Strang, LeQuier say some expenses can be eliminated

GOP candidates promise to revise budget procedures

By Judith McInerney Fay

MATAWAN—Harry Strang and R. James M. “Chippy” Coleman, the Republican candidates for town mayor, promise to review the current budget and eliminate expenses that they say are non-essential.

Strang, who describes himself a

"businessman and voter," says he will use zero-based budgeting, a system that allows for the elimination of unnecessary expenditures.

While Strang pledges to eliminate unnecessary expenses, Coleman says he will continue a late bus to pick up fire fighters who live in Lake residents, led by an official from the Matawan Fire Department.

New Jersey judge

James H. "Chippy" Coleman (left), former county prosecutor and assemblyman, was sworn in Monday as judge of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court. Coleman, who was appointed by Gov. Brendan Byrne as one of two juvenile court judges in the county, was elected to the state Assembly in 1971 and received an appointment to the state Senate in 1979.

In other matters, the Republican county board has cut the number of large fixed expenses, LeQuier says, is to "continue a late bus to pick up fire fighters who live in Lake residents, led by an official from the Matawan Fire Department.

Dems blame tax hike on Crestwood's delinquency

By Judith McMon-Fernier

FUMAROLA MAZAR
"I am campaigning as my record," says Thomas Crestwood Arthur Fumarola, who is seeking re-election this fall. For Democratic running mate, John Slattery, he wants to represent the "taxpayer, homeowners, and absentee dollars."

"I can't speak for every­one," Slattery says. "I think I've represented the people."

"I've been on the board of education," says. "We've had our successes in the last four years, and we've had our failures."

"But the borough is still in a financial crisis," Slattery says. "We've had to cut services, and we've had to raise taxes."

"I think we've made some progress," Fumarola adds. "You can see the improvements in the borough, and you can see the reduction in the tax hike."

The borough's tax increase in the municipal tax, which has been criticized by the residents in the long haul."
Volunteers needed

The 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. shift is a desperate need of members, and we urge you to continue to volunteer your services.

The squad performs a valuable service to the community and has been a function handled by the volunteer Emergency Squad for the last five years. As a result of this announcement, the shift is now recruiting volunteers.

The only thing needed to become a squad member is the ability and time to volunteer your services. The squad provides all the necessary training. It has, in fact, allowed for the necessary training of people who are available during the day, but it also allows for the necessary training of people who are available at night.

We hope residents will attend the open house, talk to the squad members, and decide if they wish to be a part of the community's most important organizations.

Fixing Keansburg

Keansburg's community-wide meeting on April 1st was a success. The gathering was held to discuss the borough's flooding problems and rebuild its streets.

The borough council responded to the overwhelming request for action by forming the Flood Hazard Committee. This committee will work to ensure that the borough is prepared for any future flooding events.

The borough needs a capital improvement program that focuses on rebuilding its infrastructure. A comprehensive plan should be developed to address the borough's needs.

Although the council's reaction is expected, it is important to note that the borough is taking action to address its flooding problems. This initiative is a step in the right direction, and we encourage residents to continue to participate in the decision-making process.
