

New Election Districts Set For Primary

There will be six new election districts when voters go to the polls in the next primary election on April 16, which will make a total of 14 districts in the township. Two years ago two new districts, the seventh and the eighth, were added, and such has been the growth of the township that the additional splitting of districts has become necessary. According to the state election laws, a district may be split when the number of voters reaches 600.

Mrs. Dorothy Smith, secretary to Township Clerk Fred Bascom, has been working with Mr. Bascom on a system of splitting the districts in such a way that there will be a minimum of dislocation and difficulty for the voters.

The task of placing the voters in their proper districts is made more difficult by the fact that in many areas there are no street numbers and in many cases the addresses of the voters are incomplete. It is up to the township committee to pass on the recommended changes, and in turn recommend them to the County Board of Elections, which will then set up the new district lines. A tentative arrangement, subject to final adjustment, is as follows: District 1 (Franklin Park) to be divided by Snydam and Franklin Park Roads, with the southern half becoming District 9. District 2, (South Bound Brook area) to be divided by Elizabeth Avenue, with the eastern half becoming District 10.

District 3 will remain as is. District 4 (Hamilton School area) to be divided by Franklin Blvd., with the eastern half becoming District 11. This district will have to be split again next year for when the Pine Grove Manor apartments are completed and the occupants are eligible to vote, the apartment houses will form a district in themselves.

District 5 will be divided at Matilda Avenue with the western end becoming District 13, along with part of District 4.

District 6 will remain as is. District 7 will be divided along Franklin Boulevard, with the eastern half becoming District 12.

District 8 will be divided along DeMott Road and Front Street, Middlebush, with the eastern half becoming District 14.

If the districts are set up according to the above plan, the new Housing Authority's project will be in District 13, which will run from Matilda Avenue to West Point Street, bound by the Lincoln Highway, the railroad and Hamilton Road. Several of the polling places will have to be used for more than one district.

CORRECTION

There is only ONE fire district in the township, but TWO fire companies are in it, Middlebush and Second District. When the citizens of the district vote to elect commissioners, it is all the same election.

The fire district receives a subsidy from the township, but this money is used for maintenance of equipment and other expenses. The firemen receive no compensation, whatever. They are volunteers who do their job as a community service.

The information in last week's RECORD was misleading, and the above information is correct, according to Forrest Miller, fire commissioner. The RECORD apologizes for the error and thanks Mr. Miller for the information.

Township Talk

LESS THAN TWO WEEKS left for filing of nominating petitions for the Board of Education. All aboard that's going aboard... step right up folks, all you have to lose is most of your free time, and all you have to gain is the satisfaction of doing a valuable and for the most part, thankless, community service. But the consolation prize is that you'll have a couple of swell people to work with, the superintendent of schools, Dr. J. M. Lynch, and the board's business manager, Mrs. Florence Randolph. They are the two hardest-working people we know yet they are never too busy to give some time to us ink-stained wretches who try to get the news out to you.

Those board of ed. sessions that run to midnight and beyond... if you as a citizen go there to ask for something or protest some move, you can get up and go home after you've had your say. The board members and Dr. Lynch and Mrs. Randolph have to sit out to the bitter end. We've often wondered why they pay salaries to members of the municipal governing bodies, but serving on the board has to be a labor of love.

SO FAR WE HAVE ONLY ONE candidate for the four positions which will be open on the board. Milton Stoll, who was appointed recently to fill the unexpired term of George Carr, says he will run. Mr. Stoll did a terrific job as chairman of the Lay Advisory Committee and this experience gives him not only the background for work on the board, but also he knows what he's getting into.

Arthur Westcott, whose three-year term expires this year, hasn't made up his mind. Art, an electronics engineer, is the father of four children, and he says he's thinking the thing over. He feels that he has an obligation to the community, but he also realizes that he's reached the age where he has to advance in his profession and that means burning some midnight oil.

Art reminded us that although he's been on the board only three years, he is its senior member. That's how much of a turnover there has been.

Walter Campbell, who was appointed last March to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Rex Davis, says he's thinking the matter over, too. Walt has five children, and he says sometimes he feels he isn't being sent to them, being away from home so much on board of ed. work. But on the other hand, he wants to help provide good educational opportunities for his own and other children. It's a tough decision.

YOU NEW PEOPLE who haven't yet registered to vote will have to be registered by Jan. 23 in order to vote in the school election, which includes the school budget (70% of your tax dollar) as well as board members.

If you moved to Franklin day before yesterday, you may still register to vote. The law is that if, by the date of the next general election (Nov. 5, 1957), you will have been a resident of the state one year and the county five months, you may register and vote in the school election. We checked this with the County Board of Elections.

ONCE IN A WHILE you hear somebody say "We really don't know whether the zoning laws would stand up in court if pushed to the final appeal." Well, here's what our wonderful state constitution (passed in 1847 and now the model for many other states) says: "The legislature may enact gen-

Howls When Tipsy, Fined

Allen Ryles of New Brunswick was fined $20 and $5 costs in township court Monday night for being drunk and disorderly on the property of Mrs. Emily Monroe of Henry St., Franklin Township.

"He howls when he's drunk and keeps the neighbors up. They want something done about it," complaining Officer Adolf Casavento told Magistrate Vernon Hagmann.

Ryles promised the magistrate that he would give up drinking. A disorderly charge netted Walter Daniels of Churchill Ave., Franklin Township, a fine of $10. (Continued on Page 8)

Board of Ed Sets Budget Hearing For Tues. At 8

The Board of Education will hold a budget hearing Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the Middlebush School.

This budget, which will be submitted to the voters at the coming election, will take up approximately 70 per cent of local taxes.

Police Busy 13722 Hours

During 1956 Franklin Township police were on duty 13,722 hours and drove a total of 39,601 miles for police work, it was reported this week by Chief Ed. F. Voorhees.

The chief also stated in his annual report that 459 persons were arrested, 216 warnings issued for various violations and 2,153 telephone calls received, of which 1,223 were investigations.

In municipal court fines and costs, $5,548, was collected, of which $3,394 was to the county treasurer and $2,154 was turned over to the township treasurer.

Chief Voorhees commented, "Although we did not go through the year without a fatal accident, I sincerely believe our traffic situation has improved. More cars appear on the roads each year, and we do have three very heavily traveled main roads. The fact that we did hold our reputable accidents to approximately six a month is a compliment to the men on patrol. The cars with the big red lights on the roof discourages the intentional violators.

"Our dog situation is becoming serious," the police chief stressed. "Sixty-six dog bite cases a year are too many, especially that almost all the dogs involved were licensed. May I recommend that the dog warden be given the opportunity to shoot dogs running at large. This was done in Edison Township with excellent results."

Concerning juvenile delinquents, Voorhees said, "I do not believe our juvenile problem is as bad as in some nearby municipalities. The seriousness of the situation is the disrespect for other people and their property. They, the juveniles, confuse license with liberty. This is a lesson that can only be taught at home, or when they reach 16, by the police."

"There is no class distinction," he added. "Some of our most difficult juveniles come from our better homes."

MICHAEL LISI, newly elected committeeman, suggested to the Township Committee last night that an ordinance be adopted by them, the governing body, calling for a charter study of the present form of government in Franklin Township, instead of expecting voters to petition for the study.

Lisi stated that he was in favor of Mayor James C. Maher's recent proposal that this study be made. Lisi said, "It can be done by an ordinance adopted by the governing body or by direct petition of voters to the people."

"THE ONLY TIME a petition is necessary to establish a charter commission," the committeeman continued, "is when the governing body is opposed to such a commission. If that is not so in this case, why does the governing body favor the petition method when it can be done by a simple ordinance?"

"Isn't this governing body dragging its feet a little?" Lisi asked.

In listing advantages to passing such an ordinance, he said: "(1) It can provide for public hearing after its passage. (2) All the facts can be placed before the people. (3) All questions can be answered satisfactorily. (4) People can be thoroughly acquainted with the procedure necessary to bring about a charter revision if so desired. And (5) more time can be spent seeking a qualified people to enter the election for the charter commission."

THE COMMITTEEMAN SAID that in contrast the petition method would "(1) acquaint only the signers of the petition. (2) The voting public remains unaware of the problem and the alternative available. And (3) it keeps the selection of the nominees for the charter commission under the domination of those circulating the petition."

However Mayor Maher felt that the study should be done by petition since a minimum of 20% of the registered voters could be reached. He pointed out that only a small number of people attend the Township Committee meetings where such an ordinance would be introduced.

THE MAYOR SAID HE didn't introduce his personal plan of the charter study at a committee meeting because he "wanted to keep it from being a political football."

"As long as there is a study made, I don't care how it is done," Maher explained. "I just didn't want it to become a political matter."

Mom Takes Own Life

A 3-year-old child's exclamation on Jan. 4, "Mommy's all tied up," led to the discovery by an aunt of the little girl's young mother hanging from a post of her child's crib, apparently dead.

Lt. Russell N. Pfeiffer, who investigated, said Mrs. Elizabeth Lackey, 24, of Franklin Township, wrapped a gingham belt around the post of her daughter Beverly's crib and stuck her head in a loop of the belt.

She then apparently lifted both legs into a kneeling position, suspending herself with her knees just clearing the floor, and held that position until she suffocated.

Beverly was sleeping in the crib on the second floor of the two-family house on Elizabeth Ave. But the child awoke and ran down to Mrs. Lackey's sister, Mrs. Anna Rotatori, who was on the ground floor.

Relatives of Mrs. Lackey said she had been despondent, township police said. Her husband, Fernus, was away at the time the body was discovered about 7:50 a. m. Police termed the death a suicide.

She is survived by her daughter, Beverly, and her husband; four sisters, Miss Solena Santini of Martinsville, Mrs. Joseph Rotatori of South Bound Brook, Mrs. Felix Darden, Los Angeles, Calif., and Mrs. Alex Bozay, South Bound Brook; three brothers, Armand Santini, Saritan, Joseph, Martinsville, and Nazareno, South Bound Brook; nephews, Mr. and Mrs. Nazareno Santini, South Bound Brook.

Funeral services were held Saturday at Daniel H. Conroy Funeral Home, Bound Brook, and in Our Lady of Mercy Church, South Bound Brook. Burial was in St. Peter's Cemetery, New Brunswick.

Carmen Amaya Ends U. S. Tour At McCarter

The dances for which Carmen Amaya has been most celebrated in her native Spain and in Europe, South America and North Africa have been chosen for her gala farewell to the United States, following the longest tour yet made by any company from Spain.

The tour started 15 months ago at Carnegie Hall, transferred to the Holiday Theatre in New York, then moved across the country and back.

Princeton's McCarter Theatre has been selected for the three performances, which close this record tour, tomorrow and Saturday evenings, at 8:30, and matinee 2:30 on Saturday.

In addition to Amaya's best known dances, the lavish programs of 15 numbers each feature the guitar playing, in pure traditional style, of Sabicas, acknowledged by serious music critics and gypsies as "the greatest Flamenco guitarist in the world."

Employment Down 400 Jobs in Nov.

A drop of 400 jobs in the Middlesex-Somerset industrial area during November was reported yesterday by Labor and Industry Commissioner Carl Halderman.

Non-agricultural employment total of 159,100, however, was 6,800, or 4.3 per cent, above November, 1955, Halderman added.

Manufacturing employment decreased 800 during the month, to a total of 84,000, with the major decline in the durable goods industries.

The non-manufacturing industries, with a total of 75,100, showed a net employment increase of 400, most of which was due to the seasonal upturn in the trade industries.

Average weekly earnings of production workers in this industrial area remain at a high level, decreasing only three cents to $80.54.

Your Garden

This seems like a good time to answer some of the questions the mailman has brought.

Everyone who accepted the invitation to send in a garden question to be answered by our "green thumb brain trust" has received a personal reply. But it seems reasonable to assume that if one person takes the trouble to write a card or letter, there may be many more gardeners who have the same problems, but are fresh out of stamps, or maybe the pup has chewed up the pencil.

YOUR QUESTIONS are particularly helpful because they indicate topics that interest gardeners and help guide me in my efforts to pick the brains of the men with know-how.

But to get on with some sample questions:

H.F.G. has a young apricot tree that refuses to bear fruit. Why not?

The apricot tree, says my author:

ity, blooms so early that blossoms are almost sure to be killed by the unkind climate. Even if the apricot blossoms escape an early spring freeze, they usually are not pollinated because few insects are around so early.

Mrs. J. W. is disappointed because her Wisteria vine refuses to bloom. Should she prune it, or what?

Yes, Wisteria can be pruned hard without harm. Sometimes root pruning helps, too. Cut off roots with a sharp spade about two feet from the trunk. If the vine isn't growing well you can fertilize it next spring.

A.J.P. READ in our leaflet, "Fifty Small Trees for the Home Grounds" that roots of silver maples can clog up sewer and septic tank pipes. How far away should he plant his silver maples, which he had already bought, to avoid trouble?

Just as far away as possible, remembering that roots will extend out just about as far as the tree is high. A 50-foot maple can have roots fanning out 50 feet.

Mrs. P.D. asks now to get rid of stumps.

If you're like most gardeners and can't afford to wait for the slow passage of time, the surest and quickest way is to find someone with a strong back and sharp tools who will dig them out for you.

Mrs. E.M.K. wants to know how you can tell when apples are ready for picking.

WHEN SOME of the apples drop it's a sign they're getting ripe. Apples are not ready when the stem separates from the apple. A ripe apple retains its stem. If the apple tastes starchy instead of sweet, it needs more time on the bough. When you discover when your apples are ripe, make a note in your garden diary so you'll know next year, as the dates for ripening don't vary much.

It provides for a new zone, designated agricultural - residential, in which building lots would have to be over an acre in size without public water and sewage, or 100 x 100 feet with these utilities. Farms would still be permitted. It also provides for a strip 1,000 feet wide on each side of the future East-West Parkway zoned for light industry. A public hearing on this new zoning was held Dec. 27.

THE COMMITTEE VOTED unanimously to reappoint George J. Shamy as township magistrate when they received a second resignation from Magistrate Vernon Hagmann.

Hagmann, who had resigned once earlier in the year because of his pension status, told the members in a letter that it was imperative that he tender his resignation again because of continued conflicting opinions in regard to his pension.

The Years Ahead

Public Service has faith in New Jersey's future. In fact, our capital expenditures between now and 1965 could exceed one billion dollars to meet anticipated demands for electric and gas.

For example, we expect that our electric system load will have increased to about four million kilowatts by 1965, which is double the load in 1955. Our customers who heat their homes with gas increased by 270 per cent since the end of 1950.

All of this means that New Jersey is growing... and Public Service is growing along with this great state. Industrial development is vibrant; urban redevelopment is shown in the "face-lifting" as seen in many New Jersey areas, particularly in Newark; residential sections continue their healthy population growths.

The years ahead hold great promise for New Jersey and for Public Service. We are dedicated to fulfilling that promise.

Ozzard Seeks Second Term As Somerset Assemblyman

Assemblyman William E. Ozzard, (R) opened his campaign for reelection to the New Jersey State Legislature, seeking his second full term as the representative of Somerset County in the General Assembly.

"During the two years that I have served in Trenton I feel I have gained valuable experience and knowledge that can be of particular benefit to the citizens of Somerset County," Ozzard said. "My activities in the fields of highway safety, education, and law enforcement I believe have been fruitful, but there is a great deal yet to be done that I would like to aid in accomplishing. Our state and our county are experiencing a period of dynamic development and I strongly desire to lend my efforts toward making such progress orderly, beneficial and economical."

Ozzard, a lawyer and partner in the firm of Beckman & Ozzard in Somerville, was elected as Assemblyman in November 1954 to fill the unexpired term of Anderson Fowler. He was re-elected in November 1955 for his first full two year term covering the period of January 1956 to January 1958. His committee assignments have included education; institutions public health and welfare; business affairs; labor and industrial relations; federal and interstate relations; and during 1956 served as chairman of the sub-committee on higher education.

Ozzard last fall sparked the Forbes for Governor club movement in New Jersey publicly calling for such efforts at the close of the presidential campaign last election night. He is presently the head of such Forbes clubs in Somerset County.

The Assemblyman is a resident of Bridgewater Township. He is married to the former Margaret McArthur and is the father of two daughters, Suzanne Lee and Kathryn Elizabeth. During the 1953 legislative session he was legal adviser to Senator Forbes and Assemblyman Fowler. From the fall of 1953 till his election in November 1954 he served as Assistant Prosecutor for the County of Somerset.

For fifteen years we've been wondering where Hamilton Road ended and Amwell Road began, and we're glad somebody has decided that the dividing line is at the Middlebush Church. This is one of the oldest roads in New Jersey, and was an Indian trail before the early settlers turned it into a road.

She said she would not return his ring and coat which he had left, until he paid up. When Daniels came back for his belongings, she stated that she attempted to phone the police, but he knocked the telephone out of her hand and slapped her up against the television.

However, Daniels denied that he had assaulted her. A lone traffic violator, Herbert E. Bergstrom, 44, of Manchester Rd., Princeton, paid $10 and $5 costs for careless driving. Trooper William Brennan issued Bergstrom the summons after he was involved in an accident Dec. 21.
