YEARBOOK MESSAGE 2010

From the desk where I sit, the answer to many of the world's problems is found in a single word. That word is education. We are Columbia High School and education is who we are. This is a wonderful time to celebrate our learning community! CHS will always be the symbol of excellence that we have celebrated for many, many years. Our school is a community where people have offered strength and support to others, especially during the 2009-2010 school year. Moreover, it is a place where we have learned from each other, and have grown together. It is a good place to be. Columbia High School will always be a part of your lives, even after graduation. Thank you for taking pride in it.

student life

summer experiences

Columbia High School students do all sorts of things during their summer vacations. From playing sports around the world, to working for state officials, students engage in a wide variety of interesting experiences. Specifically this past summer, junior Dave Hoffman spent around 2 months working at two separate orphanages in Kumasi, Ghana. His help and support display a strong sense of empathy and understanding, which is emphasized at Columbia High School. As students, we have so much to offer, and David Hoffman is a clear example.

Black Comedy & The Real Inspector Hound

"It's given me a sense of really being part of something I feel is important."

Megan Amsterdam

Black Comedy by Peter Shaffer, is a one-act play that ingeniously sets a social farce in the darkness of a London apartment after a fuse has blown. The darkness, of course, exists only for the people onstage, since everything that happens after the electricity is gone, in the world of the play, is performed in a blaze of stage lights. The result is a knee slapping, belly laughing physical comedy.

"I've pretty much done nothing in this school for the past 4 years, so this is a nice change. Also English accents are always a bonus."

Kayla Hawkins

The Real Inspector Hound is a short, one-act play by Tom Stoppard. The plot follows two theater critics named Moon and Birdboot who are watching a ludicrous setup of a country house murder mystery, in the style of a whodunit. By chance, they become involved in the action causing a series of events that parallel the play they are watching.

all SCHOOL MUSICAL

BIG, THE MUSICAL is based on the 1988 hit movie starring Tom Hanks. The movie bursts onstage in this vibrant, funny and touching stage production. When frustrated adolescent Josh Baskin wishes he were “big” and wakes up the next morning a 30-year-old man, he discovers there’s much more to being an adult than he’s bargained for and learns we must all grow up at our own pace, in our own time.

“They’re all great we are a really tight cast and it’s always fun to be around them.”

Iris Garrison-Drissill

“The dedication it takes to put on the play and the commitment is extraordinary. It brings me so much joy to be working with talented people.”

Quinn Lashinsky

special dance COMPANY

“Special Dance to me is a family where we come together to discuss, create and learn about dance inside and out. It is a peaceful environment for expression and movement.”

Lauren Wasserman

“Special dance is a great way for me to do what I love best with the people I love most!”

Suzannah Dessau

“The opportunity to develop a talent and passion everyday at school”

Ifunanya Nwanonyiri

The Special Dance Company of Columbia High School is comprised of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are chosen through a selective audition process. Under the direction of Kandace Point-Du-Jour they study modern dance technique, improvisation, choreography, and dance history. Each year the Special Dance Company is proud to give the Janet Hicks Scholarship to a senior pursuing dance or a related field in the arts.

"It's been such a pleasure to work with such a talented group of extraordinary dancers. To my seniors, always remember you have a place to come back to, to live, laugh, love and most importantly to dance!

marching BAND

The Marching Band at Columbia High School for the year 2009-2010 has won several awards. They play a variety of music including but not limited to pop, drums, grooves, etc. This year the 2010 Marching Band was more organized earlier in the season.

Mr. Peter Baur who is the one that teaches the Marching Band would like to say "Thanks to the Class of 2010 that were members of the Marching Band because they did a great job."

"We love music, and we couldn't live without it. Being able to take a music class in school and Columbia in particular was a blessing. The program is wonderful and we learned so much from the experience."

Stephanie and Tiffany Parchment

"I became involved in Performing Arts at CHS to experience what it's like to be a part of a choir at Columbia"

Natasha Eustache

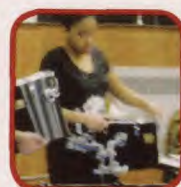

When asked, "What is your favorite musical?" Belinda replied, "My favorite musical is Annie."

winter DRUMLINE

MLKA gospel choir

MLKA gospel choir has been singing for many years with new members each time. They sing for the man up above and to lift people spirits. This year the captains decided to branch out and sing songs that young adults can enjoy listening too and want to get off their feet and join them.

Gospel choir is a family who share the same passion.

"I joined the choir because I love to sing and I also go to church so GC was just a good fit for me"

-Danielle Ravenell

"I've been singing with the choir for 4 years. It's fun, hard work and serious dedication."

-Candida Diaz

"It feels amazing to be a captain even though it can be stressful at times."

-Belinda Cesar

Seniors of 2010: Danielle Ravenell, Candida Diaz, Mecca Morris, Anderson Brutus, Belinda Cesar, Athena Webb & Dominique Korentang,

Symphonic Band

Comprised of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, the Symphonic Band is devoted to helping students develop their individual instrumental abilities. In addition the musical levels of students are developed as they study symphonic band literature and perform in concerts. Symphonic Band requires immense amounts of skill and practice. All of the students in this ensemble work extremely hard everyday during period 7, under the direction of Mr. Peter Bauer.

Concert Band

Concert Band serves as a “stepping stone” between the middle school and high school band programs. It is made up of wind and percussion musicians who perform both current and traditionally fine band literature. Concert Band focuses a great deal on individual development of each musician so that they may be successful in future years. Rehearsals stress fundamental concepts such as rhythm, sight reading, musical expression, music history and vocabulary. The musicians are expected to learn, rehearse and perform the Concert Band literature as provided throughout the year.

"It's a prolific feeling to lead a group of peers as a captain of girls diamantes."

Kiah Nicole Lee

"To me, Dancing is like breathing. I have to do it to live."

Medina Morris

"When you dance your purpose is not to get to a certain place on stage, its to enjoy each step along the way

This years show included performances by the Diamantes, Fatal, Nu Being, Exclusive and the Step team.

Some of 2010 dancers: Basha Hill, Bronte Rufen-Blanchette, Kiah Lee, Ifunanya Nwanonyiri, Edvard Larose, Mecca Morris, Dominique Korentang.

EXCELSIOR SINGERS

The Excelsior Singers is an audition only honors choir, formerly known as Mixed Chamber Choir. The Group is directed by Mr. Matthew Russell during period 8. Members learn a variety of challenging choral music and are encouraged to become involved in choral activities outside of the classroom.

The Excelsior Singers perform at various choir concerts throughout the year, including the Winter Choral Concert, Music Marathon and the Spring Choral Concert.

"I love performing. I knew CHS had a lot to offer with their skilled and knowledgeable staff. I am considering performing arts as a minor in college."

Shari Ann Arena

"Performing Arts at CHS allowed me to surround myself with talented individuals who have influenced me to continue performing. I do plan on taking music theater as an extracurricular in college."

Troy Gillespie

honors WIND ENSEMBLE

"The Wind Ensemble has been a truly great experience. Playing with other great musicians really helps you grow musically. Many of us have played together for a really long time and we are all really close."

Matt Da Silva

"Wind Ensemble is awesome simply because of the amount of versatility we have in what pieces we can play. Being around people who we have seen grow as musicians and being able to make great music together."

Jonathan Schneider

stage crew & pit orchestra

PIT Orchestra is a group of Columbia High School Students who accompany the All School Musical. Under the direction of Mr. Peter Bauer, Pit Orchestra starts rehearsing two weeks before opening night of the musical. The musicians are expected to learn a majority of the music by themselves. The orchestra performs at all six performances of the All School

Musical.

"It is one of the most challenging musical experiences our school offers."

Alexander Robert Brady

Dear Alex,

“Be who you are and say what you feel, because those who mind don't matter and those who matter don't mind.”

Alex your love for life, your acceptance of others and your loving free spirit has taught us all so much. You have so many wonderful attributes that will work in your favor towards success. Never lose your sense of self because success is not measured by the money you have or the possessions you own, it is measured by the richness of your life and how your life has enhanced others.

We love you,
Dad, Mom and Christopher

Reaching for something in the distance
 So close you can almost taste it
 Release your inner visions
 Feel the rain on your skin
 No one else can feel it for you
 Only you can let it in
 No one else, no one else
 Can speak the words on your lips
 Drench yourself in words unspoken
 Live your life with arms wide open
 Today is where your book begins
 The rest is still unwritten

Dear Class of 2010,

Congratulations! You all are about to embark on an adventure that will last a lifetime. You will meet with many successes and failures, but you will grow from all your experiences.

Following is a poem that I learned in the 6th grade. Though I learned it many years ago, I still use it when I need inspiration. I'm passing it on to you. It is my hope that this poem will inspire you to persevere through the trials you may encounter in life.

Go forth & Conquer,
Dean Brown

IT COULDN'T BE DONE

Somebody said it couldn't be done,
But I with a chuckle replied
That maybe couldn't but I wouldn't be one
Who said so until I tried.
So, I buckled right in
With a bit of a grin.
It worried me, but I hid it.
I started to sing as I tackled the thing
That couldn't be done and I did it.
There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done.

There are thousands who attain failure.
There are thousands to point out to you one by one

The dangers that wait to assail you,
But just buckle right in
With a bit of a grin.
If it worries you, stick to it.
Just start to sing
As you tackle the thing
That can't be done
And you'll do it!

"I guess this page would be the part of the dance where the DJ lowers the music and Good Riddance rolls from the speakers. Sometimes people cry, sometimes people laugh, and it seems that everyone likes to gather around and sway, because that's what endings seem to be.

Columbia has offered an experience for everyone. Some were good, some were bad, some were explosive and all offered us a chance to grow, to learn, to turn into the people we will eventually be for the rest of our lives. While this school has given us headaches and massacred our sleep schedules, it has offered us all a chance to experience the world.

We've been lucky enough to go to a school that doesn't shut us down, that doesn't suppress our opinions, doesn't hide us in a bubble made of all one color, one God and one thought. While some of it has been hard, and no one is denying it has been, because let's face it, these years were tough, it can also be seen as a gift. We are better prepared for the world before us than we could have ever expected entering through the front doors on our first days here as freshmen.

To those kids who still have years to go, or maybe just one year to go, we get it; trust me, I'm personally excited to leave more than you could ever imagine. But everyone once in a while, take that one extra second and be thankful for the diversity, the art and the culture that these walls have afforded us.

Sixty-six years ago my grandfather graduated these halls. Two years after that my grandmother did, too. CHS has obviously changed from their time here - new buildings, new teachers, new students - but it's comforting to know that our legacies will never leave.

So there you go, my little nostalgic bit, since I'm as excited to move on with my life as the rest of you. But, if it only takes a second, think about what your time here has given you; if nothing else, it offered a good, positive and strong glance to our futures."

*To the Class of 2010,
And good luck to all you youngins.
This is where we start living. Don't ever stop.*
