

LINDEN HIGH SCHOOL 121 WEST ST. GEORGES AVENUE LINDEN, NEW JERSEY 07036

JERRY CARTER, "Why aren't you changed for gym?" GINA GIACCOBE seems a bit confused. The tiger roars with spirit. "Whatcha doing?" DANNY TURON. "Is it cold out?" asks TRAVIS SMALL.

What does smiling for a picture have to do with physics? ZOFIA JANUSZ is having a wonderful birthday. This group doesn't seem to mind posing for the camera. TEISHA and SHAK-EERAH are great friends. MELISSA BALLOU shows that she is having a great time.

SEEING DOUBLE

Clockwise: Shamika and Shamina Glover, Snow and Sky Pippin, Johanna and Beatriz Badillo, Steffany and Tiffany Glover, Leslie and Jillian Hanger, Monika and Gosia Smerdel.

When was the last time you saw one set of twins, not to mention six? Linden High School has become accustomed during the past four years to asking "Which one are you?" when encountering one of our sets of twins. Whether identical or fraternal, similar in appearance or as different as cats and dogs, one thing is for sure; having twins around sure can be confusing!!

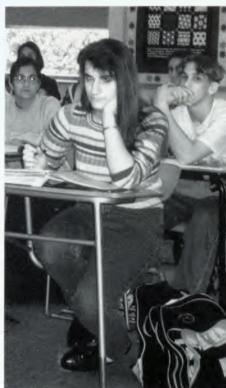

DANNY, NICK, and ED-GARDO work well as a group. TREMAINE and ME-LANY are having a great time at the Grambling game. What seemed so far away then, is now right around the corner for LIZ SCHWARTZ. "What is it in your locker that is so scary?" TARA BROOKS. Wake up, RYAN HODGE!!!

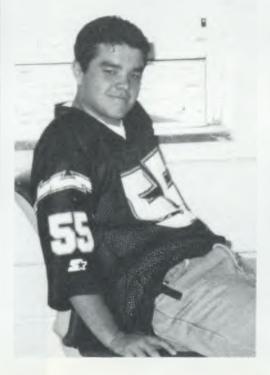

FABIENNE FRANCOIS gets ready to play some music. MATT JONES gets caught upon his current affairs. HEATHER, ED, and MARGARET, "What are you doing eating in class?" MARIA and BERNARDO can never get enough of each other. BRUNO FERREIRA is taking it easy. MARTHA BABIARZ, "Didn't you do your homework?"

KICKING BACK

"How's the water Angelica and Rob?" Loving sisters Johanna and Beatriz share a moment in Puerto Rico. Don't fall Amanda Prossick, those rocks look slippery. Renee and Michelle vacation in Myrtle Beach.

Evita Figueroa shows her new bathing suit on the band trip in South Carolina. Natasha Kuban — "Are you alright?"

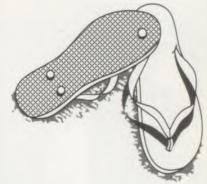

Joey Roman is as high as a kite. Jennifer, Snow, Danielle, Tracy, and Sky model on the boardwalk. Renee Gurgacz meets Snow White in Disneyland.

in Disneyland. "Do you have a license to drive that, Mario Principato?" Erica Bilyk acts Goofy! Alex Lomovtsev salutes before he walks the plank.

Janelle Weaver turns around to pose for the camera. "Everybody raise your hands." says Randy Grider. "Hold on," says Sara Terhune "Get my good side." Lori, Liz, and Amanda get together for a picture before heading off to the prom. Look at those two studs, can that be Joe and Dan.

Rob Rivera fixes his dates corsage as they get ready to go onto the dance floor. Don't stick yourself Sky!

The loving couple, Stacey and Rich, snuggle up for a picture. "Smile for the camera" says Sheila Barringer. "Let me fix your hair." says Stephanie to her date.

Joe and Erica take time out for a picture to treasure the night.

Wake up Steve Klutkowski, the night isn't over yet! Senior girls are all dressed up for this wonderful night. Jill and Leanne show their Colgate smiles.

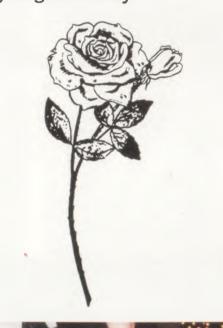

Prom King and Queen, Curtis and Penny, dance to Cupid. Steve, Randy, and Kevin are all ready for a night of fun. Maria and date take time out from dancing to snuggle for a picture. Angelica and Rob forget about the food and get close for a picture. "Come on Davin, please dance" says Johanna.

Cupid doesn't lie, but you won't know unless you give it a try.

Seniors get down on the dance floor.

Everyone is all smiles and ready for the night to come.

SENIORS

RANDY and KEVIN look so happy to be seniors. The Tiger's Eye! Being seniors makes PATRICIA and SANDY happy.

Look at any senior. See the confident air, the superior attitude, the aura that "I can do anything." That's the eye of the tiger that seniors are showing, and it is evident in the members of the Class of '98. It is a feeling that all underclassmen yearn for and one day will possess. They will one day be in "The Tiger's Eye."

It's a blast from the past for DARIN CICHOWSKI. RON MESSERLE shows his sense of style. It's the three amigos. BRIDGET, LAURIE, and JESSICA. Presenting CHARLES LEVERETT.

"PLAY HARD"

THE BEST EVER. These words describe the girls soccer team performance for the 1997-98 season. Records broken by the team include: most wins in a season with 10, best record in a season 10-8, and Lori Mathisen broke the team record for the most goals scored in a season with 18. Words we lived by were "PLAY HARD", and we did.

TIGERS KICK INTO ACTION

This year the boys soccer team had a new coach, Coach Sullivan. Under the guidance of Coach Sullivan the Tigers went on to defeat

Union Catholic 5 to 1. Although the Tigers were left struggling, the defense kept them in the game. The defense was led by seniors BRUNO FERREIRA, JOHN FORSTENHAUS-LER, and MARIO PRINCIPATO, while junior CHRIS HUDAK and sophomore DAN KLIE helped boost them up. ANDY MARQUES was the leading goal keeper who did a great job this season and put all his effort into the games no matter what the score was. All of our seniors will be greatly missed next year and the team won't be complete without them.

Concentrating on the ball, captain JOE HUDAK gets into scoring position. BRUNO FERREIRA fires the ball to the opposite side of the field for a Tiger advantage. Captains JOHN FORSTENHAUSLER, MARIO PRINCIPATO, BRUNO FERREIRA, and JOE HU-DAK meet with the referees to discuss the rules of the game.

The 1997-1998 girls tennis season was a big slam. Many newcomers were added onto the team along with four returning champs. Victory after victory was accomplished by singles and doubles players Renee, Liz, Michelle, Marta, and Jana. Freshman Jade Trihn was put onto the position of 1st singles with her years of experience. The girls went to the Union County tournaments with high hopes and despite the rain delay they played with confidence and made it past the preliminaries to attempt victory against higher ranked schools. Coach Wilbur Aikins kept up the spirits with a daily supply of snickers and snapples for added energy. He moved on after the season and will be missed.

Coach Wilbur Aikins caught off guard before a match. Elizabeth Schwartz definitely knows where to aim. Renee Gurgacz has no doubt she will wreck the opponents with her superb skills. Jana Halecka can never be caught without a smile or a giggle no matter how difficult the competition may seem. You'd better run fast and far if you see Marta Nowicka with a racket, she never stops hitting that ball.

TAKE IT TO THE HOOP

The 97-98 Boys Basketball team, under the direction of new Head Coach Phil Colicchio, had a positive season. Led by senior captains DAQUAN CAPERS, STEVEN HATCHER, TERRY PEGRAM, and JUSTIN WILLIAMS, the young tiger team ranked number five in the county and qualified for The NJ State Tournament. Underclassmen who have gained valuable experience include team leading scorer sophomore Jamaal Tate and classmate Danny DelValle. Juniors Ray DelValle and Chris Rayford also have had productive seasons. The future looks promising with four starters returning and a 18-2 J.V. Team.

SENIOR CO-CAPTAINS: SKY PIPPIN and LORI MATHISEN

The 97-98 Girls Basketball team, under the direction of new Head Coach Santa Goleme had a year of rebuilding and learning experiences. EYE OF THE TIGER

This year the wrestling team had a very successful season. (So what else is new). They were always very competitive and measured up very well against tough teams such as Cranford and Shabazz. Part of the team's success was because of captains WAYLECK STRADFORD and JOHN FORSTENHAUSLER. But they could've never done it without the leadership of seniors JOE MORETTE, BRIAN BIANCO and CHARLES LEVERETT.

AN EYE FOR SUCCESS

The 1997 Girls Gymnastics team had an eye for success. This included senior Missy Prigge who had her best season ever. Her biggest achievement was becoming the 1997 Union County Vaulting Champion. She also placed 3rd on beam, 6th on floor, and placed 3rd overall. She has accomplished the most in her senior year and will be greatly missed.

This year's team was sparked by a great dedication and enthusiasm. Leading the team next year will be Tina Sharo, with a hopeful floor routine. We hope for the best from all. The team expects a bigger turnout of more participants, but will miss Missy Prigge and Telisha Montgomery.

The 1997-98 edition of the Girls Varsity Indoor Track and Field Team had a very successful season. The highlight of COACH MEHALICK's final season was the crowning of sophomores KIERA UNDERWOOD and TINA SHARO as Union County High Jump Relay Champions. The girls competed successfully in many individual, county and state level championship meets.

We were a very young team with no seniors on the squad. Girls having outstanding seasons and bright futures were Kiera, Tina, Amy, Kim, Elizabeth I., Alaina, Elizabeth L., and Dana.

SERVING AND SMASHING TO VICTORY

The '97 Boys Tennis Team, with new head coach Edward Paskewich, had one of the most successful seasons in recent memory, compiling an 8-4 record at the time of printing. Seniors Ed Dumala, Jayson Gassler, Lenny Loiselle, and Alex Lomovtsev played an important role and will be missed. Junior Kevin Bielen, Union County champion at first singles, continued his personal winning ways, compiling a sparkling 15-0 record in conference play and setting the tone for the rest of the team. The future looks bright for the team, since many underclassmen will be returning and we look forward to more success.

Upperclassmen who contributed were Lourdie Bourgouin, and Larietta White while underclassmen Cassandra Abelard and Liz Infinito also played a valuable part in gaining team points.

Linden High School's Art Club cultivates independent and artistic judgement and exposes students to the world of art through visitation to studios, galleries and other art related events. The knowledge acquired in the arts will carry through their entire future. The Future Homemakers of America is an organization created to help youth assume active roles in society through economics education in areas of personal growth, family life, vocational preparation and community involvement. Students complete various projects and participate in competitions with other area schools.

PEER MEDIATION

Peer Mediation is a relatively new group in Linden High School. The members go through training sessions on various issues; then use what they learn to try and help settle disputes among students and help them with their problems.

PEER GROUP CONNECTION

Peer Group was designed to focus on helping freshman adjust to the high school. They are taught how to deal with peer pressure and cope with many problems they may face. They are also given a place to belong and are welcome with a warm heart. Peer Group is led by a group of 30 seniors divided into three periods. They are trained by advisors to run activities to which they show to freshman when they meet weekly.

Advisors: Ms. Goleme, Ms. Aguero, Mr. Bullock, Miss Donegan, Mrs. Kolesa, Mrs. Gergely.

Per. 3: Mrs. Gergely & Ana Tam, Jerry Carter & Erica Bilyk, Kendall Troutman & Sky Pippin, Ryan Hodge & Melissa Ballou, Dustin Hanna & Clifford Thebodeau.

Period 3 listens closely to the directions for the next activity.

Per. 4: Mr. Bullock, Snow Pippin & Curtis Durham, Avery Wheeler & Rebecca Period 4 uses team work to get across the grass as one. MontesdeOca, John Forstenhausler & Angela Jones, DaQuan Capers & Amanda Prossick, Joe Hudak & Janikah Valentine.

The 1997-98 Cynosure Staff along with Mrs. Gergely worked hard to produce this years yearbook. Editors Amanda Prossick, Elizabeth Schwartz, and Erica Bilyk sacrificed their time and showed dedication to meet deadlines. Other contributions were made by senior veterans Renee Gurgacz, Latoya Stevenson, and Natasha Kuban and senior newcomer Lisa Infinito. All members searched through photos and dealt with a cramped room to fill the yearbook with memorable moments.

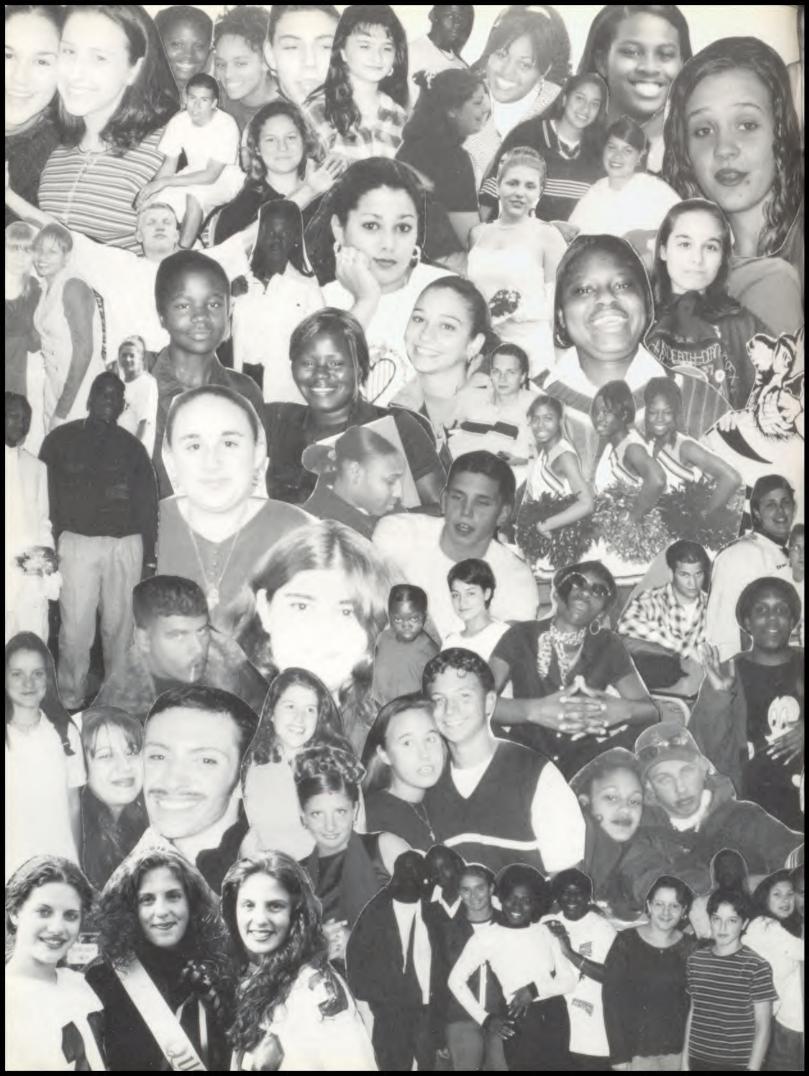

Erica asks a clueless Kevin to help her with photo captions. Hey Tremaine, that doesn't look like cynosure work you got there! Are Renee, Erica, and Tash hiding from Mrs. Geregly in the wood stack at wood shop? Time for another group photo. Elizabeth Schwartz works hard to meet the deadline.
