Officer Sees Skidding Auto Strike Man

A FATAL ACCIDENT which happened on Lincoln Highway Monday morning will not be charged up to Franklin Township or Somerset County, despite the fact that a Franklin policeman witnessed and investigated it while off duty.

Part-time Officer Rolf Tjornstol had been on his way to work Monday morning, but finding driving conditions so bad, decided to return home. He was driving south on Rt. 27 when he saw the car of Mrs. Florence R. Phillips go into a spin on the icy road and strike the parked car of William Gormley of Philadelphia, carom off it and strike Gormley, who had just stepped from his car after it skidded off the road. Mrs. Phillips was unhurt.

OFFICER TJORNSTOL called the state police who were delayed in coming because of the large number of accidents on the icy and bitterly cold morning. He then called the Franklin police, but the police car, driven by Officer Naaman Williams, cracked up about a mile north of the scene of the accident. Officer Williams was unhurt, but the car was put out of commission.

Officer Tjornstol took over, calling the Goochy Hill First Aid Squad, which took Gormley to Princeton Hospital where he died shortly after arrival.

An unusual sidelight in this case is that Gormley, after his death, was discovered to have had two wives. Two funeral homes, one from Philadelphia and one from New Brunswick, claimed the body for "Mrs. Gormley." The First Funeral Home of Philadelphia took the body after Wife No. 2, a Franklin resident, waived all claims and responsibility to Wife No. 1, Mrs. Rita Gormley of Philadelphia, who has two children by her husband.

Local police have not divulged the name and address of the Franklin Township wife, saying that she had married Gormley only three weeks ago.

A BITTER BATTLE was waged by a group of citizens opposing the granting of a variance for a boarding house to the Sciora brothers at the township committee session in township hall last night. Residents of the area involved, of Hollywood Homes, and other sections, none of whom was present at the original hearing before the board of adjustment in December, gave the committee a number of impassioned arguments against the resolution to permit the Scioras to convert to a boarding house the former RCA employees' dormitory, which the Scioras purchased a few months ago.

Francis Willard, president of the Hollywood Homes Association, opened the discussion following the introduction of the resolution. Willard based his objections on the fact that the owners of the property had bought it recently, and knew how it was zoned when they bought it; the problem of a rapidly increasing population should impel the township to tighten up rather than loosen the zoning regulations; and thirdly, that Charles Sciora's position on the planning board and as a former township committeeman it appeared that there might be favoritism; although Willard said he personally did not believe this was true. At this point some members of the committee and Alex Katchen of the board of adjustment protested that personalities did not come into the decision, and should be kept out of the discussion.

FOLLOWING A HALF-HOUR DISCUSSION, Committeeman Casimir Calvo moved the variance be approved. As Committeeman James G. Maher and Charles Jackson were absent, Committeeman Russell Laird was presiding, and Committeeman Michael Lisi was not in favor of the motion, there was no second to it. Mr. Laird asked Mr. Lisi to take the chair temporarily, and there were cries from the audience, "Don't do it." However, Mr. Lisi did take the chair long enough for Mr. Laird to make the motion, and it was passed by a vote of two to one.

At the beginning of the meeting, the minutes of the previous one were challenged by James Perri, who said that a statement of Mayor Maher that the Calvo Brothers would be given six months to remove stored second-hand building materials from a site on West Parkway in a Class A Zone. "I've been working on this for six years," Perri said, "and if there's no record of a limit being set, somebody will try to tell me it didn't happen." Mr. Lisi moved the minutes be amended to include the occurrence, but there was no second. After some discussion, Township Clerk Fred Bacon said he would see that the matter was included in the minutes.

The committee passed a resolution to foreclose 20 tax certificates; to pay the semi-annual interest on (Continued on Page 6)

Motorist Loses License For 4 Years, Fined $260

A New Brunswick driver who was issued a summons for drunken driving and another for reckless driving, and who smashed his automobile into a concrete wall at the same evening, was told Monday night by Magistrate George Shamy as he ordered the man's penalties. "I don't know what more you can do with a car in one night."

The magistrate then suspended the license of Howard Alford, 30, of 50 John St. for three years for drunken driving and fined him $200 and $5 costs, and ordered a one-year suspension and a $50 fine and $5 costs for driving recklessly. Alford was charged with drunken driving after being chased last Saturday morning by township police at about 80 miles an hour on Route 27. The man's car slipped between a power pole and a cement wall just scraping the pole, turned sideways, rammed into the wall several feet from the pole, then skidded sideways for another 80 feet, investigating patrolmen reported.

Alford was pinned in the wreckage but was rescued by Officer Lawrence Collier who ripped the front door off the auto. The driver received only minor injuries. Collier had been chasing Alford at high speed for about two miles and came upon the wreckage just moments after the crash. After Alford was treated at Middlesex General Hospital, Collier took the man to the state police barracks in Edison for a sobriety test. Alford didn't pass, and was

Final Candidates For Board of Ed Named Last Nite

Final candidates for the Board of Education, who met last night's 8 o'clock deadline for filing petitions, have been announced by Mrs. Florence Randolph, board secretary.

Seeking a three-year term are incumbents Walter Campbell of Easton Ave., Milton Stoll of 7 Kee Ave., and Arthur S. Westnaat Jr., of Old Georgetown Rd., and two residents who have not served before, Richard Lockner of 32 Cooper Ave. and Roy Brookes of Lincoln Highway.

Candidates for the one-year unexpired term are Mrs. Frank Weisenborn of Den Herder Dr., Middlebush; Richard Fischer of Elizabeth Ave., and Armand Petrillo of Kingston.

Residents will vote for the new board members and the school budget on Feb. 13.

Issued the summons. The reckless driving charge had been preferred earlier in the night when a woman motorist, Miss Sckry M. Wind of Franklin Township, called the police to report that while she was making a right turn off Route 27 at Six Mile Run, Alford's car passed her on the right at high speed. Miss Wind had given police Alford's license plate number.

About an hour later, Collier said, he spotted Alford's car outside a tavern near Ten Mile Run and served him with the reckless driving summons.

While driving back toward New Brunswick sometime later, Collier saw Alford drive by at a high rate of speed and took chase until he (Continued on Page 7)

Model A Skates To 'Davy Jones' Frigid Locker

Enjoy trying new tricks on ice? Here's one you undoubtedly haven't attempted yet—driving a car on it.

Fred Welsh, 20, of Amwell Road, Middlebush, and unnamed friends performed this little feat late Saturday on the Delaware and Raritan Canal with an old Model A Ford owned by Welsh, according to township police. Seems all it needed him was a canal dunked car and a summons for driving an unregistered vehicle on a public road.

Since there's no law against driving on the canal, Officer Rolf Tjornstol, who investigated, issued the summons to Welsh when the youth admitted driving the car down to the water from a nearby farm.

Police Chief Ed Voorhees told The Record that the boys drove the Model A on the canal ice near Blackwell's Mills for almost a quarter of a mile, but "went down hit a soft spot." The car "went down to the bottom."

No one drowned or even suffered too much discomfort, apparently, and all would have been kept secret except for the vigilance of Russell Garretson the the N. J. State Conservation Bureau.

Patrolling the canal, Garretson saw tracks in the snow and spotted the vehicle. Fearing contamination of the canal's potable water, he reported his finding to police. Welsh will appear in Municipal Court to answer the charge Jan. 28. The boys succeeded Sunday in raising the car out of the water.

Township Talk

SOME THINGS CAN MAKE you feel older than time, and here's one that did it to us. The seventh and eighth grades at Kingston School watched the President's inauguration on portable television sets brought in by Hope Carroll, a student, and Mrs. Evelyn Leuck, substitute teacher. This brings back the memory of the March 4, back in 1864, the first time we ever heard a radio without earphones when the whole school in our small town in Georgia was marched down to the local drug store to hear the inauguration of President Coolidge.

THE OLD-TIMERS IN MIDDLEBUSH must be getting a real shot of nostalgia with the sight of the pictures being shown by the committee getting up the church history. Middlebush, despite its nearness to New Brunswick, didn't get invaded by us outsiders as soon as some other places, because electricity didn't come until about 1927. They didn't pave the back streets until 1941, and Joe Roach with his blacksmith shop hung on till late 1855.

CRUMB OF CONDOLENCE to the Board of Adjustment: the way of the anti-transgressor is hard, too.

NEXT WEEK WE'LL GIVE YOU a rundown on all the candidates for the board of ed. At this writing, there are more to come in, and all we can do is give you their names in this week's issue. This is important, folks. The candidate are all fine people, dedicated to public service, but their ideas and their training and their backgrounds differ. Please try to get to know about (Continued on Page 7)

Ladies Launder Washline Case In Court

A neighborly feud faced Magistrate George Shamy Monday night as Mrs. Hilda De Hart and Miss Dorothy Schenck, both of East Middlebush, accused each other in court of using offensive and indecent language on December 8.

Specially Mrs. De Hart charged Miss Schenck with using offensive and indecent language against her, and Mrs. Ethel Staats, a friend of Miss Schenck, charged Mrs. De Hart with interfering and molesting Miss Schenck by calling her vile names and threatening bodily harm.

Seems they both had different stories to tell, and both strongly denied using indecent language. After patiently listening to all conflicting sides, Judge Shamy dismissed the charges, explaining that punishment does not solve neighborly problems.

"You must respect each other and his property. Do to the other fellow what you would want done to you," Shamy advised the two.

Mrs. De Hart was represented by Manville Attorney Adam Chase. A charge was dismissed against Lee Griffen of Henry St., Franklin Township, of beating and abusing Allen Rowell of Franklin Blvd., Franklin Township, at the Griffen home, when Rowell testified in court that he wasn't sure the defendant had hit him.

The complainant said he didn't remember because he had had one drink too many that night.

Griffen testified that he had said good-night to Rowell at the door of his home. Griffen added that the complainant, probably intoxicated from liquor, might have tripped on the stairs and fell, bumping his head.

Barbeys Give Nephew Party

James Gaffney was guest of honor Tuesday night at a party given by his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Barbey of Charles St., Middlebush, in celebration of his 15th birthday.

Joining in the celebration were Barry Hough and Diane Selody, both of East Millstone; James H. Hough Jr., Roger Luby, Robert Van Liew, Douglas Murray, Douglas Bering, Edward Connelly, Richard Malnar, Melvin Jeffries, David Ward, Joseph Massone, Barry Massone.

Also, Mary Jo Staudt, Debra Roman, Joan Barbey, Patricia Gaffney, Carole Toth, Jo-Ann Pappalarido and Marilyn Young, all of Middlebush.

A giant three-tier birthday cake was baked by Mrs. Barbey.

Manville Truck Driver Hits Pole Near Old RCA

Walter Kubliza of Manville was issued a summons for careless driving at 10 p. m. Tuesday by Franklin Township police after his rack truck struck a pole in Easton Ave. The truck was found in a ditch near the old RCA buildings and the rack, which was ripped from the vehicle, lay in the highway.

Esser Relected Young Dems VP

Mrs. Barbara Esser, Lincoln Highway, was reelected vice-president of the Somerset County Young Democrats at a meeting held in Somerville on Tuesday. Richard H. Thiel Jr. of Somerville was elected president succeeding Richard Norris. Councilwoman Grace Gurisic of Rocky Hill was reelected secretary and Miss Nellie D'Alonzo is the new treasurer.

The organization elected Amedeo D'Adamo of North Plainfield and Miss Mary Kearns of Bernardsville to represent it on the executive committee of the state Young Democrats.

The Somerset County group will install officers at the dinner they are sponsoring on Feb. 16 in honor of Miss Gurisic, the first woman and the first Democrat to be elected to the borough council in Rocky Hill. The dinner will be held at Somerville Inn, and the speaker will be William Kelly, New Jersey civil service commissioner.

Many people are inclined to do good, but they keep putting it off until tomorrow.

Speakers Remind Middlebush PTA Of Civic Responsibilities

"The Citizens' Responsibility in Public Education" was the subject of Dr. William Mendo, vice-president of Somerset County Board of Education and president of the Hillsborough Township board at a meeting of the Middlebush PTA held Wednesday night in the school cafeteria.

He pointed out that the greatest natural resource of any town is the young child and the only way to protect this resource is through education.

Donald Herzberg, executive secretary of the Engleton Foundation at Rutgers University, whose subject was "The Citizens' Responsibility in Local Government," told the members that it is the two-party system that has made America great. He added that "Independents" are not doing their share.

Herzberg described the work of the foundation which was set up at Douglass College and endowed with $2,000,000 for the purpose of interesting young people in practical government. Mrs. Frank Weisenborn was chairman of the program.

The president, Mrs. Lyle Hagmann, announced that Mrs. John Echert will be in charge of Candidates' Night to be held Jan. 30 at the school. Those unable to attend that night are invited to attend Pine Grove's Candidate Night Jan. 23.

Mrs. Echert was named health chairman and Mrs. Michael Kullha was made publicity chairman.

Mrs. Hagmann announced the first aid course will begin next month for a period of one day per week for nine weeks to be held at the Middlebush firehouse. The date will be announced the end of this month. Those wishing to sign up for the course are asked to contact Joseph Vertnes, chairman.

Norman Yingling gave his report on the library. Members voted that the library committee investigate the possibility of finding a suitable site to house a local library.

Mrs. Charles McClure requested donations of wool, knitting needles, etc. to be given to sick refugees at Camp Kilmer.

Donations may be left with Mrs. Ethel Stiger, building principal. Refreshments were served by the fifth grade mothers headed by Mrs. Robert Courtney and Mrs. Warburton. Mrs. A. Milchenoski is hospitality chairman.

Alfreys Have Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Alfrey of 7 Lafayette Ave., Franklin Township, are the proud parents of a daughter, Deborah Ann, born in St. Peter's Hospital, New Brunswick. The Alfreys have another child, a son, Thomas, who is three years old.

Mrs. Alfrey is the former Margaret Zilinski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Zilinski of New Brunswick.

Observe 40th Anniversary

A Norveville couple marked their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday evening at a supper in their home for 40 relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Peder Pedersen of Washington Ave., Franklin Township, have been residents of the Norveville community for the past 30 years. They were one of the founders of this Norwegian section of the township, and were former residents of Brooklyn. Both are natives of Norway.

Mrs. Pedersen is the former Miss Pauline Ostensen of Brooklyn. Pedersen is a composer and is presently employed for On Palm in Freehold.

The couple has three daughters, Mrs. John Langfeldt and Mrs. George B. Olsen of Franklin Township, and Mrs. Jerry Soborg of Fargo, N. D., and six grandchildren.

Rev. Mulder To Give Talk

The Rev. James B. Mulder, pastor-emeritus of the Highland Park Reformed Church, will preach the Sunday services at 11 a. m. at the Middlebush Reformed Church in the absence of the Rev. Vernon Dehmers, who is spending this week in Ohio. His subject will be, "The Cure For Loneliness."

The senior choir will sing, "The Lost Chord" by Sullivan.

Ushers will be Walter Chesner, Richard Jakopic, William Amerman and Charles Gehring.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet Monday at 8 p. m. at the parsonage.

A talk, entitled "Grandmother's Influence," will be given.

There will be no study group meeting Wednesday.

the water bonds in the sum of $5,335; to collect water bills from the board of education at Pine Grove School where city water is used, and in turn to pay bills for the water township hall uses from the Middlebush School well; to establish the salary of Mrs. Christine Storum as secretary to the board of health; to amend the temporary budget to include repairs to the sewer system.

At the request of the township treasurer, Mrs. Malce J. Hageman, the committee introduced an ordinance to set up a financial system so that only one person needed to sign the checks for salaries.

Mr. Bascom warned that time was running out on the setting up of the budget for the year, and suggested an adjourned meeting on Feb. 7 for that purpose.

Michael Peacos inquired about when the committee was going to require Kingston Trap Rock Co. to build a deep hole near Georgetown Rd. He said there was constant danger of children falling into the chasm, and that he had been promised since last May that the committee would force action on the matter. Several residents then inquired about the water-filled gully near Highland Ave. and the Pine Grove School and were told that this also would be attended to in the near future.

Several citizens expressed their appreciation to Committeeman Michael A. Lisi who is chairman of the road department, for work which has been done on their roads.

THE MARTHA GUILD IS JUST about to work itself out of a job. They made so many career dressings they have used up all the old sheets; they have been able to find, Tuesday they sent off to the nursing home the 10 dozen they made the previous night, but if they didn't get some more material to shut with they are going to have to shut up shop. If you have any worn-out clean sheets or other white cloth big enough, you can call a member of the guild, who will arrange to get them. Here are three phone numbers, so you won't even have to make a toll call: Mrs. Carl Hengert, PLanders 8-5285; Mrs. Joseph Geng, MOmouth Junction 7-4153; and Mrs. Charles Grammes, Charter 9-8638.

Board Of Education Slated To Complete Major Jobs

The township Board of Education was slated to meet last night to continue Tuesday night's uncompleted business of adopting several resolutions pertaining to bonding for the two new schools now under construction of Elizabeth Avenue and in Franklin Park.

The board was also scheduled to consider several items including:

- 1. The reason for the appointment of a curriculum coordinator for the 1957-58 school year.
- 2. A report on the work being done on the defective heating system at Hamilton School.
- 3. The setting of a policy to warn parents if a school is to be closed in an emergency.

A question by Mrs. Michael Peanos on her pay rate as a teacher.

Following a discussion of the needs for a curriculum coordinator or elementary supervisor at Tuesday's meeting, the board agreed to talk over the matter more thoroughly at the adjourned session.

Milton Stoll, acting chairman of the buildings and grounds committee, was given the task of reporting on an inspection of the Hamilton School boiler which has not been working properly for several months.

It was decided Tuesday to turn over to Arthur S. Westneat Jr. teachers' committee chairman, the study of making a policy to cover emergency school closings.

Parents have asked that some method be established to telephone them in the event that a school is closed once the youngsters leave home in the morning.

Mrs. Peanos appeared at the board meeting to question her pay status since she works only four hours a day. She pointed out that in past years she had worked extra hours without additional pay but is now receiving less money than she did for the same work.

Richard Lockner, of 32 Cooper Ave. questioned Lytle Hagmann, planning committee chairman, on the progress of his group on future schools.

Hagmann said it was his opinion that the next school to be built would be an elementary school of 22 rooms in the northern section of the township.

Lockner suggested that a citizen's group be appointed to help in the planning and he said that with the new residents moving into the township, such a group would be the means to acquaint them with local school problems and the need for additional buildings.

Kenneth Fink, vice-president, who was acting in the absence of Leonard Barsley, president, reminded parents that on Feb. 1 all pupils on double sessions will be shifted to the opposite session.

Those attending morning classes will begin afternoon sessions and vice versa, he said.

The Good Old Days

The public is invited to come to see themselves, their friends and relatives in a series of old-time photographs which will be included in the parent-teacher program of the Middlebush Reformed Church Feb. 1 at 8 p.m. in the church.

The program will feature "The Good Old Days" in the life of the church. Members of the committee in charge are Lois Howe, Dotty Sellers, Jenny Neary and Jane Denker.

Above are two of the old collection of photographs, depicting a Middlebush which has changed radically through the years.

Taxation Board Estimates Value Of Real Property

$8,193,067 has been estimated by the Somerset County Board of Taxation as the assessed value of real property in Franklin Township.

The board reports that the ratio of assessed to "true value" is 14.78. The aggregate "true value" is $55,438,558, according to the taxation board.

$593,922,850 has been fixed as the "true value" of all real estate in the county. The "true value" figure is used to determine the county tax rate and is designed to spread the cost of operating the county government equally between the 21 municipalities of the county on the basis of their tax ratables.

The local assessors' valuations are used for fixing the share of individual property owners toward the share of operating their local governments. In establishing the overall or aggregate "true" figures for each municipality, the county followed the procedure it used last year, giving 100 per cent this year.

This represents an increase over 1956 of $56,692,114 in the county's aggregate "true valuations" of real property.

The board contends that within the municipalities it is up to the assessors to see that taxes are equitably apportioned on the basis of each property's value. The "true value" figure is about five times greater than the valuations that were set by local assessors for local taxing purposes—$101,228,709.

Salvatore Liccardi Jr. was feted at a dinner party in his home Saturday evening in celebration of his birthday. Guests included his fiancée, Miss Mary Anne Galgini of Nixon and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Liccardi of Manville.

Liccardi recently returned home from a year's stay at Valley Forge Military Academy. Liccardi Sr. and sons, Alfred and Joseph, attended the Boat Show Wednesday at the Coliseum in New York.

Jack Paxton, a student at Hamilton College, is spending this weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Paxton.

Taxpayers Assn. Bans All Politics

The Franklin Township Taxpayers Association voted overwhelmingly Tuesday night not to support candidates for public office so as to safeguard the new group from becoming political in purpose. About 50 persons attended the 31st meeting.

The association also decided to establish a nine-member board of trustees. The plan is to have representation from nine sections of the township.

The new non-partisan, non-profit body discussed drawing up a constitution and affiliation with the state Taxpayers Association at last night's meeting.

Officers and trustees will be elected at the next meeting Feb. 5.
