

Township Talk

Big doings in East Millstone this Saturday night. The fire company and first aid squad really have something to celebrate. They have paid off every cent of indebtedness on the firehouse, the engine and ambulance, and will burn the last mortgage at a dinner and party in the basement of St. Joseph's Church.

The fire company was organized in 1928 and the squad in 1945. The present fire engine was bought in 1949 and the ambulance in 1952.

People who work with organizations like this, know what getting the debts paid off means. But the general public may not realize how much hard work, how many car parties, picnics and other benefits it took to raise enough money not only to maintain the equipment, but to keep churning away at that mortgage. Police Chief Ed Voorhees has been president of the fire company for several years. Thomas Hulse is president of the squad. It's a wonderful group of people, and the community owes them gratitude for the job they've done in the past and the job they are ready, willing and able to do in the future.

We see by the papers that Gov. Meyner has signed a bill permitting retired teachers to earn up to $1,200 a year without forfeiting pension rights.

That happens to be just exactly the stipend of our municipal judge, so it's pretty likely that Judge Vernon Hagmann, who took a leave of absence on his retirement as a teacher in the New Brunswick schools Mar. 31, will be back on the job July 1.

"What does he plant who plants a tree?"
He plants the friend of sun and sky.

He plants the flat of breezes free:
The shaft of beauty towering high.

No one could find a more fitting way to express appreciation than the Pine Grove Girl Scouts did in planting two trees on the school grounds: a gift to the Board of Education for allowing the girls to use the school for a meeting place.

And a Golden Rule sign: "I think that I shall never see a billboard lovely as a tree. In fact unless the billboard's fall."

Troop 100 Paper Drive Tomorrow

A paper drive will be held tomorrow by the Boy Scouts of Troop 100. Explorers will collect paper in the Franklin Park area, while Scouts will load trucks and accompany the paper to Trenton, where used to provide needed camping it will be sold. Proceeds will be equipment.

Twenty-five Scouts are now registered to attend summer camp at Camp Sakawatin, the Middlesex Council's camp near Branchville in Stokes State Forest. The boys will attend as a troop July 8-15.

The eight members of the Racoon patrol enjoyed a special day-long trip to New York City last Saturday. The trip was awarded to the patrol winning a recent inter-patrol contest. The Scouts visited the United Nations, Empire State Building, American Museum, the Planetarium, and other points of interest. They were accompanied by William Thomas and Jim Mole, scoutmaster.

Eighteen scouts have hiked 12 miles to complete the first leg of the Hiking merit badge. After four more such hikes and a 20-mile, those completing the series will earn the badge.

Scouts Plant Two Trees

On Tuesday, two magnolia trees were planted at the Pine Grove Manor School by Browne Troops 17, 68 and 110 and Girl Scout Troops 59 and 130.

Among those attending the ceremony were Dr. James Lynch, superintendent of schools; Mrs. Catherine Pettison, board member, and Mrs. Joseph Horvath, president of Pine Grove Manor PTA.

The following girls participated in the planting ceremony: Troop 17, Beth L'Arakis, Linda Petruska, Sarahell Stoll; Troop 68, Bernadette Scott, Carol Joe Joyce, Lynn Spiro, Marilyn Nuzzo, Sandra Rosey, Antoinette Abate and Carolyn Brady.

Troop 110, Margaret Guymoles, Paula Bonocano; Troop 19, Sharon Wright, Dianna Kushner, Mary Lynn Whitman; Troop 133, Barbara Colemann, June Gathy, June Horvath.

The board will also discuss teacher applications for the 1956-57 school years.

Court Orders Angler Pay In Installments

The ever-popular installment plan of financing reached the township Municipal Court Monday night.

Earl Seright of Oak St., found guilty by Magistrate George Shamy of fishing without a license, was given court permission to pay his $25 fine on the installment plan. Seright, placed on probation with the Somerset County Probation Department until he pays the complete fine, told the magistrate that he was unable to pay in court. The defendant was charged by Game Warden Robert Triosi.

ALSO PLACED on probation was John Walter Faulkner of 192 Burns St., New Brunswick, who forced his way into his wife's house on West Post Ave.

He was ordered to report to the probation department and make arrangements for supporting his child and visiting the youngster. The charge was brought by Faulkner's wife, Catherine, who said she smashed a door window to get into her home.

Charged with careless driving by Police Chief Ed Voorhees after an accident in Market St., East Millstone, May 5, Anders Jordahl of Canal Rd. was found guilty and fined $25 and $5 costs.

George DeLany of Somerville, charged with speeding 70 mph on Easton Ave., April 10, was fined $25 and $5 costs. The summons was issued by Patrolman Carl Erbacher.

Others fined were Dennis C. Kinlaw of Hlyverste Rd., Millstone, $15 for careless driving, and Joseph Hallahan of South River, $5 for passing on a hill. Each paid $5 court costs on the charges made by Patrolmen Thomas J. Lee and Naaman Williams.

Lisi Condemns Twp. Roads

"You can't ride to any given point in the township without encountering deep ruts," Michael A. Lisi, Democratic candidate for the Township Comm'ee, declared in advocating better roads at a meeting of the Women's Democratic Club Monday.

The only time any road is fixed, the candidate added, is when an angry group of citizens band together to goad the local governing body into action.

LISI STRESSED that a Democrat should be elected to the committee to act as a "watch dog" over municipal affairs, which are now entirely in the hands of Republicans.

The candidate further complained that heavily loaded trucks and construction equipment are permitted to use township roads.

He pointed out that the GOP incumbent, Charles Secora, campaigned on a program of road improvement but that since his election the roads have grown steadily worse.

EXPLAINING that he is an industrial engineer by profession, Lisi said that his work which includes making surveys, would fit him for the duties of a commissioner.

He added that he has been a township resident 10 years, and earned an engineering degree by attending Rutgers at night.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Michael Peacos, Coppermire Rd.

To Honor Mrs. McConnell

Mrs. Ernest McConnell, retiring teacher at Middlebush School, will be honored at a reception given by parents of sixth, seventh and eighth grades pupils, May 25.

The reception will be held in the school auditorium from 8 to 10 p. m. Mrs. Joseph Nowak is chairman. Assisting will be Mrs. Morgan Upton, Mrs. Alexander Nantz Jr. and Mrs. Irving Yellen. Mrs. McConnell has been on the faculty of Middlebush School since 1948. She resides at Oldcut St., Middlebush.

The former Miss Frieda Ash of Phoenixville, Pa., she was graduated from Ursinus College, Collegeville, Pa., in 1922.

For two years she taught at Birdsboro (Pa.) Senior High School, then joined the faculty of the Roosevelt Junior High School, New Brunswick, where she met her husband, who also retired this month after teaching 31 years at the junior high school.

Mrs. McConnell taught there several years, resigning in 1929 to raise her daughters, the present

Mrs. Robert Blekham of Albuquerque, N. Mex., and Mrs. William Teets of San Diego, Calif.

She resumed her teaching career at Roosevelt Junior High in 1946. Two years later she came to Middlebush School.

Mr. and Mrs. McConnell plan to visit Mexico this summer and are planning a trip to Europe in the near future.

List 28 Arrests, 123 Investigations In Police Chief's Report for April

Twenty-eight arrests and 123 investigations were handled by the township police during April, Chief Ed Voorhees reports.

The force worked a total of 989 hours during the month and patrol cars traveled 6,475 miles.

POLICE ISSUED two gun purchase permits and signed four applications for special ABC permits. Character references were written for four citizens, two for the Department of Public and one each for the Department of Internal Revenue and Civil Service Commission.

The chief reported that about 75 per cent of dog owners have obtained licenses for their pets. Mrs. Agnes Slover has been reappointed dog census taker for 1956 and will begin canvassing the township in the near future. Persons harboring unlicensed dogs will be subject to arrest.

POINTED OUT by the chief was the fact that most of the dog bite cases reported this year have been the result of children annoying dogs that were penned or tied. He urged parents to instruct youngsters against teasing dogs.

Of the 28 arrests listed last month, 23 were for motor vehicle violations, five disorderly persons and one building code violation.

Russell Laird, chairman of the Housing Authority, announced today that the New York office of the Public Housing Administration had informed the township that PHA in Washington has granted approval of construction of 50 dwelling units and has granted an advance of $10,000 to finance preliminary work on the low-rent housing project here.

Preliminary work includes surveys, maps, etc. The township Housing Authority had requested 100 dwelling units.

The Housing Authority met Wednesday night and named a firm of architects and a consulting engineer, and tentatively chose a site for the township low rent housing project.

Part of a 20-acre tract between Hamilton Road and Lincoln Highway near Medina Avenue has been tentatively chosen as a site for the development. The property is township owned and had been set aside for future development as a public park.

HOWEVER, LEONARD Ruppert, public relations chairman of the authority, pointed out that the Federal Government requires that a recreational area accompany its housing projects, and that the 50-unit development including playgrounds will use only five acres of land, leaving the remaining 15 acres for a township park. Joseph Hertz, executive director of the New Brunswick Housing Authority, was named consulting engineer to the authority and the New Brunswick architectural firm of Boykin and Morse was chosen from among three applicants to plan the buildings.

AUTHORITY members met in the auditorium at Schwartz Homes, a housing project of the New Brunswick Authority. Various committees of the authority met in executive session first and later the entire body met with the Board of Education, Planning Board and Township Committee to acquaint them with plans and answer questions.

It was pointed out to the associated groups that the deadline for making applications and presenting plans to the Federal Housing Authority is July 1.

RUPPERT TOLD THE RECORD that a recent survey indicated that there are at least 400 sub-standard dwellings in the township and the 50 units will be only a start towards redevelopment of the township's blighted areas.

The authority's plans, he said, to get factual information from the chief of police and welfare director to find out the extent of crime and indigency in the sub-standard housing areas. It will authorize its executive secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Nelby, to conduct a sample survey to determine the size of apartments needed by the average family eligible for residence in the development.

Ruppert pointed out that a federal housing project has two objectives: (1) housing and (2) redevelopment of blighted areas. He said that the Federal Government requires that for every new unit built, a sub-standard dwelling must be destroyed and the land slated for rehabilitation.

The authority will hold its next regular meeting, which will be open to the public, June 5. Meanwhile, authority members will be glad to appear before any clubs or organizations to explain the project and answer questions.

Authority members will attend the meeting of the school board Monday evening at Pine Grove School to try any further comments the board has to make on the tentatively chosen.

In the Mailbox

Dear Editor:
You will recall that I called your office a number of times relative to an item which appeared in THE RECORD on August 27, 1954, under the heading, "Fair Sue For Land Title." This item appeared on the front page of the paper and apparently the content reflects what was included in the complaint filed by Mr. and Mrs. Nilsen against me and my husband. If you will refer to the article, you can readily see that it reported only their side of the story and inasmuch as nothing further was ever written up in the paper about the suit, everyone in the Griggstown area is of the opinion that this report is the truth and that my husband and I treated the Nilsens shabbily.

Having formerly lived in Griggstown, my husband and I enjoyed many friendships which we valued a great deal. Since the publication of this article, we have practically been ignored and cut off by our friends in that area. Needless to say, it has caused us both a great deal of grief and distress. For example, I would like to point out that for many years we always received a couple of dozen greeting cards at Christmas time. This year Christmas we received absolutely no cards from anyone in the Griggstown area. We find also that the people are cool toward us and their attitude seems to be that we have committed a great wrong.

Although it never appeared in my newspaper account, the fact of the matter is that my husband and I filed an answer to the complaint in which we denied all of the material allegations. The suit went through the normal procedural channels and ultimately when the time came for the trial, Mr. and Mrs. Nilsen elected to voluntarily dismiss their claim with prejudice against themselves. This occurred on October 9, 1955, and a stipulation of dismissal was entered on or about that date. In effect, therefore, when the time came for the Nilsens to prove the reckless charges which they made in their complaint, they backed down.

I realize that many months have passed since the suit was dismissed, but during that period I have tried numerous times to contact you, your wife and your editor in an effort to have a suitable release put in the paper so that folks in the Griggstown area would know of the outcome of this action. In their minds, we are to this day the villains in this piece and again I say that I can't begin to describe the distress that it has caused my husband and I. I would certainly appreciate it very much if you would arrange for a suitable release to appear in THE RECORD so that our reputations in the Griggstown area could be restored to their former high plane.

Very truly yours,
SARA WALTHER

To Hold Male Fashion Parade On Asbury Boardwalk, June 3

Asbury Park will hold the 6th annual National Men's Fashion Pageant on its famous Boardwalk, Sunday, June 3.

According to Commissioner Joseph E. McLean of the New Jersey Department of Conservation and Economic Development, more than 250,000 fashion-conscious males of all ages are expected to participate in the colorful event. This is the only men's wear promotion of its kind in the nation. The winner will wear the crown of "Mr. Fashion of 1956."

FASHION JUDGES and TV and film personalities riding in roller chairs will select the 100 smartest dressed men of all ages from the throngs of participants on the Boardwalk. All finalists are invited to the stage of Convention Hall for presentation of awards and selection of top winners.

Official statistics of this event covering past years made public today by Asbury Park's Acting Mayor Roland J. Hines. He admits the reports show that men are just as anxious as women to compete for fashion awards—and perhaps a bit more so!

The figures show that during the years the Men's Fashion Pageant has been an attraction here, 94 percent of the males selected by the judges on the Boardwalk show up on the stage of Convention Hall to compete for final awards. Slightly fewer—83 percent—of the women in the long popular Easter female fashion event, appear for final judging.

The average age of male winners has been 39, as against 32 for the average age of women. THE PAGEANT is officially co-sponsored by the City of Asbury Park, the N.J. Clothiers and Fur-nishers Association, The Men's Apparel Club of N.J., and nationally—known makers of men's wear.

Emphasis in all fashion selections will be based on "completeness of attire," such as suits, sportswear, hats, ties, handkerchiefs and accessories.

Top winner in the event will be awarded a year 'round ensemble of men's wear, valued at more than $500.

Pre-promotion for the event will include a men's wear industry pool to select the most neatly groomed male personalities on radio and TV, who will receive the coveted annual "Fashion Fellowship" awards.

From the Shamokin Citizen, Shamokin, Pennsylvania: The first newspaper in America, published 265 years ago, reported a suicide, a smallpox epidemic, a military expedition against the French and Indians in Canada. A gossipy tid-bit reflected on the morals of the King of France. Disapproving comment was made on barbarous treatment of the French who were taken captive by Indians allied with the English. These and other timely items made a newsy sheet of "Publick Occurrences, Both Timely and Domestic" — too newsy, in fact for the Governor of Massachusetts.

That colonial dignity and his council were outraged at the tenacity of Benjamin Harris in issuing his small four-page newspaper, and they ordered its immediate suppression. Only one issue was published, and only one copy of that issue is known to exist.

But the journalistic spirit of the editor has persisted. In a brief statement of principles—by necessity, everything had to be brief because of mechanical limitations—Editor Harris founded his publication on truth. His quaintly worded dedication still may be a model in our time "That something may be done toward the bringing, or at least the Charming of that Spirit of Lying, which prevails amongst us, wherefore nothing shall be entered, but what we have reason to believe is true, reparing to the best fountains of our Information."

The fountains of his information were apparently reliable, those who suppressed his publication did not question his truthfulness. They did deny his right to publish, his reflections.

If others had not persisted in establishing the freedom of the press, how different our history would have been. The right of men to publish the news and to publish their reflections even when such opinions differed from those in power have been bedrock on which American progress has been based.

In our time we have been able to see the course that government takes when freedom of the press is denied. One of the first acts of Argentina's dictator Peron was to seize "La Prensa," a powerful voice of freedom. The $20,000,000 newspaper plant was sold to an organization supporting Peron's rule for but a fraction of its true monetary value. As this fountain of information dried up and became a cesspool of propaganda for a tyrant, Argentinians came to understand the value of a free press.

Amusement Park Opens Saturday

New Jersey's largest amusement park, Olympic Park, Irvington, will begin its 40th season Saturday.

The park's traditional presentation of a free, four-act show will continue. Bill Barton, ace trapeze star, is featured in the bill which will run from Saturday through May 27.

Japan's Yokoi family of trick cyclists; the Karpis Trio, Greek acrobats, and the Tslaks, novelty musicians, round out the first week's bill.

Capt. Joseph Basile's Band, with Buddies Ricardo singing, will play afternoons and evenings. New rides have been added, supplementing those the years have proved popular.

Many a man has made the mistake of trying to reach the top of the ladder by jumping at conclusions.

Your Garden

Spring broke this year as it sometimes does. Cool conditions in the soil and in the air restrained growth, especially at the top of plants. Then came a rapid increase in temperature, and things seemed to burst.

Many kinds of narcissus that were in tight bud burst into bloom. The flowers of Norway maple expanded the equivalent of a normal two weeks in about two days.

INEXPERIENCED gardeners should not be too ambitious over the situation. It's really too early to plant tomatoes.

Maybe you can get your soil fitted. I saw some recently in a new development, and I really would not call it soil. The owner of the property had had it plowed, without adding organic matter.

Maybe he will add it in the tillage operations. Otherwise, the plowing would not be much benefit for the land as turned over was alternating streaks of a poorly drained topsoil and the cruelest type of subsoil.

The fellow who bought the plot has to get along with it. Use plenty of organic matter, especially if you want to garden. Along with this goes fertilizer and probably lime.

FOR A LAWN, you may be able to get away without using the organic matter, although it would be much better if you did use some. Certainly fertilizer and lime, if a test shows it necessary, and good lawn seed are required.

The earlier done, the better. And then when the grass starts to grow, cut it high, 2 1/2 to 3 inches until fall. The poor soil will bake in the hot sun, but the longer grass will give it some shade, especially at the roots. This is a great encouragement to the development of grass growing in poor soil that may some time be a lawn.

When preparing citrus soft-cooked or hard-cooked eggs, remove the eggs from the refrigerator about a half hour before cooking or warm them with warm running water so the shells won't crack in the boiling water.

Almost every American has heard, via radio, television and phonograph records, that Davy Crockett was born on a mountain top in Tennessee. The younger generation doesn't know as much about Alvin C. York, hero of World War I, who outdid Davy in bravery. Alvin York was born in Pentreas County, Tennessee, and was reared on a mountain farm. He enlisted in the Army in 1917, and during the Argonne Battle on Oct. 8, 1918, performed what Marshall Poch declared to be the "greatest thing accomplished by any private soldier of all the armies of Europe." He was credited with killing 20 enemies, forcing the surrender of another 132 and capturing a hill and 35 machine guns.

I may not see a tree at all." Well, you'll see those trees. They're magnolias, and they're on either side of the public's entrance to the school.

At Pine Grove School they've finished blacktopping grounds at the side of the building where children play. But the other side, the one the public is supposed to use—is still pretty muddy. Middlebush School children put on an excellent musical program Wednesday evening preceding the PTA meeting. What's amazing is how many little girls there are in the school who can play the piano. What ever became of the Shade Tree Commission? ... At a recent township committee meeting, in answer to someone who asked about increasing township garbage collection, the mayor said, well, it's about the same whether you pay a private collector or have the township do it and add it to the tax bill.

We haven't checked the relative costs but it's far from the same. Main difference is that when the township does it, everybody has his garbage collected whether he likes it or not. In the areas where private garbage collection is made, it's optional. Some people pay. Others who feel they can't afford to pay, dispose of their refuse in a legal, sanitary, and unobjectionable way. But still others, who are too thrifty to pay the garbage man and either too lazy or too unduly to take care of it properly themselves, are responsible for the illegal dumping, and for unsightly and smelly conditions on their own property. Seems as though it would be better and more economical to keep the township garbage truck working every day.

How many telephone people do you know?

It doesn't take long to think of several, does it?

Today, there are 25,500 people serving you at New Jersey Bell—nearly twice as many as fifteen years ago.

But this is not surprising. Over 150,000 new telephones were added last year. That's more than one a minute throughout each working day. And this calls for many people . . . and many skills.

Some of these folks are your friends and neighbors. Their one responsibility is good telephone service for you. And, if you know them well, you know the quiet pride they take in doing the job well.

Giving you the best possible telephone service is the job of telephone business office supervisors like Mrs. Joanne R. Ostergren of New Brunswick.
