Tagliarini Elected President Of Men's Democratic Group

Joseph M. Tagliarini of Fourth St., was elected president of the Men's Democratic Club at a meeting held at Fairlawn this week. Tagliarini succeeds Dr. Hubert G. Schmidt who was not a candidate for reelection. Harold Na-year, who had also been nominated for the office, withdrew in Tagliarini's favor and moved that his election be unanimous.

Other officers elected were: vice president, Edward R. Rey of Kingston, who succeeds Tagliarini; corresponding secretary, Napean, who succeeds Dr. Kenneth G. Wolfson; and Dr. Harold Wetts and Dan Fernandez Jr. who were reelected to the positions of recording secretary and treasurer. Rey was the first publisher of the RECORD.

IN ASSUMING the office Tagliarini told the club. "In the past two years this organization has assisted in the election of a Democratically controlled township committee, a team composed of qualified and sincere men, whose combined efforts are dedicated to promoting the interests of all the people.

"Today," he said, "our organization is face with a new challenge. We must reassure the people of Franklin that the efforts of this organization will continue to be directed towards good government. With this conviction we will continue to maintain public confidence."

Tagliarini suggested to the club a five-point program for the coming year: 1. Interpretation of party policy, 2. Development of available talent, 3. Social activity, 4. Educational activity, and 5. help in formation of party policy.

TAGLIARINI is a graduate of Rutgers University and is employed at American Cyanamid Company. He was local campaign manager for Arthur Meredith's campaign for assembly last fall, and has served as secretary and vice-president of the Men's Club.

Guest speakers at the meeting were Board of Education members Arthur Westneat and Milton Stoll, who discussed the school budget to be put before the voters in February. Westneat pointed out that this is the first time the annual budget, for education, has topped the million mark, and shows an increase of 30 per cent over last year. Seventy per cent of local taxes go for schools, he said, yet a very small percentage of the

HS Bond Issue May Be Seen In 18 Months

A bond issue to finance a high school in the township possibly will be seen on the upcoming special election, reportedly within 18 months. This was disclosed by Leonard Bardsley, president of the Board of Education, at a board meeting last Thursday night.

Bardsley commented on the decision of Princeton authorities to refuse accepting township students at Princeton High School after September 1961. He stated that this decision requires that quick action be taken by the board.

EXPLANATIONS of each appropriation in the proposed $1,454,505 annual budget were given at the meeting. Three budget items to be decided by voters at the annual (Continued on Page 8)

Laird To Head Republican Club

W. Russell Laird of Franklin Park has been elected by the local Republicans to lead their organization for the coming year.

Meeting Monday evening at Fairlawn the Republican Club held annual elections and in addition to selecting Laird, who has just completed a term as Township Committeeman, they chose the following officers: Fred Figoratta of Como Dr., vice chairman; Ariene Vogel of 6 Holly St., vice chair-lady; Sal Argita of 3 Kaufman St., treasurer; Miss Dorothy Spaak of 21 Ambrose St., recording secretary, and Mrs. Helen Canavese of Henry St., corresponding secretary.

APPOINTED to form a publicity committee were James Maher of Amwell Rd., Carl Erbacher of Wilson Rd., and Mr. Pusey of Hollywood Homes.

Regular meeting date has been set for the second Tuesday of each month at the Fairlawn. Next meeting is scheduled to be held Feb. 11, at which time a Lincoln Day program will be presented.

School Budget Moves Through Session Intact

Despite attacks designed both to increase and decrease the budget, the Board of Education's $1,454,505 was unchanged at a meeting of the board last night.

Arthur S. Westneat Jr. with the aid of a graph, pointed to a rising population as the real cause of rising school costs in the township.

THE BOARD voted, 6-2, against a proposal to restore an $8,000 appropriation for an elementary school supervisor.

Dr. Sampson G. Smith, superintendent of schools, in reply to a question said the failure to include the supervisor couldn't help but affect the school program.

"But rather than endanger the passage of the budget by the voters," said Smith, "I think we can get along without him this year."

4 File B of E Candidates Petitions

Filing candidates petitions for three vacancies on the Board of Education Wednesday night were two incumbents and two women. The four candidates are incumbent board members J. Frederick Seyfarth Jr. and Norman Fisher, and Mrs. Frank J. Weisenborn of Den Herder Dr., Middlebush, and Mrs. Veronica Brzoska of Henry St.

FISHER, who has served on the board for one year, was elected to the term last February. Seyfarth has been a board member since Oct. 14 when he was appointed to fill the unexpired term of former board member Kenneth Fink.

Mrs. Weisenborn is the former editor of the RECORD, and was a teacher at Middlebush School.

She is a charter member of the Lay Advisory Committee established by the school board and was secretary of the LAC's transportation committee. She also served on the Citizens Advisory Committee.

A GRADUATE of Reed College, Portland, Ore., Mrs. Weisenborn is secretary of the Middlebush P.T.A. and a member of the Pine Grove Manor P.T.A. A resident of the township for five years, she and her husband are the parents of three children, all attending local schools.

Mrs. Brzoska, who has lived in the township all her life, is a charter member of the LAC and headed that group's population committee and was a member of its planning committee. She also was seen (Continued on Page 8)

Lt. Russell N. Pfeiffer was appointed acting police chief last night by the Township Committee.

The resignation of Police Chief Ed F. Voorhees was accepted.

Pfeiffer will serve until a legal examination of the department is completed by the committee and Township Attorney Arthur Mercede.

Voorhees informed the committee last month that he was resigning, but offered to serve until a successor could be named.

The resolution naming Pfeiffer was moved by Committeeman James G. Maher, police committee chairman.

THE COMMITTEE decided to ignore a voucher submitted by the Realty Appraisal Co. of West New York for work beyond its contract with the township. The bill was for $2,520.

Maher ordered the additional work done, but no such authorization was ever made by the committee.

The committee decided to advise the Spokesman Publishing Co., publisher of the RECORD, to furnish proof that it is entitled to publish the township's legal advertising. The RECORD published the advertising for 20 years before the committee, then Republican-controlled, discontinued the practice last year.

THE COMMITTEE received a report from Township Engineer William Binney that sidewalks leading to the Elizabeth Avenue and Middlebush schools would cost a minimum of $40,760. No action was taken.

School Board Backs Teacher

The Board of Education has decided to stand behind a township teacher charged with assault on a student in the Elizabeth Avenue School.

Members of the board decided to provide an attorney to represent Wilfred Cardoni, the school teacher, even though the state does not require him to do so.

CARDONI IS CHARGED with assaulting Robert Yakobouski on complaint of the boy's parents. The boy has been suspended from school and no date has been set for the hearing.

Magistrate George J. Shany announced in Municipal Court Monday night that the hearing was postponed at the request of Herman Breitkopf, Cardoni's lawyer. The boy, who lives at 53 Willow Ave., is an eighth grade pupil in Elizabeth Avenue School. The alleged assault occurred Jan. 7.

YAKABOUSKI'S FATHER, incidentally, was convicted of careless driving and fined $25 and $5 costs in Municipal Court Monday night by acting Magistrate William Rosenberg, who presided during a portion of the session.

A request was received by the Board of Education for an appropriation of $400 for the furnishing of a teachers room in the Elizabeth Avenue School.

The request drew some fire from Board Member Joseph A. Takacs over the cost of the contemplated furniture.

TAKACS ALSO questioned the township practice of giving teachers salary increments 10 years spent in the armed services.

"If his teaching career were interrupted—O.K.," said Takacs. "But if he goes in at 17 and comes out at 10 and then four years later decides to become a teacher—then I say that's not O.K."

Dr. Lyle E. Hagmann, another member, said the board ought to investigate the practice.

A petition signed by 143 citizens was presented to the board asking for an appropriation of $30,000 to provide transportation for elementary school children for whose transportation the state does not provide financial aid.

MARCHING TOO—Ronald Timpson, 12-year-old infantile paralysis victim, can't join physically in next week's Mother's March on Falls, but he insisted on doing his share anyway. Under direction of Mrs. Ruth G. Kessel, director of the Somerset County Chapter, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, he gives stickers on canisters that will be used by Somerset mothers when they "march" door-to-door through most communities of the county next Wednesday evening.

1938 COUNTY BUDGET

Local Bodies of the County of Somerset for the fiscal year 1938. It is hereby certified that the budget annexed hereto and hereby made a part hereof is a true copy of the budget approved by resolution of the governing body on the 17th day of January, 1938.

Certified by me: This 17th day of January, 1938. It is hereby certified that the budget annexed hereto and hereby made a part hereof is an exact copy of the original on file with the clerk of the Board of Freeholders, that all additions are correct and that all statements contained herein are in fact.

Certified by me: This 16th day of January, 1938.

COUNTY BUDGET NOTICE

Annual Budget of the County of Somerset for the fiscal year 1938. It is resolved, that the following statements of revenues and appropriations shall constitute the County budget for the year 1938. Be it further Resolved, that said budget be published in Somerset Messenger Gazette, in the issue of 25th of January, 1938. It is hereby certified that the budget and tax resolution was approved by the Board of County Freeholders of the County of Somerset, the 17th of January, 1938.

Table with 3 columns: STATEMENT OF BUDGET, Year 1937, Year 1938. Rows include Total General Appropriations, Less: Anticipated Revenues, Amount to be Raised by Taxation for County Purposes.

The 1938 Budget set forth herein shows a total requirement of $2,681,086.21, an increase of $271,049.83. However, amount to be raised by taxation is $1,719,106.98. The Budget of the Board of County Freeholders reflects an item of $5,000.00 to provide an evaluation of personnel and salary classification. A general salary increase for County employees as well as the addition of new positions represents a substantial increase in its appropriation. The Capital Improvements Fund reflects not only monies to support future bond issues but also the road rebuilding program with Federal Aid, but to provide possible bond issues for the acquisition of Park lands and to accomplish the re-indexing of the records of the County Clerk. The increased cost of the maintenance of County patients in state and local institutions is shown by the necessary increase in the portion of the budget referring Charitable, Correctional and Penal Expenses.

Your Board of County Freeholders will continue to strive to discontinue the County's affairs on the least economical basis consistent with the rapid growth of the County and the demands made for increased and new services.

YOUR GARDEN THIS WEEK

If you like to feed birds as they'll stay around your garden all winter, but balk at feeding squirrels, here's what you do:

Buy or make a feeder with a squirrel guard. This feeder is mounted atop a metal pipe that is driven into the ground. Between the feeder platform base at the pipe, and the pipe itself, have a metal cone, wide end down.

THIS FIENDISH gadget is such a severe test of squirrel acrobatics that few if any can make it over the top. But the critters can really jump, so if you're reserving your food for feathered friends, keep your feeder away from take-off spots like low limbs.

Last week, in attempting to get dener about squirrel-proof feeding stations, I invited readers to send in suggestions.

And along came a letter from a man who obviously knows what he's talking about. The upside-down funnel arrangement is only one of his suggestions.

FIRST, as they used to say around the court house, let me establish my witness as an expert. He is Frank Townsend, who confesses to being "a Notorious Bird Feeder."

And with good reason. Among and around their 10 acres of home in Pequannock Township, Frank and Eva, his wife, feed hungry mouths at 12 or 15 bird cafeterias.

They even like squirrels and put out feed for them, too.

Mrs. T. is an ex-director of the New Jersey Audubon Society and a member of the Eastern Bird Banding Association. You can't help but absorb some bird knowledge when you have a partner like her.

WELL, SO our bird-expert-by-marriage offers his second suggestion for deterring squirrels and discouraging bad-mannered and always-hungry jays and starlings. This is a feeder, about 16 by 20 inches, with a top for rain protection and a floor for the chow line. Glass on two sides helps keep out the weather.

And on the remaining two sides, the Townsends tack chicken-coop wire. This keeps out squirrels, jays and starlings, but lets in juncos, chickadees, titmice, Carolina wrens, downies, and various sparrows. Even a cardinal who watches his figure can squeeze through.

Frank Townsend remains a bird-lover in spite of numerous scars on his hands inflicted by excited cardinals, jays and grosbeaks during banding operations, he writes. And he offers a reminder to provide plenty of feed during mid-winter, especially if you've been setting a pretty good table. Nothing shakes the confidence of a feathered friend in the human race more than to find a bare cupboard

PROCLAIMS HEART MONTH--Gov. Robert B. Meyner, left, signs proclamation declaring February "Heart Month." Witnessing the signing is Norman Raitman, president of the New Jersey Heart Association.

February Is Heart Month

Governor Robert B. Meyner today proclaimed February as Heart Month at a brief ceremony in the State House, Trenton, attended by Dr. Norman Beltman, president of the New Jersey Heart Association.

In signing the proclamation, Governor Meyner noted the Heart Association's efforts to eradicate the needless fear of heart diseases which in itself is crippling.

ALTHOUGH cardiovascular diseases represent the principal chronic illness problem of our citizens, the advances made in improving care and treatment of heart victims during the past decade are remarkable," the Governor said.

The New Jersey Heart Association

tion, an affiliate of the American Heart Association, is launching its 10th annual drive on Feb. 1, with a goal of $840,000. The American Heart Association is the only national voluntary public health association devoted exclusively to combating diseases of the heart and circulation.

"The cardiovascular problem is a vast complex of disorders affecting this state alone," Governor Meyner stated. "To fight these diseases a mass public effort is required providing for essential scientific research, means of informing our physicians and the public, and community Heart programs such as the rheumatic fever control program now underway in New Jersey."

THE GOVERNOR expressed interest in the fact that cardiac research grants within the state, from the Association, climbed from a single grant of $5,000 in 1954, to several grants totaling $80,000 last year.

Because the New Jersey Heart Association and its 21 county chapters are conducting a campaign to continue and broaden such a program, he has proclaimed February as Heart Month, urging New Jersey citizens to give this effort fullest support.

There were 1,242 life insurance companies in the U.S. as of June 30th last, an increase of over 700 since 1950.

Salk polio vaccine has been so effective only 63 paralytic cases have developed in recent months out of 28 million persons inoculated.

Charity begins at home, if and when it begins.

HS Bond Issue

 school election on Feb. 11 include: Current expenses, $399,788; repairs and replacements, $15,950, and capital outlay, $26,050.
 These three items total $941,768. The amount to be raised by taxation is $1,097,401. However, $155,638 of the total amount will not appear on the ballot, since it has already been approved by voters who supported bond issues for the present schools.

BARDLEY said the chief factors in the 30.8 per cent increase in the 1958-59 budget over the current budget were:

A 17.7 per cent hike in instruction costs, an 8.5 per cent increase in the debt service and a 5.08 per cent hike in other school costs.

Aside from voters' decision on adoption of the budget and election of three school board members, two public questions will be decided.

THE PUBLIC questions are the transfer of $15,000 from current expense to capital outlay and the approval for purchase of five lots for the Hillcrest School site at a cost not to exceed $1,500.

 voted to put the item back in the budget.

A GROUP of persons who signed a petition asking the board to appropriate $30,000 for transporting children living between 1.5 and 2 miles from school asked that the question be put on the ballot at the Feb. 11 school election.

After much discussion, the board decided to study the problem and the appropriation.

After the budget discussion, the board voted to transfer $15,000 from the current expense account to the capital account as unappropriated surplus. Approval was also given to buy five additional lots for the Hillcrest School site at a cost not to exceed $1,500.

Old Grads to Hear Old Profs On Midwinter Alumni Day

Rutgers University alumni will attend classes and hear lectures by some of their former professors as they hold Midwinter Alumni Day on the campus Saturday, Feb. 15.

William T. Archibald of Middlebush, a member of the Class of 1941 who is general chairman of the affair, announced today that a four-part seminar had been made a feature of the annual program at the suggestion of many alumni.

"A RECENT ALUMNI survey showed that many of our graduates yearned to go back to college for a day," Archibald explained. "The program for Midwinter Alumni Day telescopes into an afternoon some highly important information on missiles, contemporary art, protein malnutrition and paractical politics."

The "graduate seminar" which will have University Provost Mason W. Gross as moderator will be held in the physics lecture room of Van Dyck Hall beginning at 2:30 p.m.

The lecturers will be Dean Elmer C. Easton of the College of Engineering, who will discuss satellites, rockets and missiles in a talk entitled "What's Going On Up There."

ALAN KAPROW, asistant professor of art, will speak on "Some Recent Aspects of Contemporary Art."

The way in which research into protein malnutrition can aid the underdeveloped area of the world will be discussed by Dr. Robert L. Squibb, professor of poultry husbandry and internationally-recognized authority on protein malnutrition.

Donald G. Herzberg, executive secretary of the Eagleton Foundation, will describe what his organization is doing to develop a better understanding of the importance of politics and to interest young people in political careers.

MIDWINTER ALUMNI DAY will open with luncheon in the University Commons. This will include the meeting of the Alumni Council at which the next alumni trustee nominee will be chosen. The presentation of the Past Presidential Award and the first Loyal Sons of Rutgers pin will also take place at this session.

The seminars will follow luncheon and will be followed beginning at 4:30 by a reception and buffet supper in the Alumni-Faculty Club. A basketball game with Lehigh University will conclude the day's activities.

The midwinter day committee in addition to Archibald includes Richard Lewis '28 of West Englewood, Joseph W. Gibson '31 of Newark, William J. McKenna '30 and I. Robert Kriender '36, both of New York City.

Rutgers Group Offers Speakers

The faculty committee seeking citizen support for the State University has offered the services of its speakers to some 5,000 New Jersey clubs and organizations.

Dr. Guido G. Weigand, professor of geography and secretary of the faculty committee, has announced that 100 members of the Rutgers faculty are available to discuss the organization and functions of the State University.

The speakers' group, called "The Rutgers 100," was established to inform residents of the State about the lack of higher educational facilities in New Jersey in the face of increasing enrollments.

A lot of people spend more money trying to keep up appearances than they spend to live.

Tagliarini Elected

 voters go to the polls in the school election.

Stoll said that both the elementary and high school population of the township has doubled since 1950. Although the number of classrooms has doubled since 1954, he added, there will still be inadequate space during 1968. Stoll said that the township has been warned that both Princeton and New Brunswick will be unable to accept students from Franklin in the future and it will be necessary for the township to build a high school.

IN RELINQUISHING the presidency of the club, Dr. Schmidt thanked the members for the cooperation which he said produced a successful year, and urged them to join the Somerset County Democratic Club also.
