Rethink Everything

*Looking back on our achievements
And all the lives we have touched
The many dreams we have lived
The hard times we have passed together*

*We will remember what we have learned
What experience has taught us
How we grew together
Becoming one in heart and soul*

*Times of love, joy, and excitement
Frustration and disappointment
Laughter and lightheartedness
Fondly, we will look back*

*In a double-sided mirror
I see us off in the distance
On the other side of our lives
Seeing who we used to be*

*Remembering what brought us there
How stories of life unfolded
Tracing back as far as can be Even back to the beginning*

-Jason Westlake

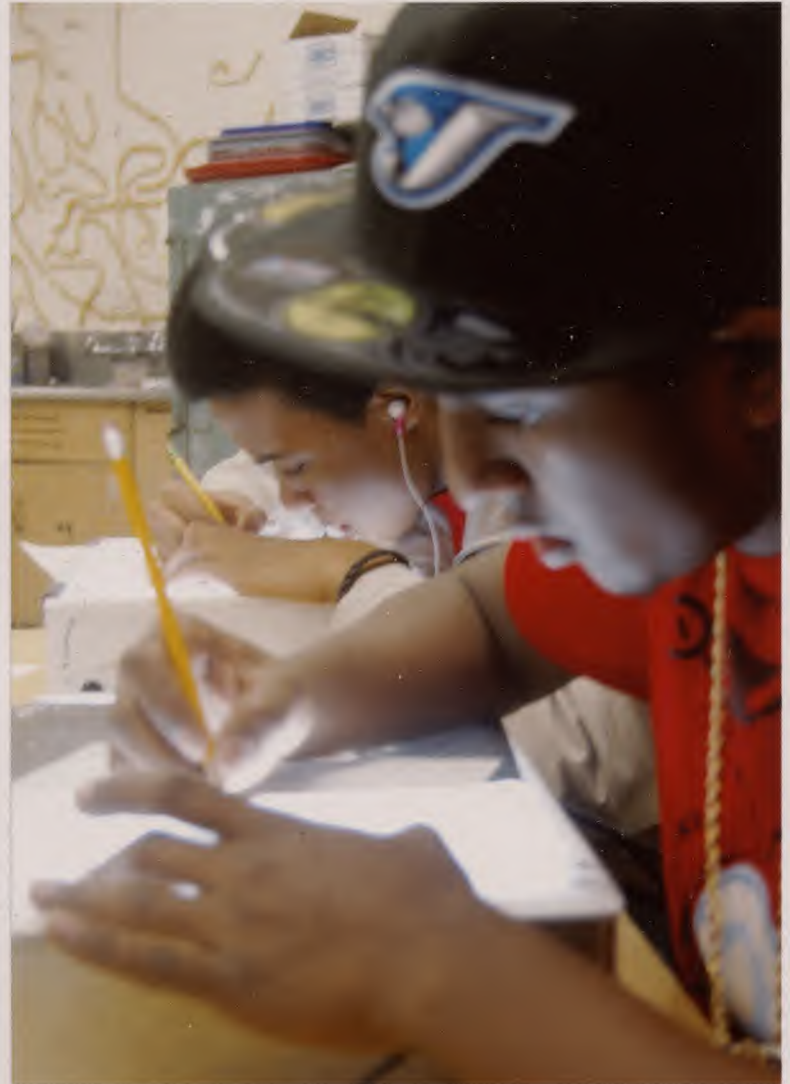

Then you said good-bye, maybe to your town, and that school and your friends. You know that you can go back to visit, but there will be strangers in the halls and it's not the same. It's different, and you're different. But it's not the end. In fact, everything is just the beginning.

Long live the King of Columbia! Coach "C" is the lighthouse of our athletic department. He remains as successful and energetic today as he was forty-five years ago. We congratulate him on his induction into the National High School Soccer Coaches Hall of Fame.

Long live the King of Columbia! Coach "C" is the lighthouse of our athletic department

—Dave Curtain

"Coach C is without a doubt the most decorated coach and teacher Columbia High School has ever experienced. Impacting players lives on and off the field for many years and now!"

—Josh Delva, Cameron Krammer,
 Thomas Quirk, Kevin O'conner

"Mr.C has been an inspiration to our department."
 —Mr.Witty

Eugene Chyzowych

Soccer Coach and Teacher

Since his appointment as soccer coach in 1964, Coach Chyzowych has led Columbia High School to 23 conference championships, 13 Essex County Tournaments titles, 15 sectional titles and 4 state championships. In 1988, Columbia was ranked not only #1 in the State but #1 in the nation (USA Today). Mr. "C" is the all-time winning high school soccer coach in the nation.

During his tenure, CHS has produced over 200 All-States, 25 All-Americans, and numerous professional, national and Olympic team members. Some of his former players are now coaching on both the scholastic and collegiate levels. Mr. "C" has served as coach of the U.S. Olympic soccer team, the U.S. National team and World Cup team. He is recognized as one of the premier soccer coaches in the country. He was selected by the National Soccer Coaches Association as U.S. National Coach of the year in 1987 and 1990. This year, Mr. "C" was honored by United States Soccer and inducted into the United States Soccer Hall of Fame.

Mr. "C" also started the volleyball program at Columbia. During his coaching the Girl's Volleyball team, he had a number of undefeated seasons along with a winning streak of 249 wins without a loss. Many of his players went on to star at colleges and universities. Some are now coaching on the scholastic and collegiate levels. While coaching track and field at Columbia, Mr. "C" produced our school's best javelin thrower, a record that still stands today.

Students and athletes are grateful for the lessons they have learned with Mr. "C" on the field and in his classes. He has taught us that lessons learned here will pay in life. Asked once when a person becomes a good coach, Mr. "C" responded that it is a "process", where you continue to learn. In addition to continuing to learn, Mr. "C" added that being able to work with everyone and keeping your sense of humor helps us all succeed in life.

All of Coach Chyzowych's hard work and dedication lead to a field named in his honor.

I've had such an amazing academic experience at CHS, largely thanks to the people I've met here. All of my teachers, especially my calculus teacher Mr. Gulati, have been amazing mentors and have helped me to learn so much. My classmates have also made Columbia a great learning environment. I can't wait to show the world everything I have gained from my experience here.
-Georgia Squyres-

"Many people have influenced, supported, and inspired me in my academic career, including teachers and peers, but my parents have been far and away my greatest source of support and inspiration. They have provided an essentially perfect environment for my intellectual development. They have played a pivotal role by helping me set goals, prioritize, and achieve in all my endeavors, academic and otherwise. Possibly most importantly, they have encouraged me to challenge myself and test my limits yet have never pressured me unnecessarily or excessively and have helped make me the contented person I am today."
-Dillon Plunkett-

CHS Scholars

Academic Excellence

"We are so proud of the accomplishments of the students who have achieved national recognition for their scholarship. Their hard work and dedication to learning exemplifies the high expectations we have for all children."

-Brian Osborne-

"During the 2008-09 school year, the National merit Scholarship Corporation Recognized several Columbia High School students. Nine Seniors were awarded letters of commendation; six students were selected as Semifinalists in the 54th annual Merit Scholarship Competition; three students were named semifinalists in the 45th annual Achievement Scholarship competition; five Columbia High School seniors were named Scholar for Excellence in Academic Achievement in the National Hispanic Recognition Program. We are extremely proud of these individuals and we recognized the hard work, diligence, sacrifice and commitment that has afforded them such recognition. Columbia High School remains among the most elite and well respected high schools in the United States, thanks in no small part to the contributions of our students scholars. Congratulations on a job well done."

- Dr. Jennifer Giordano-

"My parents are my academic mentors. They encouraged me to accomplish more than everyone else expected of me. Whether helping me study for tests or suggesting that I think more creatively, my parents always helped me achieve, though I did not always appreciate their advice I know I would not be as successful as I am without their guidance."

- Claire Greenbaum-

The graduating class of 2009 is proud of the accomplishments of National AP Scholars; Jonathan Hall-Eastman and Dillon Plunket, AP Scholars with Distinction: Claire Greenbaum, Jonathan Hall-Eastman, Max Bartick, Josue Figueroa, Georgia Squyers, Matthew Gruber, Christopher Marino, Dillon Plunkett. We also recognize the National Merit Scholarship Semifinalists: Josue Figueroa, Jonathan Hall-Eastman, Sarah Riecke, Matthew Gruber, Dillon Plunkett, and Jordan Taylor. Columbia High School seniors Julia Jeffries, Carolyn Morton and Jordan Taylor have also been named Semifinalists in the 45th annual Achievement Scholarship which recognizes academically promising black students who scored exceptionally high on the PSAT taken in their junior year. Columbia was only one in three high schools in the state to have three or more students honored for this accomplishment. Nine of us received Letters of Commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation: Max Bartick Cory Epstien, Claire Greenbaum, Scott Kelly, Chris Marino Benjamin Richardson, Georgia Squyers, Olivia Uhlman and Janna Zimmermann. Students that scored in the top five percent of the more than 140,000 Black Americans who took the 2007 PSAT were: Efa Akutekha, Kori Belt, Jade Jennings, Alexandra Jones and Warren Moore. The National Hispanic Recognition Program has recognized Josue Figueroa as a 2008-2009 Scholar for achieving very high scores on the 2007 PSAT. Only 5,000 students out of the almost 200,000 who entered this competition were honored by this program. Those of us who attended the Scholars Breakfast heard Dr. Lilly say, "There are approximately 500 public and private high schools in New Jersey and less than 30 percent had any Merit Semifinalists and less than ten percent had any National Achievement Semifinalist. Furthermore, Columbia was one of only 26 high schools in the state to have six or more Merit Semifinalists and one of only three high schools in the state to have three or more National Achievement Semifinalists. We are pleased to have the opportunity to celebrate the achievement of the students who work so hard to gain these honors and the many teachers and staff members who guide them to these heights."

"To our 2009 CHS Scholars, as you continue to journey onward, remember this thoughtful message from the former president of South Africa, Nelson Mandela- " Education is the most powerful weapon you can use to change the world." Best wishes!"

Letter to the Class of 2009

Congratulations Class of 2009!

It gives me great pleasure to wish the Columbia High School Class of 2009 best wishes in the years to come. Your time here at CHS has gone by so swiftly, and you have many accomplishments and accolades in the areas of academics, athletics, arts and services to our local and global communities. Class of 2009, you are part of a longstanding tradition that exemplifies the essence of true excellence. Your commitment to our school is very much appreciated, and I applaud your efforts in making CHS a beacon in South Orange and Maplewood. Take your lights and make them shine wherever you go. Remember that CHS is your home and you are always welcome here!

Warmly,
Lovie Lilly, Ed. D.

Student Life

homecoming

Homecoming, one of Columbia High School's biggest events took place on October 25th in the beautifully decorated main gym. Hundreds of cougar fanatics, students, parents, and faculty alike came out together, in the cold and rain to root on our football team. It was a good time despite the hard loss. As the night approached, students went home, warmed up, and got ready for the party that awaited. Everyone arrived looking their best. The spectacular night was filled with dancing laughing, and great food. We laughed, and danced all night long. Definitely a night to remember, everyone seemed to enjoy themselves.

Ultimate Discs Fly

Ultimate Frisbee is a fast-moving team sport that is played by many people.. Ultimate is unlike any other sport at CHS because of its history. Ultimate was made an official club sport by Joel Silvers in 1968. Ultimate started out as a casual game that was played in the student parking lot at CHS. Joel Silvers wrote up rules for the game of "Ultimate" and submitted them to the Student Council to be approved as an official club sport. Thirty years after the game had been approved, Ultimate was being played all around the world. CHS has three different Ultimate teams; Two boys' teams and one girl's team. Everyone at CHS who plays Ultimate share a passion for the game that brings them together to play the sport that they all love, the Ultimate sport.

The sport of Ultimate is played with a flat disc of plastic called a Frisbee. The Frisbee is named after a baker from the civil war named William Frisbie, the father, and creator of the first Frisbee.

2009 Style

This school year was filled with vibrant colors and creativity. Fashion became an art. Cardigans, UGGs, tote bags, headbands, and boots all came in assorted colors. Walking through the halls of Columbia was like walking through a 72 count box of Crayola Crayons. And the two things every female had in their closet was a Cardigan and tote bag.

Around Town...

Maplewood and South Orange Village are the common grounds for Columbia's students. On weekdays, you'll find students dining at local restaurants like Trattoria, Starbucks, Cold Stone, or Village Diner during their lunch period or just taking a stroll down town. On weekdays, students like to spend their nights in town catching the latest movie at the local movie theaters or just enjoying the scenery. There is something to do for everyone! Local parks, parties at Gallery 61 and Irby's Dance Center, and festivals in Maplewood Village.

On the Courts... Volleyball Tournament

Each year Student Council holds two Volleyball tournaments as a fundraiser. Many teams, all of whom select team names and wear corresponding uniforms, participate in the highly competitive tournament. The enormous amount of energy and excitement in the gym, combined with exciting games are the key ingredients that enable both competitors and views to enjoy the tournament.

Spirit Week

Spirit week fits its name perfectly, because during this special week the spirit throughout Columbia High school really does change. Whether it's the week before homecoming in the fall or the week of simply a big game in the spring it is always a blast. Everyone unites together to enjoy themselves, be goofy, and there is even a competitive end to it when it comes to classes. Spirit week is like having five straight days of Halloween. When walking through the halls you see decorations and people in all sorts of costumes. Spirit Week is a fun time at CHS, a time to let loose, as well as a tradition that will be embedded in the minds of students and faculty for a long time to come.

Pep Rally

It is only the second year that pep rallies have been back at Columbia High School, and each pep rally keeps getting better and better. Sitting in the auditorium it is apparent how supportive everyone is of each other at CHS. Each sports team as well as the marching band and color guard performs something they have prepared and Columbia is given a chance to get pumped up for coming games as one school together.

This sign shows the logos used for the McCain and Obama campaigns together. The white star with yellow streaks from the sides was used for McCain and the blue 'O' with red stripes going across the bottom was for Obama. Also present on this poster are the animal symbols for each party. The Democratic party is represented by a donkey and the Republicans by an elephant.

Senior Devon McCauley shows her support for John McCain and Sarah Palin with a campaign sign and button.

Right: Barack Obama stands at his podium at one of the Presidential Debates, debating national issues with his competition John McCain. Joseph Biden stands to the side of him.

The American Red Cross Headquarters in Washington, D.C. publicly displayed their welcome to President Barack Obama on the January 20, 2009 inauguration day.

First African-American President Elected

On November 4, 2008, the citizens of the United States of America voted for their next president. Running in the Republican seat was Senator John McCain of Arizona and his running mate Alaska's Governor Sarah Palin. The Democratic candidates were Senator Barack Obama from Illinois and his running mate Senator Joseph Biden of Delaware. This election was especially significant because it was the first time our country has had an African-American presidential candidate and a woman vice presidential candidate after the primaries. In the last few hours of November 4th, many news stations announced that Barack Obama would be the 44th President of the United States of America. The 20th of January, 2009 signified the day that Obama and Biden were sworn into the White House. Almost 2 million people came out to the National Mall in Washington, D.C. to watch this historic event.

The map records each state and whether most of their voters are looking to vote for the Democratic party or the Republican party. The undecided and neutral states are shown in a different color. Many states in the 2008 election ended up going a different way than was expected.

The Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. hung up pictures on the outside walls on Inauguration Day. Those included were President Barack Obama and former President Ronald Reagan.

Portraying the candidates as their respective animal emblems in boxing uniforms shows the anticipation of the fight for presidency. Several caricatures like these were drawn during the election.

monumental.

Performing Arts

Once on This Island

Once on This Island was performed in March 2008 at Columbia High School. The story is based on the novel "My Love, My Love" by Rosa Guy, which follows the story of a boy and a girl living on two different sides of an island in the Antilles. Each part of the island possesses different economic and cultural societies. The gap in their social classes leads to conflict and turmoil, both of which escalate as the two protagonists fall in love. Hayley Rutledge and Jake Esformes portrayed these characters wonderfully and were surrounded by an outstanding ensemble cast, with each actor bringing their unique character to life. The production was directed by Michael Healy, with Matthew Russel and Peter Bauer directing the marvelous vocal and instrumental aspects of the show. Performances were held over two weekends: March 14, 15, & 16 and March 28, 29, & 30.

Usually there is quite the rivalry between crew and cast, year after year but this year was different. Something brought us together and I made some of my greatest friends in the cast. It was a truly rewarding experience.

"Once On this Island was such an exhilarating show and I loved working with the cast, crew, and pit because we connected so much and really became one, which helped depict the message of the musical. The show was very passionate and moving and the love that was present on stage was real. I loved everyone!!"

-Erica Philpot

Sleep Deprivation Chamber

Sleep Deprivation Chamber, written by Adam P. Kennedy and Adrienne Kennedy, was performed at Columbia High School from November 14th to November 22nd. This dramatic play follows the trial of Teddy Alexander, a college student from Virginia who is wrongly accused of assaulting a police officer. Intertwined with the trial are flashbacks to Teddy's mother's childhood, illustrating the family's upstanding place in society, despite the racial oppression that they must face as the trial unfolds. The show featured an outstanding cast, each member bringing the dynamic characters to life. Thus, the show was a great success!

"I've been in last year's Parnassian, 'The Fantasticks', and I have been in 'Once on This Island'. I've also been in the MLK show for three years. I wouldn't compare them. I don't think any one has been better but I do feel that they all have molded me into the dancer/actress that I am today."

-Caitlin Arthur

Special Dance Company

Special Dance is Columbia High School's own dance company. Under the direction of Kandice Point Du-Jour, students explore different styles of dance and perform at numerous events outside of school throughout the year. Auditions are held in April for a spot in the following year's program. You must be at least a freshman to audition as Special Dance is only open to sophomores and up. Their work culminates in the annual Special Dance show in May where the students showcase a collection of their original dance pieces.

Concert Chorale

Concert Chorale is open to all students grades 9-12. Its students sing choral music from a variety of cultures and musical styles and in a number of foreign languages. All incoming freshman who wish to be a member of the CHS choral program must enroll in concert chorale. The group is split into periods three and seven to accommodate the amount of students interested in it. They learn basic to intermediate singing techniques, choral rehearsal skills, and musical skills.

Musicians get to put their talents to use in such a diverse environment including actors, stage crew members, and set artists, and the result is really spectacular."

— Jeremy Rubinstein

Symphonic Band

Constructed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, the Symphonic Band is devoted to helping students develop their individual instrumental abilities. In addition, the musical levels of students are taken to a higher level as they study large ensemble wind band literature and perform in concerts. Symphonic Band requires immense amounts of skill and practice. All of the students in this ensemble work extremely hard every day during period seven, under the direction of Mr. Peter Bauer.

The Honors Wind Ensemble is one of the highest-level performing ensembles in the Maplewood-South Orange School District. Acceptance into the group requires an audition, permitting entry only to those students possessing the utmost skill and dedication. The group examines challenging compositions and performs at numerous concerts throughout the year including the State Band Festival each year. Practice is held with Peter Bauer during period five.

The Wind Ensemble has provided me an amazing experience to make beautiful music with so many talented musicians.

Jazz Ensemble

The students participating in Jazz Ensemble are taught by Mr. Peter Bauer, and practice every Thursday evening. The class puts emphasis on the advancement of fundamental jazz skills while students are simultaneously able to indulge in learning some of jazz's greatest pieces. The group showcases their talent at numerous school events, including the anticipated annual Jazz Night concert.

Marching Band

The CHS Cougar Marching Band is the most visible of the performing groups, executing its routines at Varsity football games as well as at state and region band competitions and community functions. The band is directed by Mr. Peter Bauer, and is open to students of all grades and abilities. This year proved to be an eventful season, as the band performed at Giant Stadium, won many competitions, and experienced a six-point jump at State Championships.

“In terms of getting the show together and performing it, this was our most successful year.”

"Marching band is really cool and exciting. It's really fun to be able to go out there and hear people cheering for you louder than they cheer for the football team. The competitions are a lot of fun too. Really good food. I wish that more people not involved would come and support cause we're going to do really well next year and I think people would enjoy it."

-Jackson Huemer

Women's Ensemble

The Columbia High School Women's Ensemble is made up entirely of female singers. Whether alto or soprano, each member focuses on her specific range and is given individual attention in order to fully develop her voice. Emphasis is placed on attention to musical instructions, reading skills, and most importantly, contributing to the group as a whole. The ensemble also performs at a multitude of events throughout the year. The group practices every day during period one under the instruction of Mr. Matthew Russel.

Winter Drumline

The Winter Drumline is an extension of the drumline seen in the Marching Band. The group competes in a series of indoor competitions. Winter Drumline is audition only, and is comprised of students both experienced in percussion and those just learning. The director and instructor is Jonathan Riley. The group rehearses every Wednesday evening in the CHS band room, and travels to competition on weekends.

I love teaching Drumline. First of all, percussion is fun and challenging. I always feel like I learn more from the students than they do me. After all, there are 15 to 20 of them and only one of me. Teaching music is a real gift.

MLK Gospel Choir

The Martin Luther King Association's Gospel Choir is devoted to evangelizing and fellowship with others through song. They rehearse every Wednesday after school. Initial auditions are held in the beginning of the school year, after which there are open auditions so that anyone can join. The Gospel Choir ministers at different churches and events in the area. Additionally, they host a Gospel Extravaganza each year that showcases what they have been working on. Ministries from surrounding communities are also invited to perform in this show. Their desire is to see God's spirit of love, unity, and peace be multiplied throughout the surrounding communities.

Orchestra

Orchestra is led by Mr. Todd VanBeveren and meets during periods 5 (Chamber Orchestra), 6, and 9 to rehearse and prepare for multiple performances throughout the year. The development of musical skill is emphasized. Auditions are required for entry into Chamber Orchestra, a smaller and more selective group of high-level performing students. Members of Chamber Orchestra perform at four concerts throughout the year and attend the annual music trip in the spring. Most of these string students also participate in other musical endeavors, such as the Pit Orchestra for the All School Musical in the spring. The Chamber Orchestra this year is led by Jeremy Rubinstein as Concert Master; the position is alternated at each concert in regular Orchestra.

Concert Band

Concert Band serves as a "stepping stone" between the middle school and high school band programs. It is made up of wind and percussion musicians who perform both current and traditionally fine band literature. Taken as a class during the school day, Concert Band focuses a great deal on the individual development of each musician so that they may be successful in future years of the program. Rehearsals stress fundamental concepts such as rhythm, sight reading, musical expression, music history and vocabulary. It is open to all students, but is generally taken during freshman year. The musicians are expected to learn, rehearse and perform the Concert Band literature as provided throughout the year.

There is a lot of growth that happens in the Concert Band and it's fun to watch the transition from the beginning of the year to June.

MLKA Dance Groups

The MLK dance groups are divided into all male and all female groups. The boys dance section consists of three groups: G2G, Fatal, and Focus'd. The girls dance section consists of two groups: Diamantes and Most Wanted. They are all open to students from every grade and acceptance into each is based on a round of auditions and cuts. The groups participate in the annual MLKA show as well as many local talent shows and dance competitions. Most Wanted practices every day after school while the other groups meet every Wednesday after school.

Excelsior Singers

The Excelsior Singers is an audition only honors choir, formerly known as Mixed Chamber Choir. The Group is directed by Mr. Matthew Russell during Period 8. Members learn a variety of challenging choral music, and are encouraged to become involved in choral activities outside of the classroom. This talented group of students sing at various choir concerts throughout the year, including the Winter Choral Concert, Music Marathon, and the Spring Choral Concert.

Excelsior Singers is a joy: good people and good music.”

"The excelsior singers are a lovely blend of passion, personality, and occasionally discipline. We have a lot of differences, but when we're on, we're on, and we are very supportive of each other. We sing a variety of genres, and music with varying levels of difficulty. This year, we have had many opportunities to travel and do out of school festivals and trips which are always fun and exciting for ANY young musician. We talk a lot, and we fight with each other like old married couples, but i think it helps give our music more spice. We get better every year!"

Dear Stefan,

*So much love and joy, from the very start
My precious boy - you filled my heart.
Your first laugh, your first smile;
Your first steps...seemed like miles.
Ever the charmer, getting your way,
Always so happy, what could I say?
How you have grown, it happened so quick.
Now as a teen, with your new bag of tricks.
As you don cap and gown, I proudly look on Wondering...where, my sweet son, has the time gone?
Off to college soon, counting the days
To share more moments, before you go away.
And as you venture onward, to parts unknown,
No matter what, no matter where...you will never be alone.
Only a call away, I will not be far,
Always looking forward to seeing you, wherever you are.*

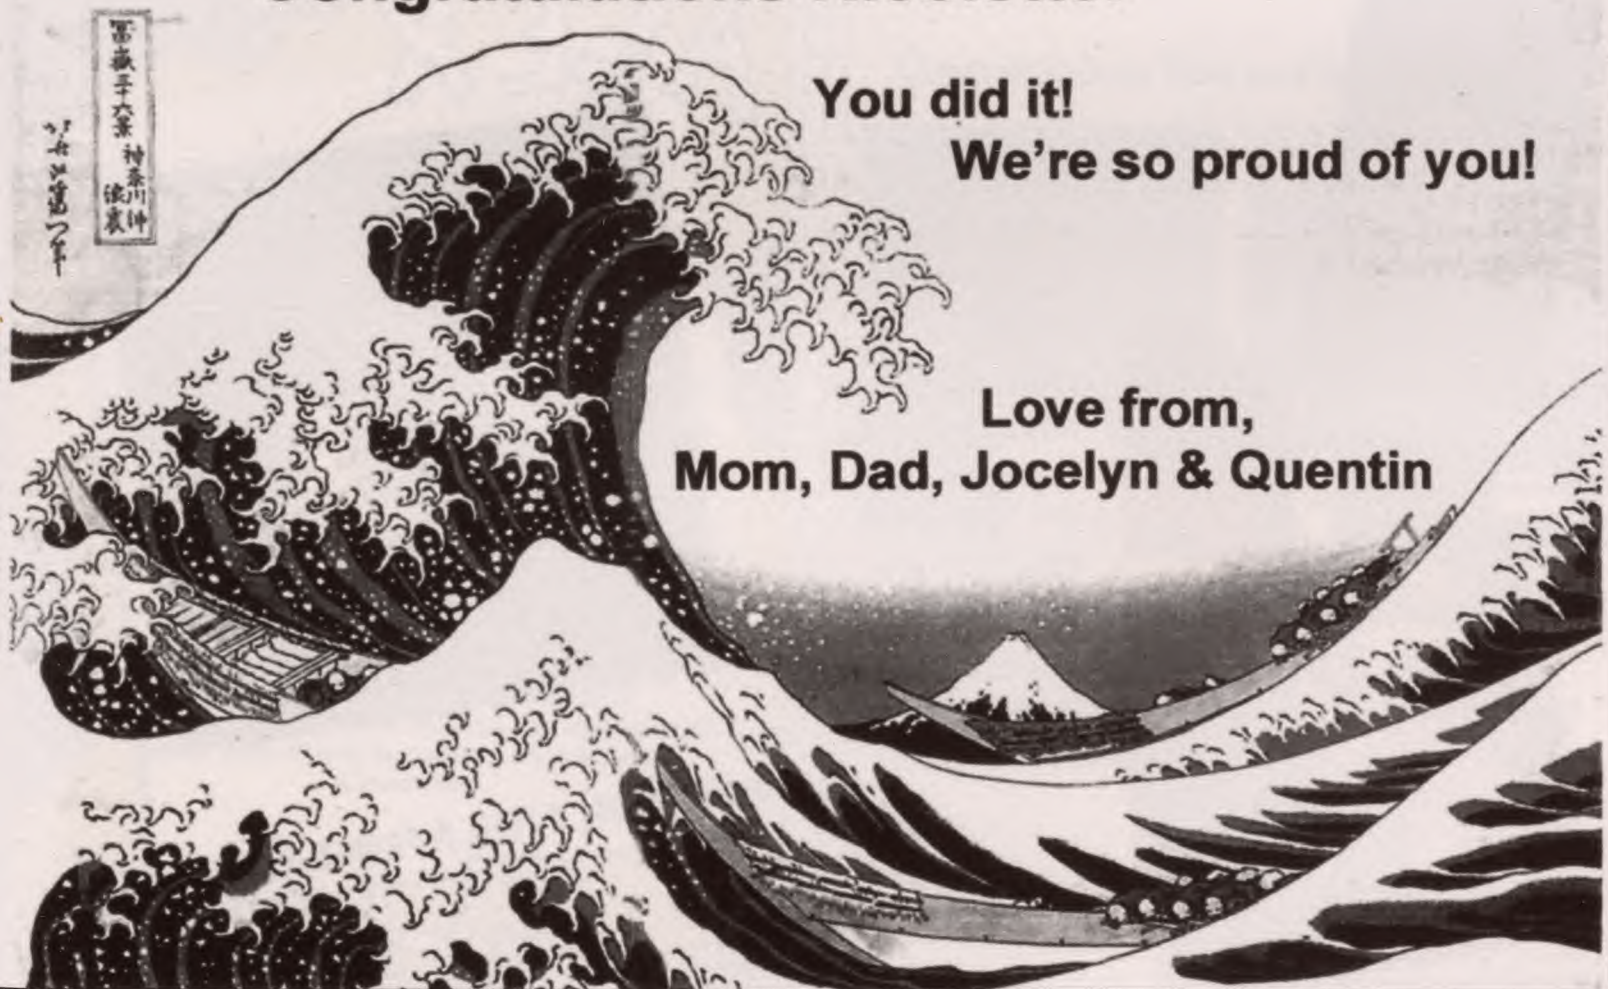

I love you.

Gina Marie Ricard Class of 2009

Our darling, Gina:

We are so proud of you and the fine young lady you have become.

We have watched you grow from a tadpole swimmer and little ballerina on the West Coast, into a smart, beautiful, creative and artistic young woman on the East Coast. Your amazing smile and inner beauty are a delight to behold. You have found your voice, created your own rhythm, and you march to the beat of your own drum. We know that you will continue to strive for excellence and self-fulfillment in your future endeavors.

As you continue to grow and form relationships, always follow your heart and your dreams. Let your inner light shine, and your intelligence and good judgment guide you. You are a kind, loving, gentle child of God and there is nothing that you can't do once you set your mind to it. Always know that we love you – unconditionally – and will continue to support your future growth and journey into womanhood. You are our joy and we are so proud that you are our daughter – and friend.

*Congratulations! Nous vous aimons maintenant et toujours,,

We hope you never fear those mountains in the distance,
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Living might mean taking chances but they're worth taking Loving might be a mistake but it's worth making
We hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean,
Whenever one door closes we hope one more opens
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance,
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance,
WE HOPE YOU DANCE...

Keep following your dreams, Emily! We are so proud of you!

We love you always,

Mom, Dad and Max
...and Mocha, Luna & Milo, too...

Congratulations to my "God Daughter"
Sha'Quel Alnise Glover
Class of 2009

When your parents ask me if I would like to be your "God Father" I jumped for joy and screamed YES!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
You have brought so much joy into my life. I watched you grow from an infant into a beautiful young lady.

I am so proud of you.

Always remember to put "GOD" first in whatever you do.

With Special Love Always God Father Shaun, Aunt Vanessa and cousins Myles and Madison

To our daughter Sha'Quel, Congratulation
 You have been a blessing to us from day one. We thank "GOD" for you each and every day. We thank "GOD" for your beautiful smile, your words or wisdom. We watched you grow into a beautiful intelligent young lady with a very strong personality. Sometimes things may not always seem so great just put "GOD" first and everything else will fall in place.
 You were my strength when "GOD" called your grandmother home and I thank you for always making us laugh at some of the silly things that you do.
 Love Always Daddy and Mommy.

To my pat, pat, shake, shake (Congratulation)
 "GOD" called me home when you were 17 months
 I thank "GOD" for you and the strength that you gave me to keep fighting my batter with cancer.
 I am with you in spirit and I love you.
 Grandma Elsie

To my Great Granddaughter, ShaQuel, (Congratulation)
 You are truly a blessing to me and you blessed my daughter your grandmother.
 Love Granny

Alex Miller -the one and only-

You've always appreciated the good life, and you deserve it!

We're proud of your accomplishments at Columbia, and for you, this is only the beginning.

Congratulations to you and your friends in the Class of 2009! We wish you all the best.

Love, Mom, Dad & Lauren
(Mikey & Rosie too)

Dear Olivia,
We will always be there, by your side.
Love you, Mom, Dad and Bryce

Don't look so surprised
Samantha - we knew you could do it!

Congratulations! We're proud of you!

Lots of Love,

Dear Carolyn,
From the very beginning, you had it all. You were adorable, smart, funny,
confident, full of life
and full of fun then,
and you are all those things and more today.
We are so proud of you
and so excited for you as you as you move into this next wonderful phase of your life.
With all our love,
Mom and Dad

To my niece and our favorite cousin, ShaQuel

Congratulation, we are so proud of you.
Always keep your head toward the sky and go for the gold.

Congratulations Aaron Steinbauer and the Class of 09

Aaron,

We can't believe our baby is graduating and going off to college. We've watched you grow from a happy, inquisitive little boy to a funny, intelligent and sensitive young man. As we've said to Amy and Adam, always follow your dreams and strive for your goals. We are so proud of all that you have accomplished and have no doubt in our minds that you will do well in college and succeed in anything you attempt. You have a strong determination and do well with accomplishing your goals. Know that you continue to put a smile on our faces with your quick wit and ability to diffuse any situation.

Always know how much we love you and in our eyes, you will always be our baby. As you travel down your path in life, remember those three little words we have spoken daily since you were a little boy, "Aaron, get up" oops, we mean, "We love you!"

May all of your dreams come true and remember, "there's no place like home", even though you think you spent too much time there!

Love Always,

Mom and Dad

It's really weird that you're graduating. Like really weird. You are the funniest kid I've ever met in my life. Most of my humor comes directly from you. You have something clever and witty to say in any situation, good or bad. Now that you're moving on to college, make sure you stay yourself and keep your options open, don't hold back or regret anything. It wouldn't be right for me to do this unless I stole a saying from you so I'm going to leave you with the same advice you gave me, "when you go to college, just remember to be yourself and turn on that Steinbauer charm and your four years at college will be very fun and easy." Congratulations, I love you.

Adam

If this is published, then I assume you made it. You graduated. My baby, baby brother is a high school graduate. That is unbelievable. Even though you may have grown up to be just a wee bit taller than me, you are still the little baby brother who is always ready to play and is always creating crazy concoctions. You are known for your humor, and fine- you are kind of funny, but in taking on this big endeavor of graduating and moving on to college, I think that you are just starting to show the world all the tricks you have up your sleeve. I know you will love college because you can stay up all night, sleep whenever you want, and won't have anyone to be accountable to. But you will miss home. And it will miss you right back. Have fun, and remember that while most of the important

Amy

Look who's going to college!!

Hi Lady—Congratulations on your Success!

We, Your Family, Friends, and well wishers are here to congratulate you on your graduation from elementary school, middle school, and high school; with more graduation to come in the near future!!

You have grown to become such a sophisticated lady.

Trust in God.

Shanae,

You are my wonderful scholar and I am so proud of you. I believe in you and what you will accomplish in your future. Be true to yourself and shoot for the stars. I am always here for you. God Bless You!

Love Mother

Shanae,

Where have all the years gone? I have driven you to St. Phillips, Seth Boyden, Maplewood Middle and now you're driving me to Columbia. You have done a wonderful job. Give me 8 more and the Bar Exam and we're complete. You have always been a good girl and developed into a fine young lady. Love you and will ALWAYS be there for you.

Nathaniel (stepdad)

Congratulations

Shanae,
Congratulation to my previous Granddaughter, I'm so very proud of you and I thank the Lord for bringing you this far and I pray that he will be with you and guide you in all your years ahead. God bless you and I love you.
Grandma

CONGRATULATIONS Shanae on your High School Graduation as we thank and praise God that you will continue to prosper as your soul prospers.
We are sincerely PROUD of you as well as wish you Grand success. What more can we say, other than we LOVE You and could not ask for a more beautiful and brighter niece, and cousin. Remember to keep your faith in God and honor Him first in all that you attain and accomplish. "For He is worth of immeasurable praise in blessing us and the world-at-large with you."

Sincerely,
Auntie Valerie; Christopher & Daniel

Shanae,
Congratulations! I have always admired you as my big (god) sister. Thank you for being a great role model. I wish you much success in your future. Shanae, I know you will make a change in this world one day, and when you do...remember me!

Love always, Natalie.

Congratulations, Shanae!

I am so proud of you. You have grown into a smart & beautiful young lady. Stay focus & continue to pursue your dreams! The sky is the limit. May GOD continue to bless you and keep you safe.

Love you much, Keisha.

Congratulations and best wishes to the

As a Yearbook Team, we would first and foremost like to thank Ms. Schwartz for providing us with the support and effort to produce a great final product. She was an extraordinary leader who was always organized, patient and kind. It gave us the push to work as hard as possible. We would also like to thank Emily Hahlbeck and Sally Podhoretz for assisting us in our yearbook sales. You guys did a great job! A thank you to Cherner! Sainte and Laniah Hill for helping with the Scholars spread. We've put in many late hours to achieve the work that is present in these pages and we are proud of every detail. Congratulations Class of '09, we wish you luck in all of your future endeavors!
