MOROTTA FINED $500 IN DEATH OF WOMAN, 74

A fine of $500 was imposed on Ralph J. Morotta of Hopewell as the penalty for causing the death of a 74-year-old Millstone woman, whom he struck with his auto last September in front of her home.

Judge Arthur B. Smith, heeding the jury's recommendation of mercy, sentenced Morotta, an automobile dealer, in Common Pleas Court in Somerville. The victim was Mrs. Alexander Szymanowski, who died in Somerset Hospital last Labor Day, soon after the accident. Morotta was convicted after a three-day trial of a charge of manslaughter.

The trial aroused considerable local interest. The state's case was presented by County Prosecutor T. Girard Wharton and the defendant was represented by Samuel Chiaravalli, District Court judge.

The case was decided entirely on the testimony of expert witnesses who estimated Morotta's car was traveling at a speed of 54 miles an hour at the time of the fatal accident. Character witnesses for the defense numbered some of Hopewell's outstanding citizens and their testimony apparently weighed heavily with the jury, headed by Mrs. Gertrude Arnault of Bound Brook as foreman.

In imposing the fine, Judge Smith said he was taking into consideration the mercy recommendations of the jury which had given long deliberation to the expert testimony and the character of the Hopewell man who is 32 years old and a veteran.

Soriano Details Assessment Setup

That a state commission is now planning a revision of the whole method of tax assessment and that the County Board's experience with a local three-man board of assessors would not cause them to

If the taxpayer, is of the opinion that some one else's assessment is either too high or too low, he can appeal it, too. In either case, he continued, if the taxpayer is dissatisfied with the County Board's decision he can appeal to the State Board of Taxation.

The County Board, comprised of three members is appointed by the governor and must be bipartisan. The State Board, too, Soriano continued, is appointed by the governor and is also bipartisan.

He said that the only Somerset three man board is in Manville. The assessors there are appointed by mayor and council for three-year periods, one man coming up for appointment each year. Soriano stated that at times there has been a mixed board which has functioned in a way that has led to confusion.

However, he emphasized the importance of the study of the whole problem of assessments is now underway. At present, Soriano pointed, an assessment in one community is only a fraction of the true value, while somewhere else the assessments approach the true sales value. Consequently, tax rates are often misleading. He said that Senator Freas Hess had told him a few days ago that a commission is now working to revamp the present set-up, preparatory to a general change in the whole property tax structure.

ANGELO R. SORIANO

recommmend additional three men boards was revealed by Angelo R. Soriano, of Raritan, vice-president of the Somerset County Board of Taxation.

At present, he said, assessments are made by local assessors which are then reviewed by the County Board of Taxation. Should a taxpayer feel that his assessment is unfair, he can appeal to the board.

Blast Harmless

While the blast, touched off by escaping benzol fumes ignited by a heating unit in the Calco plant Thursday evening at 10:35 was heard all over the area actual property damage was limited to a burnt wooden railig, a company spokesman stated.

The incident occurred in an open building where an anthraquinone intermediate—an element used in the making of certain dyes—was being manufactured. Since the building has no sides, the vapors dissipated easily and the loss was cut to a minimum. Adequate safety precautions and prompt action by the company's volunteer fire fighting unit kept the trouble in hand, it was said.

On Oct. 8, 1775, the Continental Congress issued its first order for New Jersey to raise troops for the Army. The order recommended that the colony raise two battalions each having eight companies with 68 privates in each.

Sources of revenues anticipated by the State of New Jersey during the new fiscal year are illustrated above. Budget officials call attention to the proportion of "non-recurring revenues" which will not be available again for the following fiscal year.

Anyplace is "next door" by Long Distance

● If you haven't used Long Distance lately, you're due for a pleasant surprise. New circuits have eased the load so that 95 out of 100 calls go through while you hold the line. Improvements in transmission have made a difference too—you'll find it hard to realize that you're not talking to someone across the table from you.

● Long Distance is a good example of the way your telephone service is constantly increasing both in quality and value. In 1918, a daytime station-to-station call to San Francisco cost $18.50 for three minutes of conversation. By 1928, the cost had been reduced to $9. Today the same type of call costs you just $2.50, exclusive of tax.

The Largest Check in History

Secretary of the Treasury John Snyder holds the check he signed for $7,500,000,000, the largest ever drawn anywhere. It was all part of the complicated hocus-pocus wherein Uncle Sam took the money out of one pocket, the Unemployment Trust Fund, and slipped it into another, the Bureau of Accounts. Reason was to balance accounts at the end of the fiscal year.

VENDULA CHILD RETURNS HOME

Anthony Vendula, Jr., 67 Anderson street, Raritan's "blue baby," returned home Thursday. The ailing youngster had been taken by his mother to the John Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, for examination and possible operation on the preceding Saturday.

The boy underwent intensive examination by the John Hopkins physicians, who have mastered the difficulties involved in the delicate operation, which takes from four to six hours.

Following examination, the Vendula child was sent back to Raritan to await his turn in the long line of children needing this operation. He is scheduled to be operated on next May. After his examination started early last Tuesday, which lasted throughout Wednesday morning, an immediate operation was thought undesirable.

This is the second trip to this Hospital for young Anthony. Two years ago he had gone there for examination, but an operation was postponed at that time too.

Before the establishment of the first New Jersey school in 1864, most of the education was carried on by what we now call private tutors. These schoolmasters were bought and sold like horses and cows and often their treatment was harsher than the punishment given Indians or slaves.

A Porch Picnic

The heat of summer need not be a deterrent to your activities as a hostess. Informality is the keynote to summer entertainments, so why not have a picnic on the porch? If you arrange a buffet table, you'll free yourself of some of the arduous duties of a hostess and you can be a guest at your own party. If you have an electric roaster, use it, and also press into service any table broilers, waffle irons and grills you may have.

Menu

- Meat Loaf
- Oven Browned Tomatoes
- Potato Chips
- Celery and Olives
- Hot Biscuits
- Quick Cocoa Cake with Meringue Topping
- Cool Beverage

Meat Loaf

- 1 1/2 lb. ground beef
- 1/4 tsp. pepper
- 1 tsp. dry mustard
- 1/2 lb. ground pork
- 1/2 cup condensed tomato soup
- 1 onion
- 1 egg, well beaten
- 1 cup oatmeal
- 2 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup water

Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Pack firmly in loaf pan (3 1/2" x 8 1/2"). Bake at 375° F. for 1 hour. If desired, the remaining tomato soup may be heated and served as gravy. Serves 8.

Quick Cocoa Cake

- 1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 tsp. double acting baking powder
- 1/2 cup vegetable shortening
- 1/2 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
- 1/4 tsp. salt
- 1 cup sour milk or buttermilk
- 1/4 tsp. soda
- 2 eggs
- 1/2 cup break-fast cocoa
- 1 tsp. vanilla

Sift flour once; measure into sifter with baking powder, salt, soda, cocoa and sugar. Have shortening at room temperature; mix or stir just to soften. Sift in dry ingredients. Add brown sugar. Add 1/2 of the milk, eggs, and vanilla. Mix until all flour is dampened; then beat 1 minute. Add remaining milk, blend, and beat 1 minute longer.

Turn into 10" x 10" x 2" pan. Pan should be greased, lined on bottom with waxed paper and greased again. Bake at 350° F. about 45 minutes, or until done. Spread Meringue Topping over top of cake.

Note: To sour fresh milk, add 1 tsp. vinegar or lemon juice to 1 cup milk; let stand in warm place for a few minutes.

Mix cake by hand or at low speed of electric mixer. Count only actual beating time. Or count beating strokes. Allow at least 100 full strokes per minute. Scrape bowl and beater or spoon often while mixing.

Oven Browned Tomatoes

- 4 medium sized tomatoes
- 2 tbsp. finely chopped onion
- 3 tbsp. melted shortening
- 2 tbsp. finely chopped green pepper
- Bread crumbs
- 2 tbsp. lemon juice

Cut tomatoes in half (do not peel). Dip cut edge in melted shortening (butter or margarine), then in bread crumbs. Arrange in shallow pan, face up. Sprinkle with onion, green pepper and lemon juice. Do not cover. Bake at 375° F. for 1 hour. Serves 8.

Meringue Topping

- 2 egg whites
- 1/4 cup chopped nut meats or cocoanut
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup shredded cocoanut
- 1/4 tsp. almond extract

Beat egg whites and salt until foamy. Add sugar, 2 tsp. at a time, beating after each addition until sugar is blended. After all sugar is added, continue beating until mixture will stand in peaks. Add flavoring. Spread lightly over hot cake in pan and sprinkle with nuts or cocoanut. Bake at 350° F. 15 minutes or until lightly browned. Makes enough topping for 10" x 10" x 2" cake.

Note: This topping may also be baked in moderate oven, 375° F. 10 minutes or until lightly browned.

YOUR GARDEN

Gardeners who like to have geraniums and other flowering plants in the house during the winter should be acting now. Of course, plants can be brought to flower in the house only if a window that permits exposure to direct sunlight practically all day is available. Nothing less than 3 hours will yield any flowering results.

The best plan to follow is, to root cutting of flowering plants such as geranium, fuchsia and winter flowering begonias within the pots and as soon as new shoots develop, pinch them back to make the plants more compact. When the small plant has filled the pot with roots, repot in the next larger pot. Plants in too large pots will not grow as well as those brought along as suggested.

Satisfactory blooming of some of the annuals may be developed in the same way. Sow seeds of ageratum, petunia, alysum, Browallia speciosa by the middle of August. Sow plenty of seeds so the best plants can be selected.

Pot the seedlings, as many as you will need, and keep them growing by repotting as indicated by the root development. Pinch these back to make the plants bushy. If you have especially fine specimens of these in the garden, cuttings may be rooted.

Each plants, freshly rooted from cuttings or grown from seed will give much more pleasing results than old plants dug from the garden at the approach of frose.
