ROOM

When you think of the spirit of '76, what comes to your mind? The three marching men? George Washington and Thomas Jefferson? Yes. They are the spirit of their '76, but we are the spirit of ours. We are Columbia in '76 and have a spirit all our own.

During the American Revolution half of the population was under the age of sixteen, but there was no such thing as a "teenager." There was no separate teen culture with its own music, literature, styles, and fads. Treated as adults, teens were expected to work hard and to conduct themselves as adults. In 1976, Columbia is a microcosm of the separate and accepted teen culture.

Looking at us today, you might think that Columbia's dress code is jeans and Wallabies, but in taking a closer study, you will see a wide range of fashion. Our varied fashion choices reflect our individuality and give the visitor a clue to our broad spectrum of interests.

At Columbia in '76 we have the opportunity to pursue these interests and inclinations. For those with a love for sports, there are teams and clubs to join. To root for Columbias' teams, we have spirited cheerleaders and song leaders. For those interested in languages, there are language clubs such as Le Cercle Français, the Italian Club, and Forum Romanum. There are also art clubs, orchestra, band, and math clubs.

As for curricular interests, we have a myriad of courses to choose from, including the recent additions of photography, psychology, and transcendental meditation. For those who wish to explore an interest even further than the limits of a classroom, we have the option of the independent study.

We have been influenced in 1976 by a trend toward communication. This communication includes committees where the students take part in decision-making such as the Coordinating Committee, Tripartate, and the Student Faculty Administration Committee. Students interested in planning school activities may also join the Fire or Assembly Committees. Participants in these groups have an opportunity to work on problem solving within the school.

The year 1976 has been a year of immeasurable growth and change for all of us in the graduating class. However, this year has been a crucial one for the world outside the Gothic walls of Columbia High School. Would we have ever dreamed of New Jersey's precarious taxation plans or of headlines describing New York's pending bankruptcy? The statistics of massive unemployment across the nation are also startling. The world is in a state of change, and we the class of '76 believe that we are preparing ourselves to cope positively and constructively with the problems which will confront us as citizens.

As seniors, we are faced with important decisions. This is the year that shapes the rest of our lives, for we must decide on where to put the final focus on our future. We have dreams of college, ideal occupations, and ultimate happiness. Louisa May Alcott wrote, "Far away there in the sunshine are my highest aspirations. I may not reach them, but I can look up and see their beauty, believe in them, and try to follow where they lead."

At Columbia in '76 we have our own styles, responsibilities, pleasures, opportunities, and goals. We have a spirit all our own!

Catch the spirit of Columbia in '76.

The high and low moments in '76
are where we have shown our spirit.

Triumphant, defeated.

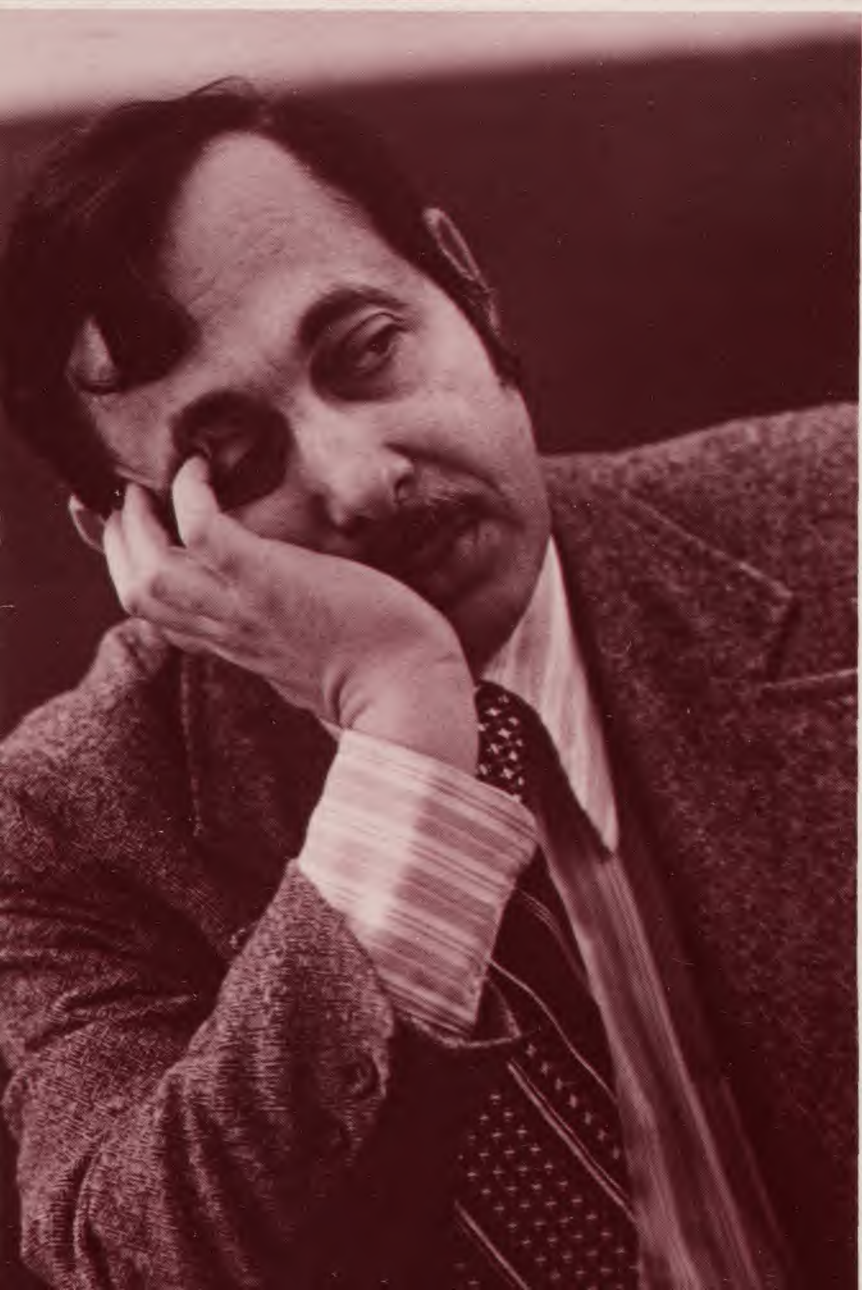

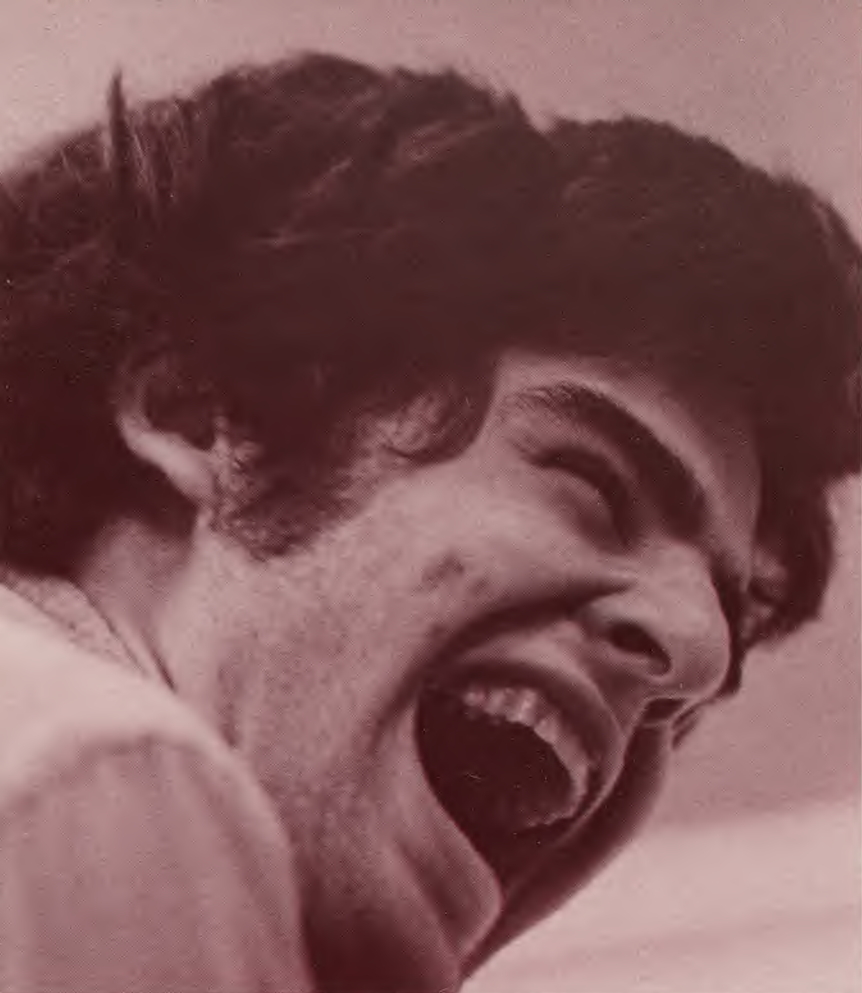

Elated, dejected.

Outwardly concerned

Pensive in a private world of thought . . .

COLUMBIA HIGH SCHOOL

JUNE, 1976

The Spirit of 'columbian' Gains in '76

the columbian, the student newspaper of Columbia high school, made great progress during the 1975-1976 school year towards fulfilling its intended purpose as the information medium, the forum, and the voice of CHS students.

News and Feature Coverage

the columbian further expanded its news coverage this year, spanning a wide range of local and national topics. An article in the September 4 issue first brought to public attention the Science of Creative Intelligence (transcendental meditation) course, which became the source of vigorous controversy. The News-Record, Time, and The New York Times followed subsequently with more advanced coverage.

November 26 the columbian again competed with The New York Times in covering the student walk-out to the Board of Education.

Slightly less prestigious, but equally as important was the columbian's continual coverage of the local budget crisis. A special budget issue, a number of in-depth analyses, and a variety of features exhaustively examined, from every conceivable aspect, the causes, the manifestations, and the possible solutions to the crisis.

First row: K. Krasney, P. Wald, D. Pitman, J. Rosenbaum. Second row: J. Izenman, A. Borden, J. Brill, G. Cohen, A. Friedman. Third row: D. Becker (Editor), R. Kaplan, L. Conn

Production and Business

the columbian, for perhaps the first time in history, realized a profit on an issue this year, achieving a goal dreamed by Boards of Education throughout the country. This was a direct result of three factors, production experience, cheaper paper, and business expansion.

As one of the few high school newspapers in the country published and printed entirely within the school, the columbian has continually been cheaper to produce than other school papers. However, it was only this year that the staff gained enough experience and efficiency in graphics to cut production costs.

the columbian increased its advertising revenue this year by both increasing its advertising space and by the creation of a classified ads section. The classified ads were perhaps the greatest success of the year, both monetarily and in terms of reader interest. It not only attracted the attention of Columbia students and teachers, but also that of parents and the editorial staff of the News-Record.

the columbian, for all its advances this year, remained one of the most maligned of the student institutions, possibly exceeding student council in amount of criticism received. Typographical errors, production errors, printing errors, errors in facts, errors in judgement, errors in corrections of errors all prompted protest. the columbian's ultimate success in dealing with these problems is of small concern here. What is important is that the paper this year better fulfilled its purpose, while simultaneously inviting debate and student participation in an effort to make it better.

CHAOS (Columbia High Alternative Opportunities School), now in its second year at Columbia High School, is a program for those junior and senior students who are interested in practical education through the acquisition of basic skills and knowledge, and through introduction to a variety of disciplines and learning experiences.

This is done in structured classes, jointly planned student-teacher Mini-courses, exploration of the immediate community, and independent study.

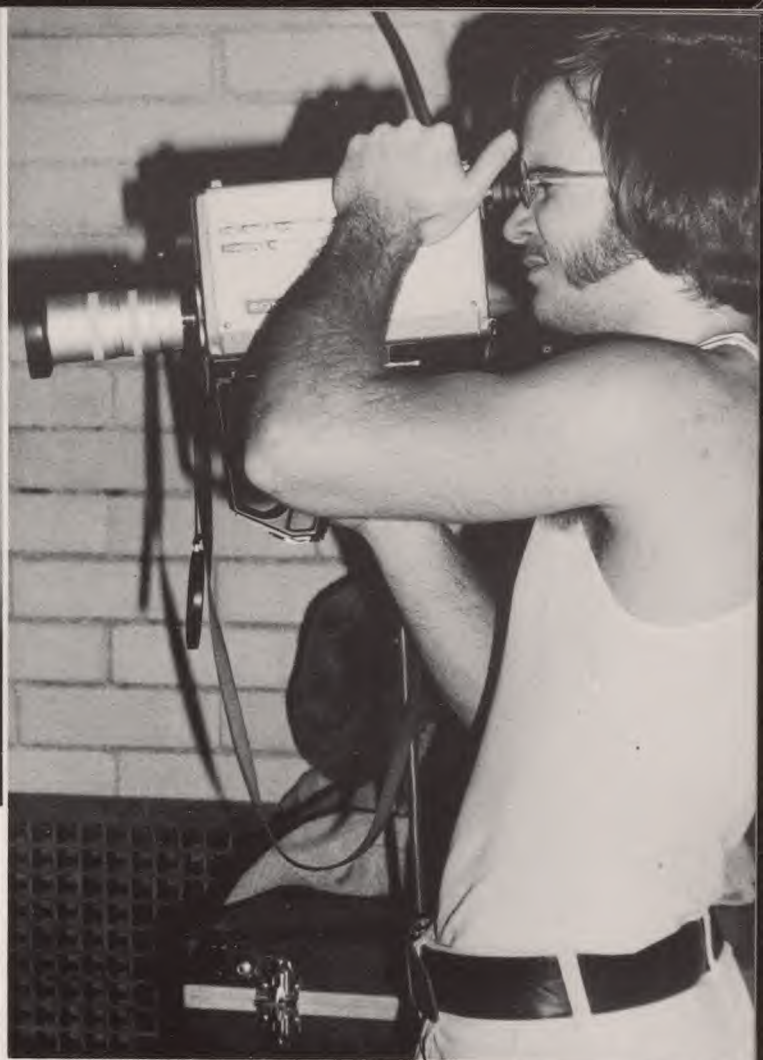

In addition to their regular classroom activities, CHAOS students and staff participate in the Home and School Association's Annual Flea Market, and sponsor speakers from such organizations as Alcoholics Anonymous, Rutgers University Labor-Management Relations, Dare, and Seton Hall law students.

Not only does this diversity make the school day more interesting for the student, but it also offers him a broader scope of knowledge.

The Columbia High School Concert Choir has grown tremendously over the past two years thanks to Mr. Wayne C. Fenstermacher. He has inspired the group towards a much higher level of choral performance. The 1975 Holiday Concert is proof of this. In this concert the choir performed selections from the "Messiah" and "Judas Maccabeus" by Handel, both extremely demanding oratorios, yet has proven it's versatility by singing, equally well, both classical and popular compositions.

Mr. Fenstermacher has shown that Columbia possesses many talented vocalists, i.e. seniors Philip Acone, Alice Farrell, Harold Finman, Jennifer Hughes, Lawrence Loeber and Melinda Thompson.

Many thanks to Miss Rosalind Dobie, the choir's accompanist, for her continual and excellent musical support.

This year, Columbia High School was host to a number of foreign and exchange students from countries all around the world. They involved themselves in activities in Columbia ranging from assemblies to swimming to crafts. They brought to the school a knowledge of cultures different from ours, and as they leave Columbia to return home, the imprint they will leave on those who knew them will be as indelible as that they will leave on Columbia in '76.

Tempest over TM

Last Oct. 12, 25 high school students waited in the Union, N.J., office of the Transcendental Meditation movement. One by one they entered a room and reverently knelt before a candlelit altar holding a picture of the late Guru Dev, Hindu holy man and predecessor of TM Leader Maharishi Mahesh Yogi. Each student brought fruit and flowers to be placed on the altar by Teacher Janet Aaron, who then recited a Sanskrit puja (hymn of worship)* and whispered each student's mantra, the secret word that must be repeated to aid meditation.

Those undergoing this standard TM initiation ceremony were enrolled in a course that TM employee Aaron taught for credit at Columbia High in Maplewood, N.J. Last week the Maplewood course and those in four other New Jersey public schools were under sharp attack. A nationwide Coalition for Religious Integrity announced plans to file a federal lawsuit to stop the classes, offered by the schools under a $40,000 grant in HEW funds made through the New Jersey Department of Education. The coalition argues that TM is a form of Hinduism and that the program therefore violates the First Amendment requirement of church-state separation.

The new anti-TM alliance represents various interests: Americans United for Separation of Church and State, a nonsectarian watchdog on First Amendment issues; the Berkeley (Calif.) Christian Coalition, a group that grew out of the Jesus Movement and does research to combat TM, Scientology and other new cults; and a number of Protestant and Catholic taxpayers in New Jersey.

The coalition buttressed its claims by releasing a heavily documented booklet by John E. Patton, a Roman Catholic attorney who lives in Maplewood. As Patton paints it, TM was going nowhere till the Maharishi in 1967-68 decided to "camouflage" it as a secular "science" in order to qualify for taxpayer funds and reach a wider following. Since then TM has become the McDonald's of meditation, attracting hundreds of thousands of initiates.

Patton says that TM literature replaces God with the phrase "Creative Intelligence," which he claims is a synonym for Hinduism's pantheistic deity. Brooks Alexander, a former TM meditator turned evangelist with the Berkeley group, explains that TM novices are not indoctrinated outright in Hinduism, as they might be in Judaism or Christianity. Rather, they are gradually conditioned to accept a Hindu world view, after which many move into a deeper involvement through meditation. Meanwhile, two prominent Protestants in Iowa, where the movement's Maharishi International University is located, have argued in the liberal Christian Century that TM is too religious to be taught in public schools.

TMsers insist that all this is much ado about nearly nothing. Robert Kory, who runs the New Jersey project for TM, explains that the mantras are just "meaningless" sounds, that the puja simply reminds the teacher of the highest ideals of his profession, and that the deities it invokes are only "the forces of nature." In Fairfield, Iowa, Seymour Migdal, dean of the faculty at the Maharishi University, is confident that TM will survive court scrutiny. Says he: "It doesn't require faith, and it doesn't require worship."

*Excerpt: "Guru in the glory of the personified transcendental fulness of Brahman, to him, to Shri Guru Dev, adorned with glory, I bow down."

Is "Creative Intelligence" simply another name for God?

This article was placed in the yearbook to represent the controversy that arose over SCI/TM in public schools and does not represent what SCI/TM is and the actual course that was offered at Columbia H.S.

Clubs, committees, workshops, and intramural teams give students the chance to participate in all aspects of the school, and the large number of students involved is evidence of the Spirit of Columbia in '76.

Although this year's record was disappointing the Cougars showed that at times they could play with the best. Unfortunately, the team didn't always play up to its potential. Interceptions, fumbles, and penalties killed the Cougars.

The year was not without sparkling plays or outstanding players. The defense was led by co-captain Joe Dymkowski, and linebackers John Butkus and John Hooper. Other stalwart defenders were Paul Miller, Jimmy Reinhart, Nash Breen, and Jaime Durando.

The Cougar offense which has been explosive at times was led by the running of Justin Wharton and co-captain Mark Smith. Lineman Frank Cimapi, Jimmy Madden, Ed Zincgraft, and Ricky Morrison blocked well. Quarterback Jeff Hood's sure handed receivers were Jim Schwartz, Ford Nichols and co-captain Gary Scott.

CROSS COUNTRY

1975 was an inspirational year for the Cross-Country team, inspirational in that more was learned by the team members than was actually accomplished. After winning their 20th straight dual meet (an 8-0 season), the team suffered a disheartening loss in the Big Ten Championships, but their taste for victory was not numbed. They returned four days later to successfully defend their Essex County title.

The team was led this year by three runners in particular, senior and co-captain Paul Maloney and juniors Frank Priol and Erwin Pluys. Paul and Pluys paced the team throughout the early dual meets, but Maloney performed exceptionally well during the state championships, and became the number one runner. The other varsity harriers who were responsible for the team's depth were co-captain Ken Horvath, Jan Kozlowski, Mark Dalton, Jon Solomon, Rich Mann, and Scott Duerr.

The Girls Varsity Swim Team finished the season with a 7-3-1 record. The team placed third in the Counties and second in the Big Ten. Five school records were broken. Among them was the medley relay. Ann Breen, Mary Doyle, Jane Van Doren and Barbara Granger set a new record time of 2:08.5. The performances of the juniors and sophomores show that the team shall remain strong next year.

The Columbia soccer team finished out one of its most successful seasons this past fall with a record of 19-3-3. Coach Gene Chyzowych's Cougars captured the Essex County Championship, the Big Ten co-championship and finally, the Section II Group IV crown. The laureled booters, through a total team effort, advanced to the state semifinals before losing by a goal to the eventual state co-champion.

Along the way school records were set in scoring as well as defense, led by goalie Joe Riordan's record of 13 defensive shutouts and co-captain Peter Benjamin's play at fullback. Other defensive standouts included Roddy Coles, David Shea, and Robert Cole. Frank Donegan was the key to the high powered offense, pouring in 48 goals, setting a new school record, just 2 short of the state record. Co-captain Augie Celliti and junior John Devivo rounded out perhaps the best line in the state. The mid-field play of Tony Amato, Hugh Van Gelder, David Defino, Mark Adelman, and Larry Finn also contributed an important part of the soccer team's success.

The 1975-76 Columbia High School Girls Varsity Basketball Team performed beyond Coach Tom Ruggiero's expectations. Envisioning a season that would be better than 50% victories, the Cougar girls went out and finished their regular season with a 13-4 record. In addition, they went to the final round of the Essex County Coaches Tournament losing to Nutley in the final game. Leading the way for the girls were Senior Co-Captains Bis Surowitch and Bester Hargett who did a marvelous job with the other girls. Other seniors were Geraldine Byrd, Lori Metro, Diane Santillo, and Karen Epstein. Among the returning veterans for next year are Patti Holl, Sue Madigan, Betsy O'Connor, and MaryBeth Kakoleski. The Cougar girls had an excellent season.

The Boy's Varsity Gymnastics Team, in its fourth season, finished well, led by co-captains Dan Swass and Mike Viola. The team placed 5th in the State and second in the North Section. The high score for the season was 104.95, a defeat over Ridgewood H.S. Breaking school records were Robert Ramos who set a 6.75 on tumbling and Glen Wainen with a 7.75 on the still rings. Individual records for the season were: Dan Swass — 6.90 side horse, Mike Viola — 6.20 high bar, Terry Bauer — 9.15 long horse vault, Glen Wainen — 6.75 parallel bars. The high score for all-around was set by Dan Swass — 33.70 and his alternates high score — 30.35 set by Glen Wainen at a tri-meet. Although most of the team qualified for the Northern Individual Championships, only three, Mike Viola, Dan Swass, and Glen Wainen qualified for the State finals. Tied for third place in the State, on the rings, was Mike Viola with a score of 7.05.

Anticipating a fine season, the Columbia Wrestling Team was plagued by injuries and illness and ended the season with a losing record. Juniors Kevin Kerrigan and Steve Blizard and Senior Tim Pittman were lost early in the season due to injuries. Nevertheless, the team performed well in the tournaments in which they participated. Andy Edmund, Dave Epstein, Gene Madden, and Armand Cacciarelli led the team with fine individual performances. The two district place winners were Armand Cacciarelli and Dave Epstein, wrestling at the 135 and the 158 pound class respectively.

The girls gymnastics team had a very successful season this year finishing with a record of 6-2. The team reached a team high with a score of 73.000. Individual records were set by Phyllis Beeler wotj Beeker with a 7.5 on uneven bars, Sharon Kelly with a 7.45 on floor exercise and Barbara Granger with a 7.5 on vaulting. The team was lead by co-captains Barbara Granger and Patty Wilson, and finished fourth in the North Section. The team sent several girls to the sectionals and Phyllis Beeker placed fifth in the north and eleventh in the state on the uneven bars.

The swim team enjoyed a successful season with an impressive 9-3 record. Although there were several outstanding individuals, the superb record can be attributed to a strong team effort and Dave Yoresh's excellent coaching.

To achieve this record, the team was very dependent on sophomores, as well as the strength from the returning juniors and seniors. Seniors, including Captain Barry Berson, Assistant Captain Peter Benjamin, John Amerman, and Bobby Frick, contributed to the team's winning effort. Gary Cahill, also a senior, broke the school record in the breaststroke. A bright future lies ahead for the swim team with such swimmers to lead it as Mike Gallene, Kenny Kroll, Harry Shiel, Eric Margules, and Michael Frick.

The team's overall strength led to the Big Ten Championship and a third place in the Essex County Tournament. The fine individual effort of Berson, Cahill, Amerman, Gallene, and Kroll placed them in the State Championships.

A big year is expected for the 1976 girls varsity softball team. Columbia will field a team of experience, talent, pride, and determination.

Returning letter winners Geraldine Byrd, Karen Epstein, Hester Hargett, Patty Holl, MaryBeth Kakoleski, Lori Metro, and Bis Surowitch will lead the offense.

Kakoleski, a junior, will provide great speed on the base path as well as attempting to repeat her last year's performance of a .442 batting average, 20 runs scored, 30 RBI's, and 4 home runs. Epstein, a senior, hit for an average of .440 last year while scoring 22 runs and 16 RBI's. Surowitch had a batting average of .391 with 14 RBI's.

The Cougar defense is surpassed by none. Lori Metro, MaryBeth Kakoleski and Karen Epstein will be playing the infield. Gerry Byrd will hold the pitching honors as she did last year with Diane Santillo also ready to throw. Among the returning juniors and seniors, Hester Hargett, Bis Surowitch, Patty Holl, Diane Santillo, and MaryBeth Kakoleski will play outfield.

Tom Ruggerio will coach the girls as he did a fine job last season. Last year, the girls finished with a 14-4 record and second place in the Big Ten Conference.

The 1975-76 CHS Basketball Team had a very rewarding year. Although the final record of 8-12 does not reflect a great year, many team and individual goals were attained. The seniors led by Captains Al Joyens and Jeff Hood, with John Butkus, John McGovern, Kevin Conroy and Gary Scott, will remember this season with much satisfaction.

Team goals that were achieved: (1) School's first appearance in the ECT (2) fewest points allowed defensive record 55.8, tying a school record (3) entry into State Basketball Tournament.

Other highlights of the season were a comeback win over Montclair with Jeff's last second shot. Al's big game vs. Nutley, 28 points; John McGovern's 3 DOF's vs. Kearney (13 for season); John Butkus battling the boards all season especially vs. Plainfield in State Tournament. Gary Scott's total dedication and hard work. It was an outstanding season for a talented group of fine young men.

The Girls Tennis Team is expecting another smashing season this year. The girls have been very successful in their varsity play the past two years. The team is strong with returning seniors and juniors Jane Van Doren, Jennifer Bick, Karen Kramer, and Cathy Connors. Emily Skoler and Cindy Stein are two sophomores who will be joining the squad. Miss Melinda Gardner is the team's coach.

Under the coaching of Mr. John Fletcher, last year's varsity boys baseball team ended the season with a 16-8 record. The team also finished second in the Big Ten.

This year, Joe Mercandante and Dave Price will return to pitch. Outfield will be covered by returning seniors and juniors Tom Batista, Frank Haase, and Paul Millar. Returning on the infield are Marty Hector and Bob Prosser. Mr. Fletcher will be head coach again and the team looks strong as it prepares for a tough season.

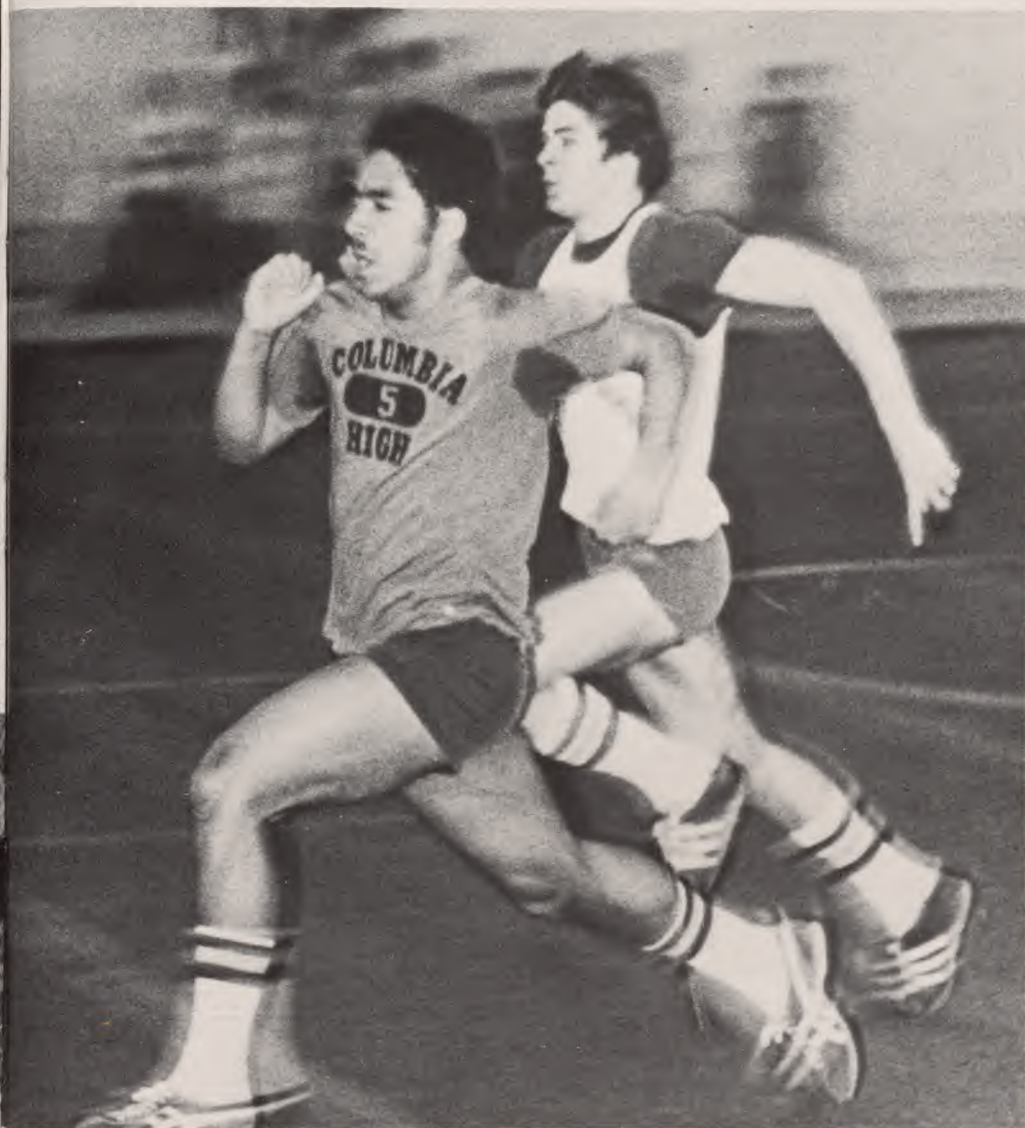

Over 120 students will be on the Columbia Spring Track Team this year. Last year's record was 8-1. The team placed first in the Essex County Championships and the Big Ten Championships. This is the first time that a Columbia Track Team placed first in these events. The team also placed third in the State Sectionals. Many letter winners will be returning this season. The team will be captained by seniors Paul Maloney, Ford Nichols, and Bob Zipse. Weight captain is Ed Zinckgraf. Missy Martineau and Cindy Mersier will be the captains of the girls' team.

Mr. Klepack will again coach the team. Mr. Klepack realizes that the team is young but he hopes that the team will reach the Essex County and Big Ten Championships again.

The Boys Tennis Team is looking forward to another outstanding season this spring. Last year, under the direction of Coach Victor Lomakin, the Cougars finished with a 12-5 record. The team also won the Big Ten championship and placed third in the county.

Among returning seniors and juniors are Hugh van Gelsler-captain, John Gruen, John Liebman, John Goldman, Chuck Farg, Peter Feketie, Scott Freeman, and Ivan Neibart.

Lacrosse Team FIRST ROW: M. Winslow (mgr), G. Niemitz (mgr), J. DeVivo, G. Sprague, P. Zipf, J. Regan, N. Breen, J. Schwartz (cpt), J. Hooper (capt), C. Taylor, J. Durando, J. Butkus, K. Mohrhauser (mgr), L. Kenney (mgr). SECOND ROW: Coach Curcio, E. Del Vecchio, D. Carswell, M. Greenberg, J. Madden, M. Farmer, J. Bianchi, T. Brubaker, B. Perua, J. Lally, L. Wicks, J. Ferraro, L. Glosinski (mgr).

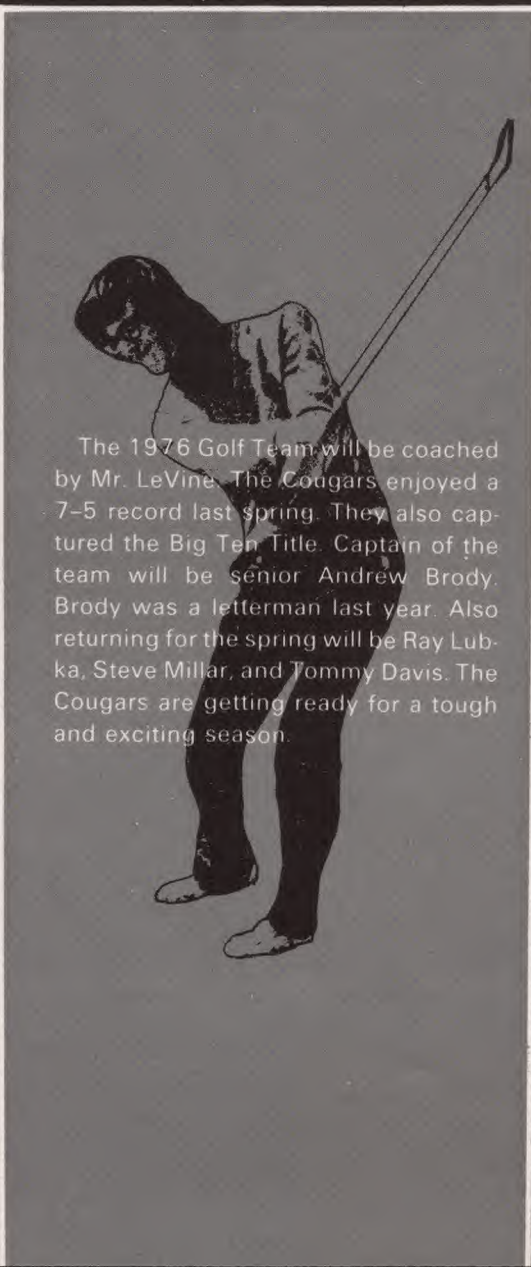

The Columbia High School Lacrosse Team, coached by Robert Curcio is looking forward to another rugged campaign in the 1976 season. Faced with a difficult schedule, the second year coach will be welcoming back some fine talent from last year's team. Returnees, John Hooper and Jimmy Schwartz, co-captains this year, form a fine nucleus at midfield, together with John Butkus, Gordon Sprague, and Brad Perna. Newcomers Jon Ferraro, Jim Bianchi, John Devivo, and Mitch Greenburg should help bolster the middies.

The attack was hit hard by the graduation of All-Stater Steve Hornish and Dave Goettlich, but John Regan, Honorable Mention All-Stater will be returning. If this year's offense is to match last year's, Jim Madden, Craig Taylor, Pete Zipf, and Kenny Gantz must supply the fire power to help Regan.

Graduation also hit the defense very hard. Gone are All-Staters John Egerter, Charlie DelVecchio, and Bruce Pearl. But Nash Breen, Greg Klein, Jaime Durando, and Drew Carswell will be called on this year to take up the slack. Leon Wicks and Mark Farmer will provide extra help. But DelVecchio leads the goalie corps; Mark Scalara and Tom Brubaker will be backing Eddie up.

In summing up his thoughts regarding the upcoming season, Coach Curcio states: "It will be tough to equal last year's 12-5 record. Graduation has taken seven of our starting ten, but after two weeks of practice, I am pleased with the progress we've made, and if we can avoid serious injury, I think we will again be a factor in this year's race. Hard work will be the key and we seem willing to make the sacrifices."

The 1976 Golf Team will be coached by Mr. LeVine. The Cougars enjoyed a 7-5 record last spring. They also captured the Big Ten Title. Captain of the team will be senior Andrew Brody. Brody was a letterman last year. Also returning for the spring will be Ray Lubka, Steve Millar, and Tommy Davis. The Cougars are getting ready for a tough and exciting season.

MAPLES

With the surge of interest in ice hockey in this area, there was a need for a team to accommodate high school boys. The Maplewood-South Orange Hockey Club was formed. In only their second season the Maples enjoyed much success.

Attendance grew at home contests; game times were more reasonable due to the Maples joining the Union County League. The '75-'76 team was led by the outstanding play of goalie David Rabin, and captain and leading scorer Dave Silver. Good skating and teamwork that helped to produce winning games came from seniors Kevin Conroy, Kurt Volk, and Peter Zipf. The Maples goal is to become the Columbia Cougar Ice Hockey team.
