DEDICATION

These days mark beginnings,

Lessons taught and learned.

Milestones reached along life's way,

Achievements sought and earned.

You possess all the qualities of a teacher.

You share your knowledge with us

And have enriched all of our lives.

It is with great pleasure

That we dedicate the 1979 Blue Letter

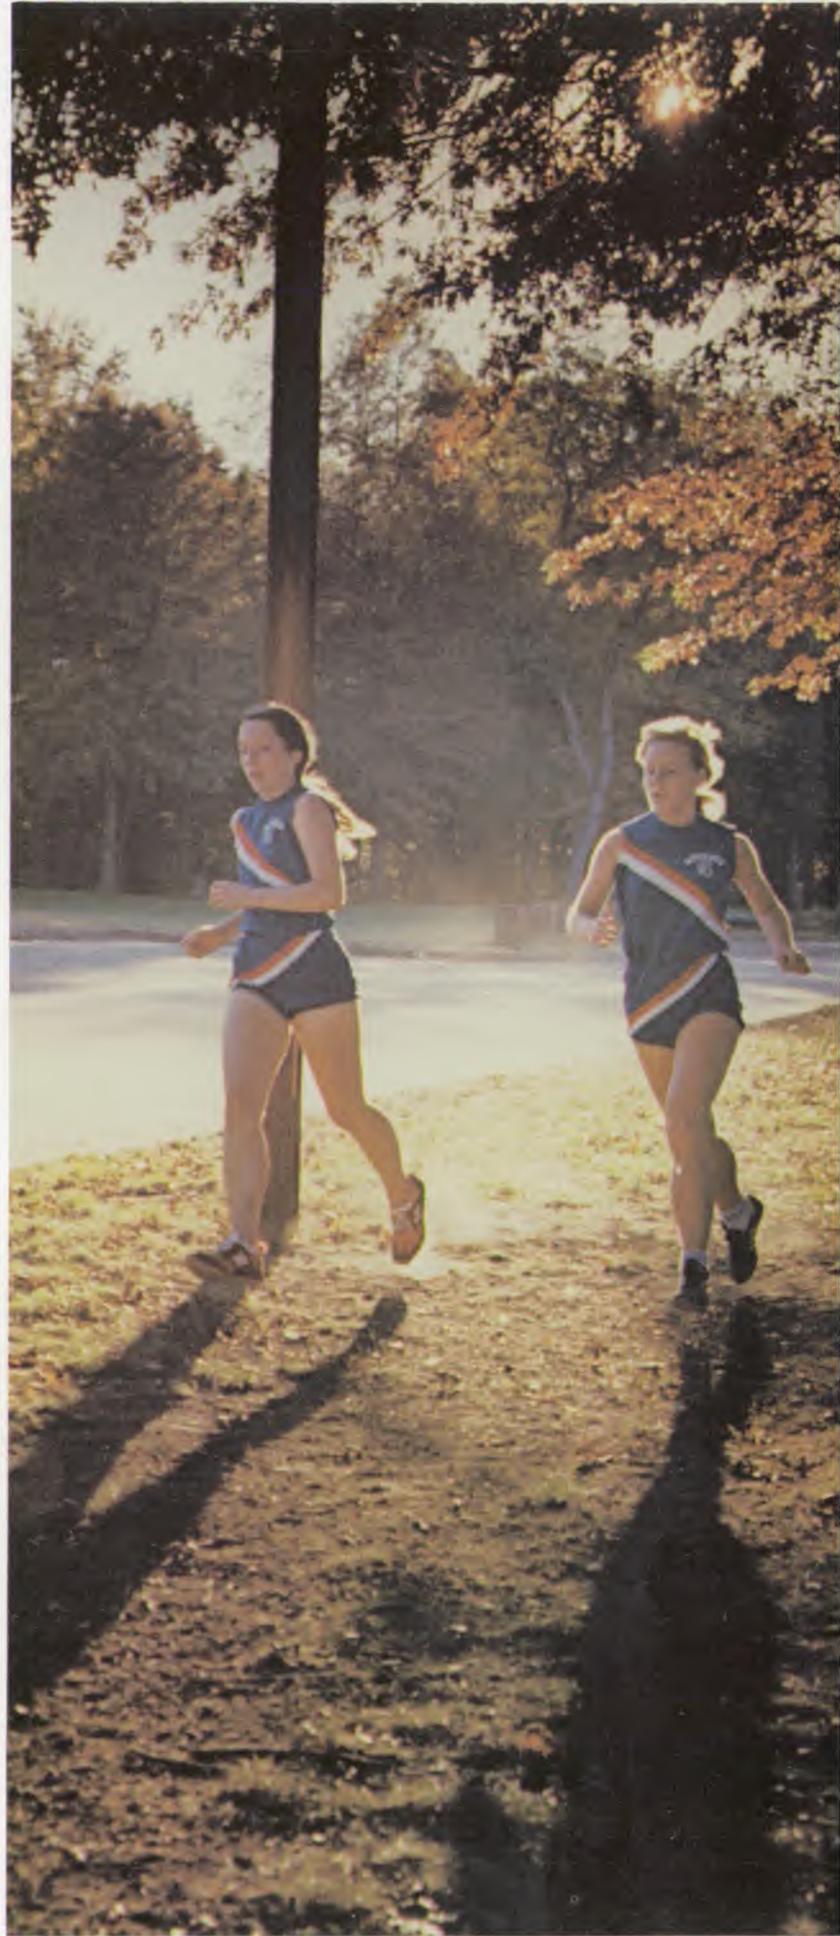

To you, Mr. Bulman.

After the excitement of graduation has long died off and everyone has begun his or her separate path, MHS may become a shadow in our minds.

But before long, the memories will return to haunt some and to reassure others. We will look back and see Countless days passing before our eyes.

Decisions after decisions we have pondered over.

Exams and pretzel sales constantly plaguing us,

Finding the solution to that final math problem,

Grades we could do without, and

Hard times we helped each other through.

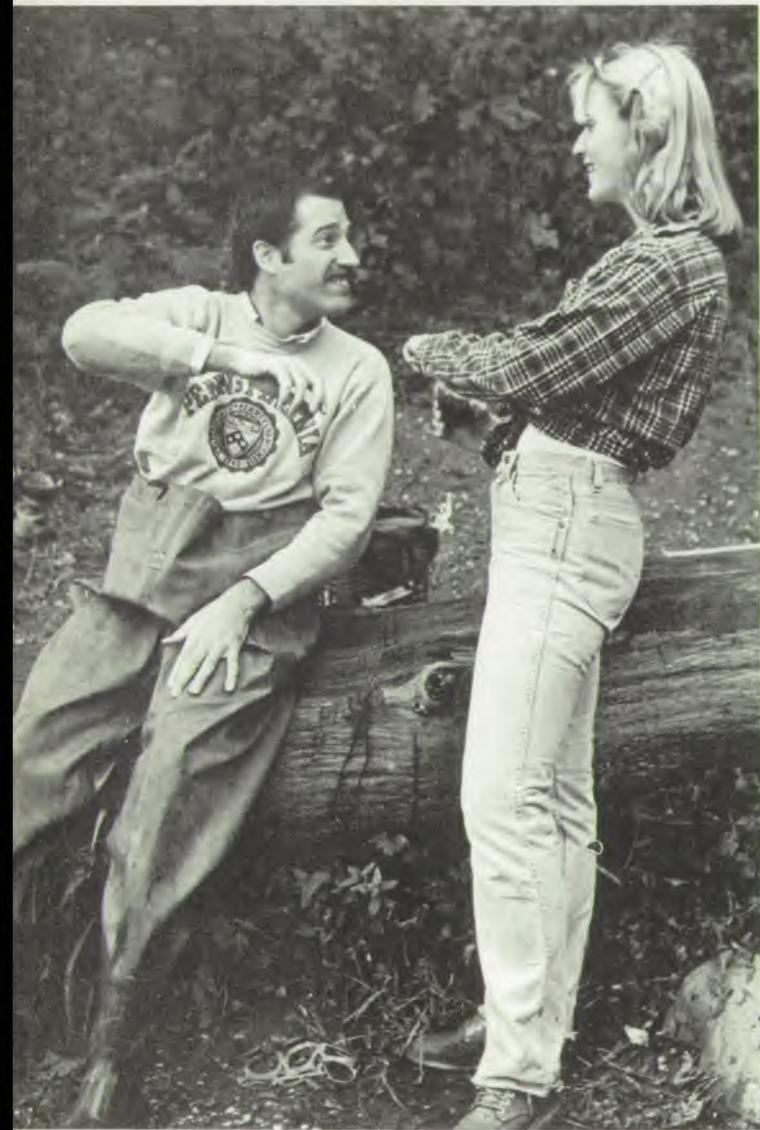

In remembering the past we see how each of us has grown and matured.

Just as the historian studies the past to improve the future, so should we examine our past, learn from our mistakes, and aim fearlessly toward the horizon.

Knowledge, understanding, responsibility, and love are qualities we can develop through our journey into life.

Like the caterpillar which will one day transform into a

Magnificent butterfly, there will come a time when our search will end and we will find ourselves.

Now is the time for us to sit and think, and to begin our search for meaning.

Out of the darkness and into the light!

Proud to be a new generation, aware of the problems in our world and willing to solve them.

Querulousness and passivity are our foes.

Realizing man's flaws we can all work toward a common goal:

Symbiosis between all humanity and nature.

Together we can reunite man with his surroundings, not by destroying present institutions, but by altering them to insure

Ultimate compassion and humanity for all.

Verily, it is from the core of our existence that we must strive for life, for

We are all children of the stars. May we never assume the role of the

Xenophobe, who does not realize that we are all one. But instead, may we

Yearn for knowledge and betterment of ourselves as well as mankind, and with renewed

Zeal, look towards the future while remembering the past.
