

SUICIDE FOUND

Frank Tugya of 583 Hamilton St., walking his dogs in the fields and woods behind the Baier property off Dover Ave., found the body of a man hanging by his necktie on the limb of a small tree Sunday. Trooper John Genz of the New Brunswick Barracks, found an address in the dead man's wallet bearing the address of William Lakatos of 250 Somerset St. Upon investigation Mr. and Mrs. Lakatos identified the man as Sandor Kis, an itinerant worker, who had been a friend in Hungary. He is survived by a wife and five children in Hungary, but police have been unable to locate relatives here.

Confer Grange Degrees

First and second degrees were conferred on the following candidates at a meeting of Somerset Grange No. 7 held in the Franklin Park School on Wednesday evening, Oct. 20: Miss Margaret Lesko, Mrs. Ida Carmen, Mrs. Joseph Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Riddering, Miss Kate Riddering, Daniel Ewers, Miss Shirley DeCecco, Mr. and Mrs. William Gulick, and Mr. and Mrs. James Hance.

Robert Masker, master, conducted the business meeting. A number of guests from the Millstone Valley Grange attended.

Third and fourth degrees will be conferred on candidates Wednesday evening.

A pot luck supper is slated for Nov. 12 at the schoolhouse, and the general public has been invited to attend. Mrs. Joseph Patko is chairman and her assistants will be Mrs. Byron Slichter and Mrs. Julia Lorenz.

Mrs. Hans Hartmann, Mrs. Reno Pellichero and Mrs. Bert Pellichero were in charge of refreshments at the meeting.

FIRE SIREN STOLEN

Strong winds Sunday night blew down a pole which supported the siren of the 2nd district Volunteer Fire Company. Firemen discovered the damage Monday morning but were unable to make repairs at once. Monday evening it was found that parts had been removed from the siren leaving only the motor. The police are investigating.

CIGARETTE STARTS FIRE

The Middlebush Volunteer Fire Company was called out Thursday morning to extinguish a blaze which threatened to burn off a cornfield and spread to buildings on the Malfatt property near the Somerset Dairy Farms. The fire was controlled by noon, with only a partial loss of the field cover. Evidence indicated that the fire had started from a carelessly discarded cigarette.

Collect Clothing For Europe's Kids

Middlebush Brownie Scouts, Troop 2, are collecting children's clothing to be sent to children of Europe. At their meeting Tuesday they decided to share the money received from the sale of Girl Scout cookies, calendars and dues in order to purchase clothing to complete the kits. The remainder of the money will go toward handcraft materials and entertainment for the troop.

The kits will contain clothing for children wearing sizes 4 to 14. All need jackets, coats or sport suits, sweaters, underwear, mittens, gloves, warm caps, pajamas, scarfs, new wash cloths and toys.

Sees Dewey Winner

Dr. John George, professor of political science at Rutgers, addressed the Men's Club at a meeting in the chapel of the Middlebush Reformed Church Monday evening, giving a forecast of the coming election. Dr. George predicted that Dewey will win and that the Senate will have a Democratic majority by one or two members. In 1944 Dr. George's predictions were 92 per cent accurate, a better score than the Gallup poll. Prof. George is sidestepping figure predictions this year "due to imponderable factors."

Nursery Directors Review Facilities

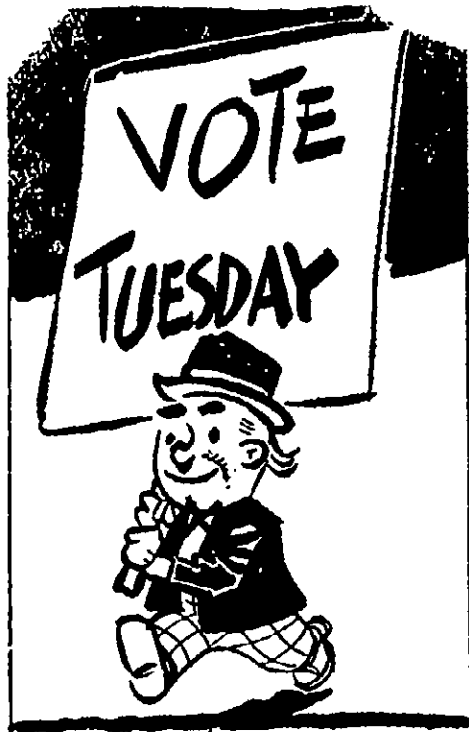

The Board of Directors of the Middlebush Nursery School, meeting at the home of Mrs. Lyle Hagmann Wednesday evening, reviewed facilities and equipment of the school, comparing them to the standards specified by the State Commission of Education. In all respects the school is being maintained well above the State requirements although more cabinet space is desirable.

Mrs. Elaine Weinstock, director, reported attendance figures which indicated that absenteeism will allow for additional enrollments. It was also agreed that well adjusted children could be admitted on a part-time basis if attending at regular intervals. Parents would be charged at the rate of $1.00 per scheduled morning. Members of the board include Mrs. Hagmann, president; Mrs. George Cuddy, treasurer; Mrs. Louis Sambol, secretary; Dr. James Lynch, representative of Public School system; Dr. Irving Silber, doctor; Mrs. Norman Yingling, nurse; Mrs. Harry Layton, parents representative; Mrs. Lenne Johnston, chairman house-keeping committee; and Mr. Henry Stein, chairman maintenance and repair.

The next regular meeting of the directors cooperating in the nursery school will be a supper meeting in November at the home of Mrs. Anatol Murad. A study session on some phase of pre-school education will be held following the supper.

MIDDLEBUSH CHURCH NEWS

Dr. William Weber, professor of Religious Education at the New Brunswick Theological Seminary, was guest pastor at the Middlebush Reformed Church Oct. 24. Tuesday evening a congregational meeting was held in the church chapel. Church repairs were considered and the committee seeking a new preacher submitted a report. The Ladies Aid plans a food sale and will give a presentation of "Aunt Perusha's Album" Nov. 5.

FIREMEN BUSY

Both trucks of the Community Volunteer Fire Company No. 1, the ambulance and the truck from the East Franklin Fire Company answered a call at 7:10 a. m. Thursday to the home of Russell Watson on Easton Ave. The fire was located in the Watson garage. The car was towed out of the garage and the fire extinguished but the inside of the car was completely burned. The inside of the garage was also scorched.

The trucks also answered a fire call to the Black Diamond Bar on Oct. 6, when the oil burner caught fire. While the fire was being put under control one of the firemen was severely scratched by a rat. First aid was administered on the scene as the ambulance now rolls with the trucks on all calls. William Schiltz of Clyde Lane was an ambulance transport case from Middlesex Hospital to his home, Oct. 11. A member of the fire company, Pat Giannotto, 36, of 335 Hillcrest Ave., suffered a heart attack while at the Rutgers-Princeton game Oct. 18. The ambulance crew transported him from Princeton Hospital, where he had been taken for emergency treatment, to his home, Richard Weingart, Cedar Grove Road, Middlebush, was transported to St. Peter's hospital Oct. 21. The 19-month-old boy had fallen on broken glass and badly cut his face and bridge of his nose.

Local Contests To Draw Big Vote

Go to the polls Tuesday to cast their votes for the election of President, Vice-President, U. S. Senator, one member of House of Representatives, one County Clerk, one member of the Board of Chosen Freeholders, and one Township Committeeman. The registration by district follows: District 1, 525; District 2, 650; District 3, 800; District 4, 850; District 5, 975; district 6, 600.

Local political vacancy is limited to the opening which will be left when Russell Watson retires from the township committee. The post is being contested by Joseph Tackas, Ambrose St., a Republican, and Charles Gobac, Democrat. The local Republican campaign is being conducted on a conservative basis. The Democratic party has plastered the township with many posters and has been a bit more active.

The Republican candidate, who lives in the heavily populated West Brunswick area, is an accountant associated with the firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Co. of New York City. He is a graduate of New Brunswick High and Pace Institute. He attended N. Y. U., Rutgers and Northwestern Universities.

Tackas is upholding the same platform he gave in the Spring, calling for a widespread road improvement and expansion program, a well-rounded recreation program aimed at curbing juvenile delinquency and the proposal that the State be urged to continue the program to clean up and beautify the Delaware and Raritan Canal and to develop it so that it may be used as a source of industrial water. He is also in favor of giving considerable attention to the problem of potable water and sewage disposal in congested areas of the township. Tackas believes that industry should be urged to locate in the township so that we may rely upon it to assume a portion of the extra revenue required so that these advances may be carried out, rather than again taxing the already overburdened taxpayer." He also proposes asking the state for additional financial aid on the road program.

Gobac's Platform

Gobac feels that Franklin Township can be made a better place in which to live and the Green St. candidate makes the following suggestions for accomplishing this: (1) the township committee should work impartially for the good of the whole township; (2) a detailed public accounting of all expenditures should be regularly made and free discussion of all township matters should be encouraged; professional advice should be sought when necessary. (3) Vigorous efforts should be made to induce industry to locate in the areas designated as industrial. New industries, of course, mean some help with our taxes. If it also brings employment, water and sewage disposal to our congested areas so much the better. (4) Citizen participation in programs for welfare of the township should be encouraged.

Bill Easton, president of the Taxpayer's Association, states that he is "watching the contest with interest" but cannot make any statement except that the Taxpayer's Association is committed to a neutral stand publicly. Many members of the association support Gobac privately.

In a letter dated Oct. 27 and addressed "Dear Citizen of Franklin Township," the Franklin Township Association for Better Government attacks the local government as a "family affair". It further states that the association is a non-partisan political organization, backing in each primary and election the candidate they feel best qualified. Last spring in the primaries they backed the losing Republican nominee. They now endorse Gobac.

Fish Chowder for Hallowe'en

MUGFULS OF CHOWDER MAKE GAY "SPIRITS"

When the ghosts ring your doorbell on Hallowe'en and greet you with "Trick or TREAT!" make it a Treat with a big mug of flavory Chowder . . . and sandwiches . . . and favors. So good for those spry, sheet-covered ghosts bent on mischief.

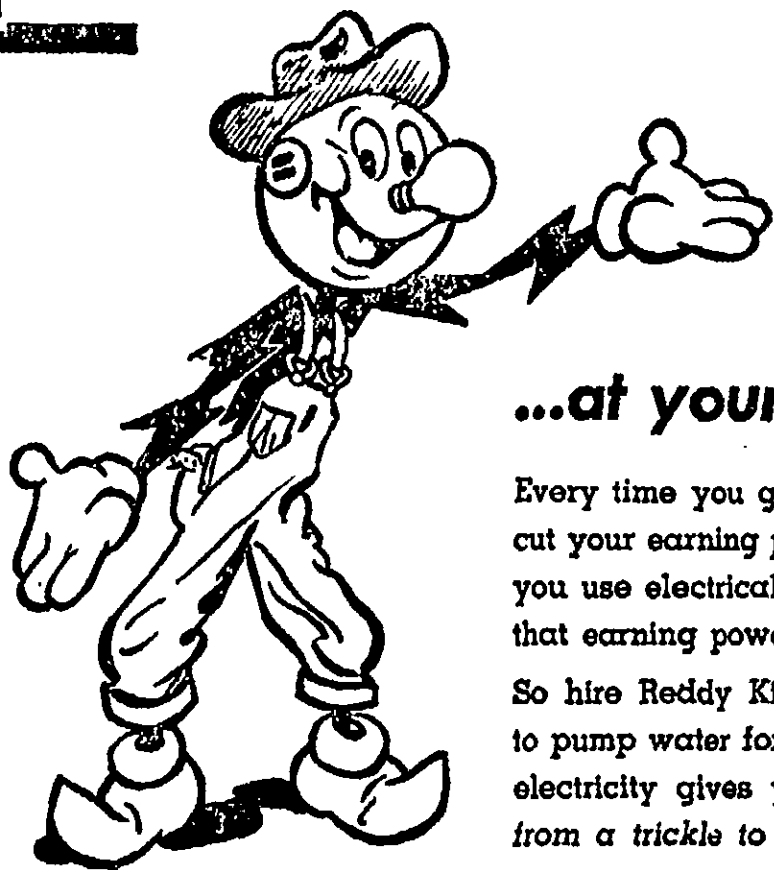

Grownups, too, love Fish Chowder, the easiest way to please families on frosty evenings — the most inspired way to treat guests who drop in at Hallowe'en for an informal evening. Chowder is easy to make, inexpensive and satisfying, packed with delicious flavor. Serve Fish Chowder at Hallowe'en or anytime — here's the recipe — clip it now for your Special Treat file.

HALLOWE'EN FISH CHOWDER

- 2 lbs. filets of haddock
- 3 slices salt pork, diced
- 4-5 medium potatoes, cubed
- 1 medium onion, cubed
- 1 qt. milk
- 1 tbs. butter
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Soda Crackers

Fry out the pork, and brown the onion in same fat. Meantime, cover fish well with water (about 1 quart) and boil about 20 minutes. Drain, saving the liquor in which potatoes are put and boiled. When potatoes are tender, add the flaked fish, onion, milk, salt, pepper and butter. Let come to a boil once. Serve very hot, garnished with diced pork cubes, with pilot or other plain soda crackers. Serves 8.

20th Century President

The election of Thomas E. Dewey on November 2 will make the New York Governor the first President to have been born since the turn of the Twentieth Century. As such, his background is one that has a familiar ring to millions of youthful Americans. No one thing in it pointed to the Presidency. And yet, as Americans like to think, everything did.

Tom Dewey grew up in a small town. He played football and made the debating team in high school. He sold the Saturday Evening Post. He worked in a drug store, in his father's printing shop and on a nearby farm.

In college, Tom Dewey made a good part of his own expenses. He took parts in singing. There he met and later married an attractive young voice teacher from Oklahoma named Frances Hutt.

The Dewey family album contains the expected stock of boyhood photographs. In one of them, 11-year-old Tom Dewey is dressed, perhaps prophetically, as "Uncle Sam." Above is Tom Dewey's baby picture.

Tom Dewey's mother, Ann Thomas Dewey, still lives in Owosso, Michigan, where she was born. At the time of Tom Dewey's birth, she and her husband, George Martin Dewey, Jr. (who died in 1927) were living over a store.

Tom and Frances Dewey have two sons—Tom, Jr., 15, and John, 12. Their home-life today follows the same simple patterns of Tom Dewey's own boyhood. They spend as much time as possible on the Dewey farm at Pawling, N. Y. They hold family slings and go to church as a family group.

The Dewey farm at Pawling is run on a partnership basis by Tom Dewey and Ralph Lyman. The farm, like the state government that Dewey heads, is run efficiently and makes a modest profit. Tom Dewey still remembers how to milk a cow—and likes to—from his boyhood days as a farm hand.

Franklin Park

The Parent-Education study group of the Franklin Park Parent-Teacher Association held their first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. I. J. Walner. The following attended: Mrs. Edward Skipworth, chairman; Mrs. Louis Schubert, Mrs. Joseph Geng, Mrs. Robert Gingen, Mrs. Reno Pellichero, Mrs. Vance Dunn, Mrs. Herbert Anderson, Mrs. Clifford Hardy, and Mrs. Edison Novotny. The next meeting of the group will be held at the home of Mrs. Bruce Armstrong next Wednesday evening at 8:30 p. m.

An executive meeting of the Franklin Park Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the school on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., instead of Tuesday, which is Election Day.

Final plans have been completed for serving lunch and supper to the general public on Election Day in the school. The luncheon and supper are being sponsored by the Franklin Park Parent-Teacher Association and Mrs. Louis Schubert and Mrs. Edward Stevens are co-chairmen.

The Franklin Park Volunteer Fire Co. will meet next Monday evening at the home of Augustus B. Vliet of Evelyn Ave.

Mrs. John Gardner left for her new home near Clinton last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson of Ten Mile Run, celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary Oct. 17, and their family tendered them a surprise party that afternoon.

Miss June Getty, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schneider, has joined the Waves.

Bazaar in Kingston

The Woman's Auxillary of the Presbyterian church in Kingston, will hold a Bazaar on Wednesday from 1 to 9 P. M. in the church social room. Mrs. Charles W. Stults, president, has appointed the following chairmen for the various booths: Baked goods, Mrs. Herbert Hinkel; candy, Mrs. Wesley Snook; fancy work, Mrs.

James Conover; gifts, Mrs. Robert Luck; foods, Mrs. Clifton Snedeker; white elephant, Mrs. William Voorhees and refreshments, Miss Helen Snook. The bazaar is one of the activities planned by the auxillary to raise funds for the completion of the remodeling of the church kitchen. Miss Helena Stults was hostess at the October meeting of the auxillary at her home last week.

Meet the Grand Champ

This glamorous bovine, Col. Raleigh Goldust, is a two-time winner. She was picked grand champion of the All-American Junior Jersey Show in Columbus, O., and also was awarded a first-prize blue ribbon in the 5-year-old class competition. Posing with the colonel is Peggy Mae Sample, 13, of Rutherford, Tenn.

KINGSTON CHURCH BANQUET

The annual Mother and Daughter Banquet of the missionary society of the Kingston Presbyterian church was held Thursday evening in the church dining room and was well attended. Mrs. Herbert Hinkel, president, presented Malcom Scott, a student of the Westminster Choir college of Princeton, who rendered several solos, and Seizallah Larndy, a student of the Princeton Theological Seminary, whose home is in Iran. Mr. Larndy told the group of his desire at the completion of his seminary course to return to his native country and preach Christianity. Also present at the banquet were Dr. and Mrs. E. Van Dyke Wight, who have returned from a trip to Hasting, Neb., where they attended the 75th anniversary of Hasting college. Dr. Wight served as pastor at Hasting from 1897 to 1902 and as president from 1902 to 1907.

It's all part of your Telephone Service

• Ever see telephone poles inside a building—with telephone men working on them while standing on the floor? We have them here in New Jersey—and they play a big part in giving you good telephone service.

• Along with other types of telephone equipment these poles are located in one of our telephone schools. Every day you'll find groups of telephone people in the "classrooms" learning the latest methods for doing work skillfully and safely.

• Some of these students are youngsters in the telephone business—some are experienced telephone men. But they're all there for the same reason: To get the training and retraining necessary to assure efficient operation and maintenance of New Jersey's telephone system.
