For 25 years this has been M.H.S.

In these 25 years countless students have passed through these doors. Different teachers have left their marks. Clubs have formed and folded. Sports teams have seen the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat. But through it all the spirit
that is an M.H.S. person lives on.

*The great end of education is,
to discipline rather than to furnish the mind;
to train it to the use of its own powers,
rather than fill it with the accumulations of others.*

— Tryon Edwards

*You have been both friend and teacher.
In your guidance in yearbook
and your teaching of history
So in recognition of your eleventh yearbook,
it is with great pleasure
that the 1984 Blue Letter is dedicated to you, Mrs. Zelley.
Best wishes from the class of 1984.*

Preface . . . . . Page 6

A colorful look at life at M.H.S.

Student Life . . . Page 18

Activities ranging from clubs to sports.

People . . . . . Page 90

Without us there would be no M.H.S.

*are all travelers
in the wilderness
of this world.
And the best
that we can find
in our travels
is an honest friend . . .*

Clockwise from below: Steve Pilger, Michele Roccia, Phyllis Lobue, Tom Hollifield, Matt Hirshon, Lisa Rems, and Patty Thompson plot to overthrow the school. A group of Freshmen discover the bike rack. Tanya Wood waits patiently for her change. The Freshmen beat the trodden path to good old M.H.S. Russell Brown and Kevin Tighe ponder over world events.

Clockwise from right: Period one gym builds those biceps. Sari Timonen and Claudia Zane create new images. Jon Fellus absorbs the aura of Louis IV. Mark Schmied thinks science is the ultimate goof. Sherry Hunter practices that happy secretary look.

*Sometimes I can laugh and cry. And I can't remember why. But I still love those good times
gone by . . .*

— James Taylor

*The seasons they go round and round. And the painted ponies go up and down. We're captive
on a carousel of time.

We can't go back;
we can only look behind
from where we came
and go round-n-round
in the circle game . . .*

— Joni Mitchell

*It was . . . A time of innocence, a time of confidence. Long ago . . .
it must be . . . I have a photograph. Preserve your memories. They're all that's left you . . .*

— Simon & Garfunkel

*If you smile
at me
I will understand,
'cause that is
something
everybody, everywhere
does in the same language . . .*

— Crosby, Stills and Nash

Clockwise from above: Janis Simonelli says, "I want 65 large pizzas with the works. Charge it to F. Butler." Smiles to frowns as students approach the food. Doris leaf can't believe that Kelly Kaeding is actually eating a school lunch. Mary Chen, Doug Upton, and Chris Edwards prove that "you're never fully dressed without a smile."

*Everything is twice as nice
when you share it
with a friend . . .*

*Our memories of yesterday
will last a lifetime
We'll take the best,
forget the rest,
and someday we'll find
these are the best of times . . .*

— Styx

*It's the laughter
we will remember
whenever
we remember
the way we were . . .*

— Barbra Streisand

May you

build a

ladder to

the stars.

and climb

on every rung.

May you stay

forever young . . .

— Bob Dylan

JOHN CASSELL ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

In the 25 years of Metuchen High School, the sports program has seen its share of glory.

Many changes have taken place. Coaches have come and gone, championships have been won and lost, conferences have changed. Through all these years, the one constant thread has been a man's dedicated interest, leadership, and support which has kept interscholastic sports going and has seen Metuchen rise in all sports to the competitive school that it now is.

And so it is with great appreciation from all athletes that the Sports Section of the 1984 Blue Letter is dedicated to Mr. John Cassell, Coach, Director, and Friend.

Do not equate money with success. There are many successful money-makers who are miserable failures as human beings. What counts most about success is how a man achieves it.

Where there is love
The heart is light—
Where there is love
The day is bright—
Where there is love
There is a song—
To help when things
Are going wrong—
Where there is love
There is a smile—
To make all things
Seem more worthwhile—
Where there is love
There's a quiet peace—
A tranquil place
Where turmoils cease—
Love changes darkness
Into light—
And makes the heart
Take "Wingless flight."

MARK P. WEISSMAN

After silence, that which comes next to expressing the inexpressible is music. We can look away from pictures but we can't listen away from sounds. The hardest thing in the world is to start an orchestra, and the next hardest, to stop it. The more you love music, the more music you love. Hug a musician, they never get to dance.
