Stuyvesant Avenue Will Become Kiddieland For Saturday Fete

The Stuyvesant Avenue Merchants have done it again: the dazzling Saturday in front of Kiddieland will be the crowning glory of the Kiddieland weekend festivities. People who have come to see the Kiddieland for themselves, will be able to enjoy the festivities in the comfort of their own homes. AVC STUDIO will show the Kiddieland on the large screen, and all shows will be free.

And while the merchants have built this dusky for the children, they are going to celebrate for the rest of the weekend. They are going to have knock-down displays, a valuable government sale, prize-winning games and a movie marathon on the large screen. All shows will be free.

Tom Shannon, president of the association said: "This is one more in our series of affairs to inspire our local shoppers that their best friends are the local merchants, and that Stuyvesant Avenue merchants are tops in that respect. We look for thousands of children on the avenue Saturday.

RECREATION FOR YONKER KIDS

Despite the bad weather, the Recreation Department had planned a special occasion for the Yonkers youth. The event was held at the high school, where a parade of floats was presented. The floats were decorated with themes related to the season and included various groups and organizations. The parade was followed by a picnic, where the children enjoyed food and games. The Recreation Department hopes to continue these events in the future, providing fun and entertainment for the kids in Yonkers.

FOR YOUR PATIENCE

DURING THE

TELEPHONE STRIKE...

Our Sincere Thanks!

Thanks for your patience and friendly understanding during the telephone strike! Service was as near normal as we could make it.

Our "thank you" comes with special meaning from the telephone men and women who worked long hours, at unfamiliar tasks, to keep your service going. Your patience made a tough job easier to carry on.

Now that the strike is settled, it's back to the work of providing more and better service, for New Jersey.

We're just as pleased as you are that this is over.

To American Motherhood
This Sunday, each of us will pay tribute to her by Mother's Day, we will honor American mothers who in every family, in every generation, have been the strong character-forming influence, kind and understanding, through the years, the motherhood has expressed itself so that which is good and true, lovely and kind past and right.

Most of us will pay special attention to acknowledging our indebtedness to a mother's love and care and guidance, and to remind us of her constantly changing and growing. It is the duty of all of us to show our appreciation of her. If she is no longer living, then they may serve to strengthen our expression.

We hope everyone may have a Good Mother's Day. May we honor her, true in this, and remember the courage and effort she has been one who
