Cynogure
2007
Vol. 87

The 2006-2007 school year has finally come to a close. Never again will the class of 2007 hear the familiar phrase "Be careful out there." Instead we will have to live and learn the ways of life on our own through personal choices, advice from friends, and past experiences. If you don't take anything with you from your highschool career here at LHS, please take with you the morning reminder from principal Barry D. Black: "Respect each other, take care of each other and above all...

Be Careful OUT THERE!

A group of approximately 12 students posing in a pyramid formation on a grassy field. The students are dressed in casual attire, including green and black t-shirts, white pants, and various hats. They are all smiling and looking towards the camera. The background features large trees and a clear sky.

Drama, Gossip,
Girlfights, Guys, Hugs
and Kisses,
Truths and Lies.
Let's forget the bumpy past and remember the good times that will always last. The tears,
the laughs we spent together, four special years that stay with us forever. Orientation seems like only yesterday, now college
and careers aren't so far away. So close your eyes and remember it all. How we helped each other when we would fall. The end is approaching and the future is near. The bittersweet end of our high school years.

We are very lucky here at LHS to have a faculty and staff that are full of energy and the desire to make our school the best it can be. From after school activities-like the student faculty basketball games, to quick conversations in the hallways, to creative lesson plans and more-Linden High is a wonderful place to work AND learn.

Guy Peluso pauses in the hall between classes. A sort of renaissance man in his own right, Mr. Peluso teaches math and history. He is famous for his stories in the classroom and the teacher's lounge.

"Lil' Frances" Perez is always smiling-no matter how crazy her job here at LHS gets. We couldn't do it without her!

Principal, Barry D. Black

Although the phrase "be careful out there!" may not have originated at LHS, the tradition born of Mr. Black's morning announcements is a lasting one.

A gym teacher, football coach, vice principal and finally principal here at Linden High, he has left a mark not soon to be forgotten. Enjoy your retirement Mr. Black and thanks for so many great memories!

A black and white action photograph of a female soccer player in motion. She is wearing a white short-sleeved jersey with the number '16' printed in dark letters on the front. She is also wearing dark-colored shorts, white socks, and dark cleats. Her blonde hair is tied back and is blowing in the wind. She is running on a grassy field with white yard lines. In the background, other players and spectators are visible but out of focus. The lighting suggests it might be late afternoon or early evening.

all grown up!

As we walked through the doors,
we were
finally sophmores.
With two years
left until the big date, we enjoy
our time until we graduate.
As the class of '09
we're in our high school prime.
Just at the halfway
mark,
our fun is just beginning to start.

Strides of Improvement

Linden High's Girls Varsity Soccer Team ended their fall 2006 season with a respectable record of eight wins and ten losses--quite an improvement from their previous year. The girls worked very hard and showed a lot of heart and teamwork throughout the entire season, and it was apparent on the field. Several of the girls received honors on the 1st and 2nd All-Watchung Conference Teams, as well as honors from the Union County and New Jersey Girls Soccer Coaches' Associations, and the Star-Ledger.

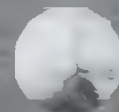

Although they are losing four seniors, the girls have high hopes of improving even more next season.

"This year the swimming team was very strong. I think we did better then the previous season but there is a lot of room for improvement. The swimming team is growing in size. Last year we had to forfeit a couple races but this year we had extra swimmers. Our record was not good, we didnt even win one meet. But we had a good time. I definately would expect the team to grow next year."-Senior, Patrick Terhune

The tennis team did not finish their season with the best record but always managed to have a good time. They only beat one team but maintained a positive attitude throughout the season. The young players will surely show greater potential next season.

There are many clubs at Linden High. From business to diversity, these clubs are what make LHS unique and sets us apart from other schools in the area.

Allowing students to get together, travel, and work as teams will teach them the skills they will need in the future. It is easy to be involved at LHS, and many students are involved in not one, but two or three meaningful organizations that will shape them into caring, aware, citizens in our community.

Cynosure is the name of the Yearbook at Linden High. The word refers to anything that draws attention to it. It is a club that takes place during the school day. Students are responsible for gathering photos and information while working together to publish a 200 page book. The goal of the yearbook is to represent the school that particular year while leaving the graduating seniors with a tangible memory of their last days of high school.

To my Cynosure Staff-

It is never easy to crowd seventeen personalities into a small room and create a great book on one computer. But we did it! I am so proud of all we accomplished and hope you had fun. We certainly have made memories together. Enjoy YOUR book! I wish you all the best in your lives after LHS.

"CONGRATULATIONS BRITTNEY MACK "

CLASS OF 2007

There surely could be no greater blessing than bringing a child into this world and then having her grow up to be just like you!! Your heart is so full of love and you're a friend to everyone you meet. Your nature is so giving; your spirit is so pure. We couldn't ask for a better daughter than you.

God blessed us so "good" when you were born to us. You have never disappointed us in any way. We love you just the way you are, and we know you're still changing, but we also want you to know that we are PROUD of the person you are becoming. Keep on going in the direction you're going. Keep reaching for your dreams and making them come true. We will always cheer you on and love you.

Today, we want to tell you these things, to show you our unconditional love and acceptance, to tell you how very proud we are of you. We hope each day brings you everything you've ever wanted. You are precious to us beyond words. The love goes too deep, and the gratitude and pride we feel are boundless. Thank you for blessing our lives in so many ways.

Love Mom & Dad

Letter to my Daughter

My darling daughter Katherine,

I want to thank you very much for allowing me to be your mother and friend at the same time. I thank God because he sent me a beautiful, smart and strong (specially during the adversities of life) daughter.

A daughter who has filled us with pride ever since your first steps; whether they be in your personal life, your education, sports, or in many other areas in which you have been involved. A proud feeling that grows everyday in us parents as we see the effort and success that you achieve in all you do.

Mi reina, I know you have gone through tough times in your life... such as abuelita Elsitita's death... that affected you so much. Not only did you learn to overcome it, but also you took her example and lived by it. Wisdom, strength, tenacity, and deep moral values characterized abuelita's life... and now those same exact qualities are the ones that distinguish you as the very special girl that you are.

On our life journey, we found more challenges. For example the one that made us able to adapt to different cultures. Not only the culture of a new country, which was a big one for me as your mother and that indirectly affected you, but also the culture of new people around us. Same people who eventually became part of our family. Although difficult at the beginning for you, little by little that special and wonderful way that you have, not only did you achieve to make them part of your life, but you also got them and us together as a family to feel very proud of you and celebrate your successes.

Mi reina, I know we are tough with you but it's our job as parents and we have always wanted the best for you. Even though we might have differences of opinion at home, we know very well that you are the perfect girl. The one who not only is the perfect daughter, but the perfect sister, the perfect grandchild, the perfect niece and the perfect friend all at the same time.

No... I could have never asked for more, because you are my everything, the most wonderful thing that happened to me, the apple of my eyes, my breath of life... my everything.

I love you very much!

Mami,

Love always, Dad, brother, sister, Aunt Frances, Aunt Fernanda

To the outside world, we all grow old. But not to brothers and sisters. We know each other as we always were. We know each other's hearts. We share private family jokes. We remember family feuds, secrets and joys. We live outside the touch of time. We have a bond that no one can come in between and the love that we have for one another will never fade.

To Our Lex,

Congratulations

You came into our lives, 18 years ago. We have loved every moment and will continue to do so as far as we shall live and beyond. You mean so much to us. We thank God everyday of our lives for selecting out of all his little girls in heaven "You".

From the moment we held you in our arms you took over our souls and hearts. It is now that I have an understanding of what a soul mate, means. "You" are my soul mate. Without your soul, mine would be incomplete and without your heart daddy's heart would of failed. You are my soul and daddy's heart. You are the most liveliest, generous, caring daughter, any parent could wish for.

Without you, our lives would have been empty. A lost soul and a broken heart. You are our inspiration, the beautiful butterfly that touches every life. With open wings you embrace everyone by bringing understanding and hope. We are so proud of your accomplishments, your beliefs and your dreams.

We can't wait to see what the future will bring to you, "correction" what you will bring to the future. Your dedication will give you the strength to continue this journey. Near or far you will have us here We love you, and Congratulations to you.

Constipation of the mouth

We started off as mere acquaintances and turned into a family in a matter of months. Peer has been an experience that will never be forgotten. The bond that we have made can never be broken and where ever we go or whatever we do, we know we will always have that PGC3 connection! From laughing till our stomachs hurt, to being able to have shoulders to cry on and friends that are honest and true... it has been a time in our lives that we will always remember.

To my parents, if it were not for you, I would not be here. Thank you for giving me life. I know that if you were here, dad, you'd be so proud of me

Mommy! You are the epitome of strength. You have been my rock and I don't know where I'd be without you

ME MOMMY AND YVIE MAKES 3! It's been just us for so long. We've been through the fire and back. Thank you for always being there. Through all our trials and tribulations, we always make it in the end.

2 sisters...each other was all we had when we were little. I hope as time moves on, we don't grow apart. I know we have a hard time being around each other sometimes, but you are all I have, so let's not take advantage of that.

NASHID! You are the man of the house! You have brought our family closer and bring joy to anyone's world. I love you so much. You'll always be my number one Gracie Poo-Pie! Lol Wow, I can't believe I may never see you again...We've had a class together EVERY SINGLE YEAR since the 8th grade! I never thought we would get as close as we did. Thanks for the endless hours of conversation via TEXT MESSAGING!

BEST BUD! OMG Jenny? What can I say about my partner in crime? We've had a lot of ups and downs but man... we had A LOT of fun together! We've been there for each other and I don't know how high school would have been without you...I wish you the bests luck in life and I know I never say this but I LOVE U!

I hope that I have made Everyone proud. I worked so hard these past four years, I can't believe it's actually over. To GOD; thank you for this precious thing called life. To my family; thank you. To my friends; I will miss you. To Patrick; thank you for being the one person I could really turn to and my shoulder to cry on. To my future.... I'm ready for you.

Don't let the past determine your future...

PGC10!

Throw dem tenz up! ;-) What an experience! I wonder what I would have done all year if I never did the program. The retreats were the best and I never gotten to really know people the way I got to know you guys. It's a big secret to the rest of the school what we really do...and we'll take that secret with us, but I think it will make a big difference in our lives. I love you guys...even if we ARE a bunch of perverts!!!

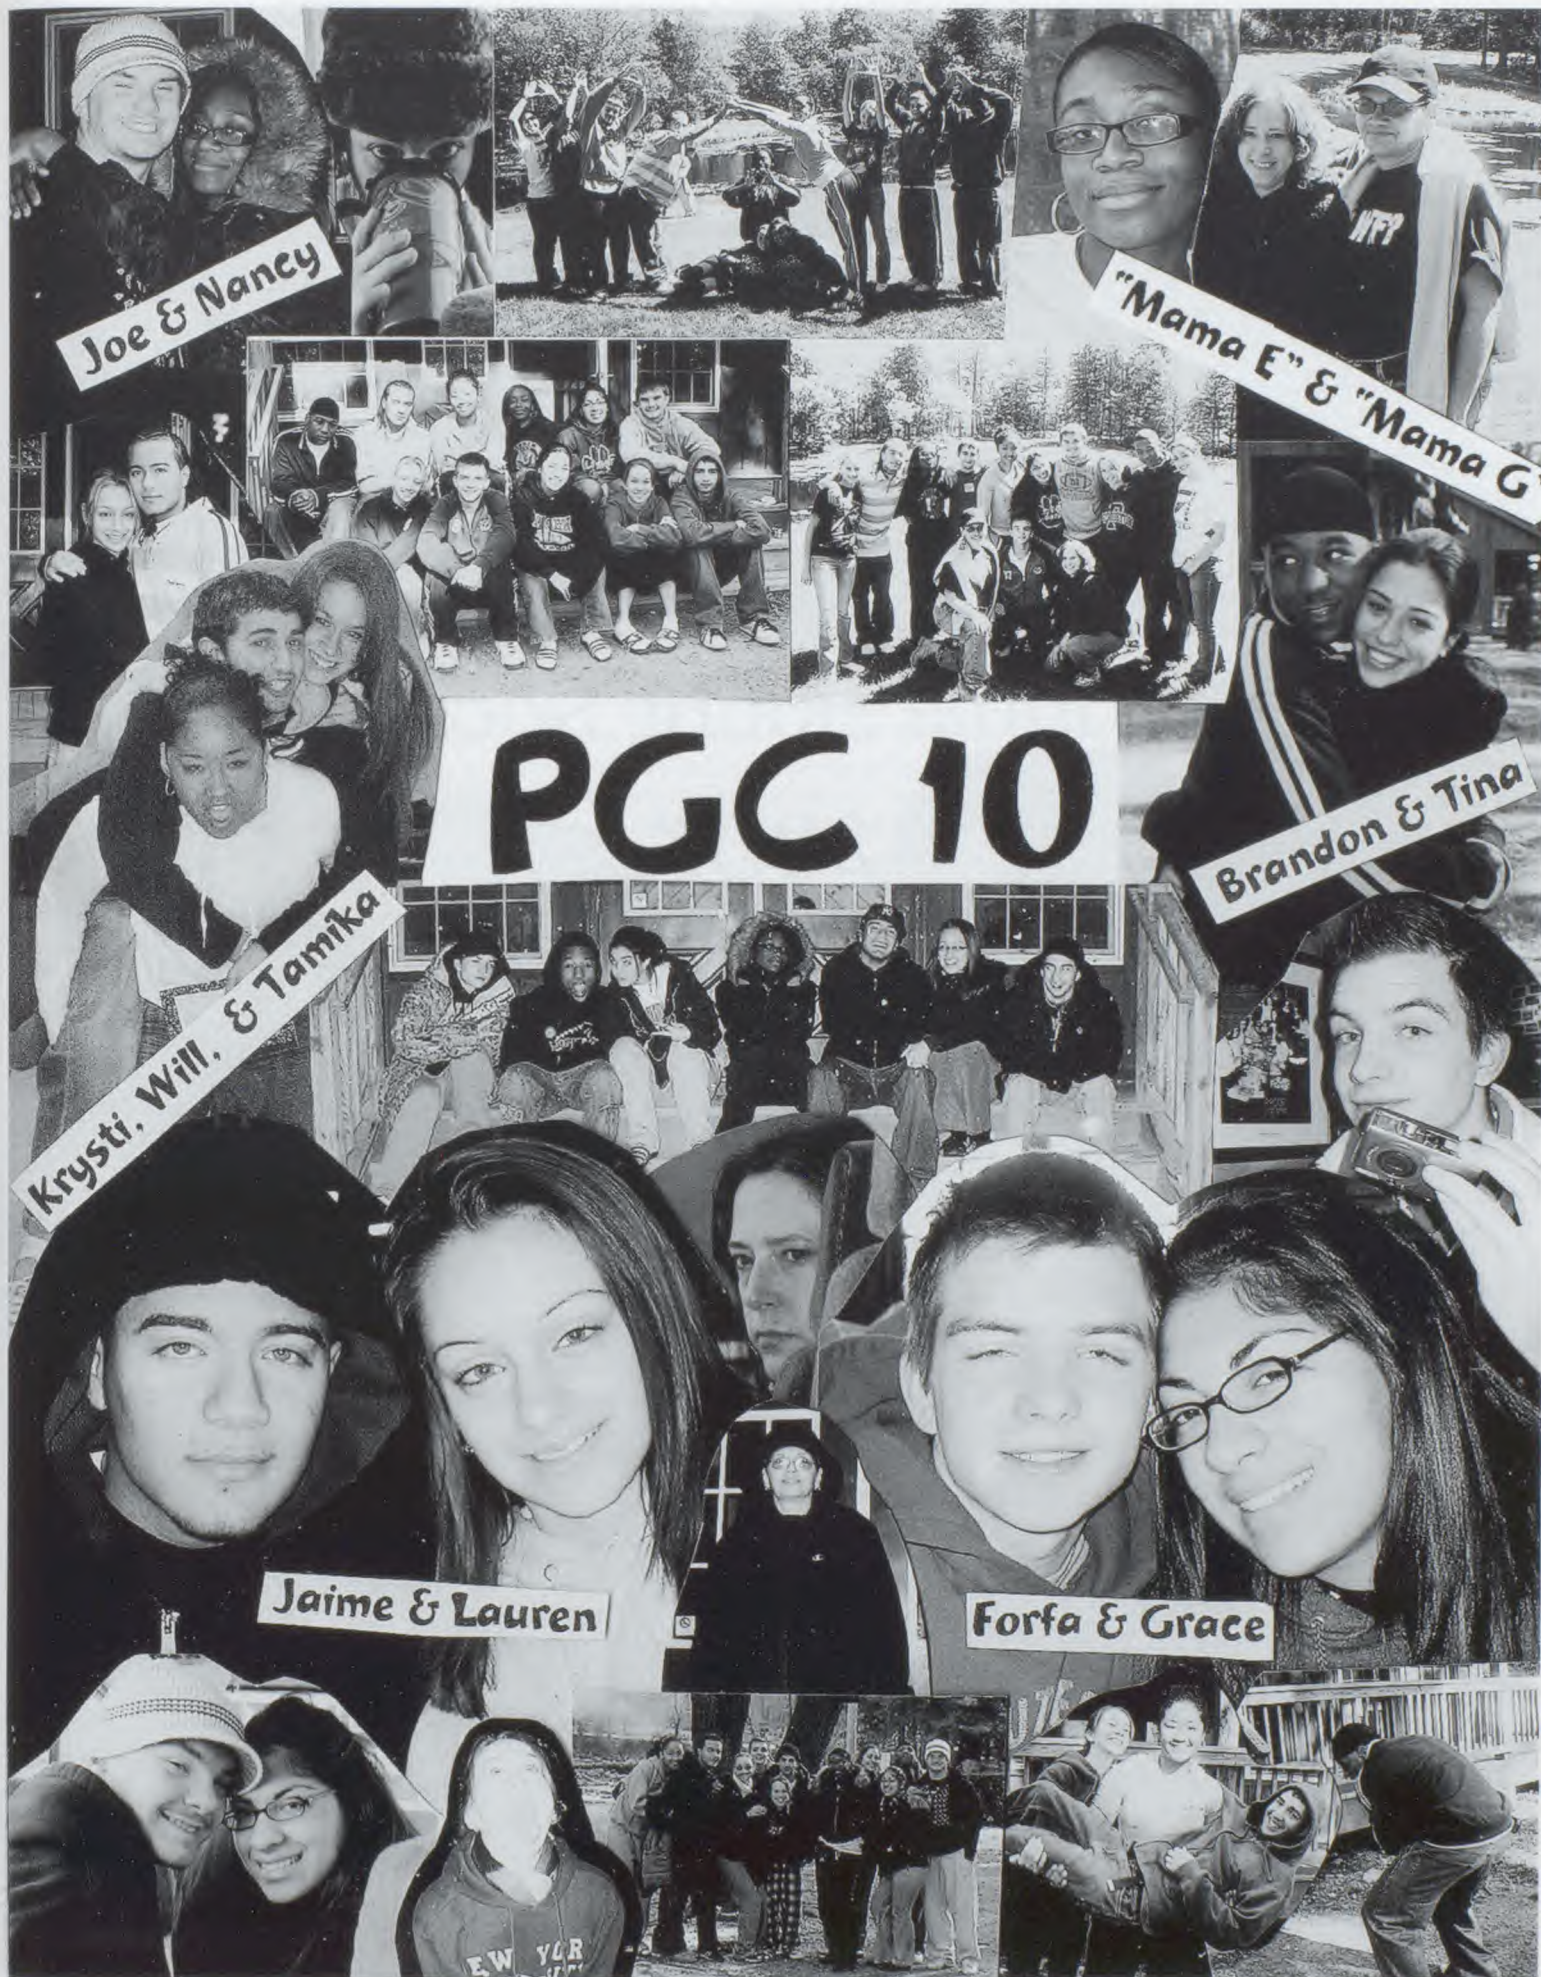

DREA! My ride or die "B"! I think you know more about me than anyone on this planet! I love you chick! Thank you for being there when I needed you most....

Patrick...how can I even explain it? I've known you since the sixth grade and we always knew something between us was special. Who knew that six years later we would be this strong? I'm willing to spend the rest of my life with you and love you forever. I love you with all my heart...

Finding friends in high school is always hard. Finding someone to care about, connect with, and actually love, is even harder. For me, you've made it so much easier. David, I am so incredibly happy I found you. People say that your first true love is always the hardest to find and hold on to.

Well I'll tell you that I have a tight grip and I'm not planning on letting go. No one knows how lucky I am to have someone like you. You have successfully accomplished your high school years without any complications and I am extremely proud to say I was apart of your life in the process. We have grown and learned from each other over the past two years through some of the best and worst of times.

You are truly lucky to be the type of person that actually finishes what they start and when you set your mind to something, there are no let downs and no one can stop or get in your way.

You're the kind of person that I never want to give up on and I want you to know I will always be here for you. You make me feel amazing about myself and I love who I am when I'm with you.

Since freshman year, the beginning of our relationship, you have grown in so many ways. I am so excited to see what the future holds for you. I know in my heart, you can do absolutely anything you put your mind to. Even though next year we won't be in school together, I know we can make it through anything because I have so much faith and love in you. You are an amazing young man and an even better boyfriend and we both know it goes without saying that the past two years have shown a lot about us. You know that I'm always on your side because "With or without you I'll always be with you." I love you more than anything David Conroy Jr.

It has been interesting watching you grow from an infant to a young lady. You will start a new chapter in your life. The road might be rough at times, however, your ambition, dedication and determination will help you continue to grow.

If you make the right choices today you will create a successful tomorrow. Melissa, you will leave behind many wonderful memories. You have been an excellent student, performer, dancer, and daughter. Friendship Is A Promise

Friendship is a promise
Spoken only by the heart,
It isn't given by any pledge,
It isn't written on any paper.
But friendship is a promise
That is renewed
Every time two friends meet and smile
And enjoy the good times
That come from simply Being together.

It's a promise to share
Both glad and sad times.
A promise to think
Of each other fondly
Whether near or far apart.

Friendship is a promise
Spoken only by the heart...
A promise that you and I
Will always share.
