U.S. Viet Toll Passes 30,000

SAIGON (UPI)—The number of Americans killed in Vietnam has passed 30,000, U.S. military sources said today. Nearly half of them have died this year.

U.S. headquarters also announced that two more American helicopters were shot down yesterday in widely separated areas of South Vietnam. Two

LIVINGSTON HIGH SCHOOL

Livingston, New Jersey

Since the theme of your Yearbook is Music, I would like to Congratulate you on completing the coda of the senior year here at Livingston High School. Your career at the High School has had in it, I hope, harmony, some contrapuntal enjoyment, and, no doubt, a few crescendos. On the whole, I am sure that as you look back upon the last three years with their allegros and largos, the time flitted by as rapidly as eighth notes.

I know that you will always remember Livingston High School with affection, for even though the song is ended the melody lingers on. Come back sometime for a brief reprise -- we'll be happy to see you again.

Julius C. Bernstein

GARY EVAN ABELES

Just let me be myself

A proficient bowler who has proven himself in Jaycee and Essex County Championships, Gary is just as handy with a football and equally dexterous on a surf board . . . when lazy times roll around there's nothing better than the sounds of the Doors or the Association . . . the "liberty bell" rings at 3:00 Friday afternoon, but true freedom will come when a million dollars are within easy reach.

BRUCE A. ABRAHAMS

I've been waiting so long, to be where I'm going

The only "Dirty Dozen" member who holds dreams of a 16th century English castle and memories of the Indianapolis 500 . . . his musical ability will soon match that of Jimi's . . . dresses with coolness reflecting his personality . . . Lake Hopatcong is the scene for all that wild water skiing.

SUSAN L. ABRAHAMS

She's flying so free and easy

Sue's high spirits and enthusiasm reflect in her ability as Student Council secretary . . . did she really spike the punch? . . . she is happiest when with Sigma Lambda Phi or when eating pickles in Chenk's den . . . just call her Lurch . . . she remains a true and sincere friend.

LAURIE ACKERMAN

*It doesn't matter how old you are;
It's just how young you feel*

For a Crossroads literary editor, inspiration is a pile of records on Linda's floor! . . . September 18, 1968 turned the wheel of life . . . this AFS notetaker is often behind-the-scenes of a class play . . . outside of LHS all energy is directed towards JFTY . . . Laurie's sailing on to a horizon of psychology.

STEPHEN LOUIS ADAMUS

And the band played on

Moose fills his life with music, music, music . . . that intelligence sure helped him become our '67 chess champion! . . . who's Senior Class Council's one and only asset with that '52 Ford? . . . give him a ham set, a string bass, and a piece of apple pie — ah, ecstasy!

STEVEN ADLER

I've rambled the highways . . .

Big Steve listens to the Cream as he and the "Dirty Dozen" travel the roads looking for fun . . . a destination like the shore or the Claremont Diner for a smorgasbord is "out of sight" . . . Mr. Albrecht and Mr. Mewhinney have no competition as Fat Cat's favorite teachers.

DIANNE FLORENCE AIOSA

She's the Ma Ge Lima Di girl that always wears a cheery smile and has loads of friends that make life just a little bit better . . . the amount of time she spends at Lake Hopatcong is totally "outrageous" — but definitely worth it . . . Di loves reading to understand the world she'll travel through someday.

PATRICIA ANN AKEHURST

It's all in the game

As president of Girls Leaders Club, Pat is always on the go . . . when with Barb, Rita, and Gay, recalling the summer of '68 guarantees a few laughs . . . with teaching as her prospective career, she'll model her techniques after those of Mr. Furst, who furthered her love of Shakespeare.

MARTHA EMILIE ALINGER

Don't criticize what you can't understand

Give Marci a turtle race and she'll scream "wowie zowie doo-dah!" until her eyes are blood shot again . . . this sailing enthusiast found that Wrightsville Beach had much more to offer than just good waves . . . will our book binding mother-worrier be famous? — only time will tell.

MARY ELIZABETH ANTONELLI

Life gets sweeter every day

Found at football games or eating Chinese food in Brooklyn, Mar is one of the dependable main office helpers . . . Mr. Hill's U.S. I class, sewing, and volleyball are tops . . . will pursue a secretarial career — maybe in a high school office?!

MARSHA SHERYL ARBEITEL

I'm young and I love to be young

A talkative nature which never finishes talking on the telephone, and whose baby blue Bonneville knows its way to LHS and Don's automatically . . . the 3:00 bell on Friday signals the beginning of a carefree weekend . . . discriminating taste in high fashion makes a career in merchandising probable.

JANET ARIFIAN

When I was seventeen, it was a very good year

Ambitious Methodist Youth Fellowship worker and twirler . . . forever busy in the kitchen, sewing or cooking . . . happiest when in the company of Carol, Sandy, and Carol . . . a compatible individualist who will always find time to help others.

BARRY HOWARD ARONS

This little car means a heck of a lot to me

Preoccupied with bombing around in his red G.T.O. convertible . . . Barry's seventeenth birthday was permit-plus! . . . his smiling face is usually among those of Ken and Neil or at an AFS meeting . . . this conscientious inquisitor may have some of his questions answered if he pursues a career in law.

RICHARD B. ATKINS

All that and more I shall be

Dick can be found either planning Lance layouts or teeing off on the first hole . . . curiosity motivates this intrinsic loafer who's confident that he will be able to help others with his wealthy fortune someday . . . today, he's a valuable asset to the Math Team.

JOHN JAMES AYLWARD

I'm taking time for a number of things

Lance loves all sports, especially fights after football games . . . buddies like Frank and Mike find him dependable and loveable (?) . . . the day he made the LHS Baseball Team was quite a thrill! . . . John is getting a head start on that medical career by working in Saint Barnabas.

KIM BABCOCK

There couldn't be a place in time for men like me.

Understanding and friendliness attract new friends and keep the old ones loyal . . . an anti-Mountain man who puts girls, money, and cars at the peak . . . "Oh come now." — was that a sixth period study with Karen and Art? . . . traveler-to-be with his eye on eventual sultan-hood in Bagdad.

PAMELA GAIL BAHOOOSH

If we could talk to the animals

Although she's normally shy, Pam shows her true personality in the presence of Marilyn Morano . . . Mrs. Glick's earth science class was number one even though she loves painting . . . unsurprisingly, this animal lover hopes to own a dog kennel.

JEAN LLOYD BAILEY

Ask her why she has to be so free

Who could forget her pink Yamaha, or for that matter, who could forget Bail? . . . hysterics guaranteed to all who meet her . . . just watch her run the Personality Club . . . ask Mrs. Payne if Jean adds that special touch to an English class! . . . her writing talent's hopefully channeled for radio or television.

JAMES BAMBRICK

How lovely to fly

Take an eagerness to learn and add to it the alertness it took to make Spanish Honor Society, and you've got Jim . . . joy is found in not having homework or enjoying those lazy vacation daze . . . an aviation devotee whose hopes are set sky high on leading a wonderful life.

MARY SUSAN BAXTER

When I call you up, your line's engaged

Sue's telephone is always busy but if you'd like to see her, she's probably in East Orange with Mike or the girls . . . thoughts of her junior year will long be cherished . . . Mrs. Katz's inspiring stenography lessons have set an example for a future teaching career.

ROBERT W. BANNON

Puttin' on the style

A snazzy dresser who's always "clothes" to Chuck and the Center Rats . . . "Hey Dude," remember those cafeteria riots in 5th period lunch? . . . Pumpkin often gets his eight ball mixed up with a basketball . . . diplomatic experience in U.N. Club will prove invaluable in a law career .

MARJORIE R. BEAN

I'll take Manhattan

That beautiful, long hair glistened at Millburn's Senior Prom . . . seen with Ma Ge Lima Di . . . as an executive secretary most of Margie's time will be spent in her favorite metropolis . . . a sensitive individual who is able to appreciate the world's finer arts.

STEVEN BARRY BASSOFF

Never weak but always strong

An athletic he-man who marvels that he survived two years with Mr. Gorelick . . . knows all the facts, figures, and players as the witty sports editor of the Lance . . . he and the "Harrys" in Pottersville — a summer to remember . . . will go from a cold career in Baskin-Robbins to hot-air law.

HAROLD J. BECK

Did ya ever go a-fishing on a bright and sunny day?

Fishing is great, but staying in the boat's too normal for Harry — he has to fall out . . . after his class with Mr. Keer he's taken to speaking German with the little old ladies he transports in his Chatham taxicab . . . his target is the skies — meteorology he hopes.

JED G. BECK

Something's coming, something good!

Why so active and friendly? — "Nobody ever died from it!" . . . Crossroads photography editor — "Say cheese, please" . . . figure this out: he likes computer programming with Mr. Fyfe . . . he's happy at Sigma Epsilon Chi meetings when nothing's on his mind . . . will face the career looking down in the mouth — a dentist.

RICHARD G. BELLAMY

I'm ready to go

His sociability is the answer to his success as a Robert Hall's haberdasher . . . he climbs aboard the waves down the shore . . . when not practicing for Cross Country, he's likely to be giving Robin and Don a sample of behind-the-wheel tactics . . . FTA points the way to teaching.

HARRY BERGER

Getting ready for tomorrow

Does the Key Club open the door to the Eastman School of Music? . . . the Harry Berger of the future is a doctor living out in the sticks . . . while snapping pictures of animals at the zoo, our big game hunter is heading his way towards the medical profession.

LESLIE S. BERKLEY

Catch a falling star

A budding playwright who also acted for the '68 All School Production and the Senior Class's Imaginary Invalid . . . Leslie's active interest in politics reflects his liberal character . . . when it's quiet he'll sit back and remember The Man Who Came to Dinner . . . we see astronomy for him in the stars.

BOBBY E. BERMACHER

Bell-bottom trousers

The city's the place for this style-setter . . . a ski lodge in the mountains that serves Italian food would come second on his "best" list . . . "Oh wow!" how those memories of modeling jobs linger on . . . Student Council reports are giving Bobby practice in public speaking which he'll use in advertising.

ROBERTA LYNN BERMAN

Brighten the corner where you are

Thoughtful, sensitive Bobbie is a "drawer" — filled with sundry cultural abilities . . . 1964 was a very fair year . . . known for her passion for Italian food, Shop-Rite put the tomato sauce on the top shelf . . . any contacts? Yes — did you find one? . . . ask the FTA at what level she'll teach — elementary, my dear.

KENNETH PAUL
BERNSTEIN

What a day for a daydream

Our Tennis Team co-captain enjoys spending time in the company of his good friends : Larry, Steve, and Neil . . . when he's not working diligently for the Crossroads Photography Staff, then it's very likely he's playing the guitar . . . his pensive nature should make him a creative architect.

PAUL BERNSTEIN

Go where you're going to

Tennis anyone? Paul's always ready to play . . . this conscientious student was justly rewarded by an A average in Algebra II . . . "munya! munya! munya!" . . . now a member of Future Physicians, who knows? — eventually it may be Dr. Bernstein.

STEVEN E. BERNSTEIN

A poet and a one man band

Doctor Imaginaire, composer extraordinaire who sings "a guitar is more faithful than a girl" . . . this "Rogue-ish" Crossroads Class Staff scribe prescribes Italian "dishes" as medicine to cure his ills . . . school's "wow" with Miss Coury, Mr. Fyfe, and Mrs. Yavelberg . . . he's the 'spear-ited' Future Physician president who sports bowling with Jon and declares medicine is up his alley.

ELLEN SUE BIEBER

Good-day sunshine!

"Hey Beeb" shouted down the halls would beckon this "wing-ding" goer for any of her Sigma Lambda Phi girls . . . who knows what memories Beach Haven holds(?) — but it's easy to figure out those of the '68 Senior Prom weekend! . . . one continuous date and loads of fun complete her perfect dream.

ADRIENNE LOIS BINIK

You are of gracefulness

Didi's our pretty head majorette who'll turn the brightest shade of red if complimented on her performance . . . frequent daydreaming is only one excuse for homework procrastinating . . . never too sleepy to nibble on M&M's and chocolate chip cookies . . . her uncommitting "I don't know" should be an asset in the world of politics.

CHRISTINE MARIE
BLACOW

Let's not waste a moment

That vitality and spunk go into action for the Apparatus and Bowling Clubs . . . in those sleepy moments, happiness is definitely the 7:00 A.M. whistle declaring two free snow days . . . favors an academic balance between Mr. Rappaport and Fine Arts II . . . Future Nurses Club portends future as a medical technologist.

CAROL ANN BLANCHARD

I'm in love and it's a sunny day

English with Mrs. Hanley was enjoyed by this Honor Society member . . . a pity she can't send her Dairy Queen hot fudge sundaes in those CARE packages to the University of Rhode Island . . . cherishes memories of summer '68 . . . her friendly disposition should aid her as an elementary school teacher.

CHARLES S. BLEAKLEY

A brand new clown

Have some fun with Chuck . . . look for him in Eddie's car with Rick and Ken or a girl . . . if you're lucky, he'll be laughing at his own impersonations which have been inspired by Miss Coppola's teachings or Mr. Hill's discipline.

JACK MARTIN BLEIBERG

The man with a satisfied mind

Good-natured Jack enjoys being with friends but will always prefer a girl — ask Bill, Gary, and Isabelle . . . Young Judea's president takes time out for golf . . . a devotee of Mr. Sherburne's humanities classes, Jack also concerns himself with people by participating in U.N. Club and by hopefully entering the political science field.

KAREN BLOOMGARDEN

I could have danced all night

Crazy antics with the '68 senior girls were always zany days! . . . those steps practiced in Dance Club will help move her into our year — 1969 . . . with a background of Crossroads photography behind her, snapshots of the future show Bloom putting Mrs. Walters' lessons on Freud to work in society.

ALETA DOROTHY BLUHM

And the angels sing . . .

What worries her? — Honor Society is on her side . . . Ann's Sewing Center never had a more capable employee; All-State Chorus never had a more melodious singer; Carrie never had a better friend . . . she's crazy about Toggenburgers and receiving letters.

RANDALL ROBIN BOHSEN

I thank God I'm alive

Randy envelopes himself in the thrill of sports and the memory of the Mountain game . . . algebraically speaking, it was definitely Mr. Kambour . . . does that love for steamed clams have any connection to an interest in oceanography? . . . one amiable personality will lead on to life's many pleasures.

FRANK BOLOGNINI

Nothing to get hung about

Let's "get out of here!" and drive around those highways . . . you can kick up a good game of football with him anytime . . . water, water everywhere — there's a flood in the auto shop sink! . . . the Cedar Hill Esso takes up much of that spare time.

RICHARD MICHAEL BONAS

And the beat goes on

The smash of the drums, the clang of the cymbals — rehearsal with the Realm . . . found concocting slurpees under Mr. Caprario's watchful eye . . . down at the shore with the other "men" is the thing . . . Bug's life swings to the rhythm of the times.

EILEEN DOLORES BONN

Where I belong I'm right

Hoboken High meant a wonderful junior year, bookkeeping with Mr. Furman, and reunions with all those great friends . . . one way to spend a pleasant afternoon — root for that football team! . . . glad to turn on WOR-FM if you're an enthusiastic fan . . . secretarial work or teaching will require her valued understanding.

JOHN HAMILTON BONNETT

Don't worry about tomorrow anyway

Though cars may be one fine display, his fame came in eight drags a day . . . junior year chemistry and algebra aren't the only things in the world — there're teachers!! . . . Johnny and Jack will shoot the breeze over seven platefuls of ham and cheese . . . future may hold a "Pal" for life.

HOWARD MICHAEL BOOTH

Win with McCarthy!

A stubborn and talented artist whose masterpieces include a garbage-free LHS football field . . . we're "curious" to see when he'll be separated from his McCarthy button . . . membership in the Art Club will lead to a career in graphic design.

MINDY SARA BOOTH

Follow the windsong . . .

"Wow!" does that summer at Boy Scout Camp keep her memory alive! . . . Mindy shares her happiest experiences with friends like Linda, Debbie or Pat . . . during free time she's easily found somewhere in Cedar Grove sipping a coke with good company; during working hours she's undoubtedly at Burrelle's.

MICHAEL BOPP

The joker is me

Mike is a real comedian who sports football and intramural athletics, "all right!" . . . he sure flooded that auto shop sink, Mr. Ruocco . . . let's make the sun and surf of the shore his favored tomorrow.

PETER DAVID BOYER

I whistle a happy tune

Look for Pete if you hear bird calls in the middle of winter . . . don't be surprised if this enthusiastic guitarist is serenading Denise . . . Pete loves drinking — milk that is . . . inspired by Mr. Fyfe's lively classes, Pete will soon be testing his talents as a computer programmer.

HELANE DORIS BORNSTEIN

C'est si bon

Fun-loving Bonnie cherishes a summer of acquaintances down the shore . . . she's held many a phone conversation — maybe some en français . . . she was the Younger Girl when The Critters were around LHS in 1967 . . . apres school hours are spent at AFS or FTA — someday they'll be occupied teaching French or interpreting.

ANGELIKI T. BRAVAKIS

*Miles and miles
and miles of heart*

Our amiable and able junior class secretary proves herself again as her Y Group president . . . Gale's enthusiastic "hello" is heard often in the halls of LHS . . . she will not easily forget hearing the Beatles at Shea or browsing in boutiques down the shore.

JAMES HUGH BOUTILETTE

He's fighting for the USA

This avid driver recalls experience trying to get out of the parking lot . . . although he enjoys classes with Mr. Hill, Jim still looks forward to 3:00 P.M. each day . . . when not involved with baseball, look for him with Eddy M. or at Lynn's house . . . Marine Corps beware!! — Jim's on his way.

MARY LYNN BRENNAN

The time is now

"Wow!" . . . fun-loving, talkative Lynn has her eye on most LHS football game — players . . . the enchantment of the Junior Prom could be matched only by the after-the-party shore scene . . . when not boppin' to the courts or 7-11, she might be blowing bubbles that burst into memories of LHS . . . whether she's an FTA or a secretary, she'll always get an "A" in boy-watching.

JAN BARTON BRESKY
*He's got the whole world
in his hands*

A Harry with a capital M — for Matzoh — he's constantly accosting Mo and Gene . . . one of Mr. Cooney's supporters, Jan made quite a campaign for himself . . . #32 who "plays the role", he became a true camper at Jake's Place . . . he'll feed the world through research biology.

FREDERICK WILDER
BRIGGS

Come, take a trip in my airship

Although he's often up in the air about things, this flyer always lands on the ground with the truth . . . you'll find him friendly to Livingstonians, but you'd better watch Fred at Mountain football games . . . celebration time comes every Friday.

CAROL ELLEN BROOKS
Most wonderful summer

"Yeah, right!", one way to enjoy life is to cruise around in that V.W.! . . . last summer made quite an impression on one art lover . . . that great search for new clothes is headed off by vacation time . . . Brooksie is the bubbly FTA'er who's got her heart set on teaching first grade.

BARBARA SUE BROTZKY
Laughter and loving

Barb wants to know "what's happening?" — she attends parties and dances, pals around with Sue, or shows up at Sigma Phi Upsilon meetings to find out . . . the summer of 1968 sentimentally remains in her mind — the art work by the boy's gym will remain in ours.

DEBORAH ANN BROWN

Be young, be foolish, be happy

Deb's forgetfulness doesn't include the past four and a half years with that special boy . . . most seen with Dianne and Robin or working at Howard Johnson's . . . say no to lobster? "You're kidding!" . . . her easy-going, happy nature will aid her as an elementary school teacher.

JOHN THOMAS BROWN
I'll be your guide

Jack makes easy progress on the track and finds time to play his guitar in the long-run . . . Marty and he are girl-watching whether they're at 7-11 or just driving around . . . a chemistry buff who explodes at Mountain games . . . hopes someday to enlighten others through teaching.

STEPHEN LOUIS BROWN

Go where you wanna go

It was "cool breeze" for care-free Steve when he was honored with a trophy and letter at a Sports Awards Assembly . . . he may be ABC — but add a capital G for Girls . . . ask Sam about Steve's devotion to baseball and dancing . . . watch out for him in the world of science!

JANE SUSAN BUCHBINDER

How lovely to be a woman

Modifies all dress codes — no skirt is ever too short! . . . aloof but interested, Jani's a ski bug who couldn't live without the Ski Club . . . to live is to talk on the phone after a huge steak dinner . . . and she's never too busy to add just one more outfit to that stylish wardrobe!

LUCILLE MARIE BURBANK

Dear hearts and gentle people

Records by the Supremes and the Four Tops score almost as high as Mrs. Yavelberg's U. S. History I class on Lucy's list of favorites . . . members of Omega Delta Chi share her memories of the day class rings were received . . . listen for her melodic voice in the Mixed Chorus.

GLENN GROVER BURNSIDE

I'll face the world as best I can

A happy matchmaker who lights up Messrs. Hill's and Gorelick's classes . . . a summer job at Camp R.H. was a "horrendous" experience . . . Mr. Berry's homeroom couldn't do without Glenn . . . Randy, Steve, and Wendy appreciate his amiable personality . . . he'll explore new world cavities — then fill some!

WENDY MARGARET BURGER

I'll glitter and gleam so

Catch her practicing for Dance Club and you'll see some real talent; now imagine her on water skis! . . . bet painting The Rock has been a big topic for phone conversations . . . had a ball on the '68 Mountain exchange but this Pep Club cheerer can still shout our boys on to victory.

CHRISTOPHER D. BUTLER

You're a man who likes travelin' rather than settling down

Chris frequents Don's with who else but John — Luis too . . . possessing much skill in wielding a lacrosse stick, he also maneuvers from Key Club to Future Physicians . . . in Mr. Rans's class he's liable to hang ten — minutes after class . . . he'll supplement his chosen career with a great degree of travel.

JAMES CHRISTOPHER
BYRNE

Cast your fate to the wind . . .

If Chris is romping at the courts or at a good party, you're sure to find him happy . . . easily "turned on" by the sound of good music . . . the Battle of the Bands served as a release for his mind . . . the mischief hidden in his eyes becomes apparent during lunch with Mr. Bast.

CRAIG W. CADMUS

Music alone shall live

He's one fourth of the Four Quarters and adds that accordian touch . . . "Silence is more eloquent than words," but he'll gladly make music with the girls . . . fun-lovingness is exhibited by kicking up a splash or gliding down the slopes . . . that studious drive towards medicine naturally drew him to Future Physicians Club.

SANDRA CALEEN

Sounds of laughter everywhere

Outgoing Sandy will never forget the Warlocks in Ocean City or gym with Mrs. Walters — "yeah, right!" . . . enjoys being a nurse's aid . . . the shore is the place . . . happiest when having a good time with friends who will remember her amazing sense of humor.

DOLORES LENA CAMPANARO

Sing and dance and run

Dee would be content just to roller skate into the Palomino and have Italian food with Leslie and Sandy . . . this football fan uses that energy to gobble down lunch in 20 minutes! . . . Dolores finds office practice with Mrs. Gompf so great that she's planning on being a secretary — she's not kidding!

Reserved and shy, Don is often found at Friendly's sporting a smile . . . it doesn't take much to make him happy, but a football game does it every time — "Right?" . . . those great mathematical classes should help him as a chemist.

WENDY LOUISE CARDELL

You'll know who I am by the song that I sing

This whimsical fan of good music and French dreams of changing the world as she changes babies' diapers at Dr. Orleans' office . . . no matter how busy she is with Pi Delta Phi or the Honor Society, she's got C.W. Post's vacation schedule on her mind . . . or perhaps she's reliving those wonderful days spent at Cape Cod.

ROBERT L. CARNER

*Off we go into
the wild blue yonder*

Trustworthy and hard-working Bob loves economics and classes with Mr. Waddon . . . David's often around when he's driving or drag racing . . . he gets so exhausted at the roller skating rink that he has to sleep in class . . . a salute to a future member of the U. S. Air Force.

ADRIENNE CLAIRE CASCIANO

Life I love you

Hear that melodious voice singing "Somewhere My Love" in the LHS halls, it's our most adored Junior V.P. . . . sentimental A enjoys looking up at what a good basketball team offers . . . knowledge from Mrs. Surret's French class helps her to sell candy at the movies by calling "achetez!" . . . psychologically motivated, she wants to learn to understand more and to communicate better.

GEORGE S. CAWTHORN

I got the fastest set of wheels in town

Action is his key word — just ask the "In Crowd" . . . his favorite sweets, girls and cheesecake, are often appreciated at the diner . . . prefers being with the right girl in the right place at the right time . . . a village bopper, Jorge grooves over a good football game with the guys . . . he'll make some lucky girl a "woman in the shoe."

DAN L. CHADWICK

Do your own thing

Whether he's running for the Track or Cross Country Teams or after a girl in Morristown park, he's never without his sideburns . . . of course he might have to leave his guitar and poetry behind . . . Mickey honestly intends to get the most out of life and with his stubborn perseverance he'll succeed.

ALAN CHANIN

I'm going to do great things

Math with Mr. Greenberg is a favorite with this industrious student . . . ask George or Mark about Alan's unforgettable practical jokes . . . "You've got to be kidding!" . . . sports, especially wrestling, football, and baseball, are his specialty . . . for one of those people who excels in everything it will be Dr. Chanin, I presume?

JOHN CHAPMAN

I'm happy going my way

The friendly and sincere host of Luis . . . who knows what mischief lurks behind those quiet eyes? — ask Chris . . . it would be wonderful to be a ski bum someday but much more practical to be an engineer.

FRANCINE DALE CHARSINSKY

What a wonderful world

Chatty Fran claims that as a freshman she liked candy and toys, but as a senior she prefers fun and boys! . . . being with that certain someone gives her that sense of contentment that she feels when she sighs "Oh, wow!" . . . English with Mr. Miserendino was just as great as coke with French fries.

JAMES THOMAS
CHEDISTER

King of the road

Chet excels in pole vaulting and is an asset to the Track Team . . . when not around, he's usually "gone fishin'" . . . Chet and Frank — can't have one without the other . . . since he enjoys working on cars, it's natural he looked forward to auto shop with Mr. Albrecht.

CHRISTINE E. CHELSON

She was fine and fair

"Give up, Chelty, are you a true Swedish blonde? . . . ah shu-ah" . . . when not on the third bench from the light, she's browsing at the record shop, simply hummin' over her sophomore and junior homeroom . . . no doubt, this quiet one remembers the party . . . someday, it'll be secretarial work and marriage.

ELISE N. CHENKIN

The world will open its arms to me

Peppy Chenk devotes much energy to her Y group, Sigma Lambda Phi, as its 1968 president . . . did she have enough chapstick with her during her fabulous summer in France? . . . "Have a cigar, Sue" while Chenk writes on those album covers.

DONNA SUZANNE
CHHABRA

Brown-eyed woman

After three years of great gym classes with Miss Overath, it's only natural that Double H is a zealous participant in after-school volleyball teams . . . a memorable homeroom with Mr. Berry would have been Utopia if Dave was there . . . she's looking forward to working, then settling down to a happy marriage.

ROSE THERESA
CHIARAMONTE

If love is in your heart, there'll be happiness in your eyes

Rose and Ellen — like peanut butter and jelly . . . a quiet appearance cannot disguise her enthusiasm and amiability . . . her wise philosophy on life names happiness as a product of love, laughter, and learning . . . the tenets of Robert F. Kennedy hold special meaning for this pensive young lady.

MICHAEL NORMAN CHIMES

A youth asking fate to be rewarding

"Key" to National Honor Society — he's the president! . . . a Varsity Soccer man, Moe got a kick out of Jake's camp . . . his humor abounded in the Junior Class Play Harvey! . . . the Harrys would be lost without him . . . an aspiring biologist with an eye on the look-out for medicine.

KATHLEEN M. CIANDELLA

Just watch the way she walks

Ambitious, friendly, and outgoing, Kathy is a spirited member of the Pep Club . . . fun and football games take up much of her time . . . hopes to become a clinical psychologist . . . the '67 Prom remains a wonderful memory.

MICHAEL CIFRODELLI

I'm a man, yes I am

A successful basketball coach and fantastic soccer player, Miguel hopes to obtain a sports scholarship . . . while his heart is touched by Angela, Italian food delights his taste . . . beauty blossoms wherever his green thumb is ambitiously at work.

DAVID LYMAN CLARK

And singing always made his spirits rise

Dave is content with a song in his heart and a football in his hands . . . that summer trip was out of this world! . . . his sense of humor makes the day go faster . . . a math man of the future, he hopes to work with computers and electronics.

ROBERT PAUL COCUZZA

Come hear the music play

An instrumental member of the trumpet section in our Concert Band . . . Bob not only caddies on the golf course, but is a Varsity Football player as well . . . he will be sure to hit a high note in the business world.

HELENE P. COHEN

Lend me your ears and I'll sing you a song

Lenie's an uninhibited vocalist who desires to make the most of her life . . . her mind often wanders to that rainy day at Eagle Rock Reservation . . . Don and an eggplant parmigiana dinner would make a perfect evening . . . the coming years will find Lenie as a dental hygienist.

ILENE JUDITH COHEN

Dressed in clothes so fine

Loquacious Lingus would be content listening to great music with Bob and Mark or demonstrating her acting talent, as in Harvey . . . clothes and skiing are her only weaknesses . . . treasured memories include Tim Buckley at Fillmore . . . Ilene's sensitivity may prove a great asset in social work.

JAN SUSAN COHEN

There's such a lot of world to see

A talkative individual who appreciates the value of friendship . . . summertime France-prancer . . . Jan remembers that day, tenth grade, sixth period lunch . . . her wealth of creativity and sense of style are often tapped at meetings of her YM-YWHA Youth Group . . . pen in hand, she plans to see the world.

JUDITH COHEN

Reaching out to capture the moment

Our chauffeur who, after school, trades in that car for a good horse . . . as props manager for Harvey, Judy did just a "little" running around . . . although organization is not a forte, she manages the Lance quite satisfactorily . . . this Art Club president has a genuine appreciation for people and will turn her concern to public relations.

NEIL IRA COHEN

Let a winner lead the way

Snorky prides himself in being our friendly Student Council president . . . he's forever occupying his time with Rob and the guys or traipsing across the golf course screaming, "Greene, stop it!" . . . Mr. Goas' CWL class will never be forgotten, for it has opened his eyes to the world he expects to serve through politics.

SHEILA M. COHEN

When the sun is out, I've got something I can laugh about

Give her a sunny day along the sandy shore . . . infectious enthusiasm has added much to those high "adventures" with the Sigma Lambda Phi girls . . . will provide a spark of life to any class she will teach especially with the help of Mr. Lampf's grammar rules, and the quality of leadership gained from Student Council.

DANIEL COLLINS

Don't tie me down

Winter sports are Danny's thing . . . as an active hockey fan, he also enjoys skiing in Canada . . . driving with Loren is the greatest — especially with Ralph hanging on behind . . . he's so easy to get along with, but what a talent for finding or making trouble!

JEFFREY TAYLOR
COLLINS

Ain't we got fun

He'll gladly wind his sense of humor 'round a good soccer game or track meet — 'cause he's a sporting man! . . . Mountain football games were recorded in his memory as much as US I with Mr. Hill . . . Rupe's going to aim for a life of good times.

JAMES EDWARD CONLEY

I get by with a little help from my friends

Athletics come naturally to Eagle . . . now a varsity man, he remembers those bus rides to the baseball games . . . sociology holds the key to his future . . . a clean-cut guy — he's our only senior with a crewcut.

ROBERT MICHAEL CONNOLLY

Catch a wave and you're sittin' on top of the world

Life was made to be enjoyed — and that he'll do! . . . "Were you down the shore last weekend?" . . . best part of his day is wood shop with Mr. Mewhinney . . . a sunny summer day means good surfing weather . . . Bob recalls those Mountain games with a smile.

CHRISTINE COONEY

*She gives you the colors, and the bells, and the wind,
and the dream*

Do aspirations to become a medical illustrator and possession of that art editorship of our '69 Crossroads tell you something about Chris' multi-talents? . . . wild times with Pi Delta Phi girls are memorable, especially that week at the shore! . . . Chris' exasperating stubbornness and distinctive handwriting guarantee she won't be soon forgotten.

JOHN THEODORE
CONWAY

Looking for adventure, tearing down the highway

Affable, laughing Jack can never forget the summer of '67 . . . Mr. O'Brien's work-study program could only be surpassed by a night's drive in that '58 Ford with Diane — or Wayne . . . is it he singing Anchors Aweigh? — "you got the right one."

JOYCE CAROL COOPER

With the wind and the rain in your hair

Coop and those white-socked boys don't mix too well . . . but on the other hand, a well-mixed strawberry ice cream soda gives enough energy to ride a horse for hours . . . faithfulness is easily shortened to "Alfie" . . . Mrs. Katz's steno has started Joyce down the road to executive secretarial work.

RICHARD CORNELL

You're a man who loves traveling

Sports occupy this shy guy's time . . . presently a sexton, Rich appreciates the religious philosophies of his history class . . . campaign '68 depended upon him in his capacity as a United Citizen for Nixon . . . traveling's fun, but he'll go off that track to become an engineer.

DIANE ELLEN COX

Everyone smiles as you drift past

Vivacious Diane can be found at every basketball game cheering for our team . . . a spaghetti party with Cathy and Omega Delta Chi would be ideal . . . it was either studying MEH with Mr. Ransegnola or being a Student Council representative which has made political science appealing to her.

DAVID MICHAEL CRAMP

Flying down the highway

If Dugan's not racing down the streets of Livingston, he's driving up the highway in "his car" . . . when not with the wheels, his attention varies from reading to lacrosse to yogurt . . . the stars predict he'll travel cross-country spreading his liberal views to all.

KENNETH JAY CRANE

I wish . . .

This sore-thumbed bass guitarist blushes quite easily when shy or overly passionate . . . Beach Haven with its paradise of girls holds only fond memories and one great "wish" . . . Pillow Face, being his closest friend, could best tell us how desirous Ken is of that career in business administration.

JOLENE CARMEN CRESPO

Lady of Spain

Her life surrounds that certain young man — who ever sees Jo without Bill? . . . amazingly fluent in Spanish, she hopes for a career as an interpreter . . . guitar playing and Mr. Jacobs rate high in Jo's esteem, but what about that crushed thumbtack in algebra?

STEVEN R. CRIBBIN

I does what I likes and

I likes what I do

Would've loved blowing the first pay check on pinball machines . . . "Do da name Ruby Begonia ring a bell?" . . . the Tribune Publishing Company's star printer, Steve has Jerry Dobrianski etched in his mind . . . will join National Guard and keep a safe career in printing.

DOUGLAS CUNNINGHAM

I'm a girl watcher

Doug is a busy girl-watcher full of high spirits . . . devoted to fun and games — especially of the Mountain variety . . . an auto fan who remembers Mr. Albrecht and shop . . . "I don't know" — living is having a blast! . . . direction after graduation: everywhere to do everything.

STANLEY ROBERT CYMANSKY

I draw what I like and I like what I draw

An amiable, avid art enthusiast, Stash had a ball with Mr. Battito's fine art class . . . "I'll bet" he likes working on cars, though he spends most of his time hitch-hiking . . . chocolate flavored — he'll devour it . . . this constant companion of Patti's desires to enter the field of art.

THOMAS HAMILTON CUNNINGHAM III

Take a lesson from a top-notch surfer boy!

A surfing enthusiast, Timmy feels most at home with the guys at the shore . . . teaching Brian to surf has become a hobby . . . 1967 was a great year for "the houses" at the shore . . . to him, life is "out-a-sight."

JOY ANN CZOPEK

It's the springtime of my life

Sincere and impulsive, there is truth in her name . . . seen with Janis and Sue at the courts . . . an asset to the Personality and Pep Clubs . . . she appreciates good music and history with Miss Farley . . . junior year remains a fond but distant memory.

GARY LESTER CUTLER

Laughing in the sun, always having fun

A future Perry Mason, Gary still has time to enjoy the sun and sand at the shore . . . lacrosse is his sport — history his forte . . . a frequent drop-in at Don's.

ELIANE DACCÀ

It's a new dawn, it's a new day, it's a new life for me

From the moment she stepped off the plane, our Brazilian AFS'er bubbled over with personality . . . though Li's English is superb, she finds Mr. Lampf's speech class a challenge . . . looking through those enormous glasses, it is obvious to see that she loves life in America . . . when fun with Sue and Debbie ends, psychology will fill her time.

EILEEN MARIE DANIELS

How pleasant is the life I lead

Nonie's blue eyes open wide at the mention of sports . . . that incident in the girls' room was a real winner! . . . when Val is near, you can be sure the two-some is headed for Grunings . . . although presently busy at Kings, Nonie's ambition is to move from check-out counter to secretarial desk.

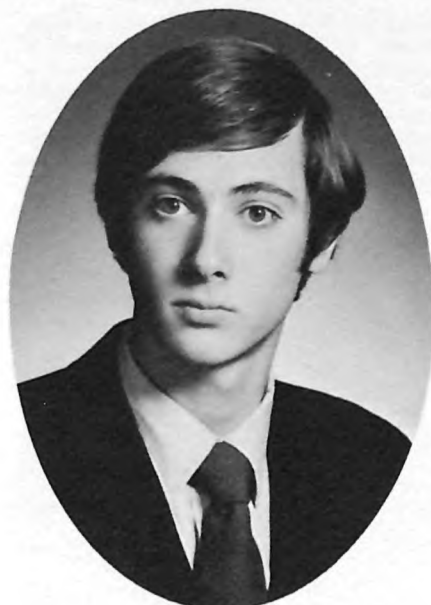

LARRY DANKO

ANDREW LELAND

DAUBER

I dreamed the world had all agreed to put an end to war

Attending a rock or jazz concert would rate almost as highly as playing the guitar or Eric Clapton . . . Andy's winter and spring afternoons are claimed respectively by our Hockey and Tennis Teams . . . while on the slopes with Baker, Marc, or Lee, he contemplates his future in law.

JONATHAN DAVIS

*I have the warmth
of the sun within me*

Sensitive qualities assist Jon greatly in co-directing Youth for Youth . . . playing and watching all sports keeps him going while he waits each weekday for that 3:00 bell on Friday . . . Mr. Berry's geometry class holds first place on his scholastic list . . . some connection with politics should be made in years to come.

JOYCE LYN DAVIDSON

The sun from the clouds seeps into her eyes

A spaghetti-lover who'll have to settle for chow mein — she's working at Canton Low! . . . her bright blue eyes sparkle with enthusiasm for sports, especially tennis . . . Joyce has decided to become either a journalist or a home economist in order to keep the public either well-read or well-fed.

BARRY E. DAY

DAVID A. DEACON

That's the way boys are

Shyness is only a facade — underneath that quiet exterior is a fun-loving, courteous — hockey player? . . . forever tinkering and toying, this fellow's going places as a mechanical engineer.

ARLENE DEBEAR

It's clear we're going to get along

Smokey brightens up Pep Club with her friendly spirit . . . WOW! junior lunch period was truly unbelievable! . . . frequenter of good dances . . . number one with Rich all through high school . . . Mr. "Miz" is found heading the favorites of LHS . . . hopes to use her speaking talents in special education, specifically speech therapy.

RONALD JOSEPH DECK

I'm free and I love to be free

With their car windows rolled down, Ronald, Kim, Jim, and Dan watch the girls go by . . . Duck loves trees but dislikes "Mountains" . . . drafting and graphics with Mr. Goss was a fine point . . . another all-American football fan who believes that roast beef should be the new national favorite.

GAIL ANN DEFRANCESCO

Let's all get up and dance to a song

Those brown eyes are seen often at parties — accompanied by her talkative energy . . . for manicotti, it's either Don's or the Diner with Candy and the girls . . . the big dilemma — "Who is Roach?" . . . that love for dancing will live up an executive office someday.

GERALYNN MARIA DEFINIS

A girl with kaleidoscope eyes

Gerri's not too sophisticated or bohemian to love ice cream . . . look for her with the Ma Ge Lima De . . . "Squasimodo!" What a wonderful 1968 Senior Prom! . . . her frequent trips to New York are only the first steps in her life as a prospective traveler.

BARRY DELCAMPO

Life is worth living

A sportsman in the true sense of the word who confesses that Varsity Soccer is his first love . . . it's that Mountain basketball game that holds first place on his memory list, with Mr. Samuel's history class running a close second . . . Barry's usually found with Lank, keeping busy or discussing that career in engineering.

ROBERT DELLA VALLE
That old highway's a-calling me to travel on

An active member of "The Brothers," Bob fancies Chinese delicacies . . . he's found here, there, and everywhere; known for his ubiquitous wit . . . never forget ringing in the New Year at Fania's . . . he leaves Wayne and the boys as well as Mr. Battito to become a traveling man.

CARMINE DEL SORDI
If I were a rich man

Plans to spend those millions on clothes, clothes, clothes . . . ambitious and meticulous, Carmine was a favorite with Mr. Kambour and Mr. Ransegnola . . . good times mean a talk with Bob over a plate of Italian food . . . hopes someday to graduate to a Rolls.

DIANE A. DEL TURCO
Your beautiful brown eyes

After enjoyable physiology classes with Mr. Segal, tiny Di fully appreciates her senior year height addition of ½ inch . . . through good times with friends, such as Debbie, her sensitive nature is revealed . . . water-skiing insures fun every time . . . hopefully, she'll stand above future elementary school students.

JEFFREY ROBERT
DENHOLTZ

I want to see and hear everything

A concerned but cheerful reporter . . . when Denny is there, you can be sure that his palette and canvas aren't too far away . . . McCarthy had his support as does any worthy cause . . . a political debate suits him fine, and he'll face life's rebuttal with his fine sense of humor to smooth the way.

RALPH LYNDE
DENNINGTON

Blue Hawaii

On one of his escapes from Livingston, Ralph drove to the countryside in Dan Collins' pick-up truck — he'll never try that again! . . . political interests led him to activity in the UN Club . . . surfing is life to Ralph, who'll someday own that dream surf shop in Hawaii.

JOYCE DESCH

A spoonful of sugar helps the medicine go down!

A considerate and reliable friend whose loyalty to the Student Council is noteworthy . . . driving and horseback riding are only a beginning — more extensive travel looms in the near future . . . secretary of Future Physicians, we hope someday to call her Dr. Desch.

DEBORAH ANN DETER

A cheery disposition

Debbie's one who favors history with Mr. Rans . . . having already decided that teaching's for her, she became active in FTA . . . because this is a fun-loving individual, she's found at any football game — with Diane, of course! . . . weekends, when there's more time for that special guy, can't come soon enough.

MICHAEL C. DIMATTEO

I'm so carefree

Thank heaven for Henry Ford and JoAnn . . . where would Auto II be without this easy-going joker? . . . in between his work on 396 and 427 Chevies, Mike's passion for roast beef sandwiches can't be curbed — who said "the way to a man's heart . . ." — "Yeah, right!"

JANIS M. DOLCE

There are no gloomy skies

With all the personality and pep of a football-goer, Jane will always hold a fond memory of Mr. Miserendino . . . perpetual surroundings: Joy, Bets, Lynn and the girls are often assembled at 7-11 and the courts, or bombin' to Don's — "This is true" . . . vacation brings elation, especially that summer after her junior year — "Wow!"

PATRICIA SUSAN DOPF

Small, and funny and fine

Short but sweet, Patti remembers art with Mr. Battito and her week at the shore . . . happiest when deeply engrossed in a good movie or a good piece of pizza . . . her painting and cooking talents have well been bestowed upon Stan . . . this "12 year old senior" looks forward to a secretarial career.

WAYNE TAGE DORING

I've got to cover ground — You can't keep me down

Football and girls yield some mighty strange plays — but no touch . . . that '68 Mountain mash is immortal . . . Mr. Gorka has a certain "art" about him . . . joyous when that certain someone is near — what, you don't hold hands with a lobster? — "You ain't wrapped too tight!" . . . will make the big switch from Kinney shoes to college blues.

LAWRENCE C. DRAKE, JR.

Please step aside if you can't lend a hand

A valuable member of the Wrestling Team and Marching Band . . . active in the Orange YMCA's Leaders' Club, Larry spent a summer in South America as a delegate to the First Inter American Youth Conference . . . presently an idealistic dreamer, Larry hopes to contribute to the world through the Peace Corps and politics.

GORDON MICHAEL
DRYBURGH

I shall tell of a hunter

A dedicated hunter who looks to a career in wildlife management . . . one of "Mr. Winters' boys" who will never forget some of their discussions! . . . Gordon's driving leaves a lot to be desired — how many violations have there been now? . . . a fan of Mr. Weidner and Y dances.

RUTH ELLEN DUNSCOMBE

You've got to be sincere

Ruthie will take a rare steak and tossed salad anytime except if a Mustang convertible honks for a ride to the Mall . . . she'll be well remembered for just being herself at all times . . . her sensitivity and understanding will profit her immensely in a career in elementary education.

MICHAEL DOMINICK
DUFFY

He's an all-American boy

His after school hours are often spent making history in Lacrosse Club events . . . fond of spaghetti, his heartstrings are attached to Mrs. Pongracz . . . "no school is good school," says hardworking Duff . . . presently a major asset to the Football Team, he'll ultimately have larger assets in business.

FREDRICA ANN DUTY

To paint the sky above

Fritzie's devotion to the success of our Junior Prom won't be forgotten . . . this outstanding athlete should naturally teach physical education . . . all those artistic talents are often channeled into the Art Club . . . though friends like Judy and Ruth are tops, Skip's nice to have around.

MICHAEL STEVEN DUGUID

Life is worth living

Head's the most pun-loving vice president any senior class ever had . . . driving is best when Harry, Matzoh, and Mo are along . . . LHS won't ever forget this football star . . . Jake's camp and that Monday night Y dance are happy "Harry" memories . . . as treasurer of Key Club, Mike's planning how he'll make his mint!

JEFFREY OWEN EARLE

There's so much we must do for tomorrow

A dynamic leader and Boy's State delegate, Joe Cool fits naturally into the positions of co-captain of the Soccer Team and sports editor of Crossroads . . . preaches that a person should "act like yourself" even at Jake's camp . . . determination and intelligence predict success in the fields of aerospace research and engineering.

SANDRA MAUREEN
EATON

The sunny side of life

"What's happening man?" . . . Sandy is — whether she's skylarking with the group in her Corvair or marching with the Imperial Guardsmen . . . love was anything but blue at the prom with Gene . . . Smiley will give service with a grin if her aspiration to become a practical nurse comes true.

ELAINE PHYLLIS
EBINGER

I'd love to go traveling

"What's cookin'?" . . . Elaine's got a wide range of talents: Future Physicians is a main course, then Latin au gratin . . . a born rover, she treasures memories of landmarks passed — even that impossible physics final . . . can't get over Mr. Segal's physiological cut-ups; thus, a career in research biology beckons to this wandering chef.

SHIRLEY EDWARDS

Who could hang a name on you?

What, you don't like coffee ice cream? You "idiot spoon!" . . . she'll not soon forget those years of teenage heaven, especially those one-in-a-lifetime moments in Mr. Welch's class . . . though she now devotes her time to tamboura, she'll have opportunities to try just about anything as the years go by.

EDWARD C. ENGLISH

*What will my future be —
I wonder*

"A little bit of humor there" — it's found in this large package of buffoonery . . . a noise-maker whether he's playing the drums or touring the town with Chuck, Kenny, and Rich . . . wearing yellow sneakers is just one way of attracting attention!

MARILYN LOUISE ERD

I have my books

Kathy and Marge or a good book are always close by . . . she will laugh about the episode at the fountain with J., K., and M. for a long time . . . an appreciation of Mr. Battito's fine arts class, and Mar's own good taste make a career as an interior decorator very probable.

JUDITH M. ERICKSON

Each day just goes by so fast

Judy's the long-haired cheerleader who has lent many a helping hand to Lancelot . . . one who loves to ponder about the Junior Prom with Don or about the shore, tuna fish sandwich in hand . . . after a swingin' day at the courts Linda, Abby, and she head to 7-11 for fun.

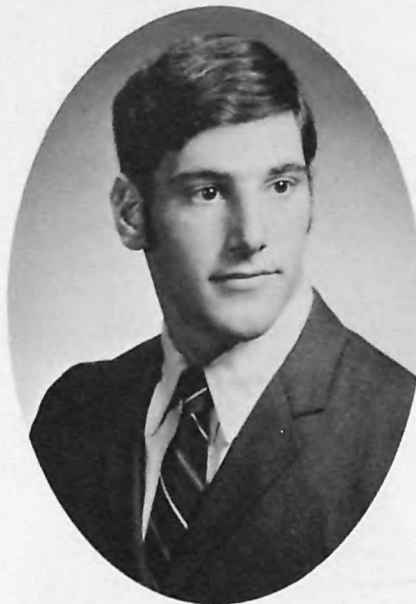

STEVEN M. ESKIN

Give me the simple life

A muscular mat man, Steve is quite adept at hunting and drawing a bead on the best ski slopes . . . what more could you ask than to be outdoors on weekends? . . . LHS band man who sets to hummin' over a good steak . . . cheerful and fun-loving, he is insured a future of contentment.

STEVEN M. ESSINGER

It's the age of men

Ess did all right on Labor Day '68 . . . football, football — always followed by the exodus to Don's for thick vanilla milk shakes . . . he's certainly modest, "Is that right?" . . . treasures memories in living color of Art Club and Mr. Battito . . . his joviality will aid him in a lucrative business career.

LINDA FARMER

Peace and quiet and open air

When Linda's not with Judy, Leslie, or Ruth, she often recalls that "certain" school dance . . . basketball games are great but so much greater when G.H. is around . . . afternoons are filled with Future Nurses Club or candy stripping which continue to inspire this future nurse.

LAWRENCE R. FAST

I dig rock 'n' roll music

Larry's rock band with its ever-changing name and members is a constant challenge to him . . . loves to dab at notes in the New Music Club and add a hamburger — he's far from unhappy . . . Larry will continue the countdown to school's final day when he can turn his verbosity to a successful law career.

LINDA JOYCE FAY

Action, action, action

Phrenetic? — "that's close" when trying to describe Fay . . . she bombs around stopping occasionally to paint a certain rock only found in Livingston . . . but there must be something she finds more amusing at F.D.U.! . . . sensitivity draws back those memories of Long Beach Island and pushes on that dream for a family.

JEFFREY FAYERMAN

Someone you can rely on through thick or thin

Jeff and Neil — football management par excellence . . . elated by A's — that favorite grade never fails to cause a laugh . . . there are too many favorite teachers, but chemistry is the award winning subject . . . a future physician whose Latin will someday aid in translating those medical formulas!

NADINE ANN FEDER

My life is sunshine, lollipops, and rainbows

Proof of her artistic ability can be seen on The Rock . . . Nadine's enthusiasm is apparent in her eagerness to serve on Youth for Youth and Student Council . . . the fabulous times in Sigma Lambda Phi and the 1967 Junior Prom are unforgettable . . . can anything compare to February 9th's "wing ding?" . . . she wants to discover the world through travel.

WENDY JILL
FEDERSHNEIDER

Nothing can stop me now

That loquacious personality was brought to life in the 1967 All School Production . . . this inquisitor claims "Can I quote you on that?" to be her favorite question . . . she really does try to get there on time, especially if Lincoln's waiting . . . if indecisive, compromise—to become a thespian psychiatrist.

PAUL F. FEILER

C'mon and hear, he's the leader of the band

Whistle and baton in hand, he led the LHS Band up the field during fall '68 . . . beautiful, trumpeting tones played the way to All-State Band and Orchestra . . . he knows many American faces from National Youth Council and Mid-Atlantic CYF . . . with adventure in his heart — he's off to medical missionary work.

ANDREW LEE FELD

He was comin' down that slope

Winter is this sports lover's favorite season 'cause it's time for a basketball work-out and an icy thrill from skiing . . . Andy always manages to have a good time — and Miss Farley's US I class was no exception! . . . he'll be the very first fun-loving lawyer.

JOHN BRUCE FELDERMANN

Who cares what tomorrow will bring . . .

Loving the ease of sand and surf, John also bounces to the competition of a basketball game . . . when it comes to homeroom with Miss Coppola, he's not as quiet as he seems! . . . when his "high" scholastic standing is no longer the talk of the town, you'll probably find him on top of the world in Summit.

ELLIOT RICHARD
FELDMAN

Give him the ball and just look at him go

After a strenuous soccer or basketball practice, nothing can take the place of mouth-watering Italian food . . . Knuck enjoys active gym classes with Mr. Basco, but sure looks forward to sleeping in order to regain his energy for more sports . . . watch out business world — E is on the way.

FRED FELDTMANN

I had no care

Fred's either running a touchdown or lying around at home peacefully enjoying a luscious juicy steak . . . besides working at the Shop Rite, the rest of his time is spent doing homework or at the diner with Spanky and his Gang(?) . . . a faithful gambler who settles for pool and cards while waiting for his lucky win in the stock market.

JAY MICHAEL FELIX

It's today

Waterskiing quenches his thirst for excitement, while lobster satisfies any hunger pains . . . enjoyable government classes with Mr. Smart have just begun to introduce this AFS'er to the governments of various countries . . . music cheers the day — so fill a roomful!

GARY MICHAEL FELL

*I was born to wander,
I was born to roam*

He may appear quiet, but watch out for his great sense of humor . . . his musical tendencies are evident in the Mixed Chorus and the Imperial Guardsmen Drum and Bugle Corps . . . "Hey, man!" . . . give him English with Mr. Miserendino . . . this future Globe Trotter looks forward to meeting fun-loving people.

WILLIAM ALLAN FERGUSON

Riding with the wind

This avid drag racer hails the day he got his license — today happiness means a full gas tank . . . taking it easy now is Ferg's way of preparing for his eventual retirement.

JAMES MICHAEL FERRARA

*I found the secret to life;
I took some time for living*

Ferrar is the football buff with an appetite for steak . . . don't look for him at home — he's not there — he likes just to relax with Kim, Ken, and Randy . . . just give him a car, a girl, and his Shop-Rite paycheck! . . . US I with Mr. Cooney was a very good year.

JOSEPH A. FERRUGIA

*I know that one day soon
a song shall rise*

Joe's an advocate of privacy during the hours that he's not socializing with girls . . . Italian food is so go-o-od that he's got to "take it slow!" . . . that new guitar and amp have made his career in music seem even more definite now than before.

AMY FERSHKO

All my tomorrows

A happy girl who appreciates a good sense of humor . . . her probing mind thrives on history, reading, and creative writing . . . what could beat a summer on a kibbutz? . . . Amy's interest in the Romans has made her Latin Club treasurer . . . her thoroughness and intelligence insure success in whatever she does.

DENNIS J. FIDALI

I'm free and it's so easy to get by!

"Hey man!" . . . Fid plays soccer and co-captains the team with a passion . . . is as lovable as he is affectionate . . . Mr. Goss's drafting class draws the line between good classes and bad . . . also on the Baseball Team and Varsity Club, he's a probable physical education major.

LAURA S. FIEBER

She'd speak of far-off places

Though an accomplished yenta, Laurie's often reserved, especially when lost in thought . . . a favorite reverie is those two weeks in Vermont . . . driving is great but she's got her heart set on travelling the world someday . . . wherever she goes, an "integral" part of her will remain here at LHS.

LOUISE CHRISTINE FILI

Aren't you glad you're you?

An Art Club devotee with an ardent admiration for Toulouse-Lautrec and a creative eye for sculpture and calligraphy . . . the summer in Italy is a reflection in her mind . . . she makes LHS quite a feature for the Lance . . . what exactly do all these buttons mean, Lulu?

MIMI JOANN FINE

I specialize in having fun

Ever hear about the time that Jolene sat on a thumbtack? . . . if you can't find Mim, just look for Dave Elkin — "Wow!" . . . anyone for a hamburger diet? . . . pizza will hit the spot anytime after a day of water or snow skiing . . . she's FTA's example of a prospective elementary school teacher.

SCOTT H. FIELDING

At peace with the world

Athletic ability, intelligence and personality make Scott an all-around guy . . . he works up quite a lather in Barbershop Chorus . . . the hamburger king of Livingston contributes much valuable time to DeMolay . . . his mathematical mind will prove beneficial to a career in engineering.

BRADLEY FINKLE

How many times must the cannonballs fly?

Leave it to Nails to skip English the first day at LHS . . . Bruce and Danny know about his passion for girls . . . high diving and fast driving really rate with him . . . this future millionaire gives his army status as "4 — Goodness sake keep me out!"

HOWARD S. FISHGRUND

I'm very acquainted with matters mathematical

With a ball and glove Howie strikes 'em out . . . his keen mind makes him an invaluable Chess Clubber . . . his fame rose to its peak when he was the Lance "Playmate of the Month" . . . a love of nature attributes to his craving for sardines . . . with a head for figures, accounting seems inevitable.

PATRICIA ANNE FLASTER

*C'mon people now,
smile on your brother*

Although bombing to Don's with Jayne, Barb, Sharon, Marsha and Lois is great, nothing can replace HIM . . . as Temple Youth Group president, Patty demonstrates her pep and conscientiousness . . . helping handicapped and underprivileged children has exposed Patty to the fields of special education, social work, and the Peace Corps.

JERRY FLEISCHER

4-speed stick and 426 now

Mechanical inclinations will certainly lead to a career in the auto body repair business . . . he's currently an ambitious employee of the Northfield Body Shop . . . the best day is pay day, when there's money to spend on the car and a date with Cheryl.

EDWARD B. FLINK

I've got a lot of living to do

An "out of sight" ski enthusiast and member of the Ski Club . . . easy going Ed is happiest when out of school . . . a habitual girl watcher, he is usually seen with Andy and Irv . . . his driving ambition will ensure a successful career in law.

CHARLES FOGEL

See what tomorrow brings

Charlie swings as he drives his car down that well-worn path to Debbie's house . . . it's natural for such a car enthusiast to prefer auto shop with Mr. Albrecht above all else . . . food — Italian style — rates with our salesman from Sam's who will always take life as it comes.

JUDITH ANN FOLEY

Let the good times roll

Usually talkative, Foley needs little coaxing from Fritzie and Jean if the topic is Bruce . . . she has a "thing" for proms — recalling '67 Senior Prom and lending artistic talents for our Junior Prom decorations . . . enjoyable art classes like Miss Casterlin's will be her goal as an aspiring art teacher.

LYLE MITCHELL FOX

To each his own

A moody individual with an active interest in cars and girls (not necessarily in that order) . . . Col. Wagon recalls the group at Washington Square Park . . . only good corned beef will do . . . high note in his life is his musical ability.

KEVIN L. FRANCIS

A man who sailed the sea

Loquacious, friendly Keb is a talented sportsman and musician who is usually found "ruckusing" with Jeff, V.C., Jerry, and the guys . . . ah, that summer on the S.S. Brasil! . . . sure to be remembered for his warmth and dashing good looks; you can always find the action where he is.

PAMELA R. FRANCIS

What a happy face you wear

This color guard will bear memories of two years of football halftimes . . . if those Omega Delta Chi girls hear that laugh, they know it has to be Pam's . . . whoever thought that diving into Memorial Pool could be such work?! . . . her pleasant ways are bound to light smiles on all her future pupils' faces.

VINCE FRANCISCHETTI

You're running free

With patriotism in his heart, he'll defend LHS against insurmountable odds . . . eating an ice cream cone on the weekend is Plumb's idea of utopia . . . he could run a mile — the result of the Track Team's conditioning . . . his knowledge of German will increase his success as an interpreter.

LORRAINE FRATE

I took a trip on a sailing ship

Lorrie directs most of her energies toward the Marching Band and the Tumbling Team, yet still finds time to be a library assistant . . . she puts down her cymbals long enough to relax with Chrises B and C or to go sailing . . . she hopes someday to pass on her knowledge as an elementary school teacher.

CANDACE FRIED

She loves to live

Talkative, fun-loving Candy is a hilarious asset to her Y group . . . talks her way through Mr. Gorelick's Spanish class and Future Nurses Club meetings . . . a "Wow!" for french fries and cokes . . . a love for people endears her to friends Gayle and Marilyn.

JEFFREY NEIL FRIEDMAN

For he's a jolly good fellow

Our jolly Freedo is Fellman Footwear's star salesman . . . the day Mr. Susskind blew up the vacuum jar is a priceless memory . . . when Jeff's hanging at Cohen's Knishes, it's for sure that Rich and Mitch aren't too far . . . after all is said and done, Mr. Rappaport sure can teach algebra.

DEBRA JOY FRUCTMAN

I'm a believer

With radio tuned to WOR-FM she takes long strolls by moonlight . . . people are great — unless they're phonies . . . speaks her unbiased opinions as a member of the National Conference of Christians and Jews . . . patience is a virtue when applied to Youth for Youth and, hopefully someday, to a career as a child welfare worker.

ROBERT CHARLES FURMAN

They call him super skier

In the winter he's ski-bound; in the summer he creates a racket for the tennis team . . . definitely the most winded participant of dance band, Bob sure made music the day he got the wheels . . . he "faked out" Mr. Fyfe's 10x geometry class . . . after college, wealth and happiness will beckon.

MARILYN LESLIE FURST

She's the woman who understands

Easy-going Leslie delights in hearing Shubert's Unfinished Symphony or traveling — would you believe to Disneyland? . . . all she really wants to hear is "Music" — (Chorus), "Music" — (Concert Band), "Music!" — (Marching Band) . . . her kind and considerate nature will make her a valuable member of society.

JERRY GAETA

Can't we be friends?

Jerry is the small but powerful captain of our Varsity Wrestling Team . . . seen with Jeff and Dave heading for the shore, he looks forward to Friday night "ruckusing" . . . a Mr. Goss drafting fan, he will face the future as an architect.

WILLIAM GALANTY

Tickle those i-vo-ry keys

Bill's a "fantastic" musician who demonstrates his talent by way of the Magic Box and our school bands . . . place him in Morristown or at a football game — but add Jimmer, Rick, and Ken . . . recalling the Dance Band's "Who" will always bring a laugh to a guy who plans a profitable business career.

PATRICIA M. GANNON

Happiness is blooming all around her

An outgoing math scholar of Mr. Berry's cultivation who recalls the summer of '68 with wild emotions . . . Pat, Karen, and Parker can always be found at the Mountain games with the Pep Club . . . will employ her vivacious personality as a school teacher or department store buyer.

DANIEL GLENN GARDNER

I can't help but wonder where I'm bound

After a hard day's work at Shop-Rite, no wonder he's often found sleeping . . . driving around gets him to his favorite places — especially where steak is served! . . . his theme song of the future will be You're in the Army Now.

MARGUERITE ANN GARDNER

A little ray of sunshine, a little bit of soul

That adventure down at the shore with her Y group couldn't just have included her love for swimming — could it? . . . do all Gracenotes sing while they're sewing — or is Maggie the only one? . . . after enjoying the talent of Mr. Hill's teaching, she's decided to try her hand at it too.

GARY J. GARNET

A man who likes to live his life free of strife

Gary is mischievous behind that quiet exterior . . . often found bombing or at Don's with Chris—looking for girls(?) . . . regarding 3:00, veal parmigiana, and Miss Farley he says, "That's good!" . . . his dependability and logical mind will aid him in business administration.

JOHN M. GASPARINE

I'd wander free as air

Ginnie is off into that wild blue yonder again . . . when can a football fan practice his wrestling except at a Mountain game? . . . his inspiration — "Let's move the Rock!" — fine, but where? . . . he dreams of a life of freedom in the skies.

MARK GASPARINI

Call me unpredictable

Although you won't find him in any one particular place, you can be sure that Peter's along . . . Mark enjoys running for the Cross Country and Track Teams, but rates soccer supreme . . . our government will be fortunate when this trustworthy soul contributes his services.

GARY JAY GAWLER

As sturdy as Gibraltar

Hunting and Squirrel are almost inseparable — but Chris Carnivale manages to step in . . . aside from cutting the water with a rod or on skis, Gary watches over summer swimmers as a lifeguard . . . he was just about the only junior with senior privileges — but you know how it is with those forensic debaters!

WILLIAM J. GAVIN, JR.

Live free, where no walls confine you

Willy J. finds freedom when he can just play his guitar or practice scuba diving . . . Don's saw much of him and three-some Doug, Pete, and Frank . . . when no one tells him what to do, he'll reminisce about 9th grade shop with the boys, or Mr. Hill — his two academic favorites.

JOANNA CAROL GELLAS

*My head is filled
with things to say*

Her spontaneous laughter and conversations have been heard from Senior Class Council all the way to the 22nd Street Lifeguard stand in Beach Haven . . . the Pi Delta Phi girls follow their president to football games and down the shore — "Like wow!" . . . anyone, including Mr. Berry and Mrs. Goldberger, are enthused by congenial Jo.

DAVID ALAN GAVRICH

Always leave 'em laughing

Dave's only sidetrack from the "green" is a pretty girl . . . no school? — Man, "that's good!" . . . AFS has Dave on record as treasurer and vice-president . . . those two years of history with Mrs. Yavelberg will never be forgotten — by either one! . . . fame as the King will reap him due royalties.

MARCY ELLEN GENDEL

*I spend my days
in conversation*

When Marcy's phone is busy, it's a safe bet that either Paula or Ellen is at the other end . . . Marce loves those Sun Valley summers — but winter days on the slopes can make her just as happy . . . it's "tough nuggies" when the Claremont runs out of cheesecake!

ROY BARRY GERBER

*Gonna build me a mountain
from a little hill*

Gerb's our uptight basketball player who resides at the courts when not bombing with Mo and Matzoh . . . it's fitting that a Gerber should love baby food . . . give Roy a Four Tops concert any-day, and he'll say more than "that's good!" . . . as one who knows what "ain't no bargain," he's sure to make a fortune.

MARK GERSHENBAUM

Doing whatever he thinks is best for him

Simon in the green Firebird is Mrs. Sterling's favorite — when he's there! . . . often saying, "I feel terrible" — except when skiing or reliving the '68 July 4th weekend . . . his determination will see him through a career in medicine.

STEPHEN MICHAEL GEVARTER

Moonlight in Vermont

Talkative and humorous Steve, the Ski Club's first president, fondly remembers trips to Vermont with Jim . . . basketball, tennis, and Algebra II with Mrs. Higgins rate as tops . . . as a realistic vice president of Future Physicians, he plans to enter the field of medicine.

ANNE GIACALONE

Brighter than a lucky penny

A treasured memory is the '68 Senior Prom with that special someone who drives the blue V.W. . . . U.S. I with Miss Farley made history her favorite subject . . . would like to be remembered for being herself, a dedicated president of Future Nurses.

DEBORAH GILL

Her words of kindness linger on

Quiet and friendly, Debbie has had outstanding success in both Head Start and Youth for Youth programs . . . a pleasant personality adds to her enjoyment of people and friendships . . . she'll gladly be treated to a Pal's roast beef sandwich . . . Mrs. Vincent's Typing II course will certainly aid that career in secretarial work.

VICKI SUE GINSBERG

Your voice I often hear

A talkative redhead, Vick is always glad to bubble over '68 summer daze at the shore . . . wonder if Debby, Wendy, and Marilyn can explain the intrigue of Ho Jo's pool? . . . this Pep Club participant will use some of Mrs. Yavelberg's teaching ability plus her own vitality to brighten up an elementary classroom.

ROBIN SUE GINSBURG

Girls as sharp as her are something rare

Robin, who brings genuine happiness to all who know her, is partial to anything edible or musical . . . her talent was a real asset to Harvey, and she has undoubtedly proven to be the best costume zipper-upper ever . . . her Art Club experience has only enhanced her ability to brightly color the lives of all around her.

SIDNEY GITTLER

I'm a real straight shooter

Sid's experience in the United Nations Club gave him a firm background for his class office campaigns . . . riflery is a favorite pastime between AZA meetings and televised football viewing . . . fried eggs and scrambled math make up an intriguing atmosphere . . . he'll be a social worker full of arithmetical suggestions.

RICHARD MARK GLATZER

London — oh what a sight!

"You bid five hearts — that's gross!" . . . this National Merit Semi-Finalist is usually found in A112 with Miss Coury . . . would you believe a Crossroads business staffer as co-editor of La Gazette Literaire? . . . Rich is determined to revisit London, and his money sense will help pay the way.

LOIS GOLD

Listen to my advice

Just ask Loe for advice and you'll get it . . . the Ann Landers of LHS doubles as our Ski Club treasurer . . . a day on the slopes is too "unreal" for words, although creativity is one of her specialties . . . chicken dinners, as does all food, send her, and so do fond memories of "Sport."

TERI ILENE GOLDBERG

I enjoy being a girl

Charming Teri often finds her LeMans filled with friends . . . a color fiend complete with blue love and (Mrs.) Green English . . . forever running between USY and frequent nights out . . . too bad you'll have to give up the night life for marking papers, Teri!

JAMES GOLDFARB

People who care about strangers

As co-captain of the Varsity Tennis Team and president of the Ski Club, Jim is the epitome of enthusiasm and all-around sportsmanship . . . his objective and realistic outlook will give him the plus he needs to succeed in law or politics . . . Jim will always Cherish those Windy ski trips to Vermont.

ROBERT M. GOODMAN

You can't keep a good man down

Those Monday mornings with Mr. Shayer and Friday afternoons with Mrs. Yavelberg were really "stimulating" for Bob . . . did his '68 summer in Europe train him for his United Nations Club presidency? . . . he likes to think and often airs his opinions . . . our Forensic Club's V.P. will use his speaking talents as a trial lawyer.

JEFFREY EDWARD GORRIN

*There are places
I'll remember all my life*

Good-natured Jeff won't ever forget the southern accent and the trip to Europe . . . he's an outstanding Honor Society member and Student Council representative . . . a hard worker especially where the Young Democrats are concerned . . . whether his political activities lead to a law career, or he devotes himself to medicine, he's sure to be a success.

CHARLES M. GOTTFRIED

I do believe it's true

An ambitious intramural sports player with a passion for football and thick juicy steaks . . . Frank and Bill are companions when Charlie drives to the old bridge . . . the memories of his high school years include English with Mr. Miserendino and Ott's party.

DEBORAH MICHELE GRAF

Debbie has many talents to her credit — dancing, cheerleading, and volleyball are only a few . . . what a rewarding week was spent in Girls' Citizenship Institute at Douglass College! . . . all Kappa Omega Phi girls remember summer '67, but it is a special memory for her . . . of course Debbie will be a peppy physical education teacher.

THOMAS PETER
GRANATA

Forget about today until tomorrow

Wheels starts to roll when he hits the field as a Varsity Baseball Team member . . . Varsity Club life is as easy-going as this athlete's personality . . . how quiet can you be when accompanied by Dave P., The Wit, Bacon, or Gary S.? . . . his goal for the future lies in advertising.

ROBERT DANIEL GRECO
Oceanchild

Aided by a talent for scuba diving, Robert explores the wonders of the ocean's depths, and occasionally indulges in his favorite delicacy, lobster! . . . fun sails into his life when riding the waves with George . . . a successful splash into the field of oceanography floats upon the horizon.

STEVEN CHARLES GREEN

No strings could secure you

Beware — he's a karate expert! . . . interests in audio engineering and theatrical production may carry him off to see the world . . . easy-going Steve takes life as it comes to him — he's happiest just doing "nothing in particular."

ROBERT SCOTT GREENE

There'll never be another you

Spends time doubletalking to salesmen while buying bell-bottoms . . . this businessman's vacations will be spent on fishing trips . . . a connoisseur of Italian hot dogs and coffee ice cream . . . to Snork and the guys Robbie is just "Hey' Man!"

PAMELA ELLEN GREENLEAF

Fly me to the moon

The epitome of a dreamy, blonde blue-eyed girl often soars away to the shore in the silver machine with that certain Chump . . . otherwise found with Andrea and company, at Lance or Student Council . . . she has a vote of praise for senior gatherings and math with Mrs. Singer . . . Pam has high hopes of being an airline stewardess.

ESTHER R. GRIECO

I need a laugh

She's a laughing Pi Delta Phi girl who, with Caren, Marilyn, and Ann, waits impatiently for the weekends to come . . . a future high school teacher who has gained valuable experience at FTA meetings . . . her liveliness sparks Girls' Leaders Club and the Pep Club.

ROBERT LEWIS GRISAR

There's no happier bloke

A perpetual smile illuminates this appreciator of the good life and ruckusin' . . . it isn't easy to catch up with Bobbo — he's the Cross Country captain and West Essex Hi-Y-Tri-Hi-Y president who celebrates team victories on the bus rides home . . . he'll be running his way into a teaching career.

MARILYN GRUM

Look for the girl with the sun in her eyes

Winters find Mar on the ski slopes, but during the summer look for her at Beach Haven . . . football games are tops in the fall, while spring is time to think about new clothes while enjoying a butterscotch sundae . . . all year 'round this cheerful girl is on the go.

LOUISE CAROL GUNIN
*Learning to enjoy at my leisure
 all the simple pleasures*

LHS's Personality Club is lucky to have loveable Louise as a member . . . always happy, this somewhat nutty girl particularly enjoys birthday parties . . . hating anything that's "almost", she naturally prefers subjects like Mrs. Higgins' precise Algebra II class . . . "What a hassle" it is to walk all over Morris-town!

NORMAN HANSEN
*All through this world
 I'm bound to ramble*

At 3:00 Friday, Norm heads for Crater Lake for a wonderful weekend . . . his athletic interests lean toward the sharp sports of fencing and ice hockey . . . a promising cartoonist intending to travel soon.

ALAN HAUPTMAN

GREGORY GLEN HAWK
You've hurdled every obstacle in sight

Thoughtful, talkative Greg is a fleet-footed member of both our Track and Cross Country Teams . . . an outdoorsman who favors playing and watching football, he has an alert mind and a keen sense of responsibility . . . his scientific curiosity will aid him in the field of biochemistry.

LYNNELLE MARCIA
 HECHT

I will stay younger than spring

Understanding, fun-loving Lynn is a joy to her friends . . . dependability has made her a Student Council representative and secretary of TVG . . . an interest in history prompts her desire for travel . . . Cohen's Knishes has trouble keeping her from their desserts!

JOHN EDWARD HELLER
You are a man of grace and polish

An incredible performance as Elwood in Harvey skyrocketed John to super-stardom . . . egg nog, intimate groups of friends, baseball, and bicycling — these are the simple pleasures of life . . . his flair for forensics should further him towards the realization of political aspirations.

ALLEN JOSEPH HELLMAN

Picking up the punch lines

A completely unique experience! . . . just give Big Al some jellybeans and a girl . . . hilarious memories of going to camp with "Jake" . . . when asked about baseball, his favorite sport, he replies, "Mickey Mantle? You can say that again!" . . . filled with the assurance needed for a political or business career.

WINONA C. HENDRICKS

What's new pussy cat

Do you believe in magic? . . . a striking blonde with a flair for fashion. Nonie is charming! . . . painting occupies much of her time; will this preoccupation with art lead to a career in fashion?

MARJORIE WOODWARD

HERBERT

The hills are alive with the sound of music

She's a music fanatic who sings, plays the French horn, and listens to records . . . the fun-loving member of Kappa Omega Phi is seen with Marilyn, Kathy, and Joanne . . . mmm — lasagna . . . she'll unselfishly devote herself to helping the retarded.

JAMES HERBERT HEYM

The race is on

Spends much of his time at LHS running for both the Cross Country and Track Teams . . . Miss Conforti's Spanish III class absorbs quiet and intelligent Jimmy, while football adds vitality to his life . . . a medical practice may be seen in the future.

BETSY HILL

Someone left the cake out in the rain!

Part devil, part angel — Bets is always doing crazy things . . . she and Claire ask, "Who stole the cake?" . . . remembers that day after the Junior Prom . . . it takes cheeseburgers to bring her out of a dream world . . . "C'mon" girls, we did get along great with senior girls '68!

DONALD R. HINDS

We gotta keep on the run

"Over the rivers and through the woods, around the track he goes" — yet despite those leg cramps, Barney's happy . . . perhaps he perfected his running formula in Mrs. Yellin's chemistry class?!

ROMAN ANTON HNATIW

Look to your soul for the answer

This coin collector always has a stack of loose change on hand . . . understanding his environment and himself is necessary to put the world into proper perspective . . . comprehension of math and science make a career in a scientific field probable.

MITCHELL HOCHBERG

There's no business like show business

Mitchell's versatility encircles LHS: whether he's winning a circle of forensic trophies or earning a round of applause for humorous presentations in school plays . . . an occasional "Sherry" could easily throw Miss Coury and Mrs. Yavelberg into laughter . . . research-bound, he'll undoubtedly discover new ways to light a smile.

MEREDITH J. HODGKISS

*You can be happy
if you've a mind to*

A true girl of the prairies, Meredith strums her guitar when she's not on top of a horse . . . steak nourishes this member of the Girls' Basketball Team . . . lends her warmth and good nature to St. Barnabas . . . now in preparation for her nursing career.

DONALD EGON HOENIG

To have wings on your heels

Keeping company with Steve, Jeff, Ken, George, and Bob, Prez beats 'em all on the soccer field and on the Track Team . . . fearless leader of MYF, he marks the summer of 1968 as somethin' special . . . enjoyed a good-natured chemistry class with Mrs. Yellin . . . he will venture deeply into the field of oceanography.

KATHLEEN DIANE HOEKE

I hear a symphony

Shy and quiet — 'til you get to know her . . . memories of that Saturday night, the summer '68 . . . her sense of humor wins over many friends, but noise makes Hoke's world go round . . . looks forward to college football games with the same pep that she sported at LHS events.

LINDA FRANCES HOFFMAN

*Every song I sing,
I'll sing for you*

Linda, Crossroads class co-editor, is in cohorts with Laurie and Pam?! . . . youth group presidency was a Gracenote in life . . . she wishes to broadcast her love of TYG and JFTY over WVNJ . . . "I don't believe it!" — a 7 A.M. tennis match at Warwick?! . . . her history in theatre arts should be as stimulating as Mrs. Yavelberg's MEH. 51

RICHARD F. HOGG

I'm such a fortunate man

Eddie's car has hit the scene at many a football game with Rich within . . . "you bet ya" he's dreaming of those times with Sue when they'll share chung-burger after chung-burger . . . his chipped tooth will continue to give that extra character that'll help him through his fun-filled college life.

JANE ELLEN HOLTZ

Live, love, laugh, and be happy

Tiny, energetic Jane, once a J.V. cheerleader, now enjoys swimming or painting The Rock with the senior girls . . . with her voracious appetite this lobster lover once tipped the scales at 105 lbs. . . . always making new friends, she will someday return to elementary school as a teacher.

JOAN LAUREN HOLDER

*One look in her eyes
and you forget everything*

Our picture-happy photography editor receives her get-up-and-go from baby food!?! . . . those big brown eyes never stray from Roy . . . the shore after the Junior Prom gave one loquacious miss enough news for weeks! . . . her friendly "Hi ya!" can only lead to a promising future as a foreign language professeur.

JEFFREY PAUL HOMOLKA

A wailin' song and a good guitar

After the last strains of Folk Music Club have faded, Jeff revives them on his guitar . . . when he's accompanied by a favored girl, especially at Friendly's, shyness gives way to amiability . . . two of his worthwhile sessions are Sunday night church group meetings and Miss Ring's English IV . . . great expectations are set in the millions.

JOSEPH HOPPE

Everything's going my way

Honest, hardworking Joe Voltage enjoys target shooting and electronics . . . U. S. History I with Mr. Hill was hilarious . . . an energetic football and basketball player — his goal is to become a biology teacher.

CATHY HOUGHTON

One little miracle a day is all I need

Another letter to Munster, Indiana! . . . stubborn Hooty insists upon lime sherbet as her favorite . . . elle parle francais en le Cercle Francais . . . a hard worker who will find secretarial work easy after Mr. Krieh's office practice.

NANCY SUSAN HOWELL

Joyful, jaunty, dreaming, dazzled

Her boundless enthusiasm adds immeasurably to the Personality and Dance Clubs . . . that junior year was unforgettable — the Prom, great times shared with the girls of '68, and of course Danny . . . full of zest and sincerity she can't help but have fun when with him or Joy and the girls.

JUDITH ANN HOWLAND

Through the door there came familiar laughter

So gullible, Judy thought Doreen really had a flat tire! . . . "Give me a break" . . . favors driving around with "the group" and would like to try the same on the beach in a dune buggy . . . she's a boy watcher who attracts attention with a contagious laugh and will live happily and successfully ever after.

WAYNE DENNIS HUNT

I wanna earn—for this I yearn

If not driving a fast Corvette past a pretty girl, high strung, over sized senior will be remembering a certain New Year's Eve party . . . Bob and the guys often drop into the Shop Rite to visit . . . when speaking of money — "Yeah, you got the right one."

JAN LISA HUTTNER

*Who can say?
Today may live in history*

Mordant but romantic, Jan devotes her spare (?) time to history, history, history! . . . last year Mr. Rans' all-male A.P. Modern European History class was heaven . . . this year the Young Democrats had a dedicated secretary, as Mr. Cooney well knows . . . she reads, she questions, and often has some very interesting answers . . . to the question of her future — anthropology.

ROBERT A. IMPERIAL

Hang on to your hopes my friend

A potential politician without a doubt, Pump has fond memories of that New Year's Eve at Kahn's . . . great times with Ellen, Robby, and Jane highlight activities . . . Bob is happiest when "I'm not working but my car is," or when carrying on an intelligent conversation with a pretty girl!

CAROL ANN INELLI

Who's the comical little clown?

If she's not driving Karenne and Pattie to the courts, Carol's headed towards Symington . . . enjoys every facet of earth science — especially the field trips! . . . being a peppy asset to Dance Club, Personality Club, and Girls' Leaders, she's bound to be successful in her goal — to enjoy life.

NANCY GAIL IRWIN

These are a few of my favorite things

How quiet could Nancy be while singing along with Joan in Mixed Chorus? . . . youth fellowship provided an outlet for her thoughts while Mrs. Goldberger's gym class was good physical exercise! . . . bet Nancy enjoyed shopping for the Junior Prom '68! . . . Future Teachers of America stimulated that driving ambition to educate others.

JOHN F. D. JACOBI III

He's got high hopes

Mean Jack, our aggressive football tackle and Bryant Drive Wildcat has strategic abilities which will insure him success as a lawyer . . . you can't miss Jack in those yellow and brown checked socks . . . history with Mr. Cooney was memorable, but he'll never forget when Mr. Gambino broke that lightbulb!

JEFFREY WILLIAM JACENTY

Now the time is now, tomorrow

The great procrastinator who orients himself towards the future . . . National Honor Society and Key Club only begin to cover the varied interests of this future executive engineer . . . we have high hopes for Jeff who comforts us with "don't worry, it'll get done!"

PATRICIA JEAN JACOBSEN

Turn around—embrace the ocean

An expert on student affairs at F.D.U. whose memories of The Rock are indelibly painted in her mind . . . if she had the time she'd "bomb around" forever! . . . looks forward to next summer at the shore followed in the fall by secretarial school.

DONALD RICHARD JACKE

Playing piano for the children of the king

An honest and thoughtful person who keeps his musical talents to accompany the Mixed Chorus and the Gracenotes . . . he'll gladly fiddle with a new musical piece or engross himself in a good book . . . he recalls LHS's simpler days without the new wing . . . this budding pianist is attuned to business.

ROZALIA RITA JAGACZEWSKI

The world's a bright and shining apple that's mine

A blushing "Psychedelic Rose" with long legs and short skirts who'll be the most distracting secretary Mrs. Katz's steno class ever trained . . . Pals, where she's always near the opposite sex, is her home-away-from-home . . . that Hanover Park '66 Prom and the summer of '68 are two unforgettables.

JEAN C. JENSEN

She'll have fun, fun, fun

She'll never forget how it was to be a junior girl and have '68 senior girls as friends . . . she's usually found with Ron — and no wonder! . . . a chocolate shake gives her the up-and-at-'em to cheer for Pep Club . . . she'll really be some accountant secretary, someday.

LAWRENCE ALAN JEYDEL

I'm taking some time for living

Larry is that strong-willed and very impulsive member of the Lacrosse Team, U.N. Club, and Ski Club . . . could he ever forget the Friday nights at Great Gorge? . . . enthusiast of football and scuba diving . . . next step — the field of business.

ABBY S. JOFFE

Your days are never blue

Memories of "that certain redhead" will linger long after diplomas are handed out . . . her boundless energy and enthusiasm are channeled into the areas of skiing and driving exclusively! . . . Louise, Peg, and Barb are never far away from our future teacher who fondly recalls geometry days with Mrs. Waldron.

CHRISTOPHER STEVEN JOHNSON

Having a wild weekend

This talented bass player for the R & R Company will go down in history for his weekend parties . . . won't forget Jim and "The Men" soon, or those blissful summer days . . . easygoing Chris looks forward to a career in the communications field.

DOUGLAS B. JONAS

As free as a roaring tide

Fondly called Jughead, Doug is rooted to basically green and blue — good golf and perfect surfing . . . what better place to enjoy these sports than when vacationing at Virginia Beach? . . . this future securities market worker could easily predict the rise and fall of the U. S. stock market!

THOMAS G. JONES

He has everything a man could want

Our Boys' State Delegate naturally spends most of his time in school, but perhaps you'll find him on the football field or baseball diamond . . . Tom will flash his smile whenever he can enjoy roast duck or an evening without homework . . . there's no doubt that Tom's a guaranteed success as a doctor.

MARGARET L. JORDAN

She's not a girl who misses much

Let's play pebbles, Peg . . . constant companions are Louise, Abby, and Barb — and Peter is always welcome . . . is she responsible for that certain party in June '68? . . . her place is 7-11, Don's or the YMCA . . . an outgoing, peppy AFS'er, she looks forward to a career in library science.

RICHARD MICHAEL KAHN

You'd wish that summer would always be here

When not with The Guys, Rich is found selling goods at Sam's . . . a seafaring fan who cuts the waves with swimming and water skiing . . . "Wow!" — January 1st was full of memories! . . . this ambitious Student Council representative is an accountant — hopeful.

VIRGINIA GLORIA
KALWEIT

All that's for the heart's lifting

Sewing up a whirlwind of clothes is one of her praiseworthy accomplishments . . . if she can't be at Mt. Pleasant Citgo, field studies with Mr. Smart isn't much of a punishment . . . although she's seen mostly with Patty, no one can take the place of Johnny . . . wedding bells are in the near future.

PATTI ELLEN KAMPF

Feelin' groovy

A happy person who's love of life attributes to her vitality as varsity cheerleader . . . "Yeah, right" — those sub sandwiches taste so good when you've got the sand beneath your feet . . . that gold car and its driver bring sunshine into her life . . . she's exercising her thoughts towards a physical education career.

PATRICIA KANOUSE

Color all my dreams and light the dawn

Mr. Smart made quite an impression on our Little Egypt . . . when friends are needed, there's Ginny, Sue, and Jo; but when seeking an unforgettably great time you know her search will end with Charlie . . . Pat plans three years of diligent work, after which she'll say "forget it" and become happily married.

STEVEN KANTOROWICZ

Sometimes I feel a little mad

Our famous football photographer is a super-intelligent and conscientious Bryant Drive Wildcat . . . Steve has an urge to become a famous mad scientist — was Mr. Gambino's physics class the inspiration? . . . out of school, watching TV at "The Rock's" house, cynical Winny says, "Mr. Krimmel lives!"

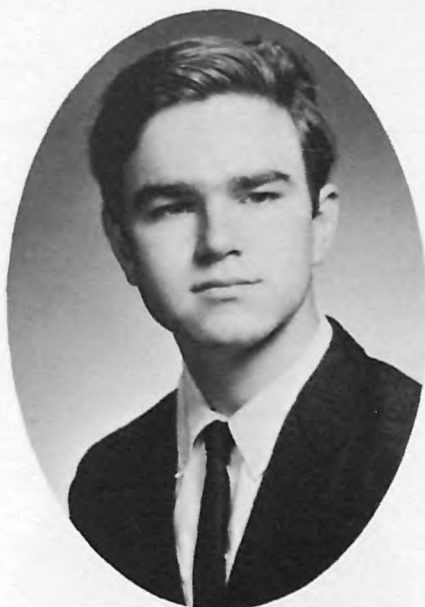

SHERRY KAPLAN

I long to be free.

Her petiteness doesn't prevent her from possessing large quantities of energy, which was especially directed towards helping our junior class. . . although Sherry enjoys being independent, she spends lots of time with her friends Sig and Ann reminiscing that Washington trip.

WILLIAM KAPLAN

Gotta keep it rolling

"Who could forget those Mountain games?" demands this lighthearted football fan . . . CW hangs at the YMHA with Marcia and Jack where his concentration centers on the opposite sex . . . he has an impulse to venture into the field of computer programming and recalls auto mechanics — the high point of his day.

MARTIN BENNETT KATZ

Looking over manuscripts of unpolished rhyme

A poetic individual, he might even compose verses about those Mountain girls . . . besides being an AVA specialist, Tok also has a good hand for karate and fencing . . . when he's in his pad, he often muses on fond memories of Cafe Au Go Go — he's the greatest dancer in town.

KENNETH L. KAUFMAN

Carve his niche in the edifice of time

How could Ken forget Mr. Fyfe's wonderful essay on the merits of giving a math teacher a Christmas present ending in his reliable QED? . . . get this — his companions include 2J's, 2S's, 2G's, and the other K — got it? Good! . . . maybe those letters spell a formula for success in chemistry.

DAVID L. KAY

will challenge the world*

Whose honest opinions have flooded Student Council? — why Dave's, of course . . . bet he's the only basketball player who tapes all the action . . . did Mr. Fyfe give him the incentive to become a Math Team wizard? . . . since he's familiar with the rules of the road, Dave should be great with law procedures.

GERALDINE RONA KEITH

I have the answer right here in my hands

An ice cube and lettuce gourmand — all those calories are worked off by adroitly playing tennis and pinball . . . the National Honor Society appreciates Geri as an intellectual, but she prefers summer life when she doesn't have to cogitate and can work at the Harrison School playground.

KAREN ELIZABETH
KELLETT

Mine's a fine fine life

Little Orphan Annie is a zany, double talker who manages to say the wrong things at the right times . . . she made us feel at home by providing props for the Junior Class play as the chairman of the furniture committee . . . ah — to brew a stew of kelbasi! . . . "What a roll!"

KATHLEEN LAURIE
KELLIHER

I'm so happy now

She'll always remember that homeroom group with Lalie in the lead . . . Laur is known for Missoura . . . her affinity for Mr. Stroup's physiology has greatly inspired her activity in Future Physicians . . . if you have her cook for you — get her out of the kitchen before she eats all she has made!

ALALIA M. KEMPNER

She's all a girl could be

This double title-holder is both a National Merit Semi-Finalist and Miss Livingston! . . . well — those rich desserts didn't hurt one bit! . . . Lalie definitely has the most colorful eyes at Livingston High — blue, green, or both? . . . after a summer's work with Head Start, this majorette is heading towards a career in social services.

LYNN SUSAN KENT

All day long I hear my telephone ring

A sun worshipper with fond memories of Mrs. Yavelberg's U. S. I class . . . Clark and Gail are addicted to movies and phonecalls . . . this member of the Glee Club will never forget those two pillows in the behind-the-wheel car.

ANDREW STEVEN KESSLER

Every sea has a beach of sand

Andy moved from the shore just to be with us in Livingston! . . . he optimistically looks forward to a profitable law practice . . . indulges in basketball, whether playing at the Y or viewing the Knicks at the Garden . . . might we lose him again to the sand and surf this summer?

STEPHEN JAMES KIERAN

There ain't no mountain high enough

Basketball, basketball, basketball! . . . Paca's happiest on weekends when he can bomb with Gerb, Head, Moe, Matzoh, the O, Don, and Ned . . . as our Key Club president, Steve constantly "plays the role" . . . that Boston trip with Moe and Gerb was packed with memorable escapades . . . such driving ambition guarantees success in business administration.

LYNN BARBARA KIMMEL

A joy that's hard to hide.

"Are you kidding?" Of course she loves music — haven't you heard her playing her piano or tuning up for the Band or Orchestra? . . . nobody else gets so much energy from a hot fudge sundae — it keeps Lynn going through every girl's sport there is! . . . better save some to help make a real success of your elementary school teaching career.

JANE ELIZABETH KINNEY

Gayer than laughter are you

Singing, especially for children, pleases this Gracenoter . . . Judy and Louise are certainly not dumcops for hanging around with Janie . . . Harvey will always bring back fond memories to this lively actress . . . the Lance's unbeatable drama critic already has experience for a job as a newspaper reporter or theatre reviewer.

WALTER KIRSPEL

It's very easy pleasing me

The comforts of home and eating pizza while watching a good television program are attractive thoughts . . . this big guy is a participant in De Molay and the New Music Club . . . the 3:00 bell is a pleasant sound.

JOSEPH WAYNE KISKEL

When I feel my strength

Our renowned Wrestling and Cross Country captain who has an insatiable passion for winning and an unfortunate tendency toward plaster . . . an enthusiastic member of the good old homeroom gang, Jay favors history with Mr. Cooney and — dishwashing at Canton Low? . . . will undoubtedly succeed in aspirations to become a medical research engineer.

KATHRYN M. KLEIN

A younger girl . . .

Kath will smile through everything including the constant prod "Maybe you'll drive to graduation!" . . . she's an integral member of the Sigma Lambda Phi "wing-dings" who vows never to set foot in Don's again — until the next time! . . . while searching for her chapstick in a certain Tempest, memories of the JB's of LHS return.

KENNETH GEORGE KLEIN

Havin' yourself a good time

Those times with Paca, Eagle, Gerbs, and Cat sure stand out with that memory of the Mountain basketball game! . . . Bacon thinks MEH with Mr. Rans is fantastic, but sleeping definitely surpasses . . . he's made a well-beaten path from "the courts" to the 7-11 all for the love of a slurpee!

CHRISTY ALAN KLUG

The man in the crowd

Chris, a vital member of the Football Team, grooves surfing and, those wild times of summer '67 . . . where's Chris? — hanging at 7-11 or the courts with the boys . . . driving rates high — and not only in cars, but also driving Mrs. Glick crazy!

CAROL FRANCES KOCKLER

Those tantalizing eyes

Watch Carol's eyes light up when Bob steps in the room . . . Carol's and Lorraine's daily fight to the girls' room has aroused the attention of many a passer-by . . . the experience Mrs. Gompf has given in office practice will produce at least one fine executive secretary.

LINDA ANN KOCUR

Follow me a hundred million miles

Lynn's major interests are traveling and driving — we think this young lady is going places! . . . ah, those memories of graduation and steno with Mrs. Vincent plus endless clothes shopping all turn on our industrious movie-goer who foresees a secretarial career in the near future.

JAY ALAN KOHEN

Talk about a moon, talk about a star

U. S. History with Mrs. Yavelberg paved the way for J.B.'s eventual teaching career . . . our Astronomy Club vice president recalls those starry-eyed looks at the Mountain football game . . . ice hockey and bowling are extremely agreeable, but Jay especially relishes that shrimp creole and the 3:00 bell.

NORMAN DEAN KOHL

I'm ready to go anywhere

This Key Clubber can always find an excuse to talk: reliving the Mountain basketball game, raving over Mr. Rans, or cherishing his moments on the mats smearing an opponent . . . Saris and the Cat always cross his path . . . you can find Dean everywhere, doin' nothing . . . his high-charged personality will shoot him to the top as a psychiatrist.

PATRICIA G. KOZLIK

Such a vivid imagination

Pat's love of art is apparent in all she does, which ranges from being on the Art Staff of '69 Crossroads to being the art editor of the French newspaper . . . Mr. Sherburne has taught Pat the true meaning of perception, for which she'll always remember him . . . the study of architecture will lead to her profession.

HOWARD ROGER KOZLOW

Bound to have a happy day

Howie is perpetually happy, especially in his economics class with Mr. Blumenthal . . . his "Oh, wow!" is usually applied to the New Music Club or to members of the opposite sex . . . who was it who put the bubbles in the fountain?

JO-ANN MARY KRAEUTLER

Something gained in living everyday

Aesthetic appreciator of Salinger's writings and Dali's paintings . . . Kritch is so active she can just find time for her Tri-Hi-Y, girls' sports, and Pep Club activities, never forgetting Billy! . . . what about that flag? . . . cherishing every day, she hopes to explore life.

GEORGE KRAMER

Take me out to the ball game

When he's not eating or sleeping, George peacefully spends his time admiring the new cars with Alan, Dave, and Mark . . . weightlifting proves effective for this strong guy — he slammed 68 home-runs in one season! . . . Mrs. Glick made biology so enjoyable that a career in science is being contemplated.

CHARLES ZACHARY KRUEGER

Would you like to fly?

Charlie flies high when he can have a charcoal steak or when operating a Cessna 150 . . . our cadet commander dreams about his '68 summer trip to Europe with Miss Farley when he bombs in his '62 Dart Wagon . . . Charlie isn't attached to anything — but lacrosse — right!

STEVEN M. KRUTH

Everybody loves Saturday night

If there ever was something unforgettable, it was the day the telephone pole hit Adler's car . . . Hey Bah! Remember Zagnut? . . . this honorary Student Council member who excels at skin-diving and karate hangs with the "Creeps", including Snorky who hosted that Saturday night "wing-ding."

FERN DIAN KROUK

And when the rain beats against my window-pane,

I'll think of summer days again

Sincerity surrounds this '69 Crossroads staff member . . . a pro at makin' faces. Fern recalls Purser's Square, that 3:00 A.M. throw, the "Fantail" and the "Riv" . . . the ocean waves are entrancing when you're walking hand-in-hand by night . . . "wing dings" are fling things and those Sigma Lambda Phi girls know it . . . sensitivity for others makes social work likely.

NANCY ANN KURTZ

Ridin' on top of the world

Nance is often found at the Broken Wheel Ranch riding her horse, or at the Heritage — eating (?) . . . then there's that certain blonde that occupies so much time — but she'll keep her cool about that . . . lunch with Judy, Donna, and Leslie, and art with Mr. Battito will not soon be forgotten.

LINDA ANN LANG

I've had such colorful dreams

True to the teenage image Lin craves pizza . . . can always be counted on to smack that volleyball over the net just in time . . . look out world — someday those casual scribbles will appear on the pages of Seventeen, but meanwhile her artistic ability adorns The Rock.

JEANNE MARIE LAGAS

On the sunny side of the street

That sunny smile warms up Student Council and wins many friends . . . let's curl up and read that CWL for Mrs. Gill . . . it's Jeannie and Patti for the road! . . . extremely independent and headin' for the highway to success.

ANDREA KAY LERNER

Who likes to meditate, contemplate, free from humanity's mad inhuman noise

Thoughtful Andi keeps busy as news editor of the Lance . . . her summertime energies are devoted to the Shaker Village Work Group . . . modern dance and blues rate second only to times spent with Alan . . . she's most content walking on stormy nights when collecting inspirations for a journalism career.

PATRICIA LENIHAN

So poised and polite

An AFS member who can appreciate contributions from other cultures — especially Chinese food and Mr. Keer's German . . . LHS football games are "tough!" . . . when Pat's away from home with Jodie, that quiet, honest face takes on a mischievous grin.

JOANNE CAROL LESH

Let the music play

Unpredictable Jody lists her academic favorite as Junior Homeroom! . . . a definite musical asset to Band and Chorus with her soul in folk songs . . . boating and water skiing create a splash! . . . she leaves behind beloved memories of LHS and the '69 cast.

PHYLLIS DIANE LEVIN

Take my arms that I might reach you

A willingness to help others is displayed by Phyl's dedication as TYG vice president . . . "Don't worry about it" — she'll get all those class staff write-ups finished . . . Roni, Laurie, Ilene, and Carol Jean have it good — Phyllis is a willing chauffeur . . . Spanish Honor Society prompted a fantastic summer at Syracuse University.

SANFORD MARK LEVINE

Who knows where the time goes

Memories of that night under the tree bring him almost as much happiness as getting his pay at Two Guys . . . football games are musts for an enthusiast like Sandy who's always participating in intramurals . . . shrimp? — "Sure," anytime if he's not out driving with the guys.

EDWARD JOHN LEWIS

Sand in my shoes

A "model" beach boy, Eddie only hopes a wipe out won't mar his identifying freckles . . . a football is always welcome down the shore in the summer . . . spot 'im bombin' in the red convertible picking up Brian, Chris, and Timmy . . . dreams of finding the perfect wave; the perfect girl.

JANET AMY LEWIS

Listen, people, to what I say.

Will our Crossroads editor-in-chief ever let us forget that there are no absolutes? . . . when not demanding, "Mr. Hill, will you please remove your glasses?" Jan's renowned vocal power comes in handy for Forensic victories . . . although Harvey was her most direct project, Angelique will always have pleasant dreams of the Senior Play.

EILEEN BARBARA LEWITT

Feels good all the time

Lean to the left, lean to the right, bell-bottom dungarees outa sight! . . . 1968 prom is "sketched" deeply in her mind . . . daydreams at Sigma Lambda Phi meetings about "that guy" . . . loves ice cream as much as painting The Rock — all of which follow her AFS and FTA commitments . . . here's to a travelin' "wing ding!"

JOHN DAVID LIEBENOW

Try to catch me if you can

Lieb finds himself close to water whether he's skimming over a lake on skis or gliding over the ice on skates . . . as Hockey Team captain, he shows the puck to the goal . . . Mr. Hill's class was the peak of his learning experience, while Memorial Day Weekend '68 was an historical good time.

ALAN J. LIEBERMAN

Say it with music

"Dynamite" at catching babes and playing guitar . . . let's say he's a little interested in music — he's active in both the Folk and new Music Club . . . that man in lunch brings a good laugh to Lieb and the gang . . . he must be trustworthy if he admits to planning marriage after college.

STUART LOBEL

It's a fine life

Gaining tremendous enjoyment from all worldly joys, this gifted artist's drawings portray the brighter side of life . . . what could be better than ice, especially in cream or hockey? . . . his easygoing swing will send his ball onto the green of life.

BRUCE JOEL LINKOV

*Makin' all the music
he can make*

Thanks to Mr. Gorelick's superb instruction, Bru can now drive his brother's Fiat . . . goodnatured, he goes out of his way to take pictures for the Lance . . . when not playing the organ, he strikes chords of conversation with Brad, Dan, or Jeri . . . he's bracing himself for years in medical school.

GAIL ANN LOGAN

Light was her laughter

Peanuts is an enthusiastic boy-watcher and basketball fan who plans an early retirement for her future . . . she'll be the first lady mechanic who proclaims cruising around in her Corvette is really livin'! . . . Judy, Bobby, and Gary will certainly remember her "sneezes" and laugh.

GAYLE DIANE LISTER

She's walking through the clouds

The ecstasy of sophomore year can only be surpassed by an omnipresent Joe . . . Gayle uses her upper hand — especially in Mrs. Gompf's secretarial practice . . . what a combination — meatball sandwiches and ring dings! . . . academic training will prove essential in a secretarial career.

JEAN C. LONSDALE

Stay as sweet as you are

Jeanie, our dedicated candy striper, would drive to Acapulco for a plate of Mexican tortillas . . . fascinating fine arts with Miss Casterlin only strengthened this Mariner's desire to become a commercial artist . . . sensitive and conscientious, Jeanie finds inexhaustible pleasure in sleeping 'till noon.

BARBARA ELLEN LOWENSTEIN

All there in a sense of spring and a blade of grass

For our Cercle Francais president, The Imaginary Invalid was a "matter of love" . . . she's no yearling in Forensics either and as secretary she can be found recording her many victories in one of her five or six languages . . . through her huge glasses, Barb peacefully surveys the world and decides that Mr. Hill's beard definitely has soul.

SHARON RENEE LOWY

My spirit like a bird on the wing

Sometimes restless, Sharon relaxes while guitar playing . . . her cheerfulness is well-known to Marcia and Pat . . . moments with Bruce are even sweeter with butterscotch sundaes . . . she's never at home, but few excursions can compare to a special weekend in Asbury.

WILLIAM EDWARD LYNCH

Away from the maddening crowds

He's a real lover of life who enjoys it on his own . . . an asset to our Track Team he's also a football field frequenter . . . working at the Village Shop-Rite perfectly situates him right near Camaratta's for his favorite spaghetti dinner.

SHARON LYNETTE

*Follow every rainbow
'till you find your dream*

Memorial Day weekend at the shore was only the start of a fun-filled summer '68 . . . her "what are we doing tonight?" is frequently heard by the S.B.'s and Company . . . New York excursions rate with this Spanish Honor Society member . . . her love of meeting people assures her success in a career in international relations.

JOHN LYONS

*Dare a man to change
the given order*

This "varsitite" is ready to score a touchdown anytime — especially when the Lancers play Mountain! . . . jovial Johnny L. has an eye for beauty pageants — could Alalia be the reason? . . . though watching the Dallas Cowboys with Tom at Mathesius' is high on his list, his real ambition is to become a lawyer.

JAMES N. MAARSCHALK

Found hangin' around

Beach Haven '68 gave Jim the chance to develop his taste for girls and hoagie sandwiches . . . hanging around 7-11 with Bill and Kenny is normal activity when he's not at the Northfield Shop-Rite working . . . drafting with Mr. Bast almost equals football or track as "The Head."

FRANK GREGORY
MAGUIRE

*With a thousand smiles
he gives to me*

When this Baskin-Robbins' assistant manager thinks about a certain girl, you can be sure that omnipresent smile is growing . . . he leaves football-watching pals Joe, Greg, and Dean behind when he dribbles that basketball . . . Greg's concern for others will make him an ideal doctor.

ROBERT W. MAIDT, JR.

We sailed out to the sun

The Junior Engineering and Technical Society claims the membership of this engineer-to-be . . . Bob goes for weird things like sauerbraten, but stays traditional in his love of the paycheck . . . listening to Mr. Greenberg teach geometry almost equals an afternoon spent sailing, but then again — one's in school and the other's at sea.

PAT MALONEY

California, here I come!

Banana claims she has accomplished more in four months than some people have been able to do in seventeen years . . . Pat will never forget Paramus High School and Kenny . . . when she knows she's loved or when with Pat, she's content . . . when school's over, she's California bound!

CHARLES S. MANCINI

Anything goes

He's employed at Chicken Delite but Bananas still insists that tuna fish ranks number one . . . all will recall his regular attendance and ecstasy at the sound of the 3:00 bell . . . cards are his weakness and this Bloomfield frequenter intends to make Mr. Berry's math the basis for a future fortune.

JAYNE SHERRY
MANDELBAUM

*Laugh and laugh
the whole day through*

Volunteer nursing at Kessler's Institute for Rehabilitation earned Jayne practical experience in her chosen field . . . the most unpredictable member of the S.B.'s and Company . . . anxiously awaits the winter opening of the ski slopes . . . echoes of her carefree laughter will ring through the halls of LHS.

ALAN L. MANKOWITZ

Peace will guide the planets

Progressive rock music and modern poetry are FAB to this WNEW-FM fan . . . "Come on!"—everybody's got to stand by their own convictions! . . . phone conversations concerning his latest work on motion pictures are frequent . . . Mixed Chorus serves as great training for this future cantor.

MARTIN R. MANN

Talk about things you like to do

Happy times with friends show another facet of Marty's normally shy and quiet personality . . . his love for the outdoors naturally makes him enjoy participation on the Varsity Track and Cross Country Teams . . . the "Tempest" is his claim to fame.

BARBARA MARGARET
MANZI

Roll out those lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer

Where does this fickle doll spend her time? — shore 'nuff! . . . shares her "always laughing" personality between Two Guys and one guy — a blonde fella who reminds her of Mr. Mis?! . . . experience as a Future Teacher and a Future Nurse will enable Barb to teach some sick souls what life's all about.

BRUCE JON
MARCHITELLO

Life's a ball

Marshmallow's outgoing personality made his first day as a senior at a new school very memorable . . . girls rate a number one by this lady's man . . . classes with Mr. Basco, especially when it's basketball time, are a ball with this future physical education teacher.

BRIAN DANIEL MARIANI

Got a million friends

This happy-go-lucky sportsman places soccer and surfing at the top of his list . . . a thoughtful, dependable Key Clubber, Brian escapes to the shore with Eddie, Timmy, and Chris . . . truthful and friendly, he yearns for success and a meaningful future in teaching.

PASCAL R. MARINELLO

Magic music mingles in

To this sensitive combination of the artist and the musician, Mr. Hill's history class is where it's happening! . . . summers are spent surfing at the shore, while winters are enjoyed playing basketball . . . Pat Boy, when lost, can be found with Don buried under a mountain of roast beef.

DAVID ALAN MARK

Don't fence me in

The legs of this Spider-ery giant carry him to victory as a Varsity Track man and as vice-president of T.Y.G. . . . when he's not running after girls on land, he's sailing after them on the sea . . . National Merit Semi-Finalist who would like to gain enough knowledge in physics to become a "collegiate."

PETER GEORGE
MARKWITH

I've got Friday on my mind

When Friday rolls around he'll be ready to cheer for his team . . . next to Hungarian goulash, English with Mrs. Hanley and Miss Ring had the tangiest taste . . . the hotel administration business will benefit by Pete's valuable contributions.

GARI MASI

Step out in style

This sharp-dresser's always seen in fast cars with special people while cool breezes blow . . . cruising around town with Moe is perfect for girl watching . . . "Heaven's where I came from and Heaven's where I'm going" — now isn't he sure !?! . . . Count Masi sounds like a great name for a disc jockey doesn't it?

JEFFREY SCOTT
MATHESIUS

How to handle a woman

Ask "the wife" why Jeff always wears turtlenecks — she should know! and she'd probably know about his diversified appetite too! . . . is he Very Capable of love? yes he Kahn . . . he works part-time — in school!! . . . Feet is a multi-captain on the oval and the grid iron.

ROBERT MATTES

EDWARD MATTHEWS

SHIRLEY MAWER

With a song in my heart

A cheerful smile is ample equipment for a good golf game . . . Shirley's a two-time fan of Mr. Hill and football . . . this daring girl hates to worry about tests . . . background of singing — Gracenotes, Chorus, and Glee Club — denote a music career.

RONA McCULLOUGH

You'll see a rainbow every day

Ronnie's eyes express all of her warmth and sincerity . . . her sensitivity will help her to work with people while Mr. Miserendino's teachings will help her to communicate with the world . . . Linda and other friends appreciate her sense of humor; more serious time is devoted to Billy.

LINDA A. McDERMOTT

Free and easy, that's my style

Are White Castle hamburgers better than a castle in the sand? . . . everything looks fine when the sound of the Temptations or Smokey Robinson and the Miracles comes along — and you can bet Christine is bound to be there too . . . always ready to go to a Kappa Omega Phi meeting . . . if it's too early for Don's, 7-11 will be open.

KAREN JOYCE McDEVITT

Into the city where the truth lies

Always prompt when travels bring her to New York City or the shore . . . enjoys reading to increase her brain power . . . Gail certainly shares some of K.J.'s memories of summer '68 . . . dependability and office practice are helpful in preparing for future secretarial work.

BETH JEAN MCGRAW

I won't give up this dream of life that keeps me alive

Student directing the Senior Class Play took lots of stamina and many artistic ideas . . . that Honor Society intelligence was baffled by the mirror maze episode! . . . petite Beth loves lots of free time which she uses to draw or relax with someone special — but she also has time for her 24-hour pastime of boy watching!

JOAN MARIE MCGUINNESS

I want to see what there is to see

A talkative individual who'll gladly listen to problems . . . music abounds either vocally — mixed chorus, manually — guitar, or electronically — records . . . when Joanie can share chocolate chip mint ice cream with her "favorite person" — that's delicious happiness . . . since she loves to travel, it's only natural that she'll remember trips to Switzerland and the '68 Junior Prom.

GARY PATRICK McELROY

It's knowing I'm not shackled by forgotten words and bonds

A fun-loving guy, he digs the shore scene with George . . . the cafeteria riots are Mac's search for something new, but nothing can ever measure up to Mr. Miserendino's English class . . . the doors open wide in the direction of engineering.

LAWRENCE AMBROSE
McGUNNIGLE

I'll fly free then

Calm, refined Scotty just loves sleeping — is that why he's so partial to study hall? . . . after a hard game of football he enjoys spaghetti and meat balls and the company of Diane . . . he'll be "up, up and away" someday and has already begun by working at Caldwell Airport.

MARK RICHARD
McMANUS

Seen the mansions of England, the villas of Rome

Gary's and Dave's most amiable companion is this sports nut who keeps conversation lively with tales of his trip to Europe . . . find him hard at work either on the Lance or at the Acme . . . his interest in drafting indicates a career in architecture.

ANN CHRISTINE
McMURROUGH

I've got a word or two to say
"I'm just wild about Harry" is the theme of Ann's years at LHS . . . spends hours on the phone or with her "Y" group — usually helping friends with problems . . . look for her with Betsy, Jean, and Lynn at 7-11 . . . "Who," she asks the Senior girls '68 "stole the cake?"

LOUISE McNAUGHT

The glow of your being outshines every star

Dreams melt back to the night of September 24, 1966 . . . a crusader for Mr. Cooney and folk music, our adept sophomore class secretary canvasses for business for Crossroads . . . when Jack is home it's time for a celebration, and Peg, Abby and Barb must find their own entertainment!

KATHLEEN AMY
MECHANIK

The memory lives on

Kam is irritated when she sees a convertible without its top down . . . though found most often gallivanting with her Sigma Lambda Phi friends, you can also try finding her on a horse's back . . . Kathy loves those "adorable" Swiss music boxes, but cherishes most her memories of the '68 Senior Prom.

JAMES MEEHAN

Hey life, look at me

Dependable Jim is happiest when school is out because he can enjoy his favorite sports, lacrosse and golf . . . gets satisfaction from chemistry with Miss Le Febvre . . . determined to enjoy the pleasures of life.

RICHARD JOHN MEEKER

Hunter home from the hill

Was it Mr. Miserendino who inspired Meek's puns? . . . a true woodsman who favors the weekends so he can hunt and camp . . . "don't worry" — he will spend his time in tool and dye training after LHS.

SIGRID MEIER

Silhouetted by the sea

Mention sand and surf and Siggy lights up . . . a devoted member of the Class of '69 often found working on prom and play committees . . . happiness and basketball go hand in hand . . . her days begin and end in song.

CHARLES LAURENCE MERIN

A well-respected man

Whether just hacking with the guys or shouting "aw, c'mon" to those intramural teams, Chuck's sociability shines through . . . he'll stir up a racket playing tennis . . . the Lance certainly recognizes his nose for news . . . was it Mr. Hill's history class or the Senior Class Council's rules of order that urged a law career?

FRED METZGER

In Dixieland I'll make my stand

A true Dixiecrat and Wallace enthusiast . . . his day of glory will come when the past governor of Alabama becomes President and southern fried chicken abounds . . . on lazy days, he grabs a fishing pole or a football . . . Fred would like to see Mr. Gorelick teaching history.

LINDA METZGER

Come along with me to my little corner of the world

Springtime with Ma Ge Lima Di is heaven . . . independent Linny enjoys taking off on horseback . . . although she keeps pace with the times, antiques, gothic buildings, and medieval costumes occupy much of her time . . . her creativity is an asset to sewing and to her future career as a fashion designer.

PATRICE LESLIE MERRICK

I find I have the time of my life

Devilish captain of the color guard, Pat always knows where Allen goes . . . the southern belle of the Junior Prom . . . a dramatis persona who made a "dinner time" appearance and proceeded to star in many Y productions . . . mornings seminars in the cafeteria are a ritual for this individualist and her other half.

JOSEPH E. MICHAELS

Bold as love

When Joe demands a smile, an epidemic follows . . . give this guitar strummer some good music and honest people, and total happiness is just a sports car away . . . as a prospective doctor or disc jockey, Joe hopes people don't eat an apple a day.

LYNN SUSAN MILLER

Born free to follow your heart

She trembled in the barber chair as the barber clipped six inches of hair — relax, there's twenty inches to spare! . . . Milli's a peppy Lancerlotter who nets basketballs, volleyballs, and she even netted a fella . . . amiably counts on Bob for those chocolate ice cream cones; and even Mrs. Goldberger has seen her stuffed animals . . . a devout Tri-Hi-Y'er soon to become a buyer

MARC MINION

Standing on the corner watching all the girls go by

Our experienced girl watcher has a passion for steak and girls, of course! . . . when watching football games, you can be sure Lee, Bake, or the Drew are near . . . after Marc comes back from a ski trip, he's as happy as ever to just go to sleep.

AGNES T. MINNITI

We'll laugh every day

Ag cruises through Roseland in her blue Corvair . . . she's always happy but is especially so when sharing a laugh with Mary or Sue . . . Miss Overath taught Agnes to hit that ball, and tennis has been tops ever since . . . it's "true, true" that her touch will grace many a head of hair.

JOAN ELLEN MINTZ

Inspired by a desire to understand those of different environments, Joan's travels have led her through Europe and into the hearts of many all over the United States . . . when the pressures of politics are lessened and the minds of culturally deprived children are quenched, the kitchen becomes a creative workshop in this gourmet's hands.

KENNETH EDWARD MINTZ

Do what you want to do

UN Club and girls yield some mighty worldly happenings . . . a joker who's seen with Steve, Bruce, and a pail of water for that forest fire . . . what — there's a dress code? . . . one of the many fans of Mr. Rans . . . make a million, Ken.

JEFFREY MIRABILE

I've got my plans

Jeff's achievements in football have made him a real lady's man . . . can't wait till the clock strikes 3:00 — except when he's in Earth Science! . . . he hopes to develop an air of "greatness" when he works with the N.J. State Police.

RONALD JOSEPH MISURA

Walk this land with me

Ron has a mischievous "hell-o!" for any girl . . . this track star and javelin throwing expert can be found with Big George or devouring cheeseburgers . . . quote of the day: "Life is made up of a group of weekends with school in between."

PAMELA ANN MOESINGER

California dreaming

LHS's cowgirl is jubilant when she's horseback riding or at the ranch . . . although she misses her good friend Janice, Pami succeeds in having great times with pals like Shitley . . . memories of California will be recalled when she's stopping there on her job as an airline stewardess.

EDWARD JOHN MOLLER, JR.

We surfed in the sun

Edd is happiest with Nancy and that endless wave . . . this dedicated sleeper who digs Mr. Cooney's class and thick, juicy steaks offers a philosophical "that's life!" for all that is troublesome . . . his bathing suits add interest to the summer scene . . . he'll pursue a career in business administration.

RONALD MOMBAUR

Stars and moons and galaxies . . .

His skill as a photographer comes in handy when he's at an auto race . . . in his spare time, Ronnie strums his guitar with the Shades of Reality . . . an astronomy expert, he knows much about the stars and the moon and hopes to learn more in college.

JAMES F. MONAGHAN

Just for the moment we live

Crazy, sometimes ridiculous Jay is usually at 7-11 or Don's with the guys . . . a propensity for mischief had him on hand for a Halloween pumice fight . . . avoids crowded halls and too much gravity . . . Jay's always ready for a good laugh, but he is understanding when it counts.

KATHLEEN ANN MONK

Sweeter than music are you

This poor little rich girl can be found in her kitchen baking chocolate-chip cookies or writing letters . . . Gracenotes and Class Council are lucky to have this perpetual dieter on their rosters . . . although Kathy is happiest at Christmas, her thoughts often stray to that weekend at Albright.

JAMES P. MONTICELLO

Take it as it comes

"Que pasa?" — Jim is beating those drumsticks and listening to records at full volume . . . if you've got a football, you've got a player . . . refined memories of our British math teacher, Mr. Coates . . . Will and Jim are always looking for action when Jim's not working at Channel Lumber.

ANN TERESA MOORE

Your hair is flowing dark and flowing long

Our Miss Livingston finalist loves music and can be found displaying her vocal talents in Gracenotes or Mixed Chorus . . . Sherry and Siggy have trouble curbing Ann's passion for buying shoes . . . that Halloween party is quite a memory for this ambitious student who desires to speak Spanish fluently.

MARILYN MORANO

Painting pictures

A painting enthusiast who holds technicolor memories of her 4th period art class . . . happy Marilyn goes crazy over the shore and horseback riding . . . her life would not be complete if she could not be with her friends . . . look for Marilyn's boutique shop opening soon.

MICHELLE LYNN MORGENSTERN

What a dream I had, pressed in organdy

As layout editor of Crossroads, Shelli pieced together this puzzle of pictures and words . . . this future special education teacher uses her warmth and creativity to aid children at Camp Hope and the Valley Settlement House . . . when carried away by that special guy in a red Barracuda to the land of North Beach, a glow lights her existence.

JOANNE NOEL MULROONEY

Stepping outside she is free

Jo's versatility can be seen on the field either playing in the Marching Band or leading our Hockey Team on to victory . . . friends like Debbie make life worthwhile . . . to know this girl is to recognize a true lover of animals . . . as a constant debater, JoAnne prepares herself for a career in law.

LORRAINE M. MURANO

Smiles follow me

She meets her pals Kathie, Carol, and Lenny at the Pancake House . . . next to her car, Witch's second home is the girls' room . . . serious, though always ready for a laugh, she approaches a career as a beautician . . . remember to "keep smiling!"

NANCY LYNN MYLES

Swiftly flow the days

Whether this energetic sportswoman is on skis, practicing office skills with Mrs. Gompf, or down the shore with Irv, she never slows down . . . although sometimes temporarily missing from LHS, Lynn is anxiously looking forward to graduation and work as a secretary.

PAMELA SUSAN NADELL

You're the sunshine after the storm

A veteran twirler with two seasons of kick lines and Miss Overath behind her . . . the "Miss Pamela Nadell Awards" of Mr. Hill's A.P. Class will long be remembered . . . when everything's moving and there's not a moment to spare, those blue eyes light up . . . "I'm so happy!"

ROBERT S. NAGY

I wanna be free

Bob's very accustomed to Skip eighth period — junior year, that is . . . his easy-going, carefree manner is appreciated by the kids in any one of his three lunch periods . . . drafting doesn't phase him — with Mr. Goss he looks forward to it.

CAROL NAHIRNY

O, say can you see . . .

A meticulous shopper, she makes the final judgments in front of the mirror . . . even with her 'inability to see' she still manages to locate the school parking lot, with the group's assistance . . . when she's a secretary she'll still remember the fun had in Miss Farley's history class!

CAREN THERESA NAPORANO

Sunshine girl

This gregarious Y group secretary is always in the midst of things . . . happiness lies under the summer sun at Beach Haven . . . FTA will start her on that path to elementary education . . . armed with a rare ability to make people happy, Caren will dance through life with a smile.

IRV NEGER

*I know what makes
the world go 'round*

Irv will always be famous for that article in the Newark News . . . times spent with Joanne are his happiest . . . this outgoing lover of sports has pleasant memories of the Junior Prom and Ski Club adventures . . . he looks ahead to a career as an eye specialist.

KENNETH CHARLES
NEGER

This could be the start of something great

Ken's whole-hearted concentration is absorbed either by a challenging chess game or by a photogenic face . . . he's so good-natured he even laughs at Mr. Rans' puns . . . biological science turned out to hold more meaning than just a favorite subject — Ken now foresees a future in medicine.

CAROLYN BETH NEWBERGH

*Who has the milk of human kindness by the quart
in every vein*

Sensitive to others' misfortunes, Car has worked in Youth for Youth and Camp Hope . . . laughing's great, but oh, the resulting stomach aches! . . . she and Francie must have paved that well beaten path by the courts . . . Sigma Lambda Phi girls vouch for her enthusiasm for the '69 Crossroads . . . Mrs. Hanley's classes were an inspiration to our future teacher.

WILLIAM JAMES NIXON

He saw those girls and cheered

Meet Billy at Stewarts, Pals, or hacking around with Rite . . . he's crazy about girls, all right — how 'bout that Saturday night at Wayne's? . . . cars and family living rate high for this future designing engineer who treasures memories of the green bug, the 50c special, and Kathy.

ALLEN MICHAEL NORELLI

*The words of prophets are . . .
whispered in the sounds of silence*

Looking for Al? Just find Pat and you'll see our music and physiology enthusiast . . . and then there's his rhythmic guitar playing during the Music Explosion Concert . . . the Junior Prom saw him without his boot chain! . . . YMCA Hi-Y meetings certainly provide many friends and memories . . . will JETS spell his future?

ROBERT E. NORMAN

Sweet talkin' guy

Who's that lurking around? — could it be Normal trying to avoid the draft? . . . if you can't find him hanging at 7-11 or Don's, try looking at Two Guys . . . soft-hearted Bob goes for Lynn and memories of eleventh grade in a big way.

JOHN ANTHONY NUNEZ

Me and the gang

This easy-going, fun-loving guy thrives on surfing and steak . . . English class with Mr. Lampf brightened up every day for our Center Pharmacy worker . . . his hours are whittled away at 7-11 or Don's with the rest of "the guys" . . . John predicts his future as one in business.

BARBARA O'BRIEN

Everything that's light and gay

That car race sure wasn't a drag . . . her Big Mouth is usually agape with melodious, flowing music . . . a fondness for doing crazy things — Cathie'll vouch for that! . . . what's the matter with kids today? — she'll work with 'em and remedy their needs.

PATRICIA JEAN O'BRIEN

All the lovely things you are

Pat recalls the blissful weekends at the shore as she reclines comfortably under a stack of books . . . this ambitious Gracernote thrives on fun and basks in memories of those wild flirtations in French III . . . hospital work and "Mouldy Oldies" occupy the majority of her spare time.

ROBERT WILLIAM OCHS

I laid down all of my hang-ups forever

A Tri-Hi-Y member, Bob rotates with the changing seasons — from our winter Hockey Team captain to a shore-lover during those lazy summer days . . . when "bopping" around town with the guys, Bob makes his most frequent stops — 7-11 and Don's . . . indelible memories of those pumice fights on Halloween.

PAULA ROBIN ODERMAN

Bows and flows of angel hair

Paul, who finds joy in the happiness of others, is assured success as a nurse with the help of her humanitarian attitude . . . that boat trip to Canada won't be forgotten soon by our long, silky-haired guitar player . . . Marcy and Linda are constant companions of this Gracernote who rates lobster and Mr. Rans as tops!

JAMES PATRICK
O'MALLEY

With pen in hand

Although he's most often seen working at the A&P, Jim prefers using his leisure time for taking pictures and reading about hunting . . . sociable Jim looks forward to Mr. Smart's government classes . . . infamous articles done for the Lance should serve as his passport into the world of writers.

ROBERT W. OTTO

Using ideas as my maps

Bob is not afraid to speak his mind and thrives on observing people; therefore, travel is the natural future for him . . . while Von Bismark listens to "Rosco" on WNEW-FM he laughs over adventures with the Harrys at Camp Ronwood . . . this Folk Music member makes a quintet with George, Al, John, and Al.

GEORGE NICHOLAS OVERATH

I think I can reach the height

Although the O claims he's shy, just watch him at any of our basketball games, and you'll see quite a competitor . . . George's words of wisdom to the guys — Bob, Al, John, and Al — are "You I need!" . . . that pep rally in '67 will always be remembered with a chuckle.

BARRY MICHAEL PACKIN

All the important things you have to do

Barry's never happier than when he's out there "rackin'" up those football passes . . . his academic ability and determined nature assure this Key Club officer and Liaison Committee member future success . . . Tia always . . . our Senior Class president plans to follow up his politics with a law career.

ROBERT L. PAIGE

I want to sit down on that golden throne

A quick eye may catch this "Little Devil" flashing by in his GTO with Jane and the guys . . . Miss Dynda will agree that Robby's excuses are priceless . . . a prospective millionaire, he pictures his country estate in England with a chef specializing in cheeseburgers — "Yeah right!"

RONI SUSAN PAITCHEL

You are sweet as roses in the morning

Roni's interest in music is displayed when she vocalizes in Mixed Chorus or plays beautifully on her piano at home . . . friends make her happiest, so when good laughs are needed call Roni . . . recalls English with Mr. Furst . . . as an elementary school teacher, she'll make all her bulletin boards orange.

DAVID PALERMO

Well I'm a rake and rambling boy

When he's finished tinkering under the hood of his car, this fun-loving guy is ready to drive 'round town . . . after David scores a successful jump shot, his high spirits kick off LHS football games — especially those against Mountain . . . his great work of art tatoos him for life!

NANCY MARIE PARKER

I know I'll never be blue

Ever-sensitive, forever happy, Nance brightens her YMCA group . . . this athletically-inclined girl is known for her game of basketball . . . two cohorts-in-action are Pat and Kathy . . . a true people-lover with her heart set on working with children.

DONNA ANN PECK

*She's an artist,
she don't look back*

Creative and adventurous Doni loves driving with Ray and amusing her Kitten — Patrick St. James?! . . . a blonde bathing beauty, she is often seen at the shore . . . this individualist hopes to someday open a boutique . . . remember the Cream!

PAUL AARON PARKS

Throw your cares away

He's got sports on his mind, especially football and basketball . . . ah, to share those carefree days with Pump, Simon, and Robby — "cool" . . . those after-school hours aren't neglected if Small's got Student Council or AFS to attend to . . . someday he'll shift from the baseball diamond to the law field.

HOWARD PERLSTEIN

Forget your troubles and just get happy

Careful to keep his eyes out for those girls whether he's driving around in his car or bowling . . . a baseball player and spectator who also enjoys swimming and track events . . . this reasonable guy will forever remain a biology fan.

SCOTT PEARSON

Everybody loves a clown

A future auto mechanic who prizes his '62 Ford 390 and says "Chevies don't go!" . . . this joker is "drivin" to happy memories when Auto Shop II is mentioned . . . Mike, Chuck, and Ron know what he's talking about . . . best thoughts and deeds are reserved for Ginger.

LAURIE JEAN PETERMAN

Golden hair shining like moon-glow

A perky blonde who's extremely "mail"-inclined . . . her memories of the 1968 Junior Prom are true blue . . . history was a lesson from Mr. Cooney . . . Youth for Youth was her first attempt to help people — interior decorating will be her next step.

MARILYN SUSAN PETROKUBI

I'm bright and breezy

"Hey Mar!" — that enthusiasm is definitely infectious . . . she's the secretary who must copy everything in triplicate, but when she's taking minutes for the senior class, she doesn't mind . . . Wow! — Tau Kappa Epsilon was truly an experience! . . . she'll always strive to be carefree and totally aware of life.

NANCY LEE PHELAN

When you walk, let your heart lead the way

What does it take to make Nancy happy? — vacations at the sandy shores with the salty ocean air . . . she's a romanticist who cannot help but recall that certain telegram delivered at Ocean City . . . this future housewife savors memories of the '68 Junior Prom and great times with the girls.

DAVE PHILSON

You make this life a glorious game

A seldom heard, discouraging word — you're out! . . . as co-captain of the LHS Baseball Team, his sportsmanship and co-operation are equally appreciated by the guys of Key Club and Soccer Team . . . the sun shines brighter in New York — ask Dave . . . quiet appearance yields field and stream clearance in conservation.

LEIGH A. PICCIUTO

*A heart full of joy
and gladness*

Exuberance and cheerfulness set the pace for this LHS colorguard member . . . who could ever forget that amazing Tri-Hi-Y group or the fantastic 1968 Sweet-heart Ball? . . . this lover of good times will find happiness and meaning in life.

BARBARA ELLEN PICKER

You're the candle in the dark

Lively and sincere, Barb's always eager to lend a helping hand . . . nothing "puzzles" her . . . she's busy all the time: candy stripping, singing in Grace-notes, and playing her guitar . . . our Honor Society scholar looks forward to a career in computer programming.

DIANNE DANA PISERCHIO

Everything's coming up roses

Di is that petite Girl's Leaders Club member whose greatest joy in life is spelled J-A-C-K . . . that summer of '67 and all those golden oldies recall sentimental memories . . . let's not forget her fab parties . . . and then, how 'bout the Junior Prom!

KENNETH PAUL PLACKO

Live a life of ease

On that surf splashing against the Maine shore! . . . Ken is that good-natured, 5' 4" band member who's also a New Music Club enthusiast . . . happiness is lying under a tree just gazing up at the sky . . . just wants to "take it easy."

LINDA JEAN PLANT

Life for me is ever orchestrated

Mushroom is happiest when everything works out just right . . . a real live surfer girl, you can usually find her at the shore or with her guitar . . . she'll never forget her friends or July 23, 1968 . . . a long happy existence lies ahead for someone deeply in love with life.

ALAN BRUCE PLEVY

A seeker and a knower

He's the only philosophical football devotee around! . . . looking backwards finds so many fantastic memories . . . that New Music Club is an opportunity to hear all those groovin' records . . . Mr. Smart and the UN Club point a law degree for Alan.

DAVID WILLIAM POLLACK

This rat race may appeal to you but not to me

Willie craves the luxury of loafing . . . jolly and friendly, he appreciates good food and good company . . . the temptation of a swimming match is his "water-loo" . . . always himself, he's peeved by phonies . . . music plays a major roll in this drummer's life . . . college precedes his practice as an optician.

DANIEL A. PODELL

Floatin' in my bowl takin' movies

Danny seems to have discovered that he belongs in Israel, especially after that weekend in Haifa . . . a two-timin' talented photographer for both the Lance and Crossroads . . . USY provides attractions — in spite of the fact that he may not "like ya attitude" . . . students of LHS must unite to destroy the computer! . . . what's falaful, Dan?

STEVEN EDWARD POLLACK

Walking happy

"Hey Polack" — you've got a smile and a friendly hello for everyone . . . forget Fred Darwin's news commentaries? — never Mr. Adler! . . . often found making a racket for the Tennis Team . . . dependable and straightforward, Steve's bound for a future in medicine.

JUDY ELLEN S. POLLARD

People who need people are the luckiest people in the world
Our hard-working civil rights advocate . . . her breathtaking performances in three school plays are as memorable as Memorial Day '68 — spent at the police station? . . . Jud aspires to a successful career in special education . . . surely her industriousness and idealism will save her a special place in the heart of LHS.

DONALD THOMAS POLZO

Make sure you've got on your marching shoes

Is it really true that Don lives at Drum and Bugle Corps practice? . . . one smack of that golf club and the ball is flying "up, up and away!" . . . those wild but educational chem labs paved the way for a future in science.

CHARLENE BETH PORTER

There are no gloomy skies

Char has a smile for everyone and she's happiest among others . . . if there's work to be done she'll always help . . . remember "The Maid?" . . . her cheery personality is an asset to Pep Club . . . since her ambition is to help others, she'll serve someday as a guidance counselor . . . "Be good!"

WILLIAM POWELL

Live for the moment and take care

Was Mr. Cooney's thorough history course the incentive Bill needed for a future in the State Department? . . . his energy and enthusiasm seem inexhaustible when he's on that lacrosse field or hanging with Ken and Jim . . . Beach Haven holds memories that will survive many frosts to come.

CHALLIS PRUSIN

Make new friends, but keep the old

Despite her newly found friends at LHS, sensitive Chal's letters keep strong ties with Highland Park, Illinois . . . no grief is "good grief," when skiing and antiquing provide enjoyable diversions . . . with her unique sense of humor and wonderful adaptability, social work is imminent.

MARK BARRY RABINOW

Determination helps me through

Shrewd and imaginative, Mark treasures those rare occasions when he has extra money . . . Cross-Country and Track take up much of his time and energy . . . with an insatiable appetite for lobster, he naturally hopes to become an oceanographer.

ELLEN MARCIA RADER

Each road that she takes turns into gold

A romantic who sits before a blazing fire when it's snowing or gathers flowers in the spring, caresses thoughts of last summer and Jeff . . . often investigates the treasures of museums while creating imaginative situations for All School Productions as prop committee chairman . . . Ellie's determined to aid others in the physical therapy field.

RONALD A. RADER

Not money, but a questing mind

Proud member of Class of '69, he indelibly looks back upon his past classes and teachers . . . academic promise shown by his attending an honors program at GWU . . . affairs of UN and AFS Clubs accompany interest in art, particularly painting . . . impressed by Mrs. Yavelberg's teaching, Ron'll become a college prof.

JAIME OCTAVIO RAMIREZ

I like to be in America

Jaime is LHS's Peruvian import who is bound to build a totally electronic automobile — "logico, no?" . . . as a member of the Peruvian/American Council for Educational Exchange, he divides his time between transmitting and transmissions . . . "after all, Mr. Gorelick, what's a South American supposed to know about Spanish grammar?" . . . Jaime's United States experiences will serve as the foundation for a prosperous career in architecture.

STEVEN F. RANSOME

Relaxing a while, livin' in style

A blinding flash zipping by, it's Steve's "Green Machine" with passengers Jack and Roger "Ramjet" . . . "getting bent" on Stewarts' double cheeseburgers . . . passionate, flirtatious; happiness is LOVE . . . y'all recall Grapes of Wrath in '67 . . . usually hunting down girls, Steve seeks a career in electrical contracting.

KAREN JOYCE REICHEY

The best day of all is the day that's coming

CATHLEEN ANN REILLY

Take a sad song and make it better

Gifted with laughter and a blush, Cathy has an affinity for cheeseburgers and Simon and Garfunkel . . . if not out shopping with Diane, she's one of the basketball team's most enthusiastic fans . . . Mr. Cooney made two years of history for Cathy . . . someday she'll turn the socializing with Omega Delta Chi to social work.

JOHN HENRY REILLY

I'm just a soul whose intentions are good

Boating and water skiing are rituals at the Jersey shore . . . Al, George and Ellen know that Reil is quiet but not shy and that he's especially silent when listening to his stereo . . . appreciates the assets of being an individual and would like to swing a big business deal for himself.

GLENN CHARLES REYNOLDS

Make your bow to the moment that is now

Reyn enjoys sports, hunting, and giving Mr. Albrecht a hard time . . . he even got a charge from San Francisco . . . Glenn may lead his own life, but he has time for US History with Mr. Hill now . . . the future holds only success.

KATHLEEN R. REILLY

We'll have the world and all it's charms

Three ways to express herself are dancing, bowling, and tennis . . . she often "Pals" around with Lorraine and Chris or is found at the Suburban Pharmacy . . . happiness is spelled RALPH . . . secretarial school will lead the way to future ambitions.

JOSEPH D. RICCARDELLI

When I find what I'm looking for maybe I'll settle down

Joe has an unattainable goal — beating that gold GTO with a '62 Chrysler . . . Mr. Battito has inspired him in stage designing, but court reporting is his field . . . Jim, Craig, Vic, John, and Al almost have enough quip to form their own football team!

PATRICIA ANN RENNA

The skies will be blue for all my life

"What can I tell ya?" — Patti knows "what's happening" in Madison Township . . . this retired color guard captain is always a fun companion . . . enjoys herself when with Jeannie and most other people . . . the Glen Ridge Telephone Company keeps her busy.

PAMELA V. RICCIO

See the pretty girl in that mirror there

Meticulous and fussy, Pam's forever combing her hair . . . 1967 was a very good year, holding memories of the Senior Prom and that "guy" . . . groovin' in the bathtub or driving in the Red Bomb is as luscious as Italian food . . . Silvermans' employee: teaching career foreseen.

MARK IRA RICH

Give me something peaceful and grand

When he plays his guitar at U.S.Y. everyone has a good time . . . a hard-working guy who can always find the time for a chocolate marshmallow sundae . . . while Forensic Society presently offers Mark the chance to display his oratorical talent, watch for him in the future in some courtroom as a famous lawyer.

WILLIAM COLE RIGGS

Through snow-clad mountains, proud and tall

Just because he's got blonde hair and blue eyes, will eat anything, and likes to ski — does that make him a "mighty Norseman?" . . . found at Bill's tool house, he's always reminiscing about Karen and the Junior Prom . . . with hopes of "living a little" he insists "I'm not really crazy!"

CHARLES EDWARD ROBERTS

The race is to the swift . . .

He's off! — tearin' up the turf in Cross Country or at Track practice . . . an optimistic and studious fan of Miss Coury, Charlie loves hacking around in the summer . . . while cohort Lane watches the games, he keeps his stand in the marching band . . . whether innocent or guilty, law looks probable.

FRANK ROBINA

You have to be resourceful and you have to use your brains

This varsity-jacketed, aggressive athlete puts his accent on football or Bonvini's Italian food . . . Duff and the guys are companions outside of LHS, but when within the academic halls, Frank finds that Mr. Hill's history scores most favorably . . . a professional future awaits him on the gridiron.

KENNETH R. ROBINSON

I danced a dance

"What's it all about — Alfie" . . . if you're speaking of dancers, you've got the best in town . . . Mr. Mis and Mr. Hill are favored as much as the guys . . . the winning cards — good music and good Italian food . . . into service to serve the US.

RICHARD LAWRENCE ROBINSON

the Great Mandella*

"If music be the food of love, play on," 'cause he's seriously interested in song and girls . . . this student of logic found the best place to hold a Folk Music meeting — the front steps! . . . his favorite drama is the comedy of a grin . . . an infinite source of musical ability, Ricky will use his talent wisely.

RICHARD ROCCO

Every day I do my best for one more day

Sportsman par excellence exhibits infoul-able participation on Tennis and Soccer Teams . . . Rock was overwhelmed by that "unreal" Mountain basketball riot . . . Giant football games and giant platters of spaghetti and meat balls confronted him as he patiently waited for that driver's license . . . forever with a "Bancroft."

CAROLINE ROCKWOOD

I'll get along as long as a song is strong in my soul

Carrie, our ever-cheerful, co-literary editor of Crossroads . . . she lives on the food of thought — or perhaps the thought of food . . . "never give up the ship!" is part of Carrie's quixotic philosophy . . . All-State Chorus and that Atlantic City weekend are notable steps towards her future musical ambitions.

NICHOLAS JOHN ROSA

Let's fly way up to the clouds

His name might be Nick, but actually he's quite frank . . . you'll never find him with both feet on the ground — frequently at Lake Hopatcong, Nick's always prepared for water skiing . . . constantly working with model airplanes is a hobby of this future airline pilot.

GARY C. ROSATO

Drums keep pounding rhythm to the brain

Gar's a real music bug who idolizes drummers Buddy Rich and Jim Webb . . . hamburgers provide the energy to make him a true athlete . . . his scientific(?) mind greatly appreciates Mr. Jacobson's health class! . . . his life will be a mixture of music and medicine.

LINDA SUE ROSEN

Sleek and civilized

An active participant in YMHA activities and a bright and amiable acquaintance . . . indulges in buying new clothes for dates with those special guys . . . Mr. Hill's history class is a landmark in her day . . . her fashion sense and cordiality bring the fields of communications or merchandising close into view.

DEBRA LYNN ROSENMAN

*At every girlish sport
she quickly made a name*

An athletics enthusiast with a capital "A," Deb has mastered the fine art of "blush control" . . . the shore holds memories of that certain someone . . . seen movin' with Nancy — maybe to visit Mlle. Coury after school? . . . she'll view the world first — then settle down to family life.

ALAN STUART
ROSENTHAL

Dreams lie buried in the snow

This future veterinarian's best friend is his dog Sam . . . "It's unbelievable" the way fences keep popping up on those ski slopes . . . Miss Christiano never gave too much homework — there was always time for this swimmer to engage in a friendly game of dots in study . . . memories of the Junior Prom will linger on far into the future.

CAROLE ROSS

Reflecting the glow of a winter moonlight

Is it wise for such an accident prone "lady(?)" to be in the ski club? . . . when not with the S.B.'s she loves being with Marc . . . "some people" had a blast at Carole's party in November . . . can't wait for college vacation time.

GLENN A. ROTH

A little of what you fancy does you good

Bruno camouflages his conservative streak when he sports a bright orange shirt . . . how could Mr. Goss ever hope to "cool it" with that glare? . . . appreciates victories over Lancer football opposition as well as those over tests and exams . . . first to college and engineering — then the sea's the limit!

ALLAN PAUL ROTHFEDER

We're men of democratic thought

His friendly disposition boosted him to V.P. of the West Essex Young Democrats . . . financial talent is obvious: he was ticket chairman for three plays, he is the USY fund raising vice-president, and a Crossroads business staffer . . . everyone benefits from Al's pleasant personality . . . his fondest thoughts go to times spent with a special friend . . . success calls.

JACK D. ROWLAND

*Tack it up, tack it up,
buddy gonna shut you down*

If he's not working with cars at Hemi-John's or drag-racing, there's a good chance Ditch is with girls . . . he managed to make an impression on Mrs. Higgins' Algebra II class last year . . . catch him with Roger and Steve devouring Stewart's double cheeseburgers.

ANDREA RUDERMAN

A heart to share

Always willing to lend a creative hand, Andi is happiest when surrounded by friends . . . a proficient guitar strummer and tennis player, she also relaxes by writing prose and poetry . . . Mr. Samuels is an historical high point of her school day.

CHARLES DAVID RUSSO

He's sure got the magic touch

"Next!" . . . work magically turns to fun when this talented musician is singing and playing the guitar . . . Ricky and Patti are always in the front row of Chuck's audiences . . . the 1968 Battle of the Bands was an easy victory.

ANN CHRISTINE SACCLARIS

Warmer than the brightest sunshine

The director of that dazzling success, The Imaginary Invalid, whose favorite words to the cast were: "You know what I mean!" . . . Nitz is the cheerful member of Pi Delta Phi — the one always found munching hamburgers . . . sensitivity and warmth will find her the best of teachers . . . Oh! Oh! The phone is ringing!

LEONARD SALEMME

I'm gonna live and live now

Semi is the epitome of a true sportsman — especially when the sport is girls! . . . this handsome mischief-maker remembers getting out of Mr. Lampf's homeroom . . . after a Saturday football game, he enjoys hanging around with Henry, Tom, and Doug or dating . . . his stature makes him looked up to by many.

JEFFREY S. SAMUELS

It is his firm determination to make you use imagination

Jeff played the 88's under the stars, expecting an alien Martian vehicle to enhance the program . . . can he and Barb ever forget the Junior Prom? — "Fascinating" . . . inquisitive, imaginative nature foreshadows a career in psychiatry . . . a small group of friends is essential — the better to know you.

CAROL MINDY SAMURIN

All the world belongs to me

Her cry of "whoopie!" keeps USY hopping whenever Sam is doing the talking . . . this miss has a sweet tooth for hot fudge sundaes and yearbook business . . . she began her political career by running for class office and hopes to continue it as a successful lawyer.

THEODORE C. SANDLAND

*They're calling me —
big city lights*

New York, New York, what a wonderful town, it took mom to turn the shore party upside down . . . spot him on the road with the boys — destination: "outa sight" . . . takes a liking to two things with nice chassis: Chevelles and girls.

JUDITH AMY SANGER
On a bright cloud of music shall we fly

A musical extravaganza, Judy fondly reminisces over her Atlantic City weekend with the All-State Chorus . . . a quick wit well-known to Gail and the Gracenotes, who's always starving for MEH with Mr. Rans . . . because she's a child at heart, will she someday work with small children? — "Certainly!"

BARKER HUNTER SAPP
Chase all your cares away

"Remember 300!" . . . when not at Two Guys, Bart's with one guy — Bob . . . let's hope those incessant drags don't lead to incessant overhauls in auto shop . . . a crystal clear career in the glass business!

STEVE SARAN

Spiced with devil-may-care

Plans to move from operating around the high school to doing the real thing in surgery . . . fun to Steve is a rock concert with a special girl . . . football is his sport even though a certain Cuban soccer coach rates as his favorite teacher . . . carefree — that's me!

GREGORY A. SCARTH
I'm going to stand this world on its ear

The valuable manager of the Basketball and Baseball teams grows tall on vanilla milk shakes from Don's, Friendly's, or Baskin Robbin's . . . a relisher of good times with girls and fine food, Greg finds most of his treats at parties . . . Miss Coppola's classes have inspired him to consider a career in teaching.

ELLEN RUTH SCHAEFER
Good things have come to you

After that unforgettable summer in Nicaragua as an Open Door Exchange student, it's no surprise that Ellen's future will be closely related to the language — Spanish — how's that sound, Mr. Gorelick? . . . this cheerful Glee Club member who consorts with Rose at football games makes good use of her sewing machine to create lovely clothes.

PETER N. SCHAEFFER
Without any strings to tie me down

Notorious for installing the LHS fire hydrant . . . goes where he wants to go — as long as it's chasing his AVA members to work . . . there's money in "them there" halls . . . head for Channel Lumber if you're looking for a politics and pizza fan.

DONALD JOSEPH
SCHAEFFER

Each man builds his castles in air

Nothing foul about this basketball/track man . . . WNEW-FM — music to groove by . . . among his recollections: Timmy's House, Junior Prom "Judy," Manasquan . . . Bullwinkle's Rockies: Pete, Tim, Chris, and Robie, are constant shore companions . . . stylish clothes yield dynamic law ad-dress.

CYNTHIA LILLIAN SCHAUB

*So young, so fair,
such bright golden hair*

This sportswoman shows prowess in basketball, field hockey, and softball . . . Schauby — a little blonde with a lot of friends . . . ninth grade forever — "Jimmy Crickets" . . . usually happy over golf, her favorite teacher is always Over-wrath . . . she'll make some Perry Mason a competent secretary.

DEBORAH J. SCHILLING

Why is it that civilized humanity must make the world so wrong?

Being colorguard captain of the Hill-toppers is as enjoyable an experience as managing to stand out by herself in her Senior Math class — she's the only girl! . . . it's not Deb, it's the world that's wrong . . . her guitar playing and singing talents should add a cheerful note to society.

CONSTANCE M.
SCHLEICHER

You're the summer in the fall

That '68 weekend in Beach Haven claims priority in Connie's memory department but Junior and Senior Proms '68 run a close second . . . that junior year was something! . . . renowned for her debut in the Junior Class Play and her active participation in class activities, Myrtle Mae forges on to elementary school teaching and to leading a successful, happy life.

CAROL ANN
SCHLAGINTWEIT

A little magic, a little kindness

After the slopes, happiness is a plate of Italian food . . . found baton in hand, marching around the football field . . . teaching is just one step beyond her FTA experience . . . consideration plus a smile for others wins Carol so many friends!

SUSAN A. SCHLICHTING

*You're lovely and never change;
keep that breathless charm*

Slender, brown-eyed Sue always has an eye opened for new clothes when shopping . . . sophomore year was so great . . . when she's not working with the Crossroads photography staff, she can be found with Nancy — either twirling or riding in her Malibu.

CAROL JEAN SCHMIDT

The sound of her laughter will sing in your dreams

As a member of the Spanish Honor Society it's no mystery as far as her favorite subject is concerned . . . that contagious laugh is usually heard at Yankee games or at Methodist Youth Group meetings . . . while balancing the FTA's financial situation C.J. is preparing the way for a teaching career.

RONALD R. SCHMIDT

Sittin' in my car

Ron loves snow days 'cause that's when he can fool with his hi-fi electronics . . . snacking is a passion especially if there is cheese in the refrigerator — what kind? "I don't know!" . . . next to driving his V.W., sailing is the greatest pastime.

ROBERT J. SCHNECK

And the whole world sweeps down the steeps of the snow

As a newcomer in his senior year, Bob will never forget his entrance into glorious LHS life . . . presently a member of the high school "Chauffeur Corps," whose life consists of a great race between the D.A.'s office and the beloved slopes . . . steak, sleeping, and skiing are Schneck's big three.

DEBRA JOAN SCHNEIDER

I will dance and my life shall be gay

Algebra with Mr. Coates' British accent — superb! . . . June 23, 1968 was a pretty special day . . . with a cup of custard in hand, bliss is collapsing next to the stereo after a long lesson at the N. J. School of Ballet . . . on her toes, Debbie will dance her way around the world.

ROBERT L. SCHOMP

I understand equations, both the simple and the quadratical

Three math classes each day are enough to make anyone go wild as 3:00 approaches . . . driving with the Big K's in his "Schomp Jacket" reminds Bob of a very near accident . . . tho it's often "No, I have to do my homework now," he can usually find time for sports and dreams of future travels.

BARRY LEONARD SCHRAM

You want to be free and easy

Although a sportsman in every sense of the word, Barry's best at bowling . . . memories of a year in US history with Mr. Hill's jokes will not easily be forgotten . . . Could it be? Yes! The Dodgers are winning! — Well, that calls for a steak.

GLENN ELWOOD
SCHROEDER

This wandering in my soul will carry me to my goal

Glenn and Ashley are absolutely inseparable . . . his year in Miss Coppola's algebra class has registered within his memory . . . sometimes shy — but his girlfriend doesn't seem to mind . . . find him at Sierbrooke Esso or in Orange with A.W. . . . after graduation he's off to roam or perhaps explore home.

CYNTHIA LEE SCHWARZ

You are as soft as summer in the dawn

On a rainy day Cynthia's yellow raincoat stands out through the clouds . . . when not working on Crossroads or AFS she'll be sewing, or eating — anything! . . . she's sometimes pensive, always idealistic . . . a gentle and patient nature will make her a dedicated special education teacher.

DOREEN M. SCHWARTZ

Who knows what magic power guides the heart

That little red bomb is the thing — except when it's got a flat! . . . those long nails can often be found in the kitchen — "Right baby?" . . . with the Group, Dore has had a good time during her senior year.

NANCY GAIL SCOVIL

Your song will fill the air

Athletic Gail has scored many times over as a basketball and tennis player . . . frequently a comedienne, she can get serious when it comes to singing in Gracenotes or working with Head Start — just ask Judy . . . a potential artist, she relaxes while oil painting.

JEAN LOUISE SCROCCO

You don't have time to hang a sign on me

Pepper's arty and individualistic personality is best shown by her 1954 Purple Hearse . . . Bob is the best part of her high school years . . . on a sunny day she's out in the open — riding, naturally . . . her passion for art will lead her to a career in medical illustration.

MICHAEL J. SCUDESE

Let's add something to the history of man

Constantly tinkering with antique cars — only his sincere friends can pull him away . . . likes "A's" — after all, who doesn't? . . . uses political skills learned from Mr. Cooney in his position as Student Council Representative . . . while strumming away on his guitar, Mike dreams of something important to contribute to the world.

DEBORAH JEAN SEARING

I'd like to get to know you

Deb's an outgoing and optimistic asset to Pi Delta Phi . . . chocolate chip mint ice cream — "what a dip!" . . . a naturally nice nature wins her many friends . . . when not working at Bloomingdale's, she's on the phone or studying her Spanish — an early indication of a future as a Spanish interpreter.

PATRICIA LYNN SEGCEL

The sun on my shoulders and wind in my hair

This blithe beach-sprite challenges the wind and the sea but is carried away by her love . . . her green eyes always sparkle when Allan's in the mist . . . Omega Delta Chi companions stay close to buoyant Patti, who returns from the shore to proficiently type for Crossroads and support the basketball team . . . Love is Blue was a mermaid's dream.

CRAIG SEIDENBERG

I can stand on my own

Tall, blonde Bud has been a valuable asset to all school plays through his work with the Stage Crew . . . Charlie is a constant companion for playing football or driving in Bud's car . . . now an energetic worker at Shop Rite, he hopes to someday become a data processor.

ALEXANDRA LEE SEIGLE

She knows what she wants to do

When Bird is adding her special touch to the Personality and Girls' Leaders Clubs, one can surely tell that she has a way with words . . . extravagance should have been her middle name — a twelve dollar black hairbrush! . . . Jean and Carolyn have given inspiration to this future decorator — "Yeah, right!"

SALVATORE E. SENATORE

Be captain of your soul

Barb lists Little Sal as her favorite drummer in The Hamptons . . . his two heroes are Cap'n Crunch and Mr. Lampf — both stars of the "cereal" drama . . . he's currently employed at G-V Controls Inc. . . . after patiently waiting for graduation, Sal will go on to a career as an electronics technician.

WILLIAM HALL SERVIS, JR.

Think of the good times

"Jimi" fills much of Bill's time if he isn't at Jo's or washing dishes . . . fifteen centrals — that must be some type of record?!? . . . bet he pepped up one coed volleyball team! . . . this AFS participant hopes that "bopping" will someday turn into flying.

BARBARA LEE SHANE

You seem to be a born coquette

When he's not home, Barb bombs around Don's with the S.B.'s & Co. . . . she rates our rival school's '68 prom as the greatest! — "I can't believe it!" . . . she'll put her talking abilities (the ones she uses now for phone conversations) to use as an elementary teacher.

SHERRY BARBARA SHAPIRO

Your sweet gentility is crystal clear

Her proverbial "finger in every pot," Sherry successfully works on Crossroads, Operation Comic Strip chairman, and as a candy stripper . . . sensitive Sherry relaxes with Simon and Garfunkel music . . . the United States has come alive to her thru Mr. Cooney's classes and a California trip — but she's on to improving international relations.

JOHN SHANNON

I'm going where the sun keeps shining

His time is monopolized by flying and photography — we naturally assume John's future will be dedicated to seeing the sights of the world . . . memories of Mrs. Yavelberg's U. S. History class are pleasant along with that great achievement — passing Spanish!

MICHAEL CHARLES SHATKEN

So much business to be done

Constantly moving towards idealistic goals as he leads USY in social action . . . Mike drives Crossroads towards financial success . . . a new lease on life is a very special girl named Lisa . . . historically significant facts, compliments of Mr. Kleiman, increase appreciation of the Washington trip . . . design for the future includes a career in architecture.

BARRY JOEL SHAPIRO

He paints a smile on everybody's face

Takes delight in watching the Packers beat Dallas . . . Sha is an essential member of LHS society — the Student Council, Crossroads, and Lacrosse Club claim him as an active participant . . . his favorite memory is of a certain young lady with long sandy hair . . . he'll see a colorful future as a graphic designer.

NANCIE LYNN SHELTON

It's seldom that my "joie de vivre" forsakes me

Our Human Pillow has often talked unsuspecting underclassmen into giving their dimes to the Senior Store . . . always ready for action with the girls from Sigma Lambda Phi . . . P.J. Clarke's definitely her favorite memory . . . children of the world take note — Miss Sheldon may someday teach you!

NEAL BARRY SHULMAN

There's a world where I can go and tell my secrets to

A persevering young man whose flair for mechanics is evident by his interest in Radio Club, Stage Crew, and cars . . . happiest when driving Mr. Miserendino crazy(?) . . . the satisfaction of a steak with mushrooms or the solitude of his room sustain him . . . he'll have an enterprising future in sales promotion.

NED LAWRENCE SIEGEL

Wise, understanding, and gentle and kind

Mr. Hill must be doing something right — two years and he's still tops! . . . thank goodness lacrosse and basketball are in different seasons . . . "hacks around" with Steve at the courts . . . Ned's efforts to help the Student Council foreshadow efforts to help our country in law or politics.

KAREN ANNE SIGNELL

She's summer's daughter

Give her a beautiful day, the wide outdoors, and a saddled horse . . . a good book satisfies Karen almost as well as the excitement of horseback riding . . . a volleyball and tennis enthusiast who proves that you can win them all . . . French III with Mrs. Hamlin keeps this sincere AFSer's spirits high.

MARC DAVID SILBERMAN

I want to get right back to nature and relax

A nature nut afflicted with the McCarthy syndrome . . . a real feeling for people makes Marc's art truly dynamic . . . as an optimistic "shadow dream chaser of rainbows," the sea, the wind, and Marjie remain treasured memories . . . "If You Feel" optimistic, try Vista or the Teacher Corps.

DOUGLAS C. SILK

Psychedelic urchin

Doug's artistic freedom isn't really stifled by the controls of Crossroads art staff because he continually adds his distinctive talents . . . "out of touch" with most of the world, his life revolves around the creation of music which fulfills his aesthetic desires . . . when formal education ends, the real stuff will begin.

ELLEN SUE SILVERBERG

This is not a day like any other day, this is something special and apart

Silva is really on the go — and her proof is an active interest in tennis and volleyball . . . if it's Friday and she's accompanied by Lisa and Joyce out for a cheeseburger, Ellen will sing with glee . . . AFS will teach her the human relations skills needed to become a professional buyer.

ILENE CAROLE
SILVERBERG

Who's walking down the streets of the city?

"Art, art everywhere," says this vivacious, budding painter who spends her time in such places as the Art Students League and Museum of Modern Art . . . beware if you dream about red licorice — Ilene will want some . . . what could be more natural than this Art Club V.P. earning a living by selling her works?

MITCHELL B. SINGER

Run for your life if you can . . .

Was it Senor Gorelick who inspired that walk? — Mitch did it from San Jose to Cartago . . . as scuba diver and runner, he's usually headed toward Spanish Club or the Lance office . . . high hopes soar towards the Air Force, then down to earth for a career in the stock market.

WARREN E. SKLAR

I promise to go wandering

A touchdown's O.K., but give him an ocean or a motor and you'll see Warren really happy . . . busy for lunch, Mr. Gorelick? . . . when the bell rings on Fridays at 3:00 he's off — perhaps to a future of unshaven travels?! . . . did he really pass everything?

MARTIN SKOLNIK

I see a land where children can run free

If you're little but lovable, naturally most time is spent with the world . . . the Habonim Labor Zionist Youth Movement keeps him wandering . . . but there's always enough pep for Israeli dancing . . . once June hits, this energetic individual will aim for a sociology degree, and then lead his talents on an aliyah to Israel.

ALLAN W. SMALL

*It's wise to face the truth,
the best of it belongs to youth*

He queries, "You I need?" — Patti answers, "Yes!" . . . though he's a quiet hacker, he did live it up September 6, 1968 . . . Friday nights were really bouncy for this Varsity Basketball player . . . Big Al's big on the golf course with his irons, but puts faith in Mr. Mewhinney's woods — woodshop that is.

JONATHAN C. SMALL

The man of a thousand voices

"And here are your morning announcements" . . . his sexy voice comes over that same P.A. system that announces our Forensic president's public speaking triumphs . . . could Steve or the "Bryant Drive Wildcats" be fellow Simon and Garfunkel worshippers? — or are they his co-stars on the LHS stage? . . . Jon will do his best to brighten America's future.

DONALD JOSEPH SMITH

I've always seen clearly what to do and remained — restrained and cool

When not kicking the ball over the goal post, Bugsy sees the town with Pat . . . with his talent for boxing no one can enter his arena — especially when he's eating banana imperials . . . if he becomes a pro golfer, it will be par for the course!

GARY SMITH

*You coaxed the blues
right out of the horn*

The trombone is his, but he shares it with many by performing in Regional Band . . . all music's down his alley — or should that be Track? . . . when not playing basketball or some other sport he relaxes to his heart's content . . . that career in engineering may take hard work, but it'll be worth it!

JOANN CATHERINE
SMITH

Her hair of floating sky is shimmering in the sun

If you see long blonde hair waving in the breeze during a football game, you'll know it's Jo . . . she may be little, but she has a big list of compatibles headed by Mike, Pattie, Cathy, and Ginny . . . "Deedix!" It has to be Italian food, Tonight . . . even tho' she's short, she'll go a long way in life.

LISA BETH SMITH

My heart is frolicsome and free

Summer at Cape Cod or the shore is just as welcome as weekends during the winter . . . Ellen and Joyce are great tennis or swimming companions . . . a teen cross-country tour has only whetted sociable Lisa's appetite for traveling.

MARK O. SMITH

Keep the good times rollin'

Wake up, sleepy, it's time to go boppin' with the "Men" . . . Crossroads and the Lacrosse Club don't make Smitty cross . . . meet anyone in Beach Haven? . . . passion for pink things . . . the Orange Y's Leaders Club and Swim Team know him for keeping things rollin' . . . will forge ahead to graduate school and a professor's degree.

PAUL JOHN SMITKO

It all depends on you

Whether it's a pin on the mats or a crucial fourth quarter touchdown, victory in sports is a great thrill for this gridiron co-captain . . . Paul went on Mrs. Glick's trip — and loved it . . . this Varsity Clubber has a hankerin' for steak, followed by a desire for sleep.

FRANCINE BONNIE
SMOLEN

Make someone happy, and you will be happy too

As the rock protector, Rabbit pleads with Sigma Lambda Phi chums to call her Francie — but to no avail . . . a veal parmesan dinner is best when followed by those laughing fits with Carolyn . . . after a year of balancing the Art Club's books, and faithfully cheering at basketball games, her path will lead to fashion merchandising.

MARCIA SOLOMON

Share every precious moment with me

Sharon, Mimi and Pat should know all about Marcia's memorable weekend in Asbury . . . "seriously," she's just started another diet . . . thoughts of December 28, 1967 constantly reappear as she busily sews . . . accuracy as a clinical psychologist could be a result of Mrs. Fieber's senior math classes.

ROGER SORHAGEN

I'm going to make a name before I'm through

Roger Ramjet is the car-bug described as sensitive and forward . . . "Wanna drag" in my Sleepwalker I? . . . in between bites of his double cheeseburgers from Stewarts, he's heard mumbling to Jack, Steve and John, "Get Bent!" . . . bring back the days at Hemi John's.

RONALD CHARLES SOTO

*When things go wrong
you make them right*

Ron's the "fix-it" bug whose sensible and meticulous work makes his motorcycle one of the sharpest on the road . . . is it spaghetti that keeps him alive after squeezing waterskiing and football in between radio and television repair? . . . "So what" if there's school? — it's the only way to become an engineer.

G. SCOTT SPARKS

Don't worry 'bout me

Moody Scott sparked up during Mr. Cooney's history lectures . . . although occasionally introverted, he's full of life with Peggy . . . Beware! Scott's all for self-preservation, and he's a formidable wrestler.

LYNNE MARIE SPECTOR

Living in a world of different places

To enjoy the world is to travel in it — but with a pillow?!? Now that's carrying things just a little too far! . . . bombing with the Sigma Lambda Phi girls just couldn't bet by without that "eye attack" . . . Spec's insanely hysterical with a laugh that'll start the whole world chuckling — just imagine her as a teacher!

ROBERT LANE STEBBINS

He never minces matters

Stebbs is dedicated to UPY and surrounding himself with people, especially Charlie, Rick, and Hank . . . the Audio-Visual Aids Squad would be "out of sight" without Lane's help . . . however, he'll dogmatically declare independence after he has completed his education and has become his own boss.

HEIDI DEBORAH STERN

Live for today

"Excuse me while I kiss the sky" . . . the tintinabulations of nature's wonderland combine with the laments of Alan Ginsberg to induce Ginger Baker to expound in poetry . . . a desire to understand people's needs in primitive surroundings gives this individualist the ambition to work on an Indian reservation.

PETER CHARLES STEFFEN

He's got high hopes

Go to Moose for any question on football, basketball, or track — he'll have the answers . . . since he's happiest asleep, he'll be easily found undercover . . . what really did happen at Timmy's house? Maybe constant companion Bullwinkle would know . . . "Yeah, now dig this!" — he'll be a millionaire someday.

GARY STEVENS

Experience will teach you as you go

You can always find Gar under the hood of some car either at Livingston Collision or at home . . . bumming around or playing pool takes up hours of extra time — wrestling's no "extra" though, it's a necessity . . . night school shines further on down the road — and he's driving straight toward it.

ELLIS ROY STEINFELD

Let's not lose a day

This steadfast girl-watcher can be found almost anytime at Don's — but he's mostly watching Nancy! . . . as a Potpourri and sports writer he contributes reports to many out-of-school newspaper offices . . . Roy's working diligently in the Forensic Society and is determined to use its benefits for a career in broadcasting.

PETER STROUP

I've got the world on a string

Winning a lacrosse game and then hanging at 7-11 or shooting at the courts would be an ideal combination for Pete . . . laughing along with Mr. Fabrizio keep him smiling all day—even through coaching 6th grade soccer, and that takes a lot! . . . cheeseburgers and French fries are just the beginning of his quest for life's enjoyment.

MARGARET MARY
STUCKY

I'm going back to California

Marg is the strong point for almost every girls' sports team — and she loves them all . . . strumming on the guitar after a good long ride on a horse makes sitting down to do homework virtually impossible . . . "California, here I come!" — and on a one way ticket, she hopes.

PATRICIA JEAN STUPPI

A smile always on her face

Unpredictable Stup is noted for her love tantrums and original songs . . . her fantastic junior year offered many opportunities to laugh 'til her stomach hurt . . . drawing to the sounds of the Doors and the Rascals is a great way to relax . . . who knows which part of the business world will ultimately claim her talents?

MICHAEL ALAN SUITER

A sentimental man of scientific mind

After spending much time in school, Mickey's awfully happy when it's 3:00 on Friday and he can drive around with Larry and Don . . . although a quiet person, listen to him speak up when ordering a cheeseburger or praising Mr. Krimmel! . . . his interest in Future Physicians Club foreshadows things to come.

RICHARD A. SUSS

A pensive man am I, of philosophic joys

He's friendly, but don't let his barage of circumlocations scare you — that is, if his handwriting doesn't get to you first! . . . Rich is our idealistic Chess Club president, and an avid fan of folk music . . . calculus is this Math Team member's favorite course . . . his free time is devoted to the study of psychology and the discovery of new Suss theories for the future.

YOSHIKO SUZUKI

*There's sweeter music
when she speaks*

We'll be sorry to say sayonara to our most industrious student from Japan . . . Chemistry inclined, Yokko enjoys mountain climbing almost as much as sukiyaki, finds Americans very interesting — especially their political games! . . . after enjoying her stay in America, she'll return to Japan to help her family.

LAWRENCE SWARTZ

Floatin' through the sky

Our aviator must be unique — he had his pilot's license before his driver's license! . . . although Larry claims he's always tired, he finds time to hitch to Morristown Airport and work . . . experience gained from the Voltronics Corporation has convinced him he "oughta be" an electrical engineer.

SANDRA ANN TASHJIAN

Thank heaven for little girls!

Bubbling over with energy, Sandy T views every LHS varsity game on a cheerleader captain's pass . . . her enthusiasm in sports, especially skiing, and Student Council treasurer activities justifies that "good things come in small packages!" . . . California and Mexico hold wonderful memories along with the prom . . . smiling through life she'll teach with a capital T.

ROLAYN LANA TAUBEN

I believe for every drop of rain that falls, a flower grows

Vivid clothes, accentuated blush, head of curls — yes, it's Roni! . . . inspiring Art Club sessions often lead to excursions to the Museum of Modern Art . . . take a warm TYG vice president, add Phyllis, Ilene, and Judy — fantastic meetings! . . . her sincere desire to aid the needy certainly merits a voyage to Israel.

PETER TENEWITZ

Picture yourself on a boat on a river

A sailor's work is never done 'tis cold winds bring a skier's fun . . . ask Jeff about Peter's craving for hamburgers . . . enjoys chemistry and is an active member of Future Physicians Club — is this a hint of his future plans?

EUGENE J. THAW

Humble and proud and young and strong

I want my wheels! — and Gene will get them last but not least . . . just watch LHS's Football, Basketball, and Lacrosse Teams, and you'll soon find Harry's athletic prowess . . . he loves Mr. Berry and MEH so much that he plans to be a biologist . . . those Harry orgies with Matzoh, Moe, and the Head!

LESLIE ROBIN THEILE

Her mind is running free

There's nothing more beautiful than a pink and orange sunset after a day in the saddle . . . Ron and that '57 T-Bird — "What a twang!" . . . carefree Les will glide through a secretarial career as easily as she slides down the slopes.

LOREN THOMPSON

Born of these restless, changing years

He's got to be unbelievable: his favorite dish is spinach souffle! — maybe it's a sign of intelligence?! . . . he's so involved with history after having Mr. Cooney that he believes he has discovered America! . . . Loren's "in" for self-preservation, and some of his ideas may be conveyed through government work or journalism.

ALAN H. TINQUIST
Surfing 'round the world, seeing other lands

A natural, carefree football player whose favorite class naturally is gym with "the Coach" . . . Al delights in the pursuit of good surf and the company of Marlene . . . Al is dedicated to seeing the world and enjoying life.

CHRISTOPHER TOFFIC
All I know is what I feel

Many say the beating of the drum is the rhythm of life — if it is, that's why Little Christopher's all for it! . . . that million he'll strive for will add the fullest enjoyment to life . . . after completion of his seeming inexhaustible supply of witty comments, the Inner Circle often hears an emphatic "Peace!"

MARY ELLEN TOMPKINS

The smile from your lips brings the summer sunshine

Typing up our Crossroads and playing volleyball rate high on this Omega Delta Chi member's list of activities . . . this avid seamstress actually saw Simon and Garfunkel in person! . . . friendly Mary Ellen and Mr. Berry got along quite well . . . how could she ever forget Pam's laugh?!

PATRICIA A. TOOMEY

I'm a come-what-may

Our crazy Sock It has made her break into show business — she works at the Colony . . . along with Lois, Shirley, Nancy, and Heidi, this concert lover has learned a lot about "where it's at" . . . during Mr. Gambino's great studies, Pat has time to contemplate her Australian sheep farm.

ANGELA TOUCH

with love in your heart*

Angie's mind reacts to two words — art and Michael . . . her fine paintings for Miss Casterlin are vivid evidence of a future which will be a continuation of her present outpouring of talented art work . . . the Junior Prom was an unforgettable event for one sentimental girl who for some reason is addicted to soccer games.

BOB B. TOWLEN

The heart that is free

A rugged football player, handsome Bob also appeals to the fairer sex . . . he cherishes the mirth had at LHS with the guys and the gals . . . the rest of the business world will stand still while he lunges ahead!

DIANE TRACHTENBERG

A maiden fair to see

Dancing to Love is Blue was one of her most cherished dates . . . this fun-loving senior is often where the action is, which, of course, includes cheering at Lancer football games . . . eating hot fudge sundaes with her pals can't be topped! . . . her understanding quality ensures Di a successful life.

JOANNE TRAIL

*Don't tell me not to live,
I simply gotta*

The fountain got an extra splash from Joanne's uninhibited sparkle . . . the eyes and ears of the world belong to her when watching people on the local scene . . . listening to the Mother's of Invention makes an immense impresson on this green-eyed blonde . . . her linguistic knowledge opens the door to a career in foreign relations.

CHERYL L. TRAUGOTT

Absorbing life at every pore

A nutty member of Omega Delta Chi, who is known for her skinny legs and the way she waves her hand . . . Cheryl left you a note? "Quick, a magnifying glass!" . . . the Junior Prom was superb . . . if not with Randy, she's laughingly running between French Club and Future Nurses . . . enlightening future as an elementary school teacher lies ahead.

LAURIE ANN TREUHART

*All the wisdom of the sea
in a grain of sand*

Laur's sincerity is omnipresent, especially when she presides over meetings of FTA, balances the books for the French Club, or co-edits the Lance . . . she often claims "there isn't any time," but any observer would believe she invents it! . . . she's hoplessly addicted to memories of the '68 proms and dreams of France . . . when viewing the world, Laurie finds prejudice an unnecessary problem: she'll use her language talents to communicate understanding.

FRANCES L. TRICE

We'll sing in the sunshine

Just tell a good joke and wait to hear that famous "Franny laugh" . . . look for this fun-loving person at football games — with that certain someone, of course . . . Italian food's great, but to go to college and be happily married is ever so much better.

PAT TROY

Never giving a thought to sadness . . .

"What are they doing?" Heading for Morristown, of course . . . Can't Find the Time for both Mr. Battito's art classes and history with Mr. Fee . . . a friendly stare aimed at Chelty will suffice when occupying the third bench from the light(?) . . . Pat deserves a good Italian feast for all the gum she's given out!

GREG P. TSAIRIS

*I've got lots of plans
for tomorrow*

Winter finds Mouse cheering the basketball team with "the men"; spring finds others cheering him as he hits that ball . . . on any Tuesday you can locate him at a Key Club meeting . . . as a future dentist, Greg hopes to "take care" of others.

DAVID M. VAN COTT

My buddies and me are gettin' real well known

V.C. is one of the stars of the Football and Hockey Teams . . . Jeff and the guys, who find him an understanding and thoughtful friend, will never forget that field goal against Mountain . . . his athletic prowess is matched only by his intelligence and happy, warm personality.

ERIC HENRY
VAN DEN HEUVEL

You can count your blessings and be happy with whatever you've got

Sincere and trustworthy, Hank will be remembered for his individual personality . . . a Mr. Bast enthusiast, he keeps an eye peeled for pretty girls . . . gratefully "counts his blessings" and looks forward to a career in drafting.

DONALD A.
VANDERYAHT

A twinkle in his eye

A sociable and good-humored girl watcher, Don-Don is happiest with Lenie and Ricky . . . find him at the arena or down the shore . . . refuse Italian food? "You gotta be kiddin'!" . . . adds his talents to AFS and the New Music Club.

KAREN VAN ELKAN

She is today

Whether it's "girls'-night-out" at Carole's or Don's, Karen is sure to be talking up a storm . . . it's a great day when he comes home, or she can get the car . . . when studying for Mr. Hill's tests, the word is "I'll call ya back!!" . . . a future government employee.

SUSAN KATHRYN
VAN ZEE

Something wonderful happens in summer

Sometimes the sophisticate and sometimes the nut, Sue loves having fun . . . a keen mind has earned her Spanish Honor Society and National Honor Society status . . . Cinny shares knowledge of her fond memories of summer '68 and that special boy . . . Spanish with Miss Dynda has interested Sue in a career as a language teacher.

SUZANNE VARNEY

I just smile and understand

Driving around with the gang is Varn's favorite sport . . . "Oh my goodness" I still haven't finished that mosaic! . . . romance is shared with that special someone at Farleigh . . . her gift for understanding will make her a favorite with her future pupils.

CARMEN VERDI

The world to me will always be a gamble

When everything's going right, Carmen Baby's winning in athletics or happy with a girl . . . watching all sports, especially baseball, comes close to the joy of playing football and then leisurely enjoying a big Italian meal . . . to his unique personality, success and wealth are guaranteed a home.

PATRICIA ANN VICARI

Hear my words that I might teach you

No tray from Cohen's is too heavy for this tiny fun-loving waitress . . . Larry and the '68 Senior Prom weekend will never be forgotten . . . Pat's affection for children and her position as secretary of FTA will aid her as a future elementary school teacher.

VICTORIA ANN VILLANO

Create a design for living

When not strumming her folk guitar, Vicki often strikes chords with Bruce . . . memories of Friday night pizzas add spice to her life . . . with bow and arrow, she's bedecked to partake in her favorite sport . . . she has the make-up for a future in stage design.

CAROL JOSEPHINE VILLANOVA

Warm as the sunshine

Sincere, petite Nova just waits for that special phone call . . . apple polishers? "Really, good grief!" . . . she's ecstatic when the Four Seasons come on the car radio . . . this competent library assistant and Future Teacher hopes for a career in physical education or psychology.

SCOTT ROBERT VINCENT

Roguish and winsome . . .

Did ya ever fit eight guys in a Rambler and then drive to Montclair on a weekend? . . . with a one-track mind for car racing, Scott has a blast doin' what pleases him . . . Louie, Johnny, and Robbie were cohorts in the crime of "the biology frog" . . . constant go-carting will lead to eventual re-"tire"-ment into the electronics field.

LUIS VISCAYA-RETANA

I've come to look for America

Who could forget our Spanish AFSe's first speech in assembly? . . . Lu enjoys any meat dish — judo chops are a specialty of his . . . Luis may not grasp all American words, but as a future physician he bridges the language gap with an understanding of people.

NANCY WADDON

Tall and tan and young and lovely

She's the only member of the Crossroad's sports staff with a permit to the girls' gym . . . our smiling majorette is rarely without Sue — whether it be a basketball or football game, or just a day at the shore . . . Nance's skill at painting the rock is matched by the talents which led her to Girls State.

CHARLES B. WAHLER

A quiet man with truth in his hand

Chuck loves the great outdoors, and divides his athletic prowess between the track and the trail . . . keeps busy as a member of K.E.P.'s '68 Kitchen Crew . . . happiest when munching peanut butter sandwiches and watching any sporting event — Calhoun will vouch for that . . . he'll make a future out of his first love — math.

PATRICIA ANN
WALLENDJACK

*I've got rainbows planned
for tomorrow*

An exceptionally versatile young lady, Patty stands out in our minds as assistant head majorette, Girls Citizenship Institute Delegate, and a member of '69 Crossroads . . . she can be found tanning at the beach or puffing up the slopes of Great Gorge . . . a genuine desire to contribute to humanity will be realized through the Peace Corps.

LINDA CAROL WALSH

Keep on dancing!

Recollections of that fifth period sophomore lunch or the bell at 3:00 on Friday are all you need to bring a smile to Lyn's face . . . she mustered up enough enthusiasm as a Varsity Cheerleader to successfully teach three elementary classes — at once! . . . just let the Temptations' music start and she'll dance forever!

MATTHEW IAN
WARHAFTIG

Change is what I recommend

An independent and concerned individual, Matt's devoted to changing "the system" . . . humanities class provides opportunities for attempts at the self-expression he values so much . . . his art ability is well utilized in his position as photography co-editor of the Lance . . . a student of himself and the world, Matt will go far in his chosen field.

ROBIN PHYLLIS WARNER

here and there*

Filled to the brim with love and mirth, Robin unleashes her explosive enthusiasm at football and basketball games . . . Marth's parties junior year followed by summer '68 are nostalgic memories only surpassed by that special boy . . . her exuberance will aid in teaching elementary school.

GEORGE A. WARREN

I'm happy as a king

George cherishes fond memories of Mrs. Almond's office and his drafting classes with Mr. Goss . . . with Fred and Gary he looks forward to Fridays when he pursues his interest in football and tennis . . . happy with life, he will become a computer programmer.

JAMES PERRINE WARREN

A talent to amuse

Who can resist Jimmie's mischievous green eyes? . . . with the help of a camera he captures the volatile life he lives and loves . . . always a Giants fan . . . his appetite for scientific facts is as voracious as his craving for steak . . . scientific knowledge will lead to a career in research.

MONA SUE WASSERMAN

I'm going to raise my glistening wings and fly

Which is better — the stars at the shore or the lights in the city? . . . when she's under the right spell this philosophical sorceress delights in both . . . with the mystic talent for doing Cross-roads write-ups, and the heart to keep Hope while working with deprived children, she seeks a rewarding life as a mother and a teacher.

HERBERT CHARLES
WEBER

He can turn the tides and calm the angry seas

Cheerful Herb longs for summer when he can pull off a super hot ride in the surf . . . "You really missed it!" — the day Mrs. Yellin tripped . . . after an afternoon of working out for our Wrestling Team, Herb wants nothing more than a cold root beer.

ANN WEIL

Cast your dancing spell my way

The twinkle in Annie's eyes may mean she's recalling that certain long-haired boy from her junior year . . . listening to the Doors or Donovan is best when she's surrounded by Ilene, Joyce, Laurie, and Debbie . . . you can be sure that Ann will be a success — just watch her dance!

EDWARD S. WEINIK

We only live for just one day

Underneath a quiet exterior, carefree Ed takes life as it comes . . . he can be found among the guys at football games or listening to the sounds of The Doors . . . just give him Italian food and Mr. Hill — "Yeah!"

JANICE WEISS

Found wherever the action is, quiet Janice always manages to remain calm . . . an avid ski enthusiast, her athletic prowess is something to be reckoned with . . . English with Mrs. Bonanni rates number one . . . after college in New England, her skis will take her to the invigorating beauty of the Swiss Alps.

JONATHAN RICHARD WEISS

Everyone who has a garden likes to sit in it and dream

Jon's green thumb makes him a gardener extemporaire . . . a student of political science, he is kept busy by the UN General Assembly Club . . . hard-working and energetic, he manages Livingston's Baseball Team on to victory . . . an ambitious future is planned in state or local government.

NANCY ELISABETH WEISSMAN

She makes me feel like sunshine

Could it be her vibrant red hair that sparks her on to such active participation in sports and school activities? . . . although sometimes at home, she's usually out where the action is with Debbie . . . travel before marriage would be a perfect background for an elementary teacher — with college in there too!

DEBBY ANN WELCH

Seashell eyes, windy smile

Whether cheering for the Lancers, balancing the Senior Class treasury, or running Tau Kappa Epsilon, it's obvious that Welch is always on the go . . . though she relishes the times spent swimming at Howard Johnson's Motor Lodge, she gets a bigger splash when down the shore — especially with her college guy! . . . her geniality will forever glow.

CHRISTINE RONI WEST

She's so gracious, so vivacious

A Personality Clubber who practices her charm on patients at West Essex Hospital . . . work at Camp Hope left East little time to enjoy lobster, but it gave her loads of time to make people happy — and you know which meant more! . . . a husband shall be caught and a class shall be taught in years to come.

RICHARD K. WHITE

With an open mind we must endeavor to find a way

Richie's our color blind football manager who wouldn't hurt a soul . . . after working all afternoon at Saint Barnabas, a good shrimp dinner will cheer up this Mr. Hill fan . . . the future sees a great switch: instead of changing homerooms, he'll stay put and watch students come to him!

DANIEL WHITENACK

Happy together

That day Danny met Liz won't be forgotten by this expert mechanic . . . although he wants us to remember him for doing nothing, he must have done something to be so fond of field studies with Mr. Smart . . . need a trustworthy mechanic? — try dependable Dan!

DAVID ARTHUR WHITMAN

Face the future undismayed

Skeet's a sports fanatic in clubs Ski & Key . . . "cool it will ya" about that nickname — maybe Furman, the King, Lenny or Jimmy will explain . . . Mr. Rans can verify that Dave's a wishful-thinking procrastinator who'll honestly tell you so anytime . . . he presently enjoys bombing around with no explosive plans for the future.

DAVID CONDIT WILLIAMS

Come on, laugh!

Willy's taste in cars is only surpassed by his taste in girls, especially that certain someone . . . his distinctive laughter rings out in our LHS halls or at football games . . . the Junior Prom was the "sunshine of his love" — and Debbie is the light of his life . . . English with Mr. Miserendino was definitely memorable!

SHELLEY OWEN WINGERTER

No shadow in my heart

Her warm, friendly nature will add immensely to Shel's career in political science . . . swimming and field hockey rate second best to being with that certain guy . . . divides her free time between Omega Delta Chi meetings and her favorite sport, Don's, with high hopes and a light heart.

NEIL C. WINTER

So nonchalant and frightfully debonair

The specialty at Don's isn't lobster but Peel's always there — could it be those girls? . . . he's sure willing to spend time down the shore with a pretty one! . . . this outgoing "Harry" has a smile that won him many a point in Student Council and AFS . . . he fared high in basketball intramurals but salary at dad's business will be fairly higher.

MARY ANN WIPPEL

My position is really unique

Our candid Wipp is an ice hockey fan who's happiest when she can drag herself out of bed to eat a good apple . . . although Mary loves dogs, cleaning up after them tends to make them a tiny bit less lovable . . . her busy afternoons are spent working at the bakery or the florist.

CHRISTOPHER HAROLD WISDOM

The Lord above made man to help his neighbor

An LHS-Mountain football fan who gets into the action during the wrestling and track seasons . . . Wiz bombs regularly with Jay and Bob in the "Imp," but when it's not running right — man, "That's no bargain!" . . . did anyone ever look into the meaning of Sigma Epsilon Chi? — maybe you should ask the psychologist, Chris, someday!!

CONNIE JOYCE WISHNER

This is the most incredible magical moment

The Universitaire de Dijon claims many of Connie's memories, but then again, so does a certain LHS past senior class president! . . . we hear Alfie's getting used to the constant typing that characterizes our hard-working Crossroads typing editor . . . she's the Sigma Lambda Phi girl with the ballerina pin(?) and the grace to accompany it.

DAVID S. WOLFF

We hope to amuse the customers with music and with rhyme

This friendly joker may not have decided his future career, but would skating and waterskiing appear to indicate something? . . . that ninth grade boycott and Mr. Spitz are imprinted in the memory of our keyboard fanatic who spends most of his spare time with his band.

CHRISTINE M. WOLFE

Come to the sunshine

Music by the Temptations or the Four Tops blasting from the windows of Linda's car is a sign that Chris is close by . . . basketball, bombing, blushing, and business — four B's to live by . . . great times with the Kappa Omega Phi girls, and hoarse throats from Pep Club rate high among her fondest memories.

JEFF WOLFF

I have played around every slappy-happy hunting ground

Wolfus can't help but recall those lunch riots — maybe because they wouldn't serve him steak? . . . it doesn't matter if the fish aren't biting; Jeff'll just pick up his hunting rifle and head for the hills . . . if this baseball enthusiast "plays his cards right", college is the next order of business.

CATHLEEN JOANNE
WOODENSCHKEK

I'm a cosmopolitan lady with a cosmopolitan soul

Our student director of the All-School Production listens to the "Motown Sound" when she's not riding around in that blue Camaro with Dennis . . . always fond of color, Cathie hopes to put as much hue into homes as an interior decorator as she has into her hair.

LINDA KATHERINE
WORTHINGTON

She has such sweet simplicity
After a frolic in the waves, she enjoys the taste of a juicy submarine sandwich . . . her successful leadership ensures great activities for her Church Fellowship . . . Linda's nimble fingers stitch a promising career in dressmaking.

FRANCINE ELLYN WORTH

Dreaming of a place in the sun

Cinny blissfully recalls that marvelous summer of '67 at Virginia Beach whenever she reclines comfortably with phone in hand . . . an unmistakable laugh announces her arrival at football games with Sue . . . that "groovy luv" is her answer for everything . . . plans for the future will definitely pertain to social work.

BARBARA GAIL WORTZEL

I've looked at life from both sides now

"So where are your write-ups, kids?" . . . receiving HIS letter or getting HIS call is the first ray of sunshine that penetrates our class staff co-editor . . . Can you imagine? Barb stood up Mona and Shelli to go to the '68 Senior Prom — "Foof!" . . . vividly recalls one overseas voyage when she bounced her first Czech . . . for Barb, a speech defect is a cracked cuticle; yet she'll intensely strive to lend her hand to society.

KAREN ANN YATCKO

Put on a happy face

As an effort to stop the clock at summer '68, Karen cries "Wait a minute!" — then she hurries off to cheer for the CYO and later meet the girls in her Y group . . . people like Nancy are fun — so smile already! . . . with a craving for hamburgers, Karen relishes a rewarding career in nursing.

LARRY B. YOUNG

to the devil with what comes after*

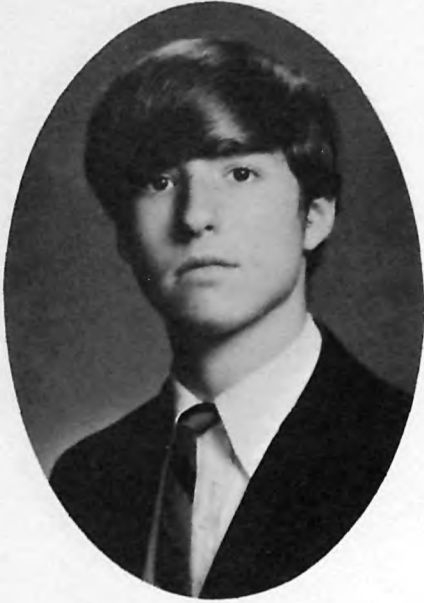

All his free time is spent with cars — working on them or driving them . . . he's happiest driving the Chevelle or racing with Ralph on Tanglewood Drive . . . after a football game he could devour an entire roast beef — in the white Riviera, of course . . . hopes to succeed in all he tries.

ROGER E. YOUNG

never worry about tomorrow*

His head perpetually relaxed on his pillow . . . he's got a mezzo forte interest in the sounds that emanate from the New Music Club . . . a sincere fondness for Livingston High?! . . . Roger's so zany that someday he might surf to England and claim the throne!

LYNDA JOYCE ZAHN

With love, the whole wide world seems new

Her heart goes "ping-pong" when she cooks up memories of summer '68 . . . Linnie's love for reading will serve as a binding for a successful career as a bookkeeper . . . this blushing adventurer hopes to be a future "Lerner" of many things!

STEPHANIE ANN
ZAFFERES

She's so full of vim and zip

Our vivacious 1967 Miss Livingston can usually be found with a special someone from Irvington . . . this cheerleading co-captain's delight — to beat Mountain in any sport! . . . Steph, alias Smiley excels in gymnastics and hopes to make physical education her vocation.

ELIZABETH JEAN ZEIL

big city lights*

Though excursions to New York City entertain this senior, the summer of '68 still outshines all else . . . when not engaged in conversation with Patty, a savory pizza spices the day's fun . . . her amiability and office experience type Candy as the perfect secretary.

MONA ROCHELLE ZELMAN

The urge to have a bit of fun

Likes to have fun with people, and especially remembers a certain someone's senior prom and graduation . . . Mony can't think of a happier moment than when she has no tests to study for . . . this dream will come true when she is finally instructing a class of her own.

MICHAEL ROBERT ZIENTS

Fame and fortune is a magnet
"It's not what you know — right, Mr. Bernstein?" . . . it was the best Lance ever but Mike's not ticklish about his newspaperman's ulcers . . . this Key Clubber has no taste for prom shoes . . . our Honor Society member is also a scuba diver . . . he'll plunge into a career in finance.

JANET L. ZIMMERMAN

every note is true*

In the Folk Music Club, Janet enjoys her first love — Music from Tim Buckley to Tchaikovsky . . . McCarthy and Mr. Rans, two of the outstanding men in her life, have made Teenage Heaven '68 possible . . . Heidi, Ruth and Nancy can vouch for Janet's affinity for poetry . . . joining the Peace Corps, she will surely achieve personal peace and contentment.

MICHAEL SCOTT ZISER

I'll follow my secret heart my whole life through

Can often be found at home listening to records — maybe that's why he's so moody at times . . . he's happiest and at his nicest when with someone special . . . from baseball at LHS, Mike hopes to bat into the Major leagues — good luck!

JOANNE ZOHN

Your youth must answer the Call of Life

A new addition to the Class of '69 who hails from Shaker Heights, Ohio . . . sincere and dedicated Joanne has worked as a volunteer with cerebral palsied and mentally retarded children . . . enjoys the winter life as an avid skier . . . she'll have sure success as a special education teacher.

LOIS DIANE ZOLLER

some relief from the daily grind*

Always on the go, whether to Central Park concerts, shopping, or to the movies . . . she makes the political and theatrical scenes — which often overlap these days . . . this outspoken, energetic girl holds the position of Imperial Ewe . . . Lo will use her life to its potential.

LORRAINE TERESA
ZUBICKI

*Not only learned to think,
but to care*

A sincere and studious person whose motto is: "Join everything!" . . . "Love is Blue" was enchanting with Lori as a committee chairman . . . enjoys the dating life (and works at the Livingston Drive-in?) . . . her plans for the future include travel and studies in the social sciences.

CAROL JEAN ZULAUF

And I feel I want to hold each shining moment in my heart

Zul's our Girl's State delegate who found explaining her ideas to Mr. Sherburne to be her greatest challenge . . . a good time can range from Beach Haven with Pi Delta Phi to working as a co-editor of Crossroads literary staff . . . as VP of FTA, this avid sewer wants to teach children — "are you kidding me?!"

MARTHA ANN ZUCKER

warm September winds*

Her image of paradise would place her in Florida along with Mark, Di, Debbie, and Robin and lots of parties . . . Marth will never say the Junior Prom was a waste of phone — talking time — that's for sure! . . . Sigma Phi Upsilon's football fan will bring laughter to her classroom.

ALAN ERIC RACKIN

voices never share*

The high school's newest addition, Alan admitted that LHS was like a Vincent Price movie — so hair-raising, that he left in the middle of it! . . . resolutely cries, "the present day composer refuses to die!"—even his shadow pulls through . . . poetic style and maniacal ideas provide quite a future on the records and on the reels . . . while humming Carnival, he throws stones at the moon — and wonder WHY.

SHIRLEY J. ZIMMERMAN

you'll see the beauty there*

Lucky LHS! They've captured one of the stars from Starpoint Central High, but then Shirl's not new to New Jersey — there's always that summer in Edison . . . having fun — what other way is there to live? . . . this gourmand has no preferences — she will eat anything and everything! . . . someday she hopes to skate down the aisle on that someone special's arm and to live happily ever after.

CLASS OF 1969

Officers and Advisors

Class Officers: Barry Packin, President; Marilyn Petrokubi, Secretary; Debby Welch, Treasurer; Mike Dugiud, Vice President.

CLASS ADVISORS
Mrs. DeFuria, Mr. Mewhinney

As we leave Livingston High School, I feel that we should think in retrospect of our many accomplishments. The Class of 1969 ran many successful functions in its three years at LHS, and also contributed much to the growth and development of better student-faculty relations. Our successful Proms, Class Plays, and charter membership in the Student-Faculty Liaison Committee are indicative of the constructive endeavors of our class. All of these achievements were attained by the Class of 1969 as an entire unit. Therefore, each member of the Senior Class has a record to which he can look back with pride.

On behalf of the class, I would like to thank our two sponsors, Mr. Mewhinney and Mrs. DeFuria, without whose invaluable assistance the Class of 1969 could never have realized the success and fun which it did.

A very successful, happy, and healthy future to all the members of the Class of 1969.

Sincerely,

Barry Packin
Senior President

Senior Class Will

We the graduating Class of '69, being of soulful mind and body and under the influence of Don's hamburgers and Senior Slump, do hereby bequeath our most prized possessions to our successors.

The Class of '69 leaves the Class of '70 their cherished senior privileges — if the juniors can find any!

Barry Packin leaves the office of Senior Class President to anyone who likes to pick up candy late at night.

Neil Cohen leaves his rebellious Student Council to Robbie Galford and Robin Winter.

Sue Abrahams leaves writer's cramp to the next lucky Student Council Secretary.

The English IV A.P. class leaves Mrs. Gill, a great and good friend.

Mrs. Thompson's U. S. II classes leave clutching the American flag.

The twirling squad would like to leave 4:00 practices on time.

The seniors leave the juniors all the joys of college applications, rejections, acceptances, and Excedrin headaches.

The yearbook staff leaves Janet a copy of How to Win Friends and Influence People.

Mr. Gorelick's Spanish classes leave not much better in Spanish, but well trained in how to manage a family of three "brilliant" boys.

Laurie, Carrie, and Carol leave with 625 songs in their hearts and the sounds of "When will you be finished?!" in their ears.

Shelli and Barb leave the super-duper mailbox on the corner of Broadlawn and Shadowlawn to next year's letter-writing senior girls.

Joni and Jed leave three ripped, wrinkled danskins and their schedule cards and passes to next year's photography editor.

Steve Bernstein leaves a lot of not-as-yet cut demonstration records.

Jean Bailey leaves her pink motor scooter to anyone crazy enough to drive it.

Roy Gerber leaves the "role" to anyone who wants to play it.

Janet leaves the garment district in the rain, missed deadlines, her gentle (?) temper, and lots of luck to next year's Crossroads editor-in-chief.

Herbie Weber leaves his blond hair, and Brian Mariani leaves his surfing talent to anyone who thinks he can match it.

Barbara Shane must regretfully leave her loafers which have been stuck in the mud at the side of the school for three years.

Ilene Silverberg leaves Debby Werner a sketchbook and her locker in the Art Students' League.

The Sigma Lambda Phi girls leave Friday night "wing dings."

The seniors leave our family living teachers with promises that our first born will be named Hazel, Al, Ruth, or George.

Mr. Goas' second period English II class leaves him a pair of leather bells and a long haired wig.

The seniors leave Mr. Radcliff free tickets to all future dances.

Larry Drake and Jeff Gorrin leave their names to Mr. Hill — or is it Larry Gorrin and Jeff Drake?

Babara Lowenstein leaves her violent temper to anyone who can swear in six languages.

Steve Kieran would like to return the presidency of the courts to the Semler family.

Mr. Paul's Far Eastern classes leave him their latest and best renditions of "Sakura, Sakura."

The cast and crew of The Imaginary Invalid leave Nathan alone with his clothes and nincompoops — oh bosh!

The seniors leave Mr. Bernstein a more stylish fur hat.

Gary Masi would like to leave his singing voice to anyone who has the nerve to open his mouth.

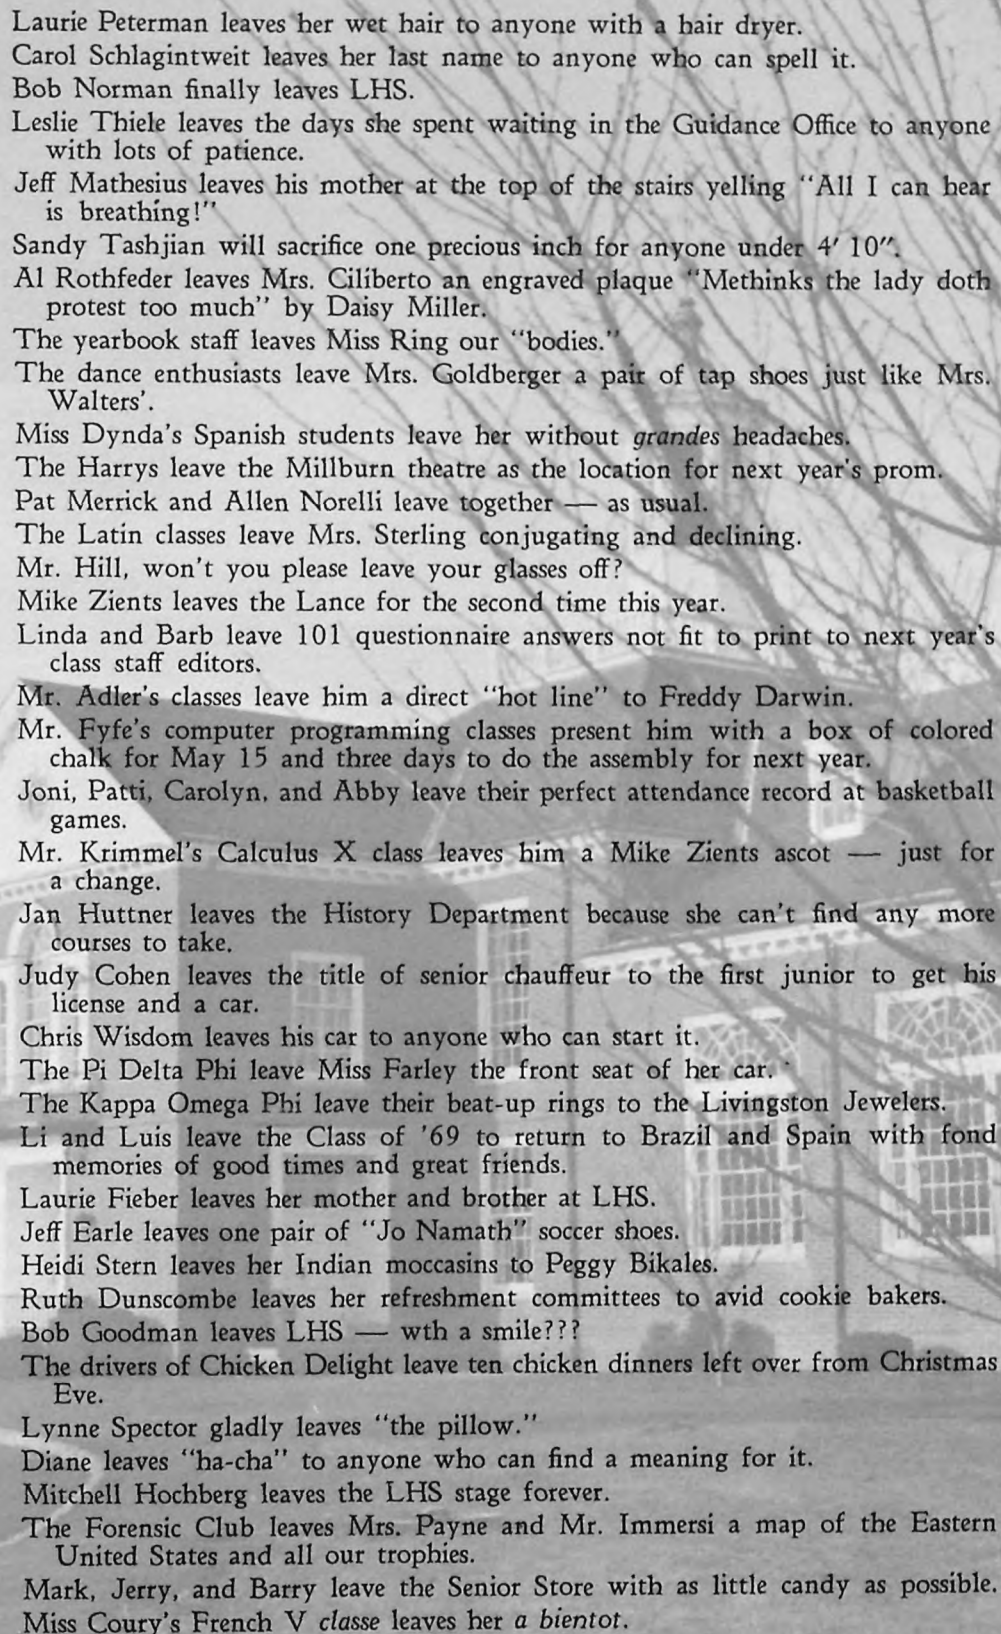

Carol Zulauf leaves her cherished position at the end of everything to next year's lucky senior.

Jon Small leaves his vocal chords in excellent condition to the next "voice of LHS."

Steve Ransome, Roger Sorhagen, and Jack Rowland regretfully leave the Grand Prix Oval.

Laurie Treuhaft leaves a newly decorated Lance office and the job of recovering lost articles to next year's Lance co-editor.

Laurie Peterman leaves her wet hair to anyone with a hair dryer.
Carol Schlagintweit leaves her last name to anyone who can spell it.
Bob Norman finally leaves LHS.
Leslie Thiele leaves the days she spent waiting in the Guidance Office to anyone with lots of patience.
Jeff Mathesius leaves his mother at the top of the stairs yelling "All I can hear is breathing!"
Sandy Tashjian will sacrifice one precious inch for anyone under 4' 10".
Al Rothfeder leaves Mrs. Ciliberto an engraved plaque "Methinks the lady doth protest too much" by Daisy Miller.
The yearbook staff leaves Miss Ring our "bodies."
The dance enthusiasts leave Mrs. Goldberger a pair of tap shoes just like Mrs. Walters'.
Miss Dynda's Spanish students leave her without grandes headaches.
The Harrys leave the Millburn theatre as the location for next year's prom.
Pat Merrick and Allen Norelli leave together — as usual.
The Latin classes leave Mrs. Sterling conjugating and declining.
Mr. Hill, won't you please leave your glasses off?
Mike Zients leaves the Lance for the second time this year.
Linda and Barb leave 101 questionnaire answers not fit to print to next year's class staff editors.
Mr. Adler's classes leave him a direct "hot line" to Freddy Darwin.
Mr. Fyfe's computer programming classes present him with a box of colored chalk for May 15 and three days to do the assembly for next year.
Joni, Patti, Carolyn, and Abby leave their perfect attendance record at basketball games.
Mr. Krimmel's Calculus X class leaves him a Mike Zients ascot — just for a change.
Jan Huttner leaves the History Department because she can't find any more courses to take.
Judy Cohen leaves the title of senior chauffeur to the first junior to get his license and a car.
Chris Wisdom leaves his car to anyone who can start it.
The Pi Delta Phi leave Miss Farley the front seat of her car.
The Kappa Omega Phi leave their beat-up rings to the Livingston Jewelers.
Li and Luis leave the Class of '69 to return to Brazil and Spain with fond memories of good times and great friends.
Laurie Fieber leaves her mother and brother at LHS.
Jeff Earle leaves one pair of "Jo Namath" soccer shoes.
Heidi Stern leaves her Indian moccasins to Peggy Bikales.
Ruth Dunscombe leaves her refreshment committees to avid cookie bakers.
Lynne Spector gladly leaves "the pillow."
Diane leaves "ha-cha" to anyone who can find a meaning for it.
Mitchell Hochberg leaves the LHS stage forever.
The Forensic Club leaves Mrs. Payne and Mr. Immersi a map of the Eastern United States and all our trophies.
Mark, Jerry, and Barry leave the Senior Store with as little candy as possible.
Miss Coury's French V classe leaves her a bientot.

And, of course, the Class of '69 leaves the Rock to the Class of '70. Have fun!

Upon entering Livingston High School I felt we were a united class for the first time. The success or failure of our endeavors depended mainly upon becoming organized and working together. The great response received at both our functions proved my assumption to be correct.

The plans we have already made for our Junior year should make it even more successful and profitable than the Sophomore year we have just enjoyed.

Needless to say, none of this would have been possible without the assistance of the three other class officers and the Sophomore Class Council. I would also like to express my appreciation to our sponsors, Mr. Bast and Miss Lewis, who always had the answers to our class' problems.

On behalf of the Class of '71, I would like to wish the best of luck to the Class of '69.

Sincerely,

Advisors*

I'd like to take this opportunity to wish the Class of 1969 the best of luck in the years to come.

Looking back on this past year, the Class of '70 has progressed greatly since last year. I can partially attribute the success of this past year to the help given us by our two dedicated advisors, Mrs. Bonanni and Mr. Losi, and also to the other officers who have put in many hard hours of work; but most of the credit goes to the Juniors themselves.

The kick-off for the year was the Junior Pep Dance, which turned out to be the most successful dance of the year! An unexpected surprise was the early arrival of our class rings which we had been anticipating since our Sophomore year. Instead of sponsoring another dance in January, like other Junior classes of the past, we held a most successful Battle of the Bands. The talented members of our Junior class displayed their abilities in our Junior Class Play and the concluding class event was the Junior Prom held in May.

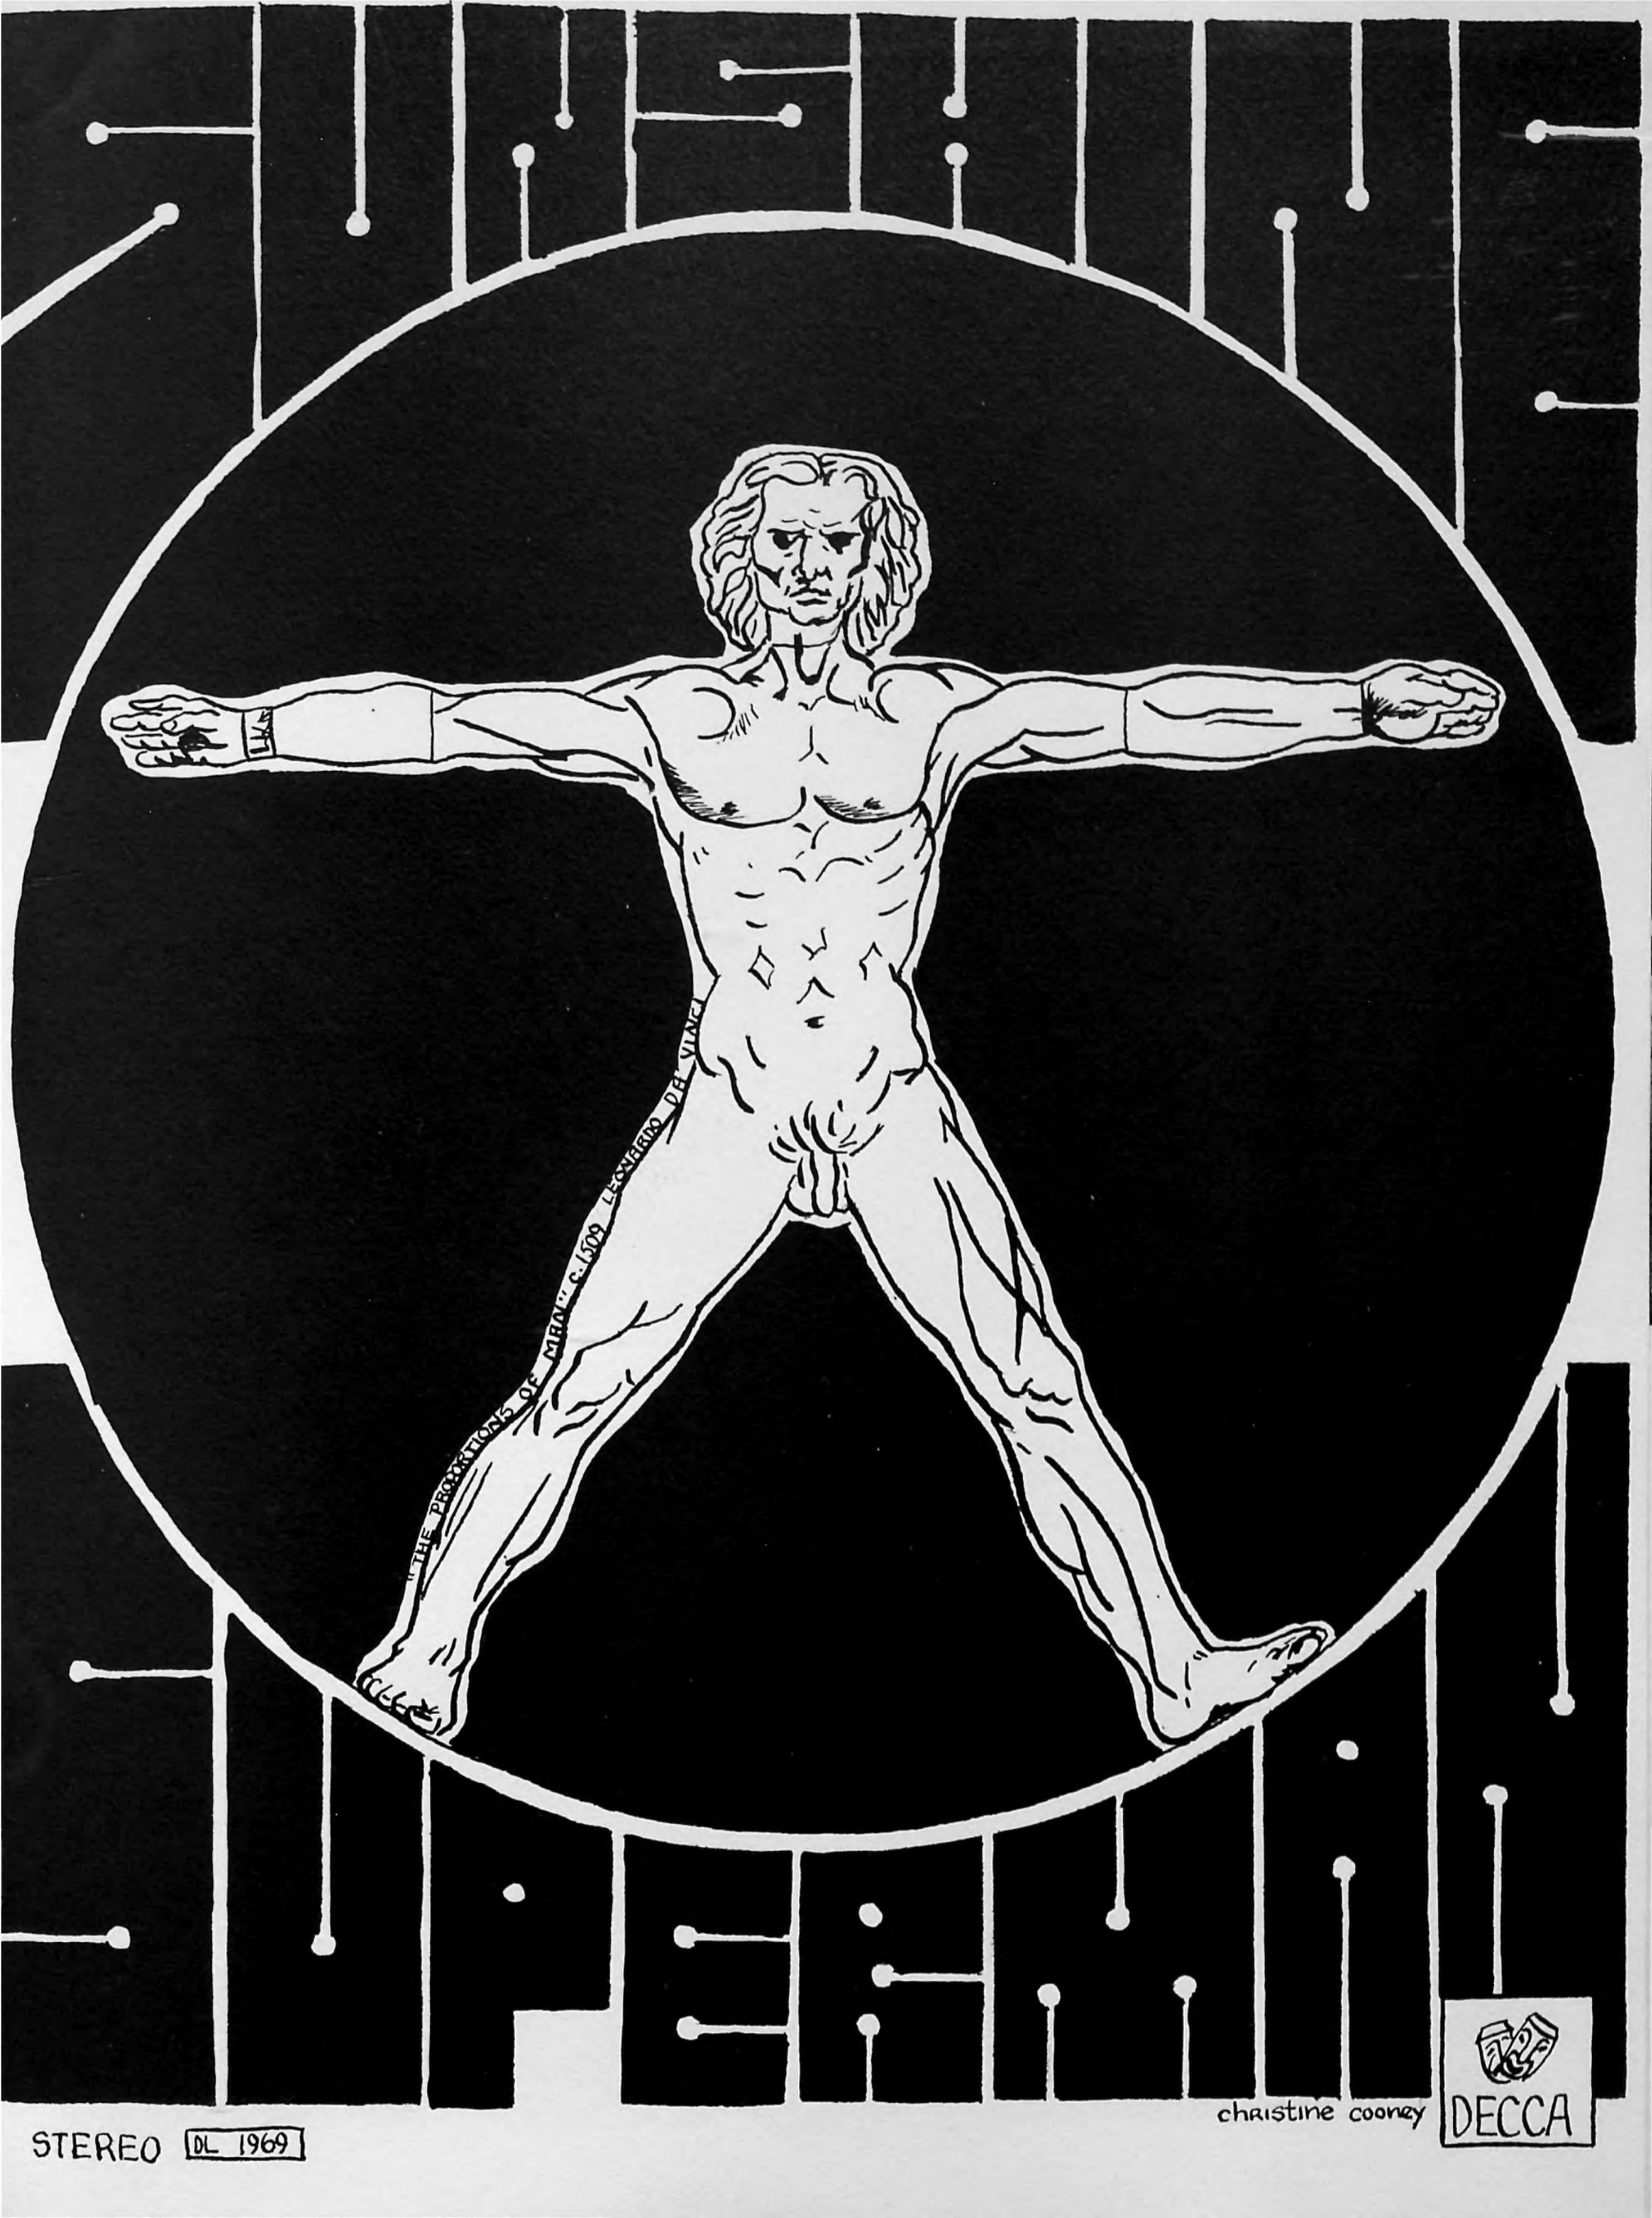

Next year we are looking forward to filling the halls of LHS with the spirit of "70" and to graduation.

Sincerely,

Robin

Marfuggi, R. Belfer, R. DePhillips, J. Duffy, B. Phelan, S. Kylis, A. Nikiforov, E. Fardelman, J. Duguid, M. Duguid.

The Lancers' persistent teamwork and determination on the gridiron gained them many rewarding victories and a successful overall record of 5-3-1. Perhaps the highlight of the season was the 46-10 romp over Millburn.

The Lancer offensive line contained strong blockers anchored by third team All-County center Al Tinquist, with tough and quick co-captain Paul Smitko at one side, and the effective blocking of Chris Klug on the other. The tackling positions were aptly filled by Dave Van Cott, biggest man on the line, and Jack Jacobi who showed his skill not only in blocking but also in pass protection. End positions were occupied by John Aylward, both an able blocker and pass receiver, and by Gene Thaw, third team All-County end, whose huge size and quick action made him not only the deadliest blocker on the line, but also allowed him to set a new season record of five touchdown passes received.

The Lancers' backfield, probably the most balanced in many seasons, was led by the versatile attack of John Lyons in both the exhausting offensive position of wingback and the rugged position of defensive cornerback. Co-captain Jeff Mathesius, leading ground gainer for the season, demonstrated his over-all prowess and contributed immeasurably to the Lancers' victories. Jan Bresky, the biggest man in the Lancer backfield, gained many difficult yards needed for first downs, and through determination and perseverance was the leading scorer with six touchdowns. Tom Jones, starting quarterback, often spelled victory for the Lancers with his exceptional leadership and fine passing ability.

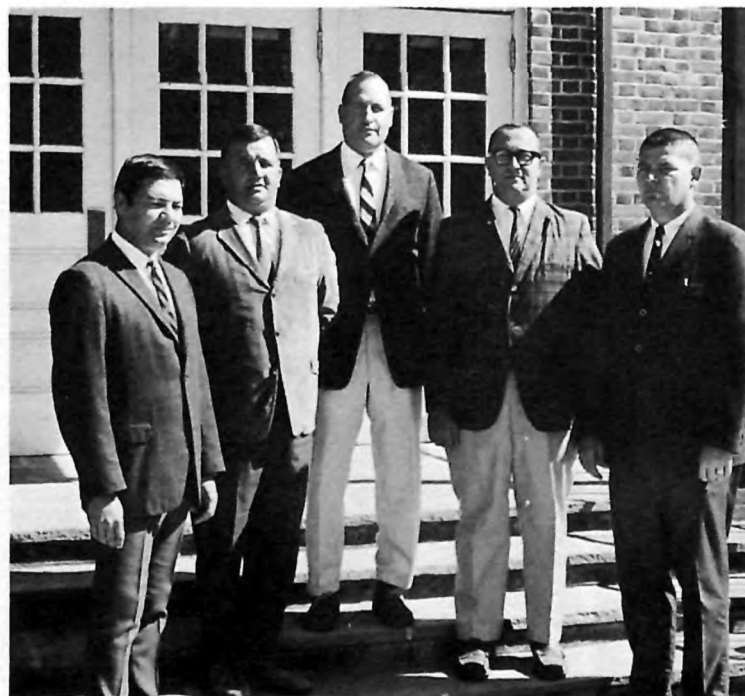

Pete Steffen, excellent defensive back, also filled as alternate quarterback and proved to be the surest tackler on the Lancer team. Bob Coccussa was a stalwart on the kickoff team; Lenny Salemme, a rugged defensive tackler, used his tenacious efforts to make a solid Lancer line. The toughest defensive end, Frank Robina, dropped many quarterbacks during the season. And versatile Mike Duffy, who played both cornerback and fullback, was capable of filling any position with proficiency.

Determined that they would not succumb to the record of two years of defeat, the LHS harriers concluded their 1968 season with an impressive 6-6 record. Hampered by injuries to captains Bob Grisar and Jay Kiskel, the performance of seniors Dan Chadwick, Marty Mann, Rick Bellamy, Charlie Roberts, and captain Don Hinds led the harriers to perhaps their best effort in the West Essex dual meet.

Three Livingston men, Jay Kiskel, Don Hinds, and Don Koch, finished below the "magic" thirteen minute mark. Only three runners in past Lancer history had previously performed such a feat. By setting a blistering pace in the Essex County meet, the Lancers who were not expected to place above tenth, were barely edged out of a third place finish. The returning attack, led by next year's captains, Rich Kolodin and Don Koch, showed their potential to produce a record equal to that of this year's team.

Top row, left to right: Mr. Lampeter, Mr. McInroy, K. Finkel, S. Hall, J. Earle, R. Lombarski, J. Collins, B. Delcampo, D. Hoenig, M. Shenker, J. Rose, B. Mariani. Middle row: Mr. Gorelick, P. The 1968 Soccer Team once more held its own in the Jersey Hills Conference finishing in third place. Compiling an 8-4-1 conference record, the Lancer booters got off to a slow start, losing their first two games to two non-conference teams, Caldwell and Bloomfield, by only one goal in each game. Despite these setbacks, the Lancers routed Morristown 2-0 in a hard-fought, contact-filled game in perhaps their best performance of the season.

In soccer, the outcome of the game rests on each of the eleven players and their teamwork. Without the scoring punch of inside Dave Philson, named to first team all Essex County, and co-captain Dennis Fidali, third team All-County, the Lancers would seldom have been victorious.

However, the lineplay of senior Don Hoenig and juniors Jim Guerin, Phil Guibardo, and Don Ripa was spectacular as they assisted the two insides for the scores. Supporting the line was the playmaker and center forward, co-captain Jeff Earle, assisted by senior halfback Mike Chimes and honorable mention candidate, Marty Recht. The outcome of the game lies in the ability of the deepbacks to stop the forward attack. With second team All-County back Jeff Collins, and full-backs Barry DelCampo and Steve Bassoff, the Lancers posted many shut outs. Both Brian Mariani and third team All-County goalie Jeff Rose performed admirably as they shared goal duties.

Next year's team, which had a 12-2 won-loss record as junior varsity will surely be able to come into its own led by Pete Milone who scored 21 goals for the J.V.

The Lancer Basketball Team, perennially a threat in the Jersey Hills Conference, was again able to maintain its tradition of flashy passing and expert shooting. Coached by Mr. Dave Samuels, the Lancers constantly were victorious and thus ended their season in fine style.

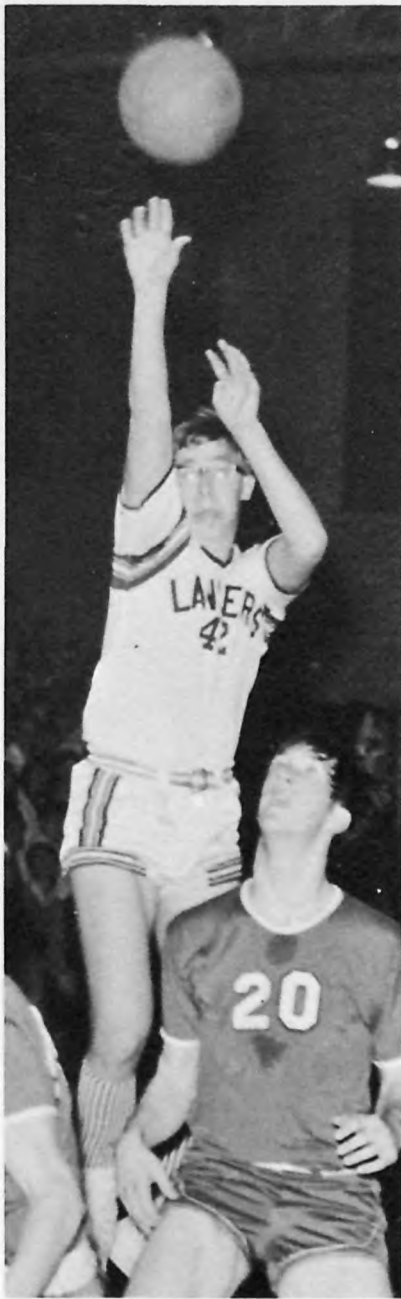

Forwards Roy Gerber and junior Bob Beal collected many of the Lancers' points with their classy shooting. Credit must also be given to guards Ken Klein and junior Dan Feiler for their ball handling ability which provided the Lancers with numerous score opportunities. The tough defense and teamwork of Steve Kieran and Greg Maguire led to the opponents' loss of the ball and Lancer points. With rebounders George Overath, Ned Siegel, Al Small, and Gene Thaw, the team was able to control both the offensive and defensive boards. Bob Koss, always dependable, enabled the Lancers to recapture many seemingly lost games.

WRESTLING

Backed by an array of solid wrestlers, the Livingston matmen completed their 1968-1969 season with a fine record. Heading the Lancer attack in the lightweight divisions were co-captain Jerry Gaeta, senior Herb Weber, and sophomore Lee Ferguson. Co-captain Jay Kiskel and seniors Dean Kohl and Warren Sklar provided the necessary winning power in the heavyweight classes to clinch many of the Lancers' key matches during the year.

The strength of the underclassmen, however, should not be disregarded. Juniors Rich Gross, Lou LaBrunda, Mike Shenker, Bruce Jacoby, Rich Gaudio, Gary Squires, Chris Vidal, and Rich Triolo added decisive points to the team effort and many times gave the Lancers the winning scores.

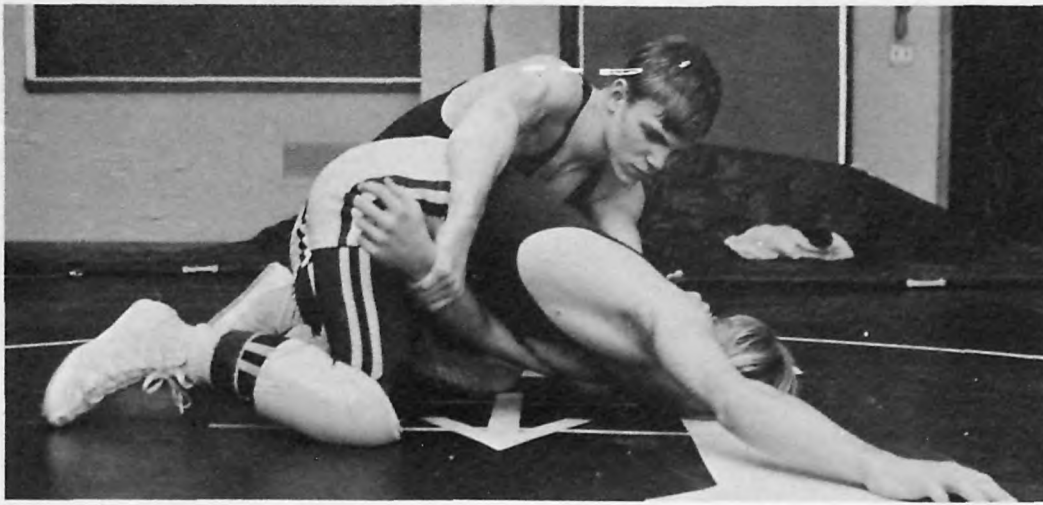

Head Coach Valentine is, therefore, left with an experienced and capable squad for next year that will find a challenge in equalling this year's record.

Coach Bloch

With sticks in hands, the Livingston Hockey Team displayed a unique and formidable team effort. Coached by Mr. Richard Bloch, the Lancers finished their season in fine style as they literally iced their way to victories at both Branch Brook Park and South Mountain Arena.

In hockey as perhaps in no other sport, each member of the squad must be adept in two skills: skating and stick handling. The co-captains Bob Ochs and John Liebenow complimented each other on defense as they worked as a team within a team. Linemen John Chapman, Andy Dauber, Jay Monaghan, Bob Klein, Howie Neckowitz, and center Tom Hoerner dazzled the spectators with their superb body checking and shooting. Senior Bill Nixon and sophomore Frank Evans added more than their share to a spirited attack. But victory would never have been possible without the goal tending of junior Bruce Borders.

Coach Lampeter

Powered by an almost entire senior lineup, the Lancer Baseball Team combined hard hitting and consistent fielding as they swung through another spectacular season.

Pitching for the Lancers this season was Mike Ziser who, as a junior, had a 9-1 record and who this year proved to be a mainstay on Coach Lampeter's pitching staff. Both John Alyward and Jeff Jacenty shared mound duties along with junior Warren Neidhammer. At third base was co-captain Ken Klein who lettered in his sophomore year and was chosen to second team All-County in his junior year. At shortstop was Tom Granata ably backed up by junior Phil Guibardo. Checking the runners at first was Greg Tsaris who, as substitute pitcher, possessed a tremendous pickoff move. The skillful batting of Jim Conley, who had a .363 average as a junior, was equalled by his ability as a second baseman. While Tom Jones covered the plate, co-captain Dave Philson rounded out the outfield as he guarded center with Mickey Steinberg to aid him. With exceptional senior talent, the Lancer team produced its usual winning season.

Coach Berry

Coach Berry's Track Team was again able to complete its season with a winning record. Credit for this accomplishment goes to Coach Berry and his two fine assistant coaches, Mr. Valentine and Mr. Gorelick. Together these three men molded a powerful, balanced, and spirited team.

Evidence of their efforts was seen in the outstanding performances of seniors Greg Hawk, Kevin Francis, and Dave Mark in the high and low hurdles. Kevin Francis was also a key man in the sprints along with underclassmen Bill Hamlin, Andrey Nikiforov, and Roy Belfer. Tri-captains Jeff Mathesius and Barney Hinds, teamed up with seniors Steve Gevarter, Jim Heym, and Mitch Singer, tied down the chores in the 440 and 880. The responsibility for the mile and two mile fell on senior lettermen Jay Kiskel, Bob Grisar, Marty Mann, and Dan Chadwick plus underclassmen Don Koch, Rick Kolodin, George Desch, Walt Zahn, and Bill Hohns.

The field events were carried by Jan Bresky, Len Salemme, and Eric Fardelman in the discus and shot put. The javelin department was headed by tri-captain Jeff Collins along with Ron Misura, Steve Bernstein, and Vince Francischetti. Jim Chedister covered pole vault while Pete Steffen, Al Norelli, and Don Hoenig took the high jump. The team was balanced out by Chuck Wahler on the long jump.

Mr. McNroy

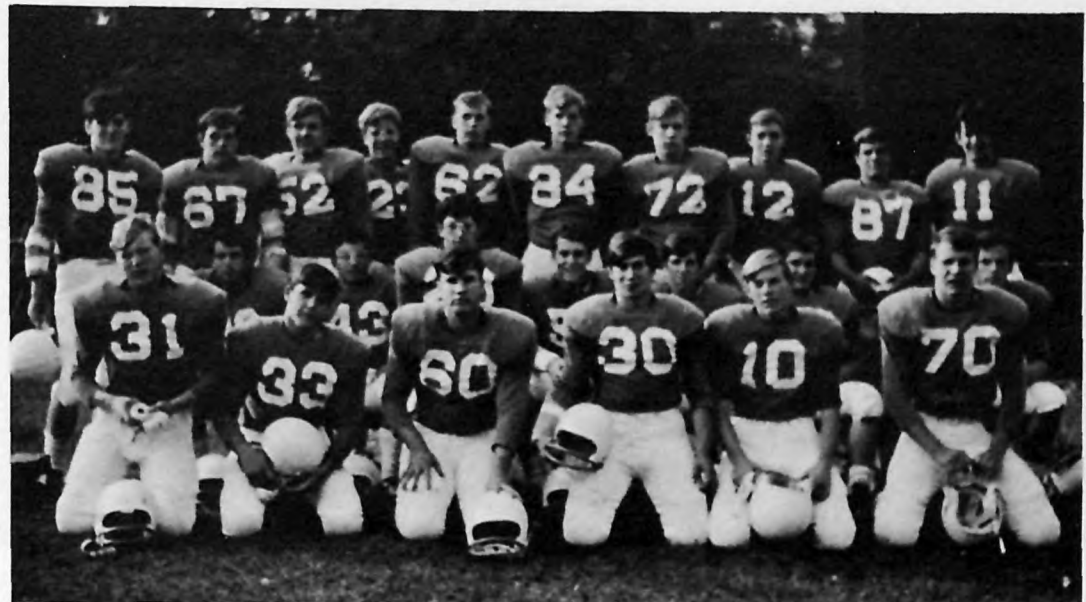

The Livingston High School Golf Team backed by veterans Al Small, Rich Atkins, and Don Smith, swung their way to victory this past season. Aided by juniors Scott Krugman, who lettered as a sophomore, Rich Maquire, and Rich Heaps, the Lancers, who finished in second place last year, offered themselves as deserving competitors against conference rivals. Although the team is annually as strong as it is young and determined, the loss of its seniors will certainly be felt by Coach McNroy.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The successful student council is an active student council. It is difficult, if not impossible, for a Council to occupy a position of any importance in the school, to be regarded as the leader in school affairs, and to command the respect of the entire student body unless it is constantly busy doing something to improve the school. In our own Council we have been doing exactly that.

The students who comprise our Council are willing to give up much of their time to improve our projects, and many have given their services more than once. As this year's president, I have gained an experience that won't be easily forgotten. I hope that next year's Council will be able to improve the situations here in school and carry on the work that this year's very effective and energetic Council has accomplished.

On behalf of the entire Student Council I want to wish the rest of my senior classmates a very successful and happy future.

Sincerely,

In August, two eager AFS exchange students arrived in the United States. Li Dacca of Brazil and Luis Viscaya-Retana from Spain spent the month before school's opening discovering Livingston's pattern of suburban living. School brought an expansion of experience—unfamiliar routines, classes in still-fumbling English, and the reward of many new friends.

Those who remain here will long remember the accent marks on life at LHS, '69 — Li and Luis — and wish them luck and happiness in the future, wherever they may roam.

Luis Viscaya-Retana

I want to thank you for these things you gave me which have made my experience here enjoyable. I've found here a lot of very good friends and I wish very much luck to the foreign student who comes here next year.

LUIS

Li Dacca

This year represents for me much more than you can think, because my coming was a dream that came true.

I am very happy with all the friends I've made and the faculty and the administration of Livingston High School who have helped me in every way.

What makes me happier is the wonderful understanding I found in all of you. You are really great, and I will never forget what you have done for me, bringing moments of happiness into my life.

I only can say "thank you" and you will be in my mind forever.

in my life,

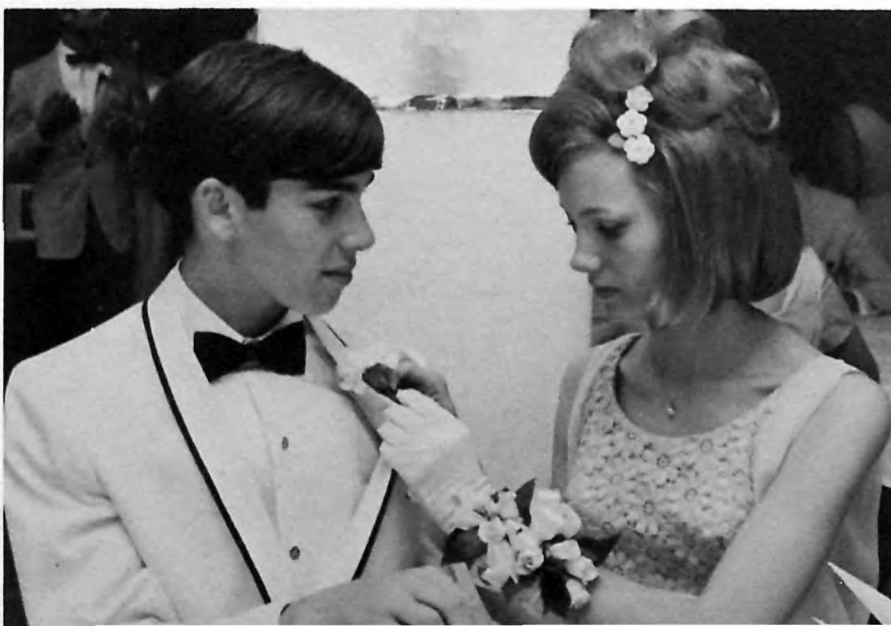

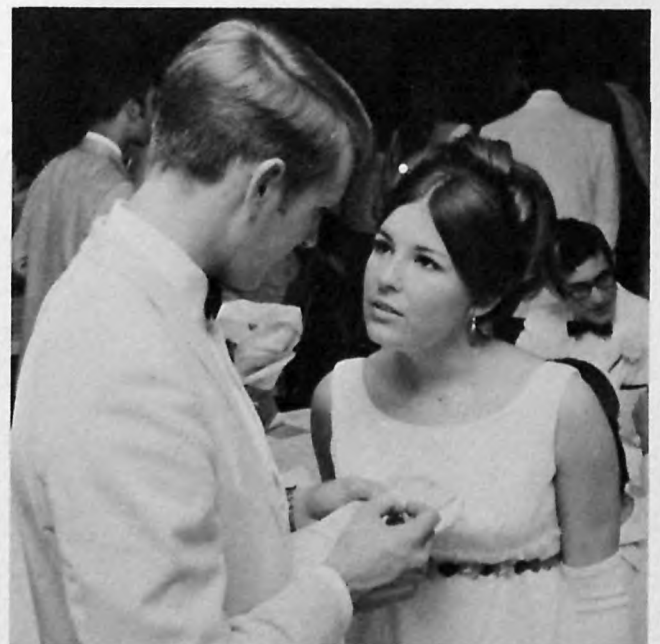

I loved them all.

But of all these friends and lovers . . .

... WITH GENERAL OFFICES AT 110 SOUTH ORANGE AVE., Foster Wheeler Corp. designs, fabricates and constructs chemical and petroleum process plants as well as steam generators for industry, utilities and ship builders.

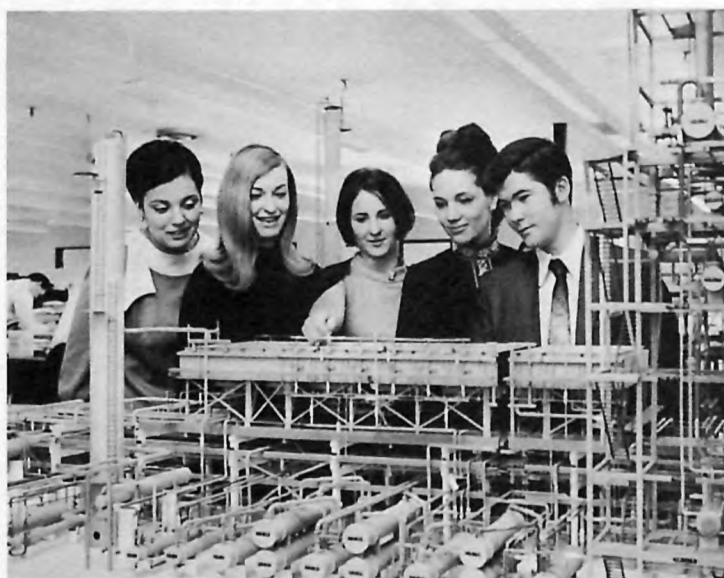

The Corporation has manufacturing plants at Mountaintop, Pa. and Dansville, N.Y. and an engineering office in Houston, Tex. International operations conducted from the United States and foreign subsidiaries serve all continents.

Foster Wheeler's new Research Center, near the General Offices, is among the most modern and efficient in the world today. Since 1923, the Research Division has been responsible for many of the technological achievements which have enabled Foster Wheeler to remain an industry leader.

Since moving to Livingston in 1962, Foster Wheeler has endeavored to make itself a good neighbor. Many of its 1500 General Office and Research people participate actively in local public affairs and the Corporation takes its community responsibilities seriously.

We offer our warm congratulations to the Class of '69 — May all their dreams and aspirations be fulfilled.

...a good neighbor...

THIS IS YOUR PROUDEST HOUR

..... Culminating a period in your life you will always want to remember. As your official photographer, we feel elated to have been able to document this cherished era with photographs pulsating the very life you lived - the very thoughts you spread - the very feeling you so warmly and sincerely shared. This reality though captured in a split second will be an everlasting record for posterity.

The future holds many events for you that you will want to remember - Please feel free to call upon us for all of your photographic needs.

CROSSROADS

LIVINGSTON HIGH SCHOOL

Livingston, New Jersey

To the editors, staff, Miss Ring, and the rest:
Our '69 yearbook is surely the best!
Your efforts together were definitely
The thing that gave Crossroads all its sanity.
A year of missed deadlines and lost questionnaires,
Of looking for photographs, financial cares,
And listening to songs till your head could just split.
The typing's all done, but the copy won't fit!
What kind of dividers, and ovals or squares?
The frustrating burdens that everyone shares.
We've worked as a team, now our moment has come.
Our '69 Crossroads is finally done!
For once I am speechless; I just can't express
My thanks to you - Crossroads is all your success!

It's been great working with all of you!

Janet

Remember how difficult it used to be to say goodbye?

Some things never change.

*Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
