blue letter

'72

... and if you take my hand,
my son
all will be well
when the day is done.

Paul Stookey

Today it is very difficult to find a hero or an idol. People pass in and out of our lives too quickly to befriend them. Perhaps this is why so many causes and movements have arisen. We need something to believe in.

In the past few years students have changed the idea of education and schools. They have changed their own image from a handraising student to an aware struggling member of society. A cause has been created, a cause that could change this country for the better. Students have not been the only participants in the fight for a better educational system. Teachers, principals, and parents have joined the ranks. They have given time and effort, working quietly and unseen. Metuchen High School should be thankful for our principal, Mr. Robert Van Allen, who has contributed greatly to the fight. It is fine men like he who establish codes of excellence.

It is with this in mind that the Blue Letter of 1972 is dedicated to those people who have given of themselves for the betterment of schools and thus society. It can only be hoped that those who withheld their aid will come to view the times differently. How wonderful that day will be!

And let your best be for your friend.

And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter, and the sharing of pleasures. For in the dew of little things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed. And when you part from your friend you grieve not; For that which you love most in him may be clearer in his absence, as the mountain to the climber is clearer from the plain

 We were withholding from our land of living,

Then what is the answer?
 Not to be deluded by dreams . . .
 To keep one's own integrity, be merciful and uncorrupted
 and not wish for evil;
 and not be duped by dreams
 of universal justice or happiness.
 These dreams will not be fulfilled.
 To know this,
 and know that however ugly
 the parts appear
 the whole remains beautiful.
 A severed hand
 is an ugly thing,
 and man dissevered from the earth
 and stars and his history . . .
 for contemplation or in fact . . .
 often appears atrociously ugly.
 Integrity is wholeness, the greatest beauty is organic wholeness,
 the wholeness of life and things,
 the divine beauty of the universe.
 Love that, not man
 apart from that,
 or else you will share
 man's pitiful confusions,
 or drown in despair
 when his days darken.

tomorrows are my yesterdays as only my today is here. Where am I

Wherever my feet take me I'll be happy, for I am alive, and that alone is enough.
