METUCHEN HIGH SCHOOL

ABOUT THIS ISSUE;

A yearbook serves primarily as a physical embodiment of an atmosphere unique to a particular year of high school. It freezes in time the memories of events which occurred. The 1981 BLUE LETTER is no different.

Our goal is to cover, with expressive pictures, a wide variety of activities which are special to students attending this school.

As senior year approached, so did a feeling known as senioritis. Much had to be accomplished in this, our last year of high school. For those of us who planned on going to college, the right school had to be chosen; for others, moving into the job market after graduation was our goal.

But while we were still here in high school, we made the most of our rank as seniors and enjoyed ourselves. Before we knew it, graduation was here and we were soon going our separate ways.

16 DEDICATION —

the choice of the class of 1981 for the teacher that they will remember the most.

17 SENIOR INTERVIEWS — pictures of the graduating class of 1981 and personal interviews.

50 SENIOR CLASS POLL —

the class of '81's choices for Best Dressed, Class Couples, Most Athletic and others.

S E N I O R S

DEDICATION

In the future we will look back on these years

As a time of living and learning.

It is times like this that we will reflect

On the people that helped us through,

And at these times we will think of you.

That is why the Class of 1981

Has chosen to dedicate our yearbook to you, Dr. McDonnell.

LORI ANN ALEXANDER

Gone are the days we stopped to decide,

Where we should go, we just ride.
Wake up to find out that you are
The eyes of the world.

—Robert Hunter

Memories: Grama, Long Beach Island, summer of '80, (van, 7/29/80), crazy
times with Marcy & Sheila, Dead Concerts, S.M.L.B., F.F.L.K., B.G. & D.S.,

K.B. & P, Q.A.K.

Dislikes: Hot Sams, P.Y.L.D.

JOHN C. ALLEN

This is me,
Can you take another look,
Did I see you looking blindly
at your book,
Is it all, that you thought it took,
Can it be taken, taken at all,
Were you looking for signs along
the way,
Can you see by your lonely light
of day,
Is this road really the only way,
Can this road be taken, taken at all . . . Be the light or love will fade away.

—David Crosby & Graham Nash

ALAN AMES

Time might change me,
but I can't change time.

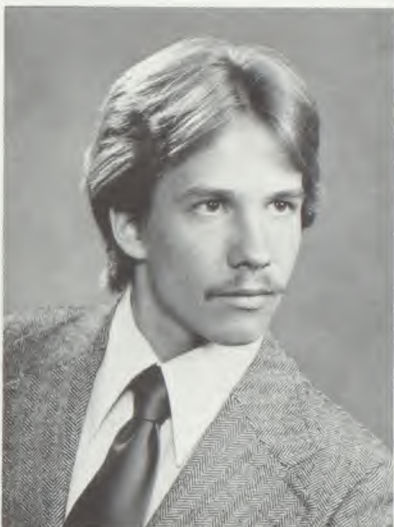

—D.B.

We add to the thinkers
the fighters . . .

—H. Weisweiler

"Do we play those guys again?"

Likes: God, soccer and the Grateful Dead.

MARK ANDERSON

Maria Coppinger asks, 'Is that really the way Catherine the Great of Russia died?'

WILLIAM BEATTIE, JR.

Do you begin to see, then, what kind of world we are creating? It is the exact opposite of the stupid hedonistic utopias that the old reformers imagined. A world of victory after victory, triumph after triumph; an endless pressing upon the nerve of power.

—George Orwell

KATHRYN M. BLACK

What a long, strange trip its been.

—G.R.

Loves: Scott, friends, family, "being casual", the shore, G.H.W.J!, lots of good memories, S.G.L.

EVERETTE F. AUSTIN

Raheam

There is a road, no simple highway, between the dawn and the dark of night; and if you go, no one may follow. That path is for your steps alone.

Dislikes: NOSEY people, being hurt or bored.

Memories: N.Y. (Queens), 8/12/80, summer '79, '80.

MICHAEL BABRIECKI

"When I was young I would dream of living an adventurous life, in fierce worlds of challenge, bravery and splendor. They were magnificent places where grand events, romantic quests and wondrous luck happened. Something tells me it will be these fantasies of youth that shape my future."

JIM BECKENBACH

You must blaze a trail of your own, Unknown, alone.

But keep in mind.

Don't live today for tomorrow like you

We're immortal.

—Genesis

Memories: U.S. POWER, DUHU parties, summers of '79/'80, Soccer, 25¢ hamburgers, Dr. Q, Washington Rock, Hang-gliding with Marty, concerts, B.B.'s at the drive-ins, Steroids at Arnold's + Cheech + Chong.

KAREN ANN BLACKSHEAR

Aries

Grant us brotherhood, not only for this day but for all our years, a brotherhood not only of words, but of acts and deeds. We are all of us children of earth—grant us that simple knowledge. If our brothers are oppressed, then we are oppressed. If they hunger, we hunger. If their freedom is taken away, our freedom is not secure.

—F.D. Roosevelt

Dislikes: dull weekends, Chem-79.

"We have no way of knowing
What the days ahead will hold,
But if you look behind,
You'll surely find,
You're growing OLD.

ZINA CANTON

It seems our destiny
To search and never rest
To ride that ever changing wave
That never seems to crest
To shiver in the darkest night
Afraid to make a stand
And then go back
And do our time
Out there in no man's land.

—B. Seger

LISA PATRICIA CARTER

Aquarius

What makes life worth the living is our giving and forgiving; Giving tiny bits of kindness that will leave a joy behind us. And forgiving bitter trifles that the right word often stifles. For the little things are bigger than we often stop to figure. What makes life worth the living is our giving and forgiving.

—Thomas Grant Springer

Rick

Likes: Women, parties, travelling and Tune C.

Dislikes: Nosy People.

Beauty isn't everything.

There's more to love than looks.

Beauty is only everything

In dreams and storybooks.

All your tears and all your fears are only foolish pride.

It isn't what your face has got,

it's what you got inside.

DAVID CHERNOW

I drink the wine of aspiration, and the drug of illusion — thus I am never dull.

MATTHEW CROWLEY

In a strange game I saw myself as you knew me. When the change came and you had a chance to see through me, though the other side was just the same, you know my dream is real.

—Neil Young

Don't think it hasn't been a little slice of heaven, 'cause it hasn't.

—Bugs Bunny

Memories: Tall Boys and Jerry.

WILLIAM P. DANIELS

Bill

Well I walk the road of life among the strong, among the weak,

And I ask them for the shortcut to the answers that I seek,

But It seems nobody understands what is and what will be.

Oh, the questions of my childhood

Weave a web of mystery . . .

It is certain that, though I have seen the same actor a hundred times, I shall not for that reason know him any better personally. Yet if I add up the heroes he had personified and if I say that I know him a little better at the 100th character counted off, this will be felt to contain an element of truth . . . It teaches that a man defines himself by his make-believe as well as by his sincere impulses.

The Way
To every man there openeth
A way, and ways, and a way,
And the high soul climbs
the highway,
And the low soul gropes the low,
And in between on the misty flats,
The rest drifts to and fro;
But to every man openeth
A highway and a low,
And every man decideth
Which way his soul shall go.

—John Oxenham

KYLE UPTON

The important thing is not to stop questioning. Curiosity has its own reason for existing. One cannot help but be in awe when he contemplates the mysteries of eternity, of life, of the marvelous structure of reality. It is enough if one tries merely to comprehend a little of this mystery every day. Never lose a holy curiosity.

Sports at MHS ranged from the sublime to the ridiculous. Girls' cross country, tennis, and basketball teams had banner seasons, and the Varsity Soccer Team again shared the County Championship title. And even on those teams which didn't fare so well, there was enthusiasm, heart, and the support of loyal fans.

All Home Meets at Metuchen H.S. — 3:45

This page, left: Mrs. Snyder's World Literature class ponders the methods of reaching the Tao. Top right: Mr. Greenwald searches for the end of the rubber hose. Middle right: Ms. Marino changes final grades under the persuasion of Mike McKenna and Scott Walters. Lower right: Mr. Weissman critiques Ricky Cheatham's latest work of art. Opposite page, top: Mrs. Jackson tries to figure out what comes between Lauren Hirsch and her Calvins. Bottom: Janice Watt tries to get a peek at her test score.

Despite the long hours of homework, midterms, and final exams, and even boring classes, we've all managed to make it through the year. Now it's time to look back on the good times we've had and will remember always. We realize we've learned a lot in and out of school, and maybe, in spite of ourselves, even developed respect for many of our teachers. Perhaps the academic side of this year wasn't so bad after all!
