blue letter

class of 1970

metuchen high school metuchen, new jersey

go placidly amid the noise and the haste and learn what peace there may be in silence . . . speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others . . .

enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. keep interested in your career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time . . .

but let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

be yourself . . . take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. do not distress yourself with imaginings. many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. you are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here . . .

... whatever your labors and aspirations in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. with all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world.

each year at just about the winter recess i'm asked to pen a few lines for the yearbook, so the holiday season is here again and i went shopping for gifts for some of my friends. the streets were cheerful and the stores gaily decorated and full of everything attractive and pleasant. i enjoyed it.

after i went home, i began to ask myself if i had forgotten anything. there are some things that i desperately need and these i must get for myself. i must find some common, everyday goodness. then some humility. i've seen samples. it wears well and might be quite becoming.

many are the other gifts i need, gifts we cannot afford to be without. so, i made my list — love, joy, peace, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness and patience.
i must go shopping again.
