SAYINGS OF O'HALE

"Meat and potatoes . . . Give me a drink. I always get Thursday on Friday . . . We don't want any vegetables in here. If I want vegetables I can go to the Alderiso's . . . The most sensitive part of the body is the pocket . . . What ship did Pontius Pilate? . . . An interjection is when you sit on a tack and say 'Oh!' or some other nice word. . . Trying to mug a mark . . . Time is up. Drop the missiles and send up the epistles . . . I'll teach the hell out of it."

DEDICATED TO PAUL J. O'HALE
To one of the greatest educators and entertainers Metuchen High School has seen in years. He belongs on Broadway more than on Grove. Though the barbarians destroyed the Roman bodies, Mr. O'Hale has preserved their language and our intellectual curiosity. With gratitude and affection we dedicate the 1975 Blue Letter to Mr. O'Hale.

tential hazard to autos traveling in the opposite direction.

Another major argument against construction of a Burger King is that it would not be a good tax ratable (able to yield much tax revenue) because the building would be only one story high and the remainder of the parcel would be used as tion in King. He

believe during the Revolutionary War, was known as the Allen house, since it was built by Henry Allen.

The Kings knew the house may have had a ghost when they bought it. Since they have been there, several unusual things have occurred. One night, Mrs. King heard a heavy front door banged loudly several times opened, the King

she would often hear tiptoeing onally across one certain room when she knew no one was there. Loud noises, which Mrs. King has described as a cannonball dropping, have been heard. Only two months ago, she was awakened by three very loud knocks on her headboard of the bed.

Mrs. King feels she has actually seen the ghost twice. One night, at exactly three o'clock in the morning, she woke up hearing someone calling her name. She saw a man's shadow standing at the end of her bed. Thinking it was her husband, who could she spoke to it, and it disappeared. Her husband was fast asleep.

In the night
ever, she again was awakened her name. She again when she tried to speak

When asked if she minded she replied that she did not.

recently when it broke a lavender vase.
Mrs. King had put the vase on her mantel over the fireplace, taking particular care to place it far back so it would not be broken by falling off. When she went into the room some time later, she

Finally, if the Zoning Board grants the variance, the Borough would then have the final say on whether construction could begin or not. If the Burger King request is denied, their owner has indicated he will bring the matter into state court where he will to have Metuchen's ruling overturned.

Time is Too slow for those who wait Too swift for those who fear
Too long for those who grieve
Too short for those who rejoice
But for those who love time is eternal

 In the midst of the Yang is

 And when it happens you know.

 The qualifications of self-government in society are not inate. They are a result of habit these they will require suffering.

Thomas Jefferson

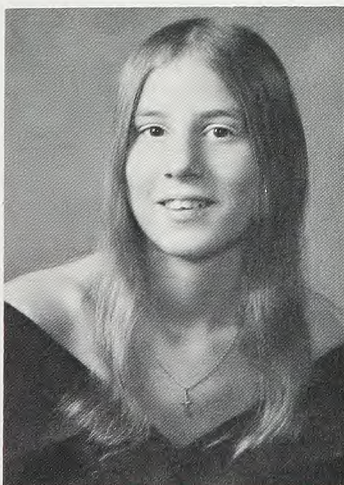

Ellen Wolock
 If you're feeling contempt, Well then you tell it.
 If you're tired of the silent night,
 Well then you yell it.
 Condemned to wires and hammers,
 Strike every chord that you feel,
 That broken trees
 And elephant ivories
 Conceal.
