

'They're Running Wild,' Says Calvo of Policemen

The police department, under part-time Chief Edwin Vorhees, were put on the hot seat at last night's meeting of the Township Committee, when Committeeman Casimir Calvo said, "Policemen take orders from no one now. They do what they want, and the department is running wild."

A question by Michael Laird, lone Democratic Committeeman, touched off the spark that led to a full scale conflagration concerning the police department. Laird mentioned a June 3 press release in which Calvo allegedly stated that a full-time police chief will be appointed by Jan. 1, 1958. He said he had not been informed of such a move, nor asked to vote on the question.

Committeeman Russell Laird, acting in the absence of Mayor James Maher, said the matter was "under consideration," but had never been discussed at an alleged executive session of the committee, excluding Laird, is charged. Frank Willard, 23 Arden St., asked why the change to a full-time police chief was being considered in light of the "excellent record" of Vorhees. Dr. Morgan Upton, Olcott St., Middlebush, expressed concern over Calvo's statement about the police department.

Laird replied that conditions were "not bad enough to keep citizens from sleeping at night" but that the Committee should study having a full-time chief. Calvo suggested that maybe the personnel of the whole department should be changed, and was interrupted by Thomas Welly of 9th Avenue who said, "Starting with Commissioner Calvo."

Peacos Charges Maher's Release 'Irresponsible'

Michael Peacos, Democratic Candidate for Township Committee, yesterday issued a statement in answer to Mayor James Maher's challenge to him June 6 regarding the Kingston Trap Rock Company. Peacos had stated at a Township Committee meeting May 23 that committee members were negligent in their duty to enforce zoning regulations at the quarry operations. Maher, in answer, called upon Peacos to "present facts or make a public retraction of his charge." Peacos' statement follows: "Mayor Maher's unwarranted attack upon me in my never-ending fight to make Franklin Township a better place to live is another example of his irresponsible press releases.

"THIS STATEMENT that the other members of the committee concurred with him is not completely true, since Mr. Laird told me that the press release was not discussed with him." Peacos stated.

"At the May 23 meeting, which Mr. Maher did not attend, I appealed to the Township Committee for the 28th time to take some positive action on a most hazardous condition which has existed at the quarry for several years. My appeal was stronger than the usual semi-monthly reminders, because I felt that allowing this condition to exist for so long a period of time without taking any positive action to correct it made me wonder if

LAIRD AND WILLARD touched off another hot discussion when each protested the frequent absence of Mayor Maher at meetings of the Committee. Laird said, "If he (Mayor Maher) cannot continue his official capacity as chairman then he should resign." Willard stated that citizens of the township were not being served by "a mayor who has been on an unofficial leave of absence for months."

A letter from the mayor was then read in which he requested a leave of absence without pay from the Committee until July 31.

Federal Government Grants $11,000 For New Master Plan

Franklin Township is one of three county municipalities which will share in a $255,003 federal grant to help pay the costs of new local master plans. The grant, which is to be matched by state and local funds, will be used for general planning work which includes surveys and maps.

Also sharing in the grant, the second of its type to New Jersey, are Metuchen and Middlesex.

REP. PETER FRELINGHUYSEN said the grant enables the state Department of Conservation and Economic Development to expand its program of planning assistance to smaller communities.

The project, designed to promote the orderly growth and development of the municipalities, will be supervised and administered by the department's Bureau of Planning. The study is expected to be completed in 18 months.

Committeeman Russell Laird said that the Community Planning Associates of Princeton had already been authorized to start work on the plan for Franklin, since the Township Committee had been assured that the funds would be available.

Youth Given 30-Day Jail Term, Fined Total Of $210 by Magistrate for Traffic Violations

Twenty-one-year-old Michael Simko, charged with driving while on the revoked list and "borrowing" a truck without the owner's permission, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail and assessed a total of $210 in fines Monday night in Municipal Court. The youth also faces an additional 60 days in the "pukky" unless the fines are paid within 30 days.

Magistrate George Shamy fined Simko $100 and $5 court costs for the charge of driving after having his license revoked and $100 and $5 costs for using his neighbor's vehicle. He pleaded guilty to both charges.

THE SUMMONSES were issued last week when Simko borrowed the truck of his former employer without his consent, drove to Newton in the middle of the night for a load of lime, then returned the next morning with the contribution of lime, police reported.

Owner of the truck, Frank Rogozinski also of Groucers Rd., told po-FUTURE SIGHT —Hopes for a 21-room elementary school on Franklin Boulevard were a reality yesterday when voters decided in favor of the $650,000 bond issue for erection of the school-house.

Approve $650,000 School Bond Issue By Light Vote

In a very light but decisive vote the citizens of Franklin yesterday, decided in favor of a $650,000 bond issue for the erection of a 21-room elementary school on Franklin Boulevard. The school will be a duplicate of a new one now under construction on Elizabeth Avenue, thus saving taxpayers a considerable sum in architectural fees. The customary architectural fee of 6 per cent will be reduced to 2 per cent because of the duplication of plans and specifications for the school.

The total vote, 365 to 184, reflected the lack of interest and publicity preceding the special election yesterday. The votes from the combined districts were as follows:

- DISTRICT 1: for 17, against 23.
- DISTRICTS 2 and 10: for 16, against 11.
- DISTRICT 3: for 15, against 12.
- DISTRICT 12: for 5, against 2.
- DISTRICT 5: for 12, against 23.
- DISTRICTS 6 and 9: for 25, against 43.
- DISTRICTS 7, 4, 11, and 13: for 215, plus 3 absentees, against 17.
- DISTRICTS 8 and 14: for 77, against 31.

Three previous school elections drew much larger numbers of voters to the polls.

TWICE IN 1955 the electorate rejected board plans for a junior high school. They downed the first proposal 594-413 in April and then in August defeated the second measure 1,536-747. The proposed bond issues were $986,000 and $1,080,000, respectively.

Last year pro-school forces rallied behind a plan to build two Structo-type schools, a 21-room and 10-room school. They adopted the $998,000 proposal by a vote of 1,061-170.

Township Talk

Township officials along with members of boards of adjustment, planning, education, the housing authority and industrial development commission, should not have to spend their own money in addition to time and interest in matters which concern the public. School board members have been heard to complain, with good reason, of the cost of telephone calls and transportation for board business.

The Industrial Development Commission has a budget of $4,000 for this year, but, as far as we know, emptied their own pockets to entertain and introduce to the township, businessmen who might be interested in locating here.

Every PTA officer knows that fulfilling her duties conscientiously will cost her money. County and state level meetings frequently involve meals, long-distance phone calls, transportation expenses and baby-sitting fees for the children left at home. However, PTAs can right this wrong since they have the machinery to make expense funds available for their representatives.

It seems a shame, that in addition to asking our public voluntary workers to give of their

Westneat Hopeful Of Schoolroom Fall Occupancy

Arthur S. Westneat Jr., senior member of the Board of Education, Wednesday expressed concern over the delay in construction at the Elizabeth Avenue and Franklin Park schools due to the carpenters' strike now going on. Westneat, however, stated that there was still hope that the schools could be used by September.

The 10-room Franklin Park School is very nearly completed. Westneat said, and "the board is doing its best to adapt its plans to the delay caused by the strike."

THE BOARD has given priority in construction to the classrooms over the multi-purpose rooms, and is hopeful that at least the classrooms can be used by students in the fall.

"It is to be hoped that at least the 11-room wing of the 21-room Elizabeth Avenue School will be ready for occupancy by September," Westneat added. The whole school is now about six weeks behind the completion schedule, and even six weeks delay can cause "knotty problems to the board in letting bus contracts and continuing double sessions at existing schools," he concluded.

Quarry Hazards Being Removed

Mayo Sisler and Michael Peacos, Democratic candidates for Township Committee on a "Clean Government" ticket, have announced success in their drive to force removal of safety hazards at Kingston Trap Rock Company.

Peacos stated that the company has begun building a steel fence around the exposed 50-foot cliffs and that a raised roadway now under construction on the property will help to screen the hazard from the public road.

He said he caught Simko returning with the truck. The youth apparently had been drinking, police said.

Rogozinski signed the complaint for "borrowing" his vehicle, and investigating Officer Lawrence Collier preferred the second.

SIMKO WAS found guilty last year by Magistrate Shamy of driving while on the revoked list, leaving the scenes of two accidents, and twice for reckless driving. Also, in 1955, he was found guilty by former Magistrate Vernon Hagemann of careless driving.

"When are you going to learn?" Judge Shamy asked Simko. "I learned now," the youth replied.

THE MAGISTRATE told Simko, "This time I'm going to do my best to see that you do," then ordered the full term and fines.

Another young man, 21-year-old Robert Howard of New Brunswick, also charged with driving a vehicle without the owner's permission, was fined a minimum $100 and $5 costs, and $10 and $5 costs for driving without a license.

The summonses were issued by Officer Naaman Williams after Howard accidentally "bumped" his auto into a police car while police were busy breaking up a fight. Officer Williams told Magistrate Shamy that Howard apparently had become entranced with the fight and didn't watch where he was driving.

JOSEPH R. SIKO, 33, of 37 Holly St. lost his driver's license for 30 days and paid $25 and $5 costs for reckless driving, preferred by Officer Collier. Siko was summoned after being involved in an accident May 28 at Franklin Boulevard and Easton Avenue.

Exclaiming it was his first violation, Judge Shamy told Siko, "You did a good job for the first time, but you're getting a break."

time and energy, we also require them to pay for the privilege.

A minor crusade we attempted to set in motion some weeks ago has died aborning. We had complained about the toll calls necessary in order to keep in touch with various areas in the township.
M. T. O'Donnell, manager of the Bell Telephone Company in New Brunswick, was not sleeping at the switchboard, however, and has let us know why things are as they are. Mr. O'Donnell, incidentally, reads six local weekly newspapers in order to serve the people and his company better.

Mr. O'Donnell had a map to help explain the ins and outs of toll calls to us, but lacking a map, we'll just say that if you can telephone people in a three-mile radius of the central office where you pay your phone bill, then you are receiving maximum service. Extending the area would hike your basic service rate while reducing the number of toll calls you make. Mr. O'Donnell believes that keeping the basic service rate at a minimum will satisfy a majority of telephone users.

We shall now abandon our telephone crusade and stick to tennis courts, zoning ordinances, and the disposal of two ancient porcelain sink legs, still available at a ridiculous price—nothing. Speaking of disposal, we discovered while reading a zoning ordinance the other day that whoever dumped those dozens of tree stumps in our backyard was acting illegally. Anyone with a portable saw and an urge to store firewood for a long, hard winter is welcome.

Did you get your 1957 tax bill yet?

Well, sit down before you open the envelope. The bill will be some 300 points higher, about 18 percent more than you've been paying of late.

However, the fault does not lie entirely with new schools and roads. The proportion of school-age children to taxpayers is about the same as in the past, and, although we need many new roads, we have additional taxpayers to help share the burden.

We would hazard that the fault lies, more than with anything else, with the lack of industrial rates.
Eugene Cross, planning consultant, said at a recent meeting of the Planning Board, that it is unlikely that the master zoning plan, under the direction of a Princeton firm, will be completed before two years have elapsed.

In the meantime, our governing bodies permit mass housing developments to come into the township with an apparent disregard for the rising tax rate and school-housing problem.

So our tax bills climb. What we need is a moratorium, a marking time until the zoning plan is a reality. If we take a long look at neighboring municipalities with lower tax rates, we'd quickly note their high incidence of industry as compared to mass housing growth.
We in Franklin need a better balance between our industrial growth, which supplies tax dollars without accompanying school-age children, and the welcome mat spread for housing developments.
It's the only way to cushion our tax bill.

Willard requested that the Committee let him know if it would vote no or yes or "just let die" an ordinance introduced by List to put on the November ballot a proposal to create a board of part-time tax assessors in place of the full time single tax assessor the township now has. Laird asked that the ordinance be voted on at once, stating that the "people should have an opportunity to decide what they want." Township attorney Robert Gaynor, however, said that the ordinance did more than "propose the establishment of a board of tax-assessors," but also set duties of the said board. Gaynor was granted time to study the ordinance and present his opinion at the July 11 meeting of the Committee.

JAMES PERRI of West Parkway asked for a report on the progress of the Committee in asking the V and H Construction Company, owned by Vincent and Herman Calvo, to remove abandoned trucks from land on West Parkway. Laird stated that he had visited the alleged "junkyard" and that some of the trucks had been removed.
The Calvo brothers had been granted six months to clean up the area and have now been granted an additional thirty days, according to Laird, who stated that the additional time allowed would be faster

The Committee agreed to pay $7,504.15 to the Fidelity Construction Co. of New Brunswick for improvements completed on Wilson Road, Rodney, Dayton, and Runyon Avenues, and Corleyn's Lane.
A contract was awarded to Caruso Brothers on a low bid of $3,742.35 for utility extensions to the Housing Authority tract on Millstone Road. The Committee voted $217,- 000 in school taxes to be paid for the first quarter of 1957.

Alan Gillies of Arden Street submitted a letter describing a "hazard to children" caused by buckling and raised sidewalks due to expansion from heat in the Hollywood Homes area. The Committee voted to notify the bonding company but Gaynor stated that if a performance bond was not outstanding from the developer, the residents would be financially responsible for repairs to the walks.

A letter from Police Chief Vorhees commended the work of Reserve Officer Earl Layton in the conduct of a dog census.

Mrs. Morgan Upton submitted a letter requesting the Committee's consideration of the use of space in Township Hall for a branch of the Somerset County Library. The library was moved from the basement of Township Hall to a private home last Sunday because of alterations and remodeling work being started on the building. Mrs.
Upton stated that the circulation of the library had gone up in the past year from some 20 books a week to an average of about 90.
She added that school children would find a location in the building more convenient than one in a private home. Laird replied that there would probably be room in the building when alterations were complete.

Max Klei arrived at Little Amer-

Assessor Board Topic Of Meeting

A public meeting to discuss the question of changing from a single tax assessor to a board of assessors will be sponsored by the Men's Democratic Club Wednesday evening, July 10. Application has been made to the Board of Education for the use of the Pine Grove School for the meeting.

Mayor John Duffy of Piscataway Township will speak at the meeting, discussing the experience Piscataway has had in making the change and the results gained thereby.

The present tax assessor in Franklin, Stephen C. Held, is not a candidate for reelection, and has stated to the press that in his opinion, the job is now too complicated for one man.

Democratic Township Committeeman Michael A. Lisl has introduced an ordinance calling for a referendum on the change at the next general election, but his colleagues on the township committee have not gone along with it.

Summer Recreation Program Expanded; Play Areas Added

A greatly expanded summer program of supervised recreation for boys and girls will be launched Monday, July 1. Plans for the six-week program have been announced by Alex G. Sidar, chairman of the Youth Guidance Council, and Edward C. Blumberg, township recreation director.

Youngsters will enjoy activities in nine playground areas in various sections of the community. Four new play areas have been added to the five in use last year.

TWO SUPERVISORS will direct activities at each of the playgrounds during the program developed by the Youth Guidance Council. Each area will be supervised from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. every weekday from July 1 through Aug. 9.

New play areas include the Rutgers Heights playground in Emerson Road, the Hamilton Street school area, Griggstown (church area), and the East Millstone school area.

The established areas include the Middlebusch school area, the Pine Grove Manor school area, Kingston school, Phillips school in Franklin Park and District No. 2 (Elizabeth Avenue).

IN ADDITION to a well-rounded daily schedule of playground activities planned for youngsters of all ages, highlights of the summer program includes trips to Storyland Village and the Bronx Zoo.

the interests of the majority were being sacrificed for the benefit of a few," the Democratic Candidate said.

Peacos continued: "In January 1956 when Mayor Maher was informed of the hazard he stated that he would look into the matter and make every effort to correct it. However, at each subsequent meeting the answer became a ditto, i. e., 'We will look into the matter.'"

"IN APRIL 1957, Mr. Laird and the township engineer visited the quarry and both agreed that the hazard was of major proportions. I also spoke to Mr. Laird and Mr. Jackson and both agreed that a hazard did exist." Peacos added.

He commented, "With the Township Committee in accord that a hazard does exist and that all is on the 'up and up,' I feel that Mr. Maher as mayor should answer the following questions for the citizens of Franklin Township:

- "1. Why has he allowed this condition to exist for so long a period of time?"
- "2. Why hasn't the township enacted an ordinance, as has been requested, to cover such conditions anywhere in our township?"
- "3. Why was the quarry allowed to build a dormitory for migrant workers without a building permit or variance?"
- "4. Why was our zoning ordinance so set up as to allow for future quarrying in all agricultural zones in our township against the wishes of many of its citizens?" Peacos concluded.

From The Mailbag

Dear Editor:

We all owe to the men of the volunteer fire department, police department and rescue squad our deepest thanks and guidance. These men (without pay) give up their time and sacrifice their lives defending our homes and manning our fire trucks and ambulances.

When a call comes through, these men do not know what lies at the other end of this call. It may be a false alarm OR someone's house burning down. It may be no more than a distraught mother whose child has fallen from a bike and skinned his knee OR it may be a baby who is strangling and in need of resuscitation. To each of these calls these noble men answer with the same urgency—a matter of life or death.

Anyone interfering with these men should first consider that someday it may be their home, or their child, or maybe they themselves who need these men, and need them now, not ten or fifteen minutes later after someone has interfered with their answering the call. When that siren blows we all know that there will be men coming from all directions in the greatest haste to attempt to perhaps save someone's life or property. It is our duty, if our children are in the street (where they certainly do not belong), to get them on sidewalk out of danger.

Let their conscience be their guide. If they can truthfully say that five or ten minutes won't make any difference to the life of an infant who is strangling, or an adult who is urgently in need of oxygen, or a baby who is in a hurry to be born, or to an automobile accident victim who is injured, or to a house that is burning, then let them stop all the volunteers they want.

But let me say this to the residents of this community. Being a registered nurse, I know that these things have to be treated with the utmost haste and efficiency, and anyone interfering with these lifesavers is not necessary to our community. There are other more worthwhile causes to be argued in our rapidly growing township, such as the extreme need for schools and industry.

Again let's take our hats off to these courageous men and let's thank God that we have such residents in our community. Thanks, fellows, and keep up the good work.

"THAT'S ANOTHER violation— leaving your motor running," the magistrate told the woman.

Lyon Charged With Violations Of Plumbing Code

A Franklin Park developer is scheduled to appear in Municipal Court Monday night to answer five complaints signed by Plumbing Inspector George C. Hubner which charge the developer with violations of the plumbing code.

William F. Lyon of Franklin Park is charged with failing to obtain a permit for construction last May of a septic tank at a dwelling located on Franklin Parkway. Also, according to Hubner, the septic system does not conform to the restriction set in the plumbing ordinance.

THE TANK was constructed at a dwelling purchased a month later by Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Stephens. Upon Stephens' complaint that sewerage was seeping out in front of his home Hubner made a check with dye, which he said showed that sewerage flowed from the sanitary system in the house and out into a ditch along Franklin Parkway.

Hubner said that last week he went to the Stephens property and dug around the septic tank where he found that the inlet was sprung and actually tilted uphill.

1 of the dog control law. Mrs. Jackie Reusing, also of Elizabeth Ave., charged King allowed his dog to run at large, causing injury to her cattle.
