

Bound Brook Trust Company May Locate Township Branch Office on Hamilton Street Ready For Action

BLATE DRIVE — Members of the East Millstone First Aid Squad are getting ready to conduct their annual drive for funds next month. Anyone of the above may be knocking at your door seeking a contribution to their worthy cause. They are: Front, L-r, John P. Bourin, Mary Erdek, Betty Hart, Mary Hule and Walter Harris; rear, Capt. Thomas Hule, Joseph Erdek, Jack Burris, Earl Jensen, Bob Soeher and Ted Hellyar. Other Squad members are Marge Runge, Richard Lasicki and Jack Hart. The Community First Aid Squad will also conduct a drive for funds next month.

Although no official word has come from the Bound Brook Trust Company as yet, indications were strong that the bank would establish a branch office in the township. If state authorities give permission.

Previous efforts to establish a bank here were thwarted by the state, but it is now believed, if an established bank backs a branch here, it will be accepted. Mayor James G. Maher revealed that the bank is considering a township branch.

THE BOUND BROOK bank has taken an option on property owned by the Baier estate on Hamilton St. and Baier Ave., diagonally across from the Community Firehouse.

While admitting that an application for permission to operate the branch has been filed with the N. J. Department of Banking and Insurance, a spokesman at the bank said he could not release further information.

He said the bank had been requested by the state agency to withhold any information on its application.

The Baier property has a 350-foot frontage on Hamilton St. and is approximately 400 feet deep. Maher said he understands that should permission be granted, the bank would have a drive-in service and adequate off-street parking facilities.

Maier said he and members of the Township Committee have been working on the project for six months.

"We have felt the need for banking facilities here for some time and would certainly welcome the Bound Brook company," Maier said.

The spokesman at the bank said he had no idea how long it would take to get an answer on the application, perhaps as long as two months.

THE SITE of the proposed bank now contains the deserted Baier house, a 2½-story frame structure. Presently, the Bound Brook company would build a new structure should it obtain approval of its request.

Opening of a bank on Hamilton St. would go hand-in-hand with the erection of post office facilities in the same area, said Maier.

Election Turn-out Small, Party Men Victors In Twp.

Counting

The regular organization candidates in both parties were victors Tuesday in a primary election which was notable for voter apathy and an extremely complicated ballot. There was no contest at the township level.

Charles Sierra, only candidate for the Republican nomination for township committee, polled 839 votes, second only to President Eisenhower, who in the Republican presidential preference vote, was unopposed.

FRANCIS C. BUCKLEY, candidate for the Democratic nomination, received 207 votes. Probably because of the confusing nature of the ballot, few Democrats who voted for Sen. Kefauver's delegates, who took a sound lacing, went on to vote for the organization Democrats at the county, municipal and district levels, which cut down their totals substantially.

June Difede, Twp. Brownie, Named District Cookie Queen

Brownie and Girl Scout Troops of Pine Grove Manor School took top honors at the Cookie Coronation held in the Rutgers gymnasium Saturday.

HIGHEST HONOR went to June Difede of Brownie Troop 68 who was crowned queen of District 1. Princesses crowned were Andrea Brekke from Brownie Troop 68; Marie Donovan and Joyce Shulas ladies-in-waiting were: Bernadette from Girl Scout Troop 79.

Attending the above girls are Scott and Carol Joyce of Brownie Troop 68; Mary Lou Green and Dorisgene Bonopone of Girl Scout Troop 79; also Sandra Bailey, Georgia Spiro and Betty Litrakis from Brownie Troop 17.

Salk Vaccine Arrives, Plan Clinics Here

Franklin Township has been allotted 1,859 units of Salk Polio vaccine. Health Officer Stephen C. Reid told the RECORD Tuesday.

4-H Members Plan Exhibits For County Fair, Aug. 10-11

The directors of the Somerset County 4-H Fair Association at the meeting Thursday set today as the deadline for advertising in this year's Fair Premium Booklet. All 4-H leaders and members who have obtained advertisement are requested to mail or bring them to the 4-H office so that the book may be sent to the printer.

Plans were also discussed for the Friday evening program at the fair. Dates for this year's fair are August 10 and 11, and the fair will be held at the fair grounds in Par Hills.

CLUB MEMBERS will exhibit the sewing, baked goods, flowers, vegetables and crafts made in this year's club work and will also show their rabbits, poultry, sheep, goats, beef and dairy cattle.

Directors of the Fair Association who are working on plans for the fifth annual county 4-H Fair are Myron Wengryn, Somerville, president; E. L. Boardman, Ber-ardsville, vice-president; Mrs. Stanley Voorhees, Skillman, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. C. O. Vickery, Middlebush; Isaac Stryker, New Brunswick RD 3; John H. Starks, Somerville RD 4, and George Wengryn, Somerville RD.

SOMERSET COUNTY 4-H leaders have been requested to let the 4-H office know the names of demonstrators, the titles and length of time of demonstrations for their clubs by today. Most of the demonstrations will be scheduled for Friday evening, April 27, at the Johns-Manville Research Center as three rooms and night Judges are available that night.

Friday evening, May 4, at the County Administration Building, Somerville, will be reserved for those demonstrators who cannot perform on April 27. Ratings will be announced and ribbons presented at the end of each evening's program of demonstrations.

Club members and leaders are advised to watch next week's paper to find out on which date they will be presenting their demonstrations.

Lay Advisory Committee To Hear Nominations

The Lay Advisory Committee will receive a report of its nominating committee at a meeting to be held Tuesday at Middlebush School at 8 p.m.

Officers will be elected at the May meeting, according to Robert Courtney, acting chairman, who took over the leadership of the committee on the resignation of Chairman Walter Campbell who was appointed to the Board of Education.

Set 3 Dates For Free Rabies Shots

Dates have been set for administration of rabies shots. They will be given free to all dogs in that township on three successive Saturdays, May 26, June 2 and June 9, at the Township Hall from 3 to 5 p. m.

Health Officer Stephen C. Reid, in announcing the dates, commented that he had done everything possible to set dates which would make it possible for people to bring in their dogs.

"The last time the rabies shots were given, less than a hundred of the township's 1,400 odd dogs were brought in," he said.

"We are going all out this time to give people who work during the weekdays a chance to avail themselves of this service."

Township Talk

We have a hunch that one reason the voters stayed away from the polls in droves was that the long and complicated ballot scared them off. It was interesting to look at the election figures and see how the further along the line they got, the smaller the vote was. Apparently some of the people who did come out to vote just get tired along the way and quit pulling levers.

Lots of complaints were made about the failure of voters to get their sample ballots, in many cases, until election day or the day before, if ever there was a time when people needed to get their ballots ahead of time and study it, this was it.

Members of the Election Boards of all eight districts mailed the ballots out at least a week before election day. It certainly shouldn't take more than a couple of days for the mail to be delivered from Middlebush to the New Brunswick RFD routes. There certainly ought (Continued on Page 8)

No Quorum, Zoning Board Delays Meet

Most of the members of the Board of Adjustment had other fish to fry last night, and not enough of them attended the regular monthly meeting, for which two hearings had been advertised, to provide a quorum.

Chairman W. W. Forbes found himself presiding at an empty table, and announced to the 22 people who had come to township hall to sit in on the proceedings that the meeting was postponed until next Thursday evening.

THE AUDIENCE did not leave immediately but gathered around the Board table to inspect blueprints of the Carragher Development Company's plans for a housing project between Franklin and Henry Streets.

The Carragher Company has an application before the Board of Adjustment for a variance to build low cost houses on lots smaller than the legal minimum size, seeking to use the smaller lots on the grounds that they will furnish both city water and city sewage disposal.

The other advertised hearing was on the application of the Bunker Hill Realty Company for a variance to correct a surveyor's error made in the original subdivision of property on Crescent Drive.

Philatelic Society to Attend FIPEX

The Franklin Philatelic Society will attend the FIPEX, Fifth International Philatelic Exhibition, in two groups, April 28-29.

The event, held every 10 years in this country, will be held at the new Coliseum, Columbus Circle, New York City, and will occupy two full floors.

Four items to be issued at the FIPEX show by the U. S. government include a souvenir sheet with enlarged reproductions of the three and eight cent stamps of the new regular issue showing the Statue of Liberty; a three cent stamp showing the Coliseum; a six cent air mail envelope and a two cent post card.

Members of the Franklin Philatelic Society, who will attend the exhibit April 28, are: Frank J. Amorson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Raff, Mrs. Ann Sierotowicz and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Gyures, Frank Bader, James Segal, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. George Luke and son, Joseph Kratz, William Benke, Michael Sansone and Victor Calvo.

Attending April 29 will be: Mr. and Mrs. William Easton, Harry Hartmann, Peter Besic, John Giza, Dr. George Charly V. Hansen, Joseph Kratz, William Benke, Bill Kein and Miss Josephine Cauder.

PTA Nominating Comm. Named

A nominating committee to present a slate of officers for next year was named by the Middlebush PTA at a meeting Wednesday evening at the school.

Mrs. Clifton Voorhes, past president, Mrs. Frank Weissenborn, Mrs. Joseph E. Staudt, Miss Marjorie Burdette and Miss Dorothy Hall form the committee which will choose candidates to present at the May meeting.

Also on the program at Wednesday's meeting was a musical entertainment given by the school children. Michael Bodnarik, township recreation director, spoke to the group about the summer recreation program.

Gallagher To Discuss Public School System

Ralph Gallagher, superintendent of the Bound Brook School system, will be guest speaker at a meeting of the Parent Education and Exceptional Child Study Group of Middlebush PTA, April 25 to 8 p. m. in the Middlebush School.

Gallagher is slated to discuss the accomplishments of the Public School system and its philosophies; the development of the Democratic way of doing things in the young child; and how trends in education have changed.

Miss Bennett Reveals Troth

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Joan Frances Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Drake of Francis St., Franklin Township, to George Smutko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicklos Smutko of 127 Gladys Ave., Manville.

Miss Bennett attended schools in California and New Brunswick and is a student now at the New Brunswick Secretarial School. She is employed at Personal Products, New Brunswick.

Smutko, a graduate of Bound Brook High School, is employed by the American Cyanamid Co. in Bound Brook. He is attending the Lincoln Technical Institute in Newark.

They plan to be married in the fall.

Scout Troop 100 Celebrates First Birthday Tonight

The first birthday of Boy Scout Troop 100 will be celebrated tonight at the Six Mile Run Reformed Church in Franklin Park. The church sponsors the troop. Sharing the celebration will be Explorer Scout Post 100 and Cub Scout Pack 100. Parents have been invited to attend the affair which will include presentation of the national charters to all three groups, presentation of flags to the new Explorer Post and Cub Pack, movies and refreshments.

Troop 100 was organized just a year ago this month. The Cub Pack, for boys 8 to 10 and the Explorer Post for boys over 14, were organized shortly after the first of this year.

James Moise is scoutmaster of the Troop.

Pine Grove School

The upper grades assembly was given by the seventh grades on Monday. The announcer was Susie Pattison. The 23d Psalm was read by Robert Urrilo.

Dawn Edwards and Gina Kuusikvere sang. An accordion solo was given by Joe Bingert. The seventh grade classes sang with a vocal solo by Al Redding.

A duet was sung by Dennis Forde and Al Redding. Tom Gracie gave an accordion solo. Kathleen Degnan offered a vocal solo and Rose Alia, Arlene Uro and Kathleen Lupin entertained. "That Is All" was pantomimed by Steve Suznovich, Bonnie Kane and Bob Dieterle. Jitterbugged and Sam Gramicconi sang.

The program closed with the entire assembly singing "America."

VISIT RADIO CITY

Forty-four persons saw the Easter Pageant at Radio City Music Hall, New York City, Monday night in a trip sponsored by the Couples Club of Six Mile Run Reformed Church. Members of the Church's Christian Endeavor and the Ladies Auxiliary of the Franklin Park Fire Company were guests on the trip.

One sure way to get on the ways and means committee is to take out a marriage license.

age of cookies sold for Brownie troops in the Middlesex Council and were appointed Trumpeters for the crowning. The girls who served as trumpeters were: Katherine Dougherty, Lillian Bodnarik, Lynne Spiro and Marilyn Nuzzo.

The color guard was composed of Girl Scouts from Troop 79. The color bearers for the American and World flags were Gail Edwards and Barbara Coleman. Their color guards were Marilyn Maxwell and Carol Thompson.

IN THE FLAG ceremony, conducted by Miss June Habel of the Middlesex Council Little House staff, the Troop 79 flag was carried by Scout Janet Donova; Troop 88 flag by Brownie Sandra Hoxey; Troop 110 flag by Brownie Margaret Gynables; and Troop 17 flag by Brownie Linda Petruska.

The International flags were carried by the following Brownies: Carolyn Brady, Troop 88; Judy Lynne Smith and Pamela Bianchi, Troop 110; Sarahell Stoll, Linda Ayotte, Patricia Horvath, Linda MacComas and Elizabeth Sider, all of Troop 17.

The Cookie Coronation is the time when recognition is given to all Scouts and Brownies who have sold the most cookies in their Districts and individual Troops.

THE COOKIE SALE is held once a year in the Middlesex Council and proceeds are used to maintain the Girl Scout camp program. The camps are Camp Melken at Neshanic and Camp Sacaewa at Franklin, as well as the Summer Day Camps.

Department to open some type of facilities in the West New Brunswick section. Postal authorities are now conducting a survey to determine the area's needs.

EFFORTS TO START a bank here in 1954 and 1955 failed because state banking authorities refused to give their permission.

Fred C. Bascom and a group of associates attempted to establish the bank and took various steps required toward raising a subscription.

But their application was rejected because state authorities felt the township was not yet ready to support its own bank. Those interested felt at the time, however, that the state left the door open for the opening of a branch of an established bank.

Residents who live in the 50 square miles that make up this township must now carry on their banking business in such surrounding municipalities as New Brunswick, Bound Brook, Somerville and Manville.

As a rule most New Year's resolutions are forgotten by the time the frost is out.

38 of 1,000 Have Govt. Jobs

Nearly everybody's working for the government. That's a conclusion which may be drawn from two recent studies cited by the New Jersey Taxpayers Association.

The U. S. Bureau of Census reports that as of last October approximately 38 of every 1,000 of the more than five million residents in New Jersey were on public payrolls. Nine were employed by the federal government within New Jersey while the other 29 were employed by state and local governments.

The official computation shown a total of 207,592 full and part-time public employees in New Jersey. These included 49,798 on the federal civilian payroll, 29,306 listed as working at the state level and 128,488 in the employ of local government—county, municipal or school district. The state figure reported by the Bureau of Census includes state authorities and the State University in addition to regular state agencies.

HOWEVER, working for the government is not the exclusive privilege of public employees, according to another survey released by the Tax Foundation. Men employed in industry and in other pursuits devote a substantial share of their working week earning enough to pay the direct and indirect taxes which keep the federal, state and local governments going.

The private research organization's computations show that it takes the average man (working 40 hours and earning $85 per week), 12 hours—or one and one-half working days—just to pay the costs of government.

Thus, not until Tuesday noon of the average working week has the average taxpayer worked off his tax obligations. He then goes to work earning such family budget essentials as food (8 hours), housing (7 hours), transportation (3½ hours), clothing (3 hours), medical (2 hours), recreation (1½ hours) and the other necessities.

Forced Sobriety Tests Raise Some Legal Questions

Legislation which would force automobile drivers to undergo chemical tests to determine their sobriety raises "a grave constitutional question," the State Bar Association's Committee on Legislation has informed the legislature.

Opposition to bills was stated in a bulletin sent this week to members of the legislature by the Bar committee which is headed by Edward J. McCardell, Jr., of Trenton.

The bills provide that every motor vehicle operator shall be deemed to have consented to chemical analysis of his breath, blood or saliva to determine the alcoholic content of his blood, upon request of a police officer to take such a test. Penalty for refusal by the driver would be revocation of his license or reciprocity driving privilege, pending a hearing.

"These bills raise a grave constitutional question," the committee bulletin stated. "It is not necessary because of a few bad drivers to subject the whole population of the state of New Jersey to this procedure, which, as outlined, is an invasion of personal rights to a great extent."

"These bills do not provide adequate safeguards to the driver, especially since the driver would be deprived of his license without a hearing."

Your Garden

By CHARLES H. CONNORS
Rutgers University

Sowing garden seeds will be a novel experience for many new home owners this year, and perhaps some more experienced gardeners may profit by a little study of the subject.

The soil should not be worked while it is wet, but only when it is in a condition to break up easily when raked. When it is fit to dig, the entire garden area can be worked over and raked weekly, when it is dry enough, to kill tiny weeds.

A seed is a dormant or resting stage of a plant. It is dry. Inside the coatings is a relatively large mass of food. With most plants that we grow this is in two parts, called cotyledons, and between these is the germ of the new plant. You can see these parts plainly in a peanut or a bean. Grass, including corn, has only one cotyledon. These cotyledons become what are known as the seed leaves after germination.

Cotyledons contain enough food to start the new plant into growth and to support it until it develops a root system and true leaves. In this state, it can take in moisture through its roots and manufacture food in its leaves to make it self-supporting, but only if certain conditions are met.

Temperature of the soil is important. Some seeds can germinate in cool soil. Others will germinate only after the soil warms up. Many failures are the result of planting some seeds too early. This information on time to plant is usually on the seed packet in general terms.

As examples, carrot, beet, pea, spinach, radish, onion and lettuce seed among vegetables and sweet alyssum, candytuft, marigold, sunflowers among flowers, will germinate at low temperatures. Many others, if planted too early, will rot in the ground.

Election Turn-Out

did not succeed himself, defeated Mayor Daniel Conroy of Bound Brook, 853 to 401, thereby contributing largely to Van Clee's county victory by a margin of 741 votes.

Rep. Peter Freilinghuysen, unopposed for the Republican nomination for Congress, received 949 votes in Franklin and 11,800 in the county.

PRINCIPAL DEMOCRATIC contest was the one in which Francis C. Foley of Woodbridge won the nomination as Congressional candidate from J. Ellis Kirkham of Watchung, by more than 10 to 1 in the Fifth Congressional District. The vote in the county was 1,441 to 305.

In Franklin, Foley received 180 votes to Kirkham's 33. In the presidential preferential vote, Sen. Estes Kefauver was defeated in Franklin, as in the county and state by a large majority. Frank Sykes, of Greenbrook, was unopposed candidate for the Democratic nomination for freeholder.

Regular organization Democrats easily won the four contested municipal committee positions. In the Second District, Mrs. Ella Bateau retained her committee seat by defeating Mrs. Helen Bosely, 52 to 25. In the Seventh District, Michael Lisi and Mrs. Joan McCloskey defeated James Perri and Miss Irene Gobac, 27 to 11 and 23 to 13, respectively. Committeeman John A. Curry in the Eighth district beat Leonard A. Milchuck by 25 to 4. It was not known what happened to the other six people who signed Milchuck's petition.

Republicans had only one committee race, in the Seventh District. There, incumbent Richard F. Miller defeated Ernest Napollitano, who was understood to have the blessing of the organization, by the narrow margin of 94 to 83.

WRONG APPROACH
Too little attention is paid to the joy of living today—and too much to the cost of living.

NOT THERE
It's next to impossible to get the best of some people — they just haven't any.

to be an investigation by somebody, but don't ask us who.

Republicans got baby pink slips and Democrats got baby blue slips on signing up to vote. But it wasn't quite even as boy babies and girl babies.

It was sort of frustrating to the people who put in an 11-hour day working at the polls to have such a small turnout. One can't help but wonder why people have so little interest in their government.

Recently, in a national magazine, a writer took the position that there should be no effort to get people to vote because anybody who wouldn't come out to vote on his own initiative didn't deserve to vote, and probably wouldn't cast an intelligent vote anyway.

On the opposite side of that question, they actually fine people in Australia for not voting. But wouldn't we all be mad if someone tried to tell us we couldn't vote.

One couple left the polls very much annoyed last Tuesday because they found they couldn't split their ticket. Election Board workers tried very hard to explain to them why they'd have to wait till November to do that, but they left without voting.

The next mayor of Highland Park is a resident of Franklin, and it comes about this way. In Highland Park High School, each of the four senior classes in PAD (Problems of American Democracy) nominates a candidate for the Boy Mayor-for-a-Day, in an election which is held each year to give the kids a practical demonstration of how their government works. (Maybe it wouldn't hurt if some of us old folks could learn a little too.)

In three of the four classes Franklin boys were nominated to run for mayor. Ben Stanton Jr. was elected by a vote of the whole senior class and the also-rans were Robert Zimmerman and Clay Farnham.

The East Millstone First Aid Squad had a light month in March with four transportations and three miscellaneous calls. They drove the ambulance 122 miles and put in 26 man hours. Some of these were gal-hours, incidentally.

It isn't too early to remind you that if you live in the areas covered by the township's two squads, you'll be visited by a man in a white coat, or maybe a girl, but they won't be there to carry you off, just to ask for your financial support.

If you ever have an accident, a sudden illness or any emergency, your squad will be at your door in less than 10 minutes. You can't take out better insurance than by giving them a contribution.

It is not at all uncommon for the heady individual to have a head-on collision.

PTA's Spring Conference Set

Mrs. James Chiara of Jamesburg, State Congress Home and Family Life Chairman, will be the main speaker at the annual spring conference of the Somerset County Council of Parent-Teacher Associations to be held Tuesday at the Presbyterian Church, Basking Ridge. Sessions are from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. with registrations starting at 9:30 a.m.

Also scheduled to speak is Mrs. E. R. Doane, director Women's Division of the New Jersey State Safety Council, Inc. Her topic will be "Careful-Children Growing Up." Mrs. Chiara will speak on "What is Family Living."

Local publicity books are to be on display. The State Publicity Certificate will be awarded to books exhibited. The three best books having good inside and outside publicity will be chosen to go on view at the State Convention in October. Delegate bringing the book is to be responsible for its return.

Dr. Sampson G. Smith, superintendent of county schools will attend. The welcome will be given by Mrs. Edward D. West, president of the Basking Ridge PTA. The Rev. William H. Felmeth, pastor of the Basking Ridge Presbyterian Church will give the invocation.

Salk Vaccine

oculate children up to 14 years and pregnant women in the township. It was to be shipped Wednesday, and will be stored under refrigeration until arrangements can be made for clinics to be set up for administering the vaccine.

THREE DOCTORS, in addition to School Physician Dr. Samuel Sklar, several nurses, and volunteers to take care of the clerical work and serve as receptionists will be needed, according to Reid.

The PTAs will be called on to supply non-professional volunteers, he said. Township Committeeman Charles Slocum, who is chairman of the Health and Welfare Committee, will arrange for transportation to the clinics, and written consent of the parents for the inoculation will be taken at the time of vaccination.

The date for the clinics will be announced as soon as arrangements can be completed.

Wins School Honor

Carol Bonosaro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Bonosaro of Easton Ave., Franklin Township, a Junior at New Brunswick High School, has been elected to the National Honor Society, highest honor the school can bestow upon a student.

Carol, who plans to go to college, is headlines editor of Highlights, the high school newspaper, vice president of the Highlight Club, and a member of the Assembly Committee, Spanish Club, Girls Athletic Association and chairman of the Junior Prom Committee.

What's he doing?

He's making your telephone grow in value!

This lineman is putting in a line to a new home. When he's through, another New Jersey family will be enjoying telephone service.

It could be someone you know, for this scene is being repeated daily in all parts of the state. Last year alone over 150,000 phones were added. The number of people you can call or who can call you is growing steadily. And that makes everyone's telephone service grow in usefulness.

To us, making sure you can phone anyone you wish, easily and economically, is our biggest job—and one we're working at the hardest.

BUSY LINEMEN...

like James M. Livingston, Plainfield, are operating at full schedule to expand and maintain telephone service.
