go with it.

I, Carol Olofson, will my book of minutes to the future secretaries of the Student Council.

I, George Osterheldt, leave the secret of my popularity with the women to Wardell Steigerwalt.

I, Hobart Parsons, will my string of broken hearts to whoever claims them.

I, Julia Pavelka, bequeath my originality to Margaret Robertson.

I, Santiago Porcella, bestow my extensive wardrobe upon my brother Philip so that he will not have to wear overalls.

I, John Quinn, leave a few excess pounds to Georgianna Greene.

I, Frank Rattis, will my saxophone to Pete Billias.

I, Kathryn Rauchfuss, bequeath my curly red hair to Betty Shaffer.

I, Ruth Ray, bestow my narrow width and breadth upon Anna Sauselen.

Senior Play

THE three-act play, "The Ivory Door," by A. A. Milne, was a decided success on both the evening of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth of March. It was a humorous, rather whimsical and altogether a very delightful affair, with attractive costumes and setting designed by Phyllis Stuck and Isabelle Franke, respectively. The cast was excellent, showing how faithfully they had worked. The Seniors are very proud of the production, but most of all, of its capable director, Miss Alice Mathews.

Junior Class

President: GEORGE REUSCH Secretary: HOWARD GOODMAN

Vice-President: JOHN MANNING Treasurer: ROBERT HARRIS

IN 1931 the Class of '35 entered the portals of Cleveland High School. Howard Goodman became President (and, incidently, the last Freshman president); Robert Harris, Vice-President; Louis Kramer, Treasurer; and Jessie Crumback, Secretary.

In the Sophomore year of the Class, Virginia Di Fabio was elected to the presiding officer's chair, with John Pavelka, Howard Goodman, and George Reusch assisting. The Class Colors—Crimson and Gray; the Flower—Crimson Rambler; and the Motto, "Not School but Life", were adopted.

In this, the Junior Year of the Class, numerous successful activities have been engaged in. The Junior Subscription Dance, despite the meagre receipts, was a social success. The Junior Debating Team, composed of Wade Poston, Howard Rath, Florence Bracken, and Riggs Stewart, added five dollars to the Class treasury by defeating the Seniors in the traditional Junior-Senior Debate.

It is often said that all good things must soon end, but this history is as yet unfinished. The last, most engaging year lies before the members of the Junior Class.

Sophomore Class

President: FRANK DADD
Vice-President: ARTHUR BROWN
Secretary: BETTY ALBURY
Treasurer: FRANK SPROLE

THE Class of '36 was not organized until its Sophomore year, when the amount of dues was quickly decided upon. A fair percentage of the total has now been paid. There have been three meetings of the Class, at the time of this writing, where a fine school and class spirit were in evidence—and all augurs well for the future of the group. The Class wishes to express its deepest regret for the loss of Hercules Marconi, a fellow classmate, who Passed Beyond on November 28, 1933.

Freshman Class

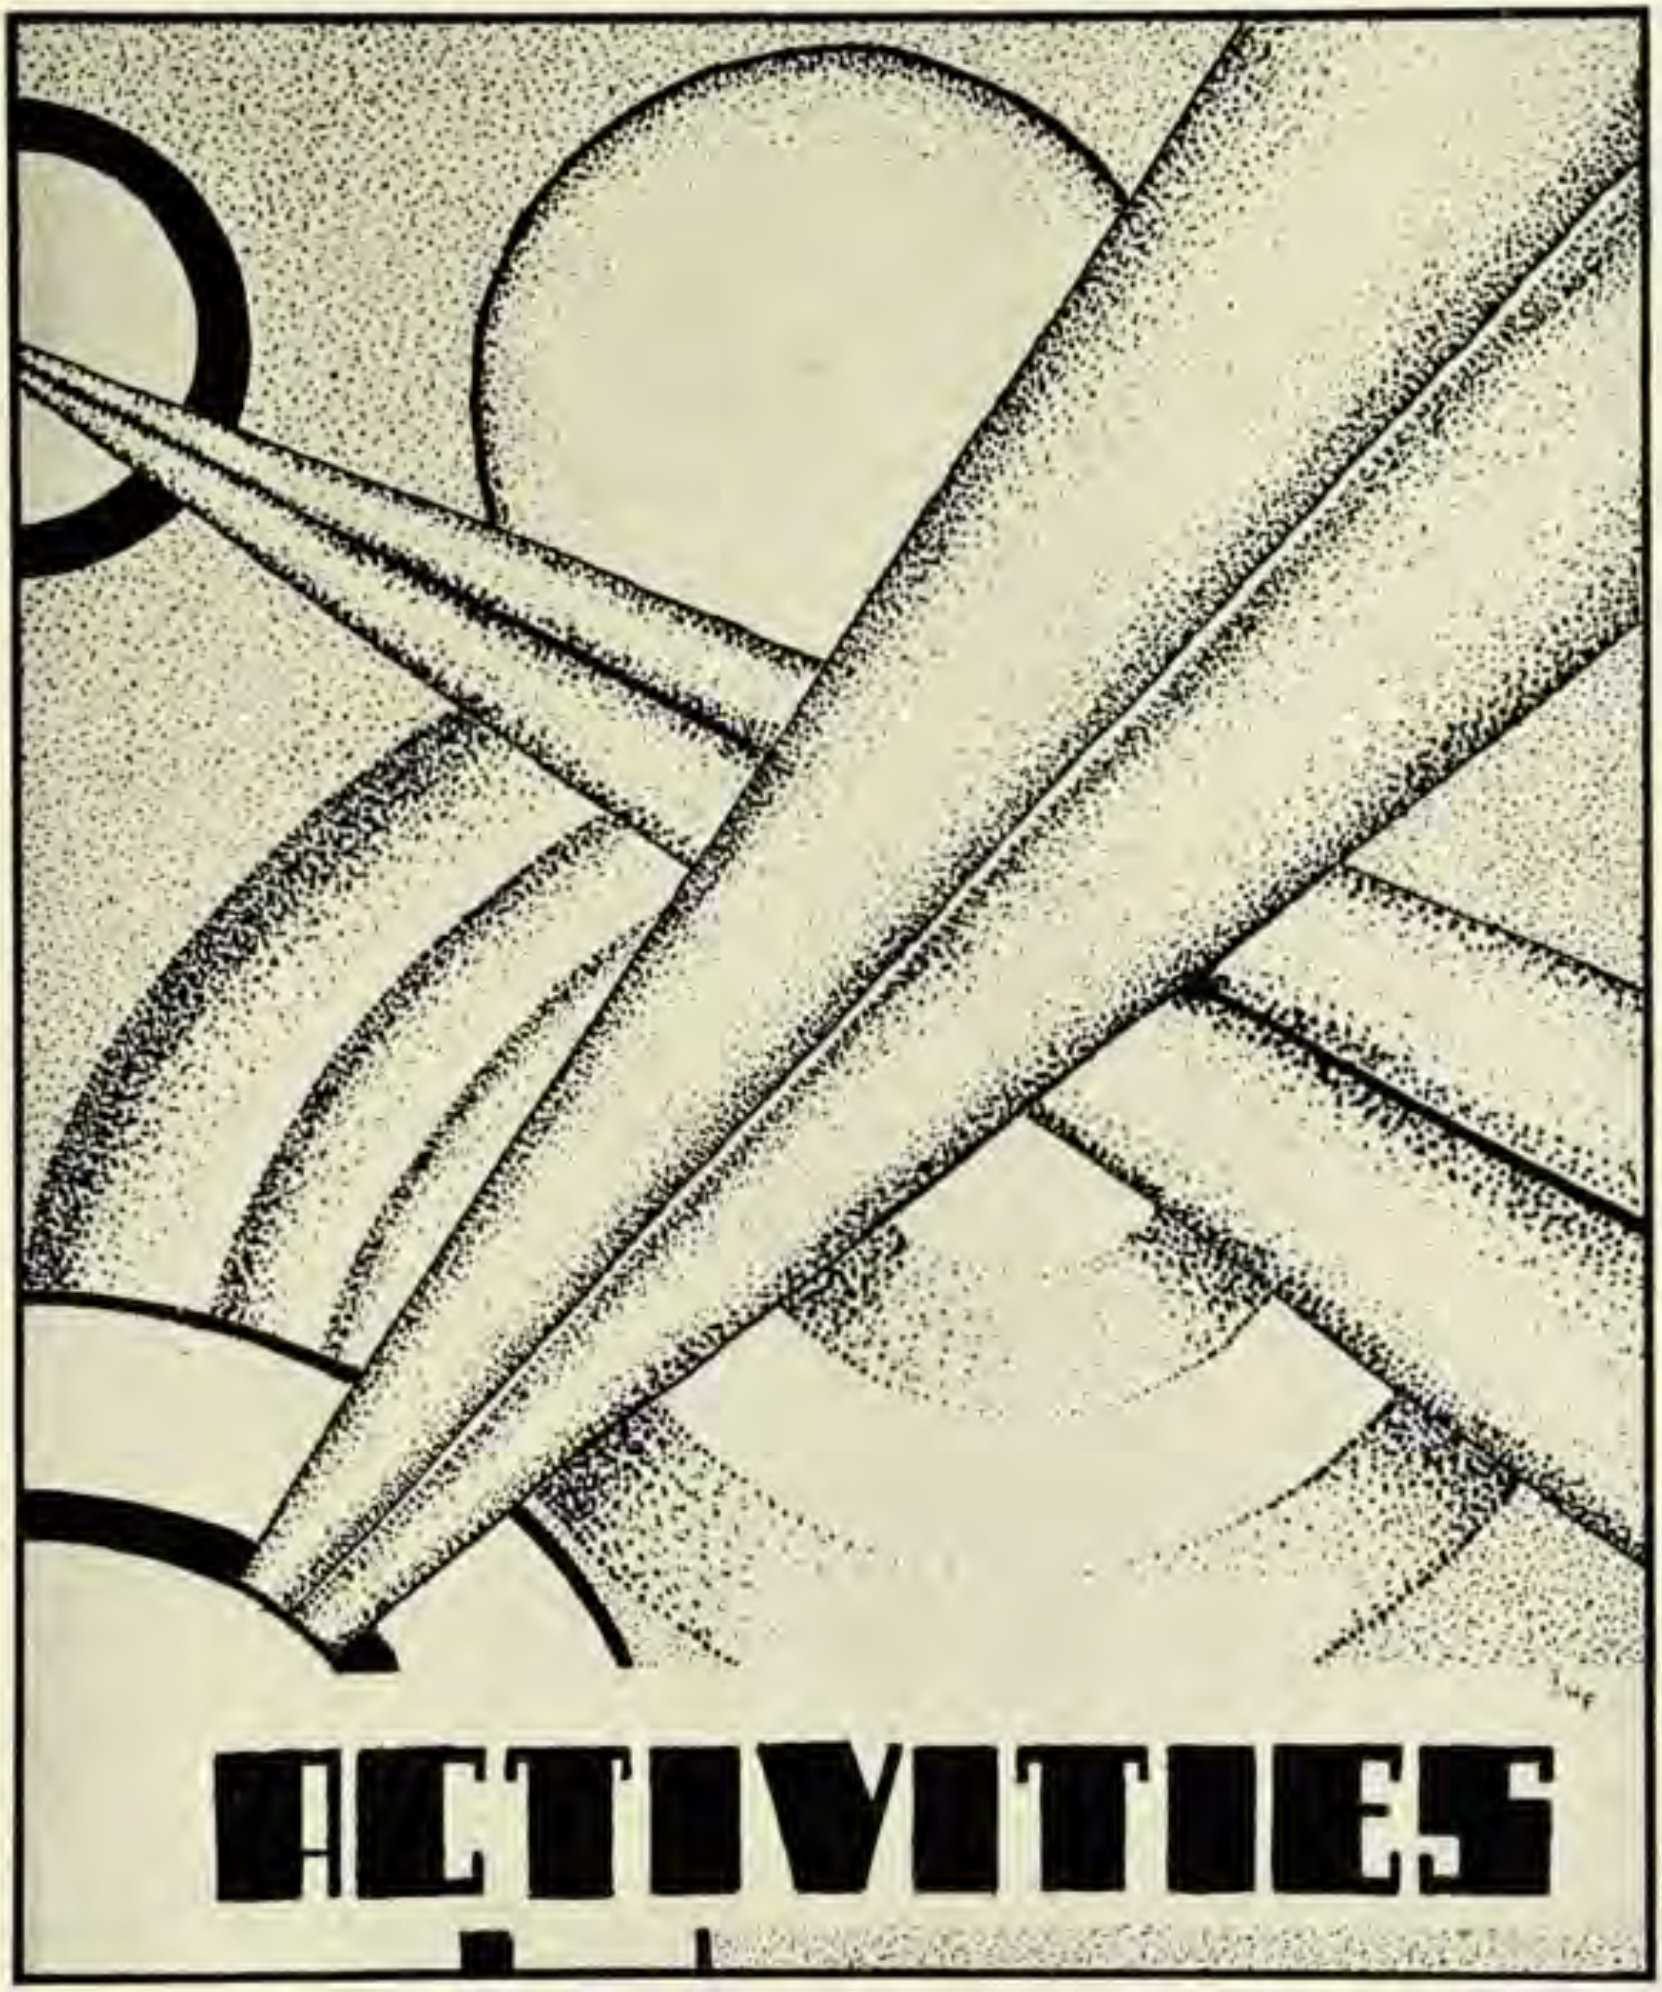
THE Freshman Class entered the High School this year in greater numbers and with smaller statures than of any other Freshman class, impossible though it may seem. The group has not been formally organized, but has carried on the various drives through the separate home rooms. Each person also contributed toward the ad in the "Golden C", and in consequence there is now a surplus of seventy cents in the Freshman treasury. May the amount be increased an hundredfold by the Senior year!



ACTIVITIES

National Honor Society

Sponsor: Mr. Clement

THE aims of the National Honor Society are: "To create an enthusiasm for Scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render Service, to promote Leadership, and to develop Character in the pupils of the school."

One must be in the first quarter of his class in scholarship, and he must have made positive contributions in service to the school to be elected into this Society. He must also have maintained exemplary ideas and attitudes toward all school activities.

The emblem of the Society consists of the keystone and the flaming torch, symbolic of the aims of the Society, also the initials, C. S. L. S. standing for Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Fifteen per cent of the class is elected, five per cent in the Junior year, and ten per cent in the Senior year. The members of the present Senior Class who were elected in the Junior year are:

Dorothy Deller
Isabelle Franke
F. Taylor Frazer
Henrietta Miller
Carol Olofson
Phyllis Stuck

SENIORS:
Gilbert Ashwell
Mollie Comstock
Gertrude Cremerius
Lawrence Larkin
Betty Loveland
Frank May

Treasurer: Gilbert Ashwell

THE Student Council has successfully completed the work of its second year. It is the object of the Council each year to feature one outstanding accomplishment. This year a committee worked out a point system of extra-curricula activities to go into effect next year. The standing committees and special committees functioned smoothly and efficiently in the routine of their respective duties. The Council has received the full cooperaiton of the student body throughout the year.

Vice-President: LOUIS DEMMERLE
Treasurer: WALDO MOWEN
Secretary: ANNE RADLINSKI

THIS year the Red Cross Council started out well by collecting a greater sum in the annual drive than it ever has. Three weeks were set aside for the Thanksgiving basket drive, and enough food was furnished for ten baskets. A sizable amount of money was realized by the advertising dinner on December 8th. This was turned over to the National Children's Fund. In December, with the proceeds of a cake sale, gifts were bought for the disabled soldiers at Millington, and boxes were sent to foreign lands. Three council members attended the tour of the Red Cross building in New York where they saw many interesting things. A party for the children of Bonnie Burns was given on February 17th, by the council, with the aid of the high school students.

The Chess Team

Sponsor: Miss Mifflin

TWO years ago a Chess and Checker Club was organized in the High School. Santiago Porcella was elected president. He presided so successfully that he has been president ever since. The following year the Chess and Checker Club became "The Chess Club." In the first two years of its existence, the club, except by unanimous vote, admitted only members of the present Senior Class.

The Chess Club formed a team in the spring of 1933. The team played Jefferson High School of Elizabeth, each team winning one match. The two schools organized the Union County Chess League which Pingry joined. Eugene Henrich was elected president. In the premier League tournament Jefferson and C. H. S. tied for first place. Jefferson won the play-off. Cranford won the second tournament. In addition to the County League members, our team has played the Union County Junior College. During this season the Student Council recognized the Chess Club as a team.

Captain: Eugene Henrich
Second Board: Santiago Porcella
Third Board: Fred Khouri
Fourth Board: Curtis Culin

Debating Teams

THE subject for debate this year was "Resolved: that the United States should adopt the essential features of the British system of radio control and operation". This is sponsored annually by the High School P. T. A. The Juniors, upholding the negative, carried away the trophy cup and five dollars offered by the P. T. A. Gold medals were award by Wesley A. Stanger and the judges of the debate to Gilbert Ashwell and Walter Holmquest, and a silver medal to Wade Poston for execellence in speaking. A non-decision debate was held between Hillside and the Senior team. The Seniors surpassed their opponents in material and speaking in spite of the fact that there was no decision. Also, the Juniors and the Seniors debated with the Junior and Senior teams respectively of Bound Brook. The Juniors were victorious, while the Seniors lost to their opponents. On the whole, it was considered to be a successful season.

Debating Society

Sponsor: Mr. Wishart

THE Debating Society which is composed of nine members has met on every other Tuesday throughout the year under the able supervision of Mr. Wishart. Every week three topics were selected by Mr. Wishart, and the society selected one for debate. Sides were chosen, then the debaters would prepare their points for a period of about 20 minutes. The speeches were unlimited in time, and there was the usual judging system. Often the discussions lasted from two and a half to three hours. Some of the subjects were: abolishing of the Mid-Year exams; whether a cultural education is a better preparation for life than a vocational education. Then for diversion, a humorous subject was introduced, namely, that a tooth brush is more of a necessity than a cake of soap. The meetings were exceptionally interesting to all concerned.

Vice-President: Mildred Sacarny

UNDER Miss Arthur's direction the Dramatic Club members have learned many things pertaining to dramatics, such as pantomime, facial expressions, and pose. Parts have been taken, acted, and then criticized. Poems were read to help people in learning about different dialects, and many plays were read. They presented a play in assembly called "Making Christmas Happy", and it was a great success. The members are now contemplating going to New York to see "Mary Queen of Scotland", one of the plays which they have read.

Foreign Affairs Club

Sponsor: MR. STEWART

ONE of the aims of the Foreign Affairs Club has been to acquire the art of public speaking. Their theory is that the best way to learn that art is by speaking in public. The club met twice a week and the members gave ten minute talks on various subjects of current affairs. Members of the club were delegated to speak on appropriate topics in assembly each Friday during the year.

Rifle Club

Sponsors: Mr. Schoenwisner, Mr. Clark

President: James Hollowell Secretary-Treasurer: Claribel Frew

THE Rifle Club formed a team within itself this year. During good weather the team practiced on the Union County Range in Kenilworth. At other times they used either the Methodist Church in Cranford or the Elizabeth Armory. Last year a great deal of the club's talent was lost through the graduation of some of its outstanding members. As a result fresh material had to be built up. Two shoulder-to-shoulder matches were held with Summit and one with Pingry. Also postal matches have been conducted with other schools. The club is very grateful to Mr. Clark and Mr. Schoenwisner for the interest and help given them throughout the year.

Just One, Big, Happy Family

ONCE in the light O'DEA in MAY, a young BARBER was walking along the BEACH on his way home from CHURCH. He had managed to leave in the NICK of time . . . just as the PARSONS were taking up the collection. Yet he was not RELLE a tightwad, being a GOODFELLOW of WELCH descent, but as there had come upon him a peculiar WALCZYSZYN sensation which left him dizzy, he had deemed it wiser to take a walk, leaving his FORD behind. The sunlight seemed to warm every KORNER of his being, as each RAY would STUCK in his heart. Suddenly he fell into a HOLLOWELL. A MILLER chanced by who had just finished MOWEN his front lawn, heard the young man CULLEN out, and rescued him with a HOOKE.

The young man made quite a RAUCHFUSS over his rescue, to all of which the MILLER modestly replied, "Go a-LANG, now, it was nothing. To be perfectly FRANK with you, I am not a BRAGAR by nature, but WEIR certainly lucky that I happened to CAMERON just at this time." When he heard that, the young BARBER was FULLER amazement. To hear anyone speaking in such a FRANKE fashion completely surprised him. He was so amazed that all he could murmer in admiration was, "WADMAN, WADMAN!!"

Vice-President: Philip Porcella
Secretary: Mollie Comstock
Treasurer: Phyllis Stuck

THE Athletic Association functioned this year under the guidance of the Student Council. Their chief difficulty was finding ways and means of procuring money with which to run their team. One hundred and ninety season tickets and about ninety football tickets were sold. The A. A. had to finance the project of fencing the football field for each game. The Student Council sponsored a series of basketball games to earn money for spring sports. The faculty team contended with the second team. The score was 25—26, in favor of the second team. Also the Alumni played the Varsity, and the Junior All Stars opposed the second team. The women's faculty team played an interesting game with the girls and the teachers won. The receipts from the games added to the two hundred dollars generously donated by the Board of Education supplied the needed money to finance spring sports.

GIRL'S

Girls' Sports

THIS year the girls have had a varied selection of sports from which most of them have chosen at least one in which to excel. The "Point System", installed last year, has inspired many to work for the awards given in June.

Tennis was chosen by many of the girls. The cup given by the "Wednesday Morning Club" for the Tennis Tournament was won by Annabelle Saunders. This trophy is now in her permanent possession, she having been victor for two consecutive years.

Field Hockey seems to have been the most popular sport of the year. Nearly one hundred aspirants to the inter-class teams came out every Tuesday and Thursday for practice. The Juniors were victorious on the tournament after a hard fight with the other class teams.

The Service Ball Tournament was enjoyed by many. The Juniors, captained by Gail Wild, ran off with all the honors.

Basketball was also selected by a number of girls. This year, instead of having class teams as usual, there were individual teams. The tournament was held in the latter part of February and continued into March.

Hiking was hailed by a large group of girls. Their hikes, covering the surrounding area, were made more interesting by their guides, Miss Eastabrook and Miss Teague.

Riding was popular with many girls. They are preparing for a Riding Exhibition in the spring in which they will be able to display their abilities on horses.

Swimming is a popular sport among the girls and many have taken advantage of the "Y" Pool at Westfield.

Besides all the sports mentioned the girls have found time to play golf, ring tennis, soccer, tether ball, baseball, quoits and rope jumping.

Football

Coach: J. S. WEEKLEY Manager: VICTOR HOOKE

Captain: CHARLES GRIFFITHS

IN SPITE of the fact that graduation took from the gridiron very very capable stars, the footfall team of 1934 goes down in the school's history as another great team.

The team, as a whole, is to be commended for its fine spirit and sportsmanship, which it showed throughout the entire season.

Captain: CHARLES GRIFFITHS

HERE is a team which built on the remnants of the great '32-'33 squad, succeeded in coming through a very difficult season with some fine ball playing. Although unfortunately eliminated in the second round of the state tournament by Madison High, this team is deserving of much praise and respect. For not only was it one of fine spirit and excellent team-work, but one whose record reveals several victories over schools in a higher class than C. H. S.

BASEBALL not only ran parallel in greatness with the other sports of the current school year, but went them all one better by turning in an exceedingly fine record. Although this team was composed almost entirely of last year's veterans, it was hampered considerably in its pitching staff. Not having a single mound-man with varsity experience the team's possibilities looked dark indeed. Nevertheless, two very competent twirlers were uncovered in the persons of Bob Anderson and Joe Delessandris; these two, along with Bruce Russell and John Cordner made a surprisingly capable mound division. Working perfectly when the season opened, the team turned in a slate which is indeed worthy of considerable comment, and Cranford High once more places a great team in its athletic annals.

Track

Coach: Mr. Weekley Manager: Kenderton Barber

Captain: Chester Lang

THE 1934 edition of the Cranford High School track team, although greatly hindered by losses via commencement came through a difficult season with a fine record. The season opened with the largest track turnout in many years, and not only placed a host of applicants in position for competition, but provided an exceedingly large and powerful light-weight division to represent the school. This department has been sadly neglected for several years heretofore.

In its schedule this group met and conquered some of the strongest competition in three states. Not only did the track team turn in a high record, but it overcame the greatest obstacle in any sport—inexperienced men.

Tennis

Coach: Mr. Quaintance Manager: Richard Fullerton

Captain: Howard Harris

THE tennis team has again completed its schedule in fine order. Play-offs were under way for several weeks before a strong and well-controlled team was in hand. In addition to the approved schedule listed below, several of the tennis men journeyed to Princeton University to take part in the State Tournament. The team, coach, and manager are to be congratulated for their splendid cooperation in bringing honors to the school.
