FOREWORD

Today the world is still in a state of crisis. The peace which cost us so dearly must be kept if the world is to survive. We, the class of 1948, dedicate ourselves to the preservation of that peace, with the fervent hope that our contribution will help to make this a happy, prosperous, and peaceful world for the children of tomorrow.

MRS. ANITA SENGSTACK

DEDICATION

To you, Mrs. Sengstack, we dedicate this yearbook. Mere words cannot convey our sincere gratitude for all you have done for us. We hope that as you turn these pages they will remind you of the pleasant hours you spent with us in Cranford High School.

"We sure got a bang out of assemblies!"

Now into assembly we did trot
When they announced music, sweet or hot.

From some our throats were very hoarse
Although through some we slept, of course.

Western Electric did portray
The atom story a novel way.

The day's awards were given out
Many jackets changed about.

Some were happy, some were sad
All in all, they weren't too bad.

IN APPRECIATION

A friend in need is a friend indeed! Certainly Mr. Paul Buonaguro is that friend. When we were without a leader at the beginning of our senior year, he became our sponsor and guided us to the close of a happy high school career. We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Mr. Buonaguro for his friendly counsel.

MR. PAUL V. BUONAGURO

BARBARA WEBSTER

LAWRENCE BROWN

It is indeed an inspiration to realize what a lasting impression Barbara and Larry left upon us. Each of us would indeed feel proud if he could believe that he had contributed as much to the happiness of others as did these two before their lives were so tragically cut short. We will always remember them as friends and classmates.

Special to Golden C

Cranford, N. J. Sept. 26 —
Cranford High School's Class of
'48 had a great reunion on Sept.
25, 1960, at "Diamond Jim"
Kissack's Pheasant Club in New York City. Many class members, now famous, were present at the reunion. Senator Duffield, in from Washington, was there.
Those sudsless soap manufacturers,
Jim Daubert and Dave Akerhielm, also attended, eager to see of their soap in their some performance.

The music was provided by
Lew Goldberg's renowned band.
The vocalists of the evening were the Misses Janet Kelling and
Marie Seidel. Joe Specht, Len
Policekmen "Sippy" Cummings
Dolan, and "Skippy" Cummings attended and guarded the doors to see that no guests left.

Fresh from a two weeks'
engagement at the Stork Club,

CLASS WILL

We, the incomparable class of 1948, being in complete control of our faculty, do hereby make the following bequests:

We, having been the sole support of this venerable institution for six years, leave to the school the eight pillars from our prom to help hold it up.

We will our successful dances to next year's seniors, who seem to need some assistance along these lines.

We will the outcomes of our football games to next year's opponents.

We leave Dick Duffield to Mr. West to help him with his French pronunciation.

We will to our slightly bewildered teachers, our manners, so that they will know how to conduct themselves during future "School Daze."

We, the cheerleading squad, will our backaches and embarrassing moments to next year's squad.

I, Pat Angiolilli, will my slightly longer skirts to Harriet Appar who can make good use of them.

We, Margie Pender, Barbara Kaiser, and Emily Pash, will our front seats in Chemistry class to any industrious juniors who want to keep their marks up by stirring, tasting, and testing Mr. Wilson's concoctions.

We, Andy Manning, Nancy Allen, Janet Rudolph, and Janet Kelting, leave—poor Norman.

We, Joan Van Iderstine and Sue Philipp, will the kick we get out of David MacClary to anyone who can stand for it.

I, Jean Sherrier, will my naturally curly hair to Mr. West.

We, John Lengyel and Joe Yergalonis, will our long talks with Mr. Clement and our many "Vacations" to Bob Krucki and Bill Fonshill who seem to be following close in our footsteps.

We, Ned Rice and Charlie Harker, will our sideburns to anyone who wants to have his girl griping all the time.

We, the "Social Butterflies," will Mrs. Wise to any girls who like to stay home with their books on weekends.

I, David Akerhielm, will—now "drop dead."

I, Louise Thomson, will Jimmy Hall to any sophomore girl under 5 feet 6 inches tall.

I, Ken Reck, will my basketball career to Danny Caruso, who perhaps can add to Mr. Selby's new book, "How to Win Games With a Ouija Board."

We, the "Powder Puffs," will our left-over cigarettes to Marilyn Smid in case she should lose Bill.

We, Bob Grobengieser and Paul Catts, will our horrible and frightening creations to Mr. Wilson so he may hide behind them and spare students that vitriolic smile.

I, Sarah Brooks, will my big brown eyes and seductive smile to Mary Ann Wurth, who has a pretty good line to go with them.

I, Captain Steve Walsh, will my uniform and my free pass on the Hoboken line to anyone who loves to ride the ferry.

We, Margie Lewis, Eileen Bracken, and Jean O'Rourke, will Gracie Johnston our natural red hair so she will no longer have to depend on henna.

We, Tom Andersen, Glenn Bower, John Deacon, Marty Scanlon, and Bob Burton, will our assorted collection of casts, crutches, boards, braces, bandages, and false teeth to Patsy Listo and Gene Denman.

We, the Senior Boys, will ourselves, our souls, and our sacred honors to Mrs. Sengstack in thankful memory of everything she did for us.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC

The Girls' Athletic Association, under the sponsorship of the Misses Jeanette Seftberg and Jean Voorhees, is among the most active organizations in the school. It was organized mainly for the purpose of allowing all girls interested in sports to participate in tournaments with other classes and schools.

Hockey headed the program for this year. Games scheduled with Regional, for Sophomores, Juniors, and the Seniors, were played at Regional, Cranford coming out on top. Due to the cold weather, however, the intramural hockey was not completed, with one more game needed to determine the tournament winner.

An inter-period volley ball tournament followed the hockey program, the tan team of the sixth period coming out on top. Volley ball is rising to a peak of popularity. This is the first time in many years that every girl in the school has participated.

Along with hockey and volley ball many other sports were on the program. Basketball, which is the most popular of all sports, included playdays with Regional, Roselle Park, Roselle and Rahway. These proved interesting and successful. An intramural tournament was also played. Each team played every other team in its class, and then the class winners played an elimination tournament. Tennis, badminton, and baseball are also listed with archery, a sport which will be revived after a few years' respite.

The officers for this year are: President, Ann Abbott; Vice-President, Irene Miller; Secretary, Anne Barbara Catts; Treasurer, Jean Mack.

The annual Alumni Playday was held during the Christmas vacation. Some thirty-five alumni were welcomed. Along with the basketball game, there was entertainment. Refreshments were served. This has been one of the most active G. A. A. seasons in history, considering variety of activity and the number of participants.

FOOTBALL

The 1947 football season was a grim, uphill struggle for Cranford High. Plagued by mishap and injury, the team never lost hope. At the mid-season mark, before the big game with Roselle Park, the loyal fans arranged a pep rally with a giant bonfire, a sound truck, and posters advertising, "Beat Park". The next afternoon the inspired Weekleymen defeated the rival Panthers by a 6-0 score for the year's only win.

The annual Thanksgiving Day classic with Thomas Jefferson found a determined Cranford team leading by a touchdown at the half. But the Jeff boys averted the upset of the season by scoring twice in the second half.

After the annual football dinner, Coach Weekley said a few words that will be long remembered by the '47 team. He praised the team's spirit and determination and, though the season was not very successful, he expressed his regret at seeing it come to its end.

BASKETBALL

With lack of height the deciding factor in the 1947-'48 basketball season, the hard-pressed Blue and Gold cagers failed to register a single win.

The opener with Rahway was a thrilling contest, the local squad losing by one point on a chance play. As the season progressed, the towering height of the opponents foiled Cranford's scoring attempts. Without the necessary backboard control the squad was powerless to stop the onslaught of such teams as Regional and Westfield.

Again the loyal Cranford rooters did not give up the cause but continued to back the team, always anticipating a victory. Toward the end of the season, the team's accurate shooting made up somewhat for their lack of height, and an over-confident Linden five barely edged out the home quintet.

Despite its unimpressive record, the team was invited to the County Tournament, where they lost to Westfield, 74-45.

COUNTY TOURNAMENT

C. H. S.	45	Westfield	74
----------	----	-----------	----

TRACK

Hopes for a real winning season lie with the '48 track men. With many returning lettermen in all departments, the cinder men should make a good showing on the ovals of the county. Under the fine coaching of J. Seth Weekley, the relay men should be whipped into winning combinations as were those of indoor track. Although the squad will miss such outstanding competitors as Weiland, Shell, and Muldrow, a wide variety of contenders should spark the team to a successful season.

Entering the third year of interscholastic competition since the sport was resumed after the war, the Cranford High baseball team can look forward to a successful season, with many lettermen returning. After a year's lapse during which Paul Selby guided the diamond men, Mr. Paul Buonaguro will again take over, placing high hopes on the pitching arm of Wes Wehrenberg and the fielding of Marty Scanlon, John Bilney, and Lyle Burnett.

BASEBALL

CROSS-COUNTRY AND INDOOR TRACK

Under the direction of Antony Terregino, the cross-country team turned in an impressive record. Registering wins over Regional, Rahway, Plainfield and placing third in both the county and state meets, the team was paced by Frevert, O'Connor, Forster, Lane, and Catts.

Many of the fine runners that sparked the cross-country squad joined the new indoor track teams coached by J. Seth Weekley. These speedsters captured the first New Jersey Interscholastic Relay Championship last winter at the Jersey City Armory.

With a five game schedule under its belt, the year's ice-hockey team, co-captained by Locke and Evans, failed to tally a win. Three of the five games were played on the artificial ice of Princeton's Hobey Baker Rink. The team's inexperience with boards accounted for the losses at the hands of Peddie and Lawrenceville. The remaining games were played with Nutley.

Under the supervision of Anthony Terregino the team had one of the most extensive schedules in years.

HOCKEY

GOLF

Under the supervision of Thomas Gambino, golf has again become an interscholastic sport in C. H. S. Practicing at Echo Lake Country Club and playing on courses throughout the county, the team had an extensive schedule last year. Among their opponents were Regional, Plainfield, and Thomas Jefferson. Goldberg, Rearwin, and Doran will be among the returning contenders.

For the second time since 1942 the Blue and Gold tennis team got under way to a speedy season last year. Coached by David Rounds, the net men played teams throughout the county. Each afternoon during the spring found the team practicing at the Springfield Avenue Courts. This year they have hopes for an even heavier schedule.
