present, and future - are the inspiration behind it all.

MATAWAN HIGH SCHOOL

Atlantic Avenue Aberdeen, New Jersey

Matawan

AT A GLANCE

At a glance, Matawan may appear to be your average, every day high school. However, if you look closer, you will find that Matawan is a unique place with very special things going on within its walls. On any given day, you can walk down the halls and see things happening. Whether it be art students decorating the front lobby, or oceanography students feeding their fish, our school is always filled with activity. At a glance, Matawan may not be viewed as all that it is, so dig deeper into these pages and you will see what we're really all about.

1. Jesse, Billy, Sunni, Jason, Danny, and Anthony taking a break.

2. Matawan at a glance, literally...

3. Amy, hard at work in the yearbook room.

4. Andrea takes her powder puff pep run- go seniors!

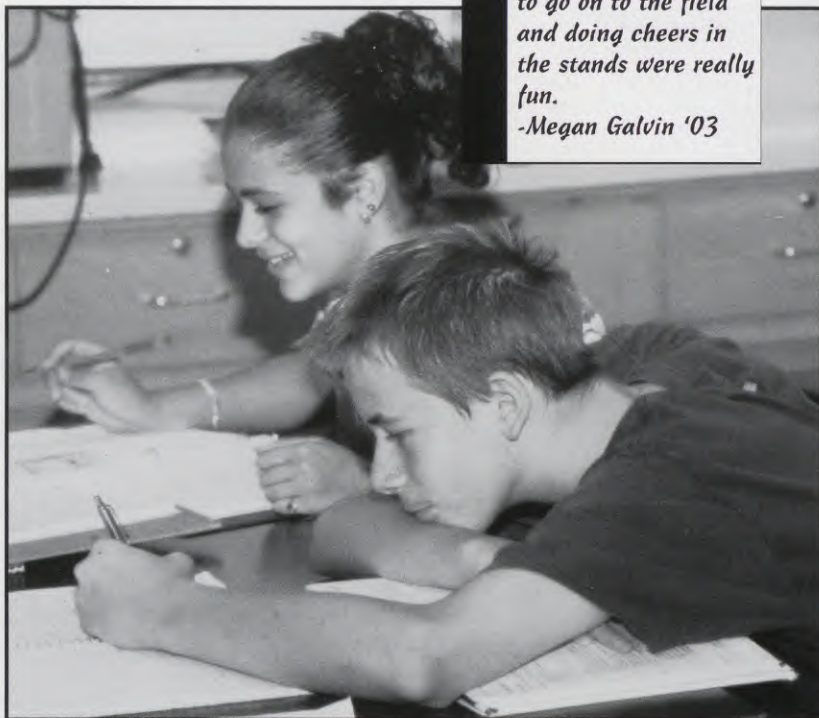

Matawan MEMORIES

Looking back on our years here, we will all remember different things. The images that will dance through our minds while reflecting upon this place will be as varied as our experiences here have been. Some will be happy, some sad, some life-changing, and some trivial. No matter what we remember, not a single one of us will ever forget this place, our alma mater, Matawan.

“

I'll always remember my first time at ACCs, the big marching band competition. Waiting in excitement to go on to the field and doing cheers in the stands were really fun.

-Megan Galvin '03

Matawan students working hard and having fun, things we do well.

“

The thing I'll remember most about Matawan is the tailgating parties that we had. It was a great way to get pumped up for the big games.
-Rachel Flaherty '00

I'll never forget cheering and how crazy the fans were at the night time football game when Matawan crushed Saint John Vianney 45-6.
-Heather Black '01

My favorite Matawan memory is the first day of senior year when I walked down the hall, knowing that we were the oldest and that everyone was looking up to us.
-Jeanine Walling '00

Lance shows his husky pride with enthusiasm.

Christine, an A+ art student.

Here at MRHS, the question “Where my dawgs at?” is not a difficult one to answer. Whether you’re cheering on the lady huskies or listening to the marching huskies, our mascot is never hard to find. The face of the mighty husky can be seen painted on the walls of our corridors and in our gym, engraved on the sign in front, printed on the shirts of many student athletes, and in numerous other places around the building. Once in a while you might even see the Matawan Husky him(or her)self strutting around. We were able to capture the husky for a few rare photo opportunities, as you can see. In Matawan, the “dawgs” are everywhere...

Matawan

WHERE MY DAWGS AT ?

1. The husky strikes a pose.

2. Tara gives Matawan softball two thumbs up.

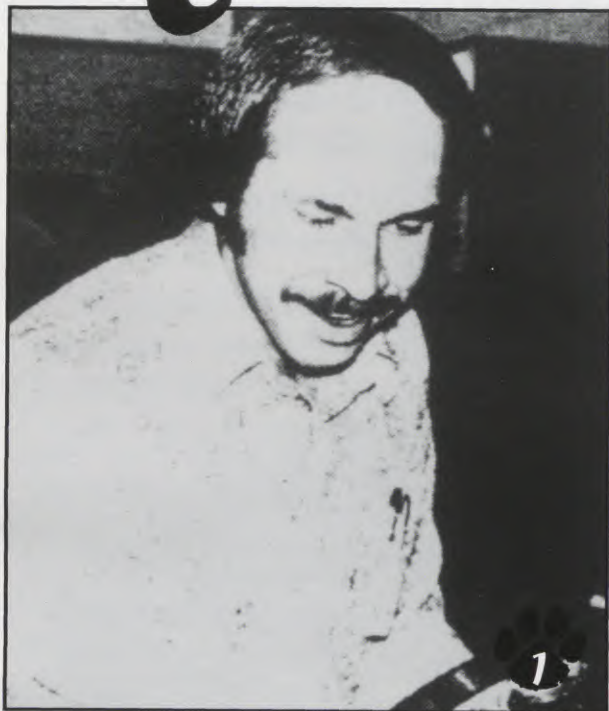

3. Eric and Mike at National Honor Society inductions.

4. Suzie and Amy- two tough chicks.

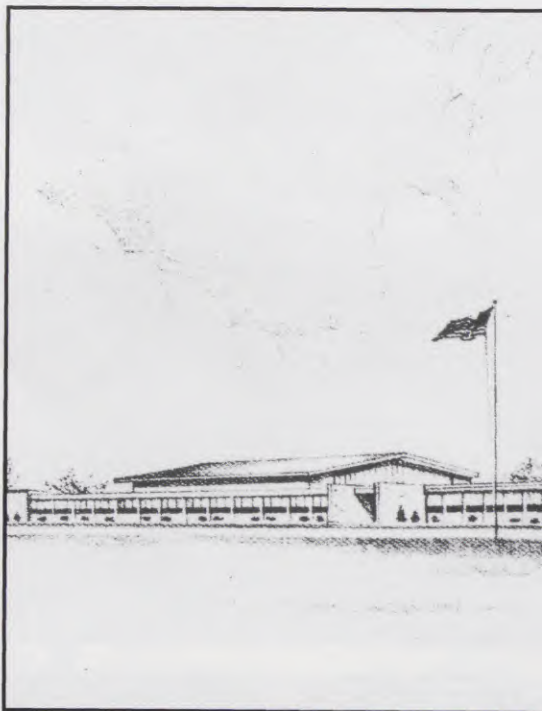

Matawan

THRU THE MILLENNIUM

1. Mr. Smith 1977

2. Mr. Britton 1971

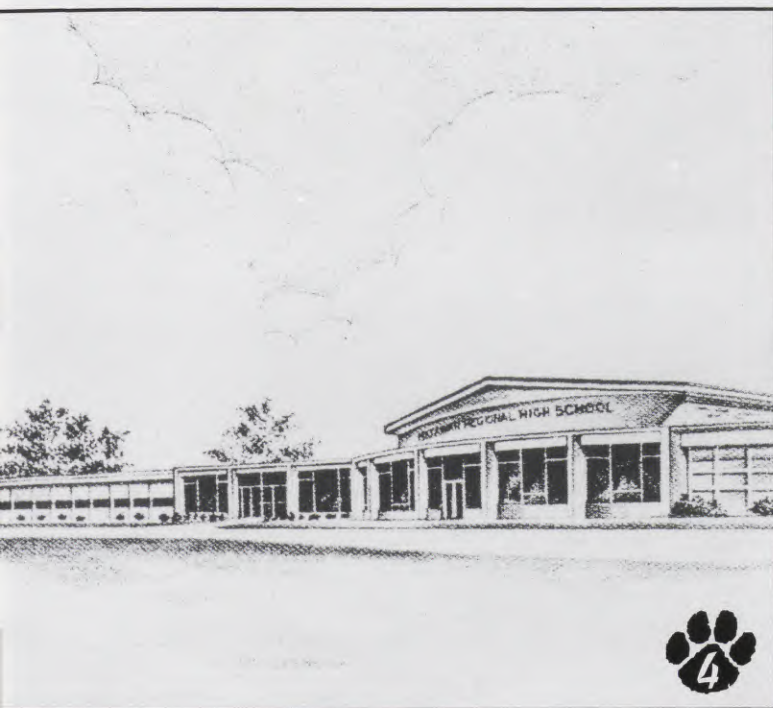

3. Drum Majorette 1978

4. MRHS 1977

5. Mr. Martucci 1977

6. Ms. Kelley 1977

Through the millennium, Matawan has experienced much change. Between two different buildings, countless principals, ever-changing faculty (except Mr. Lloyd), and thousands of students, we have a rich history.

Although the school hasn't been around the whole millennium, we have been around for quite a while, long enough to establish traditions which still stand today and to make a name for ourselves as a place of learning.

Husky Pride

1. Christine, a classic promoter of husky pride.

2. Diana takes her senior run through the field hockey tunnel.

3. Danny shows us what it means to have husky pride-commitment and dedication.

4. Mitch, Alyssa, and Maureen salute, showing their marching husky pride.

5. The husky cheers on our football team.

6. Mr. Britton happily sports a school-spirited hat.

What is husky pride? It is the feeling the students and faculty get when they take part in something that captures the essence of Matawan spirit; after finishing a big race, playing that impossible run, or getting an A on one of Mr. Masiello's tests, for example. We all should be able to hold our heads high and show the world that we are the Huskies of Matawan Regional High School, because our many accomplishments have earned us that. Husky pride should be alive in all of us in one way or another.

The most important asset at Matawan Regional High School is the students.

Without students, there would be no life here. Although the faculty makes up the framework, the students are the body- we are MRHS. Our student body is a diverse group with numerous talents and strengths.

Academics, athletics, clubs, publications, and performances here are as strong as ever, if not more so. This school exists for the students, but also by the students. We step up as leaders in many situations, and follow in others.

Matawan
STUDENTS

1. Evan and Nick- happy Matawan students enjoying each other's company.

2. Students gather for a tailgating party before a football game.

3. Academics are important to Matawan students.

4. Students helping each other out .

SENIORS

Ah, senior year... A time for making the memories you'll savor for years to come. A year filled with the senior prom, the senior trip, and all that good stuff, but also with choices, challenges, and changes that will affect the rest of our lives. Looking back over these crazy months, we can finally recognize that this truly has been the time of our lives.

Class of 2000

A young lady who was warm, fun-loving, and caring. Her sensitivity and generosity was demonstrated in the way she touched the hearts of many young children. Her sparkling eyes and beautiful smile melted our hearts. Her inner beauty far surpassed her outer beauty. Her love for music and dance exhilarated happiness around her. She strived to achieve high goals. She was a devoted member of the chorus. We will miss her greatly.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Another great year was had by the underclassmen. For the Juniors, it was a year of firsts. The first time for AP classes, SAT's, college worries, and prom, but whatever the obstacle was, they made it and finally, they can be called Upperclassmen. For the sophomores, it was the year they took a big step up from being freshmen. Many found their place here at school, whether it be in sports, drama, clubs, or academics. And for the freshmen, it was a giant leap from middle school to high school. Many started this scary transition getting lost and not being able to open their lockers, but over time they got it down. Now, they prepare for what lies ahead, just as the classes before them have. Whether or not the times were good or bad, happy or sad, everyone has their own memories of the past year. So make your time here a time to remember. "No day but today." -RENT

School has been an awesome time for me. I have many wonderful friends, and classes are sometimes hard, but interesting. Sports, like field hockey, basketball, and track, are great, too. I'm really excited to be a senior next year because I know it's going to be a great year.

Matawan FACULTY

There is more to the Faculty and Staff of Matawan Regional High School than meets the eye. Besides trying to keep us awake in class, they coach us, advise our clubs, help us get into college, watch us receive countless awards, and fight for our well-being at late-night board meetings. If we listen close enough to their unique lessons, they might even inspire us. These hardworking and dedicated individuals are truly a source of Huskie Pride.

An Ode to McNick

Mr. McNick and his gold Toyota roll out to the lot about a quarter to three. He hands out the balls with assertion and strength and says, "To win this game, ya gotta be mean!"

He says "Run 500 laps!" No one laughs, no one chuckles, Then he makes us do pushups on our toes and our knuckles.

After about 20 reps it's time for a break, So he says clean the courts and hands us a rake.

So finally we're ready for sprints and drills, Working out in the weight room, yelling "Kill or be killed."

For each double fault, we run twenty five laps, After eight hours of practices, he allows us one nap.

When the other teams come, we stare and we glare, We bark and show our teeth; we're the dogs, and they're scared.

They cower and cry in the back of the court,

We slam the balls hard; McNick yells in support.

He jumps on the fences and howls and screams,

Saying "Live tennis, die tennis. We play in our dreams."

Sure we'd play football, but for us that's an ease, We laugh at the track stars 'cause running's a breeze.

We're the tennis folk of this town, and you'd better watch out, We don't take no prisoners; when we come, it's time to get out.

But seriously, McNick is the best coach there is, Without him this whole thing would be but a dream.

We'd be losers and quitters and not play the game,

But with him, we're B-North's #1 team!

Mr. McNick has been a gym teacher here at Matawan Regional High School for many years.

He is described by many as "an awesome teacher."

His kindness and humor touched the lives and memories of both students and faculty. Without his presence, the tennis courts as well as the hallways will seem just a little bit emptier.

It is already tomorrow. Time, which never stops on its journey, will pass before your eyes, and in only a few moments you will be members of the community looking back at the years spent at Matawan Regional High School. When you do, the photos, facts and memories in this book will be your stepping stones to a happy reminiscence.

May your memories of Matawan Regional High School be pleasant ones, and may your futures be filled with happiness and success.

STUDENT LIFE

Although I attempt to do so in the following pages, no one can truly capture the life we, as students, bring to this building. Day after day we occupy this place, filling its corridors with laughter, tears, shouts, hugs, bickering, and just about anything one can imagine. The lessons we learn here- the struggles we overcome, the A's we earn, the teachers we debate with, the sweat that rolls down our brow in the midst of a rough game of speedball- these things are what make us alive. Throw in a couple pep rallies, a float or two, some artsy stuff, a few academic challenges, and maybe a few dances and you've got a student body. These things make up our collective life, and what an interesting life it is...

I just want to say one thing...
Thank you, Eli's, for all the memories. What would high school have been without a social center at a bagel shop? Where would we be without Stratty? If you want MRHS student life, stop by Eli's Hot Bagels.
Thank you.

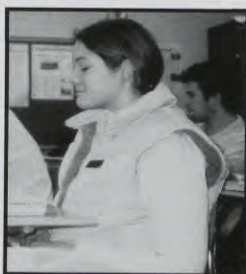

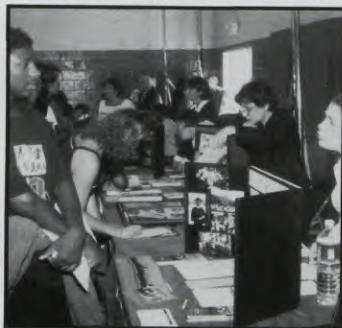

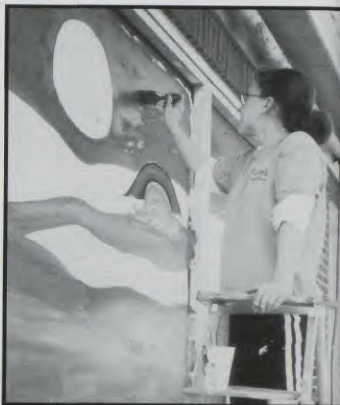

Students living their lives...

SPIRIT WEEK

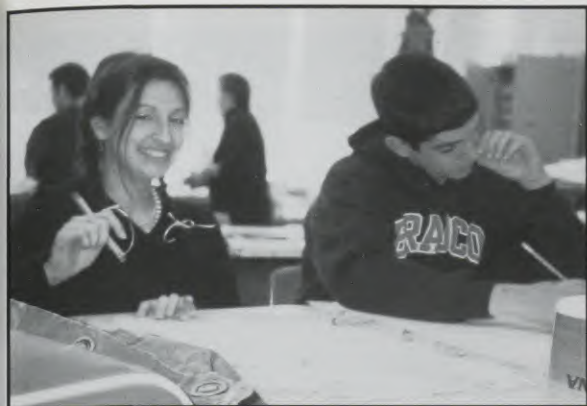

FOR A WEEK EVERY FALL, THE SCHOOL IS OVERTAKEN BY A THE SPIRIT OF EXCITEMENT, PRIDE, AND RIVALRY. THIS IS THANKS TO THE MANY ACTIVITIES WHICH TAKE PLACE ANNUALLY DURING THE APPROPRIATELY NAMED "SPIRIT WEEK". THESE INCLUDE THE HALLWAY DECORATING CONTEST, POWDER PUFF FOOTBALL GAME, SILLY OLYMPICS, HOMECOMING DANCE, TEACHER TEA, AND THE HOMECOMING FOOTBALL GAME, WHICH IS PRECEDED BY A PARADE OF HOME-MADE FLOATS AND INCLUDES THE ELECTIONS OF THE HOMECOMING COURT. MEMORIES OF THIS WEEK WILL SURELY STAY WITH US ALL AND HELP US TO REMEMBER THE ESSENCE OF SPIRITED HIGH SCHOOL FUN.

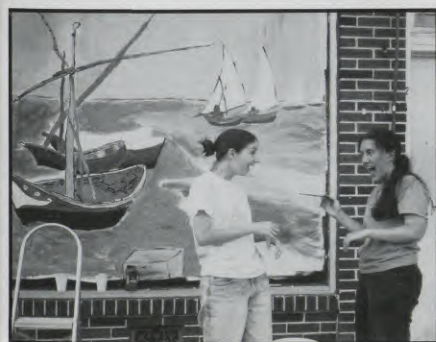

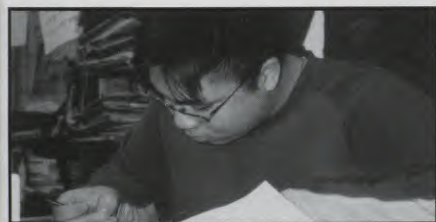

The many talented students in the Art department here at MRHS not only create beautiful, award-winning artwork year after year, but they also have helped to make our school and our town a more eye-pleasing environment by doing many community service type projects such as painting the store windows in downtown Matawan, decorating the front lobby, and filling the display cases with student masterpieces. Thanks, Mrs. Barnes and Ms. Millet!

Matawan CLUBS

Clubs have always been a part of the MRHS tradition. Every day at 2:15 students rush to their many involvements, and their club efforts can be seen throughout the school in the form of dances, benefits, or hairy-leg contests. Whether it's creating a pond or creating a publication, clubs at MRHS enrich both student life and the school as a whole.

promote awareness in our schools*

Matawan SPORTS

Belonging to a team may be one of the most important factors in the life of a high school student. Striving to beat the records of themselves and of others can make a student stronger, prouder, and more capable of dealing with the constant ups and downs of high school life. Sports at Matawan provide, for many, a home away from home, and a family as close to them as their own. Sharing sports at Matawan will create bonds that will last a lifetime. Making new friends, working together, and achieving your goals are the things that create the image of a true Husky.

“ When you join a team, you join a bunch of other people who want the same thrill you want. Even if you play in the rain, run up a hill, or have no idea where the finish line is supposed to be, you join to be part of something bigger than you. Not better, but more. -Nike

Lance's Mr. Matawan Song

I live in a little town called Matawan, I go to school in a tiny town called Matawan, This school is a magical, mystical place, And it is called MRHS. When we were Freshman, we were so freakin' small, (so freakin' small) And all 'dem Seniors looked so old and tall (so old and tall) A new confusing school can be an overwhelming thing, You got the E-Wing, and the B-Wing, and the N-Wing, and the Patrick Ewing, SLAM DUNK! Freshmen gym class, we don't need no names on our shirts. And the startling realization that Speedball really hurts. No, seriously. It's a really dangerous game. I'm not a big Speedball guy. Dr. Rodgers . . . was never around. Dr. Miller . . . was always around - with his camera, and his lockouts. But I am a Matawan boy. And I feel Matawan-a-rific. Yeah, I feel Matawan-a-rific. Homecoming, riding on the floats, and pegging candy at the Matawan folks, Maroon & Steel, Round Table, Photo IDs, Parking Permits, Nunzio, and Pointless Pep Rallies, The Senior shed ruined, Hear the Mighty Huskie Roar. Come take a ride with me and see if anyone is hanging out at Strathmore . . . Please let someone be at Strathmore. 'Cause I am a Matawan boy, And I feel Matawan-a-rific. Yeah, I feel Matawan-a-rific. I live in a little town called Matawan. I go to school in a small town called Matawan.

OK, here we go. I'm Laurie Miller, and you may think I'm sick, but this book is my baby. Sure, my title as Editor-in-Chief gives me bragging rights for this piece of work, but that's not why it's my baby; I love it because I know the amount of work that's gone into it. I've been here for every little thing that made it what it is today, from brainstorming for a theme to cropping countless pictures to alphabetizing 800 tiny underclass photos. I've done some things myself, helped my staff to do others, and watched my staff step up and do many things on their own. I feel very selfish being called "Chief" (thanks, Am) and taking credit for this book, because it certainly wasn't a one woman project. It was and is a project made possible by each and every one of you and carried out by eight women. There's me, my editorial staff of six spirited girls (to say the least), and of course Mrs. Carol Fajardo, our own little ray of sunshine. Sure, she may be more of a kid than we are, but that's why she's so great. As a leader, a teacher, a friend, and even a student at times, she has always been there for the book and for us. I want to thank her on behalf of myself, my staff, and the whole student body. You're the best and we love you (even when you yell at us and make us late for work)!

I think our staff has been so successful because we all compliment each other's personalities, strengths, and weaknesses. Amy is the calm one; she's always there to help out and listen to anyone's bitching without asking anything in return. She kind of got thrown into her sections, but she did a wonderful job and I'm very grateful to her for all her hard work and support. Good job, Amy! Lindsay is the old pro; she's a veteran sports editor, so she always knows just what to do and how to do it, making my job a lot easier. Although she had to sit the bench for spring because of real life sports, she's always been a valuable asset to our staff. Thanks for spicing up yearbook life! Katie and Jeanine are our little worker bees. The senior section is quite a task to take on, and they did so with style. They also have been priceless helpers to me and all the section editors. The Class of 2000 thanks you! Chrissy is the picture queen. I'm sure everyone has seen her snapping pictures of everything from tennis matches to fashion shows, never failing to provide us with priceless moments captured on film. Thanks for being so tolerant of my last minute pleas and nagging! Ashley is the baby of the group- the only junior among us- but she's never failed to pull her weight. Her job is a rather tedious one, but she handled it with ease and dedication, even after six straight hours of renumbering and alphabetizing. Thanks for being the lead s---b! Many thanks also to Barbara Miller, Brian (although I know he loved all the annoying phone calls), Heather, Debby, Jennifer, Stacey, Nupur, Linda, Suzie, Kat, JP, and anyone else I forgot (see page 124). Finally, thank you to the reader. This book is for you, so I hope you enjoy reading it as much as I enjoyed making it. This book has taught me more than any text book ever could, and I dedicate it to you, whoever you may be.

*M*atawan

As we travel, day by day
This twisted road called life,
In the gleaming stars above us
May be written joy or strife.

Though each alone our paths must tread
And far flung lie our ways,
In the future you may chance
To think upon these days.

Then may this book bring back to mind
Thoughts of classmates, days of fun,
And if it gives you pleasure
Then this work will be well done.
